MORGAN COUNTIAN FATALLY HURT IN WRECK NEAR HERE

Two Women Teachers Injured Bus and Truck Crash Near Here

BAILEY IS VICTIM

One man was killed and two women teachers were injured early Friday evening when a pipe-laden truck and a Sparks Brothers bus collided, a short distance from the Cow Creek bridge, six miles from here.

Pierce Bailey, 38 years old, of Morgan county, was fatally injured when the pipe extending beyond the cab of the truck crashed into the side of the bus, ripping away almost the entire side of the conveyance. Miss Myrtle Franklin, a teacher in the Garrett consolidated school, and Miss Dora Gobbe, teacher in the Wayland school, both of Prestonsburg, were injured. Miss Franklin seriously. They sat in the seat directly behind Bailey.

Bailey's side and leg were crushed, and he died a few minutes after arriving at the Golden Rule Hospital, Paintsville. Miss Franklin sustained a broken jaw, a severe cut about her eye and other bruises. She is a patient in the Paintsville hospital. Miss Gobbe, who sustained a leg injury, was able to resume teaching Monday.

M. C. Sexton, driver of the truck, which belonged to his son, Raymond Sexton, is at liberty under $2,000 bond charged with involuntary manslaughter. McKinley Sparks, driver of the bus company, was not held. He sustained three broken ribs. Sexton was uninjured.

It is claimed that the pipe, loaded as it was and extending along the cab of the truck, rendered the truck and load more than nine feet wide, in excess of the legal width limit for vehicles, and that this resulted in the wreck.

Sexton, who was hauling pipe from Inez to Lackey for the Lackey Distributing Company, said that he saw the bus approaching the bridge, coming toward Prestonsburg, and that he slowed down and waited for it to cross. He also stated that the bus was on his side of the road and that he pulled partially off the concrete in order to avoid a collision. He expressed the opinion that as the bus was cut back to the right the rear swayed enough to bring the body of the bus into contact with the pipe.

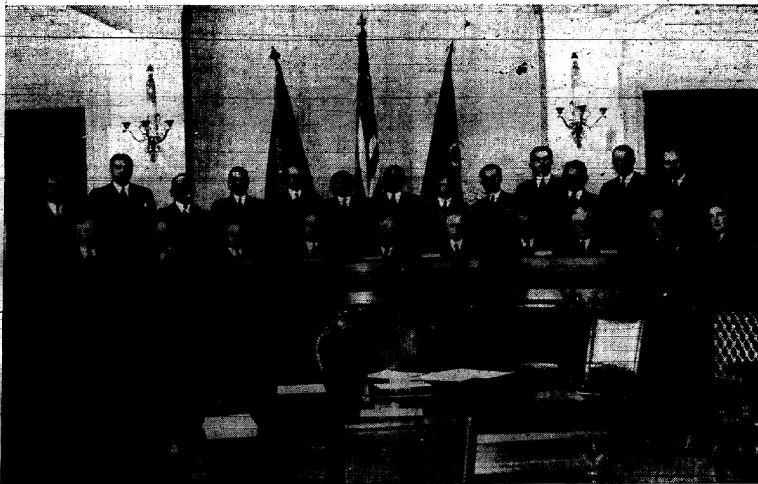

The victim of this tragedy was a native of Morgan county and a son of Jasper Bailey, a former Morgan county officer. He is survived by his widow and five children, his parents, two brothers, John and Wardie Bailey, and one sister.

LOCAL TEAM IN

FORM REVERSAL

Wins Two Out of 3; Draw for Tournay Positions Held

After wandering around in the depths of basketball despair for a good part of the season, the Prestonsburg Blackcats have suddenly found themselves scores of their three last games indicate.

Friday night, they defeated Pikeville Academy, 22-20, and on the next evening went to Paintsville and trounced the Flyers, 37 to 27, in their best scoring exhibition of the year.

Though they lost their game here Tuesday with Elkhorn City, of which team the all-conference Deskins is the star, the loss was by only eight points, 29 to 21, and was sustained in the last half.

Their next games are to be played Friday night with Pikeville Hi, Saturday with Belfry, both here.

In the draw for positions in the district tournament at Garrett, Prestonsburg, Bonanza, Martin and Auxier, all the teams in the upper bracket drew byes for the first round.

