SPEAKING OF AND FOR FLOYD COUNTY

THURSDAY, JULY 7, 1966

This Town . . . That World

Things have come to a pretty pass when you can talk to half a dozen fishermen and can't get a lie out of the lot of them. Honest as fishermen come, I hasten to add that it's not the result of any moral reform. It has simply been too hot to fish, even to waste your breath on a lie.

CORRECTED

I told a friend I had a "crick" in my neck, and he informed me I was incorrectly using the term. "A crick," said he, "is the noise a Japanese camera makes."

SO NEWSPAPERS ARE POPULAR

It says here that girls are like newspapers. They all have forms, they always have the last word, back numbers are not in demand, they have great influence, you can't believe everything they say, they get along by advertising, and every man should have his own and not try to swipe his neighbor's.

And we add: The type face they have depends upon the makeup.

UNREMITTING

The youngster in college was having a tough time with his old man. He hadn't had a check in three weeks, and he was demanding, in his way, parental love and cash evidence of same. "You are supposed to love your son and to be kind to him," he reminded his older counterpart. "What kind of kindness do you call this, not sending me a cent all this time?"

"It's unremitting kindness," the old tightwad replied.

I GIVE UP-IT'S YOUR PROBLEM

It's a bit hot to worry your noggin about such things, but if you know the answer to this one, rush it along.

BOARD PICKS AUDIT GROUP

To Review Finances Of Schools; Accept Teacher Resignations

A committee composed of each of the eight high school principals in the county and Blanche Dingus, Marcus Owens, Anna Sue Stumbo and Richmond Stone was named by the Floyd County Board of Education at its Saturday meeting here to act as auditors of internal school accounts. The internal school auditing system was ordered at an earlier board meeting. It will be concerned with the finances of individual schools, their athletic accounts and funds accrued and expended in other school activities.

Resignations of 12 teachers were accepted by the board. One of those resigning is Don Wallen, who has made an outstanding record as basketball coach at Wheelwright high school, and who is leaving the county to take a similar post in Florida. Others who resigned:

Lillian Conley and Gene Reed Martin were granted educational leaves of absence for a year. (See Story No. 2, Page 4)

MUD CREEK DRAWS OFFICIAL ATTENTION

TOUR, STUDY OF AREA SET BY OFFICIALS

Perkins Is Speaker At Community Meet Held Last Sunday

Congressman Carl D. Perkins, joined County Judge Henry Stumbo, citizens of the Mud Creek section of the county and others last Sunday afternoon in a discussion of problems there, particularly those created by the prolonged drouth and a vanishing water supply.

And next Tuesday federal, state and county agencies will be represented in another study of the situation, which will include a tour of the area, followed at 6 p.m. by a mass meeting and community rally at the John M. Stumbo elementary school.

Congressman Perkins came to the county at the invitation of Charles Dagnan, community intern, Appalachian Volunteers.

Next Tuesday's official visit to the county will be through sponsorship of the Big Sandy Area Community Action Program (CAP) and with the cooperation of Appalachian Volunteers.

Douglas H. Morrison, assistant director and consultant, Floyd county CAP office, said a survey made by his office of the Mud Creek situation shows that a number of families have been directly affected by the severe drouth. He said most of the water sources in the Ligon-Clear Creek area have impurities and that almost half the wells in the Mud Creek section have been dry at least once in the last five years, some every year.

Several families are carrying water from a single well, and water from coal-banks also is being used.

The meeting next week will, in effect, be a follow-up of last Sunday's. As at the first meeting, the problem will be how to meet a Mud Creek situation which mainly revolves around a vanishing supply of water.

Congressman Perkins told last Sunday's gathering that, even though the Water Pollution Act went into effect in 1956, it offers little to people living in isolated areas, since grants may be made only to those incorporated communities which can pay 30% of the cost of a project. Housing and Home Finance Agency grants are for only 50%, the Farmers Home Administration lacks funds, and the Accelerated Public Works Program does not offer too much to rural communities.

Perkins said that at this time an area such as Mud (See Story No. 10, Page 4)

CROWD NEAR 25,000 JAMS JENNY WILEY

A record-breaking crowd approaching 25,000 jammed Jenny Wiley State Park and the Dewey Lake area last Sunday, data released this week by Dean Murray, Dewey Reservoir manager for the U. S. Corps of Engineers, shows.

The total number of visitors for the day was placed at 24,444, almost 5,000 more than the next highest gathering, which was recorded there last year.

Mr. Murray explained that, although traffic counters as well as visual counters were used, the figures must be considered an estimate.

Traffic on both land and water was at its heaviest, several thousand persons were swimming at the Stratton Branch recreation area and also at various unsupervised areas on the lake, campers and picnickers occupied every available strip of level or

RAINS BREAK LONG DROUTH

May, June Rainfall Was Less Than Inch, Records at Dam Show

Scattered rains over the week-end brought at least temporary respite from the worst drouth to afflict Floyd county and a sizeable part of the nation in 35 years.

