BLACKCATS MOVE WITHIN GAME OF CONFERENCE TITLE

Defeat Pikeville Here Saturday, 13-6, in Early Scoring Spree

PAINTSVILLE NEXT

By Bob Potter
To Prestonsburg high school there came last Saturday honor and glory, and another long step was taken toward earning the right to wear the football crown over all the Big Sandy, Atasco Park the Black and Gold eleven equalized defeats of other years, made happy hundreds of followers, and lifted itself to a new place of prominence in Big Sandy leathardom by downing the Pikeville Panthers, 13 to 6.

The victory, hard-fought and well earned, came to the 'Cats because of superior strategy, a tornado-like beginning, consistent ball following and somebody's booting a football during hot summer days in the good year 1934.

In power, the Prestonsburg team was matched, even surpassed, by the Panthers' strategy in the first half. The Black-cats' 9; in zest and the will to win they had their equals. But the 'Cats' in line with our admiration, whether because of it or no, we shall make sure—used superior strategy during the contest. It is usually Pikeville's good fortune to capture. In their own territory they punted out of danger; their plays for the most part were well-timed; and there was sufficient surprise element to keep the namesakes of the jungle beasts guessing.

In addition to being smarter than the Pike county team, Harkey Mayo and his comrades out-jumped them at the opening. Such a whirlwind of a start the writer surely did not, and perhaps no other spectator, expect on the part of the Black-cats. Before Pikeville hardly knew what the game was all about, the Black-cats had seized the ball, and in a brilliant drive scored a touchdown and kicked a goal for a seven point lead. Mayo would have been enough to win, as things went; but rather early in the second quarter, by smart play, Prestonsburg ran over the Red and White marker to run the count to 13 to 0.

After the Ball

The third factor that we mentioned in the Watson-coached team's victory—consistent ball accomplishment—is made more apparent by the fact that the 'Cats intercepted five Pikeville passes and recovered. (Continued on page two)

CUNNINGHAM GAS PROPERTIES SELL

JONES LAYNE NUPTIALS ARE SOLEMNIZED HERE

Marriage of Miss Symbalene Jones and Mr. Joe Layne, both of Wayland, was solemnized here Tuesday, the Rev. H. H. Bolender, pastor of the Holiness Church, officiating.

The bride is a very attractive young lady and has been a student at Wayland high school, where she is quite popular. Mr. Layne is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Layne, former Prestonsburg residents, who now reside at Wayland, where Mr. Layne is chief of police. Both the bride and groom have many friends in this section who extend best wishes.

RETAIN COUNTY AGENT ISBELL

Fiscal Court Makes Appropriation for Farm Work; Fund Transferred

Work of Floyd county's agricultural agent was given approval by the official approval Thursday when the Floyd fiscal court in the last of a two day session unanimously voted an appropriation to continue the work of County Agent S. L. Isbell for another year.

This appropriation provides for Mr. Isbell's fifth year of work in the county, where he has made a splendid record with farmers as well as with 'oil boys and girls and tenor competing with representatives of counties from all parts of Kentucky. In four years demonstration teams he has coached have won one state title and were runners-up in two other years. His poultry judging team twice placed second, was in fourth place one year and was fifth in the other.

From the Special Fund, Oil, Debits and Interest, provided for in the budget, $3,771.75 were transferred to an emergency fund to be used for the needy and to assist in the maintenance of the relief office here. The transfer was made by the fiscal court and the budget commission.

Trustees of the Consolidation Coal Company were granted permission to construct and maintain a power line over highway and streams from a point .85 of a mile up Middle Creek .55 of a mile below the mouth of Abbott Creek.

NEW FURNITURE FOR CIRCUIT COURTROOM WILL BE INSTALLED

The recently renovated circuit courtroom will be outfitted before the opening of the December court term with new furniture, it was announced Wednesday upon the return here of County Attorney Forrest D. Short, County Clerk A. B. Meade and Magistrate Jim Clark from Huntington, where they received quotations on items necessary for the room.

