RACE FOR AUDITOR REMAINS IN DOUBT

FLOYD VOTE RECANVASS IS SLATED

Mixup in Jefferson Continues; Candidates Ask Statewide Review

The official returns from last week's election aren't all in, and there may be a change in the name of at least one elected official.

Clyde Conley, Johnson county Republican, was declared the winner of the race for state auditor over John W. Greene, Sandy Hook Democrat, but a recanvass of the voting machines has changed the picture. The final result is not expected before this week-end.

The recanvass by Tuesday afternoon had Greene in the lead by 536 votes, but still uncounted were 1,634 absentee ballots in Jefferson county. Those were tallied Wednesday, Conley edging into Greene's lead, but the Democrat still was ahead by a reported 352 votes.

By Wednesday night, errors discovered in the Jefferson county tally had Conley back in the lead. This count showed Conley led Governor-elect Nunn there by 2,000 votes.

This Town . . . That World

Now we're having trouble with the young'uns. Every time a cloud appears in the sky, they begin wishing it would snow.

We have an official announcement from County Clerk C. "Olie" Robinson which is to the effect that his office does not—repeat, does not—issue Hoover Box licenses.

AN OLD DEBT

Edgar Stephens continues to prowl among old records at the courthouse and continues to help fill this column. His most recent find is the record of the debt one Richard W. Evans owed to one John Thompson for 535 bearskins, which was made a matter of record in the county clerk's office here in 1807, accompanied by a long string of credits. The credits are quite interesting. For instance:

In 1802 the aforesaid Evans paid a buffalo (sic) valued at $45 to Thompson. Again, he paid a negro valued at $200 on the same bearskins. Then followed cash payments, and the transition from the currency of Mother England to good, old U.S. money seems to have been a bit tough, for in one entry the payment would be in so many dollars, then in the next the credit would be in pounds, shillings and pence.

Why all these sundry entries in one business deal should have concerned the clerk—in those days, William J. Mayo—is almost as puzzling as all the ins and outs of the transaction.

MARRIAGE LICENSE

And from the same source we learn that Marriage License No. 77, issued here on Oct. 11, 1810 named Richard Williamson as the groom and Jenny Wiley as the bride. This was the daughter of Thomas Wiley and the original (See Story No. 5, Page 6)

Mud Creek Bridge Contract Awarded On Bid of $293,858

A contract for the construction of a bridge and approaches over Mud Creek on the Banner-Prater Creek-Harold (KY 1426) road has been awarded by the Highway Department, Gov. Edward T. Breathitt and Highway Commissioner Mitchell W. Tinder announced Tuesday.

The project is located one mile northwest of Harold. Edwards & Webb Construction Co., Inc., Danville, submitted the low bid of $293,858.

NEW COUNCIL IN PLANNING

Upper Floyd Group Slates Organization At Nov. 28 Meeting

Formation of an organization with the specific purpose of assisting toward the development of Big Sandy River communities in the southern end of the county will be effected Nov. 28 at a meeting scheduled in the auditorium of Betsy Layne high school.

The organization will be known as the Big Sandy Community Council. Douglas H. Morrison, Floyd Community Action coordinator, said here this week.

At the request of interested citizens of the area to be included in the council, aides of the Floyd County Community Program are contacting residents of Tram, Ivel, Stanville, Betsy Layne, Justell, Mare Creek and Harold. They are working to create interest in formation of the council to work with the various programs administered under the Office of Economic Opportunity and to help residents in community development and planning.

The area scheduled for organization is the section of the county which is seeing the construction of a modern water system by the Sandy Valley Water District. Mr. Morrison pointed out that residents of the area are now being given a chance to join in improving their communities and in encouraging business and industry to locate along the path of the proposed new US 23.

The Betsy Layne gathering will be addressed by T. Coleman White and R. Eugene Ball, of the Extension Service, who will explain the work of the Northeast Kentucky Rural Community Development Association, an independent development group which offers incentive awards for community development; and by Curtis Clark, Prestonsburg city manager and executive secretary of the Prestonsburg Chamber of Commerce, who will discuss some of the progress made in the county and also assist community leaders in planning.

The incentive awards program offered by NKRCD will be sponsored locally by the Big Sandy Rural Electrification Cooperative and the Prestonsburg Chamber of Commerce.

CO. BOARD ADOPTS PERSONNEL POLICY

Recognition of teacher organizations, functions of teacher representatives and the county superintendent or his representative, rights of minorities and individuals, and methods of submitting and deciding issues are some of the items included in the statement of policy dealing with certified personnel which the Floyd County Board of Education adopted this month.

The adopted policy covers three points:

1. Members of the certificated professional staff are encouraged to make constructive contribution of their ideas on professional matters of common concern.
2. Teachers have the right to join, or to refrain from joining, as they may choose, any organization for their professional improvement, and membership in any organization shall not be required as a condition of their employment.
3. The county superintendent, the chief executive officer of the

NAME CLARK CHAIRMAN

Development Group Elects New Officers At Nov. 9th Meeting

The Floyd County Community Development Committee elected Curtis Clark, of Prestonsburg, its chairman for the next year at the annual election of officers held here last Thursday. Other officers named are:

Cecil Sturgill, of Harold, vice-chairman; Sylvia H. Newman, Hi Hat, secretary-reporter, and Jewell Hamilton, Price, treasurer.

Gene Ball, area extension specialist, presided as chairman of the meeting. The guest-speaker was Coleman White, Grayson, Ky., Area extension specialist of Resource Development.

Mr. White explained to those present about the Northeast Kentucky Rural Community Development Association, the counties involved and some of the rural development projects these counties have chosen.

Members appointed to the Northeast Kentucky Rural Development Association are:

Rev. Duncan To Speak At Community Service On Thanksgiving Day

The community Thanksgiving service will be held next Thursday at 10 a.m., at the Lancer Baptist Chapel, with the Rev. Herbert L. Duncan, pastor of the First Church of God here, delivering the sermon.

The service is sponsored by the Prestonsburg Ministerial Association and is a joint effort by member-churches. The public is invited to attend.

Annual Christmas Parade, Miss Snow Queen Pageant, Slated for Next Saturday

Saturday, November 25, has been set for the annual Christmas Parade sponsored by the Prestonsburg Junior Woman's Club to mark the official opening of the Yule season locally.

Several details of the parade remain to be arranged, but the general plan had been fairly well developed by last week.

A feature of the day will be the

TRIAL SEEN IN JANUARY

For Roy Salisbury If Shift to Clark Withstands Appeal

Unless the change of venue order entered recently by Circuit Judge Hollie Conley is voided by the Court of Appeals, Roy Salisbury will probably face trial for murder next January in the Clark circuit court at Winchester.

Salisbury's transfer to Clark county from the Floyd county jail, where he has been since his original death sentence for the slaying of Mrs. Mallie T. Denney was reversed by the Appellate Court, has been delayed, pending possible appeal of the venue order.

Commonwealth's Attorney Harold J. Stumbo said he has completed all work necessary here for the appeal, and that the appeal action now rests with the Attorney General's office. He filed notice of appeal on Nov. 2.

The same day, Burnis Martin, counsel for Salisbury, filed a motion to set aside the order for a change of venue. This motion later was overruled. (See Story No. 7, Page 6)

PLAYING WITH WORDS LEADS INSURANCE MAN FAR AFIELD TO RECOGNITION AS A POET

Three years ago, Blaine R. Hall, Prestonsburg insurance man, began writing poetry as a means of relaxation. Instead of seeking recreation on the golf course, or at some other sport, Hall began a "playing around" with words.

Word-play led him out into the fields of nuance and mood. And soon his poems began attracting attention, then found their way into print.

Only recently a collection of his poems, a number of which have been previously published, were accepted by Dorrance & Co., Philadelphia publishers, for early publication. The work, as yet without title, will be published, promoted and marketed nationally by Dorrance & Company.

