$3.4 Million School Near Finish

Almost complete and ready for the installation of seating and other equipment, the new Betsy Layne High School—located at Stanville and well removed from and above the flood plain where the school has had a precarious existence during flood season since the day its doors first opened—will be ready for classes at the August 16 opening of the school year.

The $3.4 million structure, perhaps the largest in the county, occupies a picturesque cove, beyond view of busy US 23 at Stanville. It is located on an 86-acre tract made available "at a bargain price" by the state during the administration of Gov. Julian Carroll. Designed to accommodate 750 students, some of its features include: A library equipped with individual study cubicles and audio-visual aids; a music room with acoustically designed appointments and cubicles for individual practice; a home economics department with facilities for both cooking and sewing; science lecture rooms and laboratories for chemistry, physics and biology, with protective devices; an agriculture department which includes a laboratory for experimental work; a physical education

Two Districts Turned Tide to Wet Victory

There will be no legal contest of the Wet victory in last Tuesday's local option election, Huey J. Darby, chairman of the losing Dry forces, said last week.

It was a fair election and he found no evidence of corrupt practices, he told The Times.

"We lost, and we have nobody but ourselves to blame," he commented. The swing to the Wet column surprised almost everybody. Even those who hoped for a Wet victory were surprised. "I can hardly believe the margin," Sandy Boyd, chairman of the Wet campaign, said.

Only Magisterial District 1 registered a "NO" (Dry) majority, and it was far below what one faction hoped for and the other feared. Although all but two of its 15 precincts—Courthouse and Porter, both in Prestonsburg—voted "No" but, collectively, they gave the Dries a lead of only 417.

That lead was whittled down by the 111-vote Wet majority in Magisterial District 2 where five of the eight precincts—John Possum, Bosco, Lackey, Wayland and Beech Grove—voted Wet.

After that, it was all a story of Wet successes. Magisterial District 3, confined mainly to Left Beaver Creek, polling an 851-vote majority for the Wet cause, with only one precinct, Martin, voting Dry, and District 4, in Mud Creek and along the river south from Allen, lacking only a vote of making it 2 to 1 Wet. The Wet lead in District 4 was 832, only Betsy Layne voting Dry.

From only one other quarter, the absentee vote, came any comfort for the Dries. Absentee voters cast 141 "No" votes to 63 "Yes."

This Town...That World

If you expect my usual philippic, with a dash of sulphur, against those who decree that a holiday falling on Sunday shall be observed Monday, closing postoffices, courthouses and most other news sources, you're going to be disappointed. At this point in time (ugh!) I can only sputter.

JURORS TAKE HOLIDAY

Circuit court didn't take a holiday Monday, but others did. When Circuit Judge Conley attempted to empanel a new jury only 29 of the 80 persons summoned for jury duty showed up. Forty are required, so it was back, not to the drawing board, but to the drawing from the jury drum. Let freedom ring!

JOE BEGLEY

PARADE, the magazine section which is a supplement to many daily newspapers, last Sunday listed in its feature article, "5 Great Americans," Joe Begley as one of the five. Begley is a merchant at Blackey, in Perry county, and he is nationally known as a leader of the fight against unregulated strip-mining and for medical clinics for the region. He's the militant, old geezer who, when he found every window in his car shot out, dismissed the incident with the remark, "Glass is cheap."

There was the occasion, too, when he was invited to the White House for the signing by President Carter of the 1977 federal law regulating strip-mining. He tells of sitting across the desk from the President and of Carter saying to him, "I've been told you're regarded as a real S. O. B. where you come from." To which Begley replied, "That's right, Mr. President. I hear the same about you."

What makes all this of unusual in-

Appeal For Blood

The Central Kentucky Blood Center is in urgent need of all types of blood, especially type O. O+ is the most common type used by patients and O- is used for transfusing all other types during a blood shortage.

The need has been caused by two factors—1. A declining economy has meant less availability to donors through mobiles (smaller work forces due to layoffs), and 2. transfusions in 38 hospitals in the CKBC service area in May and June hit an all-time high.

The Prestonsburg donor station is open on Tuesday from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m.; Thursday, 12 noon to 8 p.m., and Saturday from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Call 886-1557 for an appointment or for more information.

85-Year-Old Victim After Vain Attempt To Save Son's Life

Eighty-five-year-old Ermine Burchett died at Highlands Regional Medical Center here last Friday of burns suffered three months earlier in a vain attempt to save his son, Johnny R. Burchett, from a fire which destroyed their home on Cow Creek.

Born December 12, 1896 at Emma, he was a son of Ben and Caroline Crager Burchett. He was a disabled farmer and was a veteran of World War I.

She will serve an internship in internal medicine at the University of Kentucky Medical Center.

County's Right To Impose Tax Held Uncertain

The rush for beer and whiskey licenses in this county began almost simultaneously with the certification of the vote making official last Tuesday's decision for a Wet county.

"They were here (in Frankfort) at 8 a.m. June 30, waiting for us," reported Judy Harrod, of the Alcoholic Beverage Control (ABC) office.

By last Thursday afternoon 200 had appeared at the office here of County Judge-Executive Jerry Lafferty, Jr., and 150 more were there Friday.

They were seeking approval of their license applications, although the date when those licensed may sell either beer or whiskey is weeks away.

The ABC representative told The Times this week that it is possible that sale of beer may begin as early as 17 days after the 60-day period following certification of the vote has expired and that whiskey may be sold 30 days after the 60-day period. "It could be in September, but I don't expect it till October," she said.

There has been considerable confusion about the licensing process, and Miss Harrod outlined it, as follows:

First, the intention of the applicant to apply for a license must be advertised. After that, approval must be made by the county-judge-executive, or the alcoholic beverage administrator (this approval may be made during the 60-day period following certification of the vote, or later). Then ABC advertises at the end of the 60-day period, notifying all concerned that only 30 days more remain for the filing of applications.

Applications for alcoholic beverage outlets must be approved by the county judge-executive, except in incorporated towns where approval will be by the city council or other authorized official.

If a license application is denied approval by county or city, an appeal may be filed with the ABC board, and such appeal could delay the issuance of any license till a final decision is made. Issuance of a beer license may be protested within 17 days and whiskey applications within 30 days, after the 60-day period ended, County Attorney Arnold Turner, Jr. said.

The three-member ABC board will make the final decision on to whom licenses will be issued.

The ABC representative weakened

New KY 80 Section Reported 'Buckling'

When a section of new KY 80 was dedicated at Water Gap by then-Governor Julian Carroll, the governor pointed out that the major coal-haul route between Hazard and this county was being poured to unusual thickness to withstand the wear-and-tear of heavy coal trucks.

Most of the road is standing up well, but an asphalt section in Knott county, near the Knott-Perry line, is buckling already, only seven months after its official opening.

Whether the "washboard" ripple on that segment of the highway is the direct result of heavy truck traffic or variations made in the road structure after Governor Carroll left office is not definitely known, but both are suspect, since parts of the road built earlier with concrete surfacing are standing up well.

Structural strengths and weaknesses of the route have not evoked nearly as much comment as another situation, however. Spillage from coal trucks which has cluttered the highway margins with coal and coal-dust, on occasion smashing fenders, breaking headlights and denting car bodies—about these, residents of areas through which the road passes, as well as affected motorists, have been most vocal.

One of the new laws enacted by the 1982 General Assembly may or may not cure that. The law becomes effective next Tuesday, along with several other new statutes, and from a rather vague, unenforced old law it gets specific to the extent of this provision: "No vehicle shall be operated on any public highway for a distance of over one mile whose load is susceptible to shifting or to spillage unless said load is covered with a device for the prevention of spillage."

Some think the new law may be the answer; others point to the truck weight law, which is pretty well ignored, and predict the same sort of administration for the new statute.

Floyd county at one time made an abortive attempt to require tarpaulins for loaded coal trucks. Only Boyd county has cracked down on both overweight and uncovered trucks.

P'burg Attorney Says He Fears for Client or Self

Gary E. Johnson, Prestonsburg attorney, admitted the accuracy of an Idaho newspaper's report to the effect he has testified that a state of lawlessness exists in Johnson and Martin counties and that he fears for the life not only of his client but also his own.

The statement was made at Moscow, Idaho during a hearing at which he and another defense attorney sought to block the extradition to Kentucky of Mrs. Lynn Holbrook to answer to a charge of murdering by poison her husband, Paintsville Policeman William Holbrook, in 1980.

