CONFESSED KILLER IS HELD INNOCENT AS TWO ARRESTED

Walker Not Guilty of Music's Slaying, Claims; Martin, Pennington Held

BOND REFUSED

Though he confessed to slitting the throat of Bill Music at Drift last Christmas night and was given a five-year penitentiary sentence, a few weeks later in the Floyd circuit court, Sam Walker is not guilty of murder, Commonwealth's Attorney O. C. Hall declared this week in issuing murder warrants for two men in the Music slaying.

Crit Martin and John Pennington are in the county jail here, held when this was written Tuesday without bond, as the two responsible for Music's death. Martin cut Music's throat, Mr. Hall said that evidence furnished by five witnesses indicates, and Pennington prevented others in a Christmas night drunken orgy from going to Music's rescue while the fatal attack was being made on Music.

Martin and Pennington were arrested at Drift Monday by Sheriff M. T. Stumbo and deputies.

In the trial of Walker here last January, six or seven witnesses and Walker himself testified that he did the killing. He claimed that he slew Music in self-defense.

It was indicated that Music was cut by a righthanded man, while Walker is left-handed. He also said that he was informed that Music and Walker were close friends and that Walker and Crit Martin had previously had trouble.

Following the conviction of Walker here, three commonwealth witnesses were indicted for perjury, and others may be involved, it was said this week. Commonwealth's Attorney Hall refused to fix bond for Martin and Pennington Monday.

STATEMENT MADE BY COUNTY CLERK MEADE
County Clerk A. B. Meade, who is convalescing at his home here from a serious illness, this week issued the following statement:

"I am anxious that my friends and the public in general know that any delay in service from the County Court Clerk's office has been due to my absence, during which I have been in a hospital in Louisville since May 10. Any personal correspondence that has not been answered is due to this. I will not be able to return to work for perhaps two weeks, and until then I respectfully ask your forbearance in matters which have not been attended to as promptly as they ordinarily would."

OHIO MAN SEEKS $25,000 DAMAGES

Catlettsburg, Ky. — Herbert Schwilk, of Sarpester, O., is plaintiff in a $25,000 personal damage suit filed this week in United States district court at Catlettsburg, against Foster Wright, of Pikeville, Ky. Schwilk alleges in his petition that he received serious and permanent injuries, as a result of which amputation of his arm was necessary, in an automobile accident which occurred in Prestonsburg, on June 5, 1933. He alleges that the defendant was operating his car in a careless and negligent manner at the time the accident occurred.

CANCER CLAIMS TRAM WOMAN AT AGE OF 46

Mrs. Mary Helen Ward Burton, 46 years old, wife of Thomas Burton, of Tram, succumbed Sunday to cancer from which she had suffered for months. The daughter of the late Nathan and Martha Ward, Mrs. Burton was born August 1, 1887. She had been a devout member of the Free Will Baptist Church since she was 14 years old, and was one of the county's best women. Surviving her are her husband and the following sons and daughters: Mrs. Alice Caudill, Auxler; Mrs. Oma Blevins, Tram; Bernard Burton, Irel; Mrs. Emma Blevins, Ashland; Mrs. Clara Belle Williams, Broadbottom; Misses Irene and Magie Burton, Irel. One brother, Joe Ward, of Boons Camp, Ky., also survives.

Funeral services were conducted Monday at Irel by Revs. Isaac Stratton, Roy Blevins and Joseph Smith. Burial was made in the J. K. Stratton cemetery at Irel.

PROTECTION OF FISH AND GAME, REALITY

Six Arrested for Seining, Fined $15 Each; Pheasants to Be Distributed

Protection of fish and game in Floyd county is becoming a reality at last, activities of Game Warden M. J. Meador and the Floyd County Fish and Game Protective Association are being carried out.

Six well-known night Beaver Creek men were arrested last week by Mr. Meador and fined $15 each when they pleaded guilty in Magistrate M. C. Wright's court to a charge of seining. The penalty for dynamiting fish, already a heavy one, will soon be a penitentiary sentence of from one to five years, it is said, and this type of violation will be closely watched.

Warden Meador has six deputies located in various parts of the county. The game association has more than 100 members.

Many persons are violating the game law by squirrel hunting, some entertaining the mistaken idea that the squirrel season opened June 1. It is not legal to kill squirrels until August 1.

