

A CHALLENGE

The United Mine Workers have put it up to the rest of us. They're giving $1 each to the fund which maintains morale among the soldiers in camp and on the fighting fronts and which gets through to the boys in enemy prison camps the few comforts they can expect while in the hands of the barbarian enemy.

There is a Biblical passage which describes too many of us: "For I was an hungred, and ye gave me no meat: I was thirsty, and ye gave me no drink: I was a stranger, and ye took me not in: naked, and ye clothed me not: sick, and in prison, and ye visited me not."

Contributions may be sent here to W. J. May, treasurer.

A LITTLE TOO BULKY

Hansford May, with the army in Iceland, recently wrote his mother, Mrs. W. M. May, here: "You asked me in your letter if I wanted anything. I don't need anything and what I want you couldn't send. I don't think you could get the United States in a package."

THE ARMY SPEAKS

And Ray Allen from California asks me to put an ad in THE TIMES, offering the blankety-blank state back to the Spaniards. Dave Leslie, at Camp Barkeley, Texas, opines that he'd like to know what the Indians were fighting over territory like that for.

"HIKE, JULE!"

Years after writing "The Dark and Bloody Ground," S. D. (Dick) Osborne, of Martin, recently published another book—"Hike Jule"—which I have just finished reading and enjoying. Though of a more serious nature than his first little volume, glints of the irrepressible humor of the author appear, every now and then. These few paragraphs, for instance:

"I remember when I was a boy that my parents would encourage me to study hard at school by telling me that some day I could rise to be a clerk in a store. As a result I almost graduated in Webster's blue 'back speller'."

"Two men were arguing about a pair of shoes and one of them said, 'This pair of shoes I am wearing has lasted me twelve months. The other looked down at them for a few seconds and asked, 'How long have they been worn out?'"

"When a fellow said, 'You can't convert a man by arguing with him,' my tobacco-chewing friend stepped up and said, 'Yes, you can. One time a Russellite argued with me for thirty minutes and what do you suppose I was when he got through?' 'Nobody could guess. So he said, 'When he got through I was a Christian Scientist.'"

"Brother Hopkins, explaining how he could afford to give his time preaching without pay, said, 'The congregation don't get anything, and it takes as long to listen as it does me to preach.'"

Mentioned in the story are familiar places in this county and a few well remembered names. The late Rube Clark, old-time ferryman here, and Morg Conley, yet living on Salt Lick Creek, are two of the persons mentioned.

THURSDAY

SCHOOLS PASS BOND QUOTA OF $300,000

But County Believed Short of $893,100 Goal Assigned It

Although several days must elapse before exact results of the Third War Loan drive in this county are known, sales of Bonds during October were variously estimated from $700,000 to $800,000.

Overlapping activities of school and other groups made it impossible for County Chairman W. P. Mayo to arrive at a definite figure on results of the drive. It was feared that the county had failed for the first time to meet a War Loan quota.

The county's quota was set at $893,100 and, as elsewhere over the country, banking and insurance firms were excluded from making Bond purchases during this particular drive. The national goal of $15,000,000,000 was exceeded.

Floyd county's schools exceeded their $300,000 quota by $90,000. County Superintendent Town Hall said after tabulating incomplete reports. Isolated rural schools yet to report may bring this figure around $395,000.

A feature of the drive in this county was the work in the schools. Of the teachers and students Superintendent Hall said:

"Certainly I wish to commend the principals and teachers for the fervent zeal displayed by them in the Bond drive just closed. The children, their parents and other Floyd countians worked equally as hard in the patriotic task of raising our school quota. Doubtless we would have failed in our undertaking without the aid of the children and their parents. It was a duty and yet a privilege for the schools to participate. A great lesson in democracy has been learned by all of us. The Bond drive has brought the homes of the county into closer communion with our schools, and both the schools and the homes have benefited. We are all better Americans because of our part in this Bond drive. Somehow we all knew that we were helping our boys at the front and also our 'Uncle Sam.' This made our job easy."

(Individual school bond sales figures will be published next week.)

UMW ISSUES CHALLENGE

To Public To Match Their Contribution To State War Fund

United Mine Workers of Floyd and Johnson counties, meeting here Sunday to organize committees to further the Kentucky War Fund drive and other similar funds, hurled a challenge to business men and the public to match their contribution to this cause.

The miners voted to assess themselves $1 each for the Kentucky War Fund drive which is seeking money with which to carry on the work of the USO and other agencies working to build and maintain morale of the armed forces and to get supplies to American prisoners of war.

