RE-DIVISION OF COUNTY FOR COURT PONDER MONDAY

Convenience Wished in Se- curing Warrants from Justices Reported

Action is expected Monday, March 22 in the matter of the proposed re-districting of the county when the ex-parti petition of Harve Spears as plaintiff will be filed with the county court on that date. The petition asks that the present four magisterial districts be re-divided into eight, the former number of magisterial territories.

On Monday Dr. W. L. Stumbo, county judge, will appoint, it was stated this week, three commissioners who will investigate the circumstances involving the petitioned change and report their recommendations. The report will probably be made on the same day and will be subject to approval or disapproval of the court, it was said.

Under the law of the state, Attorney E. P. Hill, Jr., stated, the commissioners can divide the county into from three to eight districts.

In 1933 previous to the fall elections the county was then re-districted and divided into four instead of eight districts as an economic measure, it is said. A change this time is said to be justified for the convenience of people who, at the present, must travel a considerable distance in order to procure warrants for law violators from magistrates.

Until this week very little opposition has been voiced publicly against the proposed change, but it was learned from a reliable source this week that a number of interested persons might file objections to the move. They claim that the present arrangement of districts is satisfactory and that a change to increase the number of districts will be too much expense and too many office-holders in ratio to the benefit derived for the taxpayers.

At present, District No. 1, comprised of 15 precincts, begins at Allen and includes lower Floyd county; District No. 2 is the Right Beaver section, including one precinct in the town of Martin; District No. 3 includes Left Beaver to above Wheelwright and Weeksburg and Prater Creek; District No. 4 is composed of both Mud Creeks, upper Johns Creek and the territory from Betsy Layne to Allen.

NATIONAL FIGURE TO VISIT SECTION

World War veterans from the Ninth, Tenth and Eleventh Districts in Kentucky and from a number of counties in Virginia are expected to gather at Jenkins on Wednesday, March 31, in an area session to greet National Commander Harry W. Colmery, of Topeka, Kansas, who now heads all of the organized fighting forces who served in the great war.

State Commander Ed M. Seay, of Louisville, will also be present and estimates that more than 1,000 will turn out to greet the national chief. Other state Legion officials as well as James T. Norris, of Ashland; W. Clyde Sanders, of Pikeville and Eugene Salyer, Commanders of the Ninth, Tenth and Eleventh Districts respectively, will take part on the speaking program.

Arrangements are being planned on page five

LOCAL CHURCHES TO OBSERVE HOLY WEEK

Union Holy Week services are to be held by Prestonsburg churches at the noon hour at the Unique Theater.

At 12:15 o'clock each day the services will be held beginning Monday, March 22. There will be a short devotional period, a special music number and a message pertaining to the ministry of the last week of Jesus Christ before the Resurrection brought by different ministers from the co-operating churches.

All Christians and others interested are invited to these services, and urged to attend in order that the sacred time may be a blessing to those who come and the community at large. The services will close promptly at 12:40, thus allowing students attending time to return to school with the resumption of the afternoon session.

The Rev. G. W. Redding of the Baptist Church, will speak Monday; Rev. H. F. King, of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South Tuesday; the Rev. Arnold T. Maiberg, of the Bible Mission, will bring the Wednesday message, and the Rev. Robert A. Potter, of the Presbyterian Church, Thursday.

Dick Allen is to sing at the Monday meeting, and other special music numbers are to be arranged for subsequent services. Prior to the opening of the service there will be a five minute devotional piano period beginning at 12:10 each day, with Miss Kathryn Stumbo at the piano Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, and Mrs. Edmond Burke for the remainder of the services.

FEDERAL COURT TO BEGIN; COUNTY CASES DOCKETED

Eight Jurors from Floyd lected to Serve a Pikeville Session

The United States District Court for Eastern Kentucky counties will convene at Pikeville Monday, March 22, with 44 criminal actions and 25 civil cases reported. A. S. Ratlie, federal clerk at Pikeville, listed the following which appear to be Floyd county cases:

Monroe Colly, admr. of Opal Bryant, vs. C. and O. Railway Company.

C. and O. Railway Company vs. Pete Allen, et. al.

Martin Mining Company vs. Beaver Coal and Mining Company, and Polk Spencer.

Hester Hall vs. Travelers Insurance Co., of Hartford, Conn.

Jack McGuire, vs. United States of America.

R. L. Conley and Fannie Conley, vs. Ky. W. Va. Gas Company.

Of the 50 jurors designated for duty at the March term, the second session in the newly created district, from Floyd, Martin, Johnson, Pike, Letcher and Knott counties, eight are from each county with the exception of Pike and Letcher placing nine each. Jurors from Floyd as listed are: Julius Castle, Auxier; Frank Crisp, Marti; Joel Crisp, Martin; J. A. Patton, Auxier; Dan Prafer, Hueysville; Lennie Spradlin, Prestonsburg; S. C. Honeycutt, Auxier; and L. G. Mayo, Dewey. Mr. Spradlin was released from jury duty owing to business reasons and a replacement will be made on the opening day of court, the clerk stated.

PIONEER FAMILY MEMBER EXPIRES

Funeral Services Held Sun- day for Thomas Stanley at Bonanza

Thomas Stanley, age 65 years, a member of one of the pioneer families of Floyd county, passed away at his home near Bonanza Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Death came after an illness of 10 days of influenza that developed into pneumonia.

Born Jan. 6, 1862, he was a life-long resident of this county and his passing was a great loss to the community in which he lived. He became a member, by baptism, of the United Baptist Church in 1916 and was faithful to the church until death.

He was married to Sula Conley March 25, 1888. To this union were born three children, Dr. C. T. Stanley, of Ashland; Milton Stanley, and Mrs. Clara Frasure, both of Myrtle, Ky.

His first wife died December 17, 1912. Mr. Stanley was married the second time to Amanda Spradlin, in September 1913.

Funeral services were held at the home of Mrs. Frasure at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon, officiated by Rev. Hargus Conley, assisted by Rev. J. H. Conley. Burial took place in the Stanley cemetery near the home under the direction of the E. P. Arnold Funeral Home.

He is survived by his second wife, the three children by his first marriage, seven grandchildren, and one sister, Mrs. Malissa Blackburn. Three brothers, Sam, Aris and Daniel, preceded him in death some time ago.

"Team From Eden" Wins; Progressing In State Meet

PARAGRAPHERED RESUME OF REGIONAL

Inez defeated College High in the first round of the state tournament at Lexington, Thursday night 31-26.

o-o

Flashing quite a bit of the style that pre-tournament dopesters had allotted to them, the Inez Indians scamped down the warpath with the honors by winning from the Paintsville Tigers in the final game of the 15th regional basketball meet here on Saturday night. This week the boys from the Martin county seat are in Lexington for the state tournament and are favored to trounce their first opponent, College High, from Bowling Green. Press ratings give Inez third position, it is said, with St. Xavier, Louisville, first and Midway second.

