FINES U.M.W.A. $3,500,000

his Town-- That World

NOTHER WAR DEBT
All who were Axis prisoners of war and who read this newspaper may already know this, but we're telling it on the off chance that some of you don't.

You can collect for personal effects lost to the enemy while you were a P.O.W.
County Superintendent Palmer L. Hall not long ago received from the U.S. government a check in the amount of $65.40 to reimburse him for the loss of cash, a watch and two fountain pens to some of Hitler's more greedy underlings while he was a prisoner in Germany.

How will Uncle Sam come out on such a deal? Well, we presume that our government presumes it can collect from Germany.

"NOT BY BREAD ALONE . . ."
State educators' plan of a salary of at least $2,400 a year for every teacher possessing an A.B. degree is not too high. Teachers must be paid more. Their salaries must cover the full year; a three-month vacation without pay is ridiculous on the face of it.

But--there are many more things to be done to lift Kentucky from the low estate it has reached in education. And money, fine buildings, modern equipment, more prosperous teachers will not suffice alone.

The teacher needs something more. The teacher, 1946 model, needs something the '90 model had. That is self-esteem and pride in his or her work that cannot be acquired without a change in the public attitude toward the teaching profession.

Back in the '90s or in the early years of the present century, the teacher's was a job that meant much not only to the holder but to the community. The head of any school, no matter how small, was no small figure where he walked. Every home, every social function sought the teacher. He was considered not only a man of learning but one of whom much could be expected, a wise counsellor, a community leader, respected by the old, revered by the young.

By contrast, the teacher of today is half-apologetic about his job. He has lost his morale, and probably through no fault of his own. Unlike the old-timer, his is "not the finest job on earth" though it remains just about the greatest.

Remember Professor Byington, professor Clark and others? Remember how we all considered them the most talented men and really the most important men in our lives? There are yet living in Floyd county veteran teachers who can, from first-hand experience, trace this decline of their profession. L. C. Leslie, John Stephens and a few others today can look back to yesterday with a sigh for the good, old days when teachers were men among men.

All of which hints to the public: Desist from remarks, such as, "Oh, he's just a school teacher," or "What can you expect him to do on a teacher's salary?" Looks like he would be ambitious and get into something worthwhile.

It is time we all did our part to restore the teacher to his or her rightful place in our lives. This is a profession that is basic. Even the church cannot prosper without it. The men and women who conscientiously work at a financial sacrifice, to start the world's children on the "royal road to learning" and who guide them as far as they will go deserve the best. Higher salaries, finer buildings, better equipment will provide their physical needs. But man, to do his best work, needs from others an appreciation of his efforts--to feed, if you will, the ego, to convince him that he was right in his original idea, that he started upon an important endeavor.

Verily, man does not live by bread alone.

HALL TELLS POWER PLAN

Rural Schools May Have Electricity By Sharing Cost

A plan whereby rural schools within service distance of electric power lines may be electrified has been outlined to various schools of the county by County Superintendent Palmer L. Hall.

Briefly, Mr. Hall has told the schools that if any school and surrounding community will raise 50 per cent of the cost of installing electricity, the County Board of Education will pay the remainder and also take care of power bills.

A large number of schools in rural districts through which REA and Kentucky & West Virginia Power Company lines pass remain un electrified, Mr. Hall said. At least six schools, however, have been wired for electricity this year, three others are now raising their half of the initial wiring cost and it is expected that within the next two or three years half of the rural schools of the county will have electricity, he added.

Total cost of wiring a one-room school was roughly placed at $70 and of a two-room building, $100.

Some of the funds raised this year by pie suppers will be used by schools toward procuring electric service and these amounts will be augmented by contributions from the surrounding communities which often use school buildings as meeting places for worship or civic functions.

Superintendent Hall said the Board of Education hopes to purchase a motion picture projector and exhibit educational films at schools which have electric power. Radios and electric record players are other advantages electrified schools will enjoy, it was pointed out.

FARMERS PICK SAME LEADERS

Elect Committeemen, Delegates; Stephens Remains as Chairman

The Floyd County Agricultural Conservation county committee remains unchanged through Saturday's election by community delegates of committee personnel, it was announced.