Floyd county's quota is $12,800. United Mine Workers headquarters in Pikeville said there are approximately 6,800 miners in Floyd and Johnson counties and that these may be counted upon for the full contribution promised at the meeting here.

"The miners have supported every such drive," a UMWA spokesman said. "We have no record what others are doing for this important work of the people back home for the boys in camp, at the front or in prison camps. Now, we want to see if they will meet our contribution."

Every local in the two counties was represented at the meeting which was held at the courthouse. Addresses were made by Edgar Reynolds, Hazard, international UMW organizer; Tom Raney, Pikeville, field manager of the Big Sandy field; Ned Day, Whitesburg, district USO chairman, and Mr. Smith, state worker, of Lexington.

MONTH'S END TO SEE NEW RATION BOOKS DISTRIBUTED TO 120,000,000 THRU SCHOOLS

WAR RATION BOOK 4 TO LAST TWO YEARS, OPA OFFICIALS SAY

War Ration Book Four, which will last approximately two years, will be issued to more than 120,000,000 persons through schoolhouse distributions during the last 10 days of this month, the Office of Price Administration announced last week.

Time and places where the public may obtain the new ration book will be announced locally as Regional offices complete arrangements for its distribution. The book will be used early in November.

"We have called on the schools again to distribute this ration book," OPA officials said, "because there was not enough time between completion of mailing Book Three and the date when Book Four will be used to organize the necessary facilities to handle applications by mail. Their ability to do the job quickly and efficiently, and their willingness to undertake the tremendous responsibility involved in distribution of ration books, has been proved in the past."

Count's Scrap Quota, 100 Pounds Per Person In New Salvage Drive

Floyd county's quota in the nationwide scrap drive which began Oct. 1 is 5,300,000 pounds—100 pounds per capita—W. W. Burchett, chairman of the Kiwanis Club committee heading the drive in this county, said Wednesday.

As in the past, Floyd county schools will play a prominent part in the accumulating of much-needed scrap metals for the country's war production plants. Two days will be designated as school holidays and pupils and teachers will spend those days hunting scrap, it was said.

(See story on Page 6 giving drive details.)

AUTO, TRAIN KILL THREE FLOYD MEN

Three Others Hurt, Condition of One Is Held Critical

A speeding automobile brought death to two Floyd county men and a train killed a third over the week-end. A fourth may die and two other persons were injured.

The dead: Cecil Whitt, 25, Water Gap miner.

Noah Case, 22, Honaker Estill Kidd, 20, Harold.

Injured were Richard Cecil, 21, a sailor home on leave; Miss Ethel Branham, 19, Harold, and Berlie Prater, 36, of Water Gap.

Whitt and Prater were two of three men on the railway tracks at the old Eureka Coal-Company tipples, a short distance south of Prestonsburg, Sunday afternoon, when struck by Passenger Train No. 38. The third, Joe Bayes, was uninjured, though it was said the length of the train passed over him as he lay between the rails.

Whitt died at the Prestonsburg General hospital Sunday night at 11:20. His right leg was severed near his hip, his left leg was injured and he suffered possible internal hurts. Prater's arm was severed at the shoulder.

Though Prater's condition is serious, Dr. D. H. Daniel, head of the hospital staff, said he believed the injured man will recover, "barring complications."

Case and Kidd died as results of an automobile wreck in South Pikeville at 3 a. m. Sunday, their auto striking a tree while being driven at high speed and rolling over an embankment. Kidd died almost instantly of a fractured skull. Case, his uncle, succumbed Monday at the Methodist hospital, Pikeville. Cecil and Miss Branham, passengers in the car, sustained broken legs.

The train figuring in the tragedy near here was in charge of A. L. Castle, conductor, Ashland; W. J. Walker, engineer, Ashland; and S. R. Warnick, fireman, Russell, all of whom said that they saw the men lying on the track when they rounded a curve. Emergency brakes were applied but the engine passed over the men before the train could be stopped.

The three men, lying prone on the tracks, never stirred after the trainmen saw them until they were struck, Warnick said.

The three were carried on stretchers to the baggage car while passengers looked on. It was a matter of less than an hour before Prater and Whitt were in the operating room of the Prestonsburg hospital. Bayes.

COUNCIL VOTES ACT REPEAL

But Plans Contest Of Election Suit Filed by Ticket

Although the City Council at its Monday evening meeting removed from its statute books the election ordinance which gave rise to the suit now pending in the Floyd circuit court, members of the Victory ticket here indicated this week the case will nevertheless be fought out in court—to ascertain who shall pay the court costs, if nothing else.