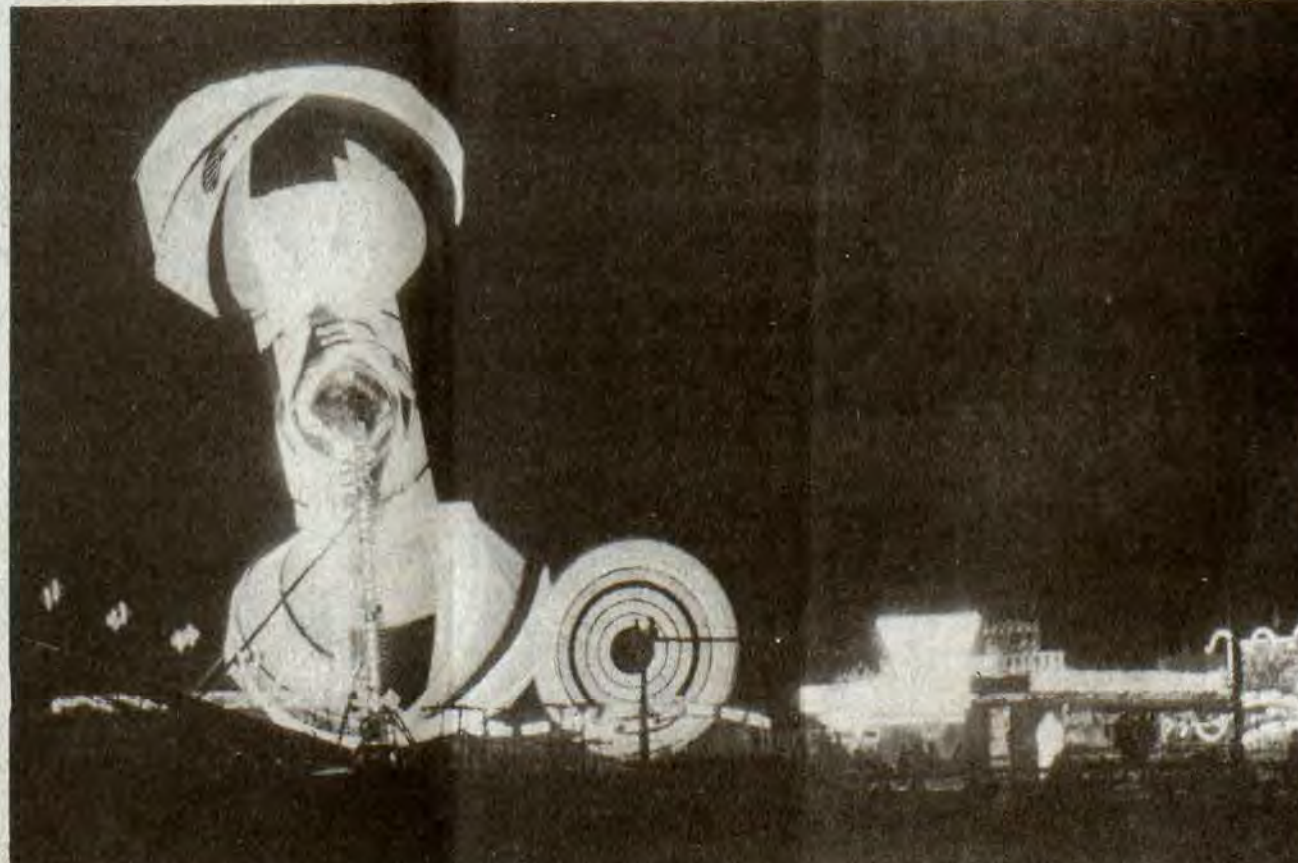

"My client was shot, I myself was forced to my knees to beg for mercy, and the courts have failed to indict those responsible," Johnson explained to The Times last week after the story of his testimony was published in a Lewiston, Idaho newspaper and in The Paintsville Herald.

He added that at the time when Mrs. Holbrook was shot John David Preston, who later became commonwealth's attorney for the Johnson-Martin judicial district, was present but no indictment against Mrs. Holbrook's assailant was made. Johnson admitted the incident occurred on the property of the dead man's family but said he and his client were there by agreement on the part of those involved.

He was quoted as saying Mrs. Elizabeth Adams, mother of the alleged poison victim, told him that "if she didn't get her (Mrs. Holbrook) she had plenty of brothers and sisters who would."

Adding that he fears to return to Johnson county, the attorney was quoted as saying, "I am afraid Mrs. Adams will kill me if she gets the opportunity."

One statement attributed to Johnson by the Lewiston newspaper story drew some ire from peace officers. It read: "If my experience in this case has taught me anything, it's don't rest your faith in law enforcement officers."

Drinking During Pregnancy To Be Special on KET

The potential effects of drinking during pregnancy will be examined in a one-hour special, "Pregnancy On The Rocks...The Fetal Alcohol Syndrome," airing on KET Wednesday, July 21 at 10 p.m. (ET).

Leading researchers, physicians and authorities on fetal alcohol syndrome discuss research findings and questions surrounding the affliction and its post-natal effects on the family and child. Available knowledge on the subject is applied to several case histories of fetal alcohol syndrome offspring ranging in age from six months to 26 years.

The film also examines how women can be made aware of their drinking habits, the delicate question of how much alcohol a woman can drink without damaging the fetus, counseling efforts with drinking mothers and how families with fetal alcohol syndrome children are coping with the problem.

How Can Handicapped Persons Attend Funerals, Visitations?

We have facilities at our funeral home to make it easier for handicapped persons and the elderly. For example, we can provide the use of a wheelchair or a walker and we have designed our entrance and rooms to make it convenient for them.

Please let us know in advance if such equipment may be needed, just as you might with an airline. This assures that such equipment is immediately available. Advance notice can save embarrassment for you, the mourners and our staff, especially if we were to have several handicapped persons on hand at the same time.

We can also be of service in finding certain equipment needed by the handicapped at home. Hospital beds and items for physical therapy are sometimes hard to find. We may be able to direct you to sources for them.

State Government To Lose

When Dr. Grady Stumbo returns to private life next November state government will be losing the services of one who is not only an able administrator but also an official whose moral standards and good, hard commonsense added something that Frankfort needs.

As secretary of the Department for Human Resources Dr. Stumbo stepped into a job that in its immensity and responsibility was next to the gubernatorial post itself. The loss of federal funds, the necessity for program cutbacks required by such deficits, and the problems created by inflation made his task all the more demanding. Sometimes, the unpopular action was necessary, but he met such situations with typical courage.

The appointment of a man of such ability and compassion for people is a definite plus on the score of the Brown administration.

The Prospects

When Floyd county becomes Wet territory officially, we are told, the feared "beer joints" will not exist to repeat the disgrace that was the county's when it was wet, years ago.

No whiskey will be drunk on the vendor's premises, it has been decreed.

So says the law. Yet there remains the problem of getting the law enforced. More officers may be on the job, but if they do no better toward actual enforcement of the law than was done while the county was Dry, "legal sale of alcoholic beverages" could be another scoffing misnomer.

A tax also will be imposed on all alcoholic beverages sold, promising the county an added source of income. For what purpose?—roads? schools? care of the needy?... or more official salaries?

Or to ease the tax bite on all of us?
Want to bet that it will?

the oft-heard argument here that beer outlets will permit no drinking on the premises. She said that beer may be bought by the can and drunk at the place of purchase, but that whiskey may not be consumed at the place of purchase. She also pointed out that any place operating with a roadhouse permit may not allow beer to be consumed on the premises.

As a city of the fourth class, Prestonsburg may license sale of wine and beer by the drink for restaurants seating 50 or more and doing at least 50 percent of their business in preparing foods. Legislation does exist, the county attorney said, which would permit such beer and wine sales outside corporate limits with ABC approval.

Judge Lafferty said the fiscal court will set a tax on all alcoholic beverages sold outside incorporated towns. A tax as high as 9 percent is permissible, but it is not expected to be that high in this county. Lafferty mentioned a possible 6 percent.

County Attorney Turner said cities have the right to impose such a tax but that opinion is varied on the right of counties to do so. He said "some ABC people feel the right to tax alcoholic beverages applies only to cities." But Magoffin county has levied and is collecting a 3 1/2 percent tax.

"I will research this thoroughly," Turner said. Every penny the county can get is needed, because, for one thing, we will need extra law-enforcement.

License to sell both whiskey and beer will cost the applicant $1500 a year, it was indicated. Judge Lafferty said a beer license will cost $600—$200 to the state and $400 to the county—and that whiskey license will cost $300 for the state and $600 for the county.

He said the duties of the alcoholic beverage administrator to be appointed will be to inspect the property where beverages are to be sold, report on the character of the applicant and investigate his or her court record, if any.

Floyd county may have 21 retail whiskey outlets.