One of the Prestonsburg man's poems, "The Summit Road," was published in the Winter 1967 number of South West, international literary quarterly, and the same poem has been awarded a prize by "The Manifesto," London, England.

His poem, "Strip-Miners," won first prize in one area of the 1967 Kentucky State Poetry Society contest. Another, "A Poet's Calling," won fourth place.

Now attracting attention is the volume, Contemporary Kentucky Poetry 1967, published by Friends of Kentucky Libraries. And in this volume Hall is represented by his poem, "Rude Awakening."

Mr. Hall regards the whole matter as merely a happy turn of events for him. He doesn't take himself seriously, still considers the writing he does after office hours as relaxation. "When I get to think of making money out of it, I'll be ready to quit," he says.

FIELD TRIALS, BENCH SHOW

Scheduled Nov. 22nd By Fox Hunters Assoc.; Allen Site Selected

The 1967 bench show and field trials will be held at Allen, next Wednesday, Thursday and Friday by the Floyd County Fox-hunters Association, it was announced this week.

The bench show will be held at the Allen elementary school at 7:30 p.m., Nov. 22. Jimmy Richardson, Owensville, Ky., will serve as judge, and Pete Reid, Carlisle, Ky., as ringmaster.

The cast for the field trials will be at daybreak, with roll call at 6:30 a.m. All-age and derby bounds will run together but will be scored separately.

(See Story No. 8, Page 6)

McDowell Hospital Reports More Patients Served in Past Year

The McDowell Appalachian Regional Hospital this week reported an annual increase in patients served.

Edward V. Collins, administrator of the 60-bed hospital, reported that in the fiscal year ending June 30 the hospital admitted 1,960 in-patients, as compared with 1,954 in the previous year. (See Story No. 9, Page 6)

DR. CAMPBELL GETS SECOND COLLEGE JOB

Dr. Henry A. Campbell, Jr., director of the Prestonsburg Community College, has another college on his hands.

He has been given the added assignment of representing Dr. Ellis F. Hartford, dean of the University of Kentucky Community College system, in planning and opening the Hazard Community College.

Dr. Campbell will be working in Hazard on Wednesday and Thursday of each week. Temporary offices are being opened at 511 Broadway. Renovation plans by the Hazard Independent College Foundation are being drafted. Work on the Broadway elementary building will begin as soon as possible so that classes can begin in September, 1968.

Dean Hartford announced that a permanent director of the Hazard Community College will be appointed as early as possible—hopefully, by January, 1968, and that Dr. Campbell's appointment is an interim arrangement to facilitate plans for the opening in September, 1968.

Dr. Campbell has served as director of the college here since its opening in 1964. Prior to that time he served as president of Alamogordo Community College in New Mexico and Crowder Junior College in Missouri. Dr. Campbell is a graduate of the

FLOYD TEACHER PAY SCHEDULE APPROVED

Three Not To Tour Red River Gorge

Three Prestonsburg women who were listed in last week's Times as having committed themselves to joining Saturday's hike through the Red River gorge with Justice Douglas' party said Monday that their expressed interest in preserving the gorge was mistaken for a decision to take part in the protest.

Mrs. Burl Spurlock, Mrs. H. B. Ranier and Mrs. Richard Spurlock said they will not take part in the tour of the gorge area.

KIDD DRAWS 7-YEAR TERM

Pleads Guilty Here To Robbery Charge; Two Women Fined

Ed Kidd pleaded guilty to an armed robbery charge here Tuesday, second day of the current criminal session of circuit court, and was given a seven-year penitentiary term.

Accused of the robbery of Corbett Hall, a deaf mute, at Harold, Kidd at first announced that he was pleading guilty to a crime "that I didn't do." He was reminded by Circuit Judge Hollie Conley that a plea of guilty containing such a claim of innocence was not acceptable. Then, after further preparations for the trial of the case had been made, Kidd entered his plea without reservations.

The $900 taken from Hall was later recovered.

Kidd also pleaded guilty to a charge of resisting arrest by Sgt. Sward and Trooper Ray, of the Kentucky State Police, on an occasion preceding the Hall robbery. He was given a one-year jail term to run concurrently with his prison sentence.

Mrs. Doris Kidd, wife of the defendant, and Virginia Sumler, also accused with Kidd of resisting arrest, were fined $50 each and their six-month jail terms were probated.

The only murder trial, that of Charlie Hall, accused of the shotgun slaying at Cow Creek of his brother-in-law, Bert Hamilton, is slated for November 27.

A murder indictment in the death of his wife was voted by the September grand jury for Granville Crittendon, but the accused man has not been arrested. He reportedly is residing in Chicago. Commonwealth's Attorney Harold J. Stumbo indicated this week that unless Chicago authorities succeed soon in locating Crittendon he will ask a federal warrant naming Crittendon on an unlawful flight count.

PAY RAISES UP TO $550 ARE OKEHED

Board Also Accepts Textbook Selections Made by Committee

The Floyd County Board of Education has approved the 1967-'68 salary schedule for teachers, and it reflects raises ranging from a minimum of $250 to $550 a year.

Under the new schedule the lowest salary to be paid any certified teacher—one with the barest requirements for certification and without experience—is $2,875 a year. The maximum salary for any teacher—paid those in Rank 1-A, with a master's degree, plus, and 11 years' experience—is $6,460.

The pay raises were effected by the use of every cent of Minimum Foundation funds allotted the school system for teacher salaries, plus the use of available local funds, County Superintendent Charles Clark said. He explained that the salary schedule was arrived at by a committee composed of Floyd County Education Association representatives, the county superintendent and assistant superintendent.

The board also approved the selection of textbooks made by a textbook committee composed of teachers.

At its recent meeting the board of education adopted a "Suggested Policy on Personnel Regulations and Communications." (See separate story.)

Other actions taken by the board:

1. Employed, on the recommendation of the superintendent, Ruby Jean Damron as teacher at Left Toler and Lillian Banks at Wayland elementary, and the following to serve as substitute teachers: Vivian Shannon, Mildred Anderson, Ruby Jane Pack, Bennie Stone, Jane Combs, Billy Joe Justice, Shirley Justice, Laura Ratliff, Willis Ray Hall, James M. Gibson.
2. Employed Dexter McCarty as school bus driver and Adrian Bentley as substitute driver.
3. Approved easement across the Betsy Layne school property for line of the Sandy Valley Water District.

JAIL WOMAN IN SHOOTING

Shots Reported Fired At Man Here Saturday; Tippy Drivers Jailed

Arrested here Saturday afternoon, shortly after she allegedly fired two revolver shots at Donald Bailey, Naomi Ruth Stumbo faces charges of flourishing a deadly weapon and shooting with intent to kill. She was fined $50 and given a 20-day jail term by Police Judge Earl Blackburn on a drunkenness charge.

Bailey, who may or may not have been hit by one of the shots, has not been located, police here said. The woman was arrested by Chief of Police Bill Potter and Policemen Thornsbury and Salyers.

In another police court case here Bill Baldrige was fined $100 on a drunk driving charge. His driver's license has not been revoked, pending a possible appeal. (Police Judge Blackburn has established a policy of revoking licenses of all drivers convicted of operating motor vehicles while under the influence of alcohol.)

Taubee Branham, Jr., was booked in police court on a drunk driving count Friday by State Trooper Herron.

Others booked at the county jail since Nov. 4 and charges against each follow:

- John Vanhoose, Jr., driving while intoxicated, by State Trooper Herron and Deputy Sheriff Engle; Earl Vanderpool, drunk driving, by State Trooper Richard Ray; Winfield Hale, drunk driving, by State Trooper Reed; Stuart Adams, drunk driving, by State Trooper Ray; Benny R. Lewis and Curtis Boyd, resisting arrest by Deputy Sheriff Mullins; Benny R. Lewis, a.w.o.l.; Freddie Conn, resisting arrest by Constable Ted H. Salisbury.

