This Town-- That World

One good thing about the weather to date: Nobody has had a heat-stroke while digging fishin' worms.

WURRA, WURRA!

We haven't had any first-hand knowledge of the matter this far, so we take the word of a friend that it costs about $200 to go into bankruptcy. Our informant made this statement as the chorus to his version of the blues. Said he was too poor to go broke, couldn't afford to go to a hospital to get well and that the high cost of dying and getting buried was something else to worry about.

SENSES-TAKING

We understand that they're having trouble getting the census taken this year. Census-takers are quitting, right and left. Some complain about being overworked and underpaid. Others say the mass of detail is a frightening thing. Why, they say, it would drive a-body out of his senses!

One thing about our Uncle Sammel. He will tell employers how much to pay, and how long they can work employees a day, and so on. But when he's the employer he pays as little as the traffic will bear, like it or not. The old boy is like the preacher who admonished his congregation to "do as I say, not as I do."

HE SHOWS US HOW

If you're inclined to fume and fret and blame everything and everybody, meanwhile doing nothing to help yourself, consider the case of a physically handicapped (See Story No. 7, Page 6)

FIRE DAMAGE IS $54,100

In Two Floyd Blazes; Maggard Furniture Store Result of Break-In, Said

Fires which resulted in an estimated $54,100 damages leveled a Floyd county business place and a private home over the weekend.

Completely destroyed were The Maggard Hardware and Furniture Store, Langley, and a home owned by Charles May at Allen. Arnold Maggard, owner of the Maggard Hardware and Furniture Store, said that people living near the store reported that they heard noises "as if someone were breaking into the store." Subsequent insurance investigation verified the report, he said.

Maggard said that the fire was first discovered about midnight Saturday and that by the time he arrived most of the building had been destroyed.

The Martin Fire Department arrived at the scene at 2:15 a.m., Maggard said. He said that no other building was burned and that the fire was not completely under control until two hours later.

The store was of block construction, one story, 60 x 60 feet. The loss was partially covered by insurance, Maggard said.

Fire broke out in a home owned by Charles May, near Allen, about 12:15 a.m., Monday morning.

May said that the house, with furniture, was valued at $4,100.

MEET TO AIR EQUALIZATION IS CANCELLED

3-2 Council Vote OK's Kill Resolution Monday; Several Reasons Noted

The town meeting scheduled for April 29 to sound public sentiment here on the question of equalization of property assessment for tax purposes has been cancelled by action of the City Council.

The Council, by a 3 to 2 vote, adopted a resolution at its Monday evening meeting, calling off the scheduled meeting and also directing that the Department of Revenue be asked not to send its representative here to plan state help on equalization as planned earlier.

The vote on the resolution stood: For—Councilmen Joe W. Jarrell, W. B. Boyd, Bill May; against—Councilmen Watt Hale, Jody Fannin. Councilman Tom O. McGuire was out of town at the time of the meeting, Councilman Orville Cooley left the meeting before the resolution was proposed, and Councilman Virgil Griffith abstained from voting on the question.

The official reasons given in the resolutions for the Council's change of mind on the matter of a public discussion of the question and on equalization were:

1. The Council has appointed a tax assessor to assess all real estate and has appointed a board of supervisors whose duty will be to equalize the tax assessment.

2. The Council does not need the services of the Department of Revenue.

3. The Council does not have the necessary funds to pay for re-appraisal.

4. The present Council would get no benefit at all from the re-appraisal, since any increase in taxes would not be effective till the tax year 1962.

5. The same contract with the State Department of Revenue has been rejected by at least two other City Councils, and no reason has been advanced why the present council should take a different position.

The resolution was not produced for Council action till all those attending except two had left. Councilman Jarrell presented the resolution.

The Council earlier heard Sandy Hockensmith and Edward LaFontaine, of the State Aeronautics Commission, explain the part Prestonsburg would play if it participates in the plan for a Prestonsburg-Pointsville airport. He explained that under a new state law revenue bonds can be issued, that Prestonsburg's part of the total $100,000 cost would be about $25,000. The Council voted to give its full support to the project.

The airport location is planned (See Story No. 2, Page 4)

RAMEY NAMED JAYCEE HEAD

Junior Chamber Picks Officers Monday Night; Installation Planned

Roy Ramey, Prestonsburg insurance representative, was elected president of the Prestonsburg Junior Chamber of Commerce by acclamation at Monday night's annual election of officers. He will succeed David Hereford as head of the Jaycees.

Other officers elected are:

Calvin Herrick, vice-president; James Richard Spurlock, Jr., secretary; Phillip Blackburn, treasurer. The new three-man board of directors will be composed of Edmund Burke, Robert Steggs and Vance Mitter.

The new officers will be installed at the Junior Chamber's June meeting.

Everything Seemed To Be All Right But Lake Manager Took Precaution And Pseudo-Purchasers Vanished

Dewey Reservoir Manager Howard Osborne discovered last week that looks are really deceiving.

A group of unidentified young men—described as "clean cut" by Osborne—paid a visit to the manager's quarters last Friday.

They were after the old government tractor, worth about $100.

Osborne, at that time, was completing negotiations with Don Moore, manager of the York Furniture Store, to swap the old tractor for a new one. Moore was waiting for the government's release of the tractor and had previously delivered the tractor to the government was trading for.

The dapper young men in the

Judge Stumbo and Horn In Frankfort To Talk Foodstuff Distribution

County Judge Henry Stumbo and Carl Horn, director of Floyd county welfare, attended a meeting in Frankfort last week when the subject of new applications for surplus foodstuffs for relief clients was discussed.

The meeting was sponsored by the U. S. Department of Agriculture and Thomas A. Lewis, director of commodities distribution for the Kentucky Department of Agriculture. Gov. Bert T. Combs addressed the meeting.

It was pointed out that all relief applicants will be required to make new applications, a work which has already been started here. Mr. Horn said Floyd county has 9,726 on its relief rolls as of this week.

Thirty-seven Kentucky counties—the nearest, Knott—do not have a surplus food distribution program.

FOREST FIRE HAZARD RISES

District Blazes Fought Against High Wind, Said; Forester Issues Warning

Since April 7 employees of the Kentucky Division of Forestry have battled and successfully controlled 162 forest fires in the Eastern district of Kentucky which is comprised of Floyd, Pike, Magoffin, Johnson, Martin and Lawrence counties.

Many of these fires were fought in a 25 mile per hour wind and at a time when the fire danger meter registered a burning index of 160. "This," said William Music, district forester, "is the highest burning index registered in my 18 years' experience with the Division of Forestry." A burning index of 100 or over is considered explosive.

Of these 162 fires, 30 occurred in Floyd county. "Until time is available to get a complete report from fire-fighting personnel we are unable to reckon the acreage burned or the damage done," Music said.

Probably the darkest hour of this period occurred Wednesday evening, April 13. On this day, about 4:00 p.m., after crews were exhausted and spread too thin on the fires, five fires started simultaneously along the river between Allen and Prestonsburg. Exhausted workers brought these fires under control, but until relief is offered in the form of a general rain—conditions still will remain explosive.

"All citizens are urged to bear this in mind and exercise extreme caution to prevent new fires from starting," the forester advised.

"Home owners are urged also to not be too hasty to back fire around their buildings when they see a fire above them. Many times the fire (See Story No. 8, Page 6)

Granville Patrick, 45, Of Goodloe, Is Victim; Funeral Held Wednesday

Granville Patrick, 45, of Goodloe, died of coronary occlusion at 9:15 a.m., Monday at home. A son of the late Jack and Mary Prater Patrick, he was married to Louise Shepherd, who survives.

Surviving children are Betty Jacqueline, Leo, Lucy and Tony, all at home. Surviving brothers and sisters are Early Patrick, and Chester Patrick both of Stockbridge, Mich., Ellis Patrick, of Pyramid, Asbury Park, in Ohio, Will Patrick, Magoffin county, Mrs. Myrtle Neeley, Ollie Patrick, and Mrs. Minnie Allen, all in Michigan, Mrs. Gertrude Neeley, in Indiana, and Mrs. Dewey Shepherd, of Goodloe.

