

PRESTONSBURG, KENTUCKY

SPEAKING OF AND FOR FLOYD COUNTY

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 3, 1964

This Town ... That World

SOUNDS OF AUTUMN: The chirping of a cricket, a jar-fly whirring, the rattle of drying leaves in the wind—and Junior moaning as if in extremis till it's too late to go to school.

OH, WELL . . . I am reminded that some dictionaries which are presumed to be better than mine say that that word which I still say should be spelled, "a-d-v-i-s-e-r" may correctly be spelled with an "or" at the end, Hm-m . . . "Advise" . . . change "e" to "o" and add "r." An early riser, then, should be an up betimes "risor," and a teaser a "teasor." Maybe all this is all right. I have always maintained they could just as well have spelled Caesar "Seizer."

It says here that the trouble with most marriages is that the husband wishes Friend Wife could make bread like his mother did, while the little woman wishes he could make dough like her father.

A LITTLE LATE? They're tearing down the old courthouse, and a sign at one entrance reads, "Danger! Do Not Enter." Commented one sign-reader: "Shoulda put that sign up 50 years ago."

LOCAL ARCHEOLOGY The jack-hammers and loaders got to work on a Third Street (Central Avenue?) sidewalk today, and, lo! up near the corner there they unearthed a sidewalk beneath the one they were uprooting. I hear that in another "tell" these undesigning archeologists delved into, the other day, they came up with an unbroken bottle of hundred proof stuff. But you don't have to use a camel's hair brush, infinite care and a magnifying glass to find such items, hereabouts. They aren't artifacts—just unpleasant facts. (See Story No. 2, Page 8)

AGED MAN RESCUED ON HIGH MOUNTAIN

An 82-year-old Floyd county man who had been missing 96 hours and had apparently gone without food during that time was found near a Right Beaver Creek mountaintop Monday morning, not only alive but in what was described as "fair condition."

The missing man, Isom Tuttle, who normally walks with the aid of two canes, somehow contrived to climb a 1,000-foot-high hill, and his wanderings defied the efforts of an estimated 150 searchers to find him.

He left the home of his son, Riley Tuttle, with whom he resides on the Lee Patton Branch at Northern, on Right Beaver Creek, about 7 a.m. Thursday for what was regarded as his customary morning walk. When he failed to return members of the family first made a search, then as the day wore on called for help.

Members of the Garrett Civil Defense unit initiated the search which went into Thursday night, then the Floyd County Emergency & Rescue Squad joined the hunt the following day. Scores of citizens unattached to either organization helped during the night-and-day search.

Early Thursday, the missing

GRAND JURY PROBES DEATH IN JOHNSON

AUTO YIELDS BODY of MAN IN JOHNSON

Officers Quiz Five In Death of Huffman, Knife Wound Victim

When Paintsville Policeman E. J. Music stopped a Pike county automobile late Sunday afternoon because it was "running" a one-way street, he found among its occupants a dead man who apparently was a murder victim.

In the rear seat of the auto was the body of Irvin Eugene Huffman, 29, of Pike county, dead of a knife wound in his heart. Sitting alongside him and in the driver's seat were Fred Holloway, about 65, his son, Willis Gene, 24, James Ratliff, 43, Mrs. Grady Ratliff, 31, wife of James, and Mrs. Rosetta Scott, 46, all of the Miller's Creek section, near Coal Run.

"We were looking for a hospital," a member of the party explained when the officer discovered that one of the passengers was dead.

State Detective Chester D. Polter, of Prestonsburg, who assisted Johnson county authorities in the investigation of the Huffman death, said Tuesday that evidence uncovered has been given the Johnson circuit court's grand jury, now in session.

Evidence indicated it was said, that the death may have resulted from an involvement of the victim and a woman. All five occu-

Southern Mountains Group Slates Meet

The Council of Southern Mountains will meet at the Prestonsburg Community College, Thursday of next week, it is announced by Eva Allen Horn, Floyd county president of the group. The meeting is open to the public, she said. She will preside.

Ike Vanderpool, now an employee of the Council, will be the featured speaker. Vanderpool, a native of this county, survived the bus tragedy at Knotley Hollow in 1958.

The Council members and other interested persons will meet with the Kiwanis Club at 6:15 p.m. and after the club adjourns, the members of the council and club will meet at the college at 7:30.

BUS LINE RUN SEEN

City Businessmen Sign Notes To Buy Two Buses for Service

Prestonsburg businessmen envision that the municipally sponsored bus line from Prestonsburg to various points in the county will be in business by October 1. Planners are thinking of a schedule that will run to Auxier, David, May Lodge and up river to Harold.

The bus line, sponsored primarily to serve the Prestonsburg Community College and enable residents of Big Mud Creek and the communities of Harold, Betsy Layne, Stanville and Tram to shop in Prestonsburg with more convenience, will be operated with two buses.

The new buses, to cost $15,000, will be bought by Prestonsburg businessmen. Thirty businessmen are each signing $500 notes which will be their sole obligation under the plan.

It was said this week by a member of the Prestonsburg Chamber of Commerce that all of the notes would be signed within a few days.

HIGH NUMBER ASK CLASSES

Adult Enrollment In County Indicates Success of Program

Enrollment figures derived from organization meetings at five points in the county Monday indicate high interest in the newly initiated adult education program in the county, James Salisbury, supervisor, said this week.

Sixty-one enrolled at Prestonsburg, Martin and Garrett in high school equivalency courses, and in two classes in sewing, one taught by Nancy Dings at Martin, and the other by Marie Mullins at Garrett, 25 enrolled.

Other class organization meetings were planned this week at Wayland, Maytown, Wheelwright and Betsy Layne for high school equivalency work. Courses in reading, writing and spelling for those who did not complete the fourth grade will be organized here and at various elementary centers.

The high school equivalency courses consist of English, mathematics, social studies and science. At the completion of the 18-week course a screening test will be given, and those who attain a satisfactory score will be recommended to Pikeville College to take a general education development test. Those who are successful at Pikeville will receive an equivalency high school diploma.

Prestonsburg Homemakers Aid Emergency And Rescue Squad; Benefit Dinner Yields $577

A suggestion made to Prestonsburg Homemakers Clubs by Mrs. Winnie F. Johns last May resulted recently in a benefit dinner being staged here which netted the Floyd County Emergency & Rescue Squad $577.

The homemakers' benefit, the first of its kind to be held for the squad which has long operated on the proverbial shoestring, was so successful that others may be held later. The planning, cooking and serving were done, it was explained, to help an organization which has never denied any person help in time of need or tragedy, rendering its services without thought of financial remuneration.

Approximately 700 attended the dinner, which was held in the Prestonsburg high school cafeteria. Women heading the work of the homemakers clubs are Mrs. J. B. Clark, Mrs. L. B. Fairchild and Mrs. Jim Derocsett. Work of individual members, with the assistance of Mrs. Frances Pitts, home demonstration agent, were credited with the overall success of the undertaking.

Rev. Willard Wilcox, widely known minister of this area, will begin a revival here September 6 to continue through September 20. It will be known as the Lower Lighthouse Crusade.

Services will begin each evening at 7:30, it is announced. The revival is scheduled at the Prestonsburg grade school auditorium.

Rev. Wilcox, a native of Johnson county, has long been associated with evangelism in this area. He recently resigned as pastor of an Orlando, Florida, church to conduct an evangelistic program. He has three television programs, one in West Virginia and two in Tennessee. He will also conduct services on Radio Station WPRT for two weeks.

DEVELOPMENT GROUP IS ORGANIZED HERE

The Floyd County Planning and Development Association was organized August 20 in a meeting held at the office of Clifford B. Latta as a successor to the Floyd County Planning Committee.

The action was taken to make it possible for the county to take advantage of the federal Economic Opportunities Act.

Paul D. Gearheart, of Harold, was named chairman of the new organization. Standing committees of the original planning group were retained. A committee composed of Clifford B. Latta, W. J. Reynolds, Jr., and County Agent Robert Jones was named to prepare by-laws to be submitted at the next meeting, September 8, at Mr. Latta's office. The Educational committee, headed by Mr. Reynolds, also will make its report at that time.

Study committee chairmen appointed are: Minerals, Jack Tomlinson, Betsy Layne; business and industry, Clifford B. Latta, Prestonsburg; community facilities, Ray R. Allen, Martin; welfare, H. D. Fitzpatrick, Jr., Prestonsburg; health and safety, Ralph Banks, Wheelwright; education, W. J. Reynolds, Jr., Allen; agriculture, G. S. Martin, Langley, and Billy Merritt, Bonanza; land use, Steve Clark, Wheelwright; tourism and recreation, Rev. T. W. Chisholm, Prestonsburg; family living, Mrs. Carma Sturgill, Harold.

ASC SLATES COUNTY POLL

Eligibility of Voters Explained; Convention To Pick Program Heads

The Floyd County ASCS committee, announcing the election Monday, September 21, of community committeemen in all five communities of the county, said this week that all polling places will open at 8:30 a.m. and remain open until 5:30 p.m. Immediately following the closing of polls, the community committee in charge of that community committee election will open the ballot boxes and publicly tabulate the ballots.

Questions of eligibility to vote and hold office, or election procedure, will be settled by the community committee.

The individual elected as chairman of the community committee will also be delegate to the county convention. The county convention will be held at the Floyd County ASCS Office, Prestonsburg, Friday, September 25, at 10 a.m.

