HUGE THROG AT WARFIELD PICNIC HERE ON TUESDAY

Event is Largest of Kind Ever Staged in This Section

A perfect day, a crowd numbering between 3,500 and 4,000 persons from all parts of this section of Kentucky, all perfectly behaved, contrived, with the arrangement of a complete and excellently arranged program, to make the Warfield Natural Gas Company employees picnic at the Abbott Heights Country Club, near here, Tuesday, the largest and best event of its kind ever staged in this section. Throughout the day, the crowd which thronged the fairways and grove of the golf course marveled at the thoroughness with which the gas company had prepared for the day's festivities. A wrestling and prize ring had been imported from Huntington—tables in the grove for lunch—seats at the ringside—ice cream, soft drinks and peanuts—250 chickens prepared for visitors. The program of the day started at 9 o'clock sharp. Joe Lusk's band of 25 pieces from Huntington started with music which regaled the crowd throughout the day. H. R. Eastwood, of the Warfield Natural Gas Company's Charleston office, at the "mike" made announcements and during the day he drew more compliments, perhaps, than any single feature of the day. Following the address of welcome delivered by J. P. Chenoweth, special representative of the Warfield Natural Gas Company, Chenoweth, the crowd, led by the band, sang "My Country, 'Tis of Thee," "Old (Continued on page five)

900 HERE RETURN TO SCHOOL WORK

Enrollment Even With 1933; Schools Open With Immediate Work Plans Laid

Nine hundred boys and girls went back to "happy school days" this week with the opening of the Prestonsburg schools Monday morning. These figures include enrollment for the Prestonsburg high and graded schools and the graded schools in West Prestonsburg and the Porter Addition. As nearly as could be arranged, the schools picked up here Monday morning where they left off at the close of the 1933-34 term. There was no special program. The schools opened, subjects were assigned; everybody was ready for work. In the high school here 280 are enrolled. Four hundred sixty are in the Prestonsburg graded school; at Porter, 30, and in the West Prestonsburg school, 130. This enrollment is about the same as last year's at this date. Superintendent Ishmael H. Triplett said. Enrollment increases each year as the term continues.

SPECIAL OFFER
The Times' special offer of a one-year subscription for only $1 has been extended to Sept. 15. Your opportunity to get the paper at this low rate positively will end on that date.

Hueysville Woman, 66, Dies Suddenly Sept. 8

Hueysville, Ky., Sept. 8 (Sp.)—Mrs. Elender Amberg, one of this section's pioneer women, passed away here last Tuesday night at 1 o'clock after an illness of several months. She was brought here from Northern, Ky., to the home of a daughter, Mrs. Andy Reed, about a week before her death, which came unexpectedly, although it had been known for some time that her condition was grave. Eighty-six years old, Mrs. Amberg was a typical, old-fashioned mountain woman and was held in the highest esteem by hundreds of friends and relatives throughout this section. She had been a devout member of the Regular Baptist Church for many years.

Most of Mrs. Amberg's declining years were spent with three of her daughters, Mesdames Andy Reed and Monroe Estlin of this place, and Malcolm Gearheart, of North, near here, who, with one daughter, Mrs. Wiley Dyer, of Hindman, and one son, Rev. John Amberg, of this place, were present at her funeral. Burial was made Thursday morning in the Allen cemetery on Salt Lick Creek, with the Revs. Malcolm Wright and A. J. Moore, of the Baptist church officiating.

Followers of the fortunes of the Prestonsburg Blackcats will be given an opportunity to see the 'Cats in action for the first time this season on the gridiron Saturday when they play Kermit (W. Va.) high school here. Prospects of a strong team here are bright, and a large opening game crowd is expected to be out to give the Blackcats the "kick" over their opposition strong enough to make the local eleven work for a win, if win it does. Season tickets to the Blackcat home games were placed on sale this week. Interest in the team is greater this year than usual, and the football faithful are determined to give the boys full support. Game time is 2:30 p. m.—get your roots in togs on.

