

SPEAKING OF AND FOR FLOYD COUNTY
PRESTONSBURG, KENTUCKY

OCTOBER 21, 1943

THURSDAY

"DESPERATION DAY"
This, it would appear at this stage of the game, is one of those weeks when local news of the Page 1 type just isn't. So I "aim" to fill this one column right now, if I have to list the names of all the dogs, including hounds, I've owned.

WHITE DOVE IS SUED:
To start off with, there's the sad case of the White Dove hospital. Wise Crum has always been of the opinion it was a mistake to move the White Dove from its original location, West Prestonsburg, to Wilson creek. But it went and with the change in location Kendall Martin became chairman of the board of trustees.

Kendall was in town last week when I asked him how the White Dove is faring in these war-time and amid the high cost of living and dying, he mournfully imparted the information that things aren't so good. "We've got a big damage suit against us," says Kendall. "Looks like we might lose it, too."

Asked for particulars, the guiding spirit of the White Dove's affairs said, "Well, one of the nurses give one of our patients a dose of Old Pilgrim Joe's Rascal Ball Remover and it damn' near killed him!"

DOODLIN', 1866 STYLE
Hoping to dig up something that might pass for a feature story in this week's edition, I spent some time today among old records in the courthouse. I probably would have come up with something, had I stayed long enough, but between the rats back in that vault and some things needing to be done at the office, I did not feel like carrying overlong. I did find in a dusty court order book for the year 1817 the following written at the bottom of a page by some nameless oldtimer who apparently had nothing else to do:

"To the commonwealth of Ky you do command to arrest Mr. Nobody and Fetch him up before me for trial. This the day 1866."

The public prints have it that Errol Flynn has been sued by another woman. Wonder if the guy's first name shouldn't be Errol?

Few expected any good to come of that junket Chandler, Lodge, et al, took a safe distance behind the war fronts. But nobody expected so much had to come of it.

BRING THE WHEREWITHAL
Arguments of the several candidates and their supporters during the present campaign bring to mind the story an ex-candidate told me not long ago. It seems that he gained an audience with around a dozen men up on Left Beaver and that he literally "went to town" with an argument for good government, the necessity for throwing out the old ring, giving the people an honest administration, getting away from this vote-buying and vote-stealing, etcetera. "It's up to me like you and me, common folks, to see that this is done," he reminded them.

His hearers seemed to be unusually attentive. "I thought I had some converts, they were so quiet and seemed so earnest," the ex-candidate said. "I mean I thought that all one man in the crowd caught a chance and interposed. 'All right, brother, you bring on the likker and I'll ammed if we don't help you beat 'em!'"

2,500 MINERS IN WALKOUT IN LETCHER

Local Differences Cited; Floyd Mine Situation, Quiet

With the Alabama coal strike one of serious proportions, two Letcher county mines were reported idle this week as the result of local differences between workers and operators.

Floyd county mines continued at work on a full-time basis and there was no indication this week of a stoppage here.

An estimated 2,500 miners were out in Letcher county, but United Mine Worker spokesmen insisted the disputes were of a local nature and indicated they did not believe the walkout would spread.

The No. 204 and McRoberts operations of the Consolidation Coal Company closed Tuesday morning, bringing production of the largest firm in the county to a standstill.

International Board Member Tom Roney, of the UMW at Pikeville, said the approximately 900 employees quit in sympathy with those at Nos. 206 and 207, which suspended Monday.

Also closed Monday was the Hemphill operation of the Elk Horn Coal Corporation, which employed some 400 men.

Roney said that the shutdowns in the two companies were not related, except on the common ground that the employees accused both firms of failing to comply with a War Production Board directive that the companies supply tools.

Besides, he added, the walkout in the Consolidation Company was a demonstration of sympathy for employees of No. 206, who quit work "after a certain section foreman attempted to assault one miner with a pick."

He added that the foreman was transferred to No. 207 after the alleged incident, precipitating the walkout there.

The Hemphill miners were said by the union spokesman to have quit work in a dispute over the supplying of carbide for their lamps.

P'BURG YOUTH FIRST CHIEF

Of Lonesome Pine Order of Arrow Of Boy Scouts

Luke Vaughan, Life Scout, of Prestonsburg, was elected lodge chief of Lonesome Pine Council's Order of the Arrow, national campers' lodge, at the Order's first election of officers, Saturday and Sunday, at Camp Arrowhead.

Bert Greer, Life Scout, of Hazard, was elected secretary, and John Young, Jr., Eagle Scout, of Pikeville, was elected treasurer. Members are elected to the Order of the Arrow on the ratio of one for every 10 boys in camp. After the proper ordeal the boys are installed as members at a night meeting in a secret location. Membership is based on proficiency as a camper and the fulfillment of the Scout oath and law. The purpose of the Order of the Arrow is the promotion of camping in local troops and the performance of extra-ordinary service.

There are 47 members of this local Lodge in the 15 counties in Kentucky and Virginia which make up the Lonesome Pine Council.

