Deputy Sheriff's Window Blasted By Shotgun Fire

A shotgun charge, apparently fired at close range, blasted a window of the restaurant of Deputy Sheriff Albert Salyers at Garrett last Saturday night. The case has never been solved. Although yet on the list of deputies, Salyers has not been active in recent months while operating his restaurant or otherwise privately employed.

The office of Sheriff Frank Leslie said the shooting has been reported here and that Salyers was directed to contact County Detective Sam Hale for an investigation of the case.

Elsewhere, there was little trouble over the county, most arrests being for traffic violations. Those booked at the jail within the week, charges against each and names of arresting officers follow:

Roy Dean Ray, reckless driving and no operator's license, Randy Tackett, reckless use of a deadly weapon, no operator's license and knowingly receiving stolen property—both arrested by Deputy Sheriff Dexter Hamilton and Constable Gillis Conn; Reao Hamilton and Ralph Blankenship, both charged with drunk driving and arrested by Constable Conn and Deputy Sheriff John Martin; James Harvey, reckless driving and no operator's license, by State Troopers Castle and Estep; Adrian Newsome, drunk driving and no

County Gets Strip Mine Fees

Gov. Wendell Ford presents a check for $13,850 to Floyd County Judge Henry Stumbo in payment for permit and acreage fees collected for strip mining in fiscal year 1972-'73. Under the Strip Mining Law, revised by the 1972 General Assembly, the state is authorized to distribute to each county 50 per cent of all strip mining fees, plus a $35 acreage fee, for each acre of disturbance permitted.

Board Selects List Of Election Officers

Election officers to serve at the 44 voting precincts in the county at the November election were named Monday by the Board of Elections. The same officers will serve in all elections held from Sept. 20 this year to the same date in 1974.

Jim Hammond, chairman of the board, expressed the hope that the board and the courts will work cooperatively to see that those who are chosen for election officer service will actually serve, unless a bonafide excuse is provided, thus eliminating the maneuvering of precinct officials to suit the wishes of individuals or groups without respect to the concept of fair elections.

Last May, Mr. Hammond and Gorman Collins, Republican member of the board, proposed to submit the list of election officers selected for service at the primary election and the list of those who actually served to the grand jury for possible court action against those who failed to serve without legitimate excuse. The board at its August meeting voted to submit the primary officer lists to Commonwealth's Attorney Harold J. Stumbo so that he could institute a grand jury investigation.

The law provides, however, that election officers must be notified of their selection for service not less than 10 days prior to the election. Because of litigation involving the election board itself last May, the officers were notified only four or five days before the primary, and it was conceded that indictments against those who failed to serve would be invalid.

The election board is composed of Mr. Hammond, Mr. Collins, Yvonne S. Jones, Democratic member, and Sheriff Frank Leslie by virtue of his office. Mr. Hammond was named chairman to serve because County Clerk C. "Ollie" Robinson, chairman of the board under the new election law, is himself a candidate and cannot serve until after the November election.

Names of precinct election officers follow:

Prestonsburg No. 1—Gordon Ratliff, judge; Bill Jagers, sheriff; Myrtle Allen, clerk; Ben Ferguson, judge.
Prestonsburg No. 2—Carl Chaffins, clerk; Barkley Sturgill, judge; Clyde George, judge; Margaret Collins, sheriff.

Grand Jury Fails To Name Slayer

The Shortage Is Real

If The Times reaches readers a bit late this week, the delay in delivery was caused by the newsprint shortage which made it necessary for us to go to Maysville this week to be printed. Hope you weren't inconvenienced. We have been.

This Town . . . That World

Until this week Dewey Lake was the hottest fishing spot in all Kentucky. The water temperature was 82 degrees.

WHAT'S THE USE?

I have this day indited an editorial about what is happening at Dewey Lake, and at the conclusion thereof was tempted to add these words:
"I could have spent my time as well baying at the moon."

WILL MR. CASSADY REPORT?

Arnold Cassady was back home from Michigan last week and he expressed an interest in having an interview with Lenna Moore on the Watergate affair. Wonder if he caught up with Moore. Also wonder if he did find him, if Moore has yet completed his "few remarks" on the subject.

MISSING STATISTICS

Across this somewhat cluttered desk flows a stream of information from a wide variety of sources. Even vital statistics. And none of these disclose just how many men we've lost making those television commercials in which a man shaves with two swipes of the blade.

WHEN WE FAIL

The following, which we reprint from an unidentified publication, should say something to all of us:

When the polls are open and I stay at home, I cast my vote for tyranny.
When the polls are open and I go uninformed about the issues or candidates, I cast my vote in ignorance.

When my representative faces a decision about which I have a moral conviction, and I neglect to write him a letter, I give my silent consent to the opposite position.

When my community needs my voice to speak about fair housing and better schools, and I am too busy, I neglect my responsibility as a citizen under God.

Deputy Sheriffs Win Bribe Charge Hearing

For the second time in a week a Floyd circuit court jury held after a few minutes' deliberation Monday morning that deputy sheriffs charged with accepting bribes from persons engaged in the sale of whiskey and beer in this county were not guilty.

Former Deputy Sheriff Virgil Conn was acquitted last week. Monday, it was Deputy Sheriffs Dester Hamilton and Ralph Howell who were cleared of the charges against them.

Trial of Roy Branham, of Wheelwright, on a similar charge is scheduled Sept. 25. "It looks like a hopeless task but we'll try him," Stumbo said.

Henry and Hazel Shepherd, who admitted they were engaged in the illegal liquor traffic, testified Monday that they paid Hamilton and Howell $15 each per week for the right to ply their trade without molestation.

The two deputy sheriffs denied accepting any bribe and testified to the raids they had made on bootleggers. They added that these cases went into the courts of Magistrates Eddie Caudill and Bill Wells, because, they said, they could get no cooperation from other courts.

Their attorneys, Burnis Martin and Cassie J. Allen, argued that the only testimony against them was that of bootleggers who were angry because they had been caught.

Court records disclosed that both magistrates to whom the bootleg cases were reported taken have restricted the penalty for such violations to fines.