A ton of buckwheat will be made available by the county game and fish association for planting in Floyd county farms for feed for quail during the winter. Buckwheat seed will be sowed following the last corn crop cultivation, and the game association expects to find ready co-operation from Floyd county farmers. It is claimed that far more quail die of starvation in this section during the winter than are killed by hunters during the quail season. The association has purchased 150 pheasant eggs which are now being hatched. The birds will be distributed to scattered sections of the county.

GEORGE ALLEN, 33, FIVE RIGS MOVE TO LITTLE MUD SLAIN BY OFFICER

Former Floyd Man Killed at Princess, Ky., Sunday Night

George Allen, 33 years old, a son of David Allen, formerly of this county, was shot and instantly killed Sunday night at Princess, Boyd county, by John Lusk, 78, a special deputy sheriff, who was said to have attempted to arrest Allen when the shooting took place. Lusk himself is in the King's Daughters' hospital, Ashland, critically wounded by a bullet said to have been fired from Allen's revolver.

According to a newspaper report, Allen was said to have been creating a disturbance at a store at Princess and that Lusk was summoned to the scene either to arrest him or restore order. Witnesses are quoted as saying that he refused to heed the officer's warning and opened fire, a bullet striking the deputy in his pelvis. Meanwhile, Lusk had knocked Allen down. Lusk fired two shots, one of which struck the other, killing him instantly.

The victim was well known in this county, where he had many relatives and friends. In the Princess community he was well-liked.

Surviving him are his widow and four children, his parents, and the following brothers and sisters: Mrs. Sarah Hicks, Guyeville; Mrs. Elizabeth Laforty, Langley; William Allen, Hippo; Thomas Allen, Langley; Mrs. Alice Allen, Chickadee; O. M. Carter, Chickadee; Mrs. Zella Rose, Ashland; John Allen, Princess; Mrs. Benjamin Hicks, Hippo. He was a nephew of Mrs. Jerry Allen, of Prestonsburg.

Funeral rites were conducted Tuesday afternoon from the Allen home at Princess and burial was made near Palm Grove.

WORKMEN UNDER GUNFIRE ON MUD

Three Arrested by Lord Officers Following Att. to Monday on Road by id's

Sheriff M. T. Stumbo and four deputies were summoned to Little Mud Creek Tuesday to deal with workmen from the Warfield Natural Gas Company who had been fired upon there Monday afternoon. Three men were arrested during the day as members of a gang said to have numbered six firing from the hillside near where the workmen were constructing a road.

Approximately 15 shots from shotguns and revolvers were fired, it is said, two bullets barely missing one of the laborers. The shooting, it was said upon the return of the officers here, was done by men who applied for jobs which had already been filled. Sheriff Stumbo was accompanied to Little Mud by Deputies J. D. Fitzpatrick, Clyde Clark, W. J. Vaughan and J. M. Stumbo. Deputies Clark, Fitzpatrick and Stumbo returned to the scene of the shooting Wednesday morning to preserve order.

CHILD IS VICTIM

The eight-day old son of Mr. and Mrs. Jay Salyers, of West Prestonsburg, died June 7. Funeral rites were conducted by Rev. G. R. Fanning and burial was made near here.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Harlowe have returned to Louisville at the conclusion of a visit here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Harlowe.

Drilling To Start There Soon; Pipe Lines Also To Be Laid

Activities of the Warfield Natural Gas Company indicating a decided pick-up in the gas business in this section were outlined this week by R. C. Leard, field superintendent of the company.

This week, drilling rigs were being moved onto five locations on Little Mud Creek. Leases on Mud on which drilling is to be started are the Akers, Elk Horn Coal Corporation and Nash Martin tracts. Mr. Leard gave no indication of the number of wells that may be drilled by Warfield in the county this year, but it is held probable that this year's drilling will be decidedly heavier than that of last.

Several four-inch pipe lines are being started on Little Mud. During the summer, numerous lines are expected to be laid. Seven carloads of pipe were on the railroad tracks at Harold Monday to be used on Little Mud Creek lines.

Strong gas wells were recently drilled in on the Fanning lease, Martin county, and the J. H. Allen tract, in Knott county. The latter is a Maxon well.

Drillers are sinking two wells for Warfield in Knott at present, one on the Spencer Stone lease, Irishman Creek, and another on the C. E. Allen farm, Mill Creek.

FOUR POSTOFFICES IN PIKE LOOTED

The postoffices at Helsey and Pico, Pike county, were robbed recently, bringing the number of offices looted in the county during last week to four. The offices at Meta and Pinson Fork were robbed a few days ago.

At the Pico office the thieves made away with $47 in money and a quantity of merchandise was taken from the store in which the postoffice is located. No complete report was available on the purported Helsey robbery.