The furniture will cost approximately $600, it was stated. Twelve jurors' chairs, the judge's chair, seats for attorneys, clerk and other court attendants will be provided. Furniture for the circuit judge's office, located back of the courtroom, will be purchased later, it was said.

NAB FEDERAL LAW VIOLATOR

Salyersville Man in Jail Here on Mail Fraud Charge; Confesses Guilt

Wayne Salyers, of Salyersville, was arraigned here Tuesday afternoon before U. S. Commissioner Fred Atkinson, of Paintsville, on a charge of using the mails in furtherance of a scheme to defraud. He had confessed his guilt to Post office Inspector Neah, of Salyersville Friday, and lodged him in the county jail here.

The charge against Salyers arose when he had made two purchases from the Chicago Mail Order Company and had issued "no funds" checks of $26.68 and $36.22 for merchandise. The first order and check was mailed from the last from Batavia, Ohio.

Miss Alkie Arnett, also of Magoffin county, is held in the Hamilton county jail at Cincinnati as Salyers' accomplice. Salyers will be transferred to the Southern District of Ohio, U. S. Court. He served a previous term in the Petersburg, Va., federal prison on a prohibition law violation.

WHEELWRIGHT IN ROLL CALL LEAD

Other Communities Make Excellent Reports; Quota To Be Reached, Belief

The Red Cross roll call is in full swing throughout the county. Chas. Sutherland is Wheelwright's chairman and reports 405 members, which is double the town's quota for this year. Wheelwright has all ways been the first Floyd community to reach its quota.

Turner Elkhorn, Driht, with B. F. Reed as chairman, comes next, and expects to reach its full quota. Maytown will exceed its goal, also Mrs. W. M. Ward is chairman there.

Reports have not been received from other places. The roll call chairman, Mrs. F. L. Heinze, has asked for an extension of time in order to go over the top. If you have not been solicited, please see one of the workers and join.

Watch the thermometer in the window of Francis Cash Store. If your name is not there, please see that it is placed there.

HARVEY W. CECIL TAKEN BY DEATH

Prominent Laysville Farmer Victim at Age of 75 Years

Harvey W. Cecil, prominent Laysville farmer and one of the county's best citizens, died Monday, Nov. 12, at the age of 75 years.

Born February 1, 1859, Mr. Cecil was the son of the late James and Polly Hatcher Cecil, pioneer residents of the county. He had spent almost his entire life in the vicinity of Laysville, where he was held in the highest esteem by all who knew him.

Surviving him are his widow, Mrs. Avarilla Cecil, eight sons and five daughters: William Cecil, Driver Center, O. Samuel Cecil, Banner, Ky. Thomas, of Coalrun; Prichard, of Betsy Layne; Mrs. Anna Laura Castle and Mrs. Mima Taylor, Boltman; Jack, Estill, McKinley, Willard, Mary, Edna and Earl, all of Harolds; one brother, William Cecil, Sr., of Tram, nine grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

The funeral service was conducted from the M. E. Church at Laysville Wednesday, November 14, Rev. Isaac Stratton, assisted by the Reverend Bates, officiating. Burial was made in the Ferguson cemetery.

GLEE CLUB TO SING

The glee club of Prestonsburg high school will sing at the Methodist Church Sunday morning at the 11 o'clock service. A special invitation to the high school students to attend church Sunday morning is extended by Rev. King.

LOCAL GROUP WINS

The young people from the local Methodist Church won the banner for attendance at the union meeting at Van Lear last Friday night. The union meeting was well attended and a splendid program on Missions and World Peace was given.

Tale Of Woe Was Connected With First Floyd Courthouse

Prestonsburg, Ky., October 25, 1808—Thomas Evans, contractor engaged in the construction here last year of Floyd county's first courthouse, appeared before the board of magistrates and told a tale of woe that ended in his being awarded a contract for another courthouse.

Last April, Mr. Evans asked the court to inspect the courthouse which he was constructing with a view to accepting it as completed, but the commissioners appointed by the court reported that it was by no means ready for use.

