SELF-DEFENSE CLAIMED

Convicted by a jury of the Floyd circuit court Saturday of the slaying of Dayton Wireman, Hueysville youth, Salt Lick Creek a few weeks ago, Whitt Howard was given a 21-year penitentiary sentence.

With the resumption of the court session Monday, trial of Bill Williams, charged with the murder at Garrett of Ivan Castle, was begun. It ended Tuesday afternoon with the jury rendering a verdict of "not guilty."

The jury, it was said by an attorney figuring in the trial, held that in the killing of young Wireman the drinking and shooting was of a general nature and, therefore, took the position that the shooting was of the nature of a drunken row.

Commonwealth testimony, however, showed that young Wireman was shot when offering no threat to Howard. He and others had been at the home of Howard's brother and he had been into the yard outside after washing himself at the creek nearby. Testimony continued, he fired his revolver over his shoulder, but not in the direction of any of those present. A moment later, Howard fired the charge of a shotgun into his side. The Commonwealth also produced evidence that the youth, after being wounded, told those around him that he had not intended to offend anyone; and that, as he ran toward the home of Willie Shepherd, where he died, Wiley Howard, father of the slayer, fired shots at him and was prevented from following him inside the house.

Defense testimony was to the effect that Howard thought Wireman had fired upon his father and that he shot Wireman in defense, as he believed, of his father's life.

Howard, it was said this week, will accept his sentence without appeal.

HAYS-HALL WEDDING SOLEMNIZED JAN. 12 AT WEST LIBERTY, KY.

A marriage of much interest throughout Floyd county, where the contracting parties are well and favorably known, was that of Miss Cara Hays, of Hueysville, and Mr. Wayne Hall, of McDowell. (The nuptial ceremony was solemnized on January 12 at the home of the officiating minister, the Reverend Brong, pastor of the West Liberty Baptist Church.

The bride is a very attractive young lady and is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Hays. She was educated in the Hueysville schools and at Hamilton College, Lexington. Mr. Hall is a son of Mr. and Mrs. John Ant Hall, well-known residents of McDowell. Both are members of prominent Floyd county families and have a host of friends who extend best wishes. They will reside at Hueysville, it is announced.

MAYTOWN TEAM WINS NET MEET

Allen in Dark Horse Role;
Prestonsburg Barely Misses
Title

After eking out a 31-29 win over the Prestonsburg Modern Drugs in the semi-finals Sunday afternoon, Feb. 10, the Maytown Independents went on Sunday night to Lick Allen, 46 to 30, and thus win the independent basketball tournament held at Maytown.

The tournament, which began last Thursday night, was a succession of surprises. Allen, smallest team in the meet and a team with no gymnasium, surprised with its march to the final round. Allen bowled over Martin high, 28-26, and the Martin Independents, to get to the final round. Martin reached the semi-finals by winning from Virgie, 32-29, and Lackey, 30-28, after Lackey had eliminated the Pikeville College B team, 57-26.

Maytown tripped Pikeville, 46-22, before taking Prestonsburg and Allen. Prestonsburg eliminated Elkhorn City, 36-23, and Maytown high, 31-20, to get into the semi-finals.

Eleven teams, Pikeville College B, Lackey, Martin, Virgie, Martin High, Allen, Maytown High, Elkhorn City and Prestonsburg were among those competing.

Maytown's greater size enabled them to whip the smaller Allen team.

Maytown's 31-29 triumph over Prestonsburg's fine team in the semi-finals was one of the tournament's outstanding upsets. Prestonsburg's team used numerous set plays. This game was decided by fortunate breaks for Maytown. The contest was decided in the last 20 seconds when Messer sank Continued on page 5

ABBOTT FARMER ROBBED OF $90

Robber States Amount of Haul Before Getting It;
Identity Unknown

Called from his home by two unidentified men whom he thought to be neighbors, Dutch Webb, well-known Abbott Creek farmer, was robbed at the point of a gun Monday night of $90.

Though Mr. Webb is unable to describe the two robbers, authorities believe they were well-acquainted with their victim. This theory develops from the statement of one of the men who, as Mr. Webb approached them, tucked his head beneath the folds of a cloth, jerked a revolver and muttered, "Give me that little pocketbook of yours and the $90 that's in it."