Twenty Years Ago

(July 4, 1962)

It didn't take Governor Bert T. Combs long last Saturday to tell county officials, food stamp workers and recipients and a gathering of citizens in the circuit courtroom that he intended to see that the approximately $15,000 needed from the state to continue the pilot food stamp program in this county will be forthcoming. The "blanket" 50 percent assessment raise made in Prestonsburg recently to acquire through taxation needed revenues was under attack this week in county court. William (Bill Dudley) McHone, Prestonsburg native, who has made a career of the costuming art, is now with the Ed Sullivan Show on television, it is noted. There died: Mrs. Myrtle Mayo Taylor, 68, formerly of Floyd county, Friday at Ashland; James Ellis Johnson, 58, of Wheelwright, June 20 at Pikeville Memorial Hospital; William E. Baldrige, 78, of East Point, Saturday at Prestonsburg General Hospital; Rufus Withrow, 72, of Garrett, last Thursday at Huntington, W. Va.; Mrs. Marinda Caudill, 75, Friday at her home at Ligon; Mrs. Cordelia Thacker, 92, of Eastern, Saturday.

Thirty Years Ago

(July 3, 1952)

Virgil O. Turner took the oath of office as Floyd county's new superintendent of schools recently. Highways got a big chunk of the funds allocated for the new fiscal year under the recently adopted budget. A total of $60,921 is slated to be spent on roads. July came in with a scorching heat wave, and the supply of large electric fans here was exhausted this week. One restaurant solved this problem by installing two fans formerly used at a coal mine. Superior Dry Cleaners here was damaged an estimated $3,000 by fire last Saturday noon. Twenty-four young Floyd countians volunteered last month for service in the armed forces. The per capita rate—$38.41—is one cent above last year's, yet Floyd county is expected to lose about $15,000 because of a loss of 410 in the school census. There died: Sherrill Lou, 7, daughter of Hugh Stone, formerly of Prestonsburg, drowning victim in Lansing, Mich., Tuesday; James P. Harris, 43, Prestonsburg bus line owner, here Wednesday; Mrs. I. N. Ousley, 71, of Estill, at the Lackey hospital, June 24; Harry Martin, June 28, at Garrett.

Forty Years Ago

(July 2, 1942)

The Court of Appeals ruled Monday that the election this year of a Sheriff would be illegal, and so Mrs. Annie Stumbo's appointment to fill the vacancy created by the death of her husband, Sheriff-elect W. L. Stumbo, holds good till after the November, 1943 election. Floyd county will send 206 selectees to the Army this month. The fiscal court voted Tuesday, 3 to 2, to discontinue county sponsorship of all WPA activities. War shortages have halted work on the $50,000 Betsy Layne school building. The J. F. Porter store at the mouth of Brush Creek was destroyed by fire Tuesday morning. The school percapita announced for this year is at a record high—$12.88. The Sizemore Mining Corporation has been granted a charter; stockholders are Jake C. Cooley, J. H. Cooley and W. L. Reed. There died: Isaac H. Fitzpatrick, 85, Saturday at his home on Middle Creek; Dodge Turner, 37, Wednesday at his home at Minnie; Mrs. Delbert Webb, 27, of David, Tuesday at a Martin hospital; James Moles, killed June 24 by a slatefall in the Koppers Coal Company mine at Weeksbury.

Fifty Years Ago

(July 1, 1932)

Dr. M. V. Wicker resigned Friday from the chairmanship of the Floyd County Board of Education, and James A. May, of Langley, was named to succeed him. Grade and drain construction bids are asked this week on the Right Beaver road from Warco to the Floyd-Knott line at Lackey. Fire last Friday morning destroyed the K. Moore hotel and the G. D. Ryan residence at Martin. The C. & O. Railway Company won the $50,000 damage suit filed by B. L. C. May as Circuit Judge Wheeler last Tuesday took the case from the jury. Basal salary of Floyd teachers has been set at $50.40. I. R. Goodman has announced his resignation as manager of the Western Union telegraph office here. The new postoffice building here was occupied Wednesday by Postmistress Ella Ferguson and staff. A suit attacking the 1932 congressional redistricting act has been filed in U. S. district court. There died: Rev. Jesse Hamplon, 73, June 18 at his home near Paintsville.

The Idaho newspaper quoted him as saying he was "certain some officers are involved in a plot to kill Mrs. Holbrook."

Stan Rines, Johnson's Idaho legal associate in the case, claimed his client's constitutional rights had been violated and that the woman was "merely trying to protect her own life, not to circumvent the justice system."

Circuit Judge W. B. Hazelrigg said last week that he "disputed any claims of lawlessness" and noted that he had ordered Mrs. Holbrook's $2000 cash bond forfeited in a pre-trial hearing held in Martin county.

Hazelrigg also noted that the order would be forwarded to Idaho officials, pointing out that Mrs. Holbrook had been ordered to the LaGrange State Reformatory forensic evaluation department and "not back to one of these 'lawless' counties."

"If she doesn't return, I'll forfeit the remaining $18,000 of her bond," Hazelrigg said.

A second hearing before Idaho District Judge Andrew Schwam was scheduled for last Thursday on the issue of extradition. A trial date on the charges, moved to Martin county by a change of venue, has not been set.

terest to us in the fact that Joe Begley is a native of Langley, the son of the late Sid and Amba Webb Begley.

This limerick by Fred W. Hardwick, onetime grand master of Kentucky Masons, was first published in the Masonic Home Journal 50 years ago and reprinted by the Journal only last week. And we reprint it this week: There was an old fisher named Fischer Who fished from the edge of a fissure; A fish with a grin Pulled the fisherman in, Now they're fishing in the fissure for Fischer.

TRIP PREPARATION

When Dan Goble was preparing for a plane flight to Hawaii he began thinking about the worst that could happen, and so he loaded himself with trip insurance, both here and at the airport. He left instructions that if anything happened to him on that flight the insurance was to be divided equally among his children and grandchildren. Then remarked: "If it does, they'll cry a day or two, then live happily ever after."

Wonder how long the Columbia and its space flights will continue to make Page 1 in the newspapers?

Endicott Man Held as 2 Shot

Woodrow Collins, 64-year-old Endicott man, was released from jail here last Thursday under bond to answer to an arson charge. By July 4 he was back in jail, this time accused of first-degree assault (shooting and wounding).

He is charged with the wounding of two persons at his home early Sunday morning—Arlene L. Music, 17, of Auxier, shot two times in her left arm, and Elzie G. Collins, 22, of Endicott, shot in the right foot.

Both were taken to the Highlands Medical Center. At the jail here Collins exhibited a slight cut on his hand, indicating, it was said, he had fired in self-defense.

Bond of $30,000 was asked by District Judge Harold J. Stumbo for his release. The holiday week-end passed without a major traffic accident, and the county, generally, was quiet except for an outbreak at Maytown where a home and two trucks were said to have been targets of gunfire.

Deputy Sheriff John Blackburn, Constable Bob Hackworth and at least one state trooper were called to the scene of the disturbance which reportedly began Friday night and continued at intervals into Monday. Sheriff Henry C. Hale said officers confiscated eight guns. Malcolm Scarberry, Ellis Brown, Edgar Brown, Ralph B. Hayes and John W. Frasure were arrested and booked at the jail here on counts ranging from terroristic threatening to wanton endangerment.

Osborne Family Reunion Held in Columbus, Ohio

Sue Holbrook Ford and June Osborne Rumbery, of Columbus, Ohio, hosted the Osborne family reunion, Saturday, June 19, at the Cedar Ridge Lodge, Darby Creek Metropolitan Park in Galloway, Ohio. The reunion was held to celebrate as a family the outstanding heritage of Calaway and Anna Osborne, deceased.

The five surviving children were accompanied by members of families. They are as follows:

Lola Hall, of Wayland, with 12 family members, Droxie Holbrook, of Frankfort, with 22 family members, David Osborne, of Stuart, Florida, with two family members, John C. Osborne, of Miami, Ohio, with eight members of his family and Fred Osborne, of Columbus, Ohio, with 25 family members present. Robert Osborne, deceased, was represented by 24 members of his family; Will Osborne, deceased, by 14 family members, and Rebecca Osborne Shepherd, deceased, was represented by 10 family members.

The family expressed their appreciation to those who had the longest distance to travel, Kathleen Triplett, daughter of Lola O. Hall, from San Diego, California, and Mr. and Mrs. David Osborne from Stuart, Florida.

All five living children received an engraved silver mint julep cup marking this special occasion and a souvenir packet was given to all 117 family members.

The Osborne clan celebrated this reunion with pride and love and plans for a 1983 family reunion are underway.

Post, Texas Mayor Says Dry Ad False

The ad you ran in your newspaper on Wednesday, June 9, 1982, concerning Post, Texas, has been brought to my attention.

I have been in Post for a substantial time before the "Wet-Dry" election in Post and the facts are totally false in your ad. This election was held over 20 years ago and is certainly not recent.

I resent the implication of crime in our town and the bad impression you are giving our town, all of which is untrue. You could not possibly have any true records to back up this ad.

I would be more than happy to supply you with any information you might need to prevent further defamation of our town.

GILES C. McCRARY
Mayor of Post

Tar and nicotine may not be the only dangerous ingredients in cigarettes, reports the July Reader's Digest. Many manufacturers use additives to enhance the flavor and body of "light" cigarette brands. Just what are these additives and what effect do they have on our health? The six major U.S. cigarette companies aren't talking.

