

IF CERTAIN MEMBERS OF THE PRESENT CITY COUNCIL ARE DESPARATE ENOUGH TO HAVE TO TAKE CREDIT FOR OTHER PEOPLE'S ACHIEVEMENTS, THEN MAYBE THEY WOULD ALSO LIKE TO TAKE CREDIT FOR THE 1977 FLOOD AND THE BAD WINTERS WE'VE HAD IN RECENT YEARS. IT MAKES JUST AS MUCH SENSE.

LET'S LOOK AT THE FACTS AND LEARN THE TRUTH!!

- THEY SAY: THEY BUILT A NEW MUNICIPAL BUILDING, AND FIRE DEPARTMENT.
- THE TRUTH IS: THIS PROPERTY WAS BOUGHT AND PAID FOR BY A PREVIOUS ADMINISTRATION UNDER DR. GEORGE P. ARCHER. CERTAIN MEMBERS OF THE PRESENT COUNCIL HELPED BLOCK CONSTRUCTION OF IT YEARS AGO, AND IT WAS ONLY AFTER A 100% GRANT WAS MADE AVAILABLE WITH THE HELP OF CONGRESSMAN CARL D. PERKINS, AND THE PERSISTANT URGING OF PAUL P. HUGHES, HANSEL COOLEY AND CLOYD JOHNSON THAT FINALLY THEY AGREED TO LET IT BE BUILT.
- THEY SAY: THEY COMPLETED A SECONDARY SEWAGE TREATMENT PLANT.
- THE TRUTH IS: WE HAVE ONE OF THE MOST EFFICIENT WATER, GAS AND SEWAGE DEPARTMENTS IN KENTUCKY, HEADED BY BILL H. HOWARD, AND DIRECTED BY A COMMISSION CONSISTING OF C. J. McNALLY, JOHNNY BURKE AND PHIL DAMRON. WE ARE PROUD OF THEM, AND PLEASED TO REPORT THAT IT IS COMPLETELY SEPARATE FROM THE CITY COUNCIL.
- THEY SAY: THEY ARE RESPONSIBLE FOR THE DEVELOPMENT OF A SECONDARY ROAD TO CLIFF, AS WELL AS 94 UNITS OF HOUSING FOR ALL INCOME LEVELS AT CLIFF.
- THE TRUTH IS: THIS IS A PROJECT OF THE PRESTONSBURG MINISTERIAL ASSOCIATION, AND WOULD BE BUILT ON LAND PURCHASED BY THE PRESTONSBURG INDUSTRIAL CORPORATION MANY YEARS AGO. AS A MATTER OF FACT, WHEN A DELEGATION FROM CLIFF CAME BEFORE THE COUNCIL, A CERTAIN MEMBER TOLD THEM THEY COULD NOT DISCUSS THE ISSUE, AS THEY HAD NOTHING TO DO WITH IT!
- THEY SAY: THEY HAVE MADE IMPROVEMENTS TO ARCHER PARK TENNIS COURTS, SENIOR CITIZEN'S BUILDING, AND THE SKATING RINK.
- THE TRUTH IS: NOW THEY ARE TAKING CREDIT FOR WORK DONE BY THE PARK BOARD.
- THEY SAY: THEY BUILT THE FLOYD COUNTY HUMANE SOCIETY ANIMAL SHELTER.
- THE TRUTH IS: THE MONEY TO BEGIN THIS PROJECT WAS WILLED TO THE CITY EXPLICITLY BY A LADY FROM MIDDLESBORO YEARS AGO FOR THIS PURPOSE.
- THEY SAY: THEY ARE RESPONSIBLE FOR THE 80 HIGH-RISE UNITS FOR THE DISABLED AND ELDERLY AT MAYS BRANCH.
- THE TRUTH IS: HERE THEY ARE TAKING CREDIT FOR THE WORK OF THE PRESTONSBURG HOUSING AUTHORITY.
- THEY SAY: THEY DEVELOPED A SECTION 8 PROGRAM IN CONJUNCTION WITH FLOYD COUNTY FOR RENT SUPPLEMENT FOR EXISTING STANDARD HOMES.
- THE TRUTH IS: THEY'RE TAKING CREDIT FOR THE HOUSING AUTHORITY AGAIN.

VOTERS, THE PLAIN UNVARNISHED TRUTH IS, THEY HAVE NO MORE RIGHT TO TAKE CREDIT FOR THE ABOVE ITEMS THAN THEY HAVE TO TAKE CREDIT FOR ALL THE RECENT ACHIEVEMENTS OF OUR NEIGHBORING TOWNS.

IT'S TIME TO MOVE PRESTONSBURG IN A NEW DIRECTION!

Workshops Will Foster Involvement in Schools

Citizen involvement in Kentucky education will soon be boosted by a series of workshops and seminars for local school districts funded by the Department of Health, Education and Welfare under the Community Schools Act.

Working with 40 Kentucky school districts, the grant will be used to provide assistance to community advisory councils to expand their programs and personnel.

The first of these meetings will take place next week in Louisville at the joint conference of the Kentucky Community Education Association and the Kentucky Adult and Continuing Education Association to be held at the Executive Inn West Oct. 28-30.

This meeting, according to Harry G. (Gippy) Graham, unit director for community education with the Kentucky Department of Education, will allow "Statewide interaction" for community advisory council members. Open to the public, the conference will offer interest sessions on citizen involvement in education and related matters.

Among the future plans to be discussed by those attending the conference will be the "Awareness Building" workshops and seminar scheduled to be held throughout the state. Plans will also be discussed for the 14 district community education advisory councils to be given additional training under the recent grant.

The Mott Foundation, a private foundation which awards more than 350 grants a year for programs fostering community self-improvement through education and citizens involvement, will also provide support for the community education districts.

One Hurt in Car, Truck Collision

Georgette Allen, 35, of Prestonsburg, was injured when the pickup she was driving collided with a late model sedan and overturned on the median strip on U.S. 23, near Archer Park, shortly after 5 p.m. Saturday. She remains hospitalized at Highlands Regional Medical Center, where her condition was described Tuesday afternoon as satisfactory.

The driver of the sedan, Lisa A. Spradlin, of Martin, was not seriously hurt in the mishap. The accident is being investigated by State Troopers Joe West and Jim Rederick.

UK Honors Football Victim

The University of Kentucky Board of Trustees has approved naming the new UK student apartments near Commonwealth Stadium the "Greg Page Stadium View Apartments."

Greg Page of Middlesboro was the second black scholarship athlete to be recruited at UK following the desegregation of the University's intercollegiate athletic teams in the mid-1960s. He died in the fall of 1967 at the age of 19 as a result of an injury suffered during a football practice.

"We think it especially fitting that a student housing complex in sight of Commonwealth Stadium should be named for Greg Page," said UK President Otis Singletary. Singletary submitted the proposed name to the Board upon its approval by a standing committee of UK faculty and staff charged with naming University facilities.

The new apartments which house more than 700 UK undergraduate and married students are the first facility on the UK campus to be named in honor of a black person. The apartments were opened to students this fall.

Two UK students submitted the name chosen for the apartments. Former UK Black Student Union president Jonathan Hines, of Paducah, submitted Page's name, and Fred Farmer, of Pembroke, who is a resident of the new apartments, completed the naming with "Stadium View Apartments."

Page was an all-state defensive end for his Middlesboro High School team before he entered UK. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Page, still live in Middlesboro. They will be honored at UK's homecoming against Bowling Green on Nov. 3.

FLOYD COUNTY NEEDS A FULL-TIME JUDGE ELECT RONALD FRASURE COUNTY JUDGE-EXECUTIVE

It is now obvious that my opponent has decided that the number one issue in this campaign is what political party I belong to.

I believe there are many issues and I have visited all sections of our county and have discussed the issues that are important to your area. I have not tried to evade answers nor have I made any wild promises just to get your vote.

Some of the issues are—improved roads and bridges so that little children won't have to walk through the creek beds to get to school, and so you can get to your house 12 months out of the year. I want a cleaner Floyd County. I will get rid of the roadside garbage dumps and will provide our citizens with a workable garbage disposal system. Also funds could be obtained to improve the sewer and water drainage problems that so many of our communities have had for many years.

Doesn't it make you wonder when you read about our neighboring counties getting millions of dollars in grants to provide jobs when Floyd county's factories are closing.

Friends, all of these problems were crying for solutions when my opponent was a member of our Floyd Fiscal Court for 12 years. The reason he didn't help in doing something then was the fact he spent most of his time in Johnson county and didn't care what was happening to Floyd county, and I believe we would have the same situation if you elect him your County Judge. He has not publically stated that he would resign his position at the Big Sandy R.E.C., only that his phone number would be listed in the phone directory. Nor has he told you who he would appoint as Judge Pro-Tem should he keep both jobs. Get out, vote and elect Ronald Frasure for County Judge, November 6th.

GET OUT—VOTE AND ELECT RONALD FRASURE COUNTY JUDGE-EXECUTIVE

Agreement on Waste Fills To Provide Housing Sites

Waste sites filled with excavated materials from highway construction projects in Eastern Kentucky may be utilized for housing, commercial or industrial sites under an agreement which has just been approved by two states agencies.

A memorandum of understanding signed by William Short, secretary of the Development Cabinet, and Calvin Grayson, secretary of the Department of Transportation, provides for acquisition by the cabinet of sites available for development after they have been filled with waste materials and are no longer needed by the Transportation Department.

Short said the agreement will help meet a critical need for level sites suitable for housing or other development in the rugged terrain of the state's Appalachian region. Through this cooperative effort, and acquired for highway waste disposal can be developed to their fullest potential to serve the people of the region, he said.

Grayson noted that the only additional obligation assumed by KYDOT under the agreement is to assure that waste sites selected by the cabinet for future development are filled in accordance with guidelines providing for safe and favorable subsurface conditions.

"We in KYDOT are pleased to share in this cooperative effort with the Development Cabinet to develop waste disposal sites for industrial, commercial or housing improvement in the Appalachian region," Grayson said. "We believe such projects are consistent with the developmental goals of the Appalachian program."

Under the agreement, the Development Cabinet will have the opportunity during the planning stages of each highway project to determine whether it is interested in acquiring for development any of the potential fill sites to be utilized in conjunction with the project.

Once a site is acquired, a state-local developmental selection committee will be named to make recommendations for the best use of the site and to select a developer, either private, non-profit or governmental, to undertake the project, Short explained.

The committee will include the county judge, the mayor of the nearest city, a member of the county fiscal court, a member of the city council, representatives of KYDOT and the Development Cabinet, and a staff engineer or architect from the cabinet.

If the site is designated for housing, then any homeowners displaced by the highway project will be given priority in locating on the site, Short added.

The cooperative program will be handled by the Development Cabinet's office of community and regional development, which administers Kentucky programs of the Appalachian Regional Commission. Funds provided by the ARC would be utilized to promote housing or enterprise-development programs on the fill sites, explained Ralph Coldiron, executive director.

"The great advantage to this program is that we will have many additional sites for development which otherwise would not have been available," he added. "The scarcity of level, flood-free sites has been a major obstacle in providing homes and industrial sites in Kentucky Appalachia."

Kinzer-Joseph Vows Taken

Miss Sherry Kaye Kinzer and Mr. Kermit Davis Joseph were united in marriage at the Allen United Methodist Church, Friday, August 10, at 6:30 in the evening. The candlelight ceremony was solemnized by the Rev. Kenneth Lemaster, pastor.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Kinzer, of Allen, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Kermit Joseph, of Prestonsburg. Preceding the ceremony, a program of wedding music was presented by Jerry and Anita Lafferty. Musical selections were: "For All We Know," "I Love You So," "Color My World," "If," "Evergreen," "You Light Up My Life," and "Can't Help Falling in Love With You." Mrs. Karen Marcum sang "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length gown of white organza. Chantilly lace edged the long sleeves, the neckline, the bodice, the apron-style skirt, and, layering in a deep ruffle, formed a chapel train. A white satin ribbon accented the waist of the gown forming streamers down the skirt of the gown. The bridal hat was edged in matching Chantilly lace, and to complete her ensemble, the bride carried a cascade bouquet of white phalaenopsis orchids accented with stephanotis.

Miss Ramona Blair, of Prestonsburg, was maid of honor. Miss Renee Kinzer served her sister as junior bridesmaid. They wore blue organza gowns with white lace edging the bodice, ruffle-forming around the shoulders, and the skirt ruffle forming a bustle in the back. Their blue picture hats were banded with blue illusion. The maid of honor carried a cascade bouquet of mixed colored carnations, daisies, and baby breath. The junior bridesmaid carried a colonial bouquet of mixed carnations, daisies, and baby breath. Bridal attendants were Miss Sharon Ellis, Miss Tammy White, Miss Peggy Prater, of Prestonsburg, and Miss Bridget Salyers, of Pikeville. Miss Anita Kay Marcum, of Allen, served the bride as flower girl. The bridesmaids and the flower girl wore identical gowns and hats in colors of pink, apricot, lilac, and yellow. The bridesmaids carried colonial bouquets of mixed carnations, daisies, and baby breath to match their gowns. James Click, friend of the groom, served as best man. Ushers were Jeffery and Jammie Kinzer, brothers of the bride, Dwayne Moore and George Randy Wells, of Prestonsburg. Roger Ford was escort for the junior bridesmaid, and the ringbearer was Brad Porter, cousin of the bride.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Kinzer chose a pink floor-length gown, trimmed in lace, and wore a white Cattleya orchid. Mrs. Joseph, mother of the groom, wore a floor-length gown of sky blue, with a white Cattleya orchid corsage.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the church reception hall. The double-tiered wedding cake was the center of the bride's table, surrounded with decorations of ferns, mixed carnations, daisies, and baby breath, and a flowing fountain. The bridal cake was baked by Mrs. Marie Stephens, of Langley. Serving at the reception were Mrs. Palmer Crisp, Mrs. Chester Porter, Mrs. Jerry Kinzer, Mrs. Terry Kinzer, Mrs. Willard Kinzer, Mrs. Peggy Hall, and Mrs. William Chester Porter.

Following a honeymoon at Cocoa Beach, Florida, the couple is residing in Allen.

Prison Inmates Put To Work Cleaning up Two Interstates

A familiar sight along Intersections 64 and 71 in Kentucky last summer was orange-clad Kentucky State Reformatory inmates picking up trash along the roadway.

Inmates from the Eddyville correctional institution have been clearing brush on western Kentucky state roads during the summer as well as collecting litter.

The efforts of these inmates from Kentucky's two state penal institutions are the result of a cooperative program involving the state Departments of Justice and Transportation.

The brainchild of Transportation Secretary Calvin Grayson and Corrections Commissioner David Bland, the program lets inmates volunteer for work assignments on routine highway maintenance jobs. Jobs such as clearing roads of trash cannot normally be accomplished by Bureau of Highways personnel due to time and manpower shortages.

Four crews of 10 men each have been on the job since May, according to Bland. Each crew is under the supervision of two armed correctional officers and one work supervisor.

