

The Rev. W. B. Garriott, pastor of the Methodist Church, this week announced that a revival will begin at the church Monday evening of next week. The services will continue through May 11.

The Monday evening sermon will be delivered by the Rev. C. D. Harsh, pastor of the Mayo Memorial Church, Paintsville, and on Tuesday evening by the Rev. O. B. Johnson, pastor of the Pikeville Methodist Church, beginning Wednesday Dr. Warren C. McIntire, a member of the Southern California conference, will occupy the pulpit for the duration of the revival.

TURNS TO AID OF SUFFERERS

In Texas Explosion; Red Cross Accepting Funds for Stricken

Although many Red Cross chapters over the nation, as in the case of Floyd county, are continuing their annual drives to meet fund quotas, they have turned with national Red Cross headquarters to the needs of sufferers in the Texas City explosion.

Voluntary contributions for the relief of sufferers in this disaster will be accepted by any of the 3,754 Red Cross chapters, Chairman Basil O'Connor said.

Mr. O'Connor pointed out that already a number of inquiries have been received from persons interested in supplementing the initial Red Cross appropriation of $250,000 to lessen the distress, even though many local chapters are still at work on their 1947 fund appeal. Earlier Gov. Buford Jester of Texas formally placed the Red Cross in charge of relief in its role as the nation's official disaster relief agency.

Mr. O'Connor explained that in accordance with its traditional practices the Red Cross is fully prepared to meet the relief needs of the disaster victims.

The Kentucky Department of Welfare extended to 642 residents of the county during March aid totaling $14,593, statistics released this week by the Department show.

The county's 463 recipients of old age assistance were paid during the month $7,986 for an average of $16.53 per beneficiary, these figures show. There are 276 applications for aid pending from this county, the Department's report for March stated. Of these, 152 are for old age assistance, 111 for dependent children and 13 for needy blind.

Dependent children benefits will be cut approximately 15 per cent May 1, it was announced recently.

M'GOFFIN MAN FACES CHARGE

Mail Carrier Names Shepherd on Three Separate Charges

Fred Shepherd, of Arthurbel, 25-year-old son of Magoffin county Magistrate Jimmy Shepherd, faces a possible federal charge as a result of threats he is alleged to have made Monday afternoon to a carrier of the U.S. mail on Brush Creek, near Hippo.

After the carrier, Arthur Whitaker, cousin and neighbor of Shepherd, had named him in warrants charging him with carrying a concealed deadly weapon, shooting on a public highway and drunkenness, Shepherd paid a total of $150 in fines on the shooting and drunk charges, and Huxter Fletcher posted $2,000 cash bond for his answer to possible grand jury action. Fletcher also signed Shepherd's $1,000 peace bond.

Whitaker said he was walking while his father-in-law was riding a mail-laden horse up Brush Creek en route from Huesville to Guniock, Magoffin county, when Shepherd stopped his car and at the point of a pistol ordered him to enter the automobile. Later, it was alleged, Shepherd repeated this action while Whitaker had in his hand the first class mail pouch. "I thought having the mail in my hand would protect me," Whitaker said.

The carrier said some shots fired by Shepherd were aimed in his direction but came from a distance. He also said the Magoffin countian frightened a Brush Creek woman and her children from their home. He expressed the opinion that Milton Prater, an occupant of Shepherd's auto, saved his life.

Constable Rich Hall, of Garrett, who arrested Shepherd, said Arthur Stephens, another occupant of the car, paid a drunk fine. He added that no other passenger appeared to be drinking.

Shepherd admitted he was drunk and that he fired some shots into the ground.

Three Die of Wreck Injuries

HUNTER MAN UNDER BOND OF $15,000

As Death Car Driver; Hensons, Salisbury Are Crash Victims

Cola Salisbury, of Hunter, driver of a truck which rammied an automobile near Hunter Sunday afternoon, causing the deaths of three well-known residents of this county, was released from jail here Tuesday under bonds totaling $15,000 requiring his answer to the grand jury.

Dead as a result of the wreck, one of the most tragic in Floyd highway history, are:

Timothy P. Henson, 87 years old, Beaver, Ky., farmer.

Mrs. Abbie Catherine Henson, 70, wife of T. P. Henson.

Bill Bryan Salisbury, 49, Hunter merchant and former Floyd peace officer.

Injured were Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Reynolds, of Allen. Mrs. Reynolds is a daughter of the Hensons, who were passengers in the Reynolds car at the time of the smash-up.

Officers who investigated the tragedy were quoted as saying Cola Salisbury was intoxicated. Mathis Salisbury, nephew of the accused man and a passenger in the truck, refused to admit driving at the time of the crash, and Bryan Salisbury sat between him and the driver in the seat of the truck, with two small children in the back.

The truck, owned by Bill Bryan Salisbury, was being driven up the Left Beaver highway and the auto of Mr. Reynolds, Allen lumberman and former member of the Floyd County Board of Education, was traveling toward Martin when the collision occurred. Mathis Salisbury said his uncle cut to the left to pass a Ford car ahead of him, then cut back to the right. "It looked like he thought he was going to run off the right side of the road," Salisbury continued in his statement. "He cut back on and cut into the other car."

Mrs. Henson died almost instantaneously, her chest crushed. Her husband died Tuesday morning around 5 o'clock at the Gearheart hospital, Martin, of shock and injuries, including broken legs. Salisbury succumbed three hours earlier in the same hospital of a skull fracture.

The two children in the truck were thrown clear of the wreck, an estimated distance of 50 feet, but were uninjured.

Mr. and Mrs. Reynolds are at the Beaver Valley hospital, where it was said they will recover. Mrs. Reynolds sustained severe leg injuries.

Funeral arrangements had not been completed Wednesday, it was said at the Arnold Funeral Home.

