50 CENTS PER YEAR

$20,000 FLOOD

ROAD FUNDS FOR FLOYD COUNTY

Funds To Be Available July 1, and Bids to Be Received After April 1

Frankfort, Ky., March 11.—That rural highway construction in Kentucky would be at a maximum and the fiscal year, starting April 1, would be a banner one, was indicated with the announcement today by Rural Highway Commissioner Cecil Williams that the counties in the state not only would have approximately the same amount as allotted in the 1936-1937 program, but in 1937-1938 would be available an amount of $437,869.96, the remainder of a federal flood relief appropriation made in 1927.

With the much broader program in mind, engineers and supervisors from the rural highway department are now conferring with officials in each of the state's 120 counties, preparing projects. Commissioner Williams declared that work would start in all sections immediately after April 1, and before mid-summer it will be at its height.

Floyd county is to receive approximately $20,000 of the flood road funds, County Attorney Ernest D. Short stated.

The distribution of the funds to one or more of eight projects listed.

The resolution was brought here for the signature of the county judge and county clerk. Mr. Short said that the resolution named the same roads as did a recent fiscal order (name and location of the roads were not given) as we go to press composed of two selections from each of the four magistrates. This court order is in regards to $20,000 rural highway fund. Continued on page four.

MODERN DRUG IS DAMAGED BY FIRE

Defective Wiring Given As Cause; Extent of Damage Not Known

Early Friday morning, a blaze gutted the Modern Drug Store here. It was discovered at 4 a. m.

The rear of the store was completely destroyed and a stock of merchandise and drugs were ruined. Origin of the fire was in the rear of the building.

Foliceman Arthur Blackburn gave the cause of the fire as defective wiring. He stated that the building that houses the Modern Drug Shop was condemned some time ago by the state fire marshal. Blackburn said that a number of other Prestonsburg business houses were under the same condemnation. No figure on the estimated damage from the Friday morning blaze could be learned. The "Modern" has been in operation for a number of years and is considered one of the city's landmarks. It was not learned whether or not the present proprietor, Mr. Curtis Clark, will rebuild the interior and re-open the establishment.

Mrs. W. C. Rimmer has been confined to her home for the past week with influenza.

TRC MEMES AWARDED AT LACKEY TOURNAMENT

The 58th district all-tournament team (and who is the coach that wouldn't like to have those boys under his wing?) selected at Lackey is composed of Craft, Tackett, Patton, of Prestonsburg; Conley and Gains, of Garrett; Stewart, of Maytown; Barry, of Lackey; Griffith and Mantz of Martin, and Layne, of Betsy Layne. Craft, six-foot and two inch Blackcat center, was designated as captain.

Craft received two of the three individual trophies awarded, one as most valuable player to his team and the other as tournament high scorer. He scored 56 points, lacking only 13 points scoring as much as the combined opposition in the Lackey meet. Cecil Sublett, of Lackey, received the trophy for best individual sportsmanship. Betsy Layne was awarded the team sportsmanship trophy.

Maytown received the winners trophy and Prestonsburg was awarded the trophy for runner-up.

ALLEN STREET PAVING SUBMITTED

330 NYA Youths Certified for Floyd County Within Past Thirty Days

Mr. Ballinger said that WPA work on the Brandy Keg road had started. Mr. Ballinger stated that this was not true. No men are available at present, he said, and it will be some time before this project could be started, a pitanch leading into the main Brandy Keg road. The main road is a part of the state highway system and cannot be touched by a project through the local office, he explained.

Betsy Layne streets, surfaced with crushed stone on a matted stone base, are to be finished by March 19. Men on this job will be transferred to the Layneville project, comprising one-half mile of crushed stone street surfacing, slated to start March 22. The Layneville work will last about six weeks, cost approximately $5,000 and employ 40 men.

Green A. M., certifying agent, reported that 330 youths have been certified in 30 days for NYA, leaving about that many yet to be certified to reach a lacking quota of near 800 for Floyd county. 187 WPA workers have been certified since Jan. 15, also 11 emergency teachers and one library worker.

The culvert on Hingland avenue near the gymnasium is being finished this week.

Mrs. Fitzpatrick III

The condition of Mrs. D. Fitzpatrick, who was taken Monday night to the Paintsville hospital, is only slightly improved.

Mrs. H. Fitzpatrick is only slightly improved.

