

POOEY!

I am having trouble again with my correspondents. Guthrie F. Crowe, Commissioner of Kentucky Police and state chairman of the Crusade for Freedom, insists on addressing me as Normal Allen.

The Bituminous Coal Institute writes me as editor of The Floyd County Times. To the first I suggest, call me Ab for short. To the second, I simply sputter.

GENIUS KNOWS NO BARRIERS

I have just been to the circus and had myself a time. If you saw me there, you may have thought, judging from my distraught demeanor, that I was considering a liberal dose of hemlock, but you were mistaken.

You see, I invested a quarter in one of those prize-in-every-package boxes of candy for my young daughter; and, the prize being what it was, I promptly confiscated it. It was a plastic box containing a well-known cigarette package.

Immediately, I moved to open the case. But it refused to open readily. So I began exploring the contraption. I pulled, I pushed, then squiz. No dice. Finally I cut with my glasses and gave the thing a really close inspection.

After that, I lapsed into the mood which some might have mistaken for melancholia. I put the contraption in my pocket and gave myself over to the young Edison stuff. I had the picture in mind; I had the problem pegged down--now for the solution.

And finally it came. I realize now that I must have cackled aloud in triumph. Who said I could not fathom mechanical puzzles?

Straightway I came to this office, there to delve into the old tool kit. Up I came with the same tool I used with such effect, once before, in repairing an air rifle for my son. And I got the same general effect, this time, that I did with the rifle.

I clamped the tool--I believe I forgot to mention that it was a pair of pliers--across the enigmatical

FLOYD COUNTY REPRESENTED

At Kentucky State Fair; Miss Goble, Allen, Cook Vieing for State Honors

Floyd county this week sent three representatives to take part in State Fair events at Louisville.

Miss Betty Jo Goble, pretty Prestonsburg brunette, represented the Big Sandy area in the state beauty contest as Miss B's Sandy, the title she won in the REA's annual Farm Show here in July. Winner of the state contest, Miss Katherine Dennis, Berry, Ky., will represent Kentucky in the Memphis, Tenn., area beauty contest leading to the national contest which will name Miss Rural Electrification for 1950. Miss Goble, the other 20 beauties taking part in the state contest and their parents were honored at a banquet held at the Brown hotel, Louisville, Monday evening.

The other Floyd county State Fair representatives are Junior Conservation Club bait-casting titlists, David Allen, of the senior division, and Johnny Cook, of the juniors, who will compete for state titles at the Fair today (Thursday). The boys were accompanied to Louisville Wednesday by E. R. Burke, Seventh district supervisor, Division of Fish & Game.

HEALTH CLINIC DATES NAMED

Sites Are Set to Handle 1,500 School Beginners; Medical Group to Aid

Five clinics have been set up for examination of the approximate 1500 Floyd county children beginning school this year for the first time in the 117 schools of the county. This is in accordance with a state law which provides that all beginning pupils must undergo a physical examination before entering school.

The decision to establish these clinics was reached at a meeting of Director of County Health Education, Miss Betty Jean Martin, with the Floyd County Medical Society, September 6, at Our Lady of the Way hospital at Martin.

Examinations will be made at Prestonsburg, Wednesday, September 20; Martin, September 21; Lacey, September 27; Wheelwright, September 28, and at Weebury, October 4. All teachers are being notified by mail of the dates, sites, and arrangements for transportation. A doctor's fee of $2.00 will be charged except in special cases where examination will be made free.

FLOYD BOARD ROW AWAITS 5TH MEMBER

Tomorrow Set as Day For Important Decision By State School Board

Tomorrow (Friday) is The Day, a day which exposing factions in the county school embroglio have looked forward to with both anticipation and dread.

Friday the 15th is the date accepted generally for the appointment by the State Board of Education of a fifth member of the Floyd County Board of Education.

On the decision of the State Board rests the hopes of both sides in the scrap--the hope of the present Administration to continue in power with an edge of at least 3-2, even if it should lose both seats on the Board at the November election; the dream of opponents of the Administration of holding the same edge, and of making changes in the county's educational set-up.

The day, too, is one of more than passing interest for others wholly outside the field of education--the Governor of Kentucky, for instance, and Congressman Carl Perkins, both of whom are candidates. They fear an upset of the county's political equilibrium and would like to be completely removed from the issue.

Construction Firm, Owned by Three Brothers, Gets State Charter and Adds Another Brother: To Build Modern Warehouse and Garage Here

With the granting of a charter July 1, Harris Bros. Construction Co., Inc., began its corporate existence, but the business had been in operation as a partnership of the three brothers, Floyd, Bascom and Irvin Harris, since early 1946.

The organization now adds a fourth brother, Fred Harris, as treasurer. Fred, veteran of the wartime navy, had been with the partnership since his return from the war.

Floyd and Bascom Harris, veterans of electric distribution and transmission work of years, were elected president and vice-president respectively, of the new company. Irvin Harris, a veteran of the army, became secretary. He had been associated with the partnership since demobilization at the end of the late war. Henry P. Scelf was elected assistant secretary in charge of accounting.

Many Seek Jury Work After Pay Increased

JUDGE SAYS JURY WHEEL TO BE USED

Explains Law Forbids Him To Select Jurors As Applicants Desire

The new pay rate of $5 a day has made jury service so attractive that Circuit Judge Edward P. Hill is being beset by applicants for jury jobs. And the judge is finding it difficult to make those asking places on the jury understand why he cannot make room for them.

This week when the October term petit jury was being drawn from the wheel he took special care that all might see the method of selecting a jury in open court.

"Think," he said, "we could in some instances have better courts if we could use some other system of picking jurors, but this is the way the law prescribes, it is the democratic way, and I do not intend to see it otherwise. I would like to be able to do all who want jury service a favor, but cannot."

He recalled that a grand jury at Somerset recently indicted Circuit Judge Tartar, charging him with "packing" a jury.

For the October term of court, which will convene Monday, Oct. 1, names of 36 jurors--35 men and one woman--drawn from the jury wheel by Circuit Judge Edw. P. Hill were announced this week by Circuit Clerk W. W. Cooley.

The term will see the trial of both criminal and civil cases. Names and addresses of jurors listed: Bill Burchett, Cliff; Richard Wells, Water Gap; Beverly Hall, McDowell; Bill Hall, Auxier; Lonnie Herald, Emma; Andrew Shortridge, Bonanza; Jack Hughes, Cliff; W. D. Hall, Bevinville; Add Warrick Water Gap; Will Hall, Hi Hat; Stallard Clark, McDowell; Frank Hammond, Sloan; Brock Hayes, Langley; E. H. Johnson, Melvin; J. C. Hamilton, Beaver; John Lee Hall, Price; Ashland Gayheart, Prestonsburg; Jeff Crider, Endicott; Henry Crum, Banner; James Roe, Dwale; Bert Calhoun, Cliff; Ark Hamilton, Price; Tom Parker, Wayland; Elbert Snipes; M. Pen Man, 61, IN RAPE CASE

Accused Man Denies Charge; Coal Firm Fines Total $400

For the attempted rape of a seven-year-old child, Manfred Spradlin, 61-year-old Floyd county man, was given a penitentiary term of five years by a jury of the Floyd circuit court Tuesday.

Spradlin, who has been in jail here since his arrest last March, denied any intention of harming the child. Mrs. Minnie Armes, mother of the little girl, and her small son, however, testified Spradlin was found in the barn loft near the Armes home on Hager Branch, near East Point, with the child who had been partially disrobed. The little girl herself did not testify, and her father did not appear in court for the trial.

Vowing that he would not harm any of the Armes children, Spradlin declared, "Why, I put dispers on every one of them. I rocked them to sleep, many times."

He claimed he had been at the home about four weeks before the alleged attack attempt to dig coal for the family and had been called back to dig another 75 bushels. He said he was drinking when he arrived and went to the barn to lie down. Spradlin claimed the family became angry with him because he left. He contended the garden-stuff family ate was raised by him.

Another five-year pen term was meted out Tuesday, this to Robert Snell for child desertion.

Strawbridge To Do Photos for Annual

Contract for photos for The Floyd Countian, county school annual publication, was let Saturday to the Strawbridge firm which previously had been making pictures independently of Floyd pupils.

The job was awarded by vote of high school principals and class sponsors on the Strawbridge offer to supply pictures for the annual without charge. Strahan's Studio here did the photography for the publication last year. "The change was made simply because it saved the schools' money," a spokesman said. "Strahan's work was excellent, but we could not afford to refuse the new offer." Strawbridge will depend on the sale of photos to individual students for its income in connection with school work, it was said.

Make-up of the annual is now being planned, and the Gray Printing Company will print it.

"I Believe"

I believe in the sacredness and dignity of the individual. I believe that all men derive the right to freedom equally from God. I pledge to resist aggression and tyranny wherever they appear on earth. I am proud to enlist in the Crusade for Freedom. I am proud to help make the Freedom Bell possible, to have my name included as a permanent part of the Freedom Shrine in Berlin, and to join with the millions of men and women throughout the world who hold the cause of freedom sacred.