The 15th regional held here Thursday, Friday and Saturday was pronounced very successful. The winner's trophy went to Inez, the runner-up, to Paintsville; team sportsmanship to Prestonsburg; individual high scorer, Brown, of Paintsville, with 35 points; individual sportsmanship, Isom, Dorton; most valuable player, to Jack Cochran, West Liberty. The trophies were presented by Mayor A. C. Carter.

Tournament High Spots

The Inez Indians lose five of their "super-players" at the end of the present school year, it was stated here, after the Martin county boys had dampened the spirits of their opposition and walked

SLONE, SLATEFALL VICTIM, THURSDAY

Crushed Pelvis, Internal In- juries; Miner Succumbs on Way To Hospital

R. B. Slone, 45 years old, of Garrett, this county, was the victim of a slatefall Thursday noon, March 11, in the Elk Horn Coal Corporation mine No. 327, located in the Stone Coal hollow.

It required 40 minutes to extricate Slone, who was buried under a large block of slate measuring at least six feet square, and almost three feet thick, and other debris of the fall.

He died from his injuries while being rushed to the hospital. He suffered a crushed pelvis, internal injuries and other severe bruises. His body was prepared for burial by E. P. Arnold.

Mr. Slone was married and was the father of three children. He was the son of Joe Slone.

Funeral services were conducted by the Rev. Marion Chafins, Rev. L. D. Mosely and Rev. Nathe Maggard. Burial took place, under the direction of E. P. Arnold Funeral Home, in Knott county, at Lebrun, Ky.

He is survived by his widow, Laura Bell Slone, three children, his father and a number of brothers and sisters. His mother preceded him in death.

In Lexington

Mrs. J. D. Harkins, Mrs. W. S. Harkins, Jr., and sons Monte and George, spent the past week-end in Lexington. On their return they were accompanied by Mrs. Charles Putnam, of Evanston, Ill., who spent several days here the houseguest of Mrs. W. S. Harkins, Jr.

TEMPLAR OFFICERS TO BE SELECTED MAR. 22

The annual election of officers will be held at the Monday evening, March 22 meeting of the Knights Templar of the Pikeville Commandery No. 45 and a class of new members will be received.

Three Floyd men, M. T. Stumbo, P. H. Allen, of Prestonsburg, and J. T. Brock, of Martin, and two Paintsville men, Joseph Radcliffe and Joseph Crutcher, Jr., were admitted to membership at the last meeting, Monday, March 8.

Among a large number attending from this county were Dr. H. E. Hughes, C'ayborne Stephens, Forrest D. Short, Herbert Rogers, John Stephens, Mitchell Preston, and H. B. Spurlock, of Prestonsburg; W. A. Malone and Ben Webb, of Allen; E. M. Gillespie, A. R. Gilton, Dave Chaffins and Ben Norris, of Martin.

INFANT SON DIES

Samuel Henry, infant son of Police Judge and Mrs. Alex H. Spradlin, for this place died at the home on second avenue, Friday morning.

Funeral services are to be held at home Saturday 11 a. m., with Rev. H. F. King of the M. E. Church, South, in charge. Burial will be made in the Weddington cemetery. The many friends of the family extend their deepest sympathy.

SPECIAL CIRCUIT TERM FOR EQUITY CASES ANNOUNCED

Regular Term Jury List Issued for Court Beginning April 5

It was announced from the office of Troy B. Sturgill, circuit court clerk, that a special term of circuit court to try equity cases will be held beginning March 29 and will probably last throughout the following week.

N jury is required on equity cases. Judge John W. Caudill will preside during the term. The cases are: Floyd county board of supervisors and Floyd county vs. Prestonsburg Water Company; Prestonsburg board of supervisors vs. Prestonsburg Water Company; Southeastern Gas Company vs. M. T. Stumbo, Sheriff, etc.

The jury list for the regular April term of commonwealth cases beginning April 5 are given as follows:

Grand Jury

ELK HORN LANDS ARE TRANSFERRED; CHANGES PLANNED

A Two-Year Program and Re-Organization Under- way at Present

Striving for a more efficient working basis, under the reorganization of the Elkhorn Coal Corporation, and a complete change from old methods to new and modern means of mining, was stated this week as reason for mechanizing the Wayland mine already started.

It was also stated that, while present plans are, ultimately, to have one tippie to serve both Garrett and Wayland, a decrease in the number of laborers is not anticipated. Mechanizing equipment the tippie, etc., are part of plans that will take about two years to complete.

These changes are in line with organization changes affected by Federal Judge Robert R. Nevin in federal court at Cincinnati recently, who authorized C. W. Watson trustee of Elkhorn Coal Corporation to transfer to the reorganized concern approximately 53,000 acres of Kentucky and West Virginia mining lands valued at $1,500,000. These properties are said to be located around Wayland and Garrett.

More than 90,000, of the 200,000 acres owned by the company in two states, of land and mineral rights are in Floyd county. The Floyd holdings are valued in excess of $1,000,000.

This marks the remarkable rise and recovery of a very extensive industrial concern, who just two years before went bankrupt and previously had operated four and one-half years in receivership.

Instead of just "Elkhorn Coal concern will be called "The Elkhorn Coal Corporation." The new corporation is formed under the plan of reorganization.

CITY TREASURERS MAY BE REQUIRED TO PUBLISH DATA

City treasurers are compelled to publish within 30 days after the close of each fiscal year a complete statement of the official financial status of their community. Assistant Attorney General Guy H. Herdman held in an opinion given to S. D. Osborn, of Martin, March 9, of last week. Any taxpayer, Mr. Herdman ruled, may institute action to compel such publication of their town's financial standing.

COUNTY TEACHERS METED $34,463.00

Approximately 350 Floyd county teachers will have their purses fattened by $34,463.95 in checks being issued to them this week from the county superintendent's office. Some of these remunerative slips of paper go to the rural teachers for their seventh and final month's work for the school year, while the other checks pay the consolidated school teachers for their fifth month of teaching. Forty-six of the checks are being held up until some of the rural teachers make final reports, turn in the school book and complete the year's record.

It was stated at the superintendent's office, Thursday, that for the past seven months about 150 teachers in rural schools have received an average of $85.51 per month.

From this figure, the "one-room school" teacher receives for a term's service approximately $606.57 and the total rural teacher payroll would be, based on this average, about $90,985.50.

Twilight of Knee Pants.

SANTA MONICA, CALIF. — Since our diplomatic group must shed the half-portion breeches they've been wearing at official functions abroad, that means others present will quit mistaking them for footmen and start in again mistaking them for waiters, as formerly.

But the under-rigging doesn't make so much difference anyhow. In the best plenipotentiary circles, it's the top dressing that counts — the gold-plated cocked hat; the dress coat loaded with bullion; the bosom crossed with broad ribbons; the lapels and the throat latch so decorated with medals that, alongside one thus costumed, Solomon in all his glory would look absolutely nude.

