

This Town--That World

JUST A CHANGE

No, TOWN-WORLD has not grown so important in our eyes that it rates "top-billing" in the paper. We're just experimenting. Besides, this job of getting out a paper is going to run into work, one of these days, if we don't do a little "prankin'" with make-up and things.

TO THE RED CROSS: If you don't mind, use my mite somewhere besides France till we can be certain funds sent there will not fall into Nazi hands. The French are suffering pitifully, of course; but as we understand the matter, Germany, which now owns or controls France, has renounced all need of Red Cross help. So let Germany care for those whom she has subjugated.

1940 EXCERPT FROM "THE NIGHT BEFORE CHRISTMAS": Hitler got his Donder up and started off Blitzen.

HEARD IN A RECENT GAB-FEST: That man's so tight he can't get to heaven. If he did, he'd tear up the golden streets and try to take 'em to the bank.

OL' OL': Ask Woodrow Burchett how he lost $65 last Saturday. 'Tis a sad story.

NOT THIS WORLD--THIS COUNTY
A mass of twisted steel at a roadside . . . a man gasping from a mortal wound in his chest . . . a child crushed to death . . . a youth denying the existence of God . . . a man denouncing America, England, everything and everybody opposed to Germany . . .
No, that's not war. It's Floyd county.

ALL WET
No, it's not the heat—it's the humidity that's hurting us. The Prestonsburg Water Company has presented us a bill of $9.27.

NOTICE TO THE READING.
NOT THE LISTENING, PUBLIC:
I am no longer connected in any way with the Nazi regime. Reason—checks that have been received are no good.
(Pol. adv.) (Signed) HENRY HOWARD.

TO OUR DISCREDIT
Evidently, Prestonsburg doesn't want a library. In fact, it would appear that neither Prestonsburg, the county nor any of its officials cared anything about that recent ebullition of curs, advocating such a thing for us oldsters, our children and our children's children.
So, let's turn the ledger to another page. But wait!—before doing that, let's make an entry on the debit side of the old page.

WHY NOT DO THE JOB RIGHT?
No, THE TIMES is not getting a thing out of anybody selling the kind of product to be mentioned later herein. But that doesn't keep us from having a notion that the City School Board should, somehow, supplement its building program to the extent that the gymnasium here be given an exterior finish resembling brick, such as some Prestonsburg homes recently have received, much to their improvement. This "composition brick," besides being attractive, is fireproof, is guaranteed over a long period of years and costs no more, it is said, than do a few coats of good paint administered by a first-class painter.
With that fine new school building alongside it, the gymnasium, its white paint all dirty, its wooden exterior looking drab by comparison, is the ugly duckling of the two school campuses here. The gym has a splendid floor. All it needs is a little modernizing.
Now that the modern touch may be applied at comparatively little cost, and since the school board and WPA are co-operating in a building program which will give the town one of the finest school buildings in Eastern Kentucky, it would appear that good business would dictate this improvement in keeping with that program.

2 Floyd Towns To Observe 'Fourth' With Celebration

PRESTONSBURG OFFERS TITLE MAT BOUT

A championship wrestling match, balloon ascension, parachute jump, baseball doubleheader, fireworks—these features and many others will be included in what is expected to be Prestonsburg's most successful Fourth of July celebration.

The light-heavyweight wrestling title of Kentucky will be at stake when the Kid Scotty Williams-Blacksmith Pedigo bout gets under way at noon on the high school campus. Williams is the only Kentucky wrestler to dispute Pedigo's championship claims, and Eastern Kentucky mat fans are in for a treat when the two rivals renew their feud.

The balloon ascension and parachute jump are scheduled for 3:30 p. m. The Floyd County Fish and Game Association will sponsor a coon chase one hour later.

At 1:30 p. m. the Wheelwright baseball team, current leaders in the Big Sandy League pennant chase, will meet Prestonsburg at Gasco Park. The two games are part of the regular League schedule.

Festivities will get under way at 9:15 a. m., when a boys' bicycle race will be staged. Following will be a girls' roller skate race, then a pole pillow fight. At ten o'clock contestants will attempt to climb the greasy pole, to be followed by a snatch grab contest. At 10:30 three lady judges will select the winner of the ugliest man contest, the winner of which will be presented a shaving kit. Ten minutes later the largest family present will be awarded $5 in groceries.

Congressman A. J. May, chairman of the House Military Affairs Committee, will be on hand at 11 o'clock, when he will deliver a patriotic address.

At five o'clock a string instrument contest for individual instruments.

FRIENDLY RIVALS

Though rivals in extending a welcome to Floyd county to visit them on July 4, the towns of Prestonsburg and Martin are friendly rivals. On such good terms are the two towns that the Prestonsburg Co-Operative Business Association assisted public-spirited Martin and Beaver Creek citizens in the recent organization of the Martin-Beaver Co-Operative Business Association.