Watchdog Group Formed To View Floyd Situation

A sizeable group of citizens, including several ministers, met last Thursday as a first step toward forming an organization with the announced aim of "monitoring and taking necessary measures where known infractions of moral issues exist."

Yet unnamed, the action group discussed presently known, or suspected, problems "involving immoral practices in Floyd county," a representative said. It also was agreed, according to a news release issued following the meeting, "that concerned citizens need support the recent victory of forces in the county who claim to strongly want legal control over the sale of alcoholic beverages."

The meeting followed by two days the local option election at which the county cast a Wet majority.

An ad hoc committee was formed. Mrs. Eleanor Robinson was appointed temporary chairwoman, and with other committee members will report a meeting to be held at 2 p.m. Friday at the Riverview Manor Nursing Home here. At that meeting a name of the organization may be chosen, permanent officers elected and decisions made on aims of the organization.

"All interested and concerned citizens of Floyd county are urged to meet with us Friday," Mrs. Robinson said.

Former P'burg Woman Heads Lawyer Referral Service Begin July 1st

The new statewide Kentucky Lawyer Referral Service began operation July 1, under the direction of the Louisville Bar Association which has just successfully completed an 18-month Lawyer Referral and Information Service pilot project funded by the American Bar Association.

The new KLRS will be serving all counties in Kentucky, Monday through Friday, from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. EST. All clients will be referred to an attorney in their county who is experienced in the particular area of the law concerned and an appointment will be set up with the attorney for them by KLRS. KLRS will charge a $15 fee for the first consultation with the attorney (the initial consultation may be up to one-half hour in duration).

All individuals or business desiring a referral to an attorney should contact KLRS through the toll-free number, 1-800-372-2999. For those clients who are able to call Louisville direct because of close proximity to the area the number is 583-1576. The Louisville Bar Association will continue to operate Lawyer Referral and Information Service in Jefferson County. Their number is 583-1801.

KLRS also has a direct dial line (502) 583-1576 which can be used by persons calling from outside Kentucky. Additionally, in an effort to make legal services available to all Kentuckians, a new feature, low-fee panels, has been added to KLRS. A client who qualifies for a low or reduced fee as determined by KLRS and the referral attorney according to established guidelines, will be charged on more than $25 per hour for a total of no more than half of the otherwise customary charges for a similar case.

This new service is supported by the Kentucky Bar Association in an effort to make legal services readily available to all citizens throughout Kentucky.

Jane F. Hopson, the director of KLRS, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H.D. Fitzpatrick, Jr., of Prestonsburg and the granddaughter of Mrs. Emily Jane Salyers, also of Prestonsburg.

Cooking in the Cumberlands

By IRENE HAYES

I remember the Fourth of July as a very special holiday when I was growing up. The Roman candles, sparklers and firecrackers were a very important part of the celebration. Usually we set off our own fireworks. There was nothing then to imitate the gigantic displays that are common now. Sometimes we had family gatherings and picnics during the holiday.

July 4th is the birthday of our wonderful United States of America. In spite of all the man-made faults it is still the land of the free and the home of the brave. Speaking of birthdays, I remember one birthday in particular. My two youngest daughters wanted a puppy, especially the youngest one. I had lowered the boom and said no more household pets after a sad experience with a cat. The day of my birthday, there were hurried consultations and an air of secrecy. I didn't know what to expect. When I came home from the post office I was presented a puppy by my youngest daughter "for my birthday." She gave me all the reasons she could think of as to why I needed a puppy, then informed me that you couldn't give back birthday presents, "it wasn't nice."

As children we were taught to be very patriotic, and love of country was second only to love of God. I am glad I had the upbringing that I had. My Mother taught us to be honest and truthful by saying, "Children, you can't be half honest and half dishonest. You are either honest or dishonest." Another time she would say, "Children, you can't be half liar and half truthful. You are either a liar or you are truthful." Another saying was, "A man that will lie will steal and a man that will steal will lie and a man that will poison a dog will do anything". We were taught that talebearing was one of the worst sins because it could never be undone. She would repeat an old saying, "A dog that brings a bone will take a bone." I have found a lot of truth in this saying. Two of her favorite sayings were, "You can combat fires and floods but you can't combat ignorance if someone doesn't want to learn," and finally, "Children, always remember this, no one hates you as much as the one who does you an injustice." She never used all the sayings at one time, but used them as they applied to the situation.

July meant canning time down on the farm. How we managed to can hundreds of quarts of vegetables and fruits and even meat I'll never know. We even canned sweet potatoes. We didn't have pressure cookers then. We either canned in the oven or with the hot water bath or open kettle.

So many have commented on the Pickling and Preserving section in my cookbook. They find recipes that are not in other cookbooks. I want to share a few of the recipes that people have written about. Many people come home from other states and buy homemade pickled corn and pickled beans by the case if they can find them. It is something that they remember from childhood. I had to learn to like them. I have a daughter who would literally walk miles for a quart of pickled corn. If you like pickled vegetables you will like the following recipes. The Pickled Bean recipe is from the late Polly Ratliff and the Pickled Corn is from Mrs. Ben Gearheart. I am glad that I could preserve these recipes for future generations, since many wonderful recipes have been lost.

Pickled Beans

Cook green beans until barely tender. Let cool overnight. Fill half-gallon jar with beans.
Into each jar, PUT: 2 heaping tbsps. coarse, regular pickling salt
Fill with cold water. Seal tight. STORE IN A COOL PLACE.
Note: Do not use iodized salt.

Pickled Corn

Parboil corn enough to set the milk in the corn. Cut corn from cob.
Pack into quart jars.

PLACE in each quart: 2 heaping tbsps. pickling salt
Fill with water. Seal tight. STORE IN A COOL PLACE.

Note: There is a difference between coarse pickling salt and regular salt. This is important.

Hazel Ratliff gave me the following recipe for Pickled Corn on the Cob. It is a delicacy for the older people who remember whole barrels full of pickled corn on the cob. Hickory King corn has a small cob and large grains and is ideal for pickled corn.

Pickled Corn On The Cob

Boil corn on cob until just barely done, but not hard.
Drain. Place in suitable container (wooden barrel, crockery, or widemouthed gallon jars).
ADD to a 10-quart bucket of water: 1½ cups pickling salt
When salt is dissolved, pour over corn to cover. Allow to stand in a cool place until corn is pickled. Keep in cool place until used.
Remove corn as needed.

Watermelon Rind Pickles are inexpensive and very good. This recipe was given to me by Mrs. Kenneth Wooten, affectionately known as "Aunt Bess," of Louisa, Kentucky.

Watermelon Rind Pickles

Remove green rind and pink meat from watermelon. Cut enough to make 2 quarts into 1-inch chunks. Soak overnight in salt water (¼ cup coarse salt to 1 quart cold water).
In the morning, drain. Cover with cold water.
Boil until tender but not mushy.

Pickling Syrup

COMBINE:

- 1 cup vinegar
- ½ tsp. allspice
- 1 stick cinnamon
- 1 cup water
- 4 cups sugar
- ½ tsp. cloves

Slice a large lemon or orange into pickling syrup. Cook 15 minutes.
Add watermelon rind. Cook until rind looks clear and syrup is slightly thickened. Remove from heat. Cool.
Fill jars. Process in hot-water bath 15 to 20 minutes.

I can remember Piccalilli from when I was a child. Mrs. Ray Patton, of Estill, Kentucky, gave me this recipe.

Piccalilli

CHOP:

- 1 peck or 12½ pounds green tomatoes
- 1 quart large cucumbers
- 2 green peppers
- 4 onions

MIX WITH: 1 cup pickling salt.
Set aside for 12 hours. Drain thoroughly. Press to get out all liquid.

HEAT TOGETHER:

- 2 quarts cider vinegar
- 1 tbsp. peppercorns
- 1½ cups sugar (more if desired)
- 1 tsp. celery seed
- 1 tsp. mustard seed
- 1 tsp. whole cloves

Add chopped vegetables. Bring to boiling point. Pack in jars and seal at once.

I have just completed a further revision of my cookbook in order for each section to be in multiples of eight pages so it can be printed on a larger press. I added most to the Main Dish and Pickling and Preserving section. I added recipes for pickled okra, pickled eggs, pickled onions, pickled carrots and pickled cauliflower to name a few. There is more demand for recipes of this type now than in the past.

If you have never done so, plan a family picnic and spend a lot of time together. Later on, when your family is older, it won't be possible. It is memories of happy times spent together that bring children and their families back home for visits. Make this the happiest summer of all. It is worth the effort.

State Realty Tax Shows Slight Drop

Ron Geary, secretary of the Revenue Cabinet, announced July 1 that the 1982 state real property tax rate has been established at 22.4¢ per $100 of assessed value. This rate has been set to comply with current statutory language which prohibits the state from setting a rate that will produce more than a 4% increase in revenues from real property from one year to the next.

