HOPKINS PENNED FOR SLAYING OF FORMER DEPUTY

Special Circuit Court Jury Gives Decision After 2-Hour Parley

JURY FROM JOHNSON TO ADJUDGE OFFICERS

Layne's Second Trial Wins Sentence Reduction; To Ask Third Hearing

For the revolver slaying of Dewey Salisbury, former Floyd county deputy sheriff, January last, at Boldman, Gordon Lee Hopkins, of Harold, must serve a 21-year penitentiary term, a jury of the Floyd circuit court held Wednesday morning after deliberating two hours.

Jury in the case was not empaneled until noon Tuesday because of wide relationship of both the defendant and the victim. After the regular panel had been exhausted, 30 special veniremen were summoned. Hearing of evidence and arguments of attorneys was completed Tuesday night, however.

The Commonwealth contended that Hopkins entered the Boldman restaurant in which Salisbury was sitting at a booth, and told the ex-deputy, "By God, you can't do me like you did brother"; that when Salisbury refused to rise Hopkins fired a bullet into his chest and struck him three times on his head with the revolver. Testimony claimed Salisbury's body was in its holster when the body was removed from the building.

In the defense, witnesses testified that when Hopkins entered the restaurant Salisbury called to him and told him that the house "was not high for us both"; that Hopkins pulled Salisbury couldn't treat him as his brother, whereupon the officer countered with the statement that if he wanted to be in his right hand Salisbury would get his revolver, this evidence meanwhile grasping Hopkins by the shoulder with his left hand.

W. E. Wheelwright, this time his second appeal from the first verdict in the killing of Hillard Akers. At the term of court here he drew a year term, later won a reversal from the Court of Appeals. Thursday week, his second trial ended in a verdict considering him to a two-year stay. This week, he filed motion grounds for a new trial from this sentence. Meanwhile, he is at liberty under $5,000 bond.

'CLUCKS' DUCKED

SO NOBODY COULD FIND 'EM; GRAND JURY ASSIGNED JOB OF FINDING CULPRIT

Foul play is suspected by Magistrate Omery Hall in the disappearance of a dozen chickens impounded last week as "evidence" against Wesley Tackett, Clear Creek, charged with chicken-stealing.

The fowls were penned overnight for court presentation before Magistrate Hall. Virgie Jackson charged that Tackett had stolen them from her hen-house. Morning of the trial, when officers went to bring "Exhibit A" into court, the fowls were gone.

So—Tackett was placed under bond for his April grand jury appearance here.

WAYLAND MINER IS SLATE VICTIM

Starling Stevens, 54, Tennessee Native, Fatally Crushed Monday

Starling Stevens, 54 years old, Wayland, was killed instantly in a slate-fall in Mine 29 of the Elk Horn Coal Corporation, Wayland, early Monday morning. Death resulted from a crushed chest.

He came to this county 12 years ago from Tennessee, where he was born and reared.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Mary Jane Stevens; three daughters, Mrs. Gertie Walker, Hunter, Mrs. Frankie Horton, Eagon, Tenn., and Miss Grace Stevens, Wayland; and two sons, Hobart and Ira Stevens, Wayland.

The body was taken to the Ryan Funeral Home, Martin, but funeral arrangements had not been completed at noon Tuesday.

P'BURG VOCALISTS WIN AT FESTIVAL

Enter Six Events at Morehead, Emerge With 4 Winners

Representatives of Prestonsburg glee clubs entering only six events at the regional music festival held at Morehead State Teachers' College Saturday received two superior and two excellent ratings, thus earning the right to represent Prestonsburg at the state contest in Lexington April 28 and 29.

Among the 20 schools represented at the festival were Ashland, Maysville, Mt. Sterling, Carlisle, Pikeville, Russell and Prestonsburg.

Prestonsburg students taking part in the festival were: Ann Allen, Alice Grey Burke, Barbara Butler, Betty Jean May, Pauline Nunnery, Billy Callihan, Billy Dameron, and W. P. Mayo, Jr. Misses Ann Allen, alto, and Alice Grey Burke, mezzo-soprano, received "superior" rating.

The students were accompanied to Morehead by their music teacher, Mrs. Chalmers H. Frazier, Jane Carroll Hager and James Carter.

CITIZENS SEEK CUT IN WIDTH OF ROUTE; 4TH MEETING CALLED

Citizens interested in the construction of the Turkey Creek-Stone Coal road this week sought from the state highway office at Pikeville permission for building of a 30-foot road instead of one requiring the full 60 feet of right-of-way.

