

This Town...That World

Let's get that "Pelican" authorship correct, at last. You may recall that I credited Dorothy Thompson or Dorothy Parker or somebody with the lines, but from Marshall Davidson, of Prestonsburg, and Bob Harlowe, of Blue Springs, Mo., I learn that the real author was Dixon Merritt, editor-historian-poet, who died in 1972.

Medical question: Why does softening of the brain go with hardening of the arteries?

At last it dawns on me that perhaps we should note for the record, and for the convenience of the public, that this office is never closed on Mondays by holidays, except for Christmas.

FISHING REPORT

Went fishing—at last—last Friday, hooray!

I was a full two months late with my first fishing safari of the year but it was as if I had never been away: there were the same delights to the eye, the water, the hovering hills clothed in the same beauty that I found entrancing last spring and every spring...the well-remembered shoreline, the deep hollows that we call "slews," the tiny inlets; the same speed-boats, or reasonable facsimiles thereof, ripping up and down the lake, the skiers... those who quietly fished... the same lapping of the waves against the boat... even my luck, the same... Further deponent saith not.

POST-ELECTION VIEW

A defeated candidate for office may or may not have written the paragraphs which follow.

I see that the state of West Virginia has selected "the Biggest Liar in West Virginia."

I am glad they had that contest in West Virginia and narrowed the choice down to one man. In Kentucky we had our liars' contest over a period of weeks, ending with the election last Tuesday, (See Story No. 1, Page 4)

Pickets Protest Outside Labor at Plant Here

Texans have been hired on a construction site at Dwale, even though local construction workers are unemployed, pickets charged this week. Members of ironworkers' and operating engineers' unions, a handful of pickets have demonstrated outside the Kentucky Hydrocarbon plant since last Wednesday.

The target of their protest is the Bowden Construction Co., of Odessa, Texas, which is building a plant to strip hydrocarbons from natural gas for Kentucky Hydrocarbon, a subsidiary of Kentucky-West Virginia Gas Co.

Bowden has brought in about 15 Texans of Mexican descent—none of them union members—to do the job, while they are themselves without work, the pickets charged.

"People around here can use the jobs," said Danny Salisbury, of Martin, a member of Ashland Local 181, National Union of Operating Engineers. Only two local men were hired for the Dwale job, he said.

Retally Widens Lead of Collins, Bailey and Boyd

Carla Robinson Boyd picked up an additional 60 votes in the county clerk's race and Benny Ray Bailey gained another 100 in the 29th district senate contest, as a result of the recanvassing of voting machines yesterday (Tuesday).

In the constable's race, the other contest for which a recanvass was requested, there was no change except for the loss of one vote by Larry Shortridge.

The amended figures mean Mrs. Boyd (with 3701 votes) defeated Thomas Lafferty, Jr. (3440) by 261 votes and Sen. Bailey (4365) came in ahead of Ray Turner (3912) by 453. In the constable's race, Linzie Hale (978) led Morgan Joseph (899) by 79 votes.

The notion of a secret ballot took on new meaning in Floyd county last week, when election officials impounded for six days the unofficial tally of votes cast in last Tuesday's primary.

C.J. McNally, an election commissioner, said Friday that Sheriff Henry Hale, as chairman of the elections board, decided the day after the primary to keep under lock and key the tabulation sheets on which voting machine totals for each precinct are recorded.

The decision, which may be without precedent here, resulted from the fact that recanvassing of the machines had been sought in county clerk, state senate and constable races, said McNally. The elections board occurred in Hale's decision, he said.

Bill Jack Darby, Republican representative on the elections board, said he had agreed to postpone until Tuesday of this week the recanvassing sought by some candidates but that he did not understand that the unofficial tally sheets were to be impounded in the meantime.

Various complaints were heard—but not necessarily lodged officially—after last week's balloting. They ranged from protests about the validity of some absentee ballots to confusion at some polling places.

For a time in the Trimble Branch precinct the voting machine was programmed for the 29th instead of the 25th senatorial district race. Lines were so long at Prestonsburg High School, polling center for the Cliff precinct, that some protested they were unable to vote. According to one report, votes were recorded on Cow Creek beyond the time permitted by statute. And counting of absentee ballots, which should be done on election day, was reportedly not done until the afternoon of the following day.

Frasure Jailed As Kenova Man Slain in County

While his three-year-old son played in an adjoining room last Sunday afternoon Larry W. Wilson, 31, was shot and killed at the home of Wilson's ex-wife on Buck's Branch, near Martin.

Alvis Randall Frasure, 38, of Martin, was arrested two hours later at the scene of the slaying by State Police Detective Roger Castle. He was booked at the county jail on a charge of murder and his bond was set Tuesday morning by District Judge Harold Stumbo at $50,000.

Detective Castle said Wilson and his son apparently had gone from Huntington, W. Va. to the home of Linda June Turner Wilson, former wife of the victim, and that an argument between Wilson and Frasure ensued in the kitchen of the home. One shot from a 9-mm. automatic pistol struck Wilson in his head. Coroner Roger Nelson held that death was almost instantaneous. Time of the shooting was placed at about 2 p.m.

Three persons—a woman and two men—were slightly wounded shortly before 2 a.m. Saturday at David when the ex-husband of the woman allegedly entered the woman's home and opened fire with a .22-calibre rifle and a shotgun. The wounded—Sally Jo Brown, of David, Harold Spence and Blaine Setser, both of Plainview, Texas—reportedly were hit by shotgun pellets. All were treated at the Highlands Medical Center and released.

Mrs. Brown's ex-husband, Clifford Brown, was booked at the county jail by State Trooper Bill Sloane on a first degree assault count.

'Bites the Bullet'...

Court Cuts Payroll To Stave Off Deficit

It took considerable cajoling, a short course in the responsibilities of government, and finally an unembellished threat by the state official who has been managing the county's money for the past seven weeks—but the fiscal court, meeting for the first time last Friday under the leadership of Judge-Executive John M. Stumbo, finally "bit the bullet."

To stave off an end-of-year deficit, the court voted to make drastic reductions in the county payroll for June, the last month of the fiscal year, leaving only skeleton staffs to work the roads and run the central office.

Of the road crew, which once boasted two dozen workers but saw half of them laid off at the end of March, only a mechanic and four grader operators remain.

Of the courthouse staff—which in its heyday included, beside the judge-executive and other elected officials, a deputy judge, personnel officer, finance officer, flood plain administrator, planner, alcoholic beverage administrator, purchasing officer and three secretaries—only a finance officer and secretary are left.

The way things were going, the county would have ended the fiscal year with a $60,000 deficit, State Advisor Al Howell estimated. By making the payroll cuts, setting less aside for June's utility and phone bills, and postponing a couple of bills to the next fiscal year, the county will have about $7000 to see it through the month, he said.

Committee's Nomination Of Stumbo Challenged

Even as he "solicited cooperation from each and all" at his inauguration last Friday, opponents in at least two quarters were preparing to challenge John M. Stumbo's right to run as the Democratic candidate for judge-executive in November.

One group, calling itself the Fair Election Organization, scheduled a meeting for tomorrow (Thursday) in the Catholic church at Martin. The group will seek ways to contest the choice of Stumbo by the Floyd Democratic executive committee on May 17, said Karen Marcum, one of the organizers.

In an unrelated development, Ann R. Latta, vice-chairman of the Democratic executive committee and a member of the minority favoring Barkley J. Sturgill as the party's nominee for judge-executive, filed an appeal Saturday challenging the committee's decision to name Stumbo.

In a letter addressed to Paul Patton, chairman of the Democratic state central committee, Mrs. Latta argued that the Floyd committee's May 17 meeting should be held invalid since it contravened party bylaws.

In particular, she said, the meeting was called in such haste that most Floyd Democrats didn't hear about it until it was over. Radio stations were not told of the meeting, the press carried no notice of it, and it was held in too small a place—the office of a Martin architect—to accommodate those who might have attended had they known about it, she pointed out.

There was no need to hold the meeting so hurriedly—only 11 days after the death of Judge-Executive Jerry Lafferty, Jr. and a mere four days after the interim appointment of Sturgill—since the committee had until the middle of September to designate a candidate for November, Mrs. Latta contended, noting that she had made the same point

Co. Attorney Says No Cut In Services

Despite cuts in county support, his office will continue to be staffed at its usual level, County Attorney Arnold Turner, Jr. announced this week.

Turner indicated he would personally make up for county funds lost as a result of an end-of-year shortfall, at least until alternate sources of funding could be found.

Cut from the county payroll were Assistant County Attorney Eric Hall and Alta Burga, a secretary in the county attorney's office. In making his own arrangements to keep staff members on, Turner said there are "too many things that need to be done" to permit any cuts.

He cited enforcement of the solid waste ordinance, redrafting of liquor regulations and the county's budget crisis among pressing business.

in moving, unsuccessfully, for an adjournment of the May 17 meeting.

The timing of the meeting, she charged, "appeared to be a deliberate attempt to circumvent party bylaws."

Stumbo Is New Judge After Leaving Board

Well-wishers crowded into the conference room at the courthouse annex here Thursday last week to hear Kentucky Appeals Court Judge Harris S. Howard administer the oath of office to Floyd county Judge-Executive John M. Stumbo.

At the same time the new judge-executive resigned from the Floyd Board of Education on which he has served 31 years, most recently as its chairman.

Stumbo, 56, the second judge-executive appointed here in two weeks, replaced Barkley J. Sturgill, whom Gov. John Y. Brown, Jr. named to the office May 13.

Sturgill had been appointed to replace Jerry Lafferty, Jr., who died May 6. He resigned the position when the Floyd Democratic executive committee at a May 17 meeting chose Stumbo rather than him as its candidate in a special November election to serve the remaining two years of Judge Lafferty's term.

Shortly before Friday's brief swearing-in, Stumbo said "getting the county's finances back in good shape" was the most urgent task facing him.

But roads are his main interest, he said, citing his 20 years' experience as a road-builder with Mountain Enterprises, a Lexington company of which he is general superintendent.

The new judge disputed a suggestion

Recognized for Achievements

Belcher

Miller

Curtis and Lenora Miller, and John and Sharon Justice, take this opportunity to congratulate their grandsons and nephews on their outstanding scholastic achievements this year.

Geoffrey Bruce Belcher, the son of Tommy Bruce and Edith Miller Belcher, and freshman at Prestonsburg High School, was recently awarded the Algebra award. In addition to this outstanding achievement, Geoff participated in the Senior All-Festival Choir. He is a Life Scout in Troop No. 27, and he holds a blue belt in Karate. Geoff has also maintained a 4-point standing at Prestonsburg High School.

Christopher Curtis Miller, a son of Floyd and Teresa Tackett Miller, was recently promoted to the 4th grade at Porter elementary in Johnson county. There, he received an award for "superior achievement and excellent performance" in reading. His reading abilities can be attributed in part to his easy access to books thanks to the Johnson County Book Mobile which makes frequent stops in his area. In addition to this reading award, Christopher is a Cub Scout. Both of these young men are the great-grandsons of Floyd Cox.

We are very proud of them both and know that they will continue to grow and be useful and productive citizens.

JOHN GRAHAM CHAPTER D.A.R., MEETS

Members of John Graham Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, held their regular meeting, Tuesday afternoon, May 10, at the Emma Wells May Cultural Center. The regent, Mrs. James B. Goble, presided, and Mrs. Opal S. May conducted the ritualistic service.

A letter from the family of Mrs. Bess Salisbury May, thanking the Chapter for flowers, visits and other acts of kindness upon her recent death was read.

Mrs. Virginia S. Goble, with Mrs. Ethel Fetterly, of the Salyersville Chapter, attended the Continental Congress in Washington, D.C., April 19-23, gave her report.

Mrs. Frances Brackett, chairman of the Good Citizen's committee introduced Randall Leo Watts, who was chosen by his homeroom senior classmates, for the D.A.R. Good Citizen Award, which carries with it the requirements of leadership, dependability, service and patriotism.

Watts was valedictorian of the 1983 senior class at Prestonsburg High School, was class historian, was named "Outstanding Senior," was on the honor roll during his four years of high school, played basketball and golf, and won awards in science and business education. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Watts, of Allen. On behalf of the chapter, the regent presented him the "Good Citizenship Award" and a pin.

During the meeting, a resolution was passed that the late Mrs. Elizabeth (Bess) Leete Stephens would be recorded as an honorary member of this chapter.

Mrs. Norma Stepp presented Mrs. Edith James a lifetime membership card to the Past Regents' Club.

Mrs. James invited the members to be hostesses during the Jenny Wiley Folk Festival, which she founded, when this event takes place at Jenny Wiley State Park this fall.

