A Pictorial Review of East Kentucky

(No. 144 in a Series)

GENERAL W. O. NELSON, VICTOR AT IVY MOUNTAIN

Gen. W. O. "Bull" Nelson was a native Kentuckian and was at first commissoned in the Navy but at the request of President Abraham Lincoln, was transerred to the Army to lead an expedition against Col. Andrew Jackson May, Confederate leader in the Big Sandy valley.

Nelson defeated May's troops at Hazel Green and West Liberty and advancing on Prestonsburg, found that his adversary had retreated to Ivy Creek. The Battle of Ivy Mountain, Nov. 9, 1861, was a victory for the Union forces.

The victor of Ivy Mountain was fatally shot by Jefferson Davis, an aide of Gov. Morton, of Indiana, in a brawl at Louisville during the turmoil incident to Gen. Bragg's invasion of Kentucky. Nelson lies buried in the Maysville cemetery.

The First National Bank presents these pictures of our past in recognition of Eastern Kentucky's rich historical heritage.

Floyd Federal Savings & Loan As- Neuritis Pain Like

A middle-alge woman told us she suffered B years of torture with neuritis pains. She said the pains would strike her like an electric shock. Today this lady again enjoys life and says the change is due to taking RUGON. Her pains are gone and she is entirely free of misery.

RUGON is helping so many victims of rheumatism and neuritis because this NEW liquid formula contains Three Wonderful Ingredients. Not a tablet or capsule. RUGON goes to the very source of pain almost at once and costs but a few cents a day to take. So don't go on suffering. Get RUGON AID at W. A. Rose
