

Need of Span Admitted, But...

Its Partial Funding By City Unresolved

Evans Says City Soon To Enforce Law on Parking

They do not doubt the need for a new bridge to serve Goble-Roberts residents, several members of Prestonsburg City Council noted Monday, but they balked, nevertheless, at a proposal that the city fund part of the project.

"The Goble-Roberts bridge is probably top priority for this city," said Councilman Paul Hunt Thompson. "The people in Goble-Roberts deserve that bridge as much as people at Cliff deserve that road."

Thompson's reference was to the $1 million Cliff access road now under construction with federal and state funds. The city of Prestonsburg contributed about $200,000 to the project in property acquisition and right-of-way costs.

In an August 8 letter to council members, state Rep. Gregory D. Stumbo said federal funds could be available for a bridge to span the Big Sandy at the Goble-Roberts Addition if Prestonsburg

THE PARKING METER PROBLEM
Call it the inner-city, the downtown area, the central business district—whatever it is called and wherever it is, it's in trouble.

I have an idea that it all began, and that it continues, with parking meters. They may be a necessary evil and nigh-indispensable in these days when few walk farther than a city block, and as a consequence jam highways and streets with cars and trucks, but they place businesses at sore disadvantage when they have to compete with shopping centers where parking is free and easy for as long as you care to stay.

Could Prestonsburg afford to eliminate its parking meters? We don't know; we ask you. Or can it afford to keep them?

It's not only the inner city here that suffers. Downtown businesses in BECAUSE EXPLOITATION of children appears suddenly more prevalent or better publicized, a heightened concern for their safety seems to be a sign of the times. In any event, parents of 312 children brought them to the Prestonsburg Police Department Saturday for fingerprinting, as part of the department's Child Identification Program.

Pictured, as she is fingerprinted by Officer Sue Blackburn, is Chaddie Leigh Laferty, 5, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James L. Laferty, of Prestonsburg.

Police Chief Stan Fletcher said parents who wish to have a permanent record of their children's fingerprints—to aid in identification should they ever be missing—may bring the youngsters to the police station between 2 and 4 p.m., weekdays.

Court's Policy On Health Ins. Target of Suit

Of all county workers, those in the sheriff's department should be the first to have health benefits provided by the county, their attorney contends in a suit filed Monday in Floyd Circuit Court. Instead, the suit alleges, the sheriff and his deputies are denied coverage because of the discriminatory policy of the Floyd Fiscal Court.

Named as defendants in the action are Judge-Executive John M. Stumbo and Magistrates Kenneth Roberts, Eddie Caudill, Lowell Samons and Gerald DeRossett. The suit was filed by Gary E. Johnson on behalf of Sheriff Henry Hale and deputies Harold Johnson, John Blackburn, Grace Damron and Kaye Hale.

Controversy over the medical insurance coverage began in March this year, when the fiscal court stopped making premium payments for the sheriff's department. Since then, Sheriff Hale has had to pick up the tab himself, for a total so far of $2882.

The sheriff and his employees are being singled out as a class, their attorney argues, and this despite the fact that, due to the dangerous nature of their work, the county should be more ready

Knott Democrats in 'Family Row'; Adams Said Out as Party Chairman

State Representative Chris Perkins will vacate his seat in the General Assembly to succeed his father, the late Carl D. Perkins, in the national House of Representatives, and that fact is credited with igniting a flareup in the Democratic party in his native Knott county.

It is reported that the Democratic county chairman, Sidney Adams, had indicated he might appoint himself to succeed the younger Perkins. Upshot was that the Knott County Democratic Executive Committee voted to oust Adams.

John Caudill, who is an x-ray technician at the clinic operated at Mallie by State Senator Benny Ray Bailey and Dr. Grady Stumbo, was installed as county chairman in Adams' stead after Adams left an executive committee meeting at Hindman last Friday. Adams, 74, a former state representative, was elected chairman in May to share a four-year term with Caudill.

Knott County Court Clerk Jim Rose has been mentioned as a possible successor in the Legislature of Perkins.

Chris Perkins' 92nd district includes all of Knott county, 10 precincts in Floyd county and six in Letcher. He was unopposed for reelection.

Adams claims he is still chairman, that the state chairman, Eddie Coleman, had told him that he "would chair the meeting for Chris' Perkins' job, once it came around to be voted on."

Asst. Secretary of State Clint Newman was quoted as saying that after Chris Perkins withdraws from the House race the governing body of the Democratic party in the 92nd district would have to appoint a candidate to represent the party.

Floyd, Letcher and Knott would, in that case, join in naming a nominee, with each county's vote weighted by the number of Democrats represented.

Members of the Knott county committee said there had been no plan to replace Adams as chairman.

After Adams and committee members had exchanged views about Adams' plan for appointing a nominee to replace Chris Perkins, Adams left. And then the committee acted to remove him.

Knott county Democrats may have a new county chairman as the result, it is claimed, of the "old" chairman's ambition to succeed Chris Perkins as state representative.

ONE YOUNGSTER gets a last minute check while others wait apprehensively on the steps of Prestonsburg grade school Monday, as classes resumed in the county's schools.

Unlike last year, when problems with the bus fleet caused a delay of some days in the opening of school, no major problems were reported this year. Some schools damaged by the May floods still await some furnishings, however, and teachers and parents at some schools were said to be concerned that new, state-mandated limits on class size be enforced.

Police Arrest 4 in Burglary

Four men were arrested by city police Saturday and charged with the attempted burglary of Maloney's department store.

Two of the men, John Holloman, 22, and Jeffery Taylor, 19, were captured by Prestonsburg Police Chief Stan Fletcher as they tried to flee the scene, around 1 a.m. An investigation by Det. Mike Ormerod led to the arrest later of Mike Newton, 18, and Barney Lamar Griffin, 21.

The four, students at the nearby Job Corps Center, are all believed to be from out of state. They were charged with third-degree burglary and lodged in the county jail.

Charged last week with trafficking in marijuana was William B. O'Neill, 30, of West Prestonsburg. The charge followed a raid by city police last Tuesday which netted four marijuana plants, 2½ pounds of marijuana, and $7000 in cash.

Police also report that the city is experiencing a wave of shoplifting, with seven suspects apprehended already this month.

$3 Million Shopping Center Planned

ARTIST'S DEPICTION of the $3 million shopping-and-office complex being developed by Hughes and Associates on the Middle Creek road, near its junction with U.S. 23. The Piggly Wiggly supermarket, cramped at its present location on North Lake Drive, will enjoy more spacious premises at the new shopping center, to be known as Glyn View Plaza. An earlier proposal to build a K-Mart at the site fell through after that firm's directors chose a Paintsville site instead.

Plans were announced this week for construction of a $3 million shopping center near Prestonsburg.

Jim Hughes, developer of the project, said fill work has already begun at the site, which is on the Mountain Parkway, near its intersection with U.S. 23. A Feb. 1, 1985 opening date is anticipated, he said.

The new shopping center, to be known as Glyn View Plaza, will include a Piggly Wiggly supermarket, which will be moving from its present location downtown, a Rite-Aid drug store, an Arby's restaurant, and a self-service gas station, Hughes said. In addition, the 65,000 square feet of commercial space will include specialty shops and offices.

Meanwhile, work is continuing on another shopping complex nearby. A bulldozer was excavating the site this week and part of the steel framework has been erected for Prestonsburg Village, the $10 million project being developed by Commonwealth Development Corporation (CDC) on U.S. 23, beside the Western Sizzlin' restaurant.

CDC Executive Director L.J. Hollenbach III predicted in April that Prestonsburg Village, originally scheduled for completion last spring, would open its doors this fall. That now appears unlikely, a CDC official conceded recently.

While 85 percent of the proposed 200,000 square feet has already been leased—much of it for a Wal-Mart department store and Winn-Dixie supermarket—Prestonsburg Village will probably not be completed until next spring, said James Hutchison, CDC's vice-president for leasing.

Some critics, citing slow starts in other projects developed by CDC in Hazard, Jackson, Corbin and Manchester, have suggested the Louisville

Jury Disagrees In Drug Hearing Of Garrett Man

After deliberating nearly three hours, a Floyd Circuit Court jury declared itself about evenly split Thursday on whether David Lee Allen was guilty of trafficking in illegal drugs.

The 26-year-old Garrett man was one of more than a dozen in this county who were snared in a state police undercover operation in late 1982. He was accused of selling three "hits" of PCP to Det. Johnny Creech for $30. Allen denied he had ever met Creech.

The state narcotics investigator, who appeared in court wearing a business suit, clean-shaven and with his hair neatly trimmed, said he had long hair and a beard and was wearing a T-shirt and jeans when he approached Allen's trailer on November 16, 1982, in the company of Marvin Neeley.

Creech said he first asked to buy marijuana from Allen, who told him he had recently run out of it and offered to sell him some PCP instead. Neeley, a police informant, reportedly helped set up the buy.

State Det. Ernie Dudleson said he earlier approached Neeley's father, Chester Neeley, to secure his son's cooperation with the investigation. The father agreed to assist out of concern for his son, who was himself facing a charge of trafficking in marijuana, Dudleson said. Marvin Neeley died in May last year.

In a series of questions, defense attorney Ned Pillersdorf implied that Marvin Neeley was persuaded to help entrap Allen by offers of leniency for himself and his brother, Cisco. Marvin was never indicted on the trafficking charge and Cisco was recently released from the state penitentiary, the attorney

'Town Forums' Ahead For Education Study

For anyone with an interest in education and a yen to help Floyd schools do a better job, a couple of opportunities are about to open up.

For one thing, there is still time to run for school board member.

And, for another, a citizens' forum is being organized to tackle the long-term questions of where the county's schools should be heading.

Three seats on the Board of Education are to be filled at the election on November 6. They are currently held by James A. Duff, of Hueysville, Dr. Mary Hall, of McDowell, and Fred Newsome, of Grethel. The filing deadline is August 28.

But citizens will not need to run for office to play a part in charting a course for the schools. On November 15, "town forums" will be held in just about every school district in the state, under the auspices of the Prichard Committee on Academic Excellence. The forum topic: "What Do You Really Want Your Schools To Do?"

To run for board member, you need to be at least 24, a Kentucky resident for the past three years, and—as the result of a law passed in the 1984 General Assembly—educated at least to the 12th grade. The county clerk can provide filing papers, which must bear 20 signatures. The filing fee is $20.

Anyone can participate in the local "town forum," which organizers see as a way to gauge what ordinary people hope for their schools—and what they would be willing to pay for.

The Prichard Committee, sponsor of the town meetings, issued a report two years ago on the future of higher education in Kentucky. Since then it has turned its attention to the state's elementary and secondary schools.

Unlike the recently-named Governor's Council on Education Reform, which is charged with formulating concrete, politically-feasible proposals for improving the schools, Prichard Committee members have generally kept their distance from established interest groups in favor of a more theoretical consideration of Kentucky's educational objectives.

In that spirit, Jean Rosenberg, who is a member of the committee and organizer of the Nov. 15 forum here, said the local meetings should enable people to "dream a little" about their hopes for the schools.

"We don't have a political agenda," she said in a recent interview. "We just think it is important that school officials and legislators start listening to people at the grassroots level, to hear what people are concerned about."

What role will the school board and superintendent play in the community meetings? "They will be invited and we hope they will play a part," said Mrs. Rosenberg, "but the Prichard Committee is very clear that we want this to be a citizen-run thing."

While the John Y. Brown-appointed Prichard Committee is anxious to stay above partisan political interests, however, it is by no means indifferent to one essentially political question: how to raise the funds needed for educational reform.

One purpose of the committee's current effort to stimulate discussion about education at the local level, Mrs. Rosenberg said, is "so the legislature will not be again able to do what they did in the last session, where they gave lip"

Chris Perkins Delcares Candidacy

State Representative Carl Chris Perkins was interviewed last Thursday after he had announced his candidacy to succeed his late father in Congress.

State Rep. Carl Chris Perkins announced Thursday that he is a candidate for the 7th District Congressional seat that his father, the late Carl D. Perkins, held for more than three decades.

"We can never replace Carl Dewey Perkins—He was a giant," the 30-year-old Knott county attorney told a gathering of more than 300 in Hindman. "In whatever capacity I shall serve, I shall follow my father's dreams."

Many state, county and party officials from the district were present for the press conference. In an overwhelming show of support, each of the Democratic Party's county chairmen in the 23-county district have stated their support for Perkins' candidacy, as have all 18 Democratic county judges in the district.

Dr. Grady Stumbo, who chairs the committee to elect Perkins, said Perkins is ready to represent the 7th District. "His heart and basic beliefs and gut feelings are the same as his dad's. He will get results in Washington."

Perkins said that he intended to insure that the congressional staff's office would continue to offer quick and efficient help to the constituents and pursue the same issues his father efficiently legislated for—education, the elderly, health care and hunger.

Since he was elected state representative in 1981, Perkins has served on the Health and Welfare, Natural Resources and Environment and State Government committees. In addition to his legislative work in the House to fight for more return of coal severance tax dollars to coal producing and impact counties, Perkins has concentrated his efforts on nursing home reform, utility reform, heat energy assistance for elderly and low-income persons, broad farm deed legislation, child abuse and educational projects in the mountains.

