

This Town-- That World

SPARE US!

Here we've been congratulating ourselves all along on the Dewey dam being in this county, and before this Legislature adjourns it may be cut into Pike.

MARCH HARES!

This fellow Maurice Howard, of Whitley county, draws a fervent "amen" from this corner. The other day he reminded his colleagues of the House in Frankfort that as if a bill making it "agin the law" to sell rabbits hadn't already cost enough time, an amendment making it illegal only to sell a wild rabbit had kept his committee at work three days longer. He wound up by expressing the opinion that the best thing that could happen to Kentucky would be for the Legislature to adjourn, sine die, go home and stay.

OMENS AND PORTENTS

When an excited player in the district tournament here Saturday afternoon hung an intended haymaker on Timekeeper Adrian Collins, things didn't look well for the peace and quiet of the community. In the first place, Mr. Collins, though a law-abiding citizen, isn't one to turn the other cheek before replying in kind to swings in his direction; and, in the next, there was an accompanying incident that portended no good. But Mr. Collins won our nomination for the Sportsmanship cup by keeping his head (despite the efforts of his youthful assailant) and all was well.

The accompanying incident aforementioned, coming as an augury of dire events, was this:

Just as the blow landed on the timekeeper's cheek, the sign bearing the advertisement of the Carter & Callihan Funeral Home fell, plump! squarely into the scene of action.

THEY MUFFED THIS ONE

It was a good tournament. Fine crowds, exciting play, a financial success. But that all-tournament team was a sorry anti-climax. We suggest "they" dispense with these "all" teams in the future, if justice can't be done.

We would not say every boy mentioned is not richly entitled to the honor; they're a nice bunch of ball-players. But our gripe is this: By what line of reasoning, if any, was young Bill Goble, of Prestonsburg—a standout in every game his team participated in during the tournament, not only as a scoring threat but as a ball of fire on both defense and offense—left off the mythical ten?

Such injustices cheapen the whole thing.

CHANGE SUGGESTED

And now we pass to the regional. Prestonsburg and Garrett are in the same bracket; and so Floyd county's representatives are fighting each other. The same is true of Paintsville and Meade Memorial, in Johnson county.

Why have two representatives from a district if they are to be pitted against each other? In Ohio sectional tournaments, county or district winners are so seeded that such intra-county competition is impossible. Who'd ya see to get this done in Kentucky?

Tucker, executive director of the American Cancer Society, will discuss the work and needs of the Society. BOYS, ELDERS ARE PENALIZED

As Attendance Officers Hit Truants, Parents; Youths Are Probated

Seven parents were fined and two 14-year-old boys were given suspended reform school sentences Saturday by County Judge Alex L. Davidson after the boys had been arrested for truancy and their elders had been named in warrants for failing to send their children to school.

John Tackett of Stephens Branch was fined $22 and his son, Arlie, was given a reform school term. The boy who had once earlier been in court for truancy, was probated to his father. Another father-and-son case with the same result was that of Frank Johnson and his son, Bill, of Caney Fork of Middle Creek.

Others fined $22 for failure to send their children to school: George Yates, Stephens Branch; Henry Shepherd, David; Tom Johnson, Lewis Bradley and Henry Johnson, all of Caney.

Trials of Otto Sammons, charged with failure to send children to school, and Arnold Robinette, 14, of Tram, billed for failing to attend, were continued till March 22.

Other warrants have been issued for parents. Attendance Officer Pat Conley said. He pointed out that the bad weather of several weeks ago caused enforced absences from school and that a number of pupils had failed to return. Court action is not taken until all persuasive means have failed to get children in school but continued violation of the law on the part of parents and pupils will result in prosecutions, Conley said.

DAMAGE SUIT ASKS $30,000

Shannon Administrator Sues Prestonsburg Man; Mrs. Daniels Asks $5,000

Damages totaling $35,000 are sought in two suits filed in circuit court Friday as the result of the death of one man and the injury of a woman on Floyd county highways.

Lark Hunt, administrator, asks $30,000 damages in the death of Raymond Denver Shannon as the result of injuries suffered in a collision of a jeep in which he was riding and a coal truck of the Josephine Elkhorn Coal Company at Hite, Dec. 18 last. The coal company, George T. Roberts and Harvey Tackett, driver of the company truck, were named as defendants. The petition claims that Tackett so "carelessly and recklessly" operated the truck as to cause it to cross the center stripe of the highway into the lane followed by the jeep.

In the other suit Maude Daniels asks $5,000 damages of Pat Bentley and James Fitzpatrick for injuries she allegedly sustained near Gio, May 23, last year, as she was about to enter the taxicab owned by Bentley and driven by Fitzpatrick. She claims the cab was started with the door open, as she was about to enter it, knocking her into a ditch and causing arm injuries she contends are permanent.