This leaves Prestonsburg and Bonanza meeting in the second round and Martin and Auxier also opposing each other in that round. McDowell and Lackey, in the lower bracket, drew byes, and meet in the second round. First round opponents are to be Wheelwright vs. Maytown and Betsy Layne vs. Garrett.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stephens of Wheelwright, Ky., spent Saturday at their home here.

SIX ARE HELD AT HINDMAN IN HICKS MURDER-ROBBERY

Aged Knott Man, Former Floyd Citizen, Found Slain on Ball Fork

PROBE UNDR TRAY

A half-dozen Knott county men are in jail at Hindman, held as suspects in a murder mystery developing when the body of Hencus Hicks, aged farmer and former resident of Stone Coal Creek, this county, was found last Friday morning in a field near his home on the head of Ball Fork. Knott county, where he had been shot to death and robbed, Hicks, a man of about 65 years, is reported to have carried on his person $4,100, his life's savings accrued from hard labor and strict frugality, and when found slain no money was in his clothing. A .22-calibre rifle bullet had been fired into the back of his head, the missile passing thru his brain and emerging above his forehead. Authorities believe he did not see his slayer.

The murder aroused considerable feeling in Knott county, it is reported, and an investigation was immediately begun by officers. When five or six men were found in possession of money, a circumstance strange to them, they were nabbed as suspects.

Names of those reported as being held as suspects are Pearl Fitzpatrick, George Robinson, Estill Conley, a son of Johnny Gambill, and two other Conley boys, sons of John and Darcus Conley. Other arrests are expected. It was said Wednesday, Circuit Judge John W. Caudill here said that a detective should be placed at work on the case which has many habbling aspects, and Knott county officials are expected to follow his suggestion.

The report received here says that Estill Conley had filled the day following discovery of Hicks' body. He had been present at the home of Conley from marrying a Fitzpatrick girl, by soon thereafter gave a friend money to go to Hindman and procure a marriage license.

The victim was a peaceable citizen and well known to all who knew him. His body was taken to Rock Fork for burial in the Chasins cemetery Sunday. Funeral services were conducted by Revs. Marion Chaffins and Melvin Allen. Mr. Hicks is survived by his widow and several children. Two brothers, Green and Alex Hicks, of Garrett, and a sister, Mrs. John Cluck, of Alpharetta, also survive.

MRS. FITZPATRICK IS VICTIM AT AGE OF 23

Mrs. Joe Davidson Fitzpatrick, 23 years old, died on Wednesday night, last week, at the Paintsville hospital, Paintsville. The body was returned Thursday to the Fitzpatrick home on Middle Creek where funeral rites were conducted Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Fitzpatrick was before marriage Miss Lena Brown, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marion Brown, and was a mother of the finest type. She is survived by her husband and two children. Burial was made in the family cemetery on Middle Creek.

Farris Hays, of Hindman, was here Tuesday, enroute home from Frankfort.

FLOYD COUNTY BOARD OF EDUCATION AUDIT REPORT

From July 1, 1930 to June 30, 1934

September 13, 1934
Ballard Hunter, Supt and
Members of the Board of Education of Floyd County, Ky.,
Prestonsburg, Ky.

Pursuant to an order entered by your board on August 6, 1934, I have made a detailed audit of your records from July 1, 1932, to June 1, 1934, and made a preliminary report on same to your Board on September 3, 1934; and your further order of September 3rd, instructing me to make a detailed audit of the period July 1, 1930 to June 30, 1932 and combine the two reports. I submit herewith a complete report combining the two periods with comparative Balance Sheets, statements of the School Fund for the various years and necessary supporting schedules.

The Balance Sheet of June 30, 1930, is taken from records in your office and is used as a starting point. Schedule H (Bonded Indebtedness). Attention is called to the fact that practically no provision is being made for Sinking Funds to take care of these various bond issues. Schedule I (Warrants Outstanding). I found many of the stubs in the warrant book marked paid, but the warrants were still outstanding and I could not find where they had been paid. I also found three stubs missing and very few of the warrants issued have been authorized directly by the minutes of the Board. Schedule J (Accounts Payable). These accounts are as furnished me by your present superintendent and have not claims paid, but the fact remains that these payments should all have been authorized by the board in their minutes. I believe the balance of the schedules are self-explanatory but particular attention is called to the necessity of having the minutes showing claims allowed correspond exactly with the payrolls and warrants issued. This schedule really needs no explanation and is not set up to question the legality of the

