WHY COUNTIES FAIL IS TOLD By Speaker, Answering Question Why Industries Not Gained by This Area

Among the 40 business and civic leaders who heard the importance of community development stressed at the 16th district meeting of the Kentucky Chamber of Commerce in Ashland last Thursday were eight Floyd men, others attending represented Boyd, Johnson, Carter, Lawrence, Pike and Letcher counties.

The chamber's 10-point program of objectives it hopes to reach before 1950 were discussed by Walter Koch, the chamber's director of industrial development. Asked why the counties in this area had not been able to attract new industries, Koch stated bluntly that community-development associations in the Big Sandy Valley "had died on the vine."

He announced that September 15 is the deadline for entering the Kentucky chamber's community-development contest. E. R. Murphy, Lexington, discussed rural-development possibilities, stressing the growth of small fruits and vegetables, especially in Eastern Kentucky.

The big problem, he said, is to overcome farmer's complacency. He said that Kentucky needs an agricultural-research foundation to work with the University of Kentucky's college of agriculture.

John W. Woods, Jr., Ashland, district chairman, presided. F. I. Fairman, Lexington, discussed community development along with "Main Street modernization" and rural development in the chamber's plan for encouraging industry.

He advised the county chairman to help existing industries and to encourage outside industries to come into their communities. He spoke of the needs to decentralize big industries because of the threat of Russia's hydrogen-bomb development, pointing out the possibility that plants may move into Kentucky communities from the big centers.

All Analyses for Rabies Not Positive, Says Clark; Advice Offered to Public

Every head of a dog that is submitted to a laboratory for rabies analysis is not diagnosed as positive, notwithstanding an old saying to the contrary, says M. V. Clark, Floyd county health administrator. In proof of the above statement Mr. Clark submits a list of suspected animal heads examined at the state laboratory since 1942 to the present time.

The reason there are so many heads reported positive is because no one wants to pay three dollars packing and shipping charges and go to the trouble of cutting up a dog's head and bringing it in for shipment if there are no reasons to believe the dog was mad to start with, Clark said.

"If a dog is suspected of being rabid do not kill the dog if you have intentions of having its head tested. Chances are that the infection may not have advanced to the stage that it will be found in the brain and under this condition it would be possible to get a negative report on a rabid dog.

"A dog bite should be immediately disinfected and treated the same as any open wound would need. Washing and cleansing immediately in a strong solution of soap and water is always advisable.

"When bitten by a dog not suspected of being rabid the best thing to do is to confine the dog and keep him under observation for a period of ten days. If at this time he is still normal you may disregard the possibility of rabies. On the other hand if the dog shows symptoms of sickness within those ten days you may be very suspicious.

Refus Thomas, Ashland, pointed out the advantages of more attractive store fronts and the improvement of service in retail shops.

Attending the meeting from Floyd county were B. F. Reed, Drift, state C. of C. director, Marvin Music, Prestonsburg, Floyd county chairman, Mayor Clark, Fred G. Francis, Paul E. Eaves and C. H. Corbin, of Prestonsburg, and Byron Brashear, of Manton.

Appeal for Free Homes Made by Mrs. Campbell; Permanent Homes Wanted

The State Division of Child Welfare is interested in finding free homes in Floyd county for some of the hundreds of older boys and girls under the care of the division, says Mrs. Irene Campbell, welfare worker.

Most of these boys and girls are from 6 to 16 years of age and are now living in institutions over the state. The institutions provide good physical care for these children, but there is no father or mother, no family, no home that the children can feel is theirs.

Anyone interested in the foster family program may contact Mrs. Campbell at the Layne building, Prestonsburg.

Fulks Starts New Industry To Be with Folks He Likes

There has been a lot of talk recently about the need of new industries for this county. James Fulks has furnished one, even if it does employ just two. It enables him to stay in a section where he likes the people.

Mr. Fulks is in the novelty manufacturing business in this county because he likes the people here. He liked Miss Betty Johnson of Toler Creek so well that when he met her in Detroit last October he married her as soon as he could get her to say "Yes".

Because Betty's people live here is one reason he launched the novelty business at Banner. "I know an awful lot of people here," he says. "More than I would have learned in Detroit in 30 years," he adds. "That's a lot for a man to say who has only been in business since early July."

Fulks manufactures novelties — plastic piggy-banks, lawn ornaments, bra-a-brac for the house, angels, dancing girls, and many others. He sells to truckers and the wares are carried to other sections where they wind up in some roadside stand. It is already a thriving business after only two months' operation. When he is more fully established he plans to erect a building of his own. At present he occupies part of the residence of Mrs. Josephine Hall.