ENTERTAIN GUESTS

Our Yesterdays

(Items taken from files of The Floyd County Times of 30 and 20 years ago.)

Thirty Years Ago

(November 4, 1937)

With only 15 of Floyd county's 49 voting precincts counted, these are the results: Sheriff: Republican Dial Salisbury is leading the Democratic nominee, Wayne Stumbo; Magistrate, District 1: Republican Willie A. (Bill) Willis leads Penn Fitzpatrick by 102 votes; Tax Commissioner: Gomer Sturgill, Democrat, leads Fred Gearheart; County Judge: Edward P. Hill is leading Kessie Akers; County Court Clerk: Banner Meade ahead of W. F. Clark. Halbert is leading Click for jailer, and Prater is unopposed in the coroner's race. Burial: Martin, 25, of Jones Fork, was killed last week when he was run over by seven runaway coal cars on the tracks at the Elkhorn Coal Corporation's tipple at Wayland. George Jones, 39-year-old miner, died last week at his home at West Prestonsburg of injuries suffered last summer in a mishap in the Sandy Valley Coal Company mines on Bull Creek. Ben Lyons, 29, and Junior Perry, 21, both of Garrett, are receiving treatment in the Beaver Valley hospital, Martin, for injuries received in a slatefall in the mines at Garrett. Prestonsburg Mayor Arthur C. Carter won by a large margin in his bid for re-election to office. Mrs. Ethel Stratton, of Betsy Layne, and Miss Joan Branham, of Martin, were injured in an auto wreck on the Allen-Martin highway Saturday. An unidentified assailant, wielding an axe, this week seriously injured A. J. Williams, 52-year-old Wheelwright man, slashing him on the head, arm and leg. Married: Miss Bertha Mae Holbrook, of Myrtle, and Mr. Gaylord Spradlin, of Portsmouth, Ohio, October 28; Miss Lilly Stephens, of Dock, and Carson Hackworth, Sunday, October 24. Born: To Mr. and Mrs. Challie Yates, of Brainard, two daughters; to Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Robinson, of Dock, a son, last week. There died: Mrs. Eva Adams Griffith, 49, at home at Lackey, Saturday; Mrs. Centha Conley, at the home of a son, Walter Conley, at Lackey, October 26; Mrs. Bergie Auxier, 66, at home at Lancer, Saturday.

(November 18, 1937)

Two persons were killed as the result of auto wrecks occurring on successive days of the past week-end at Hueysville. Charlie Howard, 14, of Salt Lick Creek, died Sunday morning at the Stumbo Memorial hospital, Lackey, of injuries sustained Saturday afternoon when he was struck by a hit-run driver as he stood at the roadside near the junction of the Salt Lick-Beaver Creek roads; almost exactly 24 hours later, seven-months-old Orlena Kilburn, was fatally injured when her mother, Mrs. Flora Kilburn, backed an auto over an embankment. Virgil Fields, 28, was shot and killed Sunday night at his home at Wheelwright. Twenty-four murder cases are slated for trial at the January term of the Floyd circuit court, the docket released by Circuit Clerk Troy B. Sturgill shows. State Senator Joe P. Tackett was seriously injured Friday night when his auto rammed into a telephone pole near Ironton, Ohio. This, in The Times this week, is "right interesting": When radiators were turned on in the capitol building early this week, bed-bugs, enlivened by the heat, crawled forth to dispatch Kentucky's highest jurists, who vacated their meeting place in search of other quarters. F. M. Akers, brother of Mrs. W. B. Boyd, of Prestonsburg, sustained back injuries Saturday when caught beneath a rock which fell from the roof of a country "coal bank" on Prater Creek. There died: Mrs. M. C. Sexton, of E. Hill, Nov. 6, at the Paintsville hospital; Miss Dollie Hammond, 20, of Northern, last Wednesday at the Stumbo Memorial hospital, Lackey.

Twenty Years Ago

(November 6, 1947)

With 400 precincts yet to be counted, election returns thus far give Democratic gubernatorial candidate, Congressman Earle C. Clements, a lead of 91,000 over Attorney General Eldon S. Dummit, Republican, of Lexington. The early vote tally indicates the entire Democratic state ticket has been voted into office. Results of City Council elections over the county: In Prestonsburg, the Beehive ticket elected six of eight Councilmen, with the Victory ticket winning both Ward 2 posts; at Wayland, all five candidates of the Pick and Shovel, UMW-supported ticket were elected; in Wheelwright, it was a clean-cut administration victory for the People's ticket; the New Deal ticket at Martin made a clean sweep. A posse of officers was scouring the Buck's Branch and Stephens Branch section of the county tonight (Thursday), searching for the gunman who, late today, shot and wounded Deputy Sheriffs Ed Craft and Scott Compton. The loss of a firecracker used in training young dogs resulted in the explosion Sunday of a tank of gasoline, spraying flaming liquid over 21-year-old John Robert Gilliam, Betsy Layne native, and causing his death Monday in the Methodist hospital, Pikeville. The Prestonsburg City Board of Education voted Wednesday night to lease the field owned by Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Webb, which, until this year, has served for several years as the Black Cats' home football field and took steps toward awarding a contract for installation of a lighting system and for enclosing the field by fence. The local option election in Pike county Oct. 4, recorded as a victory for prohibition, was challenged as "fraudulent" today in a circuit court suit. Married: Miss Kathryn May, of Ivel, and Mr. Paul T. Carpenter, of Jackson, Ky., Oct. 11 at Ivel; Miss Jean Reed and Mr. Gomer R. Martin, Jr., both of Drift, Oct. 3 at Lexington; Mrs. Ida Woods, of Prestonsburg, and Mr. James Steele, of Woodbine, Ky., Oct. 20. Born: To Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Hall, of Prestonsburg, a son, Oct. 31 at St. Mary's hospital, Huntington. There died: Ronald Smiley, two-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Ermon Smiley, of Dana, Saturday; James Roe McCoy, 65, of Auxier, Wednesday at the Prestonsburg General hospital; Harry Lee Mullins, 66, at home at Bevinville, Monday; Mrs. Margaret Bailey Ousley, 41, at home at Hippo, last Thursday; Adam Noble, 42, at home at Garrett, Saturday; David Hatler Gearheart, 52, Floyd native, Oct. 25 at a Havre, Mont., hospital; Mrs. Laura Coburn Bailey, 75, at home at Handshoe, Friday; Mrs. Rosa Woods Bateman, 72, of Frankfort, Ohio, native of Allen, last Wednesday in a Greenfield, Ohio, hospital.