In the meantime they were working, they said, with full assurance of cooperation of officials here.

Fourth meeting of citizens of the two creeks will be held Saturday afternoon at the gymnasium of Maytown high school. Approximately 250 persons attended last Sunday's gathering at the Stone Coal school, inclement weather cutting down the attendance.

A petition seeking help toward road construction now bears the signatures of 1,700 citizens, it was said this week.

Group Formed By Mrs. James Is Named for National Festival As Only Kentuckians Honored

Kiwanis Club Here To Sponsor Talent-Search To Be Conducted Monday, April 3--All Non-Professionals Invited To Compete

Floyd county may furnish Kentucky's only representation at the sixth National Folk Song Festival in Washington, D. C., next month, Sarah Gertrude Knott, founder of the Festival, announced recently.

In a letter praising the work of Mrs. Edith Fitzpatrick James, Prestonsburg, in the organization of the "Plain-Song Chanters," and group dancers of the "running set," Miss Knott wrote: "All of us who are interested in the folk field have for a long time known and appreciated Mrs. James' work in Kentucky, in keeping alive, and calling attention to, the dignity and beauty of the traditional expressions in Kentucky. . . . We have invited no other group from Kentucky, because we were satisfied with what she did for us last year."

The local organization thus given national preference above all other Kentucky groups interested in traditional expressions, music and dances, the Kiwanis Club here this week announced it would sponsor a preliminary festival here at which in addition

DAVID AKERS, 73, DIES AT BANNER

Heart Attack Claims Aged Citizen at Home of Daughter Monday Morning

David Akers, 73, one of Floyd county's best-known citizens, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Tom Scaif, of Banner, Monday morning, after suffering a heart attack. The seizure came as he walked from the "front yard" of the Scaif home, where he had conversed with his brother, back to his daughter's home.

He was the son of the late Levi and Nancy Hall Akers, of Banner, and most of his life was spent in this immediate section. He had been a member of the Baptist Church for 20 years.

Surviving, in addition to his daughter, are three sons, J. B. Akers, Ashland, Farlie Akers, Dana, and Charlie Akers, Banner; three other daughters, Mrs. Zella Hall, Ashland, Mrs. Nancy

Floyd Water-Mill Erected Year Of Boston Tea Party, Says Maytown Resident

Built by a half-Indian the year America's most significant "social" event—the Boston Tea Party—was held and two years before the Minute Men stood at Concord's bridge, Kentucky's most ancient water mill still turns what was once called maize into good, old-fashioned corn-meal at Maytown, this county.

Though early settlers followed dim, forest trails thirty miles and more, to have their corn ground into meal at the mill, "turns" are sometimes brought even farther than that, these days of modern highways and shiny automobiles. Almost every day the creaky wheel of the old mill turns now. Only recently, a Charleston, W. Va., man came for meal, explaining he had got a "turn" ground there three years ago and that it made the finest bread he had ever eaten.

From father to son the record of the mill has been handed down, and these figures, according to G. A. May, Sr., operator and part-owner of the mill, place the date of its construction at 1773—166 years ago; its builder, half-Indian John Wireman.

In 1797, when Reuben May came to Beaver Creek from Virginia he bought the mill. His son, John May, who died at the age of more than 90, several years ago, in turn handed down the record of the mill to its present operator.

According to Mr. May, the mill was the only one in the state built before the Commonwealth was admitted to

LANDS ON FEET

MARTIN MAN SUFFERS SPINE FRACTURE, HOWEVER, IN FALL FROM ROOFTOP

His spine fractured after alighting on his feet in a 30-foot fall from a housetop Friday morning, Will Adams, 56 years old, of Martin, was taken to a Huntington specialist for examination and treatment. His recovery is expected.

Adams, an employe of the Utilities Elkhorn Coal Company, was repairing the roof of a building on Buck's Branch, near Martin, when he lost his footing.

8 FLOYD SCHOOLS GIVEN 'A' RATING

Low Attendance of 2 High Schools Prevents Entrance To 'Select Circle'

Eight of Floyd county's 10 high schools this year were given an "A" rating by the state department of education, County Superintendent Town Hall announced Monday.

This, Mr. Hall said, is the highest number of schools to be approved thus by the state department in the history of the county. He added that only Auxier and the Wheelwright colored high school were denied the select rating, and that they failed because neither had as many as 100 pupils, the attendance necessary to gain the "A" standing.

