'LIVING NOW' IS BIG TASK, GRADS TOLD

Kenamer Is Speaker As 226 Graduate; 5 Get Scholarships

'HAPPY'-'UNHAPPY WARRIOR' That unhappy 'grand strategist' from Kentucky--'Happy' Chandler--was put in his place Wednesday by no less a person than Winston Churchill, Prime Minister of Britain, who has seen enough of the fighting to know what it is all about. It is exceedingly unfortunate for this Commonwealth's junior Senator that he can't realize he's just a small-town boy, like most of the rest of us, and shouldn't worry himself too much about the President and our military experts being 'taken in' by 'city slickers' from across the sea.

THE CHIN'S IN Saw a picture of Mussolini in yesterday's newspapers; looked like that jutting chin of his had taken a stiff uppercut and had had a prolapsus of three or four inches.

THE DOGS LIKE US, ANYWAY Maybe it's because misery loves company, anyway, every dog that gets his nose inside this place takes it upon himself to abide with us. George Brown's dog, next door, is our latest. He succeeds 'Old Jake' who was poisoned, a few weeks ago, and died in the hedge at the corner of this building--trying, of course, in his last moments to reach this sanctuary and his friends.

Printer Goble this week acquired two collie puppies, one of which he has named 'Bat' for a former habitue of THE TIMES, and this youngster has already been given a whiff of printer's ink. He'll take over soon, and welcome.

QUICK--ANSWER, PLEASE! What's wrong with this sentence? --'I have been transpiring freely this hot, summer day.'

Write or wire correction, as long as it's at your expense.

$40 GONE FROM THE DOGS Folks are worrying about the feeding of dogs in wartime, the damage dogs will do to Victory Gardens, etc. Well, Frank Layne has a cocker spaniel which has done her bit. She recently whelped 10 pups, all males; eight lived, all sold for $5 each. And Mr. Layne invested the $40 in War Bonds and Stamps for his young daughter.

26 YEARS AGO Bungling, boondoggling, boneheadedness--these are some of the adjectives this and other newspapers of the country have used in describing the work of Congress during the present war. But after reading the following, taken from the New York newspaper, PM, describing that hopeless aggregation of spellbinders that was a large portion of the Congress, back in World War I days, I, for one, am willing to forget for the moment these Wheelers, Ham Fishes, Nyes, ad absurdum, of the present Congress and give a rousing hurrah for those in Washington who have had the good sense and cold nerve to try to do something, despite all hindrances at home, while the Japs, Germans and Italians were trying to make it miserable for us abroad. Read these excerpts from the PM article telling of what happened in Congress when the Kaiser was our foe, back in '17:

'When the U.S.A. declared war on Germany on April 6, 1917, a good many Americans believed that all we had to do to lick the Kaiser was to pour out money and munitions. 'My God, you don't intend to send men over there, do you?' asked the head of the Senate Appropriations Committee when the subject of financing an A. E. F. was broached. And it took five weeks to get the Draft Act through Congress. 'The chairman of the House Military Affairs Committee refused to introduce the bill. Speaker Champ Clark protested 'with all my heart and mind and soul against having the slur of being a conscript placed upon the men of Missouri.' Senator

'Living Now' was the topic of Dr. L. G. Kenamer, of the faculty of Eastern Kentucky Teachers College, Richmond, Ky., in his commencement address at the Prestonsburg high school gymnasium Friday evening, last week, as 226 Floyd county high school seniors received their diplomas in the county's seventh mass graduation exercises.

'And living now is no sinecure,' the speaker told the graduates. 'Living now is a tough job, but it has always been tough.' For that job Dr. Kenamer urged the preparation found in education and the building of character.

As an 'added attraction' to the commencement program, five Floyd seniors received guarantees from two Floyd coal companies of higher education in the form of college scholarships.

A $300 scholarship given by the Inland Steel Company, Wheelwright, to a senior selected from schools other than Wheelwright went to Miss Ella Mae Ratcliff, Martin high school graduate. She won the scholarship in a casting of lots with seven other high school seniors selected as eligible for the honor. Others selected were Virginia Louise Frazier, Auxier high school; Marie Tackett, Betsy Layne; Amanda Marie Meade, Garrett; Ila Prater, Maytown; Betty Shuffelbarger, McDowell; Bill Woods, Jr., Prestonsburg; Bobby Doyle Hicks, Wayland.

GAS PURCHASE CONSUMMATED

$50,000 Transaction Completed Saturday; Workers Selected

The City of Prestonsburg's $50,000 deal for acquisition of the gas company serving the town was consummated at the City Hall Saturday afternoon.

D. P. Newell, Maysville, paid $103 for each $100 bond of the city's $50,000 issue and the purchase price was paid to Joe Hill, one of the three owners of the Prestonsburg Gas Company.

Immediately thereafter, operation of the gas company was placed in the hands of the three-man commission which has managed the city-owned water works, F. C. Hall, Joe Hobson and Dr. G. A. Cubbertson.

Dick Davis, veteran manager of the waterworks, will be in charge of 'field' operation of both utilities. His assistant remains to be named.

The water-gas commission later received competitive bids from applicants for the positions of bookkeeper and collector of bills. Russell Hagewood was employed as bookkeeper for both utilities, and Mrs. Lillian Ferguson was named to make out and collect bills of consumers of both gas and water.

At Monday night's meeting of the City Council R. T. Allen was employed to take the city tax assessment for the year, make out the tax bills and act as clerk of the Board of Supervisors. Supervisors named to undertake the task of equalizing the assessment here are C. L. Osborne, West Prestonsburg, Malcolm Harris and W. J. Vaughan, Prestonsburg.