INTERESTING TOPICS ARE DISCUSSED AT CLUB MEETING HERE

Subjects of vital interest to Prestonsburg were discussed by members of the Business & Professional Women's Club Friday evening when the club was guest of the meeting at the Valley Inn. Miss Minnie G. Harris presided as program chairman. Dr. M. J. Leete and C. D. Mabry, chairman of the Kiwanis public relations committee, were in charge of the entire program. The B. & P. W. program follows: Discussion of the need of cleaner streets and vacant lots in Prestonsburg was made by Miss Virgie McCombs. Miss Mae K. Kenney outlined Girl Scout and Girl Reserve activities in the local high school sponsored by the Business & Professional Women's Club. Need of a traffic light at the intersection of Court street with the Maye Trull at the Baptist Church here was pointed out in a talk by Mrs. Victoria Spradlin. The meeting was well-attended, and the program offered was one of much interest.

LEGION FIGURES IN PIERCY CASE

Post Members Ask Pardon Without Full Knowledge of Case

Investigation instituted by The Courier-Journal into the pardon of Lawrence Piercy, convicted robber of the Fayetteville National Bank, found his way last week into Floyd county where 26 members of the Legion are reported to have signed a petition urging Governor Laffoon to extend clemency to Piercy. A newspaper check-up on signatures of Legion members here to have Piercy pardoned revealed that the Legionnaires themselves or told a fellow-member to sign for them. Some of the signers said that they were not aware of the importance of the case until it was called to their attention last week. Piercy was represented in the petition as an overseas veteran who, so far as the Legion signers knew, had never had a criminal record. As a matter of fact, Piercy himself, testified at his trial in the Johnson circuit court that he signed a petition for his pardon which was never overruled also show that he has a long crime record. Piercy was given a 20-year penitentiary term when convicted of the bank robbery in 1928. The bank robbery, Jennings, who was given a like sentence to Piercy's release. The Governor released Piercy on the grounds that he was convicted through the circumstances of "mistaken identity." Several persons testified that Piercy was in Lexington at the time of the robbery, but some of these were revealed as having had unsavory records. The court of appeals affirmed the Piercy sentence, and Judge J. F. Bailey, who presided at the trial, stated that Piercy was given every legal opportunity to establish an alibi in court. Certain members of the Legion post here this week said that they propose to file a statement asserting their opposition to crime and denying their intention to take part in any move to defeat the workings of justice. Two of the Legionnaires who signed the pardon petition, now fully aware of the import of the case, have announced their intention of signing this statement.

This county's school fund will be $156,182.40, with an additional $8,688.40 for the town of Prestonsburg. The county of Fayette will receive $63,718.80 and the city of Lexington will get $117,600. School money this year is distributed on a per capita basis of $11.60.

HELM ASSIGNED TO FAIRMONT PULPIT

To Preach Final Sermon of Local Pastorate Sunday Morning

The Rev. J. M. Helm Sunday morning at 11 o'clock will deliver the last sermon of his pastorate with the Prestonsburg M. E. Church, South, since he leaves next week to assume the pastorate of the Fairmont, W. Va., M. E. Church, South. The Reverend Helm was transferred to the Fairmont church when assignments to pastors were made at the Methodist conference in Beckley, W. Va. Two weeks ago, he completed four years of service in the church here, and this week he is inviting the public in general to attend the Sunday services at his church which will be his final appearance in the local pulpit. Though the many friends of Reverend and Mrs. Helm here regret their departure, the transfer in pastorate comes by way of a promotion, since Fairmont is the local pulpit of about 20,000 population and affords a wider field of endeavor. Succeeding Rev. Helm will be the Rev. H. F. King, of Barboursville, W. Va., pastor at Fairmont, W. Va., during the past year. The Reverend King has been professor of Religious Education at Morris Harvey College, Barboursville, and is a minister of much ability. The Rev. O. P. Smith, dean of the Methodist church in this county, leaves the Allen circuit after nine years of service in the Beaver valley. He has been transferred to Centenary Church, Ashland. The Reverend Smith in his years of work in this county has won the respect and affection of the people, and leaves the county with reluctance, but this appointment, as in the case of that of Reverend Helm, is an advancement in his work. His successor is the Rev. S. J. Campbell, of Crichton, W. Va. Rev. I. S. Tyler, presiding elder of the Ashland district, was re-appointed. Rev. G. W. Twyman, pastor of First Church, Ashland, becomes presiding elder of the Clarksburg district, and the Rev. Guy Coffman succeeds him as pastor of the Ashland churches. In separate brackets, the following ministers in this section were returned to their pastorate of the past year: W. L. Carter, Pikeville; R. T. Webb, Pikeville; H. G. Sowards, Louisiana.

