GOV. LAFFOON TO APPEAR IN PROBE OF C. W. A. BELIEF

Hall Subpoenas Governor and Wilcox; Predicts Indictments Will Be Made

INTERFERENCE BANNED

As this was written, Wednesday afternoon a visit from Governor Laffoon to Prestonsburg on one of the best annual excursions taken by a Kentucky Governor was held. Governor Laffoon was quoted Tuesday as saying that he will come to Prestonsburg to testify before the grand jury in the CWA investigation undertaken by the jury at the instigation of Commonwealth's Attorney O. C. Hall. The Governor was expected last week, but was expected here Wednesday at Thursday. Thornton Wilcox, Louisville, state relief director, appeared before the grand jury Tuesday in obedience to a subpoena issued by Mr. Hall. What he told the jury is not known, but the prosecutor said he received valuable information from him, also received access to records of the CWA office here.

Commonwealth's Attorney Hall said early in the week that two indictments have been made in the suit of the CWA. He predicted that indictments would be numerous. Mr. Hall also said that he expected to quit approximately 300 witnesses during the probe which he said will continue throughout the entire six-day session. The investigation will be hampered, he stated, by lack of time for which to give into the matter.

Monday morning, when the probe was under way, the state relief director was subpoenaed, according to the CWA committee, and County Judge W. L. Stumbo to Director Wilcox, of the Commonwealth's Attorney and his stenographer had interfered with the work. The telegram read: "Write to interference from Commonwealth's Attorney and his stenographer, this Attorney had been turned away today. Have to close office. Please advise how long this investigation should last."

Mr. Wilcox wired instructions that relief work must continue and that the investigation should not interfere with relief work. The office was reopened at noon Monday.

In the event that Governor Laffoon does refuse to appear here in answer to the subpoena executed upon him, Commonwealth's Attorney Hall said this week. The Governor gave as his reason for not appearing here Monday pressing business at Frankfort. Grand jury records are not available to The Times, nor are the names of those cited in indictments, at this time. Sensational news is predicted for the future by Mr. Hall, however.

KY. RELIEF WORK IS RE-ORGANIZED

Floyd and Pike to Form Area, With Area Office in Pikeville

Re-organization of relief work in Kentucky has been begun, with several counties in a number of instances being thrown together for the purpose. Full details of the plan are not known here, it was said this week.

Floyd and Pike counties are placed in one area, with the area office at Pikeville. The Times has not learned if this means the local relief office will be dispensed with entirely or if it will operate subordinately to the Pikeville office. Magallon, Johnson, Martin and Morgan counties comprise another area, with the area office at Paducah.

The re-employment office here and that at Pikeville will be consolidated, but the local office here has not been informed of any change in location, it was said Thursday morning.

BIG SANDY ELKHORN BASEBALL LEAGUE IS ORGANIZED SUNDAY

Organization of the Big Sandy Elkhorn Baseball League was effected Sunday at a meeting of baseball enthusiasts at Pikeville, and W. C. Himmer, of this place, was elected president of the league. Arthur Moore, of Shelby, was named secretary.

Floyd county has three representatives in the league, Bull Creek, McDowell and the other being suburbs. Other members of the organization are Shelby, Boldman and Duncary. First league games are to be played Sunday, May 6, with Bull Creek at Boldman, FRIT at McDowell and Duncary playing Shelby at the Pikeville ball park. The schedule requires each team to play 20 games, and after the first game only 18 men may be carried by each team.

DISTRICT OFFICES TO BE LOCATED

Following up the news, carried in an editorial published in The Pike County News, saying that the removal of the Pike County re-employment office from Pikeville to Prestonsburg was planned, with a division of the county into several districts, this week, it was learned that the plan is still in the formative stage and that no definite boundaries have been established for each district.

Information, as released by the Re-Employment Service, additional De-Employment Service, and the ultimate goal of the Re-Employment Service is that of becoming a permanent agency, highly professional, and of equal dignity and quality of any other business office in the community, which will be of distinctive value and benefit for the state and the nation.