In other cases:

Willie Hall entered a plea of guilty to a charge of taking property without felonious intent and was fined $50; the 90-day jail term of Millard Kidd for hit-run driving was probated; the rape, petty larceny and destroying private property charges against Marvin Neesley and Arthur Hughes were dismissed for lack of prosecution; the $1,000 bond of Ken-

Jury Requests Further Probe Of Archer Case

The July 12 slaying here of Dr. George P. Archer, mayor of Prestonsburg, remained as deep a mystery as ever after the grand jury of the Floyd circuit court had concluded its investigation of the case last Wednesday.

After it had questioned 43 persons in an attempt to unravel the mystery, the jury wrote in its final report to Circuit Judge Hollie Conley:

"We have determined that immediately after the death of Dr. Archer that Judith Archer was a suspect, but after considering all of the evidence presented to this grand jury we have concluded that the evidence at this time is not strong enough to connect Judith Archer with the death of Dr. George Archer."

The statement was in wide variance to the official position taken following the death of Mrs. Archer, a week after the shooting of the mayor. Her death was ruled a suicide and officers conducting the probe apparently considered the case closed.

"This case should be left open for further investigation by all law enforcement officials," the grand jury report suggested.

And the investigation apparently is ready to be continued by state, county and city officers. Sheriff Frank Leslie, who did not participate in the original investigation, said he would take an active part in the search for the facts in the case.

"I didn't think she killed Dr. Archer, and a lot of other people didn't think she did," he commented.

Meanwhile, the rumor mill continues to grind, and bizarre rumors are heard locally.

The grand jury report, signed by W. A. Salisbury, foreman, recommended that all "chief" law-enforcement officials be supplied a copy of the transcript of testimony heard during the jury probe as an aid to them in any further investigation they may undertake.

During its six-day session the grand jury voted 58 indictments. It urged that citizens report the dumping of garbage in all areas of the county, advising that those guilty of the offense should be prosecuted.

A night patrol of county highways—in particular, the area around Garrett—was asked.

Notice to Subscribers

An increase in the price of newsprint of approximately 50 percent and higher postal rates which became effective last week force The Times to make the increase in subscription rates which it has for a long while sought to avoid.

Effective October 1, the subscription rate per year will be:

In Floyd county, $5; elsewhere in Kentucky, $6; outside Kentucky, $7.

New subscriptions and renewals will be accepted at the old rates through Sept. 30 only.

Stumbo Says Police To Use Lie Detector

Commonwealth's Attorney Harold J. Stumbo said Monday that, in accordance with the wishes expressed recently by the grand jury, the investigation into the slaying here of Dr. George P. Archer is continuing and that the work will be done mainly by State Police.

As rumors, some described as "fantastic and cruel," persisted, Coroner James J. Carter issued a statement which he requested that The Times publish for the information of all who may be inclined to give credence to "wild stories." His statement related to the rumor that Judith Archer, Prestonsburg city clerk, who died of a bullet wound a week after the death of Dr. Archer, is not dead. He said:

"As Coroner of Floyd county and as owner of the Carter Funeral Home, I wish to state that Judith D. Archer is dead. I helped my son, James J. Carter, II, embalm her body, dress her and place her in the casket, and I conducted the funeral and buried her in Davidson Memorial Gardens at Ivel, Ky."

The grand jury heard testimony from Coroner Carter, other county officials, peace officers and a physician who saw the body.

Commonwealth's Attorney Stumbo said State Police have indicated they will have every witness questioned in the case undergo a polygraph (lie detector) test as the investigation continues. Commenting on the wide variance of testimony heard by the grand jury, he said, "I can't see that those investigating the case have any other choice. Obviously, somebody isn't telling the truth or all they know about this case, and the polygraph will help us to know who is telling the facts."

The coroner's statement was made a day after Sheriff Frank Leslie was interviewed by a television reporter. The sheriff, asked about the rumors, reportedly said he was in a hospital at the time of Mrs. Archer's death and that he had only the word of the coroner as to her being dead.

KAI Rental Price Held Exorbitant Prospect of Plant Dimmed by Failure To Find a Building

The building erected at West Prestonsburg by local business men and later leased to Irving Industries is "out of reach," and the city may have lost an industry which had expressed an interest in locating there, The Times learned this week.

Edward Music, who has been negotiating with Irving officials in an attempt to lease the building back from the firm, said he received last week from Al Jackson, Greenwich, Conn., comptroller for Irving Industries, this proposal:

Irving will lease the building, locally known as the KAI building, for $2,000 a month for six months, and after that would charge 90 cents per square foot of floor space, which would amount to $27,000 a year.

Or, Mr. Music reported, the company would sell the building back to the original owners for $240,000.

Irving Industries paid $1,100 rent per month while Kentucky Appalachian Industries (KAI) occupied the building and was operating. It still pays that monthly rental and under terms of its rental agreement will own the building when the rental pays off the existing debt on the structure.

Head of VFW Here Says Post Blamed, Result of Reports

One of Prestonsburg's infrequent liquor raids was made a few days ago, the VFW Club was listed as the raid target, and Walter Karr Bowling Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, is unhappy about it.

Otis Page, commander of the VFW post, said Monday that although the post does not own the building, does not operate a club, has never sold a bottle of intoxicants, and uses the building only one night a month for meetings, still the post gets the unfavorable publicity from these raids.

Marked Visitor Drop At Dewey Lake Cited

A sharp drop in the number of visitors at Dewey Lake was noted during the first seven months of this year, data accumulated by the U. S. Corps of Engineers show.

From January 1 through July 31 the total number of visitors stood this year at 513,775, a drop of 247,700 from the 761,485 who visited the lake during the same period last year.

Dean Murray, Dewey reservoir manager, said this week the loss may be attributed to weather conditions and inadequate camping facilities.

(Despite the lack of camping, Jenny Wiley State Park in the reservoir area this year was reported "almost in the black," although it has been a consistent money-loser.)

The comparative figures for the first seven months of the two years:

Camping, down this year to 38,379 from last year's 66,132, and the number of picnickers dropped from 100,226 in 1972 to 56,216; boating, down from 42,365 to 34,238; fishing, down from 150,051 to 63,921; sightseeing, from 369,692 to 258,884; skiing, from 4,664 to 2,677; swimming, from 61,954 to 49,786.

