Did you just discover the fact for your ownself? No, you didn't. If you did, why didn't you say something, a long time ago, about it?

Isn't it a fact, my fran, that you learned just about all you know of the matter from the newspapers and magazines? (And these publications still have editors, though I often wonder why.)

As for naming these members of that invisible empire working within this epublic, that's what the FBI and other governmental agencies are trying to to, right now. We might suspect some folks, but there's a libel law that curbs rewspapers in the printing of what they suspect.

Your intentions are good, Mr. Gethell, and we like your interest in the matter. But, when you brand others as cowards, why not be dead game and

As for newspaper editors not printing your letters about the "Fifth Column"—well, right here yours is, printed in THE FLOYD COUNTY TIMES:

Yet our American editors will not tell us the truth about it, nor will they publish a resident's letter stating such truths, thereby protecting the most dangerous enemy to the United States of America.

Attorney General OK's "Beer Shut-Off" Plan

QUESTION: "Is it legally permissible, under the laws of Kentucky, for beer distributors to unite by agreement of understanding with each other to withhold the sale of beer from persons selling at retail who are violating the liquor laws, or any other laws of the state?"

ANSWER: "There is no restriction in either the constitution or the Kentucky Statutes prohibiting the making of the kind of agreement referred to in the above question."—(signed) Jesse K. Lewis, Asst. Attorney General.

APPROVAL: "I have read and approve the above opinion, and will add that, in my opinion, the proposed form of agreement is valid and enforceable."-(signed) Hubert Meredith, Attorney General.

This is official approval of the policy of the Kentucky Brewers and Beer Distributors Committee to shut off the supply of beer to those few retail outlets in the state that violate the law, outrage public decency, and bring discredit to an industry which pours into the treasury of this state more than $1,000,000 in taxes each year.

A majority of the legitimate beer wholesalers and distributors are working in full cooperation with the Committee. They pledge their support of the shut-off plan wherever conditions justify such action.

That the Kentucky Brewers and Beer Distributors Committee means business is evidenced by the following

On June 26, at the request of the Committee, a Rowan County roadhouse, scene of a fatal shooting, was closed up and its beer permit cancelled.

Since organization on May 26, the Committee has investigated more than 125 retail beer outlets, and has warned 17 of these to eliminate unwholesome conditions in violation of public decency and morals and the beer control laws of Kentucky.

The Committee invites every clear-thinking, civicminded Kentuckian to add additional authority to its efforts by patronizing only those retail outlets in which the conditions surrounding the sale of beer are as wholesome as the beverage itself.

THE HILL-COUNTRY FOR DEFENSE

With the need for inland locations of factories and airports apparent as the United States prepares against the day when we shall be obliged to defend ourselves against a foreign foe, what section is more ideally suited to such enterprise than Eastern Kentucky?

Consider Floyd county, for instance.

A war industries plant located here would be far removed from either coast, veritably tucked in amid protecting hills, in the midst of remnants of the pure Anglo-Saxon blood-strain whence subversive elements do not spring and wherein they cannot Coal, oil, gas, water power-all are here. Rail and highway facilities are adequate, Labor is plentiful. Back in the natural fortresses of these hill-locked valleys of ours is where Uncle Sam, girding for battle, may lift up his eyes with the least danger of enemy eyes looking down upon him from the sky.

FOR THE PRICE OF A HOT DOG

Says THE PAINTSVILLE HERALD, editorially:

"The indictments against the carnival variety of shows are many, but the more serious is that they spread venereal diseases. The Johnson County Health Department reported . . . that an examination of last week's carnival empleyes revealed that at least three were syphilities and the most horrible thing about it was that they were dispensers of food sold to hundreds of people who frequented the grounds."

Quoth THE FLOYD COUNTY TIMES:

Had you who contend that carnivals, those selfstyled "good, clean shows full of fun for everybody," have a rightful place in this and other communities of Floyd county thought about that "clean" and "good" and "full of fun" feature of most carnivals?

Had you thought of the children of your community, not to mention the adults? For the price of a hot-dog or a hamburger-infection with syphilis!