Present with Perkins at his announcement were his mother, Verna, and his wife, Cathy Whitaker Perkins, who is a physician. Former State Rep. Bill Weinberg was the master of ceremonies. Some of the people who spoke during the program in support of Perkins were State Rep. Ron Cyrus of Greenup county, Morgan County Judge-Executive Gene Allen and Floyd County Democratic Chairman Morris Isaacs.

The Democratic chairmen will meet in Morehead August 17, to select the party's nominee in both the special election on November 6 to fill Carl D. Perkins' unexpired term and the regular election that day for a two-year term.

Boyd county businessman Aubrey Russell is the Republican party's nominee.

Offices of Late Congressman To Continue Service to District

The Washington and Kentucky congressional offices of the late Congressman Carl D. Perkins are continuing to serve the people of the Seventh District under the supervision of the clerk of the House of Representatives.

The full staff of the late Congressman Perkins remains intact to handle casework, to help in handling business with the executive branch of the government, and to provide information on pending legislation.

Benjamin J. Guthrie, clerk of the House, said that the Washington and two district offices in Pikeville and Ashland will remain open on a daily basis to handle congressional business until a successor is elected. Under House rules, the clerk manages the offices when a member dies or resigns. Guthrie said that nine such vacancies, including the Seventh District, have occurred in the 98th Congress to date.

Guthrie said that an administrator has been appointed to operate the Perkins offices. He is David M. Whalin, who was administrative assistant to the late Congressman. The staff members in Pikeville and Ashland remain the same.

Breathitt Man Named To Surface Mining Post

Roy Mullins, of Jackson, has been named director of the Division of Field Services of the state Department for Surface Mining Reclamation and Enforcement by Natural Resources Secretary Charlotte Baldwin.

"The Cabinet will be well served by Roy's expertise in the coal and reclamation industry. He understands and identifies with the challenges where the work is actually being done. That will make a difference in the kind of management he brings to the central office," Baldwin stated.

A graduate of Union College, Barbourville, Mullins received a B.A. in Education. From 1967 to 1970 he was in charge of land reclamation for Breathitt County Coal Company. For six years, Mullins served as area supervisor for the Eastern Kentucky mining operation of the Division of Reclamation in the state Department for Natural Resources.

"After having worked both for industry and in a regulatory aspect, I hope to help develop a more cooperative spirit between the two," Mullins said.

agreed to bear one-fifth of the estimated $1.3 million cost. The city's share would be $260,000.

Thompson suggested that the city seek grant funds as a way of contributing its share. But Mayor Harold Cooley, noting that other bridges have been built in this area without the requirement of local matching funds, said negotiations were under way with state Transportation Secretary Floyd Poore to see if that requirement could be waived.

The days are over when drivers could block driveways or park on city sidewalks with impunity, City Manager David Evans told the council. With the delivery last week of new parking tickets, the city is now in a position to enforce its tough new parking ordinance, he said. Yet to be named is a judge who will hear appeals from any citizens who feel they have been ticketed unjustly.

Mayor Cooley said he would help residents of the Highland Heights housing project in the Goble-Roberts Addition meet with directors of the Church Housing Association, which operates the project. Cooley's offer was in response to a complaint by Carter Hamilton that a maintenance man at the project is harassing residents and invading their privacy.

The council will consider at its next meeting a proposal to repeal the city ordinance which limits the number of mobile homes allowed in the city. City Manager Evans said many people have asked to bring trailers into the city and this is the only kind of housing many can afford. The present ordinance restricts mobile homes to trailer parks and limits to five the number of such parks.

The council gave first reading to an ordinance setting up a grievance procedure for handicapped persons who feel they are denied adequate access to public buildings in the city. The procedure is required of cities receiving more than $5000 in federal revenue-sharing funds.

Residents of Cemetery Lane successfully petitioned the council to change the name of their street to Highland Court.

service to educational reform but no financial backing—because they did not believe their constituents were serious about paying the bill."

Given an opportunity to say what they want for their money, most Kentuckians would be prepared to pay the price for good schools, Mrs. Rosenberg believes.

The statewide town forums are scheduled to begin at 8 p.m., in time for an introduction to be broadcast by Kentucky Educational Television. Appearing to promote the project will be Gov. Martha Layne Collins, Superintendent of Public Instruction Alice McDonald, and Edward Prichard, the Lexington lawyer who is chairman of the committee which bears his name.

It will be up to the local meeting to decide if and in what form it will continue beyond the initial town forum. "The meetings will be locally controlled so that the discussions may satisfy the needs of local citizens," said Mrs. Scottie Kenkel, of Nicholasville, statewide organizer of the forums. "If they have good meetings, they will undoubtedly want to continue to work toward improving education in their communities."

A Middle Creek resident and mother of two children in Floyd schools, Mrs. Rosenberg is looking for people to serve on a committee to plan the Nov. 15 meeting here. Her phone number is 886-8851.

The Mountain Investment Company, Florida-based firm which "owns" the town of Wheelwright, filed Monday in circuit court here a suit asking that Wheelwright officials be enjoined from enforcing ordinances adopted recently to control housing and other conditions there. A police investigation into neighbors reports of a disturbance in an apartment building at the Goble-Roberts Addition here late Monday night terminated a "pot" party and resulted in the arrest of 14 youths. R. Donald Goble, of Prestonsburg, became assistant county attorney, effective July 1. The Floyd fiscal court last Wednesday accepted the apparent low bid on roofing of the courthouse. The bid was $33,982 submitted by Tri-State Roofing and Sheet Metal Co., of Charleston, W. Va. The United Mine Workers called Monday for a five-day shutdown of the nation's soft coal mines, starting next Monday. There died: Mrs. Wanda Lee Slone, 50, of Topmost, last Wednesday at the McDowell hospital; Hargus Dinnsen Hall, 48, of New Philadelphia, O., formerly of this county, Friday afternoon in an accident in Lafayette, Ohio; Trimble Charley Mitchell, 29, of Wheelwright, Sunday at a Martin hospital; R.B. "Bert" Stewart, 76, last Thursday at his home at Hindman; Melvin Keene, 61, of Wolcottville, Ind., formerly of Melvin, Tuesday, August 6, in a Lagrange, Indiana hospital; George Hancock, 61, of Columbus, O., formerly of Garrett, August 6 in a Columbus, Ohio hospital; Mrs. Maude Billips, 73, of Martin, last Wednesday, victim of a heart attack; Benny Boyd, 77, August 6 at his home at Dana; Miss Sherry Lynn Cole, 20, August 7 at her home at Melvin; Mrs. Joan Hunter Webb, 68, of Auxier, Friday at a Paintsville hospital; Joe Paris Poe, 41, of Abbott Creek, Thursday at his home on Big Branch.

The Prestonsburg City Council voted Tuesday night to purchase from the heirs of the late Hiram Harris 22 acres of land at the outskirts of West Prestonsburg as a start toward the realization of a community dream of a city park and recreation area. One day's work last week by county, state and federal officers reduced the number of moonshine stills operating in the county by six. As a direct result of lessons learned in Floyd county and seven other areas where the program has been operated on an experimental basis since mid-1961, Congress has decided to expand the food-stamp program. Clifford B. Latta, executive director of the Municipal Housing Commission, said Tuesday that the work of razing the old Floyd county courthouse may be begun Monday if the fiscal court grants right of entry. There died: Mrs. Annie C. Collins, 77, Sunday at her home at Lancer; Wendell Ratliff, 33, Sunday at his home at Wayland; Ely Lewis, 90, of Prestonsburg, last Thursday at Lackey; Mrs. Florence (Hebads) Martin, 81, of McDowell, last Wednesday at the home of a daughter there; Orville Jackson Moore, 50, formerly of Floyd county, August 5 in a slate fall in a Pike county coal mine; Mrs. Lacie Cline, 49, formerly of this county, last Tuesday in Denver, Colorado; Mrs. Ada N. Crisp, 67, of Water Gap, Tuesday en route to a hospital; W.B. Pratt, 83, Floyd native, August 7 at West Liberty, Kentucky.

Officials of the Division of Parks, Conservation and Highways will visit Dewey Lake, Friday, to make tentative location of a scenic highway route along the lake from Stratton Branch to the road which connects with Hager Gap and later will connect with the dam itself. A suit filed by the town of Martin, seeking the annexation of extensive territory to the corporate limits, reached the court last Friday, and at least one attorney has been employed by dissenting citizens to fight the move. One-fifth of the more than 130,000 persons in 27 counties who are beneficiaries of the commodity relief program live in Floyd and Pike counties, survey figures released this week show. A suit growing out of a two-truck collision last November 27 was filed in circuit court, Friday, asking a total of $55,090 for the two plaintiffs, Patsy Jean Osborne and her mother, Mrs. Irene Osborne. The Senate approved Tuesday an amendment to the Rivers and Harbors Bill which directs the Army Corps of Engineers to re-survey the Big Sandy river and its two forks for possible canalization. East Kentucky is making, through the cooperation of Senator John Sherman Cooper, a determined bid for a substantial part of the 10 million tons of American gift coal to be shipped to friendly countries before next June 30. The return to classroom work for pupils of all the county's larger schools will begin, Monday, August 30. A flash flood swept Prater Creek Monday night as the result of a cloudburst, destroying crops, washing buildings from their foundations and causing property damage estimated at thousands of dollars. Five murder trials are included in the 424 cases docketed for hearing at the September term of the Floyd circuit court. Monte Everett Damron, 36, was killed August 11 when a gasoline grist mill blew up at Robinson Creek. G.L. Gray, of Allen, special C. & O. agent, Friday night at Ashland effected the arrest of one of several prisoners who recently escaped from the Pike county jail. Through the courtesy of A.C. Carter, mayor of Prestonsburg, three Floyd county girls, Rebecca, Edna May and Victoria Derossett, of Water Gap, were taken to the vacation camp at Quicksand, Kentucky. Don't Weaken Penalty For Persistent Felon

The State Corrections Cabinet has engaged in an all-out effort to reduce the number of persistent felony offenders housed in our penal institutions. Persistent felons are criminals with several previous felony convictions who are subject to enhanced sentences because of their demonstrated failure to respond to rehabilitative efforts. Studies show that PFOs constitute less than one-fourth of the typical prison population, but are responsible for nearly two-thirds of all crimes.

The Corrections Cabinet views the PFO statute as playing a major part in the present crowding of our jails and prisons and recommends the legislature exempt certain categories of crimes (such as burglary and theft) from stiffer penalties for repeat offenders. I am committed to full enforcement of our existing PFO statute and strongly oppose these efforts to turn career criminals back out on our streets.

National studies consistently show that repeat offenders tend to switch between violent and property crimes, often engaging in related types of crimes such as property and drug offenses. Career criminals don't specialize. At best, they tend to progress from less serious to more serious crimes.

Corrections Cabinet data used to support its claims is woefully inadequate and seriously misleading. Their data on criminal records excludes out-of-state and federal convictions as well as Kentucky incarcerations prior to 1979. Nor do they take into account prior arrest records or reduced charges resulting from plea bargaining.

We in Kentucky need to take a look at how we deal with those who threaten the very fabric of our social order. When compared to surrounding states, Kentucky already confines the lowest percentage of convicted adult offenders (Kentucky 21.4%, Tennessee 47.8%, Virginia 42.4%, Missouri 29.0%, Indiana 29.9%).

In addition, Kentucky paroles prisoners with the lowest average length of stay of any state in this country based on 1982 statistics. Kentucky's maximum sentence of 20 years for a household burglar with two prior felony convictions is already low compared to other states, such as Illinois where the maximum sentence is life; Indiana, 40 years; Missouri, 30 years; Ohio, 25 years; and West Virginia, life.

The time has come for the people of Kentucky to deal seriously with the problem of crime in this state. It is time that the people quit letting the Corrections Cabinet determine what punishments are suitable for crimes. It is the people of this State and their elected leaders who should be determining the appropriate response to crime in this Commonwealth. The time has come to say "no" to leniency. The time has come to say "no" to efforts to let criminals loose on our society without punishment commensurate with the crime.

Admittedly Kentucky's prisons and jails are crowded and the Corrections Cabinet is faced with a difficult task. However, short-term solutions, especially putting career criminals back on the streets, are not acceptable. We must face the fact that more prison space is needed and be prepared to fund that need.

Reduced Charges Not Judge's Doing

I am writing you about the dispositions of cases in my court. I am of the opinion that the news media has a duty to accurately report court dispositions. In the past you have on most occasions listed D.U.I. cases that have been amended to other charges but you have failed to state that these cases were amended either by the County Attorney or the arresting officer.

It is true that these cases are public records and the news media should report them, but the reporting should be complete. Please report all of the facts in the future. I have always made an attempt to be honest with the news media, therefore I expect the same type of treatment. Your courtesy will be appreciated.

to furnish them health benefits than any other county employees.

While the county routinely pays insurance premiums for those on the fiscal court payroll, the sheriff, like the county clerk and the jailer, is supposed to provide in his own budget for his workers' insurance coverage, members of the fiscal court have argued.

But, in arguing his case before the fiscal court recently, Hale cited an Attorney-General's opinion to the effect that, if the county pays insurance premiums for any of its employees, it must pay for all employees who ask for it.

Had His Day in Court

RE: Letter to Editor which appeared in the August 1, 1984 Floyd County Times from Belinda Vanhooe:

It would appear that Mrs. Vanhooe is grossly misinformed.