That is the Freedom creed to which Floyd countians will during the weeks before October 16 be asked to subscribe. The Crusade for Freedom, getting under way in the county this week, will be carried to every school, church and public gathering and to as many homes as possible.

The nationwide Crusade is headed by General Lucius D. Clay, who has described the movement as a "spiritual airlift." It has as its aims:

- 1. To enroll the common people of America in a great moral crusade to combat Communism and to promote freedom, faith and peace throughout the earth.
2. To gain the financial support of the people for Radio Free Europe, the American people's broadcasting station in Western Germany which penetrates the Iron Curtain and answers Communist propaganda.
3. To afford the people themselves an opportunity to play a personal part in the fight against tyranny and Communist oppression.

BOARD BUYS SCHOOL SITE

County Plans Building On 5.6-Acres of Land; Local School Jammed

County Superintendent Palmer L. Hall said Monday that he expects to supply within the next few weeks to the Ashland firm of architects, Hayes & Lusk, information which will enable them to prepare plans for the school building to be constructed on the site acquired here last week by the County Board of Education.

The 5.63-acre tract, formerly the property of Mrs. Valenine P. Hopkins and son, John Calvin Hopkins, of Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., was transferred by the Hopkinses, Aug. 29, to Waldo and Dorothy Greenhouse, of Columbus, O., who executed the deed to the County Board on Sept. 5.

The reported purchase price was $40,000.

Under present conditions the proposed structure would serve only county students, since joint operation by county and city of a high school is forbidden.

The new building is planned at a time when both city and county high school students total 490, occupying a building constructed 20 years ago to accommodate 200. The record high school attendance here has made it necessary for two additional classrooms in the grade school building to be devoted to high school use, City Superintendent Chalmers H. Frazier said. In all, four high school departments--music, agriculture, science and home economics--are housed in the grade school.

The grade school itself has a student body of 660, with new pupils coming in almost daily. Kindergarten classes began Monday, with Mrs. Minerva Cooley as teacher. It has been feared the increased attendance might crowd out kindergarten this year.

TOURIST MEET DATED IN PIKE

Courtesy Conference Will Stress Importance Of Dewey Lake, "Breaks"

Residents of Floyd and nine other Eastern Kentucky counties have been invited to attend the Tourist Courtesy Conference which will be held at the Pike county courthouse Friday night, it was said this week by officials of the Pikeville Junior Chamber of Commerce, sponsor of the conference.

This is the third such meeting to be held in the state and its importance to the area is being stressed in view of the tourist attractions created by the impoundment of Dewey lake in this county and construction of a highway into the scenic Breaks area and by growing tourist interest in this section.

State officials and business leaders who will attend the conference, which will begin at 9 p.m., some of whom will appear as speakers, are:

- Col. Guthrie Crowe, Commissioner, Dept. of State Police; John A. Keck, Commissioner of Highways; N. A. Chrisman, president, Chamber of Commerce of Kentucky; David F. Cocks, vice-president, Standard Oil Company of Kentucky; F. W. Munro, advertising manager, Ashland Oil & Refining Company; Mrs. Martha B. Webb, Ashland Trade School; Dr. Maurice Baker, University of Kentucky; Mason Tush, promotional director, Kentucky Chamber of Commerce; Mack Sisk, office of the Governor; Mrs. Lucy Stone, State Board of Health; Robert Stokes, director of Tourist Promotion, Standard Oil Company; George Mascott, executive secretary, Chamber of Commerce; John Dunlap, state photographer; J. Veard Mann, highway department.

TOWNSMEN PETITION CLEMENTS AND KECK TO REMOVE METERS

Opposition to parking meters in the town of Martin continues, and this week it was said petitions were being forwarded to Governor Clements and State Highway Commissioner Keck asking them to have the meters removed from the main street of the town.

This main thoroughfare, a part of Route 80, was deeded by the Martin Town Council to the state, it was pointed out. Meters have not been placed on any other street there.

Lawrence Keathley, a former member of the Town Board, said 98 per cent of the people affected by installation of the parking meters signed the petitions. Among these, he said, were three of the six members of the City Council and the Police Judge.

JURY INDICTS INSANE NEGRO

Indictment of Simms Is Only Murder Bill Among 84 Filed Here

The lone murder indictment filed by the grand jury here before its temporary adjournment Saturday named as the slayer an inmate of the Eastern State hospital, Lexington.

The murder bill was filed against William Simms, 30, Wheelwright Negro, who was adjudged insane after having been held in jail here until recently without bond in the slaying last May at Wheelwright of James Monroe Terry. He will be subject to trial of the murder charge when dismissed from the Lexington hospital. Simms also was charged in another indictment with the shooting and wounding of Terry's wife.

The grand jury will return for the last three days of a nine-day session, Sept. 28. On adjournment Saturday it had returned 84 true bills.

Major indictments returned since last Wednesday follow:

Dr. W. J. Jefferson, carrying concealed deadly weapon and reckless use of deadly weapon; Virgil Conn, cutting and wounding; Levi Johnson and Milt Mullins, selling liquor; Ellis Bates, seduction under promise of marriage; Denzil Whitten obtaining money under false pretenses; Jimmy Wheeler and Jake Salsbury, carrying concealed deadly weapon; Beckham Hunter and James Price, breaking and entering; Bill H. Hughes, Jr., deserting pregnant wife; Dexter Hamilton and Charley Conn, one of those listed in the preceding paragraph, was accused of cutting Trimble Carroll, and Denzil Whitten was alleged to have represented to a Prestonsburg bank that Harold Sammons had executed a note to him for a "valuable consideration."

AUTO THEFTS HERE SOLVED

Andrew Cecil, 21, Former Employee of Motor Firm, Apprehended by Police

Theft of two automobiles from the Floyd Motor Company here almost turned out to be an "inside job" as city police learned the cars had been taken by Andrew Cecil, 21, a former employe of the firm.

Cecil was arrested Sunday morning at 2 a.m., when a new auto taken from the motor company's garage wrecked as he fled Prestonsburg with Policemen Bill Potter and Amos Gray and Deputy Constable Paris Brown in hot pursuit. The officers said he hit the curb approaching Cliff bridge at a speed of 85 m.p.h. an hour. The auto, a new Ford, began weaving on the curve, hit a guard rail and spun around in the highway.

Deputy Constable Brown saw the car being driven from the garage, lights out, and became suspicious. Cecil "ran" the Court street traffic light, and the chase by police followed.

Cecil, who had been employed by the motor company as a janitor and man-of-all-work, confessed the theft to Chief of Police Epp Lafayette. And later when company employes discovered another car missing, he, under questioning by Lafayette told where that auto was.

Neither auto had been badly damaged. In addition to a breaking entering charge, Cecil was in a warrant alleging forgery was said to have taken a check from the Floyd Motor Company to it the name of Cecil.

SINKING FUND LEVY TO END AFTER 1950

Old Debt Retirement Would Save Taxpayers Of County Any Increase

Floyd county can get the proposed $1,200,000 War Memorial hospital without any levy of taxes in addition to that which now exists.

This statement was made here Tuesday by County Judge Henry Stumbo, who explained that the 20-cent levy which would be made to amortize the $400,000 bond issue necessary to the county's part would merely take the place of the present 20-cent sinking fund levy which will not be made after this year.

The sinking fund levy will not be necessary after 1950, it was said, since the old debt for which the fund was created will be cleared away.

The bond issue necessary for Floyd county's participation in the government-sponsored program must be approved by vote of the people at the November election. The remaining $800,000 necessary for the county hospital would be supplied by federal and state agencies.

The bonds, if voted, would be required in 20 years or at the rate of $20,000 a year plus interest. Commenting on the various benefits a county hospital would bring, Judge Stumbo cited the fact that it would relieve the county and its taxpayers of an $8,000-$10,000 annual expense in hospital treatment for indigent patients.

Judge Stumbo suggested that members of both the Democratic and Republican parties should meet and plan joint all-out support of the bond issue. "Politics should be forgotten in this matter," he declared.

The Floyd County Democratic Campaign Committee said last week in announcing plans for a series of speaking appearances over the county in behalf of the ticket that one speaker will be designated to talk for five minutes at each gathering in support of the hospital alone. Similar action is expected from Republican campaign leaders.

"Such an opportunity for a county hospital may not come this way again," Judge Stumbo said. "I am not asking where it will be located; I'm for it even though it should be built in the remotest corner of the county--because it is for Floyd county and people who need the facilities of such an institution."

Garrett Soldier Dies In Korean Action

Pvt. Frankie B. Hughes, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Hughes, of Garrett, who was killed in action at Hadong, Korea, July 27, with a U. S. infantry regiment.

Pvt. Hughes enlisted in the army Nov. 30, 1949 and had been based on Okinawa since last May. He had been in Korea less than a week when killed.

The following tribute to Pvt. Hughes was written by his cousin, Paul Jordan, in the Paintsville Herald:

Frankie Bee Hughes has been killed in Korea.

