BROTHERS CHARGED

What is said to have started as a poolroom brawl ended late Saturday afternoon at Ligon in the death by gunfire of Robert Newsom, 35 years old, and Estill Newsom, 22, brothers. Shot through the head and body, the elder of the brothers died instantly. The other succumbed a few hours later, at the Beaver Valley hospital, Martin, from the effects of a bullet which passed through his body from side to side.

Fred Hall, of Robinson Creek, Pike county, surrendered to officials here late Saturday night and was released under $10,000 bond as the admitted slayer of the brothers. Tuesday morning, a warrant charging Bill Hall, brother of Fred, with murder in the dual slaying was issued. At the same time Commonwealth's Attorney O. C. Hall announced that he was taking action to effect the return here of Fred Hall for examining trial.

The shooting took place at 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon in the poolroom operated by Bill Hall. But three shots were fired, it is said, and these from a distance of only a few paces. Though a statement from Fred Hall was unavailable when this was written Tuesday, it was reported here that he had stated he fired in self defense.

Grand Jury Says In Final Report-- Approximately 160 True Bills Returned During Nine-Day Session--No Crime Decrease In Floyd Noted

During the nine-day session of the grand jury of the Floyd county circuit court approximately 160 true bills were returned as the result of the examination of 200 witnesses, the jury reported Thursday in its final report to Judge John W. Caudill.

Because of the courthouse fire, the grand jury was delayed until Thursday in making its report. Wednesday was scheduled originally to end its work.

Little if any decrease in law violations, the need of a new courthouse and commendation of officials for their services were feature notes of the jury's report.

Excerpts from the report, which was signed by J. M. Turner, foreman, follow:

"The grand jury would report that they note little, if

RURAL SCHOOLS END TERM FRIDAY; ABOUT 350 ADVANCE TO 5TH

"Approximately 350 grade pupils in the rural schools which close Friday are being promoted this year from the seventh to the eighth grade, it was said at the office of County Superintendent Ballard Hunter.

Close of the grades in the consolidated schools of the county is expected to see the promotion of from 200 to 250 more to the eighth grade.

The rural school year has been very successful, it was said this week. A marked improvement has been noted in attendance despite an unusually hard winter, it was stated.

DISTRICT LEGION MEET FEB. 15-16

District convention of the American Legion and the Legion Auxiliary will be held in Paintsville Feb. 15 and 16, it was announced last week.

This district is composed of the counties of the old Tenth Congressional district. In addition to veterans members of the Auxiliary, Legionnaires from all parts of the state are expected to attend the convention.

The parade, opening event of the meet, will be led by the drum and bugle corps of Jenkins Post, and this will be followed by a general meeting, probably at the Johnson county courthouse. A banquet and dance on the night of February 16 will end the convention. The full program has not been announced.

ELEVEN-YEAR-OLD, PRESTONSBURG TO CHAMPION SPELLER

Anna Jewell Frichard Fourth of Cooley's Students To Win Spelling Bee

Eleven-year-old Anna Jewell Frichard, sixth grade pupil in the Garrett consolidated school, won the Floyd county spelling championship here Friday in competition with champions of seven other county schools. The county bee was held at the Prestonsburg graded school building.

Who was her teacher? Floyd county's champion coach of county spelling champions--Prof. Harry N. Cooley, who on three previous occasions had turned up at the county spelling bee with the best speller in the county.

Attendance at the bee and the number of spellers was smaller than had been anticipated, but inclement weather prevented many spellers from rural schools from competing. The Garrett girl won by the barest of margins. The word "cancellation" was pronounced and she spelled it "cancellation." This spelling was adjudged correct by the judges, Mrs. Elizabeth Baker, Maytown; Miss Kelsa Dearheart and Delmon Howard, of Betsy Layne.

Names of contestants, the school represented, words on which they "tripped" and their misspelling of the words follow in the order in which they were eliminated:

Marie Fraley, Betsy Layne, "peddler" (peddler); Lily Blackburn, Prestonsburg, "canary" (canari); Ruth Patton, Maytown, "admission" (admission); Marie Frazier, George school, "depth" (depth); Alta Mae Clarke, Auxier, "misspell" (misspell); Gilva Martin, Harold, "denominator" (denominator); Vesta Delong, McGurro school, "occurred" (oc-cured).