Early crops have been hard hit, and more rain—much more—is needed to soak the parched earth, replenish depleted water supplies and give crops hope of a fresh start.

Since April, when the rainfall recorded by Dean Murray, Dewey Reservoir manager, was 6.07 inches, little rain had fallen until last week-end. The May rainfall was recorded at .98 of an inch, and June's was only .82.

Last year's average rainfall was about five inches. The holiday break in the (See Story No. 5, Page 4)

BIG CHANGE SEEN THRU LIGON EFFORT

An assault on conditions which beset a Floyd county community is nearing the end of the second of 12 months allotted the effort, and the three main objectives of the attack already are in sight.

This is the program initiated May 9 at Ligon under a $59,150 federal grant to achieve community sanitation, health and attractiveness. It was planned by the Floyd County Community Action Committee.

John Milton Stumbo, of McDowell, given leave by the Floyd County Health Department, is director of the overall effort. Mrs. Regina Roberts, of Prestonsburg, who urged the program in the first place, is heading a health phase of the undertaking.

"And," said Stumbo this week, "the community is giving splendid cooperation."

The sanitation job includes: 1. the elimination of old outdoor privies which, long in use in the community, have contributed to stream contamination and the spread of disease; 2. a survey of drinking water supplies and an intestinal parasite program; and, 3. a beautification program which includes snagging and clearing of the stream which passes through the community, whitewashing of trees and a general brightening-up job.

The old outhouses which discharge waste into the stream are the first to be replaced with sanitary, fly-proof privies with concrete floors, solid construction, and all well-painted. Seventy-five of these are to be built, and 20 already have been completed. Nineteen of the old structures that have been replaced were at the stream bank. Seventeen unemployed fathers are working on this phase of the program, digging

PLAN MOVING 500 TO JOBS

But Screening Workers Delayed; Grants Total $231,000 for Program

The plan approved by the federal government and financed by two of its agencies to move upwards of 500 unemployed fathers and their families from Floyd and 18 other Eastern Kentucky counties to Louisville, Lexington and Northern Kentucky cities to work has not reached the action stage yet.

It awaits, for one thing, the completion of guidelines which the Division of Public Assistance would follow in screening those who would be willing to make the move. The Kentucky State Employment Service, which would develop the job opportunities, is ready, it was said here, but Public Assistance is marking time while instructions for it are being readied.

HIGH SCHOOLERS GET TASTE OF COLLEGE

Two hundred sixty-six high school students from seven Eastern Kentucky counties are getting a look at college life this summer at Prestonsburg Community College.

In an effort to stimulate cultural awareness in the students a series of special concerts are being presented at the college for the students. Groups such as the Opera Theatre from the University of Kentucky have already given performances. The students will also have the opportunity to see one of the summer productions at the Jenny Wiley Amphitheater and have dinner at May Lodge.

The program is centered around four major areas of work—an eight-week academic orientation program designed to introduce the student to physics, higher mathematics, chemistry, biology, humanities, and social sciences; a six-week foreign language program in French and Spanish; a four-week band program, and a four-week chorus program. Ninety students are in the academic program, 101 in foreign languages, 51 in band and 24 in chorus.

In addition to the main programs, each student has the opportunity to participate in a variety of recreational and cultural activities, including swimming, golf, tennis, bowling, arts and crafts, drama and music appreciation.

Transportation for all students is furnished under the program, as is one meal per day. Because of the distances involved, some

Memorial Service Is Homecoming Feature At Alice Lloyd, Sunday

A special event of the 50th anniversary homecoming of Alice Lloyd College July 3 on the campus at Pippa Passes was a mountainside memorial service for the school's late founder, Mrs. Alice Geddes Lloyd.

Alice Lloyd alumni from throughout the Appalachian region gathered at Mrs. Lloyd's grave high on a hill above the college to pay tribute to the Boston woman who adopted the hills of Eastern Kentucky as her home and founded and developed there a unique program of leadership education for mountain youngsters. The Rev. Lawrence Baldrige, of Caney Baptist Church, led the service.

About 400 alumni, students and friends of the college participated in the day-long homecoming activities.

In addition to the memorial service, the program included reminiscences by nine graduates, each representing a memorable period in the history of the college. The speakers included (See Story No. 9, Page 4)

JULY FOURTH RAIDS MADE

Two County-Line Spots Hit; Jail Abner Man In Raid Last Saturday

Operators of two places along the boundary line of Floyd and two other counties had little cause for celebrating the 4th after county and state officers had confiscated their stock of whiskey and beer.

Bill Ray Stephens was arrested at a trailer on Howard Branch, Magoffin county, across the mountain from David, and a place on Abner mountain, only a few feet inside Pike county, was raided the same day.

