Parolee Sought As Hale's Slayer

SUIT ASSAILS CANDIDATE'S ELIGIBILITY

COURT IS ASKED TO STATE RIGHTS OF DR. STUMBO

Floyd county's most discussed political topic of the moment—Dr. W. L. Stumbo's eligibility to appear on the ballot at the coming primary election as a candidate for Sheriff—this week found its way into the courts.

The court action, filed Tuesday by one Arnett, of Cliff, through his attorneys, Clarke & Francis, asks the Floyd circuit court for a declaration of rights "to the effect that the said W. L. Stumbo is not eligible to the office of Sheriff and that . . . A. B. Meade, County Clerk of Floyd county, has no right to receive and file his nomination and declaration for said office to place his name on the ballot . . . An injunction to thwart the surmounting candidacy was also asked.

County Clerk Meade was named as defendant with Dr. Stumbo, since the office received and filed Dr. Stumbo's notification and declaration to appear on the Democratic ballot as a candidate. Dr. Stumbo filed Saturday his notification and declaration as appears in this edition of THE TIMES.

Dr. Stumbo's right to hold the office disputed on the grounds that his citizenship has not been restored by President Roosevelt following his imprisonment on a federal charge.

ARGUMENT

Pardoned by Governor Keen Johnson, Dr. Stumbo has contended that he is entitled to the right to hold office as a citizen of Kentucky.

Legal opinion here is divided on the question, "Can a man be a citizen of Kentucky and entitled to hold office without a pardon from the President, restoring to him his status as a citizen of the United States?"

An assistant to Attorney General Hubert Meredith recently expressed opinion that Gov. Johnson's pardon rendered Dr. Stumbo eligible to hold office.

The private opinion was recently expressed by a United States District Attorney, however, that the governor's pardon is "worth no more than a German treaty."

Mr. Arnett filed his suit as a private citizen though he himself was announced last week in this newspaper as a Democratic candidate for Sheriff.

Arnett's petition states that "he and . . ."

This Town-- That World

WILL AND HENRY

Joe Hill's twins at Joe Hill's—no kidding! They chose April 1 of all days to become a mother. Mama goat and sons are doing fine. And now Joe's up against it for a name. He had already favored Bill Henry, of THE TIMES staff, by assuring him the new arrival would be named for him, but since it's two, he's stumped. We suggest that he do right by both goats, call one Bill and the other Henry.

NO HELP NEEDED

A few days ago, a WPA indexing worker at the courthouse here became proud father. Next day, fellow-workers demanded a treat. "I'll go half," a friend volunteered. "I'll stand the balance," another chimed in. Whereupon Proud Papa faced the crowd. "Just a minute," he admonished. "Just who do you think is the Pappy of this baby?"

WE HAD A LAMP IN THE WINDOW, BOYS!

Look who's back in THE TIMES this week—Briar Buck! And even Shikpoke was a.w.o.l. last week.

THERE'LL ALWAYS BE AN ENGLAND—AND PRINTERS

Boy Scouts Enroll Here In First-Aid Training Course

Twenty-two Prestonsburg Boy Scouts are enrolled in a 20-hour Red Cross first-aid course conducted by Carl G. Ford, chairman of the first-aid committee of Floyd Chapter, American Red Cross.

Those who achieve passing grades will automatically become second class Scouts. The classes are held on Tuesday, Thursday and Friday nights at the Scout cabin here.

The course is designed to train Boy Scouts for the first-aid duties to which they are called in cases of emergency. Other groups who desire similar training should contact Mr. Ford.

A first-aid course for NYA supervisors will be started here soon by Franklin Moore and Frank H. Layne, it was said this week.

COURT SPLITS ON TREASURER

AGREES ON FUNDS FOR HEALTH DEPT., COUNTY AGENT

The Floyd fiscal court's board of four Magistrates split wide open Tuesday on the question of who would be County Treasurer for the next four years. County Judge Hill's vote being necessary to break the deadlock, but in making the annual appropriations for the County Agent and the Floyd County Health Department there was little dissension.

W. J. May, assistant cashier of The Bank Josephine, was re-employed as Treasurer at a monthly salary of $50 by virtue of the votes of Magistrates Joe Prater and Daniel Akers and County Judge Hill. Magistrates W. A. Wills and Henry Stumbo opposed May's appointment as R. R. Allen, assistant cashier of The First National Bank, sought the post on a bid of $1 a year.

For the eleventh consecutive year County Agent S. L. Isbell was named Floyd county's agricultural agent. The court's appropriation of $1,200 for the year was unanimously voted.

Three of the four Magistrates voted for the health department appropriation of $2,500, an increase of $250 over the court's contribution of last year. Magistrate Wills opposed the appropriation. The appropriation maintains the health department for the 15th consecutive year.

