OFFICIAL ORGAN FOR FLOYD COUNTY, KENTUCKY

$1.50 Per Year Payable In Advance

Entered as second class matter June 18, 1927, at the postoffice at Prestonsburg, Ky., under the Act of March 3, 1879

WHY NOT GET IMPATIENT?

Impatience is not very becoming but eternal patience is not for us humans; so The Times impatiently asks, "What of the Left Beaver highway?"

Also, what of the efforts that should be expended by Floyd county officials and citizens toward getting this route completed?

What matters are so important that those of influence in this county, cannot drop them for a few hours, or for a few days even, and devote some time toward urging construction of this highway? It should be apparent to any person in this county that the road is of vital importance to the business life of the county.

Pike county, with not an inch of Left Beaver still within its boundaries, has more of that section than Floyd, with the exception of the taxes collected. That is not Pike's fault—it's ours. And faults are never corrected without some, honest effort on the part of the one at fault.

Not alone from the standpoint of business, but the argument made for completion of this route. The people of one of the county's most thickly populated sections stand, in all fairness, to give a highway outlet to the remainder of their own county.

MAGOFFIN COUNTY BUYS TRACTOR AND GRADER

Contract for the purchase of a approximately $4,000 for equipment. A 20-horsepower caterpillar tractor and this will leave about $3,000 to be used by the highway department for court at a special meeting Saturday, the building and upkeep of the tractor being in the nature of a loan. A provision of the order is that the department of possible summer roads all over the rural roads, the new department set up under the reorganization act, would offset the money thus expended by transferring a sufficient amount of the funds allotted to Magoffin county for work on rural roads to this county's emergency fund to replace the money expended for the purchase.

According to advice from the department of rural roads, there has an outlet through their own county and over the shortest possible distance. The public in general, interested in Left Beaver Creek, should be given a means of highway entrance to that section over the shortest possible route, without being obliged to drive thirty miles up the Big Sandy to Pikeville and approximately as far up Shelby and across the mountains before reaching Wheelwright, Weeksburg and other mining centers.

Those interested in this road should get together and start a concentrated movement to procure its early completion. Why not get impatient about the matter, just for a change?

That was a splendid expression of appreciation made by the residents of Highland avenue Friday evening following the paving of the street by the WPA.

Instead of accepting this much-needed improvement as a mere matter of course, these people are grateful and they set about showing their gratitude in the nicest and finest sort of way.

MISS PAULINE BELCHER ENTERTAINS HONORING COUSIN

Miss Pauline Belcher entertained last Thursday evening with a party in honor of her cousin, Connie Phillips. Refreshments were served to the following: Ann Allen, Gwendolyn Sturgill, Winifred Sturgill, Vivian Candill, Eleanor King, Betty Jane York, Peggy Thomas, Shirley Barber, Katherine Meade, Shirley Egoen, Jack Jones, Dick Allen, Dick Jewin, Mary Paul Combs, Tom Graham, Dikara, Harold Holcomb, Eugene Holcomb, Jimmy Hatcher, Billy King, Jack Carter, Jr., Buddy Fitz-civil trials in which Circuit Judge Patrick, Billy Sullivan, Connie Phillips and Pauline Belcher.

NAMED SPECIAL JUDGE

DRIFT GAINS 7-5 WIN OVER PBURG

Drift turned the tables on Prestonsburg Sunday, gaining revenge for the local team's 7-4 victory at Drift on the preceding Sunday by taking out a 7-5 win.

Drift played a big part in the visitors' scoring, though they did accumulate 12 hits, one a homer with one on base, during the long, drawn-out contest. Prestonsburg made nine hits, one a home run by Woods; the rest of the field fence, but failed ingloriously to score with the bases loaded and none out. Kit Stumbo, wild as a hawk had plenty on the ball and struck out 14 men to relieve several tight situations.

"Drift" Clifford reeled Carter with the start of the third inning, after Drift had scored twice on four hits and an error, and most of the way twisted beautiful ball. The only run earned off his delivery were made in the ninth by virtue of Harry Stumbo's left field homer behind Shelton on first. Blackburn, Drift leftfielder, suffered a sprained or dislocated arm when he fell over the fence chasing Woods' homer.

Sunday, Auxier comes here for an engagement.

Right Out Of The Air

Scores of well-known radio stars are appearing at the Great Lakes Exposition in Cleveland, Ohio, from June 27 to run 100 days. A huge "radio-lair" seating 15,000 people, is being used for the stars when they make their personal appearances.