Re-elected to head the agriculture conservation work in the county were James Stephens, CH, chairman, Dick Burchett, Ivel, vice-chairman, and W. M. Hicks, Hippo, member. Alternates named are Daniel Akers, of Amba, and G. B. Hall, of Banner.

Office personnel remains unchanged: Alex M. Spradlin, secretary, Elder Goble, treasurer, and Mrs. J. M. Davidson.

Community delegates who named the county committeemen were recently elected at the same time community committeemen were named. These delegates are:

The county is divided into seven communities and the names of these communities do not describe the area covered. For instance, Little Mud community includes not only the Little Mud section but also area downriver to cover Prater Creek and the Beaver Creek section from Martin to Allen.

Community committeemen recently elected follow, the chairman, vice-chairman and member appearing in order:

Abbott Creek--Bill Pruitt, Henry Holbrook, Mary Martin Short. Cow Creek--W. V. Woods, Bradis Goble, J. L. Lafferly. Bull Creek--John Derosssett, Arnold Cooley, Jobe Calhoun. Little Mud--E. L. Roberts, Mae Hall, E. L. Akers. Big Mud--Webster Akers, Lee O. Frasure, W. B. Tackett. Right Beaver--J. W. Hays, J. W. Prater, Garland Martin. Left Beaver--John Keathley, Harmon Mitchell, Joe Reynolds.

LITTLE PAINT VOTE STANDS, COURT HOLDS

Legal Liquor Sales In Precinct To End Dec. 28, Is Belief

That Circuit Judge E. P. Hill acted properly in dismissing on demurrer in the Floyd circuit court the petition of Ernest Robinson, contesting the Dry victory in Little Paint precinct Sept. 23, was the opinion written Friday by the Court of Appeals.

At the same time the higher court ruled that Judge Hill's refusal to suspend prohibition in the precinct until outcome of the contest action is finally determined was correct.

As a consequence, sale of spirituous liquors will become illegal in the precinct December 28.

Meanwhile, taking of depositions for the plaintiff in the suit of Bill Hill, Prestonsburg, contesting the countywide local option election of Sept. 30 in which Dry forces won, continued this week, with the defendants expected to begin deposition-taking Saturday.

Burden of contestant's evidence attacks the date on which Sheriff Troy B. Sturgill posted, or caused to be posted, notices of the election in the county's 84 precincts. It was said this week that some of this testimony contends that the notices were not posted two weeks before the election, as required by law.

In the Little Paint contest action the plaintiff contended that Judge Hill erred in sustaining the demurrer on two points: that the order of the county court calling the election failed to set forth the question to be submitted, and that the question printed on the ballot did not identify Little Paint precinct as a voting precinct or district of Floyd county.

The Appellate Court pointed out that the order of the county court, published in The Floyd County Times and posted in the precinct, "positively states that a local option election is hereby directed to be held in Little Paint Precinct No. 27."

"There is nothing unambiguous (sic) or misleading in that order," the copy of the Court of Appeals opinion received here stated.

Overruling the plaintiff's contention that the call for the election was defective inasmuch as it did not state the question at issue, the Appellate Court pointed out that such information is not necessary in the order, adding: "Certainly no one could be misled, and it would be a challenge to the intelligence of the voters to say they did not understand what a local option election was and the objectives of the same."

As to the claim that the ballot failed to identify location of Little Paint precinct properly, the court pointed to the question stated on the ballot, "Are you in favor of adopting prohibition in Little Paint precinct?" and commented:

"There is nothing in this record to show that the voters did not know where Little Paint precinct is. The fact is, it is common knowledge that most precincts are known by their names rather than by numbers."

GRID PLAYERS HONOR GUESTS

Team in Turn Honors Mentors at Banquet Here Monday Night

Prestonsburg's football team and its ardent supporters, the cheerleaders, were feted Monday night at a fall banquet in the grade school building.

Charlie Tackett, captain of the 1946 Black Cats, presided as toastmaster. Others attending the banquet were Coach Joe Taylor Hyden, Assistant Coach Jimmy Roark, City Superintendent Monroe Wicker, County Superintendent Palmer L. Hall, County School Supervisor Henry Martin and members of the Prestonsburg faculty.

Speakers included Coaches Hyden and Roark, Mr. Wicker and Chalmers Frazier, principal of the grade school. Peter Collins presented to grid team rook gifts from the grid squad.