The Magoffin raid, made on the same trailer which was raided two weeks ago, was staged by Lieut. Lykins, Sgt. Sword and Trooper Richard Ray, of the State Police, Floyd Sheriff Joe W. Lewis, Magoffin Sheriff Wiley J. Salyers and ABC Agent Claude Flannery. (See Story No. 6, Page 4)

FORMER FLOYD MAN ONE OF TWO KILLED

Two men, one a former Floyd countyman, were killed and two women were critically injured Wednesday afternoon in an automobile collision on the Mountain Parkway, 12 miles west of Salyersville.

The dead: Willie Hall, 43, St. Mary's, Ohio, formerly of Bevinville. Ray Arnett, 35, of Lakeville, Magoffin county.

The two women, both passengers in Hall's auto, were identified as Hall's daughter, Willalee, and a daughter of Robert Stanley, of Buckingham.

The tragedy occurred about 3:30 p.m. on a rain-slick road near Adele Hall, who had been visiting relatives in this county, was driving west, and Arnett was driving toward Salyersville from Lexington. The scene was on a hill. How the collision occurred had not been established but it was said by a wrecker operator that Arnett's car was pinned against the guard rail next to his lane of traffic.

Hall died almost instantly, and Arnett lived only a short time.

The Floyd victim of the wreck was a son of Mrs. Martha Hall, of Bevinville, and the late Lee Hall.

Arnett was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Arnett, of Lakeville, and was employed in the office of the Department of Economic Security at Salyersville. He is survived by his parents, his widow, Mrs. Dolores Arnett, and three children, Michael, Stanley Ray and Paula Sue.

The body of Hall was taken to Caudill Funeral Home at Salyersville.

ONE BALLOT FOR COUNTY IS ORDERED

Quick Decision Made By Appellate Court After Friday Hearing

The Court of Appeals last Friday made a short job of it in deciding that Floyd county's local option election shall be on a countywide basis and not divided into separate polls on three ballots.

The high court heard oral arguments during the day, and before contending lawyers left Frankfort it was indicated that the move by Wet forces had lost. Next morning, the court's order was received here.

The order affirmed the judgment of the Floyd circuit court. A written opinion will be given later. The court was in the last day of its current term when the case was argued.

The legal fight began after County Judge Henry Stumbo had entered his order, setting the election on July 27 and providing for a countywide vote. Suit was filed by Don Ball to mandamus Judge Stumbo to alter his order to provide for a separate vote for each of the fourth-class towns of Prestonsburg and Martin and a third ballot to be provided for remainder of the county. Effect of the order, as sought, would have excluded the Martin and Prestonsburg vote from the countywide total.

Circuit Judge Hollie Conley denied the petition, and last Friday's hearing in the Court of Appeals was on appeal from Judge Conley's decision.

James T. Carey, Louisville attorney, and Joe P. Tackett, of Prestonsburg, representing Ball, argued for separate ballots, basing their claims on a 1963 case which held that Cumberland, Ky., a fourth-class city which was already wet, should have such a ballot and that its vote should be independent of the remainder of its county. The funeral was held Monday morning at 10 o'clock at the residence of the victim's parents, the Rev. James E. Burge officiating. Burial was made in the Spencer cemetery at Eastern, Hall Brothers Funeral Home directing.

THE COAL INDUSTRY IS ABLE TO COMPETE

The competition offered for a portion of the labor pool in this county by the unemployed fathers program has affected farmers and others seeking unskilled workers but we doubt that there is much validity to the claim made by a coal operator in Harlan county that the program has robbed the small mines of workers to such an extent that mine operation is difficult.

It is pretty generally agreed that few of the men presently in the unemployed fathers program would add to the labor force in the coal mines of this county. Few of them are by temperament or physical condition able to do the work required in an underground mining operation where a mistake or the omission of a required procedure might endanger the lives of others employed in the same mine. Men working underground are mindful of the dangers about them and will refuse to accept as fellow-workers any who might endanger their safety or the safety of others in the group.

Neither the lack of safety measures nor the wages paid in Floyd truck mines could be considered as determining factors in able-bodied, capable men preferring the unemployed fathers work to employment in the mines. The safety record in the county's truck mines has shown remarkable improvement in the last few years. In 1961 there were six fatal accidents in these mines. Last year, there was only one. It is true that there are fewer mines today than three or four years ago, but the small mines now working produce about the same tonnage as when the number of operations was at its peak.

And, we are told, earnings in these mines have improved substantially. Their payrolls make such a contribution to the economy of the county that business in general is more closely tied to and dependent upon the steady operation of these small mines than it is generally realized. Practically all the work of these mines is done on a piece-work basis, and improved tools, equipment and techniques have made possible greatly increased production per man-day. In the last three or four years, we are told, earnings have increased an average of about $6 a day. Some mines show an even greater increase than this but others fall somewhat below that average.

And workers in Floyd county's small mines have another benefit that not all such miners in other counties enjoy: 98% of the employees in all mines of the county have the full benefits of the UMWA Welfare Fund.