The manufacture of novelty articles from art plaster requires great skill, Fulks says. He learned how in the shop of a brother-in-law who operates a place outside Huntington on Route 60. The plaster is poured into rubber molds, allowed to set an hour to dry, then taken out to dry more fully for 12 to 15 hours in a drying room. They are then shellacked and sprayed.

Skill is required to spray an object properly after it has been shellacked. That's where Betty begins to assist her husband. She does all of the skillful spraying on the eyes of figurines and at points requiring delicate blending of colors. In addition, she does the necessary book work for the little business.

Art plaster novelties, when they are in the drying stage and before any shellac or lacquer has been applied, are a beautiful white. They are porous and have little resistance to wear or weather in this stage.

"Pray as if everything depended on God, and work as if everything depended upon yourself."

What a beautiful thought to possess the inner beliefs that God is all-seeing and all-consuming.

We humans who live this life naturally seek material possessions. Because of our belief in the Lord, and our knowledge of His unselfishness, we constantly seek His assistance. We know He has no ax to grind, nothing to gain but our love and devotion. And because of this belief we become better human beings. We depend upon ourselves and our efforts for the things we desire and strengthen our determination with the knowledge that He is with us. That's why I believe religion based upon faith in the Lord is a wonderful thing.

The kind of religion is immaterial... the BELIEF is the determining factor in our lives.

HERE IS MY PROGRAM 1. I am qualified for the office of County Judge by education and training. (My opponent does not seem to have learned much in the 14 long years he has held public office.) 2. I stand for honesty in County Government. 3. Yearly accounting of income and disbursements by all officials. Excess fees to be turned in to the County Treasury. 4. An honest road program that will serve the most people. 5. Law and order. I favor enforcement of the laws in an honest way, with equal justice for all. 6. Highways to be made safer to travel. Drunk and reckless drivers to be given special attention. 7. No illegal charges for warrants to be made. 8. Poll tax. I favor the elimination of this kind of a tax. This tax is only collected from part of the people. Property owners pay this tax as it is on their tax bills, others do not pay. I don't believe in discrimination where taxes are concerned. 9. The court house has been permitted, by the present judge, to go to rack and ruin. The floor is all cracked up and ready to drop through to the ground. Necessary repairs will have to be made to make the court house safe and sanitary. 10. The Bible says that the poor will never cease out of the land. I favor a more humane policy for our poor unfortunate people. Newspaper reports of children starving and the case of a girl being found wired with hay wire up in the Mud Creek section of our county shows that these poor unfortunate people have not been humanely dealt with. Montgomery Women Restore Furniture

Montgomery county homemakers have a new appreciation of furniture that is in good condition and repair. The reason is that for the past year they have worked on at least 555 different articles to restore them to usefulness and beauty. In a report of the year's work, it was brought out that of that number, 239 pieces were refinished, 125 were painted, 60 were decorated with designs, 81 were seated with hickory grass, and 49 pieces were slipcovered.

In addition, the homemakers made 89 pairs of draperies, 13 bedspreads, 26 lampshades, and finished 30 hooked rugs and started 27. Seventy-four pictures were bought this year, 78 were framed and 274 were rehung.

Out of a total enrollment of 571 members in homemakers clubs in Kenton county, 177 had perfect attendance the past year.

Five antique loveseats and four chairs were upholstered in a training school for homemakers in Harrison county.

W. T. Stafford, Victim; Three Others Are Hurt In Mishap Near Louisa

An aged man was killed and three others were injured, two critically, when a huge boulder broke loose from a hillside 10 miles south of Louisa Monday afternoon and crashed onto the auto which the four occupied.

Dead of head injuries is 89-year-old W. T. "Sonny" Stafford, Paintsville livestock grower and former lawyer. Stafford, who had been walking along U. S. 23, had accepted the offer of a ride in a car occupied by the other three shortly before the mishap. He died of head injuries.

The injured were: Mitchell Preston, 25, of Troy, O., formerly of Williamsport, Johnson county; internal injuries, condition critical.

Stephen McGee, 11, Ashland, and Garred Goff See, 11, of Louisa. Young See's condition also was described as critical.

Preston is a son-in-law of Adin See, of Louisa, father of Garred See, and Stephen McGee is a grandson of Mr. See. Preston is a former Paintsville high school football star.

Lawrence county Coroner Byron Young said that Larry Workman, driver of a car traveling behind the Preston car, told him he believed Mr. Preston did not see the rock hurtling toward him. The road at the point where the rock fall occurred is in a deep cut through a hill.

Mr. Workman told the Coroner that it was only by a miracle that other cars were not involved.

The car was badly crushed by the huge rock, weight of which was estimated at seven tons.