And for the price of a small percentage of the receipts from a gullible public you get, in addition to dread syphilis germs, the economic and moral losses that attend the visitations of every carnival!

They surely will take most of your money with them-and they may leave part of their bad with you!

A REMINDER TO ROAD ENTHUSIASTS

As Left Beaver Creek, Martin, Prestonsburg and representatives of the sections affected turn to a concerted move to get the Left Beaver highway surfacing completed, THE TIMES is with the boys, yet

It endorses that idea of a motorcade to Frankfort to show "the powers that be" how much we are interested and how many of us are interested in the completion of this highway. Why not endorse such a plan?-that's what we suggested, three years ago. This newspaper has always contended that a visit to Frankfort by one or two men, be they county officials or citizens, is nothing more than a motor trip, possibly an enjoyable drive down through the Blue Grass and on to Frankfort, with a promise or excuse received before the return home is begun.

During recent months, this newspaper has steadfastly held to the belief that Left Beaver's road would be surfaced. Some of it is being surfaced. But not as much of it as we had hoped. During this time, this newspaper has not been belligerent; it has tried to be helpfully considerate of those upon whom we must depend for help. And so it has drawn some criticism.

We have been criticised for our failure to emit regular blasts in our version of the "King's English" against Zach Justice, highway commissioner from this district. We have been asked if our position has been abandoned.

No, boys, we are still with you and against anybody against you.

But circumstances, to repeat an ancient sayin', alter cases. And the circumstances are not now so critical and so open to criticism as 'way back then. The road has been graded, given a gravel surface and a part of it will be given a "black-top" surface this year. So why condemn everybody connected with the matter from Governor Johnson on down?

The matter is now being attacked in the manner we have always advised. Eventually, it will be settled to the satisfaction of us all. Incredulity, partisan criticism, a "So-and-So be damned" attitude will not be worth the time to voice them. But, if a deliberate attempt to ignore Floyd county and Left Beaver is made, let this newspaper hear about it.

Then we may say something that will re-intrench ourselves in the position some of you think we have abandoned.

P. S. If they tell you, down at Frankfort, that the "surface value" of the Left Beaver road is only two inches or little more deep, and thus requires a costly base to the extent that the mileage let to contract for surfacing is exhausting the funds appropriated for twice as much-don't give up. Ask them, Who was responsible for that comparatively worthless surface? Certainly, they can't blame that on us!

A STRONG, SILENT PLATFORM By JOHN LARDNER (In The Courier-Journal)

The troubles of Wendell L. Willkie are just beginning. Outside of his major problem (who is now collecting a salary of $75,000 in Washington, D. C.), there is the problem of what the Republicans are going to give him to work with.

Your correspondent has studied the Republican platform corefully, from above, beneath, left profile and right profile. It looks the same from all sides. It is a strong, silent platform. It reminds you somewhat of Harpo Marks in the fact that it doesn't say any-

Now that the party has a nomnee, the leaders (including our favorite character, the party whp), will get together and make the platform a little more specific by filling in the name of "Wendell Willkie" in all the blang spaces and denouncing the boll weevil in paragraph 7, formerly occupied by the man-eating

Unless Mr. Willkie puts his foot down with a gentle thump the platform will then emerge as standard Republican, containing the following planks:

1-Down with dirty weather. ("nder the New Deal the weather has been rotten, venal and corrupt. Let us restore a patriotic mean rainfall for Americans!" Congressman Alabaster Snuffin.)

2.-Stay in and | or out of war.

3.-Down with dishonesty.

- 4.—Help the Allies by all means short of help.
- 5.-Down with forest fires
- 6.-American will never perish as long as America
- 7.-Down with the boll weevil (formerly the man-

8.—No parking within 10 feet of a fire-plug.

9.-Down with Democrats. 10.-How have you been?

Before Willkie's nomination the platform touched lightly on the international situation. The boys decided to nominate first and let the candidate figure out what they meant. This practical joke has everybody in stitches except Mr. Willkie, who is still trying to find the code word.

