2 WOMEN AMONG THOSE SHOT IN NIGHT ATTACK AT MELVIN

SEVEN WOUNDED IN LEFT BEAVER FEUD OUTBREAK

Trouble Between Johnson Family Factions Seen As Cause of Melvin Shooting

SIX JAILED

Echoes of the trouble between two factions of the Johnson family on Left Beaver Creek were awakened by gunfire Saturday night when seven persons two of whom were women were wounded by bullets and buckshot fired from the cover of darkness into two homes.

One man is probably fatally wounded. Seven others were jailed in the shooting. All save one are at liberty under bond and further trouble is predicted.

The wounded: Sam Moore, probably fatally wounded, shot in his chest and stomach.

Mrs. Willard Johnson, shot in thigh and hip by .38-caliber revolver bullet.

Mrs. McKinley Johnson, daughter-in-law of Mrs. Willard Johnson, suffering from .32-caliber revolver wound in her right leg.

Dove Newsum and Elvan Collins, struck in left side of their chests by buckshot.

Robert Stewart and Everett Collins wounded in arms by buckshot.

Moore, who is in the Beaver Valley hospital, Martin, is quoted as saying that Tivis Cole shot him. Because of the immediate probability of Moore's death Cole was not released under bond pending outcome of Moore's wound.

Sheriff M. T. Stumbo and deputies were called to Melvin Saturday night and arrested six men, who were jailed here. Those arrested were Tivis Cole, Sterling Shelly Will and McKinley Johnson and W. E. Hall. Tivis Johnson was jailed for a short time Monday when he appeared here for examining trial, but was released under $1,000 bond as also were McKinley Johnson and W. E. Hall.

The case against Will Johnson was dismissed. Sterling and Shelley Johnson executed $3,000 bond. All of the defendants were charged with shooting and wounding, and those under bond are held to the action of the September grand jury. (Continued on page six)

PATTON TWIRLS SHUT-OUT BALL

Sandy Valley Coal Team Defeats Drift 1-0, Sunday in Hill Battle

Squeezing out a lone run off the delivery of Bert Crisp, an playing behind the tight twirling of Patton, the Sandy Valley Coal Company team Sunday defeated Drift in a thrilling pitching duel 1-0, at Drift. Hitting of both teams was naturally light against the superior brand of pitching they faced, but a number of fielding gems and the closeness of the score kept the crowd on edge.

At the same time Wayland was defeating McDowell, the first-half champs, to snatch the league lead. The Right Beaver boys won 8 to 3.

Sunday, Wayland comes to Prestonsburg for a game on which the fortunes of the two teams in the second half largely depend. The local team has been strengthened within the past few days by the addition of Adrian Collins, Branham and Harry Patton. They drew the pitching assignment again with Lambert and Wells in reserve. T. Wayland team is, as the records show, one of the strongest in this section and the addition of some new men has brought the town back to its former power in Eastern Kentucky baseball. This game here Sunday should fill the bill for any follower of the ball game.

Funeral services were conducted from the home at 1 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, the Rev. Isaac Stratton and Rev. W. H. Horn officiating. Burial was made in the cemetery under the direction of E. P. Arnold.

DEATH CLAIMS LEWIS BRANHAM AT HIS HOME HERE TUESDAY MORNING

Lewis Branham died at his home on Highland avenue here Tuesday morning, succumbing at the age of 39 years to tuberculosis from which he had suffered for the past two or three years.

Mr. Branham was well known here and had many friends. He was the son of the late Sol Branham and of Mrs. Sally Branham, who survives. During his illness he professed religion and lived a faithful Christian until death.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Fanny Robinson Branham, and the following children: Bernard, Robert, Hazel and Franklin. Five brothers and two sisters also survive: Dave, John, Ballard, Goble and Bill Branham, all of this vicinity; Mrs. Ora Hagans, Maytown, and Mrs. Loretta Mayo, West Prestonsburg.

Funeral services were conducted from the home at 1 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, the Rev. Isaac Stratton and Rev. W. H. Horn officiating. Burial was made in the cemetery under the direction of E. P. Arnold.

KENTUCKY HOUSE FLOOR LEADER IS TAKEN BY DEATH

Dr. A. L. Hill Succumbs Monday in Pikeville Hospital at Age of 47

Dr. A. L. Hill, 47 years old, floor leader in the House of the Kentucky Legislature and Democratic candidate for Congress at the recent primary, succumbed at the Methodist hospital, Pikeville, at 2 o'clock Monday morning as a result of a gall bladder ailment and complications.