Recognition thus accorded the eight schools by the state department, Superintendent Hall pointed out, resulted from new buildings, added equipment and the high efficiency of school principals.

"A" class high schools in the county and their principals are:

Prestonsburg and Floyd county high school, Clayborne Stephens (Ishmael Triplett, superintendent); Wayland, Boone Hall; Garrett, Curtis Owens; Maytown, V. O. Turner; Martin, Monroe Wicker; McDowell, George L. Moore; Wheelwright, Wayne Ratliff; Betsy Layne, D. W. Howard.

FLOYD MAN'S KIN IS KIDNAP VICTIM

Two Held After Release Of Son of Prominent Pike Man

Two bandits Wednesday night, last week, kidnaped Walter Wells, 19 years old, a cousin of George Wells, Allen automobile dealer, at Pikeville, forced him to accompany them in his own car, then, thinking him dead, hurled him over the Johns Creek bridge, approximately eight miles from Pikeville after robbing him of his wallet containing between $35 and $40, a diamond ring and a wrist watch.

The bandits then drove away in Wells' car, but they were picked up under gunfire by West Virginia state police near Logan, shortly after midnight, and returned to Pikeville. The men gave their names as Joe Johnson and Stephenson when apprehended.

According to Pike County Deputy Sheriffs T. M. Stratton and Ira Deskins, who investigated the case, Wells had started to the last show at a Pikeville theatre but, finding no parking space in front of the theatre, drove his car down Second street to the next block. When he got out of the car, the two men approached him inquiring for a storage garage for the night. After receiving directions, one of the men thrust a pistol into Wells' side while the second entered his ma-

FLOYD DEBATERS SWEEP PIKEVILLE DISTRICT ROUNDS

Prestonsburg and Wayland To Represent Section In Meet at Lexington

ONLY FLOYD COUNTY IN DISTRICT FINALS

Two Prestonsburg Students Also Adjudged Winners In Speech Events

Prestonsburg high school triumphed Saturday over speakers of five Eastern Kentucky counties in the 17th district speech tournament held at Pikeville Saturday.

To make the victory more complete for Floyd county, Wayland high school speakers occupied the runner-up position.

Of a possible score of 90 points, Prestonsburg debaters and speakers scored 74. The finals of the debate tourney saw Prestonsburg and Wayland in a hot forensic contest.

The local team—Anne Allen and Robert Runnels—won all six of its debates, defeating Salsyerville, Painville, Betsy Layne and Virgie in the preliminaries; Pikeville, in the semifinals, and Wayland in the finals. Both Prestonsburg and Wayland go to the state tourney at Lexington, April 6-8. Wayland debaters were George Hart and Wilson Francis, and they won five debates before their defeat in the finals.

In other speech events Judith Morgan Davidson won in grade discussion; Anne Allen, high school discussion; James Coburn, radio broadcasting. They will represent the district in the state tourney. Robert Runnels won second place in extemporaneous speaking, and Patty Rimmer was third in the interpretative reading competition. These five are students at Prestonsburg high school.

The winning debaters, veterans of three years' experience, rank among the 10 high-point debaters in the Kentucky chapter of the National Forensic League.

The Prestonsburg debate team is coached by Mrs. Jane Combs; the other speakers, by Miss Minnie Grace Harris. Coaching the Wayland team is Boone Hall, principal of the school there.

GARRETT TAKES CHAMPIONSHIP

Raised For Annual Tournament Held In Martin Gym

With Bill Mayo's Garrett Black Devils again proved their superiority over the basketball teams of the fifty-eighth district by winning the post-season tournament held in the Martin gym last week for the benefit of the annual being published by the nine Floyd county high schools.

They began their victory march by taking the Martin Purple Flash, 33-13, Friday afternoon. In the district tournament they defeated the same team, 15-13, in an overtime period. In their semi-final game Saturday afternoon, they scored an easy 37-20 win over Auxier, the team which eliminated Wheelwright, 27-8, in the first round.

The Betsy Layne Bobcats reached the finals by defeating Prestonsburg, 25-13, Friday night, and then edging out the favored Wayland team, 30-29, in the semi-finals Saturday afternoon. Wayland moved into the semi-finals by taking the opener from Maytown, 41-23, Thursday night, then outlasting McDowell, 21-20, Friday night.

The outcome of the final game was never in doubt after the first few minutes. Garrett took the lead at the end of the first quarter, and held Betsy Layne scoreless during the second period. The Black Devils held a 29-3 advantage at the half. They ran the count to 42-13 at the end of the third period, and coasted into their 46-19 victory, giving them their second championship within three weeks.