End of the Holdout Season.

THE baseball season couldn't start off properly unless a certain catastrophe impended beforehand. Every self-respecting player who made a hit last year insists on more salary for this year, else he'll never spit in the palm of another glove. This makes him a hold-out. The manager declares the player will take what's offered him and not a cent more. This makes him a manager.

But fear not, little one. They'll all be in there when the governor or the mayor or somebody winds up to launch the first game and tosses the ball nearly eighteen feet in the general direction of the continent of North America.

Changing Style Capitals.

HOLLYWOOD and not Paris is now the world center for fashions, if you can believe Hollywood—and not Paris.

At any rate, both for men and women, we do originate many style creations which, in the best movie circles, frequently make the women look mannish and the men look effeminate, maybe that's the desired effect; an oldtimer wouldn't know about that.

However, there's a new hat out here for masculine wear which fascinates me. It is a very woolly hat—a nap on it like an old family album—and the crown peaks up in a most winsome way, and there's a rakish bunch of tail-feathers at the back which makes it look as though it might settle down any minute and start laying. I think they got the idea for it from the duck-billed platypus.

Civilizing Ethiopia.

CONQUERED Ethiopians attempt to assassinate their new overlord, Viceroy Graziani. Nobody is killed, but several individuals get bungled up.

So the conquerors arrest all natives of Addis Ababa in whose huts weapons are found. They round up 2,000 "suspects" out of a total population of 90,000.

So promptly 1,800 of these black prisoners are put to death in batches. In former days the firing squads would have worn themselves to a frazzle in a rush job of this sort, but no — well, who would deny that the machine gun is the crowning achievement of white culture? Poison gas is also much favored for pacifying rebellious savages, and plane-bombing likewise has its advocates.

The Public's Short Memory.

A FINANCIER, whose exposed devices are as a bad smell in people's nostrils, summarily is ousted from his high place and the shadows swallow up his diminished shape. A little time passes, and, lo, in a new setting, he bobs up, an envied if not an exalted personage. So-called exclusive groups welcome him in; newspapers quote him on this and that; he basks again, like some sleek and overfed lizard, in the sunshine of folks' tolerance—yes, the admiration of some.

No evidence that he has repented of his former practices; no sign of intent to repay any broken victim of those fiduciary operations. The private fortune which he took with him when he quit is still all his. And maybe there's the secret of this magical restoration to the favor of the multitude.

Budapest Catacombs

The Budapest catacombs date back to the days when the Fort of Buda was held by the Turks, marking the farthest fortified advance of the forces of Islam into Christendom. They were probably intended as avenues of escape for a beleaguered garrison, but they also have fresh water wells in them, and some of the chambers were used as repositories for great numbers of human skulls and bones, as in the case of the catacombs at Rome.

Spring - Fashions - Sewing

ARE the robins showing interest in real estate out your way—and have the kiddies been hinting that it's about time to go barefoot—have you been trying to get a little house cleaning done—and have you noticed a few of the town's rabid sportsmen out poking here and there on the fairways? In short, is it Spring out your way? That, of course, brings us to the omnipresent subject of fashions, and this in turn to the ubiquitous topic of Sew-Ur-Own.

One in Silk; One in Cotton.

If you're a devotee of trim lines and real comfort make this new all-occasion dress for yourself (Pattern 1973) in two versions: a silk print in which to greet the bright new season; a cotton one for day in, day out service. There's no daytime occasion too auspicious nor a household task too menial for one or the other of these versions. For completeness, then, and simplicity as well, there's no substitute for this stylish number. It is designed for sizes 36 to 52. Size 38 requires 3 3/4 yards of 35 inch material.

Two Versions From One Pattern.

And see what the Chic Twins have, two lovely blouses with but a single purpose—to make you look your very veriest. They're combined to make Pattern 1271 the biggest hit of the season. Think of the endless variety these clever bits of fashion will give your wardrobe. Especially now will ensembles be worn, and to have certain success with these one must choose the blouse carefully. Wear the notched lapel model with casual sports outfits and the ruff-collared style with the more tailored suits. Puff sleeves and saucy peplums are particularly intriguing features of both blouses. Either is available for sizes 12 to 20 (30 to 38 bust). Size 14 (top model) requires 2 yards of 39 inch material or 2 1/2 yards for the other. Remember, both are included in Pattern 1271.

Sewing Easy; Frock Charming.

Pattern 1259 is truly an Ode to Spring—one that's fit for print, too. A bright nosegay, for instance, will be just the thing to promote your charm and grace. The far-reaching collar and gros-grain ribbon tie will indeed become your pretty face. The puff sleeves and smart cuffs fairly snap with chic. Simple to make, delightful to wear, this frock deserves to be called an Ode to Spring. It comes in sizes 12-20 (30 to 40 bust). Size 14 requires 5 1/4 yards of 39 inch material plus 3/4 yard contrasting. The bow requires 3/4 yard ribbon. In full length size 14 requires 6 1/2 yards of 39 inch material.

Sunday School Lesson

TRIAL AND CRUCIFIXION OF CHRIST

International Sunday School Lesson for March 21, 1937

Golden Text: "Hereby perceive we the love of God, because he laid down his life for us."—1 John 3:16.

After the last Thursday evening with his disciples in the Upper Room at Jerusalem, Jesus led his eleven followers (Judas having deserted) to the Garden of Gethsemane, where he was accustomed to retire for prayer. Here he left eight at the entrance to the garden, taking Peter, James and John further with him. Leaving them, he withdrew a little further and made solitary prayer. Fully realizing the betrayal and torture which were ahead of him, Jesus only prayed that his Father's will be done.

To this retreat the soldiers of Pilate and the temple police came to arrest the religious teacher whose influence the ecclesiastical leaders feared would overthrow their authority and wealth. Judas came with the party, pointing out his former master by means of a kiss. The bearing of Jesus was so majestic and his reputation so widespread that even some of the soldiers fell down in awe as he approached.

To the surprise of those who had come to take him, Jesus surrendered without protest, and was carried before Annas, regarded by the Jews as the lawful high priest, although the Romans had deposed him and placed his five sons successively and then Caiaphas, his son-in-law, in the priestly office. Annas seems to have been the chief mover in the plot to kill Jesus, probably desiring revenge for the daring attacks Jesus had made upon the perverted system of religion of which he was the nominal head.

After the examination before Annas, which was made in the early hours of the morning, Jesus was carried before Caiaphas, who seems to have occupied another wing of the same palace, connected by a court yard. In this open place Peter, who had followed John to the palace, waited, and during his wait, denied on three separate occasions charges that he was a follower of Jesus. As the third denial was made, Jesus was being led through the court yard for his next examination and it was then that he rebuked his fickle follower by one sad look, which was enough to cause Peter to rush out into the night weeping bitterly for having so soon believed the brave words spoken earlier in the night.