MEREDITH ALLEGES 'SHAKEDOWN' OF STATE WORKERS BEING MADE

ATTORNEY GENERAL MEREDITH

Mrs. Ambrose Mandt To Lead Campaign To Aid Cripples

Floyd county's Easter campaign for memberships in the Kentucky Crippled Children's Society will open April 6, Mrs. Ambrose Mandt, local chairman, announced Tuesday. Mrs. Mandt said the campaign date was set by the Society.

Paul G. Blazer, president of the Ashland Oil & Refining Company, is chairman of the Big Sandy district. Floyd county's quota is $400.

The Floyd county campaign is to be held in conjunction with the state-wide program authorized and supported by the Crippled Children's Commission of Kentucky. A state goal of $50,000 has been set.

Planning solicitation by letter and in person, local workers are hopeful of quickly attaining Floyd county's goal.

Mrs. E. S. Ferrell, of McCarr, Ky., is guest here this week of her mother, Mrs. Alice M. Huff, West Prestonsburg.

ALFALFA SEEN AS NEW CROP FOR FLOYD COUNTY FARMS

A program, begun last year and expected to be broadened during 1941, has given Floyd county a new crop, County Agent S. L. Isbell said this week.

The new crop is alfalfa, and its successful introduction to Floyd county is largely the result of the liberal use by farmers of agricultural lime as a soil-building practice, under the Agricultural Conservation Program.

Last year, eight Floyd farmers sowed alfalfa with excellent results. They are W. L. Baldridge, Little Paint; James Stephens, Cliff; Den Fairchild, Allen; Dr. H. H. Mayo, Martin; Dan Prater, Hueysville; Ballard Gunnels, and Grant Weddington, of Banner, and Amos Akers, Galveston. All, except Mr. Weddington, sowed their fields in August. The Banner farmer sowed his crop in April and thus was enabled to mow twice for hay.

This spring, County Agent Isbell is compiling a list of farmers who plan to sow alfalfa fields this fall and is offering special assistance to any farmer who plans this crop.

Since all fields where alfalfa is to

PACKHORSE LIBRARY HERE, BEST IN KENTUCKY, OFFICIALS SAY

Floyd county's Packhorse Library, operated by the Works Progress Administration under the sponsorship of the Floyd fiscal court, is the best of its kind in Kentucky, WPA library officials declared last week after inspecting the library here.

Supervisors of each WPA library in seven counties of this section who were attending a training conference at Paintsville were brought here recently to study methods followed in the conduct of the local library.

At the same time, the visitors declared that bookbinding done at the library here was of the highest quality.

Officials visiting the library were Miss May V. Kunz, Louisville, state supervisor; Miss Pearl V. Hayes, Ashland, district supervisor; Miss Rose Farmer, Ashland, assistant district supervisor.

The library here has 4,500 volumes on its shelves, with an average of two persons.

CALLS ON JOHNSON FOR FAIR PLAY AND DECENCY

Frankfort, Ky., March 28—Attorney General Hubert Meredith charged Friday that state employees were being forced to contribute 1 per cent of their salaries toward a state administration campaign fund and challenged Governor Keen Johnson to stop the practice.

"It will not do to say you do not have the power," said the Attorney General, a frequent critic of administration policies, in a letter to the Governor, "for everyone will know better."

The fund, Meredith said, was designed "to procure the nomination of administration candidates for seats in the Legislature," but he added "certain political bosses" would spend part of it for "expensive vacations," new automobiles and other luxuries.

Governor Johnson declined to comment on the letter.

Meredith said the contributions—from 10,000 state employees—"many of whom are barely able to eke out an existence"—would produce $150,000 at a "low estimate."

Continuing, he charged:

"The wily political manipulators in charge can easily shake down those who seek favors and those who trade with the state for another $100,000 and can soon get together a slush fund of a quarter of a million dollars.

"Everyone knows that no such sum is needed, or can, or will be spent for the purposes stated and that, as usual, after the primary certain political bosses will go on long and expensive vacations, show up with big new cars, boats, etc., and engage in quite a series of well-defined poker games."

Meredith "severely condemned" the practice of "dipping into local races, debauching the voters and buying elections for administration yes men, thereby defeating men who will not wear the yoke of the political bosses."

"Moreover," he went on, "faithful women workers who wear out their

BOWEN KILLED IN AUTO WRECK

FRIGHTENED MAN CAUSED TRAGEDY, COMPANIONS SAY

Started when suddenly awakened as he and two companions drove into the lower limits of Martin, shortly after Saturday midnight, Herman Bowen, 40, Amberstdale, W. Va., seized the wheel, wrenched it violently toward the left side of the highway. A moment later he was dead, his neck broken.

His companions, John Bradley, owner and driver of the auto, and Tony Stone, escaped without a scratch as the car ran up the embankment bordering the road, then turned turtle back onto the highway.

The three men were driving from Amberstdale to Estill, home of Bradley, when the tragedy occurred. The body was prepared for burial at the Ryan Funeral Home, then taken to Amberstdale and later to Soldier, Ky., where sisters of the victim reside, for interment.