Lancer Man Succumbs After Year's Illness

An illness of years ended Wednesday, last week, in the death of Elige Wells, well-known Lancer man. He was about 65 years old.

A native of the Dewey section of the county, Mr. Wells was a highly respected citizen and had many relatives in this section. Two daughters and one son survive: Oma, of Van Lear, Mrs. Frank Adams and Clyde Wells, both of Lancer. Funeral rites were conducted Saturday and burial was made in the Burchett cemetery at Dewey.

CORRECTION Mrs. Venice Gibson died at the Martin General hospital instead of the Beaver Valley hospital, as was stated in THE TIMES last week.

FLOYD RETURNS WET MAJORITY

Eastern Area Behind On Surgical Dressings; Appeal to Women Is Made

The entire eastern area of the country is far behind schedule in the making of surgical dressings for army hospitals, Mrs. Lillian Keenan, head of the surgical dressing work here, said this week in making an appeal to local women to help meet Floyd county's quota.

A call has been made for 200,000 dressings for use in the North Africa theater of action at once, she said, adding that Floyd county will make only a fraction of its quota unless the women respond to the call made in behalf of the boys on the fighting fronts.

'The boys in North Africa have done a good job of housecleaning, and housecleaning here at home should not be an excuse for any woman to delay helping make these bandages,' Mrs. Keenan said. Each woman is asked to give only one evening a week of her time.

EARLY ACTION NECESSARY

If Consumer To Have Supply of Gasoline After 1st of June

If the bulk of Floyd county motorists who operate their vehicles with B and C gasoline rations want to assure themselves of a supply of gasoline on June 1, they will begin at once to go to their local War Price and Rationing Board or plant transportation committees for renewal of application blanks.

The 'stitch-in-time-saves-nine' suggestion will have a valid ring to the hundreds of motorists who last February delayed making application for renewed supplemental mileage until the very end of the month and who were stranded several days in gas-thirsty cars.

The Floyd County War Price and Rationing Board reminded drivers of the regulation which permits application for renewed rations a month before the expiration of the old and said the bulk of supplemental rations would expire May 31.

Applicants need not take their application blanks to the board but may mail them, accompanied by their tire inspection records. Several days before the expiration of the old books, the board will mail the new rations and the record back to the applicant.

District mileage rationing representatives of the Office of Price Administration have begun to contact plant transportation committees urging their co-operation in keeping applications flowing evenly to the boards through the month of May. Where committees file applications for their employees, War Price and Rationing Boards will process and send the gas rationing books immediately to the plants for distribution by the plant committees a few days before the valid period begins.

Boards are also enlisting volunteer workers early for the ration renewal period and are being supplied with all the forms needed for a successful, smooth application period.

Glee Club Presented In Concert Here

Girls' glee club of Prestonsburg high school was presented in concert at the Prestonsburg grade school auditorium Wednesday evening, last week, by Mrs. Kathryn S. Frazier, music director of Prestonsburg schools. A large and appreciative audience attended.

The program rendered surpassed any hitherto offered by the group, the rendition of a wide variety of numbers from the standpoint of attack, dynamics and response to direction being exceptionally well done.

Soloists were Miss Jane Carol Hager, soprano, and Mr. Lon Edward Roberts, baritone; Miss Ethel Clarke, accompanist.

The Junior glee club was also presented in two beautiful numbers.

BUYS LANCER STORE Sherman May returned last week from near Portsmouth, O., where he has been residing for some time, and has bought the store of Tom Moore at Lancer.

COAL TRUCE IS RENEWED

Lewis Answers Appeal Of Ickes by Ordering Work Till May 31st

The soft coal walkout scheduled for midnight Tuesday has been averted by renewal of the truce until the end of the month.

As the deadline drew near for a work stoppage that threatened to cripple the nation's coal output, John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers, answered the appeal of Fuel Co-ordinator Ickes by requesting the miners to continue work under the existing retroactive extension agreement until midnight May 31.

Postponement of the coal crisis for another fortnight brought signs that a strong rivalry has sprung up over who should settle the wage dispute.

Reportedly ready to negotiate between the United Mine Workers and the operators was Interior Secretary Ickes, to whom -- in his capacity as fuel administrator and boss of the government-operated mines-- UMW President John L. Lewis wired that the two weeks' truce which would have ended at midnight Tuesday would be extended until May 31.

The War Labor Board which had charged Lewis with challenging the sovereignty of the United States in wartime and giving aid and comfort to the enemy, left no doubt, however, that it still considered itself the only 'agency of the government' authorized to handle the case.

From highly-placed sources came reports that Ickes had prepared a formula which he believed would be acceptable to both sides, and was ready to propose it, providing the board would let him step in. But the board was said to be sticking to the stand expressed by Wayne Morse, a public representative, who said 'the operation of the mines under the custody of the Department of the Interior, through its chief, Mr. Ickes, does not have any bearing upon the dispute.'

Ickes' office still said the WLB 'has jurisdiction' but it was indicated the secretary was seeking some means of holding conferences.

10-Year-Old Girl Passes Tests for High School

McDowell, Ky., May 18 (Spl.)--Bety Jean, 10-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Martin, passed the 8th grade test for high school last week. Her grade was near the top.

Thursday night, May 13, she was graduated with a large class. She also received a silver medal for scholarship, making the best grades of any student in the eighth grade.