The gunman's accomplice took little part in the robbery, Mr. Webb told officers here.

ELECTIONS TO BE IN TWO DISTRICTS

Extra Levies to Raise Money for School Building Up to Voters

Elections will be held Tuesday, February 26, in the Lackey and Drift consolidated school districts to determine the wishes of the patrons of the two districts relative to the levy of a special tax of 25 cents on the $100 of taxable property for the purpose of school building.

The amount to be derived from the proposed extra levy at Lackey, it is stated on the ballot, is not to exceed $10,000, and that at Drift is to be no more than $7,500. A similar election at Garrett was held this year, and an extra levy to amount to not more than $25,000 was voted.

Relief Project Approval For Floyd Is Announced

Mayo Trail Improvement, School Grounds Drainage, Surfacing To Be Done--Fiscal Court Applies For Other Work In County--Road Work Seen

Approval by Perry A. Rowe, director of works for the Kentucky Emergency Relief Administration, of four relief projects at a total cost of $42,376.30 were announced Friday.

These are:

Road improvement on Route p3 (the Mayo Trail) through Floyd county, which will give employment to 210 workers at a total expenditure of $38,184.

Grading and paving street in Maytown, employing 32 men at a cost of $1,462.50.

Paving bridge approaches at Garrett, crossing the railroad tracks to the school, to employ 32 workers at an expenditure of $1,529.

Filling and draining school property at Glo at an expense of $1,200.80, 29 men to be employed.

The Mayo Trail work, it is said, will consist of surfacing a strip three feet wide on each side of the highway with crushed stone, straightening of curves by removal of jutting embankments in cuts, and the installation of guard posts.

At Maytown street paving will be done on the street from the highway to the school building, and from there along the street in the next block leading back to the highway.

Work on super-structure steel bridge at Nigh, Pike county, will begin shortly. Codell Construction Company, contractors for the sub-structure of this work, will complete their work in two weeks. R. C. Mohon Company, Detroit, Mich., are successful bidders for the super-structure work and will begin work about March 1. Approximately 50 men will be hired for this job. Labor is to be secured through the 11th District National Re-Employment office.

Another project on which work soon is to be begun is the sewer and abutment construction in West Prestonsburg.

The fiscal court, in session here Monday, filed application for the following relief projects:

Stone surfacing of Cliff to Auxier road, a distance of four miles.

Addition to the Garrett school building, making the structure to contain 16 rooms instead of its present 10 rooms. Structure will be of stone.

Hunter to McDowell road, grade and drain, a distance of approximately five miles.

Grade and drain construction of Big Mud Creek road, Harold to Branham's Creek, a distance of approximately seven miles.

Bridge across Mud Creek. Swinging bridge across the Big Sandy at Tram.

Bridge construction across Beaver Creek, above Garrett. Grade and drain construction of road from gap of mountain at head of Buck's Branch to Martin.

The surfacing project on the Auxier road may be approved this week, it was said Tuesday. This will furnish labor for three crews of 150 men each. Each crew works two days a week.

Sewing projects have been started here and in West Prestonsburg, and the fiscal court has rented quarters for similar work at Maytown and Betsy Layne.

F. W. Clay, county work supervisor, said Tuesday that it is expected that 1,800 men will be working within a month on relief projects. From direct relief to work relief is the relief trend now, and workers are or will be paid approximately 50 per cent more than was received as a dole; those previously receiving $1 a month, for instance, will be paid $1.80.

LANGLEY WOMAN NEW RELIEF HEAD

In Floyd County; Miss Hays
Becomes District Relief
Supervisor

Mrs. Edgar R. May, of Langley, is the new county relief worker heading the Floyd county relief office, succeeding Miss Sara Hays, state relief worker, who has been acting county worker in charge of the relief office here since November 1, and who has taken the position of district supervisor in Floyd and Pike counties.

Mrs. May assumed charge of the local relief office February 1. The personnel of the Floyd county office includes 15 home visitors, four clerks, two stenographers, F. W. Clay, work supervisor, and Russell Hunley, commodity clerk. The Floyd county personnel is said to be one of the best qualified in Kentucky.

The Floyd county relief office moved recently from the Harkins building to the new city hall, in which it occupies six rooms. The change was voted by the fiscal court at a recent session.