The contractor "in a lengthy, adroitly-worded petition told of his misfortune in the loss of the building by fire just when it was ready for acceptance by the county.

The petitioner, to quote from the records of the court, "humbly sheweth that he once undertook to build a courthouse... and that he had the same nearly ready for delivery... when the same was accidentally destroyed by fire in which said destruction your petitioner became loser in a very enormous sum for a poor man to lose... Should your worshipful court declare of record that the loss be wholly fall on your petitioner an acquiescence on the part of your petitioner will ensue. Yet your petitioner prays that the hardships on him might be lightly weighed by the court together with that of the county at large and on due consideration to determine whether an innocent sufferer should be mulcted in the whole of such damages as ensued by the unforeseen and unavoidable act of God or perhaps that of malevolence. In the meantime, you will consider that your petitioner is yet willing to build a courthouse."

Though the record does not reveal the amount of Mr. Evans' bid, he was awarded the contract on a new courthouse and executed $1,000 bond for its completion in a year. Specifications of the courthouse follow:

Twenty four feet long by 18 feet in width, of good heavy 1 1/2 story high, cracks chinked with stone and lined outside and in, covered with good shingles, two good floors, two jury rooms above stairs, and the lower floor entire of the court with justices' seat, clerk's table and lawyers' bar, with the necessary windows, sashes, glass, etc.

This week, 1934—This courthouse, we are told, was located on or near the present site of The First National Bank. A Thomas Evans, presumably the Evans who built the courthouse, was later Sheriff of Floyd county. His bond as Tax Collector for the year 1811 and 1812 was $1,275.00.

MRS. WILLIAMS DIES FOLLOWING OPERATION

Mrs. Dixie Lee Deskins Williams, 26 years old, of Betsy Layne, died at the Beaver Valley hospital, Martin, Nov. 12, a victim of a heart attack following an operation.

Mrs. Williams was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Brit Deskins, of Betsy Layne, and was a woman of excellent character. She had many friends in the upper section of this county. Besides her husband, she is survived by one son, Sturgill, four brothers, and one sister: Edgar Grover, Willis and Henry Deskins, and Mrs. Dale Henry, all of Betsy Layne.

Funeral rites were conducted Tuesday in the First Baptist church at Betsy Layne. Rev. Isaac Stratton, of Banner, officiating, and burial was made in the Ferguson cemetery.

YOUNG MINISTER ORDAINED HERE

Rev. Robert A. Potter, installed Pastor of Local Presbytery

In a simple but impressive service, the Rev. Robert A. Potter was ordained a Presbyterian minister at the Presbyterian Church here Tuesday evening. The ordination service was public, and a large congregation attended.

The Rev. Potter was preached by Rev. W. Wilcox, of M Sterling, Ky. The Rev. Kiddoo P. Simmons, of Pikeville College, delivered the charge to the congregation, and Dr. Synodical Executive for Kentucky for the Presbyterian Church of the United States of America, delivered the charge to the pastor.

The Rev. Robert von Thurn, of Mayville, presided. Dr. Joplin, of Louisville, made the ordination prayer, and Dunbar H. Ogden, Jr., and the Reverend Donaldson, both of Pikeville, also took part in the exercises.

The Reverend Mr. Potter was also installed as pastor of the church. Examination of the young candidate to the ministry was held at 3 o'clock Tuesday afternoon before Ebenezer Presbyterian.

Mr. Potter, who has been supply pastor at the church here for the past few months, received his A. B. degree from Duke University, his M. A. in English from Vanderbilt and received his Bachelor of Divinity degree from the Presbyterian Seminary, Louisville. He has been very successful in his work with the local church, and his installation as the regular pastor met with the unanimous approval of the congregation.

DOGWOOD SUPPLY IN COUNTY IS BELIEVED SUFFICIENT FOR MILL

After he and County Agent S. L. Isbell had inspected dogwood timber on Johns Creek Tuesday, F. F. Perry, Statesville, N. C., lumberman, said that the supply of dogwood in this section evidently is sufficient to justify the location of a mill at some point in the county, probably near Prestonsburg. Mr. Perry is a manufacturer of spools and shuttles used in cotton mills and of other small wood articles. He recently wrote Mr. Isbell inquiring about the dogwood supply in Floyd county, and came here after receiving Mr. Isbell's reply.