TWO NEW STORES INLAND GAS CO. PREPARE OPENING

Prestonsburg Bidding Fair to Become Shopping Center of Region

Activities, to mark the entrance of new life in the business interests in Prestonsburg and vicinity and in preparation to the opening of two more new stores here, are in full swing this week. This makes four retail dry goods and ready-to-wear houses to begin business here within the past six months.

Prestonsburg was highly recommended by Mr. George Cohen, manager of The Leader. The Leader is the name selected for the store going into the room formerly occupied by the Midland Store, this store is being taken over by Louisville interests and a number of years by the organization, in the merchandizing business. The Leader, specializing in ladies', gentlemen's and children's ready-to-wear, will be open to the public some time next week.

Present plans indicate that Saturday will mark the formal opening of The People's Store under the management of Mr. Walter Seib, former store manager for the Midland Stores at Louisa. The People's Store will be located in the Harlowe building next to the Bank of Josephine on First avenue. It will specialize in men's ready-to-wear and children's ready-to-wear.

Mr. Howard Frail, proprietor of Frail's Store in Paintsville, is backing The People's Store here. Mr. Frail is well-known throughout this section.

The managers of both stores are firm believers in advertising as a medium for informing potential buyers of the quality of merchandise they have to offer and the exact price. Continued on page five.

INLAND GAS CO. GRANTED WRIT

Court Order Restraining Interference in Laying Pipe Line in Knott

Warning those enjoined that any violation of the court order would be punished to the fullest extent of the law, Federal Judge H. Church Ford Saturday at Lexington granted an injunction restraining five men from interfering with the construction of a gas pipe line from Lackey to Hindman.

The construction work on the line, employing about 300 men, was started some time ago and halted after a few days work due to labor trouble. W. E. Lockhart, trustee in bankruptcy for the Inland Gas Corporation, sought an injunction in an effort to guarantee no further trouble during future work on the line destined to last approximately 90 days.

The trouble started, it is said, when the company began using a capillary tractor and winch to haul pipe and other supplies for the job up steep portions of the Jones Fork mountain instead of using teams. Company officials said that teams could not be used at this point. Certain individuals of the community objected to use of the tractor, it was stated, and it was blown up a few nights later. The company immediately stopped work and a Federal injunction was granted here, those named in the injunction were Hiram Adams, Bethel Adams, Ermine Patts, Ray Pridemore and Moss Johnson. Two were teamsters on the job. Joe Lockhart, field superintendent for the company, stated while here Tuesday night that construction of the line is progressing "very nicely."

Mrs. Wm. Dingus has been very sick for the past week at her home here.

15th Regional Tournament Underway Thursday Night

Thursday night, Maytown fell victim to a fast-moving Paintsville team, 40-19. Scrap as they did, Maytown could not make an early lead. The second game saw Frenchburg, down Dorton by a score of 40-21. The smaller Dorton team fought hard but was no match for the tall boys from Manifee county.

The cream of the Eastern Kentucky basketball teams, competing the winners and runners-up of four district tournaments held last week, on and their supporters will descend upon the Prestonsburg high gymnasium for the 15th regional tournament to be held this week, March 12, 13. This year marks the fourth consecutive time the annual regional has been awarded to Prestonsburg.

Maytown, one of the fastest improving teams in this section, won the 58th district title with Prestonsburg as the runner-up. Maytown, in the semi-finals, defeated the powerful Garrett five by one point, 22 to 21. Saturday night they downed the Pburg team 25 to 22 for the mythical crown. In the semi-finals, Prestonsburg beat McDowell, 38-19.

In the 59th district at Paintsville, the Inez Indians scalped the Paintsville Tigers finish.

55 to 28 in the finals. They say that "scalping" is a habit with the Inez team and they are favorites to cop the regional for the fourth consecutive time. They have been defeated by Horse Cave, Newport and Midway this season. At Vargie, in the 57th, Dorton won in the finals, over Berry, 29 to 13. Almost a thousand fans, at West Liberty, witnessed Frenchburg defeat West Liberty, 25 to 15, in the finals. This Frenchburg team, reported to be a bunch of tall boys, previously downed Cannel City, the tournament favorites.

Representatives of the district winners and runners-up were here Sunday evening at the high school building for boys regional draw. Tournament officials selected were announced by Coach Greenwell, Prestonsburg, Wednesday as Ernie Chatten and Brad Black, of Ashland, and the Ho, Virgie, will be official scorer and Walter Price, Prestonsburg, was selected as official timer.