COUNTY WINS IN REYNOLDS SUITS

Failure to Execute Bonafide
Bond Held Excuse for Hiring New Treasurer

Floyd county was declared the winner in all three of its suits with W. J. Reynolds, former county treasurer, by Special Judge J. F. Stewart, of Ashland, who handed his opinions in circuit court here Thursday morning, last week.

The three cases were: A suit filed by Mr. Reynolds, seeking re-instatement as treasurer.

The fiscal court's suit to force Mr. Reynolds to turn over to George P. Archer, his successor, all records, books, papers and monies belonging to the county and in his possession.

An injunction filed by the former treasurer, seeking to enjoin the fiscal court from meeting pursuant to his dismissal as treasurer.

Judge Stewart's opinion upholding the fiscal court was based, mainly, on the contention that Mr. Reynolds, after having been appointed treasurer, failed to execute a legal bond within 30 days after his appointment, that the office was thereby vacated and that the fiscal court, therefore, was within its rights in appointing a successor.

Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Francis have returned from Florida, where they spent two weeks recently. They were guests several days of W. J. Newman of fruitland Park, Fla.

21-YEAR TERM IS GIVEN HOWARD IN WIREMAN SLAYING

Williams Acquitted in Killing of Castle on Self-Defense
Plea

NO APPEAL EXPECTED

Walter Kiser, 57 years old, former coal operator, and a well-known resident of Martin, was shot and instantly killed near his restaurant late Friday night by Policeman Tavis Flanery. Three bullet wounds in his chest and side resulted in his death.

Policeman Flanery came to Prestonsburg Saturday morning and executed $10,000 bond to answer for examining trial here Tuesday. Preliminary hearing was waived Tuesday, and he gave bond in the same amount to answer to the April grand jury. His bondsmen are Cal Clark, Henry Stephens, Jr., W. A. Dingus, D. P. Dingus and C. P. Stephens.

The officer had arrested four Martin girls who are alleged to have been creating a disturbance near the restaurant of Mrs. Arville Elam, and is said to have called to Mr. Kiser to assist him in taking them to the lock-up. One version of the shooting says that Kiser thereupon emerged from his home, revolver in hand, that he pointed the weapon at Flanery and ordered him to free the girls. Flanery says he fired in defense of his own life.

Another report says that, after calling Kiser to his aid, Flanery fired as Kiser turned as if to return inside his home nearby.

The victim was a native of Hamlin, Va., and a member of an influential family. He came to this county about 25 years ago, and was at one time head of the Kiser Coal Company near Martin, and took a prominent part in county politics. He had many friends in this county who deeply regret his death.

The body was prepared for burial by G. D. Ryan and taken to Hamlin, Va., where burial was made Tuesday. Mr. Kiser's wife died several years ago and he had no children. He leaves a number of relatives in Virginia.

DISTRICT TOURNEY STARTS FEB. 28TH

Eleven Teams To Enter Competition Which Has Basketball Fans Guessing

Next week-end, high school basketball teams of this county gather at Garrett to compete for the championship of the Floyd county district and the right to enter the regional net tournament which starts here on the following week-end. Winners of the county title and the runner-up will enter the regional.

On the basis of their season record, two Right Beaver teams are favorites to cop the district title. These are Maytown and Martin. But Lackey and Prestonsburg, on the face of recent performance, come in for close consideration in the study of the probable district tourney winners. These observations are made, however, without taking into consideration the probability of other strong teams reaching top form at tournament time while the favorites may drop into a slump.

FLOYD COUNTY BOARD OF EDUCATION AUDIT REPORT

From July 1, 1930 to June 30, 1934

September 13, 1934
Ballard Hunter, Sup't and Members of the Board of Education of Floyd County, Ky. Prestonsburg, Ky. Gentlemen:

Pursuant to an order entered by your board on August 6, 1934, I have made a detailed audit of your records from July 1, 1932, to June 1, 1934, and made a preliminary report on same to your Board on September 3, 1934; and your further order of September 3rd, instructing me to make a detailed audit of the period July 1, 1930 to June 30, 1932 and combine the two reports.

I submit herewith a complete report combining the two periods with comparative Balance Sheets, statements of the School Fund for the various years and necessary supporting schedules.