The drawdown of the lake to 10 feet below the normal winter pool will begin Nov. 1, Mr. Murray said. This will be done to permit laying of a water line from the Terry boat dock to the recreation area below the dam. Work by the Corps of Engineers at the recreation area will cost an estimated $250,000 and when-completed will provide various types of playground equipment, picnic and restroom facilities, a basketball court and access road surfacing.

Fishing has improved in the tailwaters below the dam since an outlet adjustment now permits water from the lake to be drawn from both the top and bottom of the impoundment. Until this recent change, the drawdown was from the bottom of the lake only.

Most visitors to the impoundment during the fall months are sightseers, hunters and fishermen. Murray spoke of the danger of forest fires during the hunting season, and asked all hunters to be especially careful to prevent fire damage in the forest surrounding the lake.

"I would like," he said, "to thank law-enforcement agencies for their fine job of joining together to keep the Dewey Lake area under control so that families and others could use the facilities provided for them." He added that the public has been cooperative in observing regulations at the lake.

Folk Arts Council Honors Mrs. James

The Kentucky Council of the Folk Arts honored Mrs. Edith Fitzpatrick James at the recent Highlands Folk Festival held at the Jenny Wiley State Park amphitheatre for her "valuable service in preserving our Kentucky folk heritage." Dr. Leonard Roberts, of the Pikeville College faculty and well-known writer of folk literature, is shown in photo at presentation of plaque to Mrs. James, founder of the folk festival. Mrs. James was also presented a silver bowl by the Jenny Wiley drama Association in recognition of her work.

NYC Aid Slated For 196 Youths In This County

The Floyd County Board of Education was included in the 22 in-school Neighborhood Youth Corps (NYC) projects in Kentucky approved recently by the U.S. Department of Labor to provide work opportunities for 2,713 boys and girls from poverty level families.

Assistant Regional Director for Manpower William U. Norwood said federal funds have been allocated for the projects for periods up to May 31, next year.

The Neighborhood Youth Corps, established in 1964 under the Economic Opportunity Act, has three main components: an in-school, a summer, and an out-of-school program. The in-school and summer programs provide youths with paid jobs and encourage them to continue their school enrollment. The out-of-school program offers remedial education, work experience and, in many instances, skill training.

The Floyd county project provides for 196 NYC trainees at a cost of $50,050.

Other area projects approved:

Knott County Board of Education, 139 trainees, $71,400; Letcher County Board, 150 trainees, $77,000; Pike County Board, 248 trainees, $63,340; Paintsville Board of Education, 52 trainees, $28,700.

Where the Blame Lies

Dewey Lake is well on its way toward becoming the No. 1 mine water and coal waste receptacle in the entire state of Kentucky.

There are, we are told, 38 active deep mines in the Pike county headwaters of Johns Creek, the stream whose impoundment creates the lake. Fourteen surface mine permits in the lake watershed were granted last year. Fifty-two new applications for surface mining permits have been filed, and only those who have the power of life and death over such matters know how many of these have been, or will be, granted.

The Times does not criticize the mine operators, who are working to produce a needed fuel and are ready to mine it wherever it is.

If Dewey Lake, where the U. S. and state governments have at stake an investment in Dewey Dam, Jenny Wiley State Park and other improvements costing millions of taxpayers dollars, permit the silting in or the acidizing, or both, of the lake after the fashion of Pound and Fishtrap reservoirs the blame must inevitably lie elsewhere.

The U. S. Army Corps of Engineers and the state Department of Natural Resources and Environmental Protection must share the blame directly. Behind the scenes are those who direct both agencies of government to do this or fail to do that. At the state level Governor Ford cannot escape his share of the blame. For he sits at the top, he knows what goes on down below, and those at the lower levels tell varied stories of what they are told to do when the going gets sticky and heaving to the line might muddy waters other than those of Dewey Lake.

The Corps of Engineers have a word in granting such permits. They have a seldom-used law penalizing those who pollute such waters. The state has its environmental protection, its anti-pollution laws, its strip-mine controls—a veritable hodgepodge of laws, rules and regulations, none of which amount to much.

Now, if both are committed to the ruin of this body of water, we are left this one hope to express—that never again will the United States or Kentucky waste a penny on a lake in a coal-producing area which is almost certain to be devastated later.

58 Indictments Voted by Jury At Sept. Term

Among the 58 indictments reported by the Floyd circuit grand jury at the conclusion of its work last week, one alleged shooting and wounding with intent to kill, four named six men on auto theft counts and two charged as many defendants with rape.

Mark Smith was named in the shooting and wounding of Bobby Dale Kinney. Charged with auto theft were Bob Blanton, accused of the theft of a 1963 Buick owned by David Blackburn; Jerry Greathouse, theft of an auto owned by Jimmy Settle; Carlos and Harbit Hall who were accused of displaying a shotgun in the robbery of Forrest D. Hall and of taking his car; Bobby Dean Taylor and Robert Zelzack, theft of a 1968 Mustang. The rape charges named Denzil Martin and Charles Martin.

Eight Floyd men were named on 12 counts of violating the liquor laws, and seven of the eight were indicted on second and third offenses. Clarence Martin, who was listed in five indictments alleging possession, transporting and sale of intoxicants, was named as a third-time offender in two possession counts. Walker Newsome was charged with third-offense selling, and second-offense selling was alleged against Freddie Collins, Lark Hunt, Jerry Lee Smith, Paul Tackett and William Riley Wells, Jr.

James Martin Case and Johnny David Case were named jointly in an indictment charging them with resisting arrest, assault and battery and cutting and wounding State Trooper Leeman Bevins at Garrett recently. An attempt to indict Trooper Bevins and at least one other officer failed.

In fact, he said, "VFW Club" is a misnomer. It really is the Floyd County Overseas Veterans Club, Page says, and the VFW has nothing to do with it. He listed the board of directors of the Overseas Veterans Club as Earl D. Ousley, Irvin Slone, Ralph Rorrer, John Wallen and Lloyd Hall.

Tired of being blamed for a situation not of its making, the VFW is considering removing from the building the sign bearing its name.