The 1982 rate of 22.4¢ is reduced slightly from the 1981 rate of 22.9¢, to produce the allowed revenue amount from a tax base that has increased. Since the 1979 law took effect requiring this adjustment each year, the state real property tax rate has declined from 31.5¢ to 22.4¢.

With the announcement of this rate by the July 1 statutory deadline, local tax districts can proceed with normal rate-setting and billing procedures as tax rolls are certified.

Future Fire Station Site

Pictured is scene of ground breaking ceremonies for the Cow Creek Community Volunteer Fire Department. Attending the Ceremonies were County Judge Executive Jerry Lafferty Jr., District 4; Magistrate Lowell Samons, and members of Cow Creek Community Area Development Club. The site was donated to the community by Mr. and Mrs. Hansford Spears, and the building will be constructed by club members.

CARD OF THANKS

We, the family of Grant Harris, of Huntington, Ind., formerly of Topmost, who passed away May 18, thank all our friends, relatives, and neighbors for coming to our aid upon the death of our loving father. There aren't words enough to express our feelings toward everyone who helped in any way. We thank everyone for their kindness and help; also for food, flowers, money, a kind word and, yes, for just being there when we needed you. We feel that God will bless you abundantly. We also thank the Providence Church at Dry Creek for its kindness; also to Brother Bert Hall who helped so faithfully, and the Hindman Funeral Home.

THE FAMILY

To Whom It May Concern

Due to rumors and falsehoods generated by the recent reporting of a district court action involving James Ervin Carroll, we would like to take this means to point out that arrears and non-support in the case totaled $300. This can be verified by anyone concerned by referring to CA No. 13,503 in the office of the Floyd County Circuit Clerk at the courthouse.

Few Mines Meeting Their Requirements As Deadline Near

Of the 5,000 to 6,000 existing coal mining operations currently holding state permits only 12 have completed the first requirements under the transition phase of primacy, state surface mining officials said last week.

"An operator must submit a transition application before July 19 if he wishes to continue mining past Jan. 18, 1983 on existing interim-permitted mining areas," said Richard Shogren, director of the permits division of the state Bureau of Surface Mining Reclamation and Enforcement.

"We are now in the process of reviewing approximately 1,300 interim applications which were submitted during the past month," Shogren said. "All of these must be reviewed and fully processed in order to be issued interim permits by the July 19 deadline. After this date, all permits issued will be under permanent program regulations rather than interim regulations."

Shogren explained that once an operator has received an interim permit a comprehensive permanent-program application must be completed.

"However, by submitting a transition application the operator can continue mining past Jan. 18, 1983, even if his comprehensive application has not been reviewed," he added.

"The Natural Resources Department has attempted to provide for a smooth transition from the interim program into primacy," said Shogren. "Only by overlapping the procedures and requirements of the two programs can we provide both continued regulatory oversight and practical assistance to the coal industry."

Permits division officials anticipate receiving approximately 1,200 transition applications during the three weeks before the July 19 deadline.

Bruce E. Vanderpool

Funeral services will be conducted at 10 a.m. Friday at the home of Mrs. Debbie Johnson at Topmost for Bruce Edward Vanderpool, 38, of Albion, Mich., who died Monday at the Methodist Hospital, Pikeville, following a lengthy illness.

Born November 23, 1943 on Stone Coal Creek, Garrett, he was a son of Beckham and Gurtie Wallen Vanderpool. A veteran of the U.S. Army, he was a disabled factory worker, formerly employed by the Brooks Foundry in Michigan.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Barbara Harvey Vanderpool; three sons, Beckham Dwayne, Dickie Ferrell, and Bruce Vanderpool, Jr., all of Albion, Mich.; four daughters, Mrs. Brenda Kaye Duncans, of Homer, Mich., Mrs. Debbie Lynn Johnson, of Topmost, Angela Sue and Melissa Marie Vanderpool, both at home; four brothers, Everett and David Vanderpool, both of Homer, James Vanderpool, of Garrett, and Charles Vanderpool, of Albion, Mich.; two sisters, Mrs. Juanita Salisbury, of Munnith, Mich., and Mrs. Linda Jordan, of Homer, Mich., and one grandchild.

Ministers of the Regular Baptist Church will officiate at the funeral services and burial will be made in the Wallen cemetery on Stone Coal Creek under direction of the Hall Funeral Home.

Fourth place honors were awarded to the Opening and Closing Ceremonies team. Members in this competition were Sherry Layne, John Johnson, Pansy Griffith, John Holbrook, Jayma Fletcher, Karen Mims, and Kirby Alexander.

Mike Porter and Randall Muncy served as members of the Hillybilly Hospitality Corps. Dink Huffman and Roger Coleman represented Mayo as national voting delegates.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of Frank "Sandy" Hardin July 5, 1981

One year has passed since you left us to go home to be with the Lord. What a comfort to know you are at rest.

It has not been without times of great sadness and much sorrow, life without your presence is sad—but it has also been a time of renewing our faith in God. We know God had a place for you—much better than we have here in this world—and though this reason for taking you from us so sudden is sometimes questioned, we know you are at peace in your new home, and we plan to be with you again, because of the Grace of God.

Many tears have been shed since you left us, there will be many more, to some your passing has been forgotten, but we can never forget your presence with us, and thank God we had a chance to share your life and that you were a part of our family.

Sandy, by the Grace of God we will meet you again in your beautiful new home. We are praying that every member of our family will make preparations to meet God at Judgment, and we can all be together, United with God when we too are called from this life—never to part again.

Sadly Missed—by—mother, Cora May; sister, Pat Mills; children, Larry, Ann, Susie, Donna and Ronnie Joe.

NATIONAL FLOOD INSURANCE PROGRAM

Proposed Flood Elevation Determinations
AGENCY: Federal Emergency Management Agency.
ACTION: Proposed Rule.
SUMMARY:

Technical information or comments are solicited on the proposed base (100-year) flood elevations listed below and proposed changes to base flood elevations for selected locations in the nation. These base (100-year) flood elevations are the basis for the flood plain management measures that the community is required to either adopt or show evidence of being already in effect order to qualify or remain qualified for participation in the National Flood Insurance Program (NFIP).

DATES: The period for comment will be ninety (90) days following the second publication of this proposed rule in a newspaper of local circulation in each community.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT:

Mr. Robert G. Chappell, P.E.
National Flood Insurance Program
(202) 287-0230

Federal Emergency Management Agency
Washington, D.C. 20472

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION:

The Federal Emergency Management Agency gives notice of the proposed determinations of base (100-year) flood elevations for selected locations in the nation, in accordance with Section 110 of the Flood Disaster Protection Act of 1973 (Pub. L. 93-234), 87 Stat. 980, which added Section 1363 to the National Flood Insurance Act of 1968 (Title XIII of the Housing and Urban Development Act of 1968 (Pub. L. 90-448), 42 U.S.C. 4001-4128, and 44 CFR 67.4 (a).

These elevations, together with the flood plain management measures required by Section 60.3 of the program regulations, are the minimum that are required. They should not be construed to mean the community must change any existing ordinances that are more stringent in their flood plain management requirements. The community may at any time enact stricter requirements on its own, or pursuant to policies established by other Federal, State, or Regional entities. These proposed elevations will also be used to calculate the appropriate flood insurance premium rates for new buildings and their contents and for the second layer of insurance on existing buildings and their contents.

Pursuant to the provisions of 5 USC 605 (b), the Associate Director, to whom authority has been delegated by the Director, Federal Emergency Management Agency, hereby certifies that the proposed flood elevation determinations, if promulgated, will not have a significant economic impact on a substantial number of small entities. A flood elevation determination under Section 1363 forms the basis for new local ordinances, which, if adopted by a local community, will govern future construction within the floodplain area. The elevation determinations, however, impose no restriction unless and until the local community voluntarily adopts floodplain ordinances in accord with these elevations. Even if ordinances are adopted in compliance with Federal standards, the elevations prescribe how high to build in the floodplain and do not proscribe development. Thus, this action only forms the basis for future local actions. It imposes no new requirement; of itself it has no economic impact.

By J.T. YURKO

A "poltergeist," according to Webster, is described as "a mischievous ghost held to be responsible for unexplained noises." Obviously, the spirits which haunt the house in the film "Poltergeist" cannot read.

These demonic spirits are about as mischievous as a typhoon is breezy. And when these spirits are done with, the house it looks as though a typhoon may very well have passed through the living room.

When you're finished viewing "Poltergeist," you may feel as though you just sat through a typhoon. Few films in recent memory have the viewer holding so firmly onto the arm rest or the comforting hand of a loved one.

Producing and co-authoring the screenplay is Steven Spielberg, who chilled us with the horror of "Jaws" and thrilled us with the splendor of "Close Encounters of the Third Kind." He selected as director for "Poltergeist" Tobe Hooper, the man who brought you "Texas Chainsaw Massacre."