Schedule A (Balance Sheets)

The Balance Sheet of June 30, 1930, is taken from the records in your office and is used as a starting point.

Schedule H (Bonded Indebtedness).

Attention is called to the fact that practically no provision is being made for Sinking Funds to take care of these various bond issues.

Schedule I (Warrants Outstanding).

I found many of the stubs in the warrant book marked paid but the warrants were still outstanding and I could not find where they had been paid. I also found three stubs missing entirely and very few of the warrants issued have been authorized directly by the minutes of the Board.

Schedule J (Accounts Payable).

These accounts are (as furnished me by your present superintendent and have not been verified. In this connection there is due your board 12 notes of $200 (each, payable annually, commencing in 1934, from the Prestonsburg Board of Education; this does not affect the Balance Sheet of June 30, 1934, as the amount is now included in the cost of buildings.

Schedule K (Checks outstanding).

This schedule really needs no explanation as it appears to be overdrawn; if practically enough money should be transferred from the general fund to take care of this overdraft.

Schedules L and M (Difference allowed and paid).

This schedule really needs no explanation and is not set up to question the legality of the claims paid, but the fact remains that these payments should all have been authorized by the board in their minutes.

I believe the balance of the schedules are self-explanatory but particular attention is called to the necessity of having the minutes showing claims allowed correspond exactly with the payrolls and warrants issued.

I certify that, in my opinion, subject to the above comments, the accompanying balance sheets, statements of school fund and supporting schedules, fairly reflect the financial transactions of the Board for the period named and the condition of the various funds as of June 30, 1934.

Respectfully submitted,

ALFRED D. ROBERTS,

Public Accountant

RELIEF NEWS

By Wilma G. May

RELIEF FOR MINE FAMILIES

One of Floyd's most serious problems has been that of rendering assistance to the mining element. For several reasons direct relief can only be given mining families in rare instances in Floyd county. The miner with fair wages does not need it. Those with one or two days weekly cannot live decently on their earnings because a high percentage necessarily goes to pay rent, fees, etc. Yet because the county has many, many such cases, and because, if we assist one, we let the bars down for all in similar circumstances, and since several hundred would run the relief budget far beyond anything we can obtain, it is absolutely impossible for us to give aid to this class as a whole.

Emergencies in these homes are never turned down. Some have had help before home visitors knew they were on mine pay rolls. These cases were then closed, although the relief workers fully realize that the miner who has but one or two days' work weekly, can barely exist.

Likewise, the man with a large family, who gets only three days weekly.

Yet, when you figure what the relief now has per family each month since the case load has become so large, and consider an addition of four to five hundred families from the mining group, you readily can see the inadvisability of it.

No lay citizen is more in sympathy with the miners than the relief staff of Floyd county. Some of our best case work from a social standpoint is with the miners. We care to the best of our ability for those who are in deserted camps, for stranded miners. We have given some help to employed miners in a few instances where disaster, or peculiar circumstances, usually bad luck in some form, warranted it.

We are unable to pay rent. The county has no funds for material to help supply work relief which does grant a family more per month than direct relief allows. The small sum given monthly is barely enough to keep the wolf from the door. It is not sufficient for any family to live on. The county ran short in November and December. An increase was requested for January and the quota was cut the lowest to date because the rolls everywhere are increasing. Floyd county has closed many cases lately, but it has also taken on many new ones.

Following is a copy of the monthly report for January:

314 applications received; 394 cases opened (counting new ones and old cases reopened); 2,018 families received relief during the month; 341 open or pending cases did not receive relief; 227 cases closed. Open relief load February 1, 2,127. Active case load, 2,013. Total applications in office, including all on file, 3,606.

Floyd county relief families average 5.6 members per family, the highest on record, it is believed. This helps account for the percentage of population on relief.

Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Isbell visited Miss Myrtle Franklin at the Paintsville hospital Sunday. Miss Franklin is recovering from injuries sustained in the auto wreck in which Pierce Bailey was killed recently.

MRS. ELIZABETH LEETE JENKINS IS CALLED BY DEATH AT IRONTON, O.