Dr. Hill had been in ill health since adjournment of the Legislature's special session and had been confined to his home here about 10 days preceding his death. Though it was known throughout the state that his condition was serious his untimely death came as a severe shock to a host of friends.

Alexander Lackey Hill was born May 8, 1887, at Banner, this county, the son of Samuel S. Hill and Mrs. Alice Walsh Hill. Educated in the common schools of this county, he was graduated in 1909 from the Louisville College of Dentistry with honors. In the same year he also was graduated from the Jefferson School of Law, Louisville, having attended the dental college during the day and the law school at night.

For two years following his graduation, he was a member of the College of Dentistry (Continued on page eight)

ONE KILLED AS BRIDGE FALLS

Inez Man Sustains Broken Neck When Cable Parts

One man was killed and several other men and small boys narrowly escaped serious injury near Inez, Friday when the steel cable of a swinging bridge, under construction, parted and threw the men and boys to the ground below. J. T. Burk who was supervising the work, was killed instantly when he was thrown against a heavy timber and his neck broken. Others on the bridge at the time narrowly escaped serious injury.

Mr. Burk with Cecil Horn, Rudolph Horn and Lowell Johnson, was constructing a swinging bridge across Cold Water Creek near Inez, when the accident occurred. There were several small boys playing about the bridge at the time, but all escaped injury.

This is the third tragedy of its kind within the past few months. Uncle Richard Cassidy and Uncle Jack Cassidy, father of L. B. Cassidy, both died as the result of automobile accidents recently. Mr. Burk also was connected with the Cassidy family and was a son-in-law of L. B. Cassidy.

He is survived by his widow and six children and three sisters. He was one of the most popular citizens of Martin county, a devoted father and husband, and his death is mourned by a host of friends and relatives.

Funeral services were conducted at the Missionary Baptist Church, the Rev. J. M. Bell and the Rev. J. R. Fairchild officiating. A large number of friends and relatives attended and accompanied the body to the cemetery, where burial took place. Paintsville Herald.

THREE HURT AS CAR HITS TRAIN

Three young people narrowly escaped death last Friday night when the automobile in which they were riding collided with the tender of a C. & O. locomotive at the camp on the Mayo Trail just south of Paintsville. The injured are Mrs. Robert Switzer (Allene Webb), Miss Myra Roberts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Roberts and Everett Johnson. All three are in the Paintsville hospital where they are being treated for a variety of injuries.

Mrs. Switzer was the most seriously injured. She received a broken leg, broken hand, serious cuts and bruises about her head. Mr. Johnson was cut on the head and arm and all were bruised and shaken up.

According to those in the car, they were driving toward Paintsville and failed to see the locomotive which was across the highway in time to stop their automobile. Mr. Johnson who was driving, swerved the car in an attempt to miss the engine, but was unable to prevent crashing into it. The automobile in which they were driving was almost demolished.

After the accident they were rushed to the Paintsville hospital where they received emergency treatment. X-ray examinations the next day failed to show any serious internal injuries and all are expected to recover. The two young ladies probably will be confined to the hospital for several weeks. Young Johnson is unable to be up and probably will be out within a few days. Paintsville Herald.

MAY AND RAMEY NOMINATED FOR CONGRESSIONAL BATTLE

BETSY LAYNE MAN, 42, SUCCUMBS TO CANCER AFTER LONG ILLNESS

Denny Howell, well-known Betsy Layne man died at his home August 1 at the age of 42 years after an illness of several months from cancer of the stomach.

Mr. Howell was a member of the Freewill Baptist Church and was one of Betsy Layne's best citizens. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Susan Howell and the following sons and daughters: Mrs. Ruth Arnold, Pikeville; John Manning Howell of Idaho; Homer Lillian, Vivian, Everett, Lucille, Philip and Evelyn, all of Betsy Layne. He also leaves four brothers and a sister: Farmer, Hays, Joseph and Bruce Howell and Mrs. Mary Starr, all of Betsy Layne.

Funeral rites were conducted by Rev. Isaac Stratton, assisted by Rev. Ferrell Williamson, members of the United Mine Workers taking part. Burial was made in the Layne cemetery at Justell.

HIRING OF COUNTY TEACHERS REMAINS TO BE COMPLETED

Facilities for Seven Consolidated Schools To Be Named; Contracts Let

Three rural school teachers and the faculty for the Auxier consolidated school were hired by the Floyd county board of education at its meeting here Monday, leaving facilities for seven other schools yet to be named, together with approval of the Prestonsburg and Floyd county high school faculty to be made.