Hays Says Rumors False; Not To Quit

STATE OF KENTUCKY, FLOYD COUNTY, Ct.

The affiant, Doug Hays, deposes and swears that any and all reports which are being circulated to deceive the electorate of Floyd county relative to my being forced under pressure to eliminate myself from the race for County Judge subject to the will of the Democratic party at the August primary, 1941, are false, and the affiant further states that he will only be extinguished from said race by the voice of said party, after which he will get in the saddle for his opponent, as he has always done heretofore.

HALE KILLED, FIANCEE SHOT BY DWALE MAN

JEALOUSY BELIEVED GUNMAN'S MOTIVE, OFFICERS TOLD

A paroled ex-convict was sought today by Floyd authorities as the gunman who shot and killed Henry Hale, 23, at Dwale Wednesday night and seriously wounded his fiancée, Miss Minnie Porter, 22.

The slayer, Joe Hall, 20, ex-sweetheart of Miss Porter, fired five shots from a .32-calibre revolver at close range as he accosted the couple en route home from church. Hale fell dead with two bullets in his head. One of Hall's bullets struck the girl at the corner of her right eye, emerging at her right temple. As she ran, another bullet passed through her thigh.

The wounded girl said at the Martin General hospital that jealousy prompted Hall to fire. She had not been told Thursday morning that her fiancée was dead. Miss Porter said Hall had told her brother that her proposed marriage to Hale would be broken up, regardless of what means would be necessary to be taken. She was quoted as saying that her courtship with Hall ended, about two years ago.

It was said at the hospital that Miss Porter, barring complications, will recover.

The shooting took place at the lower railroad crossing in Dwale, around 9:30 o'clock, as the couple and two girls walked homeward. It was said that Hall stepped suddenly out of the darkness in front of the group and began firing from only a few feet away.

The slayer fled and officers sought his capture throughout the night and on through Thursday. He was paroled, several weeks ago, after serving a penitentiary sentence in the wounding with a shotgun of Paul Wallen and Wallen's child at Dwale.

In the search for Hall Deputy Sheriffs Wm. Hagans, Tom James and W. B. Boyd were joined by Magistrate W. A. Wills and Coroner Elliott Prater.

Hale, who was employed by the Clear Creek Mining Company at Ligon, was the son of Robert Hale, who was found dead on the highway near Emma, last November, after having been struck by a truck or car. He is survived by his mother, two sisters, Mrs. Edgar Bingham, of Cliff, and Mrs. Daisy Wallen, of Stone, and by two brothers, Ralph and Deppy, of Dwale.

Miss Porter is a daughter of "Little" Henry Porter, of Allen.

Body of Hale was prepared for burial by the Arnold Funeral Home. The funeral will be conducted Friday at Dwale.

My first promise is, I absolutely will not be worse than any who have been in office the last three or four terms as I can truly say this on facts.

I further promise, if elected, these "big-bugs," or political bosses will have no strings on me, as I will try to show the people what the office is intended to be. I contend that the office is to be the Justice of the Peace and not a Robber's Breastplate.

I also will see that the County Judge's salary is where it should be and not the salary it was recently raised to.

I will also show my friends that I appreciate their support by doing them favors instead of trying to rob them or taking their last and only milch cow for unnecessary costs. NOAH JOHNSON, Halo, Ky.

DEPONENT SAITH NOT

TO Attorney General Meredith's charge that state employes are being assessed, as usual, for a political war chest Governor Johnson's reply, to date, is a thick, heavy, almost palpable, silence.

And mum's the word in answer to the Meredith challenge to stop the practice.

Are the charges just too, too ridiculous to be honored with the recognition of an answer? THE TIMES hardly thinks so. The "shakedown" is a practice so much a part of state politics, so ancient in origin and so recently repeated if not now actually being perpetrated, that the Governor owes it to his friends, admirers and the people of Kentucky some word of denial or admission of guilt. He should let the people know exactly where he stands.

Is it true, Governor, that the laborer is not worthy of his hire in Kentucky—unless he pays a percentage of his wages so that his employer may continue to run the business?

Is it true that, in addition to paying one per cent of his wages for social security, the state employe must pay one per cent to political overlords for job security?

Attorney General Meredith has asked some very pertinent questions. The people of Kentucky are glad he asked them. They await, with him, all the answers.

Floyd county is not backward. Its Health Department will soon start its fifteenth and its County Agent his eleventh year of service—thanks to a fiscal court which appreciates the splendid services of the two agencies in a county where their work are as near indispensable as any service can be called indispensable.

Labor has its rights. Capital has its rights. But unless the two get together, we may all lose our Bill of Rights.

1st Regular Meet Of Lions Club Held Friday

At the regular meeting of the Lions Club at the Auxier hotel, March 25, the first since its organization, a committee was appointed to work on a program for a public playground.