The ordinance, as originally adopted, would have required all candidates for City Council here to be listed on the ballot in a single column, names of candidates alternating. A ticket which filed under the Democratic device filed suit to require County Clerk A. B. Meade to have their names printed under the Rooster emblem.

With repeal of the ordinance, the candidates line up here, as follows:

Ward No. 1—Democratic ticket: A. C. Carter, Graham Harris, Herbert Salisbury, Thomas Hereford; Victory ticket: Mrs. Ethel Heinze, Roe Layne, Jim Numery, Frank Layne.

Ward No. 2—Victory ticket: Willie Clark, C. H. (Gulf) Smith; Democratic ticket: Joe P. Tackett, Mont Gibson.

Depot—Victory ticket: Bill Fitzpatrick, Burl Spurlock; Democratic ticket: John Osborne, E. K. Dolson.

ON GUARD

I'm a guard tonight in a distant land,
In a land far over the sea;
God help me tonight to keep that guard
And the lives of my buddies and me.
They sleep tonight on a shellhorn ground,
Their lives entrusted to me;
God help me tonight to keep that trust
And the lives of my buddies and me.
They dream of their homes they love so well
And the faces they'd love to see;
God help me tonight to ease their dreams
So their loved ones once more they'll see.
So I walk guard in a distant land,
In a land far over the sea,
God will help my guard to keep
And the lives of my buddies and me.
—George W. Smith, Jr., member of Coast Guard in North Africa, and a nephew of Bill P. Will, Prestonsburg, (Pd. adv.)

Through the generosity of the Kentucky Bankers' Association, $500 in War Stamps are to be divided among Kentucky farm boys and girls who attend the 12 district 4-H club conferences to be held over the state Oct. 15 to 28. About 1,200 county 4-H club champions will attend the district conferences.

The donation was announced by William Miller, of Louisville, president of the Kentucky Bankers' Association.

4-H Clubs Make Big Bond Sales

A calf that sold $50,000 in War Bonds was a feature of a 4-H club auction at the Pike county fair. N. A. Cristman got the calf in return for buying the bonds for the company which he represents. Purebred pigs sold by Herbert and Hobert Potter, club boys, and Layton Howerton, club leader, added $5,200 in bonds.

BUY BONDS—BUY BOMBS!

From where I sit...

by Joe Marsh

Pete Swanson fancies himself as an armchair strategist. Sometimes he gets so tangled up, I just can't resist tryin' to straighten him out.

For instance, the other day he was waxing indignant about our soldiers being allowed to buy beer right in camp. Said that was just coddling the troops and would ruin discipline.

I told him the actual facts had already been established by a study the Government made. Their report said chaplains and the military police agree that instead of ruining discipline, 3.2 beer sold in Army camps provides our soldiers with a mild form of relaxation without impairing their efficiency.

Well, Pete allowed that the chaplains and military police are a pretty good authority on what's right for soldiers. I've noticed lately he's been confining his remarks to the broader phases of strategy.

"KENTUCKY WILL PROFIT BY ITS ERROR OF 1919

by electing in 1943 a DEMOCRATIC STATE TICKET to cooperate with and give aid to our PRESIDENT and Commander-in-chief, as he plots the course to assure the objective for which we now fight."

VOTE THE STRAIGHT DEMOCRATIC TICKET • TUESDAY, NOV. 2, 1943

- Only two states—Kentucky and New Jersey—will elect officials this year.
- The Nation, and all of its Allies, are vitally interested in the outcome in each state because the result will indicate trend of the public mind in supporting the war effort and in approaching proper solutions of the post-war problems.
- By voting the straight Democratic ticket in Kentucky November 2, you have an opportunity to say to the world that Kentuckians are backing the men in arms, supporting the war leadership and are concerned in the welfare of the fighting men and women to the extent that a constructive post-war program is adopted.

The Grand Jury Recommends Well

The Floyd circuit court grand jury made a suggestion of real worth when it recommended that idlers without visible means of support be taken into court.

The grand jurors made the suggestion in deep disgust when they watched men who are able to work loaf the war out while young men are dying for them and theirs.

Any poolroom, any whiskey store, any shaded street is a throng with loafers. Work is plentiful, wages are high, the need for their labor is great—yet every community, urban or rural, is infested by these drones.

A work-or-fight rule should be in effect—a rule as inexorable as that of Captain John Smith's in reminding the Jamestown settlers that those who would not work could not eat.