Those present at the meeting the past week-end were: Don Holmes, Bill Hanger and Ray Bradbury, Wheelwright; Phil Meade, Paintsville; John Young, Jr., Pikeville; Shelby Warren, Bert Greer, Alex Kerns and Chas. ## Says Local Women Forgetful of Boys

"Where are the women of Prestonsburg and vicinity?—they are surely turning a cold shoulder to the needs of the boys who have been wounded while fighting for them," Mrs. Lillian Keenon, director of surgical dressing work here, said this week in commenting upon the slight interest shown locally in this phase of Red Cross work.

The following helped fold bandages during the last week:

Mesdames Lucille Bingham; Ruth Wills, Mary Leu Layne, Georgia Horn, Anna Lowe, Cora Fannin, Frances Bolling, Annie Hale, Sadie Price, Miranda Hopson, Maria Hill, Digna Mandt, Myrtle McGuire, Dona Patton, Vivian Stiles, Ruth Isbell, C. P. Hall, Hazel Campbell, Bill Hurt, Misses Cynthia Brookover, Garnet Akers, Eileen Brookover, Pauline Clifton, Emma Jean Herold, Hazel Hill, Electa Ramey, Hazel Baldrige, Ella Noel White, and members of three classes Home Economics department of Prestonsburg high school.

Warrant Names Hall In Jack's Cr. Stabbing

A warrant charging Dickie Hall, 60, of Jack's Creek, with stabbing Joe Hall, 20, was sworn out here Wednesday by Seland Hall, of Dry Creek, Knott county, father of the wounded man.

Hass said his son was stabbed in his abdomen Saturday on Jack's Creek by Dickie Hall after the latter had called the younger man vile names and challenged him to fight. Young Hall was given treatment by Dr. Dewey Osborne and was later taken to his father's home where he is expected, barring complications, to recover.

Soldier Brings Body Of Son from Colorado

Pfc. Arnold Blake Powell, of the army air corps, Colorado Springs, Colo., arrived here Tuesday morning, bringing the body of his three-day-old son back to this section for burial. His wife, Mrs. Mary Powell, is in a Colorado Springs hospital.

Body of the babe was taken to the home of its grandmother, Mrs. Jessie Howell, and from here was taken by the Arnold Funeral Home to Shelby Gap, Pike county, for burial.

PROBE THEFT OF $1,100

Inland Steel Company Store Burglarized; Youth Arrested

Wheelwright police and Constable Willie Johnson this week continued an investigation of the theft of more than $1,100 in currency during the burglary of the Inland Steel Company's No. 2 store at Wheelwright on the night of Oct. 9.

Only circumstantial evidence had been gained early this week, Constable Johnson said. Charlie Wilson, a juvenile, was arrested as a suspect and was later released under $1,000 bond.

The store safe was rifled. Entrance was said to have been effected through a rear window.

MEAT PERMITS NECESSARY

If Farmers To Sell To Others, War Food Administration Says

The War Food Administration announced last week that all farmers selling meat, including hams, bacon, etc., slaughtered prior to April 1, 1943, must obtain permits. These permits for farmers are obtainable by applying to the office of the County USDA War Board.

Farmers are urged by the administration to secure permits prior to the time they expect to sell meat, either cured or fresh. It is necessary that all meats delivered from one person to another be tagged or marked with the permit number of the original owner of the meat. All persons slaughtering meat for sale and delivery to others are required to secure the necessary permit or license as is required under War Food Administrator's Order No. FDO-75 and amendments. Persons other than farmers who slaughter meat animals are required to hold a license. Persons not holding such license may make application to Tom Bailey Atkins, Area Supervisor, Food Distribution Administration, Room 306 Federal Bldg., Catlettsburg, Ky.

All persons are urged to make sure that the meat which they purchase is from legitimate sources, which will be evidenced by the permit number either being stamped or placed on a tag on the meat. This program was begun in April, 1943 to eliminate black markets in meats and to assure adequate distribution to the public, as well as to assure an even supply to our armed forces. Co-operation of the public and slaughterers with this law will assist. It is pointed out, in checking black markets and make it possible for food to perform its full force as a weapon of war.

151 Get X-Ray Photos At Clinic Held Here

Including the more than 100 new teachers who submitted to examination, 151 persons had x-ray photographs made at the recent tuberculosis clinic held in the offices of the Floyd County Health Department here. Blood tests were also given new teachers.

The clinic was conducted by Dr. John B. Floyd, of the State Board of Health.

Of the 22 active trachoma cases discovered at the clinic conducted here in September, 15 are now receiving treatment at the trachoma hospital, Richmond. The other seven are yet to be hospitalized.

Attempt To Warn Others of Danger Results in Motor Brakeman's Death

Attempt of Johnny Dove, 32 years old, motor brakeman for the Stephens Elkhorn Fuel Corp., Manton, to warn others of danger resulted last Friday noon in his death.

An electric locomotive hauling a trip of cars stalled on a grade inside the mine and the motorman decided to back to the foot of the incline to gain a new start. Dove sat on the rear car to warn a party of engineers of the approach of the string of cars. He was knocked onto the rails by a trolley wire while watching for those whom he intended to warn.

Skull and body injuries suffered beneath the wheels resulted in instant death.

HARKINS QUILTS DRAFT BOARD

Eligible for Service Himself, Attorney Here Resigns

J. D. Harkins, Jr., Prestonsburg attorney, Wednesday offered to Governor Keen Johnson his resignation as a member of Floyd county Selective Service Board No. 44.