Mrs. Edward May, chairman of the Nominating Committee, presented the names of the officers, which were later installed by her during the meeting. They are Mrs. Ray Brackett, regent; Mrs. Carl Horn, first vice regent; Mrs. Mae S. Kendrick, second vice regent; Mrs. J.G. Stepp, recording secretary; Mrs. James B. Goble, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Frank Preston, treasurer; Mrs. Ray Collins, historian; Mrs. Victor Hale, registrar; Mrs. Edward May, chaplains, and Miss Alice Harris, librarian.

The hostess, Mrs. J. Frank Preston, served refreshments to Mesdames Edith James, Virginia Goble, Margaret Alley, Margaret Collins, Frances Brackett, Opal May, Norma Stepp, and Eleanor Horn.

The next meeting will be the annual Flag Day program and luncheon at May Lodge, Tuesday, June 14, at 10:30 a.m. The leader will be Mrs. J.G. Stepp. All members are urged to attend.

$4.86 Million Allocated Eastern Counties Program

Human Resources Secretary Buddy Adams announced Friday that Kentucky will receive about $34.4 million under the Job Training Partnership Act to fund programs in fiscal 1984, beginning June 30.

JTPA is the new federal program which will be administered by the Cabinet for Human Resources through the Department for Manpower Services. It will replace the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act, Oct. 1.

The cabinet will distribute $26.9 million (78 percent of the state's allocation) for programs which will be administered locally by nine service delivery areas.

For EKCEP Floyd, Bell, Breathitt, Carter, Clay, Elliott, Harlan, Jackson, Johnson, Knott, Knox, Lawrence, Lee, Leslie, Letcher, Magoffin, Martin, Owsley, Perry, Pike and Wolfe counties) $4,861,823 is allocated.

An area's allocation is based on the number of economically disadvantaged and the number of unemployed in the area. The funds will be used for training, administration and support services.

Local private industry councils will identify local job training needs and determine which programs will be funded in their respective areas, Adams said.

JTPA focuses on partnerships between the public and private sectors and emphasizes local control, Manpower Services Commissioner Robert E. Spillman said. "The program is geared toward training people for existing and new job openings that have been identified by local businesses."

At the state level, $7.5 million (22 percent of the state's allocation) is available for programs funded under the Governor's Coordination and Special Services Plan. These statewide JTPA program, which will be administered by the Department for Manpower Services, will provide funds for state education coordination and grants, training programs for older workers, incentive grants for service delivery areas and service deliverers with exceptional performance, audits and the State Job Training Coordinating Council. That council will make recommendations on the distribution of the $7.5 million.

IS IT WRONG TO CRY?

When a friend or loved one dies, it is only natural for your emotions to give way to grief—and for you to cry.

Tears are therapeutic in more ways than many of us realize. They give us an emotional outlet, providing us with specific physical action we can perform. At the realization that the loved one is gone, tears may come easily for both adult and child—and this is good! Children may even be encouraged to let out their feelings of grief by crying.

Most do not need extra encouragement since it is so natural to weep in sorrow. It is not unmasculine to cry at the death of a loved one or a dear friend. It's a misconception that "big boys shouldn't cry." This is all a part of the early 20th Century training in the old school of the "stiff upper lip" and "grin and bear it." If there is an emotional hurt, then the pain should be recognized, acknowledged, and expressed—in this case, through tears.

Your questions and comments on this and other subjects are welcome—in private or publicly through this column.

Poor Humpty-Dumpty!

Redistricting is never a simple, uncomplicated chore. But if you want an example of how complicated it can be, take a look at what redistricting did in Floyd county, notably in Prestonsburg.

First of all, seven Floyd county precincts were separated from the remaining 37; the seven placed in Senatorial District 25 which extends all the way to Ashland, the other part of the county left in District 29.

Then, to compound the complications, the Legislature got into the sad business of splitting precincts, running the boundary line between the two districts along a street, leaving next-door neighbors to vote in separate districts.

Not until the recent primary was held—when two voting machines were required for each split precinct and, in some instances, election officials were as badly confused as the voters themselves were about the matter of who voted where—was the crime committed in the name of equalization so apparent.

We are not calling names or attempting to fix the blame for the mess. We can only hope that the legislators we have chosen will begin immediately to move for re-redistricting, and that we will not have to wait another ten years and a new national census mandating reapportionment before they can put Humpty-Dumpty together again.

but no prizes were awarded. There were too many liars.

I started out with the idea of making a good showing in the primary and of maybe coming back later for another run at it. But by the time I had canvassed one precinct and was assured by 90 per cent of the people they would vote for me, I changed my mind.

By the time I had heard a thousand or so "outstanding" citizens declare they wouldn't think of voting for anybody but me, I began to get chasty about the matter. I assured complete strangers that they were looking at a winner, and I boasted around the house so long and loud that I convinced my wife and children that we were home free, just waiting for the Day.

Now, I have been sorely hurt, and I do not refer only to wounded feelings. My standing in the family is more of a crutch. I tried to advise my oldest son about his school, the other day, and he made bold to inquire if I had got that information from one of my voter-friends. And my wife giggled out loud when he said it.

And now I am insulted, all over anew. In one precinct I got 13 votes. I went back there, the other day, (not turning my back to anybody as a protective measure) and was told by exactly 39 people that they were sorry they lost their votes but had cast them for me, and would do so again if given the opportunity.

They say politicians are liars. Could it be that just about everybody in the state is a politician?

that only committee members could speak ("quashed) any input into the selection of the nominee from interested Floyd county Democrats," the vice-chairman said.

In any event, Isaac's office should be declared vacant and his May 17 vote voided on account of his failure as chairman to submit meeting records to the state committee as required by party rules, she said.

Among other grounds for her appeal, Mrs. Latta alleged that two committee members, Paul and Mercedith Hoffman, were ineligible to vote, since they no longer live in this county, and that Ed Ousley and Oliver Williamson should be declared ineligible, also, since their names have never been filed at party headquarters.

Complaints by many Floyd Democrats who were angered at being excluded from the process of selecting a party nominee prompted her to file her protest, Mrs. Latta said.

The Seventh Congressional District is represented on the state executive committee by Dr. Larry Leslie, who joined the minority here in voting for Sturgill as nominee for judge-executive.

Party committees are chosen every four years—elections are next scheduled in 1984—as part of the process by which Democrats select their candidate for President. The 15-member county executive committee is elected by members of precinct committees—made up of a man, a woman and a person under 30 in each precinct—and elects its own chairman.

Under an unusual compromise arrangement, the present executive committee here agreed to split the party leadership, naming Dr. Leslie as chairman for the former two years and Isaacs as chairman for the latter two years of the term.

made by Sturgill that Stumbo's nomination was engineered by a group that met May 15, two days after Sturgill's appointment, in a trailer owned by school board member Ray "Shag" Campbell at Banner.

Stumbo said he was asked by Democratic executive committee members on May 10, before he learned of Sturgill's interest in the job, to be the party nominee. The May 15 meeting in Campbell's home—not a trailer—was simply to inform Floyd officials of a decision already made when Sturgill's appointment was announced, he said.

Stumbo and his wife, Pauline, live at Harold. They have two sons, John M., III, 31, and Jim, 14. Schools Superintendent E.P. Grigsby, Jr. said the board of education has 90 days in which to name a replacement for Stumbo on the board.

Hospital Wins Old Strike Case

In a labor case stemming from a 1981 strike by workers at Highlands Regional Medical Center, an administrative law judge has ruled that hospital administrators violated no law in the way they dealt with four strike sympathizers.

Hospital security guards James Allen and Billy G. Curnutte were fired for refusing certain assignments during the strike. Admissions interviewers Geneva Cox and Jenny Hale, who refused to work during the strike, were laid off, subject to recall.

Although none of the four was a member of the striking union—District 1199, National Union of Hospital and Health Care Employees—the union acted on their behalf, arguing before a National Labor Relations Board judge in Washington, D.C. that the guards were wrongfully fired and that the admissions interviewers were only tardily recalled.

Allen was fired for refusing to transport nonstriking workers across the union picket line, Curnutte for refusing to sweep up debris near the picket line. Administrative Law Judge William F. Jacobs, rejecting their attorney's argument that their refusal of the assignments was justified under the National Labor Relations Act, found that the hospital was within its rights in dismissing them.

The wives of both men were said to have been among the pickets, who were mostly service, maintenance and technical workers.

Also rejected was the union attorney's argument that Cox and Hale, who were eventually recalled to their old jobs, should have been recalled earlier, when a PBX/information clerk position became available.

Strikers and rank-and-file strike sympathizers are protected by law from being fired for striking or supporting a strike. The law excepts security guards from that protection, however, on the argument that an employer has a right to expect that security personnel will protect plant and nonstriking staff during a strike.

How many of the laid-off workers will be hired back in July will not be known until the new year's budget is approved, perhaps this week. But a draft budget prepared by Howell recently includes no provision for hiring back the 13 county workers laid off in March.

The draft budget proposes, moreover, that the responsibilities of county planner, personnel officer, and alcoholic beverage and flood plain administrators be assumed by the deputy judge, whose salary would be raised from $12,780 to $18,000.

And there were signs this week that at least the flood plain administrator, Vicky Martin, and her secretary may have lost their county jobs permanently. Plans were reportedly under way to move Floyd County Solid Waste, Inc.—which has been leasing office space from Thomas D. Lafferty, Sr., deputy judge-executive in his late brother's administration—into the courthouse office of the flood plain administrator.

Despite Howell's observation that they had no choice—and that he would seek a circuit court order to force them if they did not do it voluntarily—the magistrates were not easily persuaded to trim the payroll. Kenneth Roberts, who cast the only no vote, resisted to the end.

A suggestion by Gerald DeRossett that Howell himself perform the surgery drew a scornful rejoinder from the state official. "I'm not going to be the bad guy," he said, rising from his chair. "I didn't get your county into this kind of trouble. I told you last year (of the county's financial plight), but you didn't listen."

"You're the elected officials. You're getting paid for it. You make the decision," Howell instructed the magistrates.

Magistrate Roberts suggested at one point that the county's fiscal troubles stemmed from a failure to collect about $51,000 in excess fees owed by former county clerk C. Ollie Robinson and some $20,000 owed by former sheriff Doug Lewis.

County Attorney Arnold Turner, Jr. said he had filed a claim for the clerk's debt with Robinson's estate and noted that a final audit of the clerk's office is due to be published soon. Lewis has already agreed to settle his debt with the court, the county attorney pointed out.

In any event, the two outstanding debts had no bearing on the fiscal court's financial crisis, Turner said, since neither sum had been anticipated in this year's budget.

The court approved payment of bills amounting to about $119,000 but balked at paying a $900 claim for pipe submitted by the Edmond Barnett Trucking Company, of Martin, when no one could say where the pipe was or if it had been used.

Magistrate Lowell Samons argued the bill should be paid, since the trucking firm had delivered the pipe to a site "behind the motel" which Judge-Executive Jerry Lafferty Jr. was said to have used as a storage area. But Magistrate DeRossett said he would not vote to pay the bill, since no one appeared to know what had happened to the delivery—described as 100 feet of 20-inch pipe—and Judge-Executive Stumbo ordered the bill struck from the list of claims to be paid this month.

A motion by Samons that "all roads" be taken into the county roads system was rejected by the judge-executive as "too broad." An alternative suggestion by Magistrate Roberts that all cemetery roads be declared county roads also died. Howell reminded the magistrates they could not lawfully work on any roads that are not part of the county roads system.

Howell cautioned the magistrates in April about using county equipment on private property, following a complaint that a county bulldozer was used to prepare house sites for a property owner on Bryant Branch, near Price.

Dye, Pikeville, drunk driving, $137.50, referred to alcoholic driver education; Russell Prince, Dwale, drunk, $47.50; Ralph L. Crager, Hueysville, drunk, $47.50.

Bingham Gains Liquor Permit, 22nd in County

The state Alcoholic Beverage Control board finally gave Fred Bingham his package liquor license but declined last week to approve Floyd county's proposed liquor regulations.

Bingham, a leader in last summer's drive to allow legal liquor sales here, is an owner of Bingham's Liquor, which shares premises with the B. and S. Market on the Auxier road.

Under its corporate name, Brothers and Sisters Ltd., the firm last week received one of 13 licenses approved by the ABC board in seven counties as a result of population growth. Bingham's wife Sharon, his brother Jeff, and Jeff Bingham's wife, Karen, are also owners of the company.

Fred Bingham was one of those who applied unsuccessfully for one of the 21 original licenses issued last December 3 and who accused the ABC board of political favoritism in granting the licenses. A grand jury later agreed that political stringpulling at both state and local levels had figured in granting the licenses but declined to hand down any indictments as a result of its investigation.

There were 27 applicants for the additional license, including Sandy Boyd, of Dana, who was chairman of last year's wet forces. Boyd was reported to have questioned why no liquor stores have been licensed on Mud Creek or Left Beaver, where the wet vote was heaviest.