First of all, she indicates that Judge Conley has a selective enforcement of child support. There have been 11 motions for rule brought before the Court in Mr. Vanhooe's case from January 18, 1980 to August 3, 1984. It becomes readily apparent that Mr. Vanhooe believes that he can come before the Court, make various representations, agree to pay certain amounts, and then deliberately refuse to pay these amounts. The record further reveals that when Mr. Vanhooe divorced his former wife, he signed an agreement to pay her $90 per week. This was reduced to $60 per week, and has further been reduced to $37.50 per week, over my objections.

The Court orders concerning Mr. Vanhooe are rather clear on their face. It is specified that if he does not purge himself of contempt of court, the clerk is directed to issue a warrant for his arrest.

He has been before the Court on no less than 11 occasions. He has been arrested on no less than two occasions. Moreover, during the course of these events, he has not paid a single attorney fee. Apparently, he expects this to come out of child support which should go for his child.

As a final resort, child support was finally ordered to be paid by his employer. Maybe Mr. Vanhooe now appreciates his duty and obligation to his child to provide for her support.

There has not been any selective enforcement. To chastise Judge Conley in this situation, totally ignores all the facts. It does not seem to bother Mrs. Vanhooe that her husband refuses to realize any obligation to provide support for his children.

Mr. Vanhooe has had his day in Court on at least 11 occasions. Obviously, no rights of due process were ever denied to him.

Bet We Did!

Am writing you in regard to the sparse coverage your paper gave of the life and death of our great Congressman Carl D. Perkins. I think it's a reflection on our district when even one little paper takes this attitude.

Even out of state papers gave more coverage than you did.

He was a great man, a friend to all of us. So why not say it? Bet you don't print this.

Pay Tribute to Perkins

When we heard of the death of Congressman Carl D. Perkins, we, along with many others, felt the loss not only of a great Congressman but also the loss of a great Kentuckian who had integrity, pride, and the greatest respect for the government and the people of not only Eastern Kentucky but all people in general.

Sometimes, when we elect politicians and they make their way to our country's capital, they tend to forget the people who put them there. However, Carl D. Perkins never forgot "his people." He always remembered the coal miners, poverty-stricken families, the elderly, and the young people back home where he grew up into an honorable, respected and loved neighbor, friend and Congressman. Carl D. Perkins had a family of his own, but the people he represented considered him "family," too. If we reflect on Carl D. Perkins as a Congressman and as a person and remember the things he accomplished for us and remember his love, laughter, friendliness and kindness, perhaps we can all gain something from this man.

Carl D. Perkins will be missed by his family, politicians, and the people he represented. We are glad to say, "Thank you, Carl Perkins, for always being yourself."

pointed out. Dudeson denied any deals were struck.

Allen, who said he has not had a steady job since he was laid off from National Mines two years ago, denied he had ever sold drugs. It was Marvin Neeley, not Creech, who approached him on Nov. 16, 1982, and the PCP Neeley picked up was some he had pressed Allen to take and sell about a week before, Allen testified.

Allen said that, like most other Hueysville-area residents, he had lived for years in fear of the Neeleys and he felt he had no choice when Marvin Neeley and three companions stopped him on the road and forced the PCP on him.

Neeley returned a week later asking for payment, but Allen said he returned the drugs to him instead. No money changed hands, he said.

The case was tried before Johnson Circuit Judge James Knight, Floyd Circuit Judge Hollie Conley disqualified himself because of family connections. The jurors announced they were deadlocked, around 6 p.m., and told Judge Knight they saw no point in returning to their deliberations.

The case could be re-tried, dismissed, or—as frequently happens in cases of this kind—plea-bargained.

More Expensive Than Pork Roast? Baloney, Says USDA

It's true. Bologna, or as some people call it, baloney, is more expensive than pork roasts as a source of protein, according to figures released by the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

The economy of a cut depends on the amount of cooked lean meat it provides and the price per pound. The cooked lean meat figure is one of the determining factors in how much protein a particular type of meat provides.

"Protein is the reason most of us eat meat," said Dr. Darlene Forester, Extension food and nutrition specialist with the University of Kentucky College of Agriculture.

"Protein is the primary nutrient of most meats. Red meats also provide a good source of iron," Forester said. "And while some meat products and meat substitutes may provide more pounds per dollar, they are not providing more actual food, or nutrition, per dollar since the extra weight comes from fillers and extenders such as fat, powdered milk and grains."

Milk, dry beans, eggs, peanut butter, bread and beef liver are the least expensive sources of protein in most grocery stores.

Young men, the group with the highest recommended daily allowance of protein, can meet their daily requirement with about 33 cents worth of dry beans, according to the USDA figures.

Beef liver is the least expensive meat source of protein at a cost of about 66 cents to provide a day's requirement of the nutrient.

Enriched white bread is an inexpensive source of protein, but a young male would have to eat 1½ pounds of it to obtain his recommended daily allowance of protein.

A bone-in pork loin roast would provide a daily allowance of protein at a cost of about $1.83 compared to a cost for the same amount of protein from bologna of approximately $2.41.

By comparing the cost of protein in various foods, shoppers can plan meals according to a ratio of expense and nutrition.

Ocean perch, for example, costs less per pound than a rump roast, but it takes more perch to provide the necessary amount of protein that it does rump roast. So, at $2.32 a pound, a rump roast is a less expensive protein source than ocean perch at only $1.96 a pound.

If your nose itches, some say, it is a sign that you will have a fight.

Chairpersons Named For Fund-Raisers

The Central Regional Office of St. Jude Children's Research Hospital announced this week the names of three Floyd county residents who have agreed to chair the St. Jude's fund-raising Bike-a-Thons in their respective communities. They include:

Jay Hamilton, for Beaver, Mrs. Dorothy Slone, Ligon, and Mrs. Joene Stewart for the Bike-a-Thon at Harold.

St. Jude Children's Research Hospital was founded by entertainer Danny Thomas. The institution opened its doors to the public in 1962 to combat catastrophic diseases which afflict our children. St. Jude Hospital is non-sectarian, non-discriminatory, and provides total medical care to over 4,200 patients.

At St. Jude, scientists and physicians are working side by side seeking not only a better means of treatment, but also the causes, cures and prevention of these terrible killers.

All findings and information gained at the hospital are shared freely with doctors and hospitals all over the world. Thanks to St. Jude's children who have leukemia, Hodgkin's disease, sickle cell anemia, and other child killing diseases now have a better chance to live.

The Bike-a-Thon program is dedicated to "Jaime". Jaime is from Ohio and was diagnosed with leukemia in May of 1983, and began treatment at St. Jude Children's Research Hospital. Today, her cancer is in remission and she is doing quite well. Jaime is a living example of the progress and success of the research, patient care, and educational programs of this intentionally recognized hospital.

We sincerely appreciate the concern that Mrs. Stewart has for our work and we hope the citizens of Harold will support the Bike-a-Thon this fall to help provide the funds that are needed to preserve the worlds greatest asset... "Our Children."

Serious Damage Caused By High Blood Pressure

High blood pressure is second only to smoking as a factor that increases your risk of heart disease. High blood pressure affects nearly one in every five American adults. Some people think having high blood pressure means that you're nervous or that you work too hard. That's not true.

High blood pressure really is a warning that your heart is working harder than normal to pump blood and extra fluid through your body. When high blood pressure is not treated, it can lead to serious damage to blood vessels that feed the heart, the brain and the kidneys. Uncontrolled high blood pressure is the major cause of heart attacks, strokes and kidney disease.

Correction

The obituary of Ronald Ousley, of Martin, which appeared in the June 6 issue of The Times, listed the name of his sister incorrectly. Her name is Kaye Johnson, of Gary, Indiana.

MUCH IMPROVED

Miss Sallie Ann Goebel, who was seriously injured several weeks ago, has shown marked improvement in the past week. She is a patient at Cardinal Hill Hospital, Lexington.

Newsome Wins Pike Acquittal

Forrester Newsome, 65-year-old former Ligon man, was acquitted last week of a murder charge stemming from the 1983 death of an elderly Pikeville man.

Newsome was accused of beating G.E. "Smitty" Smith during an argument at the apartment of Reedy Blair in September, 1983. Mrs. Blair—who said she was engaged to Smith and that the two men were fighting over her—testified that Newsome felled Smith with a blow. Prosecutors said the blow caused Smith's death.

But the defense argument, orchestrated by Public Defender Ned Pillersdorf, was that Smith was drunk and fell, hitting his head. A pathologist testified that the victim suffered from cirrhosis of the liver, a condition that makes internal bleeding more likely in the event of a blow or fall.

The Pikeville Circuit Court jury deliberated about three hours Tuesday before finding Newsome not guilty.

A district court jury last week found Randy Hall, 38, of Craynor, guilty of public intoxication and recommended a $100 fine. He is being held in the county jail prior to his return to the state penitentiary as a parole violator.

Police said Hall showed signs of being drunk near the scene of a fatal shooting at Grethel on June 7. He and John Paul Blair were reportedly arguing in the back of a pickup traveling up Mud Creek shortly before Blair was shot and killed. Ruth Greer, 27, of Prater Creek, faces a murder charge in connection with Blair's death.

Hall said the disorientation noted by police officers was the result of his having fallen from the pickup.

Miss Hayden, Mr. Webb Wed

Miss Terrie Lynn Hayden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Asie Hayden, of Thealka, Ky., and Mr. Thomas E. Webb, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl E. Webb, of Langley, Ky., were united in marriage June 30 at 2 p.m. in a candlelight ceremony at the Thealka Free Will Baptist Church. The double-ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Bob Varney, pastor of the Maytown First Baptist Church before an altar decorated with candelabra flanking an arch entwined with greenery, blue carnations, and white roses.

Musical selections, chosen by the couple, and sung by Sherry Lyons, Jeff Daniels and Kathy Wright were "Almost Paradise" and "We've Only Just Begun" and "The Wedding Prayer" by Mrs. Caroline Owens, accompanied by her daughter.

The bride, escorted to the altar by her father and given in marriage by her parents, wore a gown of white dacron organza with silk Venise bodice adorned with seed pearls and featuring a chapel train edged in ruffles to an apron effect in front. The sheer bishop sleeves were also trimmed with Venise lace and seed pearls. She wore a matching veil edged in silk Venise lace and carried a bouquet of white roses with blue baby's breath and long, blue streamers. For something old, she wore the wedding ring given to the groom's great-grandmother at her own wedding more than 69 years ago.

Serving as matron of honor was Shelva Marlowe, aunt of the bride, and the bridesmaids were Twana Meek and Kathy Murphy, of Paintsville, all wearing matching long, blue silk gowns. They carried bouquets of white roses and blue carnations with white streamers. Deann Marlowe, cousin of the bride, was the flower girl. Her long white dress with a tiny blue design was decorated with small blue bows at the hemline, neck and sleeves and tied at the waist with a blue ribbon sash.

The ringbearer was Charles G. (Chuckie) May, II, of Allen, cousin of the groom. Serving his nephew as best man was Thomas Dean Webb, and the ushers were Earl Stephen Webb and Keith Phillip Webb, brothers of the groom. Guest book attendants were Miss Christie Marlowe, of Thealka, and Miss Bridgett Akers, of Hunter, Ky.

Mrs. Hayden attended her daughter's wedding wearing a blue and lilac street-length dress and a white orchid corsage.

The groom's mother was attired in a blue street-length dress with matching accessories and a white orchid corsage.

Following the wedding, a reception was held in the church dining room. Serving were Mrs. Joyce Akers, Mrs. Edna Click, Mrs. Sheba Prater, Mrs. Lynn May, Miss Barbara Johnson, Miss Patricia Webb and Miss Tammyra Ann Prater.

The bride's table was covered with a blue cloth with an overlay of white lace and held a four-tiered white wedding cake decorated in blue with a blue fountain and a miniature bride and groom. Four matching cakes were made by the groom's aunt, Miss Patricia Webb.

After spending their honeymoon in Nashville, Tenn. and at Gatlinburg, Tenn., the couple is now residing at Langley where Mr. Webb is associated with the Webb Trucking Company.

Only One Week Remains Of Jenny Wiley Season

Only one week remains in the 1984 summer season at the Jenny Wiley Theatre.

Final performances are scheduled as follows: "Annie," Saturday, Aug. 18, and Sunday, Aug. 19; "Fiddler on the Roof," Thursday, August 16; "Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat," Wednesday, August 15 and Friday, August 17.

Audiences have been building steadily over the summer and this last week is the final chance for area residents to see all three shows.

"Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat" has been a popular hit this summer. Its retelling of the Bible story of Joseph and his coat of many colors is done entirely in song and dance.

"This is the show for the whole family. It has a little C-W and some good, ole rock'n-roll—something for everybody," said Keith Stevens, managing director of the theatre.

"Annie," in its second year at the theatre has been a popular show, also. Annie, the orphan, and her dog, Sandy, travel through the streets of New York City searching for happiness in the mid-depression 1930's.

The third summer show is "Fiddler on the Roof," based on the stories of Sholem Aleichem. A Broadway hit, it tells of Tevye, the poor dairyman, who struggles with tradition to keep his family together.