J. Barnett Napier, special representative of the Lions International, returned to Prestonsburg for the first meeting of the local club. James Draughn, president of the Hazard Lions, Mrs. Draughn and Lion Frazure and Mrs. Frazure of Hazard were present. Much enthusiasm was expressed by the visitors in the future of the local organization, evidenced by its immediate action in promoting community progress.

In a discussion of the activities of Lions Clubs, Lion Napier stated, "On the basis of their objects and their ethics, Lions Clubs are service organizations, first and last, and their deeds bear witness to the effectiveness of their program. With this record of service, and perhaps because of it, there is a feeling of goodfellowship and mutual understanding between members of Lions Clubs and between the Lions Clubs of the Association that is the pride of all Lions."

FOR MAGISTRATE

'Door in the Wall' Supplies Theme For Speaker

"The Door in the Wall," H. G. Wells' story of a cloistered garden, supplied the Rev. Campbell Jeffries, pastor of Irene Cole Memorial Baptist Church, with the theme for his inspirational talk at the Kiwanis Club's meeting Friday evening.

Developing the theme of the door leading to sanctuary, the Reverend Jeffries said, "In seeking the way, we find Jesus Christ the Door to a new life."

His brother, William Jeffries, Camp Ft. Bragg, N. C., entertained at the piano with musical interpretations.

To work with the Lions Club in planning a summer playground for Prestonsburg children, N. M. White, Jr., I. H. Triplett and J. D. Harkins were named on the Kiwanis playground committee by C. H. Smith, club president.

The meeting was well-attended by members, who were joined by a number of visiting Kiwanians and guests. Horace Williamson, Pikeville, Boy Scout executive, was a special guest of the club.

Johns Creek Dam Ready for Work If Funds Ready

The Johns Creek dam at Dewey, this county, is ready to be started if, and when, necessary funds are available, army engineers said last week during hearings on the War Department civil functions bill.

The engineers asked for $70,000,000 for various flood control projects, but only $6,000,000 was actually earmarked at the time—all for flood control work at Cincinnati, Jeffersonville, Clarksville and Evansville, Ind., Paducah, Ky., Portsmouth and New Boston, Ohio.

Vols Supply Call

Draft Board 44 had its first rejection Monday when one volunteer weighed in at Huntington, one pound underweight.

A Record of Some Sort

Though draftees rejected from military service because of venereal diseases comprise 6 percent of the total examined by draft board physicians throughout the nation, less than seven-tenths of one percent of those examined by physicians for Draft Board 44 of this county have been rejected for that reason. H. T. Hill, of the board said this week.

Of 150 young men from this board who have received physical examinations, including blood tests, only one has been rejected as suffering from a venereal disease.

Draft Board 45 reports, however, that 27 of its 170 registrants examined have been rejected for this cause.

Those who were received at the Huntington induction center Monday from Board 44 are Samuel Green Conn, Dana; Charley Jarrell, Dana; George Spears, Myrtle; Willis Dameron, Ivel; Woodrow Smith, Ivel; Astor Lee Salisbury, Harold; Ashland Laferty, Stone; Paul Burke, Colie; Douglas Burke, Colie; A'onzio Prater, Colie; Leonard Mulkey, Dana; Henry Clay Prater, Pyramid; Thomas W. Burial was made in the Emma cemetery under the direction of the Arnold Funeral Home.

Stumbo, is ineligible to hold any office of honor, trust or profit under the laws of Kentucky, whilst the defendants, W. L. Stumbo and A. B. Meade, County Court Clerk, insist and maintain that said W. L. Stumbo is eligible to hold said office, and by reason thereof a real controversy exists as to the eligibility of said candidate, and unless prevented by orders of this court the said W. L. Stumbo will be placed on said primary ballot and thereby be held out to the voters of the Democratic party as eligible and qualified for said office, to the great injury and damage of the plaintiff and of all other taxpayers of said Floyd county."

Dr. Stumbo, in declining to make a statement Tuesday, told THE TIMES that his answer to the suit would state his position.

Court Splits on Treasurer

The court also fixed tax levies for 1941. For the general fund a levy of 50c per $100 of taxable property and a poll tax of $1.50 was established. A 20-cent levy was made for the sinking fund. For common schools a 75-cent levy was made, with a poll tax of $1 added. The consolidated school tax levy for Auxier, Dwale Betsy Layne, Garrett, Wayland, Drift, McDowell and Weeksbury was set at 75c per $100 valuation. Wheelwright taxpayers will also pay a 75-cent levy, plus 25 cents for the sinking fund. The levy for Harold, Martin, Maytown, Bosco and Lackey is 50 cents.

The Floyd County Board of Education's appropriation for the health department has not been made, but is expected shortly. An appropriation of $800, $200 above last year's $600, is being sought from the Board. This increase of $200 and the fiscal court's $250 above last year's appropriation will compensate for the $250 contributed last year by E. R. Price, Wheelwright, and $200 from an anonymous contributor.

