

Is Judge's Prediction; Absence of Witnesses Slows Down Hearing

End of the May-Garson trial in Washington definitely will end next week, the ninth of the hearing, Federal Judge Henry A. Schweinhaut predicted Monday.

Three more witnesses for the government and one for the defense remain to be heard. After that, a day will be devoted to legal arguments on the court's instructions to the jury, and then the defense and prosecution attorneys will be allowed a maximum of 12 hours for arguments.

One government witness, Congressman Charles A. Buckley, New York Democrat, however, was missing, was not at home or at his office, Tuesday, and it was undecided Monday if a defense witness, Joseph Freeman, would be able to resume testimony in court.

Buckley's name figured in the trial testimony in connection with $5,000 in loans that May, wartime chairman of the House Military Committee, said he negotiated with Buckley to provide munitions maker Henry Garson with "accommodation" money.

May has testified that $5,000 he borrowed from Rep. Buckley was part of $10,000 loans he negotiated as an "accommodation" for Murray Garson. He said the purpose was to enable Garson to buy a Greenbrier county, W. Va., manganese mining interest.

Sensation of the trial during the last week came when Charles A. Margiotti, defense attorney, asked a witness if Ex-Senator James M. Mead had been engaged in the bootlegging business.

Asked Margiotti of Francis A. Flanagan, assistant chief counsel of the Senate War Investigating Committee headed by Ex-Senator Mead last year:

"Don't you now have a feeling of enmity against Murray Garson arising out of a situation when he was special assistant secretary of labor during Prohibition when a couple of boatloads of liquor in which your father and Senator Mead were interested were confiscated?"

"I don't know what you're talking about. I never heard of such a thing," flared Flanagan.

Murray Garson whispered to the attorney:

"Didn't you tell Senator Barkley you were going to ruin the Garsons?" Margiotti asked.

"Absolutely not," was the answer.

"Didn't you tell Senator Kilgore you were going to put them out of business?"

"Absolutely not."

"Didn't you tell Senator Barkley the Garson investigation would make Mead Governor of New York?"

"No," Flanagan said.

Other questioning revealed that Flanagan's father, an accountant, works for Senator Mead's father-in-law, a Dunkirk, N. Y., brewer.

At the close of the session, Margiotti said he would "pursue this line of inquiry," but declined to discuss it further. He closed his case yesterday without putting unpredictable Murray on the stand, although both May and Henry Garson testified in their own behalf.

From other sources it was learned that there is a strong possibility that Mead will be called after the government finishes its rebuttal testimony. Senators Barkley and Kilgore also are considered potential witnesses for the defense in its rebuttal, legal terminology for having the last word.

Earlier today, business associates of the Garsons and other witnesses took the stand for the government and flatly contradicted several statements made by Henry Garson during his testimony.

W'Wright-Elkhorn Split Twin Bill Sunday; Wohlford Twirls Shutout

Wheelwright, Ky., June 23 (Sp.)—Wheelwright won the first game of a doubleheader here yesterday, 7-0, Wohlford pitched a great game, allowing Elkhorn seven singles, no more than one in any inning. No Elkhorn runner advanced beyond second base.

In the nightcap Poo'e of Elkhorn, outpitched Stevens to win, 6-3. Wheelwright loaded the bases twice, but couldn't hit in the pinches. Benedict, batting for Stevens in the sixth, hit a homer.

Wheelwright plays Pikeville at home next Sunday. This is the game Wheelwright has been waiting for, as Pikeville beat them in the opener, and Wheelwright is hoping to get revenge.

Strike Follows Bill Passage

"DRYING UP" PROCESS MAY BEGIN JULY 1

Court Refuses Plea For Dry Law Delay Beyond July 10th

The "drying up" of Floyd county through a partial stoppage of legal liquor sales will begin next Monday midnight, 10 days before the prohibition deadline set by the Court of Appeals.

This was indicated this week as some liquor dealers prepared to move their stock to wet counties, expressing the view that the 10 days of July during which whiskey and other alcoholic beverages may be legally sold in this county are too few for the expense and trouble involved in getting licenses renewed.

Licenses of these retailers expire at midnight Monday. License fees paid the state and federal governments are not refundable.