Irene Beasley will be the first of the first five weeks of the exposition, with Jerry Cooper and Connie Carter next on June 27 and 28; Irene Beasley and Stoopnagle and Russ on July 4 and 5; Robert Summers, NBC actor and member of the famous Haycraft quartet, Honeyboy, Sammie and Alice Joy, blue singer, being heard on July 7 and 8; Radio's most famous bands and stars heard during the continuation of the exposition.

Franc Van Storden, musical director of the "Town Hall Tonight" program, known as radio's "entertainment czar" will be the first of many of New York's most prominent radio stars and like the average business man, can be found in his office every morning at 10.

Jack Kowalski, the steady father in the popular "Footy" Young series does not find the role of solving the "Footy" problems of "Footy" Young a difficult one. Jack, a veteran of stage, screen and radio, has a deep interest in all the troubles of the "Footy" on radio proper.

Jack Kowalski is usually surrounded by a group of youngsters seeking his advice and guidance so he will achieve success in the entertainment field.

Ken Murray's wife to find a wife on the radio with Ken Murray's show, has produced some amusing highlights and has received over 100,000 fan letters. He is a veteran of stage, screen and radio, and three national bureaus have tried to sell him stock.

Jack Stanton, who sings duets with Peggy Carter on the Chateau program every Saturday night, had to fight with his family to be a singer. It wasn't the old fight of with flowers and arpenwick, and refreshing drinks were served. A program had been prepared and directed by its section, for the different

First aid for wives who get annoyed when a husband reads the paper at breakfast in the morning, and for husbands who are impatient with their wives' habits, will be provided by Sedley Brown and Allie Louise Miles when they bring "Housewife's Corner" to the air on July 5. Members of the radio audience will be invited to come to the studio and give their answers to troublesome domestic problems.

NATIVE FLOYD WOMAN SUCCEUMS AT PIKEVILLE

An illness of a week claimed the life of Mrs. Opal Kidd, 20 years old, last week. Her death was attributed to infectious encephalitis.

Born in this county on March 29, 1916, Mrs. Kidd was the daughter of Mr. S. B. and Sallie Stumbo Hamilton, who moved to Pike county several years ago.

Surviving her are her husband, Frank Kidd, by parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Hamilton, three sisters, Misses Mattie L. Leach and Mrs. T. T. Scrubbs, Orlie Shirley and Ruth Hamilton, one brother, Don, residing here, and three brothers, Dennis, Ralph King, Mrs. Josie D. Harkins, and Howard and Sammy Joe Hamilton, Mrs. Elizabeth Wells, and three other children.

Funeral services were conducted Monday afternoon from the home school, the Rev. E. L. Bowerton of the Christian Church, and the Rev. Ed. Stanton, of the Holiness church, officiating. Burial was made in the city cemetery, under the direction of G. D. Hays.

FLOYD OFFICERS NABS STOREHOUSEBREAKER IN LAWRENCE COUNTY

Bradley Perkins, 29 years old, was arrested Thursday last week, on Cherokee Creek, Lawrence county, by Deputy Sheriff Vernon Castle, three days after the same officer had arrested Perkins' alleged accomplice, Willard Turpin, 23, in the looting of the Wells-Elkhorn Coal Company store at the Forts, mining camp, Jones, Ark.

Both men are in the Knott county Jail at Hindman. Perkins admitted to Deputy Sheriff Castle his guilt and named Turpin as his accomplice. Approximately 400 worth of cigarettes taken from the store were recovered.

How to Succeed
A New Jersey editor remarks that an Administration which is so deep in the red that it cannot see over its debts and deficits is in no position to sell a farmer how to run his farm, or to advise a factory owner on how to make the plant pay.

Secrets of AAA Come to Light

Wallace, Under Pressure, Reveals Big Gifts to Farmers.

Embodiment of the act AAA has been somewhat damaged by disclosures about the old AAA that was knocked out by the Supreme Court. When the Administration hearing three weeks ago a new farm bill Congress asked a few general questions about whether it would stand the test of constitutionality and they realized it would. Without public hearings of the chiefs of the Agricultural Department and with no debate on specific details of the plan, Congress then turned over $470,000,000 to Secretary Wallace. It was a blank check thrust through so-called "special" payments to farmers that might be flowing generally but before election time next November.