DR. HALL RETAINS GOLF CHAMPIONSHIP

Dr. Paul B. Hall, of Paintsville, Sunday further demonstrated his superiority in the realm of Big Sandy golf by defeating his brother, Lon, three and four, to defend successfully his title of Big Sandy golf champion. In separate brackets, the Hall brothers fought their way into the finals with steady exhibitions. Denny Blair, the Wayland youth who hits them a mile from the tee, was probably more spectacular, but lost Saturday to Lon Hall, 1 up, when his touch around the greens left him. Dr. Hall defeated "Pete" Hogman, of Pikeville, Saturday in the semi-finals. Dr. Hall's victory leaves the Big Sandy tournament next week with Paintsville. Delmas Saunders was taken Monday to the Pikeville hospital for an appendicitis operation.

MARTIN MEN HOOK BIG PIKE IN PIKE COUNTY

A report from Martin says that four fishermen from there, with Rad Harris, of Pike county, caught a 36 inch pike in the Big Sandy river above Pikeville, last week. Twenty-five other large fish were hooked, the report says. The Floyd county fishermen were Oscar Arrington, Ad Thacker, J. D. Adams and Norman Akers. Arrington was bit on his arm in landing the whopper catch. The "biggest 'un," of course, got away.

Auto Injuries May Be Fatal to Garrett Youth

Delmar Huff, son of Alphonse Huff, of Garrett, is reported to have been seriously, perhaps fatally, injured in an automobile wreck last week in Los Angeles, Calif. His parents left last week for Los Angeles after having been informed, it is said, that he was expected to die. Young Huff had been employed in California with the Citizens Conservation Corps. He is about 19 years old.

BULLET VICTIM IS BURIED AT MARTIN

Wife of Gaylord Clark Held to Bond in Husband's Death

Body of Gaylord Clark, 27 years old, who was shot and fatally wounded by his wife in Williamson, W. Va., Friday night, was brought to Martin Sunday and burial was made there Monday under the direction of G. D. Ryan. Mrs. Clark was arrested and is under $5,000 bond, it was said this week. She is quoted as saying that she fired a shot from a .32 calibre revolver to frighten her husband. The bullet struck a drain pipe, and glancing, struck Clark in his left lung. He lived two hours after being wounded. Besides his widow, the victim is survived by one daughter, his mother, Mrs. Nannie Henstl, Columbus, O., four half-sisters and by one brother, Ed Clark, of Martin. Funeral rites were conducted by Rev. C. H. Nicholas, of Prestonsburg.

EXPECT 50 TEAMS AT SAFETY MEET

Huge Crowd To Witness Mine Safety Contests at Pikeville Saturday

Fifty first-aid teams are expected to take part in the state mine safety contest to be held in Pikeville Saturday, it was said last week. Five thousand visitors are expected to be attracted to Pikeville for the day. Teams to enter the first-aid contests will be from the following coal companies: Inland Steel, Glogora, Elkhorn-Piney, United Elkhorn, Pike Floyd, North East, Utilities Elkhorn, West Elkhorn, Fordson, Pond Creek and Edgewater. A team will also be entered by the Kentucky & West Virginia Power Company. One hundred judges, two for each team, will officiate during the contests. The meeting, according to prediction of District Mine Inspector D. E. Vaughan, will be one of the largest ever held in this section. A feature of the day's program will be a dust explosion demonstration to represent a typical mine hazard. Mines from Floyd, Pike, Johnson, Letcher, Perry, Bell, Harlan, and represented.

RELIEF WORKER HERE ARRESTED; WORK IS HALTED

Fiscal Court Attacks KERA Methods, Refuses Supplies

Donald Braden, clerk in the relief office here, was arrested Thursday on a warrant charging him with "spreading and giving out false reports in reference to relief orders by telling applicants to call on the courts or the county judge's office to obtain same, which is untrue." His bond was fixed at $200 for his appearance in county court Saturday. The warrant was sworn out by Willis Vaughan and Parker Woods. The relief office here bears the sign: "Closed by order of the fiscal court. See court for relief." Mr. Braden expressed surprise that he had committed an offense. In the meantime, county officials to whom relief applicants had been sent held that Braden had directed applicants to them when it was known that they could do nothing toward their relief. Relief is "out" in Floyd county. The fiscal court in session here Tuesday unanimously voted that it was its wish that the administration of relief in the county cease and refused to grant requests of J. S. Murphy, area administrator, asking for office quarters and supplies. Action of the court followed Mr. Murphy's announcement that a typewriter, a desk and other articles were needed for the office. Magistrate M. C. Wright, acting as spokesman for the court in invitation to County Judge W. L. Stumbo, boldly denounced the relief administration in the county. One of the provisions of the relief administration is that the county in which relief work is being done furnish office quarters and supplies. Until these provisions are met, it was said Tuesday, there will be no relief in Floyd. Magistrate Wright alleged that only a few workers get the relief money while the people who need relief get nothing. He also alleged that the fiscal court had received no cooperation from the relief office, that foodstuffs shipped into this county for distribution had been permitted to spoil and that the relief workers are not discharging their duties properly. ARE YOU INTERESTED?