All performances are at 8:30 p.m. at the Jenny Wiley State Park Amphitheatre. For ticket information, call (606) 886-9274.

DENTAL PROBLEMS IN HISTORY

Q. Did early cultures have much the same dental problems we do?

A. They unquestionably did. Ancient Egyptian papyri indicate periodontal and gum diseases were prevalent and studies of 4,000-year-old mummies bear this out. Sumerians around 3,000 B.C. tried to practice dental hygiene and excavations in Mesopotamia yielded golden toothpicks.

The oldest known Chinese medical work (2500 B.C.) goes into detail about oral diseases. In fact, the Chinese may have invented the toothbrush, a chewstick, with fibers that separated into bristles. Talmudic writings describe attempts at wire-splinting loosened teeth, and a Roman, Aulus Cornelius Celsus, recommended tartar removal and chewing unripe pears and apples to treat gingivitis.

Other ancient writings tell of medications ranging from astringent mouthwashes and dentifrice powders to counter-irritants to treat gum disease.

Pharmacy Footnotes

By HAROLD COOLEY
POISON IVY

Poison ivy usually runs its course in about 10 to 14 days and there is very little that can be done to stop it. However, the symptoms can be treated. They usually consist of severe itching and a rash, accompanied by little blisters that ooze a liquid when scratched. Years ago, it was thought that the liquid caused the rash to spread. This is not so. It is the poisonous substance from the plant that causes the rash. Rid it from your clothes and body. Preparations containing tannic acid will help dry up the rash and cortisone products play an important role in wound healing. Antihistamines will help reduce the itching. The old standby is calamine lotion. It dries the skin to form a protective coating to minimize scratching and possible infection.

For a complete selection of over the counter remedies to treat everything from poison ivy to the common head cold see COOLEY APOTHECARY. In addition to everyday low prices, we offer complete patient profiles, and plenty of free parking. If you are new to this community we want you to know that we would be honored to become your pharmacy. We are located at #2 Town Center Bldg., 886-8106. Master Charge and Visa honored plus we welcome all third party payments. Open: Mon.-Fri., 9-5:30, Sat., 9-4.

HANDY HINT:

If you have poison ivy near your eyes or genitals, see a doctor.

IN MEMORY

MONTANA SPURGEON HENLEY
Who passed away March 11, 1983.
Dear God, please take this message to our loving mother, Montana Spurgeon Henley. Tell her that we didn't forget her birthday—August 12th—and tell her how much we miss her and give her all of our special love.

She wished no one a last farewell—she said goodbye to none. Those heavenly gates just opened wide, and a loving still voice said, "Come". Even though her soul is now at rest and free from care and pain, the world would seem like Heaven, if we could have our mother back again.

It broke our hearts to lose her. But she didn't go alone. For a certain part of us went with her the day God called her home.

Happy Birthday, Mom, from your children who you left behind. We will meet you in Heaven as soon as God decides it is time. There is no death when you live in the hearts of those who love you.

YOUR LOVING CHILDREN 1t.

Two-Day Arts, Crafts Fair Slated For Ky. Highlands Folk Festival

The 19th annual Kentucky Highlands Folk Festival is expanding its arts and crafts fair to two days this year, according to Mrs. Dorothy Harris, the festival's chairperson for arts and crafts.

The crafts fair will be held on Friday Sept. 7, from 12 noon to 6 p.m. and on Saturday, Sept. 8, beginning at 10 a.m.

"We are expanding the arts and crafts fair at the request of many of our exhibitors," Mrs. Harris said. "The fair is held on the parking lot of the Jenny Wiley State Park amphitheatre, and the location and setting are perfect for an event of this kind."

Thirty participants have already pre-registered to exhibit and sell their traditional and original arts and crafts, with many more expected to follow.

Artists and craftspeople who attend the KHFF come from all over Kentucky as well as the local area, and a few come from out of state.

Items available for purchase will include folk toys, pastels, colored pencil, drawings, watercolor, oil, tole, acrylic and airbrush, stenciling, handweaving, white oak baskets, white water rafting, routing red wood signs, cornhusk dolls and nativity sets, macrame, crocheted and hand knitted, quilts, applique and embroidery, silk and dried flower arrangements, shaker and folk household items, pottery, ceramics and musical instruments.

The fair is part of the three-day Kentucky Highlands Folk Festival which will be held September 7-9 at Jenny Wiley State Resort Park.

Other events include performances in the Amphitheatre: a Country Dance

Celebration on Friday Sept. 7 at 7 p.m.; Traditional Music of Appalachia on Saturday Sept. 8 at 7 p.m. and Religious Music in the Hills on Sunday afternoon at 5.

In addition to the Arts and Crafts fair, Saturday's activities will include workshops and exhibitions in music and dance, workshops in genealogy, Appalachian literature, a shaped-note singing school, a children's fun fair and mini-concerts by various festival artists.

A small admission will be charged for the two evening programs in the amphitheatre. All daytime events will be free.

Human Fetuses Found Last Week in Johnson

(From The Lexington Herald)
PAINTSVILLE—Human fetuses found along a creek bank near here apparently were stolen from an abandoned hospital's warehouse, authorities said.

Johnson County Coroner Bryan Fraley said he received a tip from an anonymous caller late (last) Wednesday night telling him he would find dead babies on Paint Creek bank, about one mile from the old Paintsville Hospital.

He decided it was too dark to conduct a successful search, so he waited until Thursday, when he was joined by an assistant, Ramey Wells.

They found the preserved fetuses in bottles along the creek, and thought they might have come from the hospital's storage building. The hospital was closed about a year ago when the Paul B. Hall Regional Medical Center opened.

"Upon checking the storage building we discovered other fetuses. Evidence showed the building had been vandalized some time back and the bottles had been taken out and thrown along the creek bank," Fraley said.

Fetuses often were stored in the warehouse after patients suffered miscarriages, he said. They were used for teaching purposes.

During their search of the storage unit, Fraley and Wells also found picric acid, a poisonous, bitter acid used in chemical analysis, dyes and explosives. Haslip said yesterday that he had asked a state police bomb unit to examine the material.

Daniels Reunion

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Harris again hosted the reunion of the Peter and Ella Coleman Daniels family at their home near here. The get-together took place Saturday and Sunday, July 28 and 29. About 70 descendants attended. The children played games and enjoyed the swimming pool and observed the family displays. The older youth reminisced and played games.

The group elected to meet only in even years in the future. The next meeting will be held at the same time and place in 1986.

Attending the reunion were: Blaine and Betty Jo Daniels, Betty Bralley, Brad and Susan Daniels and son, Nicholas, Blaine Allen and Linda Daniels and Berniece Keating and daughter Jessica, all of Louisville; Kenis Coleman, Jackie Ratliff, Ed and Betty Daniels, Jack and Ruthie May and Kelly and Gwen Daniels and daughter, Misty, of Pikeville; Viola McMannis, Walter Daniels and Judy and Agnes Madden, Columbus, Ohio; Robert C. Burchett, Myrtle Beach, S.C.; Joe and Racine Daniels, Naples, Fla.; Edna Moore, San Bernardino, Calif.; Sue Holden and Tommy Donnelley, Apple Valley, Calif.; Nick Evasen and Evelyn Pitts, Atwater, Ohio, Waid and Barbara Berger, Salem, Ohio; Paul and Loretta Daniels and son, Denny, Ypsilanti, Mich.; John H. and Jeanette Daniels and children, Ralph, Linda, Clarence and Misty Flo, Terry and Anette VanHoose and Amanda, from Kimper; Mike and Gail Daniels and Michelle, Blaina and Amie, Belleville, Mich.; Karen Daniels and son, Chris, Virginia Beach, Va.; Don and Ellen Holbrook, Lorri and Robbie, Kim Burchett, Estelle Harris, Edith Burchett and the host and hostess, Robert and Dorothy Harris, all of Prestonsburg; Richard and Suzanne Reynolds and daughters, Kristi and Leah, from Allen; Clayton Burchett, Jr. and Connie Strickland, Rock Hill, N.C.

Trophies were given to Leah Reynolds (youngest), Kelly Daniels (oldest youth) and Edna Moore, who traveled farthest.

Early in 1984, there were over 27 million working wives, of whom nearly 15 million were performing the dual roles of mother and wage earner. Mothers of over 9 million children under age 6 were in the labor force, as were the mothers of nearly 15 million children 6 to 13 years old, according to the Bureau of Labor Statistics of the U.S. Department of Labor.

School Discipline Study Set for Early Beginning

Members of an advisory council to study discipline problems in Kentucky schools and recommend guidelines for a statewide discipline code were named last Thursday by Superintendent of Public Instruction Alice McDonald.

"The educators and community leaders serving on this council will provide a valuable service in pointing the way toward a code of student conduct that will improve the climate for learning in Kentucky's classrooms," McDonald said.

Because of the importance to students of the code to be developed, she said, the council members include a student, Phillip Peace, 17, a senior at Holmes High School in Covington. The council will be considering student rights as well as student responsibilities, she noted.

Formation of the Kentucky Council on Student Discipline was required under Senate Bill 26, which was passed by the 1984 General Assembly.

The council will hold its organizational meeting at 10 a.m. Aug. 28 in the state board room on the first floor of the Capital Plaza Tower in Frankfort.

"Effective school discipline is closely related to the preparation of students for responsible adult citizenship," McDonald said. "Establishment of a statewide standard for student conduct will help to create an environment of mutual respect and cooperation in the classroom."

Recommendations from the council will be submitted to the State Board of Education this fall, she said.

The legislation calls for the guidelines to be approved by the state board by Jan. 1, 1985, for dissemination to the state's 180 local school districts. The school districts will then use the guidelines to develop their own local discipline codes.

"Learning cannot take place when classroom instruction is continually interrupted by unruly students, when teachers must spend more time on discipline than on teaching," McDonald said.

Unruly students disrupt the learning processes for themselves and others, she said, and disciplinary problems may even contribute to the departure of good teachers from the teaching profession.

"Students need to know what is expected of them," she said. "A clear code of conduct will help our students to know what behaviors are expected in the classroom and on school grounds and what behaviors will not be tolerated."

Despite the Kentucky concern with school discipline, a new survey of National Education Association (NEA) teacher members shows that 68 percent are satisfied with student behavior in their classes. And an even higher number, 85 percent, say their schools provide a safe and orderly school environment.

NEA surveyed 2,000 classroom teachers in May on several key topics that have been in the limelight during the past year's national dialogue on education. The poll focused on violence and discipline, merit pay, teacher evaluation, educational decision making, and the use of standardized tests for students.

On the violence issue, 12.9 percent of the teachers surveyed said their personal property had been stolen, while 5.5 percent reported that personal items had been intentionally damaged. In 1980, the figures were 15.4 percent for stolen personal property, and 7.2 percent for damaged property.

Physical attacks on teachers are down as well, according to NEA. Some 3.7 percent said they had been assaulted by a student within the past year. In 1980, 5.2 percent reported attacks.

Applebutter Time At East Point Club

At a recent meeting of the East Point Area Development Club the following officers were elected for the coming year: W.L. Baldrige, president; Randy McCleese, vice president; Mrs. Wanda Wells, secretary; Mrs. Betsy Baldrige, treasurer.

Scholarships have been awarded to Miss Alma L. Freeman, Morehead State University; Miss Lisa Greer, Prestonsburg Community College; Miss Stephanie Wilcox, Mike Williams and Ralph G. Hager, all to Mayo Vocational-Technical School, Paintsville.

This year's applebutter making, which helps to pay for these scholarships, will begin this Saturday, and those who wish to help, are urged to do so, if not every Saturday, just any Saturday. The help will be very appreciated.

Farms Heavily Damaged By May Flooding May Be Eligible for Help

Farms suffering severe damage due to flooding last May may be eligible for assistance under the Emergency Conservation Program (ECP) administered by the county Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service (ASCS) if the damage:

- Will be so costly to rehabilitate that Federal assistance is or will be required to return the land to productive agricultural use.
 - Is unusual and is not the type would recur frequently.
 - Materially affects the productive capacity of the farmland.
 - If not treated will impair or endanger the land.
- A farmer qualifying for ECP may receive cost-share levels of up to 64% of the first $62,500 of the eligible cost for restoring the land. The following types of measures may be eligible:
- Removing debris from farmland.
 - Grading, shaping or releveling severely damaged farmland.
 - Restoring conservation structures and other similar installations.

Farmers who feel the damage is sufficiently severe and their capabilities are such that assistance is necessary to correct the problem should contact the county ASCS office and request assistance by no later than August 31, the deadline for filing requests.

Practices should not be started until an "on-site" inspection of the damaged area has been made by the COC or its representative. The county committee will review this inspection when considering the request for cost-share assistance.

FLOYD COUNTY HEALTH NEWS

By JANE BOND
Health Educator

Cervical cancer is one of the most curable of all cancers, yet it kills approximately 11,000 women each year. These cancers could have been detected and treatment begun in the earliest stages through the Pap test. This is a simple painless test which takes only a few moments of a woman's time and it could save her life.

The Floyd County Health Department is having a Pap clinic on Wednesday, August 22 from 8:30 a.m. until 2 p.m. The clinic is open to women of all ages, but those women age 45 and over are especially urged to take advantage of this free service.