(November 13, 1947)

Reward of $100 was offered this week by Sheriff Troy B. Sturgill for the arrest, or for information leading to the arrest of the gunman who late last Thursday shot and wounded Deputy Sheriffs Ed Craft and Scott Compton on Buck's Branch, near Martin. Rebound of the Wayland city election vote in Haymond and Wayland precincts and subsequent judgment this week of Circuit Judge E. P. Hill changed the election results from a sweep by the Pick and Shovel ticket to three Councilmen elected by that ticket to two by the Brocm ticket. Five defeated City Council candidates in the town of Martin election filed suit in circuit court Wednesday for a recount of the vote in John Possum and New Martin precincts. Mrs. Sally Goble, of Lancer, administratrix of the estate of her six-year-old daughter, Edna Jane, who was fatally injured Oct. 6 when struck by a truck of Champion Stores, Inc., has filed suit in Circuit Court against the company and the driver of the truck, seeking damages of $40,000. To raise funds for a public library, the Prestonsburg Woman's Club will present at the grade school auditorium here, Monday and Tuesday, the comedy, "Cornzapoppin," with Mrs. Ethel Logan Moore directing. On the outcome of Friday night's encounter between the Prestonsburg Black Cats and the Paintsville Tigers hinged the grid championship of the Big Sandy Conference and the right to represent the conference in the Flood Bowl game at Pineville. Dr. Earl T. Arnett was slightly injured last Thursday night when his auto was forced from the Salyersville-Paintsville road and rolled over an embankment. Married: Mrs. Barbara Reynolds Stone, 81, and Garfield Wright, 85, both of Allen, Nov. 4, here; Miss Jean Pulley, of Richmond, Va., and Cpl. Nicholas Lalich, formerly of Wheelwright, Oct. 25 at Fort Lewis, Washington; Miss Hattie Mae Abney, of Winchester, and Mr. Arthur Patrick, formerly of Wheelwright, Nov. 3 at Clarinda, Iowa; Miss Leslie Fay Comstock, of Allen, and Mr. Joe Burke, of Prestonsburg, at the Methodist Church, Paintsville. There died: James Fitzpatrick, 52, Hunter miner, Sunday at the Beaver Valley hospital, Martin; Mrs. Shered Robinson, 63, of Whitaker, Wednesday at the Paintsville hospital.

Reynolds Thanks Dist. 95 Voters

I am deeply grateful for the splendid support the voters gave me in my race for re-election as their Representative, and I wish I could see each of you to tell you how grateful I am. I expect to serve the people to the fullest extent of my ability. I will be a working Representative, as in the past. I carry no grudges from this campaign, and now hope we can all do a good job for Kentucky. W. J. REYNOLDS

In the next 10 years, University of Kentucky enrollment is expected to increase by nearly 100 percent.

Funeral for War Victim Held at Drift, Tuesday

Funeral services for 18-year-old Marine Private Luther E. Preston, former Drift resident, victim of the Vietnam fighting, were held Tuesday at 11 a.m. at a Drift church, the Rev. Bob Martin officiating. Preston died Nov. 5 at Station hospital, Da-Nang, Vietnam, of wounds received in combat, October 26. He was a son of Willard Preston, of Grundy, Va., and the late Minnie Dodd Preston. Besides his father, he leaves a brother, Ronald W. Preston, of Grundy. Burial was made in the Drift cemetery at Drift, the Hall Brothers Funeral Home directing.

American Heritage Day Observance Scheduled At College, Nov. 26th

The American Heritage Committee of the Kentucky Society, Daughters of the American Revolution, announced this week that American Heritage Day will be observed at Prestonsburg Community College, Sunday, November 26, 3 to 5 p.m. Arts and crafts by the students and faculty of the college and gifts to the Big Sandy Heritage Foundation will be on display. A program of Early American literature, poetry and folk music will be presented. The public is invited.

Open Fires Forbidden, Fire Dept. Points Out; Penalties Are Cited

The Prestonsburg Fire Department pointed out this week that the fire prevention codes here forbid any person to kindle an open fire within the fire limits of Prestonsburg without special permission from the fire department. Any fire must be guarded by the department, and a fee will be charged for this service. It also was emphasized that any person violating this provision will, upon conviction, be fined not less than $10 nor more than $100, or imprisoned for not more than 30 days, or both fined and imprisoned. The fire department explained that the restrictions it has imposed here are made on orders of the state fire marshal.

SPORTS AFIELD

By TED KESTING

Foxhound, coonhound, bear and lion hound or rabbit hound—the one most important element in the training of any trail hound is field experience. Dog trainers can teach their charges niceties of manners in handling game and under the gun, but no one can actually teach a dog to hunt or even make him hunt. A gun dog can be made to cover ground in a certain way and go to objectives pointed out by his master, but he's probably running and quivering his ground because he knows he has to, not because he wants to. There is no way to teach hunting desire, but experience, particularly in the company of other dogs of the same breed, will encourage and develop it. Early experiences in the field are not without certain dangers for young dogs. When young coonhounds are in their first coon race, for instance, it is better to let them watch the older hounds fight the coon than run the risk of having the pups badly cut or scratched. "Blooding" young hounds lends great encouragement to them, but it is chancy to let them get mauled. A vicious coon can make some inexperienced young hounds all the more determined and furious. More timid ones, however, may become ultra-cautious if they get raked with claws and fangs. So don't be in a hurry to have every young coonhound carry his own weight. Hunt him with older hounds for a season or two. Running young hounds on red foxes can also be risky, cautions Henry P. Davis, Sporting Dogs Editor of Sports Afield Magazine. A man in Arkansas once had four fine young Walker foxhounds shipped to him from Kentucky. After proper acclimating, he was anxious to give them some field experience. He did not know it was a red fox his pack had jumped, and when the dogs swung by he turned the young hounds in. This old red fox was out of his usual territory and had his running shoes on. The pack faded out of hearing in the distance, and the owner did not pick up its cry again that night. Three of the young Walkers never did come back—nor was there any response to ads in three newspapers in that county. The fourth returned to the kennel two days later with three older hounds, all worn to a frazzle. He later became the best hound in the pack, and he sired many good ones. Despite the risks, the more often young hounds are hunted, the more contacts they have with the desired game, the sooner they learn the running habits of the game and become proficient in the chase.

Fire Department To Sponsor Dinner

The volunteer fire department at Allen is sponsoring a dinner Saturday from 4 till 8 p.m. to raise funds necessary for its continued operation.

It was explained that the fire department, which was organized in 1961, has all its equipment paid for but settling that debt exhausted its funds to the extent that now the fire department does not have enough money to pay for insurance on the equipment or to meet other expenses.

The dinner will be held in the Allen grade school cafeteria.

Former Coach Here One of Fifty Inducted To Ohio Hall of Fame

William B. Damron, former Prestonsburg high school coach and now principal of the Zane Trace school, near Chillicothe, Ohio, was one of 50 coaches recently inducted to the Ohio Hall of Fame.

Before becoming a school principal, Damron was so successful as an Ohio athletic coach that he recorded 137 wins. He and other top coaches were honored Oct. 27 in exercises held at the Ohio State University fieldhouse.

THANKS VOTERS

wish to acknowledge, on behalf of the Democratic party in this county, our gratitude to the voters for their splendid support in the recent election.

For those who opposed us we hold no ill-will. We hope that Governor-elect Nunn will carry out the program he has proposed and that the progress of our state will not be impeded.

She also leaves 37 grandchildren.

The funeral was held Sunday at 10 a.m. at the Holybush Regular Baptist Church, of which she was a member, the Revs. Russell Jacobs and Wallace Calhoun officiating. Burial was made in the Hague Ousley cemetery on the Spurlock Fork of Middle Creek under the direction of the Carter Funeral Home.

Deborah Newsome Tapped for "Who's Who"

Deborah Raye Newsome, of Teaberry, is among 37 seniors at Eastern Kentucky University named to "Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges."

Recommendations for selection were made by a faculty committee, subject to the approval of the national selection organization. Criteria for eligibility in the national selection include scholarship, leadership, service and future potential.

Each member is awarded a certificate by the society, and his or her achievements are listed in the "Blue Book" published annually by "Who's Who."

At Eastern, members of "Who's Who" are honored by the Millstone, student yearbook, in an honors section.

Miss Newsome, a health and physical education major, is the daughter of Mrs. Elva D. Newsome, of Teaberry. She is a 1964 graduate of Betsy Layne high school.

consideration. The superintendent is to make periodic reports to the board on progress achieved. Issues proposed for presentation and consideration are to be submitted in writing by the recognized organization, or by the board of education, on or before November 30.

Complete text of the policy statement spells out the steps to be taken on proposals, consensus reports, separate reports and the like.