Two hundred dollars in cash and a quantity of stamps and various postal forms were taken from the office at Pinson Fork earlier in the week. The safe was carried away. Dick Thompson, of Pikeville, found parts of a safe on Upper Choe Creek Monday, which are believed to have been from the Pinson Fork safe. A woman's wrist watch was found near the safe.

The postoffice at Meta was the first in the four looted. Postal inspectors are working on the robberies.

CIRCUIT COURT OPENS IN PIKE

Judge R. Monroe Fields, of Whitesburg, Monday opened the June session of criminal cases of the Pike circuit court.

Two hundred and twenty cases are set down for trial during the term and the first six days will be given over to misdemeanors, it was said.

The docket has been running more than 200 cases above the number now slated for trial, but Mr. Smith states that no case has been scheduled unless a return has been made on the bench warrants and the defendants will appear for trial.

WATCH, LOST 12 YEARS, RESUMES TICKING HABIT

Dock Sergeant, of Mead of Thornton Creek, came into The Eagle office to show us a watch that has more or less interest to it. Dock is a man whose word can positively be depended upon, and here is what he says of the watch: "Twelve years ago while plowing on a small plot of ground I by some means lost this watch. About a week ago in breaking up the same piece of ground, the watch was turned up and found. Turning it over and shaking it about a bit, it went to running and is running now." The watch is of medium size, is a seven-jeweled Elgin. It is as bright and clean as if made yesterday. When examined by the town jeweler, he told Mr. Sergeant that it was in perfect condition. — Mountain Eagle, Whitesburg, Ky.

WRIT STAYS HAND OF FISCAL COURT

As Body Plans To Invalidate $20,226 Worth of County Warrants

Parties to the action outlined in the news story below went to Frankfort Thursday, when the court of appeals was to take final action on the writ of prohibition.

A writ of prohibition was granted by the court of appeals Saturday to County Judge W. L. Stumbo, his wife, Mrs. Anna Stumbo, and the Beaver Valley hospital, restraining the fiscal court of this county from acting on a petition to invalidate $20,226 worth of fiscal court warrants held by Dr. and Mrs. Stumbo and the hospital.

The restraining order came barely in time to thwart a fiscal court ruling on the petition, since the court met Monday and would have, it is indicated, taken action.

On December 4, last year, before the retirement of the eight magistrates elected in 1929, the magistrates and Dr. Stumbo as County Judge allowed the Beaver Valley hospital claims aggregating $20,226 for medical services and treatment furnished to county patients at the rate of $4 a day. When the eight magistrates who allowed the bill retired in January and the present court of four magistrates assumed office, the new County Attorney, Forrest D. Short, shortly thereafter filed a petition asking that the order of December 4 allowing the claim be set aside. He alleged that charges for the services rendered were so "disproportionate as to import fraud and should not be allowed." It was also claimed in his petition that the claims were void because they were issued in excess of the county's revenue and that Dr. Stumbo as a member of the fiscal court, was interested in the claim. Mr. Short also cited the statute forbidding members of a fiscal court from selling supplies or services to a county with which they are connected.

Friday of last week, Dr. and Mrs. Stumbo and the hospital, through their attorney, J. D. Harkins, asked the writ of prohibition. With their petition was Dr. Stumbo's affidavit, charging Magistrates Jim Clark, M. C. Wright, Willie Hall and Dewey Roberts with bias and prejudice regarding the claims in question.

Members of the fiscal court, here Monday for the scheduled meeting of the court, indicated that they were anxious to have a hearing before the court of appeals at the earliest possible moment.

CANCELLATION OF COURT ORDERS IS DIRECTED JUNE 13

TOTAL $89,000

Thwarted Monday in its avowed purpose of cancelling approximately $22,000 worth of fiscal court warrants issued for treatment and services to county patients at the Beaver Valley hospital, the Floyd fiscal court reconvened Wednesday to cancel county court orders aggregating $89,666.23.

In cancelling the court orders, it was voted into the court's records a detailed opinion of the court, which stated the county's indebtedness as fixed by Okey K. Hayslip, auditor, and which gave the court's reasons for voiding the court orders.

It was stated in the order directing the cancellation that "the usual signing and circulating of all of the . . . so-called county court orders . . . was without any action by or on the part of the fiscal court of said county . . . and that said . . . so-called county court orders to the aggregate amount of $89,666.23 has never at any time received any action by or the sanction or approval of the fiscal court of said county."