Bland said work assignments are made by Bureau of Highways personnel, and inmates are supervised by trained Bureau of Corrections employees.

According to Bland, the program has proven so successful that soon the two departments will discuss expansion of the inmates' duties.

"No incidents have been reported, and the men have proven to be good workers," Bland said. "We have received many requests from inmates wishing to work on the road crews." Increasing the number of crews is scheduled for the winter are some of the additional duties planned for the inmates, he said.

Also included in the extra heavy repair work will be the clearing of bridge drains. Bland said that these drains frequently become blocked, and accelerated bridge deterioration results. He states that while the men cannot work beyond a 50-mile radius of their home institution, "they have fit very well into our overall work program."

E. C. Halcomb, a Department of Transportation maintenance engineer, said that the LaGrange inmates have picked up trash on more than 125 mile of Interstates 62 and 71. Weather permitting, the crews will continue working throughout this winter, Bland said.

To the people of Floyd County

I, T. P. "Tim" Reynolds, am asking all my friends in Floyd county to get out and support the Democratic party. To make a better Floyd county, elect Bill Wells as our next County Judge, on Nov. 6.

OUR CITY IS FINANCIALLY SOLVENT AND YOU HAVE HAD NO ADDITIONAL TAXES.

P'burg Is Reported 'in Black' As Nearby Towns in Trouble

Prestonsburg is operating "in the black—no problems," Brenda Hayes, occupational tax administrator, said Tuesday in response to a query as to the city's financial condition.

The inquiry was made after it was learned here that both Paintsville and Pikeville were in financial straits.

Paintsville, for example, last Friday was trying unsuccessfully to borrow $13,000 to meet its payroll. Lending institutions declined to make the loan because, it was said, the city had no means of showing how it could pay later.

Mayor James Trimble cured that situation by calling an emergency session of city council, which readopted the 1 per cent occupational tax that the council had eliminated after Trimble took office in January, 1976.

(It was the occupational tax issue which helped defeat Allan (Bud) Perry and elect Trimble in the race for mayor in 1975.)

The new tax will be levied, beginning December 1.

At Pikeville city employees stayed home from work Monday after they had not been paid, as usual, on the preceding Friday. The work stoppage, however, resulted more from a scare than inability of the city to pay the workers, it later was said. Money was available for the payroll, this report said, but payment of other bills was to be delayed to make employees' pay possible. When the pay period was set to end on Saturday instead of Friday (meaning that the workers would get paid on Monday), the workers decided to stay home.

The Pikeville City Council met Monday and voted to borrow $121,000 for operation of its garbage, water-sewage and natural gas departments. It borrowed a similar amount after heavy flood losses and repaid that loan.

Meanwhile, the workers were paid and were back at work Tuesday. In the future, officials said, they will be paid on Monday.

Southern Artist To Submit Entries

"Mixmaster"—a unique traveling art exhibit—will begin touring Kentucky and the nine member states of the Southern Arts Federation in March 1980.

The Kentucky Arts Commission, with support from the Southern Arts Federation, the National Endowment for the Arts and the Louisville School of Art, is sponsoring this exhibition of mixed media on paper.

Any resident of the member states of the Southern Arts Federation, Alabama, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Louisiana, Mississippi, North or South Carolina, Tennessee and Virginia, may enter work to be considered for the exhibit.

Entries must use at least two different media on paper. The jury's decisions are final as to whether or not work meets this criterion. All work submitted for final judging must have been created after January 1977.

Initial judging will be from slides. Exhibition jurors will be Floyd Coleman of the Department of Art and Design at Southern Illinois University, Darryl Curran of the School of Arts at California State University at Fullerton, and Lowry Sims, associate curator of 20th Century Art at the Metropolitan Museum of Art.

Deadline for submission of slides to be considered for exhibition is Nov. 15. A maximum of five 35mm slides may be submitted from one artist. Each slide must include the artist's name, address, media, size and "top and front" designations. Exhibition organizers ask that slides not be submitted in a plastic slide page. Any slides submitted not meeting these requirements will be returned.

Artists selected by the jury may submit up to two works for the final review. Slides and art work will be returned prepaid after judging.

For additional information or exhibition prospectus, contact Albert Sperath, Mixmaster, Kentucky Arts Commission, 302 Wilkinson Street, Frankfort, Ky. 40601.

STATE'S MILK PRODUCTION GOES UP DURING SEPTEMBER

Milk production in Kentucky totaled 201 million pounds in September, according to the Kentucky Crop & Livestock Reporting Service.

The total showed a 2 percent increase from production in September 1978. During the first three quarters of the year, Kentucky milk cows produced 1.8 million pounds, the same amount produced through the same period in 1978.

The production per cow, 785 pounds, was a September record, 45 pounds above the September 1978 average, the service said.

Fabric Mixes Mark Men's Fall Attire

By FRANCES H. PITTS County Extension Agent for Home Economics

The fashionable male will be dressed in fall attire that is neat and clean with designs that mix and match. Sportswear is casual, marked by related separates in shirts, vests, sweaters, jackets and pants.

Emphasis is on the shoulders and with narrowed pants present a V-shaped silhouette. Straight legs and loosely constructed tops produce a boxy, 50's look. Detailing lends a western appeal with back yokes, button belt loops and arrowhead pockets.

Shirt collars are smaller. Ties are narrow in subtle colors or in novelty sports versions. Casual shirts boast plackets, yokes, embroidery, cinched waists and a range of collars including round, shawl, pointed and even collarless.

Sweaters and vests in washable acrylic with V-neck, shawl, convertible and army collars will be the stars in the sweater brigade to accommodate shirt-tie-sweater or vest coordination. Sweaters in tweeds and specked yarns, bright jacquards, chenilles and rib knits will also be much in demand. Cotton or cotton-polyester velour cardigans round out the sweater picture.

Sport jackets and blazers are softly constructed with shoulder padding, narrowed lapels and shawl collars. Classics appear in donegals and tweeds. Following squared-off shoulder lines of the 50's, some jackets feature back vents, drawstrings or cinched waists.

Jeans in denim, corduroy, chino and canvas are popular. Casual slacks lean toward wool and wool-blend flannels in tweeds and donegals. Narrow waistbands with side taps; tapered or straight legs, some cuffed; numerous pockets; and plenty of pleats make pants a focal part of the fall story for the fashionable male.

Colors center on deep earth tones such as khaki, hunter green, muddy-brown and gray, flecked with brights for contrast. Red and yellow are the primaries. Iridescent sweep the scene in electric blue and magenta. Unique mixes include violet and olive and khaki with red.

PARIS PLANS TO TAKE OVER OPERATION OF EIFFEL TOWER

PARIS—Paris Mayor Jacques Chirac said that the city would not renew a 30-year-old concession contract to operate the Eiffel Tower in 1980 and would run the famous tourist attraction itself.

Chirac said the city planned to turn over the tower, which attracts more than 2 million visitors each year, to another concessionaire after two years.

He told a news conference that the current operator had taken a "negative attitude" in negotiations with the city. Officials of the company could not be reached for comment.

Some 458,000 Vietnam veterans returned from the war with a disability, according to the President's Committee on Employment of the Handicapped.

THE RECORD SPEAKS FOR ITSELF!

DURING MAYOR E. P. GRIGSBY'S ADMINISTRATIONS, THE FOLLOWING PROJECTS WERE COMPLETED FOR THE CITY OF MARTIN. THIS WAS DONE WITHOUT ADDITIONAL TAXES AND THE CITY IS OPERATING IN THE BLACK.

Town Centre Plaza, site of the E. P. Grigsby Senior Citizen Facility. 28 units, cost $568,000.

New Steel Water Tank. Cost, $120,000.

Fire Truck and new equipment, worth $60,000.

Martin City Hall. Worth $40,000.

New sidewalks. Cost, $14,000.

Senior Citizens Van.

New Backhoe for city repairs. Cost, $21,997. Water Plant in background.

Tractor for maintenance, $5,300.

MY FELLOW MARTIN CITIZENS:

Beware of candidates who make false promises. It is very easy for those who are out of office to make wild promises knowing they cannot keep them.

When I first became Mayor of Martin, the City owned a small rundown building on old Post Office Street that served as a jail and police station, the Water Plant was located beside the old Hall Brothers' Funeral Home. The streets were either dirt or gravel and street lights were located few and far apart.

During my first term as Mayor, 1952-56, we built a New City Hall that has space for a Jail, Fire Department, Police Headquarters, and a modern 6-room apartment on the second floor that serves as residence for the city policeman. The City still owns the old water works lot which is now a Paved Parking Lot. In addition, we have adequate water and sewage treatment plants plus a 40-unit Low Rent Housing Project at Pageant Hill and a 28-unit Housing Project for the Elderly and Disabled at Town Plaza. A new federal grant for a 100-unit Housing Project has been approved for the City and will be constructed in the next two years.

All Streets and Roads owned by the City are 98 percent paved and each street has one or more Street Lights on it.

We have a Modern Fire Department with trained volunteer firemen and a paid fire chief. Our Truck is in excellent condition and at today's prices would be valued at $50,000. We have a new Back Hoe purchased with coal severance money that cost $21,000. An additional $8,000 was used to renovate the Playground and Ballfield. Insurance Rates have been Lowered, Saving the People a Great Deal of Money.

By the week of October 29, 1979 we will have completed the installation of a New Water Tank costing nearly $125,000. This Tank will increase the efficiency of the Water Plant and assure more than enough water pressure for use by our fire department in case of fire. It will have storage for three times the amount of water held by the old tank. The City will receive water from this Tank within a few days.

All of these things have been accomplished with a small budget of 20-22 thousand dollars a year and the lowest tax rate in the State of Kentucky: 22c (cents) per $100 evaluation.

Our finances are sound. The largest part of our budget goes for Police and Fire Protection, but we OPERATE IN THE BLACK.

We have problems like all other cities in Kentucky and our nation mainly with water, sewage, and solid waste disposal. We are constantly working on these problems as indicated by the New Water Tank and a promise of $50,000 federal money to repair our sewage system that was practically destroyed by the 1977 flood. Sewage Repairs should start within the next few weeks.

I have a deep feeling of Love and Devotion for the City of Martin. It is where I live and make my living. That is why I wish to continue serving you. I have never received a cent from the City for my personal use and have no future plans that call for new sub-divisions or businesses that would EMBARRASS THE CITY. I have made numerous trips to Washington, Louisville, Lexington, and Cincinnati ON BEHALF OF THE CITY AT MY OWN EXPENSE.

Recently I signed a Personal Note for $20,000.00 at The First Guaranty Bank for water purchased from Beaver-Elkhorn Water District so that the CITY OF MARTIN WOULD NOT HAVE TO BE WITHOUT WATER caused by an old water tank and the effects of the 1977 flood that had damaged our water system!

Judges' Salary Increase Asked

The judiciary subcommittee of the Interim Joint Committee on Appropriations and Revenue heard a request today for salary increases for Supreme Court, court of appeals, circuit court and district court judges.

The increases would reflect at least a 25 percent pay increase which, according to the report, would reflect at least a 25 percent pay increase which, according to the report, would offset the impact of inflation over the past four years.

The salary of a district court judge was set in December 1976 at $27,500 and has not been readjusted since. According to the report they buying power of this salary is only $23,375, and at the current rate of inflation would be $20,163 in 1980.

The salary being requested for the district judges is $48,000.

Other benefits for judges include a retirement plan into which they pay a percentage. Those judges who travel will have a voucher expense account with a $5,000 per year ceiling.

The Court of Justice is also requesting that all judges and justices be given an annual cost-of-living increment which would increase or decrease based on the Consumer Price Index each year.

According to the report, this is similar to 17 other state officials' salary computations.

The Court of Justice is also requesting that all judges and justices be given an annual cost-of-living increment which would increase or decrease based on the Consumer Price Index each year.

According to the report, this is similar to 17 other state officials' salary computations.

In other action, the subcommittee heard an opinion from Dr. David H. Bland, commissioner of the Kentucky Bureau of Corrections, on a community service alternative program for prisoners.

The program, proposed by Rep. Ramsey Morris (D-Hopkinsville), would be similar to one operated in Hopkinsville which allows prisoners who have committed minor offenses and who have no previous record to work in the community. Responsibility for the prisoners rests with an agency, such as the Community Service Alternative Program of Christian County, which would receive funds on a matching basis from federal sources.

Bland said research had been done on such diversion projects and they did not substantially reduce jail population. He was also concerned about expanding social services staff since, he said, there are already 19 services.

Bland added, however, he was interested in any program that involved restitution.

No action was taken on either matter at this meeting.

Caring For Your Curious Baby

By Nancy Kaplan

As soon as your baby comes into this world, the learning process begins for her. Although she is not fully conscious of the world around her quite yet, she will be utilizing all five of her senses to see, hear, taste, smell, and touch in order to react to what is going on in her small environment from the very start.

Getting to Know You

The parents and the newborn develop a mutual understanding of one another's needs as a unique learning experience takes place and is shared between them. Each responds to the other's sensory stimulation. For example, your baby is hungry and would like to be fed. To let you know he wants something, he cries. As you deduce through close observation exactly what his wants are, and watch his reactions, you will come to know what each cry and movement of the body represents. Your senses have been stimulated to recognize signs from your baby. You are learning the appropriate responses to a given situation.

The same holds true for your baby. By responding to your infant, by holding him, feeding him or talking to him, you are stimulating the development of his senses. Just as importantly, he is learning that someone cares for him and that his needs will be taken care of in response to his given stimulus. In this way, you and your child have a two-way process taking place between you.

Once you become familiar with your child's physical needs, it is equally important to be cognizant of his emotional needs as well. Your child will let you know if he desires a lot of attention and stimulation or if he is getting too much to handle. If he falls asleep or turns away from you, that is his way of telling you that he is being over-stimulated and needs to be left alone.

Surprisingly enough, newborn babies can focus on objects and they enjoy following movement. To enhance your baby's visual stimulus, you can place all sorts of objects that are pleasing to the eye in or around his sleeping area. Eye level decals on the crib or mobiles hanging from the ceiling provide the baby with something to ponder.

Of all the designs that you may choose to put within eye range of your infant, though, by far the best visual stimulus for him is...you. Research has found that the newborn far prefers looking at a face to an inanimate object. In a short time, your face will become his favorite. And within four to five months, your baby will have a preference for eyes above all other facial features. Hold him in a way that he may look directly into them.

Let's Talk

A newborn's hearing is not totally developed at birth; yet she can tell the difference in pitches and she will respond to loud sounds which frighten her, as well as soft sounds such as the human voice, to which she will wave her arms and legs in a rhythmic motion.

From the birth of your infant, it is extremely important that you constantly talk to her. It is a vital part of her development that she hear your voice. It really doesn't matter what you say as long as you are there, and talking.

Babies learn from the way in which a parent reacts that certain sounds correspond to certain objects, through your repetition of that particular sound. At the same time, if you slightly modify it to form a word, your baby will come to know a limited vocabulary. For example, if you change an "m" sound to "mama," your child will soon realize who mama is and will eventually be able to say the word herself.