The all-conference football team was announced at the banquet and moving pictures of the Paintsville-Prestonsburg game were shown by Ralph Davis.

Even Christmas Seals Hit by Mine Shutdown; Returns Below Normal

Another adverse effect the mine lay-off is having, particularly in this county with its big miner population, is seen in the comparatively light contributions in cash in return for Christmas Seals sent out by mail by the Floyd County Tuberculosis Association in its annual effort to raise funds for the fight on tuberculosis.

The miners, ordinarily prodigal givers, are faced with uncertainty and, in many cases, by straitened financial circumstances, and so the Association as of this week had received only $235 in cash from 4,000 sheets of Seals mailed in recent weeks.

"We are still hopeful, though, that everybody will do their best," an Association worker commented. "For they all know the great cause these Seals represent and the good their money can do."

SEE $40,000 EXPENDITURE

In Church Program Launched Recently; To Build Parsonage

The building program begun here two weeks ago by Irene Cole Memorial Baptist Church, to be completed by next spring, will entail an expenditure of $40,000, it was estimated this week.

The church now under construction on First avenue will be 36 feet wide by 80 feet in depth and the overall building program includes a six-room parsonage at the left and rear of the church.

The church structure will be of concrete blocks, later to have a brick veneer. A colonnaded porch reached by seven steps will lead into a vestibule from which entrance to the main auditorium or to the basement will be provided. At the rear of the auditorium will be two classrooms, with the baptistry between these and the pulpit.

The basement will house the heating system and 10 classrooms, two of which may be joined to form a small auditorium for young people's groups and other church interests.

The parsonage will be constructed of materials similar to those used in the church. The exterior will be stuccoed.

Nurse's Mother Dies At Pikeville Hospital

Mrs. Ida Mowrer, 74 years old, mother of Miss Gertrude Mowrer, nurse at the Wheelwright hospital of the Inland Steel Company, died in a room at 1:50 a.m. Sunday, at the Methodist hospital, Pikeville, following an illness of eight months of heart disease.

Mrs. Mowrer was a native of Owensville, Ind., where she spent her entire life with the exception of the months of her last illness. She was long a member of the Baptist Church. Her husband died in 1929 and she is survived by two sons and five daughters: Doyle Mowrer, Indianapolis, Ind.; Vesper Mowrer, Owensville, Ind.; Miss Gertrude Mowrer, Wheelwright; Mrs. John Ploka and Mrs. Earl Demaree, both of Chicago; Mrs. H. A. McCarty, Jeffersonville, Ind., and Mrs. K. M. Miller, Winona, Minnesota.

The body was taken to Owensville, Ind., where the funeral was conducted Tuesday with burial in Bethel cemetery under direction of the Baker & Preston Funeral Home.

LEWIS, UNION WILL APPEAL FROM VERDICT

Capital Court Session Stormy As Goldsborough Reads Historic Verdict

A stormy and historic courtroom scene in the nation's capital Wednesday afternoon saw Federal Judge T. Alan Goldsborough fine the United Mine Workers of America $3,500,000 and their leader, John L. Lewis, $10,000 after their conviction on a contempt-of-court charge growing out of the 14-day-old soft coal work stoppage.

An appeal will be made and the case is headed straight for the Supreme Court. It was agreed that if Lewis and the union post bond for their fines by 3 p.m. today (Thursday) they will not have to pay the amounts assessed by Judge Goldsborough until their appeal has been decided by the highest tribunal. Joseph A. Padway, AFL counsel, said that the union leader's bond will be posted but that the fine assessed on the union cannot be collected.

Meanwhile the possibility exists that the government may raise other contempt charges if the union fails to return to work and assess more fines.

The court scene was marked by Lewis' speech in which he challenged the judge to fine him any amount he pleased. Judge Goldsborough warned him not to get in contempt of court again and the union chieftain retorted that he already had been held in contempt.

The jurist said the shutdown threatened democratic government itself, and "if actions of this kind can be successfully persisted in, the government will be overturned, and the government that would take its place would be a dictatorship."

He declared that the first act of a dictatorship would be to "destroy labor unions."

Goldsborough said quietly--even the lawyers had to strain to catch his words--that "it seems to me this is one of the most serious situations that has ever developed in a republic."