Continuing, the record notes: "The court is further of the opinion that the habit and practice of the county judge of said county in issuing and causing to be signed and circulated . . . so-called county court orders has the effect of causing a doubt to exist in the minds of the public, not only as to the legality and validity of the so-called county court orders, but of the fiscal court orders and warrants as well; and that the credit of the county has been affected in this and other ways to the extent that the paper of the county, regular on its face and authorized by the court, has depreciated as much or more than fifty per cent of its face value, thereby not only making the cost of the county's purchasing power greater, but making it possible for large profits to be realized in purchasing obligations and outstanding indebtedness of the county regular on its face and properly authorized."

Magistrate Jim Clark made the motion to cancel the court orders, denying them as part of the county's indebtedness until the various orders shall have received the approval of the fiscal court. The motion was seconded by Magistrate M. C. Wright.

Johnson's Are Placed Under Peace Bond of $3,000 Each; 1 Jailed

Peace bond of $3,000 was asked Monday for each of four persons involved in the trouble on Left Beaver between Hays and Willard Johnson, following a hearing in county court here.

Hays Johnson, Mrs. Dora Johnson, wife of Willard Johnson, and Bessie Johnson, her daughter, executed bond. Up on his failure to furnish bail, Willard Johnson was remanded to jail.

The trouble started with the slaying of Willard Johnson, a son of Willard Johnson, by Hays a few weeks ago. Several days later, Hays was shot while in the road near Willard Johnson's home. The latter was arrested, charged with the shooting, but denies knowledge of the affair.

THE BREAKS OF SANDY

A bill has been introduced to create a National Park at the Breaks of Sandy in Pike county, Ky., and Dickinson county, Va. This is a scenic spot deserving preservation that will prove a first rate attraction once the public comes to know it. The romantic sounding name sticks in the memory, but comparatively few have seen it; for the "Breaks" are off the thru-rail routes and highway construction is mostly in contemplation on both sides of the border. The "Breaks" is distinctive in the Eastern Kentucky Mountain region — a water gap, where a branch of Levisa Fork of the Big Sandy tumbles through the terminal range of the Cumberland, marked on the maps as Pine Mountains. The "Breaks" afford a wider vista than the usual narrow defile of the higher gaps does.

more valley and sharply defined peaks, as Pound river and Russell Forks converge on the Virginia side to their junction. The Sandy makes that severed valley section of Kentucky its own, better known to West Virginians than it is to Kentuckians, west of the mountains; for it is a long trip from Ashland down to Pikeville, and the "breaks" are a considerable distance beyond. And Sandy valley consists of pockets, along Tug and Levisa Forks and back in the hills up Shelby Creek. The completion of cross-mountain roads has brought Sandy valley nearer by motor. Aside from any question of a National Park, the "Breaks of Sandy" should be added to the tourists' itinerary. This section from the Great Lakes South can provide a lot of seeing before its residents have exhausted the wonders of their own neighborhood. — The Courier-Journal.

Dist. Re-Employment Office at Pikeville Serves 11 Counties

The National Re-Employment Service has been established on a permanent basis under the Department of Labor. The district office serving the following counties has been located at Pikeville: Breathitt, Floyd, Johnson, Martin, Mingo, Leslie, Letcher, Knott, Perry, Pike, and Wolfe. It is the desire of the district office that every man who is out of employment be registered with the Re-Employment Service, in order that when jobs are available on public works projects, or work opportunities present themselves with private employers, the service will be in position to know just who is available and qualified to fill the jobs. The Re-Employment Service is set up as an agency of the federal government to assist unemployed men and women in securing employment. It is free both to the employer and employee alike. No charge is made for any service that may be rendered. A date will be set for registration of unemployed persons in each county of the district, and this date will be made known in time for all those desiring employment to register. Employers of labor of all types are urged to avail themselves of this service offered through the Re-Employment Service, and call Pikeville, phone 153, when in need of persons, either men or women, to perform any type of work. Already several thousand have registered and district office files are filled with names of competent men and women in all classes of industry, ready and qualified to fill the jobs. REGISTRATION UNDER TRUCK CODE TO START

The Kentucky state code authority announces that registration of all trucks, drays, etc., for hire in Kentucky under the trucking code is now ready to start. Thousands of truck owners who haul for hire, such as common carriers, contract carriers, transfer men, dump truck operators, etc., must come to the registration agency and register at once to comply with the provisions of the trucking code. When registering, registrant must pay an assessment of $3 per vehicle which has been approved by the National Recovery administration as his share of the expenses of administering the code. The Kentucky code authority will then issue a certificate of registration and an insignia in form of a numbered metal plate, one to be attached to each vehicle as evidence that the owner is operating under the trucking code. Any vehicle operating for hire after July 15 without insignia is violating the trucking code and is subject to its penalties. Registration for District No. 6 will be handled at the Ash-