Meanwhile, the ABC board turned down this county's proposed liquor regulations, Floyd ABC Administrator Denzil Allen told the fiscal court Friday. In a letter to Allen, state ABC Commissioner Ed Farris said some provisions of the Floyd proposal are in conflict with state statutes and that others go beyond the limits set by law.

Instances cited specifically by the commissioner include a reference to "good moral character" as a requirement for license applicants, the proposal to require a license for serving beer by the drink, and the freedom extended to peace officers to search any licensed premises without a search warrant.

Were the state ABC board to approve the Floyd rules, they would then become part of the state regulations and the state would be responsible for enforcing them and defending them if they were challenged, a responsibility the state board was clearly not eager to assume.

Allen and County Attorney Arnold Turner, Jr. noted that counties are permitted by law to enact regulations that are stricter than state statutes and characterized the ABC's refusal to adopt the Floyd regulations as an attempt by the state to burden the county with the sole responsibility for enforcing liquor regulations here.

For that reason, a suggestion by Farris that the provisions in the Floyd proposal be adopted by local ordinance should be rejected, Turner said. "The state has nippedick to find a reason not to approve our regulations," he said.

On Thursday, a day after Floyd county tally sheets were locked in a safe in the office of the county court clerk, Louisville Mayor Harvey Sloane requested a statewide recanvassing of Tuesday's vote—a recheck of voting machine totals.

But the possibility of a recanvass—or even the more tedious recount of each vote from the back of the voting machines—is no reason to impound the unofficial tabulation sheets, Patty Sheets, a state Board of Elections worker, told the Times last Friday.

Social Service Groups
To Compete for Funds;
Hearing Slated June 6

Social services organizations geared to providing maternal and child health services in Kentucky will be vying for federal block grant money just received by the Cabinet for Human Resources. Plans to disburse the estimated $6.8 million block grant money will be reviewed by the legislative subcommittee on maternal and child health of the Interim Joint Committee on Health and Welfare Monday, June 6, at 1 p.m. (EDT) in Room 105 of the Capitol Annex in Frankfort. Organizations such as Metabolic Services (PKU testing), Family Planning, Crippled Children, Regional Pediatrics, Level III Intensive Infant Care and Sudden Infant Death Syndrome are among the programs that could be affected by the distribution of the funds. Members of the subcommittee considering the proposed spending program include Rep. Gerta Bendl, D-Louisville (chairman); Sen. Clyde Middleton, R-Ft. Mitchell and Rep. Paul Clark, D-Louisville. Public comment on the proposed plan is encouraged and all interested citizens are urged to speak at the hearing. For additional information on the block grant hearing contact Dianna McClure with the Legislative Research Commission at (502) 564-8100.

Foster Piano Camp Set for June 5-10

The third annual week-long Stephen Collins Foster Piano Camp will be held June 5-10 at Eastern Kentucky University, Richmond.

During the week, about 30-35 high school and junior high piano students from Kentucky and surrounding states will be on campus for an intensive week of piano study, classes, and recitals along with social and recreational activities.

For further information about the camp, contact Dr. Robert Hartwell at (606) 622-3161. Other camping options for the 1983 season of the Stephen Collins Foster Music Camp include the Middle School Instrumental Camp, June 12-17; the High School Instrumental Camp, June 19-July 1, and the Vocal Camp, June 25-July 1. Further information and applications may be obtained by contacting Dr. Hartwell.

Soap Beat

Love triangle puts Geary back in groove

By Connie Passalacqua

Tony Geary is a star even to people who loathe soap operas. The "General Hospital" actor is the first "crossover" soap star — known not as a mere daytime player who "moved up" to nighttime and who just happened to get his start on a soap, but as a celebrity recognized for his work while still on a soap.

Three summers ago, Geary gained such notoriety (along with former co-star Genie Francis) that he appeared on the cover of Newsweek. This year he soloed on the cover of People. He's also the first daytime star to do a celebrity endorsement (for Members Only underwear).

But for many true soap fans, Geary's work after that glorious summer of 1980 has been a letdown. Genie Francis left the show a year and a half later, and "GH" wasn't able to come up with story lines to spotlight the talents of the actor who struggled to play the Laura-less Luke. Geary, handicapped by being inferior scripts, was under enormous pressure to prove his acting mettle.

Geary took a 13-week vacation at the beginning of this year, and since returning in early April, even nonbelievers admit he's again on the path to sented from the Congressional Country Club, Bethesda, MD. (60 min.)

Another old reliables vs. young Turks matchup can be seen on USA's Thursday Night Baseball June 9 when the Philadelphia Phillies play the St. Louis Cardinals in Philadelphia. Both teams are contenders for the National League Eastern Division championship and both are hard-hitting teams. The Phillies lean a little more toward power and the Cardinals toward speed.

If you think the playoff setup in major league baseball is complex, you should check out the 1983 College World Series, which will be covered by ESPN. The series is an eight-team double elimination tournament that can go as many as 15 games. Games 3, 4, 5 and 6 will be broadcast June 5 from Omaha, Neb.

MTV's Weekend Concert on Saturday, June 11 will feature the British band A Flock of Seagulls. AFOS is one of the more appealing bands to emerge out of the rash of British syntho-pop units. They're good-humored, wistful and sentimental. Included in the concert are two of their best songs, "I Ran" and "Wishing." Speaking of MTV, one of the most hilarious videos is Ozzy Osbourne's "Iron Man." Good old Ozzy, the man who bites the heads off live bats, stomps around the stage droning about some guy who is a living statue while various devil worship signs flash on three screens behind him. Periodically, Ozzy, who looks like a brewery worker who has a thing about leather, stops droning and shouts to his audience, "We love you." He also blows kisses like he was on stage in Vegas or Woodstock. Very touching.

Nostalgia freaks, as well as those who get a kick out of being terrified out of their wits, will be glad to hear that USA has brought back the old "Alfred Hitchcock Hour" on Saturday nights. This show, which premiered in 1962, went on to greater things. Many of the performers appearing on the series — including James Caan, Bruce Dern, Telly Savalas, Rob Reiner and Sally Kellerman — also went on to greater things. As far as suspense goes, "The Hitchcock Show" was and is, with the possible exception of the "Twilight Zone," probably the best television has done.

Ky. Fried Chicken Aids March of Dimes

Giving every baby born the healthiest possible start in life is the goal of the fifth annual Colonel Sanders Memorial "Help Change the Future" Campaign announced by Cecil and Judy Fannin, of Prestonsburg Kentucky Fried Chicken Store. "We want to do our part to help the March of Dimes combat the nation's No. 1 child health problem—birth defects," said Mrs. Fannin. "Last year, with the help of all our community-spirited people in Prestonsburg, we were able to donate over a thousand dollars to help make a better future for tomorrow's children?"

The month-long campaign in June kicks off on the Memorial Day weekend. Participating Kentucky Fried Chicken stores will donate 10 cents from every chicken menu item sold to the March of Dimes. Throughout June, stores will display a special collection canister in which patrons will be urged to donate their change to "Help Change the Future".

According to Debra M. Massengale, executive director of the Goldenrod Chapter, "the monies raised to go to support March of Dimes programs in medical services, research, and education, both nationally and locally".

The March of Dimes Birth Defects Foundation was established in 1938 by President Franklin Delano Roosevelt to wipe out poliomyelitis. It is the only voluntary health organization to achieve its goal. In 1958, the March of Dimes rededicated its effort to eradicating birth defects.

Colonel Harland Sanders, founder of Kentucky Fried Chicken, was devoted to the March of Dimes and worked tirelessly to raise funds to assure every child a healthy start in life. The Colonel Sanders Memorial Campaign continues his fight against birth defects.

Advice on Animal Bites

Highlands Regional Medical Center and Our Lady of the Way Hospital each have a physician in the emergency room 24 hours a day. There are, however, some steps that can be taken by individuals in emergency situations which can help further insure complete recovery. One such situation is an incident involving an animal or human bite.

Animal bites can result in serious infections as well as tissue damage. Many animals, including rats, skunks, squirrels, raccoons, foxes, and dogs, can transmit rabies. Yet another danger is tetanus.

The wound should be thoroughly cleaned with soap and water for at least five minutes and then covered with a sterile bandage or clean cloth. Medical attention is essential.

Any animal which has bitten someone should be caught and confined so that it may be watched for rabies. Don't kill the animal unless it is absolutely necessary; however, if it is necessary to kill the animal, try to avoid damaging the animal's head. Save the body for examination by health department officials. If the animal cannot be captured, remember physical characteristics so that it can be identified at a later time.

Human bites are also extremely dangerous because of the oral bacteria that may contaminate the wound. The human bite should be treated just as an animal bite. It is also important to seek medical attention in this case.

If there are any doubts about treatment for the wound, please contact the Highlands Regional Medical Center emergency department at 886-8511 or the Our Lady of the Way Hospital emergency department at 285-5181.

LOUISA BULL DOGS DEFEAT RUSSELL

Louisa, Ky., Oct. 1.—Led by Parsons, 104-pound quarterback, the Louisa Bull Dogs defeated Russell here Saturday afternoon by a score of 12 to 0.

In a series of line bucks and end runs, Louisa twice carried the ball to Russell's 10-yard line but the half ended 0 to 0. In the third quarter Louisa's attack carried them within one yard of Russell's goal, and a moment later Miller crashed through the heavy line of the visitors for the first touchdown. A placement kick for the extra point was unsuccessful.

In the final quarter, after a series of drives, Wooten squirmed through the Russell defense for a second touchdown. Miller added the extra point with a short run around the end.

The entire game was played in Russell's territory, except for a few minutes in the second quarter, when Gilley carried the ball to Louisa's forty-yard line.

Mr. and Mrs. John Branham had as their guests to dinner Sunday Mr. and Mrs. W. J. May, Mrs. Mary D. Allen, Mrs. Belle Richmond, and Mr. A. J. Davidson.

ORDINANCE NO. 01, 1983
 AN ORDINANCE OF THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF MARTIN, KENTUCKY, PROVIDING FOR THE ADVERTISEMENT AND SALE OF A FRANCHISE AUTHORIZING THE OWNER THEREOF TO OWN, MAINTAIN, CONSTRUCT AND OPERATE ELECTRIC POWER TRANSMISSION AND DISTRIBUTION LINES UPON, ALONG, OVER AND UNDER THE STREETS, THOROUGHFARES, ALLEYS, SIDEWALKS, BRIDGES, PUBLIC PLACES OF SAID CITY.

WHEREAS, the City of Martin, Floyd County, Kentucky, is incorporated under the provisions of the Kentucky Revised Statutes, and desires to grant a franchise for an electric power company to own, maintain, construct and operate its electric power transmission and distribution lines upon, along, over and under the streets, thoroughfares, alleys, sidewalks, bridges, public ways and other public places of the City of Martin, Floyd County, Kentucky, and

WHEREAS, there exists a public necessity for adequate service of electric power and energy to the citizens of the City of Martin, Floyd County, Kentucky, and

WHEREAS, it appears that it is to the interest of the public that a franchise be advertised and sold, granting and entitling the grantee to use the streets, thoroughfares, alleys, sidewalks, bridges, public ways and public places for the erection, operation and maintenance of lines for the transmission and distribution of electric power to the citizens of the City of Martin, Floyd County, Kentucky, and to persons, firms and corporations beyond the limits of the City of Martin, Floyd County, Kentucky.

THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF MARTIN, FLOYD COUNTY, KENTUCKY, DOES ORDAIN AS FOLLOWS:

SECTION 1

That there be sold at public auction to the highest and best bidder, the franchise, privilege, right and authority to acquire, maintain, construct and operate in, above, under, across and along the streets, thoroughfares, alleys, sidewalks, bridges, public ways and other public places (as the same now exist or may hereafter be laid out) of the City of Martin, Floyd County, Kentucky, lines, poles and equipment for the distribution of electric energy, either by means of overhead or underground conductors, with all the necessary or desirable appurtenances for the purpose of supplying electric energy to said City and the inhabitants thereof, and persons and corporations beyond the limits thereof, for light, heat, power, and any other purpose or purposes for which electric energy is now or may hereafter be used, and for the transmission of the same within, through or across said City.

SECTION 2

Said lines and appurtenances shall be constructed so as to interfere as little as possible with the traveling public in its use of the streets, thoroughfares, alleys, sidewalks, bridges, public ways and public places.

SECTION 3

The franchise, privilege, right and authority shall be in full force and effect for a period of twenty (20) years from the date of the passage of the ordinance granting it.

SECTION 4

The grantee of this franchise shall save the City harmless from any and all liability arising in any way from negligence of the grantee in the erection, maintenance or operation of said lines and appurtenances.