Panel of nominees, polling places and communities are listed below:

COMMUNITY A — RIGHT BEAVER CREEK: Polling place will be at B & C Hardware store, Hueysville; nominees: Andrew J. Coburn, Melvin Cox, Wayne Cox, Coett Handshoe, Sage Hicks, John Martin.

COMMUNITY B — LEFT BEAVER CREEK: Polling place will be at Roe Turner's store, Drift; nominees: Jake Bates, Oscar Blackburn, Ashland Compton, Rex Gayheart, Joe C. Moore, Ted Newman.

COMMUNITY C — MUD CREEK: Polling place will be at (See Story No. 6, Page 8)

CORPS PLANS DRAWDOWN

Excess Shad Release In Lake, Objective; Restocking Is Planned

The U. S. Corps of Engineers, at the request of the Kentucky Department of Fish and Wildlife Resources, will start releasing water from Dewey Lake, Nov. 1, it has been learned here.

Purpose of the drawdown is to release the over-population of shad in the impoundment.

Plans call for releasing five feet of water from the lake each week for five weeks, or until 25 feet below the summer pool is reached. This will be the same level the 1962 drawdown reached, but the release of water by slow stages is expected to avoid the not inconsiderable loss of game fish sustained in the sudden drawdown two years ago.

Refilling of the lake is scheduled to begin Jan. 1. Two years ago, when refilling was delayed, the rains passed and did not come again, all season long, in quantity sufficient to fill the reservoir to its summer pool stage.

A heavy stocking of the lake with near-keeper-size bass is planned, it was reported here.

MINE MISHAP KILLS HURD

Banner Man Victim In Mine Near Martin, Result of Explosion

Ernest Hurd, 24, of Banner, was killed instantly Saturday while working in an Arkansas Creek mine. He was the victim of an accidental shot explosion.

Mr. Hurd was a son of Isaac Lee and Augusta Mulkey Hurd, of Banner. His wife, Mary Magdalene Mann Hurd, survives. One son, Benjamin Hurd, at home, survives.

Surviving brothers and sisters are Charles Arnold Hurd, Merlin Hurd, Mrs. Daisy Lou Carr, Mrs. Leona Sammons, Mrs. Judy Jo Johnson and Miss Dovie Alice Hurd, all of Banner, and Mrs. Thelma Johnson, Knox, Indiana.

Funeral services were conducted Saturday at 10 a.m. from the Banner United Baptist Church, the Revs. Willie Rice, W. L. Conn and others officiating. Burial was made in the Hall cemetery at Banner under the direction of Hall Brothers Funeral Home.

JAIL COLLINS AS SIX HURT

Allen Man Is Accused Of Driving Car Which Injured Grandchildren

An Allen man was arrested in Magoffin county Tuesday after he had allegedly struck with his car six school children, three of whom are his grandchildren.

Magoffin county Sheriff Roy Holbrook said George Collins, about 55, was being held and that hit-run charges would be filed against him. He said Collins already had been fined on a drunk driving charge.

The six children were walking along a gravel road, near Sites, Magoffin county, en route home from school, when they were hit. The accused man's grandchildren are Brenda Ray Collins, 10, who suffered a cracked pelvis; Joe Blanton, 13, head laceration and bruised legs, and Arville Lee Blanton, 10, cuts and bruises. Others injured are Everett Williams, 10, broken leg and cuts; Kenneth Auxier, 9, lacerations and bruises, and Ernest Auxier, 10, back injuries.

All six children were taken to a Paintsville hospital. The Blanton brothers are sons of James Blanton, formerly of Allen, and the Collins child is a daughter of Lamar Collins, also formerly of this county.

Collins was arrested, Sheriff Holbrook said, at Quicksand, about 25 miles from the accident scene.

Lamar Collins, father of the injured Brenda Ray, was arrested by Deputy Sheriff Sam Hale on a cold check charge Tuesday night while he was at the Paintsville hospital to which his daughter had been taken.

"I know it's bad to have to arrest a man under such circumstances, but we have been looking for Collins quite a while without success," the officer said.

District Masons Plan Initial Fraternal Day At Park Amphitheatre

Plans were announced this week for the first annual Masonic Fraternal Day for District No. 37, Free and Accepted Masons, to be held Sunday, Sept. 13, at the new Jenny Wiley State Park amphitheatre.

Masons from 11 lodges in Floyd, Johnson and Martin counties, with their families and guests are expected to attend. Elmon B. Davis, of Paintsville, will serve as master of ceremonies, and Dr. Robert M. Sirkle, Past Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky, will deliver the principal address. Arrangements for the meeting are being directed by O. C. Haney, District 37 Deputy Grand Master.

The program will begin at noon, with a basket picnic lunch to be spread at 12:30 p.m. Each participating family is expected to furnish food for its members and their guests. Various groups and persons will be introduced at 1:30, this to be followed by musical entertainment. Dr. Sirkle's address will conclude the program.

All Masonic-affiliated organizations in the three-county district are being urged to participate in the event. An invitation has also been extended to all Masons in District 33 to attend. Counties comprising this district are Morgan, Elliott, Magoffin and Wolfe counties.

NAB BANDIT IN ROBBERY

Allegedly Confesses Blaine Bank Holdup; Canterbury Is Named

Lee Simmons, 22, of Grand Rapids, Michigan, has admitted, it is said, to robbing the Bank of Blaine, July 14. The alleged bandit, a former carnival worker, gave himself up last week, saying, "I'm tired of hiding."

A spokesman for the Bank of Blaine, Harry G. Burton, Jr., said the bank officials were called to Logan, West Virginia, Tuesday night of last week, where the man is being held, and all three representatives identified him as being the "pistol man."

Paul H. Stoddard, special agent in charge of the Louisville office, FBI, announced the arrest of Simmons at Logan, but the arrest was made by agents from the Huntington FBI office.

Tom Kellerman, FBI agent in Ashland, filed a formal complaint last week before U. S. Commissioner Thomas Burchett, Jr., charging Simmons with violation of the federal bank robbery statute. Burchett set bond at $15,000. Simmons was arraigned on the charge before the U. S. Commissioner at Logan, meanwhile, he is being held in Logan county jail.

NO FANFARE, FULL DAY'S WORK SEEN

Time for Registration Extended Thru Friday; Dedication, Sept. 29th

Opening of the new Prestonsburg Community College this morning (Thursday) will be without fanfare or show, Dr. Henry A. Campbell, Jr., director, said.

"We will have a brief assembly period, then to work," he said. "Every teacher has been instructed to do a full day's work and to assign lessons for Friday classes."

Dr. Campbell expects 300 full-time students to be enrolled by week's end. He has extended the time for registering through Friday, because he feels that some prospective students have confused pre-registration with the final required registration, and so have not appeared to register prior to the college opening.

Three hundred thirty-five filed applications for admission, Tuesday, first day of registration, 163 registered. Wednesday, 125 more were expected, and an additional 35 to 40 today and Friday.

Of the 162 who registered Tuesday, only four are not full-time students.

All was in readiness this morning for full use of the college building. A final inspection was made Wednesday by the contractors, Meade & Kendrick, ending their year of work on the $900,000 structure.

Formal dedication of the college will be held September 29, it was announced this week. Among those taking part in the dedicatory program will be Gov. Edward T. Breathitt, Dr. John W. Oswald, president of the University of Kentucky, Ex-Governor Bert T. Combs, who pushed the community college legislation through the General Assembly, and others.

SPARKS SETS SPEECH HERE

Other Guest Speakers Include Combs, Mayor; Charles Clark To Emcee

Dr. Harry Sparks, Kentucky's superintendent of public instruction, is slated to make the keynote address at a buffet luncheon sponsored by Teachers National Life Insurance Company, at May Lodge, Jenny Wiley State Park, Sunday, September 13.

The luncheon is being sponsored by the insurance company on behalf of its shareholders in the Eastern Kentucky region.

Harris L. Wood, president of Teachers National Life, made the announcement of Dr. Sparks' acceptance of the invitation to speak at the Eastern Kentucky regional shareholder meeting. Wood said the buffet luncheon is scheduled to commence at 1 p.m.

Among the other guest speakers who will participate in the program are Former Governor Bert T. Combs, Dr. George P. Archer, mayor of Prestonsburg, Dr. Lyman V. Ginger, dean of the College of Education, University of Kentucky, and Edward C. Music, president of the Music-Columbian Motor Company, Prestonsburg, and a director of Teachers National Life Insurance Company. Master of ceremonies for the occasion will be Charles Clark, superintendent of Floyd county schools.

Woman Fined After Raid Near Lackey; Handshoe Is Jailed

Mrs. Agnel Jones, of the Lackey vicinity, was fined $100 and costs after pleading guilty last week-end before Magistrate Zeb Ousley, of Hueysville, to a liquor charge arising from her arrest Saturday night by State Trooper Wiley Jones.

The guilty plea thwarted the state trooper's efforts to procure a warrant from quarterly court here.

Beecher Handshoe was arrested last Thursday by Deputy Sheriff Sam Hale, ABC Agent Claude A. Flanery and State Trooper Elmo Allen after he allegedly had sold beer to a member of the raiding party. He was arrested at Bosco and was booked at the county jail here on two counts, possessing and selling alcoholic beverages.