A small percentage of those employed in these smaller mines—men who meet physical requirements and have the necessary aptitudes—"graduate" to the payrolls of the larger, highly mechanized mining operations. In the past two years new mechanized operations have been started in the county, and they have enlisted their work force almost entirely from truck mines.

The recent combination of large, modern, mechanized operations, plus smaller but efficient and well-equipped truck mines, gives Floyd county a firmer, sounder, better established coal industry offering employment to men of varying age groups, skills and abilities. Coal research, opening permanent usages for coal beyond its traditional use as fuel in its raw form, and the huge tonnage being required by power companies in the generation of electricity serve to paint a brighter picture for coal, a picture which will not quickly fade as in the past. All this is a happy augury for what yet remains Eastern Kentucky's basic industry.

The prospects for a stable and growing coal industry, with new opportunities for the young in the areas of engineering, administration and the like, are brighter today than in many years.

All these factors considered, it does not appear to us reasonable to believe that men who are competent and able to find employment in the coal industry would be satisfied with the uncertain status of the unemployed fathers program.

A MISTAKE WE SHALL AVOID

Unless children have changed since our day, and we doubt if human nature ever naturally changes, they are pretty well convinced that the things for which Dad votes for are all right. This thinking is reflected in the political parties to which we belong. We follow the political line of our parents.

This is another reason, one of many, why we would hesitate to cast a vote for a "wet" Floyd county at the coming election. Children have a way of finding out, and we have an idea that most of them would consider such a vote as an endorsement of whiskey and beer.

Worse, they very well might take the position that Dad and Mom think whiskey stores and beer joints are all right and that, this being so, they're all right for them, too.

We shall not take that chance. We fail them enough, at best. That mistake will not be on our conscience.

Our Yesterdays

(Items taken from files of The Floyd County Times of 30 and 20 years ago.)

Thirty Years Ago

(June 26, 1936)

Decision of Special Judge K. S. Alcorn, of Stanford, Kentucky, that Ballard Hunter was not entitled to reinstatement as Superintendent of Floyd county schools was affirmed Tuesday by the Court of Appeals. Circuit Judge John W. Caudill declared this week that he would call a special session of the grand jury, if necessary, to stop the operation of slot machines in Floyd county, this statement following the discovery of one machine in a local restaurant and the reported operation of others at various points in the county. Mrs. Bertha Burchett, 40 years old, as the result of injuries sustained when she was beaten during the night, was found in serious condition at her home near Brandy Keg, Tuesday morning. In cooperation with state civic clubs of Eastern Kentucky, the Pikeville Chamber of Commerce has appointed a committee to plan a meeting to be held in Pikeville to discuss ways and means for securing the completion of U.S. Highway 23, in order to make it available for tourist travel this year. In appreciation of work done by the Works Progress Administration toward paving of Highland avenue residents of the street Friday evening spread a banquet for all officials and workers employed on the project. Married: Miss Sylvia Wallen, and Mr. Gene Hall, both of Banner, Thursday. There died: William Robinson, 35, of Dock, at the Beaver Valley hospital, Martin, Sunday; Carew Allen, 60, at home at Martin, Sunday; Brack Howard, 52, at home at Hueysville, Saturday night; Robert Rison, 43, at home at Garrett, June 6.

Twenty Years Ago

Five appeals of applicants for license to sell whiskey in this county from decision of County Judge Alex L. Davidson to refuse approval as county alcoholic beverage administrator were heard at Frankfort Wednesday. Judge Davidson refused the applications because "the well-being of the community warranted my doing otherwise." Operator reaction to the coal price increase of 46 cents a ton allowed last Friday by the Office of Price Administration was that the raise would not cover higher production costs resulting from wage increases and other strike-ending concessions made to the UMW. Establishment of two game refuges, each approximately 500 acres, one on the farm of O. J. Webb at Midas and the other on the Russell Harman farm, lower Johns Creek, were announced this week by E. R. Burke, Seventh District Supervisor, Division of Game and Fish. The Floyd County War Memorial Association was organized here Tuesday to raise funds for construction here of a memorial to war veterans. A food shortage has hit Floyd county—flake hominy is being used in rural sections in lieu of corn meal, and in the mining towns both bread and meat are painfully short. So pronounced was the shortage of bakery products, beef, pork and lard that there was talk of no work in the mines unless the basic foods for men doing such heavy work was supplied. Married: Miss Sue Hornsby and Mr. John R. Earle, both of Garrett, March 11; Miss Loubertha Hall, of Prestonsburg, and Mr. Donald Hunt, of Lancer, June 15 at Pikeville. Born: To Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Patton, of Maytown, a son. There died: Mrs. Ruby Jacobs, 23, formerly of Garrett, June 19 at Marion, Ohio.

Creek may receive a grant as high as 60% of the total amount involved in a project. He added that he believes the application for water to the Harold section and that a water and sanitation project for Right and Left Beaver Creeks will be approved by the Economic Development Administration. He suggested that after these projects are approved it may be possible for the Mud Creek area to tie into one of these larger systems.