SECTION 5

The grantee of this franchise shall have the right and privilege to take up such portion or part of any pavement and make such excavation in the streets, thoroughfares, alleys, sidewalks, bridges, public ways and other public places of the City of Martin as may be deemed necessary for the construction and maintenance of its lines, wires or cables, but whenever the grantee of this franchise shall begin the erection or other equipment, it shall promptly and diligently prosecute the work to completion and leave the streets, thoroughfares, alleys, sidewalks, bridges, public ways and other public places where such work is done in as good condition of repair as before such work was commenced.

SECTION 6

Wherever in this franchise either the City of Martin or the grantee thereof is referred to, it shall be deemed to include the respective successors and assigns of either, and all rights, privileges and obligations contained in this franchise shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of, the respective successors and assigns of said City and said grantee, whether so expressed or not.

SECTION 7

The grantee of this franchise may make such rules and regulations, covering the furnishing of said electric energy, as may be fair and reasonable and consistent with the standard practice of the grantee. Said grantee may charge such rates for electric services as shall be fair and reasonable. The said grantee shall render service under said franchise of like quality, that is, adequate, efficient and reasonable, to that now being rendered to said City.

SECTION 8

The consideration paid by the successful bidder for the franchise, privilege, right and authority provided for herein shall be complete compensation and consideration for said franchise, privilege, right and authority, and for the use and occupancy of the streets, thoroughfares, alleys, sidewalks, bridges, public ways and other public places of the City, in lieu of any street or alley rental or of any charge for the use or occupancy of said streets, thoroughfares, alleys, sidewalks, bridges, public ways or other public places of said City, and in lieu of any pole tax or meter tax.

SECTION 9

Johnnie B. Stephens, City Clerk of the City of Martin, Floyd County, Kentucky, is hereby appointed Special Commissioner to sell said franchise, privilege, right and authority hereby ordered sold, and said Special Commissioner is directed to offer said franchise for sale at public auction and shall sell same to the highest bidder at the front door of the City Building in Martin, Kentucky at 2:00 p.m., on June 2, 1983, after she has advertised the time, terms, conditions and place of sale, pursuant to law, by inserting a notice of sale in the Floyd County Times, Prestonsburg, Kentucky, a newspaper of general circulation in Martin, Floyd County, Kentucky, once a week for three (3) consecutive weeks prior to the date of said sale, said advertisement to include this Ordinance.

SECTION 10

Bids and proposals for the purchase and acquisition of the franchise, privilege, right and authority hereby granted shall be in writing and shall be delivered to the Mayor upon the date and at the time fixed by the Special Commissioner in said advertising for receiving bids. Thereafter, the Special Commissioner shall report and submit to the City Council at the time and place of its next regular meeting said bids and proposals for its approval, and said City Council reserves the right for and on behalf of the City of Martin to refuse any and all bids for said franchise, privilege, right and authority. In the event the bids reported by the Special Commissioner shall be refused by the said City Council, it may direct, by resolution or ordinance, said franchise, privilege, right and authority to be again offered for sale from time to time, until a satisfactory bid therefor shall be received and approved. Each bid shall be accompanied by a deposit, and each bidder shall post bond in accordance with the provisions and requirements of KRS 96.020. However, such deposit and bond need not be made by a corporation or person already owning in or adjacent to the City of Martin, Floyd County, Kentucky, a plant and equipment sufficient to render the service required by this Ordinance.

SECTION 11

Each bidder for said franchise, privilege, right and authority shall file, as a part of his bid, a certified copy of a Certificate of Convenience and Necessity from the Public Service Commission of Kentucky, issued under the authority of KRS 278.020(3).

SECTION 12

This Ordinance granting this franchise shall be accepted by the grantee thereof within sixty (60) days from the date of its passage.

APPROVED, this 5th day of May, 1983.

Any corporation, association, body politic or person may by motion within thirty (30) days after publication of the proposed rate changes request leave to intervene. That motion shall be submitted to the Public Service Commission, 730 Schenkel Lane, P.O. Box 615, Frankfort, Kentucky 40602, and shall set forth the grounds for request including the statistic and interest of the party. The intervenors may obtain copies of the application and testimonies by contacting the Auxier Road Gas Company, Inc., P.O. Box 785, Prestonsburg, Kentucky 41653, where a copy of Application and Testimonies will be available for public inspection during normal business hours. 6-1-3t.

NOTICE OF INTENTION TO MINE

Pursuant to Application Number 836-5012

In accordance with the provisions of KRS 350.055, notice is hereby given that L & H Coal Co., Route 1, Honaker, Ky., 41639, has filed an application for a permit for an underground mining operation. The proposed operation will affect a surface disturbance of 2.5 acres and will underlie an additional 84.5 acres located 1.2 miles Southeast of Dana in Floyd county.

The proposed operation is approximately, 0.7 mile from Justice Branch Road junction with State Route 1426 and located 0.75 mile south of Prater Creek. The latitude is 37° 32' 15". Longitude is 82° 41' 01".

The proposed operation is located on the Harold U.S.G.S. 7 1/2 minute quadrangle map. The surface area to be disturbed is owned by Charley Akers, Dana, Ky. and Liney Boyd, Dana, Ky. The operation will underlie land owned by Liney Boyd, Dana, Ky. and Mont Gibson, Dana, Ky.

The application has been filed for public inspection at the Department for Surface Mining Reclamation and Enforcement's Prestonsburg Regional Office in Prestonsburg, Ky. Written comments, objections, or requests for a permit conference must be filed with the Director of the Division of Permits, 6th Floor, Capital Plaza Tower, Frankfort, Kentucky 40601. 4-6-tf.

NOTICE

Mike Little Gas Company, Melvin, Kentucky, has filed with the Public Service Commission its application and notice to increase its retail and natural rates to:

First 1 MCF per month, $7.00
 Minimum Bill

All over 1 MCF per month, $5.52 per MCF

The rates proposed amount to approximately an increase of 13% or $6.48 to the average customer per month, and would increase the utilities income by 13%.

The Public Service Commission has scheduled a hearing on June 9, 1983, at 10:00 A.M. EDT in the Commissions offices at Frankfort, Kentucky to consider the request.

The rates contained in this notice are rates proposed by Mike Little Gas Company. However, the Public Service Commission may order rates to be charged that differ from these rates. Such action may result in rates for consumers other than the rates included in this notice.

Any corporation, association, body politic or person may request leave to intervene by motion within thirty (30) days after the date of this notice. Said motion to intervene shall be submitted to the Public Service Commission, 730 Schenkel Lane, Box 615, Frankfort, Kentucky, setting forth the grounds for the request and the status and interest of the party.

A copy of the application is available for inspection and that copies of the application may be obtained by each intervenor in this proceeding by contacting Mike Little Gas Company, Inc., Box 69, Melvin, Kentucky 41650. 5-18-4t.

Governor's Race in the 7th

Martha Layne Collins' voter-appeal even in her opponents' strongholds—that and Grady Stumbo's inroads into Harvey Sloane's Louisville-Jefferson county citadel—in large part accounted for her victory in the May 24 Democratic gubernatorial primary.

An example of her wide appeal was reflected in the Seventh district returns. Although Grady Stumbo rolled up a big lead in this, his home district, Mrs. Collins had a majority in nine of the district's 23 counties. Dr. Sloane led in only two.

Seventh district counties which on the unofficial returns turned in Collins leads included Bath, Fleming, Lewis, Mason, Menifee, Morgan, Powell, Rowan and Wolfe. Sloane led in Breathitt and Magoffin.

Among the Stumbo counties—Floyd, Boyd, Carter, Elliott, Greenup, Johnson, Knott, Lawrence, Letcher, Martin, Perry and Pike—Floyd was the "banner" county with 70 percent of the vote for him. The unofficial returns indicate that Knott county barely exceeded Pike in support of Stumbo, with his vote in Knott being slightly above 64 per cent to 63%-plus in Pike.

The unofficial vote in the 23 counties:

| | Collins | Sloane | Stumbo |
|-----------|---------|--------|--------|
| Bath | 1,467 | 1,047 | 497 |
| Boyd | 1,564 | 1,147 | 5,012 |
| Breathitt | 2,147 | 2,324 | 1,718 |
| Carter | 802 | 529 | 1,630 |

Dr. Helm Participates In Methodist Centennial

Dr. J.M. Helm, of Titusville, Florida, who served as pastor of the First United Methodist Church here from 1930 to 1934, arrived here Friday to participate in the Centennial celebration of the church. Friday evening, he was entertained to dinner at May Lodge by a group of friends, Mesdames Margaret Alley, Virginia Jeffries, May K. Roberts, and Victoria Spradlin, and Misses Elsie and Linda Stephens, and Maurine Mayo. During his visit here, Dr. Helm spent Saturday visiting many of his former church members, who are now shut-ins. Saturday evening, he was a dinner guest of Dr. and Mrs. Ted Nicholas, at the church parsonage, and later attended the Beverly Terrell concert and the reception which followed. Dr. Helm participated in the Sunday morning worship services, and enjoyed the dinner on the grounds there, following the services. While here, he was warmly received by his many friends in the church and community. Upon leaving Prestonsburg in 1934, Dr. Helm began a long ministry in the West Virginia Conference. He served churches in Fairmont, Beckley, Bluefield, and Wheeling, and for six years was superintendent of the Huntington District, with 116 churches under his ministry. He was for seven years executive director of the Board of Hospitals and Homes of the state of W. Va. and retired in 1968, after having completed 44 years in the ministry. He and his wife, Kathryn, now live in Titusville, Florida.

P'burg Woman's Club Plans '83 Program

Mrs. Elizabeth Ramey, president of the Prestonsburg Woman's Club, held a meeting for officers and committee chairmen at the K.E.A. office here, last Thursday to formulate plans for the club year, 1983-84. It was decided that a membership tea and open-house would be held shortly before the club's September meeting. Programs for the year were outlined, and work was done toward the publication of the club's yearbook.

Mrs. Ramey expressed the hope that the club will have as a project during her tenure of office the planting of pink and white dogwood trees alongside the roads leading into Prestonsburg.

Mrs. Ramey reminded the group that four new members, Mesdames Judy Kittle, Barbara Dawson, Pat Necessary, and Honey May, were added to the Prestonsburg Woman's Club during the past year, and that four others, Mesdames Beatrice Collins, Sally Goebel, Dorothy Burke, and Lucille Davis would become honorary clubwomen at the beginning of the 1983-84 year.

The president presented the following list of committees for the coming year, with the first name on each list denoting the chairman: Arts and Crafts: Mesdames Clyde Burchett, Keith G. Kittle, Dorothy Burke, James D. Adams, and Garland Godsey; Music: Mesdames Chalmer Frazier and Tom James, and Miss Betty Rowland; Literature and Drama: Mesdames Ronald Johnson, T.O. McGuire, Zella Archer, and Miss Alice Harris; Conservation: Mesdames John K. Piitts, Clyde George, and Rebecca Rasnick; Garden: Mesdames L.B. Fairchild, Barbara Dawson, E.L. Bierman, Pauline Burchett, and Maman Leslie; Education: Mesdames Marshall Davidson, Blaine Hall, Charles Johnson, and Leo Weddle; Home Life: Mesdames Gorman Collins, Sr., Richard Martin, Hubbard Francis, and George L. Shannon; Spiritual Life: Mesdames Fannie Rannels, Grace Sutherland, and Lucy Regan; Public Affairs: Mesdames D.L. Brown, Edgar Osborne, Greg Stumbo, Woodrow Burchett, and Edward B. Leslie; International Affairs: Mesdames Jess Stover, John Allen, and Henry Curtis; Historian: Mrs. Gordon Moore; Parliamentarian: Mrs. Ora Bussey; Auditor: Mrs. Paul Combs; Finance: Mesdames Clarence Traum, Fred Harris, Bill Pettrey, Ditty Tackett, Misses Christine Spradlin and Ethel Burke; Yearbook: Mesdames Walter Snavely, Rex Ankrom, and Randy Burchett; Membership: Mesdames Calvin Herrick, Pete Jarvis, Lucille Nunnery, Barbara Dawson, Larry Leslie, James Donahoe, and William O. Goebel, Sr.; Publicity: Mesdames Carl Woods, Leonard Grant, and Zella Archer. Telephone: Mesdames Robert Burchett, James Donahoe, Jim Necessary, Beatrice Collins, Russell May, Robert Rennick, Edgar Osborne, and Ditty Tackett.

The hostess, Miss Betty Rowland, served refreshments to Mesdames Elizabeth Ramey, Carolyn Traum, Docia Woods, Helen Ankrom, Arnita Snavely and Dorothy Harris.