The games get under way Thursday night with Maytown meeting Paintsville at 7:30, followed by the Dorton-Frenchburg game at 8:30. Each of the games promise to be "thrillers" from start to finish.

DOC WOODS PASSES AT AGE OF 53 YEARS

Doc Woods, 53 years old, died Monday, March 8, at the Kentucky State Hospital at Lexington, where he had been a patient for several months. His body was returned Tuesday to his home at Allen, Ky., and burial will be made Wednesday in the family cemetery above Allen, under the direction of E. P. Arnold Funeral Home. Funeral will be conducted from the home Wednesday with Rev. Isaac Stratton in charge.

Mr. Woods is survived by his widow, Mrs. Lizzie Woods and five children: Maxie, 12; Bill, 10; Trent, 9; Luke, 8 and Ray, 5, all at home. He is also survived by four sisters, Mrs. Theop Sammons, Mrs. Wm. Bentley, Mrs. Kendall Beverly, all of Allen, and Mrs. Charles Bateman, of Franklin, O. He has two brothers, George and Joe Woods, of Allen.

PROGRAMME ON CITIZENSHIP GIVEN

Mrs. S. A. Combs in Charge of Interesting Meeting On March 5

At the home of Mrs. H. C. Francis on Thursday evening, March 4, a program of intense interest was given by the Executive Women's Club, Mrs. S. A. Combs, state chairman of American citizenship, being in charge.

Preliminary to a poll of the President's plan for the Supreme Court, Mrs. Combs presented facts for and against the question, the resulting poll being 14 to three against the President's proposal.

The Kentucky Women's Decalogue of American Citizenship as compiled by Mrs. Combs was read by Mrs. J. D. Mayo, after which all members endorsed the same by their signatures.

The following resolution was adopted by the club, a copy of which is in the hands of the state committee on resolutions preliminary to its introduction at the state convention in May: Whereas there are local officials in all communities who neglect their duties, and whereas there are local ordinances which are not enforced and whereas, local courts issue sentences not on the merits of the case but on the place held by the offender in the political machine; and whereas, if these neglects and practices are known, public sentiment may duly correct them: Be it resolved, that the club women of Kentucky make a specific effort to investigate and make known such practices, and urge the enforcement of laws and justice.

Mrs. Katherine Langley, president of the Pikeville Club, acting as general chairman of arrangements for the meeting of the State Federation of Women's Clubs in May, gave a detailed summary of the plans of each club of the district who are acting as joint hostesses to the convention.

Mrs. J. D. Mayo, chairman of Public Welfare, told of the General Federation of Women's Clubs. Continued on page five.

FEDERAL COURT ACTION IS ASKED AGAINST CITY

Involves Title Purchase in 1922; County, Also Sues the City

Announcing this week that he had received a letter from the Ashland, Ky., law firm of Dysard and Tinsley, representing the Clay Products Company, Mayor A. C. Carter said that the city of Prestonsburg was notified that legal action would be taken against the local citizenry by that firm. It was stated that they had asked the clerk of the federal court to issue an execution against the city of Prestonsburg.

The threatened litigation involves the purchase of sewer title for city streets in 1922 previous to the paving of city streets.

Mayor Carter also stated that Floyd county has instituted a suit also against the city for the debt on the city hall site. The city hall occupies the lot which was the original location of the county jail. In this matter, the mayor stated that the city council has made a levy of 10 per cent to pay this and the most of the taxpayers have been cooperative, while some have been uncooperative and refused to aid in the obligation.

He said that through court action, both debts will have to be paid and that the amount of a court levy is, as yet, undetermined.

DENTAL SOCIETY CONVENES HERE

Business Session Held; Ten Counties Represented; Next Meeting in Whitesburg

A business meeting and banquet of the Kentucky Mountain Dental Society was held at the Auburton here at 7 o'clock Saturday night, March 6. Seventeen dentists from 10 counties attended.

Among business transacted was the election of officers for the ensuing year and the selection of the next meeting site. It was decided to hold the next meeting at Whitesburg on June 5.

Dr. R. H. Messer, Garrett, Ky., retiring president, appointed Dr. Hughes and Dr. Ratliff, of Pikeville, and Dr. J. S. Kelly, of Prestonsburg, as a nominating committee. The following officers were elected for the coming year: President, Dr. Saunders, Heiler, Ky., vice-president, Dr. Sloane, Whitesburg; secretary and treasurer, Dr. Ratliff, Pikeville; trustee, Dr. Vaughn of Jenkins.