Babies are also fond of musical sounds, so sing to your baby. It doesn't matter whether or not you think you are tone deaf, your newborn will not notice. Your baby will listen to recorded music, too.

Another of the five senses, taste, is well enough developed so that the baby can tell the difference between various liquids, including milk and water. To determine how much your infant enjoys any particular liquid, pay attention to her sucking. For a liquid that she especially likes, she will suck for longer periods of time.

Many mothers do not know whether they should breast-feed or bottle-feed the baby. Research has found that as long as the baby is fed in accordance with the doctor's instructions, and is held securely in loving arms, both her emotional and physical needs will be satisfied. This is also true of the temperature of the baby's food; it is secondary in importance to the emotional security the child feels at the time of the feeding.

Doing What Comes Naturally

Stimulating your newborn is a regular part of taking care of her. When you express your natural feelings and emotions toward your baby, it's an easy and simple part of parenthood. Make sure you take advantage of the time you have with her to give her all the attention and stimulation she needs. Remember to give her opportunity for eye contact, a chance to listen to you talk and hear you sing, and of course, feel the security and warmth of being held. By stimulating your infant now, you are paving the way for her toward a happy and secure future.

'Wall Street Week' Recalls Crash of '29

A special report on the great stock market crash of the twenties and our own troubled economic times airs Monday, October 29 at 10:30 p.m.

The half-hour program, "The Crash of '29—A Wall Street Week Special," features host Louis Rukeyser and guests recalling the events that led to the crash of 1929 and comparing them with happenings in the world money markets today.

Fifty years ago—on October 29, 1929—the Dow Jones Industrial Average lost 12 percent of its value in a single day on a record volume of 16 million shares traded. "Black Tuesday" closed out a week of panic on Wall Street and heralded the beginning of the worst economic decline in American history.

What caused the crash and the ensuing Great Depression? What similarities exist between the forces at play in 1929 and those which exist in today's gloomy economy? Could it happen again?

Historic film footage, understandable graphics, interviews and music tell the story of the great stock market crash as "Wall Street Week" departs from its regular format for this half-hour special.

Some people say putting a bay leaf in flour tins discourages weevils.

CITIZENS OF EASTERN KY.

Ask Yourself These Questions Between Now and Election Day.

Rice Branch—Rice Paddy?

Does your road look like this?

After promises of things to be done, why are they never done?

Where does our tax money go?

Do we have to pay taxes all our lives and receive very little in return?

Do your children have to walk through mud like this to catch the school bus, because of road conditions?

Why do our Elderly Folks, who have paid taxes all their lives, have to live on roads like this, and have to be taken for emergency treatment in a truck?

Don't we have any tax money to help better conditions like this in Eastern Kentucky? If not, why pay high salaries to politicians?

Why not use this money to improve our way of life?

Are there any truthful politicians? We, the people of Rice Branch, would like some honest answers to these questions.

Barry Manilow's back at it with 'One Voice'

Barry Manilow is one of the foremost names in the entertainment world today. At 33, he's a multi-award winning artist whose career has spanned songwriting, recordings, the concert stage, Broadway and television—all with equal distinction.

Manilow's recent activities include producing Dionne Warwick's latest album—her first on the Arista label. The LP, Dionne, featuring the top ten single 'I'll Never Love This Way Again,' went gold and sparked a triumphant comeback for the singer. Manilow then went back into the recording studio to cut his first album in two years. Released on Arista in September, One Voice includes a number of instant Manilow classics, among them, the title track, Ian Hunter's 'Ships,' the Jule Styne standard 'I Don't Want to Walk Without You' and 'Why Don't We Try' A Slow Dance.

Last year, all five of Manilow's albums were on the charts simultaneously—a record broken by only two other singers, male or female: Frank Sinatra and Johnny Mathis. To date, his record sales exceed 22 million.

In the past year, Manilow made his first venture into film, recording a song for a

Buck Owens spans the years

If Buck Owens records a single next year and it makes the Top 10 on the country music charts, he will become the only country entertainer to have had a Top 10 record in four different decades.

Buck (pictured here from the '50s) noted, "There is a new breed of country entertainers who have something to contribute to music, but there are traditionalists who keep the tradition going. There are those of us who do care about country music and where it is going."

Buck Owens

Buck Owens has had hit records in the '50s, '60s and '70s, and there is no reason for him to believe he won't record hit tunes in the '80s.

"I don't feel you can go backwards. You go up or sideways but you can't progress going backwards. But my feelings are that change doesn't always mean progress. Music is for people. I've always been a people man.

"I sing for the people. My music has always been true and honest. It's simplicity that is so beautiful in life. I don't sing for critics or for the man who decides what record to play on the radio for the public.

"When my records aren't played on a radio station because they are 'too country,' it bothers me because there are people who want good country music.

"The emphasis with me is always on the song, the lyrics, records with people in mind instead of the progressive sounds or a 'slick' production in the name of progress. People buy records and they buy tickets to concerts, not the producers or the critics who say what people should hear."

The beauty of anything, Buck Owens feels, "is simplicity. I've been a writer, a producer and a musician and I've never done a song just to have a slick arrangement disguised as country music."

"There are about 25 percent of the people in the music business who decide what millions of people want to hear, but they are missing a lot by changing our sound because there are millions of people who want good, honest country music." Buck said.

"I want to impress people, the important people, the public, not a critic who doesn't know what country is. I've borrowed a saying from Liberace and I use it a lot. 'Nobody likes me but the people.' And that's the way it is. Our times are troubled because of the changes some people are putting into our music."

"But everywhere I go people want to hear me sing 'Together Again' and 'Crying Time' because that's the simplicity they want to hear. It's very basic, good honest music."

"That's what I've always done and that's all I'll ever do. If a radio station doesn't want to play my records because my music is 'too country,' well that's their decision."

The two 8-track tapes of 'Buck Owens Greatest Hits' are still available for $9.95 postpaid from Buckaroo Country Soundstage, Box 1182, Albany, Georgia 31702.

Orkin Fires Worker, Operation Continues

An order allowing the Orkin Exterminating Co. Inc. to continue servicing Kentucky customers has been signed by Department for Natural Resources and Environmental Protection Secretary Frank Harscher.

Orkin was charged with numerous counts of false inspections conducted by one company employee. After 12 days of testimony in Bowling Green, it was found the employee had violated two provisions of Kentucky law. The Orkin employee had made misleading statements about what types of infestations existed at 24 residences and had applied the wrong chemicals to treat the falsely diagnosed areas.

Orkin, however, took several steps, including voluntarily firing the employee who had inspected these homes. Orkin also refunded all money charged to the 24 clients.

"Because of Orkin's prompt action, I did not find it justifiable to revoke the company's license to operate in Kentucky," Harscher said. "These technical violations were not serious or pervasive enough to warrant revocation action in their license."

Harscher did, however, order Orkin to modify some of its internal procedures in order to retain its license. These modifications include the additional supervision of field employees to prevent future false inspections.

Elderly and Handicapped Qualify For Energy Assistance Fund Program

John Edwards retired a few years ago. He and his wife Mary live on the small amount they saved plus a monthly Social Security check. By owning their own home and watching their expenses, they had become accustomed to a comfortable life. But last winter, things changed.

More severe winter weather and rising utility costs put the couple in a tight money situation last year. Continued inflation threatens to take an even bigger bite out of their income this year.

The Edwards are typical of the households that qualify for the state's energy assistance fund.

The 1978 General Assembly allocated $10 million to the energy cost assistance program to aid the elderly and handicapped with winter utility bills.

Grants totaling $5 million were to be distributed last winter, leaving $5 million for this winter. Because the number of applications was lower than expected, last year's grants totalled less than $2 million. The unclaimed $3 million will be added to this year's allocation for a total of $8 million in fuel assistance.

Applicants for the program do not have to be destitute or facing utility cut-off, according to the state Department for Human Resources, the agency that administers the program. Regulations require that applicants be at least 62 years old or blind or handicapped and receiving Supplemental Security or Medicaid benefits.

Human Resources Secretary J. E. DeShazer stresses that the state program differs from a soon-to-be announced federal assistance program with the same initials. The Federal Energy Crisis Assistance Program is designed to aid low income people of any age who are in crisis situations.

Levels of aid in the state program more than double last year's, depending on the size of household and amount of income. The maximum $200 will be granted to persons with total gross household incomes at or below 75 percent of the poverty level, while the lowest aid level, $100, will go to those with incomes at or below 125 percent of the poverty level. Persons with incomes at or below 100 percent of the poverty level will receive $150.

According to officials in the Human Resources Department's Bureau of Social Insurance, a four member household whose total income is between $419 and $558 a month would be eligible for $150 in aid.

Another change in this year's program raises the amount of savings and checking funds the applicant is allowed to have and still qualify for the program.

Last year that amount varied according to the number of people in a household, with a maximum of $3,100 in assets for a family of four. This year's maximum is $5,000 for all households.

The Department for Human Resources estimates that 42,000 households will participate in the program this year.

DeShazer considers public education the key to the program's success this year. The bureau has scheduled 10 workshops during October and November to explain the program to community and industrial leaders as well as state and local officials.

"We're hoping that with the assistance of people in individual communities, the program can reach and help eligible applicants," DeShazer said.

The department expects to distribute all the funds within five months.

Applications will be accepted Dec. 1 - April 20 and can be made in person or by a person designated to act on behalf of the applicant.

The applicant must provide the following information: proof of all income and other assets, proof of age, or disability of one member of the household, Social Security number, and the name and address of someone who can verify the applicants qualifications.

Payment checks are made out jointly to the applicant and to a utility company or other energy supplier.

Further information about the program will be provided to Social Insurance offices in every county, senior citizen centers and utility companies.

Kentucky needs a leader we can be proud of.

John Y. Brown, Jr. understands the people of Kentucky. He knows that Kentuckians want a leader as Governor—a man they can be proud of. That's why John Y. Brown, Jr. has consistently run a positive campaign—based on his own record and positions—instead of a baseless negative attack on his opponent.

A Record of Leadership

Let's take a look at his record. While still working his way through law school, John Y. Brown, Jr. became "the most successful salesman" in the history of Encyclopedia Britannica. He helped build Kentucky Fried Chicken into the largest franchised restaurant company in the world. He organized national telethons in 1972 through 1975 that helped the national Democratic party out of bankruptcy.

John Y. Brown, Jr. has been honored many times for his outstanding achievements. In 1965 he was named one of the Outstanding Young Men of America by the National Jaycees. In 1967 he was named one of the nation's Outstanding Civic Leaders. In 1974, he was given the prestigious "Outstanding American Award" by the Lion's Club International. In addition, he is the youngest member ever inducted into the University of Kentucky Hall of Fame.

For the Future of All Kentuckians

John Y. Brown, Jr. has shown his sensitivity to young and old alike by building the Louisville YMCA and the Sanders-Brown Center on Aging. A businessman, an innovator, a proven leader, John Y. Brown, Jr. can make government work for people. He can put it on a businesslike basis that will create jobs, opportunity and a future for all Kentuckians. All he needs is your support.

ANTI-CANCER DRUGS, CAFFEINE MAY DESTROY TUMOR CELLS

SAN DIEGO—Tests at the University of California have shown that caffeine and anti-cancer drugs may be able to trick injured human tumor cells into self-destruction.

The killing power of anti-cancer drugs was significantly stronger when combined with caffeine, said Dr. John Byfield, chief of radiation oncology at University Hospital in San Diego.

Byfield and a team of three UC-San Diego researchers hope to begin clinical tests in the next year using a relative of caffeine in combination with a class of cancer drugs called alkylating agents.

Research has shown that the combination works in animals, but similar results have not been evident in human tumor cells.

Seminars To Focus on Current Program of Ky. Energy Dept.

Governor Julian M. Carroll has accepted delegation of federal authority to administer the federal "Emergency Building Temperature Restrictions Program" with the Kentucky Department of Energy as the lead agency, announced Deputy Energy Secretary Damon W. Harrison.

The program of the state energy department will be designed for voluntary compliance by owners, operators, and managers of buildings impacted by the program, said Harrison. The immediate emphasis of the program will be focused upon meeting the 65 degrees temperature setting required during the winter. The U.S. Department of Energy has allocated $111,521 to the state for implementation of the voluntary compliance inspection program consisting of approximately 2,000 random inspections and public education activities. Results of the voluntary inspections will be submitted to the federal energy department.

These federal regulations, implemented July 16, 1979, for a nine month period, place temporary restrictions on temperatures for heating, cooling, and domestic hot water in commercial, industrial, government, and other non-residential buildings.

A building owner, operator, or manager may be entitled to an exemption from the temperature restrictions under certain specified conditions, said Harrison.

Regional seminars to be conducted the first week in November by the Kentucky Department of Energy, in conjunction with the U.S. Department of Energy and the American Society of Heating, Refrigeration, and Air-Conditioning Engineers (ASHRAE), will address these exemptions, the 65 degree temperature setting and other segments of the "Emergency Building Temperature Restrictions Regulations."

The locations and dates of these seminars are:

(November 1)—Executive Inn, Canterbury Room, Watterson Expressway (I-64), Louisville, Kentucky. Cosponsored by the Louisville Area Chamber of Commerce; (November 2)—Springs Motel, Harrodsburg Road, Lexington, Kentucky. Cosponsored by the Greater Lexington Chamber of Commerce; (November 5)—Second National Bank Building, Community Room, 1536 Winchester Avenue, Ashland, Kentucky. Cosponsored by the Ashland Area Chamber of Commerce; (November 7)—Madisonville Community College, University Circle, Madisonville, Kentucky. Cosponsored by the Greater

Each applicant must have an interview with the coordinator of the Nursing Program. All credentials and interviews must be completed and on file by March 1.

The Nursing Admissions Committee meets in May of each year and will consider the candidates for the 1980 class. ★ Extension News

By JOHN E. SPARKS
County Extension Agent for Agriculture

How long has it been since you took soil samples? Now's the time to get your samples in preparation for fall fertilization and spring planting and fertilization.

WINTER STORAGE OF TUBEROUS PLANTS

After the tops of Cannas have been killed by frost, allow to dry for several days. Then cut back the tops to 3-4 inches of stem and carefully lift the roots with a fork or spade. Turn the clump of roots over and allow to dry for a few hours. Try to leave as much soil in the clump as possible.

Apply zineb according to label directions and store in a cool, moderately dry area where the temperature will not go over 50 F. Place on shelves or racks so the air can circulate freely among the clumps. Do not allow the temperature to drop below freezing.

In the spring the clumps can be planted complete or separated so there are two to three eyes to every root.