OLD MINE HERE RE-OPENED

ALLEN, HALL AWAIT RAIL FACILITIES FOR OPERATION

Ready to begin operations as soon as loading facilities are supplied by the Chesapeake & Ohio Railway Company is the old Middle Creek Coal Company mine, across the river from here, under the management of S. E. Allen, Prestonsburg, and Green Hall, Grundy, Va., it was said here this week.

The old mine has been cleared for work, and a coal seam approximately 200 feet higher on the mountainside may be opened.

Operators of the mine are asking for either a siding at the tippie or for loading facilities at West Prestonsburg to which the mine's output would be conveyed by trucks.

Allen and Hall leased the mine and considerable coal acreage from the Hiram Harris estate.

Construction of a chute by means of which trucks may be loaded is under way and will be used, even if the railway company installs the siding at the tippie, it was stated. The chute in the latter event, will be used for the loading of trucks buying coal direct from the mine.

Though mined for years, the lease yet has from 300 to 400 acres of coal accessible, it was estimated.

MARTIN CASH DRAWING TO HEAD CARD

High-lighting the Fourth of July celebration at Martin, sponsored by the Martin-Beaver Co-Operative Business Association, will be the awarding of 20 cash prizes totaling $500 to holders of the lucky tickets which have been distributed by members of the group.

Five separate drawings will be held in front of the Martin high school building throughout the day, with the first one at 10 a. m., when two $20 and one $10 awards will be made. The next drawing will be at 12:30 p. m., when three $20 cash prizes will be given away. At three o'clock nine $10 prizes will be awarded, to be followed at 5:30 by the giving away of two $25 and one $50 cash prizes. The drawing will be climaxed at 7:30 p. m. when two $100 cash prizes will be awarded.

Between drawings prizes ranging from $1 to $10 in cash or cash values will be awarded to winners of the following contests: sack race for boys; catching the greasy pig (for men); potato race for boys; fat men's race; fat ladies' race; boys' race (under 14)—100 yards; girls' race (under 14)—100 yards; race for men (15 or older); race for women (15 or older).

Climbing the greasy pole; running broad jump; standing broad jump; boxing bout; fiddlers' contest; banjo picking contest; guitar picking contest; best decorated car; imitators of radio or movie stars; prettiest girl; ugliest man; hog calling contest.

2 POSTS VACANT IN P'BURG HI; 13 NAMED

HOME EC TEACHER, ATHLETIC COACH TO BE CHOSEN

Shortly after noon today Mrs. Genevieve Robinette Hays definitely was hired as home economics teacher for Prestonsburg high school. Joe Taylor Hyden was hired as a high school teacher. Mr. Hyden may serve as athletic coach.

Thirteen of the 15 teachers who will compose the faculty of Prestonsburg high school during the coming school year were hired Monday evening by the Prestonsburg Board of Education, with the approval of the county board of education.

Remaining to be hired are an athletic coach-teacher and a home economics teacher, because, said Dr. O. T. Stephens, chairman of the city board of education, an agreement has not yet been reached between the city and county boards as to the two instructors to be named.

"I understand," said A. L. Davidson, clerk of the city board, "that the county board has already hired Joe Taylor Hyden as coach and Genevieve R. Hays as home economics teacher. As for the city board, it preferred Miss Alice Harris last year's teacher, but it is hoped that that an agreement may be reached within the next week."

Bob Harlowe, coach of athletics last year, is the other applicant for the coaching position. His cause was abetted before the city board Monday evening by a petition signed by approximately 300 Prestonsburg citizens, asking the board to consider him for re-employment. Appearing before the board in Mr. Harlowe's behalf were James Morell, Jr., Leroy Combs, Frank H. Layne, J. D. Harkins, Jr.

Teachers named by the city board and given county board approval for service during the coming year are: Claybourne Stephens, principal, Mrs. Jane R. Combs, Miss Geraldine Allen, Mrs. Willa L. Howard, Mrs. Mae K. Roberts, Miss Minnie G. Harris, Miss Naomi Goble, Miss Virginia Murrill, Mrs. Kathryn Frazier, Gerald Leslie, Vertner W. Tackett.

Miss Tackett was named as Commerce teacher and will be instructor in a course new to the high school here. Students will receive instruction

GAS COMPANY OCCUPIES $50,000 HOME HERE

KENTUCKY WEST VIRGINIA FORCES CENTRALIZED BY MOVE MADE THIS WEEK

Quietly, without fanfare, the Kentucky West Virginia Gas Company moved Wednesday into its new home now nearing completion here at an estimated expenditure of more than $50,000.