Urging cooperation among all agencies involved or interested in the Mud Creek section, the Congressman advised an application for water to be filed with the Economic Development Administration. He also suggested that the problem be presented to the Water Pollution Control Commission in Frankfort.

To a question from Judge Stumbo, asking about the possibility of getting Mud Creek declared a disaster area as a result of the drought, Perkins said that the first step would be to get a plan in to Washington and then prove that an emergency really exists.

Judge Stumbo offered his services in contacting the Commissioner of Economic Security, seeking approval of work by unemployed fathers in the digging of wells. The move, it was decided, will be delayed, pending outcome of next Tuesday's meeting.

Harry Eastburn, director of the Big Sandy Area Community Action Program (CAP), said representatives of the Office of Economic Opportunity and Health, Education & Welfare will attend next week's meeting and join others in touring the area.

Herschell Hamilton spoke briefly of the goals residents of Mud Creek have set for themselves, and Paul D. Gearheart, president of the Floyd County Development Association, praised the work done there by VISTA and Appalachian Volunteers.

Mrs. Lena Brown had as her guests July 3, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Hartley, of Charleston, West Virginia.

Two boys, ages 14 and 15, were at the Abner mountain place raided by Lieut. Lykins, Sgt. Sword, Flanery, Lewis and Deputy Sheriff Milt Hunt and D. Martin. After the officers had found scattered bottles outside the building, the younger of the two boys remarked, "You haven't got it all." Further search uncovered more liquor behind panelling of the room.

A raid last Saturday night by Sheriff Lewis, Flanery, Deputy Sheriff Engle and Lieut. Lykins and Sgt. Ray resulted in the arrest of Willie "Bear" Little on Abner Fork where the officers confiscated four pints of "red" whiskey and caught a quart of "moonshine" which, they said, was being poured out.

Twenty-five persons were jailed over the holiday week-end—almost half of them, on traffic counts. Those booked on more serious offenses, charges lodged against them and names of arresting officers follow:

Donald Hicks, reckless driving, Constable Gillis Conn; Henry (Pete) Burchett, no operator's license, Deputy Sheriff Milt Hunt; Bee Johnson, possessing moonshine whiskey, State Trooper Spurgeon; Joseph R. DeRosette, drunk driving, Sheriff Lewis and Deputy Sheriff Engle; John Scott Clewenger, stealing, Policemen Woodrow Salyers and Bill Booth; Jeannette Miller, public nuisance, Chief of Police Bill Potter and Policemen Salyers; Jimmie Russell Carroll, driving while intoxicated and no operator's license, Sgt. Sword; Steve Shepherd, no operator's license, Troopers Ray and Herron; Charles Hall and Joe White, each charged with reckless driving and no operator's license, Deputy Sheriffs Hunt, Engle and Martin; Willie Shepherd and Perry R. Rogers, no operator's license, by Hunt, Engle and Martin; Randall Hall, drunk driving, Deputy Sheriff Hunt; Ronnie Phil Leedy, drunk driving, State Trooper Elmo Allen; Donnie Johnson, reckless driving, Deputies Martin and Hunt.

and perhaps never heretofore found in this section was reported. Stumbo said water supplies will be chlorinated next week and that this treatment will be repeated regularly.

Five elderly men are installing trash barrels along the roadside and are supervising 39 youths who work 10 hours a week snagging Clear Creek from its head to the end of the project, downstream from the Lambert school. The accumulation of years of old cans, tires and refuse are coming out of the stream. This work is expected to be completed by the end of the month.

San Antonio—President Johnson allocated $700,000 of federal emergency relief funds to flood-damaged areas of North Dakota yesterday.

Teachers employed as replacements:

Sherrill Stone, Betsy Layne; Avanelle Bradley, McDowell; Dorothy Dotson, Prestonsburg elementary; Willie Elliott and Alma Jean Wells, Osborne elementary; John W. Shepherd, Homebound teacher; Lois Ball, music teacher at Clark elementary; Dana Moore, teacher in the Martin school for exceptional children.

County Superintendent Charles Clark was authorized to act as the board's agent in preparing Title I projects under the federal education legislation. Teaching personnel for the Catch-Up program were employed.

The board voted abandonment of the Neeley rural school because its enrollment is only eight pupils. Its pupils will be transported to Bonanza, and its teacher, Walter Manns, was transferred to Prestonsburg elementary. Others transferred: Lomie Stone, from Stumbo elementary to Melvin; Phillip Chaffins, from Osborne elementary to McDowell.

The board accepted the high bid of $500 offered by Cecil and Avanelle Ousley for the Big Springs school property on Middle Creek but rejected as too low a bid in the same amount offered for the Brandy Keg school building and grounds.

The water supply for livestock and also for human consumption is low in rural sections, and the situation on Mud Creek is such that it is demanding the serious attention of federal, state and county agencies.