SOUNDS OF THE SEASONS

The seasons bring changes that are more than merely visual. The sounds change, too. In the spring everything bursts into bloom and every wood is a choir-loft. It is then that every stream or pool comes alive with the cacophony of peepers. This summer, the cardinals around our place made life worth living. Now, with fall only a few days away, the more raucous jays are chattering away, and there is at evening a constant din in the ears as a myriad of insects compose a choir invisible.

But a few weeks more and the whirr will depart. Some night, what the copy books personify as Jack Frost will clamp down his own type of freeze, and after that the bark of a dog will be a welcome relief from those other sounds which are always with us—the clanking of gears and the roar of motors.

Yea, verily, the melancholy days are come—almost.

State Health Board Appoints Dr. Spurlock To Floyd Board

The Kentucky State Board of Health last Thursday approved the appointment of Dr. Daniel Spurlock, of Prestonsburg, as a member of the Floyd County Board of Health. His term will expire December 31, 1974.

By law, Kentucky's county boards of health are composed of seven persons. Three of those members must be practicing medical physicians, one must be a practicing dentist and one a practicing registered nurse. All must reside in the county of the board to which they are appointed. If three physicians, a dentist or a nurse do not reside within the county, the State Board of Health may appoint a resident lay person to fill any such vacancy. The county judge, by virtue of his office, is also a member of the board. The other member is appointed by the fiscal court.

A motion to order the city of Newport to fluoridate its water supply was passed by the State Board of Health after the board learned from Human Resources Secretary Laurel True that the board's function was to remain unchanged.

If Newport fails to fluoridate within 30 days of the date it receives the legal order, the city will face $100-a-day fines for non-compliance with the board's fluoridation regulation.

The board deferred action on its abortion guidelines until its subcommittee on abortions meets with representatives from the Kentucky Medical Association. KMA will adopt its policy on abortion in mid-September.

Dr. Frank Simon, Louisville allergist, urged the board not to adopt any guidelines on abortion. He said adopting guidelines was a "tacit approval" of abortion.

A report dealing with membership of county and district boards of health was adopted in principle and will be completed at the board's October meeting. In final form, the board expects the report to result in proposed legislation for county boards of health to be composed of two physicians, one nurse, one dentist, one environmentalist, the county judge, a mayor of either a first, second or third class city; a pharmacist, a veterinarian and two consumers. District boards of health would be composed of all the members of the county boards of health within the district. A smaller executive committee could be made up of two district board members from each county in a district.

Dr. Dale Farabee, newly-appointed commissioner for the Bureau of Health Services, told the board his interest in public health "is as deep as yours." We're all on the same team," the former commissioner of mental health said.

"But dad, all you said was that Cutlass Salon had reclining seats. You didn't say it came in a new coupe, too."

Last year Cutlass Salon was a new kind of American car—a sedan built for its roadability. This year there's a Salon two-door coupe. Like the sedan, it has a new, lower steering ratio for quicker response. Steel-belted radial tires to grip the road. Special suspension for tight cornering.

Contoured seats that recline. And you can even order a Landau roof. Cutlass Salon. Built in the Grand Touring Tradition.

"Look Walter! Now we can get an air conditioner that filters smells."

Not only does Tempmatic regulate temperature inside your car to a preset level, it also charcoal filters the air. The filter acts to reduce many offensive odors from the air entering the car. It's available on all full-size Oldsmobiles. The '74 Delta 88 coupe has a brand new roofline. Hydraulic bumper systems, front and rear. And underneath—a suspension system that's as tough as ever. Olds Delta 88. It's really put together. More than just another pretty car.

"Hey! I didn't know we could get these new little windows in the Toronado."

Order a Toronado with an opera roof and you get opera windows and a padded canopy of oxen-grain vinyl. You can also order a new interior with rich velour upholstery, a high-energy ignition system, and True-Track braking. The 1974 Toronado has a new instrument panel with a message center that lights up to warn you when certain things such as your gas, oil pressure, seat belts, etc., require your attention; there's even an exceptionally accurate digital clock, with quartz-crystal controlled movement. Front-wheel drive Toronado. Engineering can be beautiful.

Stop in at your Olds dealers.

He's got surprises for every member of the family in all the other '74s, too: Ninety Eight Regency, Cutlass S and Supreme, Omega and station wagons.

1974 Chevrolet A better-than-ever way.

When the wheel belongs to you, the road goes anywhere you say. And it's so much better with a '74 Chevrolet.

Caprice Classic. Introducing an elegant motor car, just asking to be enjoyed. Outside: an imposing new grille, and on the Coupe, a distinctive new roof line. Inside: peace, quiet and convenience.

With standard power steering to do most of the turning, standard power front disc brakes to do most of the stopping, and a standard Turbo Hydra-matic transmission to do the shifting. If you want the luxury and comfort of a car that leaves little else for you to do but enjoy the ride, you don't have to look beyond the '74 Caprice Classic. However, the freedom of the open road begins with the freedom of choice:

Vega GT. This year's version of last year's Motor Trend Economy Car of the Year. (And Car and Driver Readers' Choice as Best Economy Sedan for the last three years.) With a reshaped nose, bigger bumpers, nicer carpeting, new stripes and new colors. Plus more good things to make it better. See what it's like to drive a winner.

Camaro. The way it looks is the way it goes. Quick, sleek and nimble. With a low, wide stance, responsive steering. And comfort that's rare in a car that handles so well. Plus classic new styling, and plushness from the cut-pile carpeting up.

Malibu Classic. A luxury Chevelle, new this year. With full foam seats. A fold-down front armrest. Wood-grained vinyl accents. Elegant inner door panels. Extremely tasteful upholstery and cut-pile nylon carpeting.

That's just inside. The exterior is just as classic, in character and in detail, as the interior. Yet, it remains mid-size. And, it remains all Chevelle. With Chevelle handling and at a Chevelle price. Now that you've looked, come and see the new Malibu Classic—and all the 1974 Chevrolets. The ones shown here, plus Impala, Monte Carlo, Nova, Corvette, pickups, vans and all our new cars and trucks.

Court Stalls TV Franchises To 9 Systems

The granting by the Floyd fiscal court of franchises to nine cable television system operators remains at least temporarily stalled after the granting Friday by Circuit Judge Hollie Conley of a temporary injunction restraining the court from such action.