The Court of Appeals, after hearing arguments for both sides in the wet-dry issue, refused Friday to revoke its order that the county become dry territory July 10. Thus ended the last chance for continuance of liquor store operation in the county. So ended a battle at the polls and in the courts of nine months' duration.

Friday's action of the court followed its notice that its mandate would issue July 10 and ruled on the motion of attorneys for the wets, asking that effective date of prohibition be postponed until the court ruled on the wets' petition for rehearing.

Had not the court acted Friday, it was explained informally, the county could have remained wet until after the court reconvenes, September 15, next.

P'BURG IN TIE IN LOOP RACE

Splits with Allais As Hazard Trounces Leaders in Twin Bill

Prestonsburg played four games in three days, beginning last Friday night, and, gaining a split of Sunday's doubleheader with Allais, gained a tie for first place in the Eastern Kentucky Baseball League standings as Pikeville dropped a twin bill to a surprising Hazard team.

Prestonsburg's first two games of last week-end were against non-league competition. At Williamson Friday night the Reds defeated the West Virginians, 13 to 6. Saturday afternoon here, they had even an easier time of it in licking Harold, of the Big Sandy league, 14 to 5. Mims, colored twirler from Wayland, hurled the win over Williamson, fanning 11 of the losing batsmen. Lockwood held Harold to five hits in the game here.

But, getting back to the games that count in the league standings, it may be noted that Prestonsburg gained that split with a greatly improved Allais team. These two games, the two Pikeville dropped to Hazard on the Pikeville field and Wheelwright's showing in recent games indicate that the league race is no longer between Prestonsburg and Pikeville.

Charlie Patton, sinker ball specialist, had to be in top form to defeat Allais in 14 innings in the first game. He was scored on only in the fourth inning and held Allais to five singles and a double. Meanwhile Allais' Sellers was allowing one run, also in the fourth, and thereafter was invincible till the 14th when Butcher's second hit of the afternoon brought home the winning run.

In the nightcap young Howard Burett, Prestonsburg high school twirler, made his first start for the local team and was getting along in good style till wildness overtook him. After he had ribbed two enemy batters in a row, Patton again went to the hill and finished the last three rounds of the abbreviated seven-inning contest. Patton was the losing pitcher.

Hazard defeated Pikeville, 3-1 and 7-3. Wheelwright and Elkhorn City divided a twin bill.

Next Sunday, Prestonsburg plays the rejuvenated Hazard team here.

Legion Junior Team To Open Season Here With Hazard Friday

Prestonsburg's new American Legion junior baseball team, in brand-new uniforms, will meet the Hazard Legion juniors, garbed in equally natty attire, here Friday afternoon at 2:30 in the first game of the season under the national baseball program sponsored by the Ford Motor Company and its affiliated dealers.

Milford (Toodles) Wells, manager of the team here, ran the boys through workouts this week and has rounded up a likely looking bunch of boys from Prestonsburg and neighboring communities. Only Prestonsburg, Hazard and Pikeville have entered the Legion junior baseball program in this section to date, it was said this week.

PIKE-CO. DRIES TO TRY AGAIN

With Local Option Election Slated September 29

Pikeville, Ky., June 24—Dry forces in Pike county have launched a drive for a county-wide local option election, tentatively scheduled for September 29, a spokesman announced today. The move came just 10 days after the Court of Appeals nullified similar elections in four of the county's eight magisterial districts.

R. H. Hobbs, treasurer and financial chairman of the Pike County Local Option League, said petitions for an election were being circulated and were expected to be filed with the county clerk "within a week or so."

At present six of the magisterial districts are wet and two—Nos. 3 and 5—are dry.

Dry victories in Districts 1, 3, 4 and 8 last September 30 were held void by the Court of Appeals because of failure to post legal notices of the election at all precincts prior to the referendum.

Results of that election in Districts 6 and 7 favored the wets. Members of the Local Option Drive Committee, as announced by Hobbs, include:

A. A. Page, president of Pikeville College, general chairman; Walter Walters, businessman, secretary; Miss Elizabeth North, chairman of the women's organization; the Rev. F. A. Hopkins, vice-chairman of the ministerial group; K. J. Day, vice-chairman of the merchants' group; Carl Hatcher, vice-chairman of the schools and teachers group, and W. Elmer Blackburn, vice-chairman in charge of the farmers' contingent.

