Water and gas lines are being moved for widening of a two mile-stretch of KY 404 to U.S. 23 and KY 114, an extension of the Mountain Parkway. Four-laning of the road from Prestonsburg to Salyersville should be completed by 2004, transportation officials said this week. (photo by Ed Taylor)

Road project moving along

By Pam Shingler
Contributing Writer

Sally Ann Chaney says she "grieved a lot at first, but now I'm happy with the way things worked out."

Chaney is talking about the loss of the house and property she and husband Ernest Wayne Chaney owned on KY 114 across from Comfort Suites Hotel.

The Chaney's are among the first homeowners to leave the area at the juncture of KY 122 (Spurlock Road) to allow for the initial phase of the widening of KY 114, the extension of the Mountain Parkway.

The couple, who had lived in the hillside home for 24 years, moved to Paintsville two weeks ago, shortly after selling their property to the state. "At first, I cried a lot," said Chaney, who works at nearby Clark Elementary School. "I didn't want to leave, but we knew we had to, and now I'm very well satisfied."

On behalf of the state, American Consulting Engineering of Lexington is charged with buying the property along the almost two-mile stretch from KY 404 to US 23, which is slated to be four lanes.

On the western section of the targeted roadway, work has already begun to move water and gas lines, said Keith Damron, district design engineer with the Kentucky Department of Highways, District 12 in Pikeville.

"The consulting engineers are buying rights-of-way with the intent of having the area cleared by December," Damron said. "We hope to let bids for construction by next May and to complete this section within two years."

The rest of the four-laning from Prestonsburg to Salyersville is scheduled for completion by 2004. The project is just now in the design phase, Damron said, adding that the Jackson district will handle the widening of the other 16 or so miles.

Damron said the local project is expected to cut down on traffic problems around the Mountain Arts Center, giving patrons an easier entrance and exit to shows.

The project will have "no significant effects" on the historic Middle Creek battleground, Damron said. He added that district officials have been working with Frank Fitzpatrick, whose family owns the battlefield, to ensure that the acreage remains intact.

Cost estimates for the present phase of the widening project include $18 million for road construction, $3.7 million for right-of-way, and $1.5 million for design, Damron said.

Shots fired in Lancer

by Janice Shepherd
Managing Editor

A 17-year-old Job Corps student was arrested late Saturday night after a shooting incident in Lancer Bottom in Prestonsburg.

The juvenile led Kentucky State Police, Floyd County Sheriff's deputies and Prestonsburg police officers on a foot pursuit through Lancer after he allegedly attempted to steal stereo equipment from the vehicle of a Lancer resident around 10:30 p.m.

The youth apparently also tried to steal a van in his effort to escape the officers.

The incident began on a carport and Willow Lane in Lancer when the suspect removed a radio from a vehicle, Prestonsburg Police officer Gerald Clark said after the pursuit.

When the homeowners confronted the youth, he ran. Police officers gave chase.

A few blocks away, on Cardinal Drive, he allegedly attempted to steal a Dodge van. There, he apparently encountered the homeowner's son and fled.

Police officers began their foot pursuit of the youth.

On Cooley Street, Prestonsburg Police officers heard a women scream and the sound of five or six gun shots, officer George Tussey said.

Officer Gerald Clark said he immediately took cover behind a tree when the shots were fired.

The shots escalated the incident and created a more dangerous situa-

In the dim light that night, the bystander fit the description of the youth fleeing the scene. The man was shirtless and wearing a pair of short pants, but police recognized him when he stepped into the light, Conley said.

The youth had pulled off his white t-shirt, jumped over a fence and fled on foot. Officers chased him about one-half mile through Lancer Bottom. Kentucky State Police and Floyd County Sheriff's deputies joined the chase.

Kentucky State Police officer Ricky Conn caught up with the youth on a riverbank just off Evergreen Street. In the capture, the 17-year-old apparently resisted arrest. It took five officers and some pepper spray to subdue the juvenile enough to handcuff him and get him in a county police cruiser.

No weapons were found in his possession nor near the capture site.

Officers continued their search of the riverbank for a second suspect in the attempted burglary. That suspect was described as having blonde hair, but authorities were unable to locate the second man.

The juvenile was transported to Highlands Regional Medical Center for treatment of injuries he received in his attempt to escape and for

Deputies 'sniff out' drugs

Floyd County Sheriff's deputies confiscated five bags of marijuana at a Grethel home on Friday.

The marijuana was found in the home of Stacy Akers of Akers Branch at Grethel by deputies Tommy Gearheart and Terry Chaffins.

When officers served property pick-up orders at the Akers home, they smelled the odor of marijuana, according to the local authorities.

They searched the home and found bags of marijuana in various rooms of the house and, in one room, they discovered marijuana drying in a drawer, Gearheart said.

A warrant has been issued for Akers' arrest. The investigation is continuing.

In a separate incident, Gearheart is searching for a female who escaped their custody while she was at the McDowell Appalachian Regional Medical Center.

Jennifer D. Vance, 23, of Wheelwright was being treated at the hospital for minor injuries she received in an automobile accident when the escape occurred. A Floyd County Sheriff's deputy is assigned to the hospital on around-the-clock duty, so the woman was admitted overnight for observation before being taken to the Floyd County Jail the next day.

Arresting officer Tommy Gearheart charged Vance with driving under the influence of drugs. When the injured woman learned she was going to jail, she made her bid for freedom.

The deputy said witnesses saw someone driving a pickup around the parking lot. The truck stopped by one of the hospital's doors; the woman ran out; jumped in the truck; and got away, according to Gearheart.

The deputy said he has filed additional charges of escape and possession of drug paraphernalia.

Anyone with any information on the whereabouts of Jennifer D. Vance, or with tips regarding drug transactions, should call the Floyd County Sheriff's office at 886-6171.

Surveyors anger residents

by Janice Shepherd

Annexation and sewage problems brought a crowd of concerned citizens to the Martin City Council meeting Monday night.

Several people living in the Stephens Branch area, which is outside Martin City limits, addressed the city council regarding an annexation survey prepared by Nesbitt Engineering. One member of the audience said she told surveyors on her property to pull up their stakes and leave.

Most of the council members seemed taken by surprise at the annexation issue.

City council member Thomasine Robinson told the audience that the survey was supposed to define the city limits and not to outline an annexation area.

"It's my understanding, we're trying to see where our corporate lines are," Robinson said. "I don't

Fire destroys park equipment

If you want to ride a golf cart at Beaver Valley Golf Course at Allen Park, bring your own.

About 20 carts, a variety of landscaping equipment and the cart barn itself burned to the ground in the wee hours of last Thursday morning.

Park manager Duran Newsome estimated the value of the destroyed items at around $200,000.

The cart barn was already engulfed when a passing motorist saw the flames and called the Allen Volunteer Fire Department from a car phone, according to fire department spokesman Dan Heintzelman.

Fire trucks arrived shortly after 1 a.m. and were unable to save the building, Heintzelman said. Seven firefighters, two trucks and a tanker were at the scene until around 4 a.m., he said.

The cause of the fire is still under investigation, but Newsome said it "could be something electrical."

Besides the golf carts, Newsome said the loss included large mowing machinery, weed eaters, push mowers, spare tires, tools, grass seed, fertilizer and other groundskeeping materials.

The fire did not interrupt golfing activity. "You can still play, but you have to walk," Newsome said.

Although park officials have already begun replacing some of the lost items, "we will probably go into next year before we can replace everything," Newsome said.

treatment of the effects of the pepper spray.

He was lodged in the juvenile detention center. Officer Clark said Saturday night the juvenile would be charged with three counts of 1st degree wanton endangerment; assault; criminal trespassing; disorderly conduct, and resisting arrest.

Five or six county deputies, two Kentucky State Police troopers, and five Prestonsburg Police officers participated in the incident.

Job Corps director Edna Higginbotham said Tuesday that the youth has been terminated from the Job Corps program and that he had slipped through the company's screening process.

"This young man was recruited. It looks as if he was recruited under false pretenses, Higginbotham said. "His folder shows no record. He would never have been admitted into the Job Corps with the record he had."

Higginbotham said local authorities discovered that the youth had a police record when they ran a computer check on him. Higginbotham would not say what that record was, only that he "had been in this kind of trouble before."

The director is contacting the admissions council that screened the youth to locate who cleared the youth's record from the file before he was admitted to the Job Corps.

"We have zero tolerance and this kid would have never gotten in. This young man is not typical. He got through the system," Higginbotham said.

She advises local residents to call the center at 886-1037 if they see any students out after curfew hours: 11 p.m., weekdays and midnight on weekends.

Some students earn a privilege card for having a good attitude and their curfew is extended until 1 or 2 a.m., she said. However, anytime anyone has problems with the students, including trespassing, they are encouraged to call the Job Corps security, she added.

know who told (the surveyors) to do it. You just can't incorporate (any area the council selects.)"

City attorney Tim Parker explained to the audience the steps to annexation.

"First they have to go out and figure the area they want annexed. Then they hold a meeting and show people a map. If the city passes an ordinance (annexing the area), it has to be put on the ballot ... You're not going to wake up and be annexed ... The election is run by the county. People get to vote in the annexed area and the majority rules," Parker said.

Bud Baldrige, an engineer with Nesbitt Engineering, showed council members and the citizens the map his company had surveyed. Council members asked that the engineering firm provide them with a map outlining the current city limits and the area outside city limits that was recently surveyed.

Baldrige said the map will be available in about a week or two and local residents should be able to view it at city hall.

Also at the meeting, local residents expressed concern about sewage seeping into the river at Martin. Virgil Isaac of Stephens Branch said sewer lines were pouring raw sewage in the water. A city employee said workers had just pulled a pump out of that station to get it rebuilt.

"Everything in the lift station is rotted out," he said.

Parker told the audience that the EPA had recently visited the city and knew about the sewage problems. The City of Martin has an agreed order with the state to correct its sewage problems. City officials are working with Big Sandy Area Development District to garner grant funds to redo its system.

"These sewer lines are just so old," Parker said.

"Those worked pretty good. It was flowing in a steady stream," Isaac responded.

Several citizens suggested transferring funds from other grant projects, but the city attorney told them that can't be done and funds earmarked for certain projects can only be used on those projects.

In other business at the meeting:

- Gina Salisbury complained about pets being poisoned in Beaver Valley Bottom.

- "It's going to be a tragedy when a child gets poisoned," she said.

- Parker advised her to contact the county attorney.

- A city resident deplored the parking situation near Nelson-Frazier Funeral Home. She said people visiting the funeral home were parking near the railroad tracks and narrowing the street to one lane.

- The police chief suggested the council make the street a no-parking zone.

- And, council members approved monthly purchases.

- Rick Caudill, a member of the city council, was appointed interim mayor so that he could preside over the meeting in the absence of Mayor Allen Whicker.

- In addition to Caudill and Robinson, council members attending included Eugene Hutchinson, Steven Farthing, and Hazel Robinson.

Disease rumors unverified

Despite a rash of rumors, the Floyd County Health Department had not received notification of any case of meningitis in the county as of Tuesday (September 29).

Hospitals are required by law to notify the health department within 24 hours of diagnosing a communicable disease that could have consequences for the community, said Thursa Slone, director of community health nursing for the department.