Committee chairman for publicity and golf, Dr. Hughes of Pikeville; for trap shoot, Dr. R. H. Messer, Garrett. Dr. J. S. Kelly and Dr. C. R. Stone, of Prestonsburg, are members of the society.

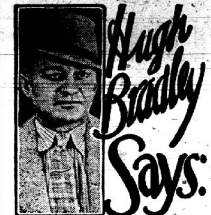

Mrs. Holcomb in Hospital

Mrs. F. H. Holcomb is a patient in St. Mary's Hospital, Charleston, W. Va. She submitted to an operation there Wednesday and is reported to be doing as well as possible.

SAFETY CONTEST PRIZES AWARDED

At the high school Wednesday morning at 11:15, Mayor A. C. Carter presented prize ribbons to the winners of the essay contest sponsored by the Woman's Club and aided by the other civic organizations of Prestonsburg. After brief talk on the value of safety is our present day of living, Professor Triplett introduced Mrs. J. D. Mayo, district chairman of safety, who, in turn, told the students that, although the prizes were being awarded for the safety contest, the campaign was just beginning. The students were asked to continue thinking and acting safely and aiding the adults in making the entire community safety-conscious, that traffic accidents may be greatly reduced.

After promising the pupils his hearty co-operation in bringing about better traffic signs, and more attention to traffic offenders, Mayor Carter presented the following pupils with prize ribbons: The honors for first prize in the division safety on the highway, Sue Martha Randall and William Baldrige; first prize topic, Safety on the Farm, to Hazel Branham; second prize to Gertrude Horn; Safety in the Home, first prize to Mamam G. Leslie, second to Linda Stephens. Thursday and Friday mornings the awards were made to junior high students in the graded school for the slogan contest. Division safety on the road, first prize to Ruth Blackburn, second to Cassie Patrick.

Division Safety in the Streets, first prize to Myra G. Hill, second to Beatrice Sturgill. Division Safety in the Home, first to Lois Stiles, second to Elizabeth May Ford. For the poster contest in the fourth, fifth and sixth grades, in division Safety on the Road, first prize to Ellen Marie Wells, second to Winston Fife. Division Safety in Play, first to Thelma Jean Isaacs, second to Ethel Elaine Clark. Division Safety in the Home, first to Helen Triplett, second to Bernice Boyd.

For the first, second and third grades, Division Safety on the Road, Betty Alice Fife first prize, and Laura V. Robinson, Division Safety in Streets, first and second. Mary Katherine Mayo, first prize, and Johnnie M. Benjie, second. Division Safety in Play, Katherine M. Parker, first prize, and Mary Lou Howard, second.

$20,000 FLOOD FUND FOR FLOYD COUNTY

 set up for the county and the amount was to have been matched dollar for dollar with federal aid. Congress has appropriated to the state of Kentucky the amount of $469,000 for each of the federal fiscal years of 1938 and 1939 for use on secondary highways.

The rules and regulations of the United States Department of Agriculture permit approximately 8-17 of the amount to be spent on the state highway system and the remainder, or $248,000 per year, on the secondary highway system. This means that the Division of Rural Highways must arrange to meet the new all-southern magazine amount during the next two fiscal years, with funds appropriated for use on roads not now being maintained or constructed by the department of highways.

No part of this money is to be spent on any of the federal state highway systems, which is, on any road that has been accepted by the department of highways for maintenance, or is being constructed or reconstructed by the department of highways.

These federal funds will be available July 1, 1937, and bids may be taken as soon as April 1, 1937, as plan and estimates are available.

TWO NEW STORES OPEN HERE

Final alterations and decorations in both stores are now finished and both firms are receiving complete stocks of goods. A visit to these and other stores here, before Easter, should be worthwhile to purchasers seeking quality merchandise at bargain prices. It is generally conceded, merchants in business here say, that merchandise, from drugs to dry goods, can be purchased cheaper in Prestonsburg and elsewhere in this vicinity, at present.

All Prestonsburg merchants extend an invitation to Floyd county buyers to pay them a visit, at least, before making a purchase elsewhere. Prestonsburg now has a number of up-to-date stores and others are locating here in order to give the would-be purchasers choice merchandise at choice prices. It is stated.