The New Labor Law in Brief

Here are the major provisions of the Taft-Hartley bill which the Senate passed over the President's veto:

- 1. It would permit the government to obtain an 80-day injunction against any strike threatening a national emergency, such as a coal tie-up, while conciliators attempted to settle the dispute. If all settlement efforts failed, the President would refer the dispute to Congress.
2. It would outlaw future closed shop contracts, under which employers may hire only union members. It would permit the more common union shop only when a majority of workers vote for it. Under a union shop agreement, the employer may hire anyone, but workers must join the union within a fixed time.
3. It would prohibit jurisdictional strikes and secondary boycotts, and would empower the National Labor Relations Board to obtain injunctions against them. Jurisdictional strikes are those called to force an employer to help one union against another in a dispute over which union should do certain work; secondary boycotts seek to force one company not to deal with another concern.
4. It would outlaw union-controlled health and welfare funds which have been established since Jan. 1, 1946.
5. It would make unions liable for unfair labor practices, as employers already are. Unions would be subject to suit for breach of contract and damages resulting from jurisdictional strikes and secondary boycotts.
6. It would release employers from any obligation to bargain collectively with foremen who have the authority to hire and fire workers.
7. It would ban unions from charging "excessive or discriminatory" dues or initiation fees, making the NLRB the judge as to what fees are excessive or discriminatory.
8. It would guarantee to employers freedom of speech in their dealings with workers, provided their statements about unions are not coercive nor threatening.

Surviving, besides her husband, are one son, Gary Carson Adkins, three brothers and one sister, Mrs. Geraldine Adkins, Leonard, Bobbie C., and Fester Hoyt Salmons, all of Pikeville.

Stolen Meat Truck Found Near Pikeville Wednesday Morning

A truck owned by Tracy Jones & Son, wholesale meat firm, Huntington, W. Va., and carrying a $2,000 cargo of meat, was found wrecked near Pikeville Wednesday, 13 hours after it was stolen at Kermit, W. Va., Williamson state police officials reported.

The truck had been badly damaged in the plunge over a cliff, but the refrigerated closed truck body had remained intact and the entire cargo was declared undamaged.

Jack Childers, of Lavalette, W. Va., the driver, had been delivering meat to a Kermit merchant when the truck was stolen Tuesday night.

Elizabeth Jean Varney has returned home after a three-week visit with her grandparents at Hardy.

Trail to Pot 'O' Gold, Fame Starts with Tourney Here

The trail to the fame and the pot of gold that will be this year begins for amateur baseball teams of the section with the district tournament at Porter Field here July 10, 11, 12 and 13, it was announced this week by Fred G. Dickerson, district commissioner, American Baseball Congress.

The winner of the district meet here will play in the state tournament at Pikeville, July 24-27, and from there the state champion will enter the regional meet, and so on to the national tournament at Wichita, Kas., Aug. 12-28, to compete for the $10,000 national championship cash prize.

Mr. Dickerson said entry blanks for the district tournament here have already been mailed to Wayland, Wheelwright, Elkhorn City, Louisa, David, Inez, Ashland and Harold, with others yet to be mailed.

JULY 2 SET FOR DRAWING

For Ballot Position Of 5 Representative Candidates in County

Five of the seven Democrats and Republicans seeking nomination on their respective tickets for Representative from the county's two legislative districts will draw for position on the ballot here next Wednesday, they are being notified by County Clerk Jarvis Allen.

Elmer Bove, Republican candidate for Representative in the 96th district, and Charles R. Newman, Republican, in the 97th are unopposed and so will not figure in the draw. The Democratic candidates for Representative, in the order of their filing:

Ninety-sixth district—Henry C. Hale, Bill Biggers, Ray R. Allen.

Ninety-seventh district—John Milton Stumbo, M. (Shikepoke) McGlothen.

A race for the Democratic nomination for Coroner to fill the unexpired term of Allen Triplett, who resigned, would have developed, had not James J. Carter's entrance been held too late by the Attorney General's office. Brady Shepherd filed on June 17, within the legal time, but it was ruled that Mr. Carter's filing on June 19 was past the deadline.