Both suits were filed by Atty. Edward L. Allen.

13 REPORTED BITTEN HERE

By Rabid Puppy; Rabies Widespread in County, Says Dr. Ransdell

Anti-rabies treatment for 13 persons, all residents of this vicinity, were ordered by the Floyd County Health Department last week after they had been bitten by a maddened puppy.

Dr. Marvin Ransdell, health department director, this week said "the mad dog situation is the worst I have ever seen it in Floyd county." He pointed to the fact that humans and livestock have been bitten in widely separated sections of the county during the winter months.

Listed as having been bitten last week were Mr. and Mrs. Payne Lemaster and their five children, Mrs. Bennie Banks, the two children of Worth Music, Thelma and Robert Montgomery and a daughter of Jonah Hall, all of the Porter Addition to Prestonsburg and vicinity.

From Johns Creek this week came reports of a mad dog "biting everything it came to." A few weeks ago, County Agent S. L. Isbell reported two cows as having died of hydrophobia.

"I suggest dogowners either have their dogs immunized against hydrophobia or dispose of them," Dr. Ransdell said.

SUFFERS BROKEN BONE

Miss Sue Goble, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Y. Goble, a Prestonsburg high school cheerleader, suffered a bone fracture in her knee at the basketball tournament finals Saturday night. She is attending classes wearing a cast.

DEATH SCENE

As Former Resident Of Harold Is Shot To Death by Spouse

Returned to Harold, her former home, this week for burial was the body of Mrs. Lula Music Caldwell, 26 years old, whose husband, Homer Caldwell, 28, shot her to death in a River Rouge, Mich. night club, shortly before midnight Sunday.

The body was taken to the home at Harold of Mrs. Caldwell's sister, Mrs. Otis Cecil.

As the young matron, mother of six, sat at a table watching floor-show comedians act out a "love triangle" skit in the shadowy, dim-lit room, the husband, formerly a resident of Dorton, Pike county, suddenly appeared, whipped out a revolver and began firing, reports received here. Three bullets struck her in the region of the heart, Claude Carabelle, 22, a chance acquaintance of the victim, was shot in the leg.

The slayer was arrested at his rooming house, nine hours later. According to police, Caldwell entered the club in suburban River Rouge shortly before midnight with his hat pulled low and his coat collar turned up.

He glided through the dim room while patrons concentrated on the floor show and peered at tables until he found one against the wall. Suddenly a revolver cracked as Mrs. Caldwell rose from her chair and screamed. She fell dead with three bullets in her heart only inches apart. Carabelle was staggered by wounds in the leg.

Police Lieut. Louis Balaze said Caldwell brandished the smoking weapon and warned two men who approached him to stand back as he left.

Balaze said Caldwell went to the home of a friend and said he had killed his wife and asked that her father be notified. Then he went to his rooming house and changed his clothes, leaving the revolver in the pocket of an abandoned coat.

Caldwell was seized nine hours later as he returned to the house. He said he had intended to pack a bag and head for the Caldwell's former home at Boldman, Ky.

Carabelle, a shipyard worker, said he knew Mrs. Caldwell only slightly. Balaze said the Caldwell's had been separated five or six times in the past two years. He said the wife had six children ranging in age from 11 years to six months.

Act Dissolves Floyd-Knott District

Teen-Agers Jailed Monday in Store Breaks Here and at W'right

Six boys, all in their early teens and all listed by authorities as "repeaters" in offenses against the law, were jailed here Monday on breaking and entering charges.

Policemen Bill Blackburn and Ray Collins nabbed Henry Harold Gibson and Joe Wheeler Hyden with practically all the loot they took from Arrowood's Hardware here Sunday night, and on the same day Police- man Earl Blackburn returned to the county jail from Paintsville Sam Job Little, Charles Hall, Joe Cook and Bobby Collins, all accused of breaking into the Inland Steel Company store at Wheelwright.

Recovered from Gibson and Hyden were two revolvers, ammunition and several knives. W. M. Arrowood said approximately $15 in cash was taken from the register in the store. The boys forced a rear door to gain entrance.

Loot in the Wheelwright break consisted of $10 in pennies and various articles.

Matter of $80,000, Bar To Flood Control Here

While Prestonsburg property-owners watched the rise of the water here a few weeks ago, two questions were often voiced:

"Suppose it will rise higher than last time?" and "Why doesn't Prestonsburg have a floodwall?"

The first question was answered within a matter of hours. The answer to the other is, Prestonsburg already has a floodwall in the high banks of the Big Sandy, except where Trimble Branch joins the river.

But the biggest question of all is that of money—a considerable amount of money. During the "rise," several thousands of dollars could have been quickly pledged toward the expense of furnishing flood protection.

But would property-owners plank down $80,000—that is the biggest question.