Floyd Veterinarian Suffers Acid Burns

Dr. Frank Scutchfield, Water Gap veterinarian, suffered severe carbolic acid burns Saturday when stricken during a call at Auxier. He fell, breaking a bottle of the acid in his hip pocket. He returned to his home Tuesday from the Prestonsburg General hospital where he was taken, a few hours after suffering the burns.

Circus Is Coming to Town-- Beware of Bull on Loose, Barking Dogs and Firearms

The circus is coming to town May 14.

Get your cracker-jacks here, see the "greatest show on earth" and all that—but, if a dog barks or a bull gets loose and you see anybody draw a John Roscoe, pull for the tall and uncut.

For folks have a habit of getting themselves shot accidentally, these days, under such conditions.

In Louisville recently when a Brahma bull escaped from the Armory where a rodeo was being held, trigger-happy police chased it for blocks, fired several shots, meanwhile lodged a bullet in the abdomen of a rodeo cowboy who had the bizarre idea that a bull could be lassoed rather than shot.

So there you are. Have a good time. But if even a clown unlimbers artillery, duck. The gun might be loaded—and he might be as bad off in his aim as the Louisville cops. And they, apparently, couldn't hit a bull with a bass fiddle.

Herma Lee Roberts, 12-year-old daughter of Magistrate Dewey Roberts, of Harold, received the $25 pen offered by the Prestonsburg Kiwanis Club for the best essay written by a grade school student of the county on the subject, "Why Forest Fires Should Be Prevented in Floyd County."

She was presented the award at last week's meeting here of the club. At the same time, Clifford Martin, senior at Martin high school, received the first prize award on the subject, "What Is the United Nations and Why the United States Should Support It."

DEPUTIES MAY QUIT, RESULT OF SENTENCE

Of Ex-Deputy Lewis, According to Sheriff; Venue Change Asked

By agreement between counsel for the Commonwealth and the defendant, Circuit Judge Hill, Thursday morning, transferred the trial of Deputy Sheriff Harold Conn to the Magoffin circuit court at Salyersville.

Sheriff Troy B. Sturgill said Wednesday morning that "some" of my best deputies have threatened to resign" because of the conviction here Tuesday afternoon of Mack Lewis on a charge of slaying Casey Newsome at Drift while Lewis was a deputy sheriff.

Sheriff Sturgill said his deputies took the position that prosecution and conviction of peace officers for "necessary defense of themselves" in the performance of their duties leaves them "targets for any outlaw."

Commonwealth's Attorney John Chris Cornett maintained that the former officer did not shoot Newsome in self-defense and that his sentence was justified.

Lewis, who has already begun serving a life sentence in the death here from a bullet wound of his wife, plans an appeal from the verdict which carried a two-year sentence.

This morning (Thursday), Circuit Judge Edward P. Hill will be asked to rule on a petition filed by Commonwealth's Attorney Cornett, seeking a change of venue in the trial of another deputy sheriff, Harold Conn, charged with murder in the slaying near Boldman of Arthur Hall.

In the venue change petition, filed last Wednesday, Mr. Cornett alleged that both Conn and Hall have so many relatives and are members of families of such influence that a new trial site is necessary. His petition added, in part: "Conn is one of at least two dozen deputy sheriffs . . . a deputy sheriff resides in practically every precinct in Floyd county . . . he (Conn) spends most of his time at the Sheriff's office and is in constant attendance at the courthouse, associating with prospective jurors, and . . . the entire Sheriff's office force, including his deputies, are actively engaged in the defense of the defendant."

Publicity given the case and influence that might be directed at a jury brought here from another county, makes it necessary for the trial to be moved to another location, the prosecutor's petition concludes.

Conn's case has been docketed for trial today.

In the Lewis trial the defendant and Deputy Sheriff Otto Fannin testified that Newsome, standing on the porch of his home, had his revolver in his hand when the officers foundry company in competitive bidding.

These freight cars, costing approximately $10,500,000, will be built at Huntington, W. Va., with delivery to start in November of this year. Cars will be of welded construction and have friction bearings as many of them probably will be used in off-line service. Bids were based on the builders' own specifications and own design to expedite delivery.

Purchase of the cars was authorized to meet anticipated increases in coal traffic. One of the largest originating carriers of bituminous coal, the C. & O., presently serves 292 mines and now is extending its lines to new coal fields in Wise county, Virginia, and Letcher county, Kentucky. Production in these fields is expected to increase C. & O. tonnage materially.

Earlier this year the C. & O. placed orders for 1,000 50-ton light weight, all-steel boxcars with the Pullman Standard Car Manufacturing Company and 1,000 70-ton steel hopper cars equipped with Timken Roller bearings with General American Transportation Corporation, of Chicago.

Johns Creek Man's Ailment, Smallpox, Physicians Decide

Pearl Fraley, of the Johns Creek section, may be suffering from smallpox, Dr. Marvin Ransdell, director of the Floyd County Health Department, and Dr. M. T. Dotson decided here Tuesday morning.

Fraley drove here in a jeep and went to the office of Dr. Dotson, unaware of the seriousness of his illness. News that he had been here caused a few persons in the vicinity of the physician's office concern.

ONLY 1 MINE BELIEVED IDLE

Glogora Operation Resumed; Contract Talks Are Scheduled

With the possible exception of Central Elkhorn, every Floyd county mine was working this week, it was said here Tuesday.

Last week, hampered by limited telephone facilities, THE TIMES published an unconfirmed report that the Glogora Coal Company at Glo was idle. Both company and union later stated the mine had been in operation since Monday of last week.

With the interruption in operation because of safety demands following the Centralia, Ill., disaster, past, the industry and union this week began looking toward a new soft coal contract.

The Federal Coal Mines Administrator said Monday that John L. Lewis and a majority of soft coal mine operators have agreed to confer in Washington April 29 on the question of resuming contract negotiations.