There seems to have been two trials before Caiaphas. For the first only a few members of the Sanhedrin were present, but, for the last, after daylight, the full Council seems to have been on hand. Although the witnesses presented to falsely accuse Jesus failed in their mission, Jesus at last, in answer to a question from the high priest, solemnly affirmed that he was the Messiah and the Son of God. This was blasphemy to the Jewish jury and sufficient cause for death. Before he could be so executed, however, the consent of the Roman Governor had to be obtained and, therefore, Jesus was carried before Pilate.

Here the Jews dropped their religious charges against Jesus and charged that he was trying to set himself up as a king, an offense against Caesar. Pilate was intelligent enough to understand the subterfuge of the Jews and had no desire to see Jesus crucified, but was too weak and afraid of the threats of the Jews to follow the dictates of his own conscience and justice in the face of the angry clamor for his death. After all efforts to evade the issue proved futile, Pilate surrendered to the mob and ordered Jesus crucified.

In our text, all the description given by John of the actual crucifixion is "They crucified him." John reverently and wisely refrained from attempting to portray the horrible scene in detail. During the six hours of agony on the cross, it is recorded that Jesus spoke seven times. First, it was a prayer of forgiveness for those who had killed him. Second, a promise to the repentant thief that he would meet him in paradise. Third, he committed his mother to the care of his disciple, John, who subsequently carried Mary to his own home. Fourth, a cry of anguish. Fifth, an utterance of the torture of thirst. Sixth, an expression that his work had been completed. And seventh, and last, a commitment of his spirit unto his Father.

FLOOD DID NOT STOP FLOW OF OLD AGE ASSISTANCE CHECKS

More than 21,000 old age assistance checks were actually issued and delivered by the Division of Public Assistance in February. These amounted to nearly a quarter of a million dollars in actual assistance. It will be of interest to the general public to know that these old age assistance checks were delivered in February regardless of the flood, and in many cases the checks went to aged people in the Kentucky and Ohio river valleys of the state, where the need was made greater by the raging waters, as some applicants were driven from their homes and lost everything they had.

With many postoffices of the state under water, it was impossible to mail checks out, so under the direction of Commissioner of Welfare, Frederick A. Wallis, and Dr. A. Y. Lloyd, director of Division of Public Assistance, the February checks were delivered by field workers and supervisors to the distressed, aged and needy applicants. Great precautions were taken to remove all records to the second floor of the welfare building, but the water came in so fast that it was not humanly possible to get all records moved, and with water standing six feet deep in the central office building for some time, some records were immersed, but since have been dried and found to be legible. The office building of the Division of Public Assistance is located just across the street from the reformatory and this section of the city suffered most.

To correct any rumors that may be started by uninformed persons in regard to checks being suspended until a new investigation is made because of flood disaster, the Division of Public Assistance has not and will not stop the constant flow of old age assistance checks to the aged and needy people of the state. It is not necessary for any person having an application on file to re-apply because of the flood. The Division of Public Assistance has a record of every application received. Dr. Lloyd states that it is important that applicants and recipients notify the Division of Public Assistance of change in address, giving both the former and new address.

Due acknowledgment should be made, about this time of the year, of the splendid spirit exhibited by the man who plants an early garden to feed the birds and chickens of his neighborhood.

Crawford-Bond

The following taken from the Lexington Herald will be of much interest to the many friends of the contracting parties.

The wedding of Miss Jennie Briggs Crawford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Kirk Crawford, Lebanon, and Mr. Jay Darwin Bond, son of Dr. and Mrs. Charles Bond, Ashland, Kentucky, and Miami, Fla., took place March 9 at the Presbyterian church at Lebanon.

Vows were exchanged before the Reverend Olaf Anderson.

The bride given in marriage by her father, wore an aqua blue three-piece sport suit with white blouse and brown accessories. Talisman rosebuds form der shoulder bouquet.

The only attendants were Mrs. Eugene Moss Tyler, sister of the bride, who wore a beige tailleur with brown blouse and accessories. Her shoulder corsage was of pink rosebuds.

Ushers were Messrs. Sam Kirk, Crawford, Jr., brother of the bride, William McElroy Crawford, cousin of the bride, Jesse Sims and Emil John Warms, Jr.

Immediately following the ceremony a buffet breakfast was served at the home of Mrs. Alfred Hines McCord, given by the parents of the bride.

The bride, after graduating from the Lebanon High School, attended Western State Teachers College at Bowling Green, and then took a business course at the Spencerian Business College in Newburg, N. Y.

where she held a position for a year following her studies. In 1934 she accepted a position at the First National bank at Pikeville.

Mr. Bond, formerly of Ashland, went to Georgetown College for two years, and received his A. B. degree in 1927 from the University of Kentucky, where he later received his law degree. After post-graduate work at the Harvard School of Business Administration, he became a member of the law firm of Bond and Bond at Prestonsburg. His fraternities are Delta Chi, social, and Phi Delta Phi, honorary legal group. After a wedding trip to Miami, and Havana Cuba, the couple will be at home after March 23 in Prestonsburg.

BANKS-SAMONS

Announcement was made last week of the marriage of Miss Opal Mae Banks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Banks, and Darling Samons, son of Mr. and Mrs. eJos Samons, both of this city. The ceremony was solemnized on Saturday, March 6 by the Rev. G. R. Fannin at his home in West Prestonsburg. Both Mr. and Mrs. Samons are members of the senior class of Prestonsburg high school. After graduating, Mr. Samons plans to enter Bowling Green Business College. The young couple are at present at the home of the groom's parents. They have the best wishes of a host of friends.

BREAKS RESERVE OFFICERS NAMED

Action to Urge National Park Outlined; Floyd Man Director

A permanent organization for the purpose of urging a national park at the Breaks of the Big Sandy river was formed at Pikeville Tuesday night, March 16, of the civic leaders of two states. A definite line of action was established whereby this much-needed reserve may be established in the near future.

Officers Elected

Lee Long, vice-president of the C'inchfield Coal Company of Dante, Va., was elected president of the newly organized Breaks Reserve and Reforestation Association. Mayor K. J. Day of Pikeville, was chosen vice-president and Harry LaViers of Paintsville was named secretary-treasurer.

Directors of the association: Lexington Gap, Va., Rev. Frank are Pearl Stewart of Pennington, Frank A. Grosselose of Tom's Creek, Andrew L. Holbrook of Neon, Ky., H. H. Smith of Hindman, W. R. McCoy of Inez, Roscoe Davis of Hazard, E. R. Price of Wheelwright, C. W. Hoskins of Hyden, in addition to the three officers of the association.

Need Cited

A number of speakers from this section addressed the directors. Dr. O. W. Thompson, of Pikeville, chairman of the Kentucky Fish and Game Commission, addressed the gathering on the need of the association.