No trophies were awarded, but cash prizes were given to the winners and runners-up.

The five sessions netted $176, which will be used to help defray the expenses of the high school annual. Tournament expenses were minimized by allowing the coaches to officiate the games in which their teams were not participating.

FOR CIRCUIT CLERK

TO THE PEOPLE OF FLOYD COUNTY:

I am a candidate for re-election to the office of Clerk of the Floyd Circuit Court. I have done my best to serve you during my term of office as I thought you expected to be served. Almost every family in the county has had occasion to be in my office or in the courtroom, and know I have met you all friendly and with a smile and ready to accommodate you, regardless of whether you were rich or poor, black or white.

I think that a public office belongs to the people and not to the officeholder. When I am re-elected, I promise you better service because the experience I have had will enable me to serve you more efficiently.

If I have given you the service you expected of me, I deserve your support in the campaign, and I earnestly believe that I deserve your vote.

I am your friend and servant,
TROY B. STURGILL.

Easter Sunrise Service Planned by Local Group

The Young Women's Circle of the Methodist Missionary Society met Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Wells, with Miss Virginia Murrill and Mrs. Victoria Spradlin as hostesses. During the business session, conducted by the president, Mrs. Emma Alice May, plans were made for a Sunrise Easter Service. A definite place for this service has not been selected but announcement will be made later. This is to be a joint meeting, with all the churches in town participating.

Plans were also made for improving the rooms and equipment of the Sunday School, particularly that of the beginners' department. After the business session, the devotional service was given under the direction of Mrs. Stella Spradlin. Mrs. Margaret Darlington read the scripture passage, after which Mrs. May discussed "The Beginning of Women's Work in the Church."

Delicious refreshments were served to the following members: Mesdames Stella Spurlock, Emma Alice May, Irene Stephens, Peggy Spurlock, Louise Culbertson, Muriel Kelly May K. Roberts, Minnie Daniels, Douglas May, Shirley Hughes, Margaret Darlington, Inez Hereford, Victoria Spradlin, Misses Minnie Grace Harris, Virginia Murrill, Alice Harris, and little Misses Betsy Spurlock and Nancy Hughes.

Misses Minnie Grace and Alice Harris will be hostesses at the April meeting, with Miss Virginia Murrill in charge of the program.

CARL KENDRICK DIES AT LACKEY MARCH 26 AFTER LONG ILLNESS

Carl Kendrick, 47, son of the late Robert and Nancy Lockhart Kendrick, died at the Stumbo Memorial hospital Sunday night after suffering several months from tuberculosis of the bone. Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Charity Clark Kendrick; five children, Mildred Mae, Naomi, Delmer, Anna, and Cecil; three brothers, Everett, Garland, and Johnnie Kendrick, all of Lancer; three sisters, Mrs. Joste Goble, and Mrs. Sophia Clark, Lancer, and Mrs. Bertha Mullins, Betsy Layne. Funeral services were conducted Tuesday from the home of his brother, Everett Kendrick, at Lancer, and burial was made in the family cemetery under the direction of the Arnold Funeral Home.

Residence-Office Fire

partment finally succeeded in halting the blaze.

Dr. Triplett said the house was in flames when he awoke and that he barely escaped.

Included in Dr. Triplett's loss were an X-ray and various other machines which provided treatment by therapy and infra-red rays.

Dr. Triplett announced he will re-establish an office here within the next 50 or 60 days.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our sincere thanks and appreciation to all our friends who so graciously aided and assisted us during the death of our beloved mother and grandmother, Mary Jane Allen. We especially wish to thank those who contributed so many beautiful floral offerings; Brother Parsons and Lawrence Price for their consoling words and beautiful services; also Mr. Arnold and Mr. Moore for their untiring interest and services. We are deeply thankful to those friends who gave of their time and services during her long illness.

TWO ALLEN STUDENTS WIN HIGH HONORS IN STANDARDIZED TESTS

Two 12-year-old students in the Allen graded school recently compiled the highest number of points ever scored in Floyd county standardized eighth grade achievement tests. County Superintendent Town Hall announced last week.

They are Rose Mary Malone, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Malone, who scored 195 of a possible 215 points, and Howard Clay, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Clay, with a score of 184 points.

The tests are standard requirements for entrance to high school, and a score of 80 points is necessary as a passing grade. The tests were given at various points in the county, a total of 180 students desiring high school entrance next year being applicants. Eighth grade exams of this type have been given in the county for the last three years.