Expected Rush With Start Of Medicare Doesn't Happen At Floyd County Hospitals

The expected increase in the number of hospital patients with the initiation of Medicare last Friday did not materialize—not in Floyd county, anyhow.

All three Floyd hospitals told The Times this week no perceptible change in the situation had resulted from the new plan.

Prestonsburg General said that as of Wednesday morning, this week, the total number of patients there is two less than last Thursday. Beaver Valley at Martin said its patient load may be even lighter than before, and Our Lady of the Way, also at Martin, reported no material change.

HUGE UK CONSTRUCTION JOB BEGUN

U. K. STUDENTS GETTING NEW HOME—Work progresses on five new dormitories in the complex under construction at the University of Kentucky, Lexington. These five buildings will be ready for use late this year. The entire $22-million complex containing 11 buildings will be completed late next year. The complex, containing two twenty-two story towers, will house 2,700 students.

A $37.5 million capital construction program is under way at the University of Kentucky.

The program consists of some 15 projects. It includes a variety of new construction, remodeling, renovation and redecoration.

The major project in the program, to cost $22 million, is the eleven-structure dormitory complex comprised of two high-rise dormitories of 22 floors each, eight three-story low rise dorms and a three-floor central facility which houses a cafeteria, recreation rooms, lounges, a penthouse and mezzanine.

George Lee Shannon, Prestonsburg architect, and Edward D.

Stone, Lexington, are associate architects in the program. Their part of the huge program covers the low-rise structures (shown in picture above).

All of the complex units have basements which are connected by underground corridors. The basement of the central building houses a self-service laundry, luggage storage rooms, a large recreation room and a television lounge.

Buildings are all connected at ground level by covered walkways.

Scheduled for completion in late 1967, the complex will provide living and dining facilities for some 2,700 students. The first phase is scheduled for completion in late 1966. The entire complex area will be landscaped at a cost of $280,894.

A new $200,000 avenue, "University Drive," which runs along the west side of the complex, extends from Hilltop Avenue on the north to Cooper Drive on the south. Complex Road runs along the south side of the complex connecting University drive with Woodland avenue from west to east.

"OUR WATER LOOKED JUST LIKE ORANGE POP"

Says EZRA TURNER
Wayland, Ky.

"My wife is a nurse and she could not wash her white uniforms in our water."

"We had a water softener on our well but it did not solve our problem, so I called James Allen and he analyzed our water and told us we had iron water. He told us about the Everpure equipment and everything he said was true. We have no stains at all now and the water is delicious."

"During the flood of March, 1963, our water system was under water and I was worried about contamination. With the Everpure water treatment equipment I am sure I will have 'safe' water."

"We have had our Everpure Equipment for over a year and are completely satisfied. James Allen has given us excellent service on our Everpure equipment as well as our complete water system."

Ezra Turner checks his water periodically to make sure his system is operating at maximum efficiency.

Beaver Valley Among Approved Hospitals

Beaver Valley Hospital, Inc., of Martin, was among the hospitals found eligible by the U. S. Department of Health, Education, and Welfare to provide services to the older people of Floyd county under the medicare program when it began last Friday. A letter of agreement was presented last week to Dr. C. L. Allen by Thomas L. Reed, Social Security district manager, Pikeville.

Conditions for participation in the health insurance program, announced in January by John Gardner, Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare, are designed to see that Medicare patients receive quality care. Participating hospitals must also not discriminate among patients or staff on the ground of race, color or national origin.

TIMES WANT ADS PAY!

WHO IS INTERESTED -- And WHY -- IN VOTING FLOYD COUNTY WET?

1. THOSE WHO HOPE TO GET WHISKEY AND-OR BEER LICENSES.

Their interest is not in you, your home, or your children. If they were granted licenses, their profits would depend upon the volume of beer and whiskey they could sell.

2. THE DISTILLERS AND BREWERS IN LOUISVILLE AND OTHER CITIES.

They hope to find new and bigger outlets for the stuff they produce. When they sent a lawyer to Prestonsburg recently to file suit to divide the vote of the people of this county and thus give them a better chance at making Floyd county wet — these residents of distant cities were acting in their own self-interest, not for the betterment of the people who would live and work and rear their families here. Heartaches for fathers and mothers, the despair of young men in prison, the tragedy of a ruined life — their interest certainly did not consider these.

3. THOSE WHO HAVE BEEN PROMISED LIQUOR AND BEER LICENSES.

The profit motive arises again. Those who have received glowing promises should know this: The County Judge would be alcoholic administrator, and would approve applications for licenses, which would be issued by the ABC Board at Frankfort, and not by any of these who are promising licenses. Those promises that sound so alluring could remain forever just what they are at this hour — mere promises.

4. THOSE WHO STILL LABOR UNDER THE DELUSION THAT THE VOTE IS FOR STATE LIQUOR STORES.

This is pure fiction! We, the ordinary voters, will never vote on the question of state liquor stores until the State Legislature enacts a law providing for such a vote. And remember this — the Kentucky Legislature, only a few months ago, failed to take that action.

