SEZ HE

Fearing that a married gal of my acquaintance may have low blood pressure, I'm reprinting a paragraph quoting Prof. Lowell S. Trowbridge of Boston U., who declares American girls are getting married younger and younger, simply because they're too lazy to work. Mind you, it was Trowbridge, not Lowbridge, who said that. To quote him: "...How much easier it is to slip into a housecoat, put on the percolator, push down the toaster, kiss hubby goodbye, and sit down to an after-breakfast cigarette and the morning paper..."

THUS IT HAPPENED

We hasten to press with the story of the two countries which quarrelled and quarrelled.

"You're a jackass," cabled the foreign department of one, or whatever bureau has charge of name-calling.

"You're a jackass yourself," came the reply.

Then, after an endless round of jackass-calling, with some other diplomatic epithets thrown in for good measure, both up and started dropping bombs on each other.

And that's how they made jackasses out of ourselves.

MORE NAME-CALLING

Looks like it's going to be a hard year on the katydid. Fred Martin reports that a wasp-like insect--only it's black and is three times bigger--is falling katydids right and left at his place here, and is totting them to his front door and there neatly piling them up on a plank. In broad daylight, too.

Being a little rusty on his Hexapoda, Myriapoda, etc., Fred called on the group of scientists always hanging around this office for identification.

"Japanese Beetle," promptly replied Brad Boyd.

"Wrong as usual," we differed.

"Well," demurred the Boyd, "it was the worst thing I could think of to call the bugs."

We were surprised. Thought he might have called 'em Democrats.

TEST AT LAKE NOT CHEERING

Rough Fish Numerous, Bass Few, Is Report Following 2nd Test

The summer's second test of Dewey Lake made this week to determine its fishing possibilities, again failed to disclose the presence of bass in large numbers.

The Clark Branch inlet of the lake was poisoned, and many fish had risen to the surface by Wednesday morning, day after the water was treated, but the search for bass again was disappointing. The Times was told.

The first test, made late in June in the Goble Branch area, showed a heavy percentage of rough fish. The latest test brought more crappie to the surface than the first, there was the usual large number of bluegill, but shad predominated. Division of Game & Fish personnel who conducted the test this week indicated they would like to test the main lake but this will not be done until the move is ordered by the Division.

A complete analysis of the situation is expected within the next few weeks. What plans will be adopted were not indicated here.

FLOYD NATIVE SUICIDE VICTIM

Oscar Pitts Hangs Self Near Kensington, Ohio; Ill Health Is Blamed

Oscar Pitts, 62-year-old farmer and a native of the Middle Creek section of this county, hanged himself at his farm near Keniston, O., Tuesday morning, relatives here have been notified.

Mr. Pitts had been in ill health for some time, but had been actively engaged in operating his farm and had recently acquired additional farmlands in the Kensington vicinity.

He was a son of John L. Pitts, of West Prestonsburg, and the late Frances Pitts. He had many relatives and friends in the county. Surviving are his father, his widow, Mrs. Lula Pitts, five sons and the following brothers and sisters, R. E. and Mexico Pitts, of Middle Creek, Miss Lurane Pitts, Mrs. Mary Fitzpatrick, Mrs. Josephine Hayward, Mrs. Nettie Wright and Mrs. Daisy Thompson, all of West Prestonsburg and vicinity.

Burial was made at Kensington.

ACCUSED MAN FLEES ARREST

13-Year-Old Girl Says She Was Raped; Others Facing Morals Charge

Valis Prater, Middle Creek man, was sought in vain this week by county officers after a 13-year-old girl of his community had reported he had raped her.

The girl submitted to an examination here, but the consummation of rape was not established. Authorities indicated the charge against Prater would be changed to that of detaining a woman against her will.

Ray Hicks, who with a second girl was car-riding with the 13-year-old and Prater on the night of the alleged offense, came here Tuesday and surrendered to answer to a possible charge of being a confederate in the crime. He was admitted to bond.

Another morals case involved a white woman, listed at the jail as Sylvia Mae Bayes, and a negro, John Milton, who has not been arrested. The Bayes woman executed bond, Monday.

In yet another case Janis Layne and Jonas Hicks, who were arrested by Deputy Sheriffs Obe Ousley and Serge Daniels, were fined $62.50 each by Magistrate M. C. Wright.

Others arrested for major offenses during the week:

Lamon Robinson, drunk driving, arrested by Deputies Amburgey and Compton; Farmer Perkins, improper driving, arrested by Compton and Amburgey; Jesse Ramey, drunk driving, jailed by state policeman; Harold Jones, child desertion, arrested by Deputy Sheriff Al Patton; Ranel McKinney, false pretenses, jailed by Deputy Sheriffs Frank Crum, John Hopson and Hall.

TWO CONFESS STORE BREAKS

Men Arrested by FBI In Charleston Admit Looting Three Stores

Arrest of two men in Charleston, W. Va., Monday by agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation in connection with auto theft solved the recent robbery on a single night of three Floyd county stores.

The two, Oliver Lee Justice, Pikeville, and Lynn Elroy Houck, Brooklyn, Mich., confessed they broke into the stores at Harold and Betsy Layne of Magistrate Edgar Howell, Bill Hall and John Hall.

Breaks into the three stores were made on the night of August 4. Bill Hall's store safe was taken by the looters and it had not been recovered this week, it was said at the Sheriff's office. The merchant has not given an estimate of his loss in cash and merchandise.

Jailed here last week in another store break, the looting of Coet Messer's store at Garrett, was Robert Adkins, a juvenile, who was joined in jail by his father, Everette Adkins. The elder man was accused of concealing stolen goods.