ADVERTISEMENTS FOR BIDS

ON LEFT BEAVER ROAD

Bids are asked this week by the State Highway Commission on medium type surfacing of the Left Beaver highway from the end of bituminous surfacing near Hunter to a point one mile north of Gearheart—a distance of 7.79 miles. Medium type surfacing is specified for this part of the route.

RETURNS FROM HOSPITAL

Mrs. Brady Shepherd, who has been ill in the Prestonsburg General hospital, returned home Saturday.

FLOYD TO GET 500 QUAIL

CLUBHOUSE, DAM ARE DISCUSSED AT MEETING

Plans were made Tuesday night at the Floyd County Fish & Game Club meeting in the auditorium of the Garrett high school for the distribution in the county within the next few days of 500 quail.

At the same time, consideration was given of the possibility of construction of the club of a clubhouse and a dam in one of the county's larger creeks which would be stocked with both large and small-mouth bass. If built, the dam would afford a body of water large enough to accommodate motor boats.

A large group of foxhunters joined the big crowd attending the meeting, and the committee appointed to decide on steps to be taken relative to the gray fox problem reported. It was recommended that the gray foxes be destroyed and replaced by red foxes.

The club has been invited to hold its next meeting at Wheelwright high school on Tuesday evening, May 6.

The views expressed in this column are those of the writer, and not necessarily those of The Times.

ABSENTEE REPORT

To those whose interest extends this far (the heart) into the interior of this streamlined stalwart of weekly newspapers, here is my absentee report:

I've been up here on Lick Fork of Middle Creek, watching local boys earn to operate modern mining machinery . . . (with full pay . . . Seeing Virgil Warrick, the store man, smoke his cigar and tote his satchel homewards . . . all at the same time. Bill (W. S.) Sloan build a railroad—out of fence rails . . . Tony Ranier fig a "beeg" hole—out of the ground. Then fill it right back up again—with concrete . . . Elson Kendrick keep the peaceful peace . . . (Say, you should see my new red-topped hard hat!—Beta Fire Chief Arthur Blackburn would like to have it to go with the new fire truck!)

MEANEST MAN

The meanest man around here is the mine foreman, Dan Thacker. He doesn't sleep as much as an old tomcat, and he just simply delights in waking up the who'e camp at an un-uly hour every morning.

Here's hoping the angry gods of nature strike that man to sleep—at least, while it's still sleeping time on these cold mornings.

It's been a long time since I've seen a newspaper. I am behind on the war (Uncle Sam hasn't declared it yet, has he?)

The last report I had Musso'ini was going to the front (in Albania) to lead his soldiers. Did he get them all safely back home?

PAGING A. J. MAY!

My nomination for a name for this nameless town's hoped-for and much-needed postoffice is none other than the familiar, widely-known name of "Blackhawk"—in honor of Blackhawk Shepherd, local sage and mill-man, whose picture recently appeared in the C. & O. Magazine and within whose veins flows strains of Indian blood.

The name, "Blackhawk," is not only easy to spell and easy to remember, but it would add picturesqueness and color to a section of Kentucky whose main assets (besides coal) are picturesqueness and color.

Bride, 19, Wounded By Accidental Shot

Mrs. Lyda Sherman, 19-year-old wife of Woodrow Sherman, and a bride of four months, lies in a serious condition in the Beaver Valley hospital, Martin, as the result of an accidental bullet wound suffered at her home on Johns Creek Sunday as she exhibited a .45-calibre automatic pistol before a group of small boys.

Although the missile pierced her intestines and passed through her bladder, Mrs. Sherman is expected to recover, it was said by Dr. Stumbo.

MISS ALLEN, ILL

Miss Jo Ann Allen is reported quite ill at the home of her mother, Mrs. Mary D. Allen, on Second street.

Floyd Coal Men On Mine Meet Committees

Named to committees to develop plans for the 18th annual coal convention and exposition of the American Mining Congress at Cincinnati, Ohio, April 28-May 2, are two Floyd county coal officials.

They are J. T. Parker, superintendent of the Inland Steel Company, Wheelwright, and Harry LaViers, president of the new Princess Elkhorn Coal Company on Middle Creek. Mr. Parker was appointed to the program committee, while Mr. LaViers will be a member of the entertainment committee.

Continued modernization of the nation's coal mines to meet any and all requirements of defense industries for a rapid flow of efficient solid fuel will be among the foremost of topics to be considered at convention sessions. The program committee is developing a series of papers for presentation at the meeting which will analyze the major operating problems facing the industry. It is expected that more than two score leading coal officials will address sessions of the gathering on these problems as well as defense topics and associated economic questions.