One of the witnesses before the subcommittee of the House Appropriations Committee on March 10 was Chester C. Davis, administrator of the old AAA. At this closed home hearing Administrator Davis was asked if he could supply a list of farm owners who had received more than $10,000 under the old AAA. Mr. Davis said it would be a "colossal clerical job." In answer to another question he said he would be very much surprised if payments to single individuals for properties ever ran as high as $20,000.

Facts Are Demanded.
After the new AAA was launched and thousands of employees were at work preparing to start the grantic election time, rain of checks, Senator Vandenberg of Michigan offered a resolution in the senate demanding information on payments to farmers of $10,000 or more. Immediately Senator Joseph T. Robinson hastened to the rescue of the New Deal and its politically important record of gifts to farmers. He used parliamentary tricks to delay any probe. Secretary Wallace, of the Agricultural Department, was inclined to be humorous about it. He told the press that if the amounts paid to single parties it might tempt evil persons to "kidnap the farmer's sheep."

The Senator for facts, however, and the witness of the New Deal to supply them, attracted so much attention over the country that Secretary Wallace was forced to reveal some of the facts in the congressional record. Following are some of the facts admitted by the Secretary.

Some Huge Awards.
One large cotton plantation operator received $123,747 in one year, for not growing cotton.

The world's largest hog-farming company received $157,000 in a year. This was the company's reward for feeding the hogs with garbage instead of corn.

Sugar benefits of $1,007,005 went to a Florida company, $361,084 to a Puerto Rican producer and $1,022,347 to a Hawaiian concern. The payments were benefits for not growing sugar cane.

A Florida concern received $41,194 for not raising tobacco.

A California concern received $53,708 for not growing rice.

Some growers did not fare so well. The largest payment for not growing peanuts was $3,000.

One of the items on the Secretary's list was $6 payment of more than $20,000 to Thomas D. Campbell, "wheat king." Mr. Campbell and his associates raised wheat and flax on their own properties for years and they also have rented extensive acreage. He has rented land from the Indians in the west at the rate of $100 an acre from 20 cents to $150 an acre. On this Indian land Mr. Campbell was paid about $7 an acre for not growing wheat.

In view of the importance of this belated information on AAA some Senators and Representatives point to the wisdom of thoroughly airing WPA before more billions are thrown into that program.

For Congress

CONGRESSMAN A. J. MAY

We are authorized to announce A. J. MAY, of Prestonsburg, Ky., as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for the office of Representative in Congress from the Seventh Kentucky District, subject to the action of the Democratic party at the August, 1936 primary election.

Secrets of AAA Come to Light

Wallace, Under Pressure, Reveals Big Gifts to Farmers.

Embodiment of the act AAA has been somewhat damaged by disclosures about the old AAA that was knocked out by the Supreme Court. When the Administration hearing three weeks ago a new farm bill Congress asked a few general questions about whether it would stand the test of constitutionality and they realized it would. Without public hearings of the chiefs of the Agricultural Department and with no debate on specific details of the plan, Congress then turned over $470,000,000 to Secretary Wallace. It was a blank check thrust through so-called "special" payments to farmers that might be flowing generally but before election time next November.

One of the witnesses before the subcommittee of the House Appropriations Committee on March 10 was Chester C. Davis, administrator of the old AAA. At this closed home hearing Administrator Davis was asked if he could supply a list of farm owners who had received more than $10,000 under the old AAA. Mr. Davis said it would be a "colossal clerical job." In answer to another question he said he would be very much surprised if payments to single individuals for properties ever ran as high as $20,000.

Facts Are Demanded.
After the new AAA was launched and thousands of employees were at work preparing to start the grantic election time, rain of checks, Senator Vandenberg of Michigan offered a resolution in the senate demanding information on payments to farmers of $10,000 or more. Immediately Senator Joseph T. Robinson hastened to the rescue of the New Deal and its politically important record of gifts to farmers. He used parliamentary tricks to delay any probe. Secretary Wallace, of the Agricultural Department, was inclined to be humorous about it. He told the press that if the amounts paid to single parties it might tempt evil persons to "kidnap the farmer's sheep."

The Senator for facts, however, and the witness of the New Deal to supply them, attracted so much attention over the country that Secretary Wallace was forced to reveal some of the facts in the congressional record. Following are some of the facts admitted by the Secretary.