Into these new fireproof quarters of brick and steel and concrete were moved the offices of four sub-departments from the Masonic building here; the garage and machine shop from the Sizemore and Blevins building on Graham street, and the warehouse from West Prestonsburg to the grounds surrounding the new structure.

Located on a three-acre tract barely outside the northern limits of Prestonsburg, the new structure is three stories in height and the only inflammable materials used in its construction are partitions separating offices on the third floor. Tons of steel have been used in truss-work and supporting columns of the structure.

COAL TONNAGE UP IN 1939

LAST YEAR, 3RD BEST IN DECADE FOR FLOYD MINES

Though there were 13 fewer coal companies operating in Floyd county last year than in 1929, the county's production was only 337,000 tons below that of 10 years ago when the coal industry hit the skids, along with most other businesses.

And last year's output of coal from this county, despite all the time lost in "lock-outs," "shut-outs," "walk-outs,"—or what have you?—was more than half a million tons above that of the preceding year. The year saw more coal shipped from Floyd county than during any year since 1936, and the tonnage totals for 1939 ranked third during the decade.

These figures, unofficial and given only as "approximate," may vary from individual mine reports, which are unavailable.

Influence of mechanized mines and more modern equipment is apparent in the relatively small loss in tonnage from 1929 when 4,817,000 tons of coal were shipped to the tonnage of 1939, which was 4,480,000, though the number of companies operating dropped from 33 in 1929 to 20 in 1939. A part of this relatively small drop in coal shippage is traced to the fact that most of the mines suspending operations during that period were small. The year 1939 saw the county hit low tide in coal production with 3,450,000 tons when 24 companies were operating. Next low in the 10-year period was the year 1938 with approximately 3,849,000 tons.

For the following mines, last year was their best in coal shipments in 10 years:

Ceilings of the first and second stories are solid steel and support floor of two-inch concrete.

The building is 122 feet long by 61 feet wide. The first and second floors extend the full size of the structure, but the third floor narrows to 30 feet in width while extending the length of the building. The third-floor office space, finished in walnut, is practically complete, as also is the second floor garage and warehouse space. Work remains to be done on the first floor which will house the company's machine shop, and added equipment has not arrived for the shop.

Beautification of the grounds surrounding the building and extending 422 feet along the Mayo Trail is a project for the future.

Construction of the building was begun in April, last year, under the supervision of C. V. Kishpaugh, two years after the company purchased the site from H. B. Patrick, of Prestonsburg.

MINER, KILLED IN ACCIDENT

EMPLOYE OF UTILITIES MINE AT MARTIN IS VICTIM

Injuries sustained when his foot slipped and he fell beneath a moving coal car in the Utilities Elkhorn mine at Martin at 11 o'clock Tuesday night were fatal to Curtis Johnson, 28, of Broad Bottom, Pike county, four hours later.

He was employed as a brakeman in the mine, where he had been working for the past four years. Besides internal injuries he suffered a broken hip, leg, jaw and collar bone.

The victim was a native of this county, the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. David Johnson. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Wanda Ratliff Johnson and two small children.

The body was prepared by the Arnold Funeral Home and taken to the home at Broad Bottom, where funeral services will be held Friday morning at 10 o'clock. Burial will be made in the family cemetery.

ONE DEAD, 4 BURNED IN BLAST

ABANDONED OIL WELL EXPLODES SUNDAY AT TOPMOST

Five Knott county youths were burned, one fatally, Sunday morning as an abandoned oil well exploded at Topmost, near the mouth of Dry Creek.

James Franklin Cooke, 15 years old, died at the Stumbo Memorial hospital, Lackey, at 10 o'clock Sunday night, 12 hours after the explosion occurred.

Recovery of Homer Hall, 18, and Nesmar Cooke, brother of the youth who died, was considered doubtful. Hershel Combs, 14, and Claude Robbins, 15, are expected to recover, though suffering from severe burns.

According to reports received here, the youths were en route to church when they observed oil flowing from the well and, unaware of the presence of gas, set a lighted weed to the oil. "Suddenly it seemed like a big cloud was coming toward us," one of the survivors said. The resultant blast enveloped the group in flames, burst windows of the church, 400 yards away.

Four of the boys frantically sought escape in a nearby stream. Members of the church congregation wrapped them in blankets and rushed them to the Lackey hospital.

James Franklin Cooke was a son of Albert and Mrs. Cora Osborn Cooke, of Topmost. His body was prepared for burial by the Ryan Funeral Home and was returned Monday to Topmost for burial in the family cemetery.

Spy Rumor Branded As 'Monstrous Tissue of Lies'

L. D. Feuchtenberger, president of the West Virginia Bakers' Association, last week attended a meeting of the executive officers of the association in Charleston, W. Va., and found there had been put in circulation in this area reports reflecting on his Americanism, and that he had been arrested as a German spy.

