This Town... That World

BEWARE!
Sign on back of truck: "Warning—Hour Brakes". Some thought the owner was confused about how to spell "air," but others decided he meant every letter of it: the brakes were rather slow to start taking hold.

UNORGANIZED SPELLING
Speaking of signs and such, on the way to Norris Lake there is a roadside advertisement proclaiming, "Miners for sale." They, of course, meant minners—and I don't mean minnows.

GRIBE SESSION
Until I began watching baseball games on television from the Cincinnati ball park I had no idea there were so many broad-beamed gentlemen playing the Great American Game. Of course, the angle at which the camera gives the T-Viewer a squint at the action has a lot to do with it, and in Cincinnati they seem to specialize in rear views.

Perhaps I shouldn't squawk, seem' as how I get in the game for free—except for paying so much for the television set, plus a sizeable hook-up charge, plus a monthly service charge and future incidentals which, any minute, may include a picture tube—but I can't understand why the video boys in Cincinnati can't do as well as they do, for instance, in Chicago.

In Cubs' park the viewer sees the pitcher deliver the ball, sees the ball come into the plate and the batter swing or turn up his nose at the offering, or whatever—all in one shot. In Cincinnati, you get a close-up of the pitcher, or of the batter, or of the pitcher and the first baseman (in this latter shot,

BOARD TALKS REPAIR COST

Grade School Roof, Floor Repair Needs Would Cost $15,000

Plans for repair of the grade school building and discussion of financing necessary to do the work were major items in meetings of the City Board of Education here, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings.

Roof of the school is in such condition that rain has badly damaged walls and floors of the structure, and it was estimated $15,000 would be required to restore the building to its original state.

It was indicated the Board will spend about $10,000 to restore the roof and prevent further damage. Of this amount, approximately $5,000 will be financed locally. The Board had a treasury balance at the end of the year sufficient to meet the remainder of the expenditure contemplated.

Sees Benefit to Coal From Group IV Rate

RATING WOULD AFFORD AREA BIDDING EDGE

On Coal Contracts For Defense Plants, Congressman Says

If and when the Prestonsburg five-county area is approved by the Secretary of Commerce for a Group IV labor classification, coal suppliers in the area will be given an advantage which will give them an edge in bidding on defense fuel contracts.

This information was contained in a letter last week from Congressman Carl D. Perkins to Hansford May, Prestonsburg, corresponding secretary of the Prestonsburg-Floyd County Chamber of Commerce.

When the Group IV classification becomes official, coal producers of this area—Floyd, Johnson, Magoffin, Knott and Martin counties—and Pike county will be enabled to meet the pressure of low bidding on defense coal contracts if their bids are not more than 20% above the low bid submitted by producers from other sections, the Congressman explained.

"This," wrote Congressman Perkins, "is an important short-term relief possibility, but you should not anticipate receiving sufficient business to reopen all the mines in the area, as it is more likely that the pressure of meeting low bids will be so great that only those mines now in operation can afford to meet the conditions. It may, however, prevent the closing of additional mines in your area."

Secretary of Labor Durkin already has classified this area in Group IV, or as a labor surplus area. This action was certified July 1 to the Surplus Manpower Committee, and after its approval by the Secretary of Commerce will be forwarded to the Secretary of Defense.

Congressman Perkins also said he is urging action on a proposal to allow a special tax amortization similar to that now given defense plants and industries being established in labor surplus areas. The Secretary of Labor has indicated that the plan, which is intended to encourage industrial diversification, has administration approval. Senators Clements and Cooper have joined in the move to relieve the unemployment situation in this area.

LEGION NAMES JAMES, DIXON

Former District Head, Dept. Vice-Commander; Wayland Man, Chaplain

Two Floyd countians, Tom James, of Prestonsburg, and J. Frank Dixon, Wayland, were named to department (state) posts by the Kentucky Department, American Legion, at its annual state convention in Louisville last week-end.

Mr. James, former Tenth district commander, was elected Sunday to the post of department vice-commander. He is one of three Kentucky Legionnaires named to this office in the state organization.

Mr. Dixon was named department chaplain. The Wayland man, a veteran of World War I, previously had served his post and the Tenth district as chaplain.

Election of James, a veteran of World War II, as department vice-commander, Area C, was urged by Floyd Post No. 129, which he had served as commander and service officer, and the Post here was joined by other Legionnaires of Floyd and surrounding counties in the James movement. During his term as district commander the Tenth district rose from 11th to first place in the Kentucky Department, American Legion.

The election of state Legion officers saw Louisville's hold on convention machinery broken. Harry Hansbrough, of Louisville, former Department commander, was defeated by Charles M. Blackburn, Versailles, for the post of national executive committee member, and George D. Miller, of Bardonia, was elected state commander. Next year's convention city will be named later.

DAMAGE SUITS SEEK $45,000

Each of Four Actions Outgrowth of Wrecks; One Involves Fatality

Four suits growing out of automobile wrecks were filed in circuit court here last week asking a total of $45,000 damages.

First of the suits was that in which Willie Shepherd, guardian for Billy Shepherd, an infant, and Florence A. Robinson Cisco ask $5,000 damages each of Johnny Shepherd for injuries received when the defendant allegedly drove "into ditches and onto embankments" at or near Oil Springs, Nov. 22 last. The suit was prepared by Atty. Paul E. Hayes.

Joe P. Tackett, administrator of the estate of Mrs. Lula Webb, deceased, last Thursday filed suit against Virgil Hamilton, asking $15,000 damages in the death of Mrs. Webb. The petition, prepared by F. D. Burke and Edmond Herschell Tackett, alleges carelessness and negligence on the part of Hamilton in the operation of his auto in which Mrs. Webb and her husband, U. G. Webb, were passengers.

Her husband filed suit for the same amount—$7,500 for injuries and suffering, $3,500 for the loss of his wife and $4,000 for loss of earning power. The wreck took place last Sept. 13 near Gilbert, W. Va., when Hamilton's car and that of Abraham Priest collided. Mrs. Webb died the following day.

Fourth of the suits was that in which Mike Stanley seeks to recover from the Princess Elkhorn Coal Company $5,000 for injuries suffered in a car wreck two miles north of David, last August 20. He alleged that a jeep owned by the coal company was driven suddenly from a side road in front of him and to avoid a collision he attempted to cut around the rear of the jeep, striking a stone wall. Carelessness and negligence on the part of the company's driver, Roby Stone, is alleged. The petition was filed by Atty. Earl R. Cooper, of Sellersville.

The United Mine Workers of America will make no endorsement of any candidate in the August primary election, a statement issued this week by top-ranking officials of District 30 told the union membership and friends of labor.

"Neither the district office nor the Big Sandy field office of District 30, United Mine Workers of America, will make any endorsement in the coming primary election," the statement read. It was signed by Sam Caddy, Lexington, president of District 30, Tom Raney, Pikeville, International Executive Board Member, and Carson Hibbits, Pikeville, representative of District 30 in charge of the Pikeville UMWA office.

The statement did not preclude the possibility of field representatives taking part as individuals in the election, however.

The statement added, in part: "The August elections are local in character and should be determined on a local basis. Any intrusion by the organization would serve no real purpose, as no basic issues are apparent."

"Most of the candidates are friends of the Union. It is not advisable to choose among friends for special support. Such action would be a difficult task and would only serve to antagonize or embitter those not elected."

"After consultation with legal counsel of the International Union, this decision has been achieved. Some of our members remain involved in a court procedure wherein their liberties are in jeopardy. Any arbitrary endorsement of particular candidates would make the position of our members presently under indictment more difficult. . . . Members of our organization are running for office. There can be no secret of our feelings in these instances and our desire to serve our own; however, we must withhold official or formal endorsement by the district office, and leave local unions and individuals free to act within their own discretion."

Hale, Car Wreck Victim, At Willard, O., Tuesday, Is Buried at Huesyville

Body of 18-year-old Bernice Gene Hale, Greenwich, O., garage mechanic, who was fatally injured in the wreck of his car near Willard, O., early Tuesday morning, was returned Wednesday to Huesyville, his former home, for burial.

Young Hale, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Wernie Hale, of Greenwich, was injured when his auto left the highway and rolled over two or three times. Cause of the wreck was not known. He died in a hospital at Willard.

Surviving, besides the parents, are one brother, James Ray Hale, of Florida, and two sisters, Mrs. Benjamin Drake, Lorain, O., and Joan Hale Greenwich, O. Funeral rites were held from the Church of Christ at Huesyville this afternoon (Thursday) by the Rev. Lawrence Price, and burial was made in the Gearheart cemetery under direction of the Hall Brothers Funeral Home.

METHODIST V.B.S. TO BEGIN
Daily Vacation Bible School, of the Methodist Church here, will begin Monday, July 20, at 9 a.m., and will continue for two weeks.

AUTO VICTIM MAY RECOVER

Mrs. Moore's Condition Is Slightly Improved, Report Received Here

Hope grew stronger this week for the ultimate recovery of Mrs. Inogene Stumbo Moore, 23, of McDowell, as doctors at St. Joseph's hospital, Lexington, noted definite indications of improvement in her condition.

Mrs. Moore, who was hit by a car driven by John Vanderpool, a neighbor, shortly after she had left home last Thursday morning to continue her canvass of voters in her race for County Court Clerk, has not spoken, however, since the accident. When her mother asked her Tuesday to indicate by pressure of her hand if her words were heard, Mrs. Moore responded by pressing her mother's hand, a relative said.

The McDowell woman's skull was fractured, her jaw and nose were broken and she suffered numerous lacerations of the face and scalp. A report that an eye was injured was erroneous.

The accident occurred when Mrs. Moore stepped onto the highway, walking toward a car to procure a pencil, it was said.

DRAFT RULING HITS FATHERS

Clamp-Down Applies Only to New Fathers; Pre-Inductees Notified

Selective Service has issued a new order providing for the drafting of young fathers, but it is explained that the order is technical and applies only to those who became fathers after the date specified in the order. Those who already have children or who will become fathers before effective date of the order will not be affected, it was said.

Reason for the new order was thus explained: Heretofore draft-age young men have been deferred for reasons such as being students or apprentices, then while enjoying this status they married and became fathers. Under the old regulations their parenthood gave them indefinite draft immunity.

In Floyd county Selective Service has for remainder of the month only the work of sending registrants for pre-induction examination. The county's induction quota was filled, earlier in the month. Name of registrants notified for pre-induction tests, July 20, follow:

SIX INJURED IN 2-CAR JAM

Residents of County Hospitalized Sunday After Collision Here

Six persons were injured, at least two, seriously—early Sunday night when two autos crashed, head-on, near the Eagles Club here.

The injured included five adults and a baby, and the infant, although thrown by the impact onto the roadside, escaped with the slightest injury, a bruised hip. The others and extent of their injuries:

Charles Arnett, 35, West Prestonsburg, chest injuries; Joe Bayes, West Prestonsburg, broken collarbone; Fred Goble, 23, Lancer, lacerated knee and head; Bobby Sammons, 23, Cliff, cuts on face and head; Jeannette Sloan, 19, Langley, both ankles broken, cut about the face.

Arnett and Bayes occupied a Chevrolet driven by Bayes, approaching Prestonsburg from the north. The others were in a Ford owned and driven by Fred Goble, traveling in the opposite direction. Miss Sloan said the Chevrolet was on the wrong side of the highway and that the driver of the Ford could not avoid a collision. Others said the Chevrolet had pulled from behind another car or truck into the path of the other car.

All six of the injured were treated at the Prestonsburg General hospital.

STATE AGENT INSPECTS SITE

Of Proposed Building To House Offices Here; Work Expected This Year

W. T. Judy, executive director of the State Property and Buildings Commission, was slated to arrive in Prestonsburg today (Thursday) to inspect sites recommended by the Economic Security Department on which to erect a building to house the district office of the Department.

The state already has options on one or more sites here. One of these is on the lots of Marvin Music, adjacent to the Kentucky West Virginia Gas Company property, and is 100 x 120 feet. Another option was reportedly procured from the Harkins estate.

The state already has begun its building program, with seven structures similar to the building here planned for this year.

It was reported here this week that the State Revenue Department will move its district office here next week and that Ex-Magistrate Dewey Roberts, of Harold, will head the office. Full plans for the move were not available.

The State Property and Buildings Commission has called for bids July 24 to construct a one-story brick-and-tile office building at

KILLED IN KOREA

LIEUT. STUMBO DIES IN ACTION

July 11, Parents Learn; Is First Floyd Fatality In Korea Within Year

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stumbo, of Lancer, were notified by the Defense Department Monday that their son, Lieut. Sam Stumbo, of the Marine Corps, had been killed in action in Korea, July 11.

Lieut. Stumbo was the first Floyd county fatality in Korea within a year.

Leader of a rifle platoon, he had been on active duty since August, 1950, having begun his tour of Marine Corps duty the day after receiving his Master of Science degree from the University of Louisville. He had been in Korea since last October, and was scheduled for rotation to the United States in September.

A graduate of Prestonsburg high school, Lieut. Stumbo was well-known here and was a favorite with all who knew him. He had planned a medical career and his study at the University of Louisville had been toward that end.

Surviving, besides his parents are two brothers, Charles Stumbo, of Lancer, and A. 3/c Delano Stumbo, of Tyndall Air Force Base, Florida, and two sisters, Mrs. Shelby Combs, Nicholasville, and Sharon Lee at home.

The body will later be returned home for burial.

FIELD DAY TO BE JULY 30

Floyd county Field Day will go off as scheduled on July 30 but the Green Pastures edition of The Times will not appear on that day, it was announced recently by County Agent O. E. Boggs.

The Green Pastures edition is now planned for August 13.

MIDDLE CREEK CLAY SAMPLE FULLY TESTED

Market Potential Here Is 46,000 Bricks Daily; But Plant Cost Runs High

Floyd county has the clay and the potential market area for a brick plant producing 46,000 bricks per day.

That is the conclusion reached from perusing the letter files of Hansford May, corresponding secretary of the Prestonsburg Chamber of Commerce. The letters are from engineers, tile manufacturers and A. Joe Asher, former executive director of the Eastern Kentucky Industrial Foundation.

Brick samples were made for the A. & I. D. Board by an Alabama manufacturer from the clay deposit on the Jack Arnett Branch of Middle Creek. This deposit was analyzed as excellent for brick-making by the University of Kentucky and the Kentucky State Geological Survey.