Names of other candidates to appear on the ballot will be supplied by the Secretary of State. Among these are Senatorial candidates from this district, including Doug Hays, McDowell, John D. Robinson, McDowell, and Cordell Hull Martin, Brinkley, Ky., Democrats, and Foster (Sid) Meade, McDowell, and Vaughan Lee McCoy, Hi Hat, Republicans.

FLOYD DRY FORCES MEET

Organize To Aid Law Enforcement Under Prohibition

Floyd county dry forces prepared this week for the return of prohibition by forming a permanent organization to promote enforcement of the law.

The Floyd County Christian Dry League was formed Monday evening at a meeting of dry leaders and workers at the Allen Baptist Church.

The Rev. Carl Seniors, of Betsy Layne, chairman of the organization formed for the local option fight last September, was named chairman of the permanent organization. W. A. Malone and Mrs. Goldia Porter Short, both of Allen, were named secretary and treasurer, respectively. The Rev. Winn T. Barr, pastor of the Allen Baptist Church, is the League's publicity chairman.

A secret service committee to aid in detecting violations and otherwise to work with enforcement officers was named.

Other committees formed at the initial meeting of the group follow: Steering committee—Jesse Elliott, Allen, chairman, Walter Beatty, Garrett, Rev. W. W. Williams, Wheelwright, Mrs. E. R. May, Langley, Rev. Paul Kinneer, Martin, Rev. Walter Binney, Betsy Layne, Rev. W. B. Garriott, Prestonsburg, Rev. E. E. Collins, Bypro, Rev. Gilbert Adams, Gearheart, and the Reverend Hays.

Committee on Law Enforcement—Dillard Reed, Lackey, chairman, Rev. George Patrick, Garrett, Lee Davis, Wheelwright, Oscar Robinson, Drift, and James Camp, Wheelwright.

Committee on Constitution and By-Laws—Mrs. E. R. May, chairman, Rev. W. B. Garriott, Rev. G. R. Fannin, West Prestonsburg, Joe Hobson, Prestonsburg, Mrs. J. D. Mayo, Prestonsburg, and Henry Porter, Allen.

The national labor picture presented the San Francisco CIO Council in calling on CIO President Philip Murray to set a 24-hour nationwide work stoppage in protest against what the Council branded "a slave law."

The Senate enacted the Taft-Hartley labor bill over President Truman's veto, with six votes to spare. The count was 68 for overriding the veto, 25 opposed. The House of Representatives overrode Truman's objections last Friday by a vote of 331 to 83. Only two Senators were absent and both of them were for sustaining the veto. However, even had they been present, the bill still would have become law by four votes more than it needed.

Absent were the elderly Robert F. Wagner, of New York, father of the labor act which the bill amends, and Elbert T. Thomas, of Utah, who was chairman of the Senate Labor Committee when the Democrats held a majority in the chamber. Wagner is ill in New York and his doctor forbade him to attend the session.

A month-old babe died in its father's arms, early Wednesday evening, a few minutes after the truck in which they were passengers wrecked on a curve near Drift.

The babe, Marlene Newsome, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Newsome, died of head injuries while the parents awaited arrival of medical aid on the wreck scene. Mrs. Arizona Newsome, 16-year-old mother of the babe, is in a serious condition at the Beaver Valley hospital, Martin, suffering from a head injury, a broken right leg and left arm. Her husband sustained a cut on his shoulder and numerous bruises.

Ted Newsome told THE TIMES this morning (Thursday) that the wreck resulted when the truck his brother, Chester Newsome, was driving was sideswiped by an automobile being driven up the Left Beaver highway, on the wrong side of the road. Officers here, however, said they investigated the wreck and that they found no evidence of another car figuring in the tragedy. Newsome said his brother was driving at a rate of 30-35 miles when the truck was hit and rolled over on the highway two or three times, then dropped over the bank into the creek.

Driver of the truck escaped with minor scratches and bruises. He was driving from McDowell toward home at Craynor, on Mud Creek. The Newsome brothers are sons of Bert Newsome, of Craynor.

Funeral rites were conducted Monday at Auxier, the Revs. W. H. Horn, F. S. Vanhosen and Scott Castle officiating. Burial was made there.

Richard Spurlock submitted to an emergency appendectomy last week at Pasadena, Calif., where he and his family were vacationing. Mr. Spurlock wired relatives here that his condition is satisfactory.