There is no glory in "loafer's glory."

TO THE CITIZENS OF FLOYD COUNTY:

While it is true that Floyd county is normally Democratic, yet be it said to the honor, intelligence and integrity of our people that they have shown in the past that they are not slaves to any selfish, arrogant, and corrupt political machine.

That such a machine now exists at Frankfort has been established beyond all doubt. The record of graft and corruption of the past four years of the Keen Johnson-Lyter Donaldson machine has been established by court records, committee reports, and leading newspapers of the state.

In each instance, these horrible disclosures of corruption were disclosed by Democratic courts, a Democratic Attorney General, and a Democratic news-reporter. Only a few short weeks ago, Rodes K. Myers, Ben Kilgore and Hubert Meredith publicly exposed the horrible conditions existing at Frankfort. They told us how this Frankfort machine had mistreated and abused the old people of the state and that thousands of applications for Old-Age pensions now lie covered by dust at Frankfort and unattended to; that soap to be used to wash the bodies and clothing of the thousands of unfortunate inmates of our state reformatories, feeble-minded institutions, asylums, and Kentucky Children's Home, and selling on the open market for seven cents per pound, was purchased by the machine crowd for fifty cents per pound; that the thousands of blind people of our state and thousands of indigent children were compelled to go into court to put into effect a law for their aid that had been on the statute books over three years; that a slush-fund of $300,000 was collected by Lyter Donaldson illegally from the public in continuing the collection of bridge tolls, after such tolls had paid the bridge bonds and interest (in this instance he was stopped by a judgment of a Democratic court); how that a Democratic court again prevented the machine from buying for the use of all of the above mentioned state institutions, old, second-hand, worn-out laundry equipment for hundreds of thousands of dollars when the specifications called for new equipment; how Governor Johnson dared not leave the state for fear Rodes K. Myers would call a special session of the Legislature to grant the much-needed aid to our underpaid school teachers.

These three Democrats in making these startling disclosures stated that "the half had not been told" of graft and corruption on the part of this Johnson-Donaldson machine.

Speaking as to our local situation, what has this crowd done in behalf of Floyd county roads?

The much-talked-about "Dam" should be forgotten and a state highway immediately constructed up Johns Creek to aid these much-abused people; a state highway should be built from Harold up Mud Creek and down Clear Creek to intersect with the Left Beaver highway; a state highway should be built up the left fork of Middle Creek and down Brush Creek to intersect with the Right Beaver road. With these long stretches of highway taken over by the state, we have sufficient revenue in Floyd county, if properly used in connection with the state rural road fund, to construct and maintain every creek road in Floyd county. Judge Willis places special emphasis on such a program by saying that he favors a law giving each fiscal court powers over its own road fund and removing such powers from the state machine.

The record of the machine is not only one of graft and corruption, but one of broken promises. They promised to repeal the state income tax when it should pay the state debt. This, they failed to do, and although not one penny of this tax is paid to our soldiers or their dependents, yet, this crowd is keeping it to further their own selfish aims and build up in Kentucky a Huey Long machine which, as shown by the recent primary, dictates from Frankfort what young aspiring Kentuckian should be nominated by his party for Sheriff, or even Constable.

None of the above enumerated charges, to this hour, have been denied by Lyter Donaldson and in his desperation he violates every sense of decency of all intelligent Democrats and patriotic Kentuckians, when in his opening address he stated in substance that it would be unpatriotic to vote for Judge Willis, our neighbor and friend, against him. This statement was made in the face of the fact that near to 4,000,000 young Republican boys are today facing "The Battle Care" with their "Buddies," a like number of fine, young, patriotic Democrats. They recognize no politics "Over There," and we as their fathers, mothers, brothers and sisters should recognize none "Over Here," but highly resolve that under God "They" all shall have a decent state to which to return after victory is won. What laboring man in Kentucky can truthfully say that Keen Johnson or Lyter Donaldson has beamed a smile in his direction during the past four years? What God-fearing, patriotic Kentuckian can approve by his vote such misconduct of public servants? Judge Willis, our neighbor and friend, whose record in private and public life is beyond reproach, and a state and local ticket of candidates of similar character, pledge the smashing of this "machine."

Mothers, fathers, brothers and sisters of our boys "Over There," do your duty. Stand at attention. On guard for "their" rights. Vote the straight Republican ticket.