Congressman and Mrs. A. J. May and Attorney J. D. Bond left Thursday morning for Washington, D. C., where they will spend several days.

FORMER JAILER, STRUCK BY CAR, SERIOUSLY HURT

Goble Injured Monday; Waddell in Hospital After Mishap Here Saturday

DRIVER UNDER BOND

Two Floyd county men are in hospitals, seriously hurt, after having been struck by automobiles.

Edige Goble, former Floyd county jailer, is in the Beaver Valley hospital, suffering from a broken pelvis, a fractured collarbone and from possible internal injuries sustained late Monday afternoon in a street crash. He was driven by Ernest Long, Martin, highway number 106, a young man who was driving a Buick.

Adam Waddell, sustained a broken leg and possibly internal injuries early Saturday night when he was struck by a car on the South near Green Springs. Since Saturday morning, Waddell has been in the hospital. Driver of the automobile said to have been Ike Fitzpatrick, of Middle Creek. Waddell was taken to the Paintsville hospital.

Long was arrested Tuesday on a warrant charging him with assault and battery and was held under $1,000 bond. His hearing will be held Nov. 26. He claims that he was driving slowly and on the right side of the road as another car approached, when Goble ran across the highway with a wheelbarrow, and he readily into the path of Long's auto. Driver of the auto claims that it was impossible to avoid striking Goble. After Goble was struck, the auto veered to the side of the road and struck Sam Porter, highway maintenance foreman, but injured him only slightly.

Mont Goble, who swore out the warrant here for Long's arrest, claimed that evidence would be produced showing that Long was drinking at the time of the mishap and that he could have avoided striking Goble, had he had the auto under proper control.

No arrest had been made up till Wednesday, in the injury of Waddell. Both injured men are expected to recover, it was said at the hospitals, whether they were taken.

POLICEMAN UNDER BOND IN SHOOTING

Amputation of Sexton's Arm May Be Necessary, Result of Wound

Kermit Sexton, of Garrett, is in the Paintsville hospital in a serious condition from loss of blood resulting from a bullet wound in his arm, said to have been inflicted by policeman Hiram Lafayette at Garrett recently.

W. M. Sexton, father of the wounded youth, said here this week that amputation of his son's arm may be necessary in order to save his life. Lafayette is under $500 bond on a charge of wounding with intent to kill charge.

The father of young Sexton said that the officer walked into Vanderpool's restaurant and Garrett seized the youth and began firing without provocation. The bullet which struck through Sexton's arm passed "Crip" Allen, a bystander, in his arm. The officer is quoted as saying that Sexton was advancing upon him, flourishing a knife, when he fired.

"WE TOLD YOU SO!"

At the risk of being an "I told you so" annoyance, we're reminding city officials that, within a week after The Times had published an editorial pointing out the dangers of a street crossing and obsolete bridge here, an accident had taken place at each point.

Two wheels of an automobile broke through the rotten flooring of the bridge on Second avenue, and two cars smashed together at the Court street and Mayo Trail intersection.

The bridge was closed after that. The traffic lights have not been installed. Nobody has been killed yet. But somebody will be—somebody whose life might be spared.

NEW INDUSTRY NEEDED

Last week, The Times published a story coming out of Lexington which made the statement that new industry is needed in Knott county; that farming is insufficient to the needs of its people.

The story might well be applied to Floyd county. New industry is needed here.

We have coal and gas and, of course, farming. But the two industries first named have passed their boom stage. And farming in this section is of secondary interest as an industry when the entire population of Floyd county's 43,000 people is considered.

Diversified industry is needed. We have been satisfied with the development of our natural resources from underground long enough. Now, we should look to the establishment of factories dealing with products above ground as well.

This county has an abundance of fuel and waterpower, has or can produce necessary raw materials and has a laboring population which needs regular employment. Present industry cannot support all Floyd county's workers. It is a rich field for new industry.