Slone said her office has received numerous inquiries concerning the disease which, depending on the variety, can be fatal. The rumors are particularly rampant in schools where children frequently pass along diseases.

A diagnosis of meningitis can take a week or more because doctors try to eliminate other possibilities before they administer a cerebral spinal fluid tap, Slone said.

Diagnosis is difficult, she said, because the viral strain of the disease affects different people in different ways. By the time it is diagnosed in some people, the symptoms may have abated, but for others they may be more serious.

Slone said meningitis also has a variety of symptoms that could apply to other illnesses, including stiffness of the neck, overall achiness, listlessness and fever.

Viral meningitis, the more common strain, is seldom fatal, she said, unlike the more rare bacterial meningitis.

Slone assured that her office would be actively involved in investigating and providing information if there were confirmed incidents of the disease. "However, we have had no such notification," she said.

Should a case be reported, she added, the health department will continue to encourage precautions, particularly washing of the hands after using the bathroom.

David Art Center offers classes in corn-shuck angel making and quilting

David Art Center will use a grant to teach people how to make corn shuck angel, quilting, piecing and card trick pillow covers.

David Art Center encourages people in Appalachian to continue to make the traditional mountain arts and crafts. To achieve this goal, David Art Center will be sponsoring introductory classes, and subsequently begin with the regular classes.

Upon completion of the classes, there will be an incentive to earn money by producing the items made either at the center or at home. David Art Center will supply the material for selected crafts. We also encourage people to produce arts and crafts intended to be sold on consignment.

Space for the two classes are limited. There will be four sessions for each class. Corn shuck angel making will be held at the Drift Presbyterian Church, on October 20 and 27, November 3 and 10, and the piecing/quilting class will be held at David Art Center, David on October 29, November 5, 12, and 19.

For further information or registration, call 886-2377 between 9 a.m. and 4 p.m., Monday to Friday.

High school, community college to sponsor local blood drives

Every day, thousands of patients nationwide receive the gift of blood to help them survive. Prestonsburg High School and Prestonsburg Community College realize the continuous need for donors and in conjunction with Central Kentucky Blood Center are sponsoring the next Floyd County blood drives. The community is urged to donate on Wednesday, October 7, from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m., at the high school. Donors will have another opportunity to give on Friday, October 9 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m., at the Johnson Building, in room J102, located on the college's campus.

Two hundred fifty donors are needed daily to supply blood for patients in the 68 hospitals and clinics served by CKBC, according to officials with the agency.

Persons at least 17 years of age, who are in good health and weigh a minimum of 100 pounds are able to donate blood. For more information, call Mickey Bowling at 606-439-2173.

THE CLOCK IS TICKING FOR THE FUTURE OF EDUCATION IN FLOYD COUNTY

Within weeks, people will go to the polls and vote on the direction our school system will take. Will our Board of Education remain in the hands of those handpicked by State Education Commissioner Wilmer Cody? Or will we elect people who will stand up for our children? Isn't it time for the children of District 4 to have a board member who will put their interests first? Isn't it time for District 4 to have a board member who will listen to its concerns and act upon them? Isn't it time for the Board of Education to be returned to the people of Floyd County?

Our district needs someone who will represent the interests of our children, not the interests of themselves. That someone is me. I am Glenda Hall, and I want to serve as your representative on the Floyd County Board of Education. A lifelong resident of Left Beaver, I graduated from Wheelwright High School, Prestonsburg Community College, and the University of Kentucky. For several years, I served as president of the Osborne PTO and Wheelwright Academic Boosters Club as well as being a member of the Wheelwright Band Parents. Working with these groups taught me how much can be accomplished when parents, teachers and others work together toward a common goal.

- If given the honor of serving as your next board member, I pledge to:
- Oppose any more consolidation of schools in Floyd County—Melvin Elementary should not have been closed. Had I been on the board, I would have listened to the will of the people and voted against its closing.
  - Keep the gym at Wheelwright accessible to the youth of our district.
  - Fight for more buses so that our little ones do not have to wait in the dark to catch the bus in the morning.
  - Increase the salary of our classified staff while assuring that there is equity in their salaries.
  - When possible, give raises to our certified staff, also.
  - Renovate both McDowell and Osborne Elementary until such monies become available to build a new school for each.
  - Encourage more adult education.
  - Treat all staff, parents and others with the respect to which all people are entitled.
  - Have a full public accounting of all monies received and spent.
  - Let the people know in plain English if we are in a deficit situation.
  - To vote against sending McDowell and Osborne Elementary 6th graders to the middle school at South Floyd—the 7th & 8th graders should have been left at their respective schools.
  - Assure that every student through the eighth grade has the necessary books from the very first day of school.
  - Support the planned athletic complex for South Floyd.
  - Promote Floyd County jobs for Floyd County people.
  - And last, but not least, promote academic excellence throughout the county.

Every child in Floyd County deserves a quality education that will provide them with a solid foundation on which to build their future.

Now is the time to elect a school board member, for the people, by the people, and of the people.

drive about at all hours in nice, expensive vehicles; they go wherever they want; and they are given money to spend by parents and grandparents, who want the to have what peers have or what the adults did not have in school. Both of Senior's parents worked and tried hard to provide adequately for him and his older sister. Did they know where he was the night/morning he was stopped?

When first seen, Senior was proud that he had "been dry for eight weeks." Then after a two-month period of involvement with therapy, he was having fewer temper tantrums, was sleeping better, had no urge to use drugs, was doing more chores at home, which he had never done before, and had begun doing homework for the first time.

exceeded the yearly income ceiling for VA benefits and that her VA benefits would be discontinued effective May 1, 1998. The letter she received was dated July 23, 1998. The letter also indicated that she would most likely have to repay money she received after May 1, 1998, even though she did not receive the letter until July.

My mother was never aware that an income ceiling existed and has based her living for the past two-and-a-half years on the total of all benefits she receives. The fact that her VA benefit payments will be discontinued is outrageous enough, but, even more outrageous is the ceiling limit for yearly income, which is $5,688.00.

I am sure that there are a lot of veterans who are not aware of this yearly income ceiling. I wonder how many veterans think that their survivors will be taken care of (above poverty level)? Those survivors who are not able to work, as my mother is not, would be hard pressed to survive on the income restrictions being placed on their income and benefits.

I think it is a disgrace and shameful! These benefits are not "freebies"! These men and women worked all of their lives, fought and died, in the military and earned them!

Suggestions were that: his parents expect him to pay for his truck insurance if he did not make B or better grades and that he think seriously about preparing for college. Senior had a great talent and interest in the arts.

Although Senior's parents were very upset that he had been doing drugs, they were also thankful that he had been stopped that fateful morning by police, and that he was still alive. However, just think of all the dangerous risks he took since he was 13 years of age. Senior was lucky that outside forces interrupted his addictions, but several youths in our region were not so fortunate over the recent years. As with any other community projects, adults and youth working together as a team increase the likelihood of success for preventing substance abuse.

At Mud Creek, the Rev. Jesse Jackson told local residents that power is in the hands of the people when they cast their ballots. That power is slipping away for some residents who haven't registered at the Floyd County Clerk's office.

Deadline to register to vote or change precincts or political parties for the general election in November is October 5, according to Floyd County Court Clerk Carla Boyd.

Offices on the November ballot include U.S. Senator; U.S. Representative for the 5th Congressional District; State Representative for the 95th District; property tax administrator; county judge-executive; county attorney, county clerk, sheriff; jailer; coroner; county surveyor; justice of the peace; constable; commissioners; city council members; city commission members; school board representatives; and mayor.

This will be the first time that Floyd County voters will cast their ballots for county commissioners in a general election, and some voters are confused about the issue, according to the county court clerk.

Boyd said that voters will cast three votes for commissioners.

"Each registered voter in all of Floyd County will have the choice to vote for one county commissioner in each of the three commissioner districts," Boyd says in a letter to the editor in today's edition of the Times.

"The top vote getter in each commissioner district will be the county commissioner," she says.

Also on the November ballot will be two constitutional amendments.

Amendment No. 1 asks voters if they want to have a legislative session every year, Boyd said Tuesday.

"The proposed amendment would alter ... the Kentucky Constitution in two ways: it would reduce the organizational session held in odd-numbered years from 10 days to five days, and it would allow for an interim legislative session of not more than 25 days, to be convened on the first Tuesday in February in odd-numbered years," according to a brochure explaining the amendment.

If the amendment is defeated, the odd-year organizational session of not more than 10 days would still be held, but the General Assembly would not meet again in regular session until January 2000, the brochure explains.

Amendment No. 2 concerns property tax exemption.

"It asks 'do you want to do away with personal property tax when you license your car?'" Boyd said.

"The proposed amendment does not, by itself, propose to remove the current taxes on any items of personal property," according to the brochure. "The effect of the proposed amendment, if adopted, would be to allow the General Assembly to provide exemptions by enactment of specific legislation."

Boyd expects voters to say yes to both amendments.

"Usually, they say no," she said. She added that even if voters approve the amendments, legislators must also approve them, and they must be signed into law.

WE ARE FLOYD COUNTY DEMOCRATS

WE BELIEVE:

- All areas of Floyd County, Left and Right Beaver, Mud Creek, Middle Creek, the River Areas, our cities, and Commissioner Districts 1, 2 & 3, must progress equally and together for us to achieve our potential.
- That our founding fathers set out a government based upon the principles of our Faith as outlined in the Bible, and that we must conduct ourselves and our government according to the highest standards of ethical, moral and professional conduct.
- That we will be judged not by how many tax breaks we give to the wealthy, but by how well we care for our children, our elderly and our disabled.
- That all people deserve the opportunity to have a job, a safe working environment, a safe community and the same educational opportunities, vital services and public facilities available to all people, everywhere.
- That progress has been made in making our communities better for our families, and that we must build on that progress so that no person is left out of the American Dream.
- That human decency and our Faith requires us to advocate fair compensation for a day's work, and just compensation for any and all occupational injuries and occupational diseases.
- That progress has come to all areas of our county, and we pledge to continue that progress to lead us into the 21st Century.

WE INVITE ALL PEOPLE TO SHARE OUR DREAMS AND OUR VISION FOR OUR COUNTY AS WE MOVE AHEAD. WE CAN MAKE OUR COUNTY A BETTER PLACE FOR OURSELVES AND FOR OUR FAMILIES, BUT IT WILL TAKE ALL OF US, WORKING TOGETHER, TO MAKE THIS PART OF OUR WORLD WE CALL HOME THE VERY BEST PLACE TO LIVE AND RAISE OUR FAMILIES.

In Appreciation

The family of the late Joe D. Weddington, Sr., thanks the community for the prayers, flowers, food and other expressions of sympathy and support that sustained us during his lengthy illness and our bereavement. We thank Rev. Harold Dorsey and Rev. Arnold Turner for their words of comfort and hope; Michael D. Lyons, Esq., for a message delivered straight from the heart; and Mrs. Annette Jackson for her truly inspirational singing. We thank Zebulon Lodge No. 273, F.&A.M., for a moving service; and the Veterans of Foreign Wars and Disabled American Veterans for their participation at the funeral and graveside. We thank the sheriff's department for their assistance in traffic control; and we also thank Hall Funeral Home for their helpfulness every step of the way.