The father was held under bond Monday to the grand jury following a hearing on a charge of obstructing public justice. He was accused by Messer, owner of the store, of offering him $100 not to prosecute the case against his son. The two were jailed by Deputy Sheriff Al Patton and Ed Amburgey.

Added trouble for the family came Friday when Everett's wife, Lena, was arrested and jailed by Deputies Scott Compton and Ed Amburgey. Booked on charges of lewdness and drunkenness, she told officers she was trying to get bond for her husband and son when she was arrested.

BOARD PLANS 3,500 FEWER ON VOTE LIST

Purgation Boards Finds One Precinct with 18 Dead on Voting Rolls

Two members of the three-man Floyd County Purgation Board estimated Tuesday they will clear from the voting registration rolls of the county from 3,500 to 5,000 names of persons who are dead or who have moved to other voting precincts, counties or states.

As an example of the condition of the registration lists, they pointed out that on Monday alone they received returned notices which they had addressed to voters who are dead, and these 18 were on the voting list of only one precinct, Prestonsburg No. 1. Although No. 1 is the county's largest precinct, the number of dead expected to be found on the lists of other precincts is proportionately high, members of the Board believe.

Floyd county's voting registration rolls now contain the names of more than 29,000 persons--more than half the county's total population.

The Board is enlisting the aid of residents of the various precincts, or the help of persons intimately acquainted with the residents, to procure lists of "doubtful" voters. After that, letters are mailed to these registrants of doubtful status notifying them that their names are listed for purgation. Then unless the registrant challenges this purgation action within five days, his or her name is dropped from the voting list.

County Judge Henry Stumbo is awaiting conclusion of the work of the Board, it was said, before splitting the precincts of the county so that no precinct has more than 350 voters, as required by law. He hopes

JAIL OFFICER FOR SHOOTING

Of Hicks at Martin; Recovery of Victim Considered Doubtful

The town of Martin's only policeman, Hershell Lester, was a prisoner in the county jail here Wednesday after he had shot and probably fatally wounded Ed Hicks, 44, Martin store owner, with a bullet from a high-powered rifle.

Hicks, who was shot about dusk Tuesday evening just outside his place of business, is in the Beaver Valley hospital, Martin, where his chances of recovery were described as depending upon developments within 48 hours after the shot.

The rifle bullet entered Hicks' body two inches back of the side seam of his shirt and the same distance below the seam in the armpit and emerged near the center of the abdomen, the wounded man's brother, Dewey Hicks, said.

Commonwealth's Detective Alex L. Davidson said he and Commonwealth's Attorney Burnis Martin questioned several witnesses during Tuesday night, among them, Mrs. Naomi Osborne Hicks, wife of the wounded man.

Mrs. Hicks' version of the shooting was given, in substance, as follows:

The two men had an argument inside the store and Policeman Lester drew his revolver. She jumped between the two men and begged the officer not to shoot her husband. Lester then returned his gun to its holster, left the building and drove down the highway toward the business center of Martin.

After Lester's departure her husband walked across the highway and was standing there when a car, driven at low speed, approached. As it stopped and Lester emerged, armed with a rifle, Hicks ran toward his own premises. Lester fired as Hicks reached his yard gate and again as Hicks was at or near the corner of the house. At this second shot Hicks turned and lifted his hands in surrender.

Mrs. Hicks and others interviewed said Hicks was unarmed, Davidson stated.

Asked by the Times for his version of the shooting, Lester said he preferred to talk with his attorney first. He said he would probably have a statement to make soon. His attorney, Edward L. Allen, did not comment on the case.

Sheriff's deputies gave this version of the shooting which they attributed to Lester:

Lester saw Hicks sell a man a bottle of whiskey and the officer,

HIGHWAY BIDS FORTHCOMING

Department Assures Officials of Work For Rural Routes

County Judge Henry Stumbo and Sheriff A. B. Meade were given assurance in Frankfort Tuesday afternoon that bids will be asked at once on improvement of two Floyd county roads and that construction bids on a third will be sought immediately after circuit court judgments granting the county rights-of-way are filed with the State Highway Commissioner.

Highway officials promised the Floyd countians bids will be sought at once on blacktop surfacing of 5.3 miles of the Abbott Creek road and 2.6 miles of the Bull Creek road from Prestonsburg to the forks of Bull Creek.

They said, however, that a new ruling requires that rights-of-way judgments be on file at the Highway Department's Frankfort office before construction bids will be asked on the eight-mile route from U. S. 23 at Harold up Prater Creek and down the Sammy Clark Branch to the Little Mud rural route, thence to connect with the Harold-Ligon highway.

There are 67 parcels of right-of-way to be procured on this route, and settlements have been reached with all except six or seven property owners. Judge Stumbo said appraisers would be named Wednesday, and County Attorney Woodrow Burchett added that judgments should be in the hands of the Highway Department within 10 days. If this happens, county officials have promised advertisement for bids late this month.

135-Year-Old Home Here Was Wilderness Mansion

The above house, constructed near Prestonsburg in 1817 by Samuel May, stands as a monument to its builder who died in the California gold field.

The May home at Cliff is Floyd county's Old Kentucky Home.

Its style of architecture is Colonial, the preferred construction of the English founders of Kentucky who built the William Whitley House or the Old Kentucky Home that inspired Stephen Collins Foster to write his immortal music.

Samuel May, who built the Floyd county home in 1817, was born in 1783, the son of John and Sarah Phillips May. John May, father of Samuel, was a Revolutionary soldier who after his marriage and the birth of two or three children, of whom Samuel was one, went to Carter county, Tennessee, near the mouth of Roan's Creek. That was in 1789. In 1800 he came to the present Pike county, settling on Shelby Creek. He died in 1813.