By Rev. Josef Nordenhaug

What a tremendous difference it makes in a man's work if he is interested in it! If he lacks interest, the work becomes necessarily a drudgery. If he is genuinely interested in it, it is a joy. This holds true, also, of school work the difference between two pupils otherwise of equal mentality, in their attitude toward a certain topic, makes one learn it and do it the other to perpetual failure. Why can a boy remember by heart a detective story which he reads but once, while a history lesson which he might have read ten times is forgotten before the teacher calls on him? It is because he is interested in the detective story but not in the history lesson.

We shall not here discuss the comparative value of detective stories and history, but simply state that interest results from a fired imagination. It may be that, also, the sense of participation enters into the explanation for the presence or lack of interest. Children as well as grown people crave self-expression. Children will re-enact what they see and hear if it is interesting to them.

It is an evident fact that people lack interest in religion today, especially in our own community. Christ did at his own time fire the imagination of men with the message of the kingdom of God where righteousness rules and people dwell together in peace. He proposed to conquer sin with spiritual weapons. He chose a handful of followers to carry on that battle. They and their converts conquered the world. Today unnumbered millions have caught the same vision and at whatever cost they are intent on carrying on the message of the Cross. Any man with red blood in his veins cannot fail to be gripped and thrilled by such a stupendous quest. If a man should fail to possess interest when he is put face to face with the Gospel, it can be only one of two explanations for it. First, he might simply be too dull to be interested in great things, or, secondly, he might be ignorant of the reality of the spiritual life in Christ.

It must be left to the reader, then, to deduct the reason for the apparent lack of interest in the work of the church. But here is all that any imagination could crave and a boundless latitude in opportunities for self-expression. In fact, from the church has sprung all the social institutions of service, like the hospitals and social welfare organizations we have in the world today. And greatest of all, the quest for souls! Humanity about us is teeming with interest; Heaven above us likewise. Are you interested?

Collections To Improve, Says Land Bank Official

Louisville, Ky., Sept. 13—Applications for farm mortgage loans filed with the Federal Land Bank of Louisville and the Land Bank Commissioners scored a moderate increase for August, with 2,734 applications received for a total of $10,624,800. Corresponding figures for July were 2,186 applications totaling $8,881,900, and 2,137 applications for $7,414,700 in June, farm credit administration of Louisville officials announced today. "There has been a leveling off in the rate of loan applications to a fairly steady monthly inflow, following a peak of about 8,500 per month reached last winter," stated A. G. Brown, executive vice-president of the Federal Land Bank of Louisville.

"The great backlog of applications and uncompleted loans which unavoidably accumulated during the flood of applications in the months immediately following enactment of the Emergency Farm Mortgage Act last year is fast disappearing," Mr. Brown said. Loans closed by the Federal Land Bank of Louisville in August numbered 5,623 for a total of $12,391,800. At the close of business on August 31, marking the completion of the first eight months of the calendar year, loans actually closed since January 1 by the Federal Land Bank and the land bank commissioner for the states of Ohio, Indiana, Kentucky and Tennessee totaled $111 for the sum of $118,856,000. Of this great sum, about 90 per cent represents the refinancing of farmers' debts rather than an increase in the total farm indebtedness. The vast volume of new mortgage lending program of the farm credit administration of Louisville is one of the largest factors in the business recovery throughout this territory.

"The four states comprising the Fourth Federal Land Bank district, as a whole, have suffered comparatively little from drought," Mr. Brown continued. "Crops in many sections are of bumper proportions, with the hog market displaying the longest continuous rise in years and reaching prosperity levels, corn around the 80c mark, wheat and other small grains selling well above production cost level, and with an excellent outlook for a tobacco price profitable to growers. Farm Credit Administration officials confidently anticipate a high rate of loan and interest payments as these products are marketed, and expect that such delinquency in payments as has been occasioned by the low prices of recent years will be largely wiped out. Borrowers from the Federal Land Bank of Louisville appreciate the lenient and sympathetic treatment which they have received regarding delinquencies arising in times of adversity, and we are depending upon them to pay on their land mortgage loans the full share of this year's farm income which rightly should be apportioned to the servicing of their debts."