Classmates Meet

A dinner was held Friday, August 3, at May Lodge, Jenny Wiley State Park, by a few classmates of the 1951 graduating class of Martin High School. An enjoyable evening was spent and the possibility of a reunion being scheduled for the 1951 graduating class of Martin High School was discussed. Those interested in having a reunion may write to Peggy Rector, Box 906, Martin, Ky., 41649.

"Fishing for the Green"

By: EMILY MORSE
The fisheries division of the Department of Fish and Wildlife Resources has been fishing for funds.

Since 1979, the division has awaited passage of the D-J expansion legislation which could increase its federal funding by as much as $750,000 annually.

Recently, fisheries landed this sizeable catch. On July 18th, President Reagan signed into law the Boating Safety and Sport Fish Restoration Act, which is basically an expansion of the Dingell-Johnson Act signed by President Truman in 1950.

Senator Malcolm Wallop of Wyoming and Congressman John Breaux of Louisiana are two of the principal sponsors of the law and, appropriately enough, the fund will be referred to as the Wallop-Breaux Fund.

It will increase federal funding nationwide from the current $35 million to about $110-$120 million. States should begin to receive the monies sometime after October 1, 1985.

The Wallop-Breaux Fund consists of two accounts: The Sport Fish Restoration Account and The Boat Safety Account. Fisheries will receive money from the first account.

The Sport Fish Restoration Account will receive $51 million from a manufacturer's tax on fishing tackle and accessories. Another $20 million will come from a tax on imported fishing tackle, yachts, and pleasure craft. About $45 million is expected from a portion of a nine cent per gallon tax on motor boat fuel.

In addition, the act requires that 10 percent of these monies be used for the improvement and development of access areas. This money will provide facilities for boat launching and vehicle parking at selected streams, rivers and lakes.

Congress recognized that there may be a tendency for some states to use these new monies in lieu of existing non-federal funds and clearly stated their intent as follows: "The conferees, in establishing this expanded funding source intend that the new revenues be added to existing state fishery programs available from traditional fishery sources and not as a substitute therefore."

Kentucky has many plans for spending the money. The fisheries division intends to expand several programs, such as lake management, fishery research, technical guidance, stream inventory and classification, hatcheries, fish transportation, habitat improvement and cooperative programs.

A new program to increase fishing opportunities in urban areas is being planned. Working with the department's division of conservation education, fishing clinics will be conducted to provide basic instruction in fishing techniques, fish identification and behavior, cooking methods, and safety. This program would provide fishing opportunities for people in selected metro areas who are unable to travel to distant public waters and instruction for anyone wanting to learn about fish and fishing.

Don Wallen Named National High School Coach of Year

For several years now Floyd county's Don Wallen has been winning a steady string of honors as a basketball coach. Since 1957, when he began his coaching career with a nine-year stay at Wheelwright High School in his home town, his teams have won 649 games while losing only 153. His Martin County Tigers at Stuart, Fla. have won three state championships, and he has been Coach of the Year, area-wise, four times, and four times he has been named Florida's Coach of the Year.

And now Don Wallen at age 48 and in his 27th year as a high school basketball coach has attained the ultimate honor. He has been named National High School Basketball Coach of the Year.

Happily, the honor to Wallen was conferred in his native Kentucky, at Rupp Arena, Lexington. Incidentally, Rupp Arena was named for the late Adolph Rupp, famed University of Kentucky coach who first urged Wallen to get into coaching.

Said Wallen:

"The fact that I was in Lexington, where it all started for me... I was influenced by Coach Rupp, and there I was with my family and coaching colleagues. It would be a great thrill to win anywhere, but in the state where it all started and in the city where I grew up... When I was a kid I used to watch the great UK kids play, and to accept an award in the building named after Coach Rupp—it couldn't be done in a better way."

It was the third time Wallen had been nominated for the national honor.

Back home in Stuart, Fla., the Martin County Commission and the Stuart City Commission proclaimed July 8-14 Don Wallen Week.

"If he wanted to be mayor or superintendent or any other position, they'd let him do it," said Gary Jones, Martin County athletic director. "That's how much the community thinks of him."

The Wallen story is one of family, and it continues that way. Three days after the ceremony at which he received the top honor accorded in the nation to a high school coach his mother, Maggie Wallen, was 68 years old, and Don Wallen, his wife, Betty, and sons, Chris and Mike, were there in Wheelwright to celebrate the occasion with her.

Coach Wallen received his B.S. degree from Georgia Southern College in 1957. After graduation, Wallen began his coaching career at Wheelwright High School. During his nine-year tenure as head coach of his alma mater, his teams won 13 championships and compiled a record of 219 wins and 37 defeats.

In 1968, Wallen was named head coach at MCHS. Since that time, his Tigers have become a legend in Florida basketball. The Tigers have won 39 championships which includes three state titles, one sectional title, seven regional titles, nine district titles, ten conference titles, and nine Invitational titles. They have compiled a record of 403 wins and 109 defeats, which includes a conference record of 183 wins and 39 defeats and a state play-off record of 55 wins and 14 defeats and 20 championships. The Tigers have played in the state finals 5 times, winning in 1971-72, 1972-73, and 1978-79.

Wallen's 26 year record as a head coach is 622 wins and 146 defeats and 52 championships. By virtue of his 622 victories, he is Florida's winningest active coach.

Coach Wallen received his M.A. degree from Florida Atlantic University in 1968. Currently, he is serving as assistant principal at Stuart Middle School.

Nine-year record at Wheelwright High School; 219 wins, 37 defeats, 13 championships.

Seventeen-year record at Martin County High School: 403 wins, 109 defeats, 39 championships.

Cable viewers are enjoying the latest video from Waylon Jennings, now being aired as an "Album Flash" on Cinemax. The video, which previews Jennings' latest album "Never Could Toe the Mark" and the single by the same name, also features Johnny Cash and Robert Duval.

Bill Monroe has been busy recently. Not long ago, the singer taped "Country Sportsman" for the Nashville Network on Lake Erie and also hosted his 18th Bean Blossom Festival at the Brown County Jamboree near Indianapolis. Ralph Stanley, Jim & Jesse and the Virginia Boys, Wilma Lee Cooper, James Monroe and The Osborne Brothers were some of the artists enjoyed by the more than 40,000 people attending the five-day event.

Monroe also recently presided over the opening of the Bill Monroe Hall of Fame and Museum in Nashville. The museum features many of his personal collections as well as items donated by other bluegrass and country personalities. Such Bluegrass stars as Jim & Jesse, James Monroe, The Sullivan Family and The Johnson Mountain Boys provided the entertainment for the opening.

Rumor has it that the Million Dollar Band may do a television special and an album in coming months. The band, which features Roy Clark, Danny Davis, Boots Randolph, Floyd Cramer, Johnny Gimble, Jethro Burns and Charlie McCoy, also taped a recent episode of "Hee Haw."

Brothers, The Burrito Brothers and Butch Baker were among those who played at the Music Country Radio Network Superstar Spectacular during this year's Fan Fair. The live broadcast, which lasted four hours, was the first of its kind and went out to some 100 radio stations nationwide. Twenty-five artists performed, and fans stood in line for up to 12 hours at the Opry House to grab the best seats when the doors opened. Another 15,000 fans were disappointed when tickets were sold out for the event in less than two hours.

Grand Ole Opry star Bill Anderson is host of The Nashville Network's daily half-hour country music game show, "Fandango." The show's contestants compete for a slew of prizes, including vacations, appliances and home furnishings.

"Fandango" producers will interview potential contestants to appear on the show throughout the summer. People who have a good general knowledge of country music and its personalities are encouraged to call (615) 885-1545.

ON THE SPOT

Dan Rather will anchor coverage from Dallas of the 1984 Republican National Convention MONDAY through THURSDAY, AUG. 20-23 on CBS.

Obituary of Mary Elizabeth Wells

Funeral services were held Sunday, August 12, for Mary Elizabeth Wells, of Auxier, who died August 10th, at the Chandler Medical Center in Lexington, several weeks after undergoing heart surgery. She is survived by a sister, Lee Clark, and a nephew, Jim Clark, both of Virginia; and her cousin, Christine Moran Patton and family, of Auxier. Her family wishes to express grateful appreciation for the many expressions of sympathy extended by her friends. The following eulogy was given by Mrs. Wells, nephew, Jim Clark, at services at Carter Funeral Home:

She was born July 21, 1913, in Jenkins, and—if for no other reason—1913 was a very good year. The first daughter of Proctor Lee and Lucy Hemma Clark was given the strong and beautiful name Mary Elizabeth. It was a name worthy of the fine lady she was to become.

But, just three years after she was born, there occurred the first of several tragedies and events that were to shape and challenge her character and her endurance. It was then that her mother died, probably of appendicitis. It was a monumental event for a three-year-old, and it led Mary Elizabeth and her sister, Lee, then just two-and-a-half months old, to begin a new life, with their grandmother, Elizabeth Davis Ford.

Elizabeth Davis Ford was, by all accounts, an extraordinary woman. She was known for her great compassion, generosity and caring, and for her stamina. By any modern measure this was a very primitive time. Herculean efforts were commonly required to get a family through a single day. Remember, this was a time before electric homes, microwave ovens, convenience foods, central heating, automobiles, and television, and all the rest we would be hard put to live without today. Family members shared the load. Everybody worked. Children had many chores, depending on the season. Days tended to begin very early and they were long and hard.

It was later the same year that her mother died that Mary Elizabeth went to Van Lear to visit Uncle Tom and Hazel Moran. He later said it was the longest and probably the best visit anyone ever made. Mary Elizabeth joined those newly-weds and remained with them until her marriage. It was then she became like a sister to Crit, and a dear and wonderful aunt to me.

So, it was out of this beginning that Mary Elizabeth came to appreciate and to believe so strongly in sharing with and helping others. In fact, with her it was to become a kind of magnificent obsession. It was a gift those growing up with her recognized and called by many names. Some said it was dedication. Others called it concern. Still others said it was simply loving, that Mary Elizabeth loved just about everybody.

As was the custom in those days, children going to high school moved in with the closest relatives near the closest high school. In Mary Elizabeth's case, it was with Melvin and Ella Davis Hall. A relative told me that she and Lon Hall walked every day from Davis Branch to Paintsville, a very long walk, to school. And then, a very long walk home. It helped her appreciate the value of a good education, and many of us in this chapel can be grateful for that, because she taught us and, in many cases, our children. She taught us to read and to write and to calculate. And most importantly, she taught us to dream!

Floyd Students Improve On Tests

Superintendent Pete Grigsby, Jr. announced this week that Floyd County Schools had improved their test scores and state ranking this past school term. Superintendent Grigsby commends the students, teachers and administrators for this significant achievement.

On the Comprehensive Test of Basic Skills students in grade 3, 5, 7 and 10 demonstrated dramatic improvement over last year's scores.

The CTBS is designed to measure reading, spelling, language, math, reference skills, science and social studies. Results of the third and seventh grades in this county exceeded the national average this year. Although the fifth and tenth grades were below the national norm, their scores indicate vast improvement over last year's achievement.

In a ranking of school districts by the Kentucky Department of Education, Floyd County ranked 146 out of 183 school districts. Floyd County exceeded the adjacent counties, by comparison; Johnson County ranked 179, Magoffin County 177, Knott County 161 and Pike County 156. In this ranking system the highest scoring district ranked number 1 while the lowest ranked 183.

In ranking by grades; Floyd third graders improved from 179th in 1983 to 130th this year, seventh graders from 167th to 118th, fifth graders from 170th to 159th and tenth graders from 152nd to 140th.

The total CTBS Basic Skills Battery indicated that 65 percent of third graders scored at or above the national median, in relation to last year's 43 percent. In the seventh grade, 52 percent scored at or above the national median, an improvement of 36 percent over the previous year. Forty-six percent of 10th graders were at or above the national average in comparison with 35 percent for last year.

In a seemingly state-wide trend of lower scoring fifth graders; in Floyd 42 percent scored at or above the national average, but that was up from 32 percent last year.

In addition results of the Comprehensive Test of Basic Skills administered to Floyd County students in grade 8 in March of this year indicate performance in many areas exceeding national averages, especially math computation and science. Other areas above the national average or 50th percentile were language mechanics, language expression and social studies. Total reading improved to the 46th percentile and spelling to the 47th. Each area measured indicates improvement over last year's scores.

This test for grade 8 is not required but administered under the voluntary testing program of the Department of Education to indicate how well students achieve or learn in the eight years of school from kindergarten to grade 8 in Floyd County. In addition individual student profiles will assist the high schools with the identification of students needing reading remediation.

Mr. Grigsby said that several factors responsible for the improvement of test scores and learning include emphasis on basic skills. School Effectiveness Program, teaching by objective, the implementation of skill continuum in several subject areas, better test administration, and using test scores more effectively to diagnose weak curriculum areas.

Parents are welcomed and should visit their child's school to review their child's test results. These test results will indicate individual students strengths and or weaknesses in the subject areas tested.

Floyd County Schools

Craynor Man Held As Parole Violator

A district court jury last week found Randy Hall, 38, of Craynor, guilty of public intoxication and recommended a $100 fine. He is being held in the county jail prior to his return to the state penitentiary as a parole violator.