The restraining order was made at the hearing by Judge Conley of an action filed by Akers Cable Systems, Inc. and Everett Akers, of Martin, attacking the constitutionality of the court's advertised proposal to grant franchises to firms operating TV systems in several areas of the county.

Judge Conley rules that the court may grant franchises but that its franchising ordinance is unconstitutional, since it did not declare its action to be in the public interest and was in violation of Akers' rights under the 14th Amendment. He also held that a portion of the franchise sale ordinance did not require Federal Communications Commission standards.

After granting the temporary injunction Judge Conley disqualified from further hearing of the case, explaining that he is closely associated with many of those involved in the litigation and that he also is a customer of one of the independent cable systems seeking a franchise.

Jarvis Allen, attorney for the group of independent cable system operators, said he would continue the fight for his clients and that one step may be that of preparing another resolution or ordinance for consideration by the fiscal court.

Bids on the franchises were received and scheduled for opening August 5. The fiscal court itself has not taken an active part in the legal fight. County Attorney James R. Allen said the court would let the independent operators "resolve that matter."

Graduate Nurse

Miss Grace Furman, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. C. H. Furman, of Betsy Layne, was graduated in May with a bachelor of science degree from the University of Kentucky's School of Nursing and is now a registered nurse in service at Veterans' Hospital, Lexington.

Johns Creek Bass

Don Colvin, of Prestonsburg, with 21 3/4-inch bass which he caught in Johns Creek, a short distance downstream from Dewey dam, Sept. 5. The fish, which weighed 4 pounds, 10 ounces, hit a Rapala.

Murders Fewer In Floyd County, State Unchanged

Crime trends in Kentucky for the first six months of this year showed a decrease, and in some aspects of crime Floyd county followed that pattern.

The number of murders, statewide, was 147, which was the same figure for the same period in 1972. In this county the number of murders dropped from 3 in 1972 to 2 this year. Forcible rape cases in the state numbered 236, one more than last year's first six months, but in Floyd county rapes rose from 2 in 1972 to 6 this year.

There was a 6 percent increase, statewide, in robberies, but Floyd county's figures for the period were unchanged, with 2 listed for each year. Aggravated assault cases in the state dropped almost 8 percent but in this county they were up from 13 last year to 24. Breaking and entering cases, which increased 3 percent over the state this year, changed in this county only from 62 to 63. Auto thefts, a category in which the state as a whole had a drop of almost 20 percent, totalled 6 in this county this year, as compared with 7 last year.

Metropolitan areas included in Jefferson and Fayette counties showed increases in murders—in Jefferson from 46 in the first six months of 1972 to 50 this year, in Fayette from 7 to 10. The murder rate in Eastern Kentucky counties is down for the same period this year. Boyd, Carter, Clay, Elliott, Greenup, Johnson, Lee and Letcher reporting one slaying each. Breathitt, Knott, Lawrence, Leslie, Magoffin, Morgan, Menifee, Perry and Wolfe reported none. Pike county murder and manslaughter cases dropped from 5 in the first half of 1972 to 3 this year.

Mayor, Council Races To Spice Campaign Here

It appeared this week after the passing of the deadline for filing of candidates for office that most interest in the November election will be centered in Prestonsburg, where a mayoral race between two business men and a City Council election in which there are 17 candidates will stir up interest.

Otherwise, a dull election, countywide, is expected. At Allen some interest will be engendered by two slates of candidates for City Council and two candidates for police judge.

The candidates for mayor here are William O. Goebel Jr. and Paul Phillip Hughes.

In the council race locally only six of the present councilmen are seeking reelection. These, running under the Community Development Party emblem, are Burl Wells Spurlock, who was appointed mayor to fill the unexpired term of the late Dr. George P. Archer, Dr. Edward B. Leslie, E. B. May, Jr., Byron Nunnery, Dr. H. G. Salisbury, Jr. and Clifford Wright.

Although there are only eight councilmen to elect here, the Independent Party has 11 candidates. They are Harry Robert Burke, Roy Dean Roberts, Walter L. (Buck) Mann, John F. Brown, Paul E. Joseph, Edgille "Shag" Branham, Harold W. Cooley, Dr. N. Roger Jurich, Printess L. Ball, Abby Bolling, the only woman candidate, and Cloyd Johnson.

At Allen one slate of council candidates is composed of James Webb, Jr., J. D. Osborne, Obie Crisp, Bennie Lafferty and Vernon Porter, Jr. They are opposed by Howard E. Clay, Vernon Porter and Thomas E. Porter.

Chester Porter and George Hall, Jr. are candidates there for the office of police judge.

At Wayland Virgil Combs is an Independent Party candidate for the board of trustees. The Open Book ticket has a full slate of candidates there in Hobert Webb, Sr., William Greathouse, James Castle, Willard Ratliff and E. H. Morrison.

It is "no contest" at Martin and Wheelwright. Council candidates, unopposed, at Martin are Raymond Griffith, Denzil Halbert, Jack E. Conley, Sanford Ousley, Glenn Patrick and Clyde Hogsd. Also unopposed is Paul Watson, candidate for Wheelwright police judge.

Does Past Performance Count?

I have shown my interest in our community by serving on the City Council for the past six years. During this time, I have served as Mayor pro-tem on numerous occasions. I feel I merited the respect of our former mayor and fellow councilmen or I would not have been chosen to serve in this capacity.

I have worked with the Prestonsburg Industrial Foundation to bring new industry to our community and create more jobs for our people.

I helped initiate the Environmental Program that employed students during this summer to do a general clean-up job throughout the city. I want Prestonsburg to be clean and kept that way. I plan to continue this Environmental program if I am elected.

In conducting my campaign for the office of mayor, I am going to state my qualifications in an honest and straight forward manner. I do not intend to run my campaign by down-grading my opponent in any way. I am running for mayor on the strength of my abilities and on my record of serving my community whenever I have been called on to do so.

We live in a good community but I want Prestonsburg to be the best community in the state of Kentucky. If you want that too, then I urge you, as a responsible citizen, to register, so that you can vote and elect the man that can do the best job. The man that has proven his ability to fill the office of Mayor.

