Telephone Talk

BYRON SIMPSON Your Telephone Manager

TRUE STORY-In Florida recently, two men and a woman got a real taste of salt water when their small fishing boat capsized. One man remained with the boat while the other man and the woman swam ashore. On shore, they looked about frantically for some way to contact the Coast Guard. Finally, they spied an outdoor phone booth . . . borrowed a dime from a passerby . . . and in no time had summoned the Coast Guard to the rescue. Said the woman afterwards: "You'll never know what a joyous sight that telephone was!"

ODE TO LONG DISTANCE: Visit them when you can; Call them when you can't! The cost is small wherever you call.

OUTDOOR LIVING is becoming a real way-of-life here in the South, especially during these soft summer nights. And to make it even more pleasant . . . how about an extension phone for your patio? Wherever your patio is located, we can put a phone there . . . either the portable or the permanent type. The cost is small, the convenience great. For details, just call our business office, or ask any telephone serviceman.

WORD-OF-THE-WEEK DEPARTMENT: Its good to believe in yourself, but don't be too easily convinced!

WOLLEY SEGAP AGAIN! Seems that all during vacation season, we hear new stories of the Yellow Pages in action—helping someone in a strange town find a seafood restaurant . . . or an all-night bowling alley . . . or a drug store. Whenever you're away from home, for whatever you need—remember to

CHALLENGE ACCEPTED

Tom Turner, a cousin of mine now living in Ohio, boasted, the other day, that he could beat me a game of marbles, and that reminded me that he and I, one summer, probably staged the longest non-stop marble game in these parts. There was some farming going on, thereabouts, but we did not get engaged in same. We were too busy, otherwise. You know, this game of Buy-In requires a lot of concentration, and we couldn't be bothered with humdrum maters such as farming.

If time doesn't catch up with one or both of us, we will, one day, renew that game which was started 40-odd years ago. The overalls will have to be several sizes larger in girth, and the knuckling down in the dust will be accompanied by assorted groans and grunts, and arthritic thumb joints may pop like a rifle-but we propose to give it a try . . . So will we try to capture "the days of the lost sunshine."

More than 150 horse farms are within a 25-mile radius of Lexington, Ky.

A Pictorial Review of East Kentucky

THE WELLS FAMILY REUNION IN 1915

It is reunion time for Eastern Kentucky families. Many will be held at cemeteries but others, growing with the years, will be held at more spacious sites.

One of the largest Kamily reunions held nearly half a century ago was that of the Wells family, held at the Van Lear ball park, November 15, 1915. This reunion was held late in the year because of delayed arrangements and the necessity to inform the hundreds of the family scattered over the country. The picture here shows only the central part of the crowd where many of the family heads gath-