DAHLIAS

When the dahlia plant is darkened by frost, it is ready to be dug. Cut the top black to 4-5 inches and lift gently with a fork or spade so as not to injure the tuberous roots. Remove as much of the soil as possible without injuring the roots. Only save roots from healthy plants. Following the application of a protective fungicide spray of zineb or benomyl, allow the roots to dry in the air for several hours and then store in a dry, cool, frost-proof area. If the air is very dry, pack the clumps in barrels or boxes of peat moss, vermiculite, dry sawdust, sand, or wrapped in newspapers. If the storage area is too dry, the roots may shrivel.

Commercial growers usually cut and divide the tubers soon after digging since the eyes or buds are easier to see in the fall. Treat all cut ends with a fungicide before storage (Mancozeb, zineb or benomyl).

Check the condition of the roots several times during the winter. Discard any which show signs of decay.

TUBEROUS BEGONIAS

When the tops are injured by the first fall frost, gently lift the plants and cut back the stem to the soil line. Leave the ball of roots and soil intact.

Place the soil masses in a dry, cool storage area and allow the tubers to cure for 2 to 3 weeks. Then remove the balance of the soil, stalks and roots. Cut out any rotted spots and spray or dust with captan.

Those certain tracts or parcels of land lying and being on the waters of the Levisa Fork of the Big Sandy River in Floyd County, Kentucky, and being the same lands conveyed to Henry Little and Rosa Little, his wife, by Granville Bryant and Lula Bryant, his wife, by deed dated March 3, 1973, recorded in Deed Book 212, page 108, and described as follows:

Lying and being on the west side of Big Sandy River at Justell, KY (Betsy Layne, KY). "Beginning on the Railroad right of way, and running a straight line to Big Sandy River; thence down the river with the meanders to same or near the mouth of Betsy Layne Branch; thence with the Branch to the right of way of the C & O Railway; thence with the right of way of said railroad to the beginning, containing one-half (1/2) acres, more or less."

TRACT NO. II

"Being a part of the George Moles (Fannin Coal and Land Company) on the west side of Big Sandy River at Betsy Layne, Kentucky, beginning on the railroad right of way and running a straight line to Big Sandy River; thence up the river with its meanders to the line of Layne Coal Company; thence a straight line up the back to the C & O Railway right of way; thence down the river with the railroad right of way to the place of beginning, containing three (3) acres, more or less."

This property is being sold to settle the estate of the late Rosa Little.

The amount of money to be raised by this sale shall include costs of this action, including costs of advertising of this sale and the fees and commissions for conducting this sale.

For the purchase price the purchaser must execute bond with approved surety or sureties, bearing legal interest from the day of sale until paid and having the force and effect of a judgment with a lien retained upon said property as a further security. Herald Files Suit Against Knott Judge

The Lexington Herald-Leader Company and its reporter, Byron Lutz, filed suit last Friday in the Knott circuit court, asking an injunction against Knott District Judge J. Robert Morgan who barred the press and the public from a recent preliminary hearing in the case of Raymond Little, who is charged with the murder of two men.

In the suit, the reporter asked for temporary and permanent injunctions directing Judge Morgan to permit the reporter and other representatives of the newspaper "to have access to all proceedings and records in the Knott district court."

Covering the trial for the Lexington Herald, Lutz was forced to leave the preliminary hearing when Morgan told those in the courtroom of his decision to close the proceedings.

Morgan's order closing the preliminary hearing is believed to be the first such order in Kentucky since a July U.S. Supreme Court decision, Gannett v. DePasquale, which approved a similar hearing closing in Rochester, N.Y.

Since that decision was announced, legal observers believe almost 100 requests have been made for closed hearings and trials, of which more than 50 have been approved by presiding judges.

Morgan's decision to close the hearing came after a request from defense attorney Gary Johnson, of Prestonsburg, who said the fair trial rights of his client, Raymond Little, of Dry Creek, were more important than free press rights of reporters to cover the hearing or the right of the public to an open judicial system.

Morgan said he granted Johnson's motion "on the basis of the Gannett decision decided by the Supreme Court."

Morgan said the issue was "not a personal one—I realize there are a lot of issues involved. But after a discussion of the defendant's motion, there was no substantive objection from the Commonwealth, so I granted it."

The district judge said he did not know whether he would defend the suit himself or retain a private attorney.

Little is charged with the Sept. 24 slaying of two men as they waited in a Knott courtroom for a small claims hearing.

A preliminary hearing is held for the legal purpose of deciding whether sufficient evidence exists to bring the case before a grand jury, which could then indict the suspect. But defense attorneys concede they use hearings chiefly to discover what information has been compiled by law enforcement officers and prosecuting attorneys.

Misconceptions Set Straight by IRS

Over the years, many taxpayers have come to believe as fact some misconceptions about the Internal Revenue Service. Unfortunately, these misconceptions cause taxpayers needless apprehension and worry.

The IRS is a large agency, and the tax law is complex—a combination which might baffle the average person. The following hopefully, may serve to dispel some of the common misconceptions:

—Using the peel-off address label will trigger an audit.

The coding on the label actually just speeds up processing. It helps in identifying taxpayers and the kind of forms contained in the tax package they receive; it is not an audit indicator.

—Once audited, always audited.

IRS makes a special effort NOT to keep auditing the same people over and over. In fact, IRS has a special program called the Repetitive Audit Procedure, the purpose of which is to see to it that no taxpayer is audited two years in a row on the same issue when there was no change the previous year.

—When IRS prepares a return, the tax is always higher.

If facts and figures remain the same, the correct tax will be identical, no matter who prepares the return.

—IRS won't allow some deductions to go on a return, but somebody else would.

IRS Taxpayer Service personnel will give taxpayers the benefit of all allowable deductions made known to them by the taxpayer.

—An IRS mistake can NEVER be straightened out.

If attempts to solve a tax problem with IRS are unsuccessful, taxpayers should contact the Problem Resolution Officer at their local IRS office. This may be done in person, or on the phone by calling toll free the IRS number listed in the directory and asking for the Problem Resolution Officer.

—A mistake on a return triggers an audit.

Generally, math errors are corrected automatically by the computer and do not generate an audit. The adjustment is also automatic, increasing or decreasing taxes and refunds as appropriate. A mistake on its own does not generate an audit.

—Tax on a "long" form is not the same as tax on the "short" form.

Because of certain situations, some taxpayers must use the 1040 Form, often called the "long" form. However, the tax tables for both Form 1040 and Form 1040A are the same. Taxpayers would not pay more tax simply because they chose to use one form over another.

—IRS agents and revenue officers work on commission.

IRS employees, like other government employees, work on a salaried basis. The amount of money they "collect" or don't "collect" in no way influences the amount of their paychecks.

—Anyone who is audited will end up owing more tax.

The outcome of an audit is one of three possibilities: an additional tax assessment, an additional tax refund, or a "no-charge" case. It is not necessarily so that a person who is audited will have to pay more tax, but it is a possibility.

These misconceptions are certainly not all of the incorrect notions people have about the IRS. Many of these misconceptions could probably be clarified by a taxpayer if he or she only took the time to visit a local IRS office, or call, using the toll free number listed in the directory. Taxpayers who have questions are encouraged to call the IRS at 1-800-428-9100 (toll free).

Q. I am concerned about the possibility that my hair dryer contains asbestos, but I don't know who to ask. The dryer is several years old. How can I find out if this model is dangerous? S.B., Maryville, Tn.

A. In our August Shopping Aisle column, we explained that asbestos is the grayish fibrous material which was used as insulation in some hairdryers. Many readers have expressed concern about this because of the link between asbestos and cancer. You do not need to dismantle the dryer to check it. Just turn it off and look in the nozzle or barrel. The asbestos can be seen easily. To be absolutely sure, ask for a free list of hair dryers that were made with asbestos from: Hair Dryer Consumer Kit, Environmental Defense Fund, 1525 18th Street NW, Washington, DC 20036 or call the U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission's toll-free hot line: 800-638-8326. You may also contact manufacturers directly at these toll-free numbers: Clairol: 800-223-5800; Conair: 800-631-5391; Gillette: 800-328-9208; General Electric: 800-241-9992 or 800-241-5822; Norelco: 800-223-1828.

Q. I was delighted to read about the New Games in your August issue. I really like the idea that games don't have to be competitive to be good fun for all. My only problem is finding other New-Games-people to play with! Are there any groups in my area that I can join, or places where I can learn the games? H.M., Houston, Tx.

A. This fall the New Games Foundation will offer training programs in 33 U.S. cities. Here's a general schedule of training sessions around the country:

- October 6-7: Topeka, Ks.; Detroit, Mi.; Rochester, N.Y.
 - October 13-14: St. Louis, Mo.; Indianapolis, In.; Long Island, N.Y.
 - October 20-21: Oklahoma City, Ok.; Cleveland, Oh.; Philadelphia, Pa.
 - October 27-28: Dallas, Tx.; Cincinnati, Oh.; Washington, D.C.
 - November 3-4: Berkeley, Ca.; Austin, Tx.; Charlotte, N.C.
 - November 10-11: Southern California; Memphis, Tn.; Atlanta, Ga.
 - November 17-18: Phoenix, Az.; New Orleans, La.; Miami, Fl.
- For specific locations write to: New Games Foundation, Box 7901, San Francisco, Ca. 94120 or call 416-664-6900

Q. The article on foot care which ran in the August issue didn't explain how to care for feet that are just plain tired! As a waitress, I am on my feet for long hours every day. Even though I wear comfortable, supportive shoes on the job, my feet are worn out by the end of the week. What can I do to ease the pain? E.S., Trenton, N.J.

A. Try putting rubber lifts on your shoes to minimize the stress of walking on hard surfaces. Select shoes that have a heel no more than 2" high, with plenty of space for your toes. If possible, wear shoes of this type 80% of the day or more.

Exercise your feet, too. Stretch out your arches by walking barefoot on tiptoe. When you get out of the shower or tub, stand on one end of a bath towel, then rake in the other end with your toes. If you use a brush to smooth calluses, follow up with a skin lotion to replace natural oils. Try not to irritate the skin, because this stimulates blood flow to the area and helps create calluses.

Q. Help! I've just moved to San Francisco and want to take advantage of the many Oriental restaurants here, but my experience with Chinese food has been limited to Americanized chow meins and chop sueys. How do I identify more authentic foods and choose a balanced meal? T.D., San Francisco, Ca.

A. Choose a restaurant that specializes in the food of one particular region (such as Szechuan, Hunan, Fukien, Canton and Peking). Ask the waiter to describe the dishes offered. Do not hesitate to inquire about the contents of each dish, and for advice on a well-balanced meal. The waiter can often select an entire meal for you if you tell him which entrees you prefer (chicken, fish, pork, etc.). Share each dish instead of ordering separate meals. It's less expensive and you'll be able to sample a wider variety of foods. Also, ask for chopsticks if they are not provided. The waiter will explain how to use them. Customarily, it is soup and not tea that quenches thirst throughout the meal. Beer is now a common beverage as well. Second choice is rice wine or dry white wine. Happy eating!

Q. Thanks for your explanation of no-fault auto insurance. Can you tell me if there is any way to save money on my premiums? B.D., Seattle, Wa.

A. One way to save on both auto and homeowner insurance is to use as high a deductible as you can afford. This reduces the cost of your premium, but provides protection against large losses you really can't afford to pay yourself. On the other hand, you must pay for smaller claims that fall within the deductible amount, so weigh the risk involved carefully before making a decision.

Q. With the cost of home heating fuel rising, I'm looking for ways to boost the efficiency of my gas furnace. Do you have any advice? C.D., New Haven, Ct.

A. Extra insulation, double windows, heavy drapes and thick carpets all help reduce the heat load. Install separate switches and thermostats so rooms can be heated only when used. Be sure thermostats are hanging straight on the wall. If they are not level, the system will turn on and off in an undesirable pattern. If you are having problems with your furnace maintaining correct temperature, you may save on the cost of a repairman by checking this yourself. Thermostats located near doorways and stair wells are often accidentally knocked off-balance.

Flue dampers prevent loss of heat from gas furnaces, but must be installed by a qualified furnaceman. Improperly installed, they can cause fires, explosions or let carbon monoxide into your home. Ask your utility company for advice on selecting the right type for your system.

Q. After reading about hot tubs in your September issue, I thought my family might enjoy having one; but friends have told me that some people have died as a result of the hot water. Is this true? R.P., Chapel Hill, N.C.

A. Yes. A couple in California were found dead in their hot tub, and authorities suspect that there may be other unreported cases as well. An investigation revealed that the couple had heated their tub to 114°F (46°C) and that they had been drinking. The combination of alcohol and excessive heat caused death.

Doctors and manufacturers recommend temperatures of 102°-104°F (39°-40°C), but even these cannot be endured for more than 20 minutes without risk of heatstroke. Ordinarily, your body begins to sweat in order to maintain the normal internal temperature of 98.6°F (37°C), but when you are submerged in water, the perspiration can't evaporate. As heat builds up, your body attempts to disperse it by diverting blood to the capillaries. Less blood is available to provide oxygen to the brain, and the heart must pump faster. Coma and death can result.

Anyone with cardiovascular problems should avoid soaking in hot water. Alcohol also increases the strain on your heart (even if it is normal), and disturbs the heat-regulating mechanism of your brain. Irreversible liver and kidney damage may also result from excessive exposure to heat.

After bathing in your hot tub, be sure to replace lost fluids to avoid feeling tired or faint, but don't use alcohol for this purpose. Your hot tub will provide your family with hours of pleasant relaxation if you use it safely.

Q. I was recently asked to extinguish my cigar on a flight to New York. Since I was seated in the smoking section, this seemed unfair. Have most airlines banned pipes and cigars? H.L., Houston, Tx.

A. Many airlines have banned pipes and cigars, including Allegheny, American, Delta, Northwest Orient, North Central, Texas International, TWA, United and Western. Both Braniff and Eastern confine pipe and cigar smokers to the last two rows of the smoking section. Continental seats them at least two rows behind the non-smokers. Pacific Southwest and Piedmont also have special sections for these passengers. Most airlines will request the pipes or cigars be extinguished if a non-smoking passenger complains.

Danger of Chain Saws Cited

With the growing popularity of wood-burning stoves more Kentuckians are becoming part-time lumberjacks, cutting their own firewood for the winter. Many are unfamiliar with the chain saws they use. Too often, accidents and injuries are the result.

Edsel Moore, manager of the Department for Human Resources consumer product safety branch, estimates that 1,000 Kentuckians will be injured this fall while cutting firewood.

"Chain saws by their basic nature can be very dangerous," says Moore. "Injuries related to chain saws tend to be much more severe than injuries related to most other consumer products.

According to Moore, the element most common in chain saw accidents is the inexperience of the operators. Improper use of the machines and chain saw "kick-back" are implicated in most of these injuries, he says.

Moore explained that kick-back is a sudden jerk in an upward and backward motion that usually happens when the tip of the saw strikes something or becomes jammed in the wood. He says the chain saw industry is working on a voluntary standard aimed at preventing chain saw kick-back.

"It is most important that anyone who uses or plans to use a chain saw carefully read and observe certain precautions. A person who does not understand the instructions or precautions should consult someone who is knowledgeable about chain saws," says Moore.

