'CATS', TITLE CLAIMANTS

TURKEY DAY WIN GIVES BLACKCATS BEST KY. RECORD

Sensational Type of Ball Played in Victory Here Over Paintsville

NULL LONG RUNS

The football season over, the Prestonsburg Blackcats are chief claimants of the Kentucky football crown for 1934 as a result of their thrilling 8 to 0 victory here Thanksgiving Day over their traditional athletic rivals, the Paintsville Tigers.

Coch Watsn's boys are undefeated have won more games in the state than any other Kentucky team and share with the other two undefeated teams of the Commonwealth an unfortunate tie. Their opposition has been plenty tough, they have shown an abundance of class despite the toughest string of injuries to hit any championship contender — or, perhaps, any team, for that matter. So why not lay claim to the title?

Played before an orderly crowd of approximately 1,500, the Turkey Day game here was probably the most thrilling minus the services of several regulars, the Blackcats tackled a foe that had shown improvement in every game as the season went along. And for one quarter, the first, events of the game indicated that Fate was about to become fickle and relegate the undefeated 'Cats into the class of also-rans. But the tide turned in that second half, and so this — even if we are clamping down on our tongues and trying to keep it from sounding so is a piece of victory.

That first quarter saw Gillespie, Carroll and Boyd, Paintsville backs, tear the Prestonsburg line to shreds and march to within less than five yards of a touchdown. But in the midst of the Paintsville assault on the Prestonsburg goal the quarter ended and the 'Cats braced themselves while the team was changed.

JOB, BEST RELIEF, GOODMAN BELIEVES

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 30.—The best way to provide relief for a jobless man is to give him a job, is the opinion of George Goodman, recently appointed administrator of the Kentucky Emergency Relief Administration.

Increased emphasis will be placed on a plan to create work opportunities for unemployed men by encouraging public improvements that will be of a permanent value to the country and at the same time give men a chance to earn money with which to support their families, the new relief administrator said, as he discussed the relief problem in Kentucky at a dinner given recently in honor of Pat Callahan, of Louisville.

It is cheaper to hand out money to jobless men than it is to provide work relief, Mr. Goodman said, but the effect is bad, in that it undermines their self-respect and tends to paperize those placed on a direct dole. About 40,000 families in the state are now being supported by work relief.

FETE GRID TEAM AT BANQUET HERE

Championship Blackcat Eleven Honored Friday Evening; More Than 100 Present

Tribute was paid members of the champion Prestonsburg high school football team at a banquet given at the Auxier hotel Friday evening by more than 100 friends and admirers of the eleven.

Franklin Moore presided as toastmaster, and kept an interesting program under way throughout the evening.

First of all, Mr. Moore introduced the boys' glee club, composed of football players, who sang two numbers. C. V. Watson, who coached the Blackcats through an undefeated season, was next introduced, and he in turn introduced each member of the team, meanwhile complimenting each boy for outstanding merit. Players present, in the order of their introduction, were:

His body was halved by wheels of the locomotive. When first seen by the engineer, it is said, Wells was sitting on the tracks. The air brakes were promptly applied, but failed to stop the train before Wells was struck.

TWO ARE HURT HERE BY AUTOS

Pennington Hurt Chasing Hit-Run Driver Who Struck Harris

Rush Harris and Claude Pennington, Prestonsburg men, were injured Friday night on the Mayo Trail here, the first by a hit and run driver, whose identity has not been learned, and the latter while giving chase to the driver who had struck Harris.

Harris sustained severe head injuries, but is recovering in the Beaver Valley hospital and was expected to be returned here this week. Pennington, a filling station operator, suffered a badly bruised foot and leg.

When Harris, walking along the trail in front of Pennington's filling station, was struck, Pennington believed him killed, and jumping onto the running board of John R. Baldridge's car, gave chase to the driver who sped on after hitting Harris. At the dangerous intersection of Court street and the Trail, an auto driven by Mrs. B. L. Sturgill struck, or was struck by, Baldridge's auto when Mrs. Sturgill was driving out into the intersection. Both autos were damaged.