E. D. Stephenson stated that the way to control floods was to control the water at the source and that is at the headwaters of the rivers. "The real flood control is the

The directors agreed to go to Washington next Monday to interview Senators Barkley and Logan and the representatives from this area, in the hopes that something definite can be done for the project. They will obtain the information desired as to how best to solve the problem and on their return will engage a full-time field man who will assist the eight field representatives appointed by each director in his county, in the effort to enlist 15,000 members in the association who will demand attention from the representatives at Washington for the development of the area.

TEAM FROM 'EDEN' WINS

Continued from page one. While doing this, they limited Gegenwell's charges to only one field goal and three good foul shots, and that's enough to stagger most of the college fives.

The crowd got a kick out of watching "No. 33" on the Frenchburg team handle the crank on the Model T's. On one occasion he swung the ball in "lariat-fashion" above his head and flipped it directly into the arms of a team mate. One of the fastest plays of the tournament was pulled by the same tall Frenchburg player—the referee called it a held ball, he tossed it up and the "Frenchie" batted it from the tip-off into the basket.

The West Liberty team put a good fight against Inez they certainly get credit—well now, you saw and what Inez did, don't you?

The P'burg-Belfrey game was the closest one of the series and it was right sociable, too! They both passed into each other's hands (by mistake, of course) quite often during the first half. In the last half both teams settled down to business but P'burg showed its advantage in ability. This game displayed the ability of Holcomb, who was on his toes every minute of the time in the game.

Recently, merchants and prominent men of our community donated to buy warm-up suits for the Prestonsburg team and Mayor A. C. Carter, who assisted in gathering the contributions, had signs painted and put up in the gym representing each contributor. They were Unique Theatre, J. H. Quite a number of men and local merchants took ads in the printed programs for the tourney — they showed their good support. We hope you saw their names.

Bob Montgomery, Paintsville coach, had three boys who know their "way about" on anybody's hardwood floor and they are Brown, Ward and "Gootch" Castle. "Gootch" collected no trophies, but he certainly collected the tip-off.

One will be a parade of the various posts in the three districts with music furnished by the Jenkins Drum and Bugle Corps, the Paintsville Drum and Bugle Corps, and the Sons and Daughters' Drum and Bugle Corps of Pikeville Post. At 6 o'clock a banquet will be served and at 10 o'clock at night a dance will be held at the Masonic Temple with Walt Sears and his twelve piece orchestra furnishing the music.

H. L. Owens, Commander of Jenkins Post, is making extensive arrangements for the affairs, he reports.

ALEX HUNT DIES

Alex Hunt, of Betsy Layne, 69 years of age, died suddenly at his home there Thursday, March 11. His death came as a shock to his many relatives and friends as he had been ill for only a few days. He was the son of William and Ellen Crum Hunt. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Arta Stratton Hunt, three sons, Lindsey, William and Rev. Penn Hunt, two brothers, Sam Hunt, of Kermit, W. Va., and Ben Hunt, of Lancer, this county; and one sister, Miss Erma Lefis, of Banner.

Funeral services were conducted from the home at Betsy Layne Saturday, March 13 by Rev. Isaac Stratton, and burial was made in the family cemetery on Mare Creek.

AGED FLOYD COUNTY CITIZEN PASSES AWAY

Daniel Webster Salmons, one of Floyd county's oldest citizens, died Friday, March 12, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Phillip Roushe, of Glo, Ky. He was married more than 60 years ago to Miss Louisa Garrett, of Banner, who preceded him in death 30 years ago. He was 96 years old when died. Mr. Salmons was a devoted church member for 40 years. He is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Phillip Roushe, of Glo, and Mrs. Hattie Endicott, of Endicott.

Funeral services were conducted at Glo Sunday by the Rev. Green Allen and Rev. Willie Griffy. The body was brought to Ivel, Ky., where burial was made in the Davidson cemetery. Communal services were held at the cemetery by Rev. Isaac Stratton.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our good neighbors and friends for the kindness and attention extended us at the death of our dear husband and brother, C. H. Woods. Especially do we wish to thank the Allen school girls for their beautiful floral offering and Mr. Cassy for his kindness.

CLIFF

Surprise Birthday Party

Mrs. Ossie Caldwell and Miss Birdie Gibson gave a surprise birthday party Sunday afternoon, March 14, in honor of their sister, Mrs. W. B. Short, at her home at Cliff. Mrs. Short received many beautiful gifts which she acknowledged in a most gracious manner. Delicious refreshments were served to the following guests: Mr. and Mrs. J. T. J. Short, Margaret and Maline Conley, Ethel Mae Akers, Kathryn Lette, Hazel and Zona Miller, Mary Lucille Nunnery, Trixie Ann Brown, Messrs. Charles Thomas Miller, Bobby and Jackie Caldwell, Bill Short, Harry Gibson, Edna Richmond Pruitt, Taylor and Jimmie Caldwell. All reported a splendid time.

Don't live out of a can when your wife goes to visit her folks—a mere man can successfully COOK ELECTRICALLY.

THERE was a time when a man felt abused and a woman felt guilty if either emergency or pleasure called her away from home for a few days. "How on earth will Tom cook his meals?" she would wail and he, saddened and embittered by his fate, would poll up the can opener and cut his finger along the dotted line. Sleepless nights and cranky, dull days on a gastronomic cross sea were inevitable.

Today, the modern wife has an Electric Range ready to take on the problem of cooking, automatically, delicious and digestible meals. Her husband may even entertain royally—and painlessly—if he chooses. The Electric Range is the Perfect Electric Cook.

NAVY REPRESENTATIVE TO APPEAR IN CITY

Valentine Ripley, Machinist Mate First Class, U. S. N., attached to the navy recruiting station at Ashland, Ky., will be at the postoffice in Prestonsburg, Ky., on March 26, 1937, for the purpose of meeting and talking with the people who are interested in the U. S. Navy.

A number of vacancies exist at this time for enlistment in the U. S. Navy. Desirable young men between the ages of 17 and 25, who pass the required examination, will be enlisted as apprentice seamen and transferred to the training stations either at Great Lakes, Chicago, or to Norfolk, Virginia, for three months training before being sent to one of the ships of the U. S. fleet. The pay while in the training camp is $21 per month, after transfer to a ship a raise to $36 a month is made. Board, room and medical attention is furnished free and an initial outfit of uniforms worth about $90 is given each new recruit.

The navy provides an excellent opportunity to learn any standard trade such as machinist, carpenter, electrician, plumber, stenographer, boilermaker, metalsmith, and many others.

Sarah Ann's Cooking Class

Easter offers that excuse for a holiday which is welcomed in most families. All over the country little children associate Easter with colored eggs, bunnies and tiny chicks. Why not let this holiday spirit prevail in your kitchen and plan special dishes for the family on this occasion.

Egg Croquettes
1 cup white sauce
Egg and crumbs for dipping
2 tablespoons butter
Salt and pepper
6 eggs, hard boiled and chopped
4 tablespoons minced parsley.