I certify that, in my opinion, subject to the above comments, the accompanying balance sheets, statements of schedules, fairly reflect the financial transactions of the Board for the period named and the condition of the various funds as of June 30, 1934. Respectfully submitted,
ALFRED P. ROBERTS,
Public Accountant

Don't Pay Over 25c
 For Medicine
 Today and Tomorrow

Suffers From Stomach Trouble, Weak Kidneys,
 Lazy Liver, Nervousness and General Run-Down Condition:

Every person who suffers can have a liberal introductory bottle of the world's newest medicine to try for 25 CENTS. Simply read the offer below. Do this in your own interest.

This new and scientific medicine, known as Indo-Vin, has helped 87 per cent of the people who have taken it. Therefore, we offer the first trial bottle at 25 CENTS, because we believe the people who are benefited will keep on using it. The regular full-size price of this medicine is $1.25.

WHAT IT IS!
 Indo-Vin is a new, advanced medicinal compound of 29 of the finest medicinal herbs and not one habit-forming drug. It is taken after meals and mixes with the food in one's stomach, thus throwing off the poisons that foster stomach troubles and permitting the kidneys and liver to function properly. It acts within 30 minutes to stop gas and pains, relieve flatulency and belching. It will not grip or nauseate you like ordinary liver medicines. It will work the bile from the liver as black as ink. At the same time Indo-Vin drives the poisons from the kidneys and relieves back aches, bladder irritation and weakness. Relieves children from bed wetting in a few days. Strengthens the nerves by natural means.

Now, whether Indo-Vin will help you as it has thousands of others—whether it will end your suffering in a day or a week—remains to be seen. But in light of what has been done for others, it is surely a mistake not to try it for 25 CENTS only a fraction of actual cost. This introductory offer is good today and tomorrow ONLY, so read the rest of this announcement and act at once. Do this in fairness to your self and your family.

WHAT IT WILL DO!
 Indo-Vin will cleanse your bowels gradually—not drastic or severe—as they were NEVER CLEANSED BEFORE.

It will bring out awful gas and flatulence which usually comes from the bowels. It may have been inside you a long time, causing you many days of misery with headaches, dizzy spells, skin eruptions, and lazy, drowsy, tired feeling.

Indo-Vin will relieve acid conditions and make the digestive organs sweet and clean and give complete relief from indigestion, bloating, sour stomach, shortness of breath and despondency.

IT WILL give you the greatest appetite you EVER HAD IN YOUR LIFE.

Indo-Vin will act as a diuretic to sluggish kidneys and flush out quantities of impu-

G. H. Mosby, Originator of Indo-Vin who chooses today and tomorrow to offer his medicine purely on a trial basis at a fraction of actual cost.

ritary that may have become dammed up inside, causing BACKACHE, SHARP PAINS and RISING AT NIGHT. It will make your liver more active; will clear away old bile deposits, thus relieving spells of biliousness and sick headaches.

IT WILL put a stop to the skin eruptions that are caused by the impurities in the organs, will overcome the salowness or "muddiness" that is due to sluggish liver and will put the ROSY GLOW OF HEALTH into your cheeks. The unfolding remedy for female complaints.

Indo-Vin will make your stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels more active, build you up in general and make you LOOK, ACT and FEEL like a DIFFERENT MAN OR WOMAN, years younger than your real age.

To get your first bottle for 25c today and tomorrow to the step below, or send 25c in stamps or coin to Indo-Vin, Inc., Cincinnati, O., and medicine will be shipped postpaid.

Frank Pinion, Native of Virginia, Dies at German in 91st Year

A native of Russell county, Virginia, Mr. Pinion was born in 1844, and at the close of the Civil War moved to Kentucky. He was married in 1874 to Miss Minta Clay, who survives. Mr. Pinion was united with the Christian Church in 1909, and lived a devoted Christian life until death.