Surviving Mr. Stafford are seven daughters and two sons, Mrs. Herman Minix, Paintsville, Mrs. Bernard Vanhoose, Columbus, O., Mrs. Eugene Schulling, Mrs. Kenneth Listerest, Mrs. Richard Williams, Mrs. Paul Ellars, Mrs. Donald O. Keefe, W. T. Stafford, Jr., and John N. Stafford, all of Springfield, O.; one brother, DeWitt Stafford, Paintsville, and four sisters, May Stafford, Indianapolis, Ind.; Mrs. P. F. Smith and Ella Stafford, both of Paintsville, and Mrs. Carrie Stafford, Abingdon, Va.

WITH YOUR COUNTY AGENT

By O. E. BOGGS, County Agent

SOIL TEST

This is a good time of the year for the farmers to have soil tests made. Farmers are now getting ready to do their fall seeding of pastures and meadows mixtures. If the proper soil treatment is to be made for the pasture and meadow seeding, a soil test is the only accurate method of determining your soil needs. Many failures to get a stand can be traced to lack of soil fertility. So be sure, eliminate the guess work by having your soil tested. A leaflet is available in my office on the proper procedure for taking a soil sample.

Fall Seeding of Pastures and Meadows Best

Farmers if you have in mind to seed a few acres of either pasture or meadow, now is the time to do it.

Fall seeded grass usually does much better. It becomes established during late fall and is ready to grow when spring comes. It has less weeds and gives a greater yield the first year. If legumes are sown in the fall they should be sown early enough so as to become well established in order to avoid winter killing. Good pasture mixtures should include at least one grass and one legume and is better if it contains two of each. Here are some suggested pasture mixtures which do well in Floyd county:

1. Orchard grass, 10 pounds and Ladino Clover, 1 pound; 2. Ky. 31 Fescue, 10 pounds and Ladino clover, 1 pound; 3. Orchard Grass, 15 pounds, and Lespedeza, 10 pounds.

- Mixtures for Wet Land
1. Ky. 31 Fescue, 10 pounds and Lespedeza, 10 pounds; 2. Red Top, 5 pounds, Alsike Clover, 3 pounds, and Lespedeza, 7 pounds.

Here are some suggestions for seeding meadow and pasture.

1. Have soil test made and fertilize according to soil test result.
2. Select a good mixture and obtain good quality seeds.
3. Prepare a good seed bed.
4. Firm seed bed after sowing seed.
5. Do a good job of management after pasture becomes established. Remember grass must have a balanced ration as same as livestock.

Cover Crops Can Make Fall and Spring Pasture

Did you know that a good crop of vetch or crimson clover will take from the air and add to your soil 30 to 70 pounds of nitrogen per acre. It will also take up what surplus nitrogen there is in the soil to prevent it from leaching and at the same time hold your soil and keep it from eroding. That's not all if sown with a small grain, especially Bulbo rye it will provide an abundance of late fall and early spring pasture. With the drouth sharply cutting the yield of late corn, hay and pasture, many farmers would be wise to seed more acres to vetch and one of the small grains. The reason for vetch is that it can be seeded up to October 1, while it is probably already too late to sow crimson clover. Farmers even if you don't need the extra pasture it will pay you big dividends to seed every cultivated acre to a good cover crop. Protect your soil during the winter and it will protect you.

Does Your Livestock Have Plenty of Good, Fresh Water

Livestock need plenty of good fresh water at all times. Water is usually the most accessible part of the animals diet. It is so easy to get that we sometimes forget to check our water supply. With the present drouth situation it would be wise to take an inventory of your livestock water supply. Many farmers are reporting sick animals which may be the result of bad water.

Poultry Judging Team

Floyd county will be represented at the state fair again this year by a 4-H Club poultry judging team. The boys have received some training already and the training program will get more intense as fair time nears. In addition nine girls from Floyd county will exhibit at the fair.

County Fair

The Floyd County Fair Board is working very hard to stage the first county fair in twelve years but they need the help of every farmer, club member and homemaker in the county to make the fair successful. They are depending on you to bring in at least one exhibit. The county fair is the show window of the farm people. Let us make it good by having an exhibit in this window.

4-H'ers Show Stock

Members of 4-H clubs showed all kinds of livestock at the annual Caldwell County Fair. Sixty registered hogs were exhibited as a result of the 4-H pig chain started in 1950. There now is a large number of purebred hogs in the county, all stemming back to the 4-H pig chain. Club members also were responsible for having exhibits of sheep and dairy cattle.

To My Friends in the

66th Legislative District, both

Democrats and Republicans:

Due to the fact that I was unopposed as a candidate for the Legislature in the recent Republican primary my name did not appear on the Republican ballot. I wish to thank, at this time, the Republicans for the confidence and honor conferred upon me.