Samuel and Catherine May had

SUIT CLAIMS BIG MILK BILL

Chappell's Says $33,093 Due; $25,000 Action Filed in Harris Death

Chappell's Milk & Beverage Company, Inc., filed suit in the Floyd circuit court Wednesday to collect the largest milk bill known to accumulate in this county.

The company alleged that William and Paul Lyon owes it $33,093.47 for milk they purchased as distributors in Floyd and adjoining counties during 1949, 1950 and 1951. A second action against the same defendants and Henry Lyon seeks to collect a $10,000 promissory note dated June 2, 1950. In the milk bill suit the plaintiff claims William H. and Paul Lyon bought $90,983.05 worth of milk and dairy products during the three years and paid the company $57,889.47. Both suits were prepared by the law firm of Combs & Combs.

Damages of $25,000 are asked of Wade Holbrook and his wife, Draxie, in a suit filed by Graham Burchett, administrator of the estate of T. J. Harris. The action grew out of the death of T. J. Harris, May 25 last, when hit by a car driven by Mrs. Holbrook on U.S. 23, near Emma, and carelessness and reckless operation of the auto are alleged.

Last week, damages of $1,000 were asked by Martha Wallen of the East Kentucky Beverage Company in a suit claiming a soft drink bottled by the company contained a roach "or some kind of slick bug" and that she became violently ill after it reached her mouth from a bottle of the drink she bought at Elkins' store at Dwaile. She was hospitalized three days, the suit, filed by Atty. Edward L. Allen, claims.

Topmost Woman Dies Of Five-Year Illness

Sarah Bentley, 68, of Topmost, died at Our Lady of the Way hospital, Martin, Tuesday night, of diabetes. She had been ill five years.

She was the wife of R. B. Bentley who was born in Letcher county, the daughter of Sam and Dove Fouts Bentley.

She is survived by her husband, and the following sons and daughters: Arthur of Lackey; Bill, Dema; Bob, Topmost; Tat, Gio; Mrs. John Wireman, Wayland. The following brothers and sisters survive: Mrs. Cynthia Pratt, Raceland; Miss Bytha Bentley, Portsmouth, Ohio; Bunk Bentley, Michigan; Tom Bentley, Portsmouth, O.

The body was taken to the home of John Wireman at Wayland, Wednesday. Funeral will be held at 10 a.m., Friday, at the Stonecreek Regular Baptist Church of which she had been a member for 35 years.

Funeral arrangements were incomplete at this time (Thursday) but burial will be in the Chandler cemetery at Lackey under the direction of the Hall Bros. Funeral Home.

The Smalltown Boy Escapes Swindle Scheme But City Slicker Succumbs To Lure of Money Presented Him by "Poor" Mexican Prisoner

Before the Good Neighbor Policy shushed the term out of the common parlance, they were known as "Greasers," those Mexicans. Now, GNP or no GNP, a few of them are busily greasing their palms at the expense of gullible Gringos.

Several letters have been received recently from Mexico City by Floyd countians. Each has told a tale of woe, of a poor prisoner having a huge sum of money 'stashed away where he was unable to reach it unless somebody came to his rescue with some cash laid on the barrel-head.

Only last Saturday, Dr. George P. Archer, of Prestonsburg, received one of these communications, this from a mysterious Mr. "F" who was in durance vile, he said, for bankruptcy, although he had hidden away in a secret compartment of a trunk in a U.S. customs house a cool $450,000. If, said the letter, the good doctor would put up the cash to get this trunk and its valuable contents out of 'hock he would be

UNITED FUEL WINS RAISE

In Gas Rate But Fails To Get Full Amount; Due Users $130,000

The United Fuel Gas Company, which sells gas to consumers in various Floyd county communities, was granted a rate increase of $194,000 a year by the State Public Service Commission late Monday.

The company, which serves the towns of Betsy Layne, Harold, Drift and McDowell and various consumers in rural section of the county had asked for a $483,000 raise to meet wage increases, higher cost of expansion and higher charges for gas it buys from the Tennessee Gas Transmission Company.

United Fuel put into effect, last December 16, a $324,000 annual increase to retail customers and posted bond to guarantee refunds to its customers if it failed to get that much from the Public Service Commission. The $194,000 raise allowed the company will leave it due $130,000 in refunds to Kentucky consumers.

The commission took the position that $194,000 would make United Fuel's gross revenue $1,504,708. It added that would enable United to earn approximately 6 1-2 per cent a year on the net original cost of its property which is used to serve Kentucky customers. The commission said it regards that percentage as sufficient.

United Fuel, a subsidiary of the Columbia Gas System, also sells at retail to consumers in Ashland, Catlettsburg, Greenup, Hindman, Inez, Louisa, Raceland, and their rural areas. In addition, United sells at wholesale to Central Kentucky Natural Gas Company, but only retail rates were involved in the case before the P. S. C.

The new retail rates approved today were announced by P. S. C. Secretary Lively M. Wilson as: first, 2,000 cubic feet, $1; next 30,000, 45 cents per 1,000 cubic feet; next 20,000, 42 cents; next 50,000, 40 cents; next 125,000, 38 cents; next 400,000, 36 cents and all above that 35 cents per 1,000 cubic feet.

This year the gas company asked the P. S. C. to approve an additional $159,000 a year raise, but under a 1952 legislative amendment to public utility statutes, the company could not post bond and add the additional charges pending action by the P. S. C.