Others booked at the county jail within the week, charges lodged against them and names of arresting officers follow: (See Story No. 5, Page 8)

4-H CLUB ROUND-UP

The annual Northeast Kentucky 4-H Round-Up was held August 14-15 at Ashland. Senior 4-H County Project Champions from 19 Northeast Kentucky counties competed for district championships at this meeting.

The week-end activities included a tour of the Kentucky Power Company Big Sandy plant at Louisa, a banquet and play party and was climaxed by an award breakfast sponsored by the power company.

Floyd county club members won four district championships, seven additional blue ribbons, and seven red ribbons. Club members winning championships were Jerry Prater, soil conservation; Mae Rita Gayheart, safety and girls achievement; Dennis Garrett, poultry. Blue awards were presented to Kenneth Gayheart, yard improvement; Rhoda Ann Gayheart, clothing; Joe Ed Ousley, swine and corn; Delbert Martin, garden; Debbie Sammons, housekeeping; Fozzo Akers, strawberries. Red ribbons were received by Glenda Akers, foods and food preservation; Fozzo Akers, forestry; Irene Newman, room improvement and grooming; Fletcher Gayheart, horse; Kenneth Gayheart, photography.

Mae Rita Gayheart represented the county on the television program Saturday morning.

BIG SANDY DISTRICT 4-H ACHIEVEMENT DAY

The annual Big Sandy District Junior 4-H Achievement Day was held August 13 in Magoffin county as county junior project champions (9-13-year-old) met to decide the district champions in the various projects. Counties represented were Floyd, Pike, Johnson, Lawrence, Martin, Magoffin, Morgan, Menifee, Elliott. Floyd county was represented at the meeting by 17 members in 22 projects. These members received six championships, four blue and twelve red ribbons.

Club members receiving championships were:

James Newman, farm labor, yard improvement; Joyce Reynolds, soil conservation; Don Tussey, Jr., rabbits; Don Ousley, strawberries, and Linda Gayle Spradlin, bread-making.

Blue ribbons were awarded to Danise Conley, clothing; Elmer McKenzie, electric; Don Ousley, horse; Darrell Clark, woodwork.

Red ribbon winners were Ronald Merritt, beef, garden; Michael Halbert, careers; Joyce Reynolds, dog; Verna Bowling, foods; Glenna Robinson, farm preservation; Anna Bowling, grooming; Carla Robinson, housekeeping; Don Merritt, poultry; Paul DeClue, safety; Bill Haeckworth, swine; Glenna Jarrell, dairy foods.

Leaders attending the achievement meeting were Mrs. Ballard Robinson and State Representative W. J. Reynolds, Jr.

Dog License Program Adopted by Kentucky; Farm Groups Approve

A new dog-license program accentuating population ratio has been adopted by the Kentucky Department of Agriculture.

Agriculture Commissioner Wendell P. Butler said the plan permits counties to receive a greater share of dog-license fees if they sell at least one license for each 15 persons.

Under this new plan, an additional 25 cents from the $1.50 license will return to the counties that meet the 1 to 15 ratio. Formerly, 25 cents of the fee went to the local dog warden, 50 cents to the county, and 75 cents to the state livestock fund to reimburse property owners who suffered by stray dogs.

Now the additional 25 cents per tag will be taken from the state share, Butler said. This is permitted by the law.

"We expect this incentive plan to strengthen the reinforcement of the dog law, greatly reduce the menace of rabies through rounding up stray, homeless dogs, and continue our livestock fund at adequate levels to meet all valid claims," he added.

Dog law enforcement is left up to the counties. In the past, according to Butler, enforcement has been poor. Some counties do not report a single dog within their borders.

The law requires every dog in Kentucky to be licensed and vaccinated for protection against rabies. The 1960 census will be used in determining the 1 to 15 ratio. A study showed that 15 of the 120 counties equal or better the ratio.

The State Dog Law Advisory Committee, Butler pointed out, realized that many counties were having difficulty in maintaining adequate dog pounds and employing sufficient wardens under the limited funds available.

The Kentucky Farm Bureau Federation and the Kentucky Livestock Improvement Association approved the new plan, Butler said, after meeting with the committee.

McKinley Caudill, 62, Of Hi Hat, Is Victim

McKinley Caudill, 62, of Hi Hat, died Monday at home. He was a victim of lung cancer. He had been ill six months.

Mr. Caudill was a former construction worker and a retired miner. He was a son of the late Willard and Minda Brown Caudill. His widow, Ollie Conley Caudill, survives. Surviving sons and a daughter are Russell Caudill, Fairborn, Ohio, Gaylord Caudill, of Hi Hat, Archie Caudill, Dayton, Ohio, and Mrs. Edna Reynolds, Crown City, Ohio. Brothers and sisters are Robert Lee Caudill, Franklin Furnace, Ohio, John B. Caudill, of Lisbon, Pete Caudill and Mrs. Roxie Elliott, both in Maryland, Mrs. Stella Stegall, and Mrs. Mammie Newman, both of Hi Hat.

Funeral services were conducted today (Thursday) at 2 p.m. from the Little Nancy Regular Baptist Church at Hi Hat, the Revs. Woodrow Dye, Charlie Jones and Jerry Hall officiating. Burial was made in the Boyd cemetery at Hi Hat under the direction of Hall Brothers Funeral Home.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to take this means of expressing our gratitude for the assistance and sympathy extended us during the death and funeral of our beloved, Wendell Ratliff. We are appreciative of the flowers, food and consoling words of the ministers. Last but not least we are grateful for the fine and efficient service of the Hall Brothers Funeral Home. MR. and MRS. JACK RATLIFF and MRS. ELDEREE RATLIFF and CHILDREN

IN LEXINGTON HOSPITAL

Mrs. William Arrowood underwent major surgery at a Lexington hospital last Thursday. She is doing nicely.

Prestonsburg, Hazard Take Opening Victories In Week-End Games

Two of the eight high school football games scheduled in the Mountains Friday night will be Class AA, Region 4 games, as Hazard comes to Prestonsburg and Jenkins visits M. C. Napier.

In the lone Class A, Region 3 game, Elkhorn City travels to northern Kentucky for a first-time meeting with Ludlow. Morgan county, under new mentor, Bruce Howard, opens its season in Leslie County, and Walter Brugh's Paintsville Tigers will not open play until next week-end.

Both Prestonsburg and Hazard romped to easy opening victories, last week-end. Bert Dixon's charges dropped Wheelwright, 32-12, to annex the Floyd county championship, and the Hazard forces whipped Wallins, 33-6.

Jack Hall's Elkhorn City Cougars pulled a mild surprise in edging defending Eastern Kentucky Mountain Conference champion and Region 4 champ, Jenkins, 25-19. Belfry squeezed by Whitesburg, 14-13, and the Pikeville Panthers belted Mt. Sterling Dubois, 29-0.

Wheelwright grabbed a 12-6 second quarter command over Prestonsburg on a 45-yard run by Larry Rowe and a short plunge by quarterback John Holman, but senior halfback Gary Goble, who scored three touchdowns for the winners, sprained 35 yards for a six pointer and fullback Bennie Harris added the point after for a 13-12 Prestonsburg halftime lead.

Senior end Larry Wells grabbed a pass for another marker, and fullback Harris sped 30 yards for the two last-half touchdowns.

Senior halfback Derek Potter, who is expected to be one of the area's best backs, and Norman Powell paced Elkhorn City to its win over Jenkins with two t.d.'s each in the second and fourth periods. Powell tallied from six and seven yards out, and Potter raced 26 and eight yards for his scores.

Jenkins quarterback Jerry Conley gave his mates a first-period command of 6-0 on a two-yard plunge, and he hurled a 20-yard pay-off pass to end Brent Arnett in the third period to knot the score.

Halfback Roger Hall scored the final Cavalier touchdown in the fourth period. Jenkins threatened in the final minute, but time ran out with the ball on the Elkhorn City six-yard line.

Versatile Hazard quarterback Bill Morgan figured in the scoring of three Bull Dog tallies as he whipped two scoring aerials to Keith Reynolds and halfback Bervin Collins, and he registered one himself on a ten-yard spurt.

PLAY HOST TO HAZARD

Prestonsburg and Wheelwright have now settled their high school football differences for another season, with the Black Cats taking the Floyd county grid championship.

Friday night, Prestonsburg plays host to the always tough Hazard Bulldogs who bowled over Wallins with ease last Friday. Ray Brackett's Trojans open their home season with Lilly, of Laurel county, as guest.

Gary Goble, senior halfback, won the weekly football award as "Black Cat Player of the Week." He scored three touchdowns in the win over Wheelwright, and was in on several key defensive plays. The straight-"A" Auxier native is also a member of the Prestonsburg half-mile relay team and a shotputter. He is the son of Mrs. Laura Goble, Auxier.

Glenn "Sarge" Walke, Paintsville Country Club pro and former Army recruiting officer here, is recovering from a recent heart attack and is expected to resume his duties at the club soon.

The annual Kentucky high school basketball yearbook will go to press on September 15 and all Floyd county basketball coaches wanting their school's schedule, pictures, etc., included in the booklet are urged to get the material in as soon as possible.

THIS AN' THAT ... Dewey Lake will again be lowered by 10 to 20 feet, November 1, to permit work to take place in the docking area and for the Department of Fish & Wildlife Resources to resume rough fish riddance. ... The Prestonsburg Junior

The Community Advisory Council of the McDowell Appalachian Regional Hospital met August 25 at the hospital, and the following committee assignments were made by the president, Arthur Bradbury, and affirmed by the members:

Executive Committee — Arthur Bradbury, president, Wheelwright; vice-president, to be elected; Mrs. G. W. Lockin, secretary, Wheelwright.