Card of Thanks

The family of Narcie Sturgill Burchett would like to extend their appreciation to all those friends, neighbors and loved ones who helped comfort them during their time of sorrow. Thanks to all who sent food, flowers or spoke comforting words. A special thanks to Dr. Tom Valentine for his comforting words; the sheriff's department for their assistance in traffic control; and the Hall Funeral Home for their kind and professional service.

MS Patients eligible for loan of equipment

Area residents with a confirmed diagnosis of multiple sclerosis (MS) may be eligible to receive the free loan of therapeutic medical equipment such as wheelchairs, portable ramps, canes, walkers, and other items according to the Multiple Sclerosis Association of America. MSAA, now heading into its 29th year of service, provides the free loan of such equipment to qualified members who cannot secure assistive devices either on their own or through private insurance or government programs. To learn more about this program, call the MS Association at 1-800-833-4672 or access www.msaa.com.

dent life is crucial for someone coping with MS," said MSAA President John Hodson, Sr. "Our equipment loan program covers a wide range of items which help patients break down many barriers and, in return, restore their mobility, independence, and safety."

Multiple sclerosis is the leading neurological disorder of young adults, affecting as many as 50,000 Americans. Common symptoms include blindness, tremors, extreme fatigue, and loss of mobility. While MS is not fatal, the condition is chronic and affects a person's physical, emotional, and financial well-being.

In addition to standard pieces of therapeutic equipment, the program offers limited supply of custom equipment as well as the loan of "cool suits." Utilizing NASA spin-off technology, the cool suit (vest and cooling unit) lowers the wearer's body temperature by one degree. Studies have shown this lowering of body temperature offers temporary symptom relief for some MS sufferers.

The Multiple Sclerosis Association of America is a national nonprofit agency dedicated to assisting the quality of life for MS patients and their family members. In addition to the equipment loan program, MSAA services include a toll-free hotline, peer counseling, literature, support groups, symptom management research, barrier-free housing, MRI diagnostic fund, referrals, awareness and advocacy.

Majmundar named scholar

Piarist School graduate Monica Majmundar of Martin has been named an AP Scholar by the College Board in recognition of her exceptional achievement on the college-level Advanced Placement (AP) Examinations. She completed three AP examinations, in Chemistry, Calculus and U.S. History, with grades of three or higher.

pre-med major at Transylvania University, having graduated in May from The Piarist School as the class valedictorian. She is the daughter of Drs. Gopal and Mina Majmundar of Martin.

The Piarist School is a small, private, Catholic college preparatory high school in Martin.

Monica Majmundar

Approximately 23 percent of America's graduating seniors have taken one or more AP examinations. Only 13 percent of those students performed at a sufficiently high level to merit such recognition.

AP examinations, which students take in May, after completing challenging college-level courses at their high school, are graded on a five-point scale (with five as the highest). Most of the nation's leading colleges and universities award credit for grades of three or higher.

Majmundar is now a freshman

Give the gift of life

This fall, South Floyd High School and Central Kentucky Blood Center will offer the opportunity for students and the community to donate blood on Tuesday, October 6, from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m., in the high school's band room.

Two hundred fifty donors are needed daily to supply blood for patients in the 68 hospitals and clinics served by CKBC. Giving blood is a unique way to show you care for others. Anyone who is 17 or older, weighs at least 100 pounds and is in good health is eligible to give blood.

1998 Layne reunion

The 1998 Layne Reunion was held Sunday, September 6, at the Tom's Creek Baptist Church at Ivel. Family members and guests were registered by Norma Hinchman. The dinner was preceded by moments of silence in honor of those family members—Betty Conn; Goldie Layne Hall; Hazel George; Donald Layne; and Elsie Layne Leisure—who had passed away during the past year. Grace was given by Wanda Hicks Fletcher.

After dinner, master of ceremonies, Kevin Hinchman announced the appreciation of Douglas Layne Hicks for her work organizing the Layne reunion; introduction of three daughters—Lois Cicero; Betty Solomon; and Gloria Faye Blankenship—of the late Thelma Layne Conn; congratulations to Charles and Ruth Layne of Phoenix, Arizona who celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary; and welcome to Clyde and Myrtle Hinchman of Jeffersonville, Indiana. Kristin Boyd, daughter of David and Susan Boyd, entertained with a song. Delores Layne Hicks; Bertram Layne; and Gloria Faye Blankenship provided music while other family members joined in song. Gifts were presented to the following: Landon Porter, youngest person; Ralph D. Wilhelm, oldest; Charles and Ruth Layne, who traveled the farthest; Delores Layne Hicks, who represented the L.D. Layne family; and Kenny Collins, door prize of family book, "Layne and Related Families of Floyd County, KY."

Family members and guests from Floyd County include the following: Delores Layne Hicks; David, Susan, Ashley, and Kristin Boyd; Bertrum Layne; Joe, Mary, and Kevin Hinchman; Ralph D. Wilhelm; David and Norma Hinchman; William David, Tillie, and James David Hinchman; Thomas and Bonita Hinchman Porter; Alexandria Hansford; Patricia Hindman Derossett; Richard A. ## A Look At Sports

Basketball season nears as practice set for October 15

It won't be long!
The high school basketball season officially opens on October 15, the date that teams can begin practice. The round ball, which bounces right, season is the talk of the region of late and many fans are wondering who will replace Paintsville at the top of the heap? Best to ask Paintsville coach Bill Mike Runyon that question. He figures to have a pretty good team returning and is set to defend his regional championship.

Ed Taylor
Sports Editor

Johnson Central will be the home of the boys' 15th Region tournament this coming season.

Here are some basketball notes:

- It is no wonder the Johnson Central Lady Eagles are a strong regional contender. Coach Phillip Wireman, head coach of the Lady Eagles, also coaches the Johnson Central Middle School girls' team. That may be the answer for other teams.

"I coach them and, after their season is over, they move up to play varsity ball," said Wireman after his team beat South Floyd Middle School last Monday night. "They know all the plays and have a basic knowledge of what we want to do."

Makes sense to me. Coach Wireman is one of the finest coaches we have in the 15th Region. His middle school team is tall, quick and has excellent speed. Most of the girls look like they have been playing high school basketball.

Coach Wireman quote... "Belfry loaded up when the (Ramanda) Music girl went over there."....

- Three names to remember: Megan Ousley, Ashley Johnson and Stephanie Skeans. What a trio to build a high school team off of. I will predict by the time they leave South Floyd High School, they will be three of the best to come out of this county and maybe the region. Of course, they play for the South Floyd Middle School.

- Finally! Someone in Floyd County will be hosting their own panorama this season. For ages we have had to go elsewhere to participate, but now coach Johnny Martin and AD David Bolen will bring in their own panorama on November 25 at the J.E. Allen Arena.

All four county high schools will compete against four outside teams. The panorama has been appropriately named: The Pete Grigsby, Jr. Hoops-A-Rama.

"We have contracts from each of the schools who will participate," said Bolen. "We look for a good turnout for it."

The Hoops-A-Rama will be held on a Wednesday night. Teams committed to play include: Perry Central, Belfry, Cawood and Johnson Central.

Betsy Layne will face Perry Central in a 5:45 tipoff followed by South Floyd and Belfry at 6:45. Prestonsburg will meet Cawood at 7:45 and host Allen Central will face Johnson Central at 8:45.

- Word is that there will be a county grade school basketball season this year after all. That's good news.

WILDCATS ROARING...

The Kentucky Wildcats are roaring on the recruiting trail already, and it looks as if Tubby Smith may have the makings of another national championship team.

Verbally committed are Keith Bogans, Marvin Stone and John Stewart. Stewart may be a three or four year Wildcat, but you can bet that neither Stone nor Bogans will be around after two seasons. Of course, Stone has to qualify academically.

APPLAUSE...

To the Kentucky High School Athletic Association for finally setting the districts straight. The new proposal, which still needs final approval, will put teams in the district they belong by enrollment size, and there will be no playing up.

CAN YOU IMAGINE...

Prestonsburg rolls in game one, holds off South Floyd in second

by Ed Taylor
Sports Editor

The Prestonsburg Lady Blackcats picked up their first win of the young volleyball season by defeating the South Floyd Lady Raiders in two sets, 15-0 and 15-11.

While the first game was an easy win, Prestonsburg had to hold off the Lady Raiders in the second set. The game was tied at 9, 10 and 11 before Prestonsburg took the lead for good.

On Angela Howell's serve, Prestonsburg took a 12-11 lead but got the game winning points on Brooke Coleman's serve.

The Lady Blackcats opened up a 5-0 lead giving them 20 straight points, in two games, before South Floyd could get on the scoreboard. Monica Newsome picked up the first South Floyd point for a 5-1 game. After a Prestonsburg sideout, South Floyd made it 5-3 on Tabitha Berger's serve. Cindy Vanover had two great returns to preserve the Lady Raiders' serve.

Prestonsburg went in front 9-3 behind Warrix before South Floyd made it a 9-4 game on Tiffany Williams' serve.

On a strong return by Margaret Morgan, South Floyd was able to stay close to the Lady Blackcats. The Lady Raiders scored four unanswered points to take a 10-9 lead until a net serve gave them a sideout.

The game was tied at 9 on an Amanda Tackett serve and the Lady Raiders took a 10-9 advantage on the same serve. Prestonsburg tied the game and took an 11-10 lead before South Floyd tied the game for the final time at 11 on Monica McKinney's serve.

Prestonsburg then scored the next four points to win 15-11 behind Warrix and Coleman.

Prestonsburg blitz Betsy Layne

by Rick Bentley
Sports Writer

It was another rough night in what has turned into a long football season for Betsy Layne, as county rival Prestonsburg left the hill with a 62-14 win.

For Coach John Derossett, it was a successful homecoming, as he returned to the site of his first three seasons as a head coach. His Blackcats (4-1) will begin the second half of the season Friday night playing for the district championship at Breathitt County.

Betsy Layne (1-5) will enjoy a week off before returning to action Oct. 9 at home against Leslie County.

The game was marred by a third-quarter fight which resulted in three players being ejected. Betsy Layne's Aaron Swiger and James Akers were dismissed early, while Prestonsburg's Mike McDonald was tossed. The fight came with the final score already on the scoreboard and took nearly 15 minutes for the officials and coaches to sort out. The ruckus could have been troubling for the Blackcats, who were without McDonald in the biggest game of the season.

Any doubts about this one were put to bed early, and Prestonsburg scored five times in a seven-play run to lead 34-0 after the first period. John Ortega scored on the game's fourth play, a 37-yard pass from Adam Hall. Brook Stinnett kicked the PAT for the 7-0 lead with 10:56 left in the first period. Ortega, one of the state's top running backs, carried the ball only twice on the night, for 28 yards. He caught two passes as well, chewing up 81 yards.

The other four scores in the first period came on a 14-yard pass from Hall to Hank Mullins; a two-yard run by Ortega; a 12-yard pass from Hall to Seth Crisp; and a 40-yard run by Jeremy Caudill. Stinnett was good on four of five extra-point attempts for the 34-0 lead. The third touchdown was set up by a fumble recovery by sophomore Tim Slone. A pair of interceptions by Blackcat freshman Chris Jervis set up the next two touchdowns. They came on a two-yard run by Grant Castle and a 65-yard Hall-to-Crisp pass. Stennett's PAT on the second score made it 47-0 with 6:11 to play in the half.