BRITISH LIKE CANNED JAPANESE ORANGES

Japan's exports of canned oranges and bottle foods were 47 per cent greater in volume in the first quarter of 1934 than in the corresponding period of 1933, according to a report to the Louisville district office of the Commerce Department. The great decline in the exports of canned foods from Japan to the United States is due to the smaller shipments of canned tuna and canned crab. An increasing British demand for canned Japanese oranges is shown. Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Express Opposition To Wabash Valley Project

Chicago, June 11.—Vigorous opposition to the creation of a Wabash Valley Authority similar to the Tennessee Valley Authority was expressed today by J. Leahy, chairman of the National Saving and Investment Protection Bureau for the Coal Industry, in letters to Governor McNutt of Indiana and to members of the U. S. house flood control committee. Similar protests were sent to Indiana Senators Robinson and Van Nuys.

The Wabash Valley Authority act, a $60,000,000 project introduced in the House by Representative Greenwood, of Indiana, would, through electric power provision, destroy the market for many thousands of tons of coal, cause permanent unemployment and hardship for thousands of coal miners, railroad men and their dependents and render useless an enormous total of taxable property, Mr. Leahy declared.

His letter to the house committee requested that the coal industry be accorded permission to appear before the committee in defense of its rights in the case and pointed out that Indiana, one of the large coal producing states of the nation, would suffer irreparable harm if this bill is approved.

Describing the effect upon the coal business of the proposed Wabash Valley Authority in his letter to Governor McNutt, Mr. Leahy said:

"These dams would be constructed out of public funds and the electricity generated would supplant the electricity which is now generated in coal burning steam plants throughout the state of Indiana. If it were carried through, the project would shut down dozens of our Indiana coal mines and put thousands of our miners out of work. The funds to carry it through would be secured through taxation, levied, in part, against the coal mines that would be destroyed."

The National Job aving Bureau, the letter continued, was created by the 600,000 men who work in the coal mines and by the owners of tax-paying coal property for the sole purpose of combatting such projects.

Mr. Leahy added that the bureau is ready to submit a hydro-electric projects are both uneconomical and unnecessary as well as being permanent destroyers of labor and is determined to spare no effort in its fight against further spread of developments such as that now under way on the Tennessee river or proposed for the Missouri river watershed or the Wabash valley.

U. S. REGAINING KID-LEATHER TRADE IN N. Z.

Conditions in the New Zealand shoe and leather industries have improved noticeably during the first five months of 1934, according to a report from the Louisville district office of the Commerce Department. The U. S. supplies most kid leathers. Last year American suppliers lost much of the kid trade because their exchange was at a high premium, but this trade is now returning to the United States.

ABOUT CURSING

By Rev. Josef Nordenhaus

The use of profane words is very widespread. A bully thinks cursing adds to his "manliness." The more "educated" man curses a little to add, as he thinks, a little spice to his speech. So the young boy takes it up in an effort to imitate the big "he-man" stuff. Oh yes, then there is the young "lady" who, while knocking ashes off her cigarette with a highly painted finger-nail, thinks she has to intersperse her conversation with straight or semi-profane words in order to have the right amount of sophistication about her.

A sad commentary on life indeed! It is sad because cursing is not gentlemanlike; it is a sign of ignorance and a sin against God.

First, it is not gentlemanlike because it violates good tone and disregards the feelings of others. Even if cursing has become quite general, there are still at least a few people left who resent a profanation of God's name. Common politeness should dictate a consideration for others.

Secondly, cursing is a sign of ignorance, because it reveals a lack of vocabulary to adequately express the thought in mind without resorting to profane exclamations. Cursing is a sure sign that the speaker's mind is so utterly bankrupt on words that he cannot convey in a civilized way his thought to others. There are more than 500,000 words in the English language. How then can a man who selects four or five blasphemous words to express his every version be anything but ignorant?

Lastly, cursing is a sin against God. Why should His name be linked to every little turn of life with meaningless words? Most people would not even think of using their mother's name as every third word they utter. Why then should he use the name of almighty God in that way? Man cannot misuse the name of God with impunity.

Cursing proves the absence of culture. And it always defeats its own purpose where culture is found.