Finance — Robert Smith, chairman, Wheelwright; B. F. Reed, Drift; John Thornsberry, Wheelwright; George Evans, Wayland.

House — Robert Kendrick, chairman, Wheelwright; L. B. Jesse, Weeksburg; Orville Moore, Printer.

Public Relations — Mrs. Lloyd Stumbo, chairman, McDowell; Lloyd Hale, David; Burl Spurlock, Prestonsburg.

Nominating — Kelly Wicker, chairman, Mouse; Robert Smith, Wheelwright; Mrs. Lloyd Stumbo, McDowell.

The next regular meeting of the Council will be held September 23.

Homecoming Observance Planned By Hueysville Church of Christ

Homecoming at the Hueysville Church of Christ will be observed Sunday, September 20 with special worship services at 11 a.m., 2:30 p.m. and 7:30 p.m., and a basket dinner at 12:30 p.m., it was announced this week.

That same evening at 7:30, a seven-day evangelistic meeting will begin, with Bill Ford, of the Zebulon (Ky.) Church of Christ, bringing the message daily at 7:30 p.m.

Special singing will be a feature of the homecoming services. Members and friends of the church are being invited to bring their families and friends to the homecoming as well as to attend the week of evangelistic services.

JACKSON ENLISTS

Robert Earl Jackson, 18, son of Mr. George Jackson, of Harlan, enlisted in the Navy, August 27. Robert graduated from Wheelwright high school with the class of 1964 and was a member of the school's football team and 4-H Club. He was preceded in service by an older brother, Handy, who is stationed at Fort Benning, Georgia. Robert was transferred to the U. S. Naval Training Center, Great Lakes, Illinois, where he will receive his basic training.

Prestonsburg Masons Attend Inez Meeting

Rainley White and Raymond Copley, of Prestonsburg, were among the Masons who attended the meeting of Inez Masonic Lodge No. 672 Saturday night when Mr. Copley's father, Wiley Copley, was presented his Fifty-Year Pin by Grand Senior Warden Thomas Burchett, of Pogue Lodge No. 325, Ashland. John Young, of Elk View, W. Va., who 50 years ago "raised" Mr. Copley, presented him his gold card.

The Master Mason degree was conferred on Roy Penix, Eugene Ball and Billy Ray Cassidy.

Justell Woman Winner In West Virginia Fair

Mrs. E. P. Davis, of Justell, made a successful venture into Kanawha county and Charleston, W. Va., when she won not only first place but also second in the Kanawha County Fair, held August 11-16.

She was awarded first place with her entry of beets, and her second entry, also beets, was so superior that it won second place.

She was in Charleston visiting her son, Richard W. Davis, at the time and had brought along some of her canned foods. They looked so good her son entered them in the Fair.

Our Yesterdays

(Items taken from files of The Floyd County Times of 30, 20 and 10 years ago.)

Thirty Years Ago

Permission has been asked of the Baptist Church here for the Floyd circuit court to use its building at the coming court term. Repairs are being made on the courthouse by workmen directed by H. E. Stewart and J. L. Meade, and only the sub-flooring has been laid in the courtroom. E. C. and Jack Hughes, who are drilling a waterwell on the courthouse grounds, hit it hard Monday afternoon, 43 feet down. Apparently somebody during the preceding night had dumped scrap iron into the hole. Sunday marked the end of the fourth year of the Rev. J. M. Helm's pastorate of the Methodist Church here. Former Prestonsburg Police- man A. C. "Dan" Daniels was found dead on the school grounds here Friday morning. He is believed to have died of self-inflicted bullet wounds. Nine Stumpos and two "outsiders" teamed up Sunday to defeat a picked Ashland team, 6-1. Kit Stumbo fanned 17 of the Ashlanders. Married here August 23 in a double wedding at the Baptist Church Miss Ethel M. Collins, of Wayland, and Jack Wells, of Garrett; Miss Draxie Damon, of Teaberry, and Gordon Hall, Huntington, West Virginia. There died: Mrs. Jess Rowe, 35, Monday at Garrett; the 16-month-old child of Mr. and Mrs. Ollie Wallen, of Water Gap, Monday.

Twenty Years Ago

Nine Floyd county soldiers reported on this week's war casualty list are: Killed in action—Staff Sgt. Joe Wheeler Garrett, of Lancer; Pfc. Paul E. Mullins, of Garrett, and Pfc. James Tackett, of Cliff; missing in action—2nd Lt. Nick C. Wallen, of Banner; wounded—Charles G. Hutchinson, of Martin; Sgt. Barney Bradley, of Martin; Pvt. Lige J. Goble, of Woods; Pvt. Ralph H. Elkins, of Dwayne and Pvt. Bennie Branham, of Dwayne. Sunday's drouth-bustin' thunderstorm not only brought an end to dry weather but also curtailed school attendance at Garrett, Monday, as rain-swollen Beaver Creek prevented many students from reaching school. H. N. Cooley, a former superintendent of Floyd schools, will begin his 50th year of teaching next Monday. Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Harris observed their 50th wedding anniversary August 8 at their home in the Porter Addition here. There died: Mrs. Mary Gray Meadows, 42, of Sloan, August 23, at the Prestonsburg hospital; Appellate Judge Alex H. Ratliff, of Pikeville, in Lexington, August 22; George Garrett, 66, of Huntington, West Virginia; Mrs. Dorothy May Newman, 19, of Hi Hat, Saturday at a Pikeville hospital; Glendean Akers, 13, of Topmost, last Thursday at a Lackey hospital.

MRS. HUGHES IMPROVED
Mrs. Robert Hughes, who suffered a heart attack last week, is improved this week. Her daughter, Miss Nancy Hughes, who was called home by her critical illness, returned to Boston, Mass., Monday. Her brother, Roscoe Cole, Weston, W. Va., has been at her bedside also. Henry Hughes, her son, left Monday to resume his studies at the University of Kentucky. Mrs. Hughes will continue to receive treatment at the Prestonsburg General hospital for the next four weeks.

AT HOSPITAL HERE
Mrs. Dick Burchett, of Ivel, has been a patient at the Prestonsburg General hospital, the past week.

VISITORS HERE
Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Jacobson and children, of Powell, O., were guests here last week of Mrs. Jacobson's father, C. F. Rinehart, and Mrs. Rinehart, returning home Saturday.

NOTICE
Mrs. Martha Stratton has filed application with the Floyd County Court for license to operate a place of entertainment, the Coffee Shop, at Betsy Layne, Ky.

Roberts-Wade Vows Exchanged At First Methodist Church

The First Methodist Church, Prestonsburg, was the scene on Sunday afternoon, Aug. 30, of the marriage of Miss Judith Merle Roberts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Roberts, of Prestonsburg, and Mr. John Tinsley Wade, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard K. Wade, Louisville, Ky.

The Rev. Harold W. Dorsey, of Danville, officiated at the double-ring ceremony. The vows were exchanged before a background formed by an archway covered with huckleberry and ivy, with four seven-branched candelabra interspersed with emerald palms, and with baskets of gladioli and mums flanking either side of the altar. Sprays of white poms were combined with large, white satin bows to designate the family pews. The bridal aisle and altar floor were carpeted in white, and a white satin-and-lace kneeling pillow was used.

A recital of nuptial music was presented by Mrs. Harold W. Dorsey, vocalist, and Mrs. Chalmer H. Frazier, organist, preceding the entrance of the bride party. Among the selections were "I Love You Truly," "Because" and "O Promise Me." "The Lord's Prayer" was sung during the ceremony. Mrs. Frazier also played the traditional wedding marches for the processional and the recessional.

The bride entered the church with her father, who escorted her to the altar and gave her in marriage. She appeared in a formal gown of rose-patterned chantilly lace and organza, designed on empire lines, with a scalloped sabrina neckline and long sleeves tapering to calla points over her wrists. The back fastened with tiny, self-covered buttons. The A-line skirt was completed by a back-detachable wattleau train. A queen's crown of lace, edged in seed pearls, secured her bouffant veil of silk illusion, and she carried a cascade of white orchids, stephanotis and ivy.

Miss Katheryn E. Roberts, her sister's honor attendant, wore a floor-length gown of candied pink sheer over taffeta, fastened with a circle necklace, beaded in pearls, bracelet sleeves, and an A-line skirt. To the back of the fitted bodice was attached a wattleau train. She wore a matching headpiece with silk illusion bouffant veil, and carried a bouquet of white poms with ivy streamers.

The bridesmaids, Misses Martha A. Burchett, Judy A. Howard and Martha S. May, wore gowns of pale pink with matching headpieces identical to that of the honor attendant and carried bouquets of white poms with ivy streamers.

Little Miss Deborah Davidson was the flower girl. Her pale pink floor-length dress was styled identically to that of the bridesmaids. She wore a circlet crown of pink rosebuds and carried a flower basket filled with pink rose petals.

Gregory Donaldson, of Louisville, cousin of the groom, was the ring bearer and carried a white satin pillow edged in net and lace.

David Osborn, Louisville, served as best man. Ushers were Sam Irvin, Johnny Houtchins and Glenn Donaldson, of Louisville, Johnny Spurlock and Bill Frazier lighted the tapers preceding the ceremony.