Clark School Staff Studies Right To Read Goals, Methods

The Clark elementary school staff has recently undergone its second summer of teacher development activities sponsored by the Right to Read project which is in progress at the school. Approximately 30 days were available for the staff to work and learn possible ways of obtaining the goals set for the program.

Consultants for the work involved people from universities, the Kentucky State Department of Education, public school supervisors, program coordinators and classroom teachers.

Subjects covered during the sessions included teaching the communication skills of reading, listening, speaking, and writing; how to write behavioral objectives and activities for reading; teaching reading skills in the content areas; how to individualize instruction by the diagnostic - prescription approach; and building materials and activities for the different approaches studied.

Several days were spent without a consultant. These days were devoted to reviewing program goals and objectives, revising them where necessary, constructing activities to measure progress toward their attainment, and creating possible alternatives to future change when necessary.

While teachers were involved with activities to assist children in reading, the library was being moved to a larger, more comfortable room in the building. Volunteers completely painted the new room, adding cheerful colors to walls, doors, and shelves. They also assisted in moving books and supplies into the new setting.

The "new" library is being arranged into activity zones which will allow many children to use the services at the same time scheduled groups use them. In order to complete this phase of the program, more shelving space, tables and study carrels are being built.

Aside from the summer sessions, the school Unit Task Force decided general in-service activities to be pursued by the school staff through this coming school year. These activities will range from "learn-how-to" sessions, to school visits outside the district and state, to attending International Reading Association conferences and meetings, to another summer program set for next summer.

The school staff was paid a visit by Dr. John Stauffer, of the University of Georgia, Sept. 11. Dr. Stauffer, who is a member of the Southeast Regional Technical Assistance Team for the national Right to Read program conferred with the Clark staff members about evaluation of the program which is in progress at the school.

After touring the school to see the general patterns of organization, Dr. Stauffer conferred with the principal, John K. Pitts, about evaluation procedures and techniques. Each method

A FOXY SOLUTION TO THE GAS PROBLEM.

The Fox by Audi gets about 25 miles to the gallon. Which is about average for an economy car. The thing is, the Fox isn't an economy car. It's a sports sedan. It does 0 to 50 in 8.4 seconds. It has sports car steering and suspension. As well as front-wheel drive. And the fact that you can buy a car that has all this (and more) for a reasonable price provides a Foxy solution to another problem as well.

Region II Board
Okehs Alcoholic's
'Bill of Rights'

The Region II Mental Health-Mental Retardation Board held its regular monthly meeting here August 27 and made what was described by one member as "a timely and necessary decision if we hope to translate words into action."

By unanimous vote, the board approved "The Alcoholic Employee's Bill of Rights" as a part of the board's own personnel policy and as a policy which it will recommend to business and industry in the Big Sandy region.

The Alcoholic Employee's Bill of Rights states:

1. This Board is not concerned with an employee's private life or his drinking habits as long as these do not interfere with job performance or ability to work.

2. The Board's concern with an employee's drinking habits begins only when his job performance is affected.

3. This Board recognizes alcoholism as a disease and our attitude toward it will be the same as toward any other disease or illness. It should be recognized and treated as soon as possible.

4. When job performance, ability to work or excessive absenteeism due to alcoholism or alcohol abuse became recognizable problems for an employee, he will be encouraged to seek treatment, including a physical examination and professional counseling.

5. An employee has the right to expect that his alcoholism should and will be treated at the earliest possible stage and that all treatment will be confidential.

6. An employee's decision to seek treatment and counseling for alcoholism or alcohol abuse will no way prejudice nor endanger his standing with the Board or his fellow employees.

7. Whenever possible sick leave will be provided for the time necessary to bring the disease of alcoholism under control. In other action, the regional mental health board approved a recommendation to expand its membership from 15 to 25. At present the board is composed of three representatives from each of the region's five counties. Two additional members from each county will be added before the annual meeting of the Board scheduled for October 22.

The board made plans for the election of officers at its September meeting and heard a detailed report from Terry Jackson, Regional I-S-R director, on the HELP-LINE, Mountain Comprehensive Care Center's 24-hour emergency telephone service.

The teenager labor force, which increased from 5.2 million in 1960 to over 7.6 million in 1970, is expected to reach 8.3 million by 1980, according to the U. S. Labor Department.

LAFFERTY-ALLEN VOWS SPOKEN

In a double-ring ceremony Miss Connie Jean Lafferty, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas D. Lafferty, Sr., of Prestonsburg, Ky., became the bride of Mr. David Clare Allen, son of Mrs. J. Michael Fretwell, of Adrian, Michigan, on September 1 at 7 p.m.

The Rev. W. D. Jagers solemnized the vows by candlelight in the Irene Cole Memorial Baptist Church here. Double-arched candelabra and tree candelabra decorated with greenery, orchid and lavender gladioli and purple asters provided the background against which the organist, Mrs. Joe Buchanan, played the theme from "Romeo and Juliet," "One Hand, One Heart," from "The West Side Story," "Our World," by Serginson, and "To a Wild Rose," by McDowell. Preceding the ceremony, Miss Janie Bailey sang "The Lord's Prayer."

Given in marriage by her father, Miss Lafferty was attired in an angelskin peau. Reembroidered lace created a pinafore effect bodice with a high neck and bishop sleeves with lace cuffs. Lace with a matching ruffle circled the hemline and full chapel train. Her tiered bouffant veiling of imported illusion cascaded from a lace headpiece embroidered with seed pearls. She carried a cascade arrangement of miniature carnations, staphanotis white roses and ivy.

Mrs. Herman W. Crisp, aunt of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a flopped gown of lavender voile, long-sleeved with venise lace trim. Her picture hat was banded with purple streamers, and her bouquet was of purple asters, pink daisies and white miniature carnations with baby's breath.

The bridesmaids, the Misses Karen Miller, Jennifer Cooley, Gwen Carolyn Dingus and Beverly Blackburn, wore gowns similar to that of the matron of honor. They carried baskets of pink daisies, purple asters and miniature lavender carnations, dyed to match their dresses and picture hats, with streamers.