Police said Hall showed signs of being drunk near the scene of a fatal shooting at Grethel on June 7. He and John Paul Blair were reportedly arguing in the back of a pickup traveling up Mud Creek shortly before Blair was shot and killed. Ruth Greer, 27, of Prater Creek, faces a murder charge in connection with Blair's death.

Hall said the disorientation noted by police officers was the result of his having fallen from the pickup.

RETURN FROM TOUR

A large group from Floyd and Johnson counties returned to their homes last week after spending a six-day tour of New Orleans. While there, their headquarters were at the International Hotel, located near the entrance to the Louisiana World Exhibition. They spent some time touring the French Quarter and the famous Audubon Zoological Park (where Helena Nelson and Anna Belle Harris took their first elephant ride), and other points of interest. They also went on a Mississippi River cruise. Those from Floyd County who were members of the tour were Mr. and Mrs. Grover Sammons, Mrs. Anna Belle Harris, Helena Nelson, Josephine Hopson, Ruby Akers, Edith Hopkins, Anna Mae Garrett, Carolyn Spencer, Mabel Flannery, Geneva Triplett, Renee Smith, Mabel Hensley, Jeanette Boleyn, Josephine Moore, Carolyn Lykins, Luna Patton, Dee Burchett (director), and Glenn and Sandy Jones, (tour sponsors).

Listing Said In Error

Melvin Grade School Principal Gleason Slone appeared erroneously on a list of persons hired by the Board of Education earlier this month and published in a recent edition of The Times, said his wife. Mrs. Slone said her husband was not hired as summer supervisor in the Neighborhood Youth Corps program, as he was listed.

The 1985 reunion will be at the same location on the last Sunday in July.

Mosquitoes are attracted to certain ranges of temperature and humidity, and to carbon dioxide, which is expelled every time we exhale. Be careful, the July Reader's Digest warns, the next time you go out for a breath of fresh air, you could be inviting a mosquito to dinner!

To protect yourself against cancer of the skin avoid too much sunlight, particularly if you fair skinned, by wearing protective clothing and using effective sunscreens. For more information on ways to prevent cancer call the Cancer Information Service at 1-800-4-CANCER.

WHAT BURIAL BENEFITS DO VETERANS HAVE?
Did you know the Veterans' Administration (VA) provides up to $300 toward burial expenses of eligible veterans?
An additional $150 is available as a plot or interment allowance, if burial isn't in a government cemetery. And if a veteran's death is service-connected, VA will pay up to $1100 instead of the usual burial allowances.
It is also true that the VA payments will be reduced—or disallowed, if the veteran's employer or some state agency has already made these payments.
WHICH VETERANS ARE ELIGIBLE for burial in a national or government cemetery? Those discharged under conditions other than dishonorable, and who have served in any of the following:
The Viet Nam War
The Korean War
World War I
World War II
The Mexican Border Conflict
The Spanish-American War
For specific benefits and/or forms, call on us or you may wish to contact the local VA office.

80th Birthday

Mr. Troy L. Branham celebrated his 80th birthday July 27, 1984, at the home of his youngest child, Mrs. Ruth Laferty, on Branhams Creek. Gathering to honor their father on this milestone occasion were eight of his 10 children and their families, who live in the Mud Creek area: Nora Spradlin, Wanda Carroll, Elisha Branham, Emmitt Branham, Judy Hamilton, Gladys Mitchell, Ellis Branham and Ruth Laferty. Not able to attend were James Branham and Maxine Collins, who live in Ohio and Michigan, respectively.

The children's mother, Stella Tackett Branham, passed away in 1972 and although Mr. Branham has been blessed with excellent health and a strong will, his deep sense of obligation did not relent until 1983, when he took Octavia Hall Branham as his wife. She was very gracefully by his side for this celebration.

Early in his adult life, Mr. Branham began his life-long Christian fellowship and enduring commitment in the church. He is a very active and dedicated deacon. Mr. Branham is a well, self-taught man, who emphasized to his children the traditional family values and individual self-reliance. This he exemplified with a simple and hard-work approach to life and its hardships.

As his 10 children became of adult age, they naturally migrated for life and employment in the industrial north. Because of new, economic opportunities in their native coal fields, eight of them were able to gradually return home and meaningful livelihoods. Being a modest man, not given to praise, Mr. Branham finds it difficult not to express his gratification for the pride and devotion shown by his children. For they, as anyone who knows and loves him, that his strength and endurance that is tempered with a gentle and sharing love, have given them a sense of what a true man is.

A tribute, in respect, by his son-in-law, Itpd.

Spurlock Bible Church To Show Film, Aug. 19

"The Healing," a new feature motion picture from Heartland Productions, is a powerful drama about a doctor who went from the pinnacle of success to the depths of despair as the result of a personal tragedy. What makes this story particularly poignant is the fact that it is a composite of a number of true stories on the lives of people who are suffering the consequences of drug and alcohol abuse.

The Rev. Dan Heintzelman, pastor of Spurlock Bible Church, announces that "The Healing" is scheduled to be shown at the church Sunday, August 19, beginning at 7 p.m.

On behalf of his congregation, the Rev. Heintzelman is extending an invitation to attend this special showing to all who want to learn more about one of society's more pervasive problems. There will be a voluntary offering taken, in lieu of a charge for admission.

Two-Day Revival

A two-day revival led by Evangelist Robert L. Scott, of Virginia, will be held Saturday and Sunday, Aug. 18-19, at the Dotson Assembly of God Church on Middle Creek. Services will be held each day at 7 p.m.

The pastor, the Rev. Richard Shepherd, and congregation invite the public to attend.

ORDINANCE

The Following Ordinance will be read for consideration and passage for County Wide effect at the Fiscal Court Meeting to be held Friday, August 24, 1984, at the hour of 10:00 A.M. in the Floyd County Courthouse Annex Conference Room.

FLOOD DAMAGE PREVENTION ORDINANCE Floyd County, Kentucky

ARTICLE 1. GENERAL PROVISIONS

Section 100 Statutory Authorization. Chapter 100 of the Kentucky Revised Statutes gives local government units the authority to adopt regulations to promote the public health, safety, and general welfare of its citizenry. Therefore, the Floyd County Fiscal Court of Floyd County, Kentucky does ordain as follows:

Section 110 Single Title. This Ordinance shall be known and cited as the "Flood Damage Prevention Ordinance of Floyd County, Kentucky" hereinafter referred to as "this Ordinance."

Section 120 Purposes. This Ordinance is enacted to minimize losses due to flood conditions in specific areas set forth herein by regulating development activities which are dangerous to public health, safety and property.

Section 130 Compliance. No structure or part thereof shall hereafter be erected, placed, moved, reconstructed, extended or altered; nor shall dredging, filling, grading, paving, excavation or similar activities be undertaken except in compliance with this Ordinance.

Section 140 Lands Affected. This Ordinance shall apply to all areas of special flood hazard located within Floyd County, Kentucky as identified by the Federal Emergency Management Agency in its Flood Insurance Study dated March 5, 1984, and any revisions thereto which are adopted by reference and made a part of this Ordinance.

Section 150 Interpretation. In interpreting and applying this Ordinance, the provisions contained herein shall be construed as the minimum requirements for the purposes set forth. Wherever there is a discrepancy between the minimum standards set forth in this Ordinance and those of any other lawfully adopted rules, regulations, ordinance or resolutions, the most restrictive or highest standards shall apply.

Section 160 Effect on Previous Ordinances. Ordinances relating to flood damage prevention that exist at the time of passage of this Ordinance, are superseded or amended only as expressly set forth herein. Furthermore, this Ordinance shall be interpreted so that the tenure of existing administrative officials and boards shall not be interrupted.

Section 170 Disclaimer of Liability. Flood protection required by this Ordinance is considered reasonable for regulatory purposes and does not imply that land outside the areas of special flood hazard or activities permitted within such areas will be free from flooding or flood damages. No liability on the part of Floyd County, Kentucky or of any officer or employee thereof shall be created as a result of any administrative decision lawfully made under this Ordinance.

Section 180 Severability. If any court of competent jurisdiction shall declare any part of this Ordinance invalid, such ruling shall not affect other provisions of this Ordinance not specifically included in said ruling.

ARTICLE 2. DEFINITIONS

Section 200 General. Terms not specifically defined in this Ordinance but defined in the latest edition of the Kentucky Building Code shall be construed as defined therein. Where terms are not so defined, they shall be interpreted to give them the meaning they have in common usage and to give this Ordinance its most reasonable application.

Section 210 Definitions.

210.1 - Areas of Shallow Flooding. Areas of Special Flood Hazard designated as AO Zones on the Flood Insurance Rate Map (FIRM).

210.2 - Areas of Special Flood Hazard. All land within a community that is subject to a one percent or greater chance of flooding in any given year. This area includes all areas designated A on the Flood Hazard Boundary Map (FHBM); and all unnumbered A Zones, Zones A-1 through A-30, and Zone A99 on the FIRM, and all areas of shallow flooding as defined above, and the designated floodway.

210.3 Base Flood. The "100 year" flood having a one (1) percent chance of being equalled or exceeded in any given year.

210.4 - Development. Any man-made change to structure(s) or land including but not limited to erection, reconstruction, alteration, filling, grading, mining, drilling, excavation, paving, dumping or dredging operations.

210.5 - Existing Mobile Home Park. A park or subdivision consisting of a parcel (or contiguous parcels) of land divided into two or more mobile home lots for rent or sale for which the construction of facilities for servicing the lot on which the mobile home is to be affixed (including at a minimum, the installation of utilities, either final site grading or the pouring of concrete pads, and the construction of streets) is completed before the effective date of this Ordinance.

210.6 - Expansion to an Existing Mobile Home Park. The preparation of additional sites by the construction of facilities for servicing the lots on which the mobile homes are to be affixed (including the installation of utilities, final site grading or pouring of concrete pads, or the construction of streets). Any expansion is considered "new construction."

210.7 - Flood or Flooding. A general and temporary condition of partial or complete inundation of normally dry land areas from the overflow of inland or tidal waters; or, the unusual and rapid accumulation of runoff of surface waters from any source.

210.8 - Flood Boundary-Floodway Map (FB-FM). Map issued by the Federal Emergency Management Agency for use during the Regular Phase of the National Flood Insurance Program which is the primary regulatory map to be used by a community with designated floodways. The Flood Boundary-Floodway Map illustrates the flood plain and floodway boundaries; and, in conjunction with the flood profiles and Floodway Data Table in the Flood Insurance Study, indicates the base flood elevations along different flood plain cross-sections.

210.9 - Flood Hazard Boundary Map (FHBM). Community map issued by the Federal Emergency Management Agency for use during the Emergency Phase of the National Flood Insurance Program on which areas of Special Flood Hazard are designated as unnumbered "A" Zones.

210.10 - Flood Insurance Rate Map (FIRM). Map issued by the Federal Emergency Management Agency for use during the Regular Phase of the National Flood Insurance Program which delineates areas of Special Flood Hazard, premium risk zones applicable to the community, and base flood elevations.

210.11 - Flood Insurance Study. Report provided by the Federal Emergency Management Agency containing flood profiles of the community, the Flood Boundary-Floodway Map (FB-FM) and/or the Flood Insurance Rate Map (FIRM) and the water surface elevations of the base flood.

210.12 - Flood Plain. All areas of special flood hazard defined above, including the "Floodway".

210.13 - Floodway. FEMA designated channel and adjacent land areas of a watercourse that must be reserved to convey the base flood without cumulatively increasing the water surface elevation more than one (1) foot.

210.14 - Floor. The top surface of an enclosed area in a building (including basement), i.e., - top of slab in concrete slab construction or top of wood flooring in wood frame construction. The term does not include the floor of a garage used solely for parking vehicles.

210.15 - Highest Adjacent Grade. The highest natural elevation of the ground surface, prior to construction, next to the proposed walls of a structure.

210.16 - Local Administrator. The local official to whom the county or city government has delegated the responsibility for the administration of the Flood Damage Prevention Ordinance.

210.17 - Mobile Home. A structure, transportable in one or more sections, which is built on a permanent chassis and designed to be used with or without a permanent foundation when connected to the required utilities. It does not include recreational vehicles or travel trailers.

210.18 - New Construction. Structures for which the "start of construction" commenced on or after the effective date of this Ordinance.

210.19 - New Mobile Home Park. A park or subdivision consisting of a parcel (or contiguous parcels) of land divided into two or more mobile home lots for rent or sale for which the construction of facilities for servicing the lot on which the mobile home is to be affixed (including at a minimum, the installation of utilities, final site grading or pouring of concrete pads, and the construction of streets) is completed on or after the effective date of this Ordinance.

210.20 - Start of Construction. The first placement of permanent construction materials (other than a mobile home) such as pouring of slabs or footings or any work beyond the excavation stage including relocation of the structure. Permanent construction does not include the installation of streets or walkways; nor does it include excavation for a basement or foundations, or the erection of temporary forms; nor does it include the installation of accessory buildings, such as garages or sheds not occupied as dwelling units.

For mobile homes, that are not within a mobile home park, "start of construction" means the affixing of the mobile home to its permanent site. For mobile homes that are within a mobile home park, "start of construction" is the date on which the construction of facilities for servicing the site on which the mobile home is to be affixed (including, at a minimum, the construction of streets, final site grading or pouring of concrete pads, installation of utilities, and street construction) is completed.