Mr. Feuchtenberger declared that the rumors were ridiculous and a monstrous tale of lies.

Mr. Feuchtenberger is an American citizen, born in Huntington, W. Va., of American-born parents, his mother having been born in Indiana and his father in Winchester, Va. He was reared in Charlottesville, Va., and has been in business in Bluefield 16 years, taking an active part in all civic and welfare activities.

Mr. Feuchtenberger said the rumors had reached such proportions that it was necessary to issue a formal denial that he is pro-German, or in any way connected with the German government. He has never visited Germany, cannot speak or write German, and has no known relatives there.

United States Commissioner Thomas H. Scott, through whom any action would come in such cases as this, criticized those who thoughtlessly or maliciously spread such rumors, and declared last night that no one officially or unofficially had made any complaint to him that would in any way

WEEKSBURY MEN CHARGED WITH PASSING SPURIOUS BILLS

ELI JOHNSON, SON, JEFF HALL ARE ARRESTED; SAID TO HAVE USED COUNTERFEIT $5 NOTES IN FLOYD COMMUNITY

Eli Johnson, 68 years old, his son, Ned Johnson, 25, and Jeff Hall, 35, all of Weeksbury, were held under $2,500 bond at Pikeville Monday by United States Commissioner Kenneth A. Howe on charges of passing counterfeit currency.

They were arrested by federal officers. Warrants for their arrest charged they passed two counterfeit $5 bills in the vicinity of Weeksbury.

All three pleaded not guilty before Commissioner Howe and waived examining trial. The case will be investigated by the grand jury at the September term of federal court at Jackson.

Johnson was released when he executed bond, but the others were taken to jail, pending grand jury action.

Federal officers would not indicate if other arrests are expected.

New Service Station Opening Scheduled For Saturday

What has been described as "Big Sandy's most modern service station" will have its formal opening here Saturday.

The station, constructed by the Ashland Refining Company on the Mayo Trail here at the southern end of Broadway at a cost of approximately $35,000, has been leased by the Howard Motor Company and will be operated under the direct management of S. B. Howard, owner of the auto agency.

The structure, 86 feet long by 25 feet in width, is air-conditioned and contains, in addition to a lubrication department, a display room where Ford automobiles will be displayed, an office and a garage.

WINNERS ARE OUT-HIT,

GAME, 7-6

Although the team was out-hit, 15-8, by the losers Sunday afternoon, Van Lear nosed out Allen, 7-6, at Allen, to remain in a two-way tie with Wayland for second place honors in the Big Sandy Baseball League.

While Van Lear was playing errorless ball, Allen committed three misplays, all of which figured prominently in the Van Lear scoring.

The winners started scoring early and built up a 6-1 lead midway in the game. Allen later scored two more runs to cut the lead to 6-3. In the eighth frame after two were out the losers started a rally which knotted the count. Prater doubled off the right field fence and G. Stumbo's short single sent him to third. Prater scored on Mosley's single, then Patton sent Stumbo and Mosley across the plate with his triple to center. Patton was stranded on third.

In the first of the ninth Van Lear pushed the winning run across, and Allen was unable to score in the last of the ninth.

Prater led the attack for Allen with three-for-four. Butcher led the Van Lear hitters, with three safeties.

PROMINENT "CITIZEN" SUCCEUMBS AT PHILADELPHIA

Mr. Republican Party, one of the nation's most illustrious "citizens," died suddenly at Philadelphia on Thursday, June 20. Arriving in Philadelphia just a day or two prior to his death, he was to attend, according to members of his family, a convention of "specialists" who had long been searching for a cure of his malignant disease that had its inception some 20 years ago. At the time Mr. Republican Party decided to go to Philadelphia his close friends had high hopes for his recovery, as they believed the "doctors" selected, most of whom had been called in consultation previously, would be willing to forget any personal differences in an honest endeavor to restore health to the patient. Evidently this was too much to hope for as the "specialists" insisted on bickering over minor details at the bedside, while the patient passed away, his body racked with pain.

On the eve of the convention to be held by the "doctors" at Philadelphia, the world's greatest "surgeon" offered a solution; the man who just a few years ago restored to health another of the nation's most noted "citizens," Mr. Democratic Party, offered a prescription which, had it been accepted in the spirit in which it was given, would have been the answer they had so long hoped for; the patient would have recovered and been able to carry on in co-operation with his fellowmen. The suggestion offered by the world famous "surgeon" was that two well known specialists, Frank Knox and Henry L. Stimson, men who had been tried and found capable, be permitted to assist in restoring health to all the citizens of the world, regardless of creed, color or political belief. The Philadelphia convention of "doctors" was not big enough to meet the issue squarely and on their shoulders rests the responsibility of making an explanation (if they can) to the children of the deceased.