Combine white sauce with hard boiled eggs. Cool and add minced parsley. Shape, keeping the croquettes rather small. Dip in crumbs, beaten eggs and again in crumbs. Fry in deep fat until a golden brown. Drain and serve with tomato sauce.

Easter Ham
Scrub well a 10 pound ham and rinse in cold water; place in a kettle of simmering water. Allow the ham to simmer until nearly tender. Carefully remove the skin from meat, brush all over with beaten egg, then cover with bread crumbs mixed with brown sugar, paprika and a little mustard. Place in a medium oven and pour 1 cup of fruit juice or cider in the baking pan. Bake almost a half hour basting now and then with the juice. Garnish with broiled peaches or apples. Make the gravy from the liquid in the pan.

Stuffed Lettuce Salad
Select a large head of lettuce and trim away the outer leaves. Cut a slice from the bottom so it will stand evenly. Then with a sharp knife cut out a circle as deep as possible all around the top. Remove as much of the inner part of the lettuce as you can and shred it very fine, then mix with equal parts of beets sliced, a few tiny shreds of onion and a half of green pepper shredded very fine. Season well and mix with French dressing. Fill the head with this, heaping it up in the center. When serving cut in pie fashion and serve with French dressing.

Creamed Deviled Ham and Asparagus Tips
1 bunch asparagus
3 tablespoons butter
Paprika, pepper
Medium can deviled ham
1 1/2 cups milk
6 slices of toast

Wash, prepare and boil the asparagus until tender. Meanwhile melt the butter in a saucepan, add the flour and stir until blended; add milk gradually, stirring constantly. When smooth and thick, add the deviled ham, paprika and pepper. Pour over the hot asparagus arranged on toast and serve at once.

Peach Cobbler
2 cups dried peaches
3-4 cup sugar
1 teaspoon cinnamon
2 thin slices lemon
3 tablespoons butter

Cook slowly peaches, lemon and cinnamon 45 minutes. Add sugar and pour in baking pan, add butter and when boiling cover with biscuits. Dot tops of biscuits with butter. Bake 20 minutes in an oven 425 degrees. Serve hot with cream.

1 1-3 cups flour
4 teaspoons baking powder
1-2 teaspoon salt
4 tablespoons shortening
1 tablespoon butter
2-3 cup milk

Sift dry ingredients, cut in shortening, add milk. Handle lightly and make into biscuits.

Pineapple Fritters
Pineapple, sliced
4 tablespoons milk
1 egg
1-2 cup flour
Salt

1 tablespoon butter

Drain pineapple and dip in the following batter. Beat the yolk and white of the egg separately. To the yolk, add the liquid, salt and butter. Stir in flour, beat until smooth and fold in beaten white. Fry in deep fat. Remove when brown and drop on paper. Sprinkle with powdered sugar.

Chicken Souffle
2 cups hot medium white sauce
3 eggs
2 cups minced cooked chicken.

1-2 teaspoon finely minced onion.
1-2 teaspoon minced parsley.

Pour hot white sauce on well beaten egg yolks. Cool and then add minced chicken, parsley, onion. Fold in well beaten egg whites. Pour in a greased casserole, set in pan of hot water and bake in oven 375 degrees for 45 to 50 minutes. Serve with mushroom sauce.

To Make NEW FRIENDS AND Keep THE OLD

Your telephone is a means of quick personal contact with those friends and relatives whom you do not visit as often as you would like, especially those who live in other cities.

More and more people who are separated by distances are using "long distance" telephone service to keep friendships alive and to maintain family ties. The relief from anxiety and the pleasure of hearing a friendly, cheerful voice, give satisfaction and value which are almost priceless.

Yet the cost of a telephone conversation between friends or relatives who are miles apart is surprisingly low. You can get an idea of the low cost of "long distance" from the lists of cities and rates which you will find in the front of your telephone directory.

If the town you wish to call is not listed in the front of your telephone directory, just ask your "long distance" operator. She will gladly quote rates to any point.

Don't Try to "Save" on Home Remedies—Ask Your Doctor

There is one point, on which practically all doctors agree. That is: Don't give your child unknown remedies without asking your doctor first.

All mothers know this. But sometimes the instinct to save a few pennies by buying "something just as good" overcomes caution.

When it comes to the widely used children's remedy—"milk of magnesia"—many doctors for over half a century have said "PHILLIPS." For Phillips' Milk of Magnesia is the standard of the world. Safe for children.

Keep this in mind, and say "PHILLIPS' MILK OF MAGNESIA" when you buy. Comes now, also in tablet form. Get the form you prefer. But see that what you get is labeled "Genuine Phillips' Milk of Magnesia." 25¢ for a big box of the tablets at drug stores.

Don't Neglect Them!
 Nature designed the kidneys to do a marvelous job. Their task is to keep the flowing blood stream free of an excess of toxic impurities. The act of living—life itself—is constantly producing waste matter the kidneys must remove from the blood if good health is to endure. When the kidneys fail to function as Nature intended, there is retention of waste that may cause body-wide distress. One may suffer nagging backache, persistent headache, attacks of dizziness, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes—feel tired, nervous, all worn out.

Frequent, scanty or burning passages may be further evidence of kidney or bladder disturbance. The recognized and proper treatment is a diuretic medicine to help the kidneys get rid of excess poisonous body waste. Use Doan's Pills. They have had more than forty years of public approval. Are endorsed the country over. Insist on Doan's. Sold at all drug stores.

SYNOPSIS

Kezia Marsh, pretty, selfish and twenty, arrives home in Corinth from school and is met by her older brother, Hugh. He drives her to the Marsh home where her widowed mother, Fluvanna, a warm-hearted, self-sacrificing and understanding soul, welcomes her. Kezia's sister, Margery, plump and matronly with the care of three children, is at lunch with them. Hugh's wife, Dorrie, has passed a previous engagement. On the way back to his job at the steel plant founded by one of his forebears, Hugh passes Doc Hiller, a boyhood friend whom he no longer sees frequently because of Dorrie's antipathy. Fluvanna Marsh wakens the next morning from a dream about her late husband, Jim, whose unstable character she fears Kezia has inherited. Ellen Pendleton comes over. She is an artistically inclined girl who is a distant niece of Fluvanna's. She happily tells Fluvanna she has become engaged to Jerry Purdue. Ellen fears that her father and mother, Gavin and Lizzie, will not approve the match. Hugh and Dorrie go out to the Preeland Farms to dance with their friends, Cun and Joan Whitney. Whitney, who has been out of work, has a new position. Cun and Dorrie dance together and then disappear for a while. Dancing with Joan, Hugh is amazed to find her in tears. Apparently she has some secret worry over her husband, Cun. When Ellen and Jerry speak about their engagement to Ellen's parents, Lizzie is disagreeable until Jerry sympathizes with her imagined ailments. The matter is left pending. Unexpectedly Hugh has to visit a neighboring city on business. Returning home to ask Dorrie to accompany him he finds her telephoning. In confusion she quickly hangs up without saying good-by. She finally agrees to accompany him. They spend a delightful day and Hugh is happy. At a family party, Kezia encounters Jerry. Ellen is disturbed when Jerry is absorbed by Kezia. Kezia goes out of her way to charm Jerry. Fluvanna is concerned about Kezia, who is evasive about dates she has been having at night. She recalls the resemblance of Kezia to her late husband, recalling how temperamental, moody and imprudent he had been. She recalls the tragic picture of his death—how after drinking and gambling excess he is faced with financial ruin, how he tries to force her to mortgage her resources to pay his debts and threatens her with a gun.