COURT DOCKET OF 125 CASES UP FOR TRIAL

At September Term, With Child Desertion Cases Most Frequent

Child desertion is the offense which occurs most frequently on the docket of the September criminal court term here--in fact, court records show that exactly one-fifth of the 125 cases listed for possible trial during the term grew out of that offense.

Although three murder cases are docketed for trial, only one of these, that in which Milt Hunt is the defendant in the killing of Jake Salisbury, may be heard. The other defendants are Willard Hughes, who was indicted in the slaying of Bert Shepherd near Hueysville, and Sid Conley for the shotgun slaying of his wife at Wheelwright. Hughes' father, Billie Hughes, is now serving a 21-year term in the Shepherd slaying, and it is possible the charge against the younger man will be dismissed. Conley is a mental patient at the Eastern State hospital, Lexington, and his trial will await his discharge from that institution.

Whiskey cases, numbering 15, rank second in the matter of frequency on the docket. Although there is only one slaying to be investigated by the grand jury for possible indictment--that of Grover Hicks by Miley Prater--attempts on the lives of others such as shooting and wounding, cutting or striking and wounding or shooting at without wounding total 11.

Already docketed for trial on charges of robbery, breaking and entering, grand larceny and knowingly receiving stolen property--a group of crimes which is becoming a serious threat--are 11, and there will be several other such cases to be investigated by the grand jury.

Only five charges of carrying a concealed deadly weapon remain on the docket.

Names of grand and petit jurors to serve at the court term, which will convene Sept. 2, were announced this week by Circuit Clerk W. W. Cooley. They are:

Grand Jurors: Claude Hale, Prestonsburg; Henry L. May, Langley; B. T. Harris, Amba; Mrs. Alice Ball, Prestonsburg; Octavia Combs, Langley; Sparrel Stratton, Betsy Layne; Lee Roberts, Prestonsburg; Arthur Laferty, Garrett; Lena Spradlin, Prestonsburg; Tom G. Dingus, Prestonsburg; Palmer Scutchfield, Water

WOMAN'S BAIL SET AT $4,000

After Examining Trial Held Here; Neighbors Appear As Witnesses

Mrs. Lucy Osborne, 29-year-old Ivel widow, was held to $4,000 bond by County Judge Henry Stumbo on the conclusion of her examining trial Friday on a charge of concealing the birth of a bastard child, and faces possible grand jury action at the September court term. The charge against Grace Mulkey, her sister-in-law, who had been accused as her accomplice, was dismissed.

Judge Stumbo at first set the woman's bond at $5,000, then reduced the figure to $4,000.

Testimony of five or six neighbors of the Ivel woman, mother of five children by her marriage to Earl Osborne, who died almost two years ago, was heard. All but one of these were women, and the burden of their testimony was to the effect that they had seen her during her pregnancy prior to the birth of her five children and that her appearance immediately before July 29 was similar to that which they noted on the other occasions of her pregnancy, and that after her July 29 illness her appearance became natural.

Mrs. Osborne, who did not testify at the hearing, told authorities last week that she had gained perhaps 10 to 15 pounds in weight and that she lost weight before and during a brief "sick spell" which culminated in severe nausea July 29.

She declined to submit to examination by a doctor.

In its investigation of the case the Commonwealth lacks physical evidence that a baby was born and, if it was born, lacks the corpus delicti.

A similar case of a few months ago was dismissed without trial in circuit court, despite the fact that the accused woman had confessed to giving birth to a child whose body was found in the Big Sandy river near here.

NEW CASES UP TOTAL TO 12

In Floyd Polio Sweep; County Is Now Classed At The Epidemic Stage

With at least 12 polio cases officially reported and perhaps two or three others hospitalized but not yet reported to the Floyd County Health Department, Floyd county this week reached the epidemic level of two cases of the disease per 10,000 population.

Three new cases were reported from this county within the week: Jimmy, six-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. James R. Camlica, of Prestonsburg; Denver Ray, eight-month-old son of Mrs. May Tackett, of Drift, and Berlie Hall, 13 months old, of McDowell.

These were classified as mild cases, and not since outbreak of the malady in this county about the first of July has any case been classed as severe. All three of the children were taken to Morris Memorial hospital at Milton, W. Va.

Numerous cases of sore throat, accompanied by temperatures, have developed here and elsewhere in the county, and medical men suspect that some of these children may have suffered polio which did not develop the dreaded paralysis.

Besides Floyd, seven other Kentucky counties have reached the polio epidemic stage, with Jefferson county alone having 212 cases. The state as a whole had 370 cases reported to the State Department of Health as of Monday, with 26 deaths. In the last epidemic year, 1950, Kentucky had 225 cases reported by Aug. 11.

BOARD CALLS 13 INDUCTEES

Draft Tempo Step-Up Seen; October Calls Will Induct 47,000

Next week will see 39 men ordered for pre-induction tests and 13 for induction in Floyd county it was revealed by Local Board No. 25, Wednesday. Those called for preinduction examinations will report August 18 and the men called for final induction will appear August 21.

All of the August call are for men born on or before December 21, 1931, but as an indication the draft age is being gradually lowered those to be called in September are to be six-months younger, that is, born on or before June 30, 1932.

The lowering of draftee age groups to take 19-year-olds was indicated as a future possibility in Washington, Monday of this week. So far as has been revealed men 20 and older are being called at present but increased needs for man power may force Selective Service to turn to the younger category.

The stepped-up tempo of the draft was emphasized by a call Monday for 47,000 draftees in October--a 17,000 increase over the 30,000 asked for September.