The life of 17-year-old Frankie Bee Hughes has been snuffed out by Communist assassins on the war-torn battlefield of South Korea.

(So many words, falling like shooting stars into the darkness of night—streaking the sky only momentarily and then fading into nothingness).

Who was Frankie Bee Hughes? The name is unfamiliar, you say. Let me tell you who he was; He was your son, and the son I might have—overgrown, likable, laughable, boyish Frankie Bee Hughes.

(The bloom of manhood plucked from the petal of youth and trampled under the boot of war).

Last of all, he was a soldier, who fought and died for a cause unreal to him personally; but the fulfillment of a duty that he knew must have a purpose.

The papers are chock full every day of youths being slaughtered in Korea; Frankie Bee Hughes is another name to add to the endless list—another name for us to shrug off as the inevitable toll of war.

But to Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Hughes of Garrett, Ky., Floyd county, the name of their son is far more than a row of scrambled letters. It is a household word since birth; a cherished title of pride and love; and a name spoken with fear and anxiety as a soldier of war.

Now his name is uttered with heart-wrenching tears and sobs stifled with agony, for Frankie Bee Hughes is dead.

(The path of destiny we must all tread—Mankind was born to die).

No great ceremony will accompany this youth's death; he is an unknown patriot who died for the cause of freedom. Like the thousands of his predecessors. And like the thousands who will follow him.

But in the sorrowful confines of the Hughes home, the ceremony of lamentation will be eternal, for the image of Frankie Bee Hughes is real, and he lives in spirit. His picture smiles out in mute silence from the mantelpiece; his 22 rifle sets solidly in the corner of a room, unbelieved; and his heavy footsteps are almost audible.

(Visible life has faded, but the spirit remains in haunting remembrance).

Yes, a fuzzy-cheeked youth has been proclaimed dead, but he will always live day by day in our midst; He is the modest and unassuming lad next door, the mischievous prankster at school, the rawbone athlete, the zesty youth who fishes and hunts, and the ruffian who fights.

The story of Frankie Bee Hughes is simple and routine, and not at all colorful. He was not a person of rank or dignity, but a mere youth seeking adventure and thrills, for which idealistic adolescents are always searching. Tiring of the monotony of school and unable to quench the thirst for excitement in a crude mining town, he sought the one means of escape—an army career. To him, being a soldier meant traveling to strange places, and the pursuit of a new and colorful life. Unaware of his prime duty as a soldier to fight; he nevertheless, gave his life unselfishly and unquestionably, after only two or three days of actual combat.

We salute you, Frankie Bee Hughes! You died as a soldier on the field of honor that we might live in a free world.

You will not have died in vain!

Sign—John Hancock Style!

In 1776 when John Hancock signed the Declaration of Independence he wrote his name with a bold flourish, remarking, "There! George the Third can read that without his spectacles!"

Hancock, Sam Adams, Thomas Jefferson and those others who signed the historic document did so with the full knowledge that if the colonies' war with England failed, their act, that Independence Day, could be the signing of their own death warrants.

Now, we are asked—we as good Americans are the Crusade for Freedom Scrolls which is our Declaration of Freedom, 174 years later. This merely is our assertion that we believe in human rights and the freedom and equality of man and that we are willing to be listed as pledged to resist aggression and tyranny. This is asked of us during the Crusade for Freedom which ends October 16, next.

Let us every one do just that. Let us go find a Freedom Scroll to sign if there is none at hand. Let us sign our names clearly, boldly, even with a flourish—so that Joe Stalin may be able to see without using his spectacles the determination of America to face him or any other foe of freedom.

Floyd County Soldier, Pot. Fraley, Is Injured In Korean Action, Sept. 3

Sam Fraley, of Martin, was notified Tuesday in a telegram from the War Department that his son, Pvt. Charles R. Fraley, 18, has been injured in the Korean action. The telegram stated that Pvt. Fraley was slightly injured on Sept. 3.

A member of a cavalry division, Pvt. Fraley had been in the army for a little over a year, and shipped out from Fort Lawton, Washington, shortly before the Korean war broke out. Before entering the service, he attended Wayland high school and was a member of the Wayland basketball team. He resided at Estill with his grandmother, Mrs. Rosie Staggs.

PRESTONSBURG UPSETS 'DOPE' 14-6 TO WIN

Ball Gets 2 Touchdowns, Linemen Play Good Game As Cats Win Grid Opener

Doped by several freeling prognosticators to tally short of victory and only shakily predicted to win by a few adventuresome others, the rebuilt Prestonsburg high school Blackcats took a firm step toward possession of the 1950 Big Sandy conference title here Friday night by turning back 1949 grid champ Whitesburg, 14-6.

"Doc" Ferrell's well-trained "lads of the Red-and-White" employed sleight-of-hand ball handling and effective blocking to add the camouflage early in the first quarter which enabled fleet-footed fullback Sid Ball to scamper almost unhampered 85 yards past a bewildered foe to pay dirt. The oft-tackle touchdown trot originated with a hand-off from quarterback Clyde Laferty. Jimmie Mayo added the extra point.

Second quarter play was more or less on even terms with the half-time finding the Blackcats leading, 7-0. Both teams registered in the third stanza.

Ball, the converted Prestonsburg guard who "is very much on the ball" in the backfield this year, got his second touchdown of the grid scramble by stepping two yards off-tackle after the Cats drove up-field from receiving the kickoff on their own thirty-yard line. The scoring fullback flattened his total with the extra point.

Rennie Kincer, veteran Whitesburg back, collected his team's lone touchdown. Kincer and Gose turned in fine performances for the losers.

Expected to be a weak spot for the Cats this year, the line play was gratifying. Ends Hill and Compton sparkled on wing play. Hopson did an outstanding job at the center position and in backing up the line. Pennington, the newcomer from Logan, W. Va., made himself right at home—in his opponents' backfield, that is! He mingled in the biggest percentage of the tackles. The line, as a whole, was aggressive and consistently rushed into the tackling jobs.

The Blackcats annexed the win minus James DeLong, brilliant back who was injured during the Camp Daniel Boone training period. Grover Fitzpatrick, likewise injured, and Chester Bingham, who underwent an emergency appendectomy. DeLong, it was reported, has recovered sufficiently enough to see some action with the Cats against Matewan, W. Va., there Friday (tomorrow) night.

While some of the other Big Sandy mix it up this week-end in the quest of loop prestige yet to be shown, the Prestonsburg eleven has already established itself as power to be reckoned with in conference ratings.

Games Tomorrow Night Hailed As Important in Conference

Tomorrow (Friday) night may go down in this year's history of Big Sandy conference play as "V-Night," or the payoff night, in the final reckoning to determine the loop's football champion for the current season.

Two contests, Fleming at Belfry and Paintsville at Whitesburg, are eminent in that respect. Results of these two conference tussles not only will have direct bearing but may also signal the time for all well-meaning pre-season predictions to fall by the wayside.

The Fleming-Belfry tilt will see two of the loop's heaviest fortified lines in action. Fleming, with a 1949 record of seven wins against three losses, wasn't hurt too much by graduation. Coach William Gregory has two full veteran-laden lines and seven adept backfield men. His major loss was all-conference back Ova Stapleton but performers such as Jack Hall, Don Wright, Bill Patrick and others are expected to offer him sufficient consolation.

The Fleming line is a story within itself built around stalwart center Curt Cox. Two added valuable paragraphs are Bill Kendrick and Harold Bailey, tackles on the 1948 Fleming team which shared the conference title with Prestonsburg. They returned this year to the gridiron batties after seeing services in the armed forces.

Belfry, with one of the biggest high school lines in the state last year, found itself this year almost intact in that department. The giant forward wall of the Pirates, slow in getting started last season, is fast overcoming its hesitation under the tutelage of a new coach, John Morlice, star lineman and co-captain of Morehead's 1949 college gridlers.

A difference in backfields may tell the difference in the Fleming-Belfry test with a nod going in favor of the Fleming invaders. The Letcher county Express, if triumphant, will become the object of excited intense "flagging-down" operations all along the rest of the '50 schedule. Engineer Gregory, throttling his gridster cargo to the old Fleming standby, the double-wing, and new variations of the T and the Split-T formations, expects to inject a bit of "highball" into the football runs of his schedule. He has two capable passers and three receivers to make good connections for all destinations. Gregory, however, anticipates the possibility of "wrecks" and tomorrow night may result in one of them.

Prestonsburg, since cancellation of a September 1st game, has no

College Scholarship Students
Guests of Princess Elkhorn

At David last Wednesday evening a group of Floyd county college students and their parents were definitely among friends. They were guests at a buffet supper of the Princess Elkhorn Coal Company which had given the students scholarships to college.

The get-together, arranged by coal company officials, was designed as a means of supplying new scholarship students information they would be needing for their first days in college and also to permit all the students and their parents to become better acquainted with each other and with company officials.

Several officials made brief talks to the group. David L. Francis, Huntington, W. Va., Princess Elkhorn president, emphasized the importance of the students writing home frequently to their parents, and G. J. Stallings, executive vice-president, urged the scholarship winners to attend Sunday School and church every Sunday.