The two "honor students" of the county may attend high school at Prestonsburg, Betsy Layne or Martin.

CHILD'S APPETITE MAY NEED TEMPTING

Children are great imitators. Like adults, they sometimes get fatigued, want attention or get just plain bored with the routine of living. Then they may refuse to eat. Mrs. Mary Van Cleve, in charge of the University of Kentucky nursery school, makes the following suggestions:

Let the child rest 15 to 20 minutes before meal-time. Don't coax the child to eat; it makes him worse. For your own sake, as well as his, pay as little attention to his not eating as possible—he will recover more quickly.

Children are astute observers; so try, as parents, not to have food dislikes. However, the "yum yum spinach" school doesn't fool anyone. Most parents aren't good actors.

A good general rule is to have part of everything composing the meal eaten before dessert is served. Have a simple dessert that is an integral part of the whole meal.

On an ocean liner, a person recovering from seasickness, has his appetite tempted before he is fed. The same plan often works with children. Serve, not huge quantities of food, but rather sandwiches made from thinly cut bread, with just a hint of parsley or lettuce; small bowls of vegetable soup or stew of the non-greasy variety; and small servings of daintily prepared vegetables.

MRS. CORA B. COBURN SUCCUMBS SUDDENLY AT HUEYSVILLE HOME

Mrs. Cora B. Coburn, 58, wife of J. Coburn, Hueysville, died suddenly at her home Thursday.

She is survived by, in addition to her husband, four daughters, Mrs. Edna Conley, Bypro; Mrs. Mary Wilson, Wheelwright; Mrs. Opal Ratliff, Martin, and Violet Coburn, Hueysville; and two sons, Leroy Coburn, Bypro, and Edgar Coburn, Hueysville.

Funeral rites were conducted from the Church of Christ, of which she had been a member for many years, at Hueysville, with the Rev. Henry Parsons officiating. Interment was made in the Hays cemetery, under the direction of the Ryan Funeral Home.

Active pall bearers were Fred Martin, Paul Roach, Devert Owens, Harry Huff, Bill Allen, Johnnie Martin, and Junior Nesbit.

THE REVEREND JEFFRIES TO OCCUPY LOCAL PULPIT

Floyd County

An appeal for co-operation in this community was made this week by Mrs. A. C. Harlowe, who has accepted the chairmanship of the general committee of the Early Diagnosis Campaign of the Floyd County Tuberculosis Association, which will get under way on April 1 and continue throughout the month. Mrs. Harlowe is now selecting her committee members and concrete plans for Floyd county's program will be completed shortly.

"Tuberculosis continues to be a serious menace to public health in spite of the substantial gains made in its conquest," said Mrs. Harlowe. "Eight out of every 10 persons admitted to sanatoria today are in advanced stages of the disease.

"Early tuberculosis is easy to cure, but can be found in most instances only through an X-ray examination. Our tuberculosis organization is urging us to unearth within our community those cases of tuberculosis which otherwise might not come to light until cure is more difficult. This our leaders can do by suggesting a physical examination to those whom we may suspect of harboring this disease, and who thereby become a source of contagion not only to their families but to the community as a whole."

Briar Buck's Scratches

BRIAR BUCK LEARNED AT PRESTONSBURG

—that all those actively interested in the W.P.A. Packhorse Library there are on the public payroll in some capacity. Interesting to note that the women of Martin, who first got the books by writing to various libraries throughout the country, were not on the public payroll not seeking public patronage. They were motivated only by the desire to have a public library in their town.

Shikepoke, the Left Beaver scribbler, wants to make "killings" a federal offense, thus admitting to the world that we don't have brains or ability enough in Floyd county, or Kentucky, for that matter, to cope with local crime. Why pass-the-buck to federal authorities when the people themselves, represented by 12 picked citizens who make up each jury, decide not to strictly enforce the law?

RECIPE FOR MURDER

One Floyd countian between ages of six and 98.

Thoroughly saturate with from one to four pints of whisky (amount depending on size of subject).

Place in wayside honky-tonk at midnight with several disreputable men and women.

Add one electric phonograph with plenty of "hot numbers," and wait until daylight.

Precautionary warning: Handle Floyd countians with extreme care and keep away from heat, as subject has a low boiling point.

(If this recipe doesn't produce one or two corpses by daylight, you'll just have to wait till the next election).

Briar Buck would like to see Kentucky be the first state to furnish free public colleges to all high school graduates, and the Floyd county Representative to be the first to introduce a bill to that effect in the Legislature.