LOOP SEASON BEGINS SUNDAY

Original Schedule, Though Not Approved, Valid for Two Games

Despite schedule-making difficulties, the new Eastern Kentucky Baseball League will open its season Sunday—as scheduled.

The original schedule, published in THE TIMES last week, was rejected. Then a new one was worked out, but it too failed of approval.

So W. A. Malone, league president, said Tuesday, the six teams in the league will go ahead with play, starting Sunday and following the first schedule for the first two games.

Meanwhile, he said, all teams will be asked to send representatives to a meeting at which an official schedule will be adopted for remaining games.

Then for the first two games, according to present plans, the play will be as follows:

Sunday, April 27—Prestonsburg at Hazard, Wheelwright at Pikeville, Allais at Elkhorn City.

Sunday, May 4—Elkhorn City at Prestonsburg, Pikeville at Allais and Hazard at Wheelwright.

The Prestonsburg team engaged Sunday afternoon in its first nine-inning practice game, defeating the Prestonsburg high school team, 8 to 4, while facing some of their own pitchers who had been loaned to the school team for the contest.

Kidd, Lockwood and Mims hurled for the league team while Coach Leslie, Charlie Patton and Ira Stephens did the mound work for the Black Cats. The Cats scored a run in the first inning on hits by Porter and Blackburn and twice in the next inning on singles by Burkett and Wells, with two errors helping them along. Kidd hurled the first three frames for the "big" team, and Lockwood who relieved him was not scored upon for the next three.

Mims, a colored boy, was scored on in the ninth when the Cats cashed in on one hit by Goble.

The regulars scored three runs on one hit to start the game off against Leslie and another run in the second on a walk and Kidd's double. They opened up again in the fourth with two runs on three hits by Patton and wound up with two in the ninth on as many hits off Stephens.

FESTIVAL QUEEN AND HER COURT

FOUR NEGROES ON MAY JURY

Trial at Washington May Take 30 Days, Jurist's Estimate

With a jury selected within two hours, the trial of Ex-Congressman A. J. May in Washington, D. C., was off to a fast start Tuesday.

At that, it was estimated by the trial judge, Justice Henry A. Schweinhaut, that the hearing will require from two weeks to a month.

Seven men and five women, including four negroes, compose the jury to decide the Prestonsburg man's guilt or innocence of the charge of conspiring to defraud the government on war contracts. Also on trial are Murray and Henry Garsson, munitions manufacturers, and their Washington agent, Joseph F. Freeman.

Ex-Congressman May this week reiterated his declaration of innocence and expressed confidence in winning an acquittal. When the federal grand jury indictment was made, Mr. May asked for an early trial of the case.

FLOYD COUNTY MAN SURVIVES

Texas City Blast; Unable To Explain Details of Escape

Roy Wills, son of Ex-Magistrate and Mrs. W. A. Wills, Prestonsburg, is believed to have been the only person inside the Monsanto Chemical Company plant at Texas City, Texas, to escape alive when last week's explosion of an explosive-laden French steamer in the Texas City harbor touched off chemicals in the plant and converted the city into a shambles of dead and injured and wrecked buildings.

Immediately after radio broadcasts told of the explosion and the terrific loss of life, Mr. Wills here enlisted Red Cross aid in an attempt to learn of his son. While the Red Cross continued its efforts to gain this information, a letter arrived from the son, written a few hours after the blast.

"I just don't know how I got out," he wrote his parents. "I either am the luckiest or the meanest or the best man in the world."

He wrote that dishes in his home at Seabrook, Texas, 20 miles from the scene of the explosions, were shattered to bits. Mr. Wills and his family moved to Texas City about two months ago.

IN SPRING TRAINING

Ballard Branham, Jr., left last week for spring baseball training at Salisbury, of the North Carolina State league.

Wayland Is New Floyd Boom Town With Rail Work Stemming from It

If "things" go boom or bust, one Floyd county town stands a better-than-average chance over the next two years at least, and probably for several years, to be a boom town.

This community is Wayland, Elk Horn Coal Corporation mining town, which is the Floyd county railroad for development of vast coal holdings in Letcher and Knott counties.

As preliminary work on the $4-221,000 job of constructing 22.5 miles of railroad from the town to Letcher county is developing, there are few, if any, living quarters to be had in Wayland this week, it is said. This, despite the fact that the minor operations begun are in the vicinity of Dry Creek, several miles above Wayland.

Through the town a major portion of the product of a mine to be installed on Rock Fork of Indian Creek, Letcher county, is expected to be hauled by the C. & O. The operation, it is estimated, will produce between a million and two million tons of coal a year. Along the 22-mile route, other smaller mines may be installed. A part of the Letcher county coal, however, will be moved by the new L. & N.

branch line now under construction into the field.

But for the unwillingness of an elderly woman to part with her frugal ways of a lifetime and with her land, the Consolidation Coal Company which will install the Letcher mine would, in all probability, have developed the coal in the vicinity of Isaacs Fork, approximately 18 miles above Wayland. It is reported here that she declined an offer of upwards of $60,000 for surface rights there where the company planned a mining town.

The Codell Construction Company and sub-contractors have contracted to complete the 22-mile rail extension not later than Sept. 1, 1948. By January, 1949, the huge Consolidation mine is expected to be running coal.

Work at Dry Creek this week was practically at a standstill, with unionization of labor under way.

This new development is a contributing factor to the C. & O. decision to add to its rolling stock, with increased coal tonnage expected.

The C. & O. has awarded a contract for 3,000 70-ton, all-steel hopper coal cars to the American Car &

COURT OKEHS HOME AGENT

Votes Annual Fund For Work; Purchase Of Bulldozer Made

The Floyd fiscal court Wednesday morning voted the $600 appropriation necessary to continue for the fiscal year beginning July 1 the work of Home Demonstration Agent Requa Kincer.