South Floyd falls at Fleming-Neon

by Ed Taylor
Sports Editor

Even though the high school football season has entered the second half, the "big games" are starting to show up at the middle of the schedule.

This past Friday night, the South Floyd Raiders fell to the Fleming-Neon Pirates in a game that was considered a "must win." Neon prevailed over South Floyd 22-16 in a District 2 match up.

The loss dropped the Raiders to 1-4 overall and, more importantly, 0-3 against district competition. Fleming-Neon improved to 4-1 overall and won its first district contest, to go 1-1 on the year.

B.J. Bryant scored both touchdowns for the Raiders and both conversion runs. But the Raiders found little else against the Pirate front line as they managed only 131 yards on the ground. Bryant was held to just 51 yards rushing on 15 carries. Joe Plaktus rushed for 56 yards on just one carry. He took the ball in hand on a fake punt attempt and galloped the 56 yards. Matt Tackett picked up 27 yards on seven carries.

Charlie Williams completed seven of 18 passes for 67 yards, including a touchdown pass to Bryant. He was intercepted twice. Kyle Tackett hauled in two passes for 32 yards. Darren Newsome had two catches for 17 yards.

South Floyd held an 8-0 lead after the first quarter on a 12-yard run by Bryant who added the conversion.

Early in the second period, Neon made it an 8-6 game on a Josh Holcomb 6-yard run with the extra point attempt failing. The lead for the Raiders went to 16-6 in the second when Bryant fielded a kickoff and returned the football 80-yards for the score.

But it would be all Fleming-Neon the rest of the way. The Pirates made it a 16-14 game at the half on a Jonathan McElroy 4-yard run. He also ran the two-point conversion. South Floyd held a 16-14 half-time lead.

The two teams played scoreless in the third period with the Raiders clinging to a two-point lead going into the fourth period. South Floyd had trouble moving the football in the final period, and late in the game, Fleming-Neon took the lead for good on Brandon Cook's 1-yard plunge with 1:37 showing on the clock.. Holcomb added the two-point conversion.

"We lead until inside the final two minutes," said

Raider coach Donnie Daniels.

South Floyd looked to be in business inside the final minute of the game when they moved to the Pirates 32-yard line. But an offensive pass interference set them back to the 47 as the clock ran out.

"We had our chances to put them away," said the South Floyd coach. "But we didn't get things done."

South Floyd will entertain Jenkins this Friday night in a district matchup.

GIRLS VOLLEYBALL...

Betsy Layne takes Paintsville

by Ed Taylor
Sports Editor

Coach Tim Rice says his Betsy Layne Lady Cats volleyball team has shown a lot of improvement since the first game of the volleyball season, and that appeared to be true last week when the Lady Cats avenged an earlier loss to the Lady Tigers of Paintsville.

Betsy Layne posted identical wins in taking the two-game set, winning the first game 15-12 and taking game two by the same score.

In the second game, Paintsville had a sideout on its first two serves, but Courtney Swain gave the Tigers the first lead at 1-0 on her serve. The Lady Tigers took a 2-0 lead on Kelly Hunt's serve.

Heather Hamilton put Betsy Layne on the scoreboard to make it a 2-1 game before a sideout gave the ball back to the Lady Tigers' court. Paintsville made it a 3-1 affair on Rebecca Keeth's serve.

Denise Jones gave the Lady Tigers their first lead as Betsy Layne scored on three consecutive Jones' serves to make it a 4-3 game in favor of the Lady Cats.

On a sideout for the Lady Cats, Paintsville reeled off five unanswered points to assume a 8-4 margin. Morgan Colvin picked up points four, five and six, while Amanda Spradlin, replacing Colvin, served points seven and eight before a sideout.

Tabitha Cox, the last server in the rotation, made it an 8-5 game on a nice serve. Two side outs for Paintsville put the ball in Watson's hand where she picked up points six and seven to make it a one-point margin, 8-7.

Jeri Rice replaced Beth Castle in the Paintsville court and picked up point number nine. But the Lady Cats ripped in front on the serving of Kim Akers as she Betsy Layne then put together a solid scoring drive on its next possession. The Bobcats needed nine plays to move 69 yards for the score, culminating on a five-yard run by Chad Bryant. The score was 47-6 with 1:01 to play.

Prestonsburg used the time, however, and scored on a 44-yard pass from Hall to Ortega at the horn. Stennett made the score 54-6 at intermission. The second half was incredibly short in comparison to the first, thanks to the coaches agreeing to play the final two periods with a running clock.

Betsy Layne scored on its first drive of the half, thanks to a 60-yard kickoff return by Bryant. The score came on a five-yard run by Anthony Tackett. The conversion run by Bryant made the count 54-14 with 7:42 to play in the third.

Prestonsburg again scored on the final play of a period, as freshman Matt Slone scored on a seven-yard run. Slone also ran for the conversion.

Prestonsburg carried 19 times for 169 yards, led by the freshman Slone, who had 43 yards on eight carries. In the air, Hall was 9-11 for 245 yards and five touchdowns.

The Blackcats were quarterbacked by freshman Austin Clark in the second half and didn't attempt a pass. Ortega's 81 receiving yards was followed by Crisp, who caught two balls for 77 yards.

Betsy Layne ran 36 times for 94 yards. Tackett had 39 yards on eight carries, Bryant 30 on 10 and Jon Howell 26 on eight. In the air, Betsy Layne was 2-11 for 47 yards and two interceptions.

Sports

Seventy home runs in one season? Wow! Now will Mark McGwire retire? He said if he hit 70 he would retire! Let's hope not.

I am glad the Chicago Cubs are in the playoffs. Sammy Sosa and the Cubbies are deserving of the honor. Maybe they could dedicate it to "Mr. Glasses," Harry Caray. I could just hear him when the final out was recorded, "Cubs win, Cubs win. Holy Cow!"

McGwire and Sosa did for baseball what the divisional races could not do, and that is keep the fans interested in the game. What will they do for an encore next year?

• See where Larry Flynt wants to buy the Cincinnati Reds or Marge Schots' interest in the club? Oh dear!

Until Friday, good sports everyone. Be good sports!

BETSY LAYNE

picked up points eight and nine to tie the game at 9. She then put the Lady Cats in front, 11-9, with two solid serves.

Paintsville tied the game and took a 12-11 lead off the hands of Swain. But that would be the final lead for the Lady Tigers as Sheena Akers served up points 12 and 13 to give the Lady Cats a 13-12 advantage. A side out for Paintsville allowed Hamilton to score points 14 and 15 for the Betsy Layne win in the second match and a victory.

In the first match, Betsy Layne withstood the good play of Sam Coleman to hold on to a 15-12 win. Coleman scored all but two of the 12 points for the Lady Tigers. She gave Paintsville a 2-0 lead before a side out. Kim Akers made it a 2-1 game on a nice serve that eluded the Lady Tigers.

Following a Kelly Hunt side out, Sheena Akers picked up points two, three and four to give Betsy Layne a 4-2 margin. Paintsville picked up its third point on a serve by Rebecca Keeth for a 4-3 game.

Neither Colvin nor Maynard could do much for her respective team, but Coleman, on her second serve of the game, got eight straight points for an 11-4 Paintsville lead. The score was 12-8 on serves by Jones for Betsy Layne and Beth Castle for Paintsville.

But Brandy Watson put the Lady Cats in front 13-12 by picking up five straight points before a side out. Swain had the ball in Paintsville's court but failed to get the ball over the net. Kim Akers picked up the 14th point for Betsy Layne. A side out for Paintsville gave the ball to Sheena Akers who scored the 15th point for the win.

Johnson, Anderson treys send South Floyd past Inez, 58-45

by Ed Taylor
Sports Editor

The South Floyd Middle School Lady Raiders remained undefeated through the first four games of the middle school schedule but Wednesday night's game did not come easy against a good Inez Lady Indians team.

But Ashley Johnson and Brandy Anderson were "treyriffic" in leading the Lady Raiders over Inez. Johnson scored 14 points to share scoring honors for South Floyd with Stephanie Skeans, who also finished with 14 points. Anderson netted 12 points. But both Johnson and Anderson buried two three-point baskets each against the Lady Indians.

Johnson went scoreless in the first half but made the difference in the second as she scored 10 of her 14 points in the third quarter. Anderson carried the load in the first half with eight points. Leigh Ann Tuttle tossed in eight points and Megan Ousley finished with six. Mary Bentley added four points.

Desiree Cassidy led all scorers with 22 points for Inez. She hit one three-pointer, that came in the third quarter. She scored seven first quarter points.

Inez led 12-11 after the first quarter. Tuttle kept South Floyd close with seven first quarter points. Skeans and Anderson had two points each in the first period.

The two teams played to a 25-25 halftime score with Anderson sinking both of her treys in the second stanza. Bentley scored four points in the second quarter as did Ousley. A 20-10 third quarter gave South

Floyd a 45-35 lead at the end of three quarters. Johnson made up for a slow start and buried two three-point baskets in scoring 10 points. Skeans and Anderson had four points each in the third. Ousley had two points. Cassidy scored seven points in the third for Inez.

In the fourth, Skeans made her presence known with eight points on some nice assists by Ousley. Johnson pumped in four points and Tuttle one.

ACMS wins over Paintsville; falls to Inez, JCMS

by Ed Taylor
Sports Editor

Amber Scott poured in 24 points, and the Allen Central Middle School Lady Rebels posted a one-sided 68-15 win over the Paintsville Middle School in girls' basketball.

Jessica Isaac added 11 points and Jeni Spurlock scored nine. Jaclyn Martin tossed in six points.

Allen Central held Paintsville scoreless in the first quarter while racing out to a 12-0 lead. It was a 40-4 game at the end of the first half.

Other scorers for Allen Central — Tiff Turner, Kristi Howard and Amanda Tackett — had four points each. Terri Mullins and Becki Thomas netted two points apiece.

The Lady Rebels fell in a close one to the Inez Lady Indians, 48-45. Amber Scott netted 15 points for Allen Central in the loss. Martin added 10 and Mullins scored eight. Amy Combs tossed in four and Jeni Spurlock scored two points.

Scott had 19 points in a 38-33 setback to Johnson Central Middle School. Isaac scored five and Kristi Howard had five points. Martin netted two while Turner and Mullins had one point each.

Adams leads Prestonsburg in win over South Floyd

by Ed Taylor
Sports Editor

Stephanie Adams scored 12 of her team's 16 points in the first set against South Floyd in girls' volleyball action and four points in set number two to lead the Lady Blackcats past South Floyd 16-14 and 15-4.

Prestonsburg posted a 16-14 win in the first game behind Adams. She served up the first four points to give Prestonsburg a 4-0 lead. Monica McKinney made it a 4-2 game picking up the first Lady Raider points. After three straight side outs for Prestonsburg, Brandi Slone's serves gave Prestonsburg a 6-2 margin.

Margaret Morgan picked up the third point for South Floyd for a 6-3 game as the Lady Raiders could not put any consistency together. Amelia Conley got point number seven and Brooke Coleman picked up number eight for Prestonsburg to give the Lady Blackcats an 8-3 cushion. Cindy Vanover made it an 8-4 game in picking up a point for South Floyd on a nice serve.