Moore listed a few rules to follow to help prevent injuries:

- (1) Do not use a chain saw in wet weather. It is hard to get good footing on wet ground.
- (2) Never hold a chain saw over your head.
- (3) Do not use a chain saw that is too small for the job.
- (4) Buy or rent equipment with built-in safety features and do not remove or modify those features.
- (5) Always wear goggles or safety glasses.
- (6) Keep safety in mind when selecting work clothes.
- (7) Never use a chain saw while alone. Having someone around to help can prevent many accidents as well as save your life if an accident happens.

- (8) Avoid distractions.
- (9) Make sure the chain saw is in good mechanical condition.
- (10) Take breaks often to prevent fatigue.

The physical condition of the operator is important. "Operating a chain saw is strenuous work," Moore says. "An operator who is alert and in good physical condition is less accident prone."

F.C.E.A. TRAINING MEETINGS ARE HELD

Training sessions for Education Associations' contacts and representatives have been held in two locations in Floyd County. Betty Rowland, of K.E.A. Uniserv, held training sessions for local association representatives, September 20, at Clark Elementary School and September 25 at McDowell Elementary. The sessions were held to make certain that the representatives understand the objectives of the Floyd County Education Association and the part that they must play as a liaison between the association and the faculty members which they represent.

The representatives are asked to attend the F.C.E.A. board meetings which are held once a month at different locations in the county.

Mrs. Caudill Lectures On Morehead Campus

Mrs. Mary Griffie Caudill, of Orkney, recently spent time on the Morehead State University campus where she lectured to graduate and undergraduate students on methods employed in the collection of folklore.

She shared a few of her mountain tales with students and talked with those who expressed an interest in the subject. Her subjects were, "None of the Above" and "The Mark of Cain," both of which are native to the Kentucky Appalachians.

During her visit to the Morehead campus, she was the guest of Dr. and Mrs. G. Ronald Dobler.

Join The Club

The verdict is mixed when it comes to buying clubs, and you should select carefully before joining one. Phantom costs and limited selection can turn what looks like a bargain into a raw deal.

The most common buying club charges a membership fee which entitles the buyer to purchase products from a catalogue or showroom. Since overhead is low, prices may be lower than those offered by discount stores.

Format and services vary widely. Some clubs offer lifetime memberships with the provision that a member will receive a commission for each new member he or she recruits. Other clubs receive coupons instead of discounts for purchases. The coupons are redeemed for money, which the club invests for its members.

While not a buying club, a referral service arranges discounts at stores for large organizations such as unions or alumni groups. The service charges a small fee.

Some communities organize their own co-op buying clubs. Members pool money and then take turns buying food, appliances, or other items. The club can obtain substantial discounts by buying wholesale and paying cash. According to the Cooperative League of the U.S.A. in Washington, the co-op works best with about 30 families.

Despite their attractiveness, buying clubs can be hazardous. Here are some tips:

- Check carefully the time limits, cancellation provisions, and "exclusive territory" stipulations. Who is responsible, for example, if a merchant withdraws from the club after a member has paid a fee for what is now unavailable merchandise?
- Avoid excessive membership fees. High dues cancel the savings from discount prices.
- Consider the cost of transportation and shipping charges as well as the location of the showroom. Many showrooms are difficult to reach.
- Check the club's selection. The variety of items may be limited or the goods offered may be ones that you do not need.
- Credit is rarely available.
- Do not rely on list price when calculating savings, since list prices are rarely used these days. Find out the factory price or compare the price with that offered by a discount store.

Watts Up

Motorists know there is an energy crunch, but houseware and personal care products manufacturers apparently do not. Top on this year's list of new electric gadgets is yet another "better mouse trap." Billed as a more efficient method of mouse control, the device features a "no-touch" design for easy disposal.

- Other new electric and battery-powered products include:
- A zoom make-up mirror that has a dial for close-up, normal and far-away reflections.
 - A mahogany and brass electric shoe shine-chest.
 - A battery-operated tooth polisher to remove dental stain and plaque.
 - A hand-held, battery-operated kitchen whisk for eggs, creams and dressings.

Health Line

Listening To Your Ears

Often people will say they hear a "ringing" in their ears. Ringing, crackling, blowing or clicking sounds are all very real, whether or not anyone else hears them. Tinnitus, the medical name for disorders that produce these noises, has many causes. Here are a few:

- A build-up of cerumen (wax). If you try to dig it out with a cotton swab, you might tear the delicate eardrum. Let your doctor remove the waxy plug with a warm water spray.
 - Infections of the middle ear, which may require antibiotic treatment or surgery.
 - Allergies.
 - Sudden changes in atmospheric pressure, such as occur during flying. To relieve pressure when flying, chew gum or swallow repeatedly. You also can pinch your nostrils closed and blow gently through the nose.
 - A loud noise, or prolonged exposure to loud music.
 - A blow on the ear.
 - Conditions which may come with aging—hardening of the arteries or high blood pressure.
 - An enlarged Eustachian tube. Eustachian tubes feed air from the throat to the middle ear.
 - A muscular tic or quiver in the soft palate in the rear roof of the mouth.
 - Development of a shunt (new passageway) between an artery and a vein; this may be a sign of hardening of the arteries.
 - A bony growth.
 - Drugs. Antibiotics and aspirin are among the medications which may produce ringing in the ears if taken in excessive doses.
- Remember—the ear is very delicate and complex. If you have a persistent noise in your ear, consult an otologist or ear specialist.

Sun Sense

Summer's here and you would like to have a golden tan, but you're worried about sunburn, aging and discoloration of the skin—not to mention skin cancer.

The truth is, you can have your sun and enjoy it, too, as long as you do it in moderation. Sensible tanning requires that you expose yourself gradually. It takes time for the outer layer of skin to thicken and produce melanin, the brownish skin pigment that develops into a tan and protects against sunburn. Follow this sun schedule for maximum tanning with minimum burning. Your tan cycle (melanin production) will peak in about two weeks.

Skin color	Minutes of exposure to sun
	1st day	2nd	3rd	4th
Fair-light	15	20-30	25-35	30-40
Medium	20-30	25-35	30-40	35-45
Dark	40	45	50	50

After the fifth day, use your judgement and watch for redness or skin irritation. Avoid the hours between noon and 2 p.m., when the sun's rays are the strongest.

Use a sunscreen to keep out harmful ultraviolet rays. Look for products which contain para-aminobenzoic acid (PABA) or salicylates. Sun blocks, which contain benzophenone, will protect very sensitive skin. Products which don't list any active ingredients are only lotions or oils and offer no special protection. Some more skin care rules are:

- Apply extra sunscreens to sensitive areas—eyelids, ears, etc.
- After sunning, use a moisturizer.
- Don't be fooled by cloudy days. You can still burn.
- Don't think black skin doesn't burn. It does, though not so easily.
- If you're taking medication, check with your doctor to see if it might make your skin extra sun-sensitive.
- Don't assume that a beach umbrella, gauzy clothing or water will protect you from the sun's damaging rays.
- Don't use sun reflectors. They can give you a bad burn.

The Family Forum

Taming The Tube

If you're concerned about the effect television programs and commercials are having on your child, you have plenty of company. Many parents are beginning to put their children on a weekly television "diet" which limits their children's viewing hours. But it's quality as well as quantity of programming that's important.

The first step in monitoring your child's television fare is to find out what shows he watches—so the two of you can negotiate a viewing schedule. To help parents control their children's TV habits, the National PTA issues a twice-yearly publication, TV Program Review Guide, that evaluates prime-time television shows based on reports from thousands of PTA members across the country. The guide also gives parents some suggestions on how to rate television shows by themselves. For example:

- What kind of lifestyle is presented on the show?
- Do the characters provide positive role models who help broaden your child's awareness of the world?
- How are conflicts on the show resolved—through discussion or violence?
- Are there aspects of the program which you find offensive, such as gratuitous violence, exploitation or profanity?
- Does the program present racial, ethnic or sexual stereotypes?

If you'd like more tips as well as ratings of current shows from other concerned parents, request your own copy of the PTA guide by sending 50c (or $1.00 for three copies) to: PTA TV Action Center, 700 N. Rush St., Chicago, Ill. 60611.

Before The Knot Is Tied

If you'll be getting married soon, your thoughts may be filled with guest lists and gowns. But don't let preparations for the ceremony divert you from attending to other important details before you tie the knot.

If there will be name and/or address changes, you should notify a number of agencies. Contact your bank, credit union, Social Security Administration and charge card companies. But remember, spouses can now have cards in their own names, which will maintain important separate credit ratings. If there will be any changes on driver's licenses and car titles, be sure to inform the Department of Motor Vehicles. And don't forget to give magazines and newspapers enough notice so that your subscriptions will continue uninterrupted.

Will your new marital status change the amount of taxes you want withheld from your paycheck? If so, change your W-4 form at work.

You may want to think about setting up a joint checking or savings account. Tell the bank to give your new spouse access to your safe deposit box and, if you want, designate him or her as the beneficiary. Similarly, change beneficiaries on any life insurance policies or pension plans you have, and contact a lawyer to have a will drawn up according to your new needs. Decide whether to keep single insurance policies or to switch to a family policy, which may be less expensive.

When The Bite Is Worse Than The Bark

Dogs are not always man's best friend—as the at least one million Americans who are bitten by dogs each year can testify. Here are some tips to help you and your children avoid becoming one of those statistics.

Warn children not to approach or pet any strange dogs. If you or your child meets a hostile dog, stop and turn aside, being careful not to freeze completely. Never face the dog. Avoid eye contact. The idea is to mimic the behavior of a submissive dog. To distract the dog, shake any objects, such as keys you may have.

Don't run from the dog and don't scream. This will only further agitate it. Wait for the dog to leave first, then quietly walk away.

Coal Use Is Topic Of ARC Conference

Making effective use of Appalachia's abundant coal resources is a key issue before delegates to the third annual regionwide conference of the Appalachian Regional Commission. The meeting opened, Oct. 22.

Representatives from Kentucky and the other 12 Appalachian states took part in a series of panel discussions on conversion from oil to coal, energy-efficient transportation, organizational arrangements related to energy, unconventional energy sources and environmental concerns.

In addition to the five energy panels, the conference included one panel examining ways to contain the rising costs of health care. Findings and recommendations from the panels were presented in a general session during the week.

State officials who took part in the conference included Gov. Julian Carroll and William Short, secretary of the Kentucky Development Cabinet. Carroll is Kentucky's representative on the commission. Short serves as his alternate.

The commission, made up of the governors of the Appalachian states and a federal co-chairman, studied conference recommendations at a Wednesday meeting.

OPEN LETTER TO MR. BILL WELLS

The number one issue in your campaign are the problems that still exist in Floyd County after half a century of Democratic leadership. Problems such as: equality, where everyone will be served without malice, regardless of political registration; problems in your educational system; lack of a working garbage system to clean up beautiful Floyd County.

You say your opponent hopes to be elected by the Republican Party. Not so. Your opponent will be elected by the good citizens of Floyd County who want and deserve more for their tax dollars.

You say your party initiated the Social Security System. Your party has also mismanaged, mishandled, and almost destroyed the same.

You would gladly support the UMWA candidate for president of the United States. How can you be so naive to support a man who, at this point, has not been named? It would be impossible to know what he stands for or where he will lead us. Would you promise to support an unknown for the presidency of the United States just to gain a few votes in your campaign?

I have been a U.M.W.A. member for several years and I have disagreed different times with (as you say) U.M.W.A. candidate for President of the United States. I will answer for your opponent. No, he would not promise to support the U.M.W.A. candidate until he has been announced and compared issues; and neither should you if you are interested in good government.

I suppose you wonder why I am interested in Floyd Co. while living in Jessamine Co. I have three children and five grandchildren in Floyd Co., and I am deeply concerned about their future. I know Ronald Frasure and I know he would be good for Floyd County.

Medical Assistance Outpaced By Inflation, Says Council

Gov. Carroll's Advisory Council for Medical Assistance has issued a report recommending eligibility standards be raised to keep up with inflation. The council's report was received recently by the state department for Human Resources. It contains 36 projections and recommendations for the 1980-82 biennium. The 14-member council, composed of private citizens appointed by the governor, stated that if the medical assistance standard had kept up with inflation, a family of four could now earn up to $424 per month and still qualify for assistance. Instead, the current standard adopted in 1974 allows a family of four to qualify only if its monthly income is less than $317.

During the intervening five years, inflation has reduced the actual buying power of that income to $237.

Eligibility standards for medical assistance are based on the Aid to Families with Dependent Children program and by federal law cannot exceed 133 percent of the AFDC standards.

The council's report concluded that the AFDC standards must be raised in order to compensate for inflation and maintain a program that will benefit the needy.

According to Human Resources figures, the cost of upgrading the program to present cost-of-living levels could cost the state as much as $13.4 million. This would exclude any provisions for additional programs or inflation, state officials said.

Recommendations by the advisory council are used by the department to develop policy, budgets, regulations and other matters relating to the Medicaid program.

BOARD MEETS

The executive board of the Prestonsburg Woman's Club met at the Emma Wells May Cultural Center, Thursday evening, October 25. The secretary, Mrs. Susan Johnson read letters from the Prestonsburg, Drift and Martin Women's Clubs regarding the election of governors and vice-governors to be selected during Saturday's Seventh district meeting, at Martin. The President, Mrs. E. L. Bierman, gave a report of the club-sponsored events she had attended since the last board meeting. The names of prospective club members, to be voted on before February, 1980, were presented to be voted on by the club at a later date. Mrs. Bierman announced that the members of the Heritage Craft program would meet Monday evening, November 5, at 7 o'clock at the Arts and Crafts House at Archer Park, and expressed the hope that new members would be added to this group at that time. Mrs. John Leake, Jr. will be in charge of the making of shadow boxes during the meeting. Board members in attendance were Mrs. Bierman, Mrs. Charles Johnson, Mrs. Carl Woods, and Mrs. David Johnson.

KET To Provide Election Coverage

KET will provide comprehensive election night coverage of all statewide, legislative and selected local races, Tuesday, November 6 at 9 p.m. (ET), in a special three-hour edition of "Election '79."

Newsman Al Smith, host of "Comment On Kentucky," will be joined by three other journalists to report election returns and comment on the results.

In addition, Smith will conduct telephone interviews with political analysts across the state to provide local insight on the various races.

"This is the first time KET has provided extensive election night coverage," said Sid Webb, KET Director of Production. "We feel that this service is especially important since much of the state does not have access to television coverage of election returns except through KET."

"Most of Kentucky is served by television stations outside the state, and these stations will not be following the elections in Kentucky very closely," Webb noted.

KET has arranged for high school history and journalism students and teachers to tabulate and report election returns from local precincts.

"We hope to have at least one teacher from each county who will phone in the election returns from his or her county," said Webb. "Teachers have the option of sending their students to the precincts, or going to the courthouse to collect and tabulate the results."

