What Cobb Thinks about

The Origin of Sitdowns.
SANTA MONICA, CALIF.— With the Barium show there once was an elderly lady elephant named Helen. Now, Helen had wearied of traipsing to and fro in the land.

Probably she figured she'd seen everything anyhow. So each fall when the season ended, she went rejoicing home to Bridgeport, Conn.

Nobody ever knew the date of departure the next spring. There was no more bustle about winter-quarters on that morning than for weeks past.

But always, when Irvin S. Cobb the handlers entered the "bull barn" to lead forth the herd, they found Helen hunkered down on her voluminous haunches, which, under that vast weight, spread out like cake batter on a hot griddle. She would be uttering shrill sobs of defiance. And neither prodding nor hounded words could budge her.

So they'd wrap chains around her and two of her mates would slice on and drag her to the winter-quarters. She'd quit weeping then she'd wipe her moist and accept what fate sent her.

"So please don't come telling me that the sit-down strike is a new notion or that somebody in Europe first thought it up. Thirty years ago I saw my lady elephant friend, Helen, putting on one, all by her four-ton self."

Tax and More Taxes.
JUST when everybody is taking comfort from the yodelled promises of that happy optimist, Chairman Harrison of the senate finance committee, that the government will be able to get by for 1937 without asking the Congress to boost taxes, what happens?

Why, in a most annoying way, Governor Eccles of the federal reserve board keeps proclaiming that, to make treasury receipts come anywhere near meeting treasury disbursements throughout the year, he's afraid it's going to be necessary to raise the rates on incomes and profits higher than ever.

And meanwhile state governors and civic authorities scream with agony at the barren prospect of any reductions in Uncle Sam's allotments for local projects.

A balanced budget would seem to be like Santa Claus—something everybody talks about but nobody ever expects to see.

Self-Determination.
FORMERLY the states jealously guarded their sovereign perquisites. Once—but that was so long ago many have almost forgotten it—they fought among themselves one of the bloodiest civil wars in history over the issue of states' rights.

Now we see them complacently surrendering to federal bureaucracy those ancient privileges—and maybe, after all, that's the proper thing to do, if in central authority lies the hope of preserving a republican form of government.

Still, one wonders what Englishmen would do under like circumstances, since Englishmen are fussy about their inheritance of self-determination. Perhaps the distinction is this:

In democracies there exists the false theory that all men are born free and equal. So the Englishman insists on having his freedom, which is a concrete thing, and laughs at the idea of equality. Whereas, the American abandons his individual freedom provided he may cling to the fetish of equality.

Yankee tweedledee and British tweedledum may be brothers under the skin, but they have different skin diseases.

The Parole Racket.
IT IS astonishing but seemingly true that, of five young gangsters recently caught red-handed in a criminal operation, not a single one was a convict out on parole. Is there no way to bar rank amateurs from a profession calling for prior experience and proper background? And can it be that the various parole boards over the union are not turning loose qualified practitioners fast enough to keep up with the demand? Maybe we need self-appointing juries.

Those sentimentalists who abhor the idea that a chronic offender be required to serve out his latest sentence should take steps right away to correct this thing before it goes too far. Our parole system must be vindicated if it costs the lives and property of ten times as many innocent citizens as at present.

Elephant tug-of-wars, in which the beasts locked tusks and sometimes struggled for hours, were feature of a festival recently held near Calcutta, India.

Smart, Flattering Dresses

MRS. DICK EVANS has come to town and brought Ann and Eddie LeRoy with her. She lives in Palm Beach in the winter-time and, of course, knows all about style. That's why she wears this director's "pewee" that is both new and figure-flattering. In the floral print she has chosen she is perfect for the parties that will be given for her in the home town. The kiddies are wearing the simple styles appropriate to children and dress their smartness lies.

Auntie Rose Sews, Too.
Little Ann is asking Auntie Rose if she makes her clothes too. "Sure enough, dear," comes the reply. "I made this percale for mornings and have a beauty in yellow crepe cut from the same pattern to wear to the Bid-or-Bid meetings."

"I'll bet you can sew fast, too, the way Mother does. It only took her two mornings to make Eddie's suit and my dress. Won't you make me a dress like yours?"

"Indeed I will, Ann, and then we will have some of those oatmeal cookies you like for lunch."

The Patterns.
Pattern 1272 is available in sizes 14 to 20 (32 to 42 bust). Size 14 requires 4 1/2 yards of 39 inch material and 2 1/2 yards of ribbon for tie belt.

OF INTEREST TO THE HOUSEWIFE

A Mirror Brightens—Many housekeepers have found that a hanging mirror will often brighten up a dark corner.

