STUMBO ACTS TO RESTRICT COMPETITION

ALLEGES GRONNERUD, OTHERS VIOLATE AGREEMENT

The Beave Valley Hospital, Martin, filed in the Floyd circuit court Friday a suit which may or may not even the score between Dr. W. C. Stumbo, present owner of the hospital and its former owner, most prominently mentioned of whom are Dr. A. G. Osborne and Dr. Paul Gronnerud, both of Pikeville.

The action asks that the defendants be prevented from advertising or being allegedly signed by them, upon the re-purchase of the hospital, July 31, last year by Dr. Stumbo.

All these contractual provisions, Dr. Stumbo claims, have in particular been violated by Dr. Osborne and Gronnerud. His action also names as defendants Dr. M. D. Flannery, Dr. R. S. Johnson, Mrs. Sarah W. Rayless as widow and administrator of the estate of Dr. R. W. Rayless, and the Pikeville National Bank as guardian for the estate of Mrs. Rayless' children.

DECISION SEEN IN CONTEST

MARTIN'S ELECTION MAY BE RULED VOID

Decision of Special Judge A. F. Childers, Pikeville in the election contest case involving members of the board of trustees, town of Martin, may be the last important action of the present civil term of the Floyd circuit court before the opening Monday at Hindman of the Knott court term.

Because both factions in the contest action failed to file election returns, it is felt, therefore, it is freely predicted that a "no election" decision will be made. In that event, Martin will be without a board of trustees and County Judge E. P. Hill will be required to name a new board.

Funds Are Subscribed For Scout Cabin By Kiwanians

More than $80, which will be used for the purpose of building a cabin for local Boy Scouts, was raised by voluntary contributions as the fathers-sons banquet at the regular meeting of the Kiwanis Club held at the Methodist Church Friday night.

The meeting, over which Dr. C. L. Hulstaylor presided, was high-lighted by addresses of various members of the group, speaking in the interest of the Boy Scout movement. The Rev. Campbell Jerfries, pastor of the Prestonsburg Baptist Church, mentioned the many worth-while activities being carried on by the organization.

NET TOURNNEY OPENS TONIGHT

DIFFICULTY ARISES IN SELECTION OF OFFICIALS

Although the 58th district basketball tournament will open in the Garrett high school gymnasium tonight, Thursday, selections of the two official referees who will handle all the games were unknown at an early hour this morning.

According to reports Jack McCown, former Marshall College net star, who early in the week was considered one of the certain officials, has informed the tournament management of his inability to officiate because of a previous commitment. It is reported that Jim Barney, of Ashland who was considered a possible official, will call the Pike county tournament at Tradeville Johnson will officiate at the 50th district play-offs at Oil Springs. Other possible referees for the Garrett tournament are Dick Lookey, Pikeville, and Bob Shney, Wheelwright.

Cochran Wiley Jones, Wayland team and Coach Everett Hall's Auxer Hornets will open hostilities at 8 o'clock tonight in what is expected to be a toss-up Friday afternoon McDowell will meet Betsy Layne, and Wheelwright will be pitted against Garrett.

At 7:30 Friday night the winner of the Wayland-Auxer tussle will engage Maytown, and an hour later Prestonsburg and Martin will tangle. Semi-finals will get under way Saturday afternoon at 2:30, when the winner of the McDowell-Betsy Layne game will meet the winner of the Auxer-Hornets game.

This Town-- That World

IN BEHALF OF THE LITTLE 'UNS

Drift contributed $170; Wayland, hard-hit by unemployment, $44.93. These two mining camps, as well as most of Floyd county, are contributing to funds necessary to the fight against infantile paralysis.

These two communities are the county's "higest," because they know that the ravages of polio are. They are "high," because most of their citizens are miners, the boys who go beneath millions of tons of rock to dig out a rock to work and are ever aware of the sudden disaster that may befall them or their children.

'CATS, 2ND IN CONFERENCE AS TOURNAY STARTS

By JEWELL DAVIDSON

Handicapped by a late football season and the loss of use of the high school gymnasium since it was being used as a workshop for materials for the Prestonsburg high school Blackcats, were off to a disastrous start in their early season games. While other teams were able to have several weeks preliminary training and practice, the 'Cats were idle and without practice until four days before their first game.

In the Big Sandy Conference, the 'Cats have won eight of their ten games. This places them in second place below Inez, perennial champions, to whom the Blackcats lost two of their four games. Games were lost also to Betsy Layne and Pikeville in the early part of the season on the home floor.