Miss Evans, Mr. Stanfield Exchange Vows

The marriage of Miss Karen Lynne Evans, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Evans, Sr., of Prestonsburg, and Mr. Ronald Edward Stanfield, son of Mrs. Marty Stanfield, of Paris, Ky., and the late Mr. Henry Stanfield, took place on April 23 at 2:30 p.m. in the sanctuary of the First Baptist Church in Prestonsburg. The candlelit, double-ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Ira McMillen, Jr., former pastor of the First Baptist Church and presently pastor at the Greenview Baptist Church of Florence, Ky.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore an empire-styled gown of white chiffon overlaid with lace and seed pearls with matching fingertip lace veil. She carried a bouquet of white roses and baby's breath on a Bible from Jerusalem which was given to her by her mother. Her only jewelry was a strand of pearls, a gift from the groom.

The soloist was Dr. Randall Wells, of Morehead, whose selections included "I Love You So", "You and I," "Whither Thou Goest," and The Lord's Prayer. The organist, Mrs. Alice Gray Buchanan, and pianist, Mr. David Leslie, played a selection of favorite songs of the bride and groom.

The church was decorated with white roses, baby's breath, trailing spring greenery and candelabra.

The matron of honor, Mrs. Bill Tom Goble, cousin of the bride, of Prestonsburg, and the bridesmaids, Mrs. Patrick Murphy, of New York City, Miss Martha McVey, of Lexington, and Mrs. Glenn Jones, of Lexington, wore empire-styled gowns of coral seeded voile with a strip of baby's breath in their hair. Each carried a long-stemmed white rose.

Mr. Carl Abney, of Winchester, was best man, and ushers were Mr. Phillip Price, of Royal Oak, Mich., Mr. Bill Tom Goble, of Prestonsburg, and Mr. Glenn Jones, of Lexington.

Miss Melody Stanfield, of Paris, was flower girl, and Master Brandon Stanfield, also of Paris, was ringbearer.

The mother of the bride wore a gown of deep rose with a white orchid. The mother of the groom chose a gown of sapphire blue and also wore a white orchid. The bride's grandmother, Mrs. Lillia Mae Price, wore a mauve dress and a white orchid.

Guests were registered by Mrs. David Evans and Mrs. Michael Spradlin. The reception in the church annex was held immediately following the ceremony, and was catered by Mrs. Doug Hyden, Mrs. James Stout, Mrs. Gene Stanley, and Mrs. Carol Holland.

IN MEMORIAM

In memory of our Mom who passed away Feb. 6, 1981 Mae W. Akers.

We loved Mommy but the angels loved you more. They came and took you to that bright and shining shore.

We never thought death was so near. Mommy, I know heaven is real and your home is new and you are free at last to roam through. I know you are waiting our start that will bring our eternal visit on high where we will never more die. There'll be no more pain or tears for Jesus will wipe them away as we enter to share our new home and visit with you there. We think of you in silence. Your name is often called, but you are not here to answer—just a picture with us all.

Sadly missed by Dad, children and grandchildren 1t.

Usually, high blood pressure will not go away, or be cured. You need to stay on your doctor's treatment. Every day. Do not stop your treatment unless the doctor says to stop. Be sure of what the doctor says.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of Darrel Roger Slone's birthday, May 31, 1945. I cannot say and I will not say that he is dead—he is just away! With a cheery smile and a wave of the hand, he has wandered into an unknown land, and left us dreaming how very fair it needs must be since he lingers there. So think of him faring on as dear in the love of there as the love of here. Think of him still as the same, I say. He is not dead, he is just away! WIFE, VINA, AND BOYS 1t-pd.

A GRAVELY TRACTOR TILLS, PLOWS, CULTIVATES AND MOWS.

A REAR-TINE TILLER JUST TILLS. Why buy a rear-tine tiller that spends most of its time just taking up space when you could have a Gravelly tractor that will handle all of your lawn and garden chores. Summer and Winter... with other attachments like mowers, snowblowers, power brushes, utility carts and dozer blades.

SPECIAL OFFER. Now during our special sale you get, absolutely free, your choice of one of six attachments with the purchase of a new Gravelly 2-wheel tractor. Choose a 30", 40", 50" rotary mower, a rotary plow, a rotary cultivator or a toolholder with tools. Any one of them will add versatility to your Gravelly 2-wheel tractor. Come see the Gravelly 2-wheel tractor. But hurry, the free attachment offer ends soon. Offer valid on new equipment only. At participating Gravelly Dealers.

Win C. "Ollie" Robinson Softball Tourney

Hilltop, sponsored by Morris Isaac, of Martin, won the tourney after first being beaten by the Free Spirit team from Letcher county. Hilltop's loss required the team to come back and beat Free Spirit twice, which they did in the tourney's finals. Free Spirit accepted the trophy for second place and the third spot went to Layne's Auto Parts, of Pike county. Most Valuable Infielder award went to Cindy Arnold, of Free Spirit, while Candy Potter, of Layne's Auto Parts was awarded Most Valuable Outfielder.

A clock radio, donated by East Kentucky Beverage Company, was won by George Isaac, of Martin during a drawing. Sunday and a Wilson softball glove which was raffled went to Georgena Hall, of Banner.

Held as a tribute to the late C. "Ollie" Robinson, the women's field at Archer Park was also named in honor of the late Floyd County Court Clerk during a special dedication ceremony, Sunday. Rev. Taylor Biggs spoke at the ceremony which was also attended by members of Mr. Robinson's family, Prestonsburg Mayor Harold Cooley, Park Board Chairman Roy Roberts and board members Marthann Damron and Lois May.

Award Winner

The United States Achievement Academy announced today that Lucreasie Reed has been named a 1983 United States National Award in History and Government.

Miss Reed, who attends Prestonsburg High School was nominated for this national award by Alleen Brown, an American History teacher at the school. Miss Reed will appear in the United States Achievement Academy Official Yearbook, published nationally.

She is the daughter of Lendon and Flo Reed. The grandparents are Eulah Reed, and the late Greely Reed, of Elsie and Mary Thornsberry, and the late Elmo Thornsberry, of Kite.

Coon Drag Scheduled

The Floyd County Fish and Game Club will sponsor a coon drag at John's Branch, Sunday, June 5. Everyone is welcome.

Asks Information On Lost Coonhound

A male black and tan coonhound was lost recently between Allen and Martin. Anyone who has seen him or knows his whereabouts is asked to call 874-2709.

Rookie of the Year

Sammy Smith, a freshman baseball player at Alice Lloyd College, has just been named Rookie of the Year in spring connection at ALC. Smith was the number one catcher as a freshman and hit .321 on the year. He led the Eagles in homeruns and was fourth on the team in RBI's.

During the season, Smith had two dramatic, bottom-of-the-seventh-inning homeruns to win ballgames for the Eagles. Bill Melton, head baseball coach at ALC, indicated that Smith's average was climbing at the end of the year and that he was consistently hitting with power late in the season. Melton has referred to Smith as the most upbeat player on the team. "Sammy always has a positive attitude and influences other players in a positive manner. In addition, Sammy could always be counted on to provide timely hitting for the Eagles. We are very happy to have Sammy with us and look forward to his second year at ALC," the coach said.

Smith is a former Wheelwright High School athlete.

$200 Reward

I will pay a reward of $200 for information leading to the recovery of a Smith & Wesson .38 special revolver stolen from my home on April 25, 1983, including information leading to the arrest and conviction of the person or persons who stole the weapon. Description of revolver follows: Serial No. 1501005, Model No. 36-1, five-shot, three-inch barrel, blue, small rosewood handles.

NORTH HOMEMAKERS ENJOY DINNER

The North Prestonsburg Homemakers enjoyed a potluck dinner, at the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Ramey, Tuesday, May 17, at 6 p.m. Following the dinner, the president, Mrs. Mabel Allen, presided at the business session. Mrs. Frances Pitts presented the lesson on "Picture Matting and Framing," and announced that the county-wide Homemakers' meeting would be held at Fellowship Hall of the First United Methodist Church, September 28.

Present for the dinner meeting were Frances Pitts, June Adams, Thelma Wallen, Mabel Allen, Christine Spradlin, and the hostess, Elizabeth Ramey.

GUESTS OVER WEEKEND

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Worland had with them for the Centennial celebration at the First United Methodist Church last weekend, their family, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Worland, II, and four children, of Edgewood, and Mrs. Rose Caudill, and son, Morris, of Lexington.

WEEKEND GUESTS

Mr. and Mrs. William J. Baird, III, of Pikeville, were here last weekend for a visit with her mother, Mrs. May K. Roberts, and attended the program given at the First United Methodist Church, and the dinner which followed.

Ninth Birthday

Rhonda Jo Goble, daughter of Joe and Billie Goble, of Cow Creek, celebrated her ninth birthday, May 19 at her home. A Smurfette cake and ice cream were served to friends and relatives. She is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. E.J. Goble, of Cow Creek and Mrs. Fannie Franklin, of Paintsville. Celebrating with her and her parents were Mary Alice Goble, Pauline and Woodrow Jarvis, David Benjamin and Sally Maynard, Beth Ann Ramey, John Goble and Hattie Jarrell, Ruby Goble, Veninda Goble, and Zina and Burnis Goble. She received many nice gifts.

Annual Boys' State In Session, June 5-10

About 300 high school boys from throughout Kentucky will set up the boy capital of the Commonwealth on the Eastern Kentucky University campus, June 1-7, with the 44th annual Bluegrass Boys' State, sponsored by the Kentucky Department of the American Legion.

Boys' State is a mythical 51st state government and a week-long lesson in civics in which candidates of two parties politick for executive, legislative, and judicial offices. The winners will simulate the operation of the Kentucky General Assembly and the offices of the Governor and his cabinet, plus a court system and municipal and county governments.

The high school boys are selected to attend Boys' State on the basis of their leadership and scholastic ability by the more than 385 Kentucky Legion posts.

The participants will hold primary elections and a general election. The 1983 Boys' State governor and other top elected state officials will visit their counterparts in Frankfort, and the local elected officials will visit their counterparts in Richmond.

Senator Benny Ray Bailey Thanks Voters

I would like to take this opportunity to thank the people of Floyd County for their support during the last election. By unofficial returns, we received more votes, 9,000, this time and a higher percentage, 48%, than we did in 1979, and I'm most grateful to the voters for this vote of confidence.

I will continue to stay in contact with you, solicit your input into state government decisions and try and assist with any problems brought to my attention. Thank you again for your continued support, and I will stay in touch.

Benny Ray Bailey

It's later than you think!

The Floyd-Johnson County Residential Bond Program is great...for the homeowner and the community. But unfortunately, the clock started to run down on the very day it became available. All funds must be committed by early 1984. There's no guarantee that there will be future bond issues, and even if there are, rates may never be this low again.

Even if you've been told by another institution that you don't qualify, come in and discuss your plans with one of our experienced professional mortgage loan officers. They'll work together with your plans to try and help you qualify. Experience counts...and during the last bond issue we helped make home ownerships a reality for more applicants than all other Floyd County lenders combined.

Wildlife Should Survive Rain

Although Kentucky's cold, wet spring has ruined a lot of weekend fishing trips, the long-range effects of all this water on fish populations should be positive. Generally, spawning success and survival rates are good during rainy years, according to Ted Crowell, assistant director of fisheries for the Department of Fish and Wildlife Resources.

High water levels during the spawning season provide good hiding places for the newly hatched fry, which leads to a high survival rate, Crowell says. Flooded areas also provide nutrients which increase the basic fertility of the water. This in turn promotes the growth of plankton and gives the entire food chain of the lake a boost.

We should also expect a good crop of gizzard and threadfin shad this year. These fish, which deposit their eggs on floating debris, represent an important source of food for game fish, so a good spawn of shad will mean more bass, crappie and bluegill several years from now.

With many lakes at or near their maximum storage capacity, it will take a month or more for the waters to recede to summer pool levels. This slow fall should prolong favorable conditions for fish spawning and survival.

This spring's persistent heavy rains will have some effect on wildlife production also, but biologists don't expect any long-term ill effects on any of our game species.

While quail nests in low-lying areas have been destroyed by high waters and although some young chicks probably didn't survive bouts of cold wet weather, adult birds should have come through without any major problems and will re-nest.

Later broods will probably have a better survival rate than those which hatch early in the season, so the over-all effects of our unusual weather on population levels shouldn't be too noticeable.

Rabbits breed all summer, so any early mortality from flooding or chilling should be compensated for later in the season. About the only game species that might be adversely affected is wild turkey. Last year, a cold, wet spring was followed by low reproduction and the same could be true this year.

But again, the adult birds should survive without any problems, so any setbacks that do occur should be temporary. Usually, in nature's way of doing things, a year or two of poor reproduction is followed by a bumper crop, so we'll just have to be patient and learn to roll with the punches that the weather deals out—the same way that wildlife has learned to cope with all kinds of natural adversity.

