STORE ROBBED, MAN HELD UP IN COUNTY

Two robberies committed within the past week in the vicinity of Hugsville have given rise to the belief that an organized gang, probably that which has perpetrated several similar crimes at Jones' Fork near Leno, is at work in that community. The store of Alvin Patrick on Salt Lick Creek, two miles from Hugsville, was robbed Monday night of $25 in cash and merchandise valued at approximately $100. Entrance to the store was gained by the robbers going on a section of the floor. The cash was found when the burglars were about to leave the store. It was so secreted on the floor. The store of the haberdashery was the home of Roscoe Howard at the 'X' cross just outside of Hugsville Saturday night. His money was taken and valued him of $25 in cash.

Two Slayers Evading Arrest in Floyd Hills

One Stabs Brother, Other Using Hoe Kills Man Aged 74—
Daniel R. Johnson Claims Self-Defense in Fatally Shooting
Daughter, Mrs. Smith—Slain Woman
Under Sentence for Slaying Husband

Two of three Floyd county slayers were still uncaptured Thursday after contributing to one of the most sanguinary weeks experienced by the county in some time. After escaping into the hills immediately following the slayings, they continued to evade arrest as The Times went to press.

In the meantime a charge of wilful murder had been filed by the grand jury here against George Brown, who beat Henry Adams, aged Floyd farmer, to death last Saturday. In addition to the three killings, two other attempts are alleged to have been made at murder. Stories of the slayings appear below.

Two days before she was to have kept until Monday, he had suffered three broken ribs, at his daughter's hand, and was unable to be moved. He was immediately after the shooting, it is claimed.

It was held probable this week that the grand jury would not make an indictment in the case. Mrs. Smith killed her husband in January, 1931, and pleaded self-defense in circuit court here, claiming that he was trying to kill her, using his belt as a noose when she shot him. She was given a five-year prison term but had taken the case to the court of appeal, which affirmed the verdict recently.

A dispute over approximately an acre of land, three-fourths of which is said to have been ill-timed and reckless, led to the killing Saturday morning of Henry Adams, 74 years old, and well-known farmer of the Middle Creek section of this county.

When witnesses to the attack reached the two men and attempted to separate Brown, Adams' assistant led to the hill, taking with him the hammer with which he attacked the other. Since that time a heavy gun of Adams and citizens have been scouring the hills in a vain search for the slayer.

The attack came when Adams and Brown were in a dispute over the land. Adams was killed and Brown was injured. The slayer is still at large.

Tracy Blackburn in Hospital
Following Free-for-All
at Drift

Tracy Blackburn was dangerously stabbed Sunday when a fight broke out at a ball game at Drift between the Jack's Creek and Drift teams, and is in the Beaver Valley hospital. His left lung was punctured, the knife being thrust into his body from behind. He is expected to recover. According to a report reaching here it is not known who did the stabbing. Another report names Nick Bishbaugh as the man who cut Blackburn. A dispute arose, ball bats were swung and at the close of the free-for-all Blackburn was found stabbed. The wounded man is a son of Bill Blackburn of Left Beaver Creek.

BORROWS $10,000 FOR PURCHASE OF HIGHWAY ROUTING

Unusual Step Taken Toward Completion of Right Beaver
River Road

EARLY ACTION SEEN

The notes executed by Dr. W. L. Stumpe, Floyd county judge, for $5,000 each, one at the First National Bank and the other at the Bank of Prentissburg last week assured completion of the Right Beaver road. When it was found that the first road did not give sufficient funds for the road and conversion of sufficient money from another fund for this purpose was opposed, Judge Stumpe and other immediately resorted to the unusual expedient of borrowing the money personally from local banks. In only 10 days for the right of way and get motion on the road at once. His counselors on the two notes are Sheriff B. L. Sturges, county attorney Joe P. Christ, county clerk A. B. Meade, Circuit Clerk O. H. Stumpe, H. C. Stephens, H. C. Francis, M. V. Allen and H. L. May. Having previously begun buying and paying for right of way, and Monday went to Frankfort to appear before the state highway commission, present deeds for right of way and have steps taken toward getting the road. It is expected that the road will be completed sometime next week, though certain facts would require adjustment, and this work will be done. It was said this week, in time to have everything ready for presentation at the next meeting of the highway commission this month.

PER CAPITA RATE MAY BE ABOUT $6

School Finances Of One-Third; No Serious Handicap in Floyd

Though depleted to no considerable extent, the financial condition of Kentucky schools this year will not be as discouraging as was at first predicted, a letter from James Richmond, superintendent of public instruction to John Stephens, superintendent of Floyd county schools, indicates.