Samples for tile analysis were submitted to The Carlyle Tile Company of Ironton, Ohio. In commenting on these samples May said: "These samples were from dirty, outcrop shale and were not the best for analysis." But J. M. Lapp, ceramic engineer for the tile company, wrote:

"The clay sample No. C81 was a dark gray shale in the raw state and it crushed and pulverized easily. It required approximately 22 per cent moisture in order to become plastic enough for extrusion. When a clay or shale is lacking in plasticity there is a tendency for the extruded column to tear

GROUP BUYS MUSIC MOTOR

Lake Motor Company Acquires Agency Here; Firm Composed of Five

The Lake Motor Company, which last week purchased the franchise and equipment of the Music Motor Co., Inc., here, assumed charge of the business last Saturday.

Stockholders in the new firm are R. D. Francis, Bill Allen, Heber Burke, Wm. O. Goebel and Ezra James. Officers of the new company were not announced this week. The firm is to be incorporated, Bill Allen, who has been manager for Music the last three and a half years will continue in that position for the new owners, and it was said no personnel change in the office or mechanical department is contemplated.

Edward Music, president of Music Motor Company, said he will continue operation of his used car lot at Allen. The Music Motor Company purchased the Chrysler-Plymouth agency three and a half years ago from C. H. Smith, now of Lexington.

Purgation Board Cites Statute As Election Officers Named

As the county election commissioners released the names of the 240 residents of the county who were selected Tuesday to act as precinct officers at the August 1 primary, the Floyd County Registration and Purgation Board pointed out important items of the law with which these officers are urged to comply.

The two statutes specifically called to the attention of the election officers provide:

1. The clerk of each precinct, immediately after issuing the ballot to any voter at every primary or regular election, shall indicate in the proper place on the registration record form that the person receiving the ballot voted at that election.
2. The fact that a person is registered constitutes only prima facie evidence of his right to vote, and does not prevent the officers of any primary, special or regular election from refusing to issue him a ballot for causes and in the manner prescribed by the general election laws of the state.

The board also urged careful use of the comparative signature book. It was pointed out that if election officers will check the names of persons who vote, work of the purgation board will be greatly expedited.

The election officers were named by Election Commissioners Marion Martin, Democrat, and W. B. Boyd, Republican, and Sheriff A. B. Meade who is a member by virtue of his office. Names of precinct officials follow, the names of the clerk, two judges and sheriff appearing in order in each instance:

Prestonsburg No. 2—Byron Nunnery, Virginia Stephens, Paul E. Hayes, Chalmer Frazier.

Jean Lambert, 19, of France, standing on the right of the two sons of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Lowe of Maytown, whom he has assisted on the farm as a part of his study of American agricultural methods.

The language barrier that exists between Jean Lambert of France and his Floyd county friends is all that prevented him from fully expressing his reaction to American ways of life. Yet he expressed himself rather well when asked if the French rushed through life like Americans.

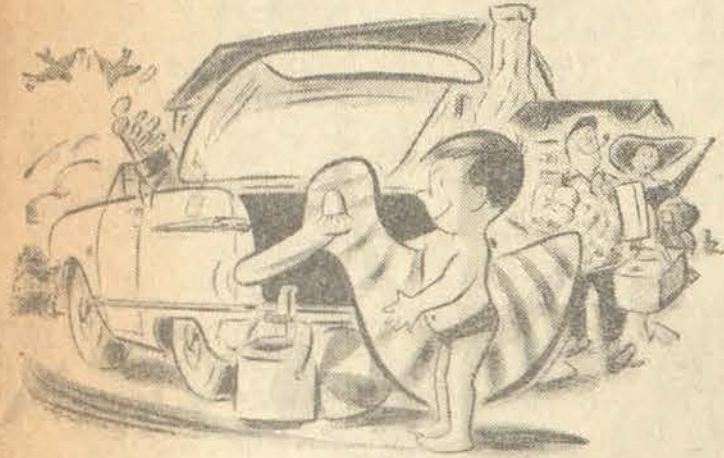

At first he did not seem to understand and reached for his English-French dictionary. When he thoroughly comprehended the question he replied with a laugh, "No, no," and then he added with gesture emphasis: "Never rush like you do."

MINISTERS ENDORSE WARRENS

We, the undersigned Ministers and Church Members, having been "used" in recent political propaganda for the purpose of influencing votes in the Sheriff's race, would like to ask if the candidate or candidates who have expressed such high regard for our judgment would be willing to let us choose the next Sheriff of Floyd county as well as the Deputies?

Yes, we expect to have a voice in selecting the Sheriff and the Deputies for the next four years but not by voting for a candidate whose sole aim is to entice us with promises which will be forgotten as soon as the vote is counted. We are not interested in political promises. WHAT WE WANT AND INTEND TO HAVE IS AN HONEST SHERIFF IN FLOYD COUNTY.

In order to accomplish our aim, we recommend and beg that each of you who are interested in better government and law enforcement in this county cast your vote for HURSHEL WARRENS—the one candidate in this race who will conduct the affairs of the Sheriff's office in such a manner that we can all be proud of the job he has done.

We have known and associated with Hurshel Warrens both in our church and private lives. We know him to be a man of high moral character and above reproach in his dealings with his fellow men. He has always demonstrated a willingness to take advice from good citizens. There can be no doubt but what the good people of Floyd county will be helping to guide and administer our law enforcement program when we elect Hurshel Warrens as our next Sheriff.

Sincerely yours,

Henderson at an estimated cost of around $85,000.

Last January the State bought a 100-by-200-foot lot at Henderson for $10,000.

Two other building sites have been bought at Hopkinsville and Mayfield. The purchase of a lot and office building at Somerset is nearing completion. In addition, an option on a site in Corbin has been obtained.

At Hopkinsville, the state in April paid Mrs. Sarah Major $15,000 for her two-story, nine-room brick residence and 65-by-130-foot lot. The commission this month will attempt to sell the residence on condition the purchaser remove it within 30 days.

At Mayfield, the state paid $12,000 for a 76-by-148-foot lot.

In Somerset, the state has almost completed negotiations to buy for $60,000 a one-story block building with full slab basement.

Costs of the land and buildings will be paid out of accumulations of the state's unemployment-compensation administration fund. On June 30 this fund totaled $740,502 after payment of $37,000 for the three parcels of property at Henderson, Hopkinsville, and Mayfield.

The fund is made up of collections of the state unemployment tax from employers of three to seven persons. These persons, not covered by the federal unemployment program, are covered by Kentucky's program. The tax on employers is three tenths of 1 percent.

It is planned to recover all, or substantially all, of the cost of the district office buildings from the federal government through annual rentals for use of space in the buildings.

The federal government, through its employment-security program, now pays the annual rentals on the 24 district offices maintained throughout the state by the Department of Economic Security.

Tentative plans call for the construction of buildings in 17 Kentucky cities, with movable partitions, modern heating, lighting, and air conditioning. They would cost around $100,000 each.

REPLY TO JARVIS ALLEN

BY SENATOR DOUG HAYS

Jarvis Allen, who is opposing my friend Henry Stumbo for the candidacy on the Democratic Ticket for the office of County Judge, last week put in the paper an article in which he takes credit for a large portion of the successful highway program which Floyd county has had during the last four years. It would appear from Mr. Allen's article that while he was County Court Clerk he spent most of his time getting roads for this county, and one would think from reading the article that he was the only person working with the Frankfort officials to get new road construction here.

As your State Senator from Floyd county, and as one who has spent a great deal of his own money going to and from Frankfort with County Judge Henry Stumbo and other officials of this county to obtain new roads, I wish to take strong issue with Mr. Jarvis Allen as concerns his part in the road construction program for Floyd county.

Back when Kentucky Highway 80 was being constructed, up Right Beaver, I endorsed with others a note for $10,000.00 to buy right-of-way for this road. Mr. Allen's name did not appear on this note. I mention this to show my deep interest in and how far I have gone in securing more roads for our county. In the article in the paper he has taken complete credit for the construction of the Sizemore Branch-Wayland road. So far as I know, Mr. Allen did not have one thing to do with the State furnishing funds to construct this highway.

At the time this road was being approved and surveyed, the allotment for the Floyd county road program had been completely used up, and Congressman Carl Perkins, Henry Stumbo and myself had numerous conferences with Doc Beauchamp, the then Commissioner of Rural Highways concerning this road. I was especially interested in it because while I lived at McDowell on Left Beaver I operated a sawmill on Caney Creek on Right Beaver, and this road saved me personally many miles in traveling from my home to the mill. At our insistence, Doc Beauchamp took money from other portions of the Rural Highway Construction Fund and allotted sufficient funds for construction of this Sizemore Branch-Wayland road and marked it on the highway map as a "Saw-loggin' Doug Hays Road". If Jarvis Allen was ever present at any of the conferences on this road I certainly don't remember it.

It appears to me that Mr. Allen may have been interested in seeing that he got publicity for something which he had nothing to do with. At the time of these occurrences it was my understanding that Mr. Allen was attending an out-of-state law school in Florida.

I think these statements I have made here in connection with the Sizemore Branch-Wayland road apply also to the other roads for which Mr. Allen takes credit. If Jarvis Allen spent as much time in working for improvement of the highway construction in Floyd county as it would appear from his article, then we can all understand why he did not have time to give proper service to the people during his term as County Court Clerk, which resulted in his defeat at the hands of the people in 1949.

the two by camera "magic" standing on each other's corns—and that's about all. One day, I recall, Hank Sauer swung mightily on a Cincy pitch and I held my head, waiting for the two-minute rest while the photographer got the camera around to show some fan in the bleachers sticking the ball in his hip pocket—only to learn from Waite Hoyt that Hank had popped out to the second baseman. ### AULD LANG SYNE

I see by the papers where the old boys and girls who attended the Morehead Normal School, "way back when, rallied round in glad reunion, the other day. I'm no great shakes as a reuniter, or reunionist, or what you might call it, but I think it was a real nice idea.

Just reading about it drew me back over the years and far away from 1953, its troubles, its war, elections and such. I don't know if six weeks' attendance makes a-body an alumnus or not; anyway, I was there, back in the winter of 1917-1918.

That was a memorable winter. Boys were leaving school for the army and a part in World War I; it was the coldest winter on record, so far as I am concerned. I had my first pair of long pants that year, and they were eight-ounce blue serge. What that wind did to me was a caution. I recall our parting. The seat went with the wind in a wrestling match, and that was the only pair of long pants in my wardrobe (?). So back to the old knickerbockers and a display of the shanks again.

That was the winter when I was introduced to Latin and Algebra and a Mr. X which had me completely mystified until the late Prof. George Clark helped me solve the mystery. . . . the winter of a slight outbreak of German measles in school which gave a homesick teenager a flimsy excuse to flee the plague and go home and there gladly walk two miles to school and declare to all and sundry that there's no place like home.

But I have rambled far from what I started out to say. That was to mention that Dr. J. Wesley Hatcher was president of the school in those days, and that he is one of the most pleasant memories that remain. It is great to know that Dr. Hatcher is still active and that he was able to enjoy the reunion with his old boys and girls.

Stephens Scores Win In Every Bait-Casting Event of Tournament

Stewart Stephens, of Prestonsburg, scored a grand-slam in the bait-casting section of the tournament staged Sunday by the Mountain Anglers at the Dewey Lake camp of the Department of Fish & Wildlife Resources.

He took home first-place trophies in the five-eighths-ounce, three-eighths-ounce and skish bait contests and the prize for all-bait accuracy with a total of 280 out of a possible 300 points. Young Stephens started off the bait-casting competition by casting a perfect 100 in the five-eighths contest.

Twenty casters representing Lexington, Louisville, Harrodsburg and Prestonsburg took part in the tournament, with the Prestonsburg casters dominating practically every event except the dry fly and skish fly contests which they did not enter.

The Mountain Anglers won the team bait-casting contest over Harrodsburg with an aggregate score of 480 to 474 for the down-staters.

Bob Budd, of Louisville, won the dry fly contest with a 96 to a second place score of 82 by John Sullivan, of Harrodsburg. Budd also won the skish fly event with a 71 to Sullivan's 38.

Next to Stephens in the five-eighths was John Sullivan with a 98. Bill Baker Burke, of the Mountain Anglers, was a third with a 97. In winning the skish bait event Stephens posted an 84, with Bill Baker Burke and David Allen, his teammates with the Mountain Anglers, winding up in a tie with 80. Burke won the cast-off.

In the three-eighths contest Stephens and David Allen tied with a 98, but Stephens scored a 99 in the cast-off, leaving Allen in second place and Bob Budd third with a 95.

In the women's division five-eighths contest, Nora Hannah defeated another Harrodsburg woman, Lucille Lowrey, 93 to 86.

The Mountain Anglers team, composed of Stewart Stephens, Bill Baker Burke, David and Quentin Allen and Edmund Burke, left Wednesday for St. Petersburg, Fla., where they will participate Saturday and Sunday in the Dixie Tournament. There they will meet the best bait-casters in the South and Southwest.

To The Voters of Magisterial District 1:

I entered the Democratic campaign for Magistrate with no ill-will toward any one. I've put my whole heart into it with clean and friendly campaigning toward all my opponents and all mankind.

I shall go out of the campaign with that love for my fellowman which causes a man to forgive all wrongs done him during the day and permits him to sleep with a clear conscience at night. I hope and earnestly pray no votes will have to be bought or stolen for me in order for me to win.

I deeply appreciate the fact that this is one campaign in which there has been no mudslinging by any of us. My opponents have shown a fine sense of good, sound judgment and courteous consideration in their appeals to the people. I am sure we all have the respect and esteem of the public generally for the clean-cut methods we have used. I have used no "sharp tactics" or "dirty digs" toward them; and if they have toward me, I haven't heard of it.

I take this opportunity to publicly say that nothing I have said has been intended as a reflection upon the character of either of my opponents, and if anybody has understood me otherwise, please dismiss from your minds that thought now. I present herein my appeal, based upon my merits and qualifications, with no thought of seeking a single vote at the expense of the reputation of any of my opponents.

I am very happy that we all must, under our system of government, yield to your good judgment to decide on the vital questions of our qualifications. I believe you have full and complete confidence in my ability to perform each and every one of the duties of the office of Magistrate, and I am perfectly willing to leave that to your good judgment.

I say that my qualifications are as good as my opponents on all matters, including the real, honest-to-goodness, deserving merits of all of us. I am entitled to every sympathetic impulse of the people—by character and citizenship, training and experience; by a record of being accommodating, trustworthy, loyal, friendly, courteous and kind to all and honest in all my dealings. As a miner I have been a union man since 1917.

I will go, all out, for a real road program, will not be bossed by any one and will be available to serve you at all times.

If you want me to be your Magistrate, I will be Number 4 on the ballot. You be the judge.

Sincerely,

BILL SLOAN

Suicide Probe Fails To Confirm Suspicion Adkins Girl Murdered

The death of 16-year-old Viola Adkins on Branham's Creek, July 7, from a revolver bullet, remains a suicide in the minds of authorities, despite suspicion of murder voiced by the girl's brother.