CROWE NAMED
CRUSADE HEAD

Appointed state chairman of the Crusade for Freedom, Guthrie F. Crowe, State Police Commissioner, this week began a state-wide organizing tour which he hopes will enlist every county in Kentucky before the effort formally closes October 16. Crowe was appointed by Gen. Lucius D. Clay, national chairman of the Crusade.

This is a nation-wide campaign to mobilize the American people for a dramatic display of their belief in freedom and for a huge program of getting the truth behind the Iron Curtain.

As explained by Mark F. Ethridge, Kentucky-Tennessee regional chairman and publisher of The Courier-Journal and The Louisville Times the campaign has two working goals. The first is to collect on special scrolls the signature of every American adult, school child and youth to a "Declaration of Freedom." The second is to raise funds to set up a chain of radio stations in Europe to counter Communist propaganda with truth.

The widest kind of participation by community and all other groups will be asked in the coming weeks to obtain these signatures. They will all be shipped to Berlin and placed in the base of the new "Freedom Shrine" there. Atop the shrine a "Freedom Bell," cast in England and weighing 10 tons, will be placed. The first sounding of the bell late in October, will be carried by radio to all free peoples of the earth and as far behind the Iron Curtain as possible.

Bells, at the same instant, will start ringing all over America and Western Europe, in churches, schools, governmental buildings and the like.

As Americans sign the declaration they will be given the opportunity to make a contribution to Radio Free Europe, the hoped-for chain of stations that will wage the truth to campaign behind the Iron Curtain. Signing the declaration involves no compulsion to make a contribution. Small gifts of from 5 cents to $1 are asked, but no "high-pressure" methods will be used.

Moscow has claimed that the broadcasts of Radio Free Europe, at present only a low-powered station, are "Wall Street underwritten" and that the ordinary American is not permitted to have any part in them even if he is interested. The mass support of Americans for this cause will demonstrate, the sponsors declare, that the Moscow claims are false.

General Clay, former military governor in Germany for the U. S. occupation forces, has announced that Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower will make a nation-wide broadcast opening the crusade. The basic goal of the Crusade has been paraphrased from Lincoln's words: "That the world, under God, shall have a new birth of freedom."

The gas turbine is a new prime mover requiring no water. Its working fluid is super-heated air. Significant researchers are progressing for burning pulverized bituminous coal in the gas turbine.

Turkish women in Cyprus have won divorce rights.

The ablar volume of U. S. coal produced in 1949 exceeded the aggregate of iron ore, gold, silver, and lead produced that year. The coal-burning gas turbine developmental program has been supported by nine big railroads and five bituminous coal companies. Bituminous coal represented in 1949 about 64 per cent of all the fuels consumed for the manufacture of cement.

with coal washings, was called for trial. A compromise with the Division of Game and Fish, represented by County Conservation Officer Bernard Baldrige and District Supervisor E. R. Burke resulted in the coal company paying a fine of $100 for each of four offenses, plus costs.

Ted Stapleton, coal company manager, told officials his company will install within the next 30 days machinery to separate all solids from the water after the coal is washed. The dust thus separated is marketable, and the process also will prevent pollution of the stream, it is believed.

Two others earlier in the week were given pen terms. These are Joe Hall, two years for forgery, and Woodrow Mullins, the same term for grand larceny.

Mullins sentence, however, was probated by Judge Hill, who also granted clemency to three others. Mullins' probation was given on the grounds that he pay Earnest (Red) Osborne, Prestonsburg, $1,300 for the repair of his car. Others probated were Hauley and Matt Owens, Martin brothers, who were given one year each for stealing scrap from a common carrier, and Yancey Horn, West Prestonsburg, two years for storehousebreaking. All were required under terms of the probation orders to commit no law violation, remain employed and provide for their families for a period of five years.

Other convictions since last Wednesday:
Eugene Tackett, cutting and wounding, $50 fine; Charley Buchanan, $10 fine for drunkenness and assault and battery, $25 for another assault and battery charge; Bill Spradlin, drunk, $25; John Scott Spradlin, drunk driving, $10; Hazel Deboard and Hershell Lester, adultery and fornication, $20; Lobertha Hall and Jim Younce, $50 for the same offense; Arthur Stone, possessing liquor, $20 and 30 days in jail; George Hunt, cutting and wounding, $50.

A jury list short by eight was filled Wednesday from the wheel with these names: Fred Baldrige, W. M. Arrowood, Frank Johnson, Jim Crager, Sam Adkins, James Stephens, Eliza Hale, John Branham. Later, Mrs. Polly Shepherd was named to take the place of W. M. Arrowood.

The Billie Hughes murder case was continued from last Thursday to Sept. 27. Other continuances:

Ernest Winstead, shooting and wounding, Sept. 27; G. V. McIntyre, murder, Jan. 8; Richard Carter, converting property to own use, Nov. 7; Taulbee McGuire, selling liquor, Sept. 27.

Dismissed for lack of evidence or prosecution were these cases:

Beaver Coal and Mining Co., pollution of stream (condition corrected); Ed Halbert and Eva Colley, adultery and fornication; John Taylor, child desertion; Curt Delong, selling liquor; Gilbert Bentley, child desertion; Keen Goodman, pandering; Thurman Clark, rape.

Photograph transmission by wire first was attempted through the use of a system of codes, which when put together would give a fair representation of the original.

About 9 per cent of all the bituminous coal produced in 1949, largely from the famous Appalachian region, moved by rail to Atlantic seaports.

Utility Firm Announces Plans for Construction of $40,000,000 Plant

The Appalachian Electric Power Company plans to start construction of a steam electric power plant at Glasgow, West Virginia, on the Kanawha River, approximately 20 miles above Charleston. This announcement was made today by Philip Sporn, president of the American Gas and Electric Company, the Appalachian Electric Power Company and the Kentucky and West Virginia Power Company, who stated that authorization has been given by the executive committee of the board of directors to proceed with the immediate construction of 350,000 kilowatts of steam electric generating capacity.

The new plant is being projected for ultimate capacity of 1,050,000. Estimated cost of the initial installation of 350,000 kilowatts is about $40,000,000. This authorization is part of a $251,000,000 budget of the American Gas and Electric system, projected for the years 1951-1953, and which is close to $100,000,000 greater than any amount previously budgeted for that period.

Included in this budget is provision for construction of the first section of a 300,000-315,000 volt super high voltage transmission system. This high voltage transmission line will connect the new plant to the Philip Sporn plant near Graham Station, West Virginia.

The initial installation at the new plant will consist of two large high pressure, high temperature turbo generators with a total capability of 350,000 kilowatts. Construction will start immediately. It is expected to have 175,000 kilowatts of capacity in operation by late 1952 and the next 175,000 kilowatts by the summer of 1953.

The average haul of bituminous coal is 289 miles, according to Interstate Commerce Commission estimates.

Singapore now claims to be the healthiest seaport in the East.

BAPTISTS WIN LOOP TROPHY

Annex Church Softball Series Title; Eliminate Methodists, 13-2, Here

The trophy emblematic of the Prestonsburg church softball league championship was won Saturday night by the Baptist boys' team in a weather-delayed contest with the Methodist team, the winners' toughest competition over the season.

The Baptists played almost errorless ball behind the three-hit pitching of David Allen, and were ahead all the way. The losers' two runs came in the first when the Baptists' pitcher issued his only pass of the evening and Ford, Methodist centerfielder, hit a homer. Erratic fielding hurt Methodist chances.

The Presbyterians, 1949 champs, lost their second game of the tourney, early in the week, and before that the West Prestonsburg boys were eliminated.

The appointment to be made will fill the vacancy created by the "abandonment of office" the courts held Ray Fraley, of Wayland, had practised.

After all, however, there is a possibility the appointment will not be made till the election is past. The Times learned this week that the Attorney General's office has been set to perusing law-books with an eye to finding a legal ground for delaying until after Nov. 7 action which must be unpleasing to one side or the other involved.

Besides carbon, bituminous coal has in it hydrogen, oxygen, nitrogen, sulphur and various minor inorganic constituents.

NONE OF WORLD WAR II FANFARE APPARENT AS FIRST SELECTEES LEAVE FOR SERVICE; ONLY RELATIVES SEE BOYS OFF, FRIDAY

Floyd county's first four selectees to leave for army service during the present crisis departed last Friday morning in a peacetime atmosphere.

The band didn't play, the citizenry didn't stir from their beds at that early hour to bid the boys goodbye. Only immediate relatives of the four were at the bus station to say goodbye.

The quiet, almost casual leave-taking was in marked contrast to World War II days when a war-conscious public gathered wherever future fighting men were entraining.

Mrs. Gladys Sturgill, clerk of Draft Board 25 here, said one of the four selectees from this county, Bill Claude Spears, was not inducted Friday and will leave Sept. 28 with five others up for induction.

Those who left Friday for Portsmouth, O., then to Ft. Knox, Ky., are:

Everett Ousley, Risner; Albert Allen Meade, Prestonsburg; Paul Fitch, Auxier.