Mr. Harkins, in discussing his resignation, emphasized the point that there is no friction between members of the Board to cause him to resign, and added: "Since the Board is having to draft fathers and I am a father, on the list of draft eligibles, I thought it wise to resign."

Harkins asked that his resignation become effective upon receipt, but it is possible that he will be asked to serve until a successor is named. Other two members of the Board are J. Bascom Clarke and Alex H. Spradlin, both of Prestonsburg.

Prominent Physician Succumbs Thursday To Skull Fracture

Dr. Ernest E. Martin, 43 years old, of Allen, died at 2 o'clock this morning (Thursday) at the Martin General hospital of skull injuries sustained early Wednesday night in a fall from an Allen doorway onto a sidewalk.

The base of his skull crushed, he died without regaining consciousness. News of his passing came as a shock to hundreds of friends and relatives in Floyd county where he had practiced medicine for the last 20 years.

Dr. Martin was a member of the staff of the hospital at which he died. He was a graduate of the College of Medicine, University of Louisville, and before beginning the study of medicine attended Berea College.

A son of the late Marion Martin and Mrs. Caroline Mayo Martin, he was a member of a prominent Floyd county family. Highly skilled in his profession and a man of un-failing kindness to all with whom he came in contact, his friends and acquaintances extended throughout this section.

Funeral rites will be conducted Monday at the graveside in the Martin family cemetery at Wayland, it was said at the Arnold Funeral Home where the body was taken.

A Growing Business—4 Additions in Year

Proof that the Sandy Valley Tire Service is one of the section's fastest-growing business firms is presented in the fact that now under construction is its fourth addition to be built to its original building on the Maye Trail here within the last year.

The latest annex, which is 16 by 40 feet, is to be used for office and storage space. Previous additions were necessary for installation of new machinery, Franklin Moore, manager, said.

MANTON ROAD CONTRACT LET

Codell To Construct Highway of 1.4 Miles On Bid of $28,088

Contract for construction of remainder of the Dinwood-Manton road up Stephens Branch was awarded Tuesday to J. C. Codell & Company, Winchester, Ky., the State Highway Department announced.

The firm's bid of $28,088.85 was lowest of all bids offered, it was said. The contract is for grading, draining and applying a gravel surface on 1.472 miles of road.

Awarding of the contract brings to a successful termination a long fight led by A. H. Mandt, of the Stephens Elkhorn Fuel Corp., and others to have constructed a year-round highway connecting the mining town of Manton with the Allen-Lackey highway.

KIWANIS CLUB LEADS DRIVE

J. Lyter Donaldson, Democratic candidate for Governor, told a packed courtroom here Tuesday evening that his Republican opponent, S. S. Willis, is singing the same tune Sampson sang and that when it was all over Sampson left the state $6,500,000 deeper in debt.

The speaker declared the Democratic party offers a "definite, constructive program" and challenged the opposition to state how it could reduce taxes, spend more and maintain a balanced budget.

Mayor E. P. Arnold introduced W. H. (Bill) May, Prestonsburg native, and Democratic nominee for Lieutenant-Governor. Mr. May appealed for the support of his "old friends and neighbors" for the Democratic ticket, and introduced Mr. Donaldson.

"Buddy Bags" Filled And Shipped from Floyd

The spirit of giving was manifested this past week by many local persons and friends in the county when 130 "Buddy Bags" were filled and shipped to American Red Cross headquarters to be sent to members of the armed forces overseas for Christmas.

Floyd county's quota is 812 and is far from being reached. Any individual wishing to fill a bag may do so, or may send his or her contribution, however large or small, to Mrs. Ruth D. Sowards here, and she will purchase the required articles and fill a bag for them.

"This project must not fail, for the boys need toilet articles over there and we can supply them from the states," Mrs. Sowards said. "Any group, club or society may want to send a contribution, which will be greatly appreciated. This is your war and these are your boys doing the fighting for you, so remember them."

"George, dear, this is Real Conservation!"

GEORGE isn't so sure about the "manpower" part but he knows that he is saving fuel and petroleum, rubber and materials.

"Conservation of fuel, manpower, equipment and materials is a 'must' for the United States if we are to achieve the maximum war production every American wants," says Harold Ickes and other government leaders in a joint statement.

In order to accomplish this, the War Production Board is asking all citizens to cooperate in a voluntary program to conserve these vital resources by avoiding waste of coal, petroleum, gas, water, electricity, transportation and communications.

There is no shortage of electrical capacity here or elsewhere in the nation. We are prepared to meet all foreseeable needs both for war and necessary civilian requirements. The shortage is in the resources that are required for its production or use.

If you have read the statements of government officials, you know that you are not to curtail your use of electricity or any other service at the expense of your family's health and welfare. Use what you need but need what you use.

SOME CONSERVATION SUGGESTIONS

RANGE
Use smallest surface units needed for cooking operation. Cook on stored heat—or lowest heat possible.

Defrost your refrigerator regularly. Do not overload your refrigerator. Keep temperature control set for 45°.

WATER HEATER
Do not waste hot water. Do not let water run when washing dishes, shaving, etc. Repair leaking faucets.

WASHING MACHINE
Do not overload washing machine. Do not run machine oftener than necessary.