BORDERS HOME IS LEVELED BY FIRE

Landmark of Steamboat Days Destroyed Thursday Morning Near Paintsville

The century-old Borders home on the Paintsville road, near Paintsville, was destroyed by fire early Thursday morning. With the home, a seven-room frame structure, practically all its contents were lost.

Mrs. Rebecca Borders, widow of the late Henry A. Borders, was alone in the residence when workmen on a nearby bridge saw smoke issuing from the eaves. Would be firefighters were powerless to halt the blaze.

Only a part of the furniture from a front bedroom was saved. The building, a landmark well known to travelers of the Big Sandy in steamboat days, contained much old furniture of value. For a time relatives of Mrs. Borders were alarmed for her safety, but she had awakened some time before the fire started and escaped without injury. The fire is believed to have started from defective wiring.

FOUR UNDER BOND AFTER SLAYING OF YOUTH AT GARRETT

Ivan Castle Succumbs Tuesday to Bullet Fired by Bill Williams

SELF DEFENSE, CLAIMED

Bill Williams, 21-year-old son of F. F. Williams, prominent man in the development of the Floyd county gas field, was under $5,000 bond here Wednesday and was sought by Johnson county authorities in the fatal shooting at Garrett of Ivan Castle, 22 years old. Williams surrendered here Tuesday, before the death of Castle, on a shooting and wounding charge, was released on bond and Wednesday was returned here from High Court, Floyd county, by Deputy Sheriff J. D. Fitzpatrick to execute bond on a murder charge. During Tuesday night, Castle died in the Paintsville hospital, and so Johnson county officers were here Friday to claim Williams for the jurisdiction of the Johnson circuit court.

Castle was shot in his abdomen by a revolver bullet, which arose from what is said to have been a drunken brawl. According to the father of Williams, the principals in the tragedy and three other youths met in front of Vanderpool's restaurant at Garrett. Castle and the others, it is said, were accusing an Allen boy of stealing a dollar. When Williams spoke in defense of the lad, he was struck by a club and knocked down two or three times before Williams snatched up a revolver from the ground where it had been dropped by one of the others, and fired, it was said.

Castle is quoted as having made a statement to the effect that Williams appeared on the scene, boasting that he could whip any three in the crowd. When Castle expressed doubt of his ability to accomplish this, this version of the killing continues, Williams struck him and he in turn fell Williams with a blow. Williams arose firing, this report says. Deputy Sheriff Vernon Castle, an uncle of the victim, Monday morning arrested Venice Hall, Isom Isom and Earl Peeverly, who are said to have been engaged in the altercation which led to the shooting. They were released Wednesday under $500 bond each.

Victim of the shooting was a son of Ballard Castle, of The alk, Johnson county, where burial was made.

DEAN LAUDS WORK OF SUPT. HUNTER

Work begun by Ballard Hunter, superintendent of Floyd county schools, has attracted considerable attention in other parts of Kentucky and has evoked much favorable comment. Of such praise for Hunter and his work in the field of education, the following letter from William H. Vaughan, dean of Morehead Teachers' College, is typical: "I want to take this opportunity to commend you for the educational renaissance which you are bringing about in Floyd county. The Floyd county representation at Ashland was the best it has ever had and I feel definitely that you are making educational history in your county. We are watching your progress with satisfaction at Morehead and trust that your energy and courage will not run out."

absent were Jim Dotson, John Hall and Woodrow Crager.

"I had prepared for this occasion eleven good-sized paragraphs representing each of this team's eleven games this season," Ishmael H. Triplett, superintendent of city schools, said, "but these boys made them unnecessary. They finished my speech yesterday."

On the preceding day the boys had defeated Paintsville, their last foe of the season.

The girls quartette, led by Miss Helen Darnell, then rendered three vocal numbers, Miss Dorothy Davis at the piano.

W. P. Mayo, father of two members of the team, expressed the sentiments of the entire father present when he said, "The greatest pleasure given man in life is to be the father of a boy who has developed into manhood and met every expectation his father has of him."