The policy statement cites its objectives as these:
To improve teacher-administrator-school board-community relationship and communications within the school district; provide a procedure for the presentation, study and solution of concerns and problems of the certificated professional personnel; and to coordinate and direct the combined efforts of the instructional staff, the administration and the board of education to the end that the best possible education for each pupil may be achieved.

year. These patients last year received 12,959 days of care, as compared with 13,130 in the previous 12 months.
Collins listed these other activities at the hospital in the last year: 3,383 emergency room visits, 482 operations, 9,231 X-rays, 5,532 laboratory services, and 13 babies delivered.
Cost of operating the hospital the last fiscal year was $969,235. These expenditures included $98,059 for salaries, $425,738 for supplies and $28,916 for utilities.
Revenue during the year totaled $906,200. Gains at five of the nine ARH hospitals helped offset the $63,036 deficit at the McDowell hospital.
Investment in the hospital is $2,135,488 for building and equipment. The hospital has 104 employees.

Eastern Grid Coach To Speak at Annual Grid Banquet Here

Roy Kidd, head football coach at Eastern Kentucky University, Richmond, will be the speaker at the Prestonsburg high school football banquet next Tuesday evening at 6 o'clock. The event will be sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

The banquet, which will be held at the high school cafeteria, will have the air of a victory dinner, since the team this year won 10 games while losing only one for one of the finest seasons in the history of the school.

Awards will be made to the most valuable player, lineman of the year and back of the year. Trophies for athletes so honored will be supplied by Francis Stores, B. F. Casual Shop and Ted Hicks, Singer dealer.

Coach Kidd was an all-state player in two sports, football and basketball, while a student at Corbin high school and was a Little All-American quarterback at Eastern. He has been coach of Eastern's Maroons since 1963.

During his high school coaching days he was KHSAA Coach of the Year in 1961. To many sports followers he is equally well remembered for one afternoon's play in 1963. That day he intercepted three passes thrown by Johnny Unitas, Baltimore Colts' great quarterback who at the time was throwing the ball for the University of Louisville. In the same game Kidd threw three touchdown passes of his own to lead Eastern in defeating U. of L.

Banquet tickets are on sale at Francis Stores, Fountain Korner Drug, Grace Burke Fabric Shop or by any Jaycee.

Miss Lena Johnson Dies at Melvin Home; Funeral Will Be Friday

Miss Lena Johnson, 65 years old, died Tuesday at 11:15 p.m. at her home at Melvin, following a lingering illness.

Born at Weesbury, Feb. 15, 1902, she was a daughter of the late Henry and Hannah Hall Johnson.

Surviving are four brothers, Milton, Dow and Kelly Johnson, all of Melvin, and Mander Johnson, of Weesbury, and a sister, Mrs. Mary Tackett, of Melvin.

Funeral services will be held Friday at 10 a.m. at the home of Charley Tackett, of Melvin, ministers of the Regular Baptist Church officiating. Burial will be in the Tackett cemetery at Melvin under the direction of the Merton Funeral Chapel.

HOME FROM HOSPITAL

AFTER DEC. 12--WHAT?-- HARMONY OR DOGFIGHT?

Louie B. Nunn, the Republican who broke the Democratic hold on the statehouse at Frankfort last week for the first time in 24 years, will become Governor December 12. And after that--what?

At a victory celebration in his hometown of Glasgow last Thursday Governor-elect Nunn pleaded for political unity.

"There's been speculation that because I am of one party and the legislature and several members of the cabinet are of another that trouble lies ahead," he said. "I do not believe this."

"I cannot believe that responsible leaders of either party would put in jeopardy the future of Kentucky... for the sake of selfish partisanship."

Nunn said he expected opposition, but that he hoped that it would be "loyal opposition, constructive opposition, not personal or destructive opposition."

"For my part and for those who were elected with me, let me say only this: We will enter office with an open mind and in a spirit of cooperation desiring only to make Kentucky a better place in which to live," the governor-elect pledged.

Later in the week, following a closed meeting with the 24 Democratic state senators and senators-elect, Democratic Lt. Governor Wendell Ford expressed similar hopes.

Ford said he "will not make a captive governor" of Gov.-elect Nunn.

Ford said that whenever Nunn leaves the state and he becomes acting governor, "he (Nunn) does not have to worry about me calling a special session or signing a lot of orders."

The senators went to Frankfort at the invitation of Ford, whose own Senate seat will be vacated automatically when he takes over his new post on Dec. 12. Ford's successor will be chosen at a special election later.

"I would say that the mood of the conference was one of cooperation with the Republican governor," said one senator afterward. "There was no talk of ripper legislation or that sort of thing."

The newcomers were lectured on party responsibility and told how Democrats should stand together and unite in caucus, one conferee said.

"However, a number of those present made it plain that every man ought to have a right to walk out of a caucus if his conscience, or his commitments on certain legislation, require him to do so," a senator said.

One conferee said the group agreed that the Democratic senators should provide not only "responsible opposition" to the Republicans but should advocate a program that the Democrats could be proud of.

The Legislative Research Commission meets next week to fix the dates of the three-day legislative conference of all 138 members of the 1968 legislature.

Mrs. Corda Harless, 85, Former Floyd Woman, Is Victim at Hazard

Mrs. Corda Harless, 85, former Floyd countian, died Saturday at the home of a daughter, Mrs. Ega Fields, at Hazard, after an illness of five years.

Mrs. Harless was a former resident of the Sowers Creek section, this county, but had lived in Perry county for the past three years.

A member of the United Baptist Church for 40 years, she was a daughter of Frank and Mint Pinion and was the widow of James A. Garfield Harless.

Surviving, besides Mrs. Fields, are another daughter, Mrs. Margie Wiseman, of Marion, Ohio; two sons, Ira Harless, of Emma, and James A. Garfield Harless, Jr., of Wharton, W. Va.; two brothers, Hince Pinion, of Dayton, Ohio, and Malcolm Pinion, of Ohio; two sisters, Mrs. Birdie Thompson, of Tram, and Mrs. Lula Harless, of Ohio.

Funeral rites were held Tuesday at the Maggard Funeral Home at Hazard. Burial was made in the Hazard cemetery.

Alex DeLong, Age 91, Passes Away Nov. 15; Funeral Will Be Friday

Alex DeLong, 91 years old, of Lancer, died Wednesday at the Rest Haven Rest Home in Paintsville. He had been in failing health for some time.

A retired merchant and a member of the First Christian Church at Paintsville, he was a son of William and Rebecca Alley DeLong. His wife, Mrs. Virginia Goble DeLong, died last year.

Survivors include one son, Oral DeLong, of Lancer; three daughters, Mrs. Edna Collins, Paintsville, Mrs. Anna Snapp, of Richmond, Ky., and Mrs. Mary Shadle, of Centerville, Ind., and a brother, John T. DeLong, of West Van Lear.

Funeral rites will be conducted Friday at 1 p.m. from the chapel of the Carter Funeral Home, with Jerry Ginnan the officiating minister. Burial will be in the Floyd Goble cemetery at Lancer.

HOME FROM VACATION

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Allen have returned to their home at Martin after spending a vacation of two weeks in Florida. They visited friends and relatives in Ormond Beach, Clearwater, St. Petersburg and Bradenton. Mr. and Mrs. Allen had as their guests, last week-end, their son, Thomas E. Allen, of Dayton, Mrs. Lois M. Allen and daughter, Kathy Sue, and Bill Jansen, all of Lexington.

BIRTHDAY DINNER

Then, on Nov. 9, defense counsel filed a motion to strike the attempted appeal by the Commonwealth from Judge Conley's order. In this motion it was argued, in effect, that the Commonwealth has nothing at stake in the matter of getting a fair trial.

The Commonwealth wants to get a high court decision on the change of venue order before the case is brought to trial, and thus remove possible grounds for an appeal of the trial verdict, it has been explained.