BIG SANDY TEACHERS MEET IN SALYERSVILLE

A number of Floyd county teachers attended the March meeting of the Big Sandy teachers' executive club at Salyersville Tuesday night. The meeting was held in the new school building.

Those attending from Prestonsburg were Prof. Ishmael Triplett, Floyd county superintendent; Town Hall Clayborne Stephens, Jack Allen, and John Stephens. Approximately 150 Big Sandy teachers attended the meeting.

The 60-horsepower Ford V-8 engine was first developed for Europe, where fuel costs are high. Two years' usage there proved its unusual economy.

When the "60" came to this country this year, the Ford Motor Company made no mileage claims—waited for facts, written on American roads by American drivers.

Now Ford "60" owners are reporting averages of 22 to 27 miles on a gallon of gasoline. That makes it the most economical Ford car ever built!

Best of all, the Ford "60" is just as big and roomy—just as handsome, sturdy and safe—as the famous 85-horsepower Ford V-8. And it sells at the lowest Ford price in years.

If you want a big car for a small budget—a car you can drive with pride and profit—see the thrifty "60" soon!

THE LINEN DUSTER

A few weeks ago a colleague of mine celebrated the marriage of her son by giving an infare, in the style of long ago. Many of the guests came dressed in old-fashioned clothing, but the one who received most attention was an elderly gentleman who wore a linen duster and carried a cane. The who's afternoon was fitted before my eyes. No visions of other men in linen dusters. Formerly all sorts of people wore linen dusters to protect their Sunday-gowns from meeting clothes, but by time old preachers wore them. We children had men in robes, but the linen duster took the place in our minds of all such regalia. We stood in awe of this robe, probably regarding it as the badge of sanctity. One retired preacher looked entire patriarchal in his linen duster, for he stood over six feet tall and had a long, flowing white beard like those of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob in the big family Bible that was never read but decorated with a "decoration" for the marble-topped center table. When the presiding elder wearing a duster, took the needed one for the roads in summer or winter were like to be dangerous to the dress-up clothes. I recall the shock I felt when the presiding elder took an unusual denunciation of the Baptists, rather hurried out of the church and lit a strong smelling pipe, to acquire a little more energy for the solemn sermon. It was quite the thing for the country doctor and everybody else who represented the world, the flesh, and that other fellow to pull on a cob pipe, but I failed to find any of the patriarchs in the Bible pictures so engaged.

Sarah Ann's Cooking Class

One of the most popular American desserts is cake. It is one of the foods every housekeeper is anxious to make correctly. The entire success of a cake depends greatly upon the frosting. To have a perfect frosting, these are the qualities to look for: first, the flavor of the frosting must blend with that of the cake; second, it must hold its shape, have a glossy surface and at the same time remain moist on standing and feel fine grained and creamy to the tongue.

Cream Filling

- 5 tablespoons flour
  - 3-4 cup sugar
  - 3-4 cup boiling water
  - 1 tablespoon butter
  - 2 egg yolks
  - 1-2 squares chocolate
  - 1 tablespoon gelatin
  - 1-2 cup cream
- Mix the flour and sugar and add the mixture to the boiling water in the top of double boiler. Stir constantly, cook for 15 minutes, add the butter and chocolate and continue cooking until the chocolate is melted. Pour over the beaten egg yolks and return to double boiler just long enough to cook the egg yolks. Stir in the gelatin (dissolved in 1 tablespoon water). Cool. Add cream, stiffly beaten, and chill in refrigerator for about 1 hour. Use between layers of white or chocolate cake.

White Frosting

- 2 cups sugar
- 1 tablespoon corn syrup
- 1/2 cup grains salt
- 6 tablespoons water
- 2 egg whites
- 1 teaspoon vanilla

Cook together the sugar, corn syrup, salt and water. Cook until syrup spins a thin thread about six inches from spoon. Beat egg whites stiff but not too dry. Pour syrup over egg whites in a steady fine stream, beating continuously. Use a wire whisk for this heavier mixture and when the syrup is entirely added, stir in the flavoring, beating again until just right for spreading.

Orange Chocolate Ice

- 3 cups confectioners' sugar
- 2 tablespoons orange juice
- Grated rind of orange
- 3 squares of chocolate
- 1 egg white

Cream butter, add sugar, orange juice and rind. Beat until smooth. Fold in well-beaten egg white. Spread on top layer, sprinkle with 1-2 square of grated chocolate. To remaining icing, add 2-1-2 squares of chocolate which has been melted. Spread on bottom layer of the cake.