Thomas is attending an international trade conference in Switzerland. On 7 two Senators who voted for the labor bill when it passed originally on May 13 by a vote of 68 to 24, changed their position on the veto—Democrats, Sectt. W. Lucas, of Illinois, and John Sparkman, of Alabama. Two Republicans whom the administration counted on to override stayed regular. They are George D. Aiken, Vermont, and Charles W. Tobey, New Hampshire. Robert A. Taft, of Ohio, who as chairman of the Labor Committee, steered the bill through the chamber, lost only three members of his party. They were Wayne Morris, Oregon; William Langer, North Dakota; and George W. Malone, Nevada. He picked up 20 Democrats to offset the three. Of the 68 for overriding, 48 were Republicans and 20 Democrats. For sustaining the veto were 22 Democrats and three Republicans.

The suspicion that the Truman Administration was not exerting its full strength in an effort to sustain the veto persisted among labor leaders to such an extent that Truman sent to Alben W. Barkley, minority leader, a letter calling for the defeat of the bill. Barkley read the letter to the chamber, whose galleries were jammed and whose floor was crowded by visiting members from the House of Representatives.

"This letter will confound those who have said the President vetoed this bill for political reasons knowing that it would become law anyway," the Kentuckian shouted. "Harry S. Truman is not that kind of a President, not that kind of cheap politician."

The Truman letter said: "I feel so strongly about the labor bill which the Senate will vote on this afternoon that I wish to reaffirm my sincere belief that it will do serious harm to our country."

"This is a critical period in our history and any measure which will adversely affect our national unity will render a distinct disservice not only to the nation but to the world."

"I am convinced that such would be the result if the veto of this bill should be overridden."

"I commend you and your associates who have fought so earnestly against this dangerous legislation, and I want you to know you have my unqualified support and it is my fervent hope, for the good of the country, that you and your colleagues will be successful in your efforts to keep this bill from becoming law."

On the Republican side of the political picture, the enactment of such a controversial bill, after six months of hearings and debate, is an achievement for Taft. A defeat on the measure would have been used against him by his rivals for the Republican presidential nomination.

The bill becomes law immediately and some of its provisions take effect at once. One which is immediately effective is the section aimed at John L. Lewis and a prospective coal strike.

Under the new law, the Attorney General may obtain a court injunction which would stay a coal strike for an initial 60 days. Then a second injunction could delay it again for 20 additional days, during which the miners would vote under supervision of the National Labor Relations Board whether to accept the last offer or continue the strike. If the vote is for continuing the strike, the President is to refer the problem to Congress.

Opponents of the bill argued that those who think Lewis does not speak for his union members are mistaken and that the effect of the new law simply will be to delay the strike for 80 days, starting in October instead of July 1.

Men Are Known By The Company They Keep

There is an old saying that runs, "You are known by the company you keep." There is a lot of Gospel-truth in that saying. At any rate, few have disputed the truth of it. Then let us apply it where it is most needed, just now, for the benefit of the voters of this county, that they may not be hoodwinked in selecting a candidate to represent the Democratic party in the race for Governor this fall.

Supporters of Congressman Earl Clements, and Mr. Clements himself, declare that he is the great and good friend of the fellow up the creek and out on the farm where the services of REA are needed—that he, indeed, is the great and good friend of REA.

Candidate Earl Clements, wise to the ways of politics, is now avowing this friendship on the floor of Congress. But what of Earl Clements when he was State Senator, already elected and not considering a race against Harry Lee Waterfield for Governor, a man whose fearless and able leadership in behalf of REA is known from one end of the state to the other? Go back to 1942 when the Kentucky Legislature had before it the TVA Enabling Act, without which REA could never succeed in taking cheap power to homes which have burned the oil lamp for generations. That year, State Senator Clements did everything he could to destroy the Act. He offered an amendment that would have rendered it ineffective. He voted for another amendment that would have completely destroyed it. He voted with Republican Senator Moss, author of the Moss Bill, a piece of legislation conceived and supported by the Kentucky Utilities Company.

"Men are known by the company they keep"—not by their professions of faith on a political deathbed.

If Mr. Clements is the great and good friend of the common people on this issue, why is it that the Kentucky Utilities Company and, certainly, every other power company, are for him, working for him, and not for Harry Lee Waterfield? Let there be light on this question!