Fred Francis then led a yell for the speaker and his sons. Bill Craft, another father of a team member, responded to the toastmaster by saying, "I have had more worries and pleasures this season than anybody in Prestonsburg except Coach Watson," adding sincere praise for the team and its coach.

Jack Allen, a student at the Eastern State Normal and Teachers' College, told of having read in the local paper of the team's prowess, but said he had doubted that the entries could be as good as pictured. "I was convinced Thursday, however," he added.

James Stephens, a cheer-leader at the University of Kentucky, predicted that Prestonsburg will always have a good team if the town will continue to show its present co-operation. His brother, Edgar Stephens, followed with a brief tribute to the wonderful team and its good spirit.

John Branham, who has contributed three boys in recent years to the team, spoke briefly of his interest in the eleven, and H. D. Fitzpatrick boldly expressed the wish to see Prestonsburg play the Ashland Tomcats.

Attorney Oscar P. Bond, paying tribute in particular to Woodrow Branham, Blackcat center, proposed a substantial trophy for the conference champions and called on the business men of the town to contribute to this end. C. H. Smith, Sr., father of Carl Smith, Prestonsburg end, seconded Mr. Bond's proposal.

As a result of his former as well as his present college friends, such as Fred Weaver and Jimmy Welch, the Rev. Harry E. King, pastor of the M. E. Church, South, said he had wondered if his contact with college football would still leave high school gridiron play interesting. "After seeing Mayo shoot passes to Craft, I decided the answer was 'Yes,'" he added.

V. C. Wilson, principal of the high school, was next introduced, and after voicing his pride in the team admonished the boys: "If you hit the line as hard as you have that football line, you will be successful."

"It is a great pleasure to hear the people of other towns compliment you boys as sportsmen," C. H. Nicholls told the team. "You fought the game as if should be fought. That is one of the finest tributes to be paid you."

Last speaker of the evening was Atty. Joe P. Tackett, who reminded those present of the drama presented in Harkey Mayo, Prestonsburg quarter back, scoring on a 95 yard run from kick-off in the last minute of his last high school game.

Others who spoke briefly were W. H. Jones, Jr., former Blackcat star and now a student at the Eastern State Normal, Richmond; Curtis Clark, one of the team's most enthusiastic followers; Fred Francis, former Prestonsburg high school and football player; Abe Green, father of a student manager; Mrs. C. V. Watson, wife of Coach Watson, and Mrs. Mary D. Allen.

Turkey Day Win Gives 'Cats Best Ky. Record

ing goals. Gillespie's last desperate stab at the goal a few minutes ago was stopped by Branham. Prestonsburg center. Then Mayo went back far back, of his goal line to start his amazing afternoon of play. He booted the ball a mere matter of 60 yards, the punt being caught by the Paintsville safety man on his 45-yard line.

Paintsville came back to start another march goalward. A lateral netting nine yards, Gillespie fumbled and recovered as he was tackled by Dotson, considered by many the best lineman in Eastern Kentucky. Then Mayo intercepted Carroll's pass on his 40. Mayo crashed off tackle for 15 yards, then three more. He lost seven yards on a attempted pass when Paintsville's lineman crashed through and tackled him. He kicked out of bounds on the Paintsville eighty-yard stripe.

Paintsville made it first down on the 20 when Carroll's pass was penalized. Beldon was held on a spinner, and Gillespie got off a 80 yard roll kick. Mayo went five yards off tackle, then picked up 10 more on a triple pass behind the line. Archer and Mayo picked up four yards. On a beautiful "executed lateral pass play, Archer to Goodman to Mayo, 20 yards were gained. As the half ended Carroll intercepted Mayo's pass and ran it back to the Prestonsburg 20.

Mayo received the kick-off starting the third quarter and returned it nine yards. He dashed 18 yards more off tackle. He picked up 16 yards again on the same play. Paintsville was penalized to their 35 after Mayo had been stopped after a yard gain. On a wide end run to the right, Mayo gained four yards. In two more off tackle smashes, he made 13 yards. Archer smashed the line for three. The drive was halted on the Paintsville 14.

