

CARRY ON!

An undertaker acquaintance tells me of a request he received recently. The fellow asked that his pallbearers be bankers. "They've carried me all my life," he explained, "and I think it would be fit and proper for them to carry me up on the p'nt."

BUT THEY DIDN'T STOP TALKING

Korean war talk retreated to a whisper here this week as taxpayers got their assessment notices.

BRAVE MEN

At the risk of life and limb, I'm here expressing my admiration of the courage of the three men who acted as Prestonsburg tax supervisors. This, despite the fact they upped my taxes quite a bit. They didn't ask for the job, it pays less than they can make at almost any other work and they accepted as a matter of duty.

ABOUT THE CHURCH ADS

Writes the Rev. Robert L. Anderson, director of the Big Sandy Larger Parish, Methodist Church: "I am interested in your full-page church ad, entitled last week, 'Your Time Is God's Time.' Who sponsored this splendid series of ads and from whom were they secured? They are fine and I would like to know about them."

Names of the local business firms sponsoring the series appear at the bottom of each advertisement. Full credit belongs to them.

WE MISSED THE BOAT

This column has never attempted to scale Olympus, occupy any ivory tower, hand down the pundit's dicta or, in short, attempt to tell folks what's wrong about things other people know more about.

But just now these United States and the world happen to be in a heck of a fix because of the maudlinings of some folks who thought they knew the score; everybody's wondering, how come, and so we chime in with our bit.

This may not be a brand-new opinion, but we have an idea we let the mare out of the stable when this State Department of ours classed those Communists in China who were licking the daylight out of Chiang-Kai-Shek as "agrarian groups" and decided we and the rest of the world could do business with these fellows. These farmers, said Acheson and his boys, are clodhoppers with an idea or so, they're not Reds, so let's let them chase

2 FROM FLOYD ARE WOUNDED

Korean Situation Grave As Chinese Reds Sweep UN Forces Southward

Two Floyd county soldiers fighting in North Korea have been wounded, next-of-kin have been notified.

Pelmer Ray Clifton, 20-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Willie Clifton, of Allen, was wounded Nov. 1, said a telegram received Nov. 17. He was one of the Clifton triplets.

The other Floyd casualty is Hillard Hicks, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hicks, of Langley. He was evacuated to a hospital in Japan.

These were the first casualties reported to Floyd county families in the last two weeks, a period which saw U. S. forces first sweep northward to approach the Manchurian border, then suffer an attack from hordes of Red Chinese troops which is sweeping southward and threatening American troops in great numbers.

The crisis, viewed as one of the most grave in the nation's history and posing the immediate threat of a third world conflict, has brought to the United States Prime Minister Alee of Great Britain for conferences with President Truman. Alee declared Wednesday that his purpose here is not to urge appeasement.

Although the military situation is grave, President Truman and General Bradley insist UN forces will not leave Korea.

CITY COUNCIL VOTES BONDS

New Issue To Amortize $22,000 Debt in Bonds At Reduced Interest

The Prestonsburg City Council Monday night enacted an ordinance authorizing the sale of $22,000 worth of refunding bonds to amortize an outstanding bonded indebtedness in that amount against the town's sewer system.

The new bond issue will result in a saving of around $1,300 to Prestonsburg, it was explained by Mayor Curtis Clark. The saving results from a reduction in the interest rates. The old bond issue bore 3 1/2 per cent interest, while the new will bear two and three-quarters per cent.

The original bond issue was dated August 1, 1944. The new bonds may be called for payment, in inverse order, at any time after August 7, 1952.

Bids on the new bond issue will be received by the City Council until 7:30 p.m., Dec. 18.

The Council took no action at its Monday evening meeting to name a successor to Bert T. Combs, who resigned as City Attorney to become 31st judicial district Commonwealth's Attorney.

FIFTH MEMBER TALK SHUNNED

Garrett Merchant May Be State Board Choice At Meeting December 15

While the matter of a fifth member of the Floyd County Board of Education remained in the hands of the State Board of Education, the four members now functioning met here Tuesday in a regular meeting without further discussion of the deadlock or any attempt to break it.

The State Board has indicated it will make an appointment at its regular meeting, Friday of next week.

Most often mentioned for the appointment to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Ray Fraley, of Wayland, is J. E. Campbell, of Garrett. In fact, his appointment is held certain by some observers.

Mr. Campbell occupies, it was said, the anomalous situation of being satisfactory to both factions.

Tuesday's Board meeting saw the purchase of new seats and transaction of routine business.

A discussion of the payment of salary of R. L. Shepherd, Vocational Agriculture teacher in the high school here, ended in postponement of action. Formerly, the County Board, jointly operating the high school here with the City Board, paid all Mr. Shepherd's salary but now Superintendent Palmer L. Hall holds that the city should pay his salary in accordance with the tuition agreement entered into with the City Board after the latter assumed full control of the school.

City Superintendent Chalmers H. Frazier said Mr. Shepherd will be formally employed by the Prestonsburg high school Monday. County aid on his salary will probably be given if the tuition agreement in effect between the two Boards does not provide sufficient funds.

COURT'S WORK ENDS FOR '50

Barnett Murder Case Continued Till April; One Defendant Jailed

Barely had a new Commonwealth's Attorney been inducted to office Monday when the Floyd circuit court ended its work for 1950. Not till the first Monday in January, when a new grand jury will be set to work, will the court re-convene.

The last murder case on the docket which had not previously been disposed of, either through trial or postponement, was continued. This was the case of Billie Barnett, whose trial was set for April 25.

The only conviction resulting from a trial since last Thursday was that of Vester Gearheart, who was fined $45 and jailed 30 days on a liquor-selling charge Friday. Charley (Nig) Hall won an acquittal on a charge of possessing intoxicants. Failure of Kermit Moore to answer for trial on a grand larceny charge resulted in forfeiture of his $1,000 bond.

Adjournment of circuit court and the fact that no county court term is planned before Jan. 22 left the courthouse quiet this week. At the county jail only one prisoner was committed on a major offense. This was Richard Sharkley, a 12-year-old Negro boy who was jailed last Thursday by Policeman Earl Blackburn of Wheelwright after the boy allegedly had stolen money from a filling station cash register in a daylight theft.

THURSDAY

FLOOD THREAT BRINGS DEWEY DAM INTO USE

Reservoir Holds Water As Flood Control Unit; Some Boats Lost in Rise

The Dewey reservoir was put to its first actual use this week as a unit in the Ohio valley flood control system as snow-fed waters of the Ohio rose to the danger point.

Shortly after noon Wednesday, Dewey lake stood at elevation 652.7 feet, which is 7.7 feet above the conservation pool of 645. A further rise of three or four feet is possible as waters of the Johns Creek valley are being impounded to prevent their union with the Big Sandy and a resultant increase in the volume of water pouring into the Ohio.

R. E. Moore, dam-tender at Dewey, said he could not predict the crest of the lake. Further precipitation, or lack of it, will govern control of reservoir waters. When the rise of streams first began, the lake was expected to rise 12 feet but no such impoundment is presently seen. The flood threat in the Ohio is for the present believed past.

The rise of the lake caught boat-owners napping, and at least half a dozen boats were submerged Wednesday, with yet others threatened. The lake now stands more than two and a half feet above the five added feet asked by residents of this section as a conservation pool. A survey of the reservoir has been made by the U.S. Corps of Engineers to determine if the additional water can be maintained as a conservation level, and to the petitions of hundreds of citizens has been added the plea of Congressman Carl D. Perkins for deepening of the lake.

MINES LACK COAL ORDERS

Weather Cuts Loadings And Lake Closing Hurts Demand for Coal, Claim

The weather took its toll on coal production for the week ending Nov. 25 but another factor now is entering further curtailment of the industry's operations, it was indicated this week.

A lack of orders has, within the last several days, become evident over the field, even with larger operations. This was attributed, in part, to closing of the Great Lakes for the winter.

"With this market closed till spring and dealers' stockpiles well-filled against normal demands, only an unusually cold winter can be expected to boost the market for coal," one industry spokesman said this week.

The drop in demand is normal, he said. Effect of intensified war production work on the coal industry remains to be seen.

During the week ending Nov. 25, 215,570 tons were mined by member-operations of the Big Sandy-Elkhorn Coal Operators Association. The 47 operating mines worked an average of 2.78 days out of the normal five-day week. One mine of the association was shut down—Farwest No. 3—while several others worked only one day. Eleven worked four days and none worked the maximum five days.

During the preceding week the coal mines in the valley produced 334,120 tons as the association-member mines worked an average of 4.08 days.

Former Miner Dies At Martin Hospital; Burial at McDowell

Tuberculosis and dropsy were given as causes of the death Wednesday afternoon at the Beaver Valley hospital, Martin, of Andy J. Blankenship, 50-year-old McDowell man.

Mr. Blankenship, a former miner, had been critically ill for the last two months. He was a son of Mitch and Jane Hall Blankenship and was a native of McDowell. His wife, Della Moore Blankenship, died eight years ago.

Surviving are five daughters, Mrs. Milford Hall, Mrs. Orville McDonald, Misses Rose Ann, Ellen and Marie Blankenship. One sister, Mrs. Eli Hall, of Minnie, also survives.

The funeral will be held at McDowell Friday with the Revs. Willie Collins, Morgan Stumbo, Troy Nickles and Tom Mosley officiating. Burial will be made in the Greenbury Hall cemetery under direction of the Hall Brothers Funeral Home.

Yarn Hinting of Spies, Saboteurs Explodes

It had the makin's of a good yarn while it lasted. Two parachutes, the report said, had been found on Buck's Branch, near Martin. And the report was true. At Printer, several miles away, yet another was reported found. They bore strange markings, said some who had seen them. Folks talked of spies, saboteurs, and other sinister agents.

The Sheriff's office here was notified. The information was relayed to the FBI. And then came the explanation which blasted this promise of a good yarn. James Salisbury, principal of the Martin consolidated school, announced that the two parachutes found near Martin had been shipped to the school with other surplus government goods and that they had been relegated to the junk heap as useless.