SMALL APPLIANCES
Eliminate all waste in the use of various electrical appliances such as radios, space heaters, electric irons and toasters, and so forth.

VOTERS! DON'T BE MISLED!

The Democratic party in this election is quite willing to compare its record with that of the Republican party in Kentucky or in the nation.

While the "Outs"—the Republicans—pick out isolated instances and piously go into hysterics about how the people have been muled of their rights, how the "Ins"—the Democrats—have failed in their duty to the people, we would ask the voters to take a calmer, more sensible view of things.

Is it not always the "Outs" who yell loudest about what the other fellow has done, what he should have done and what they would have done, had they been given a chance?

Is it not these same "Outs" who, when given a chance, usually fail to do anything?

The Democratic party in Kentucky, as in the nation, has done things. It has made mistakes; it remains human, and it is human to err. But it has tried and keeps on trying to give Kentucky the best government possible. It has built roads, built state institutions for the care of the state's helpless wards, has co-operated with the federal government in giving the Little Man a chance through the WPA, the Old-Age Pension, Social Security and the Unemployment Insurance program.

And it has paid Kentucky out of debt.

Have you not heard the Republican party scoff at WPA, at Social Security, at most of the other things the Democratic party has done within the last dozen years to make the common man's lot easier?

What did the last Republican Governor do? His name was Flem Sampson. Remember him?

And if Judge Willis were elected Governor, what would he do? What would he do next year in the Presidential election, an election when the country will determine if we shall co-operate with other nations to the end that the peace shall be enduring or if it shall follow the road of isolationism and permit dictators again to brandish the sword over humanity's head?

He will be doing as a good Republican can be expected to do. He will be fighting the Republican fight. All those Republican candidates, from Lieutenant-Governor on down to Constable, who are running with him will be doing the same thing. Remember that.

The Democratic ticket this year, from Lyter Donaldson on down, "will be going down the line" for Franklin D. Roosevelt, the one man who can lead this country through this war and on to the peace that lies beyond. This is not a promise—it is a fact, proved by these men's past performances.

There is a saying, "The Old Guard never dies." And it is as true as gospel. The "Old Guard" is that branch of the Republican party which has dominated it for years out of mind, leading it along the selfish road of isolationism and forgetfulness of everything but Big Business.

Congressman Robson of Kentucky—the only Republican from this state in Congress—is of that "Old Guard." Senators Taft and Nye are others. Their total contribution to the war effort—a war in which young Republican and Democratic men are dying as "Buddies," together, without thought of politics—has been to create dissension and weakness by constant criticism of President Roosevelt and an unreasoning opposition to whatever he has proposed.

What of Judge Willis? In a recent speech, during the present campaign, he let the true Willis shine through for a moment. He blamed America's unpreparedness for the present war on the Democratic administration. Does he not know that but for the valiant fight of President Roosevelt and those who saw ahead with him, despite all opposition from the Nyes, Wheelers, Robsons, Ham Fishes and others, the navy of the United States would have been a farce and the army of the United States would have been in process of disbandment on the eve of Pearl Harbor.

Our Republican friends tell you of the roads that should be built. And they break no news to anybody. These roads should be built. But who built the roads we now have? Not Flem Sampson and his "Flim-Flam" philosophy. Not Herbert Hoover. We all know that these roads were built during Democratic administrations. We all know that, but for the state and county Democratic administrations working hand in hand with a Democratic administration in Washington, not a rural road would have been built in Floyd county, Middle Creek, Abbott Creek, Auxier, Cow Creek, Bull Creek, Buffalo, Brandy Keg, Mud Creek, Toler's Creek, Turkey Creek, Brush Creek, Salt Lick Creek, Rock Fork, Clear Creek—set them down and remember them all.

Those roads were built while our Republican friends scoffed.

We are all only human. It is natural that we should like to see elected the man or group of men who can and will do most for us and ours. It is good that we are a free people and have the right to discuss these men and vote for the man of our choice. But, exercising these rights, we should ponder long the value of unfulfilled promises as against a record of things achieved.