The winner is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Frichard, of Garrett. Beside

Cash Payment of Bonus

Provided by Congress in Overriding President's Veto-- Bonds To Be Issued To Veterans June 15--$325,000 Estimated Sum For Floyd County Veterans

As a result of immediate payment of the soldiers' bonus being voted by both houses of Congress over President Roosevelt's veto, Floyd county veterans will receive by June 15 cashable bonds in the sum of $325,000, it was estimated here this week by American Legion officials.

As elsewhere over the country, the estimated average bonus originally due each veteran is $1,000, with approximately $500 of this already drawn per veteran. This would leave approximately $500 in bonds due each of this county's estimated 650 veterans.

The Senate, with its big Democratic majority, Monday voted overwhelmingly to override the chief executive's veto, 76 to 19.

The House had smashed it down last week 324 to 61. The two ballots, which saw

Special Levy Is Seen Necessary To Supply Needed Building Fund

Construction of a new courthouse for Floyd county is expected to be ordered by the Floyd fiscal court at its meeting to be held here Friday, county officials said early this week.

The structure, which will supplant the 45-year-old courthouse damaged by fire last week, is expected to cost $100,000.

Weber and Weber, Cincinnati architects, met with the fiscal court in its meeting Thursday, last week, and are preparing plans for the proposed building. Complete specifications for the project are expected to be submitted to the court Friday.

Funds for the work are expected to be raised by a special tax levy. Inquiry from Senator Aiben W. Barkley elicited the information that there are no PWA funds now available for a new courthouse, since the PWA appropriation made to date has been allocated and became unavailable after Dec. 15.

A new roof for the courthouse, replacement of heavy timbers, replastering, flooring and other repairs will cost, it was estimated by a fiscal court member, $20,000. Officials take the position that if the building is repaired at this outlay, the structure is yet antiquated and inadequate to the county's needs. Office space has for several years presented a serious problem.

PIKEVILLE EASY, INEZ STILL TOUGH

Prestonsburg Defeats Panthers, 31-24, But Loses to Indians, 44-19

For the second consecutive week the Prestonsburg Blackcats continue to bat .500, winning one game in convincing style and then dropping the next even more convincingly.

Saturday evening, the Cats downed the Pikeville Panthers, 31 to 24, with a surprising show of scoring strength. Pikeville, always a threat in conference basketball since the days of Morris and Company, was no match for the local team on this occasion.

But, Tuesday night, the undefeated Inez high school Indians, continued their reign of superiority over the Blackcats, winning here, 44 to 19. For half of the game and a little more, the Prestonsburg boys made a battle of it, a minute after the start of play in the second half drawing within two points of the victors' score. But at that juncture Ward, Inez center and freakshot artist, went 'crazy' and proceeded to score 13 points in the last half. He annexed 19 points during the game.

MAN FREE AFTER TWO JAIL SENTENCES

Sid Conley, 32 years old, was let out of the Johnson county jail Tuesday, January 14, a free man, even though he was given two, two-year sentences last year. Conley was arrested and convicted at the November term of the Johnson circuit court for breaking into a C. and O. Railway camp car.

He was sentenced to two years in the county jail. Circuit Judge J. F. Bailey suspended his sentence, and he was turned over to the Floyd county officials to answer a robbery charge in the Floyd circuit court where he was also sentenced to two years. But the Floyd county officials believing that he had time to serve in Johnson county suspended his sentence and returned him to Johnson county where he was turned free because there was no sentence against him. — Paintsville News.

Dr. Chappell Regale, Kiwanians at Annual Ladies' Night Banquet

The Kiwanis Club's "big" night of the year, its annual Ladies' Night, was observed at the Valley Inn here January 17, and was featured by the appearance of one of the most able and versatile speakers ever to address the club — Dr. Ashley Chappell, Parkersburg, W. Va.

The assemblage of approximately 60 persons was regaled by Dr. Ashley's address which, though to be taken seriously, was interspersed with a wealth of wit and anecdote.

Thomas Oliver, district Kiwanis lieutenant, governor, was a guest, and made an interesting talk.

Friday evening, January 24, the Prestonsburg Kiwanis club was the guest of the Paintsville club and so much appreciated the Paintsville's hospitality that they wound up the evening by defeating the Johnson club's basketball team, 32.15. Burke and Maggard scored all but two of Prestonsburg's points. Isbell nonchalantly flipped in a header for these two.

his business. It was the first time I had ever met the gentleman, and I was no more impressed by him and what he proposed to do for a living than he, I suppose, was impressed by me.