He added that he himself was a friend of labor, but "if it becomes a question of the destruction of this union, or the preservation of this republic, the republic is going to be preserved."

Goldsborough said Lewis ought to (See Story No. 2, Page 8)

Conference Picks P'Burg For Tournament Location

TACKETT, FANNIN ON ALL-CONFERENCE GRID 11; HALL AND BLACKBURN HONORED; 17 NET TEAMS TO PLAY IN TOURNAMENT HERE JAN. 20 TO 25

Selection of Prestonsburg as the site of the Big Sandy Conference basketball tournament, Jan. 20-25, and the all-conference football team provided a busy afternoon Sunday for conference representatives in session at Pikeville.

With Martin the only other outstanding contender for the tournament location, Prestonsburg won by a 9-5 vote.

Despite the fact that Prestonsburg was not a serious contender for the Conference grid championship, the team placed two men on the all-conference first team, one on the second and one on the third squad.

The all-conference eleven: McGuire (Hazard) and Blake (Jenkins) ends. Dyer (Pikeville) and Fannin (Prestonsburg), tackles. P. Preston (Paintsville) and Stone (Pikeville), guards.

Wheeler (Paintsville), center. Backs--Tackett (Prestonsburg), Gunning (Paintsville), Brummitt (Jenkins), Ross (Hazard). Second team: Hall (Prestonsburg) and Lockwood (Paintsville), ends. Face (Paintsville) and Beckett (Fleming), tackles. Cline (Jenkins) and Craft (Fleming), guards. Backs--Brugh (Paintsville) Ram-

Burchett Conducts District Meeting Of Kiwanis Club

County Attorney W. W. Burchett, lieutenant-governor of the Kentucky district, Kiwanis International, conducted a district organization conference Sunday at Paintsville and outlined to the various clubs Kiwanis objectives for the year.

Represented at the conference were Prestonsburg, Pikeville, Jenkins, Paintsville, Salyersville and Ashland clubs. Speakers included C. L. Hutsinipiler, Prestonsburg; W. E. Fleming, Ashland; Lon Rogers, Pikeville; Burns Horn, Paintsville, and Will Cassidy, Pikeville.

The Lieutenant-Governor's insipula of office was presented by Mr. Burchett at the meeting by Lon Rogers, Pikeville, one of his predecessors at the post. Attending the conference from Prestonsburg, in addition to Burchett and Hutsinipiler, were Dr. O. G. Pennington, R. D. Francis and County Superintendent Palmer L. Hall.

Mrs. Maggie Robinson, Of Wayland, Victim

Funeral rites for Mrs. Maggie Hurt Robinson, 56 years old, wife of John Robinson, of Wayland, who died Wednesday of last week, were conducted Friday, the Rev. John Marshall officiating. Burial at Wayland was directed by the Arnold Funeral Home.

Besides her husband, Mrs. Robinson is survived by four sons and two daughters: Richard, Laymond, Ronald and Donald Robinson, all of Wayland; Mrs. Ruby Gibson, Coalwood, W. Va., and Mrs. Margie Burke, of Wayland. She also leaves three grandchildren and many other relatives in the county.

Here's How Coal Shutdown Will Affect Every Citizen

Freight Embargo On Parcel Post Limited In Weights and Sizes

With natural gas in abundance and water mines still operating, Floyd county is escaping the dreariness of heatless days and nights--yet effects of the soft coal shutdown are moving ever closer to the citizens of this section.

Here is how the mine dispute hits at every citizen: 1. The Interstate Commerce Commission has ordered a general embargo on railroad freight shipments except for certain vital needs. 2. With Christmas only three weeks away and the season of mailing gifts to distant relatives and friends at hand, the Postoffice Department will limit, beginning at 12:01 Friday, the weight of parcel post packages to five pounds, their length to 18 inches and combined length and girth to 60 inches. 3. At 11:59 p.m., Sunday, another 25 per cent slash in passenger service on coal-burning trains will become effective.

Announcing the freight embargo, the Interstate Commerce Commission declared that rail service can be prolonged "only by the most careful husbanding" of remaining coal stocks.

The general ban applies to express as well as freight shipments. The Office of Defense Transportation, in announcing the passenger-mileage cut said it "acted upon reports indicating that the railroads have on hand a 27-day supply of coal based upon the present rate of consumption."