RATION BOOK NO. 3 COMIN' UP

New Book To Supplant Depleted Books-- Invalid Books Ordered Returned-- Registration To Be Made by Mail--

A new Ration Book is getting ready to make its way into your pocketbook, handbag or whatever you carry such absolute necessities of life, these days, in.

It's Book No. 3 and will replace Books 1 and 2 which by now, or soon will be, sadly depleted of stamps.

Application cards will be sent to all homes on or around May 20, the Floyd War Price and Rationing Board has been notified, and these cards are to be filled out and mailed to certain stipulated mailing centers during the June 1-10 period. The Ration Book to be issued will be received by consumers between June 15 and July 20.

Apparently, local ration boards will have nothing to do with either the registration for, or issuance of, this latest Ration Book.

While registration for canning sugar demanded new supplies of blanks in certain parts of the county, the Prestonsburg registration was in the doldrums, John Stephens, Rationing Board clerk, said. The registration will continue here at the high school building through Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, next week. After that, consumers

51 TO GROW HEMP CROPS

Spradlin's 30 Acres Is 25 Pct. of County's Acreage for 1943

Successful last year in the growing of hemp for seed, R. L. Spradlin this year signed a contract to grow 30 acres of the crop--approximately 25 per cent of the total acreage contracted by the 51 Floyd county farmers joining in the hemp program.

A total of 121 acres was pledged to hemp growing this year. The county's quota was 400 acres.

M. D. Royle, chairman of the Kentucky Agricultural Adjustment Agency, announced last week that the War Food Administration had instituted a purchase program for 1943 crop pasture and winter legume seeds as needed for winter legume plantings and to meet next year's demands for increased acreages of forage crop.

The Commodity Credit Corporation is planning to purchase Tennessee 76, common, and sericea lepedeza seed which is being produced in Kentucky. The prices which will be paid will range from 16 to 19 cents a pound.

This seed when purchased will be used this fall and winter by the Agricultural Adjustment Agency in sale to farmers who comply with the

DRAFT BOARD NOTIFIES 80

Drafting of Fathers May Be Begun Soon; To Lengthen Leaves

Eighty residents of the Right and Left Beaver sections of the county have been notified by Selective Service Board No. 45 to report here Wednesday morning, May 26, to go to Huntington for final examination and possible induction in the armed forces.

The furlough period given new inductees has been ordered extended from seven to 14 days, and this was interpreted as an indication that drafting of fathers for military service will be begun soon. The furlough extension, commanding generals of the nine service commands have been ordered, will become effective not later than July 1, and in some sections of the county immediately. The furlough period will be lengthened to three weeks by September 1, it was said.

Local draft officials said it is not probable that the furlough extension

Youth, 15, Slayer Of Grandfather, Wins Probation

The two-year pen term imposed on 15-year-old Aaron Newsome, of Jack's Creek, at the April term of the Floyd circuit court for the rock-slaying of his grandfather, Elisha Johnson, was probated Monday by Circuit Judge Henry Stephens, Jr.

Explaining his action, Judge Stephens said, 'This was one murder case in which I believe the truth was sworn. For me to send this boy to the pen on his own statement which I considered true, while others go free on false testimony, though guilty of cold-blooded murder, would in my opinion be a miscarriage of justice.'

The boy admitted striking his grandfather after the latter had struck him with his cane.

EX-TEACHER DIES AT 90

Mrs. Helen Gearheart, Pioneer in Education, Church Work, Victim

Mrs. Helen Gearheart, pioneer Floyd county teacher and church-worker, died Tuesday morning at 6 o'clock of paralysis and heart disease at the home of her daughter, Mrs. O. J. Webb, Lackey, following an illness of more than a month. She was 90 years old.

Mrs. Gearheart's condition had been critical since the inception of her last illness and members of her family had been at her bedside since April 15 when she suffered a heart attack. Paralysis developed and was given as the direct cause of death.

Born Dec. 1, 1852 in Scott county, Virginia, Mrs. Gearheart was a daughter of the Rev. Robert Spencer, pioneer Methodist circuit rider. She came to this county in 1872 as a teacher and conducted one of the first 'silent' schools in this section. A member of the Methodist Church since girlhood, she also was a founder of the Sunday School movement in this county.

She was married in January, 1873 to Reece B. Gearheart, Sr., of the Hueysville vicinity, who died Aug. 17, 1896. To this union were born nine children, two of whom preceded her in death--Mary, in infancy, and Ballard Gearheart, in Oct., 1941 at Palisade, Colorado. Surviving children are Alex Gearheart, Fountain, Colo.; Fred Gearheart, Catlettsburg; Mrs. Ella G. Marsh, Huntington, W. Va.; Mrs. Sallie Webb, Lackey; Mrs. Lou Stone, Louisa; Creed Gearheart, Huntington, W. Va., and Mrs. Marie Dixon, Charleston, W. Va. Two sisters and one brother also survive: Mrs. Victoria Neff, Artesia, N. M.; Mrs. Corrie Hamlin and Emmett Spencer, both of Jonesville, Virginia.

Mrs. Gearheart was a woman whose splendid character left its mark in the moral improvement of this section. Her funeral was conducted Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the Garrett Methodist Church, the Rev. J. B. Hahn officiating. Burial was made in the family cemetery near Hueysville under direction of the Arnold Funeral Home.

Mrs. Sword Succumbs, Bright's Disease Victim

Mrs. Alta Sword, 29 years old, wife of Marion Sword, of Fed, died Friday at the Martin General hospital, victim of Bright's disease and complications.

She was a daughter of the late Mrs. Cordia Justice. Besides her husband, she leaves two children, Clifford and Ruth.