He wanted to telephone a daily paper—not a metropolitan sheet—and give it some news. Since the message was "collect" it was all right. I tried to be helpful. "But," I thought, "if that's to be your means of livelihood, you're another relief case."

He made the call and went his way. The next time I heard of him he was selling copies of the paper he called that day. Still a poor job, I was convinced. But, regularly, in all kinds of weather, with only a few customers to begin with, he went at his job as if it were the finest in the land.

Soon, he had the agency for another daily newspaper or so here. He didn't go on relief. I wouldn't be surprised, after that lowly beginning, he hasn't done better than a lot of us—"us" includes me.

This man is F. D. Ward, once a stranger in Prestonsburg, now one of us.

I have imposed on his good nature by calling him Montgomery Ward. I have called him Major Hoople because of his rotundity and cherubic physiognomy. But I don't care who knows that I admire the man—or any man, for that matter, who shows the initiative and pluck he has shown.

Has it been cold? Well, we'd never have said it just this way, but the reliable Associated Press says it for us, thusly:

Hell Really Frozen Over
HELL, Mich., Jan. 20—Hell was well frozen over today.

The 50-year old village, now almost deserted, was under six inches of snow with the remainder of Livingston county, and a heavy coating of ice covered the dam and pond of Reeves mill, about which the life of the community once gravitated.

Thought on not making a speech.

Now, let's see—what was that phrase I coined for this particular occasion. No, it wasn't "I view with alarm." Besides, that fellow talking right now is a better view-wit-alarm than I can ever hope to be. Funny how my mind refuses to work. Say, I'm enjoying that fellow-wish he'd talk all night—or till they all go to sleep.

When a man is that age and begins to show partiality to the old arm chair it's up to the good wife to do something about it.

Really a man at 60 is in his prime—no reason on earth why he should feel tired after his day's work — no reason why he shouldn't have plenty of ambition—plenty of forceful energy—plenty of endurance.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE—WITHOUT CALOMEL

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

If you feel sour and sick and the world looks dull, don't multiply your troubles by taking a dose of calomel. Calomel is a powerful purgative and is full of poisons.

For they can't do it. They only make the bowels act a mere moment doesn't get at the cause of the trouble. It should pour out two pounds of acid bile into your bowels daily.

If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't get into your stomach. You have a "backlog" of fat and acids. The bowels, once they get into your stomach, your food gets into your system. Your bowels are not clean and your food is not digested.

Now there's good old CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get those two pounds of acid bile out of you. They contain wonderful, harmless, gentle ingredients. They make the bile flow freely. They get rid of fat and acids. They clean the liver. They are the only pills that get at the cause of the trouble. They are the only pills that get at the cause of the trouble. They are the only pills that get at the cause of the trouble.

For the 6 precious salts in Kruschen help to keep stomach, liver, gall bladder, bowels and kidneys in more healthful working order—and the cost of all these benefits is but a trifle—40 cents.

No drastic cathartic — no constipation — but blissful daily bowel action when you take your little daily dose of Kruschen.

THIS AN' THAT

A news item says the Massachusetts legislature has taken action which would permit Roger Williams to return to that state. It must be a terrible disappointment to Roger that he can't get Chairman to make that one-way trip he made across the Styx all those three hundred years ago a round-trip journey.

That suggests an idea. Why doesn't Congress get even now with Benedict Arnold by restoring his epauletts to him?

A contemporary says in a headline: "County Attorney Has Calf With Five Legs." We are also advised that Mary had a little lamb.

The Associated Press tells the moving story of the Kansas who, having received $155 as direct relief, now wants to pay all this back, since he has a WPA job. "I am now earning money on a WPA works project, and I want to pay back, a little each pay-day, what was given me," this man says, in effect. "I was treated mighty nice when I couldn't help myself."

There have been few—two few—such instances since Rehof began in this country. There have been too many who have had as their sole ambition the matter of getting as much as possible for the least possible effort, without returning as much thanks as a hog grunting under a chestnut tree.

When I thing of Relief, I invariably recall the day when a certain man came into The Times office and told me

AZZIE HALL GIVEN LIFE PEN SENTENCE

Jury Quickly Decides Fate of Man Accused of Daniels Slaying

Within a few minutes Friday after the fate of Azzie Hall had been placed in its hands, a jury of the Floyd circuit court decreed that Hall should serve a life sentence in the penitentiary for the murder of Jeff Daniels on Left Beaver Creek November 21, last.