The result of the adoption of this plan in Kentucky is the abandonment of the present arrangement, whereby one or more offices are located in each of the counties of the state. While the present set-up has been extremely valuable for the purpose of relieving workers during the CWA program, it is at the same time ineffective and cumbersome for the advancement of the ultimate purposes of the Re-Employment Service.

The present plan contemplates the establishment of 10 district offices in the state of Kentucky. The boundaries of the districts are being governed by the geographical limits of the various industrial sections of the state. The location of the office for each district will be determined through the consideration of various factors, such as accessibility to the outlined sections of the district, the necessity of referring workers to various public works and road projects either now under construction or soon to be begun in the district, the ideal and practical position of a particular location, as a central operating point, and most particularly, the existence of future work opportunities in private industry in that community.

The persons selected as employees in the district offices, shall be chosen from those who are now, or were formerly, associated with the Re-Employment Service presently existing in the state. Their selection shall be made entirely upon the basis of qualification, ability and training to do the work required.

The Re-Employment Service district is not a relief agency, and while in the case of two persons, equally qualified to do the work, the position will naturally be given to the one who is more in need of employment. The present time, generally speaking, the question of need is not considered in selecting competent assistants and employees in the service.

BUY'S GROCERY HERE

Purchase of the Francis Grocery by Roy Perry from Paul Francis is announced this week. The store, which is located in the Patton building formerly occupied by Kroger's, will be operated under the name of Perry's Grocery.

GLENN MOORE, 25, DIES OF INJURIES

Son of Former Floyd Sheriff Fatally Hurt as Engine Pulley Breaks

Glenn Moore, 25 years old, youngest son of Dr. Sheriff and Mrs. Kendall Moore, of Eastern, was fatally injured Sunday afternoon shortly after 4 o'clock when a pulley on an engine of the Kentucky Street Highways Company compressor station on Turkey Creek burst to pieces.

Governor of the engine failed to function, and the engine "ran away" and the pulley flew into pieces as Mr. Moore moved to stop the machinery. A piece of steel almost severed his left arm and struck him in his side, causing internal injuries which caused his death Sunday night at the Methodist hospital, Pikeville, where he was taken immediately following his injury.

Mr. Moore was one of Floyd County's finest young men. He was graduated from Maytown high school in 1928, and later attended the Morehead State Normal. He was married Dec. 18, 1931, to Miss Stella Hall, of Jones Fork, who, with her year-old daughter, survives. He also leaves his parents, three brothers, and one sister; Earl Moore, of Prestonsburg; Jones and Ed Moore, of Eastern; and Mrs. Fred Butler, of Prestonsburg.

Funeral rites were conducted from the home of the victim's parents, at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning. Revs. A. I. Allen and O. P. Smith officiating. The funeral service was attended by hundreds of sorrowing friends and relatives, with many beautiful floral offerings, attending to the high esteem in which Mr. Moore was held. Burial was made in the family cemetery under the direction of E. P. Arnold.

GROVER C. MARTIN SUCCUMBS FRIDAY

Son of Former Floyd Official Victim of Three-Months Illness

Grover C. Martin, 42 years old, well-known Floyd county farmer, died at his home on "Abbott Creek" Friday after an illness of three months from a complication of diseases.

Mr. Martin was a son of the late Joel O. Martin, former Floyd county jailer, and of the late Mrs. Minnie Martin. A member of one of the county's oldest and best-known families, he had hundreds of friends and relatives in this section. During his father's term of office, he served as the study of medicine at the College of Agriculture, University of Louisville.