The Consumer Price Index, issued by the U.S. Department of Labor's Bureau of Labor Statistics, is the principal source of information concerning trends in consumer prices in the United States.

NUNN ON THE ISSUES

EDUCATION

Which candidate has a plan for all? NUNN.

What is it?

Gov. Nunn proposes a Commission on Education comprised of members with staggered terms, so that no Governor, in the future, will have a strangle-hold on Education.

At present we have a Council on Higher Education, one for Vocational Education, and the Kentucky School Boards Assn., looking out for Elementary and Secondary Education.

Historically, the former two get the front seat and the first "shot" at the Educational dollar. They skim off the cream and leave the whey for Elementary and Secondary Education. Under the Nunn plan all facets of Education would be provided for in the Budget at the same time by the same people. Then and only then will we get our fair share of the Education dollar for our children.

MANDATORY PROFESSIONAL NEGOTIATIONS FOR TEACHERS

Collective Bargaining, or Unions for our teachers.

Who took $52,000.00 from K.E.A. to endorse the above in the Primary? It is well known—Mr. Brown.

What will the price be for the November Election? Only the good Lord knows, but you teachers had best watch for a special assessment.

Who says he will veto Mandatory Collective Bargaining Legislation? Mr. Nunn, of course.

Who sides with Mr. Nunn on this Issue?

For information call: (1) Kentucky Congress of Parents and Teachers; (2) Kentucky Farm Bureau; (3) Kentucky Chamber of Commerce; (4) Kentucky School Boards Association—your elected officials who are responsible to you, the parents and voters, and they do not have tenure to protect them in office.

900,000 school children have been cheated while hundreds of thousands of parents have been inconvenienced since school openings this year. Detroit children went back to school the first of last week, San Francisco the last of the week, while Cincinnati teachers went on strike last Friday.

Is teaching a PROFESSION or a JOB? Nunn says PROFESSION—Young thinks of it as only a JOB. After all there is a difference, and parents thank God for the difference.

November 6 is an important date in Kentucky's destiny. Vote for Experience, Vote the Man. Vote for your children.

KET's Al Smith To Leave 'Comment on Kentucky'

KET's "Comment on Kentucky" will be deprived of its host-producer Al Smith, Russellville newspaper publisher, when Smith goes to Washington later this year.

Smith, who has been nominated by President Carter to occupy the recently vacated post of federal co-chairman of the Appalachian Regional Commission, will not be replaced immediately. KET officials agreed to grant Smith a "leave without pay."

"Mr. Smith wants to return to the 'Comment' show," KET Executive Director O. Leonard Press said, "and we want him back." Smith has indicated that he may not remain in the federal post more than 18 months.

"While Al is gone," Press said, "we'll rotate the host duties. We have a cadre of superb regulars who, I fervently hope, will continue on in Al's absence."

Basketball Report: Allen Central

By KENNY RICE

Howard Wallen enters his fifth season at the helm of the Rebels with three starters returning from a 23-12 record and a second place finish in the 58th district tournament. As preseason polls start popping up, Allen Central is expected to be in the top five of 15th Region teams.

Says Coach Wallen: "We have some good, young prospects to go along with our veterans. I'm worried now about the development of the young players as far as their strength and stamina are concerned. If we can have a team that can take the endurance of a long season against the competition we face, we will be a team that can compete but not dominate. There are no dominating teams in the 15th Region this year. For the first time in three years we have a region where a number of teams are pretty good and are able to compete."

While Wallen is concerned with the youngsters beneath the basket replacing two starters, Ralph Caudill and Keith Harris, and a top reserve, Kenny Vanderpool, he enjoys a guard corps that is as good as any in the mountains.

Phil Slone (6ft. sr.) enters his third year as a starter. The Rebs' leading scorer a season ago (24 points per game) is closing in on the Central career scoring record. A summer weightlifting program has given Slone added muscle to go with his quickness. The key for Phil to have another successful season is to stay healthy. Ankle injuries sidelined him a couple of weeks last season.

Mark Martin (5-11, sr.), like Slone an All-Regional performer last season, has been a starter since midway through his freshman season. The deft passer, playmaker already holds the Central career assist record and he set a single season record with more than 200 last season. Mark has gained upper body strength through the summer by lifting weights.

Jeff Bailey (5-10, sr.) earned a starting spot in the three-guard offense last season. The hard-working Bailey might be the quickest man on the Rebel team this season. Jeff provides long range shooting punch with the ability to drive, and, like Slone and Martin, averaged in double figures last season.

Claude Allen (5-9, sr.) could be the most improved player on this year's squad. Allen brings still more quickness to the Rebel backcourt, and the ability to bomb consistently from the outside makes him most effective against a zone defense.

"The key to whether we're going to be good or solid contenders depends on the inside game. I feel confident in the four guards. They can play with anybody in the region, but guards can't win by themselves. We lack exceptional strength under the bucket and we lost three strong rebounders last season. The potential is there (on the front line) it's just how fast they come along," Wallen noted.

Randy Conley (6-4, jr.) started in 15 of Central's games last season. Randy has quickness and determination that made him a good rebounder last season and his fine shooting touch gives the Rebs needed scoring inside. He can play forward or center.

Three youngsters from the jayvees, Bruce Mullins (6-4, soph.), Wally Ridener (6-1, soph.) and Greg Davis (6-2, sr.) are "hard workers who need some varsity experience," according to Wallen. The highly touted Mullins has a good shooting touch and legged over 300 varsity minutes last season. Ridener and Davis could give Central muscle inside.

Central has three sophomores who could see action as the season progresses. Steve Lafferty (5-10) plays small forward and Tommy Dingus (5-11) and Tony Jones (5-8) are a fine guard duo.

Central's schedule is impressive. The Rebels play defending state champs, Lafayette, November 21 in the first round of the Bluegrass Invitational at Lexington Catholic. On December 7 the Rebs play last season's 8th Region runners-up, Scott County, as part of a two game road trip that includes Mt. Olivet on the 8th. On January 4 Central plays Monticello in the first round of the Pulaski County Invitational. February 8 Central plays at Ashland, defending 16th Regional champs who are expected to be ranked in the top 10 statewide. Later in February the Rebels host last year's 16th Region runners-up, Ashland Holy Family.

The schedule is tough, the guards are solid, Conley is the only proven player under the basket and Wallen's team will be able to compete. But as he said, there are no dominating teams in the region.

LIMA, Peru—Peru, a country of 17 million people, has only 8,000 tractors. At any one time, about half of them are out of operation.

THE REBELETES

Third year coach Judy Eversole has a streak on the line entering this season. Her first team was district runners-up and last year Central won the 58th District. Can she take her third team to a third 15th Regional Tournament? She can if her young, talented frontline can complement the dandy duo in the backcourt of Kristi Frye (5-5, jr.) and Trena Hensley (5-6 jr.), both All-Regional players last season. Sounds familiar doesn't it?

Five players aren't returning to this season's team that went 16-10 last year. Starters Toby Spradlin and Carol Shepherd have graduated and senior Becky Collins and sophomores Kathy Layne and Kim Wiley decided not to return to the team. All five girls saw action on the front line, although Spradlin was also used as a guard.

Filling the gap underneath are Romona Hall (5-7, soph.), Jalenda Howard (5-7, soph.), Sherry Hale (5-9, soph.), and Kim Shepherd (5-11, fr.) They are competing for the two frontline spots available. Tammy Martin (5-9, sr.), an All-Regional performer last year, has started since her freshman year and will start at forward once again. Tammy was voted Most Valuable Player on the team last year.

"Kristi, Trena and Tammy give us experience and leadership. The people we have out for the team now really want to play. There are seven or eight girls on the team who could start and I'm glad we have such a healthy, competitive situation," Eversole added, "We lost some depth when some of the girls didn't return this season but the girls we have can play. I'm looking forward to the season. The girls are excited and optimistic and that's always a good sign."

Along with the quick, slick ballhandling combo of Frye and Hensley, both starters since their freshman season, Lisa Hutchinson (5-5 soph.) gives Central outside shooting punch. A starter on the jayvees last season, she has some varsity action under her belt coming into this season.

Angie Terry (5-7, soph.), Pam Ison (5-5, fr.) Johnene Reynolds (5-4, fr.), Tammy Gibson (5-7, fr.), and Sophia Blackburn (5-6, fr.) could help out on the varsity as they progress on the jayvee squad.

"I think we have a good blend of talented, proven players (Frye, Hensley and Martin) and young, eager players who have been working hard. We play Virgie, Sheldon Clark, Lawrence County and in the Pikeville Invitational, so we're going to be facing the top teams in our region in addition to the Floyd County teams. This will help us to be ready for the tournaments in March," Eversole said.

Cats Bounce Hazard In 19 to 14 Thriller

By C. "OLLIE" ROBINSON

Senior Night at Prestonsburg High School last Friday was an all-round auspicious occasion as the school's Black Cats topped off the evening with their fourth win in a row by downing the visiting Hazard Bulldogs, 19 to 14.

The Cats got off in the first quarter with a touchdown on Dewey Layne's 38-yard scamper, and Layne came back in the second quarter to score again on a 11-yard run. Rodebaugh's kick was good and at the time it appeared the Cats, with a 13-0 lead, were off to another romp. But Hazard came back with a touchdown of its own on a yard plunge by Lasso, and McCoy added the point after to bring the score to 13-7.

Then the visitors scored again in the third quarter when Bowling recovered a Prestonsburg fumble and ran, stumbled and fell his way for 80 yards. But the Cats took their turn in coming from behind, and Layne again scored, this time from 19 yards out. Neither team could score in the final quarter.

Fullback Layne led the Prestonsburg attack with 195 yards. Clay Miller led Hazard with 131 yards. Prestonsburg, now 6 and 4, will close out its season Friday night at Raceland, which is 8 and 1.

Both bands played at halftime, and Seniors Night was marked by honors to players, cheerleaders, majorettes and band members.

The Wheelright Trojans were outmanned at Paintsville last Thursday night, losing to the top-rated Tigers, 52-0. Belfry, undefeated, married Leslie County's spotless record Friday night, 20-18, and the two teams will meet in the Triple A playoffs.

Entering An Internship

If you can't land a paying job in your chosen profession, consider applying for an internship instead. Although not all internships pay, many enable you to earn school credit and get a taste of life in the Big Leagues. It's probably too late to land an internship for this summer. But, if you start looking now, you may be able to land the internship of your dreams for September.

• Check out your school's guidance office or your college's career planning office. Many schools set up their own internship programs with alumni or community organizations. These programs may be your best bet since they may be limited to members of your school. College students should consult professors, faculty advisers or department chairmen for details on companies that may sponsor internships in your field of study. To apply for internships, you may have to complete an application form, submit letters of recommendation, include a transcript of your grades and write a short essay.

• Initiate your own internship. Write to a person at a company or organization for which you'd like to work. Explain your interest and ask how you might apply for an internship. If you're interested in television, you might write to the News Director at your local TV station, for example. And, don't be a prima donna: Emphasize your enthusiasm and willingness to do anything. It may pay off. Later, when hiring time comes around, that bank or newspaper may only be too happy to put an eager intern on the payroll.

Getting The Message

Just because you're away from home doesn't mean you want to forget about it. AMERICA CALLING is a unique service that enables students traveling throughout Europe to receive messages from relatives and friends in the U.S.

Messages sent to you through the AMERICAN CALLING service are published—in code form—in four consecutive editions of the International Herald Tribune which is printed daily in Paris and distributed throughout Europe. Codes are easily deciphered with a special booklet that is given to both you and your family. If your parent wants to wish you Happy Birthday or ask you to call home, he simply calls a special number and leaves the message with a round-the-clock operator. Within 24 hours, the message is telexed to Paris and published in the next daily edition of the Tribune, in the AMERICA CALLING column, the first column in the classified section of the newspaper.

A three month membership in AMERICA CALLING—which also includes one free message—is available for $19 to holders of the International Student Identity Card, university faculty and staff and high school teachers. Additional messages cost $9.50 each. To request an application write: CIEE Student Travel Services, 777 United Nations Plaza, New York, N.Y. 10017.

Write On

There's an easy way to make an overseas friend without ever leaving the comfort of your living room. Writing to a pen pal can be both educational and enjoyable. By exchanging information about family, friends, holidays, schools, hobbies—even your plans for the future—you can gain a friend as well as learn lots about foreign cultures.

More than a million people from all across the globe, between the ages of 8 and 20 write to pen pals regularly. If you're interested in putting pen to paper, simply send a letter or card with your name, address, age, sex and interests to: "Dear Pen Pal", "Big Blue Marble", P.O. Box 4054, Santa Barbara, California 93103. Make sure you also indicate your penpal preferences: Do you want to write to a girl or a boy? What age? What country? And so on. Your request will be fed into a computer and you'll be matched up with someone from overseas. You'll then receive a card with your new pen pal's name and address. The rest is up to you!

Then and Now!

RONALD FRASURE FOR COUNTY JUDGE

I have been a U.M.W.A. member for some 38 years. I know my son will be a good County Judge and will be a friend to all coal miners.

My son knows how important the coal mines were to him while he was growing up. The money I made as a miner paid for his education at the University of Kentucky.

I believe that the duties of the Judge's office will come first with my son. Citizens of this county will be able to see their Judge and talk about their problems. My son will treat you with respect because I raised him to be that way.

May God bless you all,
SAGE FRASURE

A Sound Deal

How you plan to use your tape recorder should determine which type you buy. Out of many available models, the three major types are cartridge, cassette and reel to reel. Each can be bought as a self-contained recorder, which will record as well as play, a player, which plays recorded tapes but can't record, or as a "deck" which lacks amplifiers and speakers and is plugged into a home music system. High fidelity instruments of this kind are stereophonic, but the most compact battery-operated recorders are usually only monophonic.

Cartridge players are used in auto stereo systems, at home and as portables. An eight-track cartridge plays four pairs of stereo tracks in sequence. The tape is an endless loop, and therefore it needs no rewinding. One cartridge holds the equivalent of a 2-record album. Cartridge recorders wind forward only.

Cassettes contain 2 small reels on which the tape travels. Playing times are commonly for 30, 60 or 90 minutes. The tape should be rewound after each use. Cassette recorders have both fast forward and rewind capability. They are ideal for recording speech, but they don't make high-quality music recordings.

Reel-to-reel uses reels 7 1/2" in diameter which must be threaded by hand. Professionals and serious sound hobbyists use it because of its high fidelity and its ease of editing and splicing. It is more costly than other types and it's not portable.

No Sweat

Are antiperspirants really effective?

In a recent test by the Food and Drug Administration, non-aerosol brands were found to be effective for most people, if used daily. In order to pass the test, the antiperspirant had to produce at least a 20 percent reduction in perspiration in at least half the users tested.

The testers, however, were not satisfied with aerosol antiperspirants. The FDA is concerned about the adverse health effects, ranging from minor skin irritation to lung damage, that may result from exposure to the aluminum chlorohydrate used in sprays. These studies are not conclusive, however, and aerosol products will continue to be sold until their harmful effect is conclusively proven.