Hall offered a defense based simply on the claim that he was not the man who killed Daniels and that he was not in the vicinity of the home of Mrs. Polly Martin, below hunter, in the yard of which young Daniels was slain.

The shooting of Daniels took place at night. A man's voice called him from the Martin home, where he and other boys had gone following an altercation between Hall and Daniels at or near the home of Lewis Lykins, some distance away. "You won't hurt me?" Daniels is quoted as having asked before he ventured outside. A few moments later a shotgun report was heard and Daniels was found fatally wounded.

Commonwealth evidence contended that Hall had threatened to kill Daniels, that the defendant had procured a shotgun and that another youth had borrowed cartridges for the weapon. One witness testified that he recognized the muffled voice of the man who called Daniels outside as that of Hall.

Wednesday morning, the jury in the trial of Curtis Bradley, charged with the murder of Clyde Conley at Maytown last year, held Bradley guilty and gave him a 10-year pen term. Bradley returned to jail here voluntarily only a few days ago, after a successful break for liberty.

The defendant claimed that he did not shoot Conley, that he was unarmed. Tommy Pennington, who was given a life penitentiary term at the November circuit court term for the killing of Conley, was returned from Frankfort as a defense witness. He testified that he did not know who shot Conley, claiming that he had been knocked down a few seconds before the shooting took place.

Commonwealth testimony contended that after Conley had been killed, Pennington charged Bradley had procured a revolver and fired the first shot at Conley. When the latter bled Bradley's pistol aside, this testimony continued, Pennington opened fire.

Trial of Deputy Sheriffs Frank Hatfield and Willie Johnson, charged with murder in the slaying of Willie Mill at Melvin, was postponed Wednesday until Friday afternoon because of the absence of a witness. D. (Manie) Barke, slayer of Chief of Police Murphy, of Weebury, is slated for trial Saturday.

ASK $20,000 BOND IN SLAYING OF WIFE

Louisia, Ky., Jan. 25.—Bond for W. E. "Buck" Williams, held for the killing of his wife Mrs. Rhoda Fyfe Williams, 37, here last Sunday night, was fixed at $20,000 following a hearing held before Police Judge H. G. Stanfield here this morning. Late today Williams had not filled bond and was a prisoner in the county jail.

Williams waived examining trial (last Tuesday, and today's procedure was merely to determine the bail bond.

Police Judge Stanfield presided in place of County Judge L. D. Fyfe, who is disqualified because of kinship to the murdered woman. Williams was represented at the hearing by Attorney C. F. See, while County Attorney E. E. Adams represented the state.

The shooting, which took place last Sunday night at the home of Mrs. Henry Collier, sister of the murdered woman, in Louisa, and the events leading up to it were recounted through the evidence of eight witnesses in the courtroom at the hearing. The witnesses were Mrs. Collier, Mr. and Mrs. Orville Marcum, Willis Roberts, Joe Adams, Luke Lyons and Ed Williams, a daughter of the slain woman and the accused man.

Williams, taking the stand in his own defense, pleaded self-defense, claiming his wife turned toward him, her hand in a coat pocket and pointing at him. Mrs. Orville Marcum, the only witness to the shooting, testified Williams fired two bullets into his wife when she answered affirmatively to his question, "Are you going to appear in court against me tomorrow?"

On Wednesday before the shooting, Mrs. Williams had sworn out a peace warrant for her husband and a hearing was to have been held the day after the tragedy occurred, county officials said. Funeral for Mrs. Williams was held at her girlhood home at Relief, Morgan county, Thursday afternoon, and burial was made there. Two sons and two daughters survive.

TWO JAILED AS VINSON WOUNDED

Moore and Brewer Held After Shotgun Pistol Fight at Wayland

Tommy Vinson, 26 years old, is in a Paintsville hospital suffering from a severe gunshot wound in his thigh, and Tommy Moore, 21, and Brewster Brewer, 29, Sunday were in the county jail here, charged with the shooting of Vinson Saturday night at Wayland.

Word from the hospital late Monday said that, though the wounded man is expected eventually to recover, his wound is a serious one.

The shooting was the result, it was said here by officers of a drunken row. Vinson is reported to have knocked Brewer down, whereupon Moore is alleged to have procured a shotgun and to have fired three shots at Vinson. The latter, in turn, this report says, fired several revolver shots at Moore.

Moore and Brewer were arrested by Deputy Sheriff Ban Layne, Ransie Marcum and Policemen Millard Salisbury and Robert Whitten.