Surviving him are his widow, Mrs. Mary Watten Martin, and four children: Grace Evelyn, C. B. Norise, Alton and Bernard Porter Martin. He also leaves two sisters: Mrs. C. B. Wagner, of Prestonsburg, and Mrs. W. M. Davies, of Huntington, W. Va. The body was removed from the home of Mr. Martin to the undertaking office of E. P. Arnold, where preparations for burial were made, then was taken to the home of Mr. Martin's parents, where funeral rites were conducted Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock, the Revs. A. C. Harlowe and C. H. Nichols officiating. Burial was made in the Genhart cemetery here under the direction of E. P. Arnold.

WATSON STARTS SPRING BASKETBALL PRACTISE

Spicing basketball practise has been started by Coach C. A. Watson, who recently concluded the spring football training sessions for the Prestonsburg high school squad.

Between this date and the opening of the basketball season next fall, Coach Watson has on his hands the task of almost completely rebuilding the Blackout net machine. Graduation next month leaves in school only those men from last year's squad, and of these only one, Mayo, was a regular starter. Smith and Craft are the other first-string men available for the coming season. The outlook at present is some 150 bright, but this is not lessening the coach's efforts toward development of a strong team. And two or three likely looking youngsters coming up from the "B" team may be just what is needed to insure success for this undertaking.

VOTE TO OUST W. J. REYNOLDS AS TREASURER

Fiscal Court Names Local Banker As Successor; Road Machinery Returned

CLARK APPOINTED

George F. Archer, cashier of The Bank Josephine, was named county treasurer by the fiscal court at Wednesday morning's meeting. County fund deposits will be shared equally by The Bank Josephine and The First National Bank, it was ordered. Mr. Archer Wednesday afternoon executed $75,000 bond, which was approved by the court.

Three members of the Floyd fiscal court—Magistrates Jim C. Wright and Willie Hall—Tuesday afternoon by their vote, each of the charges filed against County Treasurer W. J. Reynolds, declared the office vacant, asked the treasurer to surrender all records and appointments of his office, and opened bids for the selecting of his successor.

Mr. Reynolds made objection to the action of the court, and proposed, it is said, to appeal his cause to the Floyd circuit court.

Meeting of the fiscal court this week was presided by an opinion handed down Friday by Circuit Judge John W. Caudill, denying the claim of former magistrates to office, and holding that the new magistrates are legally entitled to office.

Mr. Reynolds' former office was attached by the three magistrates on the grounds that his appointment was irregular, without proper advertisement asking for bids for the treasurer at $2,000 a year. Usually the work had been done without express to the county, that sufficient bond was executed by the treasurer, that he made no settlement with the fiscal court since his appointment as required by law, and that he "blatantly" county funds and other than those for which it was levied, collected and paid over to him.

Approximately a dozen persons filed bids with the court for the treasurer's office, the lowest being $100 a year. Appointment of a treasurer was expected to be made Wednesday.

The gasoline shovel which the county is said to have given the state highway commission in return for road construction in the county, and which which the Three Star Company claimed $200 to balance the work, was surrendered to the sheriff upon the vote of the fiscal court this week. A representative of the shovel company appeared before the highway commission recently and presented a bill for balance due on the machinery. Through the commission disallowed ownership to the shovel, returning it to Floyd county.

An additional $500 was appropriated by the court this week for the Floyd county health department, making a total of $12,500 appropriated for the department for this year's work. M. V. Clark was appointed sanitary inspector for the health department for one year, succeeding George Flannery. Dorothy Burke was appointed a sanitary officer for a term of four years.

Local Clark was named Wednesday morning by the fiscal court as the third member of the county health commission. County Attorney Forster D. Sherris are members of the commission. The commission is required to plan a budget on or before July 1.

Road work in Floyd county this year will be done by "road banks" or citizens required by law to work the road in their respective districts for a specified number of days. The fiscal court Wednesday entered an order requiring every able-bodied man between the ages of 21 and 45 to do his share of the road work. If this was explained, because of the lack of funds available to the county for road building and repair.