IRONICAL FACT

About two per cent of the people here in the mountains are getting rich from natural resources, while the remaining 98 per cent barely eke out a "living." Yet there is enough wealth here to make all very comfortable, were there some sane means of equalization.

BRIAR BUCK'S WEEKLY MARTINI

Goes to Monroe Wicker and Betty Hill, whose dual efforts helped keep a division of the W.P.A. Packhorse Library here after its departure was considered a foregone conclusion.

Note to Editor: William "Einstein" Martin wants to know if I am Briar Buck. Do you think a fellow who eats ice cream and watermelons all the time can keep a secret?

WE'VE GOT IT— BUT WE DON'T ADVERTISE!

Many state legislatures appropriate thousands of dollars annually to advertise their state's natural beauty, historical shrines, and other points of interest, while our own Kentucky's sole contribution toward attracting tourists and visitors is publishing some kind of magazine which very few of us have seen and whose main circulation consists of Chambers of Commerce throughout the country. Yet, besides having historical interest with which very few states can boast equality, and having natural beauty that is unsurpassed by any state, Kentucky has many world records of various kinds to which Eastern Kentucky contributes heavily.

In our own county seat, at Prestonsburg, we have the largest private law office in the United States, and presumably in the world.

Also in Floyd county, at Wayland, there is the world's most modern coal tippie—owned by the Elk Horn Coal Corporation.

Just outside Floyd (now whose fault was that?) at Boldman, they have the largest natural gas compressor in existence.

The C. & O.'s railroad yard at Russell is the largest in the U. S., owned and used exclusively by an individual company.

At Lynch, Harlan county, they have the world's largest coal tippie, and claim the honor of having the cleanest coal town in the world.

Then, there is located on Little Leatherwood Creek, in Perry county, the largest hardwood lumber mill in the world. Owned by W. M. Ritter Lumber Company, they have been cutting steadily for 12 years, have more than a million dollars worth of finished lumber in stock at the mill, and own enough timber to keep them busy for 25 years longer.

Still in Eastern Kentucky, at Olive Hill, they have the largest brick plant in the world.

Yes, we have the finest burley, fastest horses, most beautiful (phew!) women, best (phew!) whisky, and damndest politics, so y-n-e-l don't we advertise what we've got?

Wonder who it is that lifts up their receiver to listen-in every time someone calls Prestonsburg over the phone

With free public colleges, Kentucky would lead the nation and, if other states joined in, the U. S. would lead the world, in sheer intellectuality.

HERE 'N' THERE

(By FLOYD WARRIX)

Mr. and Mrs. Seldon Horne, of Bays Branch, were guests of Albert Miller, of Cliff, over the week-end.

Clyde Whittaker, who has been in the Painsville hospital, returned to his home at Cliff Sunday. He had a leg amputated, due to a bone fracture suffered a few months ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Wiley Warrix, of the Jane Brown Branch, were visiting with Tom Baldridge, of Blue River, a few days ago.

Clyde Harrington, of Drift, was in Prestonsburg Monday.

MUSIC-BRANHAM

Mr. Frank Music and Miss Bama Branham, both of the Jane Brown Branch, were married March 19 at Auxier. The couple are now staying with the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Branham.

FLOYD COUNTIANS IN THE BLUEGRASS

(By "DAB")

Want Your Schedule Arranged?

'Twas registration at the U. of K. Two Floyd county girls whose motto is, "It's never too late to win," were registering with the miscellaneous group and thereby having difficulty securing the desired courses. Upon approaching the head of the science department, they were asked the name of their county. At the reply, the professor quickly exclaimed to his assistant, "Put them on our list; give them the hour they want; I'm afraid they'll shoot!"

Palmer L. Hall recently attended a tea dance, and girls he knew not any. Quoting from Palmer: "I took my marbles and went home."

Oval Bingham was daily attendant at an auction sale last week, purchasing a sum total of four wash cloths.

Instead of buying alarm clocks, Floyd countians have had telephones installed with an agreement with Janice Spradlin to "buzz" at the desired hour.

First Floyd county visitor was County Attorney Forrest D. Short, who conferred with the assistant supervisor of schools on his way to Frankfort last week.

Second visitor was Mrs. Henry Stephens, whose presence is delightful either at home or here.

Many have been seen at the Opera House during the week, attempting to learn of positions and friends "back home" from the "one and only Sinnett," specialist in mental telegraphy.