Census Figures List Ky. Population at 2,921,708

Washington, Sept. 9—The Bureau of Census this week listed preliminary figures showing Kentucky's 1950 population as 2,921,708. This compares with a population of 2,845,627 in 1940, for a gain of 76,081.

The preliminary figures listed county populations and the population of all incorporated towns of more than 1,000.

Some of the population figures for cities (1940 population in parenthesis): Louisville 367,359 (319,077); Covington 64,282 (62,018); Lexington 54,449 (49,304); Owensboro 33,983 (30,245); Paducah 32,430 (33,765); Ashland 31,288 (29,537); Bowling Green 17,427 (14,585); Henderson 16,760 (11,600); Middlesboro 14,419 (11,777); Hopkinsville 12,531 (11,734); Frankfort 11,949 (11,492); Madisonville 11,136 (8,209); Fort Thomas 10,830 (11,034); and Richmond 10,217 (7,335).

Dr. Day Improves Nervous Disorder

Dr. W. E. Day: I am writing you this letter that you may use in any way to help other sick people to know of your clinic and treatments:

Four and one-half years ago I was in a very nervous and run-down condition. At that time a neighbor recommended that I see Dr. W. E. Day at Louisa, Ky. On this advice I immediately went to him for examination.

Dr. Day told me that there were several things wrong with me, all of which he could help over a period of time. I agreed to take his treatments and at the end of three weeks my nerves were already quiet and at the end of eight weeks he had helped the ulcers that were troubling me. I continued his treatments for several months and when I left his office I was a completely well and happy person.

If you could have seen the small clinic Dr. Day started his practice in at Louisa, Ky. and see the beautiful place he now has in Ashland you could understand what great faith people have in him.

I am thankfully yours,
Mrs. Gladys Kingery
1157 20th Street
Huntington, W. Va.

This is just one of the countless letters that pour in to the Day Drugless Therapy Clinic from Dr. Day's many patients telling of the wonderful help he has given them. Dr. Day has successfully treated the symptoms of more than sixty diseases and ailments at this wonderful new clinic in Ashland, Ky. Dr. Day has just completed a beautiful illustrated book about the clinic and how its services may help you. This book is yours absolutely free—all you have to do is fill out and mail the coupon below and your copy will be sent by return mail.

FLOYD COUNTY HISTORICAL NOTES

BY HENRY P. SCALF

The presentation of the pageant, "Jennie Wiley," brought forth from memory's record various incidents of the Wiley story never before published.

Comes to hand a letter from John Vanhose, of Sacramento, City, California, to James S. Layne, of Prestonsburg, dated June 30, 1950.

After the letter he begs Layne or "Layne's heirs" to meet his son in Arkansas to receive certain payments. The letter, revealing the stern will of a truly honest, if bankrupt, man, is a very human document.

Wayland coach Emerson Warf has excellent material in Pralay, Evans, Hopper, Haywood, Thomas, Roberts and others. A little more experience will see them hard to stop.

A great amount of data, personal and anecdotal, came to the writer during the preparation of the Sesquicentennial book. Obviously space limitations precluded an inclusion of this material.

WHO IS DISTRICT DETECTIVE?

Editor, The Times:

"Today, Nearly a Year After Slaying, Cheerleader's Killer Still on Loose" This headline in The Courier-Journal several weeks ago brings to my mind one of your excellent editorials and I quote, "The fiscal court of this county should as soon as the law becomes effective, employ a county detective."

At that time you seemed to be considerably perturbed over the perpetrators of crime failing to receive the full measure of justice.

Please be advised that this law became effective June 15, 1950 and on July last 1950 a Commonwealth's detective of Floyd county was appointed by the prosecutor's office and his salary fixed by the fiscal court.

This letter is to serve notice on the prosecutor's office of this county that unless it immediately announces to the public the name of this Commonwealth's detective and the salary that has been voted by the fiscal court, I will, in a letter next week to this paper, announce his name to the public myself and his salary voted by the fiscal court, and the number and the page in the order book and other embarrassing information for the "powers that be."

Citizens of Floyd county, what are we waiting for? Another Muriel Baldrige case, or is it just the old game of politics taking its natural course as in the Stephens Branch election fraud case where the prosecutor's office couldn't find any section of the law to cover this offense?

(Editor's note: The district detective named for this county is Wiley Jones, of Langley; his salary per year, $3,000.)

League Race in Close Finish; Three Points Decide 3 Teams

Merely three percentage points calculated over a whole season's play determined for Drift the number six spot and last berth left for play in the Big Sandy Baseball league playoff series beginning this week, W. A. Malone announced Tuesday.

Drift finished the year with 11 wins against 13 defeats for a standing of .458 to knock out Prestonsburg and Indian Creek. The latter two, each win with 10 wins and 12 losses, tied at .455 in seventh place.

Hi Hat, winner of 16 games and charged with five losses, is the league's 1950 pennant winner succeeding Allen, the 1949 flag chase victor. Hi Hat beat out Elkhorn City by a game and one-half and Allen finished in the third spot, two games behind.

The loop is also certain to have a new playoff series champ. Harold, the 1949 series winner didn't qualify to enter from the bottom spot in the ratings.

To open the series, Allen meets Drift Saturday at Drift for the first game of their match. Drift returns the visit Sunday at Allen. If a third game is necessary to decide the best two of three games, the site of a third game may be determined by the flip of a coin.

Other matches of the series, will see Price go to Hi Hat during the week and reverse the playing sites on Sunday while Henry Clay goes to Elkhorn City this week and Elkhorn City returns likewise on Sunday. If a third encounter is necessary to prove the best, a coin will be flipped, Malone said.

The three survivors of the first round of eliminations will engage in

Samuel Burgess, 76, Succumbs Near Here After Long Illness

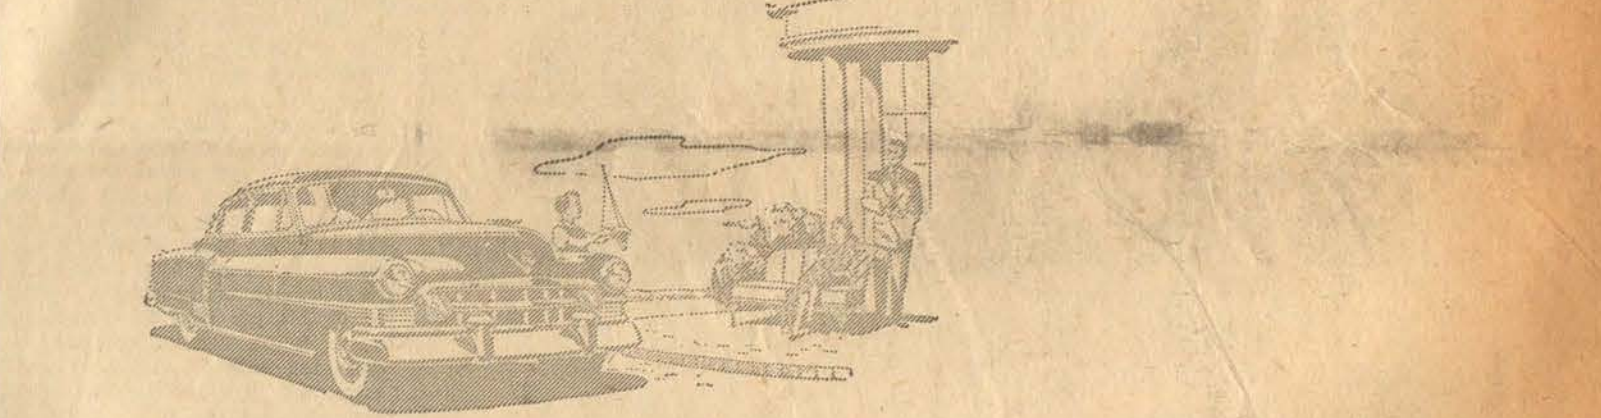

Samuel Lewis Burgess, 76 years old, died at the home of Willie Spradlin on Spradlin Branch, near Cliff, Saturday after a protracted illness.

Mr. Burgess, who had been blind for the last 15 years, was well-known in this vicinity. He was a native of Lawrence county and had resided in the community where he died for the last 35 years.

His only survivors are two brothers, E. G. Burgess, of George's Creek, and George Burgess, whose address is unknown. Funeral rites were conducted Monday from the Spradlin residence, the Revs. Isaac Stratton and Woodrow Branham officiating, and burial in the Spradlin family cemetery was under direction of the Arnold Funeral Home.

It Adds So Much to the Joy of Living!

You walk out of the house, and there it stands—waiting for you in the driveway. You've seen it hundreds of times before—but it's so attractive, there in the sunlight, that you stop instinctively for a second look. The sun lights up the gleaming chrome and frames the whole gorgeous picture. The soft finish shimmers in the shadows. A pattern of hand-tailored fabric shows through the open window. And there's the beautiful steering wheel—inviting you in. Yes, it's a lovely day! And the next thing you know, you're out in traffic—and the powerful, soft-throated engine is gliding you along as if by automatic propulsion. You ride so softly and quietly and easily that judging time and distance is the hardest work you do!