Funeral services were held at 10:30 a.m., Wednesday, at the home of Ellis Patrick, the Rev. Ashland Shepherd officiating. Burial was made at Brushy Creek, Magoffin county, under the direction of Carter & Callihan Funeral Home.

TWO CLAIMED BY ACCIDENTS

On Floyd-Co. Highways; Hall Killed Instantly, Sexton Survives Week

Two Floyd county men were claimed in auto accidents recently. Killed instantly at 10 a.m. Wednesday of last week was Chester Lee Hall, 35, of Bypro. Succumbing Sunday from injuries received in a crash several days previously was Leonard Sexton, Jr., of Garrett.

Hall, a coal hauling contractor, was a passenger in one of his trucks that "was making an empty run to Melvin. The truck skidded, according to reports, and when it left the highway the door next to Hall opened. Pressure of a power pole pinched him between the door and cab. The name of the driver is unavailable.

Sexton, a passenger in a car said to have been driven by a Mr. David, left the highway at Garrett and plunged into the Gypsy Dress Shop. He suffered a broken neck from which he lingered at the McDowell hospital until 4 a.m. Sunday. Sexton was a miner and a veteran of the Korean conflict.

Mr. Hall, a native of Knott county, was a son of M. C. and Mary Hall, who survive. His wife, Nina Little Hall, survives. Surviving brothers are Charles Hall, Detroit, Mich.; Glenis Hall, of Wheelwright, and Ed Hall, of Bevinville.

Funeral rites were conducted at 10 a.m., Sunday, at the Joppa Regular Baptist church at Melvin, the Revs. Jerry Hall, Ellis Little, Oliver Meade, Charlie Jones and others officiating. Burial was made in the Buckingham cemetery under the direction of Merion & Call Funeral Home.

Mr. Sexton was a son of Leonard and Bessie Sammons Sexton, of Garrett, and the husband of Martha Duff Sexton, who survives (See Story No. 6, Page 6)

Collins Is Reelected By GOP Committee; Flanery Has Opposition

Republican precinct committees re-elected Gordon Collins, of Lackey, the party's county chairman here Saturday afternoon. He was unopposed. Other county party officials elected are:

Mrs. Myrtle Allen, Prestonsburg, chairwoman; Mrs. Roger Stewart, Langley, secretary, and George T. Roberts, Pestonsburg, treasurer.

Named as delegates to the district caucus to be held in Paintsville, Friday afternoon were Gorman Collins, L. B. Moore, Elmer Ferguson, Lloyd McGarey, W. B. Boyd, Mrs. Viola Stewart, Mrs. Mildred Stewart, Chester Allen, Gordon Collins, Mrs. Myrtle Allen, C. E. Weddington, George W. Sizemore, Braxton Thompson, Larce Endicott and John James.

The Floyd delegates are to vote as a unit in Paintsville and will vote for delegates pledged to support Richard M. Nixon at the Republican National Convention in July.

Gorman Collins, of Prestonsburg, announced last week that he will oppose Dr. M. D. Flanery, of Pikeville, at the Paintsville meeting for the post of district chairman.

REED, MUSIC GIVEN POSTS

By Commerce Chamber At Louisville Meeting; Wallace Elected Prexy

Two Floyd countians were named to official positions with the Kentucky Chamber of Commerce at the Chamber's annual meeting in Louisville this week.

B. F. Reed, president of the Turner Elkhorn Coal Company, Drift, was named one of the six regional vice-presidents of the C. C. and Marvin Music, Prestonsburg, Gulf Oil Corporation distributor, was among 17 new directors elected for three-year terms.

Both men have long been active in civic activities affecting Floyd county and the Eastern Kentucky area.

Raymond D. Wallace, Henderson, works manager of the Spencer Chemical Co., was elected president for the coming year. Smith Broadbent, of Cadiz, was re-elected first vice-president, John W. Woods, of Ashland, was re-elected treasurer.

The cities of Campbellsville and Glasgow were named top winners in the Chamber of Commerce Community Development Program for 1959.

Campbellsville has previously been in the winner's circle, having won first place in its division last year and in 1955. Glasgow, in the money every year, also won first place in 1955.

The contest falls in the following two general categories: Group I: cities under 3,500 population, according to the 1950 census; Group II: cities of 3,500 population and over.

A $1,000 prize will be awarded the citizens of Campbellsville by the International Business Machines Corp., and a $1,000 prize will be awarded to Glasgow by the Kentucky Utilities Company.

London was listed second for the Group I category, followed by Fulton, Stanford and Calhoun. In Group II, Franklin placed second followed by Elizabethtown, Danville and Paintsville.

16 STUDENTS ARE HONORED

With NHS Membership; B Scholastic Average Required By Society

Sixteen high school students here—six seniors and 10 juniors—became members of the Prestonsburg high school chapter of the National Honor Society at an induction ceremony conducted at the high school Tuesday afternoon by chapter officers.

Only students with a B scholastic average for all their years in high school are considered for National Honor Society membership. The selection committee also considers, in addition to the student's scholastic standing, his or her qualities of character, service and leadership.

New members of the honor group are:

FLOYD SPELLING TITLE WON IN MARATHON BEE

A six-hour-long spelling marathon was necessary to determine the Floyd county spelling championship this year as 21 youngsters battled it out for the title and the right to represent the county in the Herald-Dispatch regional spelling bee at Huntington, West Virginia.

"This was the best group of young spellers I've ever seen," said Clem Martin who has directed several county bees for the Floyd County Board of Education. They spelled through all the spelling textbooks used from the fourth grade through the eighth, then at the last moved into the tough "Words of the Champions," a pamphlet containing words from past regional and national bees.

Two 13-year-olds—Ronnie Moore, of the Stone Coal school, and Diana Peraino, of Wheelwright—were finalists, with the boy winning the title when Miss Peraino missed "acquitall." He spelled that word, then the next, "across." Both will have places in the regional bee at Huntington, May 14.

The champion is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur H. Moore and is taught by Johnnie Case. The runner-up is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Peraino and her teacher is Lowell McCown.

Names of other spellers, the school each represents and the word each missed follow in the order in which they were retired from competition:

Yvonne Martin, Clear Creek; "cent"; "cylinder"; "tax collector"; "auxiliary"; "February"; "burgess"; "Lowe"; "Maytown"; "skis"; Janet Lawson, Drift, "probably"; Alex Sammons, Johnson school, "taxes"; Earlene Patton, Bosco, "Friday"; Barry Boyd, Harold, "garage"; Dolores Emma, "course"; Sharon Little, McDowell, "orchard"; Charlene Harris, Brandy Keg, "entirely"; Janet Clay, David, "appearance"; Carol Howell, Bonanza, "particular"; Johnnie Prater, Allen, "handled"; Johnnie Martin, Garrett, "development"; Rosemary Frazier, Martin, "agricultural"; Joan Hall, Weeksbury, "grateful"; Amelia Wiley, Betsy Layne, "military"; Brenda Joyce Crum, Prestonsburg, "academic"; Ernestine Deloris Vance, Beaver, "academy."

Each contestant received from the board of education a dictionary, and the same award was made to each of the judges, Mrs. Ethel Johnson, of Allen, Mrs. Imogene (See Story No. 9, Page 4)

Lonesome Pine Scouts Schedule Meeting Here At Presbyterian Church

The annual Appreciation banquet of Lonesome Pine Council, Boy Scouts of America, will be held at the First Presbyterian Church in Hazard, May 6 at 6:30 p.m.

Recognitions will be given to Scouters for their services to boys. All Scouters are invited to procure tickets by May 1 in order to make possible dinner arrangements to accommodate the number wishing to attend.

Principal speaker for the banquet will be Commander Thomas J. Keane, retired, of the United States Navy.

Commander Keane, who saw service during two world wars and who is a man of international experience, is executive commissioner for relationships of the Boy Scout International Bureau.

Entrance to the building was effected through a door at the end of the building. The robbery was not discovered till the following morning. State Detective Chester D. Potter is investigating the case.

Of the haul, all but about $200 was in cash. The market is owned by R. M. Barnett and his daughter and son, Mrs. Juanita Roark and Knox Barnett.