Perhaps it was fate which led Mr. Republican Party back to the same city in which, just 84 years ago, he was born. It was in Philadelphia on June 17, 1856, the same month and within three days of the day of the month on which he died, a bouncing baby, named Republican Party, was given to the nation. He was conceived to Mr. and Mrs. Whig Party in 1854. He had descendants extending back a generation through the families of Messrs. Democratic Party and Free-Soil Party. At the time of his birth he was attended by the most noted "physicians" of the day, such men as Charles Francis Adams, Charles Sumner, Horace Greeley, and the greatest of them all, a native son of Kentucky, Abraham Lincoln. Mr. Lincoln fought for tolerance, honesty and justice above everything else, and the welfare of his country came before any mere name under which men associated themselves together to carry a political banner. The last paragraph of Mr. Lincoln's second inaugural address as President of the United States is indicative of the character of the man, and had Mr. Lincoln's party advisers followed the rule laid down by so great a statesman their patient would be hale and hearty today. That paragraph reads:

"With malice toward none; with charity for all; with firmness in the right, as God gives us to see the right, let us strive on to finish the work we are in; to bind up the nation's wounds; to care for him who shall have borne the battle, and for his widow and his orphan—to do all which may achieve and cherish a just and lasting peace among ourselves, and with all nations."

A line from the scripture which Mr. Lincoln loved to quote was true then, is true today and will be true so long as men shall live upon this earth:

"A house divided against itself cannot stand."

PRAYER VS. THE WAR

Doesn't it seem strange how quickly mere man calls for prayer to stave off a disaster after it has arrived? We are acting like a criminal who has waited until he is led to his execution before he will admit there is a power greater than his own. Until we know we are about to die we flaunt our own superiority in the face of God; we don't think we need Him in our every day affairs, at least we refuse to admit it. We want to lead our own lives, in our own way; trampling on the rights of our neighbors, taking refuge behind our man-made laws, using trickery to take what does not belong to us; we cater to the weaknesses of the flesh with our gourmand-like appetites for food and liquors; and now that we are being punished instead of bucking up and working together to atone for some of our sins, our skins turn yellow with fear and our knees shake as with palsy as we call upon God to protect us from our own wickedness.

We have the privilege at any time to change our ways and to ask forgiveness of our sins, but there is a big difference in people being honestly sorry and knowing they will make every effort to live better in the future and people who ask forgiveness just because they think they may die soon or those who merely want to get out of being annoyed by some particular obnoxious thing. It is not difficult to find out why God hasn't answered the prayers to step this war. Look around you. What are you doing, and what is your neighbor doing toward changing for the better? Have you noticed anything different in your own community than it was before the war started? No, brother, I don't believe that God is going to step in and help us one bit until you and I let Him know that we realize we are depending upon His generosity for every hour, every minute we remain in this world, and for whatever of the world's goods we may enjoy.

It is pitiful to watch some ministers in their week. They seem to be helpless to face the situation. "Pray," they say—"ask God to be merciful and stop the war!" I wonder if these ministers honestly believe what they are preaching. It is difficult for the layman to interpret many passages in the Bible, but just ordinary horse sense tells us that any group of men who accept the responsibility of going among the people to preach the Gospel, unless they strip themselves of all hypocrisy—the words coming from their mouths supposedly in the name of the Lord are actually an abomination in the sight of God. What are the ministers of your community doing—other than trying to scare you into coming to church, by telling you there is a hell awaiting you? When they get you inside the building are they talking to you intelligently, making you feel you want to change your ways because you will be happier, or do they say, "You have to change your ways, if you don't, I guarantee you there is a hell waiting you?"

Speaking of calling upon God to help us, I venture to ask, "What are we doing?" Are we doing anything to make conditions better in our neighborhood for the poor devil who has only one shirt and a pair of overalls? Are we doing anything to see that the little dirty kids get a crust of bread? Are we doing anything to provide places of recreation for the children roaming the streets at all hours of the night? While hundreds of thousands of dollars (WPA) have been spent up and down the Big Sandy to build bigger and better jails, have our ministers been big enough to forget sectarianism and work together for a few of the things that would make good citizens of our children when they grow up, eliminating the necessity of so many jails?

Yes, prayer will help. Pray—and make it hard and long. Be honest with yourself and admit what you know is true, and that is, all the yelling and bellyaching (what some call prayer) from now until doomsday, whether you are standing on your feet or down on your knees, won't do one bit of good unless you are sincere.