Some Huge Awards.
One large cotton plantation operator received $123,747 in one year, for not growing cotton.

The world's largest hog-farming company received $157,000 in a year. This was the company's reward for feeding the hogs with garbage instead of corn.

Sugar benefits of $1,007,005 went to a Florida company, $361,084 to a Puerto Rican producer and $1,022,347 to a Hawaiian concern. The payments were benefits for not growing sugar cane.

A Florida concern received $41,194 for not raising tobacco.

A California concern received $53,708 for not growing rice.

Some growers did not fare so well. The largest payment for not growing peanuts was $3,000.

One of the items on the Secretary's list was $6 payment of more than $20,000 to Thomas D. Campbell, "wheat king." Mr. Campbell and his associates raised wheat and flax on their own properties for years and they also have rented extensive acreage. He has rented land from the Indians in the west at the rate of $100 an acre from 20 cents to $150 an acre. On this Indian land Mr. Campbell was paid about $7 an acre for not growing wheat.

In view of the importance of this belated information on AAA some Senators and Representatives point to the wisdom of thoroughly airing WPA before more billions are thrown into that program.

To love and cherish her

WHEN you promised to love and cherish her, you didn't contemplate making a kitchen slave of your wife. Yet that is what it amounts to if she has to toil over an old-fashioned, roasting hot stove through the humidity of summer.

With an electric range, a whole meal including the roasting, may be prepared in the oven at a temperature so cool that flowers will not wither on the range. Better than that, your wife can cook a delicious meal entirely by automatic control and spend her time on lovely afternoons out-of-doors or at whatever recreation she prefers.

An Electric Range is a pledge of freedom for the housewife. Select your range right now!

Mushrooms added to brown gravy served with a roast give it a delicious flavor.

A strong solution of borax and water boiled in the coffee pot occasionally will keep it sweet.

The color of spinach will be preserved if a pinch of soda is added to the water in which it is boiled.

Goldenrod when cultivated makes a beautiful garden flower. It blooms from late July to October.

When making jam, if fruit is boiled for about ten minutes before sugar is added, less sugar will be used.

When mulching perennials avoid using too heavy a mulch. The purpose of the mulch is to keep the plants cool, not warm.

Face Clear Again with Cuticura Soap and Ointment

Here is a letter every skin sufferer should read. The message is vital, of external origin, and they made me look old and haggard. They were red, hard and large. They would hurt, and when I scratched them the skin would become irritated, and I would lie awake at night and start digging at my face.

"But after using two cakes of Cuticura Soap and one tin of Cuticura Ointment my face was cleared again." (Signed) Mrs. L. Wheatley, 2nd St., Florence, Pa., June 15, 1935.

Physicians can understand such letters. The Cuticura formulas have proved their effectiveness for over half a century. Remember, Cuticura Soap and Ointment are also for psoriasis, rashes, itching, burning of eczema and other externally caused skin blemishes. All druggists. Soap 25c. Ointment 50c.—Advt.

Gilbert K. Chesterton, dead at sixty-two, weighed more than two hundred and fifty pounds.

Every doctor would surmise he died of heart disease. His weight explains the necessarily early death. A pump breaks down if 200 overwork it; a sixty-two-year-old heart breaks down if you compel it to supply with blood—food, drink, oxygen—many billions of cells.

Archie, Brisbane. Every cell in the body must have, from a laboring heart, its supply of food and oxygen, pumped every second.

The brain, alone, contains thirty thousand million separate cells, according to Doctor Carrel. In his 100 surplus pounds, Chesterton carried scores of millions of useless cells, each making an unnecessary demand on the heart.

Do not let yourself remain fat after forty if you would live to be old. To become thin and stay thin requires some effort of the will, often more disagreeable than dying.

At one of the ultra-radical workers' meetings in France, the red flag displayed and the communist "international" hymn sung, there was radical and determined talk. Monsieur Turpin told the meeting the factories of France would soon belong to the workers.

If the plan is set through some worker would discover that it takes more than a red flag and a hymn to run a factory and make it pay; if factories did not pay there would be no payroll. Brains count as well as hands. The eyes carry no load, but they direct the feet and hands.

South China thought she wanted a war with Japan, and will probably have it. Troops from a Japanese naval squadron land at Amoy, Fukien province, accompanied by the usual convincing cloud of airplanes.

With Japan in the easiest thing to have, if you really want it.

In Canton, South China's big city, parades and mass meetings were organized to increase and express hatred of Japan.