As nearly as Willkie and his staff can make it out, the platform argues as follows:

"Defend America, but not at anybody's expense, and have the young people prepared for war, but do not train them, and Hitler is a heel, but do not get him sore, and the situation is serious, but very satisfactory, except February, which has but eight and a score till leap year gives it one day more-and not one cent for tribute. The first international platform to be written in double talk, and Mr. Willkie, as a desperate measure, has called upon Hyme Caplin, the popular fight manager, for advice. Mr. Caplan can decipher it if anyone can. There is soime reason to believe he wrote it.

THE KNOCKOUT BLOW

With the withdrawal of virtually all Allied troops from Flanders, except the multitude killed or captured, still another phase of the war is finished. After a few days of lesser activity German forces will hold the whole of Belgium and a considerable strip of Northern France. By that time they will be conveniently disposed for either the long-promised blitzkrieg against England or a new, intensified drive into France, heading for Paris.

That the so-called knock-out blow will not be long in coming is reasonably certain. The German military command will need some days, it may be supposed, to reorganize its heavily damaged armored divisions and to replenish its supplies of ammunition and gasoline at advanced field bases. If the knockout blow is to be against England, Germany will need still more time to prepare captured airdromes and improve defensive positions on the Somme against possible French attack.

But time urges Herr Hitler onward. He has to win quickly, if he is to win at all. This has become a trite observation, but its truth is more evident each day.

Until three or four days ago it seemed nearly certain that the great effort would be made against England. Every newspaper in Germany, every German General who would talk at all, promised it. But since then a great campaign of hate against France has been built up, replacing the Nazi policy of kind words for the "delued French,"

Possibly the difficulties of direct invasion of England have been more clearly realized in Germany. Perhaps the weakness of the French army has been singled out by Hitler as his great opportunity. Perhaps the final, reluctant promise of Mussolini to come into the war was given only on condition that Hitler turn his whole offensive strength against France, to make Italy's task easier.

This is borne out somewhat by the swelling tide of Italian preparation, the talk in Germany of France as the great enemy, and the murmurs of revenge heard in Spain against the British, possessors of Gibraltar. Madrid has suddenly loomed up as a potential ally of the axis powers once more. The dangers here lie in the use of Spanish airdromes for Italian attacks on French cities and the possibility of land attacks on Gibraltar, which is strong against sea power but vulnerable to assault by land,

It seems that the Allies are soon to face a test greater than any yet demanded of them. - Cincinnati

WHY THE NAZIS NEED WORLD DOMINATION

Even today, in the face of what Germany has done to the Jews, to the Poles, to the innocent nations who chanced to be in her path, it is hard to remember that Nazism is a total moral revolution: a revolution which cannot endure unless it is imposed throughout the civilized world.

We are accustomed to law-breakers. All nations have been law-breakers in their time. We are not accustomed to the denial that there is any such thing

As Thomas Mann has said, "The laws are not violated in Germany; the tables of the law are broken." The same idea has been put out by Hans Frank, who was Hitler's lawyer before 1933 and who is now Governor-General of Poland: "Whatever benefits the National-Socialist State, is right."

The destruction of Christianity is a necessity, if this moral revolution is to succeed. The thoroughness of the anti-Christian campaign within Germany is displayed in a pamphlet made up of German documents, compiled by Dr. Stanley High, and circulated by the Rev. Henry Smith Leiper, executive secretary of the Federal Council of Churches in America. We call attention to this pamphlet because it proves again a point we should never forget: Nazism must be a world-revolution or it must collapse. Since the Nazis do not intend to collapse, we must assume that they do intend to impose their doctrines as fast as possible in every civilized country of the world.

Man will not long endure the imposed worship of the state if anywhere there remains the example of a people still free to worship God. Man will not long accept materialism, and slavery to a master race, if anywhere the dream of Western civilization is still alive; the dream of brotherhood and individual responsibility.

These are pertinent reflections for the Americans who ask, "Why should Hitler ever desire to bother us?" If Nazism is to last there must be no escape from the system, no refuge for the beaten or the unreconciled.-The Courier-Journal.