Expresses Appreciation

I would like to take this opportunity to express my appreciation to the citizens of Floyd county who supported me in the recent November election for the State Senate. A candidate for public office can not, by himself, be successful in any election without the support and advice of many persons. To those of you who assisted me in my campaign, I am deeply indebted.

I would like to commend my opponent, his family and supporters, for the very high type of campaign which they conducted. And particularly, I would like to extend my sincere thanks to the voters of the 29th Senatorial District.

PLANT WORK ON SCHEDULE

VIEW FROM ABOVE. The new cooling tower at Kentucky Power's Big Sandy Plant shows the construction area for the plant addition and the existing plant in the background. This view was made from a platform which was raised to the top of the cooling tower, 370 feet up.

Work on the Kentucky Power Company's plant addition to the Big Sandy Plant near Louisa will continue through the winter.

Bernard O. Henniger, the company's resident engineer for construction, said about 600 construction workers are on the job, which he describes as "very close to being on schedule." He expects peak employment to reach almost 1,000 workers during next spring and summer.

Work has been under way for about 18 months on the $100 million addition. The plant is scheduled for completion in 1969 when its capability will be 1,065,000 kilowatts. The addition of the 800,000 kilowatt Unit No. 2 will make Big Sandy the largest investor-owned power station in Kentucky.

Concrete pouring for the shell of the new cooling tower is completed, reaching a height of 370 feet. The new tower is 50 feet taller than the cooling tower serving Unit No. 1. The Unit No. 1 cooling tower was the first of its kind built in the Western Hemisphere. The cooling towers provide the cool water required by generating units' condensers for steam condensing purposes. The towers are hyperbolic shaped to produce the natural draft of air that performs the cooling function.

As estimated, 4,000 cubic yards of concrete was used in the new cooling tower shell. A total of 78 lifts or pours of concrete of about four feet each went into the tower shell. The thickness of the reinforced-steel concrete shell varies from three feet at the top of the legs to 5 1/2 inches for most of the tower's height. An estimated 10,000 cubic yards of concrete will be used in the total cooling tower, including the foundation and collecting basin.

The Marley Company, builder of the first cooling tower, is also building the second tower. The tower will be completed by next September.

Mr. Henniger said that steel erection for the boiler area is progressing with a total of 6,000 tons of steel erected by the Bristol Steel Company. Steel for the boiler area has reached a height of about 250 feet.

Sollitt Construction Company has poured almost 47,000 cubic yards of concrete for the plant area.

The stack, being built by Custodis Construction Company, has reached an elevation of about 180 feet. It will reach a height of 926 feet — making it among the world's tallest.

Each ring in the steel-reinforced stack is about 7 1/2 feet high. Twenty-four rings have been poured, leaving another 86 rings to be poured before completion.

Another major activity under way at Big Sandy Plant is the field assembly of many miles of heavy fabricated pipe and circulating water pipe. Henniger also indicated that the excavation and backfilling at two coal handling stations was being completed in preparation for the pouring of concrete for foundations.

The expanded railway facilities are nearing completion by the Deppen Company. All of Big Sandy Plant's coal is delivered by the Chesapeake & Ohio Railway from Eastern Kentucky mines. Unit 1 uses about 3/4-million tons of coal per year while Unit 2 is expected to use an additional two million tons of coal a year.

Mr. Henniger said that construction work, in addition to the contractors indicated, was being done by Foster-Wheeler Corporation, boiler; B. F. Shaw Company, piping; Inman and Associates, electrical; and Union Boiler Company, underground piping and mechanical work.

NATURE TRAILS

By RUFUS M. REED

THE SCREECH OWL
Don't call the screech owl a screecher. It doesn't screech. It is a soft tenor singer and has a quivery, tremulous voice; its song has a tremolo effect but is never screechy. The person who named this bird, "Screech Owl," must have had in mind the loud eerie shriek of the great, horned owl, which squalls like a wildcat when disturbed.
What has become of all the pretty, little screech owls? I've not seen or heard one in several years. I used to hear them often singing their soft, quavering tenor on still autumn nights and I enjoyed it very much.
There is a note of melancholy in the screech owl's quivery wail; it seems to lead a melancholy life, and no wonder. It is violently hated by all the other birds.
Thoreau, the naturalist, interpreted the bird's song to mean something like, "Ah-me-oh my—I-I wish I—I had never been born into this unfriendly world."
The enemies of the screech owl are birds such as bluejays, cardinals, flickers, goldfinches, downies and some others. They heap curses and threats upon its head and attack it when they catch it out in the open. The birds all gang up on it and raise a loud hue and cry; they flog it and curse it and treat it so badly the bird becomes frightened and bewildered and hides in some dark hole to escape its attackers. The screech owl sometimes catches their young when hungry, so they regard it as one of their worst enemies.
The main diet of the screech owl consists of mice, crawfish, lizards, frogs, toads and many kinds of insects, like grasshoppers, crickets, cutworms, beetles and moths. A screech owl's stomach was once examined and found to contain as many as 50 grasshoppers. Another bird's stomach yielded 18 of the obnoxious May and June beetles, which produce the big white grubs so destructive to gardens. The screech owl is really a benefactor of man by destroying mice, rodents and many kinds of insects.
I believe one big reason for this bird's decline is the wholesome use of poisonous sprays. I believe the screech owls have been poisoned by eating insects which have been sprayed with dangerous pesticides. Many others of our finest birds have met a similar fate and some are almost extinct.
If the owls and hawks and other birds of prey are destroyed, how will man raise his crops?

May I take this opportunity to thank all the voters—Democratic and Republican—who voted for Louie B. Nunn and his ticket. The votes cast expressed the confidence of people throughout our county that Louie B. Nunn will be a Governor for all the people. The doors will be open to ALL because there are no ill feelings toward the ones who voted for the opposition.

I personally feel the best people on earth live in Floyd county. May the harmony for the next four years be a symbol of independence for all Floyd countyans.

Parley On Alcoholism Slated at Louisville

Frankfort, Ky.—A special Governor's Conference on Alcoholism will be held Nov. 29 at the Sheraton Hotel in Louisville. Gov. Edward T. Breathitt is calling the conference as part of a "stepped-up effort by the state to tackle the problems of alcoholism at all levels."
"Alcoholism is an illness," he says, "not as tangible as the ordinary infection, but just as insidious and as infinitely costly to our communities, state and nation, in cold hard dollars as any infection that ever existed."
The conference will focus on:
1. New approaches to treatment and rehabilitation of alcoholics.
2. Needs of the acutely intoxicated alcoholic.
3. Activities of the new Division of Alcoholism in the State Department of Mental Health.
Participating will be physicians, psychiatrists, mayors, county and city judges, legislators and other concerned citizens.
For the first time, there are now 12 regional community mental health centers to provide help for the alcoholic and his family in the state.

WAUGH IS P.-T.A. SPEAKER

The Allen elementary P.-T.A. met at 7 p.m., Nov. 9, in the auditorium with the vice-president, Bill Ratliff, presiding. Mrs. Bob Martin read the secretary's report and Mrs. Tom Porter gave the treasurer's report. The Rev. Earl Waugh, pastor of the Baptist Church, spoke on "Character and Spiritual Education." Mrs. Virginia Goble's first and second grade won the room count, with Miss Glenda Amburgy's seventh grade being second. The P.-T.A. was shown the three awards won in the last two years by the group — the Acorn Award, the Safety Award, and the Gold Seal Award. The awards were framed and will be hung in the school lunchroom.

A committee composed of Ray Brackett, Don Willis and Lewis Campbell was appointed to study and report on the cost of black-topping a small area of the school ground that could be used for physical education classes. Miss Glenda Amburgy and Mrs. Ray Brackett were appointed to edit the cookbook which should be offered for sale around Christmas. The next P.-T.A. meeting will be Dec. 14 at 7 p.m. All parents and friends are urged to attend.