Miss Ruth Oppenheimer returned last week from the Eastern State Normal and Teachers' College, Richmond, where she has been a student during the past session.

In Memory of Dear Mother HELEN A. MARTIN

One year ago today our darling mother passed away. Oh, how we have missed her, how we have longed to hear her speak. She was so loving, kind and true. Within the old home place, her patient, smiling face, was always spreading comfort, hope and cheer. We miss dear mother while here on earth we roam, but we know she is with Jesus in yonder heavenly home. And when we reach that Golden City where Jesus rules on high, we will join our loving mother there to live and not to die.

NO ELECTION IN DIST. 4, RULING

Appellate Court Affirms Caudill in Roberts-Scott Contest Case

Governor Lafoon appointed Dewey Roberts Magistrate in District 4 Wednesday. His term extends to January 1, 1936.

Judgment rendered by Circuit Judge John W. Caudill declaring there was no election for Magistrate in District 4 of this county last year was affirmed Tuesday by the Court of Appeals...

The court of appeals stated that one of the grounds of contest was that R. L. Sturgill then sheriff and candidate for jailer, actively participated in the election and the count of ballots as a member of the election commission...

In his petition, Scott alleged that there was "such a large amount of bribery, corruption, illegal voting and conduct" in the election that "it is impossible to determine who is legally elected"...

Salvers and Crovles Escaped from Custody Jail Here Tuesday

Henderson Salvers and Howard Crovles escaped from the county jail here Tuesday afternoon, the former fleeing a 90-day jail sentence for stealing flour and Crovles, a charge of burglarizing the Parker Drug Store at Martin.

The escape was effected by picking a lock to a cell door which had been kept locked because of a small hole in the wall, then picking a lock to a steel window blind, removing a few bricks and by means of a blanket rope dropping to the passageway between the courthouse and jail.

The pair had accomplices, it is held, since both door and blind were re-locked when Deputy Jailer Will Halbert went inside the jail and the blanket rope had been stowed behind a bunk. Salvers is from Garrett and Crovles from Martin. Their return to jail is expected within the next few days.

IMPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL Lesson

By REV. F. B. FULTON, D. D., Moderator of the National Sunday School Convention, 1934, at the University of Chicago, Chicago, Ill.

Lesson for June 17

THE RISEN LORD AND THE GREAT COMMISSION

LESSON TEXT—Matthew 28:1-20. GOLDEN TEXT—John 21:19. and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost; teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world.—Matthew 28:19, 20.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Jesus Living Again. INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—The Great Commission. YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—The Great Commission.

I. The Empty Sepulcher (vv. 1-7). 1. The earthquake (vv. 1-4). This occurred when the glorious angel descended from heaven to roll the stone away from the tomb. This week of the angel was not to allow Jesus to escape but to show that the tomb was empty. Christ needed not even the help of the glorious angel for he came forth from the grave by his own power as the seal of his atoning work on the cross (Rom. 8:3). The open tomb and the angels sitting upon the stone with calm dignity is a graphic picture of Christ's triumph over the devil; and the terror of the keepers is a sample of what all of Christ's enemies shall one day experience when he comes in glory to reign as King.

2. The angel's message to the women (vv. 6-7). a. "Fear not" (v. 5). While the women had occasion to fear, these women who loved the Lord received good news from the empty tomb. The Lord will not leave those who follow him and love him in suspense and dread. The empty tomb puts an end forever to all doubts and fears. It is evidence that the question of sin has been dealt with and that the gates of eternal life are secured. Let every teacher endeavor to show the importance of the fact that the tomb was empty for those who believe in the living Saviour. The resurrection of Christ should be the major theme of those who give out the Christian message.

b. "Come, see" (v. 6). The angel told the women that the Lord had risen and invited them to see the place where he lay. The angel invited them to come was that he desired them to make sure about the facts. He remained with his disciples forty days giving them many infallible proofs of his resurrection (Acts 1:3). c. "Go quickly" (v. 7). Having seen for themselves the reality of the resurrection, it was necessary for them to go and tell the message. It is important to be convinced of facts. Experience is necessary before testimony. They were to go quickly to the disciples with the message that the Lord would go before and meet them.

II. The Risen Lord Meets the Women (vv. 8-10). The women quickly obeyed the command of the angel and were running to bring word to the disciples. Jesus met them on the way. All who go quickly with his message, the Lord will meet on the way. When they saw Jesus, that he was really the Lord they worshipped him.