Concentrated and persistent effort toward the inducement of new business to Floyd county should be made by our officials and citizens.

CATS MOVE WITHIN GAMF OF LOOP TITLE

ered two Pikeville fumbles. Our count shows the Panthers, on the other hand, intercepting only one Prestonsburg pass and recovering a long tumble. In the first period, Mayo intercepted a pass; in the second, Sturgill recovered a fumble—the opening wedge for Prestonsburg's second score, and Dickerson drew in a Pikeville fumble that sailed out of bounds; the third quarter found C. Smith recovering a fumble and Sturgill intercepting an aerial; in the last period, Mayo and Craft each made an interception, the first to a back Pikeville when the Panthers had driven into Blackcat territory, the last to start the 'Cats on their final drive of the game, which had led up only a little short of a touchdown.

Strategy, a whirlwind open for, steady following of the ball, we said—and somebody's leading a football during hot games days of the good year '34. That somebody was L. H. Mayo; and although all his good punting cannot be laid to a summer's practice, Saturday's game was surely proof of what help to his team a good punter can be, and one reason that Harkley is a good punter is that he has kept so determinedly at it. If Pikeville had a kicker like him—well, there is no saying. But aside from the plain, practical factor of his superior kicking, his ability to outgain the Panthers in exchange of punts, there was the psychological one: The visitors did some ill-advised passing, and otherwise hurt themselves and Dickerson by taking on their own region because they saw they were out kicked.

Honor to Pikeville

Yes, the victory was well-earned, but certainly Prestonsburg did not take all the honor from Gasco Park. Pikeville brought a strong, determined team; a band of good-spirited, loyal followers, and by long odds the most fan-splashing back we have seen at Gasco Park this season. Ishmael had come here highly praised, and not without reason. Time and again he hurled his hefty body against the Blackcat wall, and time and again, left and right, we've criticism may be offered to Black and Gold tackling, Ishmael's charging was of the kind that would make itself felt against almost any team of like calibre. Moreover, he passed right, well, and did some good defensive work.

Out-guessed at times, and none too brilliant in their choice of plays, the Panthers, however, were unable to complete a single first down. In the second period, the visitors reeled off the greatest drive of the game—a 66-yard march—aided by a Blackcat mistake in not following out a play when the whistle was blown for a penalty—for five first downs and a touchdown.

The spirit of the two teams and of the spectators was a happy feature of the game, and gives the hope that a like temper will be shown when Prestonsburg meets Paintsville Thanksgiving Day.

The First Count

The 'Cats made their first score as soon as they got possession of the ball. Kicking off from the west goal, they checked the Panther assault, and forced a punt which Mayo returned 28 yards to down the oval on the Pikeville 35-yard line. In a brilliant left end run, Dickerson carried the ball more than 20 yards, the Blackcat team looking the while like some professional eleven, rather than the boys we had known. Mayo broke through for another gain, and Archer crashed the goal. The quarter back's kick was good, and Pikeville saw their hosts down a game hardly begun, 7 to 0.

Prestonsburg visions of a wall-away were dispelled, however, for shortly afterwards the Panthers took the aggressive. One Ishmael went around right end for 20 yards before Sturgill nailed him. This rally was ended by Pikeville being forced to punt, but later in the quarter, abetted by good running on the part of Radliff, the Panthers drove the ball to the 'Cats' 30-yard line before giving it up.

In the second period, a Red and White fumble recovered by Sturgill not far from the middle of the field gave the 'Cats another opportunity. A pass from Mayo to Goodman, followed by a lateral toss to Archer, caught the Panthers unaware, and the ball was put in scoring distance, from which Archer, in two attempts, carried it over. Mayo's point try failed.