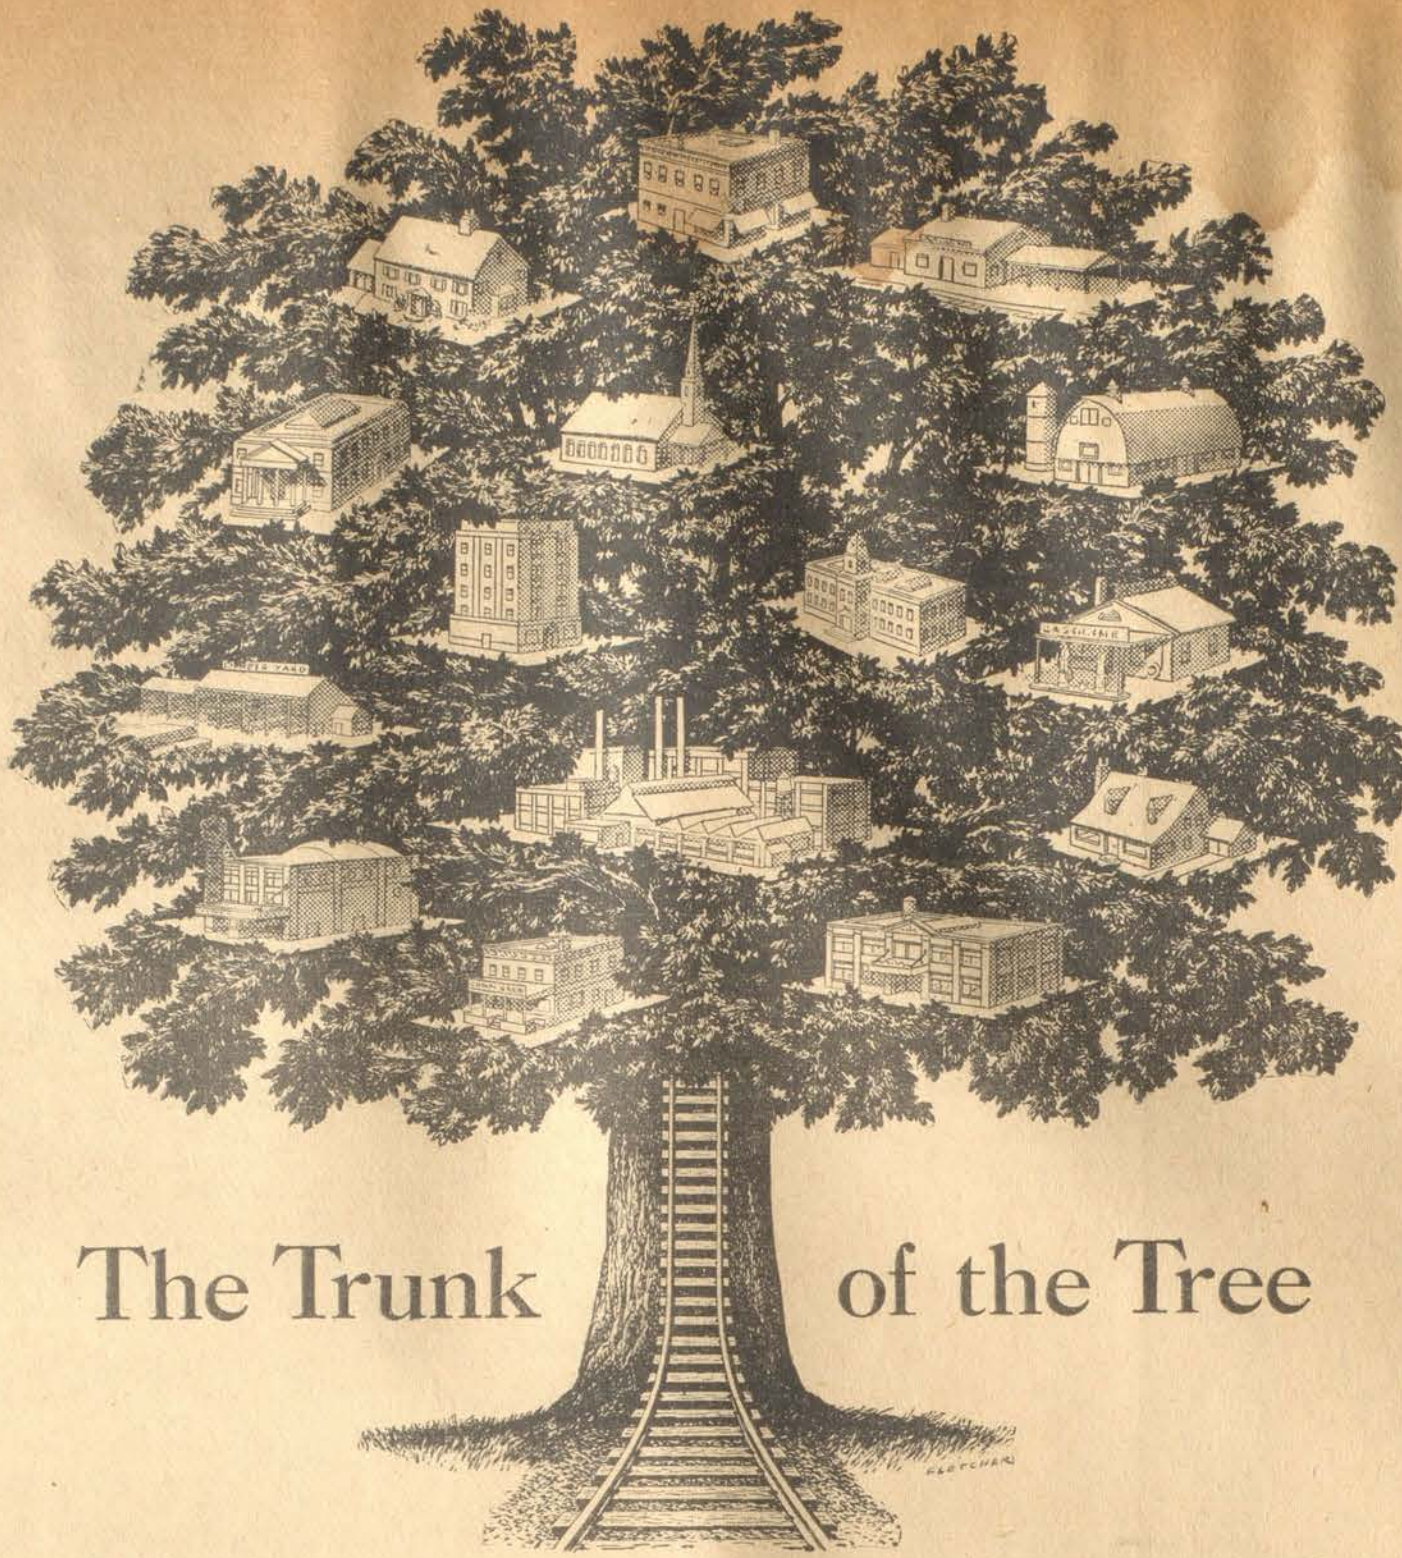

We ask that you do this—think the matter through for yourselves, without prejudice. Consider the future of Kentucky, Floyd county, the nation as a whole. We believe you will agree with us that the best service you can render as a voter is to cast a straight Democratic ballot.

The Trunk of the Tree

FIRST there was just wilderness. Then some men came and cleared away the trees and the underbrush. Pretty soon they started to build a factory—way out to nowhere and gone.

The reason was simple—the land was cheap. Also, they knew they could depend on the railroad's laying a spur line over which they could bring in people and raw materials and ship out to market their finished product.

It wasn't long before a little cluster of houses sprang up for the workers. Roads appeared. An enterprising merchant arrived and opened a general store.

Soon a doctor came and a dentist. A garage went up. Then a drug store, a barber shop, a movie house.

And so the town grew. Nobody planned it that way. American initiative made it that way.

The town grew as opportunity grew. It grew like a tree—slowly, steadily, surely. And the trunk of the tree—the trunk through which the lifespans flowed—was the railroad.

Every man who made his living in that town made it from goods that came in by the railroad, or that went out over its bright rails to markets beyond.

The men who built that town in the wilderness believe with all their hearts in free enterprise. But some of them may not appreciate the extent to which their continued economic freedom depends on freedom of the railroads.

The sirens of regimentation may lull us with the theory that it is all very well for private businesses to remain free, but that public carriers should be owned by the government.

But what would this mean in practical terms to every business man in the community we have described? It would mean that his dealings with the railroads would now be on a political instead of a business basis.

And would railroad service be improved? With bureaucrats in charge, and no more competition between lines? You can read the answer in any country in the world where railroads are government-controlled.

Before you listen to those who would "regiment" our railroads, consider whether our business structure could long remain half slave and half free.

And whether, if the axe is laid at the trunk, the whole tree would not suffer.

It's HIGH TIME to Change in Kentucky!

For 12 years now, state administration has been in the hands of a gang!

In spite of changes in outward leadership, the gang has remained unchanged. Its policy, from first to last, has been to keep itself in power.

And so we have seen the waste of money and the abuse of trust. We have seen sleepers on the payroll and leeches on the public purse. We have heard of deals and bargains and conspiracies against the general interest. We have read of political assessments against state employees and illegal contributions to campaign funds. We have seen the public service degraded and standards of honor cast aside. We have borne a heavier and heavier burden of taxation.