ACHS Freshmen Room Has Best Attendance

The freshman homeroom of Mrs. Lema Cooley has earned the honor of being "Homeroom of the Month" at Allen Central High School by attaining the highest percentage of attendance for the eighth school month. Mrs. Cooley's consistent efforts in encouraging her homeroom students to better attendance have kept her attendance percentages near the top throughout the year.

Members of the homeroom were awarded Druther's food coupons, courtesy of Mr. and Mrs. Greg Slusher, of Martin, whose support has been greatly appreciated throughout this school year.

Members of the winning homeroom include Jerry Allen, Kathy Bailey, Tonya Bailey, Paul Baker, Frank M. Baldridge, Andrea Barnette, Mike Bentley, Susie Bentley, Willis Bentley, Roger Bevins, Pam Bradley, Joanna Branham, Kim Brown, Virginia Bryant, Vanessa Burke, Walt Carroll, Dee Chaffins, Patricia Chaffins, Sheridan Chaffins, Wallace Chaffins, Bill Cobb, Michelle Cole, Dale Slone, Pam Baldridge, Rodney Brown, Clinton Clatworthy, and Kathy Stephens.

FLOYD COUNTY HEALTH NEWS

By JANE BOND
Health Educator

Rabies is a disease caused by a virus, which is transmitted through the saliva of an infected animal. The usual method of infection is for a rabid animal to bite another animal or a person, but any open cut or scratch may be the point of infection.

Generally, the rabies virus is not found on an animal's claw, since the virus is soon made harmless by sunlight or open air.

Once the virus is in the body, it attacks the central nervous system. Rabies is an agonizingly painful disease and is almost always fatal.

Any warm-blooded animal can have rabies, but infected dogs and cats are much more likely to expose people than infected wildlife. Children are more at risk than adults since they are more likely to have pet animals.

It is for these reasons that Kentucky requires that dogs and cats be vaccinated against rabies. It is each pet owner's responsibility to make sure that his animal has been vaccinated. The Floyd County Health Department is co-sponsoring the Anti-Rabies Clinics with Dr. Beecher Scutchfield, starting Tuesday, June 7.

NUMBER OF SENIORS INCREASING

The number of older Americans continues to soar. Thanks to good nutrition and advances in medical care, there are now more than 25,000,000 Americans who top 65 years of age and that number increases with each year.

Soap Beat

By Connie Passalacqua

When NBC picked up "Search for Tomorrow" 18 months ago after its 30-year run on CBS, the network hoped that the ratings of the moderately low-rated soap would improve. Instead, they've worsened.

The only hope of staving off cancellation now seems to lie with the innovations brought by the show's new executive producer, Joanna Lee, who joined the show in early April.

Although Miss Lee has no previous daytime drama experience, she has been cited for her excellent work on nighttime shows. She won a 1974 Emmy for best writing of a dramatic episode — "Thanksgiving" on "The Waltons." She's also produced, directed and written several TV movies.

Miss Lee doesn't approve of the subject matter of some recent "SFT" plot lines such as art thefts, laundered money and the events revolving around a plane crash in a South American forest.

"Women are not interested in that. They want love and romance, things which naturally evolve in real people's lives," she says.

Miss Lee plans to use the most of the natural talents of the actors playing "SFT's" characters. The talented Marie Cheatham, who plays Stephanie Wyatt, has been ignored the last few years, while story lines revolved around the show's younger characters. But Miss-Lee plans to make the most of Miss Cheatham's comic flair.

Tina Johnson, who played dizzy but endearing Lurlene on "Texas," has recently been hired to play Stephanie's sidekick, country singer Rhinda Rue Huckaby. Stephanie is slated to have a scandalous older woman-younger man romance with sportscaster Steve Kendall, played by newly hired "hunk" Phil Brown.

She is also changing the rather goody-goody character of Stephanie's daughter Wendy into a villainess. "Isn't Lisa Peluso (who plays Wendy) absolutely gorgeous?" raves Miss Lee. "We're going to make her into the Joan Collins of daytime."

Will there be a tomorrow for "Search"? Joanna Lee thinks so.

Ask Kate

By Kate Woods

I've heard that Robert Guillaume has a beautiful singing voice. Why doesn't he sing more? — M.L.

You heard correctly. TV's Benson has belted a tune or two a number of times on talk shows and specials. This month, during the show's hiatus, he's opening as a singer for Alan King in concert.

WHOLLY MOSES — Everybody thinks of Charlton Heston as Moses, but didn't Burt Lancaster once play the Old Testament figure? If so, in what picture? — C.G.

Lancaster lead the Exodus out of Egypt in the CBS miniseries, "Moses, the Law Giver," which first aired during the summer of 1975.

UMW Takes Credit For Stumbo Lead In Two Districts

The United Mine Workers in Kentucky say they showed that they're still a force to be reckoned with in state politics, even though their candidate failed to capture the Democratic nomination for governor in the May 24 primary election.

Through block voting, the state's more than 28,000 mine workers solidly carried both of Kentucky's coalfield congressional districts and 12 of the state's 13 coal counties for Dr. Grady Stumbo.

"When we endorse a candidate it means something. We deliver our votes," Charlie Head, Kentucky coordinator of COMPAC, the mine workers' political action committee, said.

"Every UMWA family that cast its votes for Grady should feel proud, not sorry. Our performance clearly shows that general election candidates will have to pay us close attention because we vote in a block," Head said.

The mineworkers take credit for carrying the First and Seventh U.S. Congressional Districts in west and east Kentucky.

Matt Miller, national COMPAC administrator, attributed the strong mineworker turnout to the UMWA's new teamwork concept and a well-coordinated effort by local unions, the state's three UMWA districts and the International union.

HOSTESS TO KIWANIANNES

Mrs. Carolyn Ford was hostess at her home last Thursday, to a luncheon for the members of the Prestonsburg Kiwanians. Following the luncheon, Mrs. Garnett Fairchild, president, held a short business session. It was announced that during the recent Heart Clinic held at the Floyd County Health Department, 55 adults and 95 children received heart examinations. The Kiwanians, in cooperation with the Kiwanians here, furnished food, during the clinic.

Mrs. Ford invited the group to attend the ice cream social, Saturday at the First Presbyterian Church.

Members made contributions toward sending the Presbyterian Youth group to the church's General Assembly in Atlanta in June.

The group welcomed Mrs. Abby Grant and Mrs. Margaret as new members.

The hostess, Mrs. Carolyn Ford, was assisted by Mrs. Vera Ford and Miss Kelli Ford in serving lunch to Mesdames Margaret Collins, Abby Grant, Garnett Fairchild, Mary Lou Layne, May K. Roberts, Myrtle Davis, Docia Woods, Virginia Shivel, Sally Goebel, Anna May Mellon, Thelma Music, Stella Spurlock, Margaret Alley, Dorothy Osborne, Myrtle Allen, and Ortha Meece.

The next luncheon-meeting will be held Thursday, June 23, at 12:30 p.m.

Elected to Who's Who

Teresa Renee Moore was elected to "Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges," in recognition of outstanding merit and accomplishments as a student at Morehead State University.

She was an honor graduate of Allen Central High School, where she was a Beta Club member. She was also an honor student at Alice Lloyd College and Morehead State University where she was named the outstanding senior medical technologist in the spring of 1982.

The daughter of Curtis and Betty Moore, of Garrett, she is now serving an internship in medical technology at the Appalachian Regional Hospital in Beckley, West Virginia. She expects to return to Floyd county after completing her internship in August.

Elderhostel Sessions Slated at Morehead

More than 80 elder citizens from across the nation will learn about Appalachian history, literature and folk culture this summer during two week-long Elderhostel sessions at Morehead State University.

Scheduled June 19-25 and July 10-16, the Elderhostel programs will include classes and workshops focusing on Appalachia, as well as entertainment and trips to local attractions.

Elderhostel is an international network of more than 600 universities and colleges offering low-cost, short-term learning programs for older adults. Modeled after the youth hostels of Europe, Elderhostel utilizes university housing to reduce the cost of travel.

The first summer Elderhostel will coincide with MSU's annual Appalachian Celebration. Seventeen of this year's participants have attended the celebration in the past.

Kentucky Conference Of Methodist Church In Session at ECU

The 163rd session of the Kentucky Conference of the United Methodist Church met Tuesday at Eastern Kentucky University, Richmond, with about 800 ministers and lay delegates attending. The conference will continue through Friday.

Bishop Paul A. Duffey, of the Louisville area of the church, will preside.

The host ministers for the conference are Dr. J.T. Harmon, superintendent of the Danville district; Dr. Larry Buskirk, pastor of First United Methodist Church, Richmond, and the Rev. Eugene Strange, campus minister, Eastern Kentucky University. The conference preacher is Paul Hardin, Jr., who retired as bishop in 1972. He will address the entire conference during worship services each evening at 7:30 in Brock.

The Kentucky conference, made up of the eastern half of the state, is divided into seven districts which include about 500 churches.

The reading of appointments of ministers will be held at the general session on Friday morning.

Cheating To Get Rougher

Kentuckians will soon find it harder to defraud intentionally the state's benefit programs, and persons who owe money to the programs will be pressured to repay the funds, according to Cabinet for Human Resources Secretary Buddy Adams.

The Department for Social Insurance is enforcing stricter penalties against those who obtain benefit funds fraudulently. Persons who apply more for food stamps in more than one county, trade or sell food stamps, use food stamps to buy alcoholic drinks or tobacco, or commit other program violations will be disqualified for food stamps for six months for the first offense and one year for the second offense. Third-time offenders will be permanently disqualified for food stamp benefits.

A photo identification card will be issued to all Aid to Families with Dependent Children clients. Banks and retail stores will be urged to ask for the card and record the identification number on checks cashed. If a client falsely reports a check stolen, receives a duplicate check, and cashes both checks, the ID card will make it easier for Social Insurance to verify the transactions and take steps to recover the money.

To recover money owed the department, the Social Insurance department is assigning fulltime staff to collect overpayments. A central collections branch in Frankfort will have 10 workers, and 40 more will be stationed around the state—two in each of 20 service areas. The collections workers will collect all overpayments to Aid to Families with Dependent Children and food stamp clients, regardless of whether the overpayments are caused by client or agency error or intentional fraud and abuse. The special collections staff will also collect unemployment insurance payments improperly paid to claimants, overdue child support payments, and funds incorrectly paid to Medicaid providers.

The field collection workers will determine overpayments and negotiate repayment schedules. If payments are not made within 90 days, information about the delinquent person's earnings and assets will be transmitted by computer to the department's central collection branch for intensive follow-up, including legal action.

The Cabinet for Human Resources is able to pay full-time collections staff from savings achieved by automating the food stamp program, according to Adams. The department is also receiving new federal funding for 75 percent of the salaries of full-time collections staff.

According to Adams, assigning full-time workers to overpayment collections addresses another problem—overextended eligibility workers in the Department for Social Insurance. In the past, eligibility workers were responsible for collecting overpayments to clients in addition to their primary job of taking applications for assistance through Aid to Families with Dependent Children, the Food Stamp Program, and various emergency relief programs. "With rising unemployment, Social Insurance has been called upon to serve more and more people with fewer staff. Relieving eligibility workers of the collection responsibility will give them more time to closely screen applications for potential fraud and abuse. More errors can be caught and corrected before they become problems," Adams said.

Pharmacy Footnotes

By HAROLD COOLEY

A new drug called theophylline is the first drug especially formulated to be sprinkled on food. It comes in regular capsule form and is simply opened—allowing the beads to be added to almost any food but ice cream. Theophylline is intended to relieve the symptoms of very young asthmatic victims. In the past these young patients had a very difficult time swallowing the capsule form of their asthmatic medication so that they were deprived of much needed relief. Now the 2 to 3 million asthmatic American children can be helped by this easy-to-administer, sustained-release, anti-asthmatic drug. The new formulation makes it easier for elderly patients to receive their medication as well.

There is a new medication on the market that can help young people with the symptoms of asthma. It can be sprinkled on food so that taking it becomes a much simpler process. If you have any questions, ask us here at COOLEY APOTHECARY or consult with your physician. We're dedicated to offering you friendly, personal and helpful service. We also carry convalescent items. Jenny Wiley Box Office Now Open

"Phone reservations for this point in the season are up from any year in our history," said John M. McCann, managing director of the Jenny Wiley Summer Music Theatre. "With the combination of three terrific shows like ANNIE, THE ROBBER BRIDEGROOM, AND GREASE; and our beautifully renovated facility which includes new seats, restrooms, and concessions areas, we are looking at our best year ever. The best seats will go fast," McCann added.

McCann made these comments as the Jenny Wiley Summer Music Theatre opened its box office to the public today (Wednesday). Season tickets and individual tickets for each performance are now on sale. The season opens Saturday, June 25, and runs through Sunday, August 21, with performances each Wednesday through Sunday night at 8:30.