Jailed here within the week were: Frank Johnson, accused of detaining a woman against her will and reckless driving, and his companion, Merlie M. Mitchell, who was booked on a charge of detaining a woman against her will and (See Story No. 1, Page 6)

WPRT OWNER IS ACQUITTED BY JURY HERE

Of Burn Attempt Charge; Prosecution Had Relied Upon Meade Testimony

Trial of Marion Hatfield, charged with unlawfully causing an explosion under a building (the home of Frank Derossett) got under way this afternoon. A day was required to empanel a jury.

Dave Stephens, owner of Radio Station WPRT here, won a not-guilty verdict from a circuit court jury here Wednesday noon shortly after the conclusion of his trial on a charge of confederating and banding in an attempt to burn rival radio station WDOC.

Trial of Stephens, which began Tuesday, provided the most interesting sessions of the term. The jury deliberated less than an hour, it was said.

A second major trial of the term, that of Dewey Wallen, accused of an incestuous relationship with his daughter, resulted Monday in his acquittal.

The Commonwealth relied mainly in the prosecution of Stephens upon the testimony of Arwin Meade, who with Alton Stephens was jointly indicted with Dave Stephens. Meade testified Dave Stephens agreed to pay him $500 to burn the radio station, which is owned by Gordon Collins and operated by his brother, Ex-Sheriff Gorman Collins. He added that he later was paid $100 on one occasion and $200 on another by Walter May, a former employe of Stephens at station WPRT.

Sgt. Kiser, Detective Chester D. Potter and two other state policemen testified for the Commonwealth, telling of Meade's arrest at WDOC after he had poured gasoline into its interior. They said they had been tipped off to the arson attempt by Alton Stephens had legedly told Paul Akers, service station owner here, in such an attempt would be made. FBI Agent Horner, of Paintsville, also was mentioned as knowing of the tip-off, but neither he nor Akers was called as a witness. (See Story No. 3, Page 6)

TRUCKS LEASE IS CANCELLED

By Gov. Combs, Tuesday; Clements Notes Intent To Purchase New Ones

Gov. Bert T. Combs moved swiftly Tuesday to cancel the contract under which the state leased 34 large trucks from a newly-organized Louisville firm. The controversial State Highway contract would have involved the payment of $346,000 to the lessors for second-hand trucks.

Combs, in giving his reasons for cancellation, said that an air of secrecy surrounded the deal and the ownership of the vehicles. The state has a right to know with whom it contracts, he added.

Need, price, efficiency and condition of the trucks were subjects discussed in the furor that erupted when notice of the lease was made public. It was alleged that the trucks would violate the highway weight laws when fully loaded and many said their condition was in a state of disrepair.

State Highway Commissioner Earle Clements said Wednesday the department will acquire comparable trucks by purchase for use in hauling 10 to 12 cubic yards of road-building materials without violating state weight laws.

Big trucks are an economical (See Story No. 4, Page 4)

NEW BOATING LAW, IN BRIEF

Boat-owners have 30 days after July 1 to number and register their boats, according to Scott Barbour, head of the new Division of Boating in the Department of Public Safety.

Registration and payment of fees are to be made at circuit clerks' offices. At the last General Assembly Kentucky joined 31 other states which have boating laws. The Kentucky law requires that every boat with a motor be registered and sets up this schedule of fees:

Boats from 1 to 16 feet in length, $3; 16 to 26 feet, $5; 26 to 40 feet, $8; 40 feet or more, or boats with inboard motors, $10. Manufacturers or sellers of boats in Kentucky are required to pay a $25 license fee. All fees are turned over to the state's general fund.

Visitors from out-of-state bringing boats into Kentucky will be allowed to operate them for 90 days without registration, if the boats already have registration numbers from other states or federally assigned numbers.

Mr. Pears attended Ohio University and the University of Cincinnati. He is a member of the Engineers Society of Western Pennsylvania, the Pittsburgh Chamber of Commerce, and the Pennsylvania Natural Gas Men's Association.

Credit Bureau Formed
To Serve Region Here;
Offices In Paintsville

The Sandy Valley Credit Bureau, formed to serve Johnson, Martin, Magoffin and Lawrence counties, will open May 1 with offices in the Hager building in Paintsville.

The Bureau will furnish all available information, concerning the character, paying habits, trade records and financial responsibility of individuals, firms and corporations. It will be patterned after the more than 65,000 credit bureaus in the United States and will operate in connection with them. Businessmen in the four-county area will be invited to join the cooperative bureau, which is a member of all national Credit Reporting Associations.

Two local persons will be employed, a manager and secretary, by the new firm, which is owned by Clyde VanHoose and Gordon Moore, owner of the Floyd County Credit Bureau.

Other chapter officers are Tommy Cole, vice-president, and Carolyn Aker's, corresponding secretary. Peggy Music, another "old" member of the chapter, took part in the induction.

CARD OF THANKS

We gratefully acknowledge the help and sympathy extended to us upon the passing of our loved one, Samuel Walker Castle. We thank all those who helped in any way—those who visited us, brought food, sent flowers; the ministers, the Revs. Ira McMillen and Harold W. Dorsey, for their comforting words; and the Moore Funeral Home for its kind and efficient service.

Williams Takes Post With Coal Bit Firm

DeGarmo DeRossette, production manager of the Coal Bit Company, this week announced the appointment of C. O. Williams, of Prestonsburg, as sales engineer for the company. Mr. Williams was formerly with Lonesome Pine Council, Boy Scouts of America, as district executive.

The Coal Bit Company, which was founded by W. R. Joy, is a manufacturer of tungsten-carbide-tipped coal cutting machine bits. Mr. Williams will be serving the company as sales engineer in Kentucky, West Virginia and Virginia.

BUYING AREA RUGS

"Area rugs"—smaller than room-size—are becoming very popular in today's homes, according to Marian Bartlett, University of Kentucky Extension specialist in home furnishings. They cost less to buy and are easier and less expensive to clean than room-size rugs; they also can be turned easily and often to distribute wear.

Uncle Jim Becomes Col. Clark, Sub!

Times Photo

James (Uncle Jim) Clark, 86, celebrated his birthday Monday at the home of his nephew, M. V. Clark, and Mrs. Clark on the Auxier road. It was a day of particular note for him for at the climax of the festive occasion he was presented with a commission as Kentucky Colonel by another nephew, Byron Nunmery, who acted for Gov. Bert T. Combs.

Back of the Colonelship is a bit of story. Uncle Jim, who has been voting all his life for men he believed would promote Eastern Kentucky, was a strong supporter of Combs. Following Combs' defeat on his first try for the governorship, Uncle Jim remained undaunted.

"I'm still for Bert Combs for Governor," he said, "and if Kentucky turns him down again I'll never vote another time."

Gov. Combs heard the story and between the governor and the two nephews the commission was arranged. Combs expressed his regret at not being able to attend.

Uncle Jim, as he is familiarly called by friends, has had a bit of public service himself. He was Justice of the Peace, 1910-1914, and again from 1934 to 1938. He also served several years as Floyd county treasurer.

Many of his years however have been spent in hotel-keeping in Prestonsburg. For 31 years he conducted a hostelry here, beginning in 1914 and ending in 1945. He retired 14 years ago. He lives alone now in a little white house near the Clark residence. He doesn't admit he needs attention, but Mr. and Mrs. Clark watch over him a bit.

He does his cooking, tends a garden and radios a lot. He doesn't like television. One reason he does his own cooking is that he likes to rise at 4:30 a.m., eat lunch sharply at 11 and have the day's-end meal at 4 in the afternoon. That's been his life schedule and he maintains it at four score and six.

Uncle Jim, a native of the Johns Creek section, is a son of Alex and Elizabeth Perry Clark. He has been married twice; his first wife, Lou Ratliff Clark, dying in 1902. Three children of this union are dead. He married Jeanette Spears Clark in 1904. She died 12 years ago. He and Jeanette had no children.

A red-letter day for him is when he comes to Prestonsburg where he began residence in 1912. Standing around a few preferred street corners he is always able to greet old friends.

To almost everybody he is Uncle Jim. "Colonel Jim," said Governor Combs.

aid to the department's maintenance division, the commissioner explained, particularly on oil-and-chip repair work on road surfaces.

"One of these trucks this size, loaded so as not to violate the load limit and hooked up to a spreader, can save a lot of back-and-forth trips as the repair crew moves down a highway."