The last decision was reached last Thursday after Commonwealth's Detective Alex L. Davidson and Deputy Sheriff Frank Crum reopened the investigation into the case on the insistence of Miss Adkins' brother. They said they found no evidence to support the belief that the death was anything but suicide.

WSAZ-TV program last Friday noon. He will leave for a Johnson county farm, July 20.

Jean likes Americans, especially American boys. The Lowe boys, Palmer Keith and Donald, have embraced him as one of the family. Since the Lowe farm is small, there is some time for play. All three love volley ball.

He helps with the tomato project and the chicken project the Lowe boys are working with in the 4-H club. He has been in Kentucky since June 16, but he arrived in America by way of New York City, June 11. He spent a week in Washington, D. C. He will leave Kentucky August 24 and go to Louisiana. November 8, he will be back in Washington and on Armistice Day will fly back to his Normandy home. This hurry-up American schedule has not yet seemed to irritate him for he abounds with good humor.

He makes observations on American life and agriculture, some of which we ourselves felt all along to be true but did little about it. He says, in speaking of traffic laws, "You have much law, much accident." In his country there are no speed limits on the highways.

He likes mechanization but dislikes extensive agriculture. In France only a 300-acre farm would have the machinery Americans use on an 80-acre farm. Americans own their machinery. In France several landowners, perhaps as many as seven or eight, are collective owners. His farm in Normandy, 125 acres of level land devoted to grass and dairying, has been in the family 250 years or longer. He does not understand our shifting about from place to place.

He talks of that farm with all the Frenchman's passion for his homeland. He had a farm plot, neatly drafted, showing houses, fields and watercourses. Two tenants aid the family with dairying. The cows are Jerseys and Normans. He explains that the Norman cow is a distinct breed, big, red and white-spotted. They raise race horses and now have 15 head. "One work horse," he smiles. This is understandable when he explains that they only cultivate garden vegetables. He raises practically the same vegetables we do. No peanuts or sweet potatoes. He likes peanuts so well he is taking seed back to France.

"Americans waste land, he thinks. County Agent Boggs pointed to a weedy space of idle land across from the Lowe home. He shook his head, "You waste land." But he understands that topography has a lot to do with land use. West Normandy is a lot like Eastern Kentucky, he said. In Normandy people do not hunt much. They just don't like the sport.

To have had a father killed in World War II as he did in 1944 and to have suffered the German occupation for a long time, one would think there must be a certain degree of bitterness in him. But there isn't. He is perfect as a young apostle of international goodwill. The Germans, he says, simply, and in his imperfect English, are "no good people." Asked why he didn't like the Germans, he thumbed the dictionary again and replied: "Because he was an enemy. No good treatment." There was no evidence of bitterness when he added quietly about the Germans, "For everybody bad treatment." He only showed intense dislike when he talked about Communists: "We have Communists but we don't like it."

He recalls the weary war years while his father was in the service. Twenty-four bombs fell on the farm and five struck the home. It was wrecked. He shows a picture of this old thatched, two-story home and its quaint gables. He has a picture of the new one under construction that the government is assisting them to rebuild. It is not very different from the old one.

The county agent and Mrs. Lowe tried patiently to explain. One said: "If you were going fast, rushing down the highway, and a policeman arrested you, what would that be?" "That would be," and he paused, then said, "Accident?" He didn't understand the why of the laughter but joined in it good-humoredly.

He is no accident as a bearer of goodwill from France to American boys. He is spontaneously happy and radiates good cheer. The Lowe family will, on July 20, because they will have learned a little French from him, reply, "bon voyage" when he offers his hand and says au revoir. They are friends. It is like he said, the French and Americans have always been friends.

OFFICER ACCUSED

NEW YORK — New York Police Lieutenant Miller, twice cited for excellence by the department, was accused of giving false answers to questions regarding Communist Party ties and ordered to stand departmental trial.

THE LAND JUDGE FORGOT

Here is a picture of a road out in the land that Judge forgot out on Buffalo Creek. The pictured road begins just off a state improved road, that Judge had nothing to do with, and begins its long, muddy, rocky, twisting and narrow way up Buffalo Creek. It is passable in the summer time and just before the elections for just before election day the county-owned machinery gets busy and grades it a little. They go up with the grader and take the blade up as they come out—they are in such a hurry.

A little boy is fishing in the water hole that Judge Henry Stumbo calls a road. Judge Stumbo was fishing for votes when he promised the people he would do "something for the outlying districts". He is fishing for votes again but it is obvious why he isn't out on Buffalo Creek doing the fishing. People out there have a long memory for promises.

That water hole in the middle of the road is over 100 feet long. When it rains a car will drown out after the water rises. People on Buffalo Creek, who work at Prestonsburg, merchants, farmers and others can't make it to town. Judge forgot. Forgot to make good on his promises to aid "people in the outlying districts". He was just fishing, anyway. Fishing for votes.

He is fishing for votes again with the same old promises of roads. If he is elected again the little boys will continue to fish in the middle of the road for Judge will forget. Forget again the "people in the outlying districts".

Jarvis Allen will do something for the roads in this county. He will give us roads and bridges—not mud holes and fish holes in the middle of the road.

Cooley for Sheriff

FLOYD COUNTY DEMANDS GOOD GOVERNMENT

VII. JUDGE A MAN BY HIS FRIENDS

A man in public life is proud of his many friends and relatives proud that he has been able with assistance and cooperation to bind them to himself, not for his own good but for the common good. There comes a time, too, when the common need of a county or people is so great that he counts his friends and relatives in the fight for honest government. That time is now. Floyd county needs the concerted effort of all our friends and relatives to make it a better place in which to live.

Judge a man by his friends. If they are legion, if they are leaders in the fight for civic improvement and honest administration of the law, he can be proud. Mine are that. I salute you, not merely because you are friends but because of your sterling desire to aid me in my fight to clean up the mess Floyd county finds itself engrossed with at this hour.

The Cooleys have been Floyd countians a long time. David Cooley, the immigrant from Winchester, Virginia, came to Prestonsburg in 1818, settling on the present First Avenue. He was married to Eliza Emerson. He stocked a store, erected a tannery and became a justice of the peace. His store stood in the almost exact spot where the I. Richmond Store stands today.

His children were David, James, Joseph, Laura and Mary Roena. James married Julia Auxier, daughter of one of the founders of Blockhouse Bottom which was the first permanent settlement in Eastern Kentucky. Joseph became a judge over a wide circuit of Eastern Kentucky counties. Laura married Greenville Davidson of Prestonsburg. He was a leader in the Confederacy and served for years as County Court Clerk. Mary Roena Cooley married Isaac Richmond, whom many of the elderly people of this county remember as a gentleman of the old school. David, the eldest son, married Columbia Goodwin.

Sons and daughters of David and Columbia were Harry, who married Amanda Turner (they were my parents), Mary married Thomas Turner, Josie married Lee Hall, Frank married Eird Allen, Sudduth married Taulbee Turner and David, Jr., married Billy Burke.

James Cooley and Julia Auxier Cooley were the parents of Harry Nathaniel Cooley who served as county superintendent of Floyd schools for eight years and taught for 51 years. One of the many things about this campaign I shall remember with pride is that he would emerge from retirement to endorse me for sheriff. Brothers and sisters of Harry are James, Pets, Warren, Hester Ann and Lydia. Hester Ann married Claybourne Stephens. She died in May of this year, being 84 years of age. Lydia married James Stephens of Cliff, a man who is interesting himself in affairs to improve agriculture in Floyd county.

My Davidson relatives are the sons and daughters and the descendants of the union of Laura Cooley Davidson and Greenville Davidson. Joseph M. Davidson, who for years was connected with the Bank Josephine, married Anna Layne of Prestonsburg. Mary Davidson married Taylor Allen. Judith married Samuel Kelso. Lydia married Samuel Spradlin. Nell married Col. Andrew Jackson May, the Confederate leader, and after his death re-married to Thomas Wilkerson, Victoria married Judge Edward P. Arnold. My father, Harry Cooley, who died in 1945, married Amanda Turner, a daughter of Jobe and Cynthia Allen Turner. Jobe and Cynthia Turner both died in the year 1928. My brothers and sisters are Jobe Cooley, married Myrtle, a daughter of George Martin, W. W. Cooley, married Leona Gott, a Floyd county teacher, Oak married Rosetta Osborne, a daughter of J. M. Osborne, Savage married Harriet, a daughter of Dr. J. H. Allen, of Maytown, Maxie married Chester Allen, a son of General Jackson Allen, Gladys married Johnnie Gearheart, Mable married Charles Hensley, Blanche married Ben Castle, Orville, a brother is unmarried. Ruth, a sister, died unmarried. Ruth, as many remember, was a Floyd county teacher for years.

I married Mildred Stumbo, daughter of John M. and Della Hopkins Stumbo of Harold.

Brothers and sisters of Mildred are E. H. "Ted" and John M. Jr., "Lightning," both of Harold, William "Bill" and Peggy Deloris.

As I said in a preceding paragraph my mother was a daughter of Joe and Cynthia Allen Turner. My Turner grandparents were Green Turner and Sally Martin Turner. My grandmother Cynthia Allen Turner was a daughter of Jackson Allen and Susan Gearheart Allen. Jack Turner, a brother to my mother Amanda, married Laura Allen. They are the parents of V. O. Turner, present county superintendent of schools.

It can be seen from the above history of the Cooley family that I am related to a vast number of Floyd countians. My people are the Allens, Turners, Martins, Stumbos, Hopkins, Salsburys, Davidsons, Spradlins, Stephens, Hicks, Holbrooks, Halls, Littles, Webbs, Hays, Peters and many others. They have contributed much to good government. They have always been a bulwark to honest government as they are now.

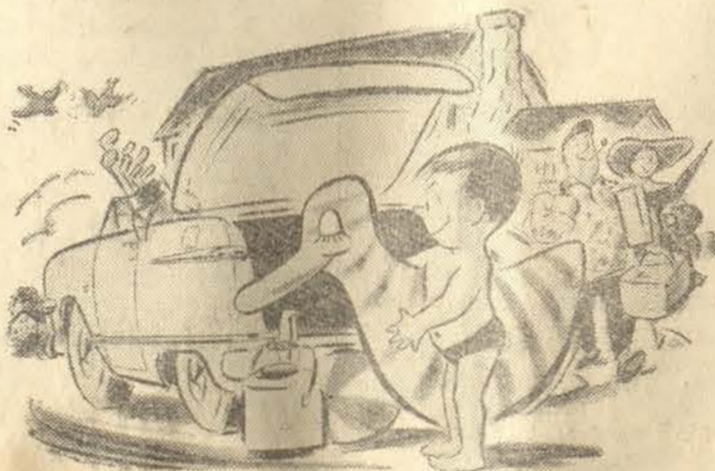

Together with my friends and my people we can win in this fight for honest administration and honest enforcement of the law. My friends and my people are the united forces working for Honest Government. I am proud of both. United as we are we cannot fail.

Sincerely,

JOE H. COOLEY

Your Next County Attorney--

WILL YOU CHOOSE THE OLD OR WILL YOU CHOOSE THE NEW?

On August 1, 1953 you voters have the chance to write a verdict for HONEST GOVERNMENT in Floyd county. Let us hope and work so that this time the will of the voters will prevail and the "SHEEN-NANIGANS" of the Professional Politicians in the courthouse will be stopped and destroyed. The first step you must take is the election of a County Attorney who will be Honest and Faithful to you. When such a man is elected he can then take the necessary steps to finish the Clean-up. I submit to you that I am the man for this job because I have, can and will continue to fight any and all Corruption in the Courthouse or anywhere else if it constitutes a threat to the interests or welfare of Floyd county.

Thus far in the campaign for the office of County Attorney I am the only candidate who has had the courage of his convictions to tell you about the "MESS" at the Courthouse. I do not believe in "Fussy-footing" around when the interests of my county are involved. To be successful in cleaning up the "MESS" you MUST have a County Attorney who will act at all times for your interests, regardless of what force, fear or pressure is brought to bear upon him. I submit to you that I am that kind of man. In my campaign thus far I have presented to you the truth and I will continue to do so.

In an article in the Floyd County Times last week Woodrow Burchett stated, "If you want a man that will work every day for your interests, Vote for Woodrow Burchett for County Attorney". Lets look at a few instances of the record of Woodrow Burchett, and see if he has been "WORKING EVERY DAY FOR YOUR INTERESTS" in the past.

Since Woodrow Burchett was elected County Attorney 12 long years ago he has had the Cow Creek Road black-topped for a distance of approximately 2 1/2 miles. The black-top ends about 2 tenths of a mile beyond his house, about one-fourth of the way up Cow Mountain. Mr. Burchett has stopped "Eating Dust" but the other residents of Cow Creek, Buffalo and Clarks Branch still have a rough and dusty road to travel, and are still "Eating Dust". Was Woodrow Burchett "WORKING EVERY DAY FOR YOUR INTERESTS" when his road was black-topped just a little ways beyond his house? How many of you voters are "EATING DUST" right now on roads for which you have been promised black-top by Woodrow Burchett? How many of you voters need small bridges or culverts across creeks where your so-called roads now run? On Fiscal Order Book 6, page 40 you will find the order where the Fiscal Court sold to Woodrow Burchett eight sections of Steel Handrail for the sum of $16.00. Those were used by Mr. Burchett in constructing TWO bridges across Cow Creek to his home. He drives his cars across one bridge and back across the other without having to turn. If those eight Steel Handrails could serve he and his cars as bridges why couldn't they have been used for bridges out in the county so that the public could have used them. WAS HE "WORKING EVERY DAY FOR YOUR INTERESTS" WHEN THIS WAS DONE?

Was Woodrow Burchett "WORKING EVERY DAY FOR YOUR INTERESTS" during the past eleven years when he systematically and continuously kept money, your money, over and above his constitutional limit? Was he "WORKING EVERY DAY FOR YOUR INTERESTS" when he pleaded the Statute of Limitations to the suit filed against him to recover over $25,000.00 in excess monies kept by him or did he plead that way to try to beat the county out of all the excess money he kept for the first five or six years he held office?

On Page 210, Fiscal Court Order Book No. 6, you will find the notation and receipt of $8131.19 where Woodrow Burchett paid back said sum, after having been sued, to the county. HE HAS NEVER YET OFFERED TO PAY BACK THE EXCESS MONEY WHICH IT HAS BEEN ALLEGED HE KEPT THE FIRST FIVE OR SIX YEARS HE WAS IN OFFICE. Is this "Working every day for your interests"? If Woodrow Burchett had never been sued for this excess money WOULD HE HAVE EVER VOLUNTARILY PAID BACK A SINGLE CENT OF IT? I say to you that if he was competent enough to be County Attorney then he was competent enough to know just how much money he was entitled too.