Useful Velvet—If you are making anything of velvet do not throw away the pieces of material left over. Save them for using as polishers for your black-leaded stoves and for your shoes. You'll get a real mirror-like shine on both if you rub them with velvet after the usual polish has been applied.

Removing Grease Stains—Grease stains can be removed from cement walks and porches with a poultice made by dissolving four ounces of trisodium phosphate in a gallon of water and mixing in whitening until a paste the consistency of mortar is obtained and plastering a layer of this over the stained area. When dry remove with a trowel or putty knife.

A Supper Special—One cup left-over cooked vegetables, four eggs, half a teaspoonful salt, dash of pepper, half-cup grated cheese. Break the eggs and beat the yolks and whites together. Stir in the vegetables. Add pepper and salt. Put in greased baking dish. Cover with grated cheese and bake in hot oven ten minutes.

Use Baking Sheets—Baking powder biscuits and cookies rise better and brown more evenly on baking sheets than they do in pans.

To Remove a Tight Lid—Tie a piece of string round the tin two or three times, just below the lid; then push a pencil between the string and the tin, twist the pencil over, and the resulting pressure will release the lid.

Why Firestone GROUND GRIP TIRES GIVE MORE TRACTION

THE patented scientific arrangement and spacing of the deep, rugged bars of the tread make this tire self-cleaning. It will not clog or ball up, thus providing clean traction with every turn of the wheel. The deep rugged tread is held inseparably to the cord body because every cotton fiber in every cord has been soaked in pure liquid rubber by the Firestone Patented Process of Gum-Dipping. This gives the tire much greater strength to resist the strains of the extra "pull."

Ground Grip Tires save 25 per cent in time and 25 per cent in fuel. They give more traction and drawbar pull—ride easier and cut down repair bills. You can save time and money by equipping your tractors, trucks and farm implements with Ground Grip Tires. See your Implement Dealer, Firestone Tire Dealer or Firestone Auto Supply and Service Store today.

CIRCUS COMING

Everywhere you look, you see big attractively colored posters bearing the date of Friday, April 23, announcing the coming of the big Dan Rice three-ring circus at Prestonsburg on ball park show grounds, for two performance at 2 and 8 p. m., on that date, and lots of interest is being shown, for this is the first real big circus to be seen in a long time and the Dan Rice Circus is one of the few real big circuses that show some of the smaller cities and now on its 86th triumphant tour. It will be a real pleasure to witness a performance of this circus, for no other show will give such a fine performance for so little money as is presented by the Dan Rice Three Ring Circus.

Among the many features of the performance, which lasts over two hours, will be the Ad-Zac herd of performing elephants, that were features of a number of Shrine Circuses the past winter; Marvelous Mary Miller, the queen of the air; "Andy Colno," the chimpanzee with the human brain and a remarkable example of animal intelligence; the original Gentry dogs and ponies; the Olympian troupe of gymnasts; Ling Chung Fu, Chinese acrobat; Danny McPride and a whole troupe of funny clowns and many others that make up a program of rare excellence. School children under 14, cut coupon from the Circus advertisement and be admitted for the afternoon performance for 15 cents.

Tickets may be secured, in advance the day of the circus at drug store at the same price charged at the show grounds.

Comets Are Bulkiest and Lightest of Sun's Family

Comets are the bulkiest and lightest members of the sun's family of satellites and seemingly the most erratic. The more that is learned about them, however, the less erratic they appear. They have been considered mysterious objects by all ages since the earliest times and have been observed with awesome fear, asserts a writer in the New York Herald Tribune. Comets have lost their status as bearers of dire forebodings of catastrophes among the educated classes, but they still retain a mystical significance for all classes that is easily understood by anyone who has seen their fantastic tails spread across the heavens. They are fascinating objects even to the astronomers who have found them useful in unraveling some of the mysteries of the heavens. They find in them many mysteries awaiting solution.

The head of a comet has a peculiar structure. It is not a solid body, but is an aggregation of very small bodies. It is a clump of irregularly shaped particles, held together by a force of attraction.

What holds these particles together is a good deal of a mystery. The gravitational attraction which the particles exert on each other seems to be very inadequate and a more powerful cohesive force is required.

Tails that stream out behind the comet as they approach the sun and usually point away from the sun supply another mystery. The explanation that has sufficed in the past is that gases in the metal particles in the head of the comet are forced out by the increasing heat and that the pressure of light forces these gases away from the sun. Some tails are almost at right angles to the line joining the comet and the sun instead of falling directly on this line.

GUNSHOT CHARGE CAUSE OF DEATH

Sheriff Wednesday morning filed a petition and notice of juvenile proceedings against the accused boy, meanwhile a warrant was issued from the county judge's office setting a $2,000 bond. The county attorney stated the case would be tried in a juvenile session of county court on April 26. The boy is under the guardianship of his father until the trial date. The proceedings name the Leedy boy as an infant defendant.