Mr. LaViers and Mr. Parker are serving with many other prominent coal mining men and allied equipment manufacturers in making this year's coal show one of the largest ever held. In normal times, 5,000 mining men attend the meeting and exhibits, but, in view of the serious need for full discussion of operating and defense problems, it is believed that this year's attendance will eclipse that number.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS

Sealed bids will be received by the Department of Highways at its office, Frankfort, Kentucky, until 10:00 a. m., Central Standard time on the 25th day of April, 1941, at which time bids will be publicly opened and read for the improvement of:

Floyd County FAS 352 A (2) B (2); SP 36-76. The Martin-Wheelwright Junction Road, beginning at end of bituminous surfaced road near Hunter and extending to approximately 1 mile north of Gearheart, a distance of approximately 7.797 miles. Medium type surfacing construction.

Navy Recruiting Officer To Be at Wheelwright

A representative of the Navy recruiting service will be at the post-office in Wheelwright, April 9 and 10, and at Pikeville, April 11 and 12 for the purpose of examining and accepting applicants for enlistment in the Navy.

SERIOUSLY ILL

Chas. Oppenheimer was taken to the Paintsville hospital by ambulance Tuesday night. He is reported seriously ill. Some months ago Mr. Oppenheimer was injured in an automobile accident and since that time has not been well. On Tuesday, the day he entered the hospital, he complained of severe pains in his back.

CHURCH RENOVATION FUNDS RECEIVED

Many donations for church renovation were made at the meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Baptist Church, held Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Marvin Ransdell. Plans were discussed for making choir robes, and a flower committee for the church was appointed.

Mrs. Jo M. Davidson read the devotional, after the singing of "Stand Up for Jesus." Mrs. A. J. Archer discussed the topic of Challenge to True Discipleship.

A very tempting salad course was served. In addition to Mesdames Davidson and Archer, those attending the meeting were Mesdames J. R. Hurt, E. R. Hill, J. B. Clarke, Richard Feiler, Alley, Maude Nunnery, Josh Williamson, George Cohen, H. C. Francis and John W. Caudill, Misses Anna Martin and Virgie McCombs.

The May hostesses are Mesdames Jo M. Davidson and Grace Ford. Mrs. W. W. Burchett is program leader.

Held in the Jefferson county jail at Louisville, late last week, was John Morgan Allen, of Press, Breathitt county, whose shot resulted, a few weeks ago, in the death at the Stumbo Memorial hospital, Lackey, of his father, Bura Allen.

The 24-year-old Breathitt countian was placed in the hands of Louisville police by a motorist who had given him a ride from Zanesville, Ohio, last Thursday. Allen is said to have told the motorist of the killing.

Allen said he fled Breathitt county because neighbors threatened to lynch him. He was quoted by police as saying during an argument following the slapping of a younger brother by the elder Allen.

TIMES WANT ADS PAY

SHIKE'S POKES

(Views expressed in this column are those of the writer and not necessarily those of The Times.)

Buck Manns will have to wear two bumpers" if he doesn't stop stepping over cliffs—one for him to land on and one for them to land on.

We have a report that "Kel" is kinda changin' color since he went to the Stumbo mine. Must be trying to change his luck.

About that diplomatic poker game in the Balkans—it seems that Hitler tried to run a "sandy" and was "called" and "raised" and had to "go down."

We hear a lot about un-Americanism. About the three most un-American things I can think of are: Senator Wheeler, Lindbergh and Henry Ford.

Ford is under about six orders from the Supreme Court to cease and desist certain practices—yet he gets fat contracts in violation of the law. He always bragged that he paid higher wages than any other. That is not so—Chrysler and General Motors are paying more, according to the Sunday papers. I think that it is a pity that such fellows as Ford, Lindbergh and Wheeler are not in Germany. Maybe Hitler could use them and I'm sure we'd never miss them.

If those other little Balkan countries had acted like Yugoslavia, Hitler wouldn't be in the Balkans today. A war in the Balkans is the end of Hitler.

Hoover, wanting to feed Hitler's prisoners in Europe, should start at home first. There are thousands of underprivileged people in every neighborhood who are in need and their mental or physical condition prevents them from getting jobs in any industry. Let Hoover tackle that problem.

Duward W. is having a hard time with his poultry. John says that he brings, or was bringing, eggs to the store as he came to work. But he has a pet crow and if he doesn't lay off and watch the hen house he doesn't get any eggs. Looks like the poultry or mining business one will have to suffer neglect.

I just wonder what the city of Louisville would say if we refused to use their liquor or beer—because they are knocking our coal. Boy, wouldn't they bellyache!

Claude says that his "Thumb" is certainly worth lots of money. He has been selling it for 30 cents a pound for 20 years.

Ole Muss once said that he wasn't a man but an event. A cross-country marathon.

Truth is stranger than fiction. Before marriage she sits up half the night waiting for him to leave and after marriage she sits up half the night waiting for him to come home.

We are all hoping that the miners' new contract is signed before this is printed, but, if it isn't, Beaver Creek coal will be scarce.