Side outs by Coleman and Slone put the ball in the Lady Raiders' court with Kayla McGuire serving. She picked up three straight points for an 8-7 game. McKinney got point eight for South Floyd to tie the game and the Lady Raiders took a 9-8 lead off Minnie Tackett's serve. Two consecutive side outs gave the ball back to the South Floyd court, and they reeled off five consecutive points for a 14-9 lead.

But that is when Adams took over after South Floyd had side outs on their next two serves. Adams ran the board on the Lady Raiders, scoring the next eight points to give Prestonsburg the 16-14 win. South Floyd used two timeouts in trying to disrupt Adams.

In match two, Prestonsburg posted a 15-9 win with Amelia Conley having a strong serve. Adams picked up four server's points in match two.

Adams gave Prestonsburg a 3-0 lead before Jamie Slone made it a 3-1 game, scoring the Lady Raiders' first point. Coleman made it a 4-1 game before South Floyd took a 7-4 lead on six straight points on Margaret Morgan's serves. On a serve by Charity Whitaker, Prestonsburg made it a 7-5 game and Tiffany Warrix pulled the Lady Blackcats to within one, 7-6.

South Floyd went up 8-6 on a serve by Tiffany Williams. But Adams kept the Lady Blackcats close on a nice serve and an 8-7 game. After Morgan gave South Floyd a 9-7 margin, Conley served up four straight points for an 11-9 Prestonsburg lead. Angela Howell got point 12, Coleman point 13 and Whitaker game points 14 and 15 for the win.

Just a matter of time

Last Sunday at Martinsville, Tide driver, Ricky Rudd, continued one of the most remarkable streaks in all of Winston Cup racing. His win in the NAPA Autocare 500 stretched his consecutive years of winning at least one Winston Cup race a year to 16. This is the longest active streak in the Winston Cup series.

The victory was his 20th of his career and puts him in seventh place among active drivers with Winston Cup wins. His 20 victories also put him in a tie for 25th place on the all-time Winston Cup win list.

The year 1997 was perhaps Rudd's best in his 23-year Winston Cup career. He won two races, including the biggest purse of the year at the Indianapolis Motor Speedway in the Brickyard 400.

He finished a disappointing 14th in the final point standings, but it wasn't really a true reflection of the numbers that he posted during the year. In fact it was the first time since the 1988 season that he had finished out of the top 10 at season's end. Looking back further into Rudd's career, it was only the third time since he started racing Winston Cup full time in 1977 that he has failed to finish in the top 10. Last season turned into one of those years that he either ran very competitively or was so far off the pace that he became a non-factor in the race's outcome.

Last year saw Rudd post some of the best numbers of his career. Besides his two victories, he notched six top-five and 11 top 10 finishes on his way to winning a career best $1.9 million. The money no doubt was a welcome sight not only to Ricky Rudd the driver, but also to Ricky Rudd the team's owner.

With numbers like that you have to look deeper into the record books to find just what it was that saw Rudd fall out of his customary top 10 finishing position in the point standings. That one glaring stat that just jumps at you was the seven DNF's that saw him watching the end of those races from his hauler. It is hard to stay in a points chase when you aren't around at the end of over 20 percent of the races.

You would think that even with the number of DNF's that the Tide team had they had to be looking forward to the '98 season. The truth is that even before the green flag waved at Daytona in February, Rudd knew his team was behind the multi-car teams' operations as far as preparations go.

Rudd had the unenviable task of having to switch over from the old Ford Thunderbird model to this year's Taurus. To be fair, it was a job that many of the one-car operations have had trouble with. Any time a new style is introduced on the circuit, there will always be teams that don't miss a beat, and there will be teams that for whatever reason never seem to get a handle on the new make.

To complicate matters even more was the multi-car Ford operations of Jack Roush, Robert Yates, and Roger Penske that were out testing and having the luxury of getting to use the results from a number of cars before proceeding with their fine tuning of the Taurus.

Rudd tried to form a partnership with a couple of teams just to share information with, but the results seem to have been of little benefit.

As this season unfolded, Rudd became the source of a lot of speculation on what direction he would take for his team for the 1999 season. He wanted to add a second car to his operation and gave himself an August date of securing a second sponsor or he would give up the idea. No sponsor was ever found, and that left Rudd still searching for a direction for next season.

In just the past couple of weeks it has been rumored that he has tried to buy Junie Donlavey's Heilig-Meyers racing team, but even that effort apparently has not panned out as Donlavey has announced that he plans on keeping his team in tact for '99.

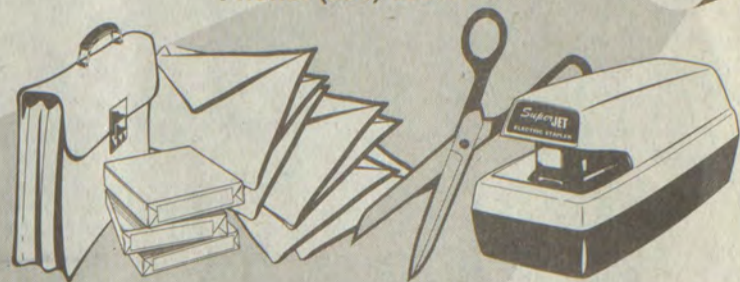

All of this has left Rudd with a tough decision on just exactly what he wants to do next season. No doubt last Sunday's win has him somewhat optimistic for next year. With the direction the Winston Cup seems to be headed, the days of an owner/driver of a one-car team may be just too tough to stay competitive.

No matter what he ends up doing next year, I like his chances of making it 17 years in a row with a NASCAR Winston Cup win under his belt.

Combs Division I-AA All-American

by Ed Taylor
Sports Editor

There has to be a sense of pride at Betsy Layne High School and especially with former Bobcat coach John Derossett after former Betsy Layne standout Brandon "Bubba" Combs was named Offensive Guard All-American at Morehead State University.

Morehead is currently 4-0 overall and ranked the top offensive team in the Division I-AA rankings.

This past weekend, Matt Ballard's Eagles stunned the Dayton Flyers with a 35-34 win in overtime. It was only the second time Dayton has lost at their own stadium. The Flyers have won 60 games at home.

er," said Coach Derossett, who is at the helm of the Prestonsburg Blackcats. "But he is also a great person. I think he will have a chance to play professionally"

Playing professionally may be on the mind of the All-American, but right now his thoughts are elsewhere.

"My biggest hope right now is to go undefeated and get a playoff bid," said Combs.

Another reason for the smiles of Coach Derossett is the fact that his Blackcats are ranked 10th in the state in Class 2A, according to the Associated Press. Prestonsburg will face Breathitt County, the state's sixth-ranked team, this Friday night in what experts say is a district championship game.

Phelps, Pikeville to settle District 2 race?

HORNETS SURPRISE TEAM; SEVERAL MYSTERIES

by Ed Taylor
Sports Editor

On the downside of the high school season, the Phelps Hornets remain the surprise team of Class A, Region IV, District 2.

Coach Brian Charles' Hornets are a perfect 5-0 through the first half but things could get rocky in round 2.

Phelps, who will play only a nine-game schedule, has but four games remaining — two at home and two on the road — but three of the four will be big tests.

Of course, Coach Charles will relate how they all are big tests, but the Hornets will have to go on the road to face the challenges of Pikeville and Hazard while entertaining Elkhorn City and Fleming-Neon at home.

The Hornets will travel to Pikeville this Saturday night in a game that could settle first place in the district. Phelps is currently undefeated at 5-0 and 2-0 in the district. Pikeville is 5-1 overall and leads the district at 4-0. Hazard is one game under .500 at 2-3 but stands 2-1 in the district, losing to Pikeville.

Phelps, Pikeville and Hazard seem a sure bet for one of the play-off berths with Fleming-Neon, South Floyd and Elkhorn City battling for the final slot.

Pikeville, who has ventured away from home only once this season, will play three of its final four games on the road but only two will be district games as the Panthers will close their regular season at Prestonsburg. Following Phelps, Pikeville will meet Jenkins and Fleming-Neon on the road.

South Floyd is a very disappointing 1-4 on the season but, worse yet, the Raiders are 0-3 in district play, where it counts. The Raiders have three district games — Jenkins, Hazard, Elkhorn City

SPORTS IN KENTUCKY

UK clamors up to Level IV on Southeastern Conference scale

Southeastern Conference's football scale has a six level scale. Level I: probation; Level II: Kentucky/Vanderbilt Level III: survival; Level IV: respectability; Level V: parity. Level VI: New Year's Day.

Last Saturday in Gainesville Kentucky clamored onto level IV. Can the Wildcats stay there?

✓ If you believed Kentucky's game at Florida was a signature game for Wildcat football, a show of hands, please. Only one? Right. As Hal Mumme said, "we're one recruiting season away."

✓ Arkansas did what to Alabama?

✓ Say, did Houston Nutt's Hogs car-wreck Shaun Alexander's Heisman hopes? Next! Oh, Tim Couch.

✓ Best quote before Saturday's Kentucky-Florida game: "We're gonna load our gun and shoot all the bullets we have and see what happens." — Hal Mumme. UK's offense left its barrel smoking. But in this here Gator Swamp you gotta play defense too.

✓ Kentucky defense against the run? Not bad.

✓ UK at Florida was not winnable, but now the Mumme season gets really interesting. A win at unbeaten Arkansas would make the Commonwealth as rowdy next week as Mark McGwire's St. Louis was last week.

✓ Yo, Tim Couch, no more scrambles.

✓ Kudos to Hurricane Georges. Cancellation of the Miami-UCLA game last week CBS time to cue up a feature on Tim Couch and Heisman, uh, Hyden.

UK WILDCATS BOWL FUTURE?

Kentucky's football team might've gotten a glimpse of its future last week when the SEC signed an agreement to send teams to the Peach, Cotton and Outback bowls through 2001.

An SEC East or West Division champion, runner-up or a comparable or "mutually agreed upon team" will play in the three bowls, the agreement says.

In all probability UK would have to win eight games this season to be invited. However, two major pluses are the Wildcats' wide-open offense which draws bowl officials, and UK's track record for selling tickets when its team goes to a bowl.

UK & LOUISVILLE

Now: NCAA defending champion Kentucky enjoys a bumper recruiting season. The University of Louisville gets NCAA probation.

Then: Just eight seasons ago the Rick Pitino era was beginning at UK with a 14-14 record and the Wildcats banned from postseason play. Up I-64 UofL wrapped up a 27-8 campaign including a Metro Conference Tourney title and an invite to the NCAA dance.

Eight years ago Denny Crum was a genius and media-types lobbied for his induction to Basketball's Hall of Fame. Today, in part because he refuses to talk to certain columnists, Crum is labeled a has-been and history. Today, Tubby Smith is media darling. UK is king. But ya better not lose to UofL, Arkansas or Tennessee.

CRUM DUCKS CRITICS

In the aftershock of UofL's NCAA probation announcement last week, two of the Commonwealth's metro sports columnists smelled blood in the water and shredded basketball coach Denny Crum.

The coach should have been on hand to face the music instead of leaving director of athletics Tom Jurich to dance in the strobe lights.

Too, it is noteworthy that the coach's most severe critics are the same two scribes who wrote glowing tributes upon Crum's induction into the Hall of Fame in 1994, and focused on Cool Hand Luke's coaching magic when UofL reached Final 16 in 1997.