Besides his wife, he is survived by two sons and four daughters: Malcolm Pinion, of McVeigh; Homer Pinion, of Germant; Mrs. Corda Harless, Edgar; Mrs. Belle C. Burchett, Lancer; Mrs. Lula Harless, Nolau, W. Va.; and Mrs. Birdie Thompson, German. He also leaves 37 grandchildren, 40 great-grandchildren and a host of friends and relatives. Funeral rites were conducted by the Rev. Jack Setser, and burial was made in the family cemetery.

MARY SALLIE DAVIDSON FITZPATRICK

Mary Sallie Davidson Fitzpatrick, eldest daughter of Joseph M. and Mary Hatcher Davidson, was born April 1, 1856 at Prestonsburg, Ky. Of this family there now remains but one, Mrs. Josie D. Harkins, of Miami, Fla., who this day is deeply grieved because she loved "Sister Sallie" so dearly.

On April 15, 1877 "Aunt

Sallie" was married to H. H. Fitzpatrick. Two children, Mary and Joseph, died in infancy; two are here today, Henry D. Fitzpatrick and Osa Fitzpatrick Ligon. Surviving also are two grandchildren, Sallie Gatewood Clark and H. D. Fitzpatrick, Jr.; two great-grandchildren, Yancey Ligon Clark and Sallie Gatewood Clark. A great number of relatives also survive.

"Aunt Sallie" went away to boarding school early in life, attending Steubenville Female Academy and Glendale College. That these experiences were greatly appreciated by her is evidenced by the strength of a well-developed life mentally and spiritually. When but 11 years old "Aunt Sallie" gave her heart to God and joined the church. It is very conservative to say that she lived a consistent Christian life and was loyal to the church she so much loved. Her father had given the property on which the First Methodist Church was built. It was she who organized the first woman's work of the church, the Ladies' Aid, and was its president for a number of years. Her faith as evidenced by her work with the women of the church is as a beacon light challenging the women of today to lives of service and devotion, remembering that as she lays down her implements of warfare and work, there must be those of holy hands and faithful hearts to take them up and carry on. She excelled as a mother in the home; she was devoted to her family. Her children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren have not wanted for the ministry of her helpful hands and a loving heart. Truly, she was a great woman.

Last Wednesday in the early wches of the morning she quietly slipped away. The night had passed. The morn had come—

But it was the morning of an Eternal Day!

SHE WAS READY!
 Nearly 70 years had she tabernacled in this house of clay. Seemingly the morning zephyrs came with the dawn and as quietly as the night gives way to the morning light, waited her spirit away to where the righteous shall shine as a sun in the kingdom of their Father. We are grieved today because of her going. But we give thanks to God for knowing this gentle soul.

CHILD WHOOPING COUGH AND PNEUMONIA VICTIM

Jimmy, two-year-old son of Henry and Sallie Adkins, of Banner, died Sunday, a victim of pneumonia following whooping cough. The little victim is survived by the bereaved parents, one brother, Jack, and four sisters, Daisy, Linnie Belle, Leslie and Vena. The funeral was conducted from the Pine Bluff Methodist Church by Rev. Isaac Stratton, assisted by Rev. Rickman, and burial was made in the Lewis cemetery.

YOUR kidneys are constantly at work filtering impurities from the blood stream. But kidneys get functionally disturbed—lag in their work—fail to remove the poisonous body wastes.

$17,200 AWARDED IN DAMAGE SUITS

Farley Gets $12,200 Judgment; Flanery, $5,000 in Suit vs. Nehi

Judgments awarded in the Floyd circuit court within the past few days in damage suits resulting from automobile wrecks totaled $17,200. Geo. Farley, of Portsmouth, O., was given a $12,000 judgment Saturday at the conclusion of his suit against M. B. Collinsworth, and Monday E. Magistrate A. B. Flanery, of Martin, received a $5,000 verdict in his suit against the Paintsville Nehi Bottling Company.

The case of Farley vs. Collinsworth resulted from the collision of the two men's automobiles at the Arkansas curve, near Martin, in May 1930, which cost Farley his right leg. The plaintiff testified that his auto almost to a complete stop when Collinsworth's car crashed head-on into the rear of his. Collinsworth claimed that he was on the right side of the road but that, in order to avoid hitting a truck pulling out of the side road leading up to Arkansas, he was forced onto Farley's side of the highway.

Hill and Hobson of Prestonsburg, and Lilly and Lilly, Charleston, W. Va., represented the plaintiff. Senator George B. Martin, of Catlettsburg, and Joe P. Tackett, of Prestonsburg, were defense counsel.