WE MUST CONSERVE CRITICAL RESOURCES FOR WAR

THE Government is sponsoring a program through which all citizens are urged to voluntarily conserve fuel, manpower, equipment and materials so that these resources will be available for greater war production. To save these resources, a number of essential industries including coal, oil, gas, water, electric, transportation and communications, are being asked to seek the cooperation of their customers.

You have not experienced any shortage of electricity for there none. The war has made extraordinary demands for electric power. We have adequate capacity to meet these demands as well as necessary civilian requirements. The shortage that exists is in basic resources from which electricity is made—in equipment and critical materials such as copper and other metals that are used in applications of electricity.

The Government's program warns against conservation carried to extremes. No effort should be made to curtail necessary uses of electricity or other services that would be injurious to safety and health, including eyesight conservation. To do this would impair war production.

Use what electricity you need, but need what you use.

Kentucky's Drive To Collect Huge Scrap Tonnage Begun

A state-wide drive to collect 265,000 tons of scrap metal will be held in Kentucky between October 1 and November 15, it was announced by J. J. Rice, director of the Kentucky Salvage Committee.

The campaign will be co-ordinated with a nation wide drive to collect 15,000,000 tons. The War Production Board has designated the drive as the "Victory Scrap Bank Campaign."

Both the state and national quotas, Rice explained, are goals for the last six months of 1943. But, in Kentucky, at least, the response has been so far below the quota most of the scrap must be gathered in the special period of six weeks.

While the drive will enlist aid from Kentucky newspapers, radio stations and all civic bodies, Rice said, it cannot expect the intensive promotion afforded last fall in the great drive sponsored by the newspapers.

The drive in Kentucky will be decentralized into 120 county campaign areas, each directed by the local salvage committee, in co-operation with the schools and every other agency of the county and county seat towns.

A model plan, tested out in Perry county between June 21 and July 1, is being sent to county salvage committees with the recommendation it be adopted throughout the state. There are no magic formulas of success in the Perry plan, Rice said. The essence of it is through advance planning, community co-operation and hard work, he added.

That the Perry county plan will work, Rice said, is indicated by the fact a 500-ton quota was exceeded by 150 tons. Salient points of the plan follow:

1. Salvage committee meets, sets quota and drive dates. Mayor proclaims drive period, and names two days as scrap holidays.

2. County is thoroughly canvassed to locate scrap metal. Owners are interviewed to ascertain if they will donate the scrap or sell it.

3. On first holiday, just after the drive begins, all stores, banks and other businesses close for the day. Volunteer workers assemble in front of the courthouse, along with trucks that have been donated for the day.

4. A leader and four or five volunteer assistants are assigned to each truck. Women are among the assistants, each of whom has brought lunch for at least two of her crew.

5. Each truck is given a definite route to follow. The routes are worked out carefully in advance so that no trucks would overlap.

6. Each truck works the route assigned to it until all the scrap is hauled back to a dumping lot in town. In addition to loading scrap previously piled up along the route, the workers search for scrap that might have been overlooked by owners.

7. The scrap holiday over, canvassing and promotion continues until the last day of the period, when another scrap holiday is proclaimed, and the procedure of the first holiday is duplicated for the final cleanup.

During the two weeks remaining before the drive begins, Rice said, he and his staff will explain details to county committees at district meetings throughout the state. They will be held at Paintsville, Whitesburg, Pineville, Corbin, Richmond, Bowling Green, Madisonville, Owensboro, Mayfield, Columbia, Hodgenville, Shelbyville, Lexington, Lancaster, Covington, Mayfield and Ashland.

BETSY LAYNE

Outstanding event of the past week was the Community Fair, sponsored by the Betsy Layne Woman's Club. A display of picturesque quilts was also arranged about the school gymnasium.

Blackburn—mint peas and tomatoes; Mrs. Sam Thomas—beets; Mrs. Eliza Blackburn—apples and peaches; Mrs. Hobbs—doll collection; Keen Robinette—painting of Christ; Mrs. Clifton Aders—flowers; Mrs. Letha Steele—quilts. D.P. (Perk) DINGUS

For SHERIFF

He is not only a life-long SOBER man, but, also, a HONEST man, and pledges that he will not appoint drunkards or outlaws as deputies. During these "trying hours," we need such a man for Sheriff. He is just a common, country man, and will not be bossed or controlled by any town clique or faction, or any other selfish interest. His father, mother and wife come from old, pioneer families. Their records have been clean and above reproach. Perk Dingus promises, as Sheriff, to keep the record clean. (Political adv.)