5. THOSE WHO MAY THINK LICENSE FEES CHARGED TO WHISKEY AND BEER RETAILERS WOULD LOWER THEIR TAXES.

Let's not be fooled by such unsound arguments. Let's study the figures. Floyd county may have one whiskey store for each 2,500 population. That would be 17 stores. The license fee for each may not exceed $600. Simple multiplication will prove that from liquor stores the county would derive $10,200 in license fees. There is no limit to the number of beer joints there could be, but let's say there will be 200. Each of these would pay a license not to exceed $50. Again multiplication tells the story — $10,000 from the beer dealers.

That would make a total of $20,200 to Floyd county, less the fees charged by the cities of Prestonsburg and Martin. Do you think that will reduce taxes? Do you think it will even pay the Jailer and the increased number of peace officers who will be needed to police our highways and streets — not to mention the cost of automobile wrecks, hospital and funeral bills?

Let's be sensible. If money is all that counts — if we are willing to sacrifice home, children, morals, honor, everything on the altar of Mammon — let's go all the way and license the prostitutes, the thieves and all others who commit crimes in spite of the law.

NOW--WHAT IS THE INTEREST OF THOSE WHO ARE OPPOSED TO A WET FLOYD COUNTY?

They have no hope of financial gain. They will fight whiskey and beer even at the risk of losing the friendship of some in whom they are most deeply intended.

These are the people who will be led by compassion's hand into the jails to talk with and pray for those who are needing a friend . . . into hospital rooms, seeking to help suffering humanity . . . to homes where sorrow has come. These are the people who, if Floyd county should vote wet, will be meeting human needs as best they can on those occasions when tragedy and heartache inevitably will come.

THESE ARE THE PEOPLE WHO PLEAD WITH YOU TO VOTE DRY--TO VOTE "NO" ON JULY 27.

GOV. BREATHITT REVIEWS APPALACHIAN ROAD WORK

Fifty-seven miles of Appalachian highway projects will be under construction in Eastern Kentucky by September, according to Governor Edward T. Breathitt.
As a result of the Appalachian Developmental Highway Program, Eastern Kentucky has more major highway construction under way than ever before, Breathitt said in a speech at the annual Harlan Poke Sallet Festival recently.
"Kentucky is far ahead of the other 11 states participating in the program—in miles under construction, miles under design and engineering, and money being spent and encumbered," Breathitt said.

NATURE TRAILS
By RUFUS M. REED

REVERENCE FOR ALL LIFE
Boys, let's spare the bullfrogs this summer!
Our mountain streams are dead enough as it is, what with the fish nearly all killed by poisonous acids from the strip mines plus deadly pollution from careless oil well drainage... not to mention agricultural chemical poisons, pesticides, weed killers sprayed on farm crops, pastures, along highways, railroads, and under utility lines; all of it washing down into the creeks and rivers.

Let's spare the bullfrogs this season, or the mountain creeks and rivers without bullfrogs will become silent and dead like graveyards. Without the boom of bullfrogs, the very silence of the mountains will stab one's heart awake. Our planet earth must never become a cold dead ball of rock with silent poisoned streams. When the bullfrogs are gone with the pollution, we who have loved them most in childhood shall miss their booming.

A bullfrog will cry just like a baby. Once I helped some older boys hold a big bullfrog by the hind legs while one of them whipped him with a willow switch to make him cry. That frog would cry just like a baby, begging us to stop. I never tried whipping him again. A bullfrog is sensitive and his feelings are easily wounded, as I learned the hard way when I was a boy.

But I did go bullfrogging with an older man and that was the last time! We walked along the creek bank and there were many frogs in those days. Cruel acts were done that night that seared my soul and made me resolve never again to be cruel to any living creature. We heard a big frog bellowing when we started up the creek and you could have heard him a mile away. This grown man ran and caught him. Then he made me hold the frog while he cut off his legs. He didn't kill the frog, but just set him down minus his legs and left him to die on the creek bank. Soon there was a puddle of blood where the poor, legless frog was sitting. He just sat there, bleeding and blinking his big bulging eyes. We caught more bullfrogs and this grown man treated them all the same way.

As we came back down the creek the big bullfrog was crying like a baby. He cried all night, I suppose, and in the morning he died. I found him dead in a puddle of his own blood and it smote me to the quick. Today I have faith that Albert Schweitzer's "Reverence for Life" must apply to all forms of life on earth, which are interdependent and inter-related, and not just to human life alone. I have faith that a boy who learns kindness to bullfrogs when he is very young, will not be unkind to his fellow man when he grows up.

8 MEMBERS OF FIRST CLASS TO GRADUATE FROM COLLEGE HERE RECEIVE U. K. GRANTS

Eight members of Prestonsburg Community College's first graduating class have been awarded scholarships and educational grants whose value total $6,800 by the University of Kentucky to continue their education on the Lexington campus.