Palmer L. Hall was named principal of the Auxier school with Gomer Sturgill and Robert Harlowe as high school teachers. Frank Branham was appointed as a grade teacher and basketball coach. Other grade teachers at Auxier are Edwin Ford, Stewart Horn, Margaret Patton, Anna Burdett and Joe Arnett.

John Warix, who has been working as a clerk in the superintendent's office here since the Superintendent Hunter assumed office, was transferred to the position of attendance officer a post to which he was appointed for a four-year term at a monthly salary of $150, plus expenses. Ed Wright succeeds Mr. Warix as office clerk and he, too, was named to a four-year term. The county superintendent was voted the right to hire necessary clerks to the number of two at a salary not exceeding $135 a month.

A. J. Archer was elected treasurer of the board of education, and all board funds are to be deposited in the Bank of Josephine here for the coming two years, the board voted.

E. L. Gearheart's bid of $1,399 on the Hunter school building was low and he was awarded the contract. H. F. Holbrook and W. C. Adams were awarded the Progress school contract on their bid of $794. W. D. McCown and J. D. Newsum were awarded contract for construction of the Burton school building. Their bid was $1,399.99.

A. D. Roberts was employed by the board to audit board of education records from July 1, 1932 to June 30, 1934. (Continued on page six)

SEVENTH DISTRICT CONGRESSMAN WINS BY HUGE MAJORITY

for Republican Nomination; Ramey Defeats Mrs. Langley Election Quiet

HON. A. J. MAY

Congressman A. J. May, Democrat of Prestonsburg, and Harry H. Ramey, Republican of Paintsville, will fight it out in November for the Seventh district Congressional post.

They entered the Congressional election trials by virtue of victories in Saturday's primary. Congressman May scored an overwhelming victory, polling 14,366 votes to 1,629 for his nearest opponent, Dr. Alex L. Hill, of Prestonsburg, who died before the vote was counted. Mr. Ramey, on the face of incomplete returns, has defeated Mrs. John W. Langley for the Republican nomination by a margin of 4,447 votes.

Complete returns: Democrats — A. J. May, 14,366; Dr. A. L. Hill, 1,629; Leon P. Webb, 217; Danz Hays, 18. W. B. and Hays had withdrawn from the race. Republicans — Harry H. Ramey, 11,655; Mrs. John W. Langley, 7,238; S. C. Ferguson, 2,090; Orison Smith, 676.

25 DOGS KILLED HERE THIS WEEK

Approximately 25 dogs were killed here Tuesday by Sheriff M. T. Stumbo and deputies after the dogs had been impounded when their owners refused to buy dog tags and granted officers permission to kill them. A number have been impounded at Auxier and will be killed within the next few days unless their owners buy tags, it was said. Deputy sheriffs are starting over the county, and procedure followed here will prevail. No dog, however, will be killed unless permission is granted by the owner. Name of every dog owner refusing both to pay dog license and to permit his dog to be killed will be submitted to the September grand jury, it was said this week.

"This is a job I wish I could avoid," Sheriff Stumbo said Wednesday. "The dog law is unpopular and an officer makes no friends by enforcing it. This is my job, though, and I must do it in order to protect myself from indictment and prosecution."

 Now that the Congressional primary election has closed and I have again been nominated by my party as its candidate for Congress, I take this means of expressing to all my friends, Democrats and Republicans alike, my sincere thanks for their loyalty and support. It is especially gratifying to me to know that the thousands of workers in the mines and upon the railroads, who so generously supported me have by their ballots expressed their approval of my official voting record in Congress. The national administration and the Congress under the matchless leadership of President Roosevelt, has in less than a year and a half

THE CATTLE SHORTAGE THREAT

In line with a recent warning in these columns, the farmers and the Federal government now are finding that they must fight a cattle shortage in the drought sections of the west. Especially is this true in the great cattle-bred areas of the Southwest, including New Mexico, Texas, Oklahoma and south-western Kansas. Every effort now is being bent toward saving pure bred breeding stock, so that the herd-owners will have a nucleus from which to build when the emergency is past. A conference to this end has just been held at Kansas City between the federal drought relief director and heads of the three largest purebred cattle associations.

While the late rains appear to have given some hope that additional grass and roughage may be grown and cut, even if it should rain all the remainder of the summer, the ponds and streams and the ground itself could not receive back the moisture they have lost and not enough hay, legumes or silage could be grown to feed a normal number of cattle. There is money available for drought relief, but feed is scarce. Any obtainable must be shipped in from as far away as the Mississippi valley. The problem therefore, is to hold to as many young cows as possible, and the pure bred bulls; to husband every food resource and try to see it through.