210.21 - Structure. A walled and roofed building that is principally above ground, a mobile home, a gas or liquid storage tank, or any other man-made facilities.

210.22 - Substantial Improvement. Any repair, reconstruction, or improvement of a structure, the cost of which equals or exceeds fifty percent of the market value of the structure, as determined by the Local Administrator either (1) before the improvement or repair is started, or (2) if the structure has been damaged and is being restored, before the damage occurred. For the purposes of this definition "substantial improvement" is considered to occur when the first alteration of any wall, ceiling, floor, or other structural part of the building commences, whether or not that alteration affects the external dimensions of the structure. The term does not, include any project required to improve a structure to comply with existing state or local health, sanitary, or safety code specifications which are necessary to assure safe living conditions.

210.23 - Variance. A grant of relief to a person from the requirements of this ordinance which permits construction in a manner otherwise prohibited by this Ordinance where specific enforcement would result in unnecessary hardship.

ARTICLE 3. PROVISIONS FOR FLOOD HAZARD REDUCTION

Section 300 General Standards. In all areas of special flood hazard, including areas with or without base flood elevations, the following standards shall apply:

300.1 - Where elevations can be established in accordance with Section 410.4, new construction or substantial improvements of structures shall be elevated or floodproofed to or above the base flood elevation.

300.2 - All new construction and substantial improvements shall be anchored to prevent flotation, collapse, or lateral movement, and shall be constructed with materials and utility equipment resistant to flood damage using methods and practices that minimize flood damage.

300.3 - All new and replacement water supply systems shall be designed to minimize or eliminate infiltration of flood waters into the system.

300.4 - All new and replacement sanitary sewage systems shall be designed to minimize or eliminate infiltration of flood waters into the systems and discharges from the systems into flood waters.

300.5 - On-site waste disposal systems shall be located and constructed to avoid impairment to them or contamination from them during flooding.

300.6 - All mobile homes shall be anchored to resist flotation, collapse or lateral movement by providing over-the-top and frame ties to ground anchors. Specific requirements shall be that:

300.6.1 - over-the-top ties be provided at each end of the mobile home, with one additional tie per side at an intermediate location on mobile homes of less than fifty (50) feet, and one (1) additional tie per side for mobile homes of fifty (50) feet or more;

300.6.2 - frame ties be provided at each corner of the home with four (4) additional ties per side at intermediate points for mobile homes less than fifty (50) feet long and one (1) additional tie per side for mobile homes of fifty (50) feet or more;

300.6.3 - each component of the anchoring system shall be capable of carrying a force of 4,800 pounds; and 300.6.4 - any additions to the mobile home will be similarly anchored.

300.7 - Subdivision Proposals.

300.7.1 - All subdivision proposals shall be consistent with the need to minimize flood damage;

300.7.2 - All subdivision proposals shall have public utilities and facilities such as sewer, gas, electric, and water systems located and constructed to minimize flood damage;

300.7.3 - All subdivision proposals shall have adequate drainage provided to reduce exposure to flood damage; and,

300.7.4 - Base flood elevation data shall be provided for subdivision proposals and other proposed development projects which contain at least 50 lots or 5 acres (whichever is less).

Section 310 Specific Standards. In all areas of special flood hazard, where base flood elevations have been provided or may be obtained in accordance with Section 410.4, the following specific standards are required:

310.1 - Residential Construction. All new construction, including placement of mobile homes, or substantial improvement of any residential structure shall have the lowest floor, including basement, elevated to or above the base flood elevation.

310.2 - Non-Residential Construction. All new construction or substantial improvement of any commercial, industrial or other non-residential structure shall have either the lowest floor, including basement, elevated to or above the level of the base flood elevation; or, together with attendant utility and sanitary facilities, shall:

310.2.1 - be floodproofed so that below the base flood level the structure is watertight with walls substantially impermeable to the passage of water;

310.2.2 - have structural components capable of resisting hydrostatic and hydrodynamic loads and effects of buoyancy; and

310.2.3 - be certified by a registered professional engineer or architect that the standards of this subsection are satisfied. Such certifications shall be provided to the official set forth in Section 410 of this Ordinance.

310.3 - Mobile Homes. For new mobile home parks; for expansions to existing mobile homes where the improvement of the streets, utilities and pads equals or exceeds 50 percent of value of the streets, utilities and pads before the improvement has commenced; and for mobile homes not placed in a mobile home park the following standards shall apply:

310.3.1 - stands or lots are elevated on compacted fill or on pilings so that the lowest floor of the mobile home will be at or above the base flood level;

310.3.2 - adequate surface drainage and access to facilitate mobile home removal are provided; and

310.3.3 - in the instance of elevation on pilings, lots are large enough to permit steps; piling foundations are placed in stable soil no more than ten (10) feet apart; and reinforcement is provided for pilings more than six (6) feet above the ground level.

310.4 - Areas of Shallow Flooding. The following provisions apply within all designated areas of Shallow Flooding (AO Zones only):

310.4.1 - All new construction and substantial improvement of any residential structure shall have the lowest floor, including basement, elevated to or above the depth number specified on the Flood Insurance Rate Map (FIRM) in feet, above the highest adjacent grade. If no depth number is specified, the lowest floor, including basement, shall be elevated at least two (2) feet above the highest adjacent grade.

310.4.2 - All new construction and substantial improvements of non-residential structures shall:

310.4.2.1 - have the lowest floor, including basement, elevated to or above the depth number specified on the Flood Insurance Rate Map (FIRM), in feet, above the highest adjacent grade. If no depth number is specified, the lowest floor, including basement, shall be elevated at least two (2) feet above the highest adjacent grade, or,

310.422 - together with attendant utility and sanitary facilities be completely floodproofed to or above the level so that any space below that level is watertight with walls substantially impermeable to the passage of water and with structural components having the capability of resisting hydrostatic and hydrodynamic loads and effects of buoyancy.

310.5 - Floodways. The following provisions apply within all designated floodways:

310.51 - All development and encroachments, including fill, shall be prohibited unless certification by a registered professional engineer or architect is provided demonstrating that encroachments shall not result in any increase in flood levels during occurrence of the base flood discharge.

310.52 - Mobile homes shall be prohibited from all floodway areas with the exception of existing mobile home parks.

310.53 - All development in the floodway that is allowed under the provisions stated above shall comply with all other applicable provisions of Article 3.

ARTICLE 4. ADMINISTRATION

Section 400 Permits Required. No development activity shall be started prior to the issuance of a Development Permit; further, no land or structure thus developed shall be used or occupied in whole or in part prior to the issuance of a Certificate of Compliance, all in accordance with the provisions of this Ordinance.

Section 410 Local Administrator. The (Flood Plain Administrator), hereinafter referred to as the "Local Administrator", is hereby appointed to administer and implement the provisions of this Ordinance. The Local Administrator shall be specifically empowered and directed to:

410.1 - Review all Development Permit applications, perform inspection duties, and grant or deny Development Permits and Certificates of Compliance in accordance with the provisions of this Ordinance.

410.2 - Investigate alleged violations of this Ordinance, and institute appropriate action or proceedings to prevent unlawful development activity in areas of Special Flood Hazard and to restrain, correct or abate such violation.

410.3 - Interpret, where necessary, the exact boundary location of areas of Special Flood Hazard.

410.4 - Where base flood elevation data has not been provided, in accordance with Section 140, the Local Administrator shall obtain, review and reasonably utilize any base flood elevation data available from a Federal, State, or other source in order to administer the provisions of Section 310 of this Ordinance.

410.5 - Advise permit applicants that additional federal and state permits may be required, and specify that copies of such permits be provided by the applicant and maintained on file with the Development Permit application.

410.6 - Notify adjacent communities and the Kentucky Natural Resources and Environmental Protection Cabinet, Division of Water prior to any alteration or relocation of a watercourse, and submit written evidence of said notification to the Federal Emergency Management Agency Regional Office in Atlanta, Georgia.

410.7 - Maintain and make available for public inspection all applications and records pertaining to the provisions of this Ordinance.

Section 420 Permit Issuance Procedures.

420.1 - Application for Development Permit and Certificate of Compliance shall identify the proposed type and location of development activity and other pertinent information that may be requested by the Local Administrator. The application shall be signed by the applicant and shall contain a clause which gives consent to the Local Administrator to make reasonable inspections to enforce the provisions of this Ordinance without first obtaining a search warrant.

420.2 - Upon receipt of the application the Local Administrator will, within a reasonable time, determine the applicability of provisions of this Ordinance. Where proposed development is not located in an Area of Special Flood Hazard, or where the Local Administrator determines that the proposed development will not adversely affect the flood storage capacity of the flood plain nor conflict with the other purposes of this Ordinance, the Local Administrator may issue a Development Permit and Certificate of Compliance.

420.3 - Where it is determined that proposed development is located in an Area of Special Flood Hazard, all activities shall comply with applicable Provisions for Flood Hazard Reduction as specified in Article 3. Prior to the initiation of construction of any such development, the applicant shall submit proposed measures for compliance to the Local Administrator. Information to be submitted for all development activities includes:

420.31 - A statement of techniques to be employed to anchor structures, and to verify use of flood resistant materials and construction practices.

420.32 - Plans showing that all new and replacement potable water supply and sewage systems shall be constructed to minimize flood damage and hazards to public health.

420.33 - Plans for subdivision proposals in accord with the provisions of this Ordinance. For subdivisions with 50 lots or 5 acres, whichever is least, the developer shall provide base flood elevations if they are not available.

420.34 - Plans showing extent of any watercourse or landform alteration.

420.35 - Sketch plan which illustrates all development activities, including lot dimensions, of all existing and proposed structures, all existing lakes and watercourses on or near the site, wells, and septic systems as applicable.

420.4 - Where base flood elevations are available, the applicant shall provide the following information as applicable to the proposed development activity:

420.41 - Elevation in relation to mean sea level of proposed lowest floor, including basement, of all structures.

420.42 - Elevation in relation to mean sea level to which any non-residential structure will be floodproofed.

420.43 - Certificate from a registered professional engineer or architect that non-residential floodproofed structure(s) will meet the requirements of Section 310.2 of this Ordinance.

420.5 - For development activities in a designated Floodway, the applicant shall provide a certificate from a registered professional engineer that the proposed activity shall not result in any increase in the height of the base flood in accordance with Section 310.51 of this Ordinance.

420.6 - Upon receipt of required information, the Local Administrator will within a reasonable time review the proposed development for compliance with this Ordinance. Where it is determined that proposed measures are adequate to meet the requirements of this Ordinance the Local Administrator will issue a Development Permit. The Development Permit shall be posted by the applicant in a conspicuous place on the premises, in plain view from a public road, during the course of the work until completion. A development permit under which no work is commenced within six (6) months after issuance shall expire and a new development permit shall be secured before work is started.

Where it is determined that the proposed measures are not adequate to meet the requirements of this Ordinance, the Local Administrator will deny a Development Permit. Said denial will be in writing and will be accompanied by a written finding of fact specifying the reason for denial. Upon receipt of a denial of a Development Permit, the applicant will be given a reasonable opportunity to revise and resubmit the application or to appeal the determination as provided for by this Ordinance.

420.7 - For development activity which includes structures, and in areas where base flood elevations are available, the applicant shall submit to the Local Administrator a certification prepared by a registered land surveyor or licensed professional engineer of the as-built elevation in relation to mean sea level of the lowest floor, floodproofed elevation or horizontal structural members of the lowest floor, as applicable. This certification shall be provided within 21 calendar days of the issue date of the Development Permit, and prior to the use or occupancy of said development. All work performed prior to this submittal shall be at the risk of the applicant.

420.8 - The Local Administrator, or his duly authorized representative, will review the certified elevations within a reasonable time and all work performed for compliance with the requirements of Article 3. Deficiencies identified shall be immediately corrected by the applicant and evidence of such correction shall be submitted to the Local Administrator prior to the continuance of work. Failure to provide certified elevations as required by this Ordinance or failure to correct deficiencies shall be cause to issue a stop-work order for the project, revoke the Development Permit, and deny a Certificate of Compliance when a stop work order is issued. The Local Administrator shall inform the Applicant in writing of the specific steps that shall be taken in order to have the permit reissued. It shall be unlawful to continue any work authorized by a permit after revocation of that permit and until the permit is reissued.

Upon submittal of certified elevations and/or determination by the Local Administrator that the development meets all of the applicable requirements of this Ordinance, the Local Administrator shall issue a Certificate of Compliance.

Section 430 Penalties. Knowing violations of or willful failure to comply with any provision of this Ordinance, including violation of conditions established in connection with grants of variance, shall constitute a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of not more than $ 500.00 or imprisonment for not more than 30 days, or both. Any person thus convicted shall also pay all court costs and expenses involved in the case. Each day said violation continues shall be considered as a separate offense.

ARTICLE 5. BOARD OF APPEALS

Section 500 Establishment.

A Board of Appeals, hereinafter referred to as the "Board", is hereby established consisting of three members, established by Floyd County Judge/Executive, at least one of whom shall have knowledge and skill in reading plans and building specifications. The Board shall hear and decide upon allegations of error in any requirement, decision or determination made by the Local Administrator in the enforcement of this Ordinance.