"Season ticket holders can see our productions for only $14.00," McCann said. "That's a savings of up to 42 percent off our already low ticket prices. A single ticket to a professional touring production of any of the three shows would cost $25.00 or more in Louisville or Lexington," he added.

Individual tickets cost $5.00 and $6.00 on Wednesday, Thursday, and Sunday, and $7.00 and $8.00 on Friday and Saturday. Student tickets cost $3.50 for all seats and all performances, and children under six are always admitted free. There is a 10 percent discount for senior citizens, and group rates are available.

The Box Office opens daily at 10 a.m. For reservations and ticket information call the Jenny Wiley Summer Music Theatre at (606) 886-9274.

Medicaid Cuts Planned

Faced with federal penalties totaling $39 million over the next three years, cabinet for Human Resources Secretary Buddy Adams has announced a series of cost containment actions aimed at reducing Kentucky's Medicaid expenditures and avoiding the threatened penalties.

Adams explained that state officials had to take some action or face the loss of general fund dollars needed to pay the federal penalties. "All of the revenue projections for the upcoming fiscal year point to only very limited growth. In fact, some state revenue sources will continue to dwindle," he said. "With those facts in mind, I cannot in good conscience stand by and allow the General Fund to be further depleted by loss of another $14 million in 1984, $12 million in 1985, and another $12 million in 1986. And Kentucky would have to pay those amounts from the General Fund if our Medicaid expenditures are above the federal cap."

The Reagan administration has imposed a maximum expenditure cap on state Medicaid payments as a means of controlling the increasing drain of that program on the federal budget. The federal cap for Kentucky in fiscal 1983-'84 is $455.8 million, while Human Resources analysts project Medicaid costs under the current rules and regulations would rise past $486.7 million next year. Such an increase would result in a federal penalty to Kentucky $14.6 million by the end of the fiscal year.

At a Frankfort news conference, Adams, Social Insurance Commissioner John Cubine, and Health Services Commissioner David T. Allen, M.D., outlined options selected by the cabinet to contain the rising Medicaid bill in Kentucky. The following measures become effective July 1:

1. Lowering the maximum reimbursement for hospitals and nursing homes from 110 percent of the median cost to 105 percent—a savings of $3.9 million.

2. Lowering reimbursement of physician in-hospital charges from the first $50 and 60 percent of the remainder down to the first $20 and 35 percent of the remainder—a savings of $16.2 million.

3. Preauthorization of hospital admissions and length of stay payable by Medicaid—a savings of $2 million.

4. Eliminate the special maximum limit for payments to the University of Louisville and the University of Kentucky medical school hospitals—a savings of $2.3 million.

5. Mandate use of a 40-year-life for purposes of calculating depreciation for intermediate care facilities and skilled nursing facilities—a savings of $3.8 million.

6. Change reimbursement of outpatient hospital charges from the cost of the service to a percentage of the total charges—a savings of $2.7 million.

The total savings in Medicaid expenditures under this plan totals $30.9 million for fiscal 1983-'84 and would bring Kentucky under the federal cap. Adams said, "We have sought to contain the costs as both fiscal responsibility and the potential loss of state dollars due to the penalty dictate. These actions are designed with the taxpayer and the health care consumer in mind. Obviously these difficult choices carry an important impact for Kentucky. We must begin to meet the challenge of upward-spiraling health care costs in all areas. And in regard to Medicaid, the federal government has taken its first step by giving us a 'choice'...either hold the line on the Medicaid payment increase or pay a penalty."

Not all of the actions taken result in reduced reimbursements, Adams said. "We are proceeding with plans to expand a program of alternative intermediate services for the mentally retarded citizens of this state. The demand for non-institutional options for long term care of this segment of the population has outstripped the level of services available," he said. "The additional $8 million in Medicaid reimbursements we are making available in this area, plus another $1 million for home-based services for adults, will enable many special needs which have been identified to be met." These community based alternatives should result in savings to the Commonwealth by reducing the demand for additional institutional care.

Through work with community groups, the VA Voluntary Service channels unsolicited goods, equipment and funds to benefit patients.

Named Administrator

Robert L. Johnson, president of Appalachian Regional Hospitals, and Ellis Morgan, chairman of the Whitesburg ARH board of governors, announce the appointment of Raymond E. Wood as administrator of the multi-hospital system's 71-bed facility in Whitesburg. Wood was most recently assistant administrator of International Hospital, a 352-bed acute care facility in Miami, Florida.

Diagnostic Centers Would Test, Evaluate Children

What is the best way to provide exceptional children in the Big Sandy area with the most appropriate testing and evaluation services? Are there any other related services that can be provided and how can these be evaluated?

According to Harry P. Brown, Director of the 37-member educational consortium known as the Eastern Kentucky Educational Development Corporation, it is hoped that parents, educators and other interested individuals and agencies will find in two diagnostic service centers in the Big Sandy area the answers to these questions.

"We at EKEDC are developing two applications for funding through the Kentucky Department of Education, which proposed the continuation of these two centers to serve all exceptional children ages 5 to 17," Brown said.

The centers are located in Prestonsburg and Paintsville, the Prestonsburg center serving the schools districts of Pike, Floyd, Morgan and Magoffin counties, and Pikeville Independent.

The centers intend to offer referral, testing, evaluation and placement services.

4-H Camp Set

On June 20-24 The Floyd County 4-H day camping program is scheduled for June 20-24 at Archer Park.

The Program will begin at 10:00 a.m. and conclude at 3:00 p.m. each day. Activities will include supervised recreation, handicrafts and swimming. Lunch and a snack will be served.

The camping program is under the direction of The Floyd County Extension Service and is open to any child aged 9-14, regardless of race, religion, handicap or national origin.

For additional information, contact Jack Friar, Co. Extension Agent, 4-H Club at 886-2668.

Honored by Ford Motor

Dallas G. and Marie Cook, of Ypsilanti, Mich., were honored by Ford Motor Co., May 11. Mr. Cook received gold cuff links for his 30 years of service with Ford. His wife, Marie, was presented with a dozen long stemmed red roses, and they also were treated to dinner.

They have one daughter, Sandra Conn, and two grandsons, Rodney and Shawn, of Prestonsburg. Mr. Cook is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Cook, of Banner, and Mrs. Cook is the daughter of Leonard Conn, and the late Eunice Conn, also of Banner.

Hughes To Participate In Med-Dental Program

A 1983 graduate of Allen Central High School is one of 65 Kentucky graduates who will be participating this summer in a state program designed to assist students from areas with too few doctors or dentists in their pursuit of a career in medicine or dentistry.

Samuel Ray Hughes, of Martin, will be attending the six-week Professional Education Preparation (PEP) Program Workshop at the University of Louisville.

PEP Program workshops are also being conducted this summer at Kentucky State University in Frankfort and at the University of Kentucky.

Hughes, 17-year-old son of Darlene and Bill Hughes, will be getting college-prep instruction in reading, writing, study-skills improvement and problem solving. He will also be attending classes in mathematics and science.

According to Michael Byrne of the Kentucky Council on Higher Education, the state agency that coordinates the PEP program, all of the instruction is designed to improve the participating students' chances of doing well in premedical or pre-dental college studies.

Hughes says he plans to attend Berea College next fall.

High school seniors-to-be who are interested in participating next summer should contact their school counselor for information and application forms next January or February.

Spy Case Probe On KET June 19

"The Unquiet Death of Julius and Ethel Rosenberg," a full-scale re-examination of the controversial Rosenberg-Sobell atomic spy case of the early 1950's, will air on KET Sunday, June 19, at 10 p.m.

Thirty years after the execution of America's so-called "atom spies" and on the eve of two new books and a feature film ("The Book of Daniel" with Ed Asner), this documentary retraces the lives of the Rosenbergs and their controversial trial with a new introduction and discussion of evidence uncovered within the last five years, including newly released government files.

Julius Rosenberg, a machine shop owner on New York's lower East Side, and his wife, Ethel, housewife and mother, were found guilty of passing atomic secrets to the Soviet Union in 1951. They were the first and only Americans to be put to death under civil law for espionage. They were also the first married couple ever executed in the United States, and their execution in June, 1953, was accompanied by protest marches both here and abroad.

Morton Sobell, who was sentenced to 30 years in prison as a co-conspirator with the Rosenbergs, and the Rosenbergs' two sons, Michael and Robbie, made their first public statements about the case when this film originally aired in 1974.

Producer Alvin Goldstein examines developments which have surfaced in the past five years, and explains that the film does not examine the guilt or innocence of the Rosenbergs. The film was produced by the National Public Affairs Center for Television.

To Wed June 4

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil and Hazel Hamilton, of Grethel, announce the engagement and the forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Glenna Jean, to Mr. Larry Lee Tackett, son of Levi and Ines Tackett, of Grethel.

Miss Hamilton is a 1983 honor graduate of Betsy Layne High School, and Mr. Tackett is a 1981 graduate of Betsy Layne High.

The wedding will be solemnized June 4 at 2 p.m. at the home of the bride at Grethel. A reception will be held at bride's home immediately following the ceremony. The gracious custom of open house will be observed.

Ky. National Guard Wing To Participate In Overseas Exercise

The 123rd Tactical Reconnaissance Wing of the Kentucky Air National Guard has been selected to deploy to Ingolstadt, West Germany to participate in the short-term tactical exercise, "Coronet Bishop." Two hundred sixty-five Kentucky Air National Guardsmen and women and 12 of the unit's RF-4C Phantom II aircraft will go from standford field, Louisville, to Ingolstadt Air Base, about 50 miles north of Munich.

An advanced detachment is scheduled to depart Louisville May 30 aboard a C-5A aircraft. The RF-4C Phantom II Mission aircraft will take off in two waves of six at 4:30 a.m. and 5 a.m., Saturday, June 4. The non-stop flight of about nine hours will require six in-flight refuelings from U.S. Air Force KC-10 and KC-135 tankers. The remaining support personnel and equipment are scheduled to depart aboard one chartered DC-8 and a military C-141 early Saturday morning.

Coronet Bishop is an exercise designed to provide realistic training in the European-Nato environment. The unit will participate in a joint Nato-Air defense exercise named "Central Enterprise." The exercise simulates a wartime scenario and involves over 200 aircraft from various Nato nations and French air defense forces. The Kentucky Missions will include flying pre-strike target analysis as well as post strike damage assessment.

Selection of the Kentucky unit by the Air Force follows the unit's acceptance of the Spatz Trophy, naming it as the nation's top flying unit among the 91 flying units in the air national guard.

Webb Named MSU Scholar

Morehead State University President Morris L. Norfleet has announced that Jimmy Charles Webb, of Prestonsburg, is among a select group of students being awarded Presidential Merit Scholarships at MSU for 1983-84.

"We are most pleased that Jimmy will be joining our academic community this fall," Dr. Norfleet said. "He is an outstanding individual with a superb record of academic achievement in high school and with demonstrated potential for the same level of performance in college. We are proud to welcome this new Presidential Merit Scholar to our campus."

The son of Charles D. Webb, of Prestonsburg, Webb is a member of the honor choir at Prestonsburg High School. He plans to major in pre-medicine at MSU.

The scholarship is valued at $1,500 yearly and is renewable for three additional years if Webb maintains a satisfactory academic standing.

To be considered for a Presidential Merit Scholarship, an entering freshman must have at least a 3.8 grade point average, a composite ACT score of at least 26 and be recommended by a school official. The scholarships are awarded on a competitive basis.

Information and application forms for other scholarships and grant programs at MSU are available from the Division of Admissions, MSU, Morehead, Ky. 40351. In Kentucky, the toll-free telephone number is 1-800-262-7474.

Solti, Chicago Symphony To Air

The Chicago Symphony Orchestra, conducted by Music Director Sir Georg Solti, performs five operatic overtures by Rossini Monday, June 20, at 9 p.m. on KET.

The program, a "Great Performances" presentation, opens with the overture to "The Barber of Seville," composed in 1816. Sir Georg then talks about the life of the great and prolific Italian composer who lived from 1792 to 1868.

The one-hour program, taped in concert at Orchestra Hall, Chicago, also features the overtures to "The Italian Woman in Algiers," "Semi-rade," "The Siege of Corinth," and "The Thieving Magpie."

"Solti Conducts Rossini" is a production of International Television Trading Corporation.

"Grandma, let's go down to the store today—please, grandma," a child asked in a half-plea, half-question.

Now in the old days "going to the store" was not an everyday experience. Usually, the family waited for a rainy day or a bad day, unfit for hoeing garden, chopping weeds or just doing the day-to-day chores that had to be done at that particular time of year.

If grandma had time to stop whatever she was doing, usually one could count on her to take an excited child or two, maybe three, a long walk around and about the dusty or muddy road to the country store. Then, as now, grandmas seemed to have been able to budget time and money to help fulfill the wants and needs of a child, just for the sheer joy of being grandma.