The Power Interests, the remnants of the old state machine, including "Happy"

Chandler, that sought to dictate a Line of Succession in the matter of Kentucky Governors—these are the company Mr. Clements keeps.

Mr. Waterfield, on the other hand, is in company with the people, his hands unfettered by political promises to big interests and "big-shot" politicians. Men such as Ben Kilgore, outstanding in the Kentucky farm movement, Adron Doran, 1946-47 president of the Kentucky Education Association, Phil Ardery, World War II veteran and one of the Commonwealth's young Democratic leaders—these and others interested solely in good government are the company Harry Lee Waterfield keeps.

Yes, the old saying still holds good. The voters will do well to remember that when they go to the polls August 2.

Davidson-Archer Vows Are Solemnized Here On Friday, June 20

In the presence of the immediate families and a few intimate friends, Miss Judith Morgan Davidson, daughter of Mrs. James Morgan Davidson and the late Mr. Davidson, and Mr. William Thomas Archer, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Archer, of Prestonsburg, were married in a double-ring ceremony at 10 a. m., Friday at the home of the bride's mother, the Rev. W. B. Garriott officiating.

The home was beautifully decorated with white gladioli, white iris, fern and other garden flowers. Preceding the ceremony, Miss Eloise Williams played "Because," "At Dawning" and "I Love You Truly" were sung by Mrs. Lee Shamon and Miss Alice Gray Burke. Mrs. L. H. Shivel, aunt of the bride, sang "Always."

Given in marriage by her uncle, County Judge Alex L. Davidson, the bride wore a white brocaded taffeta suit, fashioned with a high neckline and a peplum back. Her accessories were white and she carried a white prayer book with a single orchid.

Her attendants were Mrs. Donald Lee Meade, of Lexington, matron of honor, and Miss Laura Virginia Roberts, bridesmaid. They wore similar dresses of white silk jersey with Pen Net mitts and hats of pastel net and flowers. They carried nosegays of pink rosebuds and blue delphinium with streamers of pastel ribbon. Mr. Arthur Johns Archer, brother of the groom, served as best man. A reception followed the ceremony.

Mrs. Archer is a graduate of Prestonsburg high school, attended Eastern State Teachers College and was graduated from Bowling Green Business University. She has been employed for the past year as secretary in the law offices of Howard & Combs. Mr. Archer, who served four years with the army air forces in the European theater, is now employed by the Sandy Valley Tire Service here.

Mr. and Mrs. Archer left on a wedding trip to Cincinnati and other points, after which they will be at home in Prestonsburg.

Prestonsburg boys spending a month at Camp Leconte, Tenn., are Woody Burchett, Bucky Burchett, Gary Pennington, William Girven Spradlin, Delmer and Lowell Hughes.

Why I Am for Earle C. Clements For Governor of Kentucky

A number of people have said to me, "If I were you I would not be for Earle C. Clements because certain other people are for him."

I am not for Clements because others are for him or because certain people may be against him. I am for Earle C. Clements because I am convinced that he is the best man for Governor. I believe that he will work for the best interests of all the people. He has stated his platform which is very good, and in my estimation, the most logical of that offered by any candidate.

Clements will strive, I am convinced, to carry out that platform because of his past record as County Judge, State Senator and Congressman. While serving in these different positions he has left a record above reproach. He has continued to fight for the farmer, the miner and the REA. I am sure his opponent will not deny these facts. He does, however, accuse Mr. Clements of being against the REA but the record shows that he voted and debated in favor of REA legislation in 1945, 1946 and 1947. Mr. Clements is the only member of Congress on the ticket and since the REA is a project of the federal government he is the only person running for Governor who has ever had a chance to vote for REA appropriations. His voting record is enough to prove to me how he stands. He pledges his support to expansion of REA until all farm homes have electric power.

Mr. Clements says that unless the present Governor calls a special session of the legislature to increase teachers' pay his first request, as Governor, to the General Assembly will be for an appropriation that will raise the teachers' pay to a figure of which they will not be ashamed.

He is for bettering the farm program and has fought for it as Congressman and since he is a farmer he understands the problems a farmer may encounter.

He is for establishing housing facilities at our state parks in order to attract tourists to our state to view our historical sites and to create additional sources of revenue. Mr. Clements made this suggestion in a radio address last Thursday night, saying that he would advocate a bond issue or direct appropriation to provide the necessary funds. The very next day our present Governor called his cabinet into session for the first time in three years to act on this proposal.