The appropriation followed by a few weeks annual funds voted for the health department and county farm agent work. Wide interest in continuance of Miss Kincer's work was expressed by women of the county.

At the same meeting the court purchased from the Williams Tractor Company a bulldozer for $7,216.23 as a part of equipment considered necessary for the county to carry on road-maintenance work.

The bulldozer, to be delivered here this week, furnishes the county the following equipment for road work: Two bulldozers, one power patrol grader, two pullytype graders, one tractor, one truck and an air compressor.

Another truck and a power shovel are needed, members of the court said, but limited funds prevent their purchase.

ganized labor resulted in an AFL invitation to the CIO to discuss possible merger.
AFL President William Green proposed to Phillip Murray, CIO chief, that they meet Thursday morning in Washington to discuss unification. In Pittsburgh, Murray said he had not yet received Green's telegram, but that he would give "utmost consideration."
Other developments in the national labor picture:
Government conciliators in the telephone strike reported negotiations were approaching a "crucial stage," and John R. Steelman, presidential labor adviser, said he knew of no plans for the government to seize the telephone lines.
Strike leaders reported union ranks were holding firm as the strike ended its third week. However, company spokesmen said some workers were returning, in varying numbers, to their jobs.
In Detroit, two persons were injured and 22 others, including two union officials, were arrested as violence broke out on the picket line.
Another major development was the unanimous approval by the CIO

United Steelworkers policy committee of an agreement granting $1 a day was increased to 140,000 U. S. Steel Corp. workers.
Murray asserted that the new pact with U. S. Steel "assures peace in the industry for two years" and furnishes "an answer to Congressional labor baiters" contemplating restrictive labor laws.
The CIO United Automobile Workers resumed negotiations with General Motors and Chrysler corporations. Walter P. Reuther, union president, said "an entirely new proposal" which he declined to detail, had been made by the union. The UAW originally had demanded a 23 1/2-cent hourly wage increase.

LEG ULCERS - Before and about 60 days after starting treatment in clinic with Colusa Natural Oil

SUMMARY OF CLINICAL REPORT ON 82 CASES

A doctor who owns a hospital in Texas reported under oath that in a clinic of 25 cases of psoriasis, 16 cleared of all lesions completely in 30 days—4 were 70% clear and continued treatment; that out of 40 cases of eczema all but 3 were cleared of all lesions in 3 weeks to a month with prognosis of the 3 good for recovery, that out of 11 cases of athletes foot all have one who did not return for treatment; were dismissed completely cured—8 to 14 days for acute cases and 3 weeks for chronic cases; that out of 3 cases of leg ulcers complete healing resulted in all 3 of the cases in a month, and in 8 cases of poison ivy or oak, complete cures were effected in an average of 5 days. His report states, "not in a single case of this clinical group did I meet with toxic bad effects... Colusa may be used near the eyes without danger... it relieves itching quickly. A little of the oil covers large areas. It is non-irritating. Soothing to raw and denuded lesions and affected areas. Easily massaged into the skin." Two other doctors make similar glowing clinic reports—one, a United States Government health physician reporting on 27 cases, and the other a Mexican Government health physician reporting on 45 cases.

C. H. S., Colorado—"Your product has done wonders for me as I have had a very bad case of eczema which was very dry and the skin on my hands formed a crust which would crack, very hard to break. Owing to my occupation of locomotive fireman and engineer this is the first time in 40 years my hands have been healed, the skin becoming soft and healthy. You may see this testimony if you wish."

PSORIASIS
H. B. S., California—"Colusa oil and capsules have been a godsend to me. They have completely healed a very bad case of psoriasis that I have had for 20 years. Doctors failed to cure me. Your Colusa oil and capsules cured me in six weeks. I can't praise Colusa oil and capsules enough."

F. T. Then tried Excelsior Springs, Mo., then a nationally known specialist in Chicago and finally Rochester, Minn., and I received no relief. Your natural oil completely cleared up my trouble in three weeks time and I have not had any shows of recurrence. International Relations Betsy Layne Club Theme

The Betsy Layne Woman's Club at its meeting April 3 at the home of Mrs. Keen Robinette, presented a program on International Relations, Mrs. Clyde Blackburn, leader, was aided by several members on the following topics: "If You Ask Me," by Eleanor Roosevelt, pertaining to our relations with Russia; "The World Grows Smaller," taken from the Kentucky Club Woman; "Something New," an article by Mrs. Jean Chatel concerning French Women's Clubs, Music, Homelife, etc.; "Setting the Standards," by Lucy Dickinson. These readings were later discussed by Mrs. Laura Chandler, Mrs. Elizabeth Roberts, Mrs. Clyde Blackburn and Mrs. Jack Williams. Following these discussions, Miss Elaine Roberts gave a talk on Jane Todd Crawford, which consisted of a brief sketch of her early life and leading up to her operation which, at that time, had never been successfully performed and in reality was an experiment. Her bravery while undergoing that ordeal, which was without anesthetic, was extolled. The supreme faith in her heavenly Father that carried her through with the help of continued prayer for divine guidance for Dr. Ephraim McDowell who performed the operation was cited. Two new members were added to the club roll—Mrs. Myrtle Hardwick and Miss Alice Virginia Williams.

Funeral rites for the couple were conducted Wednesday morning from the residence at Beaver, the Revs. Jerry Hall, Evan Hamilton, J. B. Hamilton and Jonah Isaacs officiating. Burial in the family cemetery was directed by the Ryan Funeral Home.