Many Ending Duty Tours: The Army, the only service now taking draftees, said the bigger number is needed because men inducted during late 1950 are nearing the end of their tours and must be replaced. The navy and the Air Force have relied on volunteers to keep up to strength. The Marine Corps stopped taking draftees last May.

the gold they possessed and of their return to Kentucky. With an effort he placed his hands upon the heads of his son and friend to pronounce a benediction. With the last faint whisper of "God bless you both" he died.

Years later, when Colonel Andrew Jackson May, the son, was at the height of his Virginia legal career and after a distinguished record in the Confederate army, he returned to the old diggings near Placerville, Calif., to locate and mark his father's grave. This was in 1898. The place was so changed he could not find it.

Catherine Evans May (1787—) lived with her daughter, Amanda Burnett, at Prestonsburg for some time after the death of her husband. In later years she stayed with another daughter, Mahala Jane, wife of Dr. Pierce Randall, of Louisiana, at whose home she died.

Homes gather memories with the dust of many years. If the old brick house built by Samuel May had gathered unto itself a written or oral record of all the Mays that were born, married, lived or entered its halls, the story would be volumes in length.

Thomas May, who acquired the house in 1842, died within its walls. His sons, William James and Samuel, did their own housekeeping in it until Samuel married Mary Osborn. They continued their joint residence in it until William married Eliza Jane Harman, of Virginia, in 1845.

The old house stands as the evidence and the witness of a great era in Big Sandy—an era of a century and a half of people, tide and history.

Incumbency of Samuel May in these offices was marked by his ability in debate. It has been said of him that he was an interesting conversationalist and a great wit.

In 1842 Samuel sold the farm to his brother Thomas and moved to Prestonsburg, building another home near where the present residence of J. W. Howard now stands on First avenue.

Andrew Jackson May, a son 20 years of age, and another 20-year-old man named White accompanied Samuel to the California diggings. In and around the diggings at Placerville they sought their fortune.

The privations of the gold fields brought illness to Samuel. He was not a young man any longer and the weight of 64 years on the frontier was taking its toll. He lay down to die in the winter of 1851, attended by his son and White.

Here, far from the necessities and comforts of life in the East, he lingered. Most of all he wanted coffee. He could smell the aroma of it, he would tell his son. And so Andrew Jackson May rode for miles around the diggings asking for coffee.

Now that this small consolation for old Samuel had been supplied by his son, dissolution approached. Seeing that the end was near he aroused himself and made directions as to his burial and the disposition of

IT'S ALL FINE—BUT . . .

Between Winchester and Lexington the State Highway Department has numerous employes and a not inconsiderable supply of machinery at work, not on the road but on the roadside. These men and this machinery are busily working the soil, plowing, raking, making a seed bed for grass, sowing, covering, then putting over all a nice, protective layer of straw—all this to make certain that the roadside is beautified next Spring with a stand of grass. And when that grass grows other men will be kept busy keeping it mowed.
It will be very beautiful, and we are all for roadside beautification. But—
What we'd like to know is what the same Highway Department proposes to do about this U.S. 23, U.S. 460 or the Mayo Trail of ours? The road is so bad that we can't permit our eyes to stray from it to the neighboring scenery. So we won't worry about the scenery for the present and just hope for a road.

DICK'S SEVENTH READER
Have published two books and sold them and now I have a third book called "Dick's Seventh Reader."
It was made as follows: There was a flood in Beaver Creek and people who lived in the lowlands had to gather into a home upon a hill and while staying there they passed the time away by telling stories, reciting poetry of their own make, etc., and this book is a record of what they brought forth.
I have had a limited number of these books made and if you want a copy send me one dollar and I will send you one postpaid, or, if you want it sent C.O.D., let me know and then it will cost you a few cents more.

An official in Washington who said 19-year-olds may have to be called up soon emphasized that Selective Service could not estimate when that might be necessary. He said no moves had been taken to end an order issued by Maj. Gen. Lewis B. Hershey, draft director, aimed at filling quotas with older men before 19-year-olds were drafted generally.

Few Called at 19
When the order was issued January 25, Selective Service officials said some boards were being forced to draft 19-year-olds because of unequal distribution of man power. The official said that only a very small number of men in that age group have been inducted.

The highest call so far this year was for 58,814 in January. The total dropped to 10,000 for June. It went to 31,000 for July and 29,000 for this month, with 30,000 listed for induction in September.

In noting the 47,000 call for October, Hershey commented that last month the armed services said they expected to call 54,000 men a month during October, November and December.

Those called by Local Board No. 25 for preinduction tests, August 18, are:

Arthur Kilburn, (Volunteer), Martin; John Tackett, (Volunteer) Orkney; Denver Stone, Lackey; Paul Alexander Obroff, Wheelwright; Eamuel Hurd, Lancer, now Warsaw, Ind.; Oscar Ousley, Dock; Venis Conn, Martin; Hayden Akers Betsy Layne; Allred Newsome, Grethel; Ogie Prater, Hueysville; Robert George Vicars, Melvin; Luther Jarvis, Banner; Bobby Gene Laferty, Garrett, now Creola, Ohio; Raymond Stephens, Betsy Layne; Billy Gene Blanton, Dwaile; Gene Delbert Hayden, Auxier; Perry Ward, Buckingham; Johnnie Bentley, McDowell, now Wayland; Rex Burns, Water Gap; Junior Cross, Ligon; Gillis Conn, Dana; Clifford Williams, McDowell; Homer Powell, Orkney; Delmar Banks, Weeksburg; Curtis Owens, West Prestonsburg, now Claypool, Ind.; Conley Hawkins, Langley, now Sidney, Ohio; Kenas Tackett, Osborn; Paul Eugene Kazee, Betsy Layne, now Detroit; Foster Crawford, Wheelwright; Clyde Burke, Weeksburg; Eugene Moore McDowell; Thomas Walker Porter, Auxier; Burton Martin, Eastern; Edward Collins, Lancer, now Woods; Parris Luster, Grethel; John Dee Osborne, Dony, now Detroit; David Brownlow Sammons, Weeksburg; Glenn Wilson Moore, Pyramid, transferred from Local Board no. 57, Kenton, Ohio; Edd Bryant, Melvin, now Albion, Mich. Those called for final induction August 21 are: Arco Hunt, Banner; Barkley Jennings Sturgill, Prestonsburg; Fairce Oscar Woods, Lackey, now Jackson, Ky.; William Henry Burchett, Endicott, now Hazel Park, Mich; Joe Litz, Lackey, now Marion, Ohio; John Edward Habern, Tram; Chester Davis Lewis, Woods; John Wess Hamilton, Teaberry; Earl Douglas Conley, Martin, now Toledo, O.; Clifford Walker, Hunter, Paul Whitaker, Hippo, now Greenwich, O.; Billy Arnold Powers, Lancer, now Auxier; Wayne Hicks, Garrett.

Retired Teacher, 85, Weds for First Time; Is Melvin Resident

His bride was Mrs. Liza Little, 68, also of Weeksburg. It was her second marriage. The marriage was solemnized by Letcher County Judge Goebel Adams in the presence of several witnesses. "The happiest day of my life," said the groom.

after first arresting the buyer, entered Hicks' place, found beer and whiskey and arrested him. As he was carrying beer outside to his car Hicks broke and fled inside the house, where he procured a shotgun. Thereupon the officer left, returning later with a rifle. Hicks stood at or near the corner of the house and leveled his shotgun at Lester, who opened fire as Hicks whirled to run.

Commonwealth's Detective Davidson said a young daughter of Hicks' one of seven children, unlocked the door of her parents' home and took them to a clothes closet where she pointed out for them her father's two shotguns. Davidson added that neither was loaded.

Examining trial will probably await outcome of Hicks' wound. Lester was brought to jail here, on his own request, by "Red" Ison, of Martin. Later, Deputy Sheriff Frank Crum served on him a shooting and wounding warrant which had been sworn out before Magistrate M. C. Wright.

Beer and Whiskey reported to have been taken from Hicks' place was taken to the Sheriff's office, Wednesday afternoon.

IT'S A GOOD WORLD

BY WILMAX

An error last week: The joke was how a man can get the rattle out of his CAR, not his ear, as given in this column. The answer: "Let her drive."

Not long ago a friend visited a large city church of his own denomination. His description of the visit reminds one of the story of dear Dr. E. E. Lee, retired BTU field secretary of the Southern Baptist Convention, used to relate at the state convention now and then, to illustrate a good point:

Once a country boy was saved while a famous evangelist visited in his church. Soon afterwards the youth went to the city to work and found himself in the church of this man. He presented himself for membership. The pastor dared not ask his 400 to accept the boy, whose trousers were somewhat above his shoe tops. He suggested that he think it over and come back.

That night the youth returned and again walked down the aisle. The minister hesitated and then whispered that he would be around to pray with him first. Next day he met the youth on the street and decided to get it over with while opportunity offered a means of escape. The boy told him he had been praying and that the Lord had told him not to join that church.

"That's fine," said the preacher, "er, I knew you'd see it is better for you not to, if you talked with God about it."

"Yes," replied the youth, "God told me he has been trying for over a hundred years to get into your church, and that I ought to have better sense than to try to do what He can't do."

Kay and Ann Allen, the five-year-old twins of Jane and Ray, of Martin, came today for a puppy. The joy in their beaming eyes when they hugged Scamper to them well repaid their parents for having pups underfoot constantly. Their own doggie got killed recently. Kay and Ann regard themselves as specially fortunate, for they have two birthdays each, their regular one in December, and the second, a few days later, when the Allens decided to adopt the two baby girls who have brought such happiness to their home.

We hope before too long to have a story here of a Floyd county couple who have reared a house full of children who were not theirs and who are still at it, though past middle age today. It takes good people to do what this couple does for youngsters who need a home.

So much happiness would be added to our world if every individual would adopt the Scout code of doing one kind deed per day.

We have just listened to the Saturday evening broadcast of the First Baptist Church of Allen, which has long been on the map in every sense, spiritually, financially, numerically and otherwise. It is doubtful if a stronger small church can be found in this section. Most of its members are tithers, good Bible students, believers in prayer and soul winning.

And their new pastor, Burt Caldwell, is tops in everyday language. Hear the man tell what infantile paralysis did to him when he was only nine months old. See his fine family, note the marvelous work he does, then listen to him preach, and you will wonder why anyone is ever sorry for a handicapped person. Most people would envy Brother Caldwell. No one would think of pitying him. If ever there has been a live wire he is one.

You Can't Buy Freedom... BUT You CAN Sell It!

Vote-buying is a violation of the law. Vote-selling is also a violation of the law. You wouldn't sell something very precious to you like your child, would you? If a man sells his vote he sells something as precious as his own child—his freedom.

Vote-buying and selling is as reprehensible a practice as ever fastened itself upon any body politic. Democracy ceases to exist when mass vote-buying becomes a general practice. With mass vote-buying demagogues and the "well-fixed" financially take over the offices that should be the free gift of the people.

Buyers and Sellers are equally guilty in this reprehensible practice.

KEEP COSTS DOWN, PERFORMANCE UP, WITH A DODGE!