STEWART PICKS UK, BUT...

John Stewart, 7-0, 290-pounder from Indianapolis is an interesting signee by UK's Tubby Smith. His size and potential are obvious pluses, but Kentucky fans will be curious to see if Stewart has the same heart and discipline as Nazr Mohammed. The worst thing to happen to Stewart is having his head filled with silliness tossed out by Van Coleman then parroted by some in the media herd. "He could be a lottery pick in his third year," Coleman told the Lexington Herald-Leader last week.

Yes, and in three years Stewart could be playing at the YMCA.

JUST WONDERING

• A question for UK-bound Marvin Stone: Why a press conference? Just sign the scholarship papers, eat lunch and get to class.

• Anyone else recall George Baker of Paul Dunbar telling the Lexington Herald in mid-summer, "Kentucky wouldn't mind if I called a press conference tomorrow and announced (for UK)." Last week: WKYT-TV in Lexington reported Baker was never offered a scholarship by UK and is now listening to Michigan, DePaul, Cincinnati, and Western Kentucky.

DIS 'N DATA

Louisville. Chris Redman-led Cardinals are starting to make John L. Smith look smarter every week. ... The state's best unbeaten team nobody knows about (outside Scott County) — Georgetown Tigers are 4-0 and rated eighth in NAIA. ... Herrrrre's Morehead State!

• Unofficial poll: Unlike in recruiting seasons gone by, including Rick Pitino's, UK fans needn't worry as much about Wildcat Basketball getting a lion's share of the best of the best. Why? Tubby Smith. Wouldn't it be special if just one signee said, "It's great to be a Kentucky Wildcat," instead of some variation of, "I signed with Kentucky to improve my chances of getting to the next level.?"

• NBA owners cancelled 24 pre-season games and the Nov. 4 regular season start is in jeopardy. Yes! Hang in there, guys. Don't budge an inch. We miss you.

• Name of the week: Kody Kappas, linebacker at Rowan County High School.

UNOFFICIALLY...

Last week Sports In Ky. offered Chris Ledford of Breckinridge County as perhaps the record-holder for longest pass interception returned for a touchdown. In 1995 Ledford ran back a pass 100 yards against Edmonson County.

This week a report that 'Hodge' Meece of Ludlow returned a pass interception 102 yards for a touchdown against Campbell County in

Also, what's the longest touch- (See KENTUCKY, page twelve) down run from scrimmage? In 1989 Breckinridge County's Shannon Earle-Mucker ran 99 yards for a touchdown in a victory over Edmonson County.

SCUTTLEBUTT

Quarterback Jared Lorenzen of Ft. Thomas Highlands will make it official this week. He will sign to play football at UK. KHSAA statistics show Lorenzen

Ben Timmons, a 6-5, 265-pound offensive lineman at Chagrin Falls Kenston High School in Ohio, will visit UK for the South Carolina game Oct. 10. Timmons lists UK, West Virginia and Ohio State as his top college choices.

Wide receiver Derek Abney, 5-9, 160, from Schofield D.C. Everest, Wisconsin, has apparently been offered a scholarship by UK and is ".90-95 percent chance I'll go to Kentucky.

"One reason is Tim Couch," Abney told USA Today. "Another is their practices are low key. They don't really hit. That's a real benefit for wide receivers. You could call us more fragile. I don't think we need to get knocked down in practice. What is more important for us is to catch the ball."

Abney's grandmother (Ethel Eastman) and sister (Dawn Griffin, a '95 Kentucky grad) live in Frankfort.

Basketball. Top 10-rated Jonathon Bender got a home visit from Tubby Smith and George Felton last week in Picayune, Miss. A 6-11 forward prospect, Bender plays the same position as Marvin Stone.

WORTH REPEATING

Signee Jon Stewart not only scoffed at the possibility of a red-shirt year at UK, but told reporters remaining of their final five games. The Raiders will have to win all three to keep their hopes alive for a second consecutive playoff berth. The Raiders meet Jenkins this Friday and should pick up their first district win and second victory of the season. Hazard will be at Brackett Field and the Elkhorn City game will be on the road. South Floyd should garner victories against both Phelps and Elkhorn City, but the Bulldogs could be the team that stands in the way of a berth this season.

Elkhorn, whose lone district win came against Jenkins, will have to play Fleming-Neon, Phelps and Hazard, before meeting the Raiders in the season finale.

To pick a winner in the Phelps/Pikeville game will be difficult. Both teams are loaded, and the Panthers, even without Jonathan Chapman, is a team to be reckoned with.

The Hornets have running back Billy Peck, who ranks in the top three in rushing this season. Quarterback Shawn Clusky has proven he can call the signals behind center. The question is, can the Panthers contain Peck and Clusky? Can the Hornets find a solution to, one, Jeremy Akers and, two, Ben Howard? We will take Pikeville since the game is at Pikeville.

South Floyd will host Jenkins, and the Raiders are a two touch-down favorite here. Elkhorn City plays a non-district game against a much-improved Allen Central team. It doesn't matter here, but we take the Rebels by a touchdown.

Fleming-Neon visits 2A Whitesburg this Friday night, so we are going to stay with the Yellowjackets by a touchdown. Hazard plays at Pineville in a non-district game, but the Bulldogs should return home with a win over 1-4 Pineville.

Pardon me

Reunions, reunions.

This time of year they're everywhere, and every time I attend one, I'm flooded with 50-year-old memories.

At the last one, some old friends and I got to remembering things we did when we were kids, and a particular incident came to mind of a time when little brother Joe pulled a prank on my father that nearly got me worn out with a keen willow switch.

Being a coal miner, it was not uncommon for Dad to spend his Saturdays doing odd jobs around the house, and on this particular day, he was trying to stop a leak in our tin roof. Because the roof was high and very steep, he would not let us join him on top. But we helped him by handing up the bucket of tar, his little box of roofing nails and his hammer.

As he settled into the chore of locating the hole that caused the leak, Joe and I sat under the weeping willow in the corner of the yard where we could watch and be handy if needed. After a few minutes, though, Joe got bored with it all and wandered off.

After about an hour, Dad apparently decided that the roof was again shipshape and began gathering up his tools. He could still see me sitting in the shade, and I guess he thought that Joe was there too, because as he approached the edge of the roof he tossed down the hammer.

At that very instant, Joe was coming back around the house and the hammer just barely missed him. He stopped, looked up, looked at me, grinned and wheeled and ran into the house. In no more than five seconds he came running out with a bottle of catsup. He stopped by the porch, dumped the catsup on his head, sat the bottle down and went over and stretched out, face down, in the yard, his catsup-stained head next to the hammer.

The roof was high, the ladder was long, and I was speechless. As Dad placed his foot on the first rung, he looked down. Thinking he'd mortally wounded his youngest son, his feet touched no other rungs.

As Dad's feet struck earth, Joe was up and running.

Now, all this took place in a matter of seconds and I had no time to do anything...except the wrong thing, which was to start laughing.

I guess Dad knew that he'd been had, and since Joe was long gone, he turned to me, and I could see that he was not amused.

Even though I was losing my breath from laughter as I rolled in the grass. I had sense enough to know that it was I, not Joe, who would be the recipient of an angry father's wrath.

Now one thing about Dad was that he never whipped his children in public, and I guess that's what saved me, because he ordered me into the house.

By the time he came inside, after having broken and skinned a branch from the very tree that only moments ago had shaded me from the noonday sun, I had told Mom the entire story and what he found was both of us laughing.

I can't remember exactly what transpired next, but for some reason, I received a pardon for the crime I didn't commit. If memory serves me, Joe got off scot free, too.

Jared Gibson is "all dressed up" and ready to dance as he and other campers line up to enter the '70's Disco Dance at the "Kids Health Kamp."

Our Lady of the Way Hospital held its 7th annual "Kids Health Kamp" July 27-31, at Camp Shawnee in Floyd County. Fifty campers, ages 7-13, with asthma, diabetes and/or weight control problems, arrived from various counties of Kentucky including Knott, Magoffin, Pike, Johnson, Floyd and from Wayne and Wyoming Counties of West Virginia.

The campers enjoyed a week of fun, sun and more fun that included daily educational sessions and special presentations. Although the camp began on Monday, the campers were struck with "Saturday Night Fever." Many dressed in polyester, leisure suits and platform shoes for their trip back to the '70s and the disco era. The honor of

Disco King and Disco Queen was bestowed upon Jared Gibson and LaShauna Ritchie, respectively. Also, Chandler Slone was chosen as Disco Prince and McKella Case as Disco Princess. The campers participated in Water Olympics with first, second and third place being awarded in three different categories. Throughout the week, the campers participated in various arts and crafts including a poster contest. First, second and third place was awarded to Jessica Bryant, Brandon Patton and Courtney Blocker respectively. The counselors with their great wisdom about the campers, chose the following individuals as: Wittiest Campers—Patrick Davis and Sarah Clark; Most Thoughtful Campers—

Josh Hyden and Sarah Clark; Most Courteous Campers—Eddie Young and Mindy Bailey; Most Experienced Campers—Matthew Carr and Heather Gilliland; Most Talented Campers—Brandon Patton and Jessica Bryant; Most Outstanding Campers—Brandon Patton and Amber Tackett. Other activities the campers participated in were: bingo, line dancing, carnival games, swimming, scavenger hunt and campfires. During the awards ceremony, ten campers won a $10 Wal-Mart gift certificate.

The camp was staffed by a physician, nurses, respiratory therapists, physical therapists, certified diabetes educator, counselors, life-guard and a camp coordinator.

The following individuals, businesses, churches and community groups support the camp through monetary or gift donations: Joyce Everly, Trans Financial Bank, First Commonwealth Bank, Wal-Mart of Prestonsburg, Glaxo-Wellcome Inc., and Nathan Dale, Medisense Inc., St. Martha Catholic Church, Coca Cola Bottling Company of Robinson Creek and Pleasant Valley Rebekah Lodge No. 116.

Our Lady of the Way Hospital is making plans for the 1999 "Kid's Health Kamp." For more information, you may call (606) 285-5181, extension 301, 300 or 342.

Fun, Fun, Fun, At Our Lady of the Way's annual camp

Campers gathered for a group picture before heading home.

Jessica Bryant and Brandon Patton were selected as the Most Talented Campers.

Ten Years Ago (September 28, 1988)

A meeting, organized by Wheelwright High School students, drew community and business leaders together to discuss ways to improve the community, including the possibility of reopening the library. The Prestonsburg Housing Authority received a grant of $739,600 from the US Department of Housing and Urban Development for renovations at the Green Acres complex. Hueysville residents filed a suit in Franklin Circuit Court challenging the state's awarding of a permit to open a coal tippie in their community. The Appalachian Regional Commission approved a $300,000 grant, to be matched by state funds, for a project to reduce infant mortality in Floyd and four other counties. Thurston Endicott displayed a 20-pound cabbage he grew at his garden on Buffalo Creek. Prestonsburg City Council considered an ordinance that would abolish primary elections for non-partisan municipal office races. There died: Benjamin Burt Allen, 83, of Allen, Friday at his residence; Felix W. Allen, 63, of Beaver Creek, Ohio, formerly of Floyd County, Sept. 15; Carl E. Bingham, 72, Wednesday at his home on Auxier Road, Prestonsburg; Audrey Mae Caudill, 61, of Langley, Wednesday at McDowell Appalachian Regional Hospital; Dotty T. Skeens, 76, of Prestonsburg, Sept. 17, at UK Medical Center; Charlie B. Patton, 70, of West Liberty, formerly of Langley, Sept. 20 at St. Claire Medical Center in Morehead; Mahala Tackett, 73, of Teaberry, Monday at Pikeville Hospital; Mae Osborne Wohlford, 86, of Martin, Sunday at Our Lady of the Way Hospital; Isaac Woods, 80, of Cow Creek, Saturday at his home; Shelly Eugene Woods, 79, of Emma, Sunday at his residence.