Clements said normal-size trucks suffer when heavy loads are dumped into them from large power shovels.

"No cushion has yet been developed for a shovel—and when they open up, the load hits the truck hard," he said.

There are 62 power shovels operating throughout the state, he added.

Another use for large trucks, Clements said, would be in following ditching crews as they periodically clean out and dredge highway drainage ditches. Material from the ditching operations travels by belt loaders into the truck, and the larger trucks can reduce the number of dumping trips.

The future of the 34 used trucks was uncertain. Ford dealer, Thurston Cooke, when asked what would become of them, said "I can't eat them."

Two High School Pupils To Receive Homemakers Degree At Morehead

Beverly Millet and Brenda Stepp, Prestonsburg high school seniors, will receive the state homemakers' degree at the annual meeting at Morehead State College June 9 of the State Association of Future Homemakers of America.

They will be the only girls from the Big Sandy district to be so honored at the meeting. Their applications for the state degree were accepted April 14 when the degrees committee met here to review all such applications on file. The committee is composed of Miss Maurine Collins, Frankfort, assistant state F.H.A. adviser; Gloria Adams, chairman; Misses Hazel Hill and Betty Coffey, advisers to the chairman; Kay Prater, Della Frasure, Bonita Walters, Joan Justice, Frances Hackworth and Mrs. Naomi Risner, advisers.

Miss Millet is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Miller, of Prestonsburg. She has held offices in the Prestonsburg F.H.A. chapter as well as serving as song leader of the Big Sandy district F.H.A. She received her junior degree in 1957 and chapter degree in 1958.

Miss Stepp is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Stepp, of Cliff. She has also held offices in the Prestonsburg F.H.A. chapter and has been second vice-president of the Big Sandy district. She received her junior and chapter degree at the same time the degrees were conferred on Miss Miller.

In order to earn a state homemakers degree, the girls selected goals and had to make plans to reach them and also show evidence of growth as an individual, chapter member, home member, and a member of the school or community.

The winner and runner-up will receive all-expense-paid trips to the regional bee at Huntington, and the winner there will go to Washington, D. C., for the national contest and a chance at a $1,000 cash prize.

The University of Kentucky College of Agriculture will hold its Dairy Career Day on Thursday, April 28, the dairy science department said this week.

at Blockhouse Bottom, across the Big Sandy from East Point, where a maximum runway of 4,000 feet is possible.

The Council voted a contribution of $60 a month to pay the salary of a supervisor of Little League activities this year, and it directed the chief of police to move all junk cars from streets and roadsides throughout Prestonsburg. The police also were directed to erect at a reported dumping site, at the rear of Valley Motor Car Company, a sign warning that dumping there will be punishable by $25 fine.

Councilman May raised the discussion of protests he had received about young boys being permitted in the poolroom here. The owner, Councilman Cooley, said no sign had been placed inside the poolroom notifying minors that they are forbidden there without parental permission. City Attorney Hobson suggested that the police be called when minors enter the poolroom.

May also urged that the Graham Porter property and the property occupied by the Mountain Metal Company be annexed as a part of the city. Others suggested, "Wait."

When inquiry was made about the status of low-rent public housing, City Attorney Hobson, who is executive director of the proposed improvement, announced that a representative of the Housing Administration will be here from Atlanta, April 28. It also was stated a community survey is being made this week.

Frank Heinze, representing the Junior Chamber of Commerce, asked the Council's permission to renumber Prestonsburg homes. He explained that the Jaycees will do the work and that the cost to the home-owner will be 45 cents for the three numbers required. The Council reaction was favorable, and it was requested that an ordinance be drawn to implement the plan.

Heart Attack Claims S. W. (Walk) Castle, 72, At Prestonsburg Home

S. W. (Walk) Castle, 72 years old, well-known Prestonsburg man, died suddenly at his Second avenue home shortly before 5 p.m., Saturday. He was stricken by a heart attack while watching television and died before medical aid could reach him.

Mr. Castle was critically injured about three years ago while employed as a wireman by the Turner Elkhorn Coal Co., Drift, and had been slightly ill, a few days prior to his death, but apparently had recovered, and his death was wholly unexpected.

A son of Winfield and Nancy Chapman Castle, he was a native of Lawrence county. He had lived here about 15 years. Mr. Castle was a member of Irene Cole Memorial Baptist Church. Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Nizie Miller Castle, one son, Ira Castle, of Prestonsburg, and a sister, Mrs. Vadie Cochran, Holden, W. Va.

Funeral rites were conducted Tuesday afternoon from Irene Cole Memorial Baptist Church, the pastor, the Rev. Ira McMillen, officiating, assisted by the Rev. Harold W. Dorsey, pastor of First Methodist Church here. Burial was made in Davidson Memorial Gardens at Ivel under direction of the Moore Funeral Home.

Pallbearers were Bob Francis, Kilmer Combs, Dr. Edward B. Leslie, Homer Wright, James Clark, Jr., J. B. Clarke, William Arrowood, Norman Allen.

Music Notes
(An Editorial — No. 5 in a Series)

If a magic wand were handed you and you could have for Floyd county whatever you wished, what would it be?

Good roads? Full employment? The best in human government?

Any of these would be hard not to wish for, still harder to refuse. But, thinking not only of the present but the future, there is something else that well might take precedence over all these other things.

That something else is the spirit of goodwill, of cooperation and unselfishness among our people. That would mean that we all would be working together for good things, forgetting our petty prejudices and thinking not so much of ourselves but more of Floyd county as a whole and what is good for it.

Get that spirit, and roads and schools and the other good things will naturally follow.

man we know of who has a little farm of about 35 acres, and who digs out of that farm a good living. Sweets some, but he's living, man!

If you wonder what he's so busy at, read what he says:

"We are working all we can through this pretty April weather and have a good start. We have set out some apple trees, pears, English walnuts, chestnuts, sweet cherries and hickories. Have planted one-half bushel walnuts, set out some gooseberries, tame raspberries and have over 1,000 strawberries in the postoffice. Have the ground ready to set them tomorrow. Have seeded one-half bushel potatoes, planted two 100-pound bags of potatoes, two gallons of onion sets, peas, parsnips, turnips. Two lettuce beds are now up. I have got 10 gallons of spray to sprinkle on the bugs' tails. I made a bee gum. We have three bee trees to cut.

"We have six hens sitting, our cow is fresh and we have had two messes of fish. We are working all we can."

TAKE HEED, YE FISHERS!

This column seldom, if ever, publishes verse. Not that we have an aversion to poetry, no; it's because we have an aversion to would-be poets. But now comes a time when we break our no-poetry rule. Read on, and you'll understand why.

Our friend, Cloyd Johnson, returned from Dewey Lake, empty-handed, recently. There was fire in his eyes but it wasn't the "divine fire" of the poet, nor was his passion the "fine frenzy" traditionally ascribed to those who climb the Parnassian heights. He was just hot under the collar.

When I found what he wrote I happened for the same reason to be hot under the collar, too, and so he and I together are telling the world, even if we do make Longfellow wish he had never mentioned Hiawatha, Nokomis, et al.

We dip into Mr. Johnson's opus, here and there:

On the shores of Jenny Wiley, Clear and sparkling Jenny Wiley, Lived a brave and bold outdoorsman Of the name of Marcus Trail.

And each morning he would get up At the rising of the sun-ball And would throw a hook into The waters of the lake, Of the lake called Jenny Wiley.

But all day his hook stayed empty, Yea, his floater never wiggled; Never wiggled on the waters Of the lake called Jenny Wiley.

So one day in awesome anger, In a black and evil passion, He lit a stick of dynamite And threw it into the lake— Poor, maligned Jenny Wiley!

"Gurgle, gurgle," said the bluegills, "I am done for," said the catfish. But the mud-carp only quivered and floated to the surface.

(Here we skip the sad part of this epic which tells of poor Marcus Trail getting collared by the game warden and being hauled off to the local bastille, and pass on to the conclusion.)

So take heed, all you fishers, All you poor and simple fishers: Buy your fish at the market, At the cool and shiny market, And drop never baited hook in the waters, In the waters of the lake, Of the lake called Jenny Wiley, Clear and sparkling Jenny Wiley.