Two consequences of the present situation seem to be certain. Feed prices probably will be much higher this fall and next year. Beef cattle should command considerably better prices. Roger Babson, the Eastern economist, advises buying securities and commodities, predicting much better prices soon. He might with equally sound reasoning have recommended purchase of purebred cattle and hog breeding stock. With the west being denuded of its cattle, due to forced marketing and government buying for distribution east of the Mississippi, the beef shortage may be felt by spring. As for hogs, perhaps only the stiff processing tax keeps them from bringing higher prices now.—Courier-Journal.

SIMPLICITY OF DESIGN
 IF FEATURE OF FORD

Seven and one-half minutes disassemble and reassemble again the 1934 Ford V-8 engine. That's the average time each of the two teams of automobile mechanics spend in such a demonstration about 24 times daily on a stage of the Ford Exposition Building as a Century of Progress. Chicago, before throngs of World's Fair visitors. There's keen rivalry between these teams—each one comprising two men—and sometimes they're even faster than that, encouraged by the applause of spectators who watch their time on a clock on the stage.

But the average time is seven and one-half minutes to dismantle and 13 minutes to assemble. Two of the four men never worked on motors before they began to practice just a few weeks ago, but repetition has given them facility, cutting down their beginning time from 15 minutes in disassembling and 20 minutes in assembly. Of course, the demonstration does not attempt to picture the process as it takes place in a daler's shop, but it does emphasize the simplicity of construction of the Ford V-8 engine.

It's the simplicity of design, the easy accessibility of every part of the engine that makes for speed in breakdown and build-up, a speed which reduces all repair costs for the automobile owner. In the Fair dismantling and assembling demonstration only the standard kit of tools used in all Ford service stations is employed.

Mrs. Horton Hewlett and children have returned from Westerville, O., where she has been the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hill.

 The government is making every effort to raise the prices of commodities above the prices of commodities higher than in the spring of 1933, when they reached their low point.
 Electricity alone continues the downward trend. Today the domestic cost of electricity to our electrical dollar now buys a quantity of electricity that would have cost $1.20 in 1927.

State Fair Going 'After Entries Of All Farm Products From Every County In State

Secretary Garth K. Ferguson, Urges All Having Live Stock, Poultry, Quilts, Antiques, Farm, Orchard, Garden, And Home-Made, Or Kitchen-Put Up, Products, To Write Him At Once For Entry Blanks And Full Particulars

"Since the Kentucky State Fair," says Garth K. Ferguson, Secretary of the fair, "belongs to the people of the whole State, and is for the benefit of everybody of the farm and industrial life of the State," he makes an urgent appeal to the people of every county to enter their products for exhibit at this year's fair, week of September 10-16.

Garth K. Ferguson Secretary Kentucky State Fair

"In our continued efforts," says Mr. Ferguson, "to make the State Fair just what it was intended to be—actually the Fair of all the people of the State, we should have each county in the State represented with exhibits of its products, and we are going after such exhibits as never before. So many have asked why it is that there is not more of Kentucky's live stock shows at the State Fair, while so many from other states have their horses, cattle, hogs, sheep and other stock on exhibition and carry off the prizes. It is simply because the people of so many counties in the State do not enter their products as they should; but I sincerely hope they will enter them this year.

"That the people of the entire State might have a central place, such as they have at the State Fair, in addition to their own county fairs for exhibiting their stock, poultry, the products of their farm, home garden and orchard, as well as for the pleasure of mingling and mingling once a year with old friends from all over the State and seeing what is being produced in the different counties, was the intention of those who originated the State Fair. "So it is with all of us who are now in charge. The State Fair belongs to the people of every county in the State, themselves, and not, as some may think, to the county and city in which it is located. Therefore, if the people of all the counties would enter their various products in which they particularly excel, it would not only cause more people of the State and city to be interested in and patronize the State Fair more than ever, but make it a greater benefit to the agricultural and other interests of the entire State.

What To Enter
"One county may raise better wheat, corn, oats or rye than others, another all kinds of orchard fruits; another, tobacco, potatoes, melons, garden vegetables and the like. Some may surpass in certain, or in all types, of live stock. In some counties there may be antiques, in the way of old-time furniture that was made a century or more ago. We were highly complimented last year by the very impressive exhibits of old beds, chairs, cabinets, tables, spinning wheels, quilts, blankets, carpets and so on, which attracted such great attention as did the hand-made, and hand-put up things of so many enterprising women of our State.