Then came the first big break of the contest. Instead of kicking on first down, Paintsville elected to try running plays on which Dotson's defense excelled in holding for no gain. Gillespie went back to his goal line to kick, the pass from center went high, Gillespie tumbled and was tackled by Branham for a safety. P'BURG 2; PAINTSVILLE, 0.

The ball was put in play on the Paintsville 20. Boyd hit the line for eight yards and on the next play was tossed for a four yard loss by Craft. Gillespie kicked to his 40-yard line. Goodman picked up two yards for the Blackcats but slipped as he seemed off for a longer run. Archer's line smash was stopped for no gain. Then the 'Cats pulled from a bag of tricks supplied them by Coach Watson a play which, adroitly executed, caught the Tigers napping. Archer, who did little passing, hit the ball, tossed forward to Craft, and the latter, as he was about to be tackled, flipped it to Mayo, the play being good for a 30-yard gain. Again Paintsville intercepted Prestonsburg pass deep in Tiger territory and the receiver was not stopped until tackled by Dotson on the 50 yard marker.

Carroll's pass to Castle was good for eight, but the attack was halted when Goodman recovered Boyd's fumble. Mayo then picked up nine yards on three plays and Goodman on a reverse picked up 7 yards. He made three more. The Prestonsburg reverses were work ing beautifully behind good blocking. Mayo shot off tackle for 20 yards, then made it three more on a touch-down. Mayo's off-tackle smash was good for six yards and the goal only four yards away. On a drive into the center of the line Mayo apparently had almost scored a touch-down. But then the unexpected mass of players, Castle, Paintsville end, popped with the ball under his arm. At the Prestonsburg side of the field stood in silent dismay, he eluded Archer's tackle and completed a 99 yard run over the Prestons burg goal line. The play was nullified, however, the referee ruling that the ball was dead. Paintsville punted, and Mayo was off again on one of his brilliant off-tackle drives for a 20 yard gain, and Goodman made five more. Mayo made it a first down. Then, from the Tiger 20-yard line, he shot off tackle. Behring interference to the right side of the line, saw his way blocked, reversed his field, and as Dotson blocked three would be tacklers, went over for a touchdown standing up. The kick for extra point was good.

P'BURG 8; PAINTSVILLE, 0. Prestonsburg's kick-off was returned 15 yards. Then Paintsville resurrected the old "sleeper" pass, on which, in these many years, Prestonsburg has not had a patent caught the backfield happing and made a gain of 40 yards to the Prestonsburg 10. A lateral was good for nine yards. On fourth down Gillespie went over for the Paintsville marker. The try for extra point was n-g. PRESTONSBURG, 8; PAINTSVILLE, 6.

Then the climax. Perfect aim. The last minute of the first high school game for Mayo. There's the setting. Paintsville kicked off, Mayo taking the ball on his five yard line. He started up the field to his right, was stopped by a tackle spun from their grasp and cut to the left sideline; Dotson taking out two men ahead of him. Then, as would-be tacklers fell short of tackles right and left, nearly by cause of good blocking for the runner, partly because of that deceptive running style of the P'Burg quarterback, Mayo was never halted until he had dashed across the Paintsville goal as the game ended.

But anticlimax. The referee held that Mayo had been momentarily halted on his 35-yard line. So it was that the two most sensational scoring runs of the game did not count. Prestonsburg played the entire game without a substitution. The team's crippled condition would not permit a substitution. An injury to any boy in the line up would, in all probability, have meant defeat. So they were not injured—or, more likely, if they were, they said nothing about it, got back in the fold, and went ahead the full distance.

From end to end and through the entire backfield, the Blackcats did excellent blocking, working as a well oiled machine. Work Mayo in the backfield and of Dotson and Branham in the line cannot be overlooked. Snyder, who had been called upon in this last game to fill the shoes of a missing regular, filled them admirably.