By these means, the machine has fattened and grown strong, until now we can free ourselves from it only by united and resolute action.

YOU can help save Kentucky

Program for the Future

HISTORY and the law of supply and demand remain as proof that when this war is over, or a few years thereafter, private enterprise will find itself unable to take up the slack in the unemployment resulting from the return to civilian life of men in the armed forces and the closing down of the nation's great war industries.

When that time comes, government will find it necessary to inaugurate a gigantic public improvement program.

In the days of WPA the construction of farm-to-market roads was an undertaking which more nearly reached those outlying communities, hitherto more completely forgotten than any others, than any other part of the works program. There is much yet to be done for rural communities in the matter of roads, and there is more of something else.

When peacetime public improvements are resumed, the small streams of this and other sections of the country will present a challenge to those planning long-range betterment of the country. Filled with sand and silt from neighboring or upstream hills, these streams have rendered the greater part of bottom-lands in this section either useless or a high gamble if an attempt to fill them is made.

Then the federal government should, besides the construction of dams and the work of canalization on the larger streams, begin dredging these smaller streams to make their channels capable of carrying floodwaters away without damage to contiguous bottomland crops.

Such stream improvement, of course, would be only temporary and almost valueless without reforestation, control of forest fires and other work necessary to prevent further erosion and re-filling of the creek beds with a new supply of sand. For this reason, those communities to benefit by stream improvement should be required, first, to co-operate in steps necessary to prevent washing away of the soil.

No program could more intimately reach into isolated communities and be of greater help to farmers along hundreds of the smaller streams. Any attempt to restore to the country a native wealth of soil and timberland and their normal production would be only half-hearted and ineffectual without this work being done.

I have never been quite able to express myself to the guy who breezes in on Friday, says, "Well, you've got the paper out, nothing more to do till next Thursday." I just sputter. So I'm giving here a few paragraphs from a United Press dispatch from Susanville, California: "Ted Friend, the New York Mirror's Broadway columnist who quit the bright lights to relax in a hammock and run the little weekly newspaper here folded his hammock today. He hasn't had time to put a bulge in it."