Mrs. Roberts attended her daughter's wedding in a white lace over blue taffeta dress, styled with a straight skirt and overblouse with short sleeves and square neckline. Matching accessories complimented her costume. Mrs. Wade, mother of the groom, was attired in a pink over taffeta lace dress and matching accessories. Mrs. Roberts' and Mrs. Wade's corsages were of gardenias.

Mrs. Coulter, grandmother of the groom, wore gardenias. Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held in the Educational building adjoining the church. The bride's table was covered with an imported maderia banquet cloth. This was centered with four-tiered wedding cake which was topped with the traditional bride and groom figurines.

Miss Mary Jo Shivel served punch; Mrs. George T. Roberts, aunt of the bride, Mrs. Tom Fields, and Mrs. Douglas Perry assisted in serving cake. Following a wedding trip to Canada, the couple will reside at 511 Ballard avenue, Apartment 3, Bellevue Apts., Richmond, Kentucky.

The bride is a graduate of Prestonsburg high school and Eastern Kentucky State College. Mr. Wade is a senior at Eastern Kentucky State College.

TIDBITS of KENTUCKY FOLKLORE

By GORDON WILSON, Ph. D.

Western Kentucky Teachers' College, Bowling Green, Ky.

"GOODY, ANDERSON SCHOOL"

The last one-room country school in Edmonson county, my second home in the last half century, closed at the end of the 1963-64 school term. Anderson School, at Jock, not far from the new Nolin River Dam, was the last of its kind in that county and in many neighboring counties. The new road being built across the dam and connecting with other roads on the northern side of Green River will enable busses to bring the whole group of high school students to Brownsville and to deliver the grade children to Kyrock grade school. Thus passes a landmark, a symbol. Boys born in late 1964 and hereafter in Edmonson county cannot begin their political speeches by announcing themselves as the products of the one-roomed country school. Just what can take the place of this vote-drawing appeal?

When I first knew Edmonson county, more than a half century ago, there was a one-roomed country school just about every three or four miles along what then went for roads. School buses were unknown; sturdy, youthful legs furnished the only transportation, but they were equal to that plus exciting games like Hare and Hounds, which often took them much farther across the sinkholes and hollows and ridges. Many changes have taken place in the number of such schools, but there must have been 80 or more in the small county as far back as 1918. I used to speak to the teachers in that county and can recall that there was a whole county-courtroom full of them, nearly all from schools that had only one teacher. Slowly, after World War I, some of the smaller schools were closed; in fairly recent years all the rest have gone except Anderson school. The Mammoth Cave National Park absorbed the areas of ten complete schools and much of the areas of schools just outside the boundaries. Highways slowly came into even the remote places, so that a school bus could make its way to just about everybody. Long ago some of the neighboring counties had closed their small schools and had concentrated on some half dozen centrally-located and modern graded schools.

As an old-timer I must not let myself see only the advantages of the one-roomed school, certainly as they appear through some rosy mists that nearly always dance before old eyes. But I would not be worthy of having spent my whole life in the school-room if I did not say that these tiny, poorly-equipped little buildings represented for millions of people the one outlet for rather narrow, humdrum lives. And I have known hundreds of dedicated teachers, many of them my own students, who brought to the one-roomed school all the verve of inspired teachers. And many of the boys and girls, too, got their first impulse to make a place for themselves in a rather cold world from the years spent in the one-roomed Temples of Learning, as poetic people might have called them.

On the other hand, I would not be worthy of having been a teacher of teachers if I failed to see that times change and that what was sufficient for my generation is hardly good enough for the ones who are now in school. I was born in horse-and-buggy days, almost at the beginning of that era in our neck of the woods; lots of things have happened since then. In spite of lingering memories of the good side of that early life, we oldsters know full well that we want our descendants to be a part of their own times. A few old fellows whom I know spend most of their time proclaiming the merits of horse-and-buggy days, without ever mentioning any defects of that time. But these same old fellows have all the modern necessities, such as electricity and automobiles, and advanced medical sciences, and sometimes interrupt their psalms of praise for old times by turning on their TV's to see what is happening in Viet Nam or some other place that is slightly farther away than the neighboring country school that seems so perfect. Old-timers should be consistent, especially in order to make their praise of other times effective; why modernize? And yet I have not lately heard any suggestions of oldsters trading in their slightly used cars for a good old rubber-tired buggy, such as they used to drive to Podunk or Rabbit Ridge.

MEDICAL CARE PROGRAM PAYMENTS ARE INCREASED

Frankfort, Ky. — The greatest increase in benefits provided by the state in its "war on poverty" in fiscal year 1963-64 has come in the three-year-old medical care program, with an increase of about $5 million in payments during the one-year period ending June 30, the Economic Security Department has reported.

Economic Security Commissioner Earle V. Powell said that disbursements under the old form of public assistance actually decreased by about $700,000 over the 12 months ended June 30.

Powell said there had been an eight percent increase in terms of all public assistance programs combined, which totaled $71.2 million as compared with $71.2 million for the previous fiscal year. He said the rise can be attributed to the medical care program increase, and a $1.1 million demonstration project for unemployed parents in a nine-county Eastern Kentucky area.

Public assistance programs are financed on a federal matching formula which varies from about 4 to 1 to about 2 to 1, depending upon the program involved. At the same time benefits were being paid under public assistance, Powell said, Economic Security Department service workers were carrying up to about 6,700 cases in which counseling and many other kinds of help were provided.

"These 'defined service cases,' as they are called, represent an all-out effort to make the families self-sufficient," Powell said. "We are trying to provide economic stability in the face of crisis, on the one hand, and rehabilitation and problem-solving help on the other."

In the category of aid to families with dependent children (AFDC), he continued, Kentucky has reversed a widespread national trend and is actually reducing the number of cases under AFDC in the state program.

"We are able to trace this decrease in AFDC to the emphasis which our service workers are placing on rehabilitation," he said, "and to the efforts of field workers who have made about 50,000 case studies in AFDC during the past year."

The number of AFDC cases dropped 1.6 percent from June, 1963, to June, 1964, Powell said. The average number of families receiving aid for dependent children was about 20,000.

In the adult category, in which assistance is provided to the needy blind and disabled, and to the indigent aged, there was an average of 65,751 recipients per month, an increase during the year of 6.2 percent.

The average monthly grant per individual varied from $22.25 per month in the unemployed parent program to $64.34 per person under aid to needy blind. Costs of medical care ranged from $29.00 per month per person under medical aid for the aged to $13.98 per person under AFDC.

A federal warrant charging him, a Mingo county ex-convict, in connection with the same hold-up, was issued July 27.

Named was Ezekiel Canterbury, 33, of Dingsess and Columbus.

Two armed men herded four officials, John Lee Burton, president, his father, H. G. Burton, H. G. Burton, Jr., and the secretary, Mrs. Deloris Logan, of the Blaine bank, 20 miles southwest of Louisa, into the vault, and fled with $19,900. Later, the smoldering remains of what appeared to be the getaway automobile were found 18 miles south of Louisa.

TAKE TIME . . .

Twelve good resolutions have been suggested to us:
1. Take time to live. Killing time is suicide.
2. Take time to work. It's the price of business.
3. Take time to think. It's the privilege of mankind.
4. Take time to play. It's the secret of youth.
5. Take time to read. It's the fountain of wisdom.
6. Take time to be friendly. It's the road to happiness.
7. Take time to dream. It's hitching your wagon to a star.
8. Take time to love others. It's the mark of godliness.
9. Take time to look around. It's too short a day to be selfish.
10. Take time to laugh. It's the music of the soul.
11. Take time to play with children. It's the joy of joys.
12. Take time to be courteous. It's the mark of the gentleman.

pants of the car deny knowing what happened, although there was an admission that a few blows were struck inside the car. Conflicting statements were given by the five survivors of a week-end drinking bout during which they drove to various places in Pike, Floyd and Johnson counties.

The death scene, Detective Potter said, has been fixed at a curve on U. S. 460, approximately three miles west of Paintsville. The death auto has been identified as the vehicle seen parked there, earlier in the afternoon, and its occupants as the five held by authorities. Officers said they have testimony stating that a man was seen being loaded into the car at that point.

Three knives were found but neither was identified as the weapon used. In addition to the chest stab wound, Huffman had two other lacerations which were minor, it was said. Huffman had been married, but his wife said they became separated about three weeks ago.

WARE ASKS $35,000 AID FOR 'EXCEPTIONAL PUPILS'

Frankfort, Ky.—Acting Governor James Ware conferred with state education officials Tuesday about the distribution of $35,000 to private schools with exceptional children.

Ware, a longtime advocate of such aid, said former Governor Bert Combs set aside the money from his contingency fund during his last week in office.

He said he plans to talk with Superintendent of Public Education Harry Sparks.

"I have high hopes that the money can be channeled into schools throughout Kentucky this year with approval of the State School Board," Ware said.

There was some question earlier of whether the money was still available. Apparently it had been carried over into the new budget as unexpended.

Ware, of Covington, and president pro tem of the Senate, obtained the promise of the money from Combs after the 1962 Legislature failed to make an appropriation. The 1964 Legislature did not, either.

Under a bill he sponsored in 1960, every exceptional student in private schools not providing suitable training would have been entitled to $100 per school year.

The $125,000 biennial appropriation was challenged by the attorney general and later upheld by the Court of Appeals.

By that time, however, the first fiscal year had passed and only about $32,000 was spent the next year.