For Paintsville, Gillespie and Carroll show in the backfield, with Castle doing brilliant work at end. The game was hard fought, but clearly played and was a credit to the two schools sponsoring the embattled elevens.

Covington and Frankfort are the only other undefeated teams in the state. Covington has played only five Kentucky teams, whereas Prestonsburg played 10. Frankfort has played seven. And, if anybody thinks Eastern Kentucky football is of an inferior grade, recall, please, that Louis, two or three years ago, defeated Corbin, an eleven which annually holds Male to a terrific and 70,000 by direct relief, it was disclosed, as the opinion was expressed by Mr. Goodman that the figures should be reversed. Ralier should be so administered that when the emergency, which makes it necessary, passes, and there is no more funds available for this purpose, those who have been aided will not be less for themselves, he continued.

He stressed the fact that the most difficult faced in inaugurating a work relief program sufficient to provide jobs for those who are anxious to work, lies in the fact that there are nearly 80 Kentucky counties that are unable to do their part in purchasing materials and tools required in various public works projects that would make splendid work relief enterprises, Mr. Goodman said.

BASKETBALL

Prospects for another winning team for the Martin consolidated school became brighter this week when 16 big husky boys reported for the first work-out of the season. Six of these boys were letter men from last year's squad. The only regulars not present was Click, who will become eligible the second semester. The letter men are: Frazier, Oliver Elam, Dick Evans, Huggins, Norris, Paul Dings, McClellan Martin. Others reporting were: Earl Lynch, Lay Meade, Bob Evans, Parker Reynolds, Burman Martin, A. B. Osborne, Sheridan Martin, Norman Osborne.

Clinton Gregory, John Adams, Bill Reynolds.

Games are being arranged with the best teams in this section and the schedule is complete except for two dates. The center attraction will probably be December 27 and 28, when the strong team from Brownsville, who holds three victories over the local team, invades the eastern part of the state. Brownsville is the county seat of Edmonson county, in which is located the world-famous Mammoth Cave. They always have a strong team, and this will be homecoming for the old graduates of Martin.

Saturday night, the high school Purple Flash meets the alumni. The school five won last year by a small score, but with only four days' practice look for a hard game Saturday night.

A freshman team is being sponsored. Any one desiring games should get in touch with school authorities.

Confession of a Taxpayer

I will soon be 40 years of age and was born and raised in the county where I now reside. I have been married 17 years, I live on a farm, but bad health makes it hard for me to support my family. I am neither a saint nor a very bad sinner. I try to live by the "Golden Rule." I am just an average man who tends to his own business, and lets the other or fellow's business alone.
I never go to law with my neighbor and have never been "lawed" by him. I have only been a witness in two cases in court in all my life, but I have one record which none of my neighbors can equal, and I earnestly believe that no other citizen of the county can equal my record in this respect: I HAVE NEVER BEEN A JURYMAN OF ANY KIND!
I know there must be something radically wrong when a man has been a resident as long as I have and has never had this honor (?) bestowed on him. I have one neighbor who moved here about four years ago; he had served three times as a jurymen since then. There must be some one whose business it is to see that I have an equal chance as a jurymen as that of my neighbors. Who is to blame? I am an independent voter, BUT I AM AN HONEST MAN.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

Lesson for December 9
THE CHRISTIAN AS TEACHER

LESSON TEXT—Matthew 7:24-29;
LUKE 12:42-48.
GOLDEN TEXT—Study to show thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth.—Timothy 2:15.
PRIMARY TOPIC—Jesus Our Teacher.

It seems that the lesson committee decided upon this text and then sought for a text to fit it. It is very difficult, if not impossible, to make the text fit
the title. Regardless of the strained effort required to make this adjustment, two vitally pertinent Scripture passages are before us from which to draw the lesson's truths. The following practical lesson plan is suggested.