My name will be first on the Republican ballot in the November election. I will appreciate the vote and support of both my Republican and Democratic friends in the 96th District and if elected I promise not to let you down and to work for the best interest of Floyd county at all times.

A little later in the campaign I will discuss the issues by personal contact, the newspapers and radio.

Yours for a bigger and better Floyd county,

Sincerely,

N. M. (BUD) WHITE

Republican candidate, 96th Legislative District,

GARDEN NOTES

Prof. N. R. Elliott of the University of Kentucky horticulture department reminds home gardeners that September is the time to do several early-fall tasks:

1. Spray monthly roses for diseases, and rake and remove all leaves that fall from the plants.
2. Re-pot house plants that are to be kept in the house all winter. Use soil from the vegetable garden, with a little sand mixed with it.
3. Mark trees for later transplanting that are growing in the woods. They are easy to identify now when they still have their leaves.
4. Transplant evergreens.
5. Plant bulbs in late September, October and November.

COUNTY'S CAR LISTINGS RISE

6,574 Autos Assessed
By Tax Commissioner
This Year, Is Report

There were 6,574 automobiles assessed by Clive Akers, tax commissioner of Floyd county this year, according to a report from the State Department of Revenue. The number in the county last year was 4,844. The Floyd increase in auto assessments was 35.7%.

The total for the state in 1953 is 639,732, a gain of 21.3 per cent over 1952, when the figure was 442,549. Fayette county showed the largest percentage gain, jumping from 7,530 in 1952 to 21,028 in 1953, a gain of 179.3 per cent.

Floyd county's increase in car listings was, next to Breathitt's, the heaviest in the eastern part of Kentucky. Gains were registered as follows in this section: Boyd, 13.6%; Lawrence, 1%; Magoffin, 3.9%; Martin, 11.9%; Perry, 21%; Letcher, 1.7%. Breathitt had a 38.7% gain.

Johnson, Knott and Pike counties lost in car assessments. The large increase in the number of vehicles assessed this year was attributed by the department to 1952 legislation by the General Assembly which provided that county clerks weekly pass copies of vehicle registrations to tax commissioners for property tax purposes.

According to the law, the registration goes to the "appropriate" tax commissioner. Thus, if a person registers his automobile in a county different from his residence, the clerk of that county sends a copy to the commissioner where the owner resides and he is still assessed for the vehicle.

All Lyon county farm families in the Farm and Home Development program attended "Open House" on a Christian county farm.

Nineteen picnic baskets and two serving trays were made by McLean county homemakers at a craft training school.

GAS COMPANY VETERANS OF 25 YEARS

HUNT

Two Kentucky West Virginia Gas Company employees became 25-year veterans on Aug. 21. Both began work with the company Aug. 21, 1928. Dewey Hunt, of Lancer, started out as a team driver. In 1932, with improved roads and mechanization, he became a truck-driver. He continued in that capacity until recently when he became a welder's helper.

TACKETT

Bernard Tackett, a native of the Hunter section of the county, did pipe line work when he first entered the company's employ, and later was a well operator. He was promoted to supervisor, May 1, 1941, working in the Mud Creek area. On Dec. 1, 1943 he was promoted to the post of field foreman, a position he still holds with headquarters at Pikeville.

killing one man and injuring three others. This happened about 10 miles south of Louisa. We've been expecting it to happen just outside Paintsville where a shelf of rock extends over the roadway. We've heard that the State Highway Department claims that's solid rock and there's no danger. Wonder how they know? The public apparently will just have to wait for the rains and freezes of several winters to pry the thing loose. Twenty-five dollars' worth of dynamite would settle the matter, and no question about it.

YOU CAN'T HAVE EVERYTHING

This might have been more appropriate for the opening of the rural schools, but I didn't pluck that pod of young horseweed seeds and squeeze them till this morning. The result was a brilliant, red stain. Smelled good, too.

And transported me back to school-days when you walked barefoot, the dust squirting up between your toes, with no traffic to side-step except an occasional horse-man or a lumbering wagon. Back to a lot of other things, too, that the children of this Captain Video age are missing.

Youngsters yet may fluff milkweed floss into the breeze and linger to watch it rise beyond their view, and a few may yet pop stickweed leaves in the circle formed by thumb and forefinger. But how many, think ye, still use bull nettle balls for marbles, or mold their marbles from clay, or hurl, a la David, buckeyes in home-made slings? And who among these moderns knows how to fashion a whistle from a paw-paw sprout? Don't ask me—I've forgotten.

Come to think of it, I haven't in so long seen a boy with a sore toe all wrapped up and doused in medications. And I do believe the old stone-bruise has gone out of style, too.