MAYTOWN SCHOOL EVALUATION CONCLUDES AEW OBSERVANCE

Maytown high school concluded its observance of American Education Week Friday with an evaluation of the school by a team from the State Department of Education, a local citizens group, and a committee of juniors and seniors of the school.

The State Department team included Patrick West, area supervisor, Wendell Cave, science supervisor, William Hampton, social studies, and the Conley Manning, health and physical education. Mr. West spoke for the group at the assembly of parents, teachers, and pupils and reported that the Maytown school is doing "a good job" with present facilities, and could look forward to greater progress when the Right Beaver high school is a reality.

Edward Robinson, postmaster here, reported to the assembly the findings of the citizens group which included Mrs. Roland Burchett, Mrs. Kenneth Blevins, Mrs. Henry May, Mrs. Paul Spencer, Mrs. Thomas Flanery, and Ashland Salisbury.

Tom Stewart reported to the assembly the observations of the student committee which included Anna Howard, Dianna Ousley, Elda Black, Pam Hicks, Fred Reed, Jim Bailey, and Morton Adkins, Jr. This group was strangely impressed with the great change from what they remembered from their elementary school days.

Following assembly the three evaluating teams met informally at tea with the faculty and interested parents. More detailed questions were discussed.

Last Thursday, representatives from institutions of higher learning met with the senior class and presented their programs. These included Roger Jones and Dorothy Conley, Morehead University; John Vickers and Bonnie Crisp, Eastern Kentucky University; V. O. Turner, Pikeville College; Walter Frasure, Prestonsburg Community College; Joan Hern, Pat Hicks, and Tom Harmon, Alice Lloyd College; Harold Rice, Mayo State Vocational School. At assembly Mr. Vickers, Miss Crisp, Mr. Jones, Mrs. Conley, Mr. Rice, Miss Hern, Miss Hicks, and Mr. Harmon spoke to the top six grades, faculty and parents on the importance of a continuing educational process for a good life.

On Wednesday the entire school paraded for education, led by Silas Derosssett in the Floyd county sheriff's office patrol car. On the reviewing stand were Verne Horne, KEA representative, Ronald Turner, president of Floyd County Education Association, Homer Hall, director of regional libraries, Henry Martin, dean of students, Eastern Kentucky University, W. J. Reynolds, state representative, Nancy Blevins, president of the Maytown Woman's Club, Rev. Leonard Sumner, May-town Methodist Church, and Edwin V. Stewart, Maytown school principal. Fifteen of the parents who were to relieve teachers of classroom duty that afternoon reviewed the parade along with other interested patrons.

At 10:30 Charles Clark, of Floyd county schools, spoke to the top six grades, faculty, and parents on "Education in Scandinavia," and Wayne Ratliff, assistant, explained "The Cost of Education in Floyd County." (Mr. Clark spent three weeks last summer in the Scandinavian countries observing educational practices.)

Parents who gave their afternoon so that teachers could leave their classes were: Mary June Webb, Juanita Compton, Beulah Prater, Lassie Patton, Gloria Jones, Marcia Bishop, Marie Stephens, Janet Halbert, Jean Rowe, Thelma Hicks, Wiima May, Minnie Conley, Beile Adkins, Diane Branham, Ella Faye Fraley, Sue Miller, and Mary Jo Halbert.

The formal observance of American Education Week at Maytown began Sunday, November 5, at the Maytown Methodist Church when the Rev. Leonard Sumner brought the message, "How Good Are Your Schools at Shaping the Character of Youth?"

A Festival of Learning was on display all during AEW. The Maytown Science Club, Lowell Martin, sponsor, was in charge, showing more than a hundred learning tools which could be ordered from the club by students and visitors.

Paul Miller and the Future Farmers of America were responsible for the Flag Presentation at each assembly. Mrs. Joyce Stewart and the Home Economics Department were responsible for the hospitality at coffees, teas, and luncheons served to guests each day.

Miss Eloise Allen and Mrs. Shirley Stewart, co-chairmen for the AEW observance at Maytown, said they were most gratified by the cooperation of parents, educators, patrons, faculty, and students during the past week of endeavor to promote the importance of public school education and continued learning in all our lives.

Since it's never in, it's never out.
Each year the new cars come rolling out with the latest frills. Wow.
And each year the old Volkswagen rolls out looking just the same.
Ho hum.
But when the year goes by, new fads soon outdate the old fads. And the hottest-looking car last year is just that: the hottest-looking car last year.
But a VW is still just a VW. Not looking up-to-date, but not looking out-of-date either. (So you'll never have a Has-Been on your hands when you want to sell it.)
Instead of wasting time making the Volkswagen look better, we spend our time making it work better.
And this year there are dozens of ways it works better. (That makes over 2200 in all since it first started working period.)
In the end, the choice is yours: pay a big price for a year of glory. Or a small price for a VW.

Improper Address Causes Mail Delay

Postmaster Jack Stumbo this week urged the citizens of Prestonsburg to be sure to use the correct address on their letters and packages going to servicemen overseas to avoid serious delays in delivery.

Stumbo said that millions of letters and packages going overseas have been delayed because they were insufficiently addressed. He said that one of the biggest problems has been the failure of persons to include the very important five-digit APO or FPO number in the military address. Mail not containing this number is incorrectly addressed.

"As the Christmas mail volume going overseas is expected to increase up to 30 percent or over four million pounds above last year, every precaution should be taken by friends and relatives of servicemen to address their letters and packages properly to assure rapid delivery to its destination," Stumbo said.

There are four essential elements to an overseas military address. They are: 1. The serviceman's identity — grade, full name and service number; 2. His military unit, complete; 3. Gateway post office—New York, San Francisco or Seattle; 4. APO or FPO—a five-digit number.

When any of these elements is missing, the letter or package will be delayed in delivery.

McDOWELL OPENS SEASON WITH HIGH-SCORING WINS; TEAM HAS EIGHT SENIORS

The McDowell Dare Devils kicked off their 1967-68 season last Tuesday in flying fashion with a 91-62 win over the Cordia Lions.

The Dare Devils showed depth and balance with four men in double figures. Tom Martin led the team with 23 points, followed by Stan Ward with 22. Sam Adams, McDowell's senior forward, picked up 15 points and Barry Hall, the other guard, tallied 11 points. Ira Newman, a junior guard, came in and added eight points to the cause.

Friday night, the Knott County Cardinals came to McDowell to open their season. The Cardinals were one of the top teams in the Fourteenth region last year and had four of their starters returning to their squad. The Dare Devils opened in a press and pulled out to a 12 point lead in the first quarter. The Cardinals settled down and played good ball the rest of the game but the Dare Devils pulled away to win, 82-61.

McDowell's big guns were once again Tom Martin with 23 points and Stan Ward with 17. The team's balance showed even more in this game with five men in double figures. Sam Adams had 11 points and sophomore forward Sam Meade picked up 12, as did Barry Hall.

The Dare Devils have eight seniors on the squad. These boys are Sam Adams, Micky New-some, Jerry Moore and Teddy Hall, all forwards; pivotman Stan Ward and guards Barry Hall, Tom Martin and Keith Pat-ton.

This year's team is a good shooting team and its average height is 6 feet, 2 inches. This team shot 61 percent from the field against Cordia and 54 percent against Knott County.

The rebounding is also balanced. Tom Martin, Stan Ward and Sam Adams, leaders in this department, are separated by very few rebounds.

Maytown High Enjoys Homecoming, Saturday, With Win Over Garrett

The Maytown high school Wildcats entertained the Garrett Black Devils at their homecoming game, Saturday, and the Wildcats edged Garrett 59-57. Maytown won the preliminary, 48-46.

Both games were thrillers for the capacity crowd which honored the team of 1957.