(Ironton News)

Ironton was saddened today when news spread of the death of another esteemed resident, Elizabeth Leete Jenkins, wife of Captain D. J. Jenkins, who sank quietly into eternal sleep at the Marting hospital, following a brave but losing fight for life. She had been ill during the past year and during recent months her condition had been so critical that no hope was given for recovery.

Mrs. Jenkins fought bravely and quietly, but finally her Master beckoned and she passed peacefully on to a richly-won reward in the life beyond. Her life here was a beautiful thing, an inspiration to friends and all with whom she came in contact. She was ever a friend to those in need and a helping hand was at all times extended to sick, lonely, needy and all unfortunates. She was a Christian lady whose life was a noble exemplification of the laws of right living and her death will leave a vacant spot in the hearts of all who knew and loved her.

She was a daughter of the late Hon. and Mrs. Ralph Leete, her father being one of the best lawyers ever to practice in the district. He was a charter member of the Ohio State University and his daughter inherited his intellectual abilities and ambition. She was born in 1865 in the house now occupied by Hon. and Mrs. A. R. Johnson, and for some time was an instructor in the Eastern Kentucky Normal School. In 1899 she was united in marriage to Captain D. J. Jenkins, now an esteemed retired river captain, and her death takes from him a beloved, ideal and idolized life-mate. She had resided in Ironton the greater part of her life and her friends were legion.

Funeral services for this esteemed lady will be held on the anniversary of her marriage—Friday, Feb. 1—at the Fehchter and Davidson Funeral Home. Burial will be made in Woodland cemetery.

Mrs. Jenkins spent many of her younger years in travel and visited often at the Florida winter resorts. Most of her life here was spent in the residence erected by her father for her grandparents, Rev. Hand and wife. She resided with her husband on South Eighth street between Park avenue and Vernon.

Surviving her are her husband, nieces and nephews, Helen and Renick, children of the late Hon. and Mrs. William Leete, who resided in Lima for many years; Mrs. Elizabeth Leete Stephens, wife of U. S. Attorney C. P. Stephens, of Prestonsburg, Ky.; Dr. M. J. Leete, of Prestonsburg, Ky., daughter and stepson of the late Dr. arlph Herman and Mrs. Leete, of Prestonsburg, Ky.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to take this means of expressing our heartfelt thanks to all our friends who offered their kind assistance during the illness of Hillard Goble, who by their devotion made his last days more pleasant, and who so cheerfully gave of their services upon his death. We also thank the ministers for their consoling words which help us to bear our burden of bereavement.

The "liquid test"

... it ENDS bowel worries for many people

This is a test that tells you whether the system needs a cathartic change. If you have constant sluggish spells or bilious attacks, and laxatives seem to make things worse, it would be wise to try this:

Stop all use of any laxative that does not encourage variation from a "fixed dose" (which may be entirely too large a dose for your individual need). Use instead, a liquid laxative that you can measure and regulate as to dose. As necessary to repeat, take smaller doses, less and less often, until the bowels are moving without any help at all.

Doctors use liquid laxatives, and a properly prepared liquid laxative, containing natural laxative agents like senna and cascara is a joy and a comfort; a real help in establishing regularity. Ask your doctor about this! (Doctors use liquid laxatives.) You can get Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which is a most dependable liquid laxative, at any drug store.

$1,200 damages last week in his suit against J. L. Neff. The action grew out of a collision ambulance and Neff's auto at Cow Creek.

In the Williams case, Commonwealth witnesses testified that Williams had knocked down one of a party of three of which Ivan Castle was a member, was himself knocked down, and then rose firing, killing Castle.

The defense burden of testimony claimed that the three had attacked Williams, that he and Castle grappled with each other, the others striking him. When Castle began slashing at him with a knife, this testimony continues, Williams fired.

Branham, Prestonsburg center, and one of the best men in the meet, was injured in this game and had to leave the floor, undoubtedly weakening the Modern Druggs.

Gold basketballs were awarded to members of the all-tournament team, which consisted of:

Edgar Osborne, Maytown; Branham, Prestonsburg; Turner, Maytown; R. Allen, Allen; Frasure, Martin.

Crisp, of Allen, and former Prestonsburg high school star, was awarded a statuette for being the best all-around player of the tournament.