How much of the film is Spielberg's and how much is Hooper's will be left to future critics to surmise. For the present, however, these two talents marvelously complement each other.

For those viewers who might be turned off by the prospect of this film being another blood, guts and gory amateur-surgery film, they needn't worry. "Poltergeist" will administer some real shockers, but they are a result of such old-fashioned ingredients as clever writing direction, rather than wholesale carnage.

The plot on which all this revolves is about as old as some of the ghosts in the film, but Spielberg adds the clever twist of having them appear from an untuned television set.

Spielberg has written that this is his "pessimistic movie," and so serves as counterpoint to "Close Encounters" in which Richard Dreyfuss finally sees and understands the secret of Devil's Monument from the television. Here TV acts as the conduit for the evil side of mankind to surface.

Take notice that Energenics Systems, Inc. (Applicant) filed on May 20, 1982, an application for preliminary permit pursuant to the Federal Power Act, 16 U.S.C. SS791 (a)-825 (r) for Project No. 6357 to be known as the Dewey Lake Dam Project located on Johns Creek in Floyd County, Kentucky. The application is on file with the Commission and is available for public inspection. Correspondence with the Applicant should be directed to: Mr. Granville J. Smith II, Energenics Systems, Inc., 1717 K Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20006.

PROJECT DESCRIPTION—The proposed project would utilize the existing Corps of Engineers' Dewey Lake Dam and would consist of: (1) a new powerhouse containing one generating unit with a rated capacity of 2.3 MW; (2) 5 miles of 138-kV transmission line; and (3) appurtenant facilities. Applicant estimates that the average annual energy output would be 5.3 GWh. The most likely market for energy produced would be the Kentucky Power Company. PROPOSED SCOPE OF STUDIES UNDER PERMIT—A preliminary permit, if issued, does not authorize construction. The term of the proposed preliminary permit is 36 months. The work proposed under the preliminary permit would include economic analysis, preparation of preliminary engineering plans, and a study of environmental impacts. Based on results of these studies applicant would decide whether to proceed with more detailed studies, and the preparation of an application for license to construct and operate the project. Applicant estimates that the cost of the work to be performed under the preliminary permit would be $35,000. COMPETING APPLICATIONS—Anyone desiring to file a competing application for preliminary permit must submit to the Commission, on or before SEP 27, 1982, the competing application itself (see: 18 C.F.R. S4.30 et. seq. (1981)). A notice of intent to file a competing application for preliminary permit will not be accepted for filing. The Commission will accept applications for license or exemption from licensing, or a notice of intent to submit such an application in response to this notice. A notice of intent to file an application for license or exemption must be submitted to the Commission on or before AUG. 27, 1982, and should specify the type of application forthcoming. Applications for licensing or exemption from licensing must be filed in accordance with the Commission's regulations (see: 18 C.F.R. S4.30 et. seq. or S4.101 et. seq. (1981), as appropriate). AGENCY COMMENTS—Federal, State, and local agencies are invited to submit comments on the described application. (A copy of the application may be obtained by agencies directly from the Applicant.) If an agency does not file comments within the time set below, it will be presumed to have no comments. COMMENTS, PROTESTS, OR PETITIONS TO INTERVENE—Anyone may submit comments, a protest, or a petition to intervene in accordance with the requirements of the Rules of Practice and Procedure, 18 C.F.R. S1.8 or S1.10 (1980). In determining the appropriate action to take, the Commission will consider all protests or other comments filed, but only those who file a petition to intervene in accordance with the Commission's Rules may become a party to the proceeding. Any comments, protests, or petitions to intervene must be received on or before AUG. 27, 1982. FILING AND SERVICE OF RESPONSIVE DOCUMENTS—Any filings must bear in all capital letters the title "COMMENTS", "NOTICE OF INTENT TO FILE COMPETING APPLICATION", "COMPETING APPLICATION", "PROTEST", or "PETITION TO INTERVENE", as applicable, and the Project Number of this notice. Any of the above named documents must be filed by providing the original and those copies required by the Commission's regulations to: Kenneth F. Plumb, Secretary, Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 825 North Capitol Street, N.E., Washington, D.C. 20426. An additional copy must be sent to: Fred E. Springer, Chief, Applications Branch, Division of Hydropower Licensing, Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, Room 208 RB at the above address. A copy of any notice of intent, competing application, or petition to intervene must also be served upon each representative of the Applicant specified in the first paragraph of this notice. Youth, 16, Unconscious Nine Days After Shot
Sixteen-year-old Steve Lewis, of Daniels Creek, remained in a coma at the UK Medical Center, Lexington, Monday, nine days after he had been accidentally shot at Grassy Creek, Morgan county, where he and four others had begun hunting.
The bullet of a .22 Magnum entered at the corner of his eye and penetrated the brain, it was said. The weapon discharged as young Lewis' cousin, Roy Lee Lewis, was handing it to him, barrel first. When the butt of the rifle was dropped, the lock struck the truck. The wounded youth was inside the truck at the time. He is a son of Thurman and Jessie Lewis.

HERRIN-JOHNSON PHARMACY IS YOUR PHARMACY PLUS

July 6-12, 1982
While you're having fun in the summer sun, remember that you'll pay for that fun later if you catch too many of the sun's rays. There is no warning of a bad burn at the time of exposure, so it's wise to limit your first sunning to fifteen minutes. Cloudy days are especially dangerous because the clouds may delay your realization that your skin is burning. Use of a lotion or cream containing a sunscreen will allow you to enjoy the outdoors for a longer period of time. Your Pharmacy Plus neighborhood store can fill your needs.

'Enrichment Kids' Are 'Normal,' Too

By TERESA RIZZARDI (EKU Student Writer)

We're just normal kids who enjoy the same things other kids our age do." This was the response of 13-year-old Steve Spurlock, of Hazard, who thinks of himself as an average boy. And perhaps he is—but he's very special, too.

Spurlock is one of 120 youngsters from Kentucky, West Virginia, Tennessee and North Carolina who participated in Eastern Kentucky University's third annual Enrichment Program for students, often termed "gifted or talented."

The children who are accepted into the program must be nominated by the school they attend, and they also must qualify under one of four categories: achievement test scores, score 120 or higher on a standard IQ test; possess a special talent or demonstrate a high level of creativity in at least one area.

"There's a great need for this type of program," according to Adrianna Francis, director of the program. "We had to turn away some students with an IQ of 160 or higher." Eastern's program is the only one of its kind in the state and its primary purpose is to fulfill the public's awareness of the needs of these children. Mrs. Francis said that while there were few programs for the gifted and talented children in past years, today many schools are beginning to have advanced classes.

PRESENT MUSIC PROGRAM

A summer music team, called the "Son Celebration," presented a worship experience in music at the First Baptist Church here during services Sunday morning and evening. The group is composed of Miss Dee Dee Kalos, of Prestonsburg, and Kim Hays, Karen Massey, Mike Melson, Paul Taulman and Steve Ware, from various locations in the state. The programs, which were well attended, were sponsored by the Student Department of the Kentucky Baptist Convention.

Named To Hall Of Fame

Geri Grigsby, who set state and national scoring records in high school basketball and went on to play basketball for both the University of Kentucky and Western University, was inducted into the Kentucky High School Hall of Fame during half-time ceremonies at the Kentucky-Indiana All-Star Game at Freedom Hall in Louisville, June 19. Jack Givens, former Bryan Station High School and U.K. basketball team member, was also inducted into the Hall of Fame at this time.

Miss Grigsby recently graduated from the University of Kentucky with a 3.9 academic standing and will enter the U.K. Law School this fall.

While at McDowell High, she was an All-American and All-State High School basketball player, and the 4,385 points she scored set national and state records. She averaged 46.1 points per game for three years and was named to the All-State team for three consecutive years. With a 4.0 academic record, she was valedictorian of her graduating class of 1977 at McDowell.

Miss Grigsby is the daughter of Superintendent and Mrs. Pete Grigsby, of Minnie.

FISH AND WILDLIFE "SWAPS"
While most folks like to swap 'coon dogs or pocket knives, fish and wildlife agencies have a habit of swapping—what else—fish and wildlife.

Interstate "swaps" are common among state agencies, according to Bill Graves, director of the wildlife division for the Kentucky Department of Fish and Wildlife Resources. "As a matter of fact," Graves adds, "I can't think of any wildlife we've acquired from other states without there being some kind of trade involved."

Kentucky is now entering the second year of a rather unusual and particularly complicated trade. Missouri wants river otters for a biological study there, and Kentucky wants turkey for its restoration program. The problem is that Kentucky doesn't have any otters to swap.

However, there are otters in Louisiana, but Louisiana apparently isn't too interested in turkeys. So Kentucky is buying the otters in Louisiana and sending them to Missouri in exchange for turkeys. Ten pair of otters are worth 24 hen turkeys and eight gobblers.