New Auto Safety Glass Now Required by Eight States. Eight states now have passed laws requiring safety glass in motor vehicles, some of them requiring all glass throughout the cars to be of this type. This was pointed out yesterday by S. B. Howard, of Howard Motor Company, local Ford dealers. The states that now require safety glass throughout or have passed laws requiring it next year include Indiana, Iowa, Michigan, Nebraska, New Jersey, New York, Pennsylvania and Virginia, said Mr. Howard. And in Massachusetts it is required in all windshields.

"Ford is in particularly advantageous position in this respect for more than six years ago the company began equipping every car with a safety glass windshield. In the deluxe models safety glass is used all around. And to make possible to have this safety feature throughout the entire car at only a moderate additional investment, the Ford Motor Company recently announced a drastic reduction of standard models with safety glass throughout.

"The trend toward the use of safety glass undoubtedly will greatly reduce automobile injuries, for authoritative surveys have shown that 15 per cent of injuries in motor vehicle accidents have come from glass.

"The safety glass now used on Ford cars is an improved quality. It has a film of cellulose acetate between two sheets of glass—a more expensive product than that formerly used, but it retains its original transparency for years."

IMPROVED SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

Lesson for September 16

ISAIAH CONTRASTS FALSE AND TRUE WORSHIP

LESSON TEXT—Isaiah 1:1-26. GOLDEN TEXT—Who shall ascend into the heavens? He that shall stand in his holy place; He that shall cleanse hands, and a pure heart; who shall not lie upon his gold vanity, nor swear deceitfully. Psalm 24:3-4. PRIMARY TOPIC—Telling God We're Sorry. JUNIOR TOPIC—When God's People Sin. INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—What is True Worship? YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—The Nature of True Worship.

Isaiah's visions present the redemptive purpose of God through the consummation of the Messianic Kingdom. The first verse is the title. The book contains prophetic utterances of earlier and later dates. Chapter 1, from which our lesson is taken, contains the divine arraignment of the people for their sin.

1. Fullal Ingratitude (v. 2). The universe is summoned to hear the Jew's complaint against God. Israel for their base ingratitude and even rebellion. In spite of God's care, they persisted in sin and in violation of their covenant with God.

2. Their awful condition (v. 3). Brunt stipulancy (v. 3). The ox and the ass are reverentially stilled, but Israel's stupidity, excused their sin. Israel would not recognize God as her rightful sovereign or acknowledge him as the author of her mercies (v. 4).

3. Habitual evil-doers (v. 4). They were not sinners in outward act merely, but in nature and heart were laden with iniquity. By heredity they passed their vices from generation to generation.

4. Their Consequent Miseries (vv. 5-6). Their perversity (v. 5). The household of God had been laid upon them; but this failed to do them good. Their afflictions were followed by deeper and more heinous sins.

5. Their awful condition (v. 6). The calamity which befell them extended to all classes.

6. The condition of their country (vv. 7-8). Revolt from God and invasions from without left their country desolate. Physical ruin always follows spiritual disobedience.

7. Assurance to a remnant (v. 9). God's purposes cannot fail. A remnant was saved in Israel. This is strikingly set forth in the ninth chapter of Romans.

8. Formal Worship Rebuked (v. 10-15). Notwithstanding the calamities visited upon them, they did not neglect the observance of religious rites and ceremonies. They punctiliously observed the forms of religion while indulging in iniquitous practices.

9. God does not derive benefit from the practice of religious rites and religious sacrifices (v. 11). Our worship and service are not for God's profit, but for that of ourselves.

10. God's attitude toward formal worship (v. 12-14). The very rites and ceremonies which God ordained for the purpose of helping men to approach him become disgusting and repulsive to him when formally indulged.

11. Every act of worship while the heart and hands are steeped with iniquity only incite the divine anger.

12. An Amassed Life God's Requirement (v. 16-20). Though the nation had so grievously sinned, their case was not hopeless. However, in order to enjoy his mercy there must be:

1. A cleansing (v. 16). "Wash you, make you clean." The washing by water symbolized the cleansing by the blood of the Son of God.