"I borrowed the last on that."
 "Will you telephone Kimball? He's waiting."
 Her thoughts raced. If she could get away from him until he came to his senses! "I won't do anything until you lay that revolver down!"

He looked at her and then at the weapon sullenly. "I'll keep it until you go through with it."

"Escape? . . . Escape? . . . Behind her was the attic door. Why hadn't she run downstairs—out into the yard? It was in her mind to gain the maid's room and lock the door. She whirled and ran up the stairs.

He caught up with her as she was closing the door, grasped her by the shoulders. "Give me time to think! You are frightening me to death!" she moaned.

He placed the revolver at her breast. His face was savage. "You'll do as I tell you—now!"

She had caught the weapon in her hands, struggled with a strength she had never known she possessed. It had gone off with a terrible report.

The gun fell to the floor. Jim stared at her, his arms, his shoulders relaxed. She watched a red stain appear on his shirt—spread. He staggered. Chilling from head to foot, she put her arm around him, eased his fall.

All the beastliness was wiped out of Jim's face. He looked faintly surprised and puzzled. "I wasn't any good," he whispered with a half mocking smile. "Just as well I did it."

Downstairs she heard running footsteps.

He was still conscious when Dr. Carey came. "I did it, Doc—business losses," said Jim. He closed his eyes.

The universe did not cease its swaying and a remote and cloudy veil closed down upon her. The doctor kept her in bed; she couldn't have risen if she had tried. In her condition of shock she was beyond anything that required decision.

"I'm sending a nurse for a day or so," Dr. Carey had said.

In her sick fancy she seemed to see a pilgrimage of people, laughing, singing people, passing along a road, the women wreathing themselves with flowers picked by the roadside, bound together by the unity of happiness—their troubles only inconveniences—while she stood on an isolated crumbling precipice, alone.

Presently she knew comfort. But not of earth. The phrases of those on earth who longed to comfort, were kindly intentioned, but inadequate. Comfort came from interstellar spaces; through a million million light years it traveled to her, from higher, finer realms of ether. It radiated along the vast and delicate spider-web of thought in whose center dwells Divinity.

Warm and soft the comfort unfolded her. Understanding of every aching nerve and shattered illusion, understanding of loneliness, sorrow, and disgrace; understanding even of the overwrought soul who slays a fellow-being. Precious, pure vibrations, healing and up-building, like white fire that glowed, that warmed, but did not burn.

It came after weeks. She found herself able to rise from her bed and make her way downstairs. The rooms were half dusted, and had an air of neglect and disorder. The bird had not been fed regularly or his cage cleaned. The geraniums in the window boxes were dry and yellow. The sound of altercation came from the basement and a slap. Kezia's voice rose in a wail of abused misery.

Katie, the maid, came up dragging Kezia by the hand. "Never was such a mean little brat! Into everything!" She stopped, stared to see Fluvanna on the first floor.

Kezia, seven, but her baby, a mean little brat? Only a mischievous, lovable darling! She took a swift step forward and Kezia ran sobbing to her. She heard the story of Kezia's blowing out a fuse while Katie was ironing her dress for a picnic; she sent Katie back to her work. She sat in a big chair comforting Kezia, knowing the delicious sweetness of the child's fragile arms around her neck.

Hugh came in presently, his lean boyish face too grave for his years, leggy and awkward in his first long trousers. She saw the look of incredulous joy in his eyes. Hugh . . . Hugh. Always one child who is closer to the heart. Hugh was sensitive, had a grave inarticulate idealism—he was shouldering a burden too great for sixteen.

He kissed her fondly. Margery was bicycling on the speedway. She shouldn't, should she, Mother? It was black with cars going forty miles an hour, and if her bike wobbled . . . But she wouldn't come for him. He would go back and tell her Mother wanted her. That would bring her. He departed. In a few minutes Margery, usually so dainty, came in shrill and blowsy, her dress on backward and two buttons missing.

Fluvanna began to laugh. They stared at her round-eyed. Then they all joined in with sheer relief. It had been so long since there had been any laughter in that house.

Life was kinder now. All seemed going well. Faintly she heard Kezia moving about upstairs; Eric was cutting the lawn now—evidently had finished his work on the car. The sound of the mower came in with steady rhythm, the swish of the grass as it fell. The sunlight was so bright that it had a quality of phantasm.

She heard wheels on the drive, the click of a brake, then voices. Small pattering footsteps ran over the porch. She moved forward to welcome Margery's children.

"Billy and Mike has come to play," a childish voice announced.

CHAPTER VI

Hugh's office was a corner room on the twelfth floor of a midtown building, and three great windows gave him a panoramic view of the city.

His stenographer, Miss Ruskin, came in. She was a thin girl with an engaging, pleasant manner, a scrubbed-looking freckled face. She was supporting her mother, who lived on the edge of town.

"Next week I want you to get together all the correspondence we have with the Dayton people on that contract. Have it ready by Monday noon. They are talking of a lawsuit and I want to go over it."

Her face looked a little bricky with the flush which spread over it. She bent over her pad. "I'll have Miss Jones do it—or I'll work late tonight. Next week—have you forgotten?—I'm to take my vacation."

"I had forgotten. You asked for the first two weeks in September, didn't you? And what are you doing during your vacation?"

Her face lighted. "Four of us—girls—are taking a cabin on Rocky Creek. We'll cook our own meals, go swimming, fishing, just be generally lazy."

"And forget all about the steel business?"

She smiled. "Yes."

"It sounds like a nice vacation."

 Persistence in Efforts Likely to Bring About Fulfillment of Ambition

PERHAPS it is my fondness for violets that made me stand and watch him. Anyway, there he was, with a wonderful basket of scented loveliness, tempting the homeward-going throng on a Saturday afternoon.

"Violets, violets, lovely violets. Quarter a bunch. Lovely violets." Like an unending song, his husky voice cried his wares, and during the ten minutes that I stood near him on the pavement, watching and listening, he kept up his cry.

Unable to resist the temptation, I bought a bunch, and even as he served me, he punctuated the deal with: "Violets, all fresh and lovely!"

Persistence Counts.
 I remarked, as I waited for my change, that he had a large basket to dispose of.