III. Paying Money to Circulate a Lie (vv. 11-13). That Jesus arose from the dead could not even be denied by the Sadducees; they still only one way out of the difficulty; that was to be disciples' keepers to tell a lie. They had paid money for his betrayal; now they paid more money to circulate the lie about his resurrection. Money not only induces people to lie, but it even unlooses the mouths of some teachers and preachers.

IV. The King's Great Commission (vv. 14-20).

1. The royal authority (vv. 14-15). By virtue of his divine authority he issued this command to the disciples. Only as the disciples realize the authority of the Lord will they go out to proclaim his message.

2. The content of the commission (vv. 18, 20). a. Go teach all nations. This is the first and primary business of the disciples, and is a present obligation. b. Baptize them in the name of the Father, God. It is proper that those who have become disciples of the Lord should receive the rite which signifies that relationship to him. c. Teach them to observe all Christ's commandments (v. 20). Christ's disciples should be taught obedience to all his commandments.

3. The available power (v. 20). The guarantee of the success of the missionary enterprise is Christ's abiding presence.

Righteousness Righteousness is incomplete unless its final and highest expression be love. But he who is not satisfied with nothing less than the sanctification of its object, such love will never spare the loved.

Do It Now! If the wish is awakened in our soul to be ever in his presence, let us go to him this moment, and ask him what to do, and how to feel, believing that he is more ready to hear than we to pray.

ODD . . . BUT TRUE!

DID YOU EVER STOP TO THINK?

By Edson R. Waite, Shawnee, Okla.

And still the tax-raisers and tax-collectors go merrily on raising taxes. I note the following article in a Colorado paper, which will be of much interest to those who have invested their life's savings in securities, especially if they who do not get dividends, as this article gives a big reason why: "We are most of us taxpayers and are prone, especially in recent months since the assessment of taxes has become a paramount factor in the functioning of the New Deal, to join eagerly in a discussion of who pays the taxes for the town, city, school district, the county, state and nation. Like the fisherman's yarns, the stories of the intricacy of the tax system are such that he who tells last tells best.

"However, it is easily probable that Southern Colorado Power Company will outdo the best of them, for, 'believe it or not,' this company pays 15 separate and distinct kinds of taxes. They pay a tax on the real estate that they own. They pay special franchise taxes. They pay personal tax on their property. In addition, there is a paving tax to pay and a conveyance district tax and a school tax. They also pay taxes on checks, taxes on their gross earnings, taxes on excess dividends. They pay on gross receipts. They pay an income tax. They pay a capital stock tax and, commencing in September 1, 1933, they started paying a three per cent electric sales tax. They pay a gasoline tax, and there is also a processing tax to pay on certain classes of invoices." It is time for stockholders and investors, as well as the public, to sit up and take notice!

County Agent Helps Develop Big Fruit Industry In State

When farmers of the Purchase region and adjoining counties of Western Kentucky cashed their strawberry checks for $70,000 this spring, they were obtaining the fruits of an industry developed largely through the intelligence and untiring efforts of W. C. Johnstone, agricultural agent in McCracken county.

After graduating from the College of Agriculture of the University of Kentucky, Mr. Johnstone spent several years in Brazil as a fruit specialist for the British government. Upon his return to this country, he was farm agent for a short time in Taylor county, and in 1918 went to McCracken county.

From Paducah, the shipping center of the Purchase region, only 100 carloads of fruit were sent to Northern markets in 1918. This year 850 carloads of strawberries moved out, and peaches and apples are still to be harvested.

It is estimated that 75,000 bushels of apples and peaches will be picked this year, despite the unfavorable season. In 1918, there were but five orchards in McCracken county producing fruit commercially.

In addition to strawberries, apples and peaches, the production of dewberries and raspberries is being developed under the guiding hand of the fruit-specialist county agent.

Johnstone's work in developing the fruit industry for the western counties of the state is an example of the value to a county, a region or a state of a man trained in agriculture, sound in judgment, intelligent and energetic.

AAA CONTRACTS ARE MODIFIED TO PERMIT MORE FORAGE CROPS

All restrictions on planting fodder corn and grain sorghums on general or non-contracted acreages on farms under wheat, corn-hog or tobacco adjustment contracts have been removed by the Agricultural Adjustment Administration, the College of Agriculture at Lexington announces.

This means that total crop acreages on non-contracted land are no longer restricted, so far as forage crops are concerned, to those of 1932 or 1933. Farmers, therefore, may now plant corn or fodder, grain sorghum, soy beans, cowpeas, millet or other forage crops without limit on the non-contracted parts of their farms. They also may grow such crops, with the exception of corn for fodder, and grain sorghum, on contracted land.