THE NARRATIVE

CHAPTER I.—David Ransdell, approaching New York on the liner Europa, receives a succession of radiograms offering him $1,000, finally $50,000, for an exclusive newspaper interview divulging the mission that brings him from South Africa. Ransdell, noted aviator, has been secretly commissioned at Capetown by Lord Rhondin and Professor Bronson, the astronomer, to fly across the Mediterranean the fastest liner, with a large traveling case containing photographic plates. His instructions are to deliver them to Dr. Cole Hendron, in New York. Tony Drake calls at the Hendrons' apartment. Ransdell arrives and Eve Hendron, with whom Tony is deeply in love, introduces Tony to Ransdell.

CHAPTER II.—New York newspapers publish a statement made by Hendron the night before. The prepared statement says that Professor Bronson has discovered two planets, which must have broken away from another star or sun and traveled through interstellar space for an incalculable time, until they came to a region of the heavens which brought them to rest under the attraction of the sun. The statement ends: "Their previous course, consequently, has been modified by the sun, and as a result, they are now approaching us." The result of the inevitable collision must be the end of the earth. The approaching bodies are referred to as Bronson Alpha and Bronson Beta, the latter being the smaller—about the size of the earth.

CHAPTER III.—"It's going to be doomsday, isn't it?" Tony Drake asks Eve. "No, Tony—more than doomsday. Dawn after doomsday," she tells him. She explains that the first time the Bronson Bodies approach the earth they will not hit it, but on a second time, one, Bronson Beta, will pass, and the other will hit the earth and demolish it. To devise means of transferring to Bronson Beta, so much like the earth, is what is occupying the minds of the members of the League of the Last Days.

Hendron brought him to his senses. "Tell us the news, Tony. We've been living down at the laboratory ever since you left. This is Eve's and my first night off. Eating there, sleeping there. We have dormitories now on the floor above. What's going on in the world? You know, we even bar newspapers now. They're too much of a distraction, and Dodson has instructions to keep track of the news but not to give us any, unless it will have an effect on our work."

Tony began to talk. He took what opportunity their questions gave, to eat.

"It hasn't made as much difference as you'd think. The government at Washington is now less concerned with the fact that the populace should be moved away from the coast than it is with immediate problems. If you really have not read about them, I can give you some idea. There was a general strike in Chicago two weeks ago that tied up everything. No electric light and no water; nothing for a day. There was a terrific riot in Birmingham. The police forces in half a dozen cities walked out. The state governments weren't able to cope with the situation. In some cases it was just that the people decided not to work any more, and in others it was pure mob uproar. The federal government stepped in everywhere. They took over blanket control of the utilities, saw to it that trains were kept running, power houses going, and so on. Nominally workers are jailed for dereliction, but actually I think they have found it necessary to execute them. Trouble began when I was in Boston, but in three days all the major functions of housing, food and transportation were working fairly well.

"I think the people looked first to the President, anyway; and the President had the good sense to kick politics in the face and take full authority upon himself; to do anything and everything which he thought would keep the country in operation. There was some trouble in the army and navy, still more in the National Guard, especially with soldiers who were fathers and wanted to remain with their families. I suppose there are nearly half a million men doing police duty right now."

Hendron looked keenly at Tony. "That's all according to the plan that the League worked out before the news broke. A man named Carey is largely responsible for it. He's an economist. I believe he's a guest at the White House right now, and has been for ten days."

"I've seen his name," Tony said, and continued: "As I was saying, it hasn't made as much difference as you would imagine. I saw one nasty riot in Baltimore, between soldiers on one side and cops on the other, but in half an hour it was all over. I think that the work of keeping the public informed has been marvelous. The radio goes twenty-four hours a day, and the newspapers appear as often as they have anything fresh to print. People are kept encouraged and reassured and directed. Of course, part of the general calmness is due simply to mass inertia. For every person that will get hysterical or do something foolish, there are about ten who will not only fall to get hysterical, but who will not even recognize that their lives are presently going to be changed entirely. The whole city of Philadelphia, with the exception of the university, is almost unaltered. Anyway, that's the impression you get of it.

