Too many citizens otherwise unemployed look for the "easy" job of sitting in on trials of men and women whose lives are at stake. (And this does not mean that only the lives of the defendants are their the lives of the derendants are their pawns; the lives of others who could be claimed later by acquitted felons might depend upon these jurors.) At the same time, too few citizens to whom jury service would be the performance of duty as good citizens, at a personal sacrifice, are ready for such work.

Courts have no need of the type.

Courts have no need of the type (we almost said, "tripe") of citizen who seeks a place on a jury, only because they pay them for sitting around.

Every jury, we dare say, includes some men or women who are competent for such service, possessing the mental and moral qualifications necessary to keep Justice from wishing she wasn't hoodwinked so she could look around and see who was guilty of making her wear a dunce cap. Such jurors Town-World salutes.

We are sorry all could not be men and women of this high type.

Those cigars Town Hall was passing out Tuesday were ten-centers. A cent for each pound his son, born that morning, weighed. Fortunately for the Hall pocketbook, the youngster didn't tip the scales at the 25 pounds proud papa at first reported.

RECOMMENDS AGAINST'

Governor Tuck, of Virginia, "crossed his ticket" plenty this week when he endorsed construction of a dam and reservoir on the Jackson river in his state but summarily "recommended against" (as the AP reported it) the canalization of the Big Sandy river.

The Old Dominion chief executive thus appears to be for work on Virginia streams but against improvement of a Kentucky waterway. Twould seem his word in the Big Sandy matter shouldn't amount to much however incompact as looked. much, however, inasmuch as locks and dams on either fork would not bring slack water even near his state. He should have been relegated to the role of innocent bystander, but

Meeting Slated Friday; Last Year's Program For County Finished

With work under the rural high-way program planned for Floyd county at a meeting in January, 1945 of the fiscal court with highway department officials practically completed, the court will confer here Friday with department authorities on plans for expending to the best advantage the $72,580 rural road fund allotted the county for 1946.

Work finished a few days ago under the 1945 program saw the application of approximately 6,000 tons of crushed limestone to a dozen Floyd county roads. These are roads on Little Mud, Salt Lick, Abbott, Middle Creek (West Prestonsburg to Floyd-Magoffin line and to David). Cow Creek-Buffalo, Cliff-Auxier, Bull Creek, Mud Creek, Frasure's Creek, Clear Creek and Drift-Martin's Branch.

Heater is as safe and dependable as Electric Light No Fire No Flame

No Fumes

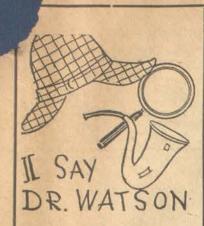

HISTLE those blues away and change early morning "nerves" to vim and verve under a hot shower. Be sure you have plenty of hot water for bathing, for shaving, and for all the daily needs of your family. With an Electric Water Heater you've always got an adequate supply-day and night.

Like Electric Light, the modern Electric Water Heater is completely dependable. There are no valves to stick, no mechanical gadgets to get out of order. Because the water is heated with pure electric heat, there is nothing to create dirt. There is no fire, no flame, no fumes-no need for flues. It's completely automatic.

If you value a well run home, plan to get an Electric Water Heater as soon as possible.

Company officials' claim that strik-ers had made threats were em-phatically denied by Wallen and Allen. Miners in both Beavers added the force of their numbers to the McKinley Sparks, official of the Sparks Brothers company, said Tuesday his drivers did not ask for any wage adjustments. "If they had come to me and told me they were organizing and wanted a raise, I would have given them 18½ cents an hour raise," he told THE TIMES.

Drivers said Sparkses had refused o discuss terms with them.

Business here and in other towns of the section is, as a result of the strike, coupled with the mine shutdown, suffering its worst days since the depression.

Organization of drivers on the Sparks line was effected to the extent that a majority had joined the union before the strike deadline Saturday night, employes of the company said this week "We are all organized, all want the same wage increases and a closed shop," they declared declared.

One of the striking drivers said his paycheck for a 15-day period was a gross of $63.58. He estimated that the total pay he received per month, including the $25 bond given each employe by the company quarterly, a $25 cash bonus at Christmas and a a $25 cash bonus at Christmas and a $3,000 life insurance policy, would not amount to more than $140 per month. He added that the raise sought by Kentucky-Virginia Stages employes would bring their pay up to approximately $200 a month and that a common wage scale was being sought by all striking bus drivers.

The pay of Kentucky-Virginia Stages drivers was from $6 to $7.50

Stages drivers was from $6 to $7.50 a day, depending upon length of service, before the strike. The workers ask a 20 per cent rate.

President Howard F. Dixon, of the C.I.O. Transport Wirkers union, ascribed in a statement:

"No further talks are scheduled, Mr Oakley Sparks, president of the line, has maintained an unfair and arbitrary position. He simply refuses to bargain in good faith..."

Mayor W. B. Stone, of Pikeville, said he "couldn't see any chance" for a settlement of the dispute.

Dixon asserted in his statement that Oakley Sparks maintained his line could not afford any wage increase. "Yet he recently purchased new buses costing $55,000 and paid cash," Dixon commented.

cash," Dixon commented
The union president estimated the 20 per cent wage increase would cost $10,000 annually.

The Scott-Nichols Line, operating from Williamson, W. Va., to Pikeville, also is strike-bound.

Other bus companies affected by the walkout are the Conley Bus Line, and the Paintsville Bus Company

The C.I.O. Transport Workers Local Union claimed drivers of the other companies are on strike, as well as the Kentucky-Virginia Stages employes.

However, company officials said they called their drivers off the job to prevent trouble. President Oakley Sparks, of the Sparks Brothers Line, declared that his drivers were not organized when the work stoppers accounted. page occurred