SPECIAL MEET TO BE CALLED

BOARD OF EDUCATION TO DIVIDE COUNTY INTO 'DISTRICTS'

A special meeting of the Floyd County Board of Education will be called the latter part of this week for the purpose of dividing the county into five districts or divisions—each of which hereafter will be represented by one board member, County Superintendent Town Hall said Wednesday.

The Court of Appeals last Friday declared the 1940 general assembly intended to return the election of county school board members to the method used prior to 1934—that of electing them by divisions of the counties. The court upheld the 1940 act, which had been termed "confusing" because of the interchange of the words "district" and "division." From 1934 until this year the board members were elected from the county at large.

The five divisions are to be made before July 1, Mr. Hall said, and each division will have approximately the same number of voters. Board members from three of the divisions will be elected next fall.

FORGOTTEN HEROES' BIVOUACS OF EARLY WARS DISCOVERED

AUXIER CITED AS REVOLUTIONARY WAR SOLDIER FROM FLOYD COUNTY; DYING MAN WROTE BALLAD

As casualty lists tell the horrifying story of war's toll in the European countries, and as America looks ahead with growing concern to the day when again the same toll may be exacted from this land, forgotten bivouacs of the hero-dead of America's early wars are being discovered and an ancient roll-call being answered.

Since a year ago last March, the Works Projects Administration, in a project sponsored by the Disabled Ex-Servicemen's Board of Kentucky, Department of Military Affairs, has been compiling a list of the Commonwealth's soldier-dead beginning with the Revolutionary War.

The work at present is only half completed, but contributions to the defense of the nation made by the boys of the Big Sandy valley, compare favorably with those of any other section of the state.

Under the project, legends of many years' telling have been purified—and a few of them disproven; files of various civic and patriotic organizations have been augmented, even on the basis of the partially-completed work, to an unbelievable extent.

Until the project was begun, records of the soldiers who served in the Revolution, War of 1812, War Between the States, Spanish-American and Mexican and World Wars were incomplete and scattered among various groups.

Now, these records are being worked rapidly into a master file of Kentucky's soldier-dead and the place of each veteran's grave definitely plotted.

That the soldiers of the Big Sandy valley didn't confine their war operations to their own "back yard" is evidenced by the information obtained on one Simon Auxier, who fought in the Revolution and who is who is buried in the Burchett cemetery opposite the mouth of Johns Creek in this county.

Auxier volunteered under General Washington at the outbreak of hostilities and, after many hair-raising adventures, was on hand to witness the surrender of Cornwallis at Yorktown. According to available information, despite the fact that Auxier was always to be found in the thick of battle, the old rebel was never wounded.

Once, however, a well-aimed British bullet was winging its way toward his head only to strike the barrel of his musket and be deflected. Auxier, a private in Company A, 39th Kentucky Infantry, lived to be 98 years old. He died October 3, 1842.

One of the best-known names in Eastern Kentucky history of the War Between the States, is Colonel A. J. May. Colonel May enlisted originally under Colonel Trigg and later was given command of the Fifth Kentucky.

It was at the Battle of Ivy Mountain in this county, that May gained his greatest military honors. This battle, fought in the fall of 1861 in the upper edge of Floyd county, found Colonel May's troops opposing those of the Union led by Colonel William Nelson.

Following the war Colonel May moved to Southwestern Virginia where his practice of law attracted attention throughout the area and where his name became synonymous with charity and kindness.

It was at the same Battle of Ivy Mountain that another son of the Big Sandy, Private Henry N. Rust, distinguished himself, according to information unearthed by the research workers.

Rust, during a heated charge, was wounded fatally. As death approached he spent his time composing a battle-song—a final gesture of the courage with which the men of his period lived and died.

Newsom Pleads Guilty To Moonshining Charge

Anthony Newsom admitted to County Judge Hill he was guilty as charged after having been arrested Tuesday by Sheriff Dial Salisbury at a moon shine still on the Alf Justice branch near Buckingham, Left Beaver, but his young wife, also captured at the still, claimed all she was doing was taking dinner to her husband.

Anthony received a 30-day jail term. Mrs. Anthony was released under $500 bond.

Eleven hundred gallons of mash were poured out and the still destroyed. The raiding party also visited the Jane Isaacs branch of Jack's Creek but Federal Agent Wince Trimble had called there a few days earlier, captured the still and three alleged moonshiners whose names are unavailable.

Accompanying Sheriff Salisbury on the raid were Deputies Bill Marshall, Lackey Salisbury and Millard Salisbury.

Come to PRESTONSBURG July 4

For The Biggest Celebration In Floyd County's History!

MAIN ATTRACTION IS A FREE CHAMPIONSHIP WRESTLING MATCH

There's a feud a-brewin' in old Kentucky. Not a family feud, not tribal trouble. But a good old feud over the supremacy of Eastern and Western Kentucky, in wrestling.