Lost, too, I suppose, is the art of making a slate pencil by rolling and rubbing a piece of slate against a rock under water. For that matter, the old slate itself is gone where the woodbine twines.

And how long has it been since you've heard that effin call produced by a boy blowing through his hands? Therein lies one of my greatest frustrations. I consider my education incomplete, for I never did master the art of whistling thus through my fingers or of squirting water through my teeth. It pains me to admit this, but we can't have everything, can we?

BABE DIES
Ollie Chester Hall, age six days, son of Earl and Cassie Hall, Hi Hat, died at the Beaver Valley hospital, Martin, Sunday. Four brothers and sisters survive. Funeral rites were conducted at the home, the Revs. Johnny King and Bertie Conn officiating. Burial followed in the Clear Creek cemetery under the direction of Hall Bros. Funeral Home.

FLOYD PEOPLE WELL-INSURED

(Special to The Times)
NEW YORK, Aug. 27 — How do residents of Floyd county compare with those elsewhere in the country in ownership of life insurance? Into what form of insurance do most of them put their money?

How important a matter this is in the affairs of people generally is indicated by the fact that ownership of life insurance in the United States is close to the enormous figure of $300 billions, with most people having some participation.

Residents of Floyd county have their full share of this volume, according to a national breakdown of statistics from the Institute of Life Insurance. They have in force a total of $43,700,000, some nine percent over the amount they had in 1951.

On a per family basis, this represents local holdings of $3,700 per family, which is over the average in the East-South-Central states, $3,000 per family.

In the past 10 years, according to the report, all forms of thrift have gained, with the emphasis on insurance most marked. Since the last World War alone, it states, the increase of funds put into life insurance has been 63 per cent while the combined increase for the other major types of long-term savings has been 36 percent.

Of the various types of coverage, ordinary insurance is well ahead in popularity, accounting for nearly two-thirds of the total. In Floyd county approximately 59 percent is in this form of insurance.

The percentage distribution of life insurance purchases shows that men are most heavily insured by far. Last year about 72 percent of the amount purchased was on the lives of men, 15 percent on the lives of women and 13 percent on the lives of children under the age of 15.

The Church of Christ of Martin, will observe homecoming Sunday, Sept. 13. The Bible School session will begin at 10 a.m. All friends, and especially former members, are invited to join in the celebration.

Features of the day's program will be a basket dinner on the church lawn at noon and an afternoon service at 2 o'clock with a song-fest. Anyone having any kind of special music is invited to this service. The public is invited to attend.

Sept. 19th Rally Day To Launch New Year's Work for Girl Scouts

The first activity of the new year now starting for the Girl Scouts of the area will be Rally Day, Sept. 19, at the Allen Golf Club, it was stated by Mrs. Ray Howard, publicity chairman, this week. The rally event will be from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Mrs. Howard explained that all troops will be responsible for their own transportation to the meet, and two adults must accompany each troop. Two delegates and two alternates will be sent. Mrs. Howard said, to the national convention of the Girl Scouts to be held at Cincinnati, Oct. 18.

The Girl Scout Camp at Dewey Lake will soon become a reality for the contract to build is let and construction will start soon. The camp is located approximately two miles from the Auxier bridge and should be ready for occupancy in late fall.

The Scouts are steadily growing in numbers. Mrs. Howard says. Prestonsburg now has 75, Pikeville 141, Wheelwright 58, David 47, Martin 12, and Langley 11. Add to this 107 registered adults and the total is 499.

The Scouts of this area are seriously handicapped by a lack of leaders, Mrs. Howard stated. Prestonsburg can easily use 10 leaders after organization of new troops is complete. "Today we have one active leader," she added.

Members of 4-H Clubs in Ohio county report a profitable season growing cucumbers for pickles.

NOT ENTITLED TO PAYMENT Frankfort, Ky., Sept. 8—A publishing firm is not entitled to be paid for publishing the annual statement of a County Board of Education if one of the Board members is a substantial owner in the firm, it was held by Assistant Attorney General M. B. Holtfield. The ruling was given to Howard H. Ogles, who owns a substantial interest in a Franklin newspaper which has published the annual report for some years past. Holtfield held if the contract and order for publishing the report was made before Ogles' election to the Board it would be valid, but if made afterward "its collection (the bill) would forfeit your office."

THE PLATFORM OF GORMON COLLINS FOR SHERIFF OF FLOYD COUNTY

The taxpayers of this county have been paying a big price for the results they have been getting. The Sheriff's office pays enough money in fees for collecting taxes and fees for all the other services that it performs to be able to maintain a good force of officers and pay them a fair salary. It pays enough to give the people good law enforcement and still be able to turn money back into the county treasury.