Section 510 Appeals. Any person aggrieved by the decision of the Local Administrator may appeal such decision to the Board. Such appeal shall be taken within a reasonable time by filing with the Local Administrator and with the Board a written notice specifying the grounds for the appeal. The Local Administrator shall immediately transmit to the Board all documents constituting a record of the action appealed.

Section 515 Manner of Appeal. The appeal of the Local Administrator's decision shall be in writing and shall set forth in detail the aggrieved parties' complaint. The Board of Appeals shall give of the appeal to all affected parties and shall, within fifteen days of the filing of said appeal, hold a public hearing on said appeal. Notice of said hearing shall be published in accordance with KRS 231.060. A record shall be made of all proceedings.

Section 520 Variances. Variances from the requirements of this Ordinance may be granted by the Board only upon demonstration of good cause, determination that strict application of the terms of this Ordinance will impose exceptional hardship upon the applicant, and assurance that granting of a variance is in harmony with the general purposes of this Ordinance. Variances shall only be granted upon a determination that the variance does not exceed the minimum action necessary, considering the flood hazard, to grant relief. No variance may be issued for construction in a designated floodway which would result in any increase in flood levels during the base flood discharge.

In passing upon such appeals, the Board shall consider all technical evaluations all relevant factors, all standards specified in other sections of this Ordinance, and:

520.1 - the danger that materials may be swept onto other lands and injure other persons or property;

520.2 - the danger to life and property due to flooding or erosion damage;

520.3 - The susceptibility of the proposed facility and its contents to flood damage, and the effect of such damage on the individual owner;

520.4 - the importance of the services provided by the proposed facility to the community;

520.5 - the need for the facility to be located at a waterfront location where applicable;

520.6 - the availability of alternative locations for the proposed use that are not subject to flooding or erosion damage;

520.7 - the availability of safe access to the property during flooding conditions for ordinary and emergency vehicles;

520.8 - the expected heights, velocity, duration, rate of rise, and sediment transport of the flood waters and the effects of wave action, if applicable, expected at the site;

520.9 - the costs of providing governmental services during and after flood conditions including maintenance and repair of public utilities and facilities such as sewer, gas, electrical, and water systems, and streets and bridges; and,

520.10 - the compatibility of the proposed use with existing and anticipated development and approved comprehensive and/or flood plain management plans.

Section 530 Exercise of Powers. Based on the factors listed above, and the purpose of this Ordinance, the Board may reverse, affirm, or modify, in whole or in part, the decisions of the Local Administrator.

Every variance granted or denied by the Board shall be accompanied by a written finding of fact based on testimony and evidence, and shall specify the reason for granting or denying the variance within a reasonable period of time.

Any applicant to whom a variance is granted shall also be given written notice specifying, if available, the base flood elevations and the elevation to which the activity may be built or placed and stating that the cost of flood insurance will be commensurate with the increased risk resulting from the reduced lowest floor elevation. Furthermore, the board may attach such conditions to granting of a variance as it deems necessary to further the intent of this Ordinance.

The Local Administrator shall maintain records of all appeal actions for public inspection and shall, upon written request, report variances to the Federal Emergency Management Agency and the Kentucky Natural Resources and Environmental Protection Cabinet.

Section 540 Judicial Review. Appeals may be made from all orders of the Board. Such appeals shall be made within thirty(30) days from the rendition of such order to the Floyd Circuit Court. The judicial review shall be limited to whether the decision is arbitrary or capricious and shall be limited to the record upon which the Board of Appeals based its determination.

Any public comments should be directed to the Floyd County Judge/Executive's Office in the Floyd County Courthouse Annex, Prestonsburg, Kentucky between the hours of 8:30 A.M. and 4:00 P.M., Monday thru Friday.

The Fiscal Court hereby certifies that the Ordinance is true and accurate and written in a way calculated to inform the public of its contents.

The Good News Report

By THOMAS W. PAUKEN
Director of ACTION

Linda Texeira, 26, of Little Compton, Rhode Island can't walk or talk—at least not the way most of us can. She has cerebral palsy. Yet miraculously, through a combination of human initiative and modern-day wizardry, she is now a volunteer, coping with the problems of the handicapped and their need for special equipment.

It wasn't Merlin the magician who conjured up the equipment that makes it possible for Linda to cross the speech threshold and communicate with family and friends, but a diverse group of individuals and organizations who joined together to achieve what to Linda and her family is a miracle. There were Les Corey and Gerry Elias from the Technical Volunteer Service of the Naval Underwater Systems Center (NUSC). There were also the Rhode Island Air National Guard and the Little Compton Rotary Club. Corey and Elias, with the aid of fellow NUSC volunteers, designed a special computer system which would give Linda the capability to communicate. The Airmen and Rotarians shared the system's assembly, installation and equipment costs. Once the computer became operational, attached to Linda's wheelchair, Corey and colleagues became her instructors, teaching her how to control and operate what she calls "my talking computer."

Having mastered her use of the system, Linda is now attending classes at a community college, her capability to expand her horizons, both physically and mentally, greatly enhanced. But above all else, her greatest satisfaction comes from being a volunteer herself, of demonstrating to others afflicted as she is, how to overcome the impossible through the aid of dedicated volunteers and the use of science.

Of course no one can tell her amazing story better than Linda: "It is very inspiring to know," she wrote, "that in spite of my disability I am able to contribute to society. I feel that if I am able to help others as much as some very special and caring people helped me over two years ago, then there will be purpose in my life. For 23 years I had to wait for someone to sit and communicate with me, but now I do it independently. Today I have a computer. It has over 1,700 words and about 100 sentences in it. I designed the vocabulary myself. I can change the words anytime I want to or add new ones. I can also save up to 100 messages, each one up to eight lines long. The computer has a printer for writing letters and a speech synthesizer for talking."

"I can also control lights, radio and even talk to my friends on the phone. All this is like a dream come true..."

Linda's words are from a letter that she wrote to President Reagan recently upon receiving a special citation from him for her outstanding volunteer activities. She closed the letter with a message for everyone saying, "I feel proud to be recognized as a volunteer for my country."

Government Study OK's Kerosene Heaters

Warming news for Americans are the findings of a study by the Consumer Product Safety Commission. It shows new generation kerosene heaters among the safest, most cost-efficient heaters on the market. Energy experts, using Department of Energy standards, estimate kerosene heaters can save up to $400 against a central heating system, depending on insulation, cost of fuel, house size and severity of weather.

To assure safe heating with kerosene, here are some important do's and don'ts:

Don't use any fuel but kerosene. Even a small amount of gasoline creates an explosion risk.

Do store kerosene in a clean, sealed metal container marked "KEROSENE".

Don't add fuel when the heater is operating or hot.

Do refuel the heater out of the living area. One new kerosene heater, the TKC-2000 from Teknika, has a removable cartridge tank, which allows safe, easy refueling away from the living area.

Don't use a heater in a tightly-sealed room. If air gets hot or stuffy, add ventilation or turn heater off.

The first margarine was produced during the Franco-Prussian War of 1870 when Napoleon III conducted a contest to develop a substitute for scarce butter. A French chemist came up with "oleo."

Travis Martin was second in the Junior Division with 920 points. He finished second in insects, diseases and seed.

Other junior judges were John Martin with 841 points and Jamie Martin with 716 points. Rondell Martin participated as a previous winner and was an automatic qualifier for the State Event.

Troy Samons, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Green Samons, of Martin. Richard Maggard is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Maggard, Hippo. Both are members of the Allen Central 4-H Club. Travis Martin is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gaylord Martin, of Langley, and is a member of the Garrett 4-H Club.

Troy Samons, Richard Maggard, Travis Martin and Rondell Martin will all compete in the State 4-H Vegetable Judging Contest at the Kentucky State Fair.

Mediterranean Diet: Link To Good Health

Following the trend toward lower calories and brighter flavors in meal planning, more and more Americans are asking their retailers to stock imported foods from Italy. People have always loved Italian foods—rich pastas, yummy cheeses, sun dried tomatoes—and now they're finding Italian food is more than delicious; it's easy to prepare, nutritious, and can even be low in calories.

The typical Mediterranean Diet closely follows the guidelines established in 1977 by the U.S. Senate Select Committee on Nutrition and Human Needs, including increased consumption of cereals, fresh fruit and vegetables and unsaturated fats, such as olive oil.

The quality of foods imported from Italy is very high. The New York Times recently wrote, "Americans are discovering the world of Italian cheese...delicious cheeses of incredible richness and fascinating nuance." More than 150 cheeses from Italy are now available in the United States.

Our Budget Payment Plan keeps winter from throwing you a curve.

"For thousands of Columbia customers, our Budget Payment Plan has evened out heating bills and made them predictable, even when winter is like last winter: much colder and longer than anybody predicts. The plan means there are no big jumps or surprises in your gas bill, no matter how cold it gets.

"It works this way. Columbia calculates what you'll probably pay for natural gas over the next year based on your previous usage and weather averages. This figure is divided into 12 equal payments. So starting this August, you pay the same amount every month. And you end worries about dips in the temperature showing up as higher heating bills.

"Make sure winter doesn't throw your budget a curve. To join the Columbia Budget Payment Plan, all you do is pay the 'Budget' amount on your August bill.

"Columbia also suggests a new service called Checkfree, which provides the option of having your monthly bill paid by the bank where you have your checking account—but not until about ten days after the bill has been sent to you. Columbia Gas offices and most banks have application forms. Check into it.

"Look for the explanation of the Budget Payment Plan and Checkfree in your August bill, and call your Columbia office if you have questions. Join the thousands of Columbia customers already using these two free, convenient services. For them, the cost of winter is more predictable."

The Pink Badge Of Inexperience

Ah, the beginning of school! The coming of autumn, the falling leaves, red and gold, the pink sweatsocks!

Yes, the pink sweatsocks, the product of last summer's high school graduates doing their own laundry for the first time!

Every year at about this time thousands of young adults leave home for college or head off to new jobs. And one new job for most of them will be doing their own laundry.

Those facing the task alone can avoid the pink sweatsock syndrome by following a few simple guidelines. "First, and most important, is to sort the laundry according to color," said Bette Jo Dedic, Extension specialist in clothing and textiles in the University of Kentucky College of Agriculture.

Dark or vibrant colors must be separated from other laundry because they may "bleed" onto lighter clothing.

Dark items may be tested for colorfastness by rubbing them against a piece of white cloth, or by washing them alone in the sink. If the white cloth or the water takes on color, the item should be washed with the dark laundry.

White things may need extra cleaning with bleach and so, should be washed separately. All the moderately colored clothes can be laundered together.

Once the laundry has been sorted by color, it should be sorted again to separate the really grimy items from those who've only dirtied, Dedic said.

Washing heavily soiled articles with regular laundry may cause the less dirty items to come out of the washer dirtier than when they went in. Heavily soiled things may need to be washed more than once.

Dedic cautioned that the temptation to stuff all the laundry into a single machine must be resisted, even though it means more washing machines, and more quarters.

Overloading the washing machine may result in dingy laundry. "With coin machines especially there is a tendency towards larger loads, but you're not saving any money by overloading. Water floats off the dirt and it can't circulate properly if there is too much laundry in the machine," Dedic said.

The matter of detergents is an important decision, too. Dedic recommended reading laundry product labels to match the right product with a particular laundry problem, then following the directions, being careful not to use too much. "More is not better," she cautioned.

Never pour bleach directly onto clothing, this can cause spots from uneven bleaching. Always dilute bleach with water before adding it to the washing machine. Most dry bleach products are safe with all types of fabric, but read the box to be sure.

Fabric softeners reduce static cling, add a gentle scent to laundry, and make clothing feel softer. Many detergents have softener already added which simplifies the laundry process; however, continued use of softener can decrease the absorbency of some fabrics.

To avoid towels that leave you still dripping, Dedic recommended skipping the fabric softener once in a while.

As with bleach, fabric softeners should be diluted with water before using.

As a general rule, cold water is best for dark or vibrant colors, hot water for whites, and warm water for in-between colors. Anything with blood or chocolate stains should be washed in cold water since hot water may set the stains. Reading the care labels found inside most clothing is really the best way to decide. When in doubt, however, cold water is the best choice.

Make sure all stains have been removed before drying laundry. A hot dryer can make stains permanent.

Overdrying can damage some fabrics, especially elastic, so laundry should be removed from the dryer before it is completely dry. This also helps to reduce the wrinkles in permanent-press clothing.

Once the dryer stops, laundry should be removed promptly or wrinkles may be "heat-set". These wrinkles can be very difficult to iron out.

A little preventive medicine can help avoid laundry problems. Dedic said the place to start is in the clothing store. Natural fabrics such as cotton and linen are very popular, but most will require ironing and special laundering. To avoid buying a laundry problem, look for natural fabrics blended with polyester. They are easier to clean, and need less ironing.

THE COLD FACTS

What illness results in 32 million days of lost work, 34 million days of lost school, and accounts for more doctor visits than any other illness? Believe it or not—the common cold.

There's no cure for the common cold, but here are some "cold facts" that may help you separate the facts from fiction about this misunderstood ailment:

- What is a cold? A cold is an upper respiratory infection caused by over 150 different viruses. According to the National Institute of Health (NIH), your cold may last from two to 14 days, but will probably last one week.
- It's estimated that an adult will average two colds a year...and school children average eight colds a year. This accounts for a total of as many as one billion colds a year in the United States.