Mr. Salsbury was a son of the late Lewis (Link) Salsbury and Elizabeth Turner Salsbury, prominent residents of the Left Beaver section. He was widely known in the county and had many relatives and friends. Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Virgie Salsbury, three daughters and four sons, Mrs. Warnie Sammons and Mrs. Randolph Hunt, both of Hunter, Mrs. Meredith Spurlock, Louisville, Cecil and Irvin Salsbury, of the army, Orris and Festus Salsbury, at home. One brother, Jimmy D. Salsbury, and two sisters, Mrs. Trimble Meade and Mrs. Fed Allen, all of Hunter, also survive. The funeral, it was announced by the Ryan Funeral Home, will be conducted from the residence at Hunter Friday morning at 10 o'clock, the Revs. Tom Mosley, E. H. Howard and M. C. Wright officiating.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Salsbury and Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Fitzpatrick were guests at Pikeville Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Porter.

We love 'em in December as we do in May

REMEMBER the day you first romped away in that Buick of yours? How those eight Fireball cylinders fairly floated you over the hills—how those road-steady two tons of lively car answered sweetly every light touch of your hand on the wheel—how you glided along with foursquare BuCoil springing smoothing every wrinkle in the road?

That's what your Buick was built to do. Years and years of that kind of driving are in it—especially when it gets the interested, informed car care this fine an automobile should have.

That doesn't mean just periodic lubrication, a body wash, battery check or bolt-tighten. It means thorough attention by competent Buick men—attention that keeps a Buick always a Buick.

Buicks are our babies. Even the smallest details are handled the way they should be for a Buick. We have Buick tools that do jobs better and quicker. We have men who know Buicks best. We have Buick-engineered parts that are precisely right for your car.

Put that all together and it's Buick car care.

Pretty clear, isn't it, that here is where your Buick will receive the best attention? After all, we love 'em heart and soul.

"TOP" SECRET

One of the things that play a part in Fireball snap is Buick's water-thin steel cylinder gasket. Just 15 thousandths of an inch thick, it's a "must" for the high compression this powerful straight-eight is designed for. Other kinds that are thicker cut down the compression and the car's liveliness.

In carbon and valve jobs, or any other where this gasket must be replaced, only this Buick gasket will assure the fit Buick engineers intended. No wise Buick owner would have any other in his engine.

Just another example of how you get more for your money—in major adjustments, tune-ups, lubrication or anything your car needs—when you make sure it gets Buick car care.

MORE TIRE FOR YOUR MONEY

There's EXTRA VALUE in the Tire that OUTWEARS PREWAR TIRES

It's time to measure what you get for what you pay. No matter what you buy, the measure of true worth is in performance . . . how long it will serve you.

In tires there are several yardsticks . . . mileage, protection against bruising and road shocks, resistance to skidding. In all of these, the B.F. Goodrich Silvertown gives you extra value.

Its wider, flatter tread which covers more road area, spreads the wear more evenly. The more tire in contact with the road also means more tread to grip . . . to prevent skidding. Beneath this better tread is a 35% stronger cord body built with sturdier cords and more of them to give better resistance to road shock and bruising.

All this Extra Value adds up to today's big tire buy . . . the postwar B. F. Goodrich Silvertown—the tire that OUTWEARS PREWAR TIRES.

Grethel Man Nabbed Here After Neighbor Is Wounded by Shot

Noah Frasure, of Grethel, was arrested here Saturday evening by Deputy Sheriffs Harold Conn and Otto Pannin on a charge of shooting and wounding his neighbor, Anthony Newsome, on the preceding day. His shotgun blast, it was said, struck Newsome in his leg while he was plowing.

Frasure, who later executed $1,000 bond, was arrested when a truck he was riding stopped here. He was quoted by officers as saying, "I couldn't get along with my neighbors, so I decided to leave." He later swore out a peace warrant for Newsome's.

Crowell-Hodges Wedding Solemnized at Bluefield Baptist Church April 7th

In a ceremony performed at 6:30 p.m., April 7 at Calvary Baptist Church, Bluefield, W. Va., with the Rev. Herman H. Mauch, pastor of the church, officiating, Miss Betty Joyce Crowell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence B. Crowell, Highland avenue, became the bride of Mr. Wade Hampton Hodges, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Hodges, of Hill avenue, Bluefield, W. Va.

The wedding was preceded by a musical program presented by Miss Dorothy Ayers, who played "If Love Were All," "Always" and "Till the End of Time," and Mrs. James J. Carter, of Prestonsburg, who sang "Because" and "Through the Years." During the ceremony, Miss Ayers played "To a Wild Rose" by MacDowell. The traditional wedding marches were used for the entrance of the bridal party and the recessional.

Mrs. Carter was gowned in pink, and wore orchid mitts, and a violet corsage. Miss Ayers was attired in blue, her bouquet having been chosen in pink.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a bridal gown of white satin, modeled with close bodice, sweetheart neckline, long train and long sleeves extending to a point at the hand. The train of her gown and the long sleeves were edged in lace. Her sweeping veil was caught to sweetheart bonnet, trimmed in orange blossoms. Her only ornament was a strand of pearls which had been worn by her mother at her own wedding.

She carried a bouquet formed of white roses and gardenias, showered with sweetpeas and stapanotis.

Miss June Glo Crowell, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and the bridesmaids were Miss Bess Hodges, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Dorothy Whitaker, cousin of the bride.

Miss Crowell was gowned in pale blue and Miss Hodges in pink, while Miss Whitaker was attired in aqua. Each of the bride's attendants wore matching mitts and ruffled head-dress. All carried colonial bouquets of roses, showered with sweetpeas.

Mr. Hodges was escorted by his brother, Mr. John Milton Hodges, as best man, and serving as ushers were Messrs. Dexter Blankenship, John R. Johnson, Jr., James W. Wyrick and Randolph Holbrook.

Little Barbara Ann Carter, serving as flower girl, wore a white ruffled organdie frock, with spray of rosebuds in her hair, and Master Jim Carter, the small ring bearer, was attired in dark blue trousers and white coat.