Entry Blanks Free
"Regardless of whatever the people may have to enter, the State Fair officials want every one in every county with anything they wish to have exhibited, to write in at once for free entry blanks and tell us what they think they would have to enter.

"I wish everyone in every county in the State, could realize that the Kentucky State Fair is their Fair—that by virtue of its being a Kentucky state-owned institution, it belongs to them for their own benefit, and not for any one county, set, or section. I am prepared to say that wherever the State Fair is held, the benefits are greater and better than elsewhere, and if the people of every county would realize that they should exhibit both their attendance and exhibits, it will be much better not only for the State as a whole, but for themselves as well. "I, therefore, urge the people of every county to write me at once for entry blanks and full particulars stating what they would like to enter. All letters should be addressed to me, care of the Kentucky State Fair Grounds, Louisville, Ky.

AMERICAN PEOPLE WON'T STAND STILL

American Red Cross Needs More Funds, More Members, for Next Year

The American Red Cross lives by its membership. Although a semi-official status is given through its Congressional charter, the Red Cross receives no money from the government. The funds which pay for the vast and varied activities are the membership dues that are collected each year in the period between Armistice Day and Thanksgiving when men and women walk through business sections and resident districts of the cities and towns of all the 48 states in the union, to enroll the members who for another year will make up the American Red Cross.

The Red Cross works thru its memberships. National headquarters, with the supervisors of service are located at Washington; for convenience of administration branch offices are also established in St. Louis and San Francisco. Thirty-seven hundred chapters, with 10,000 branches form the machinery of the work throughout the United States and its territorial possessions. Four million members are the workers.

These volunteer members are the ones who enable the Red Cross to maintain the great record it has made in the years when it has handled disasters like the Mississippi valley floods, drought suffering in 1930-31, tropical hurricanes and earthquakes, fires and the average of 80 lesser disasters that are recorded each year. When calls for disaster relief come it is usually without warning. Any telephone message may give information of an approaching hurricane, any telegram that is laid on the Red Cross desk may give the flash that tells of an earthquake, a fire or a sudden flood that will bring death and devastation in its wake. For the Red Cross to be efficient in answering these calls is necessary that adequate resources be available. There can be no waiting for state or national governments to appropriate public funds when immediate action is necessary to save lives. Red Cross funds are appropriated in advance; when the annual membership dues are paid, and they are kept in instant readiness for the demands the coming year will bring.

It is a typical American characteristic that we are never content to stand still—we must always be moving ahead. If public health nursing is available for only a small percentage of those in need this year, American citizens want it brought to good many more people next year; if the Red Cross service for war veterans, instruction in Home Hygiene and Care of the Sick, First Aid and Life Saving, Civilian Home Relief, the Junior Red Cross, have been indispensable factors in the lives of many communities the public wants them brought to all communities alike. This part of Red Cross work—both local and national—is likewise supported by membership dues.

Through the highly successful direction of volunteers and the efficient management of funds for Red Cross chapters were of great value in places they served. The workers and the communities themselves hope that the membership roll call that begins on Armistice Day will result in more membership dollars for Red Cross treasuries more volunteers for humanitarian Red Cross work.

Floyd county Roll Call will start in August in the rural and mining districts, so let's all pull together and put county over the top early. Get your dollars ready now.

THEY FOUND IT DIDN'T PAY TO TRY TO DO WITHOUT IT

By R. C. Tuck, MANAGER

It is surprising how many people, when ordering telephones, say they found it just didn't pay to try to get along without telephone service in the home. It is embarrassing they say, to be continually borrowing a neighbor's telephone and yet when you haven't a telephone of your own it seems as though day after day such things are continually happening which make it necessary to use some kind neighbor's telephone.

There are times, too, when you would like to be able to call and talk to some friend in privacy and without interruption, or the feeling that you are bothering someone else in the home, and the only way you can do that is to have a telephone of your own. Not having a telephone isolates you, and as a result of your feeling that you are not being able to conveniently reach you by telephone, you are very likely missing many pleasant social gatherings that you would otherwise be asked to attend.

In fact, the telephone fits so closely into every activity of life and is relied on to such an extent in the carrying on of all social and business affairs that it is hard to get along without telephone service seriously handicaps all of your and your family's activities. It narrows the opportunities of all for a fuller enjoyment of life. In addition, the home without a phone is lacking in protection in case of emergencies.

It has been truthfully said of the telephone that nothing else gives so much in added pleasure and protection at such small cost.