Most trades would be unnecessary if fish and wildlife agencies could raise their own turkeys, deer, quail, grouse or other species for stocking. Unfortunately, animals raised in captivity usually can't make it in the wilds. Study after study has shown, Graves says, that stocking pen-raised birds or mammals is a waste of time and money and that the stocking programs are effective if wild specimens are obtained.

But "wild" wildlife isn't always easy to come by. A few years ago, Kentucky agreed to swap grouse for Missouri turkeys. Missouri duly delivered the turkeys, but Kentucky wildlife biologists discovered that live-trapping grouse is almost impossible. The deal was finally called off, but Kentucky still owes Missouri several grouse.

Trades among fisheries managers tend to be more informal, according to Assistant Fisheries Director Ted Crowell. A state or federal hatchery with a surplus of a certain species will put out the word to other hatcheries, or someone with a need for a particular kind of fish will ask around, hoping to find a surplus somewhere.

"Kentucky is the only southern state that raises muskies or walleye," Crowell says, "so most of our swapping is done with these species. We're usually in the market for rockfish or rockfish hybrids." Earlier this spring, Kentucky swapped 200,000 walleye to Florida in return for 250,000 rockfish hybrids.

Fisheries people, Crowell says, are usually willing to give away surplus hatchery production without demanding anything in trade. Of course, raising several million fry in a hatchery is quite a bit different than trying to live trap wary wild animals, so surpluses are more usual in fisheries management than in wildlife.

Lackey-Garrett-Wayland Woman's Club

The Lackey-Garrett-Wayland Woman's Club met its commitments to the young people of Allen Central High School in spite of the fact that the club was unable to have its May meeting due to the serious illness of the husband of the club president.

Commencement evening at Allen Central was the occasion of the club's giving its annual $25 award based on scholarship and citizenship to an Allen Central senior. The recipient this year was Stephanie Martin, of Eastern.

Also at commencement, a Merit Certificate was presented to Patricia Martin, of Garrett, along with a small check from the club president for her entry in the poetry contest sponsored by the club. Patricia, earlier in the year, had been the recipient of a $50 U. S. Savings Bond for her first place win in the Kentucky Federation of Women's Club's 7th District Art Contest.

Art work of the learning disabled students of Allen Central was featured on commencement evening in the school gymnasium. This was also sponsored by the Lackey-Garrett-Wayland Woman's Club under the direction and assistance of Mack Martin, the school's LD teacher, who is also an area artist.

In June, the club sponsored a special child to the Floyd County 4-H Camp.

A business meeting will be called soon by the club president, Mrs. Otto Martin, to transact business that was not taken care of because of the cancellation of the May meeting.

Pharmacy Footnotes

By HAROLD COOLEY

There are several supplies that each household should have on hand in case of emergency. First, a suitable thermometer, in a protective plastic case, should be in every medicine cabinet. A hot water bottle for moist heat and a heating pad for dry heat are beneficial for stomach cramps and sprains. A vaporizer is soothing, especially in homes with dry heat, for sinus and throat irritations. Have an adequate supply of bandages, cotton swabs and an antiseptic on hand. Lastly, be sure to have a chart of poisons and their antidotes readily available. At least, make note of a local poison "hotline" telephone number.

As your neighborhood pharmacist, your best interest is our best interest, and at COOLEY APOTHECARY INC. you'll find a full service prescription center, first aid supplies and convalescent items, such as walkers, crutches and canes. You'll also find personal and professional service. If you're new to the area, come by and introduce yourself. We like to get to know our customers. We're located at No. 2 Town Center Bldg. Open Mon.-Fri. 9-5:30 and Sat. 9-4. 886-8106

HANDY HINT:
If you must keep poisons in your home, write their antidotes directly on their labels.

★ KENTUCKY AFIELD ★

It seems too early in the year to be thinking about deer hunting, but if you want to hunt on one of the wildlife areas or military reservations that requires advance applications, now is the time to mark those deadline dates on your calendar so you won't forget to send your application for the drawing in on time.

The earliest deadline this year is for the quota hunts at Land Between the Lakes, where all applications must be in the LBL offices by 3:30 p.m. (central time) July 28. Applications must be made on LBL computer cards, so now is a good time to write for an application and a complete set of deer hunting rules. The address is Land Between the Lakes, Golden Pond, Kentucky 42231.

At Ft. Knox, applications for weekend bow hunts must be made only between July 19 and July 31. The archery season on this military reservation will run from Oct. 2 through Oct. 31. Application for the Nov. 27-28, Dec. 4-5 and Dec. 18-19 gun hunts will be accepted only between Aug. 16 and Aug. 31. Write Morale Support Activities, Hunt Control Office, Ft. Knox, KY 40121 for full details, or call (502) 624-7311 (no collect calls).

At the Blue Grass Army Depot in Madison County, applications will be accepted for both gun and bow hunts only between Aug. 10 and Sept. 10, with the gun season scheduled for Nov. 13, 20 and 27 and bow hunts set for Oct. 9, 16 and 23. Separate applications are necessary for gun and bow hunting.

Applications must be made on a postcard, giving the name, address and telephone number of the applicant, as well as the preference for gun or bow hunting. Only one name is allowed per card. Those wishing to hunt together should fill out individual cards, staple them together and mail them in an envelope.

Successful applicants will be notified of their hunting date and will be charged a $15 post fee. Mail applications to: Deer Hunt, Building S-14, Lexington Bluegrass Depot Activity, Lexington, KY 40511.

The application deadline for special gun hunts on Department of Fish and Wildlife Resources areas and on two units of the Daniel Boone National Forest is August 31. These areas and the hunting dates are: Beaver Creek, Dec. 4-5; Duck Island (in Barkley Lake), Oct. 23-24; Kleber, Dec. 4-5; Redbird, Dec. 4-5 (muzzleloading firearms only) and Dec. 11-12 (any legal firearm); West Kentucky, Dec. 11 or 18 and Yellowbank, Dec. 4, 8 or 11.

Application to these areas must be made on a standardized form. One form will do for all areas, and up to four hunters may apply per area on the same form. These forms are available from conservation officers, from national forest ranger stations or by writing the Division of Wildlife, Dept. of Fish and Wildlife Resources, Frankfort, KY 40601.

In all cases, follow directions carefully. Every year, many hunters are rejected because incomplete or improper applications or letters are received.

The 1982 Deer Hunting Guide and pocket sized general hunting digest are now available. Write the Department of Fish and Wildlife, Division of Public Relations, Frankfort, KY 40601 for your free copies and you'll be all set for this fall's hunting seasons.

KSP Moves To Help Curb Illegal Mines

David M. Whitehouse and Trooper Hayward L. Middleton, of the Kentucky State Police, have been assigned to detached duty with the state Mines and Minerals Department, according to State Police Commissioner Marion D. Campbell.

Lt. Whitehouse and Trooper Middleton will provide law enforcement assistance to the Mines and Minerals Department. They began their new assignment on July 1.

During the 1982 legislative session, the Kentucky General Assembly passed Senate Bill 397, a new law requiring the Mines and Minerals commissioner to create a task force to investigate illegal underground coal mining and to contract with the state police for the purpose of arresting people, who commit criminal violations of the deep mining laws.

Lt. Whitehouse, 44, is a 21-year veteran of the state police. He was previously assigned to the State Police Academy in Frankfort.

Trooper Middleton, 39, has served with the state police for more than 16 years. Middleton had been assigned to the driver testing section and was working in Harlan and Leslie counties.

New Equipment May Be Lifesaver

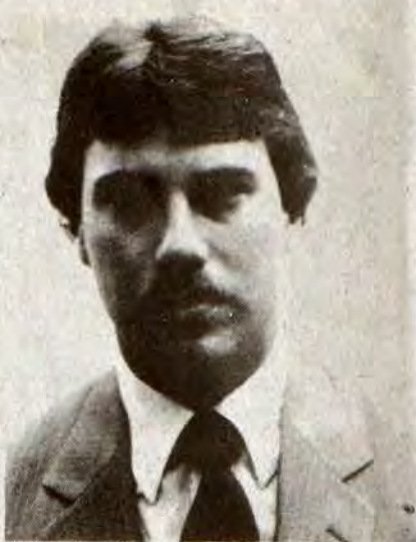

Joy Rivera, L.P.N. and Rita Alexander, L.P.N. demonstrate the use of the newly purchased transilluminator at the Highlands Regional Medical Center's premature infant nursery.

A two-pound, three-ounce female newborn is rushed from the delivery room to the Highlands Regional Medical Center premature infant nursery. The transilluminator, a newly purchased piece of equipment, is positioned over the child. Within seconds, this diagnostic tool with its infrared light which illuminates the tissue, confirms the diagnosis. The physician responds immediately by inserting a chest tube that allows the lungs to expand again. The baby is then transported by helicopter to the Neo-Natal Intensive Care Unit at the University of Kentucky Medical Center.