CAR THIEF ADOPTED JACOBS' NAME, CLAIM

According to an informant of The Times, the young man who gave his name as Adam Jacobs when arrested Saturday night, as one of two men who stole Dr. M. V. Wilcox's automobile at Westland, did not give his real name. This source of information says that Adam Jacobs was not connected in any way in the car theft, and is employed by the Wells-Birkhorn Coal Company. The Times understands this to state the case as fairly as possible.

EFFECT BALLOT BOX CHANGE, IS BELIEF

Renovation of the county clerk's office here last week uncovered a secret which escaped the traditionally eagle eyes of detectives who were called here last November to investigate the change of ballots in several precincts of this county after the ballot boxes came into the clerk's office from the voting precincts.

In painting the interior of the office, N. B. Martin, deputy clerk, moved a desk on the left entrance to the main office. And there, in the space covered by the desk, was a hole large enough to admit even the largest of men.

Entrance to the office had been so cleverly planned that the hole would be made behind a stationary object. The desk, after the hole was cut through the wall, was pushed back to its evident position to hide the method of entrance. The floor of the clerk's office is about three feet from the ground and those who effected the entrance worked from beneath the floor, picking away bricks from the wall. Those who entered the office left through a window.

Lesson for April 29th

CHRIST'S STANDARD OF GREATNESS

LESSON TEXT—Matthew 23:1-12.
GOLDEN TEXT—Even as the Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many.—Matt. 20:28.
MEMORY VERSE—Matthew 23:1-12.

INTRODUCTION—How to Become Great.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Who Are Truly Great?
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Christians Through Self-Denying Service.

1. The King Foretells His Death and Resurrection (vv. 17-19).
2. On the way to Jerusalem (v. 17). This was his last journey to the beloved city. He took the twelve disciples from the traveling pilgrims to make known unto them what was before them.
3. The betrayal and death foretold (vv. 18, 19). He then went fully conscious of the awful tragedy of the cross. This is the third time since the transfiguration that he told the disciples of his suffering and death, but they were so filled with their anti-ott schemes that they did not understand him. The betrayal of Judas, the three persecutions of the chief priests and scribes, the unjust judgment, the delivery to Pilate, the mockery, the scourging, the crown of thorns, the hanging between two malefactors, the spitting, the spear-throw, were spread before his mind like a picture. Though he knew all this he pressed on, not of necessity but of holiness. The joyous outlook of the victory which would be accomplished by the shedding of his blood led him forward.
4. The resurrection foretold (v. 19). The revelation of the cross would have been a dark picture had not the resurrection been known. The resurrection life is always seen as the issue of the cross. The blessedness of the life beyond this "vale of tears" should induce us to press on to Christ as the example (Heb. 12:2).

5. The Ambitious Request of James and John (vv. 20-22).
6. The request (vv. 20, 21). This request was made by their mother. It was for a place of prominence in the kingdom. This is not the last mother whom children have used to carry out that which they are ashamed to do themselves. It is not wrong for mothers to be ambitious for their boys, but they should know that life's pleasures are exceeding bitter. The mother who desires that parents should get places for their children near to Jesus, should not occupy their minds with such things. Jesus' answer (vv. 22, 23). He spoke directly to the men, not to their mother, declaring that they knew not what they were asking. He showed them that they were in the position of those who were suffering. The cup which they were to drink was of great pain and agony. The way to the places of glory in the kingdom of Christ is through the use of lowly and self-forgetful service.

7. How to Be Truly Exalted (vv. 24-28).
8. The angry disciples (v. 24). When the ten heard of the request of James and John they were filled with indignation against them. Their displeasure did not arise from the fact that they were free from the same selfish spirit, but that these two had crowded to the front.
9. Greatness among the heathen (v. 25). The rule of the world has always been by the strong hand. The standard has not been moral excellence but position and power. Even today the reason one nation rules another is that the one possesses heavier artillery than the other.
10. Greatness among Christ's disciples (vv. 26, 27). The standard here is a sharp contrast. The way to the places of prominence in Christ's kingdom is the way of self-abasement. The way is to give. To be serving. The way is to be lowly and self-forgetful service.