SCOTT WAIVES HEARING HERE

Bond in Coburn Death Set at $10,000; Claim Of Accident Questioned

Ernest Scott, who has been in jail here since the night of Nov. 25 when Virgil Coburn died of a bullet wound received at Garrett, was held to $10,000 bond Saturday after he had waived examining trial in the case to await grand jury action. The bond, fixed by County Judge Henry Stumbo, was by agreement of prosecuting and defense attorneys.

Scott told Sheriff A. B. Meade, soon after his imprisonment here, that the shot which killed Coburn was accidentally fired while he and Coburn tussled for possession of a pistol Coburn had snatched from a third man. He was said to have taken the dying man to the Stumbo Memorial hospital, Lackey.

County Attorney W. W. Burchett gained from three or four witnesses Saturday statements which he interpreted as disputing the claim of accidental shooting. Burden of this testimony, consisting of signed statements, he said, was that Coburn left Jack Allen's restaurant where he, Scott and others had gathered, and that Scott soon thereafter snatched a P-38 pistol from the belt of Hi Hitch and followed Coburn outside. Then five shots were heard, and when witnesses rushed outside they found Coburn wounded.

Scott had been quoted by Sheriff Meade as having said he had attempted to act as a peacemaker between Coburn and an unnamed man who had quarrelled inside the restaurant.

VISITED HERE TUESDAY

Mrs. A. E. Auxier, Pikeville, and Mrs. Adelaide Davis McIntyre, Maysville, were here Tuesday visiting relatives and calling on friends.

Francis, Ray Herndon, of Mayfield.

The new Coach of the Year, who is officially listed as Doctor Taylor Ferrell, was an all-state tackle while playing with Madison high school and an all-regional center at basketball. After earning his "K" under freshman coach Al Kirwan at the University of Kentucky in 1944, he joined the navy and spent 19 months in the service, taking part in the Okinawa invasion. Upon his navy discharge, he returned to the University to play a regular tackle position from 1946 through 1948. These last three years he played under Coach "Bear" Bryant.

Col. Potter Refuses Plea For Dewey Lake Deepening

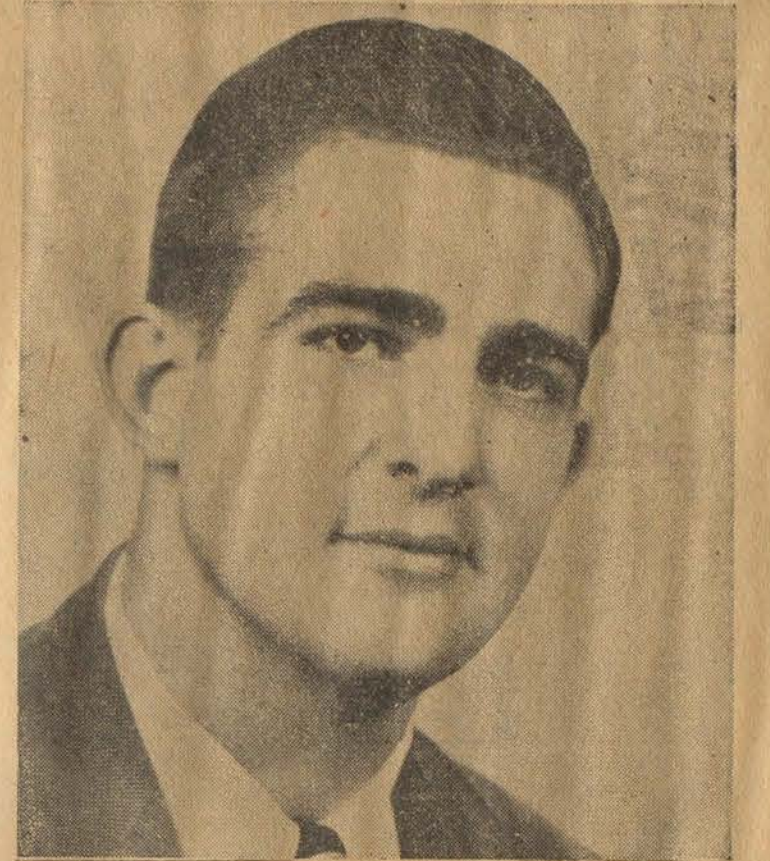

Again refused by Col. W. E. Potter, of the Corps of Engineers, his plea that the conservation level of Dewey lake be raised a minimum of five feet or a maximum of 10. Congressman Carl D. Perkins requested Monday permission to discuss the reservoir in detail with Colonel Potter.

"I am of the opinion that you are not in possession of all of the facts," wrote Mr. Perkins. "I received information while down in the district that the District Engineers came to Prestonsburg before the fiscal court and conveyed the impression that the conservation pool would be raised."

Congressman Perkins' request for a discussion of the matter followed this statement by Colonel Potter, Wednesday of last week:

"An increase in the level of the conservation pool has been studied on the basis of a five-foot and a ten-foot seasonal increase in pool elevation between the approximate dates of 1 May and 15 November. It has been estimated that higher seasonal conservation pools would necessitate additional expenditures, mainly for utilities and relocations except as noted below, $40,000 for a five-foot increase and $352,000 for a ten-foot increase. The estimate of cost for the five-foot seasonal increase in pool level does not include any amount for damages to either Pike or Floyd

P'Burg Football Head Named 'Coach of Year'

"Doc" Ferrell, the former University of Kentucky line stalwart who in two seasons led the Prestonsburg high school football team from mediocrity to this year's 10-victory record, has been voted by coaches and sports writers Kentucky's 1950 "Coach of the Year."

The honor, which carries with it a handsome plaque to be presented by The Courier-Journal, the newspaper which conducted the statewide poll, came little more than a year after the Richmond, Ky., man took over his grid duties here. The year before his arrival in Prestonsburg, the Black Cats had passed through a disastrous season. Last year, they won only three games while losing eight. But the groundwork for a high school football power was in the making, and this year the Cats won 10 games in a row before losing to Highlands of Ft. Thomas in the Recreation Bowl at Mt. Sterling in a superlative game and to Neon-Fleming in a Conference play-off at Pikeville.

One of his players, Delmer Hughes, this year was named to The Courier-Journal's second All-State team, and three others, Alex Patton, Melvin Pennington and Claude Hopson, gained honorable mention on the mythical eleven.

The straight T with a double-variation for passing has been taught the Cats by Ferrell, who stresses blocking and tackling fundamentals. He is classed as a leader, not a driver, and is very popular with the boys under his tutelage.

Ferrell won the Coach of the Year honor in a close race with Ewell Waddell, of Highlands, and Jimmy Haynes, Russellville. Others receiving votes for the honor were Tommy Griffin, Paintsville, Nick Denes, Male of Louisville, Charley Eblen, Ashland, Ralph McRight, Paducah, Ray Baer, of St. X, Tebay Reese, of Carlisle, Leslie Van Meter, of St.

Change in Ad Rates Forced by Price Rises

The greatly increased price of newsprint and other mounting costs make it necessary for The Floyd County Times to make an announcement other newspapers already have made.

Effective Jan. 1—we are delaying the effective date to give our advertisers the benefit of present rates for the Christmas season—our local advertising rate will be 50 cents per column inch instead of the present 40 cents.

Only those advertisers contracting for as much as 1,000 column inches of advertising space during the coming year or those with established "standing" ads will be charged at the old 40-cent rate.

The present situation is not of our making, and we are loath to raise prices. But the rate we propose on and after Jan. 1 was placed in effect, several months ago, by our neighbor, The Paintsville Herald, and for several years the rate charged by The Pike County News (now the Pikeville Daily News) has been even more than the rate we here announce.

The Times' average weekly circulation over the 12 months ending October 1 was 4,408. This is the largest circulation in this section of Kentucky, is one of the largest in the state, and promises the advertiser a minimum of 16,000 readers each week.

Until further price advances make it impossible for us to continue as before and as we would prefer, the present subscription rates will prevail, although leaving the newspaper no margin profit.

COMBS NAMED BY WETHERBY TO FILL POST

Prestonsburg Attorney Successor of Cornett As Floyd Prosecutor

Bert T. Combs, Prestonsburg attorney, who was named last week by Governor Lawrence Wetherby as Commonwealth's Attorney of the 31st (Floyd county) judicial district to succeed John Chris Cornett, took the oath of office Monday morning. The oath was administered by Circuit Judge Edward P. Hill.

The appointment filled the vacancy created by the naming of Mr. Cornett as Circuit Judge of the 36th district to fill the vacancy in the office created by the death of Judge W. R. Prater, of Salyersville.

Naming of Mr. Combs to the prosecutor's post leaves yet another appointment to be made. The office of City Attorney here, formerly occupied by Mr. Combs, remains to be filled.

In a prepared statement this week Commonwealth's Attorney Combs said, "My only interest will be to help the other county officials to enforce the laws in a fair and impartial manner, and I solicit the cooperation and assistance of the good citizens of this county in the performance of my duties. Everybody will be treated alike. There will be no pets or favorites."

The appointment of Mr. Combs does not immediately affect the status of Wiley Jones, of Langley, who was named district detective by Mr. Cornett under the law enacted by the 1950 General Assembly. That a change, or temporary elimination of the office in this county, is under consideration was indicated, however, in this paragraph of Mr. Combs' statement.

"I will not make any change in the office of Commonwealth Detective until I have had sufficient time to look into the matter and decide whether Floyd county needs such an officer at this time. If an appointment is made by me, I will appoint some qualified man who is able and willing to give full service required by the job."

"My job," said the new prosecutor, "is to serve the people, and if I can be of any assistance I want them to feel free to call on me."

The new Commonwealth's Attorney came to Prestonsburg in 1938, a year after his graduation from law school, and with the exception of his wartime army service has practiced his profession here since that time. He is a member of the law firm of Howard & Combs.

He will serve as Commonwealth's Attorney until the November, 1951 election.

ACCEPTS WORK OF TB NURSE

Floyd TB Association Employs Mrs. Mayo Through Seal Fund

The months-long search made by the Floyd County Tuberculosis Association for a nurse to devote her full time to the work of fighting tuberculosis has ended, it was announced Monday, in the employment of Mrs. J. D. Mayo for the post.

Mrs. Mayo, who, with Mrs. Katherine Small, in 1927 did the first public health nursing with the Floyd County Health Department, accepted the work for a two-year period.

Such fulltime service has been sought for more than two years by the association and the health department, to locate all tuberculosis cases and contacts, procure treatment for those untreated and provide an adequate educational program.