The collision of the Flanery auto and the bottling company truck took place last March at Sugar Loaf, a few miles above here, seriously in-juror Mr. Flanery. The plaintiff produced testimony showing that the truck was on the wrong side of the highway and that when the two machines were only a short distance apart and a crash seemed inevitable, he ducked his head, the result being that the truck ran onto the left side of the road.

When Worlds Collide

THE NARRATIVE

CHAPTER I—David Randall approached New York on the liner Edmore, a succession of radiograms offered him the death of his wife, exclusive newspaper interviews divulging the mission that brought him from South Africa. Randall, a noted aviator, has been secretly commissioned at Capetown by Lord Kitching and Professor Bronson, the astronomer, to fly across the Mediterranean to the East, with a large traveling case containing photographic plates—his instructions are to deliver them to Dr. Cole Hendon, in New York.

CHAPTER II—New York newspapers publish a statement made by Hendon and conclude in by sixty of the world's greatest scientists. The prepared statement says that Professor Bronson has discovered two planets, which must have broken away from another star or sun and traveled through interstellar space for an incalculable time, until they came in a reaction of the heavens which brought them at last under the attraction of the sun. The statement says: "Their present course, consequently, has been modified by the sun's pull, the new star now approaching us." The result of the inevitable collision must be the end of the world. The approaching bodies are referred to as Bronson Alpha and Bronson Beta, the latter being the smaller about the size of the earth.

CHAPTER III—"It's going to be doomsday," said Mr. Tony Drake and Eve. "No, Tony—more than doomsday. That's after doomsday," she told him. She explains that the first time the Bronson Bodies approach the earth they will hit it. But the second time, one, Bronson Beta, will pass, and the other will hit the earth and demolish it. To devise means of transferring to Bronson Beta, so much like the earth, is what is occupying the minds of the members of the League of the Last Days.

Tony lifted his hand and dropped it. "I'm offering you a letter that will give you an interview with Cole Hendon. Do you want to go and see him?"

For a minute Taylor did not answer. Then he said disbelievably: "Marvelous! My G—Hendon's just the man—the only man! To think that anybody would come around to give me a shot at such a thing!" Tears suddenly filled his eyes, and he stood up and walked in two mighty strides to the window.

Tony slapped his back. "See you in New York. Better get going right away. So long, old man."

Deeply moved, proud that any race, any civilization should produce human beings of the temper and honesty of young Taylor, Tony walked out onto the university campus and hurried to keep an appointment with an obscure but talented professor of chemistry whose investigations of colloids had placed his name on the long list furnished to Tony by Hendon and his associates.

Tony, having applied himself for months to acquisition of the primitive professions in growing things and in the manual arts, had found himself appointed by Cole Hendon as his personal officer. Tony possessed, decidedly, a knack with people; and so Hendon was sending him about to recruit young men for the extraordinary duties of the crew of the Space Ship.

Her father had asked Eve to suggest, provisionally, the woman who must go along; and Tony had met some whom Eve had selected. Strange to think of them standing with you—and with a few other men, out of all our world's creation—on the deck of a space-planet, what would they be to each other there?—He knows well, to gaze at night into the sky, and see a spot of light beside a brighter orb and realize that you might become a visitor to that spot in the sky.

Tony returned, three weeks later, to New York city, where Hendon now spends most of his time. He had workshops and laboratories started in several places, but the advantage of convenience in New York was so great that he had decided not to abandon his work there until later.

Upon his arrival in the city, late on a July afternoon, Tony went at once to see Hendon and Eve. He had business with Hendon—none with Eve; he merely longed to see her and be with her more than he dared display. Not much change was observable in the city. The station was a sea of people as it had been on the day of his departure. The streets were more than normally crowded, and his taxi had made slow progress.

There were three policemen in the front offices of the laboratories, and he was admitted only after a wait. He found the reception room first, and shook hands with him coolly. That is, outwardly it was coolly; but inwardly, Tony felt sure, she was trembling, even as was Hendon.

"Oh, Tony," she said, her voice almost giving away. "I'm so glad to have you back! I've read all your reports and have been waiting for you to get here. I've read all your acknowledgments of them," said Tony hoarsely. It was all that had passed between them. He puts and acknowledges them in lieu of love letters!