You, as citizens and taxpayers, should expect our Sheriff's force to be equal to, if not better than, counties that are smaller and have less taxes and less revenue coming into the Sheriff's office. You should expect our law enforcement agency to make some advances as the years go by. Can you name one advancement that has been made in the past ten years? Do you as taxpayers expect to elect an officer and let him sit down and let the rest of the world advance all around him? You have been paying for more than you have been getting.

I will offer you more as your Sheriff than any Sheriff has heretofore in law enforcement and progress. I do not offer you the moon, neither will I offer you squad cars with two-way radio. I will only promise you the things I can and will deliver.

First, I will give you four years of honest law enforcement. Second, I will give you deputies of good repute and pay them a decent salary, that they may live without having to blackjack the public for a living.

Third, I will furnish a deputy for all public gatherings and athletic events, outside corporate limits and in them upon request. I will give your schools and churches the protection that has been so sadly lacking.

Fourth, I will establish in the Sheriff's office a fingerprint bureau and fingerprint all subversives and known criminals. Fifth, I will have on the Sheriff's force a trained detective, a man from our own county trained in one of our large police schools of our country.

Sixth, there will be no favorites. All the people of Floyd county will be treated upon an equal basis.

Seventh, I shall use as my guide the oath of office that is administered to the Sheriff upon taking office, and be a Sheriff of the people and for the people. Under my direction the law in Floyd county will be respected rather than feared, a help instead of a hindrance, servants instead of masters, enforcers of the law instead of buddies to the lawless.

I WANT TO RUN THIS RACE UPON MY REPUTATION AND NOT ON MY OPPONENT'S.

I feel that it is the duty of every good citizen in this county to investigate my past and my present and judge the future on his findings. The same should be done to my opponent, then the choice should be made. If you feel that I will not make you the kind of Sheriff you desire, then you should vote against me. If you feel that Floyd county deserves something better than it has had, if you believe in law and order and a better place to live and rear your families, and want a man that will do the job—then you should support me for Sheriff of Floyd county.

VA ISSUES TIPS TO GIs ENTERING SCHOOL SOON

Veterans Administration this week issued a round-up of 10 useful tips for the thousands of veterans planning to start school this fall under the Korean GI Bill.

First, VA said, veterans should not jump hastily into training, without having a clear idea of where the training will lead them.

Instead, they should give careful thought to the choice of a goal, as well as to the training program that will help them reach it. The law allows a veteran to change his program no more than once, so it is to advantage to choose correctly in the first place, VA said.

Second, VA reminds veterans having trouble making up their minds about their goal that they may request vocational counseling, to help them arrive at a sound choice of training. To apply for counseling, a veteran need only fill in the appropriate space on VA's application form for GI training.

VA's third tip is to urge veterans to make sure the course they want has been State-approved for Korean GI training. Any VA regional office can tell a veteran whether the course of his choice is on the approved list.

Fourth, VA advises veterans they should make their own arrangements for gaining admittance to school before they file their applications with VA.

This step often can save them much time and trouble later on, since they will be able to find out in advance whether the school has room for them and whether they meet its requirements for admission.

Fifth, VA said veterans should make every effort to send their applications for training certificates to VA as soon as possible. This will give a time cushion so that any snags may be ironed out before school begins.

As tip number six, VA urges veterans to check their applications thoroughly, before mailing them to the VA. An incomplete application can only cause delay, since VA will have to write back to the veteran for the missing information, before any action can be taken.

Also, veterans should make certain that a photostat or certified copy of their separation paper accompanies the application.

Seventh, VA reminds applicants that the forms should be sent to the nearest VA regional office, and not to VA headquarters in Washington, D. C. Applications received in Washington have to be sent back to the appropriate regional office, a time-consuming process.

Eighth, veterans with dependants are advised to gather together the necessary proof of dependency, so that this material can be sent to VA as soon as it is requested.

Ninth, veterans with dependents receive higher GI allowance rates than those without. In order for VA to pay the higher rates, it must have proof of dependency status. For a wife, for example, this would consist of a photostat of the marriage certificate, and for a child, it would be a photostat of the birth certificate.

As its ninth point, VA reminds veterans to take along enough money of their own to tide them over for at least the first two months of training. It takes that long, under the law, for a veteran's first GI allowance check to reach him.

The reason is that the allowances are paid some time after the end of each month of training completed. But before VA can make a payment, it must receive a certification—signed by the veteran and his school—stating that he actually was in training during that month. Allowance checks usually go out within 20 days after VA gets the certification.

VA's tenth and final training tip applies to veterans who already have started training under the Korean GI Bill. It is a reminder for veterans and their schools to submit the monthly certification of training to VA as soon after the end of each month as possible.