The Pikeville Counter

The Pikeville counter followed the next kick off. Parsons returned the ball to his own 35-yard line. Then the Panthers opened up, their fullback crashing through the Black and Gold line and plowing on into the secondary defense before being stopped, and a pass, Ishmael to Venters, netting the visitors 15 yards when the 'Cats were stopped by the whistle. Pikeville drove on, a short pass to Venters eventually carrying the ball to Prestonsburg's six yard line; and the big Pikeville fullback making first down two yards from the Prestonsburg goal. He smashed over the right side of his line for the counter. His try at goal by rushes failed. But for a mental lapse on the part of the Prestonsburg team, which stopped play when the whistle sounded, it is highly probable that Pikeville would have gone scoreless.

The rest of the half was played without scoring threat from either side.

In the second period after an exchange of punts, the Panthers drove in their own 2-yard line to Prestonsburg's 40 yard marker before Wiggins lost the ball on a tumble. Smith covering, Prestonsburg failed to gain, and Pikeville regained the ball on an intercepted pass; but shortly afterwards, Sturgill snagged the ball to return the compliment. The Panthers rushed into Blackcat territory again before the end of the period when a pass to Wiggins netted 18 yards.

In the fourth period's beginning, Ishmael plowed thru to Prestonsburg's 35-yard line, but Mayo cut short the assault by intercepting a visiting toss. Again the 'Cats punted, and again incursing Ishmael and his cohorts returned, once more to be checked when Craft broke through to intercept a pass before it had reached the line of scrimmage.

Prestonsburg Assaults

Prestonsburg again became the aggressor, and on a series of runs Pruitt, Mayo and Archer plowed, eluded and bucked their way to Pikeville's five-yard line. But there the Panthers took charge of matters and four attempts at their wall—Mayo and Archer both trying—failed to make an impression. An end run to the left and the placing of the ball in position for a field goal would have been better when the Pikeville line showed such strength, but Mayo's judgment could not be too severely censured in the

About Daniel Boone, the wilderness scout and pioneer in Kentucky, we know much more than we do about Daniel Boone, native of Pennsylvania and resident of North Carolina. Yet there is a good deal of accurate information about Daniel Boone's ancestry, his parents, and their migration from England to America and their settlement in Pennsylvania that we can summarize here with justification. There are some anecdotes of his childhood that could be recorded had we space available. But since we are interested in Daniel Boone in Kentucky, we must content ourselves with but a brief outline of his childhood experiences and his youthful activities in Pennsylvania.

MCDOWELL

MCDOWELL COMES BACK TO LICK HINDMAN

The McDowell high school basketball team, playing its first return game of the current season, defeated Hindman high school in the Hindman gym Saturday night, 24 to 17. In their previous meeting the two teams battled through two overtime periods, with Hindman finishing on top. After having defeated the Dwell high school team earlier in the week by the score of 41 to 8, the McDowell boys experienced little difficulty in turning back Hindman. They showed the results of hard work in their unerring passing attack and in their ability to take the ball off the backboard. The most brilliant playing of the game was done in this department by Hall, McDowell forward, and his mates. L. Stumbo, McDowell center, carried off scoring honors with 11 points. V. Maggard, Hindman pivot man, and F. Stumbo, McDowell guard, were runners-up, with seven points each.

Next Saturday night, Coach Jones' Big Reds will meet the Lackey high school team on the local floor. Lackey has one of the best teams in the county, and this should be an interesting game.

Why Hospitals Use a Liquid Laxative

Hospitals and doctors have always used liquid laxatives. And the results are fast returning to "normal" in liquid form. Do you know the reason? The dose of a liquid laxative can be measured. The action can thus be regulated to suit individual needs. It is not a habit; you need not take a "candy dose" a day or two later. Sterling's mild liquid laxative creates the safety.

BRIEFING SERVICE IS OFFERED STATE BAR

Designed to aid members of the Kentucky bar in investigating points of law, a briefing service has been established at the University of Louisville School of Law, Dr. J. A. McClain, dean of the law school has announced. The service, which is being offered without charge, is under the direction of Attorney Norman Goldberg, research supervisor, who will be aided by several outstanding students of the school.

The briefing service plan places the School of Law Library, of 17,000 volumes, in which is contained practically every reported English and American decision, at well as the leading texts and treatises on the law, and the statutes of over one half of the states, at the service of all Kentucky lawyers.