"Friend gave up his 12-year run of Broadway, a well-known by-line and a bow from all headwaiters when he bought the Lassen Advocate. Today, as he spanked to bed his third eight-page issue, he wanted one thing understood: "Country editors work harder than city editors."

"I work harder than I ever did in New York," he said. "I have to be all over the place, dig up all my own news, chop my own wood and split my own infinitives."

"Not only do I do all the writing," he said, "but I have to chase the ads, drum up circulation and manage the printshop. It's lucky the ink swells better up here in the high timber."

"Reversing the traditional 'local boy makes good in big city' role, Ted has graduated from writing of celebrities in the Stork Club to headlining the doings at the church bazaar."

MR. MEREDITH TELLS WHY

(The following letter was written to the editor of The Courier-Journal on the subject of the Constitutional amendment proposed to remove public officials' salary limitations.)

The arguments advanced by some of the press and others that removal of limitations upon officers' salaries will result in improvement of the public service, under existing circumstances, is specious. The affairs of state and matters incident and relating thereto are completely controlled by a self-centered political machine headed by Dan Talbot, Keen Johnson, Clifford Smith and Lyter Donaldson. In one manner or another, they select the state officers from Governor down, a majority of the General Assembly, the president of the university and of the normal schools, the superintendent of public instruction, the judges and other officers of the courts, the railroad commissioners and, in fact, practically all others.

Of course the Frankfort machine selects only those who will support them and their measures and work to perpetuate them in power. If one who will not become their complete yes-man happens to get in they fire him if they have the power; if not, they cause their completely nominated legislature to rip off his powers and tuck them onto one of their gang.

Which of their present selected officers would they discharge and replace by a more thoroughly competent man or woman? For instance, which judge of the Court of Appeals would they remove? Which president of the state teachers' colleges would they remove? Would they remove the president of the state university? Which of the elected state officers would they refuse to state for another state office in their system of rotating state officers and keeping the same ones in power term after term contrary, at least, to the state Constitution? These questions answer themselves. There can and will be no improvement in the public service no matter whether officers' salaries are fixed at $5,000 or $50,000 a year while the political gangsters mentioned above continue in power. Since the amendment to the Constitution providing for removal of all limits upon salaries of officers and employees, state, county and city, will never work an improvement in the public service until the political machine referred to has been completely destroyed, but only serve to increase and intensify the stranglehold that these petty politicians have upon these affairs of state, I shall oppose the amendment with all my might, at least, until Kentucky frees itself from the tentacles of this monster and until an amendment, containing ceilings upon salaries, shall have been submitted.

TO THE CITIZENS OF FLOYD COUNTY:

While it is true that Floyd county is normally Democratic, yet be it said to the honor, intelligence and integrity of our people that they have shown in the past that they are not slaves to any selfish, arrogant, and corrupt political machine.

That such a machine now exists at Frankfort has been established beyond all doubt. The record of graft and corruption of the past four years of the Keen Johnson-Lyter Donaldson machine has been established by court records, committee reports, and leading newspapers of the state.

In each instance, these horrible disclosures of corruption were disclosed by Democratic courts, a Democratic Attorney General, and a Democratic news-reporter. Only a few short weeks ago, Rodes K. Myers, Ben Kilgore and Hubert Meredith publicly exposed the horrible conditions existing at Frankfort. They told us how this Frankfort machine had mistreated and abused the old people of the state and that thousands of applications for Old-Age pensions now lie covered by dust at Frankfort and unattended to; that soap to be used to wash the bodies and clothing of the thousands of unfortunate inmates of our state reformatories, feeble-minded institutions, asylums, and Kentucky Children's Home, and selling on the open market for seven cents per pound, was purchased by the machine crowd for fifty cents per pound; that the thousands of blind people of our state and thousands of indigent children were compelled to go into court to put into effect a law for their aid that had been on the statute books over three years; that a slush-fund of $300,000 was collected by Lyter Donaldson illegally from the public in continuing the collection of bridge tolls, after such tolls had paid the bridge bonds and interest (in this instance he was stopped by a judgment of a Democratic court); how that a Democratic court again prevented the machine from buying for the use of all of the above mentioned state institutions, old, second-hand, worn-out laundry equipment for hundreds of thousands of dollars when the specifications called for new equipment; how Governor Johnson dared not leave the state for fear Rodes K. Myers would call a special session of the Legislature to grant the much-needed aid to our underpaid school teachers.

These three Democrats in making these startling disclosures stated that "the half had not been told" of graft and corruption on the part of this Johnson-Donaldson machine.

Speaking as to our local situation, what has this crowd done in behalf of Floyd county roads?

The much-talked-about "Dam" should be forgotten and a state highway immediately constructed up Johns Creek to aid these much-abused people; a state highway should be built from Harold up Mud Creek and down Clear Creek to intersect with the Left Beaver highway; a state highway should be built up the left fork of Middle Creek and down Brush Creek to intersect with the Right Beaver road. With these long stretches of highway taken over by the state, we have sufficient revenue in Floyd county, if properly used in connection with the state rural road fund, to construct and maintain every creek road in Floyd county. Judge Willis places special emphasis on such a program by saying that he favors a law giving each fiscal court powers over its own road fund and removing such powers from the state machine.