He is for industrialization of Kentucky and promises to offer inducements to factories to locate within our state so that our citizens will not have to leave home to seek employment.

Mr. Clements is for increased aid to the Welfare Department, which has been struggling along with practically nothing to operate on.

He is for improving the road system by changing the present set-up and letting the local government handle the rural road program. His experience as County Judge for two terms in his home county proves that he understands the rural problems and how to formulate a constructive road program.

Last, but by no means least, Mr. Clements served in the United States army for 28 months during World War I. Most of his service was with the 48th Division in Europe.

In a speech last week, he expressed his feeling toward the thousands of ex-service men in Kentucky. He said that they have not been recognized by Kentucky and that they are not demanding much but do not deserve to be penalized because of having served their country. He further stated that thousands of them are qualified and have special training which would enable them to help carry on the state government. He says that there is room for many in the different departments of state.

Harry Lee Waterfield, who was a young man when World War II started, did not go into service and I hold no grudge against him because of his not having served but I am sure that he is less qualified to understand the problems of the veterans than is Earle C. Clements, who shared the hardships on the battlefields. The thousands of Kentucky veterans who have rallied to Clements' support have signified that they, too, share this belief.

Harry Lee Waterfield presents a fair platform but he states that he will appropriate tens of millions of dollars for various improvements but he has failed to tell where he will obtain the money for these huge expenditures. Yes, he says that he will increase the appropriations for various departments while at the same time he proposes to reduce the intangible tax rate and to give greater exemptions in the inheritance tax. You will hear a great deal about his proposal to levy a tax on pari-mutuel racing tickets. Do you believe that a greatly increased budget can operate on the taxes from winning race track tickets? I would like for Mr. Waterfield to show how he will get all that money. All of us can spend money, which is an easy task, but it is hard to operate on a budget and keep the state out of debt without placing a greater tax burden on the people. Increased appropriations such as Mr. Waterfield proposes, mean increased taxation. I am afraid that he cannot fulfill his promises unless we, the people, pay dearly for them.

The above reasons are why I am for Earle C. Clements for Governor. I am convinced that it is my duty to do all in my power to help him become Governor of Kentucky. I am convinced that it is best for the welfare of the state, the farmers, the miners, the teachers and my fellow veterans, that I support and ask my friends to support Earle C. Clements.

JARVIS ALLEN, Chairman, Floyd Countians for Clements-for-Governor Committee (Pol. adv.)

Wayland Maintains Unblemished Record With Win at David

Wayland maintained its mastery of the Big Sandy league Sunday with a 10-2 victory over David while Emma was defeating Harold, 6-3, and Boldman was outclassing Republic Steel, 7 to 5, in a 10-inning encounter.

In the Beaver Valley league, however, Wayland slipped from the top rung and was supplanted by neighboring Garrett as the latter won their "crucial" game Sunday, 3 to 1.

BECOMES BRIDE OF MR. WRIGHT

Miss Helen Marie Austin, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Austin, of Allen, became the bride of Mr. George Edwin Wright, son of Mr. C. E. Wright and the late Mrs. Wright, of Middletown, Virginia, in an open church ceremony at the Prestonsburg Methodist Church, Saturday afternoon, June 6, at 5:30 o'clock.

The impressive double ring ceremony was performed by the pastor, the Rev. W. B. Garriott, before an altar banked with ferns and standards of white gladioli, and lighted by tapers in candelabrae. Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. Chalmers Frazier, organist, played a program of nuptial music and the traditional Wedding March, and Mrs. Carlos Haywood sang "I Love You Truly," and "Because."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore the traditional white satin wedding gown made with a sweetheart neckline, trimmed with seed pearls, and with long full sleeves ending in points over the hands. The soft folds of the full skirt ended in a court train and her fingertip illusion veil fell from a coronet of orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of stephanotis and white roses.