Due to drought conditions, farmers early in June were given permission to pasture to pasture contracted land or make hay or grow other forage crops, except corn for fodder and grain sorghum, on their contracted acres.

Farmers in many instances had designated pasture and hay land as contracted acres, and such land was growing good stock feed that was made in great demand by the dry weather. Hence it was welcome news to hundreds of thousands when the government told them to open the gates and let the stock into the contracted land.

LACK OF EMPLOYMENT IN WHEAT BELT SEEN AS RESULT OF DROUGHT

Warning to labor issued by the Department of Farm Labor Replacement Service to the effect that the reduced acreage of wheat sown and the further curtailment of the wheat crop caused by the drought and intense heat makes it very clearly inadvisable for workers to go from other states to the wheat-growing states in the hope of obtaining employment in the harvest fields. Such labor as is required in the wheat region will readily be available locally.

PERRY JAILER, OUSTED IN MORNING OF NEGRO, ORDERED RE-INSTITATED

Frankfort, Ky., June 11—Gov. Ruby Laffoon today entered an order reinstating T. P. Combs as jailer of Perry county "immediately." Combs was suspended from office on February 27, 1934, following the lynching of Rex Scott, negro.

Combs was removed under a statute giving the Governor the right to remove a jailer from "whose prison a prisoner is taken and lynched."

Combs applied for reinstatement and his deposition and other evidence were presented to the Governor.

"The commonwealth," the Governor's order said, "introduced four witnesses, to-wit: Talbert Holliday, Lydia Scott, Raleigh Green and H. Center, in support of the charges against Combs."

"Nothing in their evidence," the Governor said, "tends to substantiate the charge against the former jailer... and it seems to be wholly incompetent evidence as against Troy P. Combs."

The Governor's order said the only witnesses testifying in regard to the taking of Scott from the jail were Combs, W. C. Knuckles and Herman Hall. All of them testified, the order said, "that they were in the office at the jail building on the night Scott was lynched."

"These men seem to have known nothing about the mob until it appeared upon the scene," the order continued. "The evidence shows that from 190 to 250 men in the mob, armed with knives and shotguns, and many, if not all, wearing masks."

"As soon as the former jailer... discovered the presence of this large crowd," the Governor said, "and realized it was a mob, he directed W. C. Knuckles to get inside the jail and lock himself in so that the key could not be obtained. When Knuckles attempted this... he was confronted with a number of men, masked and armed with knives and shotguns, who have made their entrance without the knowledge of any one of the three men in the office... while many others were on the outside and in sight of the office. At least from five to nine of these persons in the hallway covered Knuckles with their revolvers and forced him to go up to the cell-rooms and turn the prisoner over to them."

"While this was transpiring, the evidence shows that... T. P. Combs and Herman Hall were covered with revolvers in the hands of members of the mob... The keys were demanded of Troy P. Combs, but he refused to deliver them. According to his statement he attempted to slip back into his desk to obtain his revolver, but... was compelled to stand still... Part of the mob... kept Combs and Hall covered with revolvers until the others... brought the prisoner from the jail."

"The evidence further shows," the Governor said, "that these men were all taken by surprise in the advancement of the mob upon the jail and had no opportunity to make any preparation to meet the mob with force."

"From the evidence and the entire record presented," the Governor said, he "is of the opinion that Troy P. Combs... did all that was in his power under the conditions to protect the life of the said Rex Scott, and, therefore, that the said Troy P. Combs did not neglect to perform his legal duty."

When Jailer Combs was removed early in February, his brother, Dr. D. C. Combs, was appointed to fill the vacancy and the ousted jailer at once began efforts for reinstatement.

Six men were indicted charged with lynching the negro and after Lee Gibson, the first one brought to trial, had been acquitted, the cases against the others were continued, probably until September.

Luckless Dunleary Loses 6th Game To Bull Creek Sunday

The luckless Dunleary baseball team lost its sixth game in six played Sunday when it was shoved deeper into the Big Sandy-Elkhorn league cellar by the Bull Creek nine, 9 to 0.

Honeycutt, Bull Creek twirler, was in top form and won in a canter, holding the visitors four scattered hits and no runs. He fanned 11. Meanwhile, Bull Creek slammed Sweeney and R. Belcher for nine singles and a triple, the latter for the bat of "Lefty" Wells, who can hit as well as pitch. Powell's two-bagger was the only extra base blow garnered off Honeycutt's delivery.

Bull Creek's victory leaves the team in a four-way tie for first place.