Funeral rites were conducted Sunday, the Revs. Troy Nickles, Willie Collins and Matt Moore officiating. Burial in the Newman cemetery at Fed was under direction of the Ryan Funeral Home.

Mrs. Conn Reports Husband Missing

Mrs. Riley Conn, of Prestonsburg, this week reported that her husband has been missing since early in March. Mr. Conn was last heard from at Cleveland, Ohio, where he was employed at a riding club after having become stranded there. He left Prestonsburg to go to New York to work.

3 DISTRICTS OF COUNTY VOTE DRY

Left Beaver District Offsets Dry's Lead In Other Sections

Floyd county's first Wet-Dry vote since national Prohibition, more than 20 years ago, resulted Saturday in 53 of the county's 54 precincts recorded as voting to retain the sale of alcoholic liquors and beverages, as now legalized, by a majority of 472 ballots.

Failure of election officers or voters in Hen Hall precinct on Left Beaver Creek to remove a secondary stub from the ballot resulted in 'no election' there. The Wets polled a majority in a light vote at that precinct.

A total of 5,054 votes were counted as cast Saturday following a comparatively brief but torrid campaign. The election was unmarred by violence, and the vote count here Saturday evening was quickly completed.

The results, broken down into magisterial districts, reveal that three of the county's four magisterial districts voted Dry, District No. 3 (the Left Beaver Section) voting Wet and piling up a 656-vote lead against the Drys. Right Beaver Creek, on the other hand, gave the largest Dry majority--151 votes. Magisterial District 4 voted Dry by 26 votes while District 1 gave a scant 6-vote margin to the Dry cause.

Day after the Floyd fight ended, a Dry mass meeting was held at Pikeville, and that county may be the next Wet-Dry battleground in Eastern Kentucky.

TWO 'MISSING' ARE PRISONERS

Garrett Man Reported Wounded in Africa; Kendrick Recovering

Two Floyd countians, originally listed as missing, were officially reported by the War and Navy Departments this week as prisoners of war, and a third was reported as wounded.

Signalman First Class Wyman Walters, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas F. Walters, of Allen, is a prisoner of the Japs. Months ago, he was reported as missing, but his parents later received unofficial word that he was a prisoner.

A prisoner in Italy is Technician Fifth Grade Shirley A. Lewis, son of Thomas J. Lewis, Betsy Layne. He was captured during the North African offensive.

Technician Fifth Grade James O. Cavins, son of Mrs. Harry Clay, Garrett, was reported Monday as wounded in the African campaign. The Navy Department's list of prisoners included 1,044 men, crew members of the cruiser Houston, the destroyer Pope, and the submarine Perch of which David A. Hurt, brother of J. R. Hurt, Prestonsburg, was commander.

Pfc. Billie E. Kendrick, who was seriously wounded in North Africa Feb. 1, recently wrote his mother, Mrs. Alice Kendrick, of Emma, that he is making 'normal improvement' in a hospital. In his letter of May 12 Pfc. Kendrick wrote:

'I guess I will be out of the hospital soon and I will be glad of it, as it is lonesome lying around here and not doing anything. . . I had a good time while in Africa. I would like to be back there now with the boys. I bet they're having a good time. When I get out I am going to try to get back. . .'

Dr. Arnett's Campaign For State Senator Opens Monday

DR. EARL T. ARNETT

Dr. Arnett opened his active campaign for the Democratic nomination for State Senator Monday at Inez when the Martin circuit court convened. His discussion of the needs of this district and what he proposes to do was well received by a large crowd.

Dr. Arnett stressed the need of a free tuberculosis hospital for this section, higher salaries for teachers and a fair distribution of road-building and maintenance. His appeal for votes was based largely on the service he could render the people as State Senator.

Many of the common people who are tired of standing by and watching political machines operate and the "vicious circle" of nepotism and political patronage control their roads and other vital things of life in these times have without solicitation told Dr. Arnett they are going to endorse his stand with their votes. (Pol. adv.)

Meat Dealers Meet At Pikeville Tonight

An important district educational meeting of the retail and wholesale meat dealers, slaughterers and butchers of Floyd and Pike counties with the Food Distribution Administration is announced by Daniel K. Young, state supervisor, Food Distribution Administration, to be held at Pikeville today (Thursday) at 8 p.m.

The meeting is being held for the purpose of explaining Food Distribution Order No. 27 pertaining to the issuing of quotas and slaughter permits to slaughterers and butchers and to acquaint the wholesale and retail meat dealers with their duties and responsibilities in connection with the meat rationing programs.

County Farm Agents To Assist Farmers To Procure Workers

Under provisions of a recent act of Congress, the Extension Service of the Kentucky College of Agriculture and Home Economics is helping farmers find additional workers this season. Offices of county agents are being used as clearing houses where farmers can file applications for workers, and where men, women and boys and girls can offer their services on farms.

Co-operating with county agents, in the farm labor program, are local farm labor committees, local boards of defense, the United States Employment Service, the Farm Security Administration and other agencies.

Farmers are urged to try to determine how much help they will need, and when they will need it, and then file applications with the county agents, or other agencies, as soon as possible. This will give the agents, and co-operating agencies, time to locate workers.

The State College of Agriculture has found farmers in eastern counties who have too little land to keep them busy all season, and who might work for farmers in other sections. The college suggests that farmers exchange labor, trade hand work for machine work, and help one another to get certain jobs done.

National plans for recruiting farm labor include a U.S. Crop Corps of several hundred thousand men, a half-million non-farm youth, principally high school students, to be known as Victory Farm Volunteers; and possibly 60,000 women enrolled in a Women's Land Army. Workers also will be brought in from Mexico, the Bahamas and Jamaica.