Dr. Marvin Ransdell, director of the health department, paid tribute to the energy and qualifications of Mrs. Mayo. "Now we are getting somewhere with this program," he commented. "I feel that the Tuberculosis Association could not have found a nurse more capable than she is."

Mrs. Mayo, the former Regina Bitts, came here from Portland, Ore. to do public health work in this county. She retired from the nursing profession upon her marriage upwards of 20 years ago, however.

Funds which make this new service possible have been raised through the sale of Christmas Seals, and continued employment of a full-time nurse depends in part on the sale of Seals during current and future drives.

In connection with the tuberculosis work in the county, Dr. Ransdell announced that the first tuberculosis patient to enter one of

NATION'S COAL STOCKPILE HIT

Washington, Dec. 5 — The great blizzard of 1950 took a big bite out of America's coal stockpile sooner than usual.

It is much too soon to say how much. But further, a progressive boosting of industrial production and a forthcoming new demand for coal in Europe point to far greater needs in the next year than in this one.

Bituminous production this year has averaged 10,000,000 tons a week. The National Coal Association notes some things which it says will hold that average for some time to come.

As of November 25, the total dug in 1950 was 454,000,000 tons. If the 10,000,000-ton average holds, the year's production would be 504,000,000 tons, although it likely will be a little less.

That is 50,000,000 more tons than last year but 45,000,000 less than in 1948. And it's a far cry from the 619,500,000 tons dug in the peak year of 1944.

The country's consumption in October was 38,000,000 tons. In spite of some holidays when factories were down, the weather and the business upsurge probably will show a November consumption of 40,000,000 or better.

One industry source figures that the total to be used by the year's end will be around 470,000,000 tons. On a 504,000,000-ton production basis, this would leave a stockpile of 34,000,000 tons.

There were a few weeks this year when output got up to 12,000,000 tons but they represented peaks. In some previous years 12,500,000 tons weekly was the rule rather than the exception. One industry spokesman said it could be done again very quickly if freight car shortages weren't troubling various areas.

Aside from the demand created by industrial speed-up, Europe has started asking for more coal. The National Coal Association in its latest bulletin said:

"There is looming up a demand for coal to be exported—in fact, England is seeking coal here, and this is business that we have not heretofore enjoyed. There are several other countries making inquiries about coal and some are in the market at this time.

"Our government defense program will soon be reflecting itself in a greater use of coal."

As an indication of what is happening to the export market, one industry source pointed out that prior to four weeks ago, shipments from Hampton Roads, Virginia, ran about 44,000 tons a week in the last month, that has been stepped up to 67,000 tons a week.

The great storm which began on Thanksgiving Day gave the industry pause for thought. The Association bulletin remarked:

"Fortunately, there were ample coal stocks on hand to prevent shortages in homes and factories, but weather such as has prevailed since November 23 calls for heavy consumption. Retail coal deliveries have been badly interrupted. This, of course, has taken a considerable quantity of coal from stockpiles and that coal must be replaced."

The Association added that as a result of this situation, "as well as some other matters, the demand for coal is bound to increase. With transportation difficulties in some areas, as well as the weather problem, the 10,000,000-ton weekly average will likely prevail for some time."

Besides weather and export demands, the NCA noted these other things as affecting production and use of coal in the near future:

1. There have been considerable railroad car shortages "and the situation has only slightly improved in some areas."
2. The coming of winter will slow down the movement and unloading of coal all along the line. Also, about 2,000,000 tons were lost Thanksgiving week and there are other holidays before the end of the year.
3. The electric utility industry will add more than 6,000,000 kilowatts in 1951 and this will require a lot of coal.
4. The armed services draft will have some effect in manpower.
5. In some northern states industrial users of natural gas have been notified they will have to curtail demands for gas because there isn't enough to serve fully both industrial and household consumers.

Chiang and his gang out. We'll transact business with them later.

We're transacting business with those same "agrarian groups," right now, a million or more of them, and other millions who are quitting the plowshare for the sword, etcetera.

It makes us feel plumb far-seeing and wise when we hear learned diplomats say that a mere pitchfork brigade could lick Chiang's veterans and not realize that somebody—Russia, for instance—was supplying them the wherewithal.

Anyway, by turning China over to the Communists we supplied our mortal enemy with all the manpower and resources it will ever need.

There, we maintain, we "scratched." But we can't ask 'em to rack the balls up again. The game's under way. Thanks to some monumental blundering, we face the darkest days since Valley Forge. This is it.

It's our job now to hope and work and pray—and fight; to live honorably and, if we must die, as a nation or as individuals, to die with honor.

HOW TO CURE A COLD

For years now I have been reading about the hazards of life at home, how more people are killed or badly bent or broken by falls in bath tubs, falls out of bed, into bed, etcetera, than in any other way.

And I have been mindful of all these pitfalls—so much so that until recently I had escaped everything except a severe attack of lumbago which I laid to a bit of lawn-mowing but which other members of the family ascribed to minnow-feeding. But the book didn't say anything about playing games, and so it happened.

In one of my weaker moments I permitted the children to persuade me into joining them in a game of old-fashioned blindfold. They call it, in some quarters, blind man's buff, but that is neither here nor there. What concerns me is the fix I'm in.

I shed my coat, my shoes and tried to shed the years as we tiptoed and capered back and forth across the living room floor to avoid the hoodwinked pursuer. But this fellow was hounding me so closely that I was at the point of questioning his blindness—when, making a sudden start to escape, Twinkle-Toes felt his feet shoot, I mean, shoot, straight out behind him.

No, the nose didn't make contact with the floor. One fist got there first, then the body onto the fist. Upshot of the matter is a condition which cured what appeared to be the beginnings of one of the worst head colds in modern times. By gosh, my ribs have been so sore I've been afraid to sneeze!

FRANKFORT — State Game and Fish Director Earl Wallace said Kentucky is guarding against entrance into this state of the sea lampreys which are destroying fish in the Great Lakes. The state now requires inspection of all live fish shipped into Kentucky. "That's to prevent any sea lampreys being brought in, and it also will keep out any new fish diseases," Wallace said.

Every Ky. County Will Have at Least One Draft Board

At least one draft board is being set up for each of Kentucky's 120 counties. This step was announced Wednesday by Kentucky's Col. Carroll S. Carter, deputy State Selective Service administrator.

At present 13 Kentucky boards serve three counties each. There now are 86 other boards, six of which are in Louisville to serve areas of Jefferson county. These will be continued. The 26 new boards will be in operation shortly after January 1.

The decision was reached by Col. Solon P. Russell, State Selective Service director, in conference in Frankfort with Adjutant General Roscoe L. Murray. Nominations for board membership are made by the Governor and appointments by the President.

Record Timber Sales Made From Cumberland

Winchester, Ky., Dec. 6 — Timber cut in the Cumberland National Forest during the year ended June 30, 1950, yielded the highest income in the Forest's history, H. L. Borden, supervisor, announced.

Reports recently compiled show that the 13,921,000 board feet cut were sold for $132,509.24, he said.

Borden said this income, plus several thousand dollars of land rentals and royalties, almost equaled the cost of protecting and managing the Forest for the same period. This means that the Cumberland, except for road-maintenance costs, is operating nearly "in the black" and is very little liability to the taxpayers, Borden said.

Borden said that reports just compiled showed all 52 National Forests to have receipts of $33,594,614 for the year as compared to administrative costs of $33,837,145.

Highlands and Russellville High Schools each placed two men on the Louisville Courier-Journal's 29th annual All-State high school football team.

John Delmer Hughes, Prestonsburg high school's sophomore quarterback, was named to the second team.

Twelve men, instead of the usual 11, were named on this year's team, selected by coaches, sports writers, sportscasters and officials.

The extra man was added to accommodate the tie that developed between Paducah Tilghman's Bob Hardy and Louisville St. Xavier's Ernie Heckman.

Halfback "Boonie" Black of Harlan was named honorary captain for polling the largest number of votes.

The first team: Ends—Charles Hines, Hazard; and Bob Curtice, Highlands.

Tackles—Larry Ludwig, Russellville; and Marion Prather, Somerset.

Guards—Terry Holthouser, Okolona; Jerry Clark, Ashland.

Center—Wendell Thress, Highlands.

Backs — Hugh Black, Harlan; Jimmy Sedbrook, Louisville Male; Jim Sanford, Russellville; Bob Hardy, Tilghman; Ernie Heckman, St. Xavier.

UTAH MAKES DRIVING SAFER FOR ALL

SALT LAKE CITY — Utah's annual safety inspection, which begins in mid-February and continues until May 15, will cost Beehive State motorists more than $800,000 to bring vehicles up to a safe standard.

The state highway patrol superintendent, Joseph W. Dudley, said the motorist will be well repaid, however, in the knowledge that not only his car but the one approaching him on the opposite side of the highway center line at 60 mph is in top-shape mechanically.

SPORTS AFIELD

By TED KESTING

No man ever gets so good he can't miss an easy shot. Even practice won't make you perfect, but it will help. However, there is no substitute for game shooting to teach a man how to hit game. Clay target shooting will teach familiarity with gun handling and that is about all.

So if you want to become good at field shooting the answer is practice on live game. Work on crows. Shoot coots. Maybe when you get so you can kill five coots in a row you can hit a mallard passing by.

Don't trust everything the "experts" tell you. Ray Holland says it was several years before he learned that pecking your gun out ahead of a flying duck is the wrong way to go about getting him in the bag. Any target passing you must be led. That's where practice counts. No man can tell another how far to shoot ahead; you can't figure lead mathematically. It takes swing and perfect coordination of eye, mind and muscle to put ducks down with regularity.

All the really good duck shots I know come up behind their game, pass the target and pull the trigger as they swing on by. Some cover the target and follow it for a split second, then whip the gun ahead and pull the trigger. None of these men stop the gun as they pull. If you stop the gun you miss.

That's because the speed of your swing helps take care of the lead. When you stop as you pull, the duck flies out of danger. How much daylight should you see before you pull? That's up to you. No two men shooting together may agree on this. If your bird doesn't come down on the first shot, try more daylight on the second. It is rare for a gunner to shoot too far ahead of waterfowl.