Michael Alan Crisp, cousin of the bride, served as ring bearer. Misses Jennifer and Stephanie DeRossett served as flower girls. Mr. James Russell Allen served his nephew as best man, while Mr. Thomas D. Lafferty, Jr., brother of the bride, Mr. Roger Parsons, Mr. John Ferguson, Mr. Jerry Brian Lafferty, III, all of Prestonsburg, served as groomsmen and candlelighters.

An informal reception was held in the Activities Building of the church where the bride's table was laid with white and lace overlay. The three-tier white wedding cake was topped with white satin bells and encircled with purple asters.

Mrs. W. W. Hall, Mrs. Frank DeRossett, Jr., Mrs. James R. Allen, Mrs. Print Ball and Miss Debra Lafferty served as hostesses. Miss Patricia Lafferty registered guests.

The mother of the bride was attired in a pink floor-length gown with matching accessories and a pink glamellia corsage.

The mother of the groom wore a blue floor-length gown with matching accessories and an orchid corsage.

After a wedding trip the couple will reside in Prestonsburg.

Are You Sincere? You May Be Wrong.

Is God dead? What if hell is real? Be sure you are right before you die. The life you save may be your own.

Can you be saved from hell and go to heaven by sincerely trusting in good works or religions? No more than you can be cured of stomach trouble or heart trouble by swallowing some carboic acid or having an electric shock. It's not sincerity alone that counts—you better be sure you get hold of the right bottle and answer. If you can be saved by good works, clean living, morality, religious ceremony, church membership, being a deacon or choir member—then the Word of God is not true. For he says salvation is the gift of God, not of works, lest any man should boast. (Eph. 2:8-9).

Do you believe God is dead? An estimated 83 people die each minute of every hour and they don't believe in God. They have nothing to look forward but a hole in the earth in what they believe.

Mental Health To Add Two to Regional Board

The regional Mental Health-Mental Retardation board of the Big Sandy region decided at a recent meeting to expand its board membership. The action was announced by Board President O. T. Dorton who noted that since its inception the regional board has had three representatives from each of the region's five counties. The Board will receive 10 additional members at its September meeting who will assume their positions at the annual meeting in October.

Dorton, in announcing the board's decision, said, "This action is consistent with the policy of the board, our agency and the state in achieving a greater degree of community involvement in the mental health and mental retardation programs and problems of our region." The new members, Dorton pointed out, will be recommended by the county mental health associations but anyone interested in Board membership can make his or her interest known by contacting a member of his local association or by contacting any member of the Regional Board.

Cats Back in Win Column As Meade, Blackburn Star

An aggressive offense highlighted by the running of halfback Mike Meade and the passing of quarterback Jim Blackburn guided the Prestonsburg Blackcats to a 32-15 victory over Greenup County High and an important conference and district win last Friday night.

In the contest, which was held at Greenup, Prestonsburg took the opening kickoff and mounted a drive which culminated in a 33-yard touchdown scramble by Mike Meade. The extra point attempt failed. Greenup then took possession of the ball and scored after 14 plays. A kick for the extra point put Greenup ahead in the first quarter, 7-6.

In the second quarter the blackcats successfully went to the air as Jim Blackburn connected with Meade on a 52-yard pass for the TD and later in the quarter on a 65-yard pass, again to Meade, for another score. A 70-yard kickoff return by Greenup County, plus a successful running attempt for two extra points, left the score at the half; Prestonsburg 18, Greenup County 15.

While the Blackcat defense held Greenup county scoreless in the second half, Meade scored two additional touchdowns, one in the third quarter on an eight yard run, the other in the final period on a 36-yard march. These two TD's, plus a run for the extra point by Ronnie Burke, left the final score at PHS 32, Greenup County 15.

Jim Blackburn completed 6 of 12 passing attempts for a total of 256 yards and two touchdowns. In three games Blackburn has completed 31 of 65 passes for a total of 519 yards and four touchdowns. On the ground, Mike Meade led with 104 yards in seven carries, followed by Ronnie Burke, who carried eight times for 60 yards.

Next week, the Blackcats will face Pikeville at Johns Creek High School's field, and Prestonsburg coach Eddie Radjunas expects the game to be hard-fought. Last year's Blackcat victory over Pikeville represented Pikeville's only defeat during regular season play, and Radjunas thinks a revenge-minded Pikeville team will present tough competition.

Michigan Parents Seek Child Believed Kidnapped, Ask Help

By LEONARD N. KIMBALL
The parents of a seven-year-old Michigan girl, missing since June 25 and now believed a kidnap victim, are making a nationwide appeal to the public for help in locating the missing child.

The child's parents, William and Marietta Jaeger of Farmington, Mich., have asked Gov. Wendell Ford for additional help in finding their daughter, Susie.

The parents said similar appeals were being sent to officials of all the other states with a request that they use their influence to stimulate public interest in the search.

"It could be just the push needed to resolve this case," the letter stated.

The child disappeared while on a camping trip with her family at Headwaters State Park in Montana. Thus far, the child's whereabouts have remained a complete mystery despite an intensive investigation by police and FBI agents.

The Jaegers said that they received one ransom call on July 3 but the caller failed to give them any time or date for payment of the money, and they have not been contacted again. The family also said that because of the intensity of the police search, centered in Montana, they believed the kidnapper may have taken Susie into another state to avoid capture.

In releasing the appeal, the Kentucky Department of Public Safety urged that Kentucky media give it the broadest possible coverage "in the hope that someone in Kentucky there might be someone who can help these people be reunited with their child."

Susie is seven years old, four feet tall and weighs 55 pounds. She has shoulder-length brown hair, blue eyes and is of medium build. When last seen she was wearing a rust-colored, short-sleeved shirt, blue jeans, yellow knee socks and no shoes.

The Jaegers' address is 29836 Hemlock, Farmington, Michigan 48024, phone 1-313-476-1080.

The parents say informers can preserve their anonymity, if they wish, by calling the Detroit News "Secret Witness" program at 1-313-222-7549. This program is offering a $3,000 reward for information leading to Susie's recovery.

Survival of 4 Lost in Plane Now Dim Hope

The search for a twin-engine plane which last was reported within one minute of Combs airport, between Prestonsburg and Paintsville, continued this week but hope for the survival of any of its four occupants was almost lost.