THE OLD JUDGE SAYS...

"How soon do you leave for camp, Bob?"
"Next Tuesday, Judge. Bill and George are leaving the same time. We're hoping to wind up in a tank outfit."
"Well, the way I've seen you handle a tractor, Bob, you ought to be right at home in one of those tanks. You're going to like the service—they're a great bunch of fellows. Just last week I went down to camp to see a young nephew of mine and he introduced me to some of his buddies. Fine fellows—real he-men just like you and Bill and George—from good American homes. Handle themselves well, too."
"You know, I've been checking up on it, Bob, and I've found out that the American army today is healthier, better disciplined, better trained, better taken care of than it has ever been in its history. And you can take my word for it, Mary, he'll come back to you a fine man in great shape. Best of luck to you, Bob."

HOW TO MAKE YOUR APPLIANCES LAST LONGER

A STITCH IN TIME SAVES NINE!

COUNT 'em—N-i-n-e! The old-time adoms and homely economies of our parents and grandparents are again the approved custom . . . and today, in a world-engulfing wartime, it is the thing to do to avoid waste—conserve and take care of what we have—because we may soon have "plenty of nothin'".

In valuable time-saving electric appliances, the cord is literally the life cord and carefulness begins just there. Follow the suggestions listed for taking care of your electric cords and handle all of your electric appliances with respect and consideration. Oftentimes a drop of oil—though not too much—or a turn of a screw-driver at the right time and place, will lengthen the life of an appliance that otherwise would have to be discarded.

People's Responsibility

Eight billion dollars of the 13 billion dollars in this Second War Loan Drive must come from non-banking sources, so the responsibility for the bulk of this 13-billion-dollar drive rests with the American public.

Indications are that Americans generally need only to be reminded of this responsibility and how much they should lend their government in order to reach this goal, Americans are backing up their fighting men on the battle fronts. They are supporting the Second War Loan. "They give their lives . . . You lend your money."

OPA Amends Meat Ration Rules on Home Production

The Office of Price Administration has amended its meat rationing regulations to wipe out certain restrictions on the custom-slaughtering of home-produced livestock for consumption on the farm, and at the same time gave details of rationing rules that apply to other situations involving home-produced meat.

Under the regulations, as originally drawn, a farmer who brought his own cattle to a custom slaughtering plant for slaughter and dressing had to surrender red point stamps for the meat, while if he killed and dressed the animal himself on the farm the meat was "ration-free."

This situation is eliminated and other meat rationing problems that face the farmer are clarified in this new amendment.

The regulations now provide that a farmer and his family may consume meat raised on any farm he owns or operates, and may transfer meat from one of his farms to another to provide food for members of his household, without giving up ration points. However, if the farm owner lives in a city, or any other place than a farm, he must give up ration points for the meat he consumes off the farm, although he need not necessarily pay for the meat in money.

By allowing farmers to use custom-slaughtering facilities without surrendering ration points for the meat acquired, OPA recognizes that slaughtering done at an abattoir by a person regularly engaged in the business, is generally done under improved sanitary conditions. Use of these facilities will also result in a greater saving of slaughtering by-products for which there is now a great demand, and which meat farms are not equipped either to salvage or to market, OPA officials said.

A farmer who acquires meat from a custom slaughterer without surrendering ration points, must provide the slaughterer with a certification intended to establish the fact that the meat he acquires is primarily for food for his family and was produced from livestock raised on the farm.

A farmer who sells any meat produced from livestock raised on his farm, whether he slaughtered the animal himself or had it custom-slaughtered, must collect ration points for every sale he makes. The point value of farm-slaughtered meat is determined by the point value of meat cuts as listed either on the consumer or the trade "official table of point values of meat."

Both stamps or certificates collected for such sales are turned in to local ration boards once during each month in which a sale is made, along with a report of the farmer's slaughtering and sales operations.

A farmer who sells meat directly to a consumer may accept red stamps not valid for other purchases. The purpose of this provision, it was explained, is to make it possible for the farmer to sell larger cuts of meat than consumers would ordinarily be able to buy with only currently valid meat stamps.

In some farm communities it has been the practice for a group of families to take turns in doing their farm slaughtering, and in this way providing each other with a continuous supply of fresh meat. Such loans may be continued under the present rationing regulations, provided that no one farmer lends more than 400 pounds of beef and veal together, and 150 pounds of other meats, in addition to 25 pounds of other foods rationed under this order in any one calendar year.

Meat "loaned" under this provision need not be returned in kind, but must be replaced by food worth the same points and rationed under the meat and fats order, OPA said.

The rationing board announced here this week that any ration book that has expired must be returned to the board within five days of the date of expiration, and that after transfer or sale of a car or truck the gasoline ration book issued for it must be returned to the board.

Nine carloads of certified potato seed and one carload of select potato seed were sold in Barbourville, Knox county.

MATERNAL AID IS OFFERED

Wives of Service Men; Health Department Has Applications

Experience of having a baby on an army private's pay no longer is a worry to either the husband in camp or his wife back home.

As of May 11, Kentucky became a participant in the Emergency Maternity and Infant Care Fund program which provides money for medical, nursing and hospital maternity and infant care for wives and babies of enlisted men of the fourth, fifth, sixth and seventh grades in the armed forces of the United States.

The Floyd County Health Department now has application blanks which prospective mothers eligible for aid may use in applying for assistance from this fund.