1. Jesus the Master Teacher (Matt.
7:24-29).
a. His method of teaching (vs. 24-27).
In his application of the so-called Sermon on the Mount Jesus used a most striking simile, namely, the two foundations.
b. The house built on a rock (vs.
24-25). This house endured the weight of the beams of its secure and abiding foundation. The wise builder will see to it that a safe foundation is provided before he proceeds to erect his house.
c. The house built on the sand (vs.
26-27). This house collapsed with the impact of the storms and flood because its foundation was insecure.

2. The Impression made (vs. 28-29).
The people were astonished. The content of Christ's teaching as well as his method of teaching was in radical contrast with that of the scribes. The teaching of the scribes consisted in the repetition of what had been said before,
while Christ's teaching was in his own words.
The Christian teacher should give forth a positive and certain message because he sets forth the living Word of God.
3. The Application of the Lesson (vs. 28-29).
4. The Application of the Lesson (vs. 28-29).
5. The Application of the Lesson (vs. 28-29).

1. Who he was (v. 24). He was an American Jew, highly cultured, thoroughly instructed in the Old Testament Scriptures, energetic and eloquent in his teaching.
2. What he lacked (v. 25). He was a disciple of John the Baptist. He was therefore ignorant of the meaning of Christ's death, resurrection, ascension, and the gift of the Spirit as announced at Pentecost.
There are striking parallels to this today in the Christian church. We have many good men, eloquent and highly cultured who know only "the baptism of John." They insist upon the integrity of men in public life, social justice, and even call upon men to repent of their sins, but they seem to know nothing of the meaning of the death of Christ, the necessity of the new birth by the Spirit, and the Pentecostal gift. They are pleading for social justice and a higher standard of ethics, seemingly not knowing that these are by-products of the gospel and are meaningless and impossible without the proclamation of the gospel of Christ. They are failures in the person and work of the divine Saviour.

3. Who instructed Apollus (v. 28).
Paul's first converts, including Christian tent-makers, were instrumental in showing the great preacher his ignorance and leading him into the truth.
4. Result of his ministry (v. 27-28).
He was provided with credentials and had a fruitful ministry. He mightily convicted the Jews showing that Jesus was the Messiah.

God is Everywhere
"If I take the wings of the morning and dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea, even there shall thy hand lead me and thy right hand shall hold me."

Heeded Right
By being true to the moral conscience your face is set in the right direction; it is turned towards Zion.

WHEELWRIGHT

From last week
Defeat Lackey
Coach Wiley Jones' Mc-Dowell high school basketball team chalked up their first victory over a Floyd county conference foe Friday night in the McDowell gym, when they defeated the Lackey high school boys, 21 to 17.

Lackey's whirlwind beginning almost swept the Mc-Dowell five off their feet. Soon after the opening whistle, the visitors were leading 6 to 0.
At the end of the first half
they were still on top, 11 to 10.
Playing an inspired game in the second half, McDowell
overcame Lackey's small lead, and kept a wide margin for the remainder of the game.

Ramsey, McDowell guard,
who gave a brilliant performance, was high scorer with 10 points. However, his brand of playing was little ahead of
that of the rest of the team.
Before every shot the ball
was worked in toward the goal carefully. Although they shot fewer times than their opponents, the McDowell team had a far better shooting percentage.

Lackey's biggest threat was in the person of Ratliff, a forward, with a left hand overhead shot that was difficult to guard. He was his team's mainstay throughout the game. He scored nine points,
and was runner-up.

The lineup:
McDowell Pos. Lackey
Hall F Collins
Vanderpool F Ratliff
L. Stumbo C Cox
Ramsey G Hayes
P. Stumbo G Fitch
Substitutions: Lackey—Allen. Referee: Harlowe—Prestonsburg.

BOX SUPPER
A box supper sponsored by school, was held Saturday night in the gymnasium. An unusually large crowd contributed admirably to the school

needs of the graduating seniors.

WHEELWRIGHT

The Wheelwright basketball team triumphed over The Ausler team Saturday night, Dec.
1, at Austler. The score was 26 to 16. The Wheelwright team is making rapid improvement.
It is predicted that Coach Jones will have one of the best teams in the county here-fore the season is over. The Wheelwright boys will play their next game with the May-town team here Saturday, December 8.