HEART DISEASE

Your way of life has much to do with your chances of having heart trouble, according to Ralph Ramsey, University of Kentucky Extension rural sociologist. Quoting a report from the Ohio Agricultural Experiment Station, he says that heart disease seems to be closely related to economic and social stress.

The defendant denied that he had plotted to burn the radio station or that he had offered Meade money. His former employer, May, also testified he at no time gave Meade money.

The defense, represented by the law firm of Tackett & Tackett, introduced as evidence two statements written in Meade's hand, terming the matter a plot by WDOC, or its agent, to put station WPRT in a bad light.

Meade admitted writing the statements and to swearing to their veracity, but claimed that he was drinking at the time. Frank H. Layne, at whose office the statements were signed, and the defendant Stephens testified Meade was not drinking.

Meade was convicted at an earlier court term of the arson attempt but the verdict was set aside on the grounds that he was not represented by counsel in a felony case.

Wallen contended that the accusation made against him by his daughter, who is 15 and who is the mother of a child now about two years old, grew out of malice fanned by his mother-in-law. He maintained his innocence, contending that the girl had been sexually involved with boys in the neighborhood.

His daughter testified she had never had sexual relations with any person other than her father, that these relations began when she was about 12 years old, and that he was the father of her baby.

The murder trial of Bennie Blackburn, charged with the slaying of Bill Buck Baker, was continued till Sept. 19. Mrs. Mary Allen, of Wayland, is slated for trial April 29 on a charge of slaying McKinley Parrigan.

Denver Hall was fined $500 last Thursday upon his conviction on a charge of rape. One-year pen terms were imposed on Frank Moore and Curtis Mullins who entered pleas of guilty. They were accused of knowingly receiving stolen property.

Trial of Alfred Tackett on a child desertion charge was continued till September on the condition that he pay the prosecuting witness $32 a month. The same charge against William S. Briggs was dismissed on the Commonwealth's Attorney's statement that defendant is mentally ill. The $1,000 bonds of Naner Hall and Charlie Fyffe, charged with grand larceny, were forfeited when they failed to appear for trial. Also continued till the September term were trials of George Newsom, charged with knowingly receiving stolen property, and Clyde Justice, who was named in a breaking and entering indictment.

James C. Cooley, 78, Succumbs At Estill; Funeral Held Sunday

James Cleveland Cooley, 78, of Estill, succumbed at home Thursday of last week to cancer following an illness of three weeks. He was a retired miner.

Mr. Cooley was a son of the late John Cooley and the husband of Bess Smith Cooley, who survives. Surviving is a daughter, Mrs. Clinton Cox, Hamilton, Ohio. Surviving also are the following step-sons and step-daughters: Jim Smith, Shelby, Ohio, Rudell Wicker, of David, Melvin and Jimmy Wicker, Mrs. John Garrett and Mrs. Madeline Eblin, all of Dayton, Ohio.

Funeral rites were conducted Sunday at 2 p.m. from the Estill Church of God, the Revs. John Ramey, Green Allen and Moses Kitchen officiating. Burial was made in the Tom Martin cemetery under the direction of Turner-Ryan Funeral Home.

Some recipes call for cooked never dried chicken. Yield or cooked meat varies with the size of the bird; larger chickens give a larger proportion of meat to bone. As a rule, one pound of ready-to-cook chicken will yield about 2/3 cup cooked.

DISTRICT FEDERATION MEET

Floyd County Homemakers will be hostess to the District Homemakers Federation meeting April 26. Homemakers will be attending from Pike, Morgan, Johnson, Lawrence and Floyd counties.

The meeting will begin at 10 a.m. (Registration 9:30 a.m.) at the Arnold Avenue Church of Christ in Prestonsburg.

Speakers for the occasion will be Mrs. Lois Boyle, a former model and presently a Louisville minister's wife, and Mrs. Harris, state president of Homemakers Federation.

Other activities for the day will include lunch, entertainment and election of officers for next year.

A good program has been planned and we think you will enjoy attending. We hope that as many Floyd county homemakers as possible will be able to attend.

COUNTY RALLY

The Floyd County 4-H Rally Day will be held Friday, April 22, in the Prestonsburg high school building. The program will start at 9:30 a.m. and registration will be at 9:00.

Events planned for the day includes contest in speeches and demonstrations, style revue, judging projects in clothing, foods, woodwork and electricity, and the Kentucky Power Company achievement awards to the Maytown and Wheelwright 5th grade clubs.

All club members, leaders and parents are invited to attend Rally Day.

SEARS STRAWBERRY PROJECT

Twenty-five 4-H club members received strawberry plants and fertilizer through the Sears Roebuck Foundation project last week. Each of these club members received 1,000 strawberry plants and 250 pounds of fertilizer.

LIVESTOCK IMPROVEMENT ASSOCIATION

The deadline for joining the Floyd County Livestock Improvement Association is May 1. At this time, the State Directory will go to the printers. All members will receive a copy of the directory, and a year's subscription to Kentucky Farmers. The directory provides a good way of advertising breeding stock, and is a good source of information when looking for breeding stock.

A membership cost $3 a year, with one dollar remaining in the county association and two dollars for the State Association.

Anyone interested in becoming a member can send a check to any of the officers—Claude Allen, president; and J. L. Lafferty, Sr., treasurer.

The county association is sponsoring a beef cattle and pasture tour on May 19. This is only one of several projects the county association is promoting to improve livestock in the county. The next meeting of the Association will be held Friday, April 15, at the county courthouse, starting at 7:30 p.m. Anyone interested is invited to attend.

To the Taxpayers of Martin:

History Society Delays Pioneer Silversmith Anvil

The Kentucky Historical Society has on display in the Old State House here one of the two anvils in existence that were used by early Kentucky silversmiths.

The anvil was used by Thomas Gray, one of the outstanding silversmiths of Lexington, and many fine pieces of his silver in the form of pitchers, cups, spoons and other ware are found in many homes throughout the Bluegrass.

During the cholera plague of the 1830's many residents of Lexington left for the Kentucky mountains. Such was the experience of Thomas Gray and his wife. They settled on the Kentucky River near the present site of Grays Bend in Lee county. The Grays took two children who had been orphaned by the plague, and the descendants still reside near the post office of Primrose, Ky.

The anvil on which Gray labored as a silversmith was loaned to the historical society by the Rev. J. H. Hieronymus. According to Henry Harned, president of the society, this outstanding citizen, poet and minister of Lee and surrounding counties remembered Gray in his old age as a fine and respected gentleman in his community. Rev. Hieronymus died recently at 90.

Harned points out that the society "is fortunate in having many interesting exhibits of the tools used by our pioneers, most of which have been placed with the society for safe-keeping and for preserving the memory of our ancestors for future generations to study and admire."

The society is operating under a new charter and a new policy of expanded membership and is inviting more historically minded Kentuckians to join its rolls.

At Harrodsburg on U.S. 68 is Pioneer Memorial State Park where an authentic replica of Old Fort Harrold has been erected. In the log stockade are numerous cabins furnished in true pioneer style.

ECONOMY PROVED IN MOBILGAS RUN!

CORVAIR BY CHEVROLET DRIVE IT! GET OUR DEAL!!!!

A pair of Corvairs recently recorded 27.03 and 26.21 miles per gallon in the 2,061.4-mile Mobilgas Economy Run. That's certified proof that Corvair skimps on gas costs. It saves other ways, too. Corvair is the only U. S. compact car that never needs antifreeze or costly radiator repairs. Come in and drive the compact car that outdoes them all.

Things Corvair gives you that America's other compact cars can't:

Practically flat floor . . . real foot room for the man in the middle. Fold-down rear seat gives 17.6 cu. ft. of extra storage space. Four-wheel independent suspension for a smoother, flatter ride.

Rear-engine traction . . . that comes with the engine's weight bearing down on the rear wheels.

You probably realize already that the mileage figures Corvairs recorded in the Mobilgas Run are higher than the average driver can expect. But because the cars met every kind of driving condition—rugged mountain grades, long country straightaways, congested city traffic—those mileage figures prove Corvair's inherent ability to save. Operating costs take a nose dive the day you take delivery of a Corvair.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank our friends and relatives for their help and sympathy upon the death of our wife and mother, Mrs. Etta McCarty. To those who sent flowers or helped us in any way we are grateful. We would especially thank the ministers for their comforting words.