The U. S. government furnishes the money which is administered by the Maternity and Child Health Division of the State Board of Health. Dr. A. T. McCormack, State Health Commissioner, said that Kentucky's initial allotment is $37,500 with more funds available "as needed."

Not eligible are families of commissioned officers, of master, major, first, technical, staff and platoon sergeants, and of chief, first and second class petty officers.

The First Deficiency Appropriation Act of 1943 enacted by Congress March 18, provides the funds which will be distributed by the Secretary of Labor among the states and territories. The purpose is to provide medical, hospital and nursing care of prospective mothers, many of whom are following their soldier husbands from camp to camp, and for their babies under one year of age.

The mother may choose her own physician, who, in turn, is at liberty to participate or not in giving medical care under the plan. A complete list of the hospitals which will provide the maternity care has not yet been drawn up.

The simple form which the prospective mother will fill out may be obtained at the State Board of Health, Red Cross Chapters, County Medical Societies, at participating hospitals and from the physicians.

The form is sent to the Maternity and Child Health Division of the State Board of Health and that division sends an authorization to the physician, the hospital, the mother and the County Health Department. Importance of clearing the application with the Board of Health as soon as possible was emphasized.

The doctor will receive a fee of $35 for attending the mother during the entire period of pregnancy, including the delivery and attention five weeks thereafter. The hospital fee is the regular rate.

At a recent meeting of the medical economics section of the Kentucky Medical Association, the doctors said they would be glad to deliver wives of soldiers without any charge," Dr. McCormack said. "But they recognized that the government had seen the impossibility of treating soldiers' wives as if they were charity cases, and the doctors are quite pleased with the fee, which, obviously, must be standard throughout the state. It would be impossible for our doctors to refuse to co-operate in this important phase of the war effort."

The Emergency Maternity and Infant Care Funds do not provide for midwives and 20 per cent of Kentucky babies are delivered by midwives.

It is estimated that babies born to soldiers' wives in this state will approximate 3,000 annually. Of course this figure applies only to the "resident" wives and not to the hundreds of babies who will be born to wives who come here from other states while their husbands are in Kentucky army posts.

What Is Inflation?

Do you have excess cash? You will answer, "No." But the fact remains that you do. For almost every wage earner these days has an income, in checkbook or pocketbook, well above the cost of his living, taxes, insurance and debt repayments.

You never actually "bid" against anybody for a porterhouse steak, but when you take the spending of all average Americans as a group, it's a different story. So it is important that excess money be saved rather than used collectively to bid up prices. If it is spent, instead of saved, prices soar. . . That's inflation.

Ideally, it should be invested in Government securities during the Second War Loan.

"They give their lives . . . You lend your money."

WAS DISTANT HUSBAND ET UP?

A Chicago woman wrote Sheriff Frank Culpepper, of Suffolk, Va., to inquire about her "distant" husband and wanted to learn if he was once, twice, wholly or only partly removed. The letter follows:

"Kind and respected sir: "I see in a paper that a man named Joe Sipes was attacked and et up by a bare whose cubs he was trying to get. When the she bare came up and stopped him by eating him up in the woods near your town. What I want to know is did it kill him or was he onlie partlie et up and is he from this place and all about the bare. I don't know but what he is a distant husband of mine. My first husband was by that name and I suppose he was killed in the war, but the name of the man the bare et being the same I thot it might be him after all and I ought to know if he was killed by the bare or in the war for I have been married twice since then and there ought to be divorce papers got out by me or him if the bare did not eat him all up.

"If it is him you will know it by him having six toes on the left foot. He also sings bass and has a spread eagle tatoo on his right arm which you will know him by if the bare ain't et up these sines of being him. "If alive don't tell him I am married to Joe W. He never liked Joe. Maybe you had better let on as if I am dead but find out all you kin without him knowing anything about what it is for, that is if the bare ain't et him all up. "Respectively," etc.

"P.S.—Ware the bare killed also was he married again and did he leave any property worth me laying claims to?"

We Honor The Heroes of 1943

This MEMORIAL DAY

Memorial Day comes closer home this year. For our Nation is at War. Perhaps that neighbor boy you knew so well has just given his life, or has been seriously wounded on some far-away front. Perhaps he has been reported missing in action on land or sea.

While we pause to honor the memory of the heroes of all our Wars, past and present, let's resolve to make whatever sacrifices are required to bring about the downfall of today's would-be dictators, so that we may move forward in a better world . . . a world at peace.

READING and WRITING

HILARY ST. GEORGE SAUNDERS is probably the most widely read author in the modern world, and yet his name has seldom, if ever, appeared in print—either on the title page of his own books, or elsewhere. He is the author of the official British government reports on the various branches of the British fighting services with such books as "Bombardier Command," "The Battle of Britain" and "Coastal Command" having sold well over 12,000,000 copies.

Saunders is said to know more about the progress of the war than even Winston Churchill. As official recorder for the Combined Operations Command, headed by Lord Louis Mountbatten, he is the recipient of all reports from land, sea and air forces engaged in raiding enemy territory throughout the world. It is his job to correlate these reports into the picture of the war as a whole, and to keep his records straight he has to know what's going on not only along the coast of France, Belgium, Holland and Norway, but also on such far flung coasts as New Guinea, North Africa, China, Iceland and India.

precisely what forces, both Allied and Axis, are engaged, and what strength is on each side.

"Combined Operations" takes the story of the Commandos from the time they were first organized, after the British evacuation at Dunkirk, up to what the author calls the greatest Combined Operation yet to have been staged in the war, the landing in French North Africa. He details the training and experience each man has to go thru in becoming a Commando and, with maps and pictures, shows precisely what took place before, during, and after each raid.