And, Prestonsburg, Ky.,—right here in our midst, neutral territory for both—the two feudists battle it out to a FINISH—yes sir, a FINISH, NO DRAWS—to see who's the better. The date—July 4; the place—PRESTONSBURG'S BIG CELEBRATION!

Representing Western Kentucky is Cecil "Blacksmith" Pedigo, a gypsy battler from down between Bowling Green and Glasgow, Ky., and the claimant of the hillbilly championship of America.

In the Eastern Kentucky corner is "Kid Scotty" Williams, a native of the hills of Kentucky, and a leading contender for the world's light-heavyweight championship, and one of the leading disputers of Pedgo's claim to the hillbilly title.

The feud between them is pretty hot, but efforts to bring them together had gone in vain because neither wanted to battle on the other's stamping ground.

Promoter Heywood Allen, Sr., famous Louisville matchmaker who arranged the sterling Fourth of July attraction offered Prestonsburg fans last year, hit upon the idea of matching Pedigo and Kid Scotty Williams on the neutral ground for this 1940 Fourth of July presentation. But even he ran into trouble . . . the men insisted on New York purses, and Allen contacted the Prestonsburg merchants and citizens, and found these good people willing to stand such expenses to land such an important conflict. Not only that, Mr. Allen was advised not to stint himself in any way to book the great attraction for this great July 4 event.

And, Allen, after hours of tireless negotiations between the men finally succeeded in signing them on the dotted line, and obtaining guarantees from them to make sure both of the men would live up to the contract.

Now, the match is on—Pedigo versus Kid Scotty Williams for the hillbilly championship of America and the Kentucky light-heavyweight championship JULY 4 at Prestonsburg's big celebration.

So prepare to witness this stupendous bout, an even greater one than Prestonsburg had last year, and for the championship of Kentucky, and above all to settle a feud between Eastern and Western Kentucky.

DOUBLE-HEADER BASEBALL GAME WHEELWRIGHT —VS.— PRESTONSBURG

Wheelwright is the leading team in the league. However, Prestonsburg has a fine young team with new additions eligible for these games, and a close battle is in prospect.

Plenty of FREE ICE WATER on streets all day long. Many business houses will be open all day with rest room facilities for ladies.

Many citizens have volunteered cars and drivers for FREE TRANSPORTATION to the various events in and near town.

BLACKSMITH PEDIGO

PEDIGO BOASTS GREAT RECORD

CECIL "BLACKSMITH" PEDIGO, a rugged blacksmith, has a great record in wrestling. He once held the world's junior-middleweight championship and has bid for the world's light-heavyweight and middleweight titles on several occasions.

He's famous for the "bear hug," the same hold which Ivan "Whiskers" Rasputin specialized in. The smithy has over 500 victories to his credit and boasts that he's never backed up from any man . . . and what's more never will.

SCOTTY RATED AMONG MAT BEST

A thumbnail sketch of "KID SCOTTY" WILLIAMS shows he's among the best wrestlers in the world today. He's not only great in his class, but, at 175 pounds, goes out of his division to meet heavyweights. AND HE BEATS THEM, too!

What can he do when he ties into Pedigo? Only time can tell, and Eastern Kentucky folks get to enjoy the thrills of watching them battle this feud out.

It comes off July 4 at the Prestonsburg celebration. Don't miss it . . . it's the classic of all times.

SHIKE'S POKES

(Views expressed in this column are those of the writer and not necessarily those of The Times.)

I honestly believe that a WPA project in Maine and Vermont would give FDR a clean sweep.

I told you that it wasn't Agriculture that was keeping Roy Denny up Left Beaver. Yep, he got the other rib back Sunday—he appointed Miss Mollie Turner as his Secretary of War.

Roy is a worthy addition to W. J. Turner's family—Roy being an agricultural expert—and it hay-cutting time, Here's luck, Roy and Mollie, hope all your troubles will be "little ones."

DRIFT, 9; BOLDMAN, 4. You'd better watch out for that Drift outfit—they're getting their feet on the ground and are going places.

I have been advised that the Martin baseball diamond was really poorer than I reported. It was too poor for soy beans—that was because they planted. So, if it won't sprout black-eyed peas, there's not much hope.

"Trap" has a new slant on umpiring since he returned from Michigan—you gotta tag them on a force play.

Aside to Ed Leslie—seems as though you have lost that bet on the Left Beaver highway.

What Checkweighman was TONK-Y-ing Saturday night?

Sammy Hughes and his mule have parted again—he swapped him to Lum for a game rooster and two gritters. Lum took one look at his garden and decided he didn't need the gritters.