The parcel post limitation strikes hard at countless persons now engaged in shopping for gifts for out-of-town friends and relatives. The limit of 5 pounds per package compares with the present limit of 70 pounds.

In declaring the general ban on freight, the I.C.C. said it was "of the opinion that an emergency requiring immediate action exists in all sections of the country."

Martin County Merchant Faces Murder Charge In Kinsman's Death

Inez, Ky., Dec. 2—Martin County Sheriff James Horn said today a murder charge had been filed against William Walter "Dick" Fannin, 30-year-old storekeeper, in connection with the shotgun slaying of his brother-in-law, John G. Mundy, 35, also of Milo.

Sheriff Horn said the shooting occurred Saturday night, and that Fannin surrendered to Deputy Sheriff McClelland Horn soon afterwards.

The Sheriff quoted Fannin as saying he shot his brother-in-law after Mundy had threatened Fannin's wife and family and had chased Fannin from his home into his store.

The storekeeper will be given a preliminary hearing tomorrow, Horn said.

Lespedeza Helps Nail Down Soil

Sericea lespedeza cover crops have "made good" on hillside as well as on bottom land in Clay county, according to Chas. W. McGuire, county agricultural agent.

Six years ago Taylor White, of the Burning Springs community seeded six acres of sericea on badly washed and worn-out hillside land that was untreated. Only slight preparation was made for the seed bed. For three years the sericea made slow growth, but when it once was established, it grew rapidly, filling the ditches. This year the crop has completely covered the ground, making good pasture at the rate of one acre per cow.

Levi Spurlock, of the Big Creeke community, has two acres of sericea from which he cut eight tons of high quality hay for the first cutting. He has seeded two more acres.

70-Year Old Makes Homemaking Record

Although Mrs. E. E. Ray, of Garrard county, is more than 70 years old and has children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren numbering more than 40, she and her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Harry Ray, have made remarkable records in the Antioch Homemakers Club, according to Home Agent Margaret Williams.

The Rays last week re-modeled and re-arranged their kitchen to give added room for storage of supplies and equipment and to save steps; added kitchen windows; improved floors in five rooms; painted, papered, and re-arranged six rooms; painted six pieces of furniture and added nine; hung seven pairs of new or reconditioned curtains, and made two rugs.

Then they made two dressforms, made or re-modeled 87 garments and repaired 86, and made 15 accessories, three purses and four hats.

To maintain the health of their family of five, these homemakers planned their meals and grew a garden of 15 vegetables in addition to potatoes. They improved the exterior of their home by setting out trees and pruning others, setting shrubs and repairing walks and driveway.

With all their homemaking duties, the Rays found time to read nine books last year along with the daily and weekly newspapers and household and religious magazines. They also made 40 calls on the sick and assisted three needy families.

Mrs. Harry Ray is president of the Antioch Homemakers Club, while Mrs. Ray, Sr., is a project leader.

Corn Loans In State To Be $1.21 to $1.33

Loan rates on the 1946 corn crop in Kentucky will vary by counties from $1.21 to $1.33 a bushel, M. D. Royce, state director of the Production and Marketing Administration, announced.

The rate, considerably higher than the national average of $1.15, represents an increase of approximately 20 cents a bushel over the $1.07 rate on the 1945 crop in Kentucky.

The loan will be available to farmers at County Agricultural Conservation offices December 1 to March 31, Royce said.

The rate for Floyd, Bell, Breathitt, Clay, Estill, Harlan, Jackson, Johnson, Knott, Knox, Laurel, Lee, Leslie, Letcher, Magoffin, Owsley, Perry, Pike, Powell, Rockcastle, Whitley and Wolfe is $1.33.

Pensioner, 90, Told New Baby Won't Raise Pay

Frankfort, Ky., Nov. 25 — Kentucky pays no premium to old-age beneficiaries for babies. And that's likely to be something of a disappointment to 90-year-old Neal Calloway of Yocum, Morgan county.

Calloway wrote Attorney General Eldon S. Dummit he was an old-age beneficiary, had been married three times and had 25 children—the youngest 3 months old.

He explained his neighbors had been telling him the State pays a bonus to the old-age pensioner with the youngest child, and added:

"If the boys are just kidding me, I want to know it."

The attorney general had to tell the mountain patriarch today there is no state bonus to reward him.