Has he been "WORKING EVERY DAY FOR YOUR INTERESTS" in the past? The above is just a sample of his record. You be the judge. This is the kind of service you have had in the past. Is it the kind of service you want in the future? Or do you want a NEW COUNTY ATTORNEY WHO WILL GIVE YOU NEW, HONEST and FAITHFUL SERVICE? Your ballots will be your verdict. By your vote you will approve or disapprove of the service Woodrow Burchett has given you the past 12 years.

In my campaigning over the county you voters have expressed to me your desire for a New Face in the County Attorney's office. To attain this goal you must rally behind only one of Mr. Burchett's opponents. If the vote is split, as Mr. Burchett figures it will be, then with his votes he can garner through his Courthouse Cronies and their "Organization" he might be able to slip in the back door to this office and you will be "plagued" with another four years of his idea of what he considers is "WORKING FOR YOUR INTERESTS EVERY DAY". I have not been conducting a "FLASHY" campaign because I am not financially able to do so. My opponents are fortunate enough to be able to spend money at will in the purchase of signs, pictures and other literature so the only way I have of competing with them for your vote and confidence is by taking my race to you, the People. For your information let me state that I and my opponents all have the necessary legal training and experience for this job. Neither of us is better qualified, legally, for this office than any of the others. But you know that you need an HONEST, FEARLESS and FAITHFUL man to serve you in this office. I repeat, neither of my opponents have attempted to give you the truth as I have done, and I feel that they lack this one great characteristic, FEARLESSNESS, which is so necessary if you are to have the kind of County Attorney which you want and NEED. If they are afraid to give you the truth now, won't they be afraid later on? I believe in calling a spade a spade and I have, and will continue, to tell you the truth about the Beds of Corruption in the Courthouse. I have not promised roads, bridges, culverts, schools, jobs, favors or accommodations in my campaign. I have, and will make, only one campaign promise, which I WILL KEEP, and that is, if elected I WILL DO A GOOD AND HONEST JOB. Do you want the OLD or the NEW kind of service in the office of County Attorney? I plead with you to make the correct decision, to find yourselves and bring NEW, HONEST and TRUTHFUL life back into the Courthouse. Won't you give me your trust and confidence? As GOD is in Heaven I will not fail you. Yours for Floyd County, First, Last and Always.

W. G. (BILL) BIGGERS for REPRESENTATIVE

The Man with Experience

WHY THE REPUBLICANS
SHOULD SUPPORT
COLLINS

The Political Wheel of fortune is slowly turning and the time is rapidly running out in which the Politicians have to explain their fellow candidate's short comings and his faults, and to pat himself on the back AND TELL YOU WHAT A SWELL FELLOW HE IS.

I am no politician. I am no fine fellow. I am just a plain Joe like you or your neighbor, that wasn't smart enough to stay out of one of these POLITICAL RACES. Where your reputation or what you call REPUTATION is dragged through the mire of Corruption, to the tune of the all mighty dollar or the power they hope to gain or to hold.

I entered the race for Sheriff of this county to win. I entered because we need a sheriff. I entered because Law Enforcement is at an ALL time low. I entered because I felt that the REPUBLICAN organization is behind me. I entered because the Republicans thought I could win. I entered because the many Democrats asked me to make the race. I entered because the GOOD PEOPLE OF THIS COUNTY WANT A CANDIDATE WHO IS HONEST AND HAS THAT ALMOST FORGOTTEN QUALITY OF INTEGRITY. THEY WANT A CANDIDATE THIS FALL WHO WILL MAKE A SHERIFF FOR THE PEOPLE. THEY WANT A SHERIFF WHO WILL ENFORCE THE LAWS, AND OUTFORCE THE OUTLAWS.

CERTAIN FACTIONS IN THE RANKS OF THE POLITICIANS, ESPECIALLY THE DEMOCRAT RANKS are singing: "Collins is the Weakest Candidate, so and so is the strongest, so and so will be the hardest to beat in the fall." DOESN'T IT SEEM STRANGE THAT THESE SAME POLITICIANS DON'T WANT THE REPUBLICANS TO NOMINATE A STRONG MAN? WHY, OH, WHY WOULD THEY ROOT FOR THE STRONGEST MAN? I'LL TELL YOU WHY. THEY KNOW THAT IF COLLINS IS NOMINATED ON THE REPUBLICAN TICKET, HE WILL MAKE A SCRAP. THEY KNOW HE WILL PUT UP A FIGHT. THEY ALSO KNOW COLLINS WILL PUBLISH THE FACTS, THE TRUTH. COLLINS WILL MAKE THE KIND OF SHERIFF THE PEOPLE NEED AND ONE FOR THE PEOPLE NOT DOMINATED BY THE POLITICAL BOSSES, NOT A STOOGE FOR THE LAWLESS, NOT A HAND-PIKED YES MAN FOR THE COURT HOUSE. I WILL MAKE A SHERIFF FOR ALL THE PEOPLE.

A SURE WINNER—COME NOVEMBER

along the edges. You will notice on the bottom of these samples marked C 81 that the edges are rather rough and broken.

"Clay sample C82 was a grayish-brown shale and crushed and pulverized easily. This material required 24.8 per cent water in order to become plastic for our extrusion process. This clay sample is considerably better with respect to plasticity than the sample C81. The drying shrinkage was 12.3 per cent. This shale would be more ideally suited for our type of quarry tile production.

"Depending on the color desired in brick production it might be possible to get a suitable brick by mixing these two types of shales. I am sure that that particular location is quite rich in good high quality shales."

Mr. Asher, of the Industrial Foundation, wrote May in April, this year, about the potential brick market in this area. He said that there were manufactured, in the U. S., in 1939, about 43,000 bricks per 1,000 population. Kentucky uses about the national average of 1939, because the use of brick in this area has increased. He wrote:

"The 1950 census figures show that in Elliott, Floyd, Pike, Johnson, Lawrence, Magoffin, Martin, Morgan and Letcher (9 of the 14 counties) the population was 258,865. At 43,000 brick per 1000 population would amount to 11,114,000 brick per year, or 928,000 brick per month, or at 20 days work per month, 46,000 brick per day.

"Or using your figure of 200,000 brick per month for Johnson and Floyd (population 77,300) would give 22,000 brick per 1,000 population and a daily output of 10,000 for the two counties. The 32,000 per 1,000 figure projected upon the 9-county population would raise your daily output up to roughly 35,000.

"Personally, I believe that the 46,000 daily demand from the nine counties named is not too high, assuming competitive price, quality,

May, in his exploratory work on the brick business, entered into correspondence with T. W. Grave, consulting engineer, Columbus, Ohio, on the matter of the cost of a brick plant. Part of the Graves letter follows:

"A plant for making common brick can be built comparatively cheap in that such brick may be fired in updraft kilns (improved screw kiln). The firing equipment is always the most costly part of a brick and tile plant, in fact of any plant making ceramic ware, which refers mainly to the intermittent downdrafts or a continuous car tunnel kiln.

"I might say that such a kiln, to fire 30,000 brick per day, could be built for something like $110,000, inclusive of the necessary extra cars to keep the kiln filled and going over night and week-ends. The necessary downdraft kilns perhaps one third to one fourth of the tunnel kiln.

"The machinery, equipment, and buildings may run up to $100,000 and the dryer $50,000. For a tunnel kiln building we should add another $50,000. These are approximate figures, depending greatly upon locality and kind of raw material. The preparation of a shale requires a larger outlay due to grinding and screening."

May says: "Here is the clay deposit, the market and the plant cost. Now who has the money to invest?"

COUNTY COURT CLERK

Dear Friends:

The only unpleasant thing about an election campaign is that everyone can't win. I realize that many times it is necessary to choose between relatives and friends, but we have our duty to God and our country, and my utmost desire is that we make the best of it.

I feel good toward my opponents in this race. I don't want to hurt any of their feelings, or the feelings of their friends.

I promise to always strive to keep my mind and body clean and working to upbuild the good that we have in the world, and not for the interests of those things that seek to tear down and destroy. Both in office and out, I have always tried to do all of the good that I could to as many people as I could, and to be honest and kind to everyone.

I believe that you feel that I have been a faithful servant to the people in the County Court Clerk's office. My only obligation is to the people. I will not be obligated to any politician or clique. I have always strived with all my ability to do what was fair and honest and efficient for the good people of our county. I have always felt that the good could be made better, and the better best; that is and will always be my aim.

Kathleen and I have many fine friends and relatives throughout Floyd county. We appreciate your kindness toward us. We realize that the County Court Clerk's office is more important to more people than any other office in the county. Every man and woman in the county will have some business or interest in this office, during the next four years. No business could successfully operate, nor no home could be secure without this office being in clean and faithful hands. We have kept your records well and have been faithful and true to the trust that you have put in us.

I have had in my custody in the County Court Clerk's Office all records of your deeds, mortgages, contracts, automobile and truck licenses and registrations, your registration as a voter, the election boxes and ballots and tabulations, marriages and marriage licenses, sales and transfers, discharges, and various other licenses and records, and a record of all money spent by the County Fiscal Court.

You can readily see the importance of having this office in efficient hands. Every family will have some kind of interest or business in the County Court Clerk's Office in the next four years, and I want each of you to realize that only with your help will it be possible for me to continue to serve you for the next four years, and that if I am nominated and elected the office will still belong to you, yours to give and yours to take away, and so long as you put your confidence in me it will be operated for your benefit and convenience. I have tried to secure and keep the most efficient help.

You can always feel free to come into the Clerk's Office and transact business and visit with us. We will be glad to be of service to you. We have and we will continue to save your time and money.

I appreciate the kindness and the courtesy that you have shown me in the past. I am grateful to you all and will always do my very best to make you happy that you have helped me in this election.

If not obligated to someone else I will sincerely appreciate your vote and influence in this race. Please give me your kind consideration.

Your friend,
DuRAN MOORE

HEALTH NOTES

By Floyd County Health Dept.

HAY FEVER

Hay fever, an affliction of some 2,500,000 Americans, is caused by an allergy, or sensitivity to pollen. Its victims are easy to spot — with their inflamed and running eyes, "stuffed up" noses, and sudden and sometimes prolonged paroxysms of sneezing.

Even victims of mild cases of hay fever are as miserable as they look. Hay fever in a mild form is not a serious illness, although it may cause great discomfort and cut down on the sufferer's sleep and his appetite. Severe hay fever, allowed to go untreated, can lead to asthma, a chronic obstruction of the bronchial tubes which produces a hard cough and difficult breathing.

Hay fever in the spring and summer is due to pollen in the air which comes from trees, grasses, and weeds. The hay fever prevalent from about the middle of August until the first frost is usually caused by ragweed pollen.

Anyone who suspects he has or is getting hay fever should see his doctor. While there is no specific cure for hay fever, there are treatments which will make the sufferer more comfortable and help him ward off asthma and other respiratory illnesses to which his hay fever might have made him susceptible.

The doctor will make a thorough study to find out what kind of pollen is causing the trouble. Once it is known, he can advise the victim on avoiding it. He may also give injections of pollen extract to help the person build up resistance to it. These injections, called "desensitization treatments," are usually most helpful if given before the attack of hay fever.

There are drugs on the market which sometimes relieve hay fever, but they should be used only with the advice and supervision of the doctor, since they can cause painful and, perhaps, harmful reactions.

Many communities are trying to stamp out the offending ragweed by spraying it with chemicals or cutting it down and burning it. Best results are obtained when weeds are destroyed, over a large area, before the seeds mature and are carried about by the wind.

MAY NOT RAISE PAY

Frankfort, Ky., July 13 — Assistant Attorney General M. B. Hollifield held that once a fiscal court has established the salary of a county judge for the ensuing term it can not subsequently change the figure to a higher one. However, where the fiscal court failed to establish a salary for the county clerk for acting as clerk of the fiscal court it may make a correction in this respect.

NEWS & NOTES

By: ROGER TURNER

"Beauty lies in the beholder" . . .

Everyday we are surrounded by beauty, if we will only stop and take notice of these wonderful treasures around us . . . THEY ARE OURS FOR THE ASKING.

The smell of coffee brewing or newly cut grass; the sound of a child's laughter or a bird's song; the feel of a spring rain or a kitten's fur.

It is said "two men looked through bars . . . one saw mud, the other stars." Beauty can be overlooked if we don't train ourselves, and our attitude, to constantly be on the lookout for it. Without it, life is vacant . . . but with it man reaches new spiritual heights.

Remember "beauty is the smile on the earth's face" . . . and it is open to all . . . it needs nothing but the eyes to see and the receptive mood to appreciate.

Ford Master-Guide

the last word in

Power Steering!

"WHO NEEDS MUSCLES?"

Master-Guide applies hydraulic steering power automatically . . . and in varying degrees as required . . . right at the steering linkage, close to the wheels. At the same time the system serves as a hydraulic shock absorber to keep road jars and jolts from your hands. As a result all you do is . . . guide the car . . . Master-Guide supplies the muscles.

It's the newest in a long list of Ford advancements that make this Ford the outstanding car for '53!

No other car near Ford's price has ever offered you so much!

Ford was the first in its field to bring you V-8 power. Today, Ford alone of all the low-priced cars offers you the smooth, unsurpassed performance of a V-8 engine. And Ford's Six—the most modern in the industry—with Overdrive, won the Grand Sweepstakes in this year's Mobilgas Economy Run.

Ford first brought to the low-price field a completely automatic transmission that combines the smoothness of a torque converter and the gas-saving "go" of automatic gears. Fordomatic remains the most versatile automatic you can buy.

Ford's new "ride" brings you road-hugging and bump-leveling qualities never before known in low-priced cars. Front end road shock alone has been reduced up to 30%. Easier-acting suspended pedals. Center-Fill Fueling and Full-Circle Visibility are just a few of the many important advancements first introduced by Ford.

And now Ford brings you the newest and finest in power steering . . . Master-Guide, a system exclusive in Ford's field! It's no wonder, then, that Ford is the "Worth More" car . . . worth more when you buy it . . . worth more when you sell it.

HELPS YOU OUT OF "TIGHT SPOTS!" The tougher the going the more Master-Guide works for you. For example, if you go off the pavement onto a soft shoulder or a rough, rutted road, Master-Guide provides the muscles to keep you on a steady course. At the same time, Master-Guide absorbs the shock that might otherwise be transmitted to the steering wheel. You'll find all handling is easier with Master-Guide and that parking requires only one-fourth the normal effort. Should Master-Guide ever lose its power, the standard steering mechanism will operate just as usual. Thus, Master-Guide provides new ease and stability, with a natural feel and full security, wherever you may drive. Optional on a V-8 model at extra cost.