Many men have trouble with birds flying directly overhead. A bird in such flight always looks higher than he really is. It is a comparatively sure and easy shot once you have mastered the technique. Shoot him directly overhead if you think he is over 35 yards high. Bring your gun up from behind him and just as he is directly above you, blot out the bird and whip the gun ahead as you pull the trigger.

Meredith Assails Funk In Road Dept. Ruckus

Frankfort, Ky., Nov. 11—Former Attorney General Hubert Meredith kept the charges of corruption in the state Highway Department a hot issue today.

He told Attorney General A. E. Funk in a letter that he lost faith in Funk when Funk failed to prosecute "those who falsified the records" of the 1950 Legislature. Meredith has claimed that any attempt to get Funk to investigate the Highway Department would be "futile." Meredith has filed three suits in circuit court here charging that cash was exchanged for favors. He also charged that the department and certain contractors rigged bids on road projects with the understanding that part of the contract payment would be "kicked back" to Highway Commissioner John A. Keek or his associates "for partisan political campaign purposes."

Keek and the contractors have signed affidavits denying all the allegations.

Funk replied that he might ask circuit court for a special grand jury to compel Meredith to disclose where he obtained information for the charges made in the three suits. Funk also denied any knowledge of rigged bidding and kickbacks in the Highway Department. Meredith had told him he should know about such things.

"Your threat to bring me before the grand jury and compel me to disclose the facts upon which I intend to rely in these suits would not bother me in the least," Meredith wrote today.

"You know that I am not exactly an amateur and that I would not furnish ammunition for any adversary to shoot back at me.

"You could not compel me to thus testify and you know that I know you do not want the facts for the purpose of prosecuting the wrongdoers," he said.

Meredith asked to take Funk's deposition "with complete assurance that you will testify to all the facts within your knowledge relating to kickbacks and shakedowns and rigged or protective bidding, and the exaction of donations as a prerequisite to the right to be on the favored list of bidders for road work and the sale of commodities and supplies to the Highway Department."

After receiving the letter, Funk said, "I have no objection to my taking my deposition. I welcome it." (A deposition is the testimony of a sworn witness, put down in writing, in answer to questions before a commissioner, examiner, or other judicial officer.)

Meredith said that if Funk wants indictments he can get them by going before the grand jury and telling all he knows about the Highway Department.

Funk said the Commonwealth's Attorney here may ask the grand jury to investigate the charges.

Meredith's reference to the "falsified" legislative records stems from the House's voice-vote approval of The Journal on March 16 to show that 21 Senate bills got the first of three readings on March 15. The House had forgotten to read the bills on March 15. The Legislature adjourned sine die March 17. Seven of the 21 bills became law. The others were left dead on the board.

Charles I. Dawson, unsuccessful Republican candidate for the United States Senate, accused Governor Earle C. Clements and legislative leaders of endorsing this "felony." Clements, who was elected Senator last Tuesday, never mentioned this incident in his campaign speeches.

Kv. Heal'h Official's View Diphtheria Rise With Much Concern

Health officials are becoming increasingly concerned over the sudden rise in diphtheria in Kentucky. There is an unusually high number of cases in the south central part of the state, with some of these in the high school age group, and there have been 15 deaths from diphtheria from January to October this year.

"Parents have made the mistake of thinking that once the child is immunized and given a booster dose on entering school he is safe from diphtheria for life," said Dr. Robert Hense, director of the Division of Preventive Medicine of the Kentucky State Department of Health. "They are finding out too late the folly of this notion, for children need booster doses at five-year intervals and on into young adulthood."

State Health Department officials recommend that babies be immunized when they are from three to six months of age. Many physicians routinely give a triple vaccine which protects the child from whooping cough and tetanus, as well as diphtheria.

With the slackening of immunization, there is the constant danger of an epidemic. Dr. Hansen pointed out, Diphtheria, which is the commonest in colder months, may cause death or may result in permanent injury to the heart, nerves, or kidney.

Since there is a definite immunizing agent available, there is no excuse—other than ignorance or negligence—for diphtheria, smallpox or typhoid fever.

Immunizations are available from the family physician or your county health department.

The term "collective bargaining" was first used by Beatrice Webb in 1891.

Pikeville Bears Count Heavily on James Duff, Former Garrett Hi Star

Pikeville, Ky., Nov. 13 (Spl.)—James O. Duff, Garrett, is an outstanding member of the 12-man Pikeville Junior College Bears squad which opened the new basketball season here last week, according to an announcement by Coach William B. Houchin of the Bears. A forward, he played all but a few minutes of the Bears' opening game against the Mayo State Vocational School Pirates here Nov. 9, contributing 13 points to Pikeville's 65-52 victory.

Duff is a graduate of Garrett high school, where he was a star athlete. The son of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Duff, of Garrett, he is a freshman at the college, enrolled in the teachers' course.

Twenty-four games remain on the Pikeville squad's 1950-51 schedule—one of the hardest seasons ever attempted by a Kentucky junior college, according to Houchin. Some of the toughest opposition the Bears will face this winter will be provided by freshman teams from the University of Kentucky, the University of Louisville, Western State College at Bowling Green and Marshall College, Huntington, W. Va.

Only two members of the squad which won the Kentucky Junior College Conference tournament here last March, and later was runner-up in the Southeastern Conference tournament, returned this year, the coach said. The Bears had to be rebuilt around Vesper Singleton, Anco, a Carr Creek alumnus, and George Kirk, Warfield.

Besides Duff, the Pikeville College squad includes Leonard Duncin, Whitesburg; Carson Coleman, Pikeville; Vesper Singleton, Anco; S. B. Williams, Jr., Pikeville; Morris Stratton, Jr., Pikeville; Robert Houchin, Smiths Grove, Ky.; James Tyler, Morgantown, Ky.; George Bailey, Hindman; Arnold Harmon, Inez; George Kirk, Warfield; Ester Fields, Beauty, and Phil Scott, Hud-dy.

KENTUCKY ON THE MARCH

Your correspondent's persistent efforts to persuade Frankfort to put up good road signs for the guidance of strangers looking for our scenic attractions finally got the attention of Governor Clements. A definite promise? No, not quite that good. Maybe he needs a little time to confer with department heads. We will grant him the time, then if something definite isn't done soon there will be another column about the much needed road signs.

A paragraph from the Governor's letter:

"You are dead right about the signs, and your observations with reference to what they mean to the traveling public and what the tourists mean to our Treasury, whether it be as individuals' or collected tax money found in the Treasury, are right to the point. Observations like yours are wholly constructive and conducive to improvements by public officials in the conduct of the Commonwealth's affairs. I appreciate your views, and so do Henry Ward and Mrs. Lucy Smith, and I believe we shall profit from them and by them."

I like the flattery, of course, but action is more important. In publicizing our natural and man-made wonders with roadside signs we are decades behind other states.

If you have driven over much of both Kentucky and Indiana I don't have to tell you that every state park, every natural attraction in the Hoosier state is far better publicized than our attractions. Compared with Mammoth Cave and Kentucky Dam, Indiana's biggest tourist attractions are little more than picnic grounds, but travelers on the highways don't have any trouble finding the Hoosier sights.

If Governor Clements and Conservation Commissioner Ward could see the crowds of Kentuckians that go to Kentucky Dam on Sundays they would appreciate the dam's tourist appeal. Some Kentuckians living 100 miles from the dam get lost trying to reach it.

Mammoth Cave has some roadside signs, but not enough. It certainly needs some national publicity, also. Neglected for forty years because Kentucky officials were little more publicity minded than hermit mountaineers, Mammoth Cave needs a build-up that will take ten more years. Commissioner Ward and Highways Commissioner Keek have done quite a lot thus far.

To help get some big nationwide publicity for the cave I am going to use all the arguments at my command to persuade a pictorial magazine to make a big article about it. Forty interesting photos could be taken at the cave. My resourcefulness as a press agent will be given a test.

In the meantime we'll be waiting and watching for the aforementioned roadside signs.

Kentuckians needn't wait for the signs. They can find our two major attractions with a road map. (Sindicated By The Union County Advocate)

Theoretically an electric light bulb could be designed that would burn continuously for 1,000 years—but it would give less light than a firefly.

To Offer Short-Term Training School Here

Dr. Dennis Snapp, executive secretary of the Kentucky Conference of the Methodist Church, will be director of the leadership training school which will begin at the Methodist Church here Sunday night and continue through Tuesday, it was announced by the pastor, Dr. Gerstle M. Haggard. Each session will begin at 7:30 o'clock.

Dr. Snapp, a successful leader in the field of Religious Education in the Kentucky Conference, is offering short-term courses whereby Sunday School teachers and officers gain a greater vision of their responsibility.

NEW YORK — Dr. Lewis Atterbury Conner, 83, a founder and first president of the American Heart Association, organized to combat heart disease, died here.

Trichinosis Preventive—Cook Pork Thoroughly

Trichinosis, a painful and sometimes fatal disease, is caused by eating raw or uncooked meat, usually pork, which is infected with Trichina parasites, or "pork worms." The disease is easily prevented but as yet no cure has been found for it, since there is no way to remove the worms from the human body once they have reached the muscle fibers.

The only safe rule to follow is to cook all pork thoroughly before eating it. The heat of thorough cooking destroys the worm larvae in the meat. All pork and raw pork products should be cooked sufficiently to cause them to lose their pinkish color and to turn grey throughout.

Farmers can also aid in preventing trichinosis by cooking garbage before feeding it to their hogs and by processing their pork either by heating or freezing before using or selling it.

This advice is particularly timely since, in many parts of Kentucky, it is hog-killing time and folks in urban as well as rural areas are looking forward to country ham as part of their holiday menu.

Pork is a nourishing food, rich in protein and thiamin. If proper precautions are observed, there is no need to develop a dread of trichinosis. The fact that raw or underdone pork may cause trichinosis does not mean that its use should be avoided. It does mean that all pork should be thoroughly cooked before it is eaten.

COLUMBIA—An illness of several months ended in death yesterday for Edgar W. Reed, 55-year-old partner in Reed Bros. Insurance Co. here. He also was vice-president of the First National Bank.