"My Dodge trucks save a lot of money on gas!" says H. A. ROBINSON, Contract Hauler, Mobile, Ala. "On a 200-mile run I save 1 1/2 to 2 gallons of gas. I get this saving seven days a week, and on my two trucks that means I save over $300.00 a year on gas alone. That's good, because each of my trucks makes an average of 50 stops per day hauling mail. "My first Dodge truck cost me only $54.00 of repair expense in two years. I ran my second Dodge over 103,000 miles in two years and spent only $15.50 on it for repairs. "If I'd known what I know now about Dodge trucks, I'd have switched to them long ago and saved myself a lot of money."

- ▶ Haul at lower cost with a Dodge truck that's "Job-Rated" to fit your job—1/2- through 4-ton.
 - ▶ Boost gasoline mileage with features like high-compression ratio and special gas-saving carburetor.
 - ▶ Reduce upkeep with such wear-saving features as floating oil intake and positive-pressure lubrication.
 - ▶ Enjoy smooth performance with gylol Fluid Drive, wear-protecting advantage available on all 1/2-, 3/4-, 1-ton and Route-Van models.
 - ▶ Come in today for a demonstration—and a good deal!
- Save on gas and oil. All 8 Dodge truck engines give exceptional economy with plenty of power. You get such advantages as lightweight aluminum pistons, improved fuel system with economy control, precision-balanced crankshaft, and other money-saving features.
- Save on maintenance. Rugged engines and chassis have made Dodge trucks famous for dependability. Upkeep costs stay low because of many special Dodge features like 4-ring pistons, chrome-plated top ring, and wear-resisting exhaust valve seat inserts.
- Save with long life. Because Dodge trucks last so long, depreciation is less and trade-in value stays up. Long life and dependability are the result of such features as alloy steel springs, shot-peened axle shafts, extra-sturdy frames, and Oriflow shock absorbers in low-tonnage models.

Stamps for veterans were turned in to the new chairman, Mrs. Ralph Wright. Mrs. Ruel Hicks reported that the club now has enough pocket-size books for one shipment and these will be sent to a veteran's hospital next week. The hospital chosen will be close home in order that our own boys may get some pleasure from them.

Mrs. Henry Fuhs was in charge of the program on "Parliamentary Law" and presented Mrs. M. M. Collins who gave a very interesting talk on the subject. As an introduction to her subject, Mrs. Collins pointed out the advantages of being a club-woman, and the many services she may render to her community and her country. Then she explained the order in which a meeting should proceed and answer all questions on the subject.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

SAYS JUDGE, COURT ON SPOT

Editor, Floyd County Times:

In securing an audit of the records of the various Floyd county public officials over the past 10 years Judge Stumbo has an opportunity to prove to the people whether he is a man of integrity and honor who puts duty above the dollar; who says what he means and means what he says.

Judge Stumbo seems to be put in the position of taking responsibility for whatever comes of this action of the fiscal court toward securing an audit. He must know that many heads wagged as tongues expressed doubt that in taking this action the court really wants or will get a thorough checking and report. Many will have to be convinced that nothing more than a cover-up or camouflage is intended or will result.

To those who want a proper reporting and to those who do not the finger will point to Judge Stumbo as the man authorized and charged with securing the audit. Only by selecting a properly licensed and reputable firm in an open and approved business-like manner can the judge and the court convince the people that they have acted in the interest of the people in finding out the truth, whatever it may be.

The judge and the court are right in their attitude that any accounting should apply to all officeholders and not just one or two. The Good Government Taxpayers League has indicated that this is its attitude, too.

The League had the choice of forgetting the past and working from the present onward or including the immediate past in expecting officeholders to take no greater salary than the Constitution allows them. Having chosen the latter course, they are obligated to see that the audit is genuine and that proper accounting is made if they are to continue to exist as an organization. How far can they count on the people to back them? How do the taxpayers feel about the matter? Should we expect our officials to comply with the Constitution and laws of the state? Is a salary of $7,200 enough for county officials? Undoubtedly there will be a good deal of pressure on the League to drop the matter. Only the kind of courage born of the feeling that they truly represent the interests of the people and the conviction that their aims are honorable and righteous will enable them to continue.

As one of those concerned with an audit I endorse the action of the court and urge that every precaution be taken to see that it is done in such a way as to merit the belief and confidence of the people. The records of the Floyd County Board of Education have been audited annually by the State Department of Education and the audit published as required by law, but there are always those who can question an audit of the affairs of an agency made by some branch of the agency itself. An audit made by certified public accountants of a licensed, reputable and disinterested firm may be reassuring as well as revealing.

ASKS SUPPORT FOR TAX LEAGUE

There has been much talk in Floyd county in the last few weeks about this Taxpayers League. I find that the great majority of the people are interested and wholeheartedly support the action of the League thus far.

For the first time in history they have witnessed a suit filed in the circuit court for the recovery of over $20,000, alleged to have been misappropriated from the funds belonging to the taxpayers and converted to the personal use of one of our officials in whom we people have placed our trust with high office for the last 12 years.

I note that the above action on behalf of the taxpayers was subscribed and sworn to by the Tax League; that in one year, 1946, the said official received over $11,000 when $5,000 was his limit under the Dave Mayo, of Pinson Fork, was visiting relatives here recently.

When the League was first begun, The Times quoted Henry Stumbo and W. W. Cooley as full-fledged members and quoted them as saying what a fine thing it was and how well they approved of the idea. No audit was necessary for the first suit filed for the figures were in plain view just across the hall in Bill Cooley's office, but the ink on the suit had not dried before the officials became indignant, claimed that the Tax League was picking on somebody and began to threaten to have the suit brought against everybody. How sincere can our county officials be?