Lesson for November 25
THE CHRISTIAN STEWARD
LESSON TEXT—Matthew 25:14-30.
GOLDEN TEXT—His lord said unto him, Well done, thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things; enter thou into the joy of my lord.—Matthew 25:21.

Stewardship here includes one's self and substance—stewardship in money is only a small part of our responsibility. God has entrusted each of his servants with certain gifts, and will hold each responsible for the use he makes of them. God has lent us our talents, and we are to use them as He has intended.

1. The Distribution of the Talents (vv. 14, 15).
It was a sovereign act. He called his servants and distributed to them his own money, as the one who created us and owns us, he has assigned us our places and given us our several powers, talents that we put them to the best possible use.

Cheer Leaders Selected

Cheer leaders for the Betsy Layne high school were selected last week. They include Genevieve Steele, Inez Sizemore, and Victoria Kozes.

These girls led the cheer in the opening basketball game last week between the high school team and the independent basketball team.

This week concludes the second six-weeks term of the high school and the third month for the grades. Term and monthly tests have been given the students and the report cards will be given out next Wednesday afternoon.

These report cards are the contact between the school and the parent. Ask your child for his or her report on Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 28.

Busy Bees Gather Pollen, Sip Sweets at Same Time

Among nature's many unique ways of doing different things is the method of effecting the pollination of different plants. Some plants, it is true, carry out this process without any outside aid, while still others are completely powerless to help themselves without the aid of the wind. Probably the most common of this type is the white clover, says Pathmore Magazine. One of the most interesting is the case of the bee. The bee, having a substance which the bees use as food, attract the bee to them. In the course of getting his food he performs the required service for the plant.

Some Presidents Corved

Four fathers and eight mothers had the singular pleasure of seeing their sons serve as Presidents of the United States. They are: George Washington, John Adams, George Washington's mother and so was Mrs. Susanna Adams, mother of John Adams. Mrs. Nelly Madison was living at the time her son, James, became the nation's executive, and Mrs. Jane Polk outlived her son, James Polk.

While Parents Survived

The mothers of James A. Garfield and William McKinley attended the inaugurations of their sons, as did Mrs. James Roosevelt on March 4, 1897, when her son took the country's helm.

Harrodsburg Edition of Kentucky Progress Magazine Is Published

One of the most interesting editions in the history of the Kentucky Progress Magazine makes its appearance this week. It is the Harrodsburg Edition and four-fifths of the contents of the magazine are devoted to the oldest town in the state. On the cover is a splendid view of the monument to the first permanent settlement in the west which on November 16 will be unveiled in the Pioneer Memorial Park at Harrodsburg and dedicated by President-Roosevelt.

A scholarly paper by Temple Bodley, distinguished historian, tells the thrilling story of George Rogers Clark and Otto Rother of the Filson Club presents the interesting Lyman C. Draper manuscript on James Harrod. Following these valuable documents is the name of Ward Way Cleaners, which is the name of the old architect of Harrold being presented by Miss Jesta Bell Armstrong, while Frederic Morgan tells the story of the building of the replica of old Fort Harrold, Miss Nona Williams writes delightfully about the history of the Fort Harrold Museum and the history of the church, which will preach the sermon, Special music will be furnished by the local church choir. The services will last of the photographs being presented here for the first time. Among the articles not to come.

WARD LEASES DRY CLEANING COMPANY

Gerald Ward has leased the Prestonsburg Dry Cleaning Company plant here and is operating the business under the name of Ward Way Cleaners. Mr. Ward has been employed in the interior of the Fort Harrold cabins and Mr. James Prestonsburg's summary of distinct Company, has had ample practical experience to give the best of service and has an excellent plant.

UNION SERVICES

Union Thanksgiving services will be held Sunday morning at 10 o'clock at the Methodist Church at 10 Williams. Mrs. H. H. Ballinger, of the Filson Club, will preach the sermon. Special music will be furnished by the local church choir. The services will last of the photographs being presented here for the first time. Among the articles not to come.