The record of the machine is not only one of graft and corruption, but one of broken promises. They promised to repeal the state income tax when it should pay the state debt. This, they failed to do, and although not one penny of this tax is paid to our soldiers or their dependents, yet, this crowd is keeping it to further their own selfish aims and build up in Kentucky a Huey Long machine which, as shown by the recent primary, dictates from Frankfort what young aspiring Kentuckian should be nominated by his party for Sheriff, or even Constable.

None of the above enumerated charges, to this hour, have been denied by Lyter Donaldson and in his desperation he violates every sense of decency of all intelligent Democrats and patriotic Kentuckians, when in his opening address he stated in substance that it would be unpatriotic to vote for Judge Willis, our neighbor and friend, against him. This statement was made in the face of the fact that near to 4,000,000 young Republican boys are today facing "The Battle Care" with their "Buddies," a like number of fine, young, patriotic Democrats. They recognize no politics "Over There," and we as their fathers, mothers, brothers and sisters should recognize none "Over Here," but highly resolve that under God "They" all shall have a decent state to which to return after victory is won. What laboring man in Kentucky can truthfully say that Keen Johnson or Lyter Donaldson has beamed a smile in his direction during the past four years? What God-fearing, patriotic Kentuckian can approve by his vote such misconduct of public servants? Judge Willis, our neighbor and friend, whose record in private and public life is beyond reproach, and a state and local ticket of candidates of similar character, pledge the smashing of this "machine."

Mothers, fathers, brothers and sisters of our boys "Over There," do your duty. Stand at attention. On guard for "their" rights. Vote the straight Republican ticket.

From where I sit ...
by Joe Marsh

Vic Buxton was home on furlough last week. And you ought to see the fuss the town made over him.

Seemed like almost everybody wanted to give a party, or stage something special in the way of celebration.

Of course, Vic acted grateful. But he told me later, all he really wanted was to sit down with a few old friends—to relax in home surroundings, and talk about old times again.

I guess that's how a lot of soldiers feel. They want to enjoy the old familiar things—old friends, quiet talk, and a moderate wholesome glass of beer.

And from where I sit, I don't see why anyone would want to take those things away from them. Do you?

Seven Reasons Why You Should Elect ROBERT HICKS REPRESENTATIVE

1. I am not in this race for the money there is in the office. My wages would equal that amount, but I want to make sure the people of Floyd county have good representation in Frankfort the next two years. I was born and reared in Floyd and Knott counties and I know the problems that confront the people I shall represent.
2. A raise in pay for the school teachers, with improved working conditions. I promise to co-operate with the teachers' organizations in voting for the laws they recommend.
3. A better and more efficient Department of Mines and Minerals. Coal is Kentucky's biggest cash crop, yet it receives the least appropriations for its supervision by the state.
4. A better Industrial Relations Department to bring about a better understanding between Employer and Employee and prevent and settle labor disputes.
5. A shorter waiting period for your unemployment checks when you are unemployed. (Nuff said).
6. I believe the Old Age Pensions department should be taken out of politics and put under civil service. This would keep some of the bright, young politicians from trying to influence the old people to vote for any certain group of officeholders. It's a shame on the name of our grand, old state that the mere pittance we pay our old folks is subject to the whim of any politician.
7. I am not conceited enough to believe that I can accomplish all that should be done for my people. But I make a solemn promise to vote and work for your interest at all times.

Make sure you get the right kind of representation by voting this way—

FATHERS AND MOTHERS of our BOYS "OVER THERE"

The Lyter Donaldson crowd of politicians at Prestonsburg have attempted to "explain away the unexplainable" by a "smoke screen". They brush aside the proven and admitted acts of graft and corruption by the "Siamese Twins", Johnson and Donaldson, with the simple, self-satisfying statement of that "it is human to err". They promise nothing because they know the people will not believe them.

In their usual effort to mislead, they inadvertently mention the name of their Democratic Senator Wheeler, with whom we claim no kinship or other interest. We are surprised that they did not mention the name of the globe-trotting Happy Chandler, who, only yesterday, went up and down the state of Kentucky telling the people that may his arms drop from his body if he voted to send a single mother's boy overseas, and who today is at Washington and, according to the President, making himself a "dam nuisance."

The fathers and mothers of 4,000,000 Republican boys "over there" join with a like number of Democratic fathers and mothers in a joint supplication to God for an enduring, global, world-wide and lasting peace, and regardless of what Keen Johnson, Lyter Donaldson, or Happy Chandler may say they "all" may be depended upon to unite in a joint effort to secure that lasting peace. Judge Willis has definitely pledged himself to use his every energy to further such a peace and is willing to join hands with any man or set of men to do this, and it is respectfully submitted that he is a man who has always kept his promise.

We still say, clean house at Frankfort by voting for him!

D.P. (Perk) DINGUS

For SHERIFF

He is not only a life-long SOBER man, but, also, an HONEST man, and pledges that he will not appoint drunkards or outlaws as deputies. During these "trying hours," we need such a man for Sheriff. He is just a common, country man, and will not be bossed or controlled by any town clique or faction, or any other selfish interest. His father, mother and wife come from old, pioneer families. Their records have been clean and above reproach. Perk Dingus promises, as Sheriff, to keep that record clean.