THE LESTER AND McCARTY FAMILIES

Pineville, the seat of Bell county, was the gateway to the new West and Kentucky's eastern terminus of the famous Wilderness Trail.

DAVID

NEW OFFICERS INSTALLED

The David Women's Club held its annual banquet and installation of officers, April 9, at the David club-house. Mrs. Ora Howard, Mrs. Raymond Eradbury, Mrs. Dawson Bussey, and Mrs. Harry Hager were hostesses. The house was decorated with spring flowers.

Mrs. R. V. May, of Prestonsburg, governor of the Seventh district, installed officers in a candlelight ceremony. The new officers for the year are:

President, Mrs. Courtland Dahlin; First vice-president, Mrs. Bill Mullins; Second vice-president, Mrs. Virginia Harmon; recording secretary, Mrs. Clyde Storey; correspondence secretary, Mrs. Lucille Cavins; treasurer, Mrs. Lillie Mae Price.

The next meeting will be held May 7 at the home of Mrs. Royce Mayo.

Wickliffe, seat of government for Ballard county, is near the site of Fort Jefferson, George Rogers Clark's outpost of western civilization, established in 1780.

Mammoth Cave's Geological Story Of Wide Interest

Most people know Mammoth Cave only as one of Kentucky's chief tourist attractions, but its geological story is of unique interest.

It has required millions of years to create the maze of corridors that makes up the extensive cave system. More than 150 miles of charted avenues hold the secret of the geological ages.

Some 240,000,000 years ago, Kentucky was submerged by a shallow Mississippian Sea. In the ensuing millions of years, the waters slowly receded from the continent as an uplifting of the land pushed southward to the Gulf of Mexico. As this movement progressed, the forces of erosion increased the attack upon the newly exposed land. Rainwater soaking into the ground dissolved large masses of limestone, creating sink-holes on the surfaces and carving out a network of channels underground.

As the subterranean drainage increased, the channels grew larger. The level of the cavern streams was controlled by the level of the surface waters, of which the major stream is Green River. As the level of Green River became lower, the underground water dissolved more limestone, forming new crevices in seeking lower levels. This process was repeated five successive times until now Echo River follows its course on the fifth and lowest level of the cave, about 360 feet underground.

The process of carving out barren rooms and corridors is the first stage of cave formation. The second stage occurs when the water with calcium carbonate in solution slowly seeps from the ceiling of the cave. Stalactites form on the ceiling and grow downward as the water evaporates. When the water flows faster than it can evaporate the water drops to the floor forming stalagmites, which build upward. It is estimated the process requires 100 years to form a cubic inch of the cave onyx. The multicolored formations are caused by varied minerals in the limestone.

HONOR STUDENTS NAMED AT MARTIN HIGH BANQUET

Martin high school was host to its honor students at an Honor Banquet last Thursday evening.

Dr. L. C. McCloud, former graduate of the school, admonished the students to gain as many facts as possible during their sojourn at Martin high, so that they will, in return, be able to live with the rest of the world.

Mrs. Ruth Reynolds presented a gold medal to the student being most cooperative and showing the best musical talent. This award went to Bobby Blackburn, freshman.

Miss Virginia Sue McDavid, junior, was presented the medal for best-all-around history student by Leo Watts, and Paul Hager presented the Woodman of the World medal (history) to Miss Sandra Moore, senior.

The outstanding science student was Miss Betty Jean Slone, junior, and a gold medal was presented her by Eugene Hager, of the Science department.

Gold medals for being outstanding students in typewriting, book-keeping and shorthand were presented to Miss Charlene Davis, senior, Miss Janice Parsons, senior, and Miss Reba Hammonds, junior, by Mrs. Frances Brackett, of the Commerce department.

Miss Nancy Dingus, of the Home Economics department, presented Miss Pauline Campbell, senior, with the Home Maker of the Year Award, and Miss Ada Maggard, freshman, with the Home Economics I Award.

The Citizenship Award was made to the student chosen by the entire school faculty on the basis of honesty, integrity, initiative, cooperation, and being an outstanding student. The award went to Miss Sandra Sue Moore, a senior, and was presented to her by James W. Salisbury, principal.

A mathematics award was presented to Jimmy Martin Hammond, sophomore, for outstanding achievement by James O. Dingus, of the Mathematics department.

H. H. Butcher, 73, Dies Following Long Illness; Was Johnson-Co. Native

H. H. Butcher, 73, of Bypro, died at home April 6 of a lingering illness. He was a native of Johnson county and was the father of former State Representative Ann B. Hall, of Wheelwright. He was a retired miner.

Mr. Butcher was a son of Frank and Mary Pery Butcher and was married to Martha Blankenship Butcher, who survives. Besides Mrs. Hall, surviving sons and daughters are Willard Butcher, Sam Butcher, and Mrs. Goldie Jones, all of Detroit, Mich.; H. H. Butcher, Jr., and Mrs. Edna Johnson, both of Columbus, Ohio; Jeff Butcher, Boom's Camp, Ky.; Kenneth Butcher, Robert Butcher and Miss Georgette Butcher, Mrs. Vonda Bates, and Mrs. June Hall, all of Bypro; Mrs. Bobby Bates, Jellico, Tenn.; and Mrs. Gypsy Brock, Plant City, Fla. Brothers and sisters surviving are John Butcher and Mrs. Lucy Parker, both of Morehead; George Butcher, Paintsville; Frank Butcher, Leonard Butcher, Walter Butcher, Mrs. Amanda Gross, Mrs. Nancy Caudill and Mrs. Mary Kalup, all of Cincinnati, Ohio.

Funeral rites were conducted at 1 p.m. Saturday, April 9, from the Wheelwright First Baptist Church, the Rev. John Lester officiating. Burial was made in the Osborne cemetery at Bypro under the direction of Merion & Call Funeral Home.

A Pictorial Review of East Kentucky

(No. 89 in a Series)

PICTURE OF PAINTSVILLE, KENTUCKY, TAKEN IN 1899

The modern name of Paintsville first appears in 1826 when it was mentioned in Floyd county records as a postoffice. It was organized as a town in 1834. The actual founder was the Rev. Henry Dixon, of North Carolina, many years earlier. Previous to the date Dixon came to the Big Sandy the present site of Paintsville was called Paint Lick Station. For many decades before the establishment of Paint Lick Station the Indians had camped and held religious ceremonies at the mouth of Paint Creek. The site held a peculiar fascination for the redskins.

Johnson county was formed Feb. 23, 1843, by taking territory of Floyd, Lawrence and Morgan counties. According to a Johnson county order book the first justices met April 1, 1843, at the home of James Franklin and organized the county. It was named for Richard M. Johnson, hero of the War of 1812 and vice-president of the United States.

The First National Bank presents these pictures of our region's past as a bit of its friendly service with the hope they will contribute to your understanding of our historic heritage.

SPORTS CHATTER

By GORDON MOORE

Floyd county's nine high school basketball coaches have unanimously voted to return the annual pre-season basketball tournament to the Prestonsburg gymnasium. The 14th annual affair will be held November 29 through December 23. The mentors voted to revive the consolation game.

The tournament was held in Wheelwright last season, and the host Trojans won the event.

Drawings for the district baseball tournament have been conducted and favored Wheelwright drew in the lower bracket.

In the first game, Tuesday, May 10, at 12:00 noon, Martin will meet McDowell, and Prestonsburg will meet the winner at 12:00 noon, on Wednesday. These are upper bracket games.

In the lower round, Wheelwright will play Auxier at 3 p.m. on May 10, and Betsy Layne will clash with the victor on May 11 at 3 p.m. The finals will be played at 1:30 p.m., May 12.

Umpires named for the three-day affair are Ray Heinisch, Maytown coach, John Campbell, Jr., Garrett coach, and Gene Frasure, Wayland coach. In case of rain, play will be delayed one day.

The site of the tournament will probably be named this Friday at the Kentucky Education Association meeting in Louisville.