2. "Put away the evil of your doings" (v. 18). "Cease to do evil" (v. 10). Genuine repentance causes one to desist from the practice of sin.

3. "Learn to do well" (v. 17). One can only cease to do evil by learning to do well.

4. "Such judgment" (v. 17). Burdens should be removed from the oppressed, justice should be meted out to the fatherless, and the widows should be befriended.

5. Encouragement to come to God (v. 18). Though their guilt was great and the judgment which befell them was awful, God's pardoning and cleansing grace was sufficient.

6. Promise and a Warning (vv. 19, 20). The promise (v. 19). They were to eat the good of the land on the condition of a strenuous will and an obedient life—God's terms.

7. A solemn warning (v. 20). Refusal to hear God's appeal and rebellion against God's demands would result in being devoured with the sword.

Prayer And what God can do, prayer can do; for prayer binds God, because it is the prayer of faith; and faith is the flame of faith, the vent (outcome or utterance) of faith; and faith is a victorious triumphant grace with God himself.—Richard Sibbes.

GARRETT Enrollment Breaks Record. The Garrett consolidated school enrollment, we believe, surpasses its own past record as well as that of other schools of the county. Last week, 775 enrolled as students and high school graduates. The number continues to increase as new members take their place on Monday. We wish to correct a statement made in last week's paper concerning the donors of the American flag to the Garrett school. The flag was given by the Daughters of America instead of the D. A. R., as was stated. John Golles, of Hillsboro, Ky., spent a few days here last week, attending court.

During the morning, a checker tournament was held and six sets of horseshoe tossers were out after the horseshoe pitching champion ship. In the meantime, a steady string of cars poured into the picnic grounds. At one time, 718 autos were counted on the grounds.

Following the picnic-lunch from 12 to 1 o'clock in the grove, the program was resumed. Al Snyder, Charleston, W. Va., mystified the credulous and incredulous with sleight-of-hand magic. Then followed the program of races: the 50 yard dash for boys under 16 years, the 50 yard dash for girls of the same age, the three-legged race, the fat-man's race, the 100-yard dash for men, the tug-o-war. A pipe smoking contest intervened, with a golf driving and putting contest being added attractions.

Meanwhile, Mr. Leslie, a flier from Pikeville, took more than 200 visitors to the picnic bluff for airplane rides. W. J. Davis, Huntington flier, bar-rerolled, and otherwise stunted above the crowd. Shortly after noon, Johnny Thompson, Dunbar, W. Va., made a parachute jump from "Dave's" plane, making a perfect landing on the golf course.

Shortly before the wrestling and boxing contests started, Miss Lucille Leard, daughter of R. C. Leard, field superintendent of the Warfield Natural Gas Company here, entertained the crowd with a neat exhibition of tap-dancing.

Meanwhile, Geneva was delecting Boldman, 5-2, at Gasco Park at baseball, and Warco was licking Boldman at soft ball.

A four-minute amateur amateur wrestling match first occupied the ring, and this was followed by three four-round boxing bouts. Johnny Roberts, of Huntington, and "Tuffy" Griffith, of Paintsville, then working for each other, hammer and-tones, in six-round professional bout which was called a draw.

Robt put on the steam at cer-tain junctures and neither was disgraced by his exhibition. The old fiddlers' contest followed. Then the tug o-war, and, lastly, the rainstorm at the end of a day made to order for the occasion.

From the golf course, the scene shifted to the new Prestonsburg gymnasium, where from 8 to 11 o'clock Tuesday night they round and-square danced to the music of the pit-fiddlers orchestra from Allen.

Event winners and prizes awarded follow:
 Horseshoes—Eugene Field and B. B. Perdue, first prize, box of cigars.

Checker—B. D. Porter, first prize, knife, Mr. Spencer, second, checkerboard.

Soft ball game—Warco, box of cigars.

Fifty-yard dash for boys—Bascom Clark, gold medal; Doug Smith, second, silver medal; Pipe smoking contest—E. P. Hill, Jr., first prize, pipe and tin of tobacco; Woodrow Calhoun, second, 2-pound can of tobacco.

Three-legged race—Marjorie George and Herb Howell, first, shaving set; Arthur Johns, Archer and Gardner Smith, second, combination set.

Fat man's ace—Mr. Hall, first, thermos jug; Mr. Dial, second, bill fold.