The plane disappeared Sunday, Sept. 9, but its disappearance was not reported till the following day. Last heard from by radio at Tri-State Airport, Huntington, W. Va., the plane was reported at 4:11 p.m. as "a minute from Combs Airport." The radio message did not report any difficulty, although the area that day was beset by showers and low-hanging clouds in spots. The flight, which began at Humbolt, Tenn., was in line from London, Ky. to the air field near here.

Missing are personnel of the O. C. McCarley Corp., subcontractor on construction of the Louisa General Hospital. They were listed as J. W. Milam, 42, general superintendent; his son, Joe, 20, James Hall, 30, and the pilot, Bill Wickersham, of Dyersburg, Tennessee. The construction company employees had chartered the twin-engine Cessna the preceding Friday afternoon to fly from Combs airport to their homes in Brownsville, Tennessee.

Ten helicopters and planes of the Civil Air Patrol and the U. S. Army have patrolled five or more counties in vain, and the Floyd County Emergency & Rescue Squad has had from 30 to 40 men altogether engaged in the ground search. The search has been centered in Floyd, Johnson, Knott, Martin, Pike, Magoffin and Perry counties but has ranged at times as far away as Owsley county.

If the search fails this week of results, it was said the Civil Air Patrol will suspend the hunt, probably to return to the area after the trees lose their leaves.

Says Park Golf Course Has Been Neglected

It seems as though Jenny Wiley State Park has been catching it from all sides recently. If it isn't the polluted water of Dewey Lake, it is the polluted language of the musicals presented at the summer theater there. I feel compelled to introduce a new issue which concerns our state park in the hope that some improvements will result from this public complaint. My target is the Jenny Wiley golf course.

Having been out of state for the past four years, serving with the Air Force, I had no idea the course was in such a deplorable condition. I had left what I considered to be the most beautiful 9-hole golf course I had ever seen. Last month when I invited two friends from Ohio and Florida to play the course with me, I was embarrassed beyond words. The earthen tees were so barren and hard that wooden tees had to be forced into the ground. The fairways were in such need of mowing that we spent much time in looking for balls that were in perfectly good position but buried in the deep grass. The most disgraceful situation, however, was found on the greens. Here the grass was nearly as long as the fairways should have been, bare spots interrupted the playing surface, and patches of crab grass grew freely on every green.

I don't enjoy criticizing the facilities of my home county, but no amount of ethnocentrism can erase the fact that our golf course at Jenny Wiley has been grossly neglected. Perhaps my friend from Florida had the answer when he jokingly remarked, "If they don't take better care of the place than this, they may as well fence it in and make it a cow pasture."

"Something Good"

As I was reading my issue of The Floyd Co. Times, I came up on this bit of interest to me. I am so glad the news media covered something good our children are doing rather than the rebellious ones getting all the publicity. My son, Jim, also commented to me about the same article and he felt so proud of a hometown boy and the good deed he is doing in Taiwan.

In case some of you didn't see the article in The Times, date Aug. 29, it is, "Floyd Man Member of Group Providing Help for Children." Go back and read it and you'll understand why we feel as we do.

Jim and I both are graduates of Maytown High School and we feel so proud of Sgt. William F. May, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas C. May, Langley Ky., for the good work he and his comrades are doing. I know it is a rewarding experience for them to know they are filling the little kids' hearts with happiness as well as filling their mouths with food. Bill, America needs more like you. God will bless you for it.

(MRS.) MARCELLA R. BAILEY
Langley, Ky.

Nothing Nicer

I would like to say there has never been anything nicer done for Floyd county than when Dr. Archer worked so hard to have the Medical Center put up. I was there for a few days in July, and I have no complaint. Nurses are very nice. Nothing like a smile or a good word to comfort you when you are flat on your back. And another thing, they don't have to know if you are rich when you are admitted, and Dr. Adams and Dr. Holbrook also know their business. I would like to thank nurses, doctors and all for their kindness.

A Week—or Years—Late?

Often we wait too long. For 56 years I planned to visit my old school grounds where my favorite teacher tried so hard to pound into my head the extraction of cube root and that the square of the hypotenuse of a right triangle, minus the square of one of the other sides, equals the square of the third side. The teacher's name was Dan Hurd.

I finally made the journey. A paved road disturbed my recollection; and there were nothing that even slightly resembled what I had retained in my mind. But I did recognize the old weather-beaten house that use to be the home of Uncle Joe Hurd, father of my teacher. I ordered the car to stop, got out and walked over to the gate that was in the extreme stages of decay.

I didn't expect to see Uncle Joe on the porch like I had on my way to and from school (he was a colonel in the Civil War) but I had hoped some of his family still lived there, but the blighted scene told me the place long ago was abandoned. But, despite the deterioration, I couldn't resist going to the door and knocking. All I heard was the echo of a hollow sound. I walked back to the road just as a middle-aged man drove up and I asked him, "This is the Uncle Joe Hurd place, isn't it?"

"Use to be," he said, apparently not wanting to waste time with me. "Does any of his family live near here?"

"No. They're all dead. We buried Dan last week."

Cites Bridge Danger

This letter is addressed to whom it may concern, because I feel it should concern a lot of people.

In driving across the old bridge going from Prestonsburg to West Prestonsburg, I shudder as I drive under a dangerous menace. I speak of a rather large, heavy-looking piece of metal that dangles over each car that passes over this bridge.

Will it take this large piece of metal one day falling into the windshield of a car and perhaps seriously injuring or killing someone before something is done? I sincerely hope not.

I personally have seen this now for several months and I urge the person or persons responsible for taking care of things such as this to please do so immediately.

MRS. W. D. WARREN

Thanks

The students and teachers of Prestonsburg Elementary would like to take this opportunity to publicly thank Flanery and Dingus TV Service for providing free cable TV service for our school.

Likes Prestonsburg

Last week I and a group were on vacation through the north-eastern parts of Kentucky, Ohio and West Virginia. I want to tell you, we visited in your city park and other points of interest and were deeply impressed. You have one of the most beautiful towns we were in. Everything was so clean, neat, attractive homes—in fact, it was just beautiful. I could encourage anyone to visit there.