Last week's scores: McDowell 8-9, Martin 0-3; Paintsville 3, Martin 2 in nine innings; Martin 8-16, Betsy Layne 2-0.

McDowell	4	0
Martin	4	3
Prestonsburg	0	2
Betsy Layne	0	4

David Butler, former Paintsville high school golf star who paced his team to the state high school championship two seasons ago, is the No. 1 golfer on the University of Kentucky golf team. The U. K. sophomore fired a 65 for a seven under par course record as he led his team over Vanderbilt, 15-12, last Friday on the Nashville Country Club course.

The Eastern Kentucky high school regional golf meet will be held on the Paintsville Country Club course, May 18. Participants from these schools are expected to enter: Ashland, Boyd County, Hazard, Martin, Paintsville, Pikeville, Betsy Layne, Prestonsburg and Wheelwright.

Grayson will be the site of the high school regional baseball meet, May 25 and 26, and winners of these districts will vie for the right to enter the state baseball tournament in Lexington, June 8-9; Ashland, McKeel, Mt. Sterling, Grayson, Paintsville and Floyd county.

LINDANE IS RECOMMENDED

Lindane, one of nine materials tried last growing season on commercial pickle crops will be recommended this year by the University of Kentucky Experiment Station's entomology department.

J. G. Rodriguez, researcher, said plot yields where a one per cent Lindane dust was used were excellent and that insect control was "outstanding." Insects were the cucumber beetle, stinkbugs, aphids and pickle-worms. The latter pest was not present last season in large quantity, Rodriguez said.

Several insects will be attacking young plants in tobacco beds in the near future. Prompt treatment can save beds from serious damage.

AROUND FLOYD COUNTY

By Quentin Allen

When the worm comes to the surface and Old Sol starts burning bright, it also comes the time to work the kinks out of your joints and get the golf clubs out.

Perhaps you will take the advice of one of our physicians who, when asked about when he would play his first round, said:

"First round? Why, I'm not going to make a fool out of myself. I'm going to practice on the driving range with the club pro before I'll even step out, on that course, Sonny, you'll play a better game if you get your golfing muscles in shape before you start playing."

Wiser words have not been spoken. With that advice in mind, I have followed the wise physician's advice. However, since I am only a poor tradesman, I have been doing my practicing in the back bedroom, minus golf clubs.

One sweaty evening, when I had just dropped Sam Snead's booklet on "How to Execute a Backswing" my wife happened to notice the particular twist of my body.

She said:

"In that position, you look like a standing cripple."

At that moment I had completed my backswing, my hips twisted, my head peering crazily over my left shoulder, my left foot, daintily turned back, and my left arm straight as a rod.

Being an amiable type, I ended the interview with a friendly smack on the cheek. But she retaliated and bit my hand. Now I can't play golf—with a crippled hand.

Not really—but I could read an encyclopedia on golf and, sure as my name isn't Throckmorton Thistlemark, I couldn't do one bit better.

I do think that folks with normal co-ordination and those possessing leisure time will find golf a fascinating game.

If I had the time, here's what I would do to enjoy the game. I would join a club, first. If you're going to play golf, it's cheaper if you join a club, such as the Beaver Valley Golf Course or the Paintsville Country Club.

Then I would hire myself to the club pro and the driving range. I would take three or four lessons and spend my nephew's last bit of energy chasing golf balls. I would swing past blisters and callouses until I could hit, with some degree of confidence, a golf ball.

Then—and only then—would I venture out on the course. With a working knowledge of the clubs, the greenhorn would then find that he would escape, unlike other types, the ignominy of lost balls (which are expensive), missing the ball (in front of spectators, yet), the enjoyment of playing a round of golf in half the strokes the other greenhorn is taking, and a less exhausting game (since you won't be spending half of your time in the weeds and zigzagging over the entire course.)

To the competitor, who can't stand a little pellet beating him, golfing is a fine game.

There are unfortunately those who beat, swat, club, strike, smite and batter without too much success. With great, cow-like tears in my eyes, I admit I am one of those. Croquet, anyone?

Paul Phillip Hughes, former Prestonsburg star athlete, and Billy Cleo Hale, a Purple Flash basketball two years back, are playing golf for Transylvania College and Georgetown College, respectively.

Paul has that loose, effortless swing of a Cary Middlecoff and Billy Cleo resembles "Bantam" Ben Hogan.

Don't know which sport gets me the maddest!

Fishing or golfing.

You can lose a six-pound bass and, at the moment, you'd swear you'd trade your right hand for the bass.

Slice a golf ball into a lake or the high weeds, and, brother, it's war with yourself and the golf club!

That isn't the way to look at it. You play for the sport, the relaxing quality of fishing and golfing. Easy to say, hard to do.

With Morehead Choir

Betty Caudill, of Prestonsburg, is one of 44 Morehead State College students who will tour with the Morehead concert choir and brass choir on April 14 and 15.

Performances will be given in Prestonsburg and Paintsville on April 14 and in Ashland on April 15.

Miss Caudill is a junior at Morehead, with an area of concentration in music. She is active in a number of music activities.

From the observation point at General Butler State Park visitors may enjoy viewing miles and miles of the scenic Ohio River valley near Carrollton.

Spurlock and Conn Recognized by Company

Richard Spurlock, of Prestonsburg, and Harold L. Conn, of Pikeville, will attend a three-day life insurance seminar at New Orleans, La., April 24 through 27, at the personal invitation of W. E. Bixby, president of Kansas City Life Insurance Company.

Sponsored by Kansas City Life, the meeting is the 16th in a series attended annually by the insurance firm's outstanding agents. Selection of an agent to attend the seminar is considered a mark of recognition for notable achievements in the life insurance business. Of the company's more than 2,000 agents in 41 states and the District of Columbia, approximately 10 per cent qualify for this recognition.

Agents attending the meetings are made members of the company's President's Club.

PRINCETON SOYBEAN TEST

Dorman soybeans, a medium maturity variety, and not one of those recommended for Kentucky use by the University of Kentucky Experiment Station, was top yielder in a 1959 performance test at the Princeton Experiment Substation.

The state has made a tentative property tax assessment of $233,922,023 on distilled spirits in Kentucky bonded warehouses as of January 1. Last year's assessment totaled $227,175,732.

4-H WEEK EVENTS

Several events formerly held at the annual state 4-H Week at the University in June have been shifted to the State Fair this year.

George Corder, state 4-H Club chairman, said the shifted events are the boys' and girls' individual and team demonstrations, and the public speaking events. These will join the soils-judging and water management divisions, moved to State Fair in 1959.

MISS VERNON BECOMES BRIDE OF JAMES CLINE, OF AUXIER

The Pikeville Methodist Church was the scene of a wedding which united Miss Frances Boyer Vernon and James Evan Cline in marriage. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Frank A. Vernon, of Pikeville, and the late Dr. Vernon. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James B. Cline, of Auxier.

The impressive double-ring ceremony was performed Thursday, March 31, at 7 o'clock p.m. by the Rev. Dr. A. R. Perkins, pastor of the church. The church was decorated with a row of potted Easter lilies circling the altar stage, potted emerald palms in the background and twin seven-branched white candelabra flanking each side of the white satin-covered kneeling bench and holding lighted white tapers. White satin streamers tied with bouffant bows marked the family pews and the bridal aisle and altar floor were all carpeted in white.

Traditional nuptial music was furnished by Mrs. Robert Perry Call, at the organ and Miss Patricia Preston, vocalist, who sang, "If There Were Only You," and "Because," preceding the ceremony. Mrs. Call also played the processional and recessional wedding marches.

The bride, escorted to the altar by her cousin, Lyon B. Hutchinson, Jr., and given in marriage by her mother, wore a gown of flower white taffeta and lace, designed with a bodice of taffeta with short sleeves of jeweled lace and long lace mitts forming points over the wrists. Sequins and crystals were sprinkled through the flower embroidered square yoke of lace appliques. The deep V of the fitted bodice was joined to an aisle-wide skirt, which was inset with panels of applied lace that extended into a chapel train. The fingertip veil of bridal illusion was secured to a scroll-like designed bandeau of lace, jewels and sequins. She carried a white Bible mounted with a white orchid from which cascaded white satin streamers and lilies-of-the-valley.