Getting A Grip On Luggage

With so many people traveling these days, luggage is getting careless handling. So durability is essential. Soft-sided luggage is popular because of light weight, but it can rip or tear unless it's made of strong material. Nylon is the strongest of man-made fibers. Expanded vinyl is weak. The thicker the material, the better.

Leather is the best natural material. Look for uniformity in leather thickness, a good finish and the absence of cracks around pockets and other expanded areas. Hardsided or molded luggage may look expensive, but it may not hold up well if it's not well made. Cardboard or other weak material means certain damage later. Good hardsided luggage protects contents best.

Here are some further tips if you're looking for luggage:

- Check the stitching. Double and tight stitching lasts longest.
- Buy a one-handled bag. Handlers often grab a two-handled bag by one handle, causing excessive stress and eventual ripping.
- A combination lock will discourage pilferage better than a key lock but don't leave combination set at 000. Thieves try this first.
- Unlined models are easier to maintain and less likely to be damaged.

There are goats in Tennessee and Mississippi that actually fall into a dead faint at any loud sound—a thunderclap, an engine starting up, even the clatter of a feed bucket. The cause is not cowardice, however, but an inherited nerve disorder.

Investigate Perry Turkey Incident

State and local health officials are continuing an investigation into the sale recently of a truckload of stolen and possibly contaminated turkey parts in Perry county.

Perry county health officials have advised buyers of the turkey to freeze the product and refrain from eating it, said Don Dixon, manager of the state Bureau for Health Services environmental sanitation branch.

Preliminary information indicates the turkey drumsticks were purchased by individuals and are not being resold in area retail outlets, Dixon said.

The 37,500-pound shipment was stolen last week enroute from Texas to Virginia. It was to be exported to Egypt. Police have arrested two suspects--including the driver of the truck--in connection with the incident.

Police said two men reportedly sold the 30-lb. boxes of turkeys directly from the truck for 10 cents a pound. The bargain price apparently attracted hundreds of persons to the community of Fusonia, and the turkey was sold in one day, Dixon said.

Among the purchasers was the Perry County Board of Education, which bought 3,000 lbs., apparently for use in local school cafeterias. Local authorities have quarantined that allotment.

Perry county health environmentalists, John Summers, said the turkey is believed contaminated because samples he observed were discolored and rancid.

He said the boxes are labeled "Plantation Beauty Frozen Young Hen Turkey Drumsticks."

The processor of the turkey, Plantation Foods Inc., of Waco, Tex., had hired an Ohio trucking firm to ship the cargo to Norfolk, Va., for sale to a business in Alexandria, Egypt, Dixon said. Records indicated the shipment left Texas on Oct. 15.

On the highway, a basic problem is the excessive drinker, not the moderate social drinker. Of course, it's best not to drink at all before driving, but since many people do, the Distilled Spirits Council of the United States advises that you know your limits, as well as the speed limit, and stay well within both.

Area C of C Board To Hold Open Forum

The Prestonsburg-Floyd County Area Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors met at May Lodge, October 22. Present were President Sam Blankenship, Executive Director Chalmer Frazier, Secretary-Treasurer Clyde George, Directors Roy Ramey, Paul P. Hughes, Gorman Collins, Larry Leslie and Carmel Spears.

The following ideas were discussed and approved for action.

Determining the factors a prospective industrial client considers before locating in a given area and the priorities or importance given to each. Some of the items considered are recreation facilities, medical services, educational opportunities for children, living environment, housing, work force, work climate, transportation; to survey public opinion in rating our area in the factors above, in order to strive to improve those in which we score poorly; conduct an open forum to discuss the above poll. Gorman Collins offered radio station WDOC's facilities for the forum; take a more vocal stand on community issues which affect the industrial growth of Floyd county; news releases to explain the Chamber's position on community issues and whether we endorse or oppose a particular issue, and to ask how we might be of help.

The Chamber of Commerce is intended to serve the entire Floyd county area with chief objective of attracting new industrial development and promoting tourism.

Both the school bus and car were headed south on U.S. 23 when the accident occurred about 6:50 a.m., Johns said.

"The driver of the car told us he saw the flashing lights (of the bus) in the dark and fog but thought they were on a piece of road equipment or a truck involved in construction," Johns said. "He said he was not aware there was a bus there."

JOBS—NOT JOB CORPS PAUL HUNT THOMPSON DOES NOT AVOID THE ISSUE!

Paul Hunt Thompson Talks about Job Corps:

1. Job Corps will create no new Jobs for any of the citizens of Prestonsburg or the surrounding area.
2. The Job Corps will take the only facility that our town has to offer to attract industry to our area, which would provide jobs for our citizens.
3. The Job Corps program will not be available to rehabilitate any of our local citizens, but will be used by outsiders.

4. Job Corps could require an increase in the Prestonsburg police force to provide extra protection to the citizens. This would increase the cost of running the city, which could bring an increase in taxes.
5. The "residents" of the Job Corps facility will be issued passes so that they can shop in our town and utilize our recreational facilities.
6. I pledge my full support and cooperation to anyone or any group who will help me prevent this institution from coming to our town.

Couriers Coming To Church Here

The Gospel Couriers are coming to the First United Methodist Church here for a four-day Revival Concert.

The Couriers, who have been seen on nationally televised programs, will present a full program of preaching, singing and special music, beginning with the morning worship service Sunday, November 4 and continuing each evening through Wednesday, November 7. The morning service will begin at 10:55 a.m. and the evening services will begin at 7 p.m. The group will also feature "After-Glow" services for youth and Puppert entertainment for the young children just before the evening service.

One of the most outstanding musical features of the Couriers is their creative arrangements. They use both old and new gospel songs during their programs, utilizing a band consisting of piano, bass, electric and acoustic guitars, banjo, drums and percussion to present a variety of styles.

The Couriers have sung before audiences all across America and have toured extensively in countries around the Mediterranean Sea, in India, and Rhodesia, Africa. The group has headquarters in Lexington, where all members currently reside.

Walter T. Applegate, minister of the First United Methodist Church, has invited all area residents to attend any and all of the services.

Pre-Winter Car Check Advised by Brandenburg

"A pre-season vehicle check-up now can avoid a substantial check later for an accident or emergency road service," Commissioner Kenneth E. Brandenburg of the Kentucky State Police warned drivers recently.

"Time and money spent today to get your car ready for winter could be the best investment you can make for your family's security and your own peace of mind during the months ahead," he said.

Brandenburg said a winter "safety check" too many drivers consists of a tune-up, an oil change and a grease job. "While these are important for dependable starting, it is even more important to check those other items that have a direct bearing on driver safety."

BRAKES—A grabbing brake can lock one wheel and throw your car into a skid. Have your brakes checked if you feel that your car pulls to one side when making a stop on a dry pavement.

TIRES—Good treads are important at any time of year, and especially when pavements are slippery. Snow tires are of little or no help in stopping on ice, but they do increase pulling ability in loosely packed snow. Studded tires improve both stopping and pulling ability on ice.

TIRE CHAINS—Reinforced tire chains provide the ultimate in both stop and go traction for deep snow and glare ice conditions. Be sure they are in your trunk and ready for use.

HEATER-DEFROSTER SYSTEM—The defroster should be capable of clearing fog and frost off the windshield quickly. If it isn't functioning properly a new thermostat may be needed or the control mechanism may require adjusting.

LIGHTS—Headlights, taillights and directional signals must be in perfect working order. Clean snow, slush and winter road grime off all lights regularly.

WINDSHIELD WIPERS—Wiper blades, if dried out by summer heat, need replacement. Washer reservoir should have an adequate antifreeze solution to operate at the lowest temperatures you may encounter.

"Another part of the vehicle that's often over-looked in a safety check is the trunk," Commissioner Brandenburg added. "Make sure that it contains all the emergency equipment items that might be needed if you should get caught in a severe snow storm, such as a shovel and bucket of sand or rock salt, battery booster cables, a tow chain, tire chains and emergency flares and lights."

"Advance preparation coupled with sensible driving habits can reduce winter accidents and traffic tie-ups in the months ahead," concluded Brandenburg.

Among the earliest broadcasters on AM radio were educational institutions.

State, Local Police Get Technical Assistance

The Kentucky Chapter of the Associated Public Safety Communications Officers (APCO) is providing technical planning aid and communications engineering services to police agencies throughout Kentucky. The program of technical and engineering assistance to state and local police is an extension of the Kentucky State Comprehensive Law Enforcement Plan for Telecommunications which was completed under APCO supervision in 1978. The state plan has been approved by Secretary of Justice Jack Smith and is the guide for future public safety communications system development in Kentucky.

Since March 1, 1979, when a memorandum of agreement was signed by the Department of Justice and the Kentucky chapter of APCO, Sharp reports that 59 police agencies in Kentucky have applied for and received a wide range of technical assistance from this program.

A consulting contractor is providing engineering design and other high-level professional services. Additional technical assistance is offered by the staff personnel of the Communications Advisory Committee and by nationally recognized police communications specialists available through Project 17 of the national APCO organization.

COMPARE THE CANDIDATES ON THE ISSUES

ISSUES	LOUIE B. NUNN	JOHN Y. BROWN, JR.
COAL	Has outlined a program for both short-range and long-range increased coal need and production, including conversion of factories from oil burning to coal burning and the building of coal-fired power plants in eastern Kentucky.	No serious program, but will try to help us sell our coal.
GUN CONTROL	Strong supporter of the Second Amendment right to keep and bear arms. Opposes politicians in Washington that want to disarm the American people.	Favors gun control.
CRIME	On September 4, he announced a 20-point program to get tough with criminals.	No plan, but he is studying the issue.
ABORTION	Nunn supports the human life amendment to the U.S. Constitution. Opposes abortion on demand. Has been endorsed by the Right-to-Life movement.	Has refused to discuss the issue. He is believed to favor abortion on demand.
EXPERIENCE	Many years of public service to the people of Kentucky, including having been judge and Governor.	Salesman, gambler, candidate.
HONESTY	Has released his state and federal income tax records for the past 11 years.	Refuses to disclose any details of his personal finances. Fears his tax records would embarrass him and his family.
EDUCATION	Has proposed a complete reconstruction of Kentucky's educational system, to take the politics out of education once and for all. Will work for improved teacher salaries and working conditions. During his last administration, Nunn spent 66 percent of the State's budget on education.	Would support forced collective bargaining for all public employees, including teachers. Has no workable plan for improving education for our children. Will study the issue when he becomes governor. Has made Pete Grigsby, Jr. area Educational Coordinator??
ROADS	Had a strong road building program during his previous administration, including 3,000 miles of rural roads and more than 250 miles of super highways, surpassing all other Governors before and since.	Supports super highways, has no significant rural road building plan.

ENERGY	Favors conversion from oil to coal in factories and power plants. Has outlined a strong plan for doing this.	Favors the use of coal, but has no workable plan.
JOBS	Brought over 200 new industries into the State of Kentucky and created over 43,000 new jobs during his first administration. Believes that through coal-fired electric generators, we can produce cheaper electricity and entice industry into the state.	Has not outlined a plan up to this point.
LIFESTYLE	Strongly religious man, dedicated to honesty, integrity and good citizenship.	Gambler, associates with questionable characters.
COLLECTIVE BARGAINING FOR PUBLIC EMPLOYEES	Opposes State-mandated collective bargaining for school teachers & other public employees. Feels this would seriously handicap local school boards and remove the control of local schools from local people. Opposes State control over local decision making.	Has endorsed the concept of forced unionization of schools.
SENIOR CITIZENS	On August 27, released a 13-point program for senior citizens. This included better crime protection, expansion of in-home services, improved transportation services and help with home repairs.	No plan.
VETERANS AFFAIRS	Will set up a Department of Veteran's Affairs in the State government. The Veteran's Bureau established during the first Nunn administration has since been downgraded to one employee in a huge Department of Human Resources.	No plan.
WOMEN'S ISSUES	Supports crime compensation, payment for rape victims. Plans an educational program for displaced homemakers. By executive order in 1968, Governor Nunn created a Kentucky Commission on Women. He funded this from his contingency fund.	Has no specific plans.
WORKMEN'S COMPENSATION	Has proposed a 5-point program to rework the State Workmen's Compensation Law to insure that the truly disabled are more adequately compensated.	No plan.
HEALTH	All State mental health facilities were improved and accredited for the first time in Kentucky's history. Would continue to work for improved health conditions.	No record.
SPENDING LIMITS FOR CAMPAIGN	Agreed to a $1.25 million spending limit for the fall campaign.	Agreed to a spending limit earlier, but later changed his mind and will abide by no spending limits.

Pharmacy Footnotes

by Harold Cooley

Dentists, barbers, clerks, machine operators and others who stand for long periods of time, find it desirable to move around as much as possible for the sake of improved circulation. They have also discovered that standing will be less tiring if their shoes fit loosely, if they stand on a soft or elastic surface and keep weight evenly distributed on their feet and hold their heads as erect as possible. The body should make as few extraneous motions as possible during times of strict concentration. That way, all force can be directed on the line of motion.

At COOLEY APOTHECARY, No. 2 Town Center Building, Prestonsburg, 886-8106, we carry a wide selection of foot-wear health aids. At COOLEY APOTHECARY we maintain an up-to-date supply of thousands of RX products to fill your needs . . . when you need them. A Democrat for Nunn

I resent the intrusion of the two Browns into the business and the politics of Kentucky. We are not so illiterate or inadequate that we cannot run our own affairs.

Mr. Brown is for everything but proposes plans for nothing. He claims he is either the victim of: mudslinging, being misquoted, misrepresented or misunderstood. We could understand if ever he should say anything . . . He has done nothing but deny everything that has been said about him that he doesn't like . . . although there is proof of all charges against him . . . Why doesn't he bring suit? He seems to be suffering from a persecution complex. Where did he get it?

In reference to the present Mrs. Brown's statement in People's Magazine dated October 22, 1979 . . . "Up in the mountains there's a kind of rule that you don't touch your woman in public (said with a giggle). Well they looked at us at first like we were real strange but then they decided it was okay because we were newly married—as long as we didn't get into the haystack." The people she was referring to probably expected to see a public display of perhaps some unusual sex techniques such as is practiced at the infamous nightclub "Studio 54" which the Browns frequent. The haystack would be a much more decent place and probably more comfortable than the floor of Studio 54.

Mrs. Phyllis George Evans Brown has poked fun at our Kentuckians enough. Frankly, there is no ladder high enough with which she can reach our level. Kentuckians are honest, warm-hearted, open, intelligent, God-fearing people and will not be taken in by the Browns' attempt to impose their outside associates' ideas and tampering into our affairs. Kentucky is known throughout the world for its beautiful women, Eastern Kentucky alone could have more millionaires than the whole State of Texas . . . so neither of you have anything to offer that we don't have already, certainly nothing new that we would want.