Cream Icing

- 1 2-3 cups brown sugar
- 1-2 cup water
- 1-2 cup egg whites
- 1-2 cup finely chopped nut meats.
- 1-8 teaspoon cream of tartar.

Combine water, sugar and cream of tartar. Stir until smooth. Cook without stirring until a hard ball is formed when dropped into cold water. If crystals appear on inside of pan, wipe with damp cloth. When cooked pour over stiffly beaten egg whites. Beat until mixture leaves spoon almost clean or pulls away from side of bowl. Add nuts and spread.

White Icing

In the upper part of a double boiler place 2 unbeaten egg whites, 1-4 teaspoon salt, 1-2 teaspoon cream of tartar and 1-2 cup of water and 2 cups of granulated sugar. Place this over boiling water and beat for 10 minutes with a rotary egg beater. Remove the upper part of the double boiler, pour the hot water from the lower part of the double boiler and fill it 1-3 full of cold water. Replace upper part and let stand five minutes. Flavor with 2 teaspoons vanilla. Spread on cake.

Minute Fudge Icing

- 1-2 cup cocoa
- 1-4 cup butter
- 1-4 cup milk
- 1 cup sugar
- Pinch of salt

Combine ingredients and cook 1 minute. Remove from fire and beat until creamy enough to spread. Makes sufficient to top 1 cake.

Uncooked Mocha Icing

- 2 cups confectioners' sugar
  - 1-2 square unsweetened chocolate
  - 1-4 teaspoon vanilla
  - 1-4 cup cold strong coffee
- Cream butter until very soft. Then add confectioners' sugars gradually, blending thoroughly. Add the melted chocolate, vanilla and strong coffee with the mixture until right consistency to spread. Spread between cake layers until on top.

Uncooked Pineapple Icing

- 4 slices pineapple
  - 1 tablespoon lemon juice
  - 2 tablespoons butter
  - 2-1-2 cups confectioners' sugar
  - 1 egg white
- Shred the pineapple and allow to stand in lemon juice. Cream the butter well, add

Martin Johnson's Camera Snaps Wife In Housekeeping Mood on Last Safari

Martin Johnson's life that ended so tragically as the result of an airplane crash on a lovely snow-covered mountainside near Los Angeles on Jan. 12, though full of adventure was an extremely happy one because of the enjoyment he and his wife derived from their experiences while making motion pictures of wild life in the tropics. One of Mrs. Johnson's functions on these trips was to make life home-like and comfortable no matter how far away from civilization their camp might be. The above photograph, taken by Mr. Johnson toward the end of the expedition in Borneo, where he and his wife lived on a bamboo raft in a chartered scenic steamer. ### Experiences of Life—

Their Significant Interest and Some Ways to Meet Them

By Lydia Le Baron Walker.
THE journey through life is filled with experiences from the time we are born to the day we die. Without them life would be dull and uninteresting. The more experiences are crowded in-but we had no eyes to see them at the time.

Since life is so full of experiences some of which turn out feebly, and others not so satisfactorily, there must be a good reason for our having to go through the events. I remember when I was a little girl and there was something which, to me, seemed very important to decide rightly, how I enjoyed grown-ups. They always knew just what to do! The fallacy of this assumption we all know, but we do not all appreciate how dull life would be if it were true, and how development would be retarded. There is no age limit to the series of experiences.

The benefits of our life experiences come through our way of taking them, and on our wisdom of decisions when these require our consideration. If we think of ourselves only we become selfish, hard, and difficult. If we decide with a larger vision of results, and of the best good to others as well as to ourselves, we become fine and strong characters. By the exercise of good judgment and by making the best of things we learn to develop well by experience.

to our lives the fuller and more interesting they become.

When we are in the midst of events that have elements of danger or when they are of momentous proportions with matters at stake that may be disastrous, should things turn out differently from our wishes, the mind is too excited or too much engrossed with results to grasp anything but the immediate moment.

Reviewing Experiences.

However, on looking back over the past, we discover what thrilling times we went through, and how the experiences stand out as dramatic and of significant interest. Often we find ludicrous features entered into the experience.