Lowell Martin, manager of the 1957 team, introduced the members of that squad. Those present were: Judy Gibson Turner, cheerleader, Aldo Frasure, manager, and players French Hensley, Toby Cooley and Bucky Ellis.

Miss Anna Howard, escorted by David Gibson, was crowned 1967 Homecoming Queen by Debbie Hicks, 1966 Queen. Miss Hicks was escorted by her brother, Keith Hicks, Jo Meade, runner-up, was escorted by Tom Stewart. Mary Howell was escorted by Randy Click; Dianna Ousley, by Jim Bailey; and Judy Salisbury, by Jackie Halbert.

The homecoming festivities were under the direction of the Maytown Woman's Club which sponsored the dance in the school cafeteria following the game.

JUSTICE DOUGLAS TO LEAD HIKE IN RED RIVER GORGE

Saturday, this week, will be the day of a public hike into the scenic Red River Gorge in the Boone National Forest in Eastern Kentucky's mountain country.

The party, which will include a Floyd county group, will assemble at the Pine Ridge exit of the Mountain Parkway at 12:15 p.m. and will proceed into the scenic reaches of the gorge which conservation groups and interested citizens over the state claim will be destroyed by the dam authorized by Congress originally for flood control and recently enlarged as a water storage project. The impoundment, which will take out the most scenic stretch of the Red River, the longest and most spectacular of the "white water" streams left in Kentucky, will also flood out numerous side gorges, springs and streams and a high quality stream-fish and wildlife habitat, according to the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service.

The Saturday hike, led by Supreme Court Justice and Mrs. William O. Douglas, will be for the purpose of viewing some of the unique, scenic bottomlands of the gorge to the general public and to acquaint the public with endangered areas. The Justice is the author of many books on conservation and has a strong interest in the preservation of the few remaining wildlands left in our country for the enjoyment and enrichment of future generations. Opponents of the dam argue that it will destroy an area of high quality recreation. The gorge now contains a system of hiking trails and a scenic drive which would be destroyed by the impoundment.

Conservationists and others are asking that the project be re-studied, and have asked that alternatives to it be considered. Such alternatives cited include Buckhorn Reservoir on the Middle Fork of the Kentucky River, the Carr Fork Reservoir, Booneville Reservoir (currently an active project of the Corps of Engineers), or Herrington Lake, a privately owned lake operated by a utility company. Each of these projects would feed water into the Kentucky River for downstream users in the future. Flood control alternatives to construction of the Red River dam, conservationists say, could come to downstream communities at a mere fraction of the cost of the $1.1 billion dam by way of floodwalls, a low dam in the gorge operative during the flood season only, or by a relocation of the dam on the Red River further downstream where it will not back into the unique and spectacular reaches of the gorge.

A dinner at the Phoenix Hotel Saturday evening in Lexington featuring Justice Douglas as a main speaker, is open to the general public. Tours of the gorge area will continue on Sunday, Nov. 19. These events are sponsored by the Kentucky Section of the Sierra Club, a national conservation organization which organized in Kentucky in February, 1967.

Free Cancer Tests Offered by State

Frankfort, Ky.—Gov. Edward T. Breathitt has urged more Kentucky women to take advantage of the free cervical cancer tests being offered by the state.

"Simple laboratory tests can detect cervical cancer in an early stage, enabling treatment and cure," Breathitt said.

He said more than half of the state's 120 counties are participating in the program under the supervision of the State Health Department.

Women who desire to take the test should contact their local health departments, he said.

Funds for the two-year program were appropriated by the 1966 General Assembly at Breathitt's request.

"Only about 6,200 women took advantage of this health service the first fiscal year," the Governor said, "but now about 1,000 are being tested each month."

He said the state had funds enough to provide tests for at least 20,000 more women.

The program, which is directed by Dr. C. Hernandez, of the State Health Department, has been endorsed by both the Kentucky Medical Association and the Kentucky Academy of General Practice.

Dr. Hernandez said his department's records show that nearly 200 women died in Kentucky last year of cervical cancer. "They did not avail themselves of the free tests offered," he said. "If we can find cervical cancer early enough," Dr. Hernandez said, "there is a 100 percent chance of cure."

The trend is clear!

Few women would wear a dress designed in 1930... but many are tolerating heating systems that are as outdated as a bustle. Because of misconceptions about the cost of electric heat, you may be cheating yourself out of a cleaner, more comfortable, flamelessly safe home. The difference in operating cost is so small it's insignificant. Millions of homeowners who heat electrically have discovered how much more it is worth. That's why owners of older homes are converting to electric heat in record-breaking numbers. Few things you can buy for your home add more to its value than electric heat because dollar-for-dollar it delivers so much more for your money. Virtually any home can be converted to electric heat quickly and economically. Let us prove it. We'll even give you a gift for letting us try. Just mail this coupon.

BREATHITT OUTLINES LIBRARY PROGRESS

Frankfort, Ky.—"It looks as if we have succeeded in our goal—providing Kentuckians in qualifying areas with excellent library facilities that are big on quality and variety."

This is how Gov. Edward T. Breathitt has described a four-year report from the Kentucky Department of Libraries on a $7.8 million building program. The Department is providing new or remodeled library and community centers across the state. Twenty-nine counties have benefited from this program since 1963.

"In contrast to some states," the report says, "which have not qualified for the full federal allotments for library construction or remodeling projects, Kentucky has successfully used all federal funds available each year for the past few years and has even qualified for some funds which were not used by other states."

The report states that during this period, new libraries have been completed or put under construction in Floyd, Henry, Morgan, Nicholas, Ohio, Green, Washington, Fleming, Monroe, Laurel, Lawrence, Russell, Whitley, Bath, Logan, Davless, Cumberland, Wayne, McCracken and Jefferson counties.

Renovations or additions have taken place or been started on library facilities in Fayette, Letch-er, Union, Clay, Hardin, Meade, Woodford and Lewis counties, it says.

These new facilities have provided a total of 110,000 square feet of space for library use.

The report points out that in a separate construction project, a new materials processing center was added to the State Library in Frankfort at a cost of $175,000. "Here new books and materials, catalogued and processed, are delivered to the people of Kentucky by way of their local libraries and Bookmobiles."

The report said that during the past four years the Department of Libraries has selected, catalogued, processed and delivered to regional libraries and Bookmobiles a total of 564,930 books.

Breathitt gave special praise to the State Library that provides from Frankfort a mail order inter-library loan service to all public libraries and many school libraries. It has circulated more than 57,000 books through this service and answered some 44,000 reference questions. "In most cases today, reference material can be provided within 24 to 48 hours," he said.

Breathitt said that his administration has also placed special emphasis on its statewide Bookmobile program. "Since 1963, the state has purchased 66 new Bookmobiles and now owns 104 of the "libraries on wheels," more than any other state."

Census Bureau Continues Surveys As Population Reaches 200 Million

During the week that the Census Bureau's population clock ticks off the arrival of the 200 millionth American, census workers will be taking an employment survey here.

Interviewers will visit local residents Nov. 20-25 to ask about kind of jobs, hours worked, time off, and job-hunting activities, the regional director said.

The survey is taken each month from a representative sample of households in 449 areas throughout the U. S. The identity of households surveyed is confidential by law, and the facts obtained are used for statistical purposes only.

The interviewer who will visit households here, beginning Nov. 20, is Mrs. Ella R. Daniel, Thelma, Kentucky.

THANK YOU

TO THE PEOPLE of FLOYD, KNOTT and MARTIN COUNTIES:

I wish to take this means of thanking you for your tremendous support in my recent campaign. I tried to take the issue of high taxes straight to you, the people. I assume this prediction will be borne out when you receive your tax bills. I bear no ill will toward anyone. We all fought for our beliefs, which is the American way, and which men today are dying to defend. God bless you all.