11. Christ is the supreme example of greatness (v. 28). He who has the greatest should study and imitate Christ. Let us bear in mind that true greatness expresses itself in service to others, even to the giving of our lives. This will eliminate all our scrambling for place and power. The one grand test by which we know whether Christ's spirit controls us is whether he is serving others or seeking to be served.

Wa, Too, Can Forgive
In the power of his fellowship we cease to be contemptible. By the heart of his great love for us we can be warmed into the love for our poor brethren. In the might of his forgiveness we are forgiven.

Not Wholly Lost
"Up and be doing" is the word that comes from God for each of us. Leave some "good work" behind you so that shall not be wholly lost when you have passed away.

CHEVROLET ASSEMBLY AT "CENTURY OF PROGRESS"

Installation of equipment for the assembly of Chevrolet automobiles in the General Motors Building at the 1934 "Century of Progress" International Exposition, Chicago, has already been started by the Chevrolet Motor Company. M. E. Coyle, president and general manager, has announced.

Complete installation will be effected well in advance of the scheduled re-opening of the 1934 World's Fair on May 30. Mr. Coyle said assuring early visitors that they will be able to see an automobile built up from the bare frame to the completed car from the opening till the closing day of the exposition.

Machinery is identical with that used in Chevrolet's nine other assembly plants, with the exception of overhead conveyors. The latter have been replaced by floor type conveyors to bring parts to the proper stations along the line. This slight change in factory procedure provides flexibility for the thousands who will watch the assembly each day. Machines again will be finished in silver and black trim, and will be manned by approximately 500 workers in white uniforms.

A balcony seven feet above the assembly line and equipped in circular form so that the maximum number of visitors may walk completely around the line and watch every operation in the building of a typically modern automobile, has been provided, Mr. Coyle said.

Production of 25 to 30 cars a day is planned. Two body types—couches and sedans—will be built on the assembly line. Chevrolet chassis, legal inspection posts will check every operation along the line, and the cars will be driven out under their own power, tested and put through final inspection right on the spot.

Additional interest will be furnished by the installation of a "knee action" assembly, an outstanding feature of the 1934 Chevrolet. Visitors will see just how this remarkable development, which contributes so materially to riding comfort, is constructed.

Chevrolet is again the only company which will operate an automobile assembly line at the Fair, Mr. Coyle stated.

the largest 10-day total since the third period of March, 1932. The figures compare with 1,207 new-car deliveries in the first 30 days of April last year, a gain of more than 100 per cent.

Deliveries in the first April period this year also exceeded the best 10-day period of last year—the last period of June, 1933, when 2,274 cars were delivered. "Total Buick deliveries since the first of the year," Mr. Hufstader said, "are 14,540 as against 12,000 from January 1 to April 30 last year."

The fact that Buick dealers in 137 cities throughout the country already have exceeded their total 1933 sales volume is indicative of the extent to which "the country has come back," Mr. Hufstader said. "The same sales figures show that dealers in nearly 200 other towns have sold from 50 to 100 per cent as many cars in the first quarter of this year as they did in all of last year with the probability that many of these dealers soon will pass their total 1933 volume."

IT PAYS TO BE FRIENDLY

In a day of widespread strife between employers and workers it is pleasing—and enlightening—to read of the cordial relations prevailing between J. C. Columbus "manufactory" and organized labor. W. A. Harsh, an organized labor leader in his own plant and in general.

When a labor body endorses an employer for membership in a national code authority, that news—and that is what the Columbus Federation of Labor has done with regard to Mr. Harsh—reacquainting him as fair and friendly to labor, he restoration is backing him for a place in the code authority of the merchant tailoring industry.

Far from fighting unionism, Mr. Harsh personally initiated the organization of his own employees soon after his business began operations 32 years ago. In all those years he has never had the slightest labor trouble.