Psychiatric Treatment Modernized at Norton

Patients in the Psychiatric Clinic at Norton Memorial Infirmary in Louisville are examined intensively to discover their individual needs. Just as physical needs are studied, so are the pent-up desires, unexpressed creative capacities, and paralyzing frustrations evaluated. The diversity of the program offered in the clinic's friendly hospital setting meets the needs of many types of troubled personalities.

Activities which at one time were not thought to belong in general hospitals have become a natural part of daily living, such as special individual and group activities, including square dancing, ceramics, silver work, plastics, dramatics, picnics, and trips to local places of interest. Other cultural activities in the community, such as concerts, plays, movies and the art museum, are a welcome antidote to the usual anxieties, fears and excessive troubled thinking associated with illness.

As improvement occurs, it is natural that patients should want to have family or close friends to dinner, or to participate with them in special social functions. Both inside and outside the hospital, these opportunities for healthy living are encouraged. In a pleasant, comfortable hospital atmosphere, such activities with emotional satisfaction and creative release, go hand-in-hand with skillful, scientific psychiatric treatment. Modern science does have a human side.

County 4-H Club Officers Elected at Meeting Here; Ten Clubs Represented

Eighty-six members of Floyd county 4-H clubs attended a training conference for officers and leaders of the organization at the Presbyterian Church here Wednesday afternoon.

County 4-H Club officers were elected by the group as follows: Cloda Goble, of Auxier, president; Eddie B. Akers, of Banner, vice-president; Virginia Burchett, of Allen, secretary; Betty Marshall, of Harold, Peggy Jean Stanley, of Bonanza, Hazel Hall, of Spruce Pine, Ermalee Francis, of Drift, Bonny Baldridge, Little Paint, and Janet Conn, of Brandy Keg were elected club leaders.

Following a general roll call and group singing, led by Franklin Moore, Prestonsburg, Boyd E. Wheeler and Miss Margaret Guley, district 4-H leaders, spoke to the group. Mr. Wheeler stressed the many state-wide activities of the 4-H club which the members may enter and urged them to do so. Miss Guley stressed the national level of 4-H activities, and emphasized the interest displayed in the organization by big business.

Later the officers of the clubs were spoken to according to office. Glenn Anderson, Prestonsburg, spoke to the presidents of county 4-H clubs on their duties; Mr. Wheeler spoke to the cheer leaders and recreation leaders; Lewis Campbell, principal, Allen school, to the 4-H sponsors, Miss Mary Martha Williams, Brandy Keg school, and Mrs. Edith Burchett, Banner school; Mr. Moore to the song leaders, Harold B. Rice, county agent, to the secretaries, and Miss Barbara Allen to the club reporters.

Ten of the twelve fully organized 4-H clubs in Floyd county were represented at this conference. Those present were Auxier, Brandy Keg, Allen, Harold, Spruce Pine, Banner, Lower Little Paint, Drift, George's School, and Bonanza. Absent were Sam Hale school and McDowell.

Jesse McBrayer, Rowan county's largest poultry producer, has installed an electric water system in his poultry houses.

SUIT NAMES JOHN A. KECK

Dawson's Petition Says Highway Commissioner Involved With Firm

Frankfort, Ky., Dec. 5 — Bogie Equipment Company, Lexington, made a profit of $100,000 after paying $6,000 to Highway Commissioner John A. Keck, it was charged in a suit filed here late today by Charles L. Dawson, Louisville, defeated Republican candidate for United States Senator.

Dawson, an attorney, was joined in the suit by attorneys Thomas S. Dawson, Louisville, his nephew, and William L. Wallace, Lexington, Republican chairman of the Sixth Congressional District. The elder Dawson is a former district judge. His nephew is a former judge of the Court of Appeals.

The suit was brought in the name of Albert Christen, Louisville accountant who, on behalf of candidate Dawson, examined records of the Highway Department during the campaign won for former Governor Earle C. Clements, the Democratic nominee.

The suit charges that Bogie Equipment Company also paid additional, but unknown, sums to Keck for preferential treatment on bids for road machinery. After paying the $6,000 specified, "in February or March, 1949," Bogie sold $623,000 worth of equipment by November 1, 1950, the suit charges.

The suit asks that Bogie's commission was at least 20 per cent, hence the profit amounted to at least $100,000, and probably more. The suit asks Franklin Circuit Court to do two things. First, it asks the court to appoint a special master to audit Bogie's books to find out exactly how much profit was made on State business between February or March, 1949, and November 1, 1950.

Second, it asks the court to compel Bogie to refund this profit to the State. These and other charges of a similar nature have been denied categorically by Keck and Tom Caplett, president of Bogie Equipment Company.

The suit reveals that the Dawsons asked Attorney General A. E. Funk to join them, but in vain. Funk said tonight he told them by letter the evidence they submitted was, in his opinion, insufficient to justify a suit.

Funk added, however, that his office now has under way an official inquiry that, before it ends, will cover the Dawson charges. This investigation is being made by Assistant Attorneys General Squire N. Williams, Jr., and Armand Angelucci, and State Police Detective James Hughes.

The attorney general's investigation followed filing of three suits November 4 by former Attorney General Hubert Meredith, Owensboro. These suits charged that Keck and road contractors rigged bids at two lettings in 1949 to obtain political kickbacks; and that Keck shares in the profits of a road-building firm in his home town of Sandy Hook.

The Meredith suits also charge that Keck received $6,000 from Bogie Equipment Company. But details of this charge do not agree in the Meredith and Dawson suits.

Maytown Wins Here In Cats' Second Loss; Garrett, Wayland Next

The Prestonsburg high school Black Cats suffered their second defeat of the season Tuesday night in as many basketball games since storing away for the winter their football togs, this time being edged in a ragged game by the visiting Maytown Wildcats, 45 to 42.

Prestonsburg got off to a 10-6 lead in the first quarter but was behind at the half, 22-18. The Cats lost their big center, Junior Hunley, on fouls, midway the third period, and trailed by a 33-30 score at the end of that quarter.

Prater and Caudill led the Maytown attack with 17 and 15 points, respectively. Mayo at forward with 13 points did Prestonsburg's heaviest scoring.

The Cats go to Garrett for their first game away from home this season, Friday night, and on the following evening are at Wayland for a game with the Pre-Season tournament champions.

Effective rock-dusting and other safeguards are proposed for the Martin Coal Company's No. 10 mine, about three miles southeast of Drift, Ky., in an original coal-mine inspection report issued this week by the Bureau of Mines which also cites desirable features. The mine employed six men and produced 50 tons of coal a day when it was examined in October by Inspector John H. Clawson.

All areas not actually wet should be rock-dusted to within 80 feet of the faces, adequate fire-fighting facilities provided, permissible electric cap lamps used, and smoking and the carrying of matches or other smokers' articles in the mine discontinued, the inspector advised. He said permissible explosives should be fired electrically and safely stored on the surface and underground, and substantial non-conductive containers used in carrying the blasting materials into the mine.

Proposing compliance with the adopted systematic timbering method, the inspector said at least two safety posts should be set close to each face, sufficient permanent timbers placed, and loose haulage roof taken down or supported as detected. While sufficient air reached the working places, he advised offsetting the fan in a fireproof housing and providing it with specified safeguards, and making pre-shift fire-boss examinations.

Haulage operations and electrical installations were satisfactory except that standing cars should be blocked securely and the drill's trailing cable lacked overload protection, the inspector reported. He also recommended adopting a positive check-in-and-out system, and 100 per cent wearing of protective apparel.

The inspector approved frame-grounding of the pump and fan motors during the inspection and he noted with approval that clearance space and shelter areas were adequate and unobstructed, and the second escapeway was travelable.

IN MEMORIAM

In memory of my niece who died on December 25, 1945:

I have a niece in heaven,
That I always long to see,
October has passed with sad memories,
On the 2nd she would have been 18.

I think of her in silence
And often dream of her at night;
She seems so close
When everything is quiet.

We have to realize she's gone
And never on earth with us be.
We all can meet her in heaven
Where there will be no sad memories.

HER AUNT EFFIE

Wayland Defeats McDowell To Win 'Pre-Season' Title

The twin handicaps of cold weather and slippery roads failed to keep the basketball faithful away from the Pre-Season basketball tournament which ended at Wayland high school gymnasium Saturday night with the host school winning the title after four nights of play.

Proceeds of the tourney exceeded $1,500 and the net realized for The Floyd Countian, annual county school publication, was $1,279.

Wayland's Wasps, who had turned from the gridiron to basketball only two weeks earlier, dominated the tournament, downing Maytown, 64 to 50, Martin by 73-53, and McDowell in the finals, 63 to 55. The team's conquest of favored Martin was the big upset of the meet.

Winner and runner-up trophies were awarded the Wayland and McDowell teams, and members of the two teams received miniature gold and silver basketballs. Wayland's Fred Fraley with 55 points was high scorer of the meet, with Henson of McDowell the runner-up in scoring 44. Frankie Crum of Betsy Layne had the highest single-game total of 23, and Fraley of Wayland was next with 21.

LOOP NAMES 'ALL' ELEVEN

Paintsville, Pikeville Place Seven Players In All-Star Line-Up

The Big Sandy Conference "all" team for 1950 is a Lucky 13. As named Sunday at Pikeville, it is composed of nine linemen and four backs.

The Paintsville Tigers led all teams of the Conference in placing players on the mythical eleven, with four, and the Pikeville Panthers were runners-up with three. The Wayland Wasps placed two, and Prestonsburg, Fleming-Neon, Whitesburg and Jenkins were represented by one player each.

The method of selecting the all-Conference team this year, it was explained, was for each team to submit to D. W. Howard, Betsy Layne, its all-opponent team. Only a first team was named this year. Jenkins high school failed to submit its choices.

The 1950 all-Conference: Billy Wheeler, Pikeville, and James Daniels, Paintsville, ends.

Paul Prater, Pikeville, Ousley, of Wayland, and Bill Bates, Jenkins, tackles.

Clark Ray Ratcliffe, Pikeville, Tom Spradlin, Prestonsburg, and Midge Spears, Paintsville, guards.

Curtis Cox, Fleming-Neon, center. Bob Williams, Paintsville, quarterback.

Jake Gambo, Paintsville, and Ronny Kincer, Whitesburg, halfbacks.

Fred Fraley, Wayland, fullbacks.