If first reports are confirmed and King Leopold surrendered to the Germans in the manner he is said to have done, he stands guilty of what in the most charitable terms amounts to colossal stupidity and disregard for the fate of his allies.

The moral training you have given your son thru his marble-shooting days will serve as a solid wall, protecting him in his fight for recognition in the world. The training our government is ready to give him will build him up physically, and will add to the mental and moral training he has already received, assuring him an equal opportunity. There are people who will try to

One cannot understand how he could take so drastic a step as this without conferring first with the leaders of the French and British armies, how he could without even giving them warning forsake those who had gone to the rescue of his nation, how he could agree to a move which would have doomed the French and British fighting with the Belgians in the pocket created by the Nazis.

But this is the third of three blunders made by Leopold. In 1936 he terminated the Belgian treaty of alliance with France and said he could rely on the pledge of the Nazis not to invade his country again. Even though the word of Hitler was notoriously unreliable, Leopold's mistake was committed in good faith. And last December when he refused to confer with the British and the French on a plan of defense, he was still holding to a blind faith, or hope, in Hitler's premise.

It is to the everlasting credit of the Belgians that their cabinet, their officers, their soldiers and the people opposed the king's surrender. If anybody should know the problems of girls, it's Joseph Sevier, for he's taught and managed them for 20 years. In addition to being president of Fassifern, he has a summer camp girls, Camp Greystone, in the North Carolina mountains.

I asked Dr. Sevier if he taught a Southern drawl as a part | Service. For men living too far away lin. population of incorporated towns was of his course, and he said, "No. Charm is deeper than a manner from the school to travel back and at Lackey, which dropped from 522 of speech. Here they are, girls, just as you would get them in the classroom at Fassifern:

1. Interest yourself in others instead of trying to interest others in you. The great secret of charm is in thinking of the

3. Do not expect constant praise. The girl who invariably tries to draw praise soon grows tiresome. If she wishes to make a good impression, it would be far better to praise the other person. To be liberal with praise, if it is sincere, will lead toward making a dozen friends where the praise-seeker makes

4. Listen respectfully to the opinions of others. Do not make light of them because you do not agree with them. Besides, the other person may be right.

5. Cultivate a skill which will give pleasure to others. By "skill" is meant habits which will influence and serve other people. For example, the girl who can play the piano or tennis, or is clever in other entertaining ways, is likely to be considered more charming than the girl who does none of these things. Singing, story telling, making quick caricatures of those present, and fortune telling, will add to the amusement of a group. In other words, the girl who "does something" is more charming than the girl who sits back, contributing nothing.

6. If you feel a person is lonely, talk to him; serve him tea. There are many ways in which you can give attention and create happiness.

Above all, says Dr. Sevier, give up the idea that charm To End Here consists of beautiful clothes, an accent, a smile. It's deeper and far more fundamental.

Since these qualifications are sometimes not stressed in the home, Dr. Sevier is providing Fassifier girls with an asset that will serve them long after their distance with an asset that will serve them long after their diplomas may have crumbled second and final week of study for the ON FORGERY CHARGE into dust, an asset they often find of far greater value than all year, it was announced by the Rev. the book-learning that may come their way

WHITLEY COUNTY BAR ASSOCIATION ENDORSES SILER FOR APPELLATE JUDGE

Eugene E. Siler, candidate for the Republican nomination for Judge of the Court of Appeals, recently received the endorsement of members of the Whitley County Bar Association, an organization made up of the County's leading lawyers.

Since Mr. Siler has been a practicing attorney for sixteen years and has conducted himself in strict keeping with the highest precepts of his profession, it is only natural that his fellow lawyers should be ready and willing to recommend him for a position on the bench of Kentucky's highest tribunal. The Bar Association's endorsement is as follows:

'The Whitley County Bar Association and the members of the Whitley man at the Paintsville hospital, a fine ifer will join him in Indianapolis with- County Bar do hereby endorse the candidacy of Eugene E. Siler for Judge of the Court of Appeals.