Instead of reaching low end of $4 per head the per capita rate is expected to be about $6. Mr. Richmond estimates on the basis of incomplete figures, furnished by the state auditor's office and the state tax commission. This leaves school funds from this source at two-thirds of what they were for the past year, and will not shorten school terms in this county, it is believed.

Economy will, of necessity, be the watchword Mr. Stephens points out, but school work will go on despite decreased revenue.

In another letter to Mr. Stephens Superintendent Richmond pointed out ruling which establish the lowest amount report of any school district at 25 such districts to be maintained only in case of absolute emergency. Where there are less than 25 children of school age in a school district, it is not to be maintained without a good reason being furnished the state department of education. This is the first time these matters have been called to his attention, Mr. Stephens said, and may result in the elimination of several sub-districts.

These Recipes Will Utilize Left-overs In Welcome Ways

By JOSEPHINE GIBSON
 Director, Home Food Institute

MEAT remaining from last night's roast and bits of vegetables in a refrigerator need not appear on today's table in a form in which they will be recognized. They may be served in almost numberless dishes so flavorful and tempting that the family will eat them up. By adding a flavorful sauce, or by combining with another food an entirely new dish may be made. Vegetables offer possibilities for soups, stews and salads and the meats for meat pies, or delicious bakes. Try these recipes for thrifty, appetizing dishes. They will bring welcome variety to your table.

Deli-cious Dish: Combine one cup of ground cheese, two cups Rice Flakes, one egg, one teaspoon Worcestershire Sauce and a dash of pepper. Place a generous layer in a buttered baking dish, add a layer of chopped cooked ham and repeat, using remaining ingredients. Bake in moderate oven (350° F.) until bread is melted and the top slightly brown (about 15 minutes). If left-over ham is not available, use thin slices of cold boiled, or baked ham.

Vegetable Salad Sandwiches: Use one large tomato, finely sliced, medium sized cucumber, finely sliced, 2 tablespoons minced onion, 1/2 medium size green pepper, minced.

8 to 10 Stuffed Spanish Olives, 2 cups shredded lettuce, and salt to taste,

Relief Work Lauded by Company President

Relief work being done by the Charleston group of the Columbia Gas & Electric Company which includes the Warfield Natural Gas Company operating in this and other parts of Kentucky, is highly lauded by Philip G. Gosler, president of the Columbia system. The unemployment fund created by employees of the Charleston group giving to this cause one day's salary each month was the group's own idea, and that it met with the unqualified approval of the head of the organization is attested to by Mr. Gosler, telegram to Harry A. Wallace, president of the Charleston group which follows:

"I have received your letters and the many appreciative newspaper editorials and clippings, relative to the wonderful welfare work that you and the employees of the company are doing toward assisting the unemployed and the various charitable organizations. The suggestions that you made to me several weeks ago relative to the object and methods of carrying on this work appealed to me tremendously and I heartily commend you and our employees for the prompt actions that you have taken to assist and relieve a most distressing situation. It is my hope that the conditions throughout the country will soon be such that we can not only take care of our own unemployed but put them back on the payrolls as well as being able to assist others less fortunate. At our next meeting I will advise the directors of the splendid work being done under your direction with the cooperation of the employees, and for the directors and myself I express my sincere and grateful appreciation for the great work being done."

Island Group H—S Long

The word Dodecanese means "12 islands." They are in the Aegean sea near the coast of Asia Minor, and although long an obstacle to Greek-Italian friendship, have been embraced by the treaties of Berlin and Lausanne in Italian sovereignty. They are Rhodes, where the Cukman of Rhodes, one of the warriors of the ancient world, stood; the Kalymanas, Leros, Nizyros, Tole, Syme, Thakio, Astypala, Karpathos, Gasa, Patmos and Phipos. They figure in classic Greek history and also in Greek mythology. The islands were under rule of the Turkish armans from 1683 to 1830, paying annual tribute. In the war between Italy and Turkey in 1912 Italy occupied the islands, creating the aid of the islanders through a promise to make them autonomous. An assembly on Patmos actually proclaimed the State of the Aegean and adopted a flag, but Italy would not release her hold. Greece has made several attempts to have the islands ceded to her. The population, about 100,000, is almost wholly of Greek race. The islands are "unintentionally" economically, except being being the only industry, but they are regarded as a strategically important from a naval viewpoint. Italy has notified

These two sentences are from a letter sent to us by Gypsy Simon Smith.

Mr. Smith spends his public life in the germ-laden atmosphere of crowds in hall church or tabernacle. He goes from an overheated meeting place into the outer air spiritually uplifted, but physically exhausted.

His profession demands that he do the very things that he should not do if he wants to avoid catching cold. He is in position to speak with authority on the subject.