The Evening Star

The brilliant evening star is a symbol of many things to many folk. Mariners hail it as a good omen, for it usually forecasts a clear, calm night and smooth sailing. The shepherd tending his flocks on a desolate hillside gratefully notes its appearance in the heavens, for its friendly light offers an intangible sort of companionship during his lonely vigil. To many, the star is representative of God's infinite power and wisdom.

Just as this star touches hearts in countless different ways, so may the Church bring to those in all walks of life peace and comfort which lead to a happier, more fruitful pattern of life.

Let us make the Church our guiding light. We can brighten our lives if we accept the teaching of the Scriptures as guideposts along the pathway to future endeavors.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

BETSY LAYNE

The Betsy Layne Woman's Club held its regular weekly sewing meeting Friday at the home of Mrs. O. J. Williams. This was an all-day session which was spent in finishing aprons and pot-holder sets.

During the sewing session Mrs. Beecher Hardwick read from the November issue of the General Federation Clubwoman magazine, "Coffee with Her Majesty" by Margaret Parkin. This delightful account of Mrs. Hiram Houghton, president of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, and her World Cooperative Tour group's visit with Queen Juliana of the Netherlands was enjoyed by everyone. A card from General Federation headquarters asking for aid in the army's Reorientation Program in teaching German youth was read. The member clubs were asked to send packages containing durable cloth, needles, thread and yarn. An army transport marked GFWC containing these packages will be sent to Germany and will arrive there before Christmas. The club voted to send a package containing these items.

The 44th annual Christmas Seal sale was discussed. The club will distribute the necessary material in the school, and Mrs. Hardwick will be in charge of the supplies and distribution of these materials. Throughout the day various items of interest were discussed. Plans for the last sewing meeting of the year were made, with Mrs. T. J. Chandler to be hostess at this afternoon meeting Tuesday, Dec. 5.

Luncheon was enjoyed by the following members: Mesdames T. J. Chandler, Beecher Hardwick, Edward Lykins, W. P. Howell, O. J. Williams and Miss Alice Williams.

Woman's Club Meets With Martin Council

Martin, Ky., Dec. 5 (Spl.)—The Allen-Martin Woman's Club met jointly with the Town Council of Martin, Monday, to discuss ways and means of establishing a satisfactory method of garbage disposal for the two towns. another reason why millions of women are changing to Electric cooking...

ELECTRIC COOKING IS MODERN!

first basic improvement in cooking methods since cave man days...

It's heat that cooks—nothing else. The flame is just a nuisance. Hazardous. Burns up oxygen in a room. Hard to control.

But until electric cooking came along you couldn't get heat for cooking very easily unless you took the flame along with it.

Electric cooking is different. It's modern, efficient. There is no flame, just useful heat. Heat automatically controlled. It's fast. It's safer. It's cleaner. It's for you. See your electric range dealer today.

LOW COST, TOO
At our low electric rate, about $2 worth of electricity cooks meals for the average family for a whole month.

NOTICE

It has been called to my attention that a great number of my friends do not know that I no longer own an interest in the Funeral Home at Martin, formerly known as Arnold and Hall, now known as Hall Bros. Funeral Home.

I wish to take this means of announcing that I do not have any interest in any funeral home other than the Arnold Funeral Home in Prestonsburg. I established this funeral home which bears my name, in 1925, from which my friends and neighbors have always been given the most efficient and sympathetic service possible at a reasonable price. In 1948 the new funeral home on Second street that we now occupy was built, the sole reason being that I felt that the people of Floyd county should have the best facilities in the state made available to them for the care of their loved ones.

You can rest assured that as long as the ARNOLD FUNERAL HOME is operated by my partner, Franklin W. Moore, and myself, the same fair treatment for all that has distinguished this firm for the last 25 years will be given to those we serve.

Floyd County Historical Notes

By HENRY P. SCALF

Donald Lewis Osborn, of Archie, Missouri, inquired about his Floyd county Osborn antecedents. His letter gives certain information on the Missouri Osborn and this information, in the light of the Floyd county record, is very interesting.

These letters from people of the West recall the restless urge of our forebears who came into the Big Sandy about 150 years ago, settled for awhile and reared families. Some of these second generation settlers, like their parents, ever restless, moved on toward the golden west, losing themselves to us, while they busily settled and developed a new land.

The notes herein on the Osborn family do not pretend to a coherent pattern or outline, for they are taken from the file and presented with little attempt at organization.

Delancan Gude Osborn (the spelling of the Christian name is that of the Missouri Osborn) was born Feb. 13, 1853, died May 9, 1933. He married Eda Catherine Lewis and they lived in Missouri at the time of his death.

There is only one Osborn marriage listed in the Mason county record previous to 1800, when Floyd county was cut off.

Ben Osborn married Susanna Baker 2-28-1813. The marriage was performed by Simeon Justice, one of the first Pike county officials, and while Justice in performing the marriage was acting as a Floyd county magistrate, the fact indicates that Ben and Susanna lived in that part of early Floyd that is the present Pike.

Sherron Osborn married Levicy Collier 4-28-1814. The Hiram Osborn married Nancy Mullins 9-16-1819.

The marriage of Hiram and Nancy was solemnized by James Honaker, indicating that it too may have been performed in what is now Pike county.

Thos. Osborn married Nancy Frazier 11-18-1821. Edward L. Osborn married Rhoda Spurlock 3-10-1829.

William Osborn married Jemima Friend 12-16-1835. Stephen Osborn married Maranda Wireman 1-6-1840.

Salsbury Osborn married Jane Hall 1-13-1850. These marriage records have been given in chronological order, as this is often an assistance in piecing together a family record.

Sept. 16, 1819. It is my understanding that Solomon Osborne, and wife, Hannah Bowling, were pioneers in Pike county. I have also been informed that Solomon Osborne was the son of Enoch Osborne and Jane Hash, and that Enoch was the son of Ephraim Osborne and Elizabeth Howard.

It is said there were six Osborne brothers who emigrated from North Carolina. This may just be another two-brother tale, in triplicate, but as I showed in a previous article, immigration did proceed in several brothers uprooting themselves from their place of birth and moving on for land and adventure.

William James Madison Osborn settled on Bull Creek. He had married Causy Jane Corder, daughter of Elijah Corder, of Scott county, Virginia.

W. J. M. Osborn served in the 5th and 10th Kentucky Infantry, Confederate States of America, and was but 18 years of age when he entered the service.

The June 18th, 1950 issue of the Louisville Courier-Journal (Sunday) carried an article on John L. Osborn, of Wallins, Harlan county, Ky. This 95-year-old representative of the Osborn race was named American Father of the Year by the National Father's Day Committee, a nation-wide organization.

Passed from hand to hand, like a pioneer letter, comes a note to the effect that Daniel Boone cut his initials in stone on the present S. C. Allen farm, left fork of Goose Creek, on Beaver. The date, the note says, is 1775. This could conceivably be Boone's initials, for Boone was in Kentucky that year.

Another letter from the west: "Mr. (a county official) has referred me to you to find some information that I desire. Since you are the County Historian, he thought that you would be able to help me."

Auto Wreck Average Is 2,000 Per Month; About Half Insured

Automobile accidents in Kentucky are averaging about 2,000 per month, reports being received in the Safety Responsibility section of the Department of Revenue show.

About 52 per cent of the cars involved in accidents are covered by insurance, records indicate.

Paul Boyd, supervisor, said reported accidents have shown a steady gain since the section was established. Accidents listed in 1947 were approximately 14,500; for 1948 they climbed to about 18,000; in 1949 they reached 21,500 and for the first 10 months of 1950 they mounted to over 20,000.

Boyd said part of this increase may be attributed to better cooperation from the public in reporting motor vehicle accidents.

The law requires that any driver of a motor vehicle involved in an accident in which a person is injured, or damage to any car is $50 or more, must report on State Police Form No. 74 immediately.

Fifth-Grader Is Winner

Thacker 2nd in District

In the opinion of the four judges the multi-colored exhibit, entitled "Careless Smoking," of Donald Hockensmith, a fifth-grade pupil of the Beechmont School, Louisville, was the best of more than 800 submitted in the 1950 state fire prevention poster contest which is held annually at all elementary and high schools of Kentucky to encourage an interest in fire safety.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Hockensmith, young Donald is the youngest child ever to win the grand $50 cash prize, Martin said. The 1950 contest attracted a record number of entries. Second prize, $25, went to Ann Brumbeck, Lexington high school.

Other state-wide winners, who were also first-place district winners, were: Walt Shearer, Owensboro high school, third prize, $15; Patsy Roper, Hopkinsville grade school, fourth prize, $10. Receiving special honorable mention was Tommy Bales, Louisville junior high school pupil.

District prizes, including cameras, paint sets, fountain pens, and school bags were awarded to winners of the three age groups in each of sixteen geographical districts. James Robert Thacker, Martin high school senior, won second place in the senior division of District 16.

In any event there shall be set aside into said fund in each year in ample time amounts sufficient to amortize the principal and interest requirements of the outstanding bonds of the issue herein authorized.

The amount by which any such payment in any fiscal year exceeds the aggregate amount of interest on and principal of said bonds becoming due in such year shall be held in said Redemption Fund as a reserve for contingencies and shall be used solely as herein provided.

Provided, however, that no further payments need be made into said Redemption Fund so long as such amount of the bonds shall have been redeemed and the amount then held in such Fund (including the reserve for such contingencies) is equal to the entire amount of interest and principal that will be payable at the time of maturity of all of the bonds then remaining outstanding.

SECTION 4. If in any fiscal year the City for any reason shall fail to pay into said Redemption Fund the full amounts above stipulated, then an amount equivalent to such deficiency shall be set apart and paid into said Fund out of the first available gross revenues of the following fiscal year or years, and the same shall be in addition to the amounts otherwise herein provided to be set apart and paid during such succeeding year or years.

All monies held as a reserve for contingencies as aforesaid shall be deposited in a bank or banks, and all such deposits shall be continuously secured by insurance from The Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, or by a valid pledge of direct obligations of the United States of America having an equivalent market value, or shall be invested in direct obligations of the United States Government, provided, however, that the City shall make sale of a sufficient amount of such obligations in the event that it shall prove necessary to draw upon such reserve.