NEWS FOR THE VETERAN

VA FACTS AND FIGURES

National Service Life Insurance premium payments by Ohio-Michigan-Kentucky veterans are received by the VA's branch office, Columbus, at an average of $180,000 daily. The Columbus office is NSLI headquarters for World War II veterans in the three states.

Special Services Division of the VA's Branch 6 Office, Columbus, during the period of June through August, arranged for 166 USO shows at the nine VA hospitals in Ohio, Michigan and Kentucky. The shows played before 26,400 patients and employees.

Less than one per cent of World War II veterans who have entered education or on-the-job training under the G.I. Bill, have exhausted their period of entitlement, it was reported by Veterans Administration officials.

Over 70 per cent of the veterans drawing disability pension or compensation checks from Veterans Administration during October were World War II cases. The remainder were from previous wars and peace-time service.

"Write Right" is advice from VA insurance officials at the Columbus, Ohio, Branch Office to over 1,200,000 National Service Life Insurance policy holders in Ohio, Michigan and Kentucky. Reason: The insurance files include 9,600 Smiths, 6,500 Browns, of which 240 are John; and 3,000 Johnsons. Even a dozen Kilroys are listed.

VA'S HOME-TOWN MEDICAL PROGRAM

The extent of medical services which may be rendered to veterans under VA's home-town medical care program, was clarified this week by Dr. Paul E. Hawley, medical director of Veterans Administration.

Under existing legislation, veterans may be furnished out-patient medical or dental treatment in VA clinics, in private offices of physicians or dentists or in their own homes only for disabilities recognized by VA as incurred or aggravated in line of duty in active service. In addition, only prescriptions for service-connected disabilities may be filled at government expense by local pharmacies under VA's home-town prescription service.

The medical facilities of VA's regional and sub-regional offices, clinics, and hospitals, under law must be utilized to the fullest extent for examination and out-patient treatment of veterans. The best interests of both the veteran and the government will be considered when deciding whether a veteran residing in an area where there is a VA field station, will be referred to a VA clinic or to a civilian physician. Final decision rests with chief medical officers of VA regional offices.

Veterans may be admitted to private hospitals for in-patient treatment of service-connected disabilities by civilian physicians under contract to VA only if their condition is such as to constitute an emergency which cannot be met by a VA hospital because of the lack of beds or because the patient's condition prohibits travel.

Prior authorization for hospitalization and treatment in a private hospital must be obtained by letter, telephone or telegraph. If, owing to the extreme emergency of the case, prior authorization is not obtained, the physician or admitting hospital should notify VA within 72 hours.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Q. Are persons who assist in the presentation of pension or compensation claims to Veterans Administration permitted to charge for their services?

A. It is unlawful for any person whether he be an attorney or agent admitted to practice before the Veterans Administration or not, to charge or collect any fee for services in respect to a claim. However, the law provides that the Administrator of Veterans Affairs may by regulation authorize payment of fees in an allowed case to an admitted attorney or agent who has filed a valid power of attorney in that case. Such fees are deducted from the monetary benefits allowed.

Q. Will a veteran be able to get a guaranteed loan indefinitely?
A. No. Application must be made within 10 years from the official end of the war.

BETSY LAYNE

The annual Thanksgiving service was held Wednesday evening at the Freewill Baptist Church with pastors and members of Calvary Baptist, Mt. Zion Mission, Freewill Baptist and Methodist Churches participating in the program. The sermon was delivered by the Reverend Pipkin of the Southland Bible Institute, Wolfps, Ky. The service was well attended and was the sixth union Thanksgiving service held in the community.

Two of the home town boys who are in army service spent the Thanksgiving holiday with their parents and friends, Pvt. Lon Edward Roberts and Pfc. Billy Sargent. Lon Edward returned to Camp Lee, and Billy to his post in Michigan.

Mr. and Mrs. Ambers Rook Sr., were happy to have with them for the holidays their daughter, Emily, who is a student at the Southland Bible Institute, and their son, Ambers, Jr., who is employed in Ohio.