From where I sat, life was one big blast of fun, for when we were children everything seemed to fall in place to help us be QUEEN FOR A DAY, almost every day. That's one of the joys of being a child, I guess.

The time a grown-up would share with us seemed to have been a meaningful experience. Not only grandmas were a blessing, but grandfathers, as well, as were older aunts and uncles. Years ago, every home had an elderly person or two living in the household.

It was very commonplace to visit in any home and find there'd be three generations living under the same roof. Usually, the grandparents would automatically watch the children without being asked to do so. In turn, the children would love and respect the grandparents without having to be programmed to do so.

Grandma Sparks was a grandma all her life as far as I was concerned, as she already had almost a dozen grandchildren when I was born. She lived a long, hard-working life. She enjoyed piecing colorful, near-perfect, quilts for necessity as well as for children and grandchildren, with no thought of pay. I once heard her say she quilted some for neighbors for a dollar per quilt. Today, a dollar wouldn't even buy the thread to do so!

Grandma Sparks lived at the head of Wallow Hole in Elliot county. Often grandma would walk us to the Ross Evans grocery store at Sarah, Ky. There we bought bright-colored dress print for 23¢ per yard and moist coarse salt, weighed out in brown paper pokes for 5 or 10 cents. Ross bought fresh eggs, animal hides (furs), ginseng, black berries, fresh picked, and dried apples from his many customers.

Progress took away the postoffice, so now it's Sandy Hook, Route 1. Ross and his good wife, Carrie Hay Evans, live in a modern high-rise at Prestonsburg, while grandma and other pioneers sleep in the wooded hills of Wallow Hole.

Have you ever been Down Home?

On Dean's List

Steven A. Rice, of Prestonsburg, was named to the dean's list at Virginia Tech during the winter quarter. Rice is a freshman, majoring in general engineering.

Another Study Scheduled For the Yatesville Dam

The much-studied Yatesville Dam in Lawrence county is slated for more of same.

The U.S. Army Corps of Engineers says it will not build the dam till the pollution possible from oil wells in the impoundment area is analyzed.

The corps has contracted with the University of Kentucky to take an inventory of the 3,000 oil and gas wells in the area and to evaluate the water quality.

For 17 years, Rep. Carl Perkins, D-Ky., has fought to build the $97 million dam on Blaine Creek, which empties into the Big Sandy river a few miles downstream from Louisa. Supporters say it would be a boon for the area's economy. Opponents—including environmentalists and Reagan officials—say it would be a pork barrel.

The federal government has bought 3,000 acres and relocated 1,200 families to make way for the reservoir, and in 1982 Congress told the corps to get moving and start spending $8 million for construction. But last month, the corps said it had found that oil wells were polluting the watershed—and it would have to analyze the situation, for $2 million and two years, before building the dam.

When a federal project may affect the environment, U.S. law requires an impact statement before construction can begin. The corps would use its analysis to revise the Yatesville impact statement, which was written 11 years ago.

Perkins has said that the corps wants to sabotage the project and that its analysis is really "chicanery."

"Certainly not," replied Devens, corps' district engineer in Huntington, W. Va. "It's our intent to build the Yatesville Dam. We just need to do it right."

Devens said the corps' decision was prompted not by chicanery but by a study showing a decline of water quality in the Blaine Creek drainage basin.

The decline was associated with wells that flush brine wastes and let oil seep into nearby streams. The resulting salt and manganese discourage freshwater life.

The basin water has grown much saltier since 1977, and several tributaries, like Little Blaine and Keaton Fork, have lost aquatic life, Devens said.

But the corps found no evidence of trihalomethanes—compounds that can cause cancer and that result in part from brine.

Farmers Asked To Certify Acreage

USDA's Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service has asked producers to certify their farm program acreage. Clarence L. Tardy, Deputy Administrator for State and County Operations, explained the reason for the acreage report and reviewed the certification process.

"Certification is the opportunity we give the farmers to report to us the acreages of crops planted on their farms to determine whether they are eligible to receive the different benefits under the programs we offer."

When the farmer reports to the county ASCS office, he can review the aerial photograph of his farm and pinpoint the fields in which the crops are grown. This information is then recorded and the report serves as documentation for crop acreage bases and program compliance.

"Certification is very important to farmers who are participating in the acreage reduction, paid land diversion and payment-in-kind programs because without an acreage report, they really are not participating," Mr. Tardy said. "They must give us an acreage report in order for us to determine the level at which they will be eligible for the various program benefits."

He said the acreage reports needs to be as accurate as possible. "We do have a spot check program to check on the accuracy of these reports, so the more accurate the report, the less trouble the farmer has to qualify for the benefits."

In Floyd county, the final certification dates for corn is July 15, 1983.

The USDA official said that growers not participating in the 1983 programs should also report their acreages since these acreage reports can affect eligibility for future programs.

Health Educator

A nurse from the Health Department will be in Martin at the Beaver Valley Clinic on Monday June 6 from 10 a.m. until 2 p.m. She will offer T.B. skin tests, urinalyses, anemia screenings, blood pressures, and pap smears.

On Wednesday, June 8, there will be a glaucoma clinic at the health department. This clinic is open to persons of all ages but those persons age 40 and older should be screened regularly for the disease since this is the high risk age for the disease. These clinics are free services of the health department and the public is welcome.

The Floyd County Health Department Home Health Agency is now accepting patients for the program. Home Health Care offers skilled and unskilled nursing care to patients who are confined to their place of residence. The patients do not necessarily have to be bedfast, but must be in need of skilled nursing services or personal care services as determined by a physician.

If you have questions about the Home Health Care Program, please call 886-2788 or 886-1906 after 5:00 p.m. Pamela H. Ward, RN is coordinator for the Home Health Program.

MSU Students Honored

Honored during Morehead State University's recent academic awards breakfast were Donna Layne, Ivel senior, Wall Street Journal Award for outstanding senior in accounting and economics, and Stacy Conn, Betsy Layne graduate student, outstanding pre-dentistry student.

Students are selected annually by faculty members for honors within each department according to criteria based on academic excellence and leadership.

State Hospital Serves 74 Counties

The administration building of Eastern State Hospital in Lexington. The second oldest psychiatric hospital in America, this hospital provides treatment to 1,300 patients each year.

When Kentuckians drive by Eastern State Hospital in Lexington, few realize that it is the second oldest psychiatric hospital in America, and the first west of the Allegheny mountains. In fact, its original building is still in use, although considerable renovations and new buildings have been added since its opening on May 1, 1824. The hospital was originally called "The Kentucky Lunatic Asylum," but after 13 name changes became "Eastern State Hospital" in 1911. Most people would also be surprised that as many as 2,000 patients have lived at the hospital at one time, but today approximately 250 patients is a fairly typical census and the average length of stay is under 30 days.

Fully accredited by the Joint Commission for Accreditation of Hospitals, Eastern State treats 1,300 people each year, almost all of whom come from 74 counties in central, northern, and eastern Kentucky. Patients come from their home counties generally through Comprehensive Care Center referrals, the courts, or other sources. Although patients are charged for their hospitalization, no one is ever denied treatment because they are unable to pay.

When patients are admitted to the hospital, they meet immediately with a "treatment team" to plan for their stay in the hospital. The patient is the most important member of the team which is composed of a psychiatrist, psychologist, social worker, nurse, activity therapists and other personnel. The team develops a plan to meet individual needs which may involve group or individual therapy, medication, activities, vocational rehabilitation, educational training, and a variety of other forms of treatment. Many patients are able to take advantage of programs such as a greenhouse, woodworking shop, and a small sheltered workshop where patients can earn salaries for selling their products. Often these skills are crucial in making a good adjustment to more independent community living.

Special care is taken to formulate an "aftercare" plan when patients have completed treatment and are ready to leave the hospital. While most of Eastern State's patients go back to their homes or the home of a family member, some are referred to a more structured program in a personal care home, group home, intermediate care facility, or halfway house. Arrangements for aftercare often include referral to a comprehensive care center in their home community for follow-up.

The work of the hospital is greatly aided by volunteers who work directly with patients or with other offices to supplement existing programs. The Volunteer Services Department also provides slide presentations and speakers to civic groups, classes, or clubs. For information about this service, please contact the Volunteer Services Department, Eastern State Hospital, 627 West Fourth Street, Lexington, Kentucky 40508-9990, (606) 255-1431, Ext. 251.

Alcohol, Drug School Expects More Than 300

More than 300 persons are expected to take part in this year's Kentucky School of Alcohol and Drug Studies, scheduled for July 10-15 in Louisville. Sponsors of the event are the Cabinet for Human Resources, the Kentucky Alcoholism Council and the Kentucky War on Drugs. It will be the tenth week-long school, which focuses on increased awareness and education on topics related to alcohol and drug dependency. This year's program includes more than 50 workshops tailored for parents, physicians and nurses, the clergy, counselors, and other interested persons.

The manager of the Cabinet for Human Resources' substance abuse branch, Mike Townsend, said that one highlight will be workshops on forming parent groups to prevent drug and alcohol abuse by children. Other workshops center on counseling skills, the children of alcoholics, dependency prevention, family intervention, criminal justice issues and other subjects. Chemical dependency counselor certification hours and continuing education units for medical professionals will be offered.

Townsend said the school's faculty will include nationally known experts in the substance abuse field.

Registration for the school may be made in advance or at the door. To register, reserve dormitory space or get additional information, contact the Substance Abuse Branch, Cabinet for Human Resources, 275 E. Main, Frankfort, Ky. 40621. The phone number is 502/564-2880 or 564-2402.

RECOMMEND EYE PROTECTION

Sports and recreational activities account for more than 39,000 eye injuries treated in hospital emergency departments each year. The racquet sports—tennis, racketball, squash—accounted for more than 4,200 injuries last year, reports the National Society to Prevent Blindness. The Society, an organization founded 75 years ago, recommends the use of protective eyewear while playing.

U.K. Receives Tobacco Product Research Funds

The University of Kentucky College of Agriculture has received $124,000 from the R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company for tobacco production research. The gift is a portion of a four-year, $1 million grant to support tobacco research, extension, and education made to the University by Reynolds in 1981.

The funds will be used to support projects in plant breeding, disease control, mechanization of burley harvest and housing, investigations of insect populations and damage, tobacco genetics, and blue mold research.

The UK College of Agriculture has received $297,000 from R. J. Reynolds in 1983. The contributions support tobacco research, extension and education programs, including the outstanding county agent awards, short courses and field study tours for county agents, a tobacco Extension professorship, doctoral fellowships, graduate assistantships, undergraduate research and Extension apprenticeships and undergraduate student scholarships.

Win at News Game

In 1980 WKYT-TV, Channel 27 began offering Kentucky educators a program designed to help utilize students' television viewing habits to teach current events. Called the NewsCenter 27 TV NewsGame, it is now distributed to more than 800 educators in 57 Kentucky counties each week during the school year at no cost to the schools.

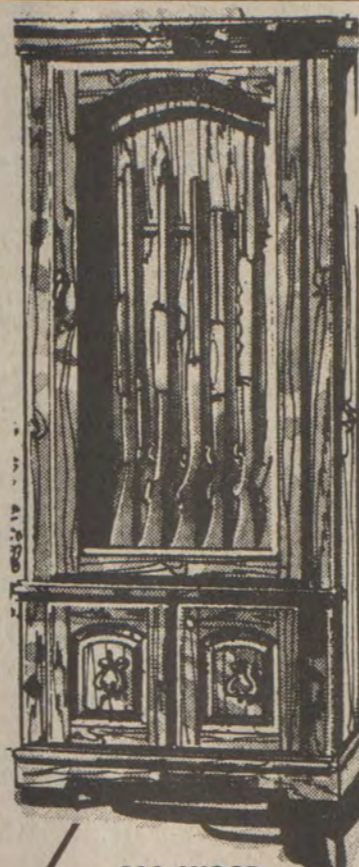

The response to the NewsGame has been enthusiastic. WKYT-TV now presents achievement certificates to students who have excelled at the game during the year. Teachers submit the names of students who, they feel, play the NewsGame extremely well, or do well for their ability. The decision is left up to the teacher.

NewsGame achievement winners from Floyd county are:

Prestonsburg High School—Jeff Cook, Doug Wells, Randall Hager, Richard Short.

Martin Elementary School—Barry Conley, Ron Hunter, Steven Hughes.

Our tanks look better this spring.

(We never said they were beautiful.)

Right now new customers are finding our tanks more attractive than ever before.

It could be they're tired of paying high electric bills for heating, cooking and water heating, when Doxol Propane can do the job for a lot less.

Maybe it's the first fill discount they find irresistible. Or the low cost. Or the first year FREE tank rental.

Whatever the reason our tanks are looking good during our Spring Fling. You may think the savings make them . . . beautiful!