Such payments into said Fund shall be made in equal monthly installments on the first day of each month, except that when the first day of any month shall be a Sunday or a legal holiday, then such payments shall be made on the next succeeding secular day.

In the event the income and revenues during any month are inadequate to make the required payment into said Fund, said Fund shall be made up and paid as aforesaid from the first income and revenues thereafter received, and same shall be in addition to the payments otherwise provided to be made in such succeeding month or months. The "Sewer Revenue Refunding Bond and Interest Redemption Fund," as aforesaid, shall be used solely and wholly, and is hereby exclusively pledged to the purpose of paying the principal of and interest on the bonds herein authorized to be issued.

Ten per cent (10 percent) of such balance of the income and revenues shall be set aside into the "Sewer Depreciation Fund" and shall be expended in making good any depreciation in said system and in making any extensions, additions or improvements to the property, the City hereby finding and determining that such proportion of such balance of the income and revenues is sufficient for said purposes. Any accumulations of any "Sewer Depreciation Fund" may be invested as the City may designate, and if invested, the income from the investments shall be carried in the "Sewer Depreciation Fund."

Ninety per cent (90 percent) of the balance of income and revenues remaining after the aforesaid payments into the Redemption Fund shall be set aside into a "Sewer Operation and Maintenance Fund" and used for the proper operation and maintenance of the said waterworks system.

It is provided, however, that amounts accumulating in said "Sewer Operation and Maintenance Fund" and "Sewer Depreciation Fund" beyond the amounts reasonably required for the operation of said sewer system, the provision for depreciation in the sewer system and the making of new extensions, construction or additions thereto, may be transferred for the purpose of paying interest and principal on sewer revenue bonds of the City which it is contemplated may be issued in the future, subject to the priority of the bonds herein authorized, but any such extra revenues shall be used for no other purpose.

SECTION 5. While the bonds authorized hereunder, or any of them, remain outstanding and unpaid, the rates for all services rendered by the said sewer system to said City and to its citizens, corporations, or other customers, shall be reasonable and just, taking into account and consideration the cost and value of said sewer system and the cost of maintaining, and operating the same, and the proper and necessary allowances for depreciation thereof, and the amount necessary for the retirement of all bonds and interest accruing thereon, and there shall be charged against all users of said sewer system, including said City, such rates and amounts for sewer service as shall be adequate to meet this and the preceding sections hereof. Compensation for sewer service rendered by said sewer system for said City shall, in like manner, be charged against said City and payment for same from the corporate funds shall be made monthly into the special fund created by this ordinance as other income and revenues of said system, and shall be apportioned to operation and maintenance, depreciation and bond and interest redemption funds, as such other income and revenues.

Insofar as consistent with the laws of Kentucky, said City agrees that, so long as any of the bonds hereby authorized remain outstanding, it will keep proper books of record and account, separate from all other municipal records and accounts, showing complete and correct entries of all transactions relating to said system, and that the holders of any of the said bonds shall have the right at all reasonable times to inspect the system and all records, accounts and data of the City relating thereto.

SECTION 6. The City hereby covenants and agrees with the holder or holders of the bonds herein authorized to be issued, or any of them, that it will faithfully and punctually perform all duties with reference to said system required by the Constitution and laws of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, including the making and collecting of reasonable and sufficient rates for sewer service rendered by said system, and will segregate the revenue of said system and the application of the respective funds created by this ordinance; and the City hereby irrevocably covenants, binds and obligates itself not to sell, lease, mortgage or in any manner dispose of said system, including any and all extensions and additions that may be made thereto, except the mortgage as provided in Section 7 hereof, until all the bonds herein authorized to be issued shall have been paid in full, both principal and interest, and the City further covenants and agrees with the holders of said bonds to maintain in good condition and continuously operate said system and to charge and collect such rates and charges for sewer service rendered thereby so that the gross revenues will be sufficient at all times to provide for the payment of the operation and maintenance thereof, and maintain the Depreciation Fund and the Bond and Interest Redemption Fund as provided herein.

SECTION 7. That for the further protection of the holders of the bonds herein authorized to be issued, a statutory mortgage lien upon said system and all properties connected therewith and extensions thereof and belonging thereto is granted and created by Section 96.400 of KRS, which said statutory lien is hereby recognized and declared to be valid and binding upon the City and all the property constituting the sewer system of said City as provided by law, and shall take effect immediately upon the delivery of any bonds authorized to be issued under the provisions of this ordinance. Any holder of said bonds, or any of the coupons, may either at law or in equity, by suit, action, mandamus or other proceedings protect the statutory mortgage lien hereby conferred, and may by suit, action, mandamus or other proceedings enforce and compel performance of all duties required by said statutes, including the making and collecting of sufficient rates and segregation of the income and revenues and the application thereof.

If there be any default in the payment of the principal or interest on any of said bonds, then upon the filing of suit by any holder of said bonds or of any of the coupons, any court having jurisdiction of the action may appoint a receiver to administer said system on behalf of the City, with power to charge and collect rates sufficient to provide for the payment of any bonds or obligations outstanding against said system, and for the payment of the operating expenses, and to apply the income and revenues in conformity with this ordinance and the provisions of said statute laws of Kentucky.

SECTION 8. That the bonds authorized to be issued hereunder and from time to time outstanding shall not be entitled to priority one over the other in the application of the revenues of said system, or with respect to the statutory mortgage lien securing their payment, regardless of the time or times of their issuance, it being the intention of the City that there shall be no priority among the bonds authorized to be issued under the provisions of this ordinance, regardless of the fact that they may be actually issued and delivered at different times, and provided further that the lien and security of and for any bonds or obligations hereafter issued that are payable from the income and revenues of the waterworks shall be subject to the priority of the bonds hereby authorized as may from time to time be outstanding.

SECTION 9. That said $22,000.00 of said bonds numbered 1 through 22 herein authorized shall be sold at a public sale after reasonable advertising. That bidders shall bid not less than par plus accrued interest and shall be required to deposit a good faith check in the amount of $500.00. That the Mayor and the City Clerk are hereby authorized and directed to make such advertising, and if it has already been made, such action is hereby authorized, ratified and confirmed. That the proceeds of said bonds shall be used first only to retire $22,000 of outstanding City of Prestonsburg 3 1/2 percent Sewer Revenue Bonds dated August 1, 1944, and the expenses in connection with same, and any surplus shall be placed in the Revenue Refunding Bond and Interest Redemption Fund for the bonds herein authorized, but any misapplication of such proceeds shall not affect the validity of the bonds herein authorized.

SECTION 10. That the provisions of this ordinance shall constitute a contract between the City of Prestonsburg and the holders of the bonds herein authorized to be issued, and after the issuance of any of the bonds no change, variation, or alteration of any kind of the provisions of this ordinance shall be made in any manner, except as hereinafter provided, until such time as all of said bonds issued hereunder and the interest thereon have been paid in full.

SECTION 11. That if for any reason the bonds herein authorized should ever be held invalid by a court of competent jurisdiction, the holders of same shall be fully subrogated to the rights of the holders who hold the bonds refunded by the bonds herein authorized.

SECTION 12. That if any section, paragraph, clause or provision of this ordinance shall be held invalid, the invalidity of such section, paragraph, clause, or provision shall not affect any of the remaining provisions of this ordinance.

SECTION 13. That all ordinances, resolutions, and orders or parts thereof, in conflict with the provisions of this ordinance and to the extent of such conflict are hereby repealed.

SECTION 14. That it is hereby declared that this ordinance become effective immediately upon its passage and approval.

Strategic War Materials From U.S., West Europe, Pour Into Soviet Russia

The war potential of Russia will have been increased, during 1950 alone, by almost a billion dollars' worth of strategic materials from outside, in legal exports from Western Europe and in smuggled shipments, many direct from the United States. So state O. K. Armstrong and Frederic Sondern, Jr., in a December Reader's Digest article condensed from the Washington Post.

Much of the material from Europe comes from factories rebuilt and retooled with the help of ECA dollars. England, France, Belgium, Switzerland and Western Germany continue to provide ball bearings, lathes, drill presses and special steels with which the Soviet plants at Magnitogorsk and elsewhere turn out guns, tanks and warplanes.

Three years ago, remembering the lessons from our shipments of scrap iron to Japan and our pre-Pearl Harbor trade with Nazi Germany, Congress prohibited export of all arms and ammunition except under specific license by the State Department. Exports of potential war materials were banned too, unless licensed by the Department of Commerce. Abroad, the ECA was ordered to stop delivery of Marshall Plan goods to any country known to be reshipping them to Communist territory.

European nations receiving ECA aid promised to abide by these rulings, but the promises have not been kept, the authors state. Most of the Western European countries have long-standing trade agreements with Russia and its satellites, and are accustomed to exporting certain goods and importing needed commodities. Also, their definitions of potential war materials have differed from ours. Britain alone will have sent to Russia and Eastern Europe, this year, $120,000,000 worth of goods deemed by Washington to be of high strategic value. Belgium, the Netherlands, Sweden, France and Italy have exported almost as much.

This open trade is sanctioned by treaties, however, and is duly reported to the United States. But the Russians have other sources of supply, unsanctioned and illegal, and to keep these sources in business Soviet agents commit bribery and even murder. Irving Ross, an American official of ECA in Austria, was slain two years ago because his investigations had disclosed the key Communists in Vienna who ran Russia's undercover trade with the West.

The West-East smuggling operation is probably the biggest in the history of this ancient business, the authors say. In every major industrial city of Europe buyers subsidized by Russian funds serve the needs of Moscow. The U.S. High Commissioner in Germany estimates that more than $200,000,000 worth of highly critical products are annually smuggled into Russia from Western Germany alone. The West German customs and frontier guard, hopelessly understaffed, can barely manage to inspect one freight car in 50 crossing into Eastern Germany. Some shipments are sneaked over the border under false labels, others are carried in heavily armed trucks with which the frontier guards "rarely choose to tangle."

Some U.S. exporting concerns have been punished in the past two years for misrepresenting the final destinations of strategic-material shipments. In the same period, the article says, $150,000,000 worth of critical goods have been stopped en route to Russia by the Office of Industry and Commerce. But OIC is undermanned; its members themselves believe they have missed more than they have caught.