In 1944, government engineers made a study of the flood situation

Drift Miner Succumbs Saturday to Cancer

Jack Ousley, 41-year-old Drift miner, died at his home Saturday after an illness of several months of cancer of the liver. He had recently returned to his home after receiving treatment in a Louisville hospital and at the Prestonsburg General hospital.

Mr. Ousley was a son of the late Richard and Lucinda Rathiff Ousley and was a native of the Middle Creek section of the county. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Mary Fannin Ousley, seven children, Merlin, Elmer, Raymond, Willie, Wanda Gay, Avelene and Darryl Ray, five brothers, Jim and Bill Ousley, of Risner, Alvin, of Bonanza, Ed and Alonzo Ousley, of McArthur, Ohio, one half-brother, R. L. Shepherd, Prestonsburg, and three sisters, Mrs. Malcolm Prater, of Blue River, Mrs. Claude Poe, Alger, O., and Mrs. J. L. Reffitt, Hamden, Ohio.

Services were conducted Sunday by the Revs. Steve Whitaker and G. R. Fannin, and the funeral Monday was conducted by the Revs. Ollie Sammons, Perry Sexton and Will Fraley. Burial in the Lucy Hall cemetery at McDowell was under direction of the Arnold Funeral Home.

TALK OF WAR NOW IN OPEN

Hershey Says Draft Officers in Training; State Plan Is Studied

Talk of war with Russia came out into the open in official Washington Tuesday and Gen. Lewis B. Hershey, director of the draft during World War II, said in San Francisco that the United States is training state selective service officers to put a manpower procurement program into effect if necessary for any emergency that may arise.

A plan to draft Kentucky's manpower by a selective-service system in the event of a national emergency is being worked out in Louisville by the Kentucky National Guard staff.

Col. Solon F. Russell said the "paper plan" probably would resemble the selective-service system of World War II. However, it can't and won't go into effect without federal legislation, he said.

More than 400 former members of Kentucky draft boards and other interested citizens have been asked to serve on future draft boards if necessary, Russell said.

He added that their response has been "splendid." Enough men have replied to half staff the boards, but more are needed for reserve. Names still are coming in.

Trainees are being instructed "how to do it quicker if we have an atomic war." Other subjects include what to do at National Guard summer camps and at weekly drills.

The wartime draft director described the program as "entirely a volunteer thing." Meanwhile, he said, "a great majority of the states in one way or another are doing something" to keep their draft machinery in condition.

Hershey said training courses similar to those being given now were conducted between 1937 and 1940. He said the 1949 program has not been set up yet.

To speed passage of the European aid program, the House Foreign Affairs committee studied a move to separate from the pending bill aid to Greece, Turkey and China. The move came amid growing talk of a possible new war.

HOST TEAM IS WINNER

Wheelwright Quint Edges Harold, 49-46; 73 Awards Presented

The recent Gold Medal basketball tournament at Wheelwright, won by the host five, saw the presentation of the largest number of trophies to be awarded at a net meet in Eastern Kentucky. The awards, made by E. R. Price, general superintendent of the Inland Steel Company, Wheelwright, included the championship and runner-up trophies to Wheelwright, and Harold, respectively, and 71 individual awards.

The tournament drew the largest crowds to be attracted to independent basketball in this section this season.

Wheelwright copped the title by defeating Shelby in the first round, 60 to 52, Pikeville in the semi-finals, 66-51, and Harold in the championship tilt, 49 to 46.

Prestonsburg's VFW Ramblers, bolstered by the presence of Wilbur Schu, onetime University of Kentucky star, lost to Harold, 40 to 38, after downing Auxier, 65 to 25. Elkhorn City left the tournament in the first round with the aid of Pikeville, 62 to 48, and Harold shoved Paintsville aside in the fourth game of the meet, 53 to 28.

The all-tournament team: Walters of Harold, Turner and Hall of Wheelwright, J. Gayheart of Harold and T. Blackburn of Prestonsburg.

The all-tourney second team was composed of Logan and Lifafik of Wheelwright, W. Gayheart of Harold, Smith of Pikeville and Roark of Prestonsburg.

Turner of Wheelwright was the high scorer of the meet with 66 points in three games.

Awards, in addition to the championship and runner-up trophies, included: Ten gold charms to members of the championship team, 10 silver charms to members of the second-place squad, 10 bronze charms to the third-place team, which was Prestonsburg, gold charms to the five

RELEASE TWO IN KIRK DEATH

Stephens Yet in Jail At Williamson, W. Va., In Shooting at Kermit

West Virginia authorities continued this week with their investigation into the fatal shooting at a Kermit, W. Va., beer garden last Thursday of Edde Kirk, 23-year-old war veteran, and during the probe arrested two Prestonsburg residents, Junior Stanley and Grover Morse Allen, and took them to Williamson for questioning.