One of the curious notes Saunders points out in "Combined Operations," along with his thrilling descriptions of the actual raids, is that the official song of the British Parachute Troops is "Come Sit By My Side If You Love Me." Another odd thing the Commandos discovered was that one of the first objectives on Madagascar was a point of land bearing the name of Windsor Castle—the same name as that of the residence of the British Royal Family.

And in the raid at St. Nazaire, during the course of which H.M.S. Campbelltown was deliberately blown up to block a harbor gate, the French citizens of the town, thinking the British were actually staging a full scale invasion, turned on their Nazi oppressors. One little old lady was later quoted as saying that she saw her duty and did it, despite the weight of the flower pot.

Garrett Woman's Father Is Victim of Stroke

Amos F. Smith, of Meally, Johnson county, and father of Mrs. Everett Daniels, of Garrett, died at his home Wednesday morning, May 12, after an illness of two weeks of paralysis. He was 71 years old and had been a devout member of the United Baptist Church for 27 years. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Jenny Miller Smith, and four daughters: Mrs. J. G. Cassell, Milo, Ky.; Mrs. Arthur Fitzpatrick, Surosa, W. Va.; Mrs. Everett Daniels, Garrett, Mrs. Ralph Fitzpatrick, Richardson; one brother, Finley Smith, Prichard, W. Va., and three sisters, Mrs. Jim Cassell, Inez, Mrs. Tom Limley, Gary, Ind., Mrs. Martha Blankenship, Wayne, W. Va., 19 grandchildren and five great-grandchildren. The body was taken to Martin county for burial Friday in the family cemetery near Inez. Rites were conducted by the Revs. Leonard Walters and Billy Justice.

"God does with torches do. Not light them for For if our virtues go from us 'Twere all the same been not."

It is not enough to ca lesser needs of humanity a work as that may be. Som most wicked men who ha lived, even atheists, have tender-hearted and more char towards others when they we physical need. "A man's life sisteth in the abundance of things which he possesseth." M must be led into the higher life, spiritual. It is well that we shou better conditions for all the peop but making better conditions is n the final... We must make bette men.

There are scores of men and women who are in anguish, not because their children are not well paid, not because they do not live in good houses and under the best of sanitary conditions, but their hearts are breaking because their children are reaping the wages of sin, because in the midst of plenty they have turned from God to serve the world, the beast and the devil.

Who can read the daily paper without staggering under the fact that men and women of social political and some of them of church prominence are wrecking their souls with the social evils of the day. Many of them seem not to be strong enough and many, we feel, do not have the desire to break away from the things which they know are destroying them. These things, if continued, will sooner or later break up their homes and damn their souls. Leaders among workers and capitalists are men of ungodly lives who use the advantage of better conditions of labor and the better returns of capital to weigh their souls down to hell with the additional temptations which these successes have given them. The Christian people must throw themselves across the breach and stand supremely for the higher and spiritual things, putting them at the very front.

We wonder, sometimes, how these fathers and mothers or how the Christian people are able to enjoy the comforts of life as they do when they know the danger their children are in. What would sudden death mean to them?

Again, we wonder how church members can come from the place and night of revelry, go to the place of worship, receive the sacrament, which marks afresh the sacrifice of their Lord and recalls their own solemn promise to be true to Him, without realizing that Christ is calling them by day and by night to leave the weak and beggarly things of life—the things which make life so empty.

In sorrow I wondered, my spirit oppress, But now I am happy, securely I rest; From morning till evening glad carols I sing, And this is the reason—I walk with the King.

For years in the fetters of sin I was bound, The world could not help me, no comfort I found, But now like the birds and the sunbeams of spring, I'm free and rejoicing—I walk with the King.

O, soul near despair in the lowlands of strife, Look up and let Jesus come into your life; The joy of salvation to you he will bring, Come into the sunlight and walk with the King.

Brother, you are not fooling the world, you are cheating yourself, reflecting on the church and religion and driving the nails afresh in the hands of the blessed Son of God.

There is no question but that the ministry must hold a high standard, live a clean life and preach a gospel which is great enough to save all people from all sin, but when the church (I mean members as well as the preachers) becomes so possessed with the passion for holy living, practice it in act as well as in teaching, the world will throw off its indifference and the church will come to its own by preeminence of its life and the power of its sacrifice. Sinners will be converted, cleansing will come to the church and God in a glorious manner will dwell among us again.

Sure it's fun to chat!

But—sacrificing Non-Essential Calls Helps Clear Lines for Vital War Calls

You bet it's pleasant to talk with friends over the telephone, just as it was pleasant to take those long Sunday afternoon rides when we had plenty of tires and gasoline.

But social calls must be handled over the same local telephone facilities as war calls. There is a definite limit to the number of calls these facilities can handle at the same time, and when more calls are made, some must wait.

With telephone equipment already burdened with war calls, non-essential calls may delay necessary calls, so we are re-questing your voluntary co-operation to reduce unnecessary calling.

Under normal conditions we would expand our facilities to care for the increased volume of calls, but we cannot do that now because the needed materials are going into war weapons.

So won't you help by making fewer local calls? And when you must make a call, won't you please try to make it as short as possible?

SERIOUSLY SPEAKING

By E. F. EPLING
The funny thing about the Wets striving to retain their trade was the appeal to Grandpa and Grandma—or, was it a threat? "The old-age pension checks would be cut."

It's wonderful to read of our success on the fighting fronts. And we feel with that British general some compassion for the prisoners—but the past horrors Hitler has heaped on so many people overshadowed pity.