November meeting of the P-T.A. was held in the high school auditorium Monday night, Nov. 23. The speaker was the Rev. J. E. Pelly, pastor of the Allen Baptist Church, who delivered an interesting message on the "Duty of Parents and Teachers to Children." Following the program was the announcement of committees by the President, Abel Hall, and the sale of P-T.A. membership cards by Mrs. Clyde Layne. This year's P-T.A. has a fine group of officers and members and it is hoped that parents and teachers will join with these in making a better organization to promote the welfare of the school and community.

Mrs. Will Crum, of Louisville, spent part of last week visiting relatives and friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Crum are the parents of a fine son born recently at the Pikeville hospital, and named Gregory. Mother and babe are now at their home.

Miss Anna Ruth Layne was hostess to several friends for Thanksgiving dinner at the home of her parents. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hall, Mr. and Mrs. John Porter, Miss Irene Hall and Clarence Hays.

Mr. and Mrs. Den Burke and children moved last week into the property of L. M. Miller here from Boldman.

Mrs. Mary Howe, of Peru, Indiana, who has been the houseguest of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Elliott for a few weeks, visited with several friends here and attended several community functions. She departed Sunday to return to her home in Peru.

How to Stop Worrying

I guess folks in our town do about as much worrying as in yours—over housing and prices, and crops, and jobs—and the little domestic problems that are always coming up.

Dad Hoskins, who's lived to the happy age of eighty, has a simple formula for stopping worry. About every problem, he asks himself: Is there anything I can do about it? If there is, he never postpones making a decision, or taking necessary action.

If there isn't anything he can do about it, he sets aside a "worrying hour" after dinner, and gets his worrying over in one concentrated period. When that's over, he relaxes over a friendly glass of beer with Ma Hoskins—and they talk about pleasant things together, until bedtime.

From where I sit, that's as workable a formula as you could find... right down to the mellow glass of beer that seems to wink away your worries.

THERE SIMPLY ARE NOT ENOUGH NEW CHEVROLETS TO GO AROUND

We are getting our fair share of the current production of new Chevrolet passenger cars and trucks. And as strikes and shortages decrease, as the Chevrolet plants are able to produce more and more new passenger cars and trucks, we'll get more and more of them to deliver to our customers.

Meanwhile, as long as shortages do exist, it is our purpose to apportion our share of the new Chevrolets available fairly and justly among the many customers, new and old, whose continued friendship and patronage are the keystone of our business.

So that you may have no doubt as to our method of distribution of new Chevrolet passenger cars and trucks, we make the following—

DECLARATION OF POLICY

1. PRIORITY OF DELIVERY—New Chevrolet cars and trucks will be apportioned on the basis of: (1) essential public services, (2) veterans' occupational requirements, (3) priority of date in placing orders.

2. PRICES—All new Chevrolet cars and trucks will be sold at the authorized prices current at time of delivery.

3. TRADE-INS—No trade-in will be required from any customer who does not have a car to dispose of at the time of the transaction. Customers who do have cars will be given allowances based on honest appraisal and fair value at the time of delivery.

4. ACCESSORIES—No customer will be asked to purchase accessories as a condition of securing delivery.

5. STATUS OF ORDERS—Customers will be informed, upon request, of the true status of their orders in our files.

6. NEW ORDERS—We welcome your order for a new Chevrolet at any time.

WE THANK YOU FOR YOUR PATIENCE AND LOYALTY IN AWAITING DELIVERY OF YOUR NEW CHEVROLET

Miss Osborne, Mr. Wallen Wed on November 30th

Miss Lois Osborne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Osborne, of Wheelwright, became the bride on November 30 of Mr. Richard Wallen, also of Wheelwright.

The single ring ceremony was solemnized by the Rev. Mayle, of the Pilgrim Holiness Church, Pikeville. The bride was attired in a navy blue dress with light blue accessories and white fur coat. Attendants were fathers of the bride and groom, Mr. Luther Osborne and Mr. Lee Wallen. Mrs. Wallen is a graduate of Wheelwright high school and a fountain clerk for Inland Steel Company. Mr. Wallen was graduated from Wheelwright high school prior to entering the navy. During his three years' service he saw action at Imitan, Two Jima and Guam, and was discharged in April. He is an employe of Inland Steel Company.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallen will be at home to their friends at Wheelwright.

IN MEMORIAM

In memory of our dear loving son and brother who died of wounds in Germany Dec. 3, 1944—1st Lt. Darwin Caudill:

That lonesome month is here again. It is the month of December, in which our loved one departed from us— The one we will always remember.