TO THE VOTERS OF FLOYD COUNTY:

On my campaign cards you will notice that one of the "planks" in my platform is to free Old Ring.

I want to explain that there is more than one kind of Old Ring—not the old hound dog alone. There is the poor and underprivileged class of people who, too, wear the collar or yoke. These include the barefoot boy with high hope and ambition, but whose parents are too poor to provide him the education every child deserves.

I believe that the people of Floyd county should have an equal chance with the people of Central Kentucky, should have schools equal to those of the Bluegrass counties. I also believe that every boy and girl should have at least two years' college education at state expense.

I have nothing to say about my opponent. He is a gentleman, as far as I know. However, as a whiskey salesman with a "C" card, he has an advantage over me in getting around to see you voters, since I do not own any car at all.

I assure you that if you will elect me your Representative, all the people will have equal representation at Frankfort. I am a coal miner, and some might say I would represent only the miners. But they are only citizens, just like the rest of us, and I would give them no more consideration than I would give any other group. A law that will help the miners will, if honestly written, help the farmers, the gas workers, lawyers and bankers.

Let us not be hot-headed about our politics and vote against our own interest in Floyd county.

Make sure of voting right by electing a Floyd countyman for Representative—

ROBERT HICKS

SUNDAY A CATHOLIC HOLIDAY

"My Brethren, look about you upon the various wrangling sects and denominations. Show me one that claims or possesses the power to make binding on the conscience. There is but one on the face of the earth—the Catholic church—that has power to make laws binding upon the conscience, binding before God, binding under pain of hell fire...

anathematized those who kept the Sabbath, and urged all persons to labor on the seventh day under penalty of the anathema. "Which church does the whole civilized world obey? . . . The Bible says, 'Remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy,' but the Catholic church says, 'No, keep the first day of the week,' and the whole world bows in obedience."

WHICH DAY SHALL WE KEEP? The Bible Truth About the Sabbath

The only way to be sure that you are keeping the right day unto the Lord your God, is to follow exactly what the Lord says in the Bible. The Lord Christ has forever settled which day we ought to keep, by commanding the observance of the seventh day in the Ten Commandments, which comprehend or embrace our duty to God and our fellow men. (Ecd. 12:13, 14.) A careful reading of Acts 7:37, 38, 1 Cor. 14 and Neh. 9:12-15 shows that the Lord who spoke the Ten Commandments, and wrote them on two tablets of stone, was none other than Christ the Lord, who is the eternal Son of God, and God the Father. In these Ten Commandments the Lord Christ declares, "the seventh day is the Sabbath of the Lord thy God; in it thou shalt not do any work." (Ex. 20:1, 8, 11.) Since Sunday is the first day of the week, it cannot be the right day for you to keep because the Lord tells you to keep the seventh day. Jesus Christ has never said one word in the Scriptures directing anyone to keep the first day of the week as a holy day. Since the seventh day is the only weekly day that the Lord has ever commanded men to keep it holy, it is bound to be the only right day that there is for men to observe. And if you will do what your Lord tells you, you will keep the seventh day (or Saturday) holy unto the Lord.

the Ten Commandments. (Rom. 3:31). We cannot be saved by the Ten Commandments without grace, on the other hand we cannot be saved by grace without obedience to God's commands. (Heb. 5:9; Rev. 22:14; Matt. 7:21.) SEVENTH DAY BINDING UNDER THE NEW TESTAMENT The Mosaic laws of ceremonial observances and typical ordinances were abolished at the cross. (Col. 2:14-17; Eph. 2:15). But the moral obligations of the Ten Commandments were just as binding on men after Christ came and died as before, and every one of them are binding on us today. (1 Cor. 7:19; 1 Jno. 2:3, 4; 5:3; Rev. 14:12; 12:17.) In harmony with this we find that, while the apostles taught that Christians were not under the law of Moses (Acts 15:5, 24; Gal. 3:23, 25), they plainly show that the Ten Commandments are binding on Christians. (Eph. 6:2; Rom. 7:7; 1 Jno. 3:4; Jas. 2:11, 10.) SEVENTH DAY SABBATH NOT ABOLISHED AT THE CROSS Some will cite Col. 2:16, 17 to prove that the Sabbath was abolished at the cross. But Gen. 2:3 shows that the seventh day was sanctified or set apart before sin entered this world, and therefore, it could not be one of the Mosaic types or shadows of things to come, which passed away at the cross. If you will read Lev. 23 in connection with Col. 2:16, 17, you will see that the Sabbath days which passed away at the cross were those yearly ceremonial Sabbaths of the Mosaic law, which were connected with the Passover, the Pentecost, the day of Atonement, and the feast of Tabernacles. The weekly Sabbath of the Ten Commandments was entirely separate from these (Lev. 23:38), and was binding after Christ died, the same as the other nine commandments of the ten. (Matt. 5:17, 18.) If you will read Luke 23:56 you will find that after Christ was crucified on the sixth day or Friday, His followers kept the very next day, the seventh day, or the day we call Saturday, as the Sabbath according to the Lord's commandment. This command to keep the seventh day was still binding after the Lord was crucified. Hence it must be binding today. Read Matt. 24:20 and you will find that it was not Christ's plan for the first day of the week to take the place of the seventh day as His holy day for Christians. In speaking of the impending destruction of Jerusalem, He makes it plain that the same seventh day of the week which was Sabbath at the time of His crucifixion would still be the Sabbath day in A.D. 70 at the fall of Jerusalem, which was thirty-nine years after His resurrection. Here is plain proof that Christ wants us to recognize the seventh day as His holy day.