Allen and Stanley re-iterated their statement of last week, contending the shot which struck Kirk was accidentally fired by William (Bill Henry) Stephens, 26, of West Prestonsburg, while handling a pistol as he sat in a rear booth. Kirk, who stood watching another member of the Prestonsburg party of three play a pinball machine, fell, shot near the heart.

The contention the tragedy was accidental was bolstered by physical evidence showing that the bullet passed through the backs of three booths before striking Kirk. Deputy Sheriff Dave Johnson and Constable Charles Spalding took Allen to Williamson Monday night, and Stanley was found at Logan, W. Va. Although both were named in a murder warrant with Stephens, they were released under bond the following day and are considered only material witnesses.

Stephens, who was captured, the night of the shooting, at Naugatuck, W. Va., several miles from Kermit, contends he knows nothing of the shooting. The revolver he was said to have purchased here on the day of the tragedy was found on the table at which he allegedly sat.

Deputy Sheriff Johnson said here there was no quarrel or disturbance before the shooting and his notes on the case indicated there was no premeditation of murder, it was said.

CONN FALLS TO HIS DEATH

Train Severs Legs, Miner Dies at Martin Hospital; Funeral Held at Printer

Arthur Conn, 34-year-old Printer miner, succumbed at the Beaver Valley hospital, Martin, at 3 a. m., Wednesday, 11 hours after both his legs had been severed by a train near his home.

It was reported here that Conn had boarded the train which was traveling toward the junction at Martin and that he slipped and fell between the cars.

The victim was a native of the Printer community and was a son of Merlin and Mary Conn. Surviving, besides his parents, are his widow, Mrs. Marie Conn, four children, Delano, Yvonne, Marlene and Carmel, at home, four brothers and six sisters, Fred, Merlin, Jr., Virgil and Ike Conn, Mrs. Clyde Greer, Mrs. Harley Conn, Byrd, Artie, Susie and Myrtle Conn, all of Printer.

The funeral was conducted today (Thursday) from the Baptist Church at Printer and burial in the Spurlock cemetery there was made under direction of the Ryan Funeral Home.

Meade Memorial Ousts Pikeville from Meet

First round of the regional tournament at Inez Wednesday night saw a highly favored Pikeville five swamped by Meade Memorial, 52 to 31. In the last game of the session Paintsville easily defeated West Liberty, 73 to 43.

FLOYD, MARTIN FORM DISTRICT IN RE-SHUFFLE

Governor Is Expected To Name Ervin Turner To New Judicial Post

Hopes of Floyd and Knott counties to remain in the same judicial district were blasted Tuesday as both houses of the General Assembly quickly approved the bill revising this and three other Eastern Kentucky districts and creating a new one, the 39th.

Despite protests from Floyd and Knott county officials and the Floyd County Bar Association and in spite of pleas to legislative leaders and to the Governor himself, the Senate recorded only one dissenting voice, that of Senator Doug Hays, of McDowell, and the House voted 53 to 23 when the bill was brought to a vote.

Last week, Commonwealth's Attorney John Chris Cornett, the one official in this immediate section most directly affected, Sheriff Troy B. Sturgill, County Attorney W. W. Burchett and County Judge Alex L. Davidson appeared before the Rules committee seeking revision of the bill so as not to separate Floyd and Knott counties. The inconvenience to the public, the separation by distance and topography of Floyd and Martin county, which under the new bill form the 31st district, and of Knott and Magoffin county which form the 36th, the injustice to Mr. Cornett who would be required to move from his home in Knott county to this county or forfeit his office, the wishes of the people of Floyd and Knott counties—all these were pointed out by these officials in appearances before the committee.

Last week, they said, they left Frankfort with the support of 77 Representatives pledged to revision of the bill so that the 31st district would not be changed. But, with administration forces moving into the fight, they saw the rollcall Tuesday muster only 23 votes against the bill as it was written.

RURAL ROADS PLANS ASKED

Highway Department To Get Suggestions From Fiscal Courts

All county fiscal courts will be called on within the next three weeks for recommendations for expenditure of their rural highway allotments for the coming fiscal year, George H. Halley, rural highway director, Kentucky Department of Highways, said last week.

"We have instructed all district engineers to begin contacting the fiscal courts at once so that we may start formulating the rural highway program for the fiscal year beginning April 1," Mr. Halley said. The annual $5,000,000 appropriation for rural highways will become available on that date. It is apportioned among the counties one-third equally, one-third on a county area basis and one-third by county rural population.

The fiscal courts will recommend roads to be maintained or improved under the rural highway program. "No work financed under this program can be done legally within the limits of an incorporated village, town or city," Mr. Halley said.