Miss Opal Parslev was in Huntington last week guest of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Dial.

Lexington, Ky., Sept. 13. Six of the ten games to be played by the University of Kentucky football team this fall will be in Lexington, including the curtain raiser with Maryville College, which will take place September 22 on Stoll Field. The Generals of Washington and Lee, who conquered the Wildcats last year at Roanoke, Va., will meet Kentucky here on the following Saturday afternoon, September 29.

One of the feature games of the schedule will be with Auburn, the first Southeastern Conference foe to be met this season by the Wildcats. This also will mark the first time in history that the Kentucky Wildcats and the Auburn Plainsmen have met, although Auburn played Centre College a few years ago when "Red" Roberts, Bo McMillin and the other famous Centre stars were in their glory. Auburn was the winner.

This Auburn-Kentucky game, which will be played October 27, will have particular attraction because of the fact that Chet Wynne, new Wildcat head coach and athletic director, coached at Auburn last spring. When Wynne went to Auburn as head coach, the Plainsmen had not won a conference game in years and were called "dead pushovers." After three years, Wynne developed a conference championship team at Auburn. Kentucky supporters believe that the former Notre Dame star fullback can repeat his success with the Wildcats.

Other Southeastern Conference foes of the Wildcats this year are Alabama, Tulane and Tennessee. Alabama will provide the homecoming attraction here November 3, and Tulane will come to Lexington November 17. Kentucky will close the season Thanksgiving day with the Tennessee Volunteers at Knoxville.

RELIEF WORKER HERE ARRESTED

Mr. Murphy told The Times Tuesday that he had been arrested by a member of the fiscal court that, if he would accept relief workers from a list supplied by the four magistrates, the court would cooperate. An authority of Thornton W. Wilcox, state relief head, he refused to do this, claiming that the present corps of home-visitors are doing good work. It was inferred that this was the court's reason for refusing to comply with Murphy's requests for supplies and office rent.

Magistrate Wright said that he had asked Mr. Murphy for a list of persons on direct relief in his district and that this list had not been supplied. The magistrates contended that, if they had been given this information, they could have determined who needed help and not getting it.

In a statement to The Times Tuesday Mr. Murphy said: "At a meeting of the fiscal court today, Sept. 11, in Magistrate Jim Clark's office, it was unanimously voted that it was the wish of the fiscal court that all relief by the KERA would cease. Those present were Judge W. L. Stumbo, Magistrates Dewey Roberts, Malcolm Wright, Clark, Magistrate Willie Hall being absent.

"It is the wish of the KERA to take care of all needy relief cases in this county and we stand ready to do this when the fiscal court signifies its wish that this be done and when it complies with certain regulations that have been set out before it.

"Mr. Howard Hunter authorizes me to say that the investigation will be carried on by either the state or federal agencies or both."

Notified in Louisville that the fiscal court here had ordered relief work stopped. Mr. Wilcox, state relief administrator said: "They aren't conducting the relief work and they can't stop it, but we have acceded to their request. They wanted to name the relief personnel. When they ask us for relief we'll do it, but we'll do it with our own staff."

At least one federal investigation and probably three will make an investigation to relief conditions in Floyd county, it was said this week. A corps of federal agents is being sent into Kentucky, with the Floyd county situation one specified as under the proposed probe.

The relief discussion held between fiscal court members and Mr. Murphy Tuesday, as reported by a stenographer for the relief administrator, follows:

Judge Stumbo: Mr. Wright, you are the oldest member of our court, we will hear from you first.

Mr. Wright: I can always say what I think about any thing that has been raised in Floyd county and have been raised as hard as anybody. Nobody was ever starved to death in Floyd county and I raised ten children. There was never anything that brought as much laziness to Floyd county as the relief has done.

Judge Stumbo: You are right.

Mr. Wright: There has been more looting in Floyd county since the relief has been here than there ever was before. And it has been handled in such a way that the people who really need relief don't get it. There are ten thousand things I could say about it. I feel that the best thing that can be done is to vote it out, get it clear out of the county. A few workers get the money and the people who really need relief don't get it. That is the way I feel about it.

Judge Stumbo: You are right.

Mr. Wright: I feel like we are not getting to starve, they call us all corn crackers any way and we could make hominy, Mr. Murphy, and live. I see the people running back and forth and feel like we would be doing the county a great accommodation to take it all out of Floyd county.