Mrs. Crowell, mother of the bride, was attired in a black dress, trimmed in lace, with long gloves, black hat and corsage of gardenias. Mrs. Hodges, the bridegroom's mother, wore a black ensemble, with matching accessories. She had a corsage of gardenias.

The wedding was followed by a reception at the Crowell home, Mr. and Mrs. Hodges then left for a wedding trip to unannounced destination, after which they will be at home in Bluefield, where Mr. Hodges is associated with the Kresge Company.

The bride was graduated at Beaver high school and at Bluefield College, being a member of Sigma Theta sorority. She is now majoring in chemistry at Aabama College, Montevallo, Alabama, where she will graduate with a B.S. degree in June.

Mr. Hodges was graduated at Graham high school. He served four years with the medical corps of the United States army, holding the rank of master sergeant.

Among those from out-of-town who attended the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Carter, Mr. and Mrs. James J. Carter and son, Jim; Mrs. Pearl Allen and daughter, Abigail, and Mr. and Mrs. Leo Carter and daughter, Barbara, of Prestonsburg, Ky.; Charles Ascue, Jr., and Mrs. Billy Ascue, Richlands, Va.; Mrs. Hersie Duncan, of Princeton, Mrs. Paul Davis and Mrs. Gilbert Haynes, Welch, W. Va., and Miss Ruth Ann Hodges, Beckley, W. Va.

WEDDING PARTICIPANTS

Jim Carter, son of Mr. and Mrs. James J. Carter, of Prestonsburg, and Barbie Ann Carter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Carter of Prestonsburg, were ring bearer and flower girl, respectively, for the Hodges-Crowell wedding performed April 7. They are grandchildren of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Carter, Prestonsburg.

KENTUCKY ON THE MARCH

By EWING GALLOWAY
Back in 1933, after an absence of 13 years from the state, I was driving through some backward villages and run-down farming districts with Sherman Melton, high ranking engineer in the coal mining world and practical philosopher. On a tour of half a dozen of his company's mines in Union and Hopkins counties, I had an opportunity to see conditions that had changed little since Melton and I were school kids together at Dixie Village.

"Why," I asked him, "doesn't Kentucky keep abreast of the more progressive states?"

"Too few Kentuckians want better things and are willing to work hard to get them."

If you can give a better answer in one sentence, I'll gladly use it in this weekly column.

In recent articles about motor vehicle regulation, I overlooked one important provision of the penal code affecting court fees in traffic violation cases. Justices of the Peace get a percentage of fines collected in their courts. So, when a motorist is arrested, he feels that the third strike is already in the catcher's mitt. This does not mean that any particular magistrate does not try to be fair in all cases. But I do know that if the Legislature that enacted the law had had a keen sense of fairness and due respect for sound court procedure, it never would have made justices of the peace profit financially by their own decisions.

Friends of the Land, a national organization with headquarters at 1368 North High Street, Columbus, Ohio, gives us these interesting paragraphs on water conservation:

"Businessmen and industrialists are beginning to realize that water is not only essential to agriculture; it is perhaps even more essential to industry. In many large areas of the country the water table is sinking and even disappearing. As a rule, the water table means the level at which abundant water is found for industrial as well as domestic use. Failure to catch and hold the water that falls on the fields, forests and plains through lack of proper agricultural practices is the cause of this condition which is endangering many industries in widespread areas throughout the land.

"In the great Mill Creek industrial area in Cincinnati, the underground water table has dropped away as much as 123 feet in some places in the last 25 years. In the state of Ohio the water table has dropped an average of one foot a year for 25 years. This condition is not a special one. It is to a large extent true throughout the United States."

Water conservation is one of the interests of the Committee for Kentucky, which is one of many reasons why the Committee deserves your financial as well as moral support.

In CONCRETE BLOCKS of QUALITY There Must Be QUANTITY

MOST block machines are designed to mold a block which has a 45 to 50 percent core space. When you buy blocks, measure the face shell of the block, also the web between the cores. If the face shell is not 1 1/2" in thickness, and if the web between the cores is not 1" in thickness YOU ARE NOT GETTING YOUR MONEY'S WORTH. Quantity, in concrete blocks, is one sign of quality.

Materials in sufficient quantities are so important in producing quality concrete blocks that Mr. R. E. Copeland, Director of Engineering, National Concrete Masonry Association, while addressing the Wisconsin Concrete Products Association, said: "... a 50 percent core space might increase (wall) cracking as much as 25 percent."

My block machine has a 33 percent core space. This means that I make only 88 blocks out of the same amount of materials used to make 100 blocks in the average plant. This additional material holds wall cracking to a minimum. Yes, you get MORE FOR YOUR MONEY when you buy

8"x8"x16" blocks, 33 percent core space, 27c at Banner. (Additional charges for delivery.)

Made with modern machinery.

Kiln dried.

Hazard Radio Tower Now in Operation By State Patrol

Frankfort, Ky., April 15 (Spl.)—Radio tower of the communications division of the Kentucky Department of Highways has been completed at Hazard and is now on the air, J. Stephen Watkins, commissioner, said last week.

The 200-foot tower is located on Peters' Peak about a mile from Hazard. Peters' Peak has an elevation of 1,680 feet. Call letters are WKBG. This is the fourth of the radio stations to be completed, the others being at Frankfort, Bowling Green and London.

J. G. Fisher, radio supervisor for the department, said the tower has already been completed at Madisonville and that construction had started on the building to house the transmitting apparatus there. The Morehead building has been completed and wired and tower construction started. Excavation has started at Elizabethtown for both the tower and the building.

Emergency communications for both the Kentucky Highway Patrol and the Highway Department are to be handled by 10 stations throughout Kentucky.

TIDBITS OF KENTUCKY FOLKLORE

By GORDON WILSON, Ph.D.

Western Kentucky Teachers' College Bowling Green, Ky.