A leader to please and be all out for a part of the population, to the hurt and destruction of all the rest, cannot win in the end.
Right will adjust itself, and men can follow after, or destroy and be destroyed by selfish greed, which causes most of this world's woe.

To be carried in a balloon hundreds of miles over Asia and Europe for a day and by looking down thru a powerful telescope, we'd see the people fleeing, airmen, soldiers, marines and sailors fighting and what a sight it would be—each mother's son in a death struggle. All over a few mad men, greedy maniacs, whom Satan has turned loose.

And while this struggle must be carried on, that the evil may be destroyed, and peace might reign once again on the earth, let's hasten the day and make more secure the future hope of goodwill by discarding greed for an attitude of live and let live. A little more charity and a little less greed would make a big difference.

You just can't keep corresponding with many and do anything else. And when you lose track of so many boys you knew, it's a little out of reach of any words I know that might describe that empty space you simply get wondering about one and then another and another and right on, and you'd like to get a glimpse of them, wherever they are. And again, you wouldn't.

Did not intend to make a sermon of this, but it must be said: a greedy heart, a foul mouth and an alcoholic stomach will not help your boy or neighbor boy to come home. Neither can you ask God to help them.

NICHOLLS

Cpl. Henry Nicholls, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tobe Nicholls, Prestonsburg, will have had two years' army service to his record on June 10. He is in the medical corps, stationed at El Paso, Texas, and formerly was in the Coast Guard.

Sgt. T. M. George, son of Mr. and Mrs. James George, Prestonsburg, is in Alaska with an infantry outfit and may be seeing his part of action against the Japs in the Aleutians. He volunteered for army service Oct. 30, 1939.

Jas. H. Hatcher, son of Mrs. Magie Hatcher, Prestonsburg, is with the army medical corps, somewhere in North Africa, the same front in which his brother, Pfc. Sam K. Hatcher, is serving with the army engineers. He entered the army on his birth anniversary, July 14, 1942, and his brother on his birthday, July 28, 1941. The chain of coincidence was continued by both receiving training at the same camp in Virginia and both sailing from the same embarkation port in New Jersey.

Auxiliary Sylvia M. Branham, 21, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Branham of Martin, arrived at Keesler Field, Miss., this week with the first contingent of WAAC's to report for duty to the unit of the Army Air Forces Technical Training Command there. Auxiliary Branham probably will be assigned to administrative duties to relieve some able-bodied soldier for active line duty.

A recent graduate of the Army Air Forces Gunnery School at Kingman, Ariz., was 21-year-old Pvt. Lloyd Burton, of Prestonsburg. Pvt. Burton entered the army at Paintsville, Sept. 17, 1940. He attended Auxier high school.

Pvt. Joe Wheeler Sizemore was home on furlough recently visiting his mother, Mrs. Tenie Davis, and sister, Mabel Sizemore, of Wheelwright Junction; also his father, Russell Sizemore, of Prestonsburg. Pvt. Sizemore is in the Marine Corps and has recently been transferred to New River, N. C. He also has a brother, Pfc. Curtis Lee Sizemore, in the Marines, stationed at New River. Prior to Pvt. Sizemore's enlistment in the Marines, he served in the army in Panama. Both of the Sizemore boys attended high school at Wheelwright.

Colonel Carlyle Nickles, 29, was graduated from the Engineer Officer Candidate School, Fort Belvoir, Va., May 12, and is now a second lieutenant in the corps of engineers. His parents are Sid and Emizell Nickles, Raven, Knott county. He attended Hindman Settlement School and Morehead State Teachers' College. He is married to the former Edna Terry. He entered the army Sept. 4, 1941 at Fort Thomas. Before entering the service, he was principal of the Four Mile grade school at Mousie.

Gomer E. Martin, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Martin, Drift, has been named honor man of his company at the completion of the recruit training course at the U. S. Naval Training Station, Great Lakes, Illinois. A graduate of Martin high school and later a student at Kentucky Wesleyan, he had been employed by the Vultee Aircraft Company, Berry Field, Nashville, Tenn., as a riveter and sheet-metal worker prior to his enlistment in March. He is spending a nine-day leave with his parents, after which he will be sent to one of the Navy's service schools for aviation machinists. He qualified for this school through his grades in the series of aptitude test given all recruits during their primary training course.

'I was mighty glad to see the Golden Gate bridge at San Francisco,' writes Sgt. Frank Carr, formerly of Allen, who recently returned from a scene of action in the South Pacific. He is attached to the field artillery, and is now at Camp Cooke, California. He spent a recent furlough at Allen with his wife, the former Jessie Marie Caudill, and his mother.

Pfc. First Class Denzil F. Stumbo, son of Monroe Stumbo, Printer, has been graduated as a skilled air raft mechanic from the Army Air Forces Technical Training Command school at Seymour Johnson Field, N. C. A graduate of the Martin high school, Pfc. Stumbo was employed by the Bass Engineering Company in Morganfield, Ky., prior to entering the army at Fort Thomas November 27, 1942.

Andrew Jackson Davidson, Jr., 21, son of Dr. A. J. Davidson, Prestonsburg, is receiving the basic training that will prepare him for sea duty as a fighting Bluejacket in the Navy at the U. S. Naval Training Station, Great Lakes, Ill.

For the next eight weeks he will be put through a period of 'boot' training stressing physical conditioning, military drill, and the fundamentals of seamanship, naval customs and procedure. Upon graduation he will be given a nine-day leave, after which he will be assigned to a service school for training as a specialist, or be sent directly to active duty at sea or at a shore station.