TO THE VOTERS OF FLOYD COUNTY

As the campaign in the Sheriff's race progresses it is interesting to follow the platforms and promises being made by the various candidates. No promises seem to be too great so long as it might possibly influence a vote. For your consideration in making up your mind as to who will be the next Sheriff of Floyd county, I would like to stress a few points for special consideration:

1. No candidate has promised you anything that common, ordinary honesty would not require of a Sheriff. Most of the promises made are requirements which the Sheriff swears to uphold when taking the oath of office. As for the Constitutional limit, no honest man wants or will ever accept money to which he is not entitled.

2. Every citizen in Floyd county deserves and should have protection provided by the Sheriff's Office in his daily life. Our schools and churches are our most important institutions for promoting the future welfare of our county. They deserve and must have every consideration from the Sheriff's office. If these freedoms are to be preserved and protected by the boys who are fighting and dying on foreign soil, then, we at home must also start to protect them.

3. Our newspapers have been for several years begging for attention to the lack of industry and jobs in eastern Kentucky. How can we expect new industries to move into a county that continues to promote graft and dishonesty in local political offices? If Floyd county bears the reputation for allowing a Sheriff to collect extra taxes from companies merely by changing figures on a tax bill, how then can we convince outside industries that our county would be a suitable place for new locations? Would you move into a new community if you thought you were going to be "fleeced" by crooked politicians? Let's clean up the mess and then we will have something to offer.

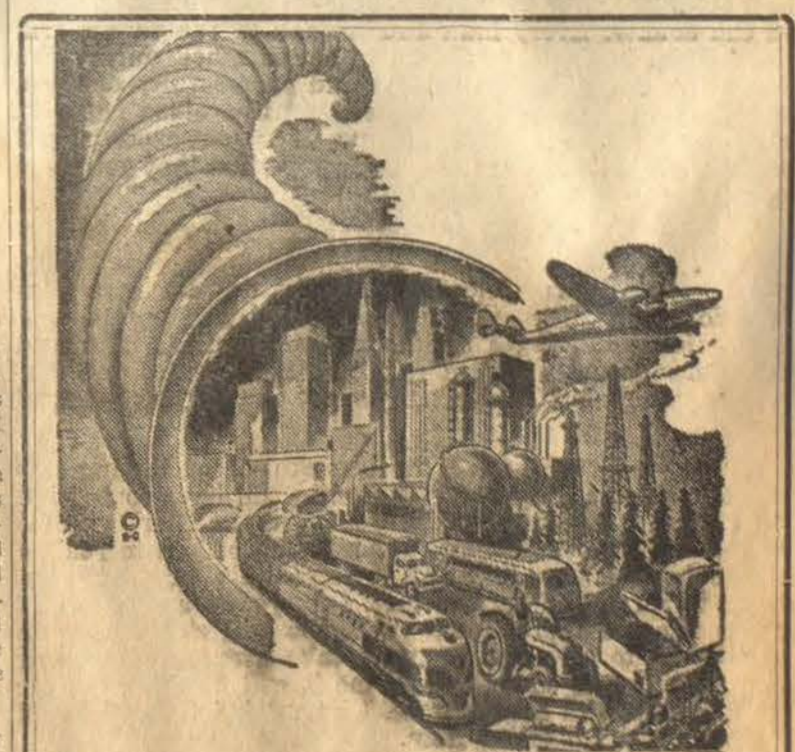

4. Can any candidate with a reputation for violence, personal dishonesty, or political graft be depended upon to give you honest administration and fair treatment in the Sheriff's office? Would you entrust the lives and welfare of your family and friends to such men? The Deputies appointed by the Sheriff are the men from whom you will receive or be denied the protection necessary for your families, your property and your homes. It is only natural that any man desiring to do a good job as Sheriff will consult and be guided by the wishes of the people in their respective communities. These Deputies should and must be men who will place the welfare of the community and their fellow man above their own financial gain.

In soliciting your support in the coming election, I can only offer you my reputation—my life as it has been lived. There is nothing outstanding or unusual about it. I have never physically harmed any man and neither have I ever wrongfully taken money, under any circumstances.

That is my offer. Can you ask for more from your next Sheriff?

Sincerely yours,
HURSHEL WARRENS

There's Always Another Beria

NEWS that Beria, head of the Soviet secret police, is himself a prisoner and probably headed for the chopping block gives every human being who believes in the justice of retribution and the need for evil to fall and good to rise, a feeling that all is not wrong in the world.

But any jubilation on our part arising from the idea that this indicates a weakness in the power that lies behind the Iron Curtain may be unjustified. For this is not an expression of the people such as were the revolts in East Germany and elsewhere in the Red empire; it is a struggle for power, with one man apparently headed toward victory.

If Malenkov purges all his rivals for Stalin's post he will succeed to the full power of Stalin. Then world peace will be at the whim of one man, Malenkov, insofar as official Russia is concerned.

The death of Beria does not eliminate the OGPU, the dread secret police organization which makes the Iron Curtain work. If Malenkov succeeds in wresting sole power over Russia's millions, he will find another diabolical genius to handle that job. The world will profit none.

Then we may be merely whistling past the graveyard when we hail Beria's arrest and apparent doom as a hopeful sign. Time will tell. Meanwhile, we can only hope—and pray.

Everybody Will Benefit

M. V. CLARK did as he should when, as administrator of the Floyd County Health Department, he temporarily closed the swimming pool at the Boy Scout camp on Dewey Lake. He was right, because he honestly believed the pool was unsafe. The health of the boys means more than any inconvenience or temporary discomfiture that may result from his order.

It is encouraging to note that Lonsome Pine Council and the splendid group of men who make its workings so effective have taken steps to make the changes Mr. Clark has so urgently suggested.

Consider Those Without Cars

IT may be a bit late to surmise about such matters, but we would have liked the location of Prestonsburg's future swimming pool nearer the center of town.

That thought arises when we think of the two youngsters who were drowned here recently. It strikes us that the pool should serve to keep children out of the river and other unsupervised bathing places, and location of the pool some distance outside the usual limits of town will make it more inaccessible to some than the river with its filth and other dangers.

For those children whose families have cars the swimming pool location is great. But these can go even to David or Paintsville or to the lake. It is those to whom transportation comes difficult who must be considered.

Perhaps a solution can be reached later—free transportation for youngsters under the handicap of distance with no auto of their own to carry them, or some such arrangement.

How Many Will Sign?

IN Montgomery county the Democratic chairman and the State Senator, along with others interested in honest elections, have devised a plan to assure their county a clean primary.

They have called on all candidates on the ballot there to sign an agreement which pledges them not to spend even one dollar for votes and to serve as watchdogs over the other candidates on election day. All of the candidates, of course, must sign the agreement; otherwise, it isn't binding on those who do.

This is a splendid idea. How many Floyd county candidates would subscribe to it, promise in writing not to spend money and subject their activities to surveillance as a protective measure to other candidates?

This newspaper will be glad to procure a copy of the Montgomery pact and print, without charge, a copy for each candidate, Democrat and Republican, if enough of the candidates are interested in clean elections, which is a prime requisite to good government.

If some such plan as the Montgomery county agreement is not followed in this county, what then? Shall we forget all the talk we have heard over recent months of good government and go on a sordid vote-buying, vote-selling spree? No—surely.

Then, if Floyd county is not to sink as deep as ever in the political mire, now—if an agreement is not forthcoming—is the time for the Floyd County Good Government Taxpayers League to organize for the job of keeping watch at the polls, and to instruct watchers to maintain their vigil as honest men themselves, without prejudice toward any individual and without favor to any. Let everybody be forewarned. Let all understand what action is proposed at the polls and in the courts.

And let the courts themselves give warning that there will be no clemency for those thus caught in violation of a law which can and should in the name of common decency be enforced.

"Toodles" Wells Tells What He Stands For As Representative

WHAT I STAND FOR:

1. State Park at Dewey Lake with sufficient roads into reservoir area.
2. More state money for the Floyd county road program and legislation designed to insure that Floyd county gets its proper share of state road money.
3. Any legislation leading to harmonious labor-management relations.
4. Increased aid to education in Floyd county, including higher salaries and retirement benefits for Floyd county's teachers.
5. A veteran's bonus.
6. Increased benefits for old age pensioners, needy blind and dependent children.
7. A 7th District legislative organization in the 1954 General Assembly.

WHY I AM INTERESTED:

1. I am a resident of Prestonsburg, am an automobile salesman, and recognize the need for a park, not alone for its value as a recreational center but for the business and money it will bring to our area.
2. Good roads bring tourists, and increase business and general prosperity. Good roads lessen the burdens of school transportation, thus permitting use of funds for bigger and better schools.
3. Eastern Kentucky is the most highly organized by labor of any other section of the country. My father, Sam Wells, has been a coal miner for the past 35 years and for many years has been a member of the United Mine Workers of America.
4. I attended grade and high school in Floyd county's schools. I hold a teaching certificate from Morehead State College. Further, I have refereed and umpired ball games in most of the high schools in Floyd county. Only through a better educational program can we develop trained men and women to lead our section on to prosperity.
5. I am the only World War II veteran in this race. I feel keenly my obligation to support the veterans of this state.
6. Those unfortunate enough to need these benefits should receive a monthly check sufficient to sustain their needs.
7. Eastern Kentucky can only obtain its rightful share of road money and school money and other benefits to which we are so justly entitled by having all of its representatives and senators standing together as one vote.

If You Remember . . .

The old man sat on the river bank watching the rise of the yellow flood. Debris gathered in creaking drifts in the slack water near the bank or swung out into the center current, arose and billowed away on the bosom of the serpentine stream. The steady creep of the water mark up the side of the willows would not slow for hours.

The old man had watched the river in its many moods for a lifetime. He knew it intimately when it was in flood or when the dry spells came and you could wade. When the droughts came you could see the white rocks and mussel shells on the river floor. The river was one of his first recollections. He had waded or swum or fished in it so long that he had no definite remembrance when they had become companions.

Today as he sat on the bank and watched the rising, turbid flood he had a new thought, one that had never occurred to him before. He was growing old but the river was young yet, young and virile with strength. It would, for centuries yet, swell with the mighty rains, shrink with the dry days of summer when the sun baked earth swallowed all the moisture instead of giving it to the river. The stream would never grow old like him but would live for ages, mighty and strong with long youth.

It is said that we are growing old indeed when we would rather look to the past for soothing remembrances of a by-gone day. It is a way we seek, unconsciously, to recapture a vanished youth. The old man mused and thought of that. Years on the river, with quiet nights and star-studded skies, with glistening and elusive sunlight on the lapping waves in the bright day, had given him wisdom. It had made him aware that life is best when there is an acceptance of things.

He shook off his remembrances as he walked slowly back to the house. Evening was near and the shadows lengthened. It would soon be night. Things would become still—all but the rising stream. It would not sleep, would rise and lap at the willows and murmur in the dark. It was ever young.

Came dawn and the overcast of the day before was gone. Inmates of the house by the river stirred with the bright day. When they called for the old man he was gone and in panic they searched and soon they followed his tracks to the river's edge. Down near the water and in wet soil they were deep and if you stood where the tracks ended at the river bank you could see they were in a straight line from the house on the bank.

The river was not rising anymore. It had ceased to murmur with the burden of water and was calm and quiet.

CHAMPION TURNIP IS GROWN

A turnip that grew like a campaign rumor was grown by Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Hinchman of Tramm. It measures 2 1/2 inches in circumference, is approximately seven and one-half inches in diameter and weighs four and one-half pounds. Believe it or not, but it can be seen at Arrowood's hardware store in the custody of Robert Branham.

More than half—55%—of the bituminous coal produced in Ohio is mined via the surface method.

5. I have worked faithfully and unceasingly to improve the road system in the county. I will mention a few of the more important roads that have been built or improved since I have been your County Attorney:

Left Beaver — completed and black topped, Right Beaver—black topped, streets of Martin—improved, Right Middle Creek—built and black topped, Prestonsburg-David—built and black topped, Middle Creek-Brush Creek — built, Wayland-Steeles Creek—black topped, Wayland-Sizemore — built, Caney-Stephens Branch—built, Big Mud Creek—built, 1 mile black topped, Spurlock—improved, Branham's Creek—built, Clear Creek—black topped, Melvin-Weeksbury and streets of Weeksbury — black topped, Wilson Creek—improved, Brandy Keg—black topped, Cow Creek-Buffalo—built, Prater Fork of Brush Creek, Raccoon and Salyers Branch on Salt Lick, Toler Creek—improved, Prater-Little Mud — built, Buckingham-Knott county—built.

Bridges were built at Martin, Estill, Dwale, Tram, Spewing Camp, Buckingham, Jacks Creek, Mink Branch, Arkansas, Prater, Melvin and numerous smaller bridges at various places. Roads ready for construction but not completed: Jacks Creek, Bull Creek—black top, Abbott—black top, Auxier—black top, Stephens Branch —black top.

Other roads have been set up for construction and are in process of being surveyed.

6. Although I have been authorized by law to have an Assistant County Attorney at a salary of $1800.00 per year, I have never had one. The county has saved $21,600 on this item.
7. Since I have been County Attorney I have represented the county in all its legal business. It has never been necessary to pay any other attorney one dime, and it has never lost a case of any importance.
8. I have never charged or received one cent for my services that was not allowed by law. Although I have been attacked in the newspapers and in the courts by certain individuals it has never been alleged or proven that I have ever received one penny that I was not entitled to receive. Likewise, I am the first office holder in the history of Floyd county to make a settlement with the Fiscal court as to income and expenses as affected by the Constitutional limit. This was done for each of the years from Jan. 1, 1947 to Jan. 1, 1953.

These settlements were questioned by these individuals in the Circuit Court, but on June 29th, the Circuit Court entered an order dismissing these cases "at the cost of the appellants". I would like to add in passing that the tree that bears good fruit usually has the sticks and stones under it.

9. I have investigated and prosecuted criminal offenders diligently and fearlessly, ever keeping in mind that all persons are entitled to equal justice under law.

10. By the experience I have gained I will be able to make you a better officer in the future. I promise to be on duty every day, working for the interest of Floyd county and its people—doing my best to do a good job.

You have a friend in the County Attorney's office. It is to your interest to keep him there. It is easy for an office seeker to scream for a change, but be sure that any change is for the better. Ask yourself this question, "Could any of these candidates have served us better?" Give your answer at your voting place on August 1.

Your friend,

(Pol. Adv.)

Burchett's Answer

During this campaign some of my opponents have made statements in the newspaper and by means of radio calculated to discredit me as an officer and to damage my reputation personally. When any man is attacked personally we should ask two questions. Who made the attack, and what was the reason for so doing? These statements were made or written by men who seek the same office I am seeking, and I submit to you were made for the purpose of influencing voters.