Girl Reserves Active

The Girl Reserves have been active for the past week. Two shows were sponsored by the club last week. About $60 were realized. A part of this money will be used to defray expenses to the Girl Reserve conference which will be held in Mt.
Sterling Friday and Saturday.
Mrs. Wilson, sponsor of the movement, reports that she will use the remainder of the money to make some permanent improvement to the school.

Grades Improve

The high school classification
list for the second six weeks showed a marked improvement. Some that were on the average list for the first six weeks have found a place in the distinctive list for the second six weeks. Those on the distinctive list for the second period were Bernice Hogsd, George Billips, Mildred Chil-
dres, Harris Stanoh, Edith Hensley, Nettie Little, and Forrest Newsom.

DANIEL BOONE and MENTOR
By Dr. Charles M. Knapp
UNIVERSITY OF KENTUCKY

With the sight of Indians, a somewhat neglectful herdsman. Daniel Boone was early familiar, since they were cordially received by the Quakers with whom they were generally on good terms. Thus he was able to obtain an accurate knowledge of the Indian and his ways that was later in life to serve him in good stead. Daniel's father, Squire Boone, was not only a frontier farmer but also a weaver, at times keeping several looms busy making cloth for his neighbors and the Philadelphia market. Later, Daniel also probably learned that art. But the result of his father's activity, first as a weaver and then as a blacksmith, was to throw much of the management of the farm upon his wife and children. So it came to pass that after he was 10 years old Daniel spent much of his time each year from early spring until late in autumn with his mother, about six miles from home, where he was tending the cattle as they roamed in the woods. Principally his task was to milk the cows, later to take care of the sheep. When his father died, Daniel took over the management of the farm, and he was gradually employed as a prospector of wild animals or trapper. Such training was of little use to him when he soon became a hunter and trapper. This vanced frontier, particularly early he became a hunter and trapper.

SAYS INDO-VIN MADE HER WELL

What I Needed For My Disordered Organs," She Says; "All the Misery Is Gone"

Mrs. Paul Hawkins, of 429 Bolivar St., Owensboro, Ky., is still another LONG TIME resident of this vicinity who is publicly praising the new scientific mixture of Medicinal Plant Juices.

Known as Indo-Vin, which is now being introduced to the public daily here in this city at Hughes' Drug Store. Following is this widely known lady's statement: "All I had done for about a year and a half was to take medicine for my stomach," said Mrs. Hawkins. "I suffered terribly with indigestion and it seemed like everything I ate would disagree with me. My meals wouldn't nourish my system like they should and as a result I kept losing my energy and finally got to where my health was in a rundown condition. I thought I would never find anything to help me and was certainly discouraged but finally I got Indo-Vin and it proved to be what I had always needed. My food is digesting perfectly now and my meals are nourishing me. I am so glad that I have had the energy I used to have and my general health is so much better that my friends are amazed at the remarkable improvement of my condition and appearance. This medicine is a wonder and I gladly endorse it."

Indo-Vin is now being introduced to the public daily here in Prestonsburg at HUGHES DRUG STORE

Legend of the Dogwood

At the time of the Crucifixion the dogwood attained the size of the oak and other forest trees. So strong and firm was the wood of it that it was chosen as the timber for the cross. To be thus used for such a cruel purpose greatly distressed the trees and Jesus, nailed upon it, sensed this and in his gentle pity for all arrow said to it: "Because of your regret and pity for my suffering, I make you this promise—never again shall the dogwood tree grow large enough to be used for a cross. Henceforth, it shall be slender and bent and twisted, and its blossoms shall be in the form of a cross—two long and two short petals. And in the center of the outer edge of each petal there will be nail prints, brown with rust and stained with blood, and in the center of the flower, will be a grove of thorns. And all who see it will remember it was agony and death upon the spot a dogwood tree that I cross. (Kentuckian Citizen, was crucified. And this tree Paris, Ky.)