Father will be right out. We've been waiting steadily ever since you left. You and Dad and I are going to have dinner together tonight.

"Anytime," said Tony joyously. "No, who would there be left?" "Your South African, I thought, probably."

"Not mine, Tony." "Your father's, then. He keeps him in the laboratory—for you."

Hendon, wearing his laboratory apron, walked briskly into the front office. "Hello there, Drake! Delighted to see you back. Your candidates for the job? You've got to get them all to work. Dodson and Smith and Greve are enthusiastic about it. He looked at his watch. "Five-fifty. I've got a little work to do here. Then we want you to come up to the house for dinner."

As Tony unlocked his apartment door, Kyoto sprang to his feet. "I take your presence," Kyoto said, "with extravagant gratitude."

Tony laughed. "A bath, Kyoto, a dinner jacket, something in the way of a highball—I haven't had a drink since I left. Good Lord! It's wonderful to see this digging again. How's my mother?"

"Excellent as to health. Telephoning daily." "You'd better ring her up. I telegraphed her occasionally, but heaven only knows when I'll see her. She is a darn good sport."

"A person of profound esteemable character." Tony looked with surprise at the back of the Jar as he started toward the telephone. The approach of the Bronson bodies had made his servant more loquacious than he had ever been before. Aside from that, no change in Kyoto was discernible—nor did Tony anticipate any change. He began to remove his travel-worn clothes, and went in a bathrobe when Kyoto succeeded in completing a telephone connection with his mother's house in Connecticut.

Tony moved with a feeling of incredulity. The Hendon apartment was exactly as it had been. Eve appeared—she was Eve who was a little different from the old Eve. She wore a green evening dress that he remembered from an hour spent long ago on the balcony.

"Hello, Tony." In her eyes was the same wonderment, the same surprise and eagerness that he had seen in Hendon immediately after his daughter. "Drake! Evening, old man. Well, this is odd. Here we stand, just as we did in the old days, eh?"

The dining-room, as it were, opened. Tony sat down. Lighton stirred on the cushion, and Tony yielded up his spoon with a dreamy feeling of unreality which psychologists have noted and only badly explained.

Kentucky, and, shortly after crossing the state line, issued a countermand of his 1929 running-mate's call for a special session. Meanwhile, a number of legislators had gathered in Frankfort, but a quorum could not be obtained when administration proponents refused to answer roll-call. An injunction action seeking to restrain Governor Laffoon from rescinding the call for a special session, meanwhile had been filed by a taxpayer. Monday, Judge H. Church Ford, of the Franklin circuit court, held that Lieutenant-Governor Chandler's call for a special session, while acting as Governor could not be revoked. Tuesday, the court of appeals concurred with him.

Now, the battle starts anew, it is expected. Governor Laffoon says he favors a runoff primary, the first to be held as early as May and the two candidates receiving the largest number of votes to enter the second primary to decide which shall represent his party. At the same time, anti-administration forces say they already have their election bill drafted, though they want a look at the Governor's plan before passing final sentence on it.

SCHOOL RECORD OF MISS GOBLE AT EASTERN COMMENDED

The outstanding scholastic record achieved by Miss Goble, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Goble, of this place, at the Eastern State Normal and Teachers' College, Richmond, has been singled out by H. D. Fitzpatrick, member of the board of regents, and Dr. H. L. Donovan, president of the college.

In a communication this week to The Times, Mr. Fitzpatrick said:

"In view of the fact that Miss Goble has made such a distinctive school record, and since she is a native Floyd county girl, I am certain that your readers will be interested to learn that her work stands out among that done by all the hundreds of students at Eastern. Her standing at A in each of the three semesters since she has been in college, of course, has placed her on the honor roll of the school and needs no comment on its excellence."

In a recent letter Dr. Donovan, president of the Eastern State Normal and Teachers' College expressed his pleasure upon enrolling such a student and pointed Miss Goble out, as an example to other students. Eastern not only welcomes other students of this high quality from Floyd county, he wrote, but also seeks other students from any part of the country.

The subject of debate this year is "Resolved, That the Federal Government Should Adopt the Policy of Giving Aid by Means of Annual Grants in Order to Equalize Educational Opportunity in Public Elementary and Secondary Schools."
