RELIGION IN THE SCHOOLS

I SE of school buildings for teaching religion would be illegal in the light of the Constitution which provides for the segaration of church and state, Attorney General Dummitt has informed those interested in a "week-day religious education" program in Lexington

Mr. Dummitt points out that the spirit and intent of the Constitution is to ban church teachings from public properties.

THE TIMES has no argument to the contrary as to the Attorney General's opinion that church teachings could be construed as linking church and state, but it fails to see wherein the teaching of the broader aspects of religion would do so. The true spirit of religion-belief in the things of the soul, in charity, kindness, mercy, meekness, the Golden Rule -does not belong to any church alone; it is humanity itself in the superlative.

It does not waste its great strength on petty differences of opinion or on little

Such teaching is needed in the schools. The humanizing effect would save many the brilliant student from self-centered, even criminal, living. There would be fewer Loebs and Leopolds, more cultured men and women with hearts to temper their temperaments.

A school in this country - its name now escapes us-has established a class which, though not known as a study in religion, might be adopted by the Lexington schools as well as others with good results. It is known as a Sympathy Class. On a specified day, a pupil arises, blindfolded, goes to school and throughout the day walks in darkness. He is blind. He suffers all the handicaps of a blind person, is helped by others of the class. Another day, another student will be crippled, on crutches. And so on. Thus the children actually learn the awful helplessness of the unfortunate and find a lasting sympathy for those less fortunate than they. Thus is found, in some degree, humility, mercy, unselfishness.

Of such things is true religion.

CITIZENS OF FLOYD COUNTY:

I hereby announce myself a canof County Judge of Floyd county. You have had opportunity to know the record I have made; how I have taken care of your interest, and it is upon that record alone that I am asking you to re-elect me.

When I entered this office January 1938, Floyd county was in debt $892,329.65. Before the end of this after allowing for government bonds and cash available for payment of bonds. This reduction of debt has bonds. This reduction of debt has bonds. The payment of Beylen Amburgy are sons of Mr. burgy, of Alphoretta. His brother Seventh army. His brother payment army last April. the Drift, McDowell, and Rough & Tough bridges, and a number of Tough bridges, and a number of miles of road graded and drained.

Now, for the first time in many years. Floyd county is on a cash.

AA Record in France years, Floyd county is on a cash basis and discounts its bills.

I realize much work is badly needed on our county roads. More would have been done since I have been in office had it not been necessary to spend more than $240,000 to pay for interest on the county debt. Think what could have been done on our roads with this staggering amount, for which the county has nothing to show. It has been my desire to do more for all your roads, but you know from your per-sonal experience that if you get heavily in debt the only way out is to just tighten up your belt and do without lots of things you would like to have until you could see daylight again. Such has been the case with your county fiscal affairs.

If it is your pleasure that I be reelected, I make you these promises (1) A continuation of the record of paying your county debts.

However, I am convinced that the proper conduct of the fiscal affairs of Floyd county and the office of County Judge is far more important to the taxpayers of Floyd county than the office of Circuit Judge which handles mostly criminal and divorce cases. For this reason I have decided I can be of more service to you as County Judge than as Circuit Judge.

With full determination to always remain loyal to the trust you repose in me, I humbly solicit your support

My Dear Mrs. Weedman: I want to thank you very much for your kind thoughts of us boys and girls in the service, also for the prayer and the nice pamphlet. Those things that you people do at home makes me very happy, and I am sure it makes the other boys and girls feel the same way. Those things make us feel that our friends have not completely forgotten us. It also makes us feel that the small bit we are doing is for the many friends that we have at home who are too old to be doing active military duty but who are doing the best they can for victory in every way that they can. And I, for one, think that they are doing a swell job. Just keep it up. Well, I will say good-bye for now. and wish to thank you again for all that you people are doing.

Stumbo, a machine gunner in the First battalion of the 115th infantry regiment, was standing guard in the little town of Bourheim. His battalion had fought for and won this important junction just the day before. During the early morning hours of his guard the enemy threw in a heavy artillery barrage. Stumbo decided that he had better get in a basement for safety. While waiting for the barrage to let up, thought of an enemy counter-attack occurred

When the shelling lifted, Stumbo came out of the basement. In the first light of dawn he saw the shadow of a Tiger Royal tank not many yards away. He quickly picked up a bazooka, fired at the tank-and made a direct hit. A few moments later, a rifleman came over and told him that the tank had been knocked

COMMEMORATING OUR 50TH ANNIVERSARY

The Product of 50 Years' Experience ...

We offer a new copyrighted policy, THE GOLDEN FIFTY - the product of 50 years' experience - a policy never before offered to the public by this or any other company.

Under this new plan, if death occurs before age 60, ALL PREMIUM PAYMENTS are returned to the beneficiary in addition to the face amount, Premiums deposited after 60 will be handled in the usual life insurance manner-exchanged for the face amount of the policy. Thus the insurance actually costs only those premiums paid after 60. Prior to that time the premium payments are savings for the beneficiary.

To enable the policyholder to carry the greatest amount of protection during the years in which he has the greatest need, premium payments on this policy before age 60 are only one-half the rate required after 60. When the increased premium rate becomes payable at age 60, the policyholder is given the option of continuing premium payments at the original rate for a reduced amount of protection.

The Golden Fifty is issued at ages 15 to 55, inclusive.

All Premiums Paid Before Age 60 Returned to Beneficiary

EAST KENTUCKY BEVERAGE COMPANY PIKEVILLE, KY.

JOE EATON . . Commercial Manager of WHAS, is the listener's liaison officer between talent and the sponsors. This job demands a broad knowledge of radio . . plus rare diplomatic form. Born in Omaha, Nebraska, he completed his schooling there, to enter the theater. The stage was set for World War I, and Eaton was soon cast in the role of U.S. Navy man.

Joe made a dramatic entrance into radio in 1922, after the war, bringing before the early-day mike his talents as a singer and trouper. It was an American Legion Convention in 1929 that brought him to Louisville, where he met executives and staff of WHAS. He has been with us ever since.

Moving forward in practical fashion, Joe Eaton scored outstanding success as an announcer with WHAS and is well remembered by listening audiences. After the memorable public service performance of radio during the flood of 1937, he was made Program Manager.

Still bearing the stamp of a successful leading man, Eaton looks back over radio's growth to see many changes. He regrets that mass production of sponsored shows has in many instances directed regional talent away from smaller stations. The electrical transcription may have the uniformity that sponsors desire . . but it lacks the variety that regional talent offers.

Joe's prime interest is his twelve-year-old son . . but his hobby is listening to radio . . critically.

Tell Joe when you like a show, and he will tell the sponsors.