In most cases the work is done by state forces with state-owned equipment. "However" Mr. Halley said, "where counties have registered professional engineers the rural highway fund may be used for the purchase of materials, the county to perform the work with its own forces and at its expense, if it so desires."

The director said resolutions from the fiscal courts should be in the department's hands by March 20 so that contracts may be prepared during the final week of the month.

The recommendations will cover only the annual appropriation. Suggestions for expenditure of the secondary highway money accruing from the increased gasoline tax will be received later when a formula for the counties has been worked out.

Letters to the Editor

DID NOT FIND "SAFETY IN NUMBERS"

Editor The Times: For some time I have wanted to give out some information through your paper about some insurance companies which advertise through the mails. I carried several of the cheap policies, thinking there was "safety in numbers."

In May 1946, while entering a store at Garrett, I fell from the high porch in the rear of the building and broke my right leg. Later, I notified these insurance companies and each one wrote letters saying, "Your policy does not cover this type of accident."

I did not take this matter up in the courts but did discuss it with an attorney who had been handling a case and was informed that it would take a long-drawn-out lawsuit to gain anything from insurance of this nature.

I just wonder how many good citizens of Floyd have policies of this nature and feel they have any protection. If instances like this one could be published so that we might all profit from them, perhaps I could have saved the amount I had paid out for years to these companies and might have invested in a reputable company.

I have never worked for any insurance company and have no interest in any and am writing this with no other motive than to inform the public.

DU PONT HOUSE PAINT
CLEANS ITSELF!

Outside surfaces stay fresh and clean-looking when finished with Du Pont House Paint. Dirt and grime can't get a grip—rains just wash them away!

SELF-CLEANING Du Pont House Paint is so formulated that, as time goes by, a microscopically fine white powder forms on the surface. Heavy rains wash the powder away, taking dust and dirt with it, and leaving the surface clean and white again. Excessive accumulations of dirt (particularly in sooty industrial communities or in heavily shaded locations) may delay or interfere with this process. Because this "self-cleaning" is gradual, the wearing qualities of the paint film are not abnormally affected.

SELF-CLEANING Du Pont House Paint is as durable as it is beautiful... protects against rust, rot, and decay... gives lasting beauty and protection. Costs no more than ordinary paints—saves re-painting bills! Call on a reliable painter for your painting jobs, and ask him to use Du Pont House Paint!

One point of victory was scored by the Floyd-Knott group. This was gained in a House amendment providing that Commonwealth's Attorneys affected by the bill could hold office if they moved into their new districts at any time before expiration of their terms.

One tenuous thread of hope remained Wednesday. This lay in an amendment to the bill providing for a separate judicial district for Pike county. The amendment would make Floyd county one district and throw Magoffin, Johnson and Martin into one.

The bill, as voted, and now ready for the Governor's signature, reshuffles the judicial district boundary lines, thusly:

- 31st—Floyd and Martin.
- 36th—Knott and Magoffin.
- 24th—Johnson and Lawrence.
- 39th—Breathitt, Wolfe and Powell.
- 22nd—Boyd.
- 25th—Clark, Jessamine and Madison.

Opponents of the measure openly declared the bill was planned to create a new judicial district for Ervine Turner of Jackson, who had failed to win the circuit judgeship of the 36th district as long as Magoffin county was a part of it.

The debate on the bill was often bitter and Representatives from counties it affected declared it "another little Munich where everybody was called in except the people affected by the change."

It was reported that Ervine Turner, chief clerk of the Senate, is in line for appointment by Governor Earle C. Clements as circuit judge of the newly created 39th judicial district.

In fact, when the bill was returned to the Senate, Majority Floor Leader Moloney, Lexington, told the Senators that Turner had an interest in the bill. The chief clerk's mother is desperately ill, Moloney said, and Turner was anxious to see the bill passed before returning home. The rules were suspended, the House amendments adopted, and the bill was repassed immediately. Turner and administration higher-ups watched the vote closely.

Opponents of the measure charged in the House last night that the bill was drawn solely "for the benefit of one man." None of the speakers named the person during the debate.

Most of the Circuit Judges and Commonwealth's Attorneys in the area are not affected by the redistricting. But the Commonwealth's Attorneys of the new 24th and 31st districts must change their residences before their six-year terms expire. Each has four more years to serve.

J. B. Clark, Commonwealth's Attorney in the 24th district, lives in Martin county. He will have to move either to Johnson or Lawrence counties to keep his job.

Representative Lawrence Watts, Knott county Democrat, and J. M. Stumbo, Floyd county Democrat, argued the motives behind the bill were "selfish" and "only for the personal gain of one man."

Stumbo said that Floyd and Martin counties are separated by a "natural barrier—a mountain 3000 feet high." If they are thrown together into a district as the bill proposed, the judge, attorneys, and litigants would have to travel through neighboring Johnson county when going back and forth between the county seats, Inez and Prestonsburg.