"And the unemployed have been correlated en masse. There is a project to turn the entire basin of the Mississippi north and west of Kansas City into an abode for the coast populations, and the unemployed are building there. I understand, quarters for ten million people. Most of them are temporary. They are also planting vast areas of lands in crops. I imagine that they are going to compel the migration when the interior of the country is prepared as well as possible to receive it, and when the danger of tidal waves draws near. As a matter of fact, every industrial center is working at top speed, and Chicago is headquarters for their produce. I don't just remember the figures, but an appalling quantity of canned goods, clothing, medical supplies, and things like that are being prepared and distributed to bases in the Mississippi valley. Granted that the valley remains inhabitable, I really believe that a majority of our population will be successfully moved there and installed for an indefinite time."

"It's wonderful, isn't it?" Eve said. Tony nodded. "The machinery which organized millions of men during the war was still more or less available for this much bigger undertaking, from the standpoint of plans and human cogs. The hardest thing is to convince the people that it must be done; but the leaders have recognized the fact and are going ahead. A sort of prosperity has returned. Of course, all prices and wages are rigidly fixed now, but there is more than enough work to go around, and keeping busy is the secret of holding the masses in emotional balance."

"I can't give you a really good picture of it all. I really know very little of it. It all came in dashes—things read in newspapers, things heard over the radio, things told me; but this country at least has grasped the basic idea that there is going to be trouble, and great trouble, in a short time."

"Quite so," Hendron said. "Now how about the rest of the world?"

"The rest of the world?" Tony repeated Hendron's inquiry. "I don't know much about the rest of the world. What I do know I'll tell you; but the information is garbled, contradictory and unreliable. For one thing, many of the European nations are still foolishly trying to keep their plans secret in order to protect their borders, and so on. In fact, I wouldn't be at all surprised if they fell to fighting. There seems to be small thought of co-operation, and they stick fiercely to national lines.

"England's labor troubles festered the minute she tried to institute compulsory work for those who tended her utilities. I believe London was without power or light for five or six days. There was a vast amount of sabotage. The police fought battles through Piccadilly and Trafalgar square with armed mobs.

"Australia and Canada, on the other hand, acted very much as the United States has acted. They got down to brass tacks and the doing what they can for and with their people. So is South Africa.

"The French are very gay about it, and very mad. The whole country is filled with sputtering, ineffective people. They're playing politics for all it's worth, and new cabinets come and go, sometimes at the rate of three a day, without ever getting anything accomplished at all. But at least they have kept functioning as a nation. In Germany a few communists were killed; and so were a few Jews.

"Mussolini is struggling to keep his control—so far, with success. As for Russia, little is known. Of course it is a terrible blow to the Soviet. I believe the government is carrying on rather bitterly, but as best it can. China is still just China. So you can tell very little about it. In South America the news has served merely to augment the regular crop of revolutions."

Tony put down his fork. "That's all I know." He reached for a cigarette and lighted it. "What to expect tomorrow or a week from tomorrow, no one can say. Since it's impossible to tell just how high tides will be, how far inland they will rush, and what areas will be devastated, and since not even the best guess will be any indication whatsoever of where the land may rise, where it may fall, and what portions of it will witness eruptions and quakes, it may be that even the gigantic steps being taken by some governments will be futile."

After dinner Leighton ushered Ransdell into the apartment. Tony was furious. He had hoped to have Eve to himself.

How he had hoped to have her, and with what further satisfaction, he did not define; but at least he knew that he wanted Ransdell away.

"He has flown five times to Washington for Father," Eve explained. "And he's wonderful in the laboratory. He has a genius for mechanics."

The South African listened to this account of himself with embarrassment; and Tony realized that under any other circumstances he would have liked him. In fact, originally Tony had liked David Ransdell immensely—until he had realized that he also was to go with him—and with Eve—on the Space Ship!

District Tournament

should be the best district tourney ever held in this county. Eleven teams, not one of which can be classed as a "weak sister," will compete and the result may be a series of startling upsets.

Maytown's recent victory over Martin, the five with the best record of any Floyd county team, gives supporters of that five hope of tournament success. At the same time, Martin has an imposing string of victories to its credit, and in its loss Saturday night to Inez by a six-point margin suffered none in the eyes of fans. During the early part of the game Martin clearly outplayed and outfought the 1934 regional champions, Garrett, though crippled by the loss of one or two regulars, is playing on its home floor and may be dangerous.