Although the $11.69 allowed Floyd county per pupil is the lowest apportioned to any East Kentucky mining county, this county will receive $135,598 from the state equalization fund this year.

This was learned last week as State Superintendent Boswell B. Hodgkin announced the division among the counties of the $4,287,500 set up by the state to bring each county's fund for education up to $85.25 per pupil.

Other counties of this area were allotted funds as follows: Pike, $224,707, or $12.39 per pupil; Magoffin, $84,750, $21.62; Perry, $232,962, $24.53; Breathitt, $120,519, $26.37; Letcher, $178,066, $22.39; Johnson, $73,814, $17.22; Knott, $77,273, $14.63; Martin, $38,734, $13.36.

The equalization fund this year is 17 1/2 per cent of the common-school fund of $24,500,000, or $4,287,500. Last term, it was 10 per cent of a common-school fund of $21,500,000, or $2,150,000.

Only 62 of the 233 districts in Kentucky shared last term, in contrast to the 85 sharing this time.

This term, the money is being sent to districts where less than $85.25 is available for the education of each pupil. Last term, the standard was $74.46.

The sum of $1,868,264 is being sent to the county systems of Harlan, Pike, Letcher, Perry, Johnson, Floyd, Bell, Knox, Whitley, McCreary, Ohio, and Muhlenburg.

In these 12 systems are 36 per cent of the pupils to be benefited by equalization this term. The 12 districts, however, will draw 43 per cent of the money.

In money received, Harlan county leads the list with $318,465. The 82 1/2 per cent of the common-school fund that goes to all districts is paid upon the number of children between 6 and 8 living in the district. The 17 1/2 per cent paid in equalization is paid upon the number of pupils in school. For example:

Of the 82 1/2 per cent money, Harlan county this term is receiving $29.60 for each of 18,356 children living in the district. But of the 17 1/2 per cent money, Harlan is receiving $22.43 for each of 14,201 pupils in school.

To qualify for equalization, a school district must meet certain standards, such as: 1. The maximum school-tax rate of $1.50.

2. A local record of property assessment as good or better than for the preceding term.

But to obtain full equalization, local property this term must be assessed at not less than 63 1/3 per cent of its fair cash value. And the tax rate of $1.50 must be levied against this assessment.

Standard assessment records in 81 districts penalized them to this extent: They drew 90 per cent of what they would have drawn had local assessment reached the ratio of 63 1/3 per cent to fair cash value. Elliott county, however, was penalized only 5.8 per cent. Next term, the penalty for substandard assessment will be 20 per cent.

There are about 40 species of birds of paradise.

GARRETT

A reception for our new minister and his wife, Rev. and Mrs. Kenney, was given Friday evening at the church. Following the program and refreshments, they were presented with a gift from the church. We welcome Rev. Kenney into our midst and trust this will be a fruitful year for our Lord.

The annual picnic for our Sunday School was on Sunday immediately following the service. There was a good crowd in attendance with plenty of food. It's certain that every effort put forth to show the children a good time and to encourage their regular attendance will be repaid.

Ernest and Julia Francis, children of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Francis, were presented with a certificate and beautiful pins for their perfect attendance in Sunday School for the past year. They are both in the Junior class which has an enrollment of 40 children. The Francis children have set a shining example for all to follow.

The Sewing Club met on Wednesday evening with Mrs. E. C. Blanton as hostess. The meeting was opened with devotional service conducted by Mrs. Blanton and Mrs. J. M. Preston. Since this was the first meeting of the new year, new officers were elected. They are: Mrs. O. C. Hayes, president; Mrs. W. K. Johnson, treasurer; Mrs. V. A. Hayes, secretary. Mrs. O. C. Hayes' work for the year was so understanding that we feel our club this year will prosper under her leadership if every member will continue the interest and work manifested the past year.

Following the business and sewing hour, a salad course was served to Mesdames Joel Martin, Delbert Slone, Otis Kilburn, J. M. Preston, V. A. Hayes, Leek Martin, O. C. Hayes and Jim Wallace.

Our next meeting will be on September 1, place to be announced later.

Remember the regular church services every Sunday with prayer services Friday evenings at 7. Are you doing your share to make Garrett a better place in which to live? Attend the church of your choice every Sunday.

Times Ad Sells Book To Overseas Soldier

The Floyd County Times gets around, and, through it, so may "Historic Floyd," the souvenir historical work written by Henry P. Scaif for the Floyd county sesquicentennial celebration this year.

This week, for instance, Marshall Davidson, Sesquicentennial secretary, received a letter from Sgt. Theodore T. Smith whose address is an army postoffice, San Francisco—you can guess where he is—asking for a copy of the book.

"While reading a recent copy of The Floyd County Times," wrote Sgt. Smith, "I saw your advertisement about 'Historic Floyd.' I lived in Floyd county three years and would like to know more about its early history."

He enclosed $1.50, the price of the book. And the book even now is en route overseas to him.

Records of world coal production go back to 1863, in which year all of the coal producing countries together had an output of 230 million tons.

Bolivia has boasted "gas" prices. If you call this the "Machine Age" then reflect that a machine is useless without energy to make it do work, and bituminous coal is the major industrial fuel.

Women Have Last Word—

Sir! Hindman Has Council-- 'City Fathers' Are 5 Women

Hindman, Ky., Sept. 1—Hindman does, too, have a town government. It has a town Council elected in 1948. The Council is composed of five members, all women, and they were elected without opposition.

And, says the postmaster, the Council meets regularly every month. The postmaster's statement was in response to a news story published last week which quoted a letter from County Attorney Cordell H. Martin as saying the sixth class city had no town government. "Our County Attorney certainly must not keep up with elections," the postmaster commented.

Assistant Attorney General Walter C. Herdman quoted the letter in answering Martin's question concerning whether or not a theater could operate in Hindman without a county permit. Herdman replied a theater could operate without restriction in the absence of regulation by city government.

At the same time, Herdman said a sixth-class city is required to operate under a Board of Trustees elected by the people. If Hindman had none, the county judge should appoint one to serve until the election next year, Herdman continued. Sixth-class cities are those with less than 1,000 population.

The postmaster listed the five women members of the town Council as Miss Charlotte Smith, chairman; Mrs. Corinne Clarke, secretary; Mrs. Goldia Bailey, Mrs. Clark Pratt and Mrs. Tandy Bowling.

And the postmaster is a woman, too, Mrs. Octavia Maupin Sturgill. She formerly lived in Lexington.

Disabled Miner Found Dead at Wheelwright

James C. Scott, 38, colored, of Wheelwright, was found dead early Sunday evening, September 3, by Johnnie Parker. Earlier, he was seen sleeping in the rain by two small children who helped him to the porch of Johnnie White. Here he was later found by Mr. Parker. It is believed that he died between 6:30 and 8 p.m.

An autopsy was held, and though a final report has not been made, there was no reported evidence of foul play.

A retired miner, Mr. Scott was born in Georgia, the son of Robert and Annie Scott. He had been unable to work for the past seven years because of an injury received in the mines on Round Creek. He was a member of the First Baptist Church at Wheelwright.

Surviving him are four sisters, Athene, Elvyrata, Minnie Mae, and Mildred Scott, all of Wheelwright, and five brothers, Theodore, Dunbar, Robert A., James W. Scott, also of Wheelwright, and Felton Scott, of Youngstown, Ohio.

Funeral services were held at the First Baptist Church at Wheelwright, at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon, the Rev. E. H. Terry officiating. Burial was made at Wheelwright under direction of the Baker Funeral Home.

Morehead Hunting Party Arrested in Nicholas-co.; Charged Under "Blue Law"

Five Morehead sportsmen are "incensed" over what they call "ignorance of officials in Nicholas county."

They returned here Sunday evening with a story that they had been arrested and fined for hunting on Sunday . . . that Nicholas county officials invoked a "blue" law passed 75 years ago.

The men are Pete Brown, Jim Brown, Luster Brown, Clinton Jones and Arthur Gee, Jr.

Here is the story they tell: A group of officers—deputy sheriffs, etc.—swooped down on them Sunday while they were hunting squirrels near Carlisle. They said they presented state-wide hunting licenses, their guns were in proper shape to hold no more than three shells and they inquired why they were being arrested.

"For hunting on Sunday," was the reply of the officers and they were whisked off for trial. The judge refused to listen to their pleas that there was no law in Kentucky against hunting on Sunday and fined each $16.50, the total sum amounting to $82.50. They paid off to keep from going to jail.

After the men returned to Morehead they contacted officials here and a game warden who advised there was no such law. They are taking their case to Earl Wallace, director of the Fish and Game Commission at Frankfort.

Press releases from Frankfort have, for years, pointed out that it is legal to hunt or fish on Sunday and newspapers all over the state carried stories about squirrel hunters who went out the first day of the season—which was on Sunday.—Rowan County News.