In Europe ECA is reluctant to deal harshly with smuggling for fear of arousing resentment which Russia might turn to political advantage. At home, Congress voted down a proposal that ECA aid be withdrawn from any country trading with Russia in contraband. It was objected that "such radical action might do us irreparable harm in Europe."

What's Wrong with Floyd County?

WITH no thought whatever of trespassing on the lofty precincts attained by the late William Allen White through his famed editorial, "What's Wrong with Kansas," The Times devotes this space to a discussion of what is wrong with Floyd county.

Why can't we have such-and-such? folks want to know after seeing other counties enjoy certain advantages or improvements. And why can't we do this or that? The questions are querulous, plaintive almost.

If we were obliged to make a sweeping but brief diagnosis of the county's ills, we would ascribe it all to two wants:

First of all, for want of cooperation.

Next, for want of originality or initiative. Floyd county is already pretty well industrialized, and it has a dozen communities which have ambitions. With these working independently, pulling in all directions and never together, and with an old, hateful jealousy existing between what is incorrectly referred to as "the county" and "town," we present a front which is never solid and consequently always pitifully weak while competing with other counties.

Just now, Prestonsburg is planning a Chamber of Commerce. That organization, unless revisions in the planning are made soon, will, even though working for the ultimate good of Floyd county, appear as a local group. It needs to be, as Mayor Curtis Clarke suggested recently, a Floyd County Chamber of Commerce, dedicated to getting things done in, for and by Floyd county, not by only one community.

The writer of this editorial lives in Prestonsburg, but no town has ever succeeded in taking the county, where his roots are imbedded, out of the boy. He knows all those old, petty prejudices rural Floyd county has for the town. But, being a part of both, he knows how foolish, unfounded and damaging those jealousies are. This newspaper is the Floyd County Times, mind you, named for the county, and to serve all the county; it is not the Prestonsburg Times or the Martin Times or the Times of his native Salt Lick.

And so The Times, convinced that whatever brings new business and new improvements to any part of the county benefits all the county, is inclined to be critical of the motives and thinking of any individual, whether he be an ignorant lout or in a position of influence, who seeks to play one part of Floyd county against the other, or the "city" against the "county."

We are all just human beings, with children to feed and clothe and educate, and lives to live.

Last summer, Floyd county celebrated its Sesquicentennial. It was an historic occasion. One hundred fifty years of history lay behind. But the Sesquicentennial, in fact, was not a Floyd county celebration, although all Floyd county was asked, even urged, to take part. With a few notable exceptions contributed by fair-minded men and women in a sprinkling of communities over the county, Floyd county outside of Prestonsburg took about as much part in that celebration as did, say, Johnson county.

All Floyd county benefited from the publicity received, but not from the cooperation and friendliness which should have existed.

Right now, there is a strong possibility that a huge chemical plant designed to use the natural gas produced in Floyd and surrounding counties will be located in some Big Sandy county. The plant itself may cost more than thirty millions of dollars. Such an industrial installation will mean employment to many, wherever it is located; and announce to the public for years beyond prediction.

Will Floyd county, its business and civic leaders, join in working to get that plant located somewhere inside the county's borders? Or will John Floyd's sons pull separately, each fearing the other will profit more, one objecting to a location near Prestonsburg, say, another to Allen or Martin or Harold or wherever?

Honestly, doesn't it all border on silliness, this jealousy and prejudice we have permitted to cloud our thinking?

Even this may be blamed for our lack of originality. Hemmed in behind the walls of our own small thinking, we fail to think aggressively, to essay the new undertaking. Instead, we wait till our neighbor has a successful start made in a business, then we climb aboard his band-wagon, so to speak; we try the same thing. A consequence is, there is no diversity of enterprise and industry.

Community loyalty and pride are great attributes. But narrow prejudice, internecine warring are sheerest folly. We should get our "Irish up," once in a while, but there is no wisdom in being like the Irish so much that if we can't find anybody else to fight, we'll have a go at our own folks.

Jest Among Us...

By Jack Wild

Mrs. A. R. Evans, of Williamsburg, is a real paste-and-scissors enthusiast. For twelve years she has been snipping all sorts of items for her twelve big scrapbooks and friends often drop by to look through the interesting clippings. Cotton Noe, Kentucky's poet laureate and professor emeritus of education at the University of Kentucky, once remarked that he would give much to own those scrapbooks.

When Mrs. Evans read this column's recent comments regarding typical Kentucky dishes, she got out her scrapbook on that delightful subject and sent me a recipe that has been used for four generations in Southeastern Kentucky.

Ginger Cookies: 2 cups brown sugar (rolled or sifted), generous cup butter, cup country molasses, cup buttermilk, 3 eggs (well beaten), level teaspoon soda added to buttermilk, teaspoon salt, rounded teaspoon baking powder sifted with flour, 2 level teaspoons ginger, enough flour (several cups) to make stiff batter to roll. Cut out cookies and bake at about 350 degrees.

This recipe, Mrs. Evans points out, was used in the time of large families, but it can easily be halved if you have a small family. If the men around your house like cookies as much as I do, though, better play safe and use the full-sized recipe.

BOBS AND BEARDS—Television isn't the only thing competing with radio. The electric razor has been doing it for years. . . . Some women say that short hair is becoming. Becoming what? . . . My barber says he prefers customers in the following order: Men, women, children with their mothers along. . . . A young fellow peers in the mirror to see how much hair has come out overnight. When he gets a little older he'll continue to peer in the mirror to see how much hair has come out overnight—but there's a difference boys, there's a difference. . . . It seems to me that beauty shops might offer "temporaries" at cut rates to ladies who can't afford "permanents."

New Booklet Shows When Maid is Under Social Security Law

"Do you have a maid?" Not so very many households these days can answer yes, but those who do have a maid or any other household worker will need a copy of a brief booklet bearing that question as a title. Horace J. Godbey, Manager of the Ashland social security office, began distributing this booklet today. This colorful leaflet sets out, in a few sentences, just how the lady of the house, or any employer of domestic help in or around the home, may tell whether or not the worker is brought under the new social security law which becomes effective on January 1.

The work of those regularly employed in private homes will be credited to social security and the employer will be responsible for reporting wages, along with social security taxes, to the collector of internal revenue.

The title of the pamphlet does not stop with "Do You Have a Maid?" but continues "—or a laundress?—a cook?—chauffeur?—gardener?" Any of these, or any other persons employed regularly for work in or around a private household may come under the new law, and Mr. Godbey urges their employers to request a free copy of the booklet.

A simple test in the booklet, in terms of amount of wages paid and regularity of employment, will tell whether a maid or cook or laundress will get the protection of social security—and whether the housewife should start making reports next year. If so, there's a postage-paid postal card in the government-issued booklet which the housewife should mail in for information.

Copies of the booklet are available at all post offices, or may be secured at offices of the collector of internal revenue. "Here in Ashland," said Mr. Godbey, "if you'll just call the social security office, telephone 2205, or drop us a post card, asking for the booklet, 'Do You Have a Maid?' we'll send it to you by return mail." Address of the office is Social Security Administration, 2nd National Bank Building, Ashland, Ky.

The social security manager said he is arranging with women's groups to furnish supplies of the booklet for their members.

For the domestic worker's own information about her new social security protection, a special leaflet is available at the social security office. Mr. Godbey pointed out that regularly employed domestic workers will need a social security account number card after January 1, 1951.

The "Do You Have a Maid?" booklet does not apply to domestic work on farms operated for profit. Such work is covered by other provisions in the new social security law.

Perry county farmers harvested a bumper crop of sweet potatoes in 1950.

Soldier at the Front Expresses His Thanks

Were the folks, here in the peace and quiet of their homes, thankful as they might have been on a recent Thursday?

This is what Pfc. Charles Boyd, son of Mr. and Mrs. Worley Boyd, of Prestonsburg, and a soldier on the North Korean front, had to say, that Thanksgiving Day in a letter to his father:

"Today is Thanksgiving and we are expecting a big turkey dinner. I am thankful to God that He has let us all live another year to worship Him and serve under Him. . . . I only hope that every family at home is as thankful as I am."

Pfc. Boyd wrote his parents he had received from them a Floyd County Times news-story telling of the prediction made by Pvt. Ezra Branham, son of Mrs. Charles Lafferty, Prestonsburg, to the effect that those who thought the war in Korea was over "are crazy." "I guess he is just about right, too," Boyd wrote.

"I am proud to serve in the army of one of the greatest countries in the world," he added. "As long as we put our trust in God we will always be the greatest of all."

Members of Negro homemakers clubs in Christian and Todd counties ordered 5,700 gladiola bulbs, 1,600 tulips and 800 iris bulbs.

Farm NEWS and VIEWS

By HAROLD B. RICE, Floyd County Agent

Farmers who are planning to have their soil tested should take soil samples as soon as possible. The weather man caught us off guard and if this snow melts, fields should soon be dry enough to walk over and collect samples. If you put off collecting these samples the ground may be frozen.

The proper way to get a soil sample for testing is to collect a small amount of soil from 8 to 10 different places in the field. Don't collect all the samples from the most fertile or the thinnest spots in the field but try to get an average of the whole field. An ordinary spade can be used to take the samples. A good sample would include soil from the first six inches after you have collected soil from 8 to 10 different places and mixed them thoroughly. This is called a composite sample. Only one half pint of soil should be brought to the County Agent's office, as this amount is all that is needed to make the test.

Tests can be made for lime, phosphate, and potash in the County Agent's office. This test is free of charge. If a more complete test is desired, your sample can be sent to a soil-testing laboratory. A laboratory test costs about fifty cents per sample.

A soil test is the quickest way to tell what nutrients are deficient. Sometimes farmers apply phosphate or potash to a field that is high in that nutrient or lime to a field that is not acid. Soil tests will show what is needed and how much.

Alfalfa will remove as much phosphorus from the soil in a year as 100 to 200 pounds of 20 percent superphosphate contains. It will remove as much as 125 pounds of potassium per acre. Because alfalfa requires such large amounts of these nutrients it is very important that a soil test is made on all alfalfa land. Alfalfa can't compete with weeds and will soon die out if the required nutrients aren't supplied.

Marshall county farmers topped previous years in the use of ammonia nitrate, one dealer reporting more than 60 tons sold for pastures.

It is estimated that around 15,000 people saw the 4-H club displays in 15 store windows in Harlan county.