"It pays any employer to be decent to his help," Mr. Harsh says. "And what does the record of his firm, the United Woolen Company, say on that point? Well, in 32 years it has grown from a small establishment with a half-dozen employes to an institution with 200 employes, and 27 sales branches, making thousands of men's suits every year and doing an annual business which is said to be approaching the $1,000,000 mark—Cincinnati Post.

APRIL SALES OF BUICK BEST FOR TWO YEARS
First, March, April 25—Retail deliveries of Buick automobiles during the first 30 days of April were greater than during any similar period in the last two years. W. F. Hufstader, general sales manager of the Buick Motor Company announced today.

Moreover, sales figures reveal that Buick dealers in 157 cities throughout the United States sold more cars in the first quarter of this year than they did in all of 1933.

"Buick's steadily growing sales volume is most gratifying to the management not only from the standpoint of the company's current business, which is at the best level it has been in more than two years, but also as an indication that a definite upturn is being experienced in all lines of business," Mr. Hufstader said. "Increased new car buying, particularly in the Buick price range, is strong evidence that business recovery is sweeping the nation."

During the first 10 days of April, 2,833 new Buicks were delivered to customers, the sales statistics show, South Third street, Louisville, Ky.

CHEVROLET When you pay the price of a Knee-Action car, you naturally want genuine Knee-Action and all that goes with it. You want the new gliding ride at its smoothest, safest, and best. You want simple, foolproof, and trouble-proof construction—the huskiest, sturdiest front end you can buy. And, of course, you want shock-proof steering—it is the natural companion of the gliding ride. You pay for these things, and you want them all—but you can get them in the low price field, only from Chevrolet. The reason is simple. Fully-enclosed Knee-Action wheels are

Only Chevrolet has the resources and the assured volume of sales that permit this extra production cost. Chevrolet does it because Chevrolet believes that, to KEEP ON SELLING THE MOST CARS, YOU MUST KEEP ON BUILDING THE BEST. POWER THREATENS COAL INDUSTRY

Is Claim Made by Coal Bureau Opposing MVA Bill

Chicago, April 26—Approval of the bill introduced in Congress by Senator Norris of Nebraska for the organization of a Missouri Valley Authority, similar in purpose to the Tennessee Valley Authority, would destroy the market for a minimum of 30,000 tons of Kentucky, Tennessee and Georgia coal, according to figures furnished by the American Coal & Oil Producers' Bureau for the coal industry.

The proposed Missouri Valley Authority act provides for the development of all available "water power sites on the Missouri River and its tributaries, and includes the five great states of Montana, Colorado, Wyoming, Nebraska, North and South Dakota, Kansas, Minnesota, Iowa and Missouri. The plan authorizes the creation of great publicly-financed, tax-exempt hydroelectric power plants which would be certain to offset the existing generating facilities, the most of which are operated by steam.

These three states ship into the MVA territory upwards of 3,000,000 tons of coal annually. On the basis that approximately 30,000,000 tons, or about 10 per cent of all coal mined in the United States last year, were consumed in steam generating stations, Kentucky, Tennessee and Georgia stand to lose in these the equivalent of 30,000,000 tons in the market. This is in addition to other heavy tonnage which will be lost through the Tennessee Valley development.

Act requires one miner for the production of 1,000 tons of coal annually, the loss of the market for 30,000 tons of coal would result in permanent unemployment for at least 300,000 miners and several hundred others engaged in railroading and other activities connected with the shipping of handling of coal. This would be only the beginning, however, the Bureau pointed out. An abundance of power, which may be sold cheaply because of special advantages enjoyed by government-owned enterprises, undoubtedly will result in widespread substitution of electric and electric lines as well as the use of electric for heating homes and other uses now consuming coal. If this occurs there will be a progressive displacement of the use of coal and an irreparable hardship worked on mining communities.