CHRIST KEPT THE SEVENTH DAY Christ is our example. (1 Pet. 2:21.) A Christian follows Christ. (1 Jno. 2:6.) It is an undeniable fact that Jesus Christ kept the seventh day holy when He lived here on the earth. (Luke 4:16; Jno. 15:10). Then if you really follow Jesus in the day that you will keep, will you not keep the same seventh day? Jesus has not changed. He is the same today. (Heb. 13:8). Then if He were living on earth now, He would keep this same seventh day. Surely every one who follows Jesus now ought to keep the seventh day or Saturday, just as Jesus would keep it if He were here. SEVENTH DAY IS ONLY RIGHT DAY In His Sabbath commandment in Ex. 20:8-11, the Lord makes it plain that we are to keep the seventh day of the week holy, because of three reasons: 1. Because preceding the seventh day the Lord made the world in six days; 2. On the seventh day He rested; 3. He blessed and hallowed the seventh day. As these three divine facts are true only in reference to the seventh day, it is forever established that the seventh day is the ONLY RIGHT DAY for us to keep. As these three facts stand true in reference to all men, it is clear that all men should keep this seventh day. Since the threefold reason assigned in Ex. 20:11 for the observance of the seventh day is of permanent and universal obligation, its observance must likewise be of permanent and universal obligation. SEVENTH DAY IS THE LORD'S DAY Some will say that the first day of the week is the Lord's day according to Rev. 1:10. But read the text for yourself and you will see that there is not one word there about the first day of the week being the Lord's day. Christ has never claimed the first day as His holy day. How then could it be Christ's day or the Lord's day? Christ has from the beginning of the world claimed the seventh day as His holy day. This is the only day of the week that Christ has ever blessed, hallowed or sanctified. Hence the seventh day is the only day that can be Christ's holy day, the Lord's day. One of the outstanding facts of the New Testament is, that Jesus Christ, the Son of God, before He was ever born into this world, was with God the Father in Heaven from the days of eternity. (Jno. 17:5), and that His Son Christ is the Creator of this world. (Jno. 1:10; Eph. 3:9; Jno. 1:1-3; Col. 1:14, 16; Heb. 1:1-3; 1 Cor. 8:6). Then Christ was the Lord, who made the seventh day the Sabbath, by making the world in six days, resting on the seventh day, and blessing and sanctifying the seventh day or setting it apart for man. Therefore the seventh day is bound to be Christ's day, the Lord's day, the Sabbath of Christ. (Matt. 12:8.) All Christians today ought to keep the seventh day as the day of rest and worship, since Jesus Christ blessed and set that day apart for man. Jesus Christ blessed and sanctified it for you, why not gladly accept it? SEVENTH DAY IS KEPSAKE FROM JESUS As it takes the same power to redeem man from sin as it did to make man in the beginning. (Ps. 51:10; 2 Cor. 5:17), the Sabbath stands, not only as a sign of the great creative power of Jesus Christ to make a world in six days, but it is also a sign of the great recreative or redemptive power of Jesus Christ, to give us new hearts and make us new creatures in Him. Thus the Sabbath is expressly declared to be the sign of sanctification. (Eze. 20:12). Every time we keep the seventh day, we show that we are worshipping that true Lord, who made the earth in six days, and also that we are accepting the Power of the Lord to sanctify or save us from sin. Thus the observance of the seventh day in our life becomes a blessed sign between Jesus Christ and us, and He is our Creator and Redeemer. This true seventh-day Sabbath, which stands as a sign of Jesus Christ as Creator and Redeemer should be sacredly cherished as a precious keepsake from our blessed Lord. We appeal to all true Fundamentalists to join us in keeping the Sabbath of creation, thus witnessing to the truth of divine creation versus the error of evolution, and by keeping the seventh day show that God really made the world in six days, instead of being evolved through long periods of time. As the Sabbath is the sign of creation (Ex. 31:16, 17), and the sign of the true God as the Creator (Eze. 20:20), it must stand binding in this world as long as God is the true God, and so long as creation stands. OBEDIENCE IS NECESSARY Many people say that