Twenty Years Ago (October 4, 1978)

The Eagles Club here, which was closed after two men were slain in a shootout there, last May 24, was reopened about 10 days ago but stands a chance of being closed again. Just as C.&O. union clerical employees were dissolving picket lines, Saturday, in response to a 60-day federal court order, members of the UMW Welfare and Retirement Funds

Employees Union were planning a walkout to coincide with the expiration of their contract at midnight, the same day. A Bull Creek sector of new Ky. 80 in this county has been let to contract, a department of Transportation spokesman said this week. Freedom was cut short for three prisoners who escaped last Tuesday from the Floyd County jail when two of the fugitives were arrested by Ohio authorities Thursday, and the other the following day near the Mountain Parkway bridge here. There died: Sylvester Hall, 59, of Price, Friday at McDowell Appalachian Regional Hospital; Kermit Tipton, 61, formerly of this county, September 29 at Grant Hospital in Chicago where he lived; Cecil Bradley, 70, formerly of this county, September 26 in Chelsea, Michigan; Armentis Short, 80, formerly of Abbott Creek, September 25 at his home in Lima, Ohio; Simon Edward Craft, 65, formerly of Bull Creek, DOA September 25 at a Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, hospital; Mrs. Arlene Hamilton, 33, of Teaberry, Friday at Good Samaritan Hospital in Lexington; Mrs. Susan F. September 26 at Highlands Regional Medical Center.

Thirty Years Ago (October 3, 1968)

The Times confirmed Wednesday, the report heard here recently that Marcum Reynolds, founder of the Reynolds Body Company at Allen which he sold about two years ago, will establish a similar enterprise, to be known as the R. & S. Truck Body Company, near Allen, within the next few months. Major portion of the stock of the Hughes Motor Company here has been sold by J. T. Hughes to Jerry Archer and associates, it was announced last Friday. Island Creek Coal Company mines in this county were among those closed by walkouts Tuesday as negotiations toward a new wage contract were underway in Washington. If tentative state allotments stand as announced this week by Supt. of Public Instruction Wendell P. Butler, Floyd County's school system stands to gain $198,313.61 over last year's allotment. # SOCIETY

Appalred representative addresses AARP meet
Beverly Carroll, pro bono coorinator for the Appalachian Research and Defense Fund of Kentucky, was the guest speaker at the dinner meeting of Jenny Wiley Chapter No. 3528, American Association of Retired Persons (AARP), held Friday, September 18, in the medical office building at Highlands Regional Medical Center.

Burieta Gearhart presided over the business meeting.

The invocation was given by Delmas Saunders; all present pledged their allegiance to the American Flag; minutes of the last meeting were read and approved; and the treasurer's report was given.

Gearhart read a letter from Cluster Belcher, state coordinator of community operations for AARP, which announced the appointment of Louise R. Curnutte, of Ashland, as the district 7 coordinator. She will be assisting AARP chapters in Eastern Kentucky.

Following discussion, the secretary was asked to call George Eyster regarding material to be provided at the Jenny Wiley Pioneer Festival.

The death of chapter member John R. Baldrige was reported.

Discussion regarding a class for the 55 Alive driving course was held and it was decided that a class will be held, October 29-30. Ray Caldwell will be the instructor.

Those persons present for the first time were recognized.

The anniversary of the marriage of James E. and Marie Goble was recognized. They will be married 57 years on September 19.

Burieta presented Beverly Carroll and she spoke to the group regarding the pro bono program of the Kentucky Bar Association. She spoke of economic stress and its impact on the elderly.

Carroll introduced Donald Akers, benefits counseling coordinator for senior citizens in the Big Sandy area, and he addressed the group.

No one present admitted to having a birthday in September.

It was announced that the election of officers for the chapter would be held at the next meeting on October 16.

The meeting was dismissed with prayer by Orville Cooley.

Present for the meeting were Ann Roark, Orville Cooley, Donald L. and Glenda Akers, Elizabeth B. Castle, Margaret S. Ackerman, Gladys S. Allen, Burieta Gearhart, James E. and Marie Goble, Delmas Saunders, Russell and Sarah Laven, Beverly Carroll, and Garnett Fairchild.

Farewell party held for Anna Martin

Mrs. Anna Martin, 95 years of age of Harold, moved August 30, to Westland, Michigan, to live with her daughter, Lucy, and Lucy's husband, Edd Stephenson, and their son, Brian.

Grethel Baptist Church sponsored a farewell party for Mrs. Martin, August 29. Refreshments were served.

Pastor and Mrs. Don Crisp, former pastor of Grethel Baptist church, sang two songs, and Eleanor Acker read her poem at the party.

Dr. Chandra, OB-GYN physician at Martin, presented the program at the September 17 meeting of the Prestonsburg Rotary.

Tamara Hicks of the Allen Branch of the Bank Josephine was accepted as a member of the Prestonsburg Rotary Club on September 17. The Rotary Club meets each Thursday at 12:15, at the Jenny Wiley Lodge.

ANNIVERSARIES

50th anniversary

Beatrice and Clifford Childers celebrated their 58th wedding anniversary September 19 at their home near Auxier with friends and neighbors.

Wileys celebrate 60th wedding anniversary

The family of Pollyanna Wiley hosted a surprise 60th wedding anniversary party for Mrs. Wiley and her husband Avery, September 5 at the Wilkinson-Stumbo Convention Center, Jenny Wiley State Resort Park.

Registering guests at the occasion were Bessie C. Draughn, a friend of both the Wileys, from Lexington, and Alice O. Martin, a sister of Mrs. Wiley, from Langley.

Serving as emcee for a music program that preceded a luncheon-buffet was Marcus Owens Jr. who introduced several selections sung by his daughter, Kari Pepper and his sons, Walter and Nathaniel. The trio was accompanied at the piano by their mother, Caroline Owens who originated the idea for the surprise celebration. Marcus Owens Sr. also contributed some songs as he accompanied himself on the guitar.

The head table at which Mr. and Mrs. Wiley were seated had a small cake serving as a centerpiece which was baked and beautifully decorated by Darlene Rowe of Garrett. The cake was later frozen to be enjoyed by the Wileys on their actual anniversary date, September 23rd.

The invocation was given by Caroline Owens, after which the guests treated themselves to a buffet-luncheon prepared under the supervision of Barry Oldson, head chef at May Lodge.

Among the people attending the anniversary party were Mrs. Virginia Fite, Virginia's son, Ronnie Fite and Betty and Bob Vale, daughter and son-in-law of Mrs. Fite, all from Dayton, Ohio.

Also from Dayton, Mrs. Voneda Wicker, Voneda's son, Phillip Wicker and his two daughters Christina and Ashley and Phillip's special friend, Karen Wallis.

Attending from Newark, Ohio, were Arnold Macklin Fouts Sr. and Arnold Macklin Fouts Jr.

Nathaniel and Barbara Owens came from Columbus, Ohio.

Traveling from Indiana were Dotty Domlrowsky and Rebecca McCrammer. The Jim Pepper family which included Jim, Kari, Jeffrey and Justin came all the way from South Carolina.

Within the state, but traveling some distance, were Mrs. Vivian Owens and her son and daughter, Devert Joseph Owens and Regina Smith of Lexington.

Also from Lexington were Marriet Johnson, Eleanor Tully and Homer and Bessie Draughn.

Claude Slone came from Frankfort.

Ollie Mae Johnson of Covington attended, as did Edna Gearheart, Ruth and Brandt Howell and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Lavender, the latter all of Ashland.

Knott Countians attending were Charlotte and Edward Madden, Ethel R. Sturgill, Lenore Dixon, Jerry Slone, Velma Lovins, Freeble Owens and Cruz Thornsbury.

Attending from Floyd County were Pennie Wiley, daughter of the Wileys, Sambo Hall, Jewell Wiley Tussey, Marie Wiley Patrick, Marie Everidge, Dora and Debbie Johns, Lavone Bays, Critina Bays, Talbitha Bays, Kenneth and Sheilah Ratliff, Juanita Cox, Madge Boggs, Garnett C. Moore, Alice O. Martin, Annis C. Clark, Jenny and Frank Wallace, Darrell Madden, Chelsie Madden, Ashley Madden, Delores and Oliver Webb Jr., Nancy P. Webb, Ison Hall, Ruby Akers, Leona V. Fouts, Inez Owens, Marcus Owens Sr., Marcus Owens Jr., Caroline Owens, Emma L. Shepherd, Ruth Daniels, Vicki Owens, Alisha Owens, Bradley Stephens and Walter Owens.

All of Mrs. Wiley's sisters and brothers were able to be there, with the exception of Curtis Owens, who had visited with the Wileys earlier. Mr. Wiley's siblings are deceased with the exception of one sister, Ailene Hall.

Arrangements for the 60th wedding anniversary were handled by Judy L. Goble, sales and catering co-ordinator of Jenny Wiley State Resort Park.

Seated at the head table are Pollyanna and Avery Wiley who recently celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary. In the background are Mrs. Vivian Owens, Voneda Wicker and Homer Draughn, three of many friends and relatives who helped the Wileys celebrate.

BIRTHDAYS

JUMP START

It seems just a short while since I decided to take a break from this column. I only wanted a little vacation from it, but maybe I needed a jump start to get going again. I found myself seated near Minnie Alice Hall of Allen at some gathering recently and she commented that she still missed it. She mentioned some of the things I had written way back and, like anybody who writes anything, I was pleased by that.

I looked back in my notebook and saw that it had been five years. I could hardly believe it but, like they say, I guess time flies when you're having fun. Actually, time flies whether you're having fun or not.

Anyway, maybe it is time to get back. I can't seem to break the habit of being busy with something, and it's for sure that writing about people we know and the experiences they share is more pleasant than running the vacuum or such other things that can be put off for a few more days.

THE FAT LETTER

I received a letter in the mail a few days ago that aroused my curiosity. It was postmarked in Santa Ana, California, and though I know postmasters across the nation, I didn't know that one; so who was it from? I opened the envelope to find a full page newspaper ad about some product designed to help you lose weight. There was also a scribbled note in the top left corner that read, "Aileen, this really works. Try it."

Well, not only did I not know who would be writing me from California—I didn't know anyone else anywhere who thought I was fat! I knew it all the time, of course, but to tell the truth I like being just a little overweight. You never run out of something to talk about that way.

If someone offers you something you don't want to eat, you can always say, "No, I'm trying to lose weight." Many of the people I know are not exactly skinny either, and that gives you something in common with them. And even for those who don't have the problem, it makes them feel good when you say, "Gee, how do you do it?" Being a little overweight is not too bad.