WAR THREAT IN EUROPE

Riots and civil war followed the Nazi uprising in Austria, with war rumors shaking all Europe. Photo shows a detachment of Austrian troops which took part in the drive to stamp out Nazi disturbances around Styria.

MIDGET TACKLES GIANT BOTTLER

The midget and the giant got their bottles mixed recently when they went on a little beer drinking tour. Vance Swift, America's smallest man who stands 27 inches, obtained the aid of Carl Gustafson, a 6-foot-4-inch Spaniard, Spanish dancer, when he tackled the biggest bottle in the world, a 100-gallon bottle owned by Capt. C. H. Reichert, 8-foot Clevelander, expected to see the midget and giant in the glass bottle when it is exhibited at the World's Fair in Chicago.

MOST FAMOUS FICTION CHARACTER

Scattergood Baines, created by Clarence Buddington Kellogg several years ago for a series of short stories, has become the most popular character in American fiction, hero of 100 tales of homely heart appeal and humor. Now for the first time Kellogg has put Scattergood into a full-length novel, running in the American Magazine as a serial "The Closed Room."

TAILOR'S PRINT FOR F.O.M.A.L. PROCEDURE

Who would have thought of wearing a tailoring print dress after dark, but now it's quite the thing, according to Genevieve Cummings, noted picture star. Her latest evening gown is fashioned of black and white pin check silk. A snappy little box jacket completes the evening ensemble.

MAY WIN SCHOLARSHIP

Society Snubs 'That Communist' Roosevelt, Says Vanderbilt

Society has snubbed Franklin D. Roosevelt and is at present busily vilifying him through a "whispering campaign" of unprecedented proportions according to Cornelius Vanderbilt, Jr., writing in Liberty Magazine.

The reasons as reported by the writer, are simply that blue bloods are afraid of Roosevelt and what his program means to them. He is a communist in their eyes who brought about the fall of Mitchell, society's favorite banker, and who would dare to prosecute Mr. Morgan and Mr. Mellon, and who talks about the "redistribution of wealth."

One authority told him, says Vanderbilt, that New York subscribers to a Washington information service was dissatisfied with items furnished there unless they had some negative implication.

"They are not interested in the truth," this person told the writer. They crave wild rumors. Why do you know that the other day I got hell from a Wall Street banker because I sent him a wire denying the story connecting a member of the administration with an unpleasant scandal? "Am tired of your ballyhoosing the administration," he wired back. "Insist upon getting real facts for my money." When a member of the cabinet catches a slight cold I don't dare describe it as a "slight cold" in my wires. "Secretary So-and-So is ill at home. The nature of his mysterious illness is being kept a secret by his physician. It is in the way of describing a slight cold."

Vanderbilt quotes the same authority as stating that Fifth Avenue children are taught to look upon Secretary Licks of the Interior as a big bad wolf and that he doesn't dare send out anything about Licks doing jobs for 2,000,000 unemployed but that he must interfere with some mid-western grafter instead and send "Have just learned from unimpeachable sources that the breakdown of the PWA program in the Middle West is imminent."

A White House party at which the President and Mrs. Roosevelt remained but a short time before retiring. The party broke up before 11. Some 32 bear was the most potent liquid refreshment served. Upon his return to Newport and New York, he found general acceptance of a story appearing in a temperance magazine which described "kegs of beer, rivers of liquor, drunkenness in the White House!"

Warfield Employees To Enjoy Annual Picnic

Employees of the Warfield Natural Gas Company together with associate gas companies will hold their annual picnic at the Dunbar Fair Grounds near Charleston, W. Va., Tuesday, August 21. The picnic will start at 7 a. m. and will last until 11:30 p. m.

There will be entertainment of all sorts, including athletic events—swimming, tennis, minstrels, picture shows, amateur and professional boxing matches, aerobians, scouting, parachute jumping, balloon ascension, dancing and refreshments.

It is estimated that there will be six or seven thousand people present. This will include employees, their families and friends.

Beecher Hardwick, former high school student and football star here, was operated upon at the Methodist hospital, Pikeville, a few days ago, and is threatened with typhoid. It was reported here Wednesday.

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Karin' to Go

If you feel sour and sick and the world looks black, you'll realize the need of a good laxative. Calomel is a harsh, irritating and unwholesome drug. It is a sure way to make your bowels weak and inactive and full of mucus.

Don't stop until you feel better. It's not a mere movement down your bowels. The result for you is a new feeling of freedom. It should put you into a normal condition. You'll be able to sleep peacefully and enjoy your life.