Miss Mollie Blackburn was maid-of-honor. She wore a gown of yellow and white silk organza with an Empire waistline covered by a yellow cummerbund. The bodice was fashioned with a square neckline and full puffed sleeves. Her headband was a yellow bandeau covered with roses and white leaves.

Miss Martha Vernon, sister of the bride, and Miss Ruth Ann Chaney were bridesmaids. Their gowns were styled identically to that of the honor attendant except that they were pale blue in color instead of yellow.

Miss Anne Vernon was her sister's junior bridesmaid. She wore a white dress of a design similar to the bridesmaids with a wide yellow cummerbund forming a single bow in the back. Her headband was a yellow bandeau trimmed with spring flowers. All attendants carried natural straw arm baskets filled with spring flowers.

Little Miss Theresa Venters was flower girl, and Master Stevie Hutchinson, cousin of the bride, was ring-bearer. The duties of best man were performed by Redford Damron; ushers were Bill McCoy and Kenneth Childers.

Mrs. Vernon chose for her daughter's wedding a dress of blue organza and a hat designed with blue flowers; her shoulder corsage was of orchids. The bridegroom's mother wore a navy suit trimmed in white; accessories included a small navy hat. Her shoulder corsage was also of orchids.

Immediately following the ceremony, Dr. and Mrs. William C. Gose entertained with a reception at their home in the Bowles Addition for the bridal party.

Those assisting at the reception included Mrs. R. H. Bobbitt, Mrs. F. Pierce Keese, Mrs. Walter R. Wells, Miss Irene Stratton, Miss Beverly Wells, Miss Bonnie Wells, Miss Edith Justice, Miss Carole Wright, Miss Pam Venters and Miss Patty Dee Pauley.

Out-of-town guests included Mrs. Ora Busse, of Prestonsburg, Mr. and Mrs. Lyon B. Hutchinson, Jr., and daughter, Lyanne, of Glasgow, Ky., and Mr. and Mrs. Hebert Zachari, of Louisville.

Mr. and Mrs. Cline are making their home at 238 High street. The bride is a senior at Pikeville high school where she is secretary of the Pep Club and editor of the annual. She is also attending Pikeville College part time.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Pikeville College and is a teacher of English at Phelps high school.

District Homemakers To Hear Mrs. Boyle

Mrs. Lois Boyle, of Louisville, will address the District Federation Homemakers here next Tuesday at the Arnold Avenue Church of Christ. Mrs. Boyle will speak on "Charm is a Many Splendored Thing" at 10 a.m.

Mrs. Lawrence Newsome, of Pike county, who is director of District 5B, will preside at the meeting here.

Mrs. Boyle, who grew up in the mid-West, teaches classes and gives talks to many women in and around Louisville, encouraging them to make the most of their personalities and appearances. Many of her classes are for ministers' wives.

Mrs. Boyle's husband, who is a minister, is working toward his doctor's degree at a Louisville seminary and is also executive chaplain at the Louisville Medical Center.

The state president of the Kentucky Federation of Homemakers, Mrs. Carl Evans, of Ballard county, will talk about building a strong homemakers federation, as part of the morning program.

Also scheduled in the morning is a presentation on "1890-1960" by Miss Alda Hennig, acting chairman of Home Economics Extension programs, University of Kentucky. Miss Hennig will introduce a special speaker to discuss today's needs for changes in Kentucky's Constitution, which was written in 1890.

Reports on Federation Activities of Homemakers Clubs in the 5B district will be given by district membership, reading, citizenship and publicity chairmen. New district officers also will be elected.

Flower Show To Honor Mothers in 2-Day Event

The Lackey-Garrett-Wayland Woman's Club is sponsoring a spring flower show, May 7-8. The show will be open Saturday afternoon, May 7, from 2 till 8, and on Sunday from 10:00 a.m. till 5:00 p.m.

The flower show is planned to honor mothers on Mothers' Day. The show will be at Wayland in the Methodist Church basement. Dinner will be served Sunday (Mothers' Day) in the Wayland Clubhouse.

Theme of the show will be "Spring Awakening," and the artistic division will have as its theme, "Mothers' Day—Her Problems in Flower Arranging." The show is county wide, open to the public. The idea is to treat mother to dinner and a flower show on Mothers' Day.

Chemical production facilities costing more than 74 million dollars will be built in Kentucky during 1960-61, a nationwide survey by the Manufacturing Chemist Association shows.

WEST PRESTONSBURG

OBSERVES 90th BIRTHDAY
The family of Mrs. Queen Arnett joined her on her 90th birthday, Easter Sunday, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Edgar Fitzpatrick, of West Prestonsburg. Among those present were: Boone Arnett, Portsmouth, Ohio; J. F. Arnett, Franklin Furnace, Ohio; Mort Arnett, of David; Mrs. Josie Allen, Goldia, Ky.; Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Hicks and daughter Pamela, Harrison, O.; and Mr. and Mrs. Edgel Hicks, of Serbia, Indiana. Throughout the afternoon and early evening her grandchildren called on her. She received many beautiful and useful gifts.

HAMILTON PARTICIPATES

Fort Hood, Texas—Army Specialist Five Tolby Hamilton, son of K. F. Hamilton, Beaver, Ky., is participating with other personnel from the 1st Armored Division, Combat Command A, in Exercise Cimarron Drive at Fort Hood, Texas. The exercise is scheduled to end April 13.

A tank gunner in Company B of the division's 13th Cavalry at the fort, Specialist Hamilton entered the Army in 1949.

His wife, Anna, lives in Killeen, Texas.

Roast turkey has been gaining in popularity as an Easter favorite. Small turkeys are not as plentiful as the large, 16-24 pound birds in frozen holdings. The yield of meat from the large birds is greater, proportionately, than from the small ones.

Miss Martin Is Honored As Outstanding Freshman

Dorothy Gay Martin, of Martin, freshman at the University of Kentucky, was honored recently at the "Star of the Night" program given annually for outstanding college women. She was tapped for membership in CWENS, a national honorary organization for those attaining an overall scholastic standing of 3.3 or above and for outstanding leadership on the campus.

Miss Martin, who will be initiated into the society May 5, was valedictorian of the 1959 Martin high school graduating class. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Martin, of Martin.

Look for these features when buying fresh or frozen hens: A clean skin, free from pinfeathers, to save time in preparation for cooking; and a well-distributed layer of fat under the skin which gives a yellow cast, meaning good flavor and juiciness.

RESOLUTION

A RESOLUTION OF THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF PRESTONSBURG, KENTUCKY, RELATIVE TO A RE-APPRAISAL OF THE REAL ESTATE LOCATED IN THE CITY OF PRESTONSBURG, KENTUCKY, BY THE DEPARTMENT OF REVENUE, FRANKFORT, KENTUCKY.

WHEREAS, a representative of the Department of Revenue appeared before the City Council of the City of Prestonsburg, Kentucky, on April 11, 1960, and stated to the Council that for four thousand ($4,000.00) dollars, paid to it, it would be willing to re-appraise all of the real estate located in the City of Prestonsburg, Kentucky, and

WHEREAS, The City Council has appointed a tax assessor to assess all of said real estate and has appointed a board of supervisors, whose duty it will be to equalize the said tax assess.

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF PRESTONSBURG, KENTUCKY, AS FOLLOWS:

1. That while the City Council of the City of Prestonsburg, Kentucky appreciates the visit made to it by the representative of the Department of Revenue, it does not need the services of the Department of Revenue and now officially rejects the contract referred to by said representative of the Department of Revenue at the meeting of the City Council of the City of Prestonsburg, Kentucky, held on April 11, 1960.
2. That the City Council does not have the necessary funds to pay for said re-appraisal.
3. That this Council would get no benefit at all from said re-appraisal as any increase in taxes would not be effective until the taxable year of 1962.
4. That the City Council of the City of Prestonsburg, Kentucky, now has employed a competent tax assessor and three (3) Prestonsburg citizens as members of the Board of Supervisors whose duty it will be to assess the real estate for taxation and to equalize said taxes and it is wholly unnecessary to employ someone else to do this work when it can be done by its own local citizens.
5. That the same contract has been rejected by at least two other council of the City and no reason has been advanced why the present council should take a different position.
6. That the City Clerk is