If you have a Cold, or if you suffer from Headache, Neuralgia, Neuritis, Rheumatism, Sciatica, Lumbago, Toothache, Backache, Muscular Pains, Periodic Pains, Dr. Miles' Aspir-Mint will bring you relief.

MUSIC FESTIVAL IS HELD FRIDAY

First Undertaking of Kind in County Uncovers Much Talent

The first music festival held in Floyd county was held here in the afternoon of April 25.

A large crowd was present to enjoy the musical abilities of students from Maytown, Besy Layne and Prestonsburg. The program was opened by singing by the hands from Maytown Besy Layne and Prestonsburg. Then followed by Mrs. Layne, who sang "The Hands from Maytown" and "The Hands from Prestonsburg" and "The Hands from Besy Layne." The French harp numbers by representatives from Maytown and Besy Layne were popular especially that rendered by the little girl from Maytown, who has taken lessons on the French harp. The girls' solo and girls' quartet of Besy Layne showed remarkable ability in singing a quartet. Their rendition of "The Hands from Maytown" and "The Hands from Prestonsburg" made a fine showing for their public appearance and were highly praised.

Prestonburg was the only school that presented a mixed chorus. The whistling solo by Mr. Jesse Elliott and Mrs. Layne was a very pleasing and unusual number on the program. The vocal solo rendered by a Besy Layne student was rendered with good ability in which great effort was shown. The quartet from Besy Layne, consisting of a number of boys and girls, rendered "The Hands from Maytown" and "The Hands from Prestonsburg" and "The Hands from Besy Layne" the only one in the county to receive recognition of a high type of work.

It is expected that Floyd county will have another music festival next year in which all the schools of the county will take part. This was a splendid beginning but there is much room for growth and improvement. It is hoped the youngest music department of all, but the students showed remarkable ability and good spirit by taking part, since this was the first year music has had a part in the school.

ACCUSED HAS CLOSURE CALL; JUROR GUILTY

"Spits" Maurice Halls court was in session on Left Beaver Creek, and a certain chain was on trial for alleged drunkenness. On the jury sat a man of the same first name, and about a perfect double for the defendant.

Witnesses were sworn, and all court in testifying that the defendant was drunk. The trial dragged along thus quite disastrously for the accused, until one woman was sworn.

"There's the man that was drunk," she exclaimed—and pointed an accusing finger straight at the juror who looked so much like the defendant. And the juror readily admitted his guilt and paid his fine.

RADIO SERVICE TALKS

Few people seem to realize that radios require service occasionally—just the same as an automobile does.

When anything goes wrong with your car, you don't immediately condemn it—you take it into a service station where you know the men who will look it over know how.

Why not give your radio the same treatment that you give your car?

Why not let one who has specialized in radio service for the last 10 years have the opportunity of servicing your radio?

Radio Servicing requires experience and technical knowledge—I have both. I don't claim to know it all—but I can put your radio in first class condition—the matter what the trouble may be.

THIRD MEMBER OF FAMILY IS KILLED

Pikeville, Ky., May 2.—Jeff Hatfield, who lived on the Kentucky side of the river, near Williamson, W. Va., and who died following an automobile wreck last night, is the third member of his family to be claimed by violent death.

Hatfield's brother, Ross Hatfield, a county sheriff, was shot and killed by a negro on Pond Creek a few months ago. Another brother, Anderson Hatfield, was shot and killed at Maytown, W. Va., in the same strike here several years ago.

Banquet Given in Honor Of Younger Democrats

One hundred and twenty-seven were present at the banquet given Friday night of last week at the M. P. Church, South, in honor of the young members of the Young Men's Democratic Club of Pike county. Of this group of 70 were members of the club.

James H. Hunt, both of Pike county. The banquet was given by members of the M. P. Church, South, and the guests.

A brief history of the club was given by Roy Conway, of Pikeville. The following table of the organization was given: Out of 250 1931, with 150 members. Since that time the club has grown to 272 new ones. He stated, officials of the club for the present year are: A. J. "Hunger March" Started Revolution in France In France the great revolution began with the arrival in Paris during July, 1789, of thousands of "hunger pilgrims" from the provincial towns. James Waldo Fawcett writes, in the Washington Post. They had marched to the capital to demand bread of the king. It was these riotous elements which joined with the city mob to take the Bastille on July 14. By October the swollen population of the metropolitan area was starving. The municipality endeavored to supply bread to the more necessitous people, but the demand was too great to be met in this way. On October 5 a delegation of women set out for Versailles to petition Louis XVI. As they marched they were joined by multitudes of other women. Arriving at their goal they increased their originally mild demands.

The "insurrection of women" was promptly followed by a similar march to Versailles of the men of Paris led by the National Guard. The arrival of the Fawcett march the next day, in the present, but the king was forced to return to Paris, accompanied by his family, on the 6th of October.