In Floyd county basketball circles, the 'Cats are tied with four wins and four losses. Two of these losses were to the powerful Garrett high school team, which is undefeated within the county.

have enjoyed one of their most successful seasons in several years. In spite of the fact that the interest of the townspeople and students was limited to a faithful few, their spirit has been remarkable. In some of the home games the only noise heard in the gymnasium were the whistle of the referee, the snapping of the ball on the floor and backboard, and the padding of rubber-soled shoes up and down the floor.

Financially, the season has not ended as disastrously as the preceding football season did. In football, a deficit of over $500 was contracted with the school candy and school supply store, with the supervision of Clayton Triplett, and Principal Clayton. The basketball season has ended with an outgoing in the "red."

$170 CONTRIBUTION SWELLS FUND TO $295

One community, Drift, on Left Beaver Creek, where the Turner-Ekhorn Coal Company is located, this week added to the "Fight Infantile Paralysis" campaign funds $170 of the $200 contributed from all of Floyd county to date. County Judge E. P. Hill, Jr., drive chairman, announces.

Largest previous contribution from any other community was Wayland's, which was $45.98. At the same time, Prestonsburg contribution was undetermined. This town and Allen, together, have, to date, contributed only $24.37.

TIDBITS OF KENTUCKY FOLKLORE

"BETTER THAN HIS BOND"

There used to be a well-known phrase that described a man better than images of glowing words; some one noted for his scrupulous honesty was characterized thus: "His word is better than his bond." This meant, of course, that it was unnecessary for a man to sign his name to legal papers; if he made a promise, he would perform it, regardless of consequences. Many an older person of whom this was said could sign only a cross to a document, any way and therefore could not possibly know the contents of the legal paper. This fine old phrase still has a familiar and pleasing ring to many of our other times. When I think of the people who have been trusted with money, only to betray that trust, I am reminded of this fine way of saying that a man's character is as every bank will tell you the best collateral.

In old fidelity there lived a man who could easily have been the original of this description. He lived across the creek from us and was the father of a large family. When he sold his horse, he would come across the fields at noon, while his plow horses were resting or mauling their food, and pay his debts to father, the country doctor. He did not ask how much he owed or make many of the lame excuses that were the rule in our neighborhood and elsewhere; he took out his pocketbook, passed it across to father, and told him to take out whatever the bill amounted to. Father, impressed with his unusual honesty and trustfulness, acted quite as scrupulously and explained carefully every item to the old man hurried back through the fields and across the creek to hitch up his horses for another hard day's work. Little realizing that he had a plain, fatherly, kindly country man had become for us the very incarnation of honesty. When he took the store he carried out the same program, never seeming to doubt the fairness of everybody. So far as I know, nobody ever took advantage of his queer method of paying his way in the world. His honesty bred other honesty or, at least, silenced whatever devices we may have had to cheat him. Lowell says something about our nobleness making the nobleness in others a nobleness that may be sleeping but is never dead.

Old Man Henry (Bull-o-the-Woods) Campbell was seen diligently sweeping the Pottman early last Sunday morning and he wonders if he has a new job or is he trying to seek a more pleasant job, away from an apron strings of Mrs. Henry. At any rate, we hope Mrs. Henry sees this and puts him to sweeping at home. Boy! he wields that broom in a very wicked manner.

A little might as to why the United Mine Workers is such a great organization: John Hanratty was field manager for the Big Sandy division of the U. M. W. for several years but was transferred to the coal fields of Alabama where he now works. Recently it was mentioned to him that he should come back to the Big Sandy river and the wife of Mr. Hanratty spoke up with this information—that John was standing Spanish in the hope that he would be able to use it some time in the future.

Well, I can't imagine many fellows at the age of 50 who have the temerity to take up Spanish. But we hope old John gets all out of the matter that he puts into it and knowing him as we do, we predict he will.

Freddie Franklin, the Johnson county boy who has made good in the metropolis of Right Beaver as the nicest guy in these here parts, is hunting again with that wondrous dog he owns. On a recent hunting expedition his dog treed and with snow and ice on the ground he found his dog had treed a swarm of bees. Fred said you don't believe that one, just come up along about April, as he intends to cut the tree and live his bees at that time.

Chief of Police Rich Hall was up and about this week-end for the first time since last October when he was shot in the leg. We hope Rich will have a full and complete recovery and will soon be able to return to his regular duties.