A POSSIBILITY

In thinking about who might have sent me that letter, I can't help but wonder if one of Dr. Larry Coleman's nurses might have gone on vacation and thought of me when she saw that ad. Every time I go to his office, one of them will take me directly to those tell-all scales.

She will wait patiently while I set my purse down and slip off my shoes...my jacket...my belt...my watch. Then she will smile sweetly and say, "You've only gained two pounds since the last time."

I believe if I went to that office to return some record, to get a flu shot or maybe to accompany another patient, one of those nurses would march me in there and stand me on those scales!

Improve beef profits by attending Southern Beef Day

Patricia Spicer

The Southern Beef Day, set for October 2, in Somerset, may prove the most profitable day cattle producers will have all year.

The day-long workshop will feature the best and brightest observers of the beef cattle industry discussing ways to improve profits for Kentucky cow-calf operators. The workshop also will include a large trade show.

The workshop will begin at 8 a.m., with viewing of the trade show. Following that keynote speaker, Harlan Ritchie, Michigan State University Extension beef cattle specialist, will discuss emerging trends in the industry.

Also featured during the day will be a panel discussion by cattle producers, feeders and retailers about their problems and visions for the industry.

The afternoon session will include a presentation about cattle breeds, health programs to improve selling prices and management practices to increase selling weights. Also included in the afternoon session is a panel discussion about elk, deer, turkey and other wildlife populations.

The Southern Beef Day will be held at the Center for Rural Development in Somerset. A van will be leaving from the Holiday Inn parking lot in Prestonsburg at 6:30 a.m., on Friday morning if you would like a ride.

Call Pat Spicer at the Extension office at 606-886-2668 to reserve a seat if you would like to ride to the workshop.

Star Banc picked as top defensive stock by CNBC

Star Banc Corporation was recently ranked as the number one stock in the U.S. in the category of "Defensive Stocks," according to "CNBC's Top 100" Labor Day program which aired on Monday, September 7. Star Banc was the only regional banking company to make the top 100 stock list.

The top ranking by Star Banc was based on special screening techniques developed by Microsoft Investor "seeking consistent long-term growth, profitability and dividend yield plus market beating price gains." The Defensive Stocks listing included "13 stocks that show signs of being good defensive plays in tough times for the economy and market."

The criteria for making the list included a market cap greater than $5 billion; five-year earnings per share and revenue growth greater than five percent, projected next year and next five years earnings per share growth greater than five percent; average five-year return on equity and net profit margin greater than five percent or better than industry average; dividend yield greater than 0.5 percent; price gain during the past year greater than five percent; and debt to equity ratio better than the industry averages.

The stocks for the Top 100 and Defensive Stocks were selected by using closing September 4, stock prices and the FOG (Flare-Out Growth) Index developed by Ford Investors Services of San Diego, California.

Star Banc Corporation (NYSE: STB), a $17 billion multi-state bank holding company is the parent company of Star Bank and operates 452 full-service banking locations in Ohio, Kentucky, Indiana and Tennessee, in addition to Star Banc Finance Inc., a consumer finance company. Also, Star Bank offers a "Five Star Service Guarantee" which assures customers of certain key banking benefits or Star will pay customers for their inconvenience. Additionally,

Star Bank was the first bank in the U.S. to introduce "24-Hour Remote Banking," a fully integrated customer service and banking convenience package which includes branch banking, voice-activated phone banking, PC banking, super ATMs, screen phone banking, video banking and Internet banking. Visit Star Bank's home page on the world wide web at <http://www.star-bank.com>.

Potter receives national sales director's award

Morgan Stanley Dean Witter announced Monday that Reed Potter, Jr. a Financial advisor in its Pikeville office, has earned one of the firm's prestigious National Sales Director's awards. The award is conferred on financial advisors who demonstrate outstanding leadership in their first 12 months with the firm.

Potter, who has been with Morgan Stanley Dean Witter since June 1997, is a native of Pikeville. Since joining the firm, he has completed the firms graduate study program in "401(k) and other retirement plans" which qualifies him as a Retirement Planning Specialist at the firm. In addition to this latest award he has been awarded two of the firms Outstanding Performance awards. He holds a bachelor degree in business administration from Transylvania University and a master's degree in business administration from Morehead State University. Reed is an active member of the Pikeville United Methodist Church; Rotary International; is a board member of the Coal Operators and Associates and helps coach a team in the East Kentucky Youth Soccer Association.

AEP's distribution line operation in Pikeville, Hazard

Everett Phillips, an electrical engineer based in Clintwood, Virginia, has been named to the distribution line superintendent's position in the Pikeville District of American Electric Power (NYSE: AEP) effective immediately, according to John Coffey, manager of the recently-formed district which encompasses the Pikeville, Hazard, Paintsville, Jackson and Whitesburg areas.

Phillips, an AEP employee since 1985 when he was an engineer in the utility's Huntington, West Virginia office, was named area superintendent in Clintwood in October 1994. He is a graduate of West Virginia University.

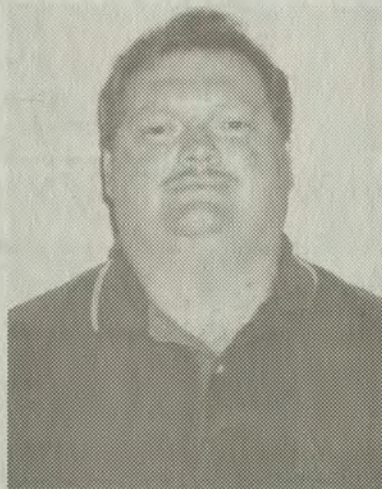

"We believe Everett's background will be beneficial to the energy delivery process here, and I look forward to working with him both within the company and in the communities we serve. He and his family have been active in various community organizations and projects in Clintwood, and will be involved in similar efforts here," Coffey said.

Phillips and his wife, Diana, have two sons, Bradley and Andrew. They will soon relocate to Pikeville.

AEP, a global energy company, is one of the United States' largest investor-owned utilities, providing energy to three million customers in Kentucky, Virginia, Indiana, West Virginia, Michigan, Ohio and Tennessee. AEP has holdings in the United States, the United Kingdom, China and Australia. Wholly owned subsidiaries provide power engineering, energy consulting and energy management services around the world. The company is based in Columbus, Ohio.

On December 22, 1997, AEP announced a definitive merger agreement for a tax-free stock-for-stock transaction with Central and South West Corp., a public utility holding company based in Dallas.

SPICY STEAK AND ONION HEROES

1 pound flank steak
1 tablespoon olive oil
1 large onion, cut in half and sliced
1 1/2 teaspoons TABASCO® brand Pepper Sauce
1/2 teaspoon sugar
1/4 teaspoon salt
4 hero rolls
Lettuce leaves
1 large tomato, sliced

Preheat broiler. Place flank steak on rack in broiler pan; broil 3 inches from heat source, until desired doneness is reached, turning once. Meanwhile, heat oil in 12-inch skillet over medium heat; cook onion slices about 5 minutes. Stir in TABASCO® Sauce, sugar and salt; cook 5 minutes longer until onions are tender, stirring occasionally. Cut flank steak into thin slices and cut rolls crosswise in half. Top bottom halves of rolls with lettuce leaves, tomato slices, flank steak and onions; top with remaining roll halves. Makes 4 servings.

HEARTY FRESH MUSHROOM CHILI SOUP

2 tablespoons vegetable oil
8 ounces fresh white mushrooms, sliced (about 3 cups)
1 large clove garlic
1 tablespoon chili powder
1 can (about 15 ounces) ready-to-serve chicken broth
1 can (about 15 ounces) stewed tomatoes
1 can (about 15 ounces) kidney beans
1 can (about 7 ounces) vacuum-packed corn kernels

In a large saucepan, heat oil over medium-high heat. Add mushrooms and garlic; cook stirring frequently until mushrooms are tender and liquid evaporates, about 5 minutes. Stir in chili powder; cook and stir 1 minute. Add chicken broth, stewed tomatoes, kidney beans and corn. Bring to a boil; reduce heat and simmer to blend flavors, about 10 minutes. Serve topped with tortilla chips, if desired.

Yield: 4 portions, 6 cups.

GRILLED BALSAMIC AND SOY MARINATED FLANK STEAK

Serves Four
1/2 onion, small roughly, chopped
3 garlic clove, roughly chopped
1/4 cup olive oil
1/4 cup balsamic vinegar
1/4 cup soy sauce
1 tsp. Dijon mustard
1 tsp. rosemary
1 tsp. salt
1/2 tsp. freshly cracked black pepper
1 ea. flank steak, about 1 1/2 lbs.

Prepare the grill. Combine onion, garlic, oil, vinegar, soy, mustard, rosemary, salt and pepper in a mixing bowl using a wire whisk or hand blender until well-combined, about 30 seconds.

Place meat in large casserole-style dish. Pour marinade over meat. Marinate for a minimum of 30 minutes or up to 2 days.

Place marinated flank steak on grill over hot coals. Brush with extra marinade throughout grilling. Grill until golden and cooked to desired doneness, about 6-8 minutes on each side (medium-rare). Transfer grilled flank steak to a serving plate or dish to collect juices.

Using a sharp knife, slice the meat thinly.

Serve slices with desired accompaniments; drizzle with collected meat juices.

SUPER CRISP COUNTRY FRIED CHICKEN

To serve four:
1 frying chicken (2 1/2 to 3 pounds) cut-up, or use chicken pieces
Crisco Shortening
1/2 cup milk
1 egg
1 cup flour
2 teaspoons garlic salt
2 teaspoons Monosodium Glutamate (MSG)
1 teaspoon paprika
1/4 teaspoon poultry seasoning

1 teaspoon black pepper
1/4 teaspoon poultry seasoning
1 teaspoon black pepper

For extra spicy chicken: Increase poultry seasoning to 1/2 teaspoon, and black pepper to 2 teaspoons.

To prepare: Blend milk and egg. Combine flour and seasonings in plastic or paper bag. Shake chicken pieces in milk/egg mixture. Shake chicken a second time in seasoning mixture to coat thoroughly and evenly.

To pan fry: Melt Crisco in skillet to about 1/2 to 1 inch deep and heat to 350°. Brown chicken on all sides. Reduce heat (275°) and continue cooking until chicken is tender, about 30-40 minutes. Do not cover. Turn chicken several times during cooking. Drain on paper towels.

To deep fry: Prepare as above and cook in deep Crisco heated to 365° for 15 to 18 minutes. Drain on paper towels.

Love is a Flower

Just remember, in the winter, far beneath the bitter snow,
Lies a seed that with the sun's love,
In the spring becomes a rose.

You are the seed, your grave is the garden,
Spring is when Jesus is coming back to receive His own.

And God with his great love through
Jesus Christ, His son,
You will bloom forth like a beautiful rose.

I miss seeing you on the road in your big red coal truck, waving as we passed. I miss having you to talk to and hearing you laugh at the funny things that the grandchildren would say and do. I miss having your arms around me, holding me close and saying, I love you, honey.

A year has passed by, and there hasn't been one day gone by that I haven't cried from missing you, and thinking of the horrible way that you had to die, because of someone's carelessness. I know that life has to go on, and I'm trying very hard to get on with mine.

I thank God for strength and courage that He has given me, and for family and friends that have stood by me with their prayers and comforting words. I don't know what I would have done without them.