If this fails to get you going, try our Food Stimulant. It's a natural, healthy, and safe way to get your bowels moving. It's a sure way to get you back to normal. It's a sure way to get you back to normal.

What Pretty Girl From This County Can Win the Natural Beauty Prize Ky. State Fair

The answer to the above question is—each of the 25 counties in this state will have a representative in the contest. The beauty contest committee, with a host of rich prizes and an all paid-for trip to the World's Fair for two winners, would like to know as soon as possible if it is made plain in announcing the decision to put on this state-wide beauty contest, that in no sense will it be a bathing beauty or fancy "dolled up" affair. Only natural beauty will count with the judges.

The beauty contest committee maintains that every county is full of beautiful girls from which to select its representative in this contest at the State Fair, Louisville, September 10-15, and the committee would like to know at once, what person or live organization in this county would like to undertake the selection of one of its most beautiful young ladies to represent it in the contest. The expense for their choice would be paid for in making the trip to and from Louisville. Any person or organization that would like to undertake it should write at once to the State Wide Beauty Contest Department, care of the Kentucky State Fair, Louisville, Ky.

FUEL-FLOATING REAR AXLE... Assurance of long, trouble-free service. Housing, not axle, carries load. Shift removable without jacking up. Easy, low-cost maintenance.

PERFECTED FULL TORQUE-TUBE AND DRIVE... Transmits braking and driving forces directly to frame. Springs free to absorb road shocks.

ENGINE EXCHANGE... After normal life expectancy, new engine at dealer and for $49.75 (F. O. B. Parts Branch) have a factory-reconditioned engine installed.

SPECIAL FINISH... Our truck with this new baked-steel finish. Wide variety of colors. Give long-lasting beauty.

W/B decreased our tonning to cost 35% by changing to Ford V-8 Trucks," writes a Wisconsin transfer company.

A California writer reports hauling gross loads of 14 tons over a hilly, 80-mile run regularly in three hours.

Haulers right in this community are making similar records with the new Ford V-8. They're especially those who formerly used expensive "big equipment." Their loads mean little to the true pulling-power of the 20-horsepower Ford V-8 engine. "Tough spots" and hills hardly slow it down. With its high speed, the new Ford V-8 is actually giving many haulers extra trips per day.

But don't stop at these facts. Look at cost sheets. Figures for gas, oil, repairs and replacements will show that the ton-mile operating cost of the new Ford V-8 is actually lower than that of a "big" truck. The new Ford V-8 is America's great truck value.

The new Ford V-8 literally sets a new standard of truck performance and economy. It is America's great truck value.

HITCH-HIKERS ARE HELD IN JAIL

Louisville, Ky., Aug 6—Homer Porter, of Lexington, Ky., and his brother, of Salyersville, were in the county jail here today, beaten badly about their heads, the result of a fight with Orville Marcum of Louisville, who picked them up in his automobile on the Mayo Trail last night.

The brothers were gathered up by Sheriff George F. Smith last night on the Mayo Trail two miles north of Louisville, where Marcum left them after the affray. Marcum said that after picking them up when they thumbed for a ride, one of the brothers attempted to take possession of the car and grabbed the car keys. Marcum's eight-year-old son was with him and reached his father a wrench which he said he used in fighting off the two brothers. He left them lying by the roadside and notified the sheriff.

Harry Porter, said to be manager of an A. & P. store in Lexington, Ky., was returning home on Thursday morning that he and his brother were returning from a baseball game and that his brother became intoxicated and fell from the track as they were returning home. He said they thumbed a ride and that the driver of the car mistook his brother's intoxicated condition for an attempted hold-up.

Kentucky House Floor Leader Taken By Death

faculty and practised dentistry in Louisville until the beginning of his army service. In 1916 Dr. Hill entered the army, seeing active service on the Mexican border. During the World War he was a captain, serving in France for 13 months and participating in the Arzonne and Belleau Wood offensives. He played a part in one of the most spectacular of American war ventures when he was a member of the rescue party sent to the aid of the world-famed Lost Battalion. He was both wounded and gassed in France.

From 1919 to 1932, when he began taking an active part in politics, Dr. Hill practised his profession in Prestonsburg. In 1931 he was elected to the Kentucky house of representatives and with his reelection in 1933 became one of the most influential figures in the state administration. He became floor leader of the House at the 1934 regular session and served in the same capacity during the recent special session. One of the legislative works in which Dr. Hill took greatest pride was enactment of the free textbook bill which he sponsored.