Mrs. Marie Mielke, of Detroit, Mich., was maid of honor, wearing a yellow marquisette gown fashioned with a sweetheart neckline and full skirt. The bridesmaids were Mrs. Genevieve Peery, of Bristol, Va., cousin of the bride, Miss Rosemary Malone, of Allen, Miss Betty Jo Layne and Mrs. Gwendolyn Trimble, of Betsy Layne. They wore similar gowns to that of Mrs. Mielke in pastel blue, pink, green and purple. Each wore elbow-length mitts matching their gowns and flowered headaddresses. They carried white prayer books from which fell various shades of knotted satin streamers. Miss Lu Lu Peery, of Bristol, Va., cousin of the bride, was junior bridesmaid, wearing a gown of white, matching mitts and shoulder-length veil. She carried a bouquet of rosebuds.

Mr. Wright, father of the groom, acted as best man and the ushers were Roland Mielke, of Detroit, Mich., Earl Schleicher, of Cleveland, Ohio, Robert Pitcher, of Greenfield, Ohio, and George Douglas Austin, brother of the bride.

The bride's mother wore a printed gray afternoon dress with blue and white accessories. Her shoulder corsage was of red roses.

Following the ceremony a reception was held by the bride's parents at the Brown hotel. The bridal table was decorated with a four-tier wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom.

After a short wedding trip North, the couple will return to Sykesville, Maryland, where they will reside. Mrs. Wright is a graduate of Betsy Layne high school and attended Virginia Intermont College. Preceding her engagement, she was employed as a photographer in Detroit, Michigan.

Mr. Wright is a graduate of Middletown high school. After serving 22 months with the Fifth Division of the U.S. army he resumed his position with the Baltimore & Ohio Railway Company in Maryland.

career woman!

Meet the greatest career woman of all! She doesn't manage a business, write novels, or sing over the radio. But her job's big and it's important—she runs a home!

What a job that is! In a year she washes more than 6 tons of dishes, cooks more than 1000 meals, wades through mountains of laundry.

The more Mom depends on electric service, the less work is in her household. And how little electricity costs! A penny's worth a day will rescue Mom from the drudgery of dishwashing. A few more pennies daily will cook her meals. Electricity does her laundry for less weekly than the cost of a bar of soap.

And when Mom balances her budget, she's bound to note that electricity is one of its smallest items. Actually, the average family now gets twice as much electricity for its money as it did about 20 years ago. This bargain comes to Mom—and to you, too—through the practical experience of your friends and neighbors in this company, under sound business management.

a character-builder. But why ignore daily gambling, open gambling, then jail a group of youngsters who, at any rate, weren't openly and publicly flouting the law.

What is this thing called Justice, anyhow?

SUGGESTIONS

This column would, perhaps, be the last to suggest the destruction of any tree or shrub. In fact, it has been pretty thoroughly disgusted on occasion with these "tree experts" who seem to hack and saw as promiscuously as any lumberjack. But something should be done in a few spots here. Obstructions which make street corners and the auto-ists rounding them blind, should be removed. And branches overhanging sidewalks should be trimmed.

That last suggestion is made for the benefit of E. B. Brown and others who cannot see. You may think it trivial, but try walking down a street, blindfolded, and be hit in the face by a tree branch, without warning. Then you'll agree—yes, demand—something has gotta be done.

Ky.-Virginia Stages Again in Operation As Dispute Settled

The Kentucky-Virginia Stages bus line from Ashland through the Big Sandy section to Grundy, Va., resumed operation Friday following a two-week strike.

The bus line's runs were cancelled by a walk-out of drivers, it was said, when one driver was dismissed, allegedly for "insubordination." Settlement of the dispute was reached, it was said, at a conference in the company's Paintsville offices.

Terms of the settlement were not disclosed.

Guests were Miss Davidson, Mrs. Ward, Misses Sarah Clay Stephens, Eloise Williams, Alice Gray Burke, Jane Clarke, Ethel Cross, Mesdames Alvin Reed, Buddy Hutton, Raymond Stephens, Lee Shannon, H. D. Fitzpatrick, Jr., Herbert Salisbury, Jr., Belvard Friend, Jay Shields. The guests of honor were presented lovely guest prizes. Other prizes were awarded to Miss Williamson and Mrs. Salisbury.

FOURNEAU 309

Before allowing the rest of the world to share this discovery, they demanded the restoration to Germany of her colonies that she lost in World War I. But Ernest Fourneau, a French scientist, after months of testing produced Fourneau 309, which the Germans admitted was identical with Germanin.