Isn't it true that the fiscal court was aware of the misappropriation and conversion? Isn't it true that the exact figures in the action filed in circuit court were published in The Floyd County Times by John Allen in 1949, subscribed and sworn to by a state department official, and read by every honest citizen? Then why didn't the Magistrates see it?

Another warning was sounded in January of this year and published in The Times by Burnis Martin, and the Taxpayers League just after it was formed went before the powers that be and tried to get them to take action, if they were so sincere and wanting to clean up, just what were they waiting for and why did they get so mad when a suit was filed against Woodrow Burchett, their legal adviser? The records were in the courthouse, closer to them than to anyone else, and even after the League brought suit not one of our officials made an effort to look at them. They talk big about audits when no audits are necessary. The Tax League didn't have to audit anything. All they had to do was open their eyes and file suit.

This writer for one is of the opinion that the action of the County Judge to order audits is for the purpose of blocking the League in its sincere action to clean up the county. Can we taxpayers accept an audit made by our own public officials about their own offices? As one taxpayer I will not accept it and neither will the Tax League, in my opinion. We as taxpayers must insist that the League have an audit, directed by them. This way we can find the facts and no other way.

The people of this county should join the Tax League and help them to clean up our county and make it a place where your son and mine can run for office and know that the taxpayers' money will not be used to buy this office for some politician. I make this plea to the people of this county: Get behind the Taxpayers League and support it to the limit. Send a small contribution to help defray the expenses. Help clean Floyd county up.

Alcoholic Beverage Control Board Chairman G. C. Shearer said this week his department plans to photograph and fingerprint all persons arrested by ABC agents in local territory for violation of state whiskey laws.

Copies of the fingerprints and photographs will be filed with the Kentucky State Police and Federal Bureau of Investigation, Shearer said.

In addition, records of all persons applying for beverage licenses will be checked by State Police and FBI files before any final determination is made concerning applicants.

"Sometimes we learn too late that persons who procure licenses have past records of violations which are not disclosed or made known to our field forces," said Shearer. "This step is one merely to tighten existing procedures."

Responsibility for procuring the photographs and fingerprints will rest on arresting officers, Shearer said.

SAFE—SOUND—PROGRESSIVE
Capital and Surplus $350,000.00
PRESTONSBURG, KY.

I wish to bring out more points and prove to men that God does rule and super-rule in the affairs of men and nations. I feel my work and prayers in behalf of Judge Bert T. Combs in 1951 and Coroner James J. Carter in 1952 are enough proof to men that saints can see farther on their knees than sinners can see from the mountain top.

Prayer and Faith pull the bell-rope of heaven and shake fruit from the Tree of Life.

Storms may break telegraphic communications and waves may sever the ocean cable, but no winds or waves can disconnect a God-fearing woman from her maker. God permits us to show our love and appreciation of His mercies by self-sacrificing efforts to extend the same to others and He has promised to reward His servants, and He tells them that men ought always to pray and faint not. (St. Luke 18-1). This is the only way in which it is possible for us to express our gratitude to God and country.

So many people do not know the difference in character and reputation. Character is what you really know and God knows who can endure trials and afflictions. Reputation is what the people say but cannot prove. My Bible says prove all things, hold fast that which is good (1st Thes., 5th chapter, 21st verse). Prayer for rulers (1st Tim. 2:1-3). I exhort therefore that first of all supplications, prayers, intercessions and giving of thanks be made for all men. For kings and for all that are in authority that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and honesty. For this is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Saviour.

Bible Women Mentioned

Eve the woman of curiosity (Gen. 3:6); Hagar the second woman (Gen. 21:14-19); Miriam the ambitious woman (Numbers 12:1-2); Deborah the patriotic woman (Judges 4:4); Ruth the woman of constancy (Ruth 1:16); Hannah the ideal mother (1st Samuel 1:20); Abigail the capable woman (1st Samuel 25:3); the Shunamite the hospitable woman (1st Kings 17:10-13); Elizabeth the humble woman (St. Luke 1:43); Queen Esther the self-sacrificing woman (Esther 4:16); Mary the woman chosen of God (St. Luke 1:30-38); Martha the worried housekeeper (St. Luke 10:40-42); the woman evangelist (St. John 4:29); Lydia the business woman (Acts 16:14-15); woman's rights to make contracts (Numbers 30:3-9) to hold property (Numbers 27:6-8); works of a God-fearing woman is to praise her in the gates (Prov. 31:30-31).

Favor is deceitful and beauty is vain; but a woman that favoreth the Lord she shall be praised. Give her of the fruit of her hands and let her own works praise her in the gates.

Now all you Bible instructors who fight the works of women, I am giving you free of charge, Bible references to read for yourselves. I know God did not perform the first operation on man to make him a woman to be a standby and do nothing. I have always had to work with my hands to help others. When I run down a hard problem I just say, "Lord, I have the willpower to work but strength and wisdom come from God."

All I have done and said for the Democratic party now in power has been all my own free will—no guide but God, and now I have reached the point to tell you the words of Joshua (Joshua 24th chap., 20th verse): If ye forsake the Lord and serve strange gods then he will turn and do you hurt and consume you after that he hath done you good.

2nd verse: Ye are witnesses against yourselves. When I am for a man I am for him tooth and nail. Proverbs 25-19: Confidence in an unfaithful man in time of trouble is like a broken tooth and foot out of joint. 28th verse: He that hath no rule over his own spirit is like a city that is broken down and without walls.

The Back to God for America. Sincerely and prayerfully,