Acquisition of George at center has materially strengthened Prestonsburg, which has won three of its last four games. The Blackcats swamped Paintsville, 35 to 25, lost to Elkhorn City by eight points after leading early in the game, then last week rather easily disposed of Pikeville's Panthers and Belfry.

The first game of the district tournament begins Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock, with Maytown doped to down Wheelwright. At 8:30 o'clock, the same evening, Garrett and Betsy Layne meet in what should be a ding-dong affair.

On Friday afternoon, Prestonsburg meets Bonanza. The dope favors Prestonsburg, but Bonanza has a big, fast team. At 3 o'clock Martin and Auxier tangle, with Martin having the edge, though Auxier has other plans. Lackey is the favorite in its engagement with McDowell at 7:30 o'clock Friday night. This game will be followed at 8:30 by a meeting of the Wheelwright-Maytown winners and the Garrett Betsy Layne victors.

M. D. Powers, store manager at Jack's Creek, spent the week-end here.

Engineer Learns More of Gravity—and a Cow

En route to Prestonsburg on Wednesday afternoon of last week, Douglas Terpstra, Norton, Va., consulting engineer, had the unusual experience of taking a cow for a ride.

As Mr. Terpstra was driving 10 miles below Pikeville, he saw a small slide start on the mountainside, but, seeing nothing of consequence to bar his way, he drove ahead at a moderate rate of speed. A moment later, a cow dropped, plummet-like, from the hillside, alighted squarely on the hood of the auto, tumbled off, rolled over a few times, picked herself up, made calm inspection of her injuries if any and trotted away.

But the car wouldn't budge! Both headlights were torn away, and the hood was smashed in. Mr. Terpstra bought a new car in Pikeville and came on to Prestonsburg, where he was the guest of F. L. Heinze.

Mr. Terpstra, a native of Holland, has directed engineering projects in South Africa and Japan and has toured a large part of the globe. But until he came to Eastern Kentucky he had never had the experience of meeting a hitchhiking cow.

HOW WOMEN
CAN WIN MEN
AND MEN WIN

The Favor of Other Men
Unless two pints of bile juice flow daily from your liver into your bowels, your food decays in your bowels. This poisons your whole body. Movements get hard and constipated. You get yellow tongue, red bad teeth, dull eyes, bad breath, low skin, pimples, dull complexion, low vitality, gas, dizziness, headache. You have become an ugly-looking, foul-smelling, sour-thinking person. You have lost your personal charm. Everybody wants to run from you.
But don't take salts, mineral waters, oils, laxative pills, laxative candies or chewing gums and expect them to get rid of the poison that decays your personal charm. They only get you to the tail end of your bowels and that doesn't take away enough of the decayed poison. Cathartics won't help at all.
Only a free flow of your bile juice will stop this decayed poison in your bowels. The only mild vegetable medicine which starts a free flow of your bile juice is Carter's Little Liver Pills. No calomel (mercury) in Carter's. Only fine, mild vegetable extracts. If you would bring back your personal charm to win men, start taking Carter's Little Liver Pills according to the directions today. 25¢ at drug stores.
As good for it as for acid stomach or acid reflux. Buy Little Liver Pills by name. © 1933, C. M. Co.

HILLARD GOBLE IS CALLED BY DEATH

Hillard Goble, 33 years old, son of ex-Jailer and Mrs. Elige Goble, died at his home on the Auxier road, near here, at 1:10 o'clock Saturday morning following an illness of more than two months. Though Mr. Goble's death was not unexpected, news of his passing was received with deep regret by his many friends and relatives in this county.

Mr. Goble formerly resided here, but for the past few years had engaged in farming. He was a member of the M. E. Church, South, and was known as one of the county's finest young men.

Surviving him are his widow, Mrs. Clotilde Branham Goble, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Branham, of near here, two children, Donald Herald and Laura Virginia, his parents, eight brothers and two sisters: Ollie, Laree, Isaac, Tivis, Beckham, Eddie, Raymond, Johnny, Lillie and Dorothy Goble. Funeral rites were conducted Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the home of John Branham, Revs Isaac Stratton, Arnold T. Malmberg and G. W. Rose officiating. Burial was made in the Branham cemetery under the direction of E. P. Arnold.