'I WILL LIFT UP MINE EYES'

ONE of our most trite sayings is that you may take a boy out of the country but you cannot take the country out of the boy. Wise people never attempt to work any such unnatural miracles as even trying to make a country boy anything else. But unwise ones work away futilely, making themselves and everybody else miserable, in their efforts to standardize all of us. Now I was raised—raised, that is, as Senator Claghorn would say—in the hills, not especially large ones and not very far from the flat-topped plateau that occupies most of the Jackson Purchase. Probably because of the flatness of that area our hills looked pretty big, particularly when roads were bad and horses had a hard time getting our wagons and buggies up the hills. Hills, however large or small, work a strange power on people who have always known them. Put a hillbilly in a flat place, and he practically smothers; he wants to get up on an eminence and see over the ordinary things that are so stiflingly low. I suppose that people who have lived in mountainous country feel the same way but on a larger scale. I have found that I adjust much more easily to mountains than to plains; I suppose that my childhood rearing is responsible.

It has been my good fortune to know hills most of my life. On the few occasions when I had to be away from them, I wanted to climb a tree or a water tower or anything else that would give me a sense of landscapes. When I taught my three country schools, I was restless and discontented, for there were only the merest semblances of hills anywhere to be seen. I suppose that the location of one of my schools, on what was locally called a hill but I would call a mere bank, partly satisfied my longing for views. When I went back to the schoolhouse five years ago I just could not find the hill on which it used to sit; the hill and all the surrounding country seemed to have been run over by a gigantic machine and flattened out. But aside from these three years I have seen hills most every day of my life. I teach on an isolated knob, not so very high but with excellent views of the landscapes on every side. I can look out of my office window and see farther than I ever traveled before I left Fidelity for good, forty years ago. So close that they seem within a long arm's reach are places that were so far away before cars came into use that I have rarely visited them. By going up on the tower over my office I can see, on a clear day, knobs that are 35 or 40 miles away, several of them recognizable as famous lookouts in neighboring counties. No season has a monopoly on the beauty of what I can see as I go to school or as I glance out my window. The innumerable hills in view, though none rise even so much as nine hundred feet above sea level, satisfy daily longings for hilltop views.

When I can get away to our own mountains or those of other states, I find myself at once a genuine citizen, for all you have to do to make a mountain is to pile a few hills on top of each other. And throughout the last decade and more I have had the good fortune to see many mountains and to climb a few big ones, too. I have camped on or at the foot of mountains, I have seen them in moonlight and bright sunshine and fog; I have watched them fade into the purple haze of late afternoon or stand out boldly in the bright morning sunshine. It required no formal introduction to mountains for me to be at home with them. The meager little hills around Fidelity built up the feeling for a rugged landscape that no amount of living elsewhere could ever erase. When you have once climbed a hill and get the feel of it, the hills are in your blood for keeps.

Auxier Hornets Defeat Paintsville, Martin, Maytown in 3 Days

Auxier, Ky., April 22 (Spl.)—The Auxier Hornets, whose baseball string last season was none too potent, have already shown this season they are to be reckoned with in baseball. Opening their season last Friday and playing on successive days, they defeated Paintsville, 5 to 2, Martin, 8 to 4, and Maytown, 15 to 2. The Hornets locked strong in every department. The pitching, a question mark before the season opened, is no longer doubtful. Honeycutt and Litteral have shown they have mound ability. Coach Music has bag this year such veterans as Hubbard Sparks, Patton, Waugh, O. Curnutte, Thompson and Wells. There seems to be an abundance of material for every position.

Auxier's next game is here May 2 with Paintsville.

U.D.C. REVEALING PARTY

Greenville Davidson Chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, met with the president and treasurer, Mrs. Luther Shivel and Miss Josephine Davidson, at their home on First avenue recently. The ritualistic service was conducted by Mrs. John W. Hensley. Contributions were made to the American Red Cross and the Randolph Relief Fund. Renewals to the Confederate magazine were made. A history of the chapter will be written by Mrs. Lon S. Moles, assisted by Mrs. John W. Hensley, and sent to the U.D.C. magazine. Mrs. A. J. Davidson presented an interesting program on "Colonial Days." She read "Birds of a Feather," a story of birds of Virginia. Assisting in the program were Mrs. John W. Hensley, Mrs. Lon S. Moles and Mrs. E. P. Arnold. "Restoring Arlington and Washington Trees" was presented by Mrs. Hensley. "Women of Colonial Times" was told by Mrs. Moles, and a poem, "In Tribute," was read by Mrs. Arnold. Following the program, the revealing of "secret pals" of the chapter was made. A refreshment course was served by the hostesses to Mesdames Walter Van Landingham, of Miami, Fla., Osa F. Ligon, Joe Hobson, Lida R. Cottrell, Lon S. Moles, E. P. Arnold, Roy Perry, A. J. Bride from Coventry Affected by Strike

This telephone strike created inconveniences here recently so exasperating that even a war-bride, arrived here after stoically bearing all the hardships of life in much-bombed Coventry, England, had reason to complain—even if she didn't.

Telephone service even to Martin was out till Wednesday morning, the first week of the strike, and so Floyd Red Cross Chapter could find no way to notify Seaman Sammons, Arkansas Creek army veteran, that his wife had arrived. Sammons had visited the Red Cross office three consecutive days, to inquire for word of his wife, but it wasn't here when she arrived.

Upshot was, the Red Cross did the usual friendly act. Miss Ella Noel White, executive secretary, accompanied Mrs. Sammons to Allen by train, found her transportation on to her new home.

Mr. and Mrs. Sammons were married in Coventry 15 months ago. He was discharged from the army in January.

I can take my bath—or leave it!