ASSIGNED TO KOREA

7th Infantry Div., Korea (AHTNC)—Army Pvt. Roger G. Duff, whose wife, Laura, lives in Garrett, Ky., was assigned to the 7th Infantry Division in Korea, Aug. 17. Duff, a member of Company C, 1st Battalion of the division's 32nd Infantry, was last stationed at Fort Gordon, Ga.

The 1962 Legislature left the fund out of its new budget.

Ware then asked Governor Combs to allow $35,000 from his emergency fund for exceptional students. He said Combs made the action official the last week of his tenure late last year.

"The $35,000 is supposed to have been carried over into the present budget," Ware said, "although not as new money and not in the general fund."

He said the stumbling block previously has been the State Board of Education, which must give approval to spend the funds.

"The money was set up for that specific purpose," Ware said. "I never could understand the State School Board's attitude."

He said the schools which would get the help are not parochial, although some have religious sponsorship.

The high court held that the private-school allocations were for a public purpose, Ware said.

LACKEY

The Lackey Free Will Baptist Church had a fellowship dinner on the church lawn, August 1.

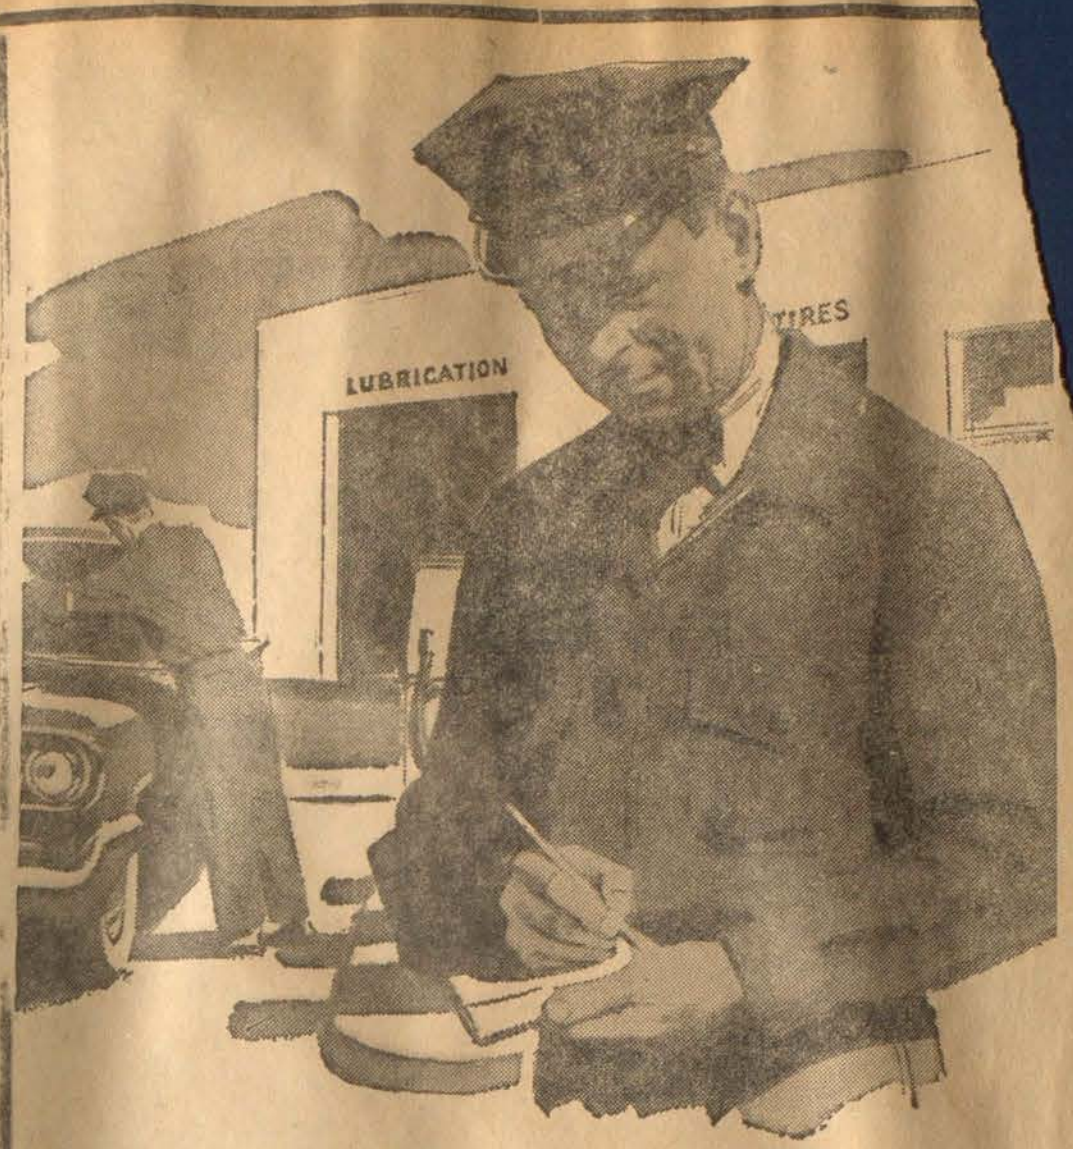

Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Bob Bentley, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Evans, Mr. and Mrs. George Vanderpool, Mr. and Mrs. Andy Reed, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Gunnells, Junior Evans, Dillard Reed, Alex Patton, Laura Conley, Bertie Allen, Keith Davis, Mary Patton, Evelyn Cox, Beulah Hite, Net Ratliff, Lana Terry, Frank Dixon, Ella Prater and Darlene, Maud Hatcher, Irene Wicker and Karen, Brenda Couch, Mr. and Mrs. French Bolen, Dora Bayes, James Addis, Mrs. Cora Watkins, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Stone and Carla, Mrs. Buford Rollins, Roosevelt Stone, Mary Helen Kestell and Margaret Ann, Gerald Paul Turpin, David Gustin, Molly Owens, Priscilla, Lema Sue, Edward, Ina Faye, Patricia Hicks, Ella Stanley, Allie Bentley. An hour of fellowship was enjoyed.

Mrs. Irene Wicker and daughter Karen have been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Milford Conley, for the past four weeks. They have returned to their home in Arlington, Virginia.

Mrs. Maxine Taub and son John, from Washington, D. C., are visiting her family, Woodrow Horn and Mrs. Jenny Baker.

Mrs. Irene Wicker, Mrs. Margaret Harmon, Mrs. Maxine Taub and Mrs. Lurline Howard, enjoyed dinner Saturday evening at the May Lodge.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Howard have returned from a trip to California. They visited several places of interest on the way. Mr. Howard is a student at Ohio State University, Columbus, Ohio, and Mrs. Howard and daughter Valetta are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dillard Reed.

Governor Urges Drivers Observe Safety Rules On Labor Day Week-End

Governor Edward T. Breathitt has urged all motorists to turn on their low beam headlights during the day as well as night when driving over the Labor Day week-end to serve as a reminder to drive with extra care.

He pointed out that research conducted at Indiana University shows that illuminated headlights cause a vehicle to be seen more easily under varying weather conditions, including bright sunlight.

The Governor pointed out that from 1949 through 1963, the average Labor Day traffic death toll was 12. The worst years were 1950 and 1960, when the week-end toll reached 20. The Labor Day holiday traffic fatality total for the 14 years is 165.

The official Labor Day period begins at 6 p.m., Friday, September 4 and runs through midnight, Monday, September 7. State Safety Commissioner Glenn Lovern listed these tips for safe driving:

Give yourself plenty of time to get to your destination, make certain that your car is in top condition before starting, take frequent rest and coffee breaks if the distance is more than 100 miles, and always stay in the right lane except when passing or making a left turn, and never pass another vehicle on a hill.

Lovern also pointed out that on wet highways speed should be cut about one-third.

In Appreciation

We wish to express our appreciation to our friends and neighbors for their many kindnesses to us during the passing of our father, John G. C. Hager. We would especially thank the Rev. Adrian Roberts for his comforting words, the Community Methodist Church Choir for the beautiful songs, those who sent floral offerings, and the Carter & Callihan Funeral Home for its efficient services.

Our Historic Heritage

A Pictorial Review of East Kentucky

(No. 298 in a Series)

Lewis Crittenden (Crit) Leslie (1875-1951)

L. C. Leslie, veteran Floyd county teacher, was born at Emma, Ky., a son of A. N. (Noblett) and Martha Mayo Leslie. He was born May 24, 1875, died July 18, 1951. He began his teaching career at the age of 17 and continued for 53 years. He retired in 1945.

At the time of his death he was dean of the long roll of Floyd county teachers. In addition to his career as educator he served as a deputy county court clerk from 1900 until his death. He was chief deputy Floyd county court clerk under Malone Hall for four years, was appointed seven times to the Floyd county Board of Supervisors.

Mr. Leslie was married to Clara Gunnell, daughter of Reed and Margaret Lee Gunnell. To them were born 13 children, nine of whom survive.

Many students, now outstanding business and professional men and women, owe much to the inspiration of this dedicated teacher.

The First National Bank presents these pictures of the past in recognition of our historic heritage.

KENTUCKY LEADS NATION IN REHABILITATION WORK

Kentucky led the nation during the last fiscal year in growth rate of rehabilitation of physically and mentally-handicapped persons.