The ex-convict who attacked a Martin woman last week is still running loose at Salisbury, Ky. I haven't seen him, but several reliable people reported they have seen him.

Buckhannon, Prestonsburg's side-arm pitcher, has invented a new curve. He claims it will stand the hitters on their ears—he's named it the Peasley Gap Sinker.

Chub has a time with his car every time he starts out, according to Noah, he loses something. Just last week, he was out working, trying to start his car. Noah came along and found his battery about two hundred yards down the road.

PRESTONSBURG LOSES TWO

CLEAR CR., W'WRIGHT TAKE MEASURE OF LOCAL TEAM

After bowing to Clear Creek, 4-2, Saturday afternoon at Gasco Park in a game postponed from the previous Sunday, Prestonsburg was routed, 10-2, by Wheelwright Sunday afternoon on the Wheelwright field, to lose their second game in as many days. The losses tie the local team and Clear Creek for fourth place in the Big Sandy Baseball League standings.

In the Saturday game the two teams went into the ninth inning with Prestonsburg enjoying a 2-1 lead. Clear Creek tied the count in the first of the ninth and held Prestonsburg scoreless during the last half. In the first of the tenth Clear Creek, aided by Prestonsburg errors, scored twice. Prestonsburg was unable to score in the last half of the inning.

Branham, on the mound for Prestonsburg, allowed 13 hits, all of them singles except one, and kept them well-scattered. He struck out four and walked two. Prestonsburg got to the offerings of Kit Stumbo for nine hits, including doubles by Laferty, Maynard and Branham and a triple by Adrian Collins. Stumbo struck out seven and walked nine.

Adrian Collins, playing third base for Prestonsburg, led his mates in hitting, with a triple and a single to his credit. E. Johnson, Clear Creek short stop, hit a triple and two singles. Kit Stumbo, Gayheart and Moore each connected with a pair of singles.

Against the league-leading Wheelwright team Sunday afternoon Prestonsburg was in the game only during the first half. Wheelwright took a one-run lead in the first inning, and Prestonsburg tied it up in the third. In the fourth the winners broke loose with a three-run spurge and took a 4-1 lead. Both teams went scoreless in the fifth, and Prestonsburg made another in the sixth, narrowing the lead to 4-2. But Clear Creek came back in the sixth to score four, then added one more in each the seventh and eighth, ending the scoring.

Adrian Collins was the starting pitcher for Prestonsburg and he allowed six hits and four runs during the four innings he worked. He was charged with the loss. Stone finished the game on the hill for the losers.

Vasvary, pitching for Wheelwright, allowed the losers only six hits, all singles, and struck out nine. Only Laferty was able to solve his slants for more than one hit. Mann, Wheelwright catcher, led his team in slugging, with a home run and a single. Calhoun made a double and a pair of singles, and Vasvary made three singles.

Sunday afternoon Prestonsburg will meet Wayland on the Wayland diamond.

A meeting for rural teachers will be held here July 8. The following schedule was adopted for the checking out of books and supplies: July 8, districts 1-40; July 10, 41-71; July 11, 72-99; July 12, 101-118 and miscellaneous.

Again the teachers were reminded they must file a notarized statement (two copies) at the superintendent's office before July 1 if they prefer not to become members of the Teachers' Retirement System.

VETS SEEK AID IN 'CRISIS'

LEGION ASKS SUPPORT OF EX-SOLDIERS TO 'SAVE' AMERICA

In an "Open Letter to Veterans" officers and members of committees of Floyd Post No. 129, American Legion, this week called upon ex-soldiers to take their places with the Legion in support and protection of America as the country faces "a serious crisis."

The letter follows:
 "You who so nobly bore the brunt of conflict in 1917 are called upon to face a more serious crisis.

"America, the last stronghold of civilization, is ringed about with enemies who look to and seek her destruction and the extinguishment of the guiding lights of oppressed humanity—Justice and Liberty. Enemies bore from within seeking to undermine faith in our government, our officials and our institutions. Such vermin are far more dangerous than the enemy you faced at Argonne, Belleau Woods and Chateau Thierry, for they seek your freedom—freedom of thought, freedom of speech and freedom of action, gifts the true patriot holds more precious than life.

"A victorious Germany on the march in the east, a restless Asia stretching out to encompass us on the west, alien unrest in the south and Russia like a hungry vulture waiting to sweep down from the north. Can we, holders of the precious heritage of freedom, sit idly by while these forces threaten our enslavement?"

"The American Legion as represented by your local post, has always stood and now stands as America's first line of defense against all who threaten her ideals. The dark shadow of war hangs over us. Your place, Legionnaire, is beside your comrades, striving now as you fought then, for our race, our nation and our people. "You were not a slacker in 1917. Don't be a shirker in 1940."