Judge Stumbo: And all other

Unique Theater Program. Offering For Week Of Sept. 7-13. "Near Trail's End", "Cock-eyed Cavaliers", "Manhattan Melodrama", "Hollywood Party", "Journal of a Crime", "The Fighting Ranger".

Sound as Good as the Best

Mr. Wright: And all other counties too, and leave it out. Judge Stumbo: Is that your motion?

Mr. Wright: That is my motion.

Judge Stumbo: Do I have a second?

Mr. Murphy: Just a minute please. May I have a word?

Mr. Wright: If we are going to have relief let's have somebody we can depend on in the county. I know we have a few honest men in Floyd county and we have had no co-operation from the relief office. I have asked for a list of the persons on relief and they wouldn't give it to me. Some of the stuff that went to the stores laid there and rotted. Some of the butter spoiled and some of the lard. Some potatoes that were supposed to be planted laid there and rotted.

Mr. Wright: I know some of it was wasted. Some of the butter spoiled and some of the potatoes were in bad shape. Read all the names of the home visitors here now.

Mr. Murphy: Lucille Loar, Prudence Stone, Wilma May, Lora Martin, Annabelle Herford, Belle Mills, Edna Prater, Edna Lee Burke, Fred Tackett, Robert Milkey, Ernest Hopkins, and John Howell. They are the home visitors we have now and they are a good bunch of home visitors.

Judge Stumbo: Every man has his own opinion of this relief and they are entitled to their own opinion. My judgment is that the home visitors ought to get out in the heads of these creeks. I know a man who doesn't even know about the relief. He had a boy who is bleeding all over. I sent him home. He was bleeding from his eyeballs. He didn't even know about his relief. I can pick ten men that can cover this county and cover it right and it don't take 30 seconds to do it either. They would let these people know about the relief. They would cover the entire county.

Mr. Murphy: It is not the duty of the home visitors to look for people who need relief. The people needing relief must make application. They can write in about it or send in. They seem to write quite a few letters.

Judge Stumbo: You had just as well give them a ticket and fifty dollars and tell them to go to the Fair. Lots of people have no clothes to come in with. They can't write in either. There are places where you go two or three miles before vent bad, you are right. Some of the potatoes went bad, but I want to tell you that it was not the fault of the relief office. We put out the C. D. L.'s and gave them to the persons and they were just too lazy to go and get the stuff.

Mr. Wright: They went all right but they didn't get anything. They would get the stuff out of the stores wouldn't give the stuff out.

Mr. Murphy: Did they take their slips and go there and then not get the commodities?

Mr. Wright: They didn't have orders and they wouldn't give the stuff out. It just stayed there and rotted.

Mr. Murphy: When did this happen, Mr. Wright?

Mr. Wright: Last April.

Judge Stumbo: We have heard at Allen, that has been there ever since last March and we have some seed potatoes that were supposed to have been planted. Read all the names of the home visitors here now.

Mr. Wright: Lucille Loar, Prudence Stone, Wilma May, Lora Martin, Annabelle Herford, Belle Mills, Edna Prater, Edna Lee Burke, Fred Tackett, Robert Milkey, Ernest Hopkins, and John Howell. They are the home visitors we have now and they are a good bunch of home visitors.

Judge Stumbo: Every man has his own opinion of this relief and they are entitled to their own opinion. My judgment is that the home visitors ought to get out in the heads of these creeks. I know a man who doesn't even know about the relief. He had a boy who is bleeding all over. I sent him home. He was bleeding from his eyeballs. He didn't even know about his relief. I can pick ten men that can cover this county and cover it right and it don't take 30 seconds to do it either. They would let these people know about the relief. They would cover the entire county.

Mr. Murphy: It is not the duty of the home visitors to look for people who need relief. The people needing relief must make application. They can write in about it or send in. They seem to write quite a few letters.

Judge Stumbo: You had just as well give them a ticket and fifty dollars and tell them to go to the Fair. Lots of people have no clothes to come in with. They can't write in either. There are places where you go two or three miles before you find a person who can write his name. In one neighborhood they only had one man in the whole community who could take the census only one in the whole district and he died a long time ago.

Dewey Roberts: Most of the home visitors have cars and a person who has a car don't need relief.

Mr. Murphy: But how would they get around?

Judge Stumbo: What is your vote?

Mr. Roberts: Take it out of the county.

Vote. Dewey Roberts— Move it out, Jim Clark—move it out, Malcolm Wright—move it out.