THE GRAND FINALE

But nothing seems to satisfy quite so well as gathering on Friday afternoons to "read all about it" in The Floyd County Times.

SHIKE'S POKES

OPERATION BARRED

Don't expect too many "pokes," for the "Shike" has been sick. I guess the doctor would have operated on me if it hadn't been for the "Better Half." She threatened to call the G-men—saying it was against the federal law to open her "male."

WILL 'BEAR' IMITATING

I want the Martin high team to change its name to the "Polar Bears." The Brooksville Bears won the Kentucky championship. The Fairmont, W. Va., Polar Bears won the West Virginia championship and the Frankfort Polar Bears won the Indiana championship. Seems that the Polar Bears have something.

I heard "Il Duce" speak Sunday morning and, if he can get applause for that "speech," then I could "bring down the house."

The WPA signs are at least honest.

I saw a sign, "Slow men working," just behind a crew.

If folks in this section just get their seed back—there's be no potato shortage.

Left Beaver is getting like Chicago—there were more "hold-ups" on Beaver in the past week than in Chicago's "Loop" in the last month.

And we even had a kidnaping up in Pike county.

Henry Howard had better keep that green suit in town. If he gets out in the country, the cows will chase him.

DOUBT REMOVED

If there were any doubts about the merits of Floyd county's champions, the Garrett boys and the Martin girls, they were dispelled this week-end at Martin, in the post-tournament. Garrett won an easy victory in the finals.

The Martin girls also came through against McDowell, the runner-up, 21-12. Both games were easier for the victors than the previous encounters. McDowell's inability to stop R. Pratt cost them their game. Miss Pratt scored 12 points—one more than the entire McDowell team.

SALISBURY EXPLAINS RECENT RESIGNATION

Hunter, Ky.,

March 2, 1939.

Mr. Dial Salisbury, High Sheriff of Floyd County, Ky.:

Please consider this my resignation as a deputy sheriff under you.

My reasons for resigning are because you have failed to keep your promises to me. You came to me twice while you were in the race for Sheriff and told me if I would use my support and influence and help you to be elected Sheriff of Floyd county, you would pay me $125.00 a month during your term of office. I decided to help you and did help you. I worked day and night canvassing the last two weeks of the final election for you, using all of my influence, and using my own car in helping you to get elected, and you was elected, and have been in office going on 15 months and you haven't paid me any salary yet. You have given me a few papers to execute and ask me to pay 10 per cent to you out of that. You now owe me for seven months work at $125.00 per month, making a total of $875.00, and you promised to advance me enough every month to pay expenses. You never done that, and the above reasons is why I am resigning.

Yours respectfully,
B. B. SALISBURY.

Bride Of Prestonsburg Man

MRS. JOSEPH D. HARKINS, JR.

Mrs. Harkins, an attractive bride, is the former Miss Billie Kathleen Holiday, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William M. Holiday, of Winchester, Ky. She was this week guest of honor at a reception given at the home of Mrs. J. W. Eward, of First avenue.

ens and others, was acquitted Friday when it was shown that Sammons' revolver was a 32-20 calibre while the bullet taken from the car was from a "thirty-eight."

Wednesday afternoon, trial of Everett Collins and Floyd Johnson, charged with murder in the slaying of Willie Cole on Left Beaver Creek, was under way.

Today (Thursday), barring docket congestion and other complications, a jury from Johnson county will be empaneled to hear the trials of Floyd county officers charged with malfeasance in alleged "drunk trap" arrests. The cases were scheduled for trial last week, but were continued until this week for the empanelling of an outside-the-county jury.

Also slated for trial today is John Risner, recently indicted by a special grand jury of obstructing public justice after Mitchell Neeley, a witness in the murder case of Mrs. Sallie Meade Gearheart, had, it is charged, been spirited out of town. Trials of Henry Blackburn, Graham Muscand Marvin George for "splitting away" the witness, Neeley, have been continued till April 21.

Floyd county's slot machine cases remain "largely" ahead in the court schedule. Bessie Huff, Lackey, one of the defendants, was acquitted last week. Other slot machine cases are to be given trial April 21.

Funeral services were conducted Wednesday from the United Baptist Church at Banner, with the Revs. Isaac Stratton, Ali Ward, and C. F. Conn officiating. Burial was made in the Crum cemetery near Banner, under the direction of the Arnold Funeral Home.

chine and took the wheel. Wells was then forced into the car and the second man followed, keeping the weapon pressed against his body as they drove toward Williamson.