What's this I hear about Blue Eyes and Bill holding a "watch party"? Bet it was awfully cold—watching all night, and just one sack of beer.

Ho, hum—it must be spring. The season of re-birth is upon us, when Mother Earth takes her annual mud-pack facial treatment, and restores her own complexion till you can't distinguish her from a debutante.

The Louisville newspapers argue that smoke is not a sign of prosperity. Oh, yeah?—where there's smoke there's bound to be a little fire. When you enter a smoke-free city, you will find a city without any industries to amount to anything.

I guess the editor will enlarge The Floyd County Times this year. He will have to—to get all the candidates' announcements in it.

We've often heard "out of the frying pan into the fire," but Ward can swear to it. A slate car went over the slate dump with him in it. He was dumped out and got stopped just in the edge of where the slate pile was afire. No one had to tell him to move.

Spring is bound to be here—for: Cat has moved to Hunter.

Lee Bug has moved to Johnson county (hope they don't change his politics down there).

Winter underwear is hanging on the line.

Bentley painted his barber chair. Clarence has shed his red jacket. Estill has taken the weather-boarding off his truck.

Tip has a black eye.

Mont is trying to lease his garden.

Henry Skeans is threatening to build a boarding house.

Sammy got his mule back.

Nope—you're all wrong—Bob S. hasn't moved any more.

IF IT DOESN'T SELL ITSELF, DON'T KEEP IT

Let's get right to the point. Whether you want this new Maytag Master depends on what the Maytag itself can actually do for you. So here's the way to find out:

Put this new Maytag Master Washer right in your own home, without charge. Let it do your regular washing—then let it handle your blankets, dollies, lingerie, and all the other things you'd hardly trust to any other washer.

In short, put this new Maytag to any test. See how gently it handles EVERYTHING—how washing capacity has been increased over 50%—how the famous Roller Water Remover has been further improved. See for yourself why over 3,000,000 women have said, "Maytag for me!"

We repeat: If the Maytag doesn't sell itself, don't keep it. You simply can't lose—except by failing to take advantage of this straight-forward offer. So act at once. Come in, or phone for free trial washing in your own home.

Inland Prepares To Move Office

Preparations are under way by the Inland Gas Corporation to transfer its offices, supply house and pipe yard from West Prestonsburg to its Midas property, it was said here this week.

Location of these nearer the center of operations was given as the reason for the removal.

To make the proposed changes, the company plans the construction of an office building and a supply house. A concrete bridge across Right Beaver Creek, connecting the highway with the Midas station, is under construction. The span is only 12 feet high, being planned as a low-water bridge.

Plans and specifications for the building at Midas have been submitted to the company's Ashland office for approval, and construction is expected to start within the next two weeks. No estimate of the cost of the work was available.

dumps—'way, 'way down; the smile of a friend looks like a smirk and a snake lies coiled in every tuft of grass.

Then I read something like the true story that follows and I feel like bumping my head against the pavement for not realizing how lucky I am—even if I am in the printing business:

London has its Thin-Man, but he's not a detective—he's a printer. He has a little shop in a dank basement. When the Luftwaffe began blasting the city, demolishing great and little businesses, things got worse for the Thin Man. A newspaper correspondent tells of his regular rounds, soliciting work—any order, no matter how little, was welcomed. Given a job, he would hurry back to his dingy little shop and rush it to completion. But, with all his industry, he made, the correspondent tells, an average of no more than 40 cents a day.

The day's work done, he was a volunteer firefighter at night. The Thin Man grew thinner and thinner.

Came the night when one of the big department stores near his shop was struck by an incendiary bomb. Next morning, the printer found his scant supply of paper water-soaked. Carefully he salvaged every sheet that was not ruined; patiently he dried the water from his presses, that they might not rust.

Business went on—"as usual." Till the night when a heavy bomb blasted the little shop into wreckage.

The Thin Man fought London fires with feverish zeal that night. Next day, he was on the streets. Working.

A few weeks later, writes the war correspondent, he had managed to borrow and wheedle credit till he had another printing plant together. Now, he's making his daily rounds again, soliciting printing orders, hope high.

"I am in a position now to give you excellent service," he tells his prospective customers.

GAME AND FISH

By WILLIAM ADAMS, JR.

Pollution

Water pollution does not always kill fish, but it does make them become unhealthy and leads eventually to death. Pollution does kill small plant and animal life in streams. Eggs and small fish are easier killed than older fish. Pollution will eventually kill off all fish in a stream.

When you catch a fish look to see if it has a growth of fungus in its fins. If it has, more than likely the stream is polluted. A polluted stream usually does not contain an abundant supply of water plants. A clear stream may be polluted. The color of the water does not determine the pollution of the stream.

The pollution may affect the respiration of the fish by covering the gills and clogging them. Or it may destroy some parts of the gills. Either is detrimental to the fish and will cause its death.