Because she cut her tongue on a piece of tin in a slice of pie she bought in a restaurant, Mrs. Betty Champe, of Chicago, was awarded $2,000 compensation by a jury.

Health News

By Dr. Marvin Randall, Director of the Floyd County Health Department

The Meningitis Situation
The meningitis situation in Floyd county is very much improved. No new cases have developed since January 11, and the last two cases, while still under quarantine, are convalescing, and no further spread is anticipated.

I feel that the public, in a way, has been unduly alarmed over the situation. We have had seven cases in all, with three deaths. Five of these cases were in Weebury, where the epidemic started, one on Abner Fork, and the last on the Toler fork of Mud Creek.

On information of those cases the health officer has instituted control methods to prevent spread of the disease and assisted in the treatment of the cases. Unfortunately, we have no preventive vaccine or serum for the disease. The control methods consist only in isolation and quarantine of the case. This has been done in every case, and to further insure the people from quarantined homes, from breaking the quarantine, guards have been placed over the home, both day and night.

It became necessary, in the Weebury epidemic, to quarantine one section of the town for a period of two weeks. But in the other cases quarantine of the individual cases, exposures and contacts seemed sufficient.

CLINICS ORGANIZED

Two new clinics have been organized this year. A child health conference has been organized at Betsy Layne, and a clinic will be held every fourth Monday in each month. Exact location of the clinic has not been definitely selected. This is being worked out by the local health committee. With starting of this clinic we are taking one away from Wayland where clinics have been held bi-monthly, giving us one child health conference each Monday, and one each month in each magisterial district.

A prenatal clinic has been organized for Prestonsburg. The regular meeting date being on the first Wednesday in each month, the first meeting being held on January 8. A prenatal clinic is already being held in Weebury on the third Wednesday. We plan, as soon as more help is available, to hold a prenatal clinic in each place where a child health conference is held.

Greeley Lafferty, Thomas, Ky., who has been taking treatment in the Children's Coal Hospital for the past year and a half, was returned there Monday for further treatment.

The following schools have been visited the past week: Garrett, Lackey, Glo, Wayland, Harold, Betsy Layne, and the children there inoculated against typhoid and diphtheria and vaccinated against smallpox.

SPECIAL JUDGE IN COOK TRIAL

Jury Ready To Hear Evidence Beginning Wednesday in Left Beaver Murder Case

With Judge J. F. Bailey, of the Johnson-Martin circuit court, presiding as special judge, a jury was selected Tuesday afternoon, during "breathing spells" in the trial of Curtis Bradley, to decide upon the guilt or innocence of Curtis Cook, slayer of Seland Cook, veteran Floyd county teacher. Judge John W. Caudill disqualified for the trial of this case.

Hearing of evidence was slated to begin Wednesday morning. The trial is an outgrowth of what more nearly approaches a feud than has been known in this section for years. First, Ralph Cook was killed and his father, Seland, wounded in a fight with Barksdale and Curtis Cook, their pupils, after trouble arose at the school the father and son were teaching. Later, Bill Cook, merchant, father of Curtis and Barksdale, was ambushed and slain. Then the killing of Seland Cook about three months ago.

Following the slaying of Seland Cook on Jack's Creek, Curtis Cook was a fugitive from justice for weeks. Early in January kinmen of the slain man offered a reward of $100 for the capture of the slayer, and Deputy Sheriff Bill Hatfield and Willie Johnson returned Cook from Coal River, W. Va., to jail here.

Taken into court in Bellevue, Canada, on charges of stealing a hog, Clarence Way testified that as he was driving past the farm of a neighbor a hog ran into the road and leaped right into his truck.

DOCTORS KNOW

Mothers read this:

THREE STEPS TO RELIEF AND CONSTIPATION

A cleansing dose today, a smaller quantity tomorrow, less each time, until bowels need no help at all.

Why do people come home from a hospital with bowels working like a well-regulated watch?

The answer is simple, and it's the answer to all your bowel worries if you will only realize it: many doctors and hospitals use a liquid laxative.

If you know what a doctor knows, you would use only the liquid form. A liquid can always be taken in gradually reduced doses. Reduced dosage is the secret of any real relief from constipation. Ask a doctor about this. Ask your druggist how very popular liquid laxatives have become. They give the right kind of help, and right amount of help. The liquid laxative generally used is Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It contains senna and cascara — both natural laxatives that can form no habit, even in children. So, try Syrup Pepsin. You just take regulated doses till nature restores regularity.