Aside from his achievements in military and official record, Dr. Hill's ordinary walks of life were such that he was highly respected and held the friendship of all who knew him. He leaves his widow, Mrs. Mary Emma Pumpfrey Hill, one son, Jack Kendall Hill, three daughters, Myra, Mary Alex and Edna Joe; his mother, Mrs. Alice Endicott; and one sister, Miss Josephine Hill, of Banner; a brother, Dr. W. J. Hill, of Stone; and two half-sisters, Mrs. Fannie Ward and Mrs. Hazel Shepherd, both of Banner.

Funeral services were held at the home Thursday afternoon, with burial following in the family cemetery under the direction of E. P. Arnold.

May and Ramey to Fight Congressional Battle

Floyd county polled a comparatively light vote, owing to the "pull" in the campaign caused by the illness of Dr. Hill and withdrawal of Doug Hays from the race. The election passed quietly in the county and count of the vote was completed here by 2 o'clock Monday afternoon.

In the Republican race in this county, Mrs. Langley led S. C. Ferguson, 1746 to 1575 votes. Ramey trailing far back with only 213 ballots. Magoffin county's vote gave the Republican nominee his big start to victory.

Congressman May carried every county in the district by large majorities, and lost only four precincts in this county, trailing in all four by only nine votes.

Nominees from other districts and majorities over their nearest opponents:

- First—Gregory, Democrat, 7,689; John W. Taylor, unopposed. Second—Cary, Democrat, Walter G. Newton, Republican, neither opposed. Third—O'Neal, Democrat 7,000; Drake, Republican, 4,000 (returns incomplete). Fourth—Garden, Democrat, 9,217; Tudor, Republican, 332. Fifth—Spence, Democrat, 2,193; Newhall, Republican, unopposed. Sixth—Chapman, 7,613; Eighth—Winson, Democrat, 12,438; Ellison, Republican, 4,001. Ninth—Terrell, Democrat, 2,221; Robison, Republican, 8,765.

Business women from Kentucky, Tennessee, Virginia, Alabama, Florida, Georgia, Mississippi, District of Columbia and North Carolina will meet for hours of serious consideration of the conference theme, "Economic Security for All" but many recreational activities have been planned. There will be music typical of the beautiful Blue Ridge country, costume dances and picnic suppers.

Reverners Return With Repeals Raids Are Made In This Section

They are not prohibition officers now, nor are the charges which they lodge against law violators termed violations of the prohibition laws. All that passed when repeal came. They're your old-time "reverners" seeking seeking operators of "moonshine" stills. But they usually term the violation "operating an unlicensed distillery."

And the "reverners" are getting pretty active in these parts. County officers are giving them valuable assistance, and "moonshining" is getting rather hazardous. In Pike county, U. S. agents warred on shiners throughout last week, capturing three alleged still operators. At Weeksbury, this county, they nabbed Charles Jones, who, they charge, operated a still which they destroyed. County officers figured in the capture of a 60-gallon still on Brainerd's Creek. This comes Tuesday of last week, Willie Hall was arrested and placed under $500 bond by Magistrate Dewey Roberts, who with County Patrolman Harold Conn, Walker Hall and Dewey Roberts made the raid. Four gallons of blackberry brandy were a part of the haul in this raid.

On some of the raids made by federal men, U. S. Commissioner Fred Atkinson is a raider. But he is armed only with a portable typewriter and legal blanks for use when search of buildings is necessary.

TWO WOMEN AMONG THOSE SHOT

(Continued from page one) A member of the Willard Johnson faction told The Times Monday that Tivis Cole, Shelley Thidon and Sterling Johnson fired into the home of McKinley Johnson from the road in front of the house, wounding the two women. He also said that Tivis Cole fired a shotgun into the Stewart home, wounding the five men with one charge. This report claims that about 15 shots were fired into McKinley Johnson's home. The other faction, however, places the blame elsewhere, and the affair is so muddled that only a grand jury investigation will reduce it to any semblance of clarity. Willie and Tommy Cole were jailed here Sunday after they were alleged to have confederated in trouble created at Melvin about two weeks ago.

ATTEND FUNERAL

Among those from a distance who attended the funeral here Wednesday of Dr. A. L. Hill were: Mrs. E. L. Stephens, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Ramey, of Salyersville; George B. Martin, of Catlettsburg; Mrs. Steve Piarat, of Mt. Sterling; Mrs. Martha Barrett, Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Sanders, Senator E. D. Stephenson and son, John H. Hatcher, Zach Justice, all of Pikeville; D. S. Keenan, John Smith and Mr. Funk, of Ashland; Dr. W. J. Hill and A. J. May, of Stone.