Due to the fast and accurate diagnosis when seconds counted, the tiny girl is now a thriving infant. She is the first newborn at Highlands to benefit from the latest technology which has been added to the nursery. The transilluminator is a diagnostic tool that can be used to confirm hydrocephalus (water on the brain), pneumothorax and show arteries and veins for inserting I.V.'s or blood testing. It can eliminate the need for some X-rays and greatly reduces the time it takes to diagnose an illness.

'Shenandoah' in Opening Tonight

Tonight (Wednesday) marks the opening of "Shenandoah," the third Jenny Wiley summer show. The production will run through August 22 in repertory with "The Fantasticks" and "The Music Man." Curtain time for all performances is at 8:30 p.m., Wednesday through Sunday.

"Shenandoah" focuses on a Virginia family's struggles during the Civil War. Father Charlie, played by John Marshall (Marcellus in "The Music Man") is determined to stay out of the war and not fight someone else's battles. His sons are of differing opinion, however, and thus their loyalties become split between family and land. The ensuing difficulties are not unlike the hardships faced by families in this area during that same war. Luckily, freedom becomes the binding force for the family.

For reservations for the opening night performance tonight call (606) 886-9274. Special rates are available for senior citizens, students, and groups.

Commonwealth of Kentucky
AUDITOR OF PUBLIC ACCOUNTS
Frankfort, Kentucky 40601

May 5, 1982

To the People of Kentucky

Honorable John Y. Brown, Jr., Governor

Honorable Jerry Lafferty, County Judge/Executive
Members of the Floyd County Fiscal Court

We have examined the Statement of Receipts, Disbursements and Excess Fees of the Floyd County Outgoing Sheriff for the period January 1 through August 31, 1981, the Incoming Sheriff for the period September 1 through December 31, 1981, and the Jailer for the Calendar year ended December 31, 1981. Our examination was made in accordance with the "Standards for Audit of Governmental Organizations, Programs, Activities and Functions," issued by the Comptroller General of the United States, and accordingly, included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

The County Clerk has contracted Burchett and Bottoms, Certified Public Accountants, to examine the statements of receipts and disbursements of his office.

As recommended by the State Local Finance Officer, pursuant to KRS 68.210, the accompanying financial statements are prepared primarily on a cash basis. Consequently, certain revenues and the related assets are recognized when received rather than when earned, and certain expenses are recognized when paid rather than when a liability is incurred. Accordingly, the accompanying financial statements are not intended to present financial position and results of operations in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles.

In our opinion, the accompanying financial statements present fairly the receipts, disbursements and excess fees of the Sheriffs and Jailer for the year ended December 31, 1981, in conformity with the accounting system described above applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

We also conducted tests of compliance with state laws and regulations, and unless otherwise noted below, the tested items were in compliance with applicable state laws and regulations. During our examination, nothing came to our attention to cause us to believe that the untested items were not in compliance.

We conducted a study and evaluation of internal accounting controls, some of which are incorporated in the statutes, regulations, and Uniform System of Accounts. The significant internal accounting controls are as follows: 1) Issuance of receipts, 2) Receipts are to be deposited intact, 3) Segregation of duties, 4) Proper authorization of disbursements, 5) Disbursements by warrant or check, 6) Bonding requirements, and 7) Fixed asset control. Our study and evaluation of internal accounting control included tests and review of each of these items. Our review identified no material weaknesses in the internal accounting control system.

Areas of noncompliance are as follows:

We recommend the Incoming Sheriff comply with KRS 68.210. The State Local Finance Officer has resources available to help county officials comply with this law.

We call the fiscal court's attention to KRS 424.220 which requires that each official publish an annual settlement of receipts and disbursements within a reasonable period after the end of the year. The Incoming Sheriff did not comply with this statute.

The accompanying statements reflect that the Outgoing Sheriff owed excess fees to the county in the amount of $20,843 at the completion of this statute.

The accompanying statements reflect that the Outgoing Sheriff owed excess fees to the county in the amount of $20,843 at the completion of this audit.

Based on the available records, there was a deficit of $20,793 in the Outgoing Sheriff's official accounts at August 31, 1981.

Respectfully submitted,
s/ James B. Graham
Auditor of Public Accounts

The above transmittal letter accompanied the audit report presented to Fiscal Court and is published pursuant to KRS 43.090 (2).

Copies of the complete audit report are available upon request by contacting the Auditor of Public Accounts, Room 168, Capitol Annex, Frankfort, Kentucky 40601.

13-Year-Old Wins Camp Awards

Goble (center) with Coach Purdy and Coach Wilson

Jerry Goble, 13-year-old son of the Rev. and Mrs. Elder V. Goble, of Richmond, formerly of this county, recently completed a week's training at Belmont College basketball camp, Nashville, Tenn., where he was presented awards for outstanding performance by Belmont College Coach Don Purdy. Goble, who will be in the eighth grade this fall, won the following awards at the camp:

Free-throw shooting, dribbling skills, one-on-one competition, and tied for passing accuracy. In addition to his awards, he was given a season pass to Belmont College Basketball games for the coming season. Last season, Goble was a member of the Mt. Juliet Junior High School basketball team in Mt. Juliet, Tennessee.

He is a grandson of Ben and Inez Music, of Auxier, and Elder and Oralee Goble, of Lancer.

JW Summer Music Theatre To Host "Country Nights"

For the second consecutive summer the Jenny Wiley Summer Music Theatre will host Pike, Floyd, Martin, and Johnson County Nights. For each of the special performances, residents of the evening's honored county can enjoy a professional Broadway musical for the discounted rate of $3.50 per person.

Pike County Night, for the July 14 performance of "Shenandoah," will begin the string of Wednesday performances expressing the theatre's gratitude for support provided by surrounding counties. It will be followed by Floyd County Night for the July 21 performance of "The Music Man," Martin County Night for the July 28th performance of "Shenandoah," and Johnson County Night for the August 4 performance of "The Fantasticks."

According to Jenny Wiley Managing Director, John McCann, last summer the special nights were a marked success. The shows played to packed houses filled with a healthy county vs. county competitive spirit. Expectations for this summer's turn out excel even last year's with the added incentive of a second County Night for a different Jenny Wiley show to the county with the most residents attending on "their" night!

He adds that although residents of any county in any state are welcome on any night at Jenny Wiley Summer

Music Theatre, this gives residents of specific counties a chance to enjoy a night out together. The special County Nights also give the theatre an opportunity to gauge individual county support for the theatre.

The Jenny Wiley Summer Music Theatre Box Office is open daily from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m., and reservations can be made 24 hours a day by calling the Ticket Hotline at (606) 886-9274. Tickets for the special County Nights are only $3.50.

Unlicensed Mine Deadline Near

The deadline for licensing coal mines in Kentucky is July 15. After that date, anyone found operating a mine illegally will be charged with a felony.

These penalties for illegal miners in the commonwealth result from legislation passed during the 1982 General Assembly, according to Public Protection and Regulation Cabinet Secretary Tracy Farmer.

"Closing illegal coal mines is and will continue to be a top priority of the Kentucky Department of Mines and Minerals and the Public Protection and Regulation Cabinet," Farmer said. "Our recent success in getting legislation passed to eliminate illegal mining operations has numbered the days for bootleg mine operators. Come July 15, the operators either comply with the law and obtain a license or risk being convicted of a felony and of losing their equipment."

Illegal mining is primarily concentrated in Clay, Whitley and Knox counties.

Farmer explained that proponents of illegal mining argue that operators cannot afford to comply with the law, which requires them to get a license and to buy the proper equipment. Supporters also say that the operators need the income to make ends meet. These arguments "simply don't hold water," the secretary said.

Farmer said that miners deserve all the help they can get, but that bootleg mining operators are flourishing in a very lucrative business. He cited the Barbourville area as an example, where some estimate that $1 million a week is made from outlaw operations.

"The huge profits fatten the pockets of a few while starving the state taxpayer of better roads, schools and other essential services," continued the secretary.

Lost revenues are a serious problem; but, lost lives and accidents are the most serious problem created by illegal mining, said Farmer.

"Lives sacrificed to the wildcat's desire for maximum profit have mounted to 13 fatalities over the past 26 months," he said. "This is reprehensible. And, the state Department of Mines and Minerals will take the strongest action possible to prevent these fatalities."

Farmer reminded operators that Mines and Minerals Commissioner Willard Stanley has repeatedly promised that anyone who complies with the law will be welcomed. At the same time, those who ignore the law will suffer the consequences. He added that "no one has the right to deliberately risk another person's life through dangerous mining practices."

"Quite simply, the bottom line is: we fully intend to enforce the laws, to eliminate illegal coal mining in Kentucky," Farmer said.

67 TRAPPED COAL MINERS RESCUED IN CHINA

Sixty-seven coal miners trapped in mine tunnels by a flood have been rescued in Shanxi Province, the newspaper Worker's Daily reported Tuesday.