Yes, Darwin, we still miss you, Oh, how our hearts ache with pain When we think our earthly meeting Will never be on earth again.

Now our home is so sad and lonesome, Oft the song comes to my mind And the Circle has been broken— You have left us all behind.

I often look at your picture That is hanging on the wall, I try to talk and tell you How you are missed by one and all.

Yes, Darwin, we still miss you, Your memory still lingers with us all, And I wouldn't take a million dollars For your picture on the wall.

We're so glad you knew we loved, Before you had to go; You were so dear and kind to all, Is why we miss you so.

I feel that lonesome spot is lighted By a shining light above, Because you were a good boy— It was you whom God loved.

Now our hearts are sad and lonely For our dear one gone on before, And I hope some glad morning to meet you On that shining shore.

Sadly missed by one and all. MR. and MRS. J. D. CAUDILL and FAMILY (1)

To an Unknown Correspondent:

I have received your letter and am only sorry that you feel toward me and my family as you apparently do. Growing old while living in Martin for years I have found much comfort in the thought that I held the friendship of all my neighbors, and now this letter comes. I am glad you did not sign your name. Army Officer Writes Mrs. Horn of Son's Death

In a letter addressed to Mrs. Thomas Horn, Sr., Lt. David W. Hughes tells the tragic details of the death of her son, T/5 Tom Horn, and pays tribute to the Floyd soldier's character and ability.

"This is a hard letter for me to write, for I must tell of the death of your son, and express my most heartfelt sympathy for you.

"There was not a better man in the M.P.'s than Tom Horn. He knew everyone on the post and was liked by everyone. He was always cheerful, friendly and happy. He had the ability to brighten and live a group, just by joining it. There was not a more popular man on the post. Most important to his comrades on the force and to me as Provost Marshal, was his courage and dependability. When there was a job to be done that involved danger, Tom Horn was always the first in line, and if the going got tough, Tom Horn was still cheerful. When I had to go into a dangerous place, Tom was the man I wanted with me. His death was felt by every man in the M.P.'s as a serious personal loss, because he was a steady man, and in our work we need steady men.

"The circumstances of the tragedy emphasized our sense of loss. It was an accident, Mrs. Horn, a deplorable accident. Tom was handling a revolver, and his very familiarity with guns and his constant use of them caused him, perhaps, to become careless. The gun was discharged and the bullet struck him in the head.

"We were at his side immediately, and in a few minutes he regained consciousness. His first words were, 'What happened, Lieutenant?' I told him that the gun had gone off. He spoke to his friends and was quite cheerful. I think he knew he would not live, because he said to me, 'Lieutenant, if I don't pull through, will you tell my mother?' I promised him that I would tell you. His last words were, 'I guess this is one beat I missed.'

"He was sent by ambulance to the naval hospital, where he died at 0345 in the morning.

"The funeral was held at Manila at cemetery No. 2. It was a full dress military funeral with his friends as pallbearers and rifle squad. A salute was fired, a bugler blew taps and Tom Horn's faithful service to his country was ended. I have sent some pictures of the funeral, and also a picture of the flag flying at half-mast at Tom's post, AAATC.

"I know that such a letter as this is cold comfort, Mrs. Horn, and I can only say that we, who were Tom's comrades, share some of your grief for your boy, and that Tom Horn will long be remembered on this post as a man who deserved a soldier's highest praise, which is, 'He was a good man.'

Daniels-Hazelett Vows Said at Paintsville

Mr. and Mrs. Bee Daniels, of Prestonsburg, are announcing the marriage of their daughter, Ruth, to Mr. James Walker (Red) Hazelett, of Paintsville, Ky. The impressive double ring ceremony was performed Nov. 16 in the home of the officiating minister, the Rev. Scott Castle, Paintsville.

The bride wore a dressmaker suit of brown with brown accessories and a shoulder corsage of red roses. They are residing in Prestonsburg and plan to build a home here.

They Like--If You Remember. Few things are more precious than the memory of loved ones who have gone. Grace and dignity should be the keynote of the final rites. To neglect this means years of bitter memories and regrets. At our home you are sure of completeness in every detail and at prices well within reasonable limits. E. H. Arnold FUNERAL DIRECTOR.