The U. S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare, Washington, announced Kentucky's growth rate of 58 percent as highest among the 50 states. The growth rate is based on the increase in rehabilitants over the previous year—those persons now able, by trainings, to support themselves.

A record-breaking total of 2,975 handicapped Kentuckians were rehabilitated during the last fiscal year.

Dr. Harry M. Sparks, state superintendent of public instruction, said this was 1,094 more than the previous high of 1,831 in 1962-63. The Bureau of Rehabilitation Services, directed by Ben F. Coffman, is in the State Department of Education.

In Floyd county, 50 persons were rehabilitated and 144 cases served by the state rehabilitation bureau.

Coffman said it costs about $475 per person to rehabilitate the handicapped to self-supporting lives. He pointed out that this is cheap, for the 2,975 rehabilitants last year now are adding more than $5 million to the state's income instead of being on relief.

Rhode Island's growth rate of 43 percent (1,566 rehabilitants last year as compared to 1,098 the year before) was runner-up to Kentucky. New Jersey's 28 percent (3,060 and 2,367) was third.

The growth percentages ranged from Kentucky's leading position of 58 percent to Michigan's minus three percent and Wyoming's minus 24 percent.

Kentucky's growth rate is particularly significant when compared with the national average, nine percent, or with those of neighboring states. For example, Illinois reported a minus 10 percent with 3,750 rehabilitants last year and 4,184 the year before. Ohio, which rehabilitated 2,835 last year and 2,768 the year before, thereby showed only a two percent gain. Indiana, with 1,554 and 1,509 totals respectively, was up only three percent.

Gains were shown by Missouri, 19 percent; Virginia, 13 percent; Tennessee, seven percent, and West Virginia, three percent.

With continuing development of its rehabilitation program, Kentucky has advanced to 13th among the 50 states in its total of 96 rehabilitated per 100,000 population, according to the Washington report. This represents a steady climb from 38th place in 1958. Last year, Kentucky was 21st.

A total of 9,420 persons have been rehabilitated in Kentucky during the last five years, more than double the 4,131 of the previous five years.

The rehabilitation bureau does not consider a rehabilitant fully rehabilitated until he is working on a job and self-supporting, Coffman said.

In a year-end report submitted to Dr. Sparks, Coffman reported that the bureau spent approximately $1,376,457 providing services to 7,259 handicapped persons in all 120 counties in Kentucky. Persons were rehabilitated to employment in every county, Coffman noted.

State appropriations to the program totaled $403,334.

To transplant Kentuckians from the area of welfare and dependency to productive citizens, the bureau offers guidance, medical services, vocational diagnoses, artificial appliances, academic and vocational education, placement service, and follow-up.

The bureau and the Department of Mental Health cooperated in establishing vocational rehabilitation departments in all four state mental hospitals. Coffman pointed out. All patients are considered for their vocational needs and provided counseling, vocational evaluation, training and placement.

A similar program has been approved for the mentally retarded at both the Frankfort State Hospital and School and the Outwood State Hospital and School, near Dawson Springs.

Seven special projects are sponsored by the bureau in the Appalachia area of Eastern Kentucky. Three of these have been established in education and rehabilitation in the Harlan, Rockcastle, and Floyd county areas.

In addition, a rehabilitation center has been approved to serve the severely handicapped at the Appalachian Regional Hospital in Harlan, Coffman said.

Two other projects involving both the bureau and the Kentucky Department of Economic Security provide for the rehabilitation and public assistance recipients and applicants.

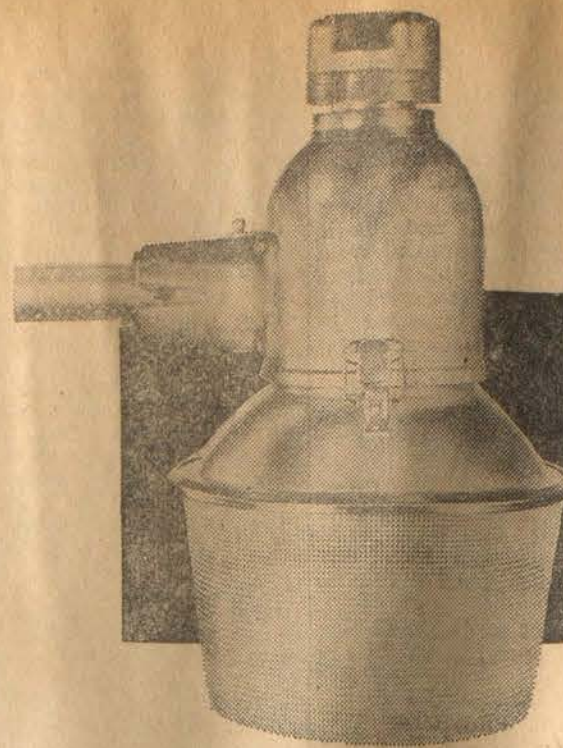

Mountain Parkway Shows Almost 100% Gain in July Revenue

Kentucky toll road revenues totaled $675,000 during July this year, almost twice as much as July, 1963, collections, the Department of Highways announced. The Western Kentucky Parkway brought in $175,625 of this year's July revenues. The Parkway had not been ready for traffic in July of last year.

The Department of Highways listed these gross receipts of other facilities for July, 1964, and July, 1963, in that order: Shawneetown Bridge, $27,032 and $26,233; Kentucky Turnpike, $377,131 and $352,794; Mountain Parkway, $95,311 and $48,652.

Total revenue for July was $68,384 greater than for June.

Telephone Talk

By ROY L. ATHERTON
Your Telephone Manager

WHAT HAS FIRST AID GOT TO DO WITH TELEPHONE SERVICE? Just this. As part of his training, your telephone installer-repairman receives first aid instruction. Every five years he goes back for a refresher course on the latest first aid methods and techniques. He uses this training to serve not only his co-workers when necessary, but often injured people in the homes he works in and along the highways.

John: What has two heads, fours ears, two mouths, and is miles long?

Marsha: A telephone conversation.

DID YOU KNOW there are 112 different sizes of telephone poles? The smallest is 16 feet, they go all the way up to 125 foot, 2 1/4 ton giants!

YOU'RE ALWAYS "ON THE SCENE" when you have extension phones in convenient places. In the kitchen where mom does the cooking. In the den where dad does his "after 5:00" work. In the bedroom for quick, easy answering during rest hours. For the greatest convenience at the lowest possible cost, try extension telephones in your home.

FAST TALK: Your voice travels through the air at about 1,100 feet a second, but by telephone it travels 186,300 miles a second... the speed of electricity! During a 3-minute Long Distance call you can say all the words in the average 2-page letter. If you talk slowly this would be about 450 words. If you're a fast talker the number would rise to about 750. There are 267 words in the Gettysburg address which is a rather round-about way of proving that you can say a lot of important things for very little money when you call Long Distance.

ORDINANCE NO. 17-64
An Ordinance Providing for Regulations Governing the Construction, Alteration, Removal, Demolition, Equipment, Use and Occupancy, Location and Maintenance of Buildings and Structures. BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF PRESTONSBURG, KENTUCKY, AS FOLLOWS:

SECTION 1. ADOPTION OF THE BUILDING CODE.

There is hereby adopted by the City Council of the City of Prestonsburg, Kentucky, for the purpose of establishing rules and regulations for the construction, alteration, removal, demolition, equipment, use and occupancy, location and maintenance of buildings and structures, including permits and penalties, that certain building code known as the National Building Code recommended by the National Board of Fire Underwriters, being particularly the 1955 edition thereof and the whole thereof, save and except such portions as are hereinafter deleted, modified or amended, of which not less than three (3) copies have been and now are filed in the office of the Clerk of the City of Prestonsburg, Kentucky, and the same are hereby adopted and incorporated as fully as if set out at length herein, and from the date on which this ordinance shall take effect, the provisions thereof shall be controlling in the construction of all buildings and structures therein contained within the corporate limits of the City of Prestonsburg, Kentucky.

SECTION 2. ESTABLISHMENT OF OFFICE OF BUILDING OFFICIAL.

(a) The office of building official has heretofore been created and the executive official in charge shall be known as the building inspector.

(b) The building official shall be appointed by the City Council of Prestonsburg, Kentucky. His appointment shall continue during good behavior and satisfactory service. He shall not be removed from office except for cause after full opportunity has been given him to be heard on specific charges.

(c) During temporary absence or disability of the building official the appointing authority shall designate an acting building official.

SECTION 3. Duties of Building Official.

(a) The building official shall devote his whole time if necessary to the duties of his office. He shall receive applications required by this code, issue permits and furnish the prescribed certificates. He shall examine premises for which permits have been issued and shall make necessary inspections to see that the provisions of law are complied with and that construction is prosecuted safely. He shall enforce all provisions of the building code. He shall, when requested by proper authority, or when the public interest so requires, make investigations in connection with matters referred to in the building code and render written reports on the same. To enforce compliance with law, to remove illegal or unsafe conditions, to secure the necessary safeguards during construction, or to require adequate exit facilities in buildings and structures, he shall issue such notices or orders as may be necessary.

(b) Inspections required under the provisions of the building code shall be made by the building official or his duly appointed assistant. The building official may accept reports of inspectors or recognized inspection services, after investigation of their qualifications and reliability. No certificate called for by any provision of the building code shall be issued on such reports unless the same are in writing and certified to by a responsible officer of such service.