"Yes," he said, "that's right, gov'nor. But they'll all go. ('Ere you are, sir, lovely violets, all fresh.) Only you 'as to keep a-goin'." Everybody's in a hurry to get 'ome, and if you ain't persistent—(yes, lady, smaller bunches fourpence)—you don't sell 'arf as many. 'Ere you are, sir, your change. Thank you very much. Violets, lovely violets. All fresh!"

I walked away with my purple bunch—and a lesson in my mind. "Keep a-goin'." What a motto! It reminded me of a little jingle that is oft quoted by a rolling-stone friend of mine, who brought it back from the West of Canada, where he first heard it. It goes like this:

If it rains or if it snows,
 If it's calm or if it blows,
 What'll happen no one knows,
 So keep a-goin'.

A well-known athlete once told me that he had won many a second and third prize by simply keeping on. Dogged does it. Even when he realized that he couldn't beat the winner, he set his mind on being in the first three, and got there.

A Motto for Many.
 Keep a-goin' is a motto not only for rolling stones and athletes and violet-sellers. It is a motto for housewives who are faced with a tiring washing-day, for families who are faced with no very brilliant outlook for the future, for those who are apt to lie down under the weight of present troubles.

Nothing stands still. Things either get better or worse, and they are far more likely to get better if we persist in our efforts to make them so.

Take heart. This year, England is to crown a new king. This year, too, we may crown some individual ambition with fulfillment. We can do it, I know, if we "keep a-goin'."—Editor of London Answers.

Gas, Gas All the Time, Can't Eat or Sleep

"The gas on my stomach was so bad I could not eat or sleep. Even my heart seemed to hurt. A friend suggested Adlerika. The first dose I took brought me relief. Now I eat as I wish, sleep fine and never feel better."
 —Mrs. Jas. Miller.

Adlerika acts on BOTH upper and lower bowels while ordinary laxatives act on the lower bowel only. Adlerika gives your system a thorough cleansing, bringing out old, poisonous matter that you would not believe was in your system and that has been causing gas pains, sour stomach, nervousness and headaches for months.

Dr. H. L. Shoub, New York, reports: "In addition to intestinal cleansing, Adlerika greatly reduces bacteria and colonic bacilli." Give your bowels a REAL cleansing with Adlerika and see how good you feel. Just one spoonful relieves GAS and constipation. At all Leading Druggists.

BONANZA

Deaths
When death came to "Uncle" Thomas Stanley on Friday, March 12, Bonanza lost one of its most beloved citizens.

Mr. Stanley, who was approximately 78 years of age, had been in ill health the greater part of the winter and recently developed an attack of "flu."

Jolly, good-natured, with always a word of cheer, "Uncle" Thomas seemed as a permanent part of the community as are the mountains or streams. He will be greatly missed by all who knew him. He had been a member of the United Baptist Church here for many years.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Amanda Spradlin Stanley, one daughter, Mrs. R. E. Frazier, of Myrtle, two sons, Mr. Milt Stanley, of Myrtle, and Dr. C. T. Stanley, of Ashland, several grandchildren and one great-grandson.

Mrs. Luther Frazier Dies
Mrs. Luther Frazier died on Friday of last week following an attack of double pneumonia. Mrs. Frazier, who was about 35 years of age, was one of Abbott's finest women and had the utmost respect of all who knew her. She is survived by her husband and six children, also by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Green Spradlin, one sister, Miss Josephine Spradlin, teacher in the Floyd county schools; two brothers, Harmon Spradlin, Bonanza, and Sherman Spradlin, of the U. S. Navy.

Mrs. H. C. Stephens, of Prestonsburg, spent a part of last week visiting relatives here.

Elliott Ratliff, who is employed near Harold, spent the week-end with his family here.

Mr. and Mrs. Butler Sloan spent Saturday of last week at Estill, where they were called by the illness of Mrs. Sloan's mother, Mrs. Shirilda Whittaker.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilkie Shepherd, of Mid., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Frazier here.

Mrs. Greeley Hackworth, who has been ill, is improving nicely.

Miss Flossie Music is visiting her sister, Mrs. Woodrow Frazier, of Bonnie Blue, W. Va. She expects to return home Easter.

Henry Baldrige spent the week-end in Prestonsburg on business.

Mrs. R. E. Frazier has been seriously ill of "flu."

Johnnie Conley returned to his home here last week after spending a week in Indiana making the purchase of a farm.

Miss Naomi Spradlin spent last week-end visiting in Pikeville.

Mrs. Gale Music, who has been ill for quite a while, continues to improve.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Baldrige had as guests Sunday, Mrs. Arminis Short, Mrs. J. Baldrige, Mrs. J. P. Hill and children and Mrs. Scott Hill and small daughter.

James Short, who has been seriously ill, is improving. County Attorney Forrest D. Short was called home Wednesday of last week due to his father's illness.

Russell Lavin, of Dwale, was visiting here Sunday.

SCHOOL

Miss Ruth Merritt and Mr. James Spradlin, former students of Bonanza school, were married on Saturday of last week. They have the best wishes of the entire school.

Miss Dorcus Montgomery, Messrs. Henry Hale, Bill Montgomery, Henry L. Holbrook, Greeley Dotson, and Hershel Frazier, of B. H. S., spent the week-end with homefolks.

Mr. Leslie, high school principal, spent the week-end with homefolks at Emma, returning here Sunday afternoon.

Members of the school deeply regret the resignation of Mrs. V. O. Turner, who for the past few months has been acting as assistant high school teacher here. Mrs. Turner was a very popular member of the faculty.

Miss Mildred Hill was guest Friday of Miss Docia Baldrige.

Proceeds from the recent pie social amounted to $15.50 despite snow and bustery weather. Interesting features were a "cake-walk," "pretty girl" contest. An ugly man contest was suggested with Mr. Lennix Spradlin and Prof. Leslie as contestants. The vote was 1-0 in Mr. Leslie's favor. (The crowd evidently took a second look.)

Since Bonanza high school has no seniors this year the only graduates will be those of the eighth grade. Six students are expected to graduate, the date having been set for Friday preceding Easter.

Thursday members of the primary and advanced grades joined in a field day program. An egg hunt was the final feature, with Miss Eukie Prater receiving a prize for finding the largest number of eggs.

Seven happy months came to an end Friday, March 12, with the closing of the grades of Bonanza school. Students and teachers departed rather slowly and reluctantly—were there tears?—the correspondent is out of ink!

MAYTOWN

W. M. S. Meets
The Woman's Missionary Society of the Methodist Church convened at the home of Mrs. Ed Sutton Tuesday evening for a business and social meeting. The program was introduced by Mrs. Frank May and the work of the Wesley Houses was discussed. Mrs. Okey Summers was elected delegate to the Missionary Conference to be held at Charleston, W. Va. in April. A delicious dessert course was served at the conclusion of the meeting.

Student Recovers
Miss Nancy May, sophomore in Maytown high school, who has been confined to her home with flu, has recovered sufficiently to resume her work at school this week.