The outpouring recalls Voltaire's description of a feast of English beer: "Froth at the top, dregs at the bottom."

Russian socialism came quickly, and might go quickly; signs of a breakdown are seen already. Those that do more and better work get special awards; engineers, chemists, scientists occupy the apartments compared with those of ordinary workmen. That is hardly "straight communism." Now Russia will have a constitution and a house of parliament, important steps in the direction of conservatism.

Tell your little boy and girl to include in their prayers the following: "And please, Lord, do not send us any more wars."

Uncle Sam recently began delivering hundreds of millions of dollars to 3,318,000 veterans of the war—a many veterans and a big bonus, for a year in which we were not concerned with foolishness pushed us first.

The French Premier Blum, first Jewish prime minister in French history, is a man of unusual ability, combining common sense with the radicalism of his Socialist party. Mr. Birechal writes to the New York Times that there is fear of anti-Semitic outbreaks in France; observes "see a ground-swell of an anti-Semitic movement in the vicious attacks of the right against the new Jewish premier." French anti-Semitism, according to Mr. Birechal, has survived the Dreyfus case, which should have ended it.

Our railroads and it hard to make money, but at least they are safe railroads.

W. Averell Harriman presented a gold safety medal from the fund established in memory of his father, E. H. Harriman, to F. E. Williamson, president of the New York Central, which has not lost one life in 12 years.

It is interesting to learn from Mr. Ripley that the first Cannon steamship did not carry as many passengers as could be carried by one of the lifeboats on the Queen Mary. What is more important, each lifeboat has wireless apparatus.

Spain proves that it is possible for a country to be too radical for its own good. Labor troubles and radicalism have put one million Spanish workers out of their jobs, a good many for Spain and Spanish radicalism goes beyond other kinds, many having been killed by "terrorists."

The last chapter in the Lindbergh murder and kidnaping tragedy is written with the return to Colonel Lindbergh of $14,000 lost by New Jersey as evidence against Hauptmann.

"Manana" meaning tomorrow, is the usual answer a foreigner replies to the question, "When will you get to the States?"

You Can't Rely a Central or South on Tomorrow American to do which will be well paid for when it is performed.

Perhaps it is the heat. Perhaps it is just the nature of the South American nature. But it cannot be wholly his nature, for when a war is going on he can fight hard and consecutively.

I have known many men who were not at all lazy, who would toil tirelessly after they started, but the difficulty of getting them started was so great that few people would take the trouble. I think most of us are a little like that. There are men and I know some of them, who love work as fat men love food, and who are never happy when they are idle. But to most men, the business of getting started is unwellcome.

I have told before the story of Balzac, the astonishingly prolific French novelist. He loved to loaf, as many other men do, but he knew that if he didn't write there would be neither food nor fame for him. Being quite able to work both of the rest of your life at half speed, he probably not arrive in a very desirable destination when you should be taking life more easy.

Uniforms to Order—Horns of Bull Made to Grow Into One

Did the unicorn ever exist? Dr. W. Franklin Dove of the University of Maine, much-impressed by Owen Shapiro's research, thinks that it was not wholly fanciful. If not, he surmises in the Scientific Monthly that it must have been produced by actual manipulation. Whereupon he describes his success in manipulating the horns of a day-old Ayrshire bull calf.

What Doctor Dove did was to make two sprouting horns grow together into a single large central horn. He cut the horns buds and their connected tissues, provided them with straight facing edges, forced the edges and tissues together. All grew together into a single mass. After two and a half years the bull struts in his pen, a unicorn.—New York Times.

Countenance

Do anything because others think it is good or kind, or honest in its own right, is to remain all normal control and exaltation upon yourself and go posthaste to the devil with the greatest number.

The respectable are not led so much by a positive need for countenance. The weaker and the tamer the man, the more will he require this support; and any positive quality relieves him by just so much of this dependence.

S. Cobb Thinks about

SANTA MONICA, CALIF.—

Only eight years ago Bishop Cannon sat in high state at Houston, wringing the last drop of money out of a bond-dry plank in the Democratic doctrine so Al Smith, the wettest of the wets, would have something congenial and appropriate to run on.

In the opposition against the politico-financial high god, to whose slightest word all present responded with hails and halloos, was Frank or Charles Mitchell. If either of these gentlemen presented himself into a national convention of his party, he'd be arrested for trespass.