FIRE

Why not a fire law that will require every man who burns brush to have a fire permit, secured from the Sheriff's or Magistrate's office before he could burn brush? Then, if fire got out of control, the individual responsible would have to suffer. Carelessness is the chief cause of forest fire. According to the law, any one starting a fire is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction can be fined and jailed.

If a fire breaks out in your community, help put it out. In that way you will be helping the Fish and Game Club restock Floyd county with fish and game.

FOR SAFETY'S SAKE

By CARL G. FORD

Hand Signals

One of the best safety habits that can be formed is that of giving the proper hand signals in the operation of an automobile. Failure to let the person driving behind you know your intentions is taking an unfair advantage of him. To prevent accidents, it is imperative that you give the proper hand signals at all times.

Several states have approved mechanically operated devices to indicate the intentions of a driver, but it has been found that oft-times these devices fail to operate when they are needed most. Consequently, safety workers frown upon the use of mechanical devices of this sort. There is an appalling lack of uniformity among the states with regard to traffic legislation of all kinds but gradually these differences are being removed. Therefore, if one uses the hand signals given below he can be fairly sure he is obeying the traffic laws when traveling in foreign states. Those given below have been legally approved in Kentucky. However, one should always be alert in the interpretation of hand signals as they are sometimes erroneously understood them. Always be in control of your car in order to meet any emergency.

Memorize these signals and use them:

Right turn—Back of the left arm resting on the door with the forearm and fingers pointing upward.

Slow Down or Stop—Left arm, extended from window, bent downward so the forearm and fingers point toward the running board of the car.

The person who fails to inform drivers of cars in the rear of his intentions is as unsportsmanlike as the ball player who deliberately contends with the referee.

Let the drivers who share the road with you know of your intentions to turn, slow down or stop, through a deliberate and distinct hand signal, given early enough to serve the purpose intended.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

Notice is hereby given to those persons who have been dumping garbage on my property bordering the Mayo Trail on Abbott Mountain that, unless this practice is discontinued, they will be prosecuted.

ALEX M. SPRADLIN.

KNOTT FOREST GIANT, SOLD FOR $15, STATE'S LARGEST

By BURDINE WEBB
(In The Courier-Journal)

IT REQUIRED a vast amount of manpower and just as much brains to market what was probably the biggest tree ever taken from the stump in the history of Kentucky. The tree stood on a rough proclivity in Knott county, forty-two miles from the nearest railway point, Jackson, Ky., and roads intervening were simply exasperating.

But T. F. Kemp, Cincinnati lumberman and an old hand at the game, knew how to engineer the job. Here's how Kemp happened to own the tree: Uncle Bob Bates, a far-seeing speculator and a former member of the Kentucky Legislature from the counties of Knott, Letcher and Floyd, resided on the headwaters of Rockhouse in Letcher county. He was an extensive cattle dealer, and on one of his buying trips in Knott county he heard of the big tree. The owner accompanied Bates to the giant tree, standing on a steep proclivity near Carr Creek.

Bates marveled at the greatness of the tree and when the owner offered to sell it for $2 cash, made the deal. The tree was nearly nine feet in diameter, and was more than 200 feet to its first branch.

Shortly Kemp heard about the big tree, and on his first trip through the mountains he went to Bates' home, as usual, to stay overnight. Bates and Kemp dickered over the tree that night and the lumberman finally agreed to pay $15 for it.

The next morning Kemp inspected his purchase and took a number of small blocks from it. He found the tree to be of the finest curl and quite valuable, especially for export.

Kemp lost no time in laying his plans to cut the tree and haul it to Jackson. The felling of the tree was very important lest it break, but the axmen made a nice job of it.

Then Kemp figured the length the logs should be cut so as to transport them over the rough, boulder-lined roadways to Jackson. After months of hard work the big task was completed, with the blocks loaded onto cars at Jackson.

Several months elapsed before Kemp received his profit on the deal, a draft for several thousand dollars.

Several months later Kemp was back at the Bates home. Bates had learned of Kemp's success in marketing the big tree, but he refused a substantial gift to recompense him for his giveaway price.

"I got my price and made a profit," Bates said.

A few days later, however, Kemp deposited the money in a bank downstate in the name of Mrs. Bates, as a "little refund, and a gentle reminder," mailing her the deposit slip. She acknowledged its receipt in a letter of thanks and accepted the money in the spirit that it was sent.

This was in 1908, three years before the L. & N. railroad started its Eastern Kentucky extension from Jackson.

Martin School Band To Get Uniforms

Uniforms costing $400 have been purchased for the Martin high school band by the Martin Parent-Teacher Association. The uniforms, which are expected to be received this week, are of military style in the school's colors—purple and gold.

Among the methods by which money has been raised to pay for these uniforms were a series of dinners which have been served by members of the P.-T. A. at the school and a Gingham Ball held in the Martin gymnasium, Saturday, March 29.