This form, which must be signed both by the veteran and a responsible official of his school, must be received by VA before payments of GI allowances may be made. The sooner it reaches VA, the less chance there will be of a delay in mailing a veteran his allowance check.

CATS LOSE FIRST OPENER IN 4 YEARS TO WHITESBURG

The Prestonsburg Black Cats lost their first football opener in four years last Friday night as they bowed to the Whitesburg Yellow Jackets, 14-7, before some 3,000 fans in Whitesburg's new 2,500-seat stadium.

After trailing 14-0 at the end of the first period, Ferrell's inexperienced youngsters soared back to outlay the highly-touted Yellow Jackets in the three remaining periods.

Whitesburg scored in the first four minutes of play as a result of one of six Prestonsburg fumbles. End Rick Adams recovered the ball on the Black Cat 12-yard line. After being held for no gain on three successive plays, quarterback Buckie Holbrook flipped 12 yards to halfback Buddy Fields for the t.d.

The two teams exchanged fumbles before Prestonsburg kicked to the Whitesburg 25. Two plays later, Fields galloped 75 yards through the entire Black Cat team to reach pay dirt, as Bobby Kincer executed the pay-off block. Kincer added both extra points to give the Jackets a 14-0 lead.

In the next series of downs the Black Cats moved to the eight-yard line on successive passes from quarterback Lowell Hughes to end Dee Caldwell and Paul Ousley. Then, on first down and goal, another fumble to end the scoring threat.

Ousley picked up a Whitesburg bobble on the 22 yard-stripe and halfback Clifford Goble promptly moved the ball to the five on the play, but the Black Cats failed to go on over in four attempts before the half ended.

In the third quarter Hughes and C. Goble spearheaded a 60-yard touchdown drive, climaxed by Goble's six-yard dash around end for the six-pointer. Halfback "Jeep" Alexander ran for the extra point. Ferrell's defensive line held Whitesburg without a first down while Prestonsburg picked up five in the third canto.

The Black Cats missed two other scoring opportunities in the final frame, but each time a fumble stopped the threat. Whitesburg was unable to penetrate the Black Cat forward wall the last half.

Wayland Wasps Lose To Paintsville Tigers

Wayland's Wasps dropped their initial football game of the season to the Paintsville Tigers 19-0 on a mud-soaked field last week.

Coach Dave Adams' Wasps were unable to cope with the running of Tiger halfback Rodney Oney, who scored two touchdowns, one on a 30-yard punt return. Halfback Irvin Franklin scooted over for the game's other touchdown and J. Kirk added the extra point.

After a scoreless first period, the rain hampered the play of both teams and made Wayland's passing attack virtually impossible.

DRIFT LACKS 1 MORE WIN

Defeats Indian Creek Two Games in a Row For Big Sandy Title

Two wins in a row leaves the Drift baseball team within a single game of the Big Sandy League championship through victory in the final round of the loop's playoffs.

Drift won the opener over Indian Creek, 12 to 1, and came back Sunday to annex the second game, 6 to 3. The series and the championship goes to the team first winning three games out of a possible five.

Charles McSurley turned in a brilliant mound job Sunday at the Drift park, allowing only one unearned run. Pete Grigsby was outstanding for the winners, as also was Denver Collier, an all-position athlete who has been used at practically every post this year.

In Monday night's game Carl Jones started for Drift, and he, too, pitched beautifully.

Drift will play Indian Creek again Friday night at the Drift park, and Oake Collier, curve ball specialist, or Gene Stewart, a fastballer with control, will hurl for the home team.

Despite the excellent brand of baseball played during the current series, crowds have been small. In urging fans to come out for these last games, Harold Conn, who now excels behind the plate, said, "The Elkhorn league of a few years past showed more sheer power possibly, but they didn't play the percentages as well as Drift's present players, composed mostly of local talent."

MAY BE LICENSED
Frankfort, Ky., Sept. 8 — Kentucky's motor vehicle licensing laws do not preclude inmates of state penal institutions from obtaining operator's licenses—but any inmate required by the institution to operate a vehicle on public highways must procure a license, Assistant Attorney General H. D. Reed, Jr., ruled.

"There is no law authorizing any state agency to deny a convicted felon an operator's license solely on the ground that he is a convicted felon," Reed wrote the Department of Welfare "but the department may deny, grant or limit driving privileges of inmates in its custody."

Simpson county farmers have put several hundred thousand bushels of wheat in government-approved storages.

Sutphin, P'burg Soldier, Wins Commendation For Meritorious Service

WITH THE 40TH INFANTRY DIV. IN KOREA — Sgt. Sidney Sutphin, Jr., whose wife, Mattie, lives at Prestonsburg, Ky., was recently awarded the Commendation Ribbon for meritorious service with the 40th Infantry Division in Korea.