I learned as a small boy that it was bad policy to speak or write anything disrespectful of any man or his family, and that if I couldn't say something nice about my opponents to say nothing at all. I have three children and I am teaching them these same basic principles of honesty and decency. Any man that will make false accusations or distort facts for the sake of a few votes is a dangerous man to elect to public office. I have never seen anyone that could "sling mud" and keep his hands clean.

Although some of my opponents have no children, I still think it would be better for one man to be defeated for a public office than to make unfounded and prejudicial statements damaging to the reputation of any candidate or his family. I seek office on the basis of the service I have rendered—not upon some "smoke screen" I can throw up to mislead or prejudice the minds of the voters.

One candidate says you should vote for him because there is a "black top" road up Cow Creek. Every candidate for County Attorney lives either in Prestonsburg or on a "hard top" road. I am proud that the people on Cow Creek have a good road. I am glad that a mile of the Big Mud Road and part of the Clear Creek road, one mile at McDowell, one mile at Wayland, both forks of Middle Creek, Simpson Branch, Brandy Keg and other places were black topped. I am also glad that Abbott, Auxier, Bull Creek, and Stephens Branch will be black topped with the next few weeks. There are many other roads that should and will be black topped in the near future. One thing is sure, if the people of Floyd county have a County Attorney in office that can get any road he wants black topped, they had better keep him there. Not many County Attorneys in the state have that much authority. It so happens that these roads are improved by and under the direction of the State Highway Department. The Cow Creek road, along with some other roads, was promised by Earle C. Clements when he was a candidate for Governor. This was done before I moved to Cow Creek and while I lived in Prestonsburg.

He says you should vote for him because I have two small bridges across the creek in front of my house. They are still there as positive proof of what I am saying. The cement that went into the bridges was bought and paid for by me. Buck Miller, Fred Burchett, Cal Clay and myself hauled the sand and gravel and built the piers. The steel under these bridges is mine railroad steel. Come and look at it. Floyd county has helped people all over the county to build bridges and approaches to the road. It did not help me one dime in any way on either of these bridges. They were built by the sweat of my brow and at my expense. When the bridge was taken out of Johns Creek and moved to Spewing Camp there was a large amount of the bridge that was not used. It was taken to Allen and stored behind the highway garage. A large pile of it is still there. Anyone that wanted any of this steel for bridge purposes was permitted to get it. I needed some pieces of handrail to keep my children from falling over the bridge but instead of getting this hand rail as others had done, I bought it from the Fiscal Court and paid for it. I thought that somebody someday might try to "smear" me. I was right. The bridge is here, come and look at it.

Although each of my opponents have pledged themselves to make a settlement each year and pay over any fees they earn in excess of the Constitutional limit, I have been criticised for doing this. An appeal was prosecuted from my settlement for each of the years 1947 through 1952 but was dismissed on motion of the plaintiffs. If there was anything wrong with these settlements why did they dismiss the appeals?

I have been criticised because I own a home on Cow Creek located on land given to me by my parents. It is our home place. It is an ordinary home, but it is where I live with my wife and children. It has been called a "mansion" and other harsh names by certain office seekers. We welcome you, one and all, to come and look it over and visit with us. You can see for yourself. You will be glad you came. My neighbors are helping me look for that herd of pure bred cattle I am supposed to have. They wonder where I have been keeping it.

Some of my opponents seem to think it is wrong for me to help my friends, neighbors and relatives with legal advice and in other ways. It is true that I have helped and accommodated a lot of people in many ways. I do not consider it wrong, but if it is wrong, I will continue to do so.

I see no reason why you should vote for my opponents because of misleading statements they have made about me, the bridges, the cattle I am supposed to own, the house I live in or the place where I live. I was born and reared in the very spot where I now live. I hope no one holds that against me.

I have never changed my politics for political expediency. My opponents can speak for themselves in this respect.

I hope to be able to give you continued accommodations as your County Attorney. I have never contested an election and will not contest this time. I invite my opponents to make this same statement.

Drowning men grab at straws. Don't be misled by last minute election propaganda. Keep a friend in office.

Your friend,

WOODROW BURCHETT

Floyd County Historical Notes

By HENRY P. SCALEF

A letter from Kaner Frazier, of Martin, who is a grandson of William "Buck" Frazier, sets this column straight about Martin's history. It is rather factual and indicates a deep interest in the town's and his family's history. He writes:

"This is to add or give you some correction in regard to your Floyd County Historical Notes on the town of Martin. You state in your Notes that Smalley Crisp was one of the first settlers in the valley where Martin now stands.

"For your information my grandfather, William (Buck) Frazier, was the first settler. He and three brothers came here from Patrick county, Virginia, before this part of the state had a settlement in it and my grandfather took up all the land, including Buck's Branch, that was named for my grandfather and the site that Martin now stands on. They took up homesteads or land grants. My grandfather, William (Buck) Frazier's homestead or land grant took in all of Buck's Branch except 50 acres on the head of the branch. I believe the Dingus family that came here about the same time took the adjoining grant and the Crisps the adjoining one below where the old Crisp mill stands.

"The Lewis, another old settler, cut the big buckeye tree on my grandfather's land on Buck's Branch for the first foundation log that went into the dam. The mill was built by my grandfather Buck Frazier. Later the Crisps acquired the mill. The old buckeye log is still at the old water mill site.

"My grandfather's old home was built where the Rev. Dick Osborne now lives in the town of Martin. Smalley Crisp, came originally from Letcher county and married my aunt Caroline Frazier, Buck Frazier's daughter, and heired part of the farm through his wife. One of the Frazier brothers stopped in Lawrence county and settled, one settled on Mud Creek and one on Quicksand. I got the records at the courthouse in Prestonsburg showing where my grandfather came from, when he came here and took up this land. I own a little part of my grandfather's land in Martin."

Gordon Moore's journalism class at Martin did some research on the town's early history and a student, Doug Adams, wrote:

"The first settlers to move to Martin were M. L. Preston and Tom Osborne. M. L. Preston owned all of what is now known as "Old Post Office," located across the creek. Tom Osborne owned from the top of New Addition Hill to the Forks of Beaver. The first name given to Martin was Preston Town. It was later changed to Smalley in 1914 because of another Preston Town located in the state. It was changed to Martin in 1918.

"At this time there were two houses, one located near the ball park and the other at the mouth of Ice Plant Hollow. These two settlers moved here for one reason—to farm and raise their families.

"In 1913 one of the greatest things to happen in our community took place. The railroad came through."

Another one of Moore's journalism students, Peggy Jo Dingus, interviewed Sam Halbert, the oldest citizen of Martin. He was born in 1865. She writes in her manuscript from what Halbert says:

"What is now the town of Martin was once only a farming section of two houses. I helped plow this land, now covered with houses and business places, for Buck Frazier when I was a young man. His farmhouse was located where S. D. Osborne's house now is. He went on to say that the only postoffice near here at this time was at the forks of Beaver Creek and was called Al-phoretta."

COLLINS OFFERS A PLATFORM

I am campaigning on my merits and my work which has been the training of five or six thousand boys and girls throughout our county during the past thirteen years.

In order to train these boys and girls for a life-long job, I have had to be a teacher, farmer, a laborer and a social worker. Many of these young men and young women have become teachers, lawyers, engineers, farmers, miners, beauticians, morticians, barbers and electricians.

Are you people, the voters, willing for this work to continue? You are thinking people, why not speak up for your rights? The legislature can take away or give you more freedom.

A sound program for Floyd's people would be the following:

1. Repeal of Old Age Lien Law.
2. Establish a Floyd county tobacco base.
3. Increased Workmen's Compensation.
4. Development of new industries in Floyd county.
5. Free medical treatment for cancer and tubercular patients.
6. Increased salaries for teachers and repeal of Section 186 of our Constitution.
7. A bonus for the veterans.

I am soliciting your vote on August First. I promise you people in Floyd county that I will support the legislation that will make our county and state more progressive.

Sincerely,

ULYSSES S. COLLINS

Young-Patton Vows Said Here on July 8

Vernon Wright on Wednesday, July 8, at 2 p.m., at the home of the bride's parents on Highland avenue. Preceding the ceremony, nuptial music was played by Mrs. D. S. Neeler, whose selections included, "O, Promise Me" and Lohengrin's "Wedding March." Five young Floyd countians completed the teachers course at Pikeville Junior College at the end of the first summer term there. They are among 22 students, from five Eastern Kentucky counties, who finished the two-year course leading to the provisional elementary certificate, Dr. A. A. Page, college president, said.

Some 40 men and women, most of them former "emergency" teachers, are expected to qualify for the certificate in the two five-week terms of summer school at Pikeville. They will be among the last persons to earn the teachers' permit in two years, since requirements will be raised Sept. 1 to include four years of college work, Dr. Page said.

The Floyd county teachers who earned their certificates at Pikeville are Kenneth Burchett, Ivel; Maggie Howell, Teaberry; Agnes Ann Tackett, Betsy Layne, and Orrella B. McGuire and Mrs. Letha Little, both of Prestonsburg.

Quotes from boys in the service: J. B. Carr, of the Navy, writes home: "This is to extend greetings from a hole in the desert called Norman, Oklahoma! All I have to say for it is, 'Why don't they give it to the Indians? Most people have heard of the land of milk and honey. Well, this is the land of burning hot sun, sand and horned toads. Bituminous coal consumers at or near the port of Chicago receive 4 million tons annually, over the Illinois River.

Judge, you can't keep fooling the people. They are smarter than you think. Four years ago you promised a road up practically every creek in this county and the majority are still waiting. You promised bridges that have not been built and blacktop that has not been poured and NOW YOU'RE AT THE SAME OLD GAME OF PROMISING.

We feel that it is to the best interests of all taxpayers and citizens of this county to LOOK TO THE FACTS and to their own welfare and to ELECT JARVIS ALLEN, County Judge.

With the men employed by the county at the taxpayers expense on a monthly salary and the equipment owned by the county the total mileage of roads built could have been done in a period of 3 or 4 months. What have they been doing the rest of the time, Judge? WE KNOW. WE ARE NOT BLIND. You say in your article that you are satisfied with their work but WE ARE NOT and YOU WOULDN'T BE EITHER IF YOU WERE PAYING THE BILL.

How many of your relatives are you working or keeping on the county payroll? You say that the equipment has not been used for private persons but we hear different. You would probably tell the people that you have built no PRIVATE ROADS and BRIDGES in the last year but we know you have.

You listed a bridge you have built across Beaver at SPEWING CAMP but that bridge was ADVERTISED FOR BIDS in the FLOYD COUNTY TIMES of July 21, 1949.

Citizens Point Up the Facts

We Citizens and Taxpayers of this county, were greatly surprised to read in the FLOYD COUNTY TIMES a political ad written by the County Judge which apparently was designed to mislead the voters of this county.

The Judge pointed out certain state-constructed Rural Highways that had been built during his term of office but he did not tell you that these roads had ALREADY BEEN APPROVED, SURVEYED, and CONTRACTS LET on many of them BEFORE HE TOOK OFFICE in January, 1950.

COMPARE THESE FACTS WITH THE JUDGE'S ADVERTISEMENT!

1. He listed the HAROLD-LIGON-HI-HAT ROAD. That road had been approved, surveyed, and was advertised for bids on construction in September of 1949. (See FLOYD COUNTY TIMES, Page 1, September 8, 1949.)
2. He lists the DAVID-BRUSH CREEK ROAD. Yes, this is the road often referred to as the JARVIS ALLEN HIGHWAY because JARVIS ALLEN fought so hard for its construction. It had been APPROVED, SURVEYED, and much of the right-of-way secured in 1949.
3. He listed the CANEY-STEPHENS BRANCH ROAD. That road, too, had been approved and surveyed before the Judge took office.
4. SIZEMORE BRANCH-WAYLAND ROAD. This road had also been approved and surveyed prior to January 1, 1950.

With reference to the last two roads there appeared in THE FLOYD COUNTY TIMES of August 31, 1950, the following news item:

"Rural Highway Commissioner Emerson "Doc" Beauchamp last week promised Former County Clerk Jarvis Allen that the Caney-Stephens Branch Road and the Wayland-Sizemore road will be let to contract within the next few days."

Citizens of this county, we believe you are entitled to the facts concerning your road program and if you should check the record you will learn that JARVIS ALLEN did as much, or more, than any other person in securing the above roads. He was a special friend of the governor and made trips to Frankfort everytime the other county officials went, and made numerous trips alone fighting for road improvement in this county.

In addition to the above roads the Judge lists certain roads for improvement or Blacktop Surface. This improvement takes no effort on the part of county officials since it is the policy of the state to blacktop the rural highways as soon as practicable after construction since it is cheaper to backtop a road than to maintain a gravel road.

He says the contract has been let on the Jacks' Creek Road and we wonder why so late ? ? ?

The JACK'S CREEK ROAD was approved for construction in 1949. It was stated in an ad in the FLOYD COUNTY TIMES of July 28, 1949, that a State Highway map was available for inspection in the County Judge's office showing that the JACK'S CREEK ROAD had been approved for construction.

Yes, Judge, we wonder what has happened to our rural road program in the last 3 1/2 years. We are still paying the gasoline tax but WHERE is it going?

How many roads were built in 1951? How many were built in 1952?

The Judge also boasts of his county-road work done with YOUR TAX MONEY. He lists numerous roads up the creeks of this county but the total mileage is approximately 15 ! ! ! Some of these roads were done in a period of two days with the county equipment, with the citizens furnishing much of the work at their own expense.

With the men employed by the county at the taxpayers expense on a monthly salary and the equipment owned by the county the total mileage of roads built could have been done in a period of 3 or 4 months. Rural Dixie Has Her Face Lifted!

Soil conservation is changing Dixie's face — bringing life to wornout soils, making better crops and pastures. Part of this changing picture are those rural telephone lines you see along the fields and highways. They're bringing new convenience to farm work and living. Over half a million rural homes now have Southern Bell phones and about 6000 more are being added each month. That's the kind of progress you can see—all over growing, prosperous Dixie!

TO MY FRIENDS, EX-PUPILS AND THE MANY TEACHERS WITH WHOM I HAVE WORKED IN THE PAST:

I served as your County Superintendent of Schools for 8 years and taught in the public schools of this county for 51 years. In all, it was a lifetime of service. It has been a long time since I have seen some of you. Time flies and we all grow old. I am retired from active participation in public affairs and have been for a long time. But at this time when Good Government is an issue in our county I deem it my duty to speak for Joe H. Cooley, my cousin, for Sheriff. I have known him all the years of his life and I assure you he is worthy of your support.

As I have said, time flies. I am 77 years of age and it does not seem very long ago when I served you as your County Superintendent of Schools. We were young, eager for good government and a good county. Together we did our bit. Why not continue the good fight for a good county and a better place in which to live? To do so we can support Joe Cooley and having done so we will have the assurance that we have done our county a service.