Representative Leonard W. Preston, Glasgow Democrat, said he felt it was "against the spirit of the Constitution to create a district with fewer than 60,000 population." Knott and Magoffin as a district would have only around 38,000 population, Preston added.

In the 1945 primary for circuit judge in the Breathitt-Wolfe-Magoffin 36th district, Turner defeated Chester A. Bach, Jackson, for the Democratic nomination by 973 votes, although he trailed in Magoffin by 26 votes.

In November, however, the district elected Judge Walter R. Prater, Salyersville Republican, by 1,285 votes. Magoffin county gave Prater a 2,596-vote majority over Turner, more than enough to offset Turner's majorities in Breathitt and Wolfe.

If Turner is appointed judge of the new 39th district he would not have Magoffin voters in his new district.

OF INTEREST TO VETERANS

Veterans are prohibited from receiving subsistence allowance and readjustment allowance for the same period, officials at the Veterans Administration Branch Office in Columbus, O., emphasized this week.

VA officials point out that only veterans actively seeking and willing to accept any suitable work may legally receive allowances. Even then, veterans are not eligible for unemployment pay during any period for which they receive subsistence allowances under the educational and training provisions of the G.I. Bill.

Concurrent receipt of both benefits is a violation of the law and subjects a veteran to prosecution.

Veterans and dependents of deceased veterans of the Indian Wars will receive a 20 per cent increase in their allowance pensions effective with payments due for the month of March, Veterans Administration has announced.

The increases, approved by Congress in January, will affect about 750 living veterans, 2,100 widows and some 50 helpless children of deceased Indian War veterans.

Under the increased rates, which followed the granting of similar increases for pensioners of other wars, the veterans will receive from $24 to $120 per month, depending upon extent of disability, age and qualifying status. Widows' rates will range from $36 to $60 monthly, with additional allowances for children.

VA said the average age today of Indian War veterans is 85 years, and that dependents average 80 years.

Adjustments in the amount of payments will be made automatically by VA and will be reflected in checks issued for periods subsequent to March 1.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Q. Does the age of World War I and World War II veterans affect the amount of compensation or pension paid to them?

A. Compensation is not affected, but pensions for non-service-connected permanent, total disability is increased upon reaching age 65.

Q. I have completed my job-training course and find that I still have entitlement time left under the educational provisions of the G.I. Bill. Will I be permitted to go to another school for the remainder of my entitlement?

A. If you have entitlement time left, you may use the remainder either for job-training or for educational training with VA prior approval.

The Dirt Has Been Done

HOWEVER sorely tempted we may be, a philippic at this late date will do no good, now that the dirt has been done. But our grievance with the Legislature and the administration at Frankfort is so deep and painful that, like misery, we would write this to invite company.

The dirt that has been done is the redistricting measure enacted this week by the General Assembly at the behest of administration forces to satisfy the ambitions of one man—and the public be damned!

There is no need here to recount all the pleas and arguments made in vain, asking, beseeching the Governor and his puppet Legislature to re-consider, to quit this move to create a new judicial district for one man to the detriment of thousands. It will serve no purpose now to point out the appeals made in the name of justice and fair play on behalf of the people of Floyd and Knott counties. Those who could have heeded such words and done something to spare the present state administration the ignominy of petty dabbling with the interests and associations of thousands of persons, so that one man could gain an honor the people of his district had denied him by their vote—these have already heard, on more than one occasion, all the facts.

Fair play, justice, the convenience of the people of Knott and Floyd counties, the voice of the people of the two counties in electing John Chris Cornett their Commonwealth's Attorney did not count.

Those two Old Faithfuls of the Democratic parties, Floyd and Knott, got the usual run-around. That's the story, the sad, sad story to us, the sidesplitting story to Erv Turner and the few who over-rode public sentiment and the dictates of conscience.

Now, we are awaiting the words that will surely come from Frankfort to mitigate our loss, to soften our wrath—we are awaiting that and the next political snub.

Why Fear 'State Law'?

LABOR and a few Democrats on the jumpy side about their political futures profess great concern about the state police force law, enacted last week by the Kentucky Legislature. But why?

Does this state enforcement group, modeled after the best features of state police forces functioning in Pennsylvania, Indiana, Michigan, New York and California, offer a real or an imaginary threat to the mine-workers of this section?

What infraction of state law could the mine-workers imagine themselves guilty of that would bring down upon them a visit from the state police? And, if, indeed, there should be such an infraction, could not the state militia be used by the Governor, were the state police non-existent?

If the state highway patrol is to have no powers other than to check licenses, give drivers' tests, investigate highway tragedies and make arrests on offenses occurring only on the highways, and are to be restricted to quasi police powers, the Boy Scouts might as well be mustered out to take their place.