Quite frankly, I am tired of the Brown's "theatrics". I am a registered Democrat that will work and vote for Louie B. Nunn as many others are doing and we are going to send him back to Frankfort as our Governor so he can run our affairs as he did before, openly, ably, honestly, and cleanly. After the election, the Browns can go "home" and we Kentuckians can go on about our business.

Miss Carter-Mr. Smitt Wed Here

Miss Gini Wynne Carter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis W. Carter, of McDowell, became the bride of Mr. Bobby Gayle Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Smith, of Frankfort, in a double-ring ceremony performed in the Irene Cole Memorial Baptist Church, here. Vows were exchanged before Rev. Dean L. Pack, pastor, in a candlelight setting on Friday, August 31.

Music was provided by Libbi Hall, pianist and vocalist, Taunya Shelton and Lori Hamilton, vocalists. Selections included "How Deep is Your Love," "Wedding Song," "Evergreen," "Nadia's Theme," "You are So Beautiful," and "We've Only Just Begun." During the ceremony the bride presented a song to the groom which was, "The Twelfth of Never."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of white polyester chiffon and chantilly lace styled with an empire waist and lace covered bodice encrusted with tiny seed pearls and square neckline. The full chiffon sleeves were caught at the wrist with a lace cuff. The skirt was fashioned with an accordion pleated panel in front bordered on each side with lace, and the entire back of the gown was of lace, falling into a long, cathedral-length train. The cathedral-length veil, edged with lace, was held by a cap of lace.

As the traditional something old, something new, something borrowed, something blue, the bride chose to wear a diamond necklace, a gift from the groom, as something old; a gold ankle bracelet as something borrowed; the traditional blue garter, and her wedding gown, something new.

Regina Carol Smith, sister of the groom, served as maid of honor, wearing a baby blue, floor-length gown of polyester organza, lined in acetate taffeta. The skirt flounce attached at back waist to form cascading ruffles and had double ruffle sleeves and a V-neckline. She also wore a baby blue wide brim hat trimmed with acetate satin ribbon and streamers, and carried two yellow long stemmed roses.

Bridesmaids were Darlene Smith, also a sister of the groom, Carolyn Belinda Salisbury and Donna Humphrey, both friends of the bride. They wore gowns and hats matching that of the maid of honor. Each bridesmaid carried one yellow long stemmed rose.

Edward Duvall served as the bridegroom's bestman. Groomsmen and ushers were Henry G. Bishop and David Hughes, friends of the groom from Frankfort.

Miss Julie Marie Howard, cousin of the groom, was flower girl, Shannon Keith Carter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Keith Carter, of McDowell, and Brian Lee Carter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Lee Carter, of Hager Hill, served as ringbearers.

Mrs. Robin Moore presided at the guest register and gift table. Mr. Robert Keith Carter, brother of the bride, rolled out the aisle carpet for the bride and her father. Mrs. Sharon Campbell was the director of the wedding and provided the decoration arrangements. Photographs were taken by Mr. and Mrs. Sam Nelson, of Strahan's.

Mrs. Carter chose for her daughter's wedding a two-piece, floor-length dress of deep rose, etched with antique white lace. Her dress was complimented by a white corsage with deep rose ribbon. Mrs. Smith chose a floor-length gown of pink chiffon, complimented by a white corsage with pink ribbon.

Other parties given were two household showers, one in McDowell and one in Frankfort. A rehearsal dinner was given on the night before the wedding. Following the ceremony, a reception was held in honor of the bride and groom in the church annex.

Mrs. Smith is a 1977 graduate of McDowell High School and attended Prestonsburg Community College for two years. She is now employed by the Department of Human Resources as an administrative secretary, Frankfort. Mr. Smith is a 1974 graduate of Franklin County High School. He attended Murray and Kentucky State Universities. He is currently employed by the Department of Transportation, Division of Design, as an engineer.

After a week's honeymoon in Gatlinburg, Tenn., Mr. and Mrs. Smith are residing at 335 Westland Drive, Frankfort.

Claims No Relation

In a Page 1 story in last week's Times which recounted a series of shootings which have taken place over past weeks on Buffalo and Middle Creek, it was stated that the wife of Otis Burchett was a member of the Shepherd family allegedly involved in the recent incidents. A family member stated this week, however, that Mrs. Burchett is not directly related to the Shepherd family mentioned in the story.

3 Floyd Utilities Fined for Failure To File Reports

The Kentucky Energy Regulatory Commission has fined three Floyd county utilities for not filing 1978 annual reports with the commission.

H.S. & G. Drilling Co., of Martin, Johns Creek Gas and Water Co., of Auxier, and the Leslie Oil & Gas Lease, of Prestonsburg, have each been fined $500 for failing to file the reports. The reports are basically financial reports.

The commission requires utilities to file the reports by March 31 each year.

The utilities' representatives did not appear at a Sept. 25 commission hearing to explain why they had not filed their reports, although they were commanded by subpoena to do so.

Another utility, Magoffin Gas Co., Inc., of Salyersville, also did not file by March 31 but was represented at the hearing. Magoffin Gas was given a 15-day time extension and has since filed its report.

In addition to imposing the fines, the commission ordered the three utilities to file their reports within 30 days after the Sept. 25 hearing.

NIGER APPEALS FOR SURGEONS

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa—The president of Niger, Seyni Kountche, has appealed to the world community to send surgeons to his country, according to a broadcast on Radio Botswana, which was monitored here. The report quoted a government newspaper as saying that the country, with a population of 4.5 million, now has only 118 doctors and 12 surgeons.

THE ISSUE IS COAL AND THE MAN IS LOUIE B. NUNN

Arnold Miller has endorsed John Y. Brown for Governor. The question is, Does the rank and file of UMWA support Arnold Miller? A recent survey indicates not. Coal is the energy of today. Coal is jobs. Coal can make Eastern Kentucky the central focus of America. Louie B. Nunn is strong on coal and a strong supporter of UMWA. His record is unmatched. Vote for coal, UMWA, energy independence, Kentucky's future, and Louie B. Nunn.

Group for Teenagers With Alcoholic Parents Is Established Here

The formation here of Alateen, a self-help group for children with an alcoholic parent or parents, was announced this week.

Any teenager interested in learning how to deal with the problems associated with alcoholism in the family is invited to join the group, said Debby Johnson, of the Mountain Comprehensive Care Center, this week. "It is our hope," she added, "that Alateen will grow and become an integral part of the lives of those teenagers who want to cope with—and be happy in spite of—alcoholism in their families."

The group will meet for the first time at 11 a.m., November 3, at St. James Episcopal Church on University Avenue, and at the same time every Saturday after that.

Anyone wanting more information is asked to call Debby Johnson (886-8572) or Vicki McGuire (874-9740).

Citations up in September

State Highway enforcement officers issued 3,149 citations in September compared with 2,215 issued in September 1978, according to Department of Transportation figures.

The division's 85 inspectors are responsible for policing truck and other commercial traffic on Kentucky's highways.

Leading the list of the September violations were those issued for failure to comply with financial regulations set by the state. Of the 1,899 citations in this category, many were issued for missing cab cards. The cards are required to show that a truck owner has paid state fuel taxes, is licensed and has authority to operate in a particular area.

Overweight truck citations ranked second among those issued with 366 citations issued to coal trucks and 395 issued to all others. Boyd County led the list with 152 citations, followed by Shelby, Pike, Floyd and Laurel counties.

According to Col. Dick Horn, highway enforcement director, the increase in the number of citations issued from September 1978 stems from an increased work force. "We increased the staff in May 1978," Horn said. "Since it takes nearly two years to gain the desired effect following the training process, we are just now realizing the benefits of additional people."

According to Horn, the additional personnel allows the highway enforcement officers to increase patrols and the number of trucks that can be checked. Horn added that 19 additional people are in training at the present time and should be added to work force by January 1980.

Floyd MDs Receive A.A.F.P. Fellowships

The degree was conferred October 9 upon more than 1100 members of the Academy in conjunction with AAFP's annual convention and scientific assembly in Atlanta, Georgia. Ceremonies were held in the Atlanta Civic Center before some 2,500 persons.

Work Programs

The Floyd Board of Education's summer youth program received commendation recently in a report issued by a panel which monitored the program.

Mable Duke, of the Eastern Kentucky Concentrated Employment Program (EKCEP), wrote of the program that it was "effective, efficient, and seemed to be operating very well." The Floyd program was one of two in this area, she said, to enjoy "a completely satisfactory rating with no problems evident."

Commenting on the report, Schools Superintendent Pete Grigsby Jr. said that "any time we can issue checks in the amount of $138,000 to our boys and girls to help further their education, and provide career counseling and leadership that will enhance each of them as quality human beings, it is very gratifying." Eloise A. Hall, Neighborhood Youth Corps director, "deserves a lot of recognition" for the success of the program, Grigsby added.

In a related development, 64 students at Prestonsburg and Allen Central high schools have been named to participate in a demonstration project, sponsored by EKCEP and other agencies, which will provide the students with paid work experience as well as academic credit.

Mrs. Hall said this week that a counselor will be available at each school to assist students in the project, which she described as "essential to our youth program."

Paintsville Hospital
Might Change Site

Even as Paintsville Hospital's application for a certificate of need awaits review by the East Kentucky Health Systems Agency next week, and further review thereafter, owners of the hospital have submitted a proposal to the Paintsville community development office to construct the new hospital on urban renewal land in that city's Bristleback section.

While an earlier plan called for construction of the new hospital on the site of the existing building, the proximity of the Bristleback site to U.S. 23 has been cited as a major reason for locating the proposed new hospital there.

Five proposals for the use of the property, including three for commercial development of the site, were received before the closing time for applications last Friday.

Kentucky Afield

By JOHN WILSON

Some of Kentucky's hunting seasons have already opened and the rest of them are just around the corner. With the many different opening and closing dates, it's sometimes hard to keep track of everything.

So here's a rundown of opening and closing dates for this year's hunting, courtesy of the Kentucky Department of Fish and Wildlife Resources.

SQUIRREL—Opened Aug. 18, will run through Oct. 31; reopens Nov. 15, closes for gun deer season (Dec. 1-3); reopens Dec. 4 and continues through Dec. 31.

RABBITS—Nov. 15 through Nov. 30, Dec. 4 through Jan. 21.

QUAIL—Nov. 15 through Nov. 30 and Dec. 4 through Feb. 17.

GROUSE—Nov. 15 through Nov. 30 and Dec. 4 through Feb. 29.

FURBEARERS (trapping and hunting)—Nov. 15 through Nov. 30 and Dec. 4 through Jan. 31.

DEER (longbow and compound bow)—Opened Oct. 1, will run through Nov. 9; Nov. 13 through Nov. 19 and Dec. 4 through Dec. 31.

DEER (gun) Nov. 10 through Nov. 12 and, in certain zones, Dec. 1 through Dec. 3. Check complete regulation.

DOVES—Opened Sept. 1, will close Oct. 31; reopens for a short season Dec. 8-16.

DUCKS—Nov. 21 through Nov. 25 and Dec. 7 through Jan. 20.

GESESE, RAILS AND GALLINULES—Nov. 12 through Jan. 20.

WOODCOCK AND SNIPE—Oct. 6 through Nov. 30 and Dec. 8 through Dec. 16.

FROGS—Opened May 15, will close Oct. 31.

FALCONRY—Small game hunters may begin hunting with birds of prey Nov. 1 and continue through the regular seasons for the species sought.

Remember that these dates are for the statewide seasons. Certain wildlife management areas or federal installations may have different dates or other special regulations, particularly for deer or waterfowl hunting.

For limits, information on and other regulations, or for a list of public hunting areas, write the Division of Public Relations, Department of Fish and Wildlife Resources, 592 East Main, Frankfort, Ky.

"Although the deer poaching problem in Kentucky is far from solved, I do feel that the situation has improved somewhat during the past year," says Steve Yontz, assistant law enforcement director for the Department of Fish and Wildlife Resources.

The 1978 legislature can take a large measure of the credit for this improvement. It provided much stiffer penalties for those convicted of poaching: up to $1,000 fine plus court costs, up to one year in jail and loss of hunting privileges for up to three years. Courts can also confiscate all equipment, including vehicles, used in poaching cases.

Judges around the state have also helped greatly by demonstrating their willingness to impose maximum or near maximum penalties, according to Yontz. Last year three men convicted of illegally killing five deer paid fines and court costs totalling more than $16,000—the most severe penalties ever handed down in Kentucky for game law violations.

There were several other instances of $1,000 fines and one automobile was confiscated last year, Yontz says. In addition, the hunting privileges of approximately 40 violators were suspended for deer poaching or other game law violations.

"After a judge imposes a maximum or near-maximum fine or two, we can see a definite drop in poaching activity in that district," Yontz says. "It's still too early for any definite assessment, but our biologists tell us that Kentucky's deer herd is growing, and I believe that we can credit at least a part of that growth to the increasing number of heavy fines."

However, Yontz adds, if poaching were curbed even more, the growth of the deer herd would be more dramatic. Before the new law went into effect, biologists estimated that the illegal kill at least equalled, and probably exceeded, the legal harvest of deer in Kentucky.

Poaching has been a primary reason for Kentucky's short seasons and one deer per year limit. Curtailing this illegal activity could mean longer seasons or more liberal limits, according to game biologists.

"The fact that the district judges have shown the courts do care about protecting our wildlife resources is heartening not only to our officers in the field but to the hunting public as well," Yontz says. "We hope that citizens who care about wildlife will be even more willing to report suspected illegal activity, particularly spotlighting, to their county conservation officer or to any other law enforcement agency."

IRS Still Holding 1979 Refund Checks

Louisville, Kentucky—The Internal Revenue Service (IRS) released the names of those Kentucky taxpayers for whom IRS is still holding undelivered 1979 Federal tax refund checks. Some refund checks belong to individuals, others to businesses.

According to IRS, most of these checks remain undeliverable because taxpayers have moved and left no forwarding address with the U.S. Postal Service. Other taxpayers may have changed their names and/or addresses.

Some refunds may be held up because of errors or omissions on tax returns. Also, some refund checks may have been lost or stolen. In this case, a tracer can be placed on the missing check.

The IRS stressed that in all refund inquiries, a taxpayer should be prepared to provide name and address as they appear on the return, the actual name and address if different, the social security number or employer identification number, and the type of form filed.

Under most circumstances, an undeliverable refund check can be reissued to the new address and could be received within four to six weeks.

If you are one of these taxpayers still wondering about a 1979 refund check, call IRS, toll free at 1-800-428-9100.

NOTICE

To All Water Consumers of Beaver-Elkhorn Water District:

We have found some customers permitting their "neighbor" to connect onto their line, thereby avoiding the hook-up charge and the metered water charge. This is clearly a violation, both on the part of the regular metered customer and the "neighbor" who is permitted to make this connection.

Customers permitting this, when discovered, will be "Back Charged" for minimum billing as though he had two meters, or in the event he declines to pay the back charges, he will be subject to be disconnected for violation of rules and regulations of the Beaver-Elkhorn Water District and the Energy Utility Commission of Kentucky.