"MAYBE it's my Scottish ancestry, but I'm cautious and don't jump to conclusions. Take this idea of frequent bathing... there's things in favor of it—and other things against it. One of the worst features is living in a household where the "Hot" Water usually runs cold. I admit I've been spoiled—you don't take blue ribbons and give the whole family a chance to show off, and then put up with insults to your valuable torso like cold baths.

"Fortunately, my present family knew enough to install an Electric Water Heater and my baths are comfortably warm now. My disposition has improved, too, and I don't insist on breaking loose and rolling in some nice warm dirt the way I used to right after one of those frozen dousings."

NEWS FOR THE VETERAN

VA CITES PROCEDURE IN OBTAINING LOANS

World War II veterans desiring to obtain guaranty loans under the G.I. Bill should first consult the lending agencies from which they expect to borrow the money, loan guaranty officials at the Ohio-Michigan-Kentucky Branch Office of the Veterans Administration in Columbus, O., said this week.

In most instances eligible lenders will have available the necessary information and proper application forms to cover the type of loan desired, VA officials said. If such information is not available, the veteran should consult the nearest representative of VA.

In applying for a loan, a veteran should present the lender with his original honorable discharge or other original separation papers evidencing the nature of his discharge and the duration of his active military or naval service.

Any veteran who served in the armed forces between September 16, 1940, and the end of the war, and who was released from service under conditions other than dishonorable after at least 90 days' service (or who was discharged for service-connected disability following a lesser period of service) is eligible for a guaranteed loan.

VA guarantees the lending agency against loss up to 50 per cent of the loan, with a maximum guarantee for any veteran of $4,000 on real estate or $2,000 on non-real estate loans. Farm loans are repayable over a period up to 40 years; other real estate loans, up to 25 years, and non-real estate loans, up to 10 years.

VA consistently has cautioned veterans against hasty use of their loan guaranty privileges in the current high-priced real estate market, reminding them that their loan guaranty benefits remain available for 10 years after the official end of the

CORRESPONDENCE COURSES AVAILABLE UNDER G.I. BILL

Officials at the Columbus, Ohio, Branch office of the Veterans Administration recently reminded World War II veterans in Ohio, Michigan and Kentucky that they may take correspondence courses at government expense under the education and training provisions of the G.I. Bill.

Although no subsistence allowance is paid by VA, eligible veterans may take correspondence courses through approved institutions, with one-fourth of the enrollment time charged against that period of eligibility. Total cost of the course is limited to $500.

Veterans enrolled in educational institutions or in job-training programs may augment their training by correspondence courses, subject to VA regulations.

READING POPULAR WITH DISABLED VETERANS

Hospitalized war veterans in Ohio, Michigan and Kentucky have at their fingertips a wealth of information and entertainment provided by books ranging from the classics to popular present-day novels.

Libraries in the nine Veterans Administration hospitals in the three states contain nearly 84,000 books, in addition to more than 5,000 technical books in the hospital medical library.

Comfortable library reading rooms are maintained at each VA hospital for the use of ambulatory patients. "Traveling" libraries also are provided, with books taken by cart to the various wards where veterans are bedfast.

During March, more than 8,500 veteran patients read a total of 20,484 books in the nine hospitals, an individual average of two and one-half books. Ohio veteran patients averaged nearly four books during the month, Kentucky patients averaged two books, and Michigan patients slightly less than two books.

VETERANS ADVISED TO CHECK WARTIME WILLS

World War II veterans in Ohio, Michigan and Kentucky this week were advised by the Veterans Administration to consult their own attorneys concerning the present validity of wills which they may have signed while in the armed forces.

Officials at the Va's tri-state branch office in Columbus, O., believe a large number of the 1,600,000 World War II veterans in the three states may be affected in this matter.

They explained that war-time wills may not be valid in the states where the veteran now resides. Also, VA pointed out that a war-time will in many cases may not serve the current intentions of a veteran since his return to civilian life.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Q. Can the beneficiary or the family of a veteran make premium payments on his G.I. insurance if the veteran doesn't care to do so?

A. Yes, but the insured veteran has the right to change his beneficiary or beneficiaries at any time without consulting with or receiving the approval of anyone. He also may surrender his permanent policy for cash at any time.

Q. I am drawing retirement pay at present. Can I receive subsistence allowance while going to school under the G.I. Bill?

A. You are entitled to draw retirement pay and still receive the full amount of subsistence allowance while in school or training. Retirement pay is not considered income from productive labor and, therefore, is not to be included by the veteran in his estimate or earnings filed with VA.

Q. I obtained a G.I. home loan in June, 1945, and now would like to know if I may obtain a further loan under the amended G.I. Bill?

A. Yes. Evidently your guaranty under the original G.I. Bill was $2,000, therefore under the bill as amended in December, 1945, you are eligible for a further guarantee of $2,000 on a real estate loan, or $1,000 on a business or non-real estate loan.

Q. Will my 10 per cent World War II disability of $13.80 be increased in event I marry?

A. No. Your compensation is based on the degree of disability and not on the number of dependents.

Q. I am an ex-WAC attending school under the G.I. Bill. I am contemplating marriage to a non-veteran and would like to know if I lose any of my rights under the G.I. Bill?

A. No.

IN HIS HANDS lies the power for peace

THE American soldier has proved to the world his courage and resourcefulness in helping to win the greatest war in history.

Today his job is far from done. One has only to look at a map of the world—the occupied countries—the danger spots where fighting flares from day to day—to realize that victory and peace are two different things.

It is vital to the establishment of world order that our democratic ideals should be backed by strength. That is why Congress has authorized the building of a powerful, mobile and excellently equipped Regular Army.

The U. S. Regular Army soldier of the future will represent the highest mental standard attained by any army in the history of the world. He will be able to handle the unbelievable advances in technical science—jet-propelled and radio-controlled aircraft—radar—and a host of other inventions that are as yet closely guarded military secrets.

This new Regular Army needs—and is getting—many of America's finest young men.