As matters now stand, Kentucky has one hundred twenty sheriffs, all operating independently, none with police powers outside his own county, all serving in the name of law and order without concerted effort and sometimes at cross purposes.

WINS G.I. FOOTBALL HONORS

—U.S. Air Force Photo
FIFTH AIR FORCE, ITAMI, JAPAN—Corporal Joe E. Taylor (left), son of Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Robinson, of Betsy Layne, is depicted being presented with a miniature football and a letter of commendation in recognition of the part he played in making the Itami Air Base football season such a success by Captain Wayne Matson, Itami Air Base football coach for the 1947 season. Corporal Taylor is currently assigned to Itami Air Base as an airplane and engine mechanic.

The state needs an integrated police force operating under Civil Service, with politics out the window and for the benefit of the citizens of the state.

The mineworkers are perhaps thinking of recent history, and some of it may be disturbing to them. But the threat they see in this centralized law enforcement agency is more a thing of imagination than reality. The fact is, some of the most bitter opposition to the bill has come from sheriffs of smaller counties who fear work of the state police would cut into the fees of the office, and it is quite probable that these officials have sought to enlist labor's support by magnifying the threat the law creates for the mine-workers.

It might be added that the bill is being bitterly opposed by northern Kentucky interests who are not widely known for their interest in law and order.

Senators E. D. Stephenson, of Pike county, and J. C. Coldiron, of Perry, are predicting the ruination of the Democratic party in Eastern Kentucky if the bill becomes law. Senator Rodes K. Myers envisions a Gestapo. But we would remind the gentlemen that whatever works to the best interests of Kentucky as a whole will meet the approval of Eastern Kentucky, a very vital part of the Commonwealth, and that there cannot be a Gestapo without a Himmler to head it.

Who will qualify as Himmler?

Words Worth Repeating

SENATOR Alben W. Barkley delivered a speech in the U.S. Senate recently that he might well repeat when the Big Sandy canalization project reaches Congress, a few months hence.

The Senator, in urging authorization of the St. Lawrence waterway, declared the "same interests" that fought construction of the Panama Canal are now fighting the St. Lawrence project.

Said the Senator:

"The railroads opposed the canal on the theory it would hurt them and lessen their opportunity to serve the people.

"But, instead of injuring the railroads, the canal benefited them.

"I cannot accept the argument that construction of the St. Lawrence Seaway and power project will be injurious to other means of transportation—any more than was the building of the Panama Canal."

Will the senator kindly repeat those words when his friends from the mountains visit Washington in behalf of their own Big Sandy waterway, the No. 1 water transportation project in the United States?

KENTUCKY ON THE MARCH

By EWING GALLOWAY

It's great fun writing long individual stories about numerous achievements of cities, towns and counties, but single items about things happening here and there make just as interesting reading matter.

Here are some items I know you'll like:

Mayor Donald A. Campbell, of Lebanon, recently contributed all his salary, $1,000, to a recreation park for people of all ages. This means Mayor Campbell, a former president of the National Retail Lumber Dealers' Association, is serving his town gratis. The people of Lebanon will make the fund big enough to what is now an open field owned by the city. It will be equipped for all outdoor games Kentuckyans play, according to Oliver Kelly, editor of The Lebanon Enterprise.

If all the boys and girls in Russell, metropolis of Greenup county, don't grow up to be first-rate citizens it won't be because the community, aided generously by the C. & O. Railway, haven't done well by them recreationally. In Russell nearly all civic affairs revolve around the C. & O. Y.M.C.A. With its present facilities the Y.M.C.A. is the center of all the community's recreational activities. During all the open months it sponsors a general playground, with full-time paid supervisors. In addition to all kinds of facilities for small boys and girls, from a wading pool to teeter-totters, near-by there are lighted baseball and softball diamonds. And, according to Editor E. D. Mittendorf, of The Russell Times, this Y.M.C.A. cooperates with the schools of the entire county in Bible study projects and Hi-Y and 4-H Club work. On top of all this, work has begun on a new Y.M.C.A. building that will cost approximately a million dollars.

Speaking further of recreation centers, Elizabethtown bought for $10,000 the federal government's USO building, which cost $80,000, named it the Memorial Recreation Center, and is operating it for the town's youth. According to Editor W. H. Marriott, of the Elizabethtown News, funds for salaries and maintenance are provided out of the community fund, raised annually by popular subscription.