SYNOPSIS

Kezia Marsh, pretty, selfish and twenty, arrives home from a business trip. Her father, the older brother, Hugh, drives her to the Marsh home where her widowed mother, Fluvanna, a warm-hearted, self-sacrificing and understanding soul, welcomes her. Kezia, a selfish, young and strongly opinionated, the care of three children, is at lunch with her mother. Hugh passes her, glad of a previous engagement. On the way back to his job at the steel plant foundry, one of his men, Hugh passes the Miller, a boy friend of Kezia whom he no longer sees frequently because of Doris's animosity. Fluvanna Marsh wishes the new boy, Jim, a dream about her late husband, Jim, whose unstable character she fears Kezia has inherited. Ellen Penelope comes over. She is an artificially induced girl who is a distant cousin of Kezia's and a favorite of Fluvanna's. She happily tells Fluvanna she has become engaged to Jerry Parker. Ellen goes to her father and mother, Olivia and Lizzie, who do not approve. Her father, Ellen goes to her father and mother, Olivia and Lizzie, who do not approve. Her father, Ellen goes to her father and mother, Olivia and Lizzie, who do not approve.

"Of course, dear, Eric is polishing the car but I think he'll have it finished soon. "Oh, he's working on it?" Margery hesitated. "Could they play around the yard if the car isn't available? . . . I hate to ask you if they were there so much last week . . ."

"Of course. Bring them on your way home," Kezia, coming down the stairs, said, "Margery, wait, the car? Will she be ready to go to the party? She wants to see Millie Jennings and has asked me to take the boys out."

"Do we have to have those little devils again today? The baby is better, isn't she? They were here yesterday and all last week. Margery imposed on you!"

"They can play around the yard if Eric isn't ready to go to the party to do for Margery. She's worn out, and it will be good for her to get some sleep. They're not little devils—just a couple of healthy normal boys."

"Other people are worn out, too," muttered Kezia under her breath. Fluvanna smiled. "You, my dear."

"Last night I was trying to come in quietly so I wouldn't waken you and I stumbled over a socker in the hall. Barked my shin—look at it!"

"Last night? Kezia, whom did you go out with last night? I don't believe you mentioned it—and I didn't recognize the car."

Kezia's face became bland and innocent. "Did I tell you? A crowd of us went to Emmy Markham's. Bees Snyder is as funny as a clown! You should hear him take off Lem Potter and Mrs. Jim Potter! And we had a swell supper. Went to the kitchen about wet-dishy and cooked bacon and eggs, ate watermelon. No mall for me? . . . I think I'll go and write some letters. I owe everyone I know."

She was disappearing up the stairs when Fluvanna said, "Was Ellen Penelope at Emmie's?"

"No," Kezia answered, carelessly. Fluvanna thought she had heard Jerry's voice from the drive under her window when Kezia came in. She must have been mistaken. Perhaps it had been Bees Snyder. Certainly not Jerry if Ellen had not been there. . . . She remembered that Kezia hadn't really told her who had called for her. Not that it mattered. It only illustrated the secrecy which was one of her traits, that fierce guarding of unimportant trifles, that resentment of being questioned or called to account—even by implication.

Kezia reminded her of her husband. Her thoughts flew away to him. He had hated questioning so. Yet he could be loquacious on occasion, expansive, humorous, witty. It flattered, a mix of many moods. She remembered how well he had dressed. He wore a cutaway coat on Sunday, the silk hat and the winged collar which were the fashion of the time. His bearings had an elegant, almost spelled romance to her. Generous too. Once he gave a cripple the contents of his purse when he bowed money from Fluvanna to pay for her dinner at the hotel. When he received change from a purchase, he always put it in his pocket without counting it.

also liked cards. Late for dinner, late for engagements; a card game had delayed him.

The memories became a moving picture screen reproducing scenes of flashes of scenes impervious to the assault of time. Friends, parties, the birth of Hugh, financial pressure, disagreements and the sweet toll of reconciliation. Jim, gay, hopeful, magnetic; Jim, moose, silent. He always dominated the picture with that possible driving force of his, perverse, ill-considered, but a power, nevertheless. She thought sadly that it was his man nature to love those persons best who had a streak of perversity in their make-up. Or perhaps one is only more aware of that love—they test it so.

Several times he had been forced to borrow from her father to meet various demands, but was never able to repay the loans.

After the death of her mother and his losses in the stock market, Jim's habit of drinking increased.