Four years ago Mr. Hearst was moving his headquarters to a new place. Jack Garner to nominate Irvin S. Cobb as F. D. Roosevelt.

In whom he reposed everlasting faith. And the Republican Party stood as plain as day when its candidate had promised two cars in every garage he didn't figure that for either car there'd be a deputy sheriff with a writ.

All of which proves our sainted leaders are not only courageous but consistent. Well, let's see what the wets will promise as they head for national whittleslicers called platters.

Fist American Families.

WE'VE BEEN asking the sun-baked domains of one sizable group of early American families who don't care who's been nominated at Cleveland or who'll be nominated at Philadelphia. No matter which side wins, these folks still will furnish the raw material upon which Blithe amateurs of the Indian bureau work wild experiments in the name of civilization.

Nothing worse can happen to them than already has been wrought by well-meaning meddlers and earnest missionaries under this administration or that. For instance, trying to make farmers out of Apaches, a task akin to training caged henhaws to imitate cuckoo clocks.

Of course, should their reservations by some miracle prove productive, the white man will crowd them over into a remote bit of bluish land where a horried lord would have to go on roller or else starve to death.

The vanishing American can't complain that we've endeavored to expedite his vanishing act for him.

Beating the Weikin.

THE poor old weikin certainly took an awful beating at Cleveland didn't it? And just about the time the new skin forms, they'll slip it all over again at Philadelphia. The national convention what's being to a seen-dog trail, it's a permanent advertisement for the dog and doesn't mean anything either way to the poor old superstitious that the Republican always pick their candidate at a. It's a enough-filled room didn't you hear people tell of the old times. You'd think the bosses would come true. You'd think the bosses would come from the session looking like so many Hickory-cured hams when you hear people tell of the old times. I'll bet the G. O. P. boys get a window open to clear the air. It might also have come in handy for checking Senator Borah out of it.

But when the credentials committee sat to hear the contesting delegations from the deep, dark South—that's what you see when a democracy might be called a smoke-filled room.

Defying the Congress.

TWENTY years ago Bishop Cannon, the famous Virginia smooth-brow invited a senatorial investigation committee to go jump off the Washington monument. Perhaps they didn't jump off the monument, which caused regret to some, but it was the best offer they had all season.

This year Doctor Townsend, who hasn't lost a cent by being the head of the Townsend plan, tells an investigating committee of the house to kiss his foot.

They never punished the bishop for contempt, although they spattered like a bunch of cheap H-C-crackers. Here's a little slight-to-be they'll never punish the Doc, either. He'll go merely on with the ever-popular idea that, if there isn't a pot of gold at the foot of the rainbow, the government should supply some without any more of this shilly-shallying.

Next to the League of Nations, nothing seems to make so much noise and accomplish so little as a defied congress—unless it is some fellow playing a side trouzone in the name of.

 straightened and dunn in many instances will be reclaimed for agricultural purposes. The people of this nation are definitely committed to the policy of government work program, and I feel one do not have to tell you that.

Interposing Mayor Carter, Mr. Isbell, pointed to the fine service rendered not only by Mr. Carter and officials of the district WPA office at Whitesville, but also commending the splendid spirit in which foremen and laborer, engaged in paving the street carried on their work.

Tables laden with a tempting array of foods were set in the street. WPA administrative officials, guests: H. L. Meredith, district engineer; Mr. Wheeler and Mr. Dunagan, of the district WPA office; Thomas Pikeville WPA office. Mayor Carter expressed thanks for the co-operation shown by residents of the street and district WPA officials as a whole in aiding his program of improving the streets of Prestonsburg. He stated that another concrete mixer would be brought to Prestonsburg, adding: "My ambition is to build the town, to see that the alley and all unpaved parts of the town are made to look like this street now does."

Mr. Meredith, Mr. Wheeler and Mr. Thomas spoke briefly, commending the people for their co-operation and assuring them of their assistance in realizing their plans for any other feasible improvement.

Mr. H. F. King, Miss Virginia McRose, of those actively engaged in the construction of the street, were the first speakers. County Agent Isbell was joined by E. E. Clark, Richard Sprinkle, J. D. Barber, J. E. Stanley, Manis (Coley) and J. H. Kelly in praise of the work done on the street.

Representatives of Highland avenue served the dinner. The function is being held in the kind to be held in Kentucky by citizens representative of services rendered through this governmental agency.