BLUE WARDS OFF 'EVIL EYE'

Algiers — In Algiers and other parts of North Africa many houses are painted blue to ward off the "evil eye." This is true particularly in the Jewish and Mohammedan quarters.

Mrs. Alma Kincaid, 2125 East Adelaide, St. Louis, Missouri, who was suffering from deficiencies of Vitamins B, B₁₂, Iron, and Niacin, has turned into a regular clock-watcher since she has been taking HADACOL. Yes, she keeps her eye on the clock all day long, just waiting for breakfast, dinner and supper time. Imagine how unbearable life can be without enjoying good, wholesome food.

Here is Mrs. Kincaid's statement: "I have been taking HADACOL for over a year. Before taking HADACOL, I had stomach distress for quite sometime. Imagine how awfully hard it is to live a normal life when you can't eat such delicious things as tomatoes, oranges, grapefruit, etc., or drink milk without getting horrible cramps and upsetting your stomach. One day I took my husband's advice and got some HADACOL. A good friend of his told him of the fine results he had gotten from HADACOL. And now, since I have been taking HADACOL, I can eat anything I want and really enjoy it. I have a wonderful appetite, too—thanks to HADACOL. Naturally I recommend HADACOL to all my friends."

Yes, HADACOL is Truly Wonderful

in the way it has helped countless thousands of folks whose systems were deficient in Vitamins B, B₁₂, Iron, and Niacin. HADACOL can help you, too. If you will just give HADACOL a chance. If you suffer from stomachic distress, nervousness, insomnia, constipation, aches and pains of neuritis, or a general run-down condition, caused by such deficiencies, let HADACOL help you as it has helped others all over the country. Even hundreds of doctors are now recommending HADACOL to their patients suffering from such deficiencies.

Give remarkable HADACOL a chance to benefit you. Remember, you have nothing to lose. HADACOL will make you feel great after the first few bottles you take, or your money will be refunded. Only $1.25 for Trial Size; Large Family or Hospice Size, $3.50.

No Delay in Getting Out Increased Social Security Benefits, Says Region Head

"There will be no delay in getting out the increased insurance benefit payments provided by the amended Social Security Act," declares Horace J. Godbey, manager of the Ashland social security office which is headquarters for Big Sandy and eastern Kentucky counties, including Floyd.

Mr. Godbey returned from a three-day conference in Cincinnati, held in connection with the amended act, signed into law by President Truman August 29. Twenty-seven office managers from the States of Ohio and Kentucky, together with two regional representatives from Cleveland attended the training session.

"At the conference, I learned that the area offices have been working overtime to compute the increased amounts of payment and are ready now to get out the higher benefit checks," says Mr. Godbey.

Under a provision of the new law, increased payments will go to everyone now receiving old-age or survivors insurance payments. This is effective September first.

"Cards notifying present beneficiaries of this important provision of the new law are now in the mails," declares Mr. Godbey. "The increases which will reach them early in October," he added.

Mr. Godbey requests beneficiaries in this locality wait until the receipt of their September checks to find out the exact amount of their individual increased benefit payments.

Under the new law, Mr. Godbey says people age 65 or over will be eligible for insurance benefits beginning in September if they have been paid wages of $50 or more in six or more different calendar quarters for work covered by social security. Roughly, this is a year and a half. He estimates that 500 people in this locality will be entitled to immediate payments under this provision. Many of these people had made application before but could not qualify for benefits under the old law. The Ashland social security office is making every effort to get in touch with those of whom it has record, but asks the cooperation of everyone who may know of such a person. "Tell him, or tell us," says Mr. Godbey. "Have him come to our office and file a new application for old-age and survivors insurance benefit payments."

The other provisions of the new law, extending social security coverage to groups of workers and self-employed people heretofore excluded, will go into effect on January 1.

NEW PLANTS IN KENTUCKY

List Ten New Industries With $40,000,000 Spent In 1st 9 Months of '50

Louisville, Ky., Sept. 12 (Spl.)—Ten new industries, representing a total plant investment of over $40,000,000 and creating 2,000 new jobs, which will add an estimated annual payroll of $4,875,000, have been located in Kentucky during the first nine months of this year. These figures were announced by Walter B. Koch, director of industrial development for the Kentucky Chamber of Commerce, at the Thursday meeting here of the group's industrial development committee.

An additional $11,600,000 was invested by seven existing Kentucky industries in expansion programs. These expansions added 1,830 employees and an estimated annual payroll of almost $5,000,000.

The number of employees for new plants in the nine-month period of 1950 outnumbers the total of new employees for all of 1949 by more than 700. "From all indications, the current trend in decentralization of defense industry will bring many new firms to the Commonwealth," reported Koch, who mentioned that 12 expansions have been made since the survey was completed on September 1.

"The Kentucky Chamber of Commerce is currently working with several industrial firms, assisting them in finding proper locations for erecting new plants in the State," Koch concluded.

Go for a ride—and you'll agree

"Better Balance" makes MERCURY just right for you!

- 1. You get the right riding comfort!
Almost the very moment you set foot in the Mercury you know you've found the car you've always wanted! Big! Roomy! Leg roomy, too! And so quiet! So utterly QUIET! You hardly know you're moving—so smooth and silent is that Mercury ride!
- 2. You get the right roadability!
Try it on a curve... a rough road... a tight spot in downtown traffic. This big Mercury handles them all—and with ease. "Stedi-Line" steering... "Cushion-Coil" springing... a super-rigid chassis make owners call it the smoothest riding car they ever drove!
- 3. You get the right power!
You've got "get-up-and-go" to spare in Mercury! Its big, V-type, 8-cylinder, made-only-for-Mercury engine is right for the car—and the car is right for the engine! Mercury is "America's No. 1 Economy Car"! Drive it yourself—and see why!

FLOYD CIRCUIT COURT

R. L. Jones Plaintiff

Vs.—SALE ON ATTACHMENT AND JUDGMENT

Carl Osborne Defendant

By virtue of an Execution No. 10058 which was issued from the Floyd Circuit Court on the 24th day of July, 1950, in favor of R. L. Jones vs. Carl Osborne, I or one of my deputies will on Monday, Sept. 25, 1950, at the hour of 1 p.m., at the storehouse door of R. L. Jones, at Ligon, Ky., expose to public sale to the highest and best bidder the following described property to satisfy plaintiff's debt, interest and cost, to-wit:

ONE LARGE REFRIGERATOR AND ONE COMBINATION RADIO SET

Levied on as the property of Carl Osborne.

TERMS OF SALE: Said refrigerator and combination radio set is to be sold on a credit of three (3) months, the purchaser or purchasers shall be required to execute bond for the deferred purchase price with approved surety, said bond to have the force and effect of a judgment, and as security the Sheriff shall retain a lien against the property hereinafter sold.

The purchaser may pay the amount of his bid in cash, or if bonds are executed may anticipate the payment of such payments at any time by paying the principal amount thereof, together with interest at the rate of 6 per cent per annum from the date of sale to date of payment. If the plaintiff is the purchaser at said sale for the amount of his debt, interest and cost, no bond shall be required other than for the cost of this action.

Witness my hand this the 31st day of August, 1950.

FLOYD COUNTY OFFICER REPORTS FOR DUTY

First Lieutenant David Marks, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. David Marks, Martin, Ky., has reported for duty at Spokane Air Force Base, Bong, Washington.

Lt. Marks is a veteran of 30 missions in the ETO during World War II. He holds the Distinguished Flying Cross and the Air Medal with three Oak Leaf clusters.

Mrs. Marks, the former Arleen Turner, resides at Airway Heights, Washington.

The tobacco yield in Estill county is expected to be from 25 to 30 per cent below last year's average.

KENTUCKY

ON THE MARCH

At least 100 Kentucky towns and small cities want small factories and the Kentucky Chamber of Commerce is at the service of local industrial promoters. Towns on railroads get the hearty support of traffic promoters because new factories mean more freight.

Small plants are preferable in many places because most of our centers of population can accommodate small factories better than large ones.

Small concerns like small towns because available labor is from a superior class of people and labor trouble is less likely.

But no locality is safe from union trouble. A small group of enterprising citizens of Madisonville chipped in and erected a modern factory building. When a manufacturing concern was ready to move in, a union organizer went to work on everybody that might be employed in the plant. The concern went to another city. Madisonville had a parachute factory during the war. Later a garment manufacturer took over. When things were running along nicely and the firm was approaching a paying basis, a union organizer promised the employees two dollars a day more than they were getting. The firm couldn't meet the raise, so it closed up and has not reopened.

A small garment plant in Sturgis was getting on its feet when an organizer started signing up the employees. Newspaper Editor E. C. Calman, then mayor, let go with a warning blast that got into nearly every newspaper in the country. He said Sturgis didn't want any trucking with unions and wouldn't have it. I was in New York at the time and the Sturgis story was front page news there. It got into newspapers as far away as Australia.