Sutphin, chief clerk in headquarters of the division artillery section, was cited for his "sound judgment, tenacity and patience in organizing the movement of his section to a new position during early July. His diligent efforts and excellent organizational ability" effected the move with a minimum loss of efficiency.

Sgt. Sutphin, whose parents also live in Prestonsburg, completed basic training at Camp Roberts, Calif., and was stationed at Camp Cooke, Calif., before arriving in Korea last October.

A 1947 graduate of Prestonsburg high school, he attended Morehead State Teachers College and later was manager of the Big Sandy Credit Bureau in Prestonsburg before entering the army in December, 1951.

Sutphin's other decorations include the Korean Service Ribbon with two campaign stars and the UN Service Ribbon.

CLUB'S FIRST MEET OF YEAR
 The first meeting of the Lackey-Garrett Women's Club for the new club year was held in the home of Mrs. F. H. Cooley, of Estill Hill, September 3. The program, "Reasons for an American Campaign," was given by Mrs. John Field, who emphasized that Communism, the antithesis of Democracy and religion, is Democracy's greatest challenge.

Mrs. Field also stressed the importance of bringing to the attention of citizens salient facts about the benefits derived from our representative form of government as opposed to the philosophies of alien governments now being peddled by numerous propagandists.

"Many people of our nation are not cognizant of the great struggles of our forefathers to establish a Democracy in a Republic for our people," quoted Mrs. Field. To help meet this need a campaign will be developed whereby American history will be a required subject in all high schools and universities. Mrs. Field pointed out that such a requirement has been in practice in the Floyd county high schools for several years.

As a club chairman of Americanism, Mrs. Field, announced that Americanism Day will be observed September 17 with a joint meeting of all local organizations. Specific information will be given later by Mrs. Field.

In keeping with the Americanism campaign, Mrs. Field asked the club to sponsor the Independence Hall project in the local schools. An Americanism essay contest on "What America Means to Me" and contributions of school children toward restoration of Independence Hall were endorsed by the club whose members will make every effort to help local schools attain the goal of $100 per school in order that such school may have its name engraved on a plaque in Philadelphia.

Mrs. N. Howard reported that arrangements will soon be completed for observance of "Career Night".

Mrs. Ison reported that the club's $100 Scholarship Loan has been awarded to a graduate who has entered nurse's training.

All club members were urged to study Amendment 186 and vote "Yes" in November.

It was unanimously voted to pledge $25.00 annually to Pikeville College, and to help in every way possible toward establishing a four-year college at Pikeville.

Preceding the meeting, Mrs. Cooley served a full-course dinner to Mesdames C. E. Ison, Charles Hornsby, Marie Coburn Mullins, Felix Coburn, Milton Trusty, Shelby Draughn, Otis Kilburn, Carmel Patton, R. H. Messer, Frank Rasnick, R. D. Spencer, Troy Webb, Delbert Stone, M. M. Collins, Gordon Collins, W. T. Hatcher, J. T. Spillman, H. J. Sherman, L. B. Price, M. D. Howard, Fred Hall, S. M. Martin, John Field, T. E. Harmon, J. C. Wells, George Evans, Earl Castle, Thomas Hatcher, and Miss Thelma Daniels. Guests included Mesdames J. E. Miller, Minta Allen and Floyd Copley, Misses Sherry Lynn Miller and Maud E. Hatcher, Master Charles David Cooley, Messrs. Frank Cooley, Thomas Hatcher, Bob Hatcher, Billy Arnold Cooley, and Master "Duke" Evans.

The next meeting will be in the home of Mrs. Felix Coburn, September 24, with Mrs. Marie Coburn Mullins, co-hostess.

To the Public:

Last Sunday, I made a visit to the cemetery at the bank of the Baptist Church at the mouth of Stone Coal. I found it in real bad condition, grown up in all kinds of bushes, weeds, briars and vines. Only after much difficulty did I succeed in finding two or three graves in which I was especially interested.

I want all who have loved ones buried there, and all others who are willing to do a little work to make a cemetery a fit resting place for the dead, to meet me at this graveyard on Saturday, Sept. 20, by 8 or 8:30 a.m., bringing with them axes, mattocks, picks and hoes, all sharpened, to remove the bushes, briars, weeds and vines. I will be there myself to help out all I can.

DR. M. M. COLLINS

Tom Endicott, farmer of Buffalo Creek, has used the weedkiller 2-4-D on weeds in his cornfield for two years and completely dispensed with cultivation. He sees no difference in the yield between cultivated and non-cultivated corn if the water is treated with the weed killer.