This is, perhaps, the last accommodation I may ever ask of my friends and fellow teachers.

Your support will be appreciated by Joe, myself and all the forces working for Good Government.

Sincerely,

HARRY N. COOLEY

To the Republican Voters Of Floyd County:

Lewis Dingus, who is a candidate for Sheriff on the Republican ticket, is my brother, and I urge all our friends, relatives and Republicans who are interested in victory in November to vote for him at the coming primary election.

In the face of great odds, I made the race for Sheriff on our ticket. You know how well I represented the party, with the loyal support of the Republican party and that of Democrats who held good government above mere political party.

Both Lewis and I have for many years fought for our principles, and he will give the ticket the fighting strength it needs in November. Unless we can win in November, the primary fight in August is useless. Please vote to the polls, August 1, and vote for Lewis Dingus, who can win the final election for Sheriff.

A Final Appeal to You, My Fellow-Citizens

To the voters of Floyd county, my reason for seeking the Democratic nomination for Jailer is this: I am a poor man, with no established income by Social Security or Welfare to carry me and my good wife through life in our declining years. We seek no charity but just an opportunity to serve you and to make an honest living. We do not want to say a disparaging word against any of the fine men seeking the nomination for Jailer. We only wish to present for your kind consideration our need for the office and my honest desire to serve you faithfully as required by law and dignity of soul.

Some of my fine opponents have in come established for future needs during old age, and we are glad they do have. Your kindly remembrance of my candidacy in a favorable way when you cast your vote on the first Saturday in August will be long remembered.

Very sincerely yours,

PROCK HAYS

'Bear' Facts-

By PAUL BRYANT
UK Football Coach

LEXINGTON, Ky. — BASEBALL LEGEND has long dictated that the club topping the standings in both leagues on the Fourth of July will be occupying the coveted spot at season's end.

As I have often declared in this column, my experience in athletics here at the University of Kentucky has led me to never place too much faith in axioms and superstitious victory formulas. However, I must admit that this legend, which would seem to favor the chances of the Dodgers and the Yankees, may be more correct in forecasting the pennant chases than one-half of my pre-season picks outlined in two columns a few weeks back.

IT APPEARS THAT in sticking with Brooklyn to repeat in the senior circuit, I will maintain a good crystal ball gazing average since the "Bums" are keeping a slim lead over the surprising Milwaukee Braves, St. Louis and Philadelphia. The Phillies, although 4 1/2 games back on the Fourth, could spurt to second and change places with the Cards, now in third place, to make my predictions look even better.

The American League picture just isn't working out the way I figured. The surprise showing predicted for the White Sox has not exactly developed. They are in the runner-up spot behind the slump-plagued Yankees, but 6 1/2 games back and obviously will have a very difficult time living up to my amateurish forecast of finishing as an upset pennant winner. Chicago's big trouble apparently is pitching. I feel that had their mound staff come though, the Windy City crew would have been in there to dispute what now looks like another Yanks-Dodgers World Series date.

ANALYZING THE RECENT losing streak by the ever-winning Yankees, I couldn't help but gain the impression that the trouble was mostly the absence of their good one-two punch—Rizutto out of the lineup and Mantle in a batting slump. The same thing bothers a football team. If you are going to accomplish things in the winning fashion, it's absolutely necessary to have a couple of top flight guys who can get the job done well even against the toughest opposition.

A COUPLE OF KEY PERFORMERS make the difference between a winner and an "also ran." And that's a "Bear" fact.

Floyd County, Home of Dewey Lake.

Stumbo Points up Road Program

My opponent in his articles in The Floyd County Times has indicated that during the last 3 1/2 years of my first term as your County Judge that nothing has been done in so far as the construction and improvement of Floyd County's roads. Nothing could be farther from the truth and I take this opportunity of pointing out specifically some of the accomplishments which have been made in regard to Floyd County's Road System.

In saying that Floyd County received its proper share of roads I have made frequent trips to Frankfort in connection with the construction of new roads and improving old ones in the county. I should especially like to point out that since I have been County Judge I have helped to procure rights of way and have attempted to cooperate with the people in Floyd county and officials in Frankfort to obtain more and better roads.

During the last 3 1/2 years and under my supervision, Floyd county has spent in the neighborhood of $50,000.00 to obtain rights of way for the construction of new roads.

To name a few of the roads which have been built while I have been your County Judge:

1. 4 1/2 miles connecting and improving the remainder of the Harold to Ligon-Hi Hat road, or known as the Big Mud Road.
2. Connecting the David to Brush Creek road, 4 1/2 miles.
3. Mouth of Caney on Middle Creek across the hill connecting with the Stephens Branch Road.
4. Sizemore Branch to Wayland Road, which connects Left and Right Beaver.
5. Constructed Raccoon road with Salt Lick road, being part of Kentucky Highway No. 7.

Roads Now Let for Construction or Improvement:

6. Blacktopping 1 1/2 miles on Brandy Keg.
7. Blacktopping road through the town of Auxier.
8. Construction of Jacks Creek Road. Contract let on June 12, 1953.
9. Bull Creek Road contract let for blacktop 2.6 miles.
10. Abbott Creek road contract let for blacktop 5 1/2 miles.
11. Prater Creek to Little Mud Road is now under construction.

The two roads mentioned below HAVE BEEN APPROVED FOR CONSTRUCTION:

In addition to the above, the road program supported by the Fiscal Court has been conducted so as to obtain the maximum improvement and construction with the amount of funds available to us.

In this connection I should like to point out that during my term as County Judge the following roads and bridges have been built by funds available to the Fiscal Court from tax money:

14. Constructed 2 miles of road on Little Point.
15. Construction of road now in progress on Left Fork of Abbott Creek.
16. Constructed 1 1/2 miles of road up Spurlock on Middle Creek.
17. Built and improved 2 miles of road on Buckeye on Middle Creek.
18. Constructed 1 1/2 miles of road on Prater Fork of Brush Creek.
19. Constructed 1 mile of road on Salyers Branch of Salt Lick.
20. Constructed 1 1/2 miles of road on Mill Creek above Wayland.
21. Constructed bridge across Right Beaver Creek at Estill.
22. Built and improved 2 1/2 miles of road on Frasure's creek.
23. Built 1 mile of road in Buckingham Hollow.
24. Improved 1/2 mile of road in Branham Hollow, at Wheelwright.
25. Constructed bridge across Beaver at mouth of Spewing Camp.
26. Constructed 4 1/2 miles of road up Branham's Creek on Mud Creek.
27. Constructed swinging bridge across Big Sandy River at Dwale.
28. Built Bridge across Big Mud at Mink Branch.
29. Built Bridge across creek at Arkansas.

The use of the remaining funds available to the Fiscal Court have been and are being used in maintaining the Floyd County road system. These county roads are now more passable than they have ever been.

During the past 3 1/2 years Floyd county has had the greatest road program in the entire history of the county and I challenge anyone to disprove this statement.

I am sure that those persons who are interested in roads can readily see that this record in black and white completely refutes the general accusation of my opponent that nothing has been accomplished in so far as the building and improvement of roads in Floyd county is concerned.

Contrary to what anyone might say about it, the county road machinery has always been used and will be continued to be used only for the benefit of county roads and for the best interest of the public. I can positively state that the county road machinery has never been leased to anyone for private purposes nor has any county road machinery been disposed of illegally. I wish to assure you that those persons employed by the county have performed the duties as conscientiously as we expect them to.

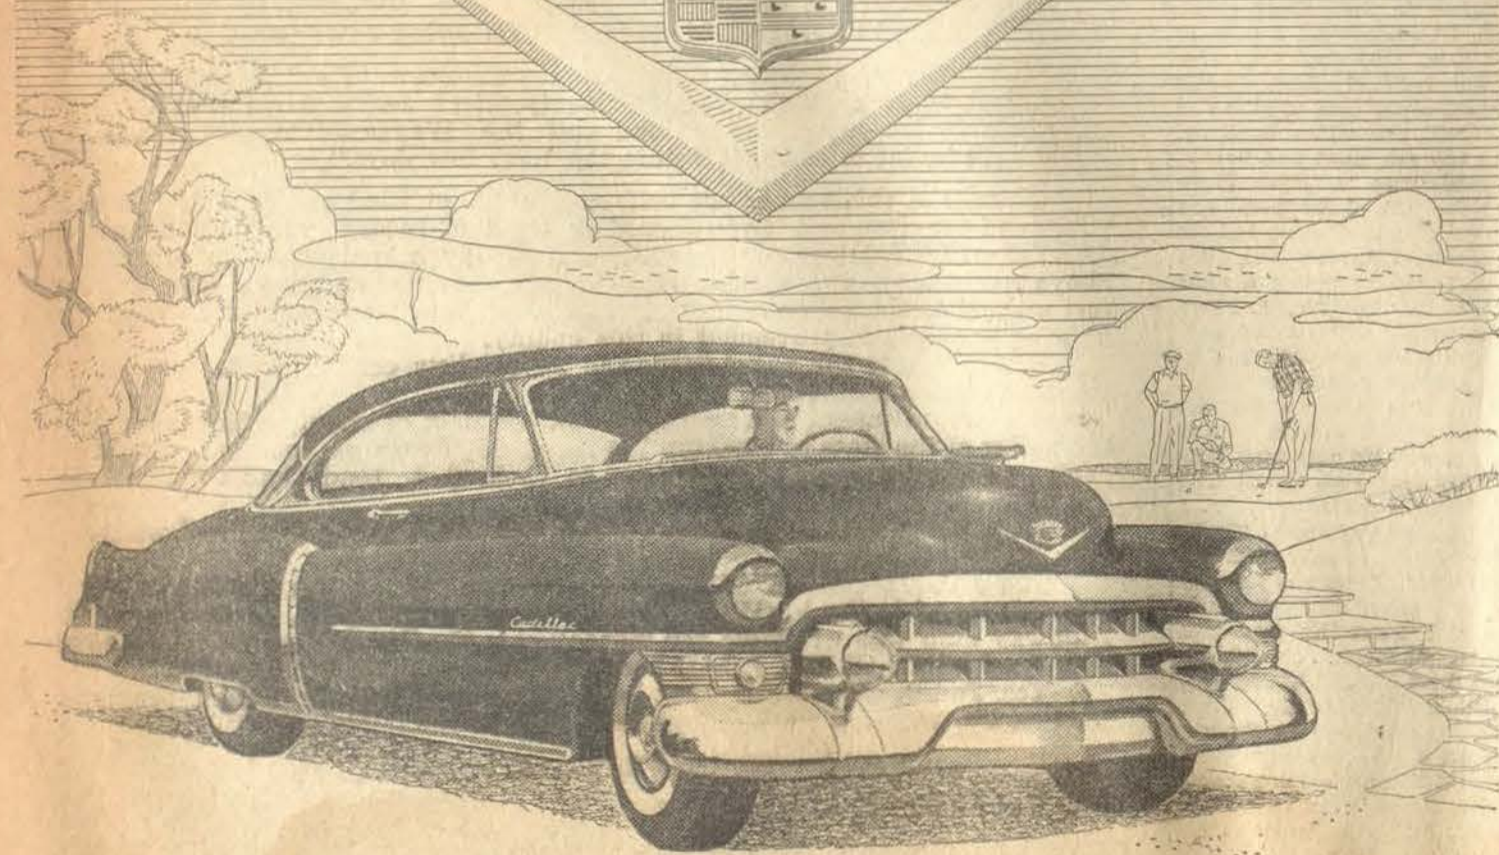

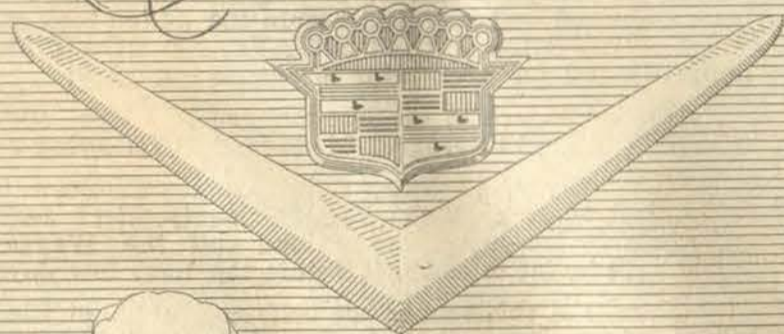

If you feel, as I do, that the record of progress in the improvement and construction of roads in Floyd county has been greater during the 3 1/2 years that I have served as County Judge than at any other time in the history of the county, I earnestly solicit your vote and influence in re-electing me as your County Judge on the Democratic Ticket.

Sincerely,

HENRY STUMBO

Cadillac

It May Cost Less than the Car You Own!

Surprised by the statement above? Then listen, for a moment, to these amazing facts:

The beautiful motorcar pictured here is actually priced lower than twenty-two different models of other motorcars built and sold in America.

Its gasoline economy is so extraordinary that it will travel farther on a gallon of gasoline than many cars of far less stature and size.

Its dependability is so great that, over a normal span of ownership, it will probably cost as little to operate and maintain as any car you could buy. Records of certain fleet operators indicate this.

And authoritative records reveal that this Cadillac may be expected to return a greater percentage of its owner's investment, at the time of resale, than any other motorcar built in America.

Perhaps your surprise has changed to concern.

For if you happen to own one of the twenty-two cars priced higher than this magnificent Cadillac—or if you own one of the many, many other cars which are very close in price—then you've been needlessly depriving yourself of some of the greatest satisfactions in all the world of motordom.

You've been depriving yourself of Cadillac's brilliant performance... its superlative handling ease... its marvelous riding comfort... its great and inspiring beauty... and the deep and abiding pride which comes with ownership of so beloved and respected a possession.

You'll surely agree—that's a lot of things to miss... especially when it costs no more to have them in this wonderful, wonderful car!

If you think we might be talking about you—come in and see us. You've already waited too long!

To the Voters of Floyd County:

It has been circulated among the voters of Floyd county by some of my opponents that certain county officials are backing me in this campaign and, if elected, these officials will control the office.

I want to inform my friends and the voters that this is a malicious untruth. No one has ever given me one cent on my campaign, and no one ever influenced me to announce for jailer. If elected, I will be at the jail at all times with my helpers, seeing that the prisoners are treated as I, myself, would like to be treated, and to give courteous and considerate treatment to prisoners' relatives and friends.

I lost my eyesight the result of an accident while hunting. I have no income other than my little "stand" here in the courthouse. Prior to my unfortunate accident, I was employed as coal loader by Pike-Floyd Coal Co., Betsy Layne.

I do not want pity, but do need your sympathy and help for a better living. I am self supporting and want to continue being so. I firmly believe that God will help those who help themselves.