The machine was stopped for gas at the Jones filling station on Ferguson's Creek and as it continued toward Williamson the two discussed means of disposing of Wells. One suggested murder but the other rejected this plan.

That they meant to hold Wells for ransom was indicated when they inquired about the financial status of father. They were informed that he was a store clerk on a salary of $100 a month. This evidently dissuaded their plans for ransom and they reached the Johns Creek home of the men whom Wells was as a foreigner, choked him unconsciousness. Consciousness was restored as they hurled him over the water.

pair drove away Wells, muddy and his clothing. He made his way to the home of Williamson, former deputy sheriff, who flagged the Williamson truck and rode terially by a strong finish in February sales, the final 10-day period of the month showing 2,826 cars sold at retail as compared with 2,199 in the last 10 days of February, 1938.

"Naturally we are pleased at this sharp upward trend in new car sales," said Mr. Ralston, "but we are equally pleased with the healthy condition of national used car stocks. As of the end of February, our dealers' inventories of used cars were 7,000 lower than a year ago."

COUNTY VALUATION INCREASED

Paintsville — Tax supervisors for Johnson county completed their work Monday, March 13, after being in session for 25 days. Their report, filed with County Clerk John H. Chandler, shows a raise in the county valuation of $564,059. This will place the total assessment of the county at $5,475,404, a raise over last year of $964,788.

Stratton immediately started in pursuit and first hit the bandits' trail at the filling station of John Phillips at Toler where they purchased 10 gallons of gasoline. Stratton continued in pursuit but the two men were picked up near Logan under police fire.

Circuit Judge R. Monroe Fields ordered the Pike county grand jury to report last Wednesday for the purpose of investigating the abduction and robbery of Wells.

MRS. FRALEY PASSES AT HOME NEAR LOUISA

Mrs. Millie Thompson Fraley, 65, wife of George W. Fraley, Louisa, R. 2, died Tuesday, March 21, at her home near Patrick Gap, Lawrence county, after an illness of one month. She was born and reared in Lawrence county, and had been a member of the Freewill Baptist Church for more than half a century.

She is survived by her husband, three daughters, Mrs. Charles Spencer, New Philadelphia, O., Mrs. R. C. Boyd and Mrs. Lizzie O'Brian, both of Paintsville; Dock Fraley, Weeksbury, and Ephriam Fraley, Wayland, and one sister, Mrs. Alafair Laney, Peach Orchard, Ky.

The funeral was conducted from the Spencer church at Norris Thursday afternoon, and burial was made in the Thompson family cemetery.

OLDS NATIONAL SALES UP DURING FEBRUARY

National retail sales of Oldsmobile cars during February reached a total of 8,466 units, an increase of more than 38 per cent over February of last year, according to D. E. Ralston, general sales manager.

The combined January-February Oldsmobile sales figure of 18,729 cars exceeded by more than 6,000 units the total for the same two months of 1938, Mr. Ralston added. This represents an increase of more than 51 per cent. The sales totals were aided ma-

BUS FRANCHISE AWARDED

Louisa—Public bus service between Louisa and Sandy Hook, providing two round trips daily between the two county seats will be inaugurated early in April, possibly in 15 days, it was stated this week by Oscar Scott, of Pikeville, who has acquired the Louisa-Sandy Hook bus franchise from J. P. Fannin, of Sandy Hook.

Scott made an inspection trip over the route between Louisa and Sandy Hook Monday and said he would commence operation on the bus line as soon as he receives his license and insurance. This usually requires 15 days, he explained. A schedule of trips has not been arranged yet but he said two round trips would be made daily. He said he had not yet decided whether to start with seven-passenger or 20-passenger buses.

RESOLUTIONS

Whereas, our heavenly Father, in His infinite wisdom, has seen fit to call from our midst our beloved sister, Ora Hunt, who departed this life March 2, 1939, therefore, be it

Resolved, That in the passing of Sister Hunt, Miriam Rebekah Lodge, No. 31, has lost one of its most faithful members; the community a highly respected woman, the husband a devoted wife and the family a loving mother.

Resolved, That the members of this Lodge extend their deepest sympathy to the bereaved friends and relatives of this departed sister and commend them to "Him who doeth all things well." Be it further resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the bereaved family, one to The Floyd County Times for publication, and that they be spread upon the minute book of the lodge.

We'll not forget thee, we who stay to work a little longer.
Your name, your faith, your love shall lie on memory's page, all bright and clear.

When wearied by the toll of life, our heavy limbs shall be.
We'll come and one by one, lie down upon dear mother earth, with thee.