"Mr. Siler is a graduate of Cumberland College and the University of Kentucky, and has been practicing law for sixteen years and is a good lawyer. Miss Mary Martha Lusk, Barbour- Mr. Siler is well qualified to fill the office and will serve with fairness to all, rich and poor alike. We know him and vouch for his qualifications and honesty. He is a deserving Christian gentleman, and not only a leader at the Bar, but is also a leader in civic and community work. We recommend him to the voters of the Seventh Appellate District."

KIDNEY STAGNATION IS WORSE THAN

Because We Treat Constipation at The Onset, While We Neglect Our Kidneys Indefinately

No other organ in your body is of more importance than your kidneys. For in your kidneys there are nine million tubes which must work day and night to filter the fluids and keep the system free from wastes, selds, poisons which, if permitted to remain, may cause serious kidney and bladder troubles.

It is no wonder then that Nature oftens calls for help to clean out the kidneys. So if you are troubled with Getting-Up-Nights, Leg Pains, Backache, Nervous Headache, Dizzines or Loss of Energy, due to functional kidney disorders, try KIDANS, the famous kidney remedy, which aids Nature to flush out the kidneys, to filter all wastes, to prevent kidney stagnation.

BANK IN SUIT AGAINST P'BURG

City officials this week denied any intention of attempting to avoid payment of the bank's claims and indicated that they would contest the acion to the extent of their ability.

Glenn C. Spradlin, executive vicepresident of the bank, told THE TIMES that he had appeared before the City Council and had offered to deduct $250 from the bank's original claim of $769, plus interest for 10 years,, if the claim were paid at the time or if the bank were permitted to use the claim in the payment of taxes, He added that his offer was not accepted. The total debt to the bank, including interest, amounts, it was said, to approximately $1,300.

City officials said Monday that, until a settlement is reached in the bank case, improvements on Third street and all other plans of the city may, of necessity, be held in abeyance.

SPECIAL SESSION CALLED

In a special session Friday evening, the City Council planned its fight against the First National Bank's injunction.

Only other business of importance transacted at the meeting was the apcointment of Reuben Taylor, Charles Osborne and W. F. Clarke as supervisors to "equalize" the city tax as-essment for 1940. The three had not accepted their appointments Monday.

PRESTONSBURG,

Candidate for Re-Nomination to the Office of Representative

CONGRESS 7th District

OF KENTUCKY

We are authorized to announce A. J. MAY, of Prestonsburg, as a candidate for re-nomination to the office of Representative in Congress from the Seventh District of Kentucky, and urge all Democrats to go to the polls on August 3rd and cast their ballots for him for the following

1. He has made an excellent record as a Representative of our District during the years of his service in the Congress of the United States.

2. His many years' service at the bar as one of the leading lawyers of his state and his ten years faithful service in Congress has developed him into a wise, experienced and recognized legislator of ability, and by reason of that experience he is now capable of rendering still greater service to all our people.

3. He is now and for several years has been chairman of one of the leading and most powerful committees of the United States House of Representatives, that of Military Affairs, which gives him a prominent position of leadership where he ranks high as one of the leaders of the House.

4. He is strongly opposed to involving our country in a foreign war, and as head of the Committee on Military Affairs he is in position to exert great influence in the building of a powerful defense of America against aggression by any foreign foe. While he remains in Washington to strive for our freedom and for the liberties of all our people, let us go to the polls and show our appreciation by voting for him.

5. He is indorsed by all labor groups on his perfect record of support of labor leg-

6. When he came into office ten years ago there was not a single governmentowned building in the district, but today we see new postoffices, many magnificent schools and other public buildings, and more than fifteen million dollars have been spent in building roads to rural sections.

7. Actual practical service in Congress is admitted by all well-informed persons to be a controlling influence in the equipment of one for real service to his district, and it would be unwise, we believe, to retire an experienced legislator for one without such valuable experience. This was just recently emphasized by unqualified endorsement of Congressman May's record of support of the National Administration by Democratic county, district and state conventions.

8. Finally, we should listen to the voice of experience and not "swap hosses in the middle of the stream," especially when the stream is fraught with great perils.