I have lived in the basement of the jail for the last seven years, and during that time, have closely observed the duties and responsibilities of a jailer, therefore, have all the confidence in the world that I can efficiently and lawfully operate the jail as good or better than any previous jailer. If elected, I will kindly accept any reasonable advice, but I will be the jailer, and not be dictated to by any individual.

YOUR VOTE AND SUPPORT WILL BE GREATLY APPRECIATED.

My position on the ballot is No. 17.

She also gave an account of a handicapped boy who borrowed time to help others who were handicapped, by creating jobs for them and influencing others to hire the handicapped. She concluded her program by reading "I Was a Hobo Kid," pointing out how our public school teachers can influence our children to better their condition through education.

The president, Mrs. Beecher Hardwick, presided at the business session. A citation from the Treasury department for the club's help in the Savings Bond campaign in Kentucky was read, and also a card from Mrs. T. C. ## TO THE VOTERS:

You voters will be reading and hearing rumors of every kind being circulated and passed along by "would-be" goodwill fellows who seemingly just heard the latest and always add, "if true this is bad," and act as though they are sorry that such "stories" are out on the named candidate.

Just as a warning to any of my friends and supporters, I want the people to understand that I have not and will not stoop to any tactics that would defame the name of either of my opponents in this race. I want and ask that none of my friends and supporters in their soliciting of your vote to cast any reflections on either of my opponents. I, of course, appreciate the help and support of all the people and since I have been before you as a candidate for this same office four years ago, I am sure you know me well enough to not let any rumor, or misrepresentation, or false propaganda slacken your fight in this race, which is a fight for the betterment of all Floyd county.

It will be rumored from time to time that I am favoring this or that candidate in other races, but stop and consider how ridiculous this would be if you were a candidate. I am making my own race and want all the help I can from every source but will not play one candidate against another by promises and falsehood.

I will conduct the office of Sheriff in the same manner which I am conducting my campaign, by hard work and strictly attending to business. My deputies will not be fellows who want to be sworn in as deputy in order to have the right to carry a pistol in his "hip pocket," but will be good, moral, upright citizens interested in doing the job of law-enforcement in every respect, selected from your community; they will be instructed to protect the rights of the rich and poor alike and be at all public places of worship, school gatherings for public entertainment and to serve promptly all criminal processes in any court of the county without regard to any fee.

I have lived in Floyd county all my life and all my ways of living among my fellow man are well-known by all and if either of my opponents have any facts detrimental to my reputation other than a citizen who believes in good morals, good government and fair play in all dealings with his fellow-man, then I ask only that such report be given to the public in writing by either opponent with his signature attached and not by any rumor or rumors passed along by these so-called "goodwill fellows".

My opponents have also lived among us for years and their reputation and acts are well known to most all the people and I have nothing to add to or take away from this reputation.

I ask my friends, relatives and supporters to keep up the good work being done by them until the polls close on August 1st.

Seems as though we're gonna have to file for some sort of office to get into print again, since the candidates have crowded out everything else! It was interesting to watch them on the day of the Cooley funeral service at the old home place near Midas. Everybody who is anybody must have been there, friend and foe alike, and all had equal chance. Some beautiful wives and other relatives were making hay while the sun shines, once the preaching ended. Undoubtedly the prettiest girl on the yard was Winnie Sue Cooley, young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Cooley, of Prestonsburg.

The old Cooley home place is always fascinating, because it is such a lovely site for a home. The ties of that family are strong and closely knit. We like the way they stick together. Fully eight hundred people must have been served there on this special occasion, and the food was delicious, perfectly seasoned, though prepared in enormous quantities. It is hard to believe a mere handful of women could fix so much in two days.

A good many years ago we noticed a public official, who should have been preventing such, in the thick of things where votes were being bought. Several days later, he voluntarily remarked to us that he'd never buy another so long as he lived. Some folks try hard to get back their self respect after such experiences, but usually it is rather tarnished.

One thing is becoming more apparent in our elections—namely, that more people are voting for the man, rather than for his kinfolks. More of us are interested in who you are, what you have done, how you live, etc., than in who your relatives are for generations. Do you go to church and Sunday School or only near election time? Are you civic-minded? To what extent? What have you done to make your community a better place? Everyone can list a long string of relatives on both sides of the house, but it is difficult to understand why that entitles someone to a vote, though blood is thicker than water!

Perhaps Rex and Virginia will discuss this, sometime. Have you heard that team on WPRT? People are talking about their comments concerning Floyd county. They dish it out, straight from the shoulder. We can like it or leave it. But many are praising them. So far we have not been privileged to hear the two, and have no idea who Virginia is. If it is Virginia Short, then she will be a humdinger, for she is one of the smartest business women in the county, and decidedly civic-minded. We have known Rex Osborn most of his life. He is a grand person and comes from a family who have been for progress for generations, on both sides of the house. It is truly a good sign when our own young people take a cool appraisal of our county and calmly point out its needs, and flaws and defects, pulling for changes that must come before we realize certain goals that are desired.

STUDY SHOWS CITIZENS WANT BETTER SCHOOLS

Kentuckians favor increased educational opportunities for their children, financed by both local and state governments, according to a study completed this week by the Legislative Research Commission's Advisory Committee on Educational Policy.

The committee was headed by Superintendent of Public Instruction Wendell P. Butler and included as members Dr. Lyman Ginger, Lexington, John Fred Williams, Ashland, Richard Van Hoose and Wendell Howard, Louisville, H. Fred Willkie, Indianapolis, Ind., Dr. R. B. Atwood Frankfort, J. B. Dewese, Mayfield, Burl St. Clair, Falls of Rough, Mrs. James Sheehan, Danville, Harry King Lowman, Ashland, and James W. Lambert Mount Vernon.

The study, based on data compiled from more than 5,000 members of local committees, proposed that all children in school districts be assured at least a "defensible foundation level of educational services" and concluded that Kentuckians are "willing to support a sound, equitable school program if more funds are necessary to achieve that end."

Recommended were:

1. A minimum nine-months school term, with a program calculated to encourage attendance and to guarantee each child at least 12 years of public education, with a professionally trained teacher with a college degree for each classroom unit of 25 to 30 pupils.
2. A beginning salary range from $2,400 to $2,800 for qualified teachers with college degrees, with increases for proficiency and experience.
3. Safe, comfortable school facilities, including libraries for all, modern equipment, and public transportation for pupils living a mile or more from school.

BLADES OF BLUEGRASS

By BOB FORD

LEXINGTON, Ky. — Do you get the shakes over snakes? Do you sit at home on hot summer days when you could be out a-picnicking, for fear you might meet up with one of the crawly varmints?

Dr. William Ray Allen of the University of Kentucky Zoology Department has some words of comfort for folks who are "scared to death" of snakes. For one thing, Dr. Allen points out, less than one person in a million dies of snake bites in this country each year. Unless you live a barefooted existence in a swampy or other section where rattlesnakes are especially abundant, you can expect to live for several million years—if you could live so long—before meeting a snake destined to take your life.

Kentucky has only three poisonous snakes: the rattlesnake, the copperhead, and the water moccasin (cotton-mouth). They can be told from other snakes by these distinguishing marks: a pit on the head between the eye and nostrils; a flat, triangular head with stout, blunt body; fangs in the upper jaw; and flat scales under the tail divided down the middle to form a zigzag line.

If you are bitten by a greensnake, gartersnake, blacksnake, watersnake, or other non-venomous snake, simply treat the wound as you would the bite of a cat or dog, to prevent infection.

If, however, you manage to get yourself bitten by a rattlesnake, copperhead or water-moccasin, you should do these things: (1) Get to work calmly; (2) send for a doctor; (3) apply a tourniquet so as to cut off the blood supply completely from the bitten part, arm or leg; (4) lacerate and bleed the area of the bite; and (5) let whiskey alone, despite what you may have heard to the contrary.

A snake rarely strikes above the knees. It does not have to coil to strike but by coiling it is able to reach farther and higher. A rattlesnake usually rattles before striking, but if stepped on or about to be stepped on it does not take time to rattle.

Now what do you say to having a picnic?

Frankfort, Ky., July 13 — A 15-year-old girl may not be regularly employed as a theatrical performer without the employer being subjected to prosecution for employment of minors without authority, it was ruled by Assistant Attorney General H. D. Reed, Jr.

He advised the Department of Industrial Relations that the Louisville Amphitheatre could not legally employ as regular help a 15-year-old girl. Casual employment of minors, however, had been previously approved.

Now friends and relatives and voters of this county, go to the polls on election day and cast your vote for my son, Hollie Conley, and I assure you that he will appreciate it more than he can express, and will perform the duties of County Attorney according to law and will always be faithful and true to the great common class of people.

I thank you in advance for any and all the support you have shown him and I am confident with your support and help he will be a sure winner.

Meet everybody in this county knows me and you all know that I was born and reared a Democrat and Hollie was, too. And he is not a Republican dressed up in Democratic clothes seeking this office.

Yours for Better Government,

ACT UPHELD

Frankfort, Ky., July 6 — The Court of Appeals upheld the 1949 legislative act requiring candidates for county tax commissioner to pass written examinations given by the State Department of Revenue before their names may appear on the ballots. The Franklin Circuit Court had held the statute failed to prescribe proper standards for the examinations. The Appellate Court upset the lower court's decision.

America's production of bituminous coal last year would make a wall 22 feet high and 10 feet thick entirely surrounding the boundaries of the U. S.

BIDS REJECTED

Frankfort, Ky., July 13 — Bids for renovation of the interior of the State Capitol Building were rejected by the State Property and Buildings Commission, due to lack of sufficient funds being allocated for the purpose. The bids totaled $2,548,000. The commission has allocated $1,750,000 for the purpose. New specifications will be drawn in an effort to scale down the original plans to fit available funds and then readvertised.

TO THE VOTERS OF FLOYD COUNTY

While going over the county discussing my race for Sheriff and law enforcement, I have found various opinions by different people—Which law should be enforced? Which law is most violated? Which violation is most detrimental to the people?

It is the duty of the Sheriff, who is the chief law enforcement officer, to enforce all laws. The Sheriff and his deputies must be ready at all times to protect the health, welfare and morals of all our citizens, to be ready at all times to protect the schools, churches, and homes of all our people, whether it be on a rough road or in town. All people are entitled and should have equal protection by the law. I gave this service for more than six years. To accomplish this and have fair, sensible, sober law enforcement, the Sheriff needs the support and cooperation of all citizens. It has been said by one of the outstanding jurists of Kentucky that a county will have the kind of law enforcement it supports. The kind of law enforcement you have depends upon the efforts you put forth in assisting your law enforcement officers.

There are too many violations for me to discuss in detail. I will discuss the one that is the most dangerous, most damaging and most violated—THE TRAFFIC LAWS. Do you know that in the state of Kentucky nearly 400 men, women and children have lost their lives, while hundreds of others have been mangled and crippled for life during this year, 1953? Do you know that more people lose their lives annually from traffic accidents than any other cause? Isn't this the most dangerous and damaging violation—Drunken, reckless driving of motor vehicles? How can it be stopped? Here is the answer given from a study of the National Sheriffs Association—Strict, rigid enforcement of the traffic laws by law enforcement officers of our nation — Extreme penalties given by the courts of our country. I suggest that if this is done in Floyd county—give the full penalty of our law—revocation of driver's license and jail sentence and fine for the offender, we will soon stop most of this reckless, drunken driving. Of course, we have had and will continue to have accidents which are wholly unavoidable.

I promise you that when elected Sheriff, I will, together with my entire force, strictly enforce this law.

Your Friend,

TROY B. STURGILL

TAX COMMISSIONER

FRIENDS, most of you know me and you know MY RECORD.

My grandfathers were Jake (J. P.) Akers and Alamander (SQUINT) Martin.

I have spent a good part of my life in school. I received elementary education on LEFT BEAVER of Floyd county, then I attended the CANEY CREEK COMMUNITY CENTER at PIPPAPASS, KY., where I completed two years of COLLEGE. In the year 1935 I graduated from college at Morehead, Ky.

Fifteen years of my life was spent as a HIGH SCHOOL TEACHER and ATHLETIC COACH. During the summer months of that time I worked as a MINER and a FARMER to further the education and support of my wife, three boys and daughter.

It has been a pleasure to have served you as TAX COMMISSIONER. I have tried hard to be FAIR, EFFICIENT, HONEST and ACCOMMODATING.

My record as a SCHOOL TEACHER, a CITIZEN and as your TAX COMMISSIONER is OPEN to all taxpayers, voters and citizens of Floyd county.

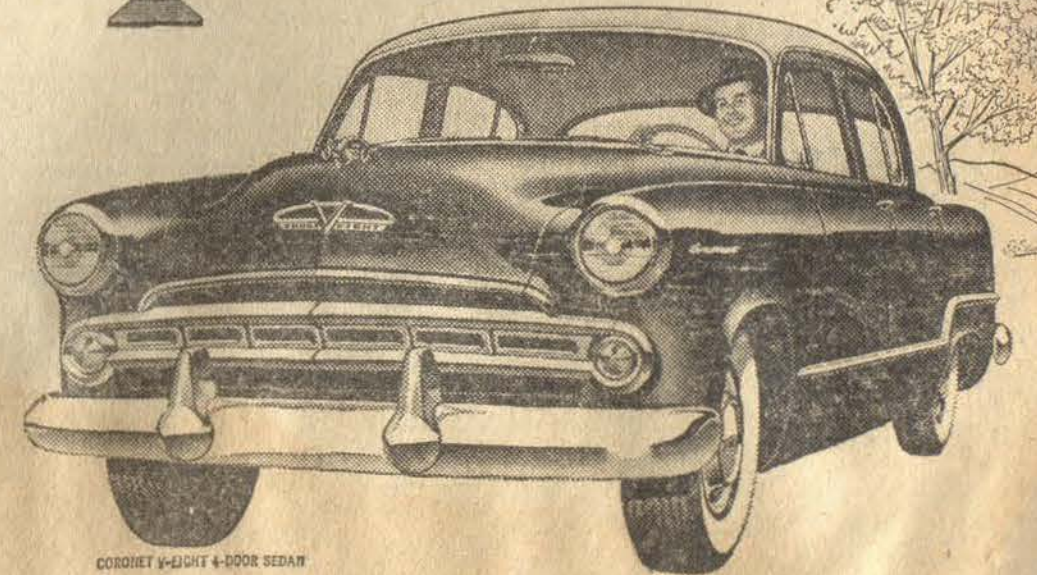

It will be my policy in the future as in the past to maintain SOUND and EQUITABLE PROPERTY ASSESSMENTS BASED UPON LOCAL CONDITIONS and I will be AGAINST "UNFAIR BLANKET RAISES".

If my record meets your approval I believe you will agree that I have the right to solicit your support August 1st.