Mack Sisk, co-publisher with Niles Dillingham, of The Dawson Springs Progress, writes me encouragingly about a financed-promotional plan in his recently awakened town. There are 100 contributors ranging from 25 cents to $2.50 a week. The money is used to promote industrial development, with a recently organized Chamber of Commerce drum-majoring the march. In 1947 Dawson Springs got its first factory, a washable garment-making concern—uniforms for railroad and chain drug store employees mainly. After a doze about twice as long as Rip Van Winkle's 20-year nap, Dawson Springs seems to have its eyes and ears wide open. I attended the first anniversary meeting there three weeks ago of its Rotary Club, a get-together meeting for all the half-dozen local organizations interested in community development, and I drove back to the farm feeling positively certain that the Hopkins county town with a lot of mineral springs in it was on its way to many bigger and better things.

Records of 2,000 acres of tobacco in Fleming county over a six-year period, show that the root-rot resistant varieties averaged $130 an acre over the common kind.

Mrs. E. M. Points and children, Bettyrene and Bobby, of Ashland, spent the week-end here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Allen.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our thanks and appreciation to all those who assisted us so willingly in rescuing the bodies of our sons from the mine and to all those who were so thoughtful and helpful to us in such a distressing time. We mention especially those who contributed so many beautiful flowers and the American Legion in remembering the service our sons have rendered in the war, whose military honors we all appreciated, and to Mr. Howard and the Betsy Layne high school in preparing the gymnasium for the funeral service, and to Revs. Isaac Stratton, Clyde Layne and Earl Layne who conducted the devotional service, and the Call Funeral Home, and to all those who sang in the choir and brought such consoling thoughts to the members of the bereaved families through their singing.

It isn't what you pay— It's what you get!

If you had to pay a million bucks for that baby of yours, you'd still be getting a bargain. And you don't get many other bargains these days of high costs. Except electricity, of course! Yes, electricity goes right on being the biggest bargain in anybody's budget. The average family is still getting twice as much electric service for its money as it got 20 years ago! One penny will light a 100-watt bulb for almost 3 hours. Or whisk clean 3 tubs of washing! Or run a radio a whole evening! That little copper will vacuum clean 6 large rugs, run your refrigerator for 5 hours, or tell you the correct time for about a week. It isn't what you pay, it's what you get, that's true. And when you buy electricity, you get a lot—for a little!

Today Your Pharmacist Drops A Few Facts About...

SULFANILAMIDE

A drug which proved fatal to many persons because it was peddled by the discoverer of a "clever formula" when properly used is supplanting the old method of treating the painful eye disease, Trachoma, proving effective in treatments over a period of 8 to 20 days. The drug is Sulfanilamide, discovered by Domagk and Hoerlin, German scientists.

A GLIMPSE OF HELL

Oh, sinner friends and neighbors,
Come listen while I tell
About this awful dream I had,
It surely was a glimpse of hell.

For the flames were leaping wild and high,
No trees or rubbish around,
Just men and women in that fire,
Not a little child was found.

They ran and ran both to and fro,
Almost to the edge it seemed,
Then back again with pain they'd go
All through that burning flame.

They'd throw their arms high o'er their heads,
Misery and pain upon their face—
It made me shudder just to think
Of being in that awful place.

I was standing alone there on the bank,
Safe on the other side;
I said, "Dear God," where are my friends?"
As I looked both far and wide.

I cried, "Oh! God, they can't get out
For they have sealed their fate;
They've put salvation off too long
And now they are too late."

Then I awoke and began to think,
Just what can this dream mean?
I prayed, oh, God, what can I do?
To turn them from their sin?

Dear Sinner, please take warning
now
Before you seal your doom,
For fear you knock at the pearly gate
And find there is no room.

I'll tell you sinners just what to do
To escape this awful place—
Give God your heart and live for him
And find a resting place.

MISCHIEF WILL OUT

Waltham, Mass.—Being in his mother's arms is no guarantee that a boy will stay out of trouble. A four-year-old boy being held by his mother reached over her shoulder and turned in a false fire alarm while she was talking to a friend.

POTATOES FLOW OVERSEAS

Amherst, Mass.—Ninety-two carloads of Massachusetts-grown potatoes are en route overseas for relief distribution by the army. The shipments are part of 35,000 tons of potatoes which the U.S. Agriculture
Department is sending to the army.

More Than 3,000,000 Legionnaires
Say: YOU'RE INVITED!!

There's always room for one more in the greatest veterans' outfit.
There's sport... There's fun.
And there's SERVICE... to your nation, your state and your community.

The American Legion's key to success is active Americanism. The Legion donated the first adium to veterans' hospitals. It has given $62,500,000 for relief of needy families. It sponsors nation-wide Junior Baseball and 3,000 Boy Scout troops. It operates 2,000 citizenship schools for foreign born. That's just a sample of the fine service program you'll be supporting when you join your buddies in the Legion.

Prestige goes with your Legion button. The President... 8 justices of the U. S. Supreme Court... 252 members of congress... 28 governors are Legionnaires.

Your Post is the heart-beat of your town. You'll find the fellows you like there, doing the things you like to do. Come in and help yourself and your country.