it makes no difference which day you keep, just so you keep one day in seven, and that any day which men choose for the Sabbath is satisfactory. But in Rev. 1:10 we learn that there is one particular day, which we are to devote to the Lord, and He has clearly defined which day that is in His commandments. God does not say you are to keep a seventh day, or any seventh day, or your seventh day, but THE seventh day of the week, on which He rested when He made the world. (Ex. 20:8-11.) God demands explicit and implicit obedience to His word. (Deut. 4:2; 1 Sam. 15:22; Matt. 7:21.) Since God has given us the command to keep the seventh day, it is our duty to do just what He says, and keep that particular day. He will not and cannot accept a man-made substitute rest day in the place of the seventh day which He has ordained and made holy for man. SIX NOTABLE FACTS After men have finished preaching and writing all that they ever can say against the keeping of the seventh day, six great facts will still stand true forever. 1. The seventh day is the only day according to the Scriptures on which the Lord ever rested, so as to make it the rest day for man. 2. The seventh day is the only day that God has ever blessed for man to keep. 3. The seventh day is the only recurring weekly holy day that God ever set apart for man to observe. 4. The seventh day is the only recurring weekly day to which God ever gave any sacred title. 5. The seventh day is the only recurring weekly day that God ever made holy for man to keep. 6. The seventh day is the only recurring weekly day that God has ever commanded man to keep. These six facts forever prove that the seventh day is the only right day to keep according to the Bible. Dear reader, are you ready to follow Christ and keep the seventh day which Christ as Creator, and Redeemer, has blessed and sanctified for you? He says, "Why call ye me Lord, Lord, and do not the things which I say?" (Luke 6:46.) GOD'S MESSAGE FOR TODAY Rev. 14:6-14 teaches that in the last days just before the return of Jesus, a people will be called out to keep the commandments of God and the faith of Jesus (Rev. 14:12). This will certainly include the keeping of the seventh day as specified in God's fourth commandment. Another feature of this special message for these last days is the call to "worship Him that made heaven and earth." (Rev. 14:6, 7.) To worship God as the Creator certainly includes the keeping holy of the seventh-day Sabbath which memorializes creation, and stands as the sign of the Creator (Ex. 31:16, 17.) Hence, God's message for the last days will call His people back to the keeping of the only true Sabbath—the seventh day, which Jesus Christ has set apart for man. That message is being preached in nearly all the world, and an average of 35,000 persons every year are turning to keep the seventh day and are coming into line to obey the commandments of God and the faith of Jesus. We appeal to every true-hearted, God-fearing man and woman to obey by the grace of God all of God's commandments, and keep the seventh day as God has commanded. Jesus says, "Blessed are they that do His commandments, that they may enter in through the gates into the city." (Rev. 22:14.) —J. S. JAMESON

Mayo Receives Wings As Gunnery Graduate

SGT. MAYO

A graduate recently of the Harlingen (Texas) flexible gunnery school who qualified as an expert aerial triggerman after six weeks of intensive training and now wears the silver wings of a gunner-sergeant is Dick E. Mayo, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Mayo, Prestonsburg.

He was promoted to sergeant and received his diploma and wings at brief exercises at the Harlingen army air field and, unless held over to serve as an instructor, will depart immediately to join a combat crew aboard a U.S. bomber. Before learning to "double in gunnery," he completed a course in air mechanics and qualified as an air crew technician.

While at Harlingen he fired every type of weapon from BB and camera guns to .50-calibre Brownings, spent from 12 to 16 hours daily on the ground and in the air mastering the course of instruction and training eyes, nerves and fingers to split second timing. He climaxed the course by firing on towed targets from Texas training planes and medium bombers.

Sgt. Mayo volunteered for service while a law student at the University of Kentucky. He is now at Gowen Field, Boise, Idaho.