(c) The building official shall keep comprehensive records of applications, of permits issued, of certificates issued, of inspections made, of reports rendered, and of notices or orders issued. He shall retain on file copies of required plans and all documents relating to building work so long as any part of the building or structure to which they relate may be in existence.

(d) All such records shall be open to public inspection for good and sufficient reasons at the stated office hours, but shall not be removed from the office of the building official without his written consent.

(e) The building official shall make written reports to his immediate superior once each month, or oftener if requested, including statements of permits and certificates issued, and orders promulgated.

SECTION 4. COOPERATION OF OTHER OFFICIALS.

The building official may request and shall receive so far as may be necessary, in the discharge of his duties, the assistance and cooperation of other officials of the municipality.

SECTION 5. RIGHT-OF-ENTRY.

The building official, in the discharge of his official duties, and upon proper identification, shall have authority to enter any building, structure or premises at any reasonable hour.

SECTION 6. DEFINITIONS.

(a) Wherever the word "Municipality" is used in the building code, it shall be held to mean the City of Prestonsburg, Kentucky.

(b) Wherever the term "Corporation Counsel" is used in the building code, it shall be held to mean the Attorney for the City of Prestonsburg.

SECTION 7. FEES.

(a) No permit as required by the building code shall be issued until the fee prescribed in this Ordinance shall have been paid. Nor shall an amendment to a permit be approved until the additional fee, if any, due to an increase in the estimated cost of the building or structure, shall have been paid.

(b) For a permit for the construction or alteration of a building or structure, the fee shall be as follows:

1. For all alterations, residential, or business, building permit fee for work costing under $1,000 shall be $2.50; for work costing over $1,000, and less than $5,000, the fee shall be $5.00; and for work costing over $5,000, the fee shall be $10.00.

2. For new construction of residential dwellings, building permit fee shall be $10.00 plus ten (10) cents for each one hundred (100) square feet of floor area within the dwelling, with the minimum for building permit fee being $10.00.

3. For new construction of commercial structures, building permit fee shall be $15.00 plus fifteen (15) cents for each one hundred (100) square feet of floor area within the structure, with the minimum for building permit fee being $15.00.

(c) For a permit for the removal of a building or structure from one lot to another, the fee shall be $10.00.

(d) For a permit for the removal of a building or structure to a new location within the same lot, the fee shall be $5.00.

(e) In case of abandonment or discontinuance, the cost of work performed under a permit may be estimated, an adjustment of the fee for uncompleted work returned to the permit holder, provided that no refund of a prescribed minimum fee shall be made. If such discontinuance is due to revocation of permit, a similar adjustment and return may be made; provided that no refund shall be made until all penalties incurred or imposed by due authority have been collected. After such a refund has been made no work shall be resumed until a new application has been made and a new permit has been issued.

SECTION 8. SAVING CLAUSE.

Nothing in this ordinance or in the building code hereby adopted shall be construed to affect any suit or proceeding now pending in any court, or any rights acquired, or liability incurred, nor any cause or causes of action accrued or existing, under any act or ordinance repealed hereby. Nor shall any right or remedy of any character be lost, impaired or affected by this ordinance.

SECTION 9. VALIDITY.

The invalidity of any section or provision of this ordinance or of the building code hereby adopted shall not invalidate other sections or provisions thereof.

SECTION 10. INCONSISTENT ORDINANCES REPEALED.

Ordinances or parts thereof in force at the time that this ordinance shall take effect and inconsistent herewith, are hereby repealed.

SECTION 11. AMENDMENTS MADE IN SAID CODE.

The said code is amended and changed in the following respects:

(1) Paragraphs one (1) thru nine (9) in section 107 are hereby deleted.

SECTION 12. DATE OF EFFECT.

This ordinance shall take effect ninety (90) days after its approval and publication as required by law.

ADOPTED this 18th day of August, 1964.

SMITH-SPRADLIN WEDDING
SOLEMNIZED ON AUGUST 8th

In a candlelight ceremony Saturday, August 8, at 7 o'clock in the Immanuel Baptist Church, Baltimore, Maryland, Miss Karen Mae Smith became the bride of Thomas L. Spradlin.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Smith, of Baltimore, and the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Shade Wooten, of Clarkton, North Carolina. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William G. Spradlin, of Baltimore.

The Rev. Grafton E. Keeney, pastor of Immanuel Baptist Church, officiated at the double-ring ceremony. The vows were spoken before a background of greenery, baskets of white chrysanthemums, gladioli and fern, with an arch which extended across the altar and candelabra holding lighted tapers.

Mrs. Virginia Kiel, organist, and Mrs. Vera Schmidt, soloist, presented a program of wedding music. Mrs. Schmidt sang, "At Dawning," "A Day of Golden Promise," and "O, Perfect Love" as the wedding prayer. As a benediction the wedding party recited "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of peau de soie, trimmed with Alencon lace, and a chapel train. Her fingertip veil was a pill-box of peau de soie and silk net, designed and made by the bride. She carried a cascade bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley, centered with two white orchids.

Miss Joan Smith, maid of honor, wore a floor-length gown of pink nylon organdy over taffeta, trimmed with embossed taffeta. Her hat was of pink embossed taffeta and silk net. She carried a cascade of white ruyum lilies, white and pink roses tied with pink ribbons. Bridesmaids were Miss Alyce Smith, sister of the bride, Miss Ruth Spradlin, sister of the groom, and Miss Nancy Wimmer. Their gowns and flowers were identical to the honor attendant, with their flowers being pink. Little Miss Cheryl Kovachek was flower girl. She wore a gown similar to the bridesmaids and carried a basket of pink and white rose petals. Master Kevin Roland was ring bearer.

The bridegroom chose his brother, Mr. John Spradlin, of Columbus, Ohio, as his best man. Ushers were Mr. Lynn Burton Spradlin, of Fort Bragg, North Carolina, brother of the groom, Mr. Stephen Kiel, and Mr. Charles Kelly.

The mother of the bride wore a street-length dress of baby blue silk shantung with matching accessories and two white blue-throated orchids. The groom's mother chose a green street-length dress with beige accessories and two white green-throated orchids.

Immediately following the ceremony, the bride and groom, parents of the bride and groom and the wedding party formed a receiving line in the vestibule of the church, after which a reception was held in the church fellowship hall.

The bride is a graduate of Western high school and Baltimore Business College, where she is now employed as a shorthand teacher. The groom finished school in Kentucky, served with the armed forces and is now engaged as a Maryland State Trooper.

For a wedding trip to Williamsburg, Virginia, the bride chose a baby blue suit, navy accessories and the orchids lifted from her bridal bouquet.

After August 17, the bride and groom will reside at 5903 Radecke Ave., Apt. 1, Baltimore, Maryland.

Out-of-town guests were Lacy Thompson and family, of Chadbourn, North Carolina, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Baldwin, of Whiteville, North Carolina, Mrs. Annie Page, of Clarkton, North Carolina, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Graham and daughters, of Procterville, North Carolina, Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Simpson, of Statesville, North Carolina, Mr. and Mrs. Kirk Brokaw and children, of Rising Sun, Maryland, Mr. and Mrs. John Spradlin, of Columbus, Ohio, and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Campbell, of Dayton, Ohio.

Neill-Neeley Marriage
Solemnized in Georgia

LaGrange, Ga.—The marriage of Miss Patricia Neill, daughter of Mrs. T. C. Drinnen and the late Glenn Lee Neill, and Ashley Neeley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Neeley, of Pompano Beach, Fla., formerly of Prestonsburg, Ky., was solemnized at 4 p.m. Aug. 28 at Shoal Creek Baptist Church.

The Rev. Rufus Morman, pastor of Franklin Road Baptist Church, performed the ceremony. Miss Sandra Gordy, pianist, and Miss Patricia Cook, soloist, presented a program of wedding music.

The church was decorated with palms, white tapers in seven-branched candelabra and a basket of white gladioli and chrysanthemums.

William Busby of Fort Benning was best man. Ushers-groomsmen were Daryl Yarbrough and Stephen Cottle.

Mrs. Roger Arrington was her sister's matron of honor. She wore an aqua lace dress and carried a cascade bouquet of daisies.

The bride, given in marriage by her stepfather, Mr. Drinnen, wore a two-piece dress of white lace. Her veil of illusion was caught to a coronet of pearls. She carried a satin-covered Bible topped with a white orchid and tuberose.

The bride's mother wore a yellow dress and a white cymidium corsage.

Mr. and Mrs. Drinnen entertained with a reception at their home on Hill street.

The bride and groom left for a wedding trip to be planned en route. On their return the bride will complete her course of study at The Medical Center School of Nursing in Columbus. Upon completion of her study in September she will join Mr. Neeley in Pompano Beach where he is associated with the firm of Frank Neeley & Son.

FROG INDISCRIMINATE

In Appreciation

We, the Sanders family, wish to take this means to express our deep appreciation for the many kindnesses shown us, prayers for us and for your loyalty through the years, especially for all the wonderful gifts from the Community Methodist Church, and the people of the Allen Methodist Church. We will always hold a very dear and warm spot in our hearts for all the people in Eastern Kentucky.

It is with deep regret we are leaving this part of the country, but in the work of our dear Savior and Lord, the world is our parish. We covet the prayers of each of you in our new field. We would like for any of you to write us and come and visit us. Our new address will be Rev. Leroy Sanders, Methodist Church, Hull, Illinois.

May God bless every one of you.
Your friend in His service,
THE SANDERS FAMILY