MAYTOWN

Three Basketball Games
Friday night there were three hard fought games in the gym here. When Maytown B team came up against the B team from Garrett, the score registered 10-14 in favor of the visitors. When the two won defeated teams of Maytown and Garrett met on the floor and real game was witnessed. While Garrett scored 28 points boys are to be congratulated on their tenacity to hold the opponents' score as near theirs as they could. Then, when they ed the Betsy Layne Red Devils, 19 to 18, the crowd could hardly be controlled. Another big game with Pikeville Academy is scheduled for Friday, November 28.

P. T. A. To Meet
On Saturday night, Nov. 24, the P. T. A. holds its big Thanksgiving carnival. The floor shows will consist of a basketball game, fat vs. lean, fiddling and tap dancing on the side shows will be found tests, and a beauty contest. In the dead man's room, a minstrel show, fortune telling, corn tests of skill and strength, etc. Booths will sell various kinds of good things to eat and also carnival novelties. It is hoped that many will attend this gala affair. The proceeds will be used to pay the worker to feed relief children lunches.

On Friday the student body was addressed by Dr. T. W. Smith, of Hibbing, Minn., who visited his daughter, Mrs. S. A. Combs, several days.

Merchant Supply Orders Must Be Presented Soon
Relief records show that several outstanding merchant supply orders more than 60 days old have not been presented for payment. It is stated on the face of the merchant supply order, "void after 60 days from date issued," and, effective December 1, all such orders that have not been presented for payment to the state office within the time limit prescribed will be canceled.

Dr. Robert Smith, of Hibbing, Minn., is the guest of his daughter, Mrs. Stanley Combs, this week. Dr. Smith is pastor of the First Presbyterian Church in Hibbing.

The P. T. A. enjoyed a social on Tuesday night of last week. Various committees made reports. The lunch room will be open near December 1. Work on the basement will begin soon, a relief project having been recommended.

A large crowd from here attended the Red Devil and girls' game in Betsy Layne Monday night.

Mrs. J. T. Parsons, of Ashland, was the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Henry May, last week end.

Free and Easy

Sans souci is from the French and means without care, free and easy, and it is the name Frederick the Great gave to the royal palace he built near Potsdam in 1747. Mme. Sans Gene was the nickname of the wife of Lefebvre, duke of Dantzic, one of Napoleon's marshals. She started out life as a washerwoman and while her husband was in the ranks, during the Napoleonic wars, she followed the army from camp to camp. Fame and fortune came the complete way and they entered the court circle. Though she was a kind, pleasant woman, her lack of etiquette made her the laughing stock of the court and earned her the nickname, which still clings to her and means "without constraint."

ANNOUNCING Smart Appearance Beauty Shoppe's Big Holiday Bargain

On New Year's Eve about 8:30 o'clock, p. m., at the Unique Theater, we are giving away to the person holding the lucky number or numbers one Helena Rubinstein Beauty Kit known as the Beauty Coffret de Luxe, made of imported cerase calskin, silk lining, containing 24 beauty creations and a three piece sterling silver toilet set. This was designed for a Princess in Paris. There will also be four other prizes, all by Rubinstein Products. No prize will be valued less than $1.00. Five prizes in all.

We have purchased a big stock of Rubinstein Christmas Specials. These and the big $125.00 beauty kit will be on display at this Shoppe. If anyone should desire to purchase one of these beauty kits, it will take us five or six days to get it. They of course are too expensive for us to stock. We invite you to come in and look our Christmas specials over—ladies and gents alike. As to whether we will be able to offer any other such bargain to our customers is to be determined. We would appreciate your stopping in and telling us what you think of it.

You will not have to be present to win the first prize. Your name and numbers will be kept on record so that the person holding the lucky number can be looked up and notified. The winner will be required to furnish this Shoppe with a photograph so that it can be sent to Helena Rubinstein for publicity. Instructions will be sent directly to the winner from Helena Rubinstein regarding use of these preparations.

What woman would not appreciate a Rubinstein present when it is nationally known that she is a world-wide authority on Beauty Culture?