Miss Glenda Hall, of Wheelwright, and Miss Marilyn Pack, of Oil Springs, have been awarded Community College scholarships. These scholarships, carrying a stipend of $500 per year, are renewable and are given each year to two outstanding sophomore students at each community college.

Dennis Henry has received a $500 Upper class Achievement scholarship and a matching Educational Opportunity grant.

Miss Helen Hall, of Allen, was awarded a $500 scholarship from the President's Progress Fund and a matching Educational Opportunity grant.

Miss Aleene Brown has received a Douthitt Scholarship of $500, plus an Educational Opportunity grant of $400.

Three other students, John Herald, Miss Kathleen Reynolds and Mrs. Barbara Martin, have all received National Defense student loans and matching Educational Opportunity grants.

"These awards are a fine indication of the trust the University of Kentucky has placed in Prestonsburg Community College," commented Dr. Henry A. Campbell, Jr., director of the college. "We hope that in the future more such awards will be forthcoming to our students who wish to go on in pursuit of a four-year degree."

Fire Cause Damage In Office and Store

Fire which broke out sometime the week-end of June 25 caused damage in the law offices of Clifford B. Latta on the second floor of the Ligon building, Court street, and to Hal's Bargain Store, on the floor below. Although most of the damage was caused by smoke, a hole was burned in the floor of the office.

Firemen conjectured that the blaze may have started from wiring of an air-conditioner. The fire apparently died out for lack of oxygen, all windows and doors of the office having been closed, and the damage was not discovered till the office was opened Monday morning.

Artist-Naturalist Harm To Be at Jenny Wiley

Artist-naturalist Ray Harm will lecture and conduct nature-walks at 10 more Kentucky state parks this summer.

These are Jenny Wiley, Levi Jackson, Buckhorn Lake, Pine Mountain, Breaks Interstate, Kenlake, Kentucky Dam Village, Lake Cumberland, General Butler, and Rough River Dam.

The two largest rivers in the United States — the Mississippi and the Ohio — meet one mile north of Wickliffe in Western Kentucky.

"HAM" RADIO OPERATORS TO MEET AT STATE PARK

The Seventh annual "ham-fest" of the Eastern Kentucky Amateur Radio Society (EARS) will be held at Jenny Wiley State Park, Aug. 13 and 14, it was announced this week by John Hayes Turnley, of Martin, president of the organization.

The event is expected to attract, as in preceding years, "ham" operators from several other states, including West Virginia, Ohio, Tennessee, Indiana and Illinois. EARS officially represents operators from the counties of Floyd, Pike, Johnson, Lawrence, Boyd, Greenup, Martin, Rowan, Fayette, Clark, Fleming, Breathitt, Perry, Harlan, Knott, Letcher, Estill and Harrison.

The first day's session will be featured by a cookout at the Stratton Branch recreation area. Sunday's section of the convention will be at the amphitheatre, with a swap session, the awarding of door prizes and installation of a complete short-wave radio station and its operation in worldwide communications throughout the day as features.

The first door prize will be a complete short-wave radio station. The public will be invited to Sunday's session. Radio "hams" have been more than pursuers of an interesting hobby in this section. In times of disaster, especially when the area was hit by floods, they have served as a communications link with the outside world and also helped isolated communities to maintain communications. The same service has been rendered in wartime.

PARK LODGES BEST IN U.S.

Says Travel Editor In "Vacations, U.S.A.," Recently Published

Frankfort, Ky. — "Kentucky's state parks have the finest overnight lodgings of any public areas in the country," says VACATIONS, U.S.A., a new book that advises the vacationer on "getting the most for your travel dollar."

Author is Michael Frome, travel editor of The Kiplinger Washington Editors, publisher of the book.

In the details describing types of vacation, Kentucky is mentioned frequently. For instance: Kentucky is recommended for a fall vacation. Morehead State University is mentioned as the site of a writers workshop this summer. Berea is called "the fountainhead of Southern Appalachian crafts." The Kentucky Derby Festival is listed in a calendar of festivals. In the section on nature camps and wildlife sanctuaries, Audubon State Park is recommended. The book credits Kentucky with "five excellent float fishing streams." Kentucky is among the states most active in encouraging farm vacations, says Frome. He gives Mammoth Cave National Park's new motel a boost.

The section on state parks says, "This state has more than a dozen resort parks," all of which have "a modern lodge designed with plenty of glass, native stone and wood, and motel-like rooms; a cluster of furnished housekeeping cottages; a lake for boating and fishing and a dining room serving southern cuisine."

Man IN or ON the Moon

One has been there a long time now. The other — a man on the moon — is a dream two of the greatest nations on earth are frantically pursuing, these days. The most important guy, however, is man where he is... now. It is with this man that we are concerned. How he lives, conducts himself, relates himself to others — all these things are of more than pure scientific importance.