It is hoped that all citizens in appreciation of this beautification program of which our town is so badly in need will help in every way to preserve and protect these plants. The trees planted by the clubs have in some cases been treated badly—the protecting frames were destroyed and in some cases cut away and the young trees were tied to the young trees. Each citizen should appoint himself a committee of one to see that this is not repeated and in this way help to make Prestonsburg a City Beautiful.

He said this is necessary in order that employers can make the first decided wage record return in July of this year and quarterly thereafter. It is from this quarterly return that the Social Security Board is expecting to obtain the necessary record in order to determine the benefit the worker will receive since the monthly tax return does not give any information as to the individual wages. Employers are encouraged to consult the Ashland office on their problems regarding Social Security and answers to any questions will be promptly given.

You might think that now that Lucille Manners has "arrived" in a top spot in the radio firmament, she would take it easy and rest on her laurels. But the ambitious young soprano is not content to rest on her laurels, but rather than ever to remain her present enviable niche—she is taking French, Spanish and German lessons each week.

Charlie McCarthy, mute partner of Venturini Edgar Bergen is probably the only dummy in the world who can mail. Writes a story, reads it to himself, and then writes on Thursday to listen to you. He says: "If you will send me your picture, I will send you mine."

Normality which is hall mark of Bing Crosby's Thursday night program would lose its appeal if it were studied and rehearsed. The performers read the lines over beforehand, but live informality and spontaneity are the heart of the program. The great concert pianist, Nischa Levitski, was seen slipping his suspenders off his shoulders while playing in the Hall, and Rose Hampton recently found Bing moving a piano when she arrived for rehearsal.

Most of Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt's broadcasts will come from Washington. It has now been decided that her talks will be heard on Wednesdays over the NBC blue network from 7:15 to 7:30 p. m. S. T.

Sarah Ann's Cooking Class

There are many ways of serving lamb, which makes it a very satisfactory meat for the housekeeper to serve. Slices from the shoulder, or leg are good either served cold or heated in gravy. Lamb casserole, lamb soufflé or lamb mousse, are a few of the ways of using leftovers.

Stuffed Shoulder of Lamb
Select a tender young roast and have the butcher bone it for you. Make a filling by mixing 1-2 cup of finely chopped raw ham, 1-2 cups of soft bread crumbs, 2 tablespoons of fat pork, 1-4 cup of rich milk, grating of nutmeg, 1 teaspoon of onion juice, pepper and salt to taste.

Lamb Soufflé
Pour 2 cups hot medium white sauce over 3 beaten egg yolks, stirring constantly. Cool and then add 2 cups minced lamb, 1-2 teaspoon minced parsley, 1-2 teaspoon minced onion. Fold in 3 beaten egg whites. Pour into a greased casserole, set in pan of hot water and bake in oven 375 degrees for 45 minutes.

Baked Lamb Chops
6 lamb chops, 1 in. thick
1 cup sliced onion
3 tablespoons shortening
4 cups sliced potatoes
3 cups sliced cucumbers
2 teaspoons salt
1-2 teaspoon pepper
2 cups canned tomatoes

Curried Lamb
1 slice onion
1 1-2 tablespoons butter
1 1-2 tablespoons flour
3-4 cup lamb stock
1 teaspoon curry powder
Salt and pepper
Cooked lamb
Cooked peas
Steamed rice, parsley

THE FARM AND HOME

(Kentucky Agricultural Experiment Station)
Herjaches, Bookaches and nervous troubles are sometimes caused by improperly fitted or the wrong kind of shoes. It is especially important that properly fitted shoes be worn during the growing years, if the feet are to be freed from aches and pains in adult life.

Lack of good water helps to reduce livestock profits on many farms. Where at all possible, water should be piped from springs, streams or wells to concrete tanks, so that a clean, fresh supply will be available at all times.

For 24 hours after farrowing, give the sow nothing but clean water. Then begin with a thin slop, gradually increasing the feed until she is on full feed in a week or 10 days, which will be about 4 pounds of grain a day to 100 pounds of weight.

To screen the house well use No. 16 mesh screen wire. This will keep out mosquitoes as well as flies. Full-length screens hung on hinges at the top, and with close fitting frames which hook at the bottom, are most satisfactory.

If a commercial starter is used for baby chicks do not use milk, but use water, instead, since commercial feeds usually contain sufficient protein. County agents know how to make good home mixtures for poultry.

A septic tank is the best disposal, as it is water tight and the overflow is passed through a filter, which kills bacteria, air and sunlight purify it. The system should be installed with care, if later trouble is to be avoided.