The organizer withdrew. Somebody in New York, supposedly Dubinsky, top man of the garment workers' union, telephoned the organizer to leave Sturgis quickly, because if he caused the factory to close the repercussions of another Calman blast might be bad publicity for the union everywhere.

This little essay is not necessarily anti-union. I am telling about the Hopkins and Union county incidents because they are worth knowing about.

SPORTS AFIELD

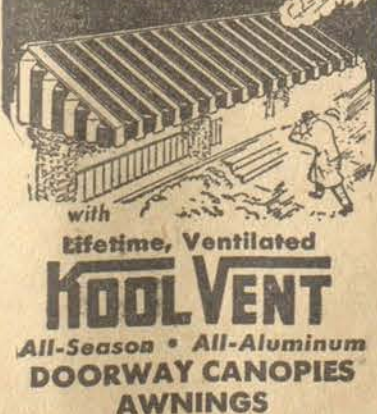

There's been a lot of talk about released fish dying or not dying. But experiments have pretty well proved that trout caught on artificial flies, even when handled roughly, can be put back with practically no loss. But those caught on live bait present a much more serious problem. Then, they usually swallow the bait and gills or other vital organs are badly damaged. A fish so caught almost always dies.

Most game authorities recognize this, and since live-bait fishing is so prevalent, insist that anglers keep all the trout they land. Only where artificial lures are permitted could there be no objection to allowing an angler to release his small fish.

Now a bass is a much harder fish than a trout, and there's even less likelihood of one caught on artificial bait dying after having been released. The case is much the same with walleyes which take an artificial lure lightly, with the lips, as a bass does. True pike present a more serious problem, since a pike often takes an artificial lure so savagely and deeply as to be hooked on the gills inside, and such injury often causes prompt bleeding to death.

Great care should be used in releasing a pike hooked deeply. Use a strong gag to hold its mouth open, and a long disgorger to remove the hook. The same applies to musky, although he doesn't seem to take a lure as deeply as a pike. But since a musky is a rather rare fish, no time or pains should be spared in releasing one uninjured.

Essay Contest Prizes Will Total $2,925

On hundred thirteen prizes totaling $2,925 are being offered Kentucky junior and senior high school students in the seventh annual Soil Conservation Essay Contest.

The competition was announced this week by Barry Bingham, president of The Courier-Journal, The Louisville Times and WHAS, and A. Threlkeld, president of the Kentucky Association of Soil Conservation Districts. These organizations sponsor the contest each year.

A first place award of $100 will go to the state student submitting the best essay on "The place of water control in my district soil conservation program." A second place prize of $50 is being offered and $25 will go to the boy or girl placing third.

In addition to the state awards, 110 district prizes of $25 are offered to winners in conservation districts submitting at least five essays. The winning essay in each district will then compete for the state awards.

All awards will be in the form of U. S. Savings Bonds. The three state winners will also win expense-paid trips to Louisville to the annual Farm Awards Luncheon. The contest closes January 1, 1951, and all entries should be in the hands of county school superintendents by that time.

Complete information on entering the Soil Conservation Essay Contest may be obtained from district soil-conservation supervisors or by writing the promotion department, The Courier-Journal and Louisville Times, Louisville 2, Kentucky.

JOHNSON GOES OVERSEAS

With the 7th Infantry Division in Japan—Pvt. Robert Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Johnson, Garrett, Ky., recently arrived in Japan to fulfill his assignment with the 7th Infantry Division. Johnson entered the service in August of 1949 at Prestonsburg. Before being sent to Japan he was stationed at Ft. Benning, Georgia.

Army authorities gave no hint of his future assignment but stated that he may well be expected to fill many critical positions as the 7th Division, commanded by Major General David G. Barr, accomplishes its mission in the Far East Command.

In Moments Blue

In memory of Edward L. McCowan, who was drowned at Ypsilanti, Michigan, August 29, 1947.

We treasure all our memories, and now and then we sigh for days and nights that brought no joy before we said goodbye. We wish they could be here again with all the friends we knew. To take away the loneliness of our moments blue. But they are gone beyond recall and we must be content, And we must live the life we have as well as we know how, And do as much to gain our goal as time and tide allows. Because tomorrow will depend on what we do today, And memories are only songs we sing along the way. But in our home there is a place no one can ever fill For Eddie has been gone three long years today, God must have His will But thanks to Him, He made the way, So we can meet Eddie again some day.

Plus or Minus GOD ?

This young man, like multitudes of others his age, realizes he must soon be earning a living and perplexing questions arise.

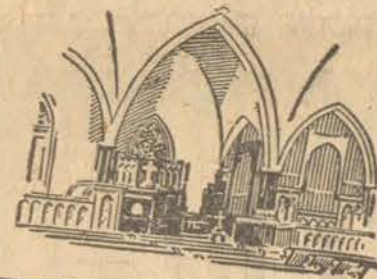

What vocation shall he follow? Will the life-work he has in mind offer him a suitable outlet for his talents? Will he be happy and contented in that work?

And questions arise about the ethical standards he should set for himself. Just how honest ought a fellow be anyway? How loyal to the truth? Do moral compromises pay?

In other words, this young man is inquiring into the meaning of life itself. In essence, his question is, shall a fellow plan his life plus or minus God?

How he works things out depends largely upon his earlier training. If his religious life has been neglected, he is more likely to make the fatal mistake of trying to get along without God.

If he has been more wisely led, he will place God and truth and right at the center of his thoughts. If he seeks the better way, the Church stands ready to offer him every aid.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend and support the church of his choice. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church on Sunday and read your Bible daily.

TIDBITS OF KENTUCKY FOLKLORE

By GORDON WILSON, Ph.D.
Western Kentucky Teachers' College Bowling Green, Ky.

WHICH TUNES LAST?

With all the welter of popular tunes ground out each year by professional composers, why do some become great hits, others less well-known, and others fail to pay for their printing? And why do some of the tunes live on for generations, side by side with tunes that have been handed down as folk music or as consciously-composed tunes that drifted away into folk music as time went by? In my life I have learned hundreds, even thousands of songs, as I have always loved music and have tried to sing since I was a little boy. Thousands of these songs seem as dead to me now as old newspapers. Others are so much alive that I could start singing them at a moment's notice, even though I may not have heard them since I left Fidelity.

A few days ago I mention this fact to a great folklorist, Dr. George Pullen Jackson, of Vanderbilt University. Dr. Jackson is the world's greatest authority on white spirituals, the songs such as were sung at the old-fashioned camp-meetings and were added to as the years passed, the singers unconsciously adding to and subtracting from what they had heard. Dr. Jackson's answer greatly pleased me, for he said that certain melodies contain more of the folk element than others; these folkish tunes survive, regardless of their age. Since he is a trained musician, I am inclined to believe him, especially after he sang for me many snatches of typically folk melodies that certainly reappear in many of our conscious compositions. Music, like many other arts, is a summary of what has gone before; whole compositions may be copyrighted in our time, but nobody can copyright a phrase of music. Besides, copyrights run out after a few years, and then the music is common property. Nobody knows this any better than Tin Pan Alley composers. Dr. Sigmund Spaeth has detected hundreds of song phrases that reappear in our popular airs. His analysis of "Yes, We Have No Bananas Today" has become a classic and shows that this once-popular nonsense song has well-known phrases from such diverse sources as the "Hallelujah Chorus" from Handel's Messiah, "I Was Seeing Nellie Home," "I Dreamt That I Dwelt in Marble Halls," and "Old-Fashioned Gardens." If one could hear the airs that the composers of these songs knew, still further ancestry could be devised for a modern silly song.

Dr. Jackson said another thing that I liked: that many of the most tuneful airs that we sing today as new songs will be sung by our great-grandchildren as folk tunes of the good year 1950. In two senses his words sound true to me. If we agree that catchy airs are often of folk origin, certainly many of our present-day songs have them and thereby can hope for immortality. Then it is possible that many a person will never have seen the sheet music of our popular songs and will have known them only by ear. Never having seen the printed words, the singers will transmit the words as they seemed to be, with the usual folk forgetfulness and the usual folk improvisation from other songs and ballads. As bookish as we are, we still have many folk elements in our culture. Listening to a radio is in many ways like listening to a minstrel singing in a palace or a college. Most of the listeners never see the words; they memorize, accurately or partially so, the music; they pass both words and music

YOU LIGHT UP FOR Comfort AND Safety...

NOW... LIGHT UP FOR Friendliness TOO!

You know what an extra stairway light can add in safety. You know the comfort of a modern reading lamp. But think what ample lighting can add to your home in friendliness and cheer!

An illuminated house-number, for instance. It costs very little... but what a courteous, hospitable thing it is! Or take an ornamental lamp post that beams a hearty welcome to evening guests (and makes your yard more attractive besides). How beautifully outdoor floodlights set off living trees and shrubs. And how much homier a living or guest room becomes with an extra lamp or two! Indoors and out, everything electricity does it does better and at lower cost. Giving a home a friendly glow is one of the things electricity does best of all. Take full advantage of friendly, low-cost electric light. Your dealer has lamps and fixtures that give pleasure far beyond their modest cost.