The Bachelor Club of Wayland had every reason to be proud of a very distinguished member, one Jack Lyons, for the way he acquitted himself at a Valentine banquet, the other night. Mr. Ward, the feastmaster, assigned him the subject, "What To Do With Leap Year Proposals"—and did that young man do it with style and grace! He absent a tall story? Up and down 'em, Jack!—you win the brass ring or any other prize the Bachelor Club may award for the year 1940.

lead, when Frady went in for a crimp and held on to the lead during the rest of the game. At the quarter Evan Mills foul shot was nullified because of a Wayland player being over the line, and Wayland led, 7-5.

Midway in the second period Wayland built a good lead, but a map-down closed the gap, 13-11, on a field goal by Webb, two free-pitches by G. Patton and one by Allen. At the intermission Wayland led, 17-14.

Evan Mills started the scoring for Wayland in the third period by sinking a crimp, then Frady slipped away for a show-bird, to give Wayland the lead, 21-14. Sturgill, going in fast, made a crimp as he was fouled, then made two foul losses, giving his team a 25-14 lead. Patton, after receiving a pass from Allen, made a crimp that reduced the lead to 26-18. At the end of the third quarter Wayland held a 30-18.

By making nine field goals in the fourth period while holding Maytown to two field goals and two charity tosses, Wayland steadily increased the lead. Six Wayland players made one or more field goals during this quarter.

Evan Mills was Wayland's chief offensive threat, collecting 11 points, Martin was Maytown's high scorer, with 10 points. Frady, who had free-pitches for eight points. Terry, Wayland forward, was held scoreless by the excellent guarding on the part of Maytown's Bingham.

In a preliminary girls' game Wayland swapped Maytown, 11-1.

Maytown Wildcats Are Tamed By Wayland

In their final game of the current basketball season the Maytown high school Wildcats, after enjoying a one-point lead midway in the opening period, fell victims to the power of Coach Wiley Jones. Wayland five, 48-24, Friday night on the Maytown floor.

With a steady stream of capable reserves seeing action, the Wayland five did not let their slender lead slip. In an effort to combat Maytown's customary half-half let-down, Coach Dyer started several substitutes.

In the first quarter after Evan Mills and Sturgill had hit field goals to give Wayland a 4-0 lead, Northrup, Maytown reserve center, sank an over-hand shot. G. Patton, after being fouled by Sturgill, made a foul toss, then R. Patton, Maytown substitute forward, made a field goal, giving his team the lead, 8-4. Wayland soon regained the

Wayland Quint Downs Meade Memorial In Thriller

Taking the lead early in the game when Terry made a field goal and scoring 40 from all the way, the Wayland high school basketball team scored a thrilling 39-25 victory over the Meade Memorial team from Johnson county Saturday night on the Wayland floor in the last scheduled game of the season for both teams.

Playing from a packed house Wayland built up a 9-2 lead, through the shooting of Terry Frady and Sturgill, midway in the opening quarter. At the end of the quarter Wayland led, 11-4. The home team enjoyed its biggest lead, 19-11 near the end of the first half. A free throw and field goal by Meek and a field goal by Sturgill cut the lead to 19-16 at the half.

The second half was a nip-and-tuck battle all the way, but Meade was never able to overtake Wayland's narrow lead. At the end of the third period Wayland was clinging desperately to a 24-22 margin. Near the end of the game the winners increased their advantage to 30-25, then field goals by Meade's elongated center, Price, and Preston, moved the lead forward, narrowed Wayland's advantage to one point. The game ended before Meade again was able to take possession of the ball.

Price, with an even dozen points to his credit, was high scorer for the game. Sturgill, Wayland center, led his teammates in scoring, with seven points. Starting line-ups: Wayland (30) Nos. M. Memo. BLACKCATS WIN 6TH STRAIGHT

VICTORY OVER META CLOSSES CURRENT NET SEASON

Using every man on his 12-man squad at some time during the game, Coach Bob Harlowe wound up the 1940 basketball schedule of his Prestonsburg Blackcats with an easy 51-38 victory over the Meta (John's Creek) high school basketball team Saturday night on the local floor. The win was Prestonsburg's sixth straight.

Most of Prestonsburg's scoring was the result of the work of the regular team, although many of the reserves saw action. J. Heinze, Damron, Salisbury and Sloane all contributed heavily to the Blackcats' scoring and Hunter, the fifth man in the Prestonsburg starting five, turned in an excellent defensive game.

In scoring their sixth consecutive victory the 'Cats had an easy time of it, and were out in front, 28-17, at the intermission. The visitors played the entire game without making a substitution.

T. Meade, playing at forward for the losers, captured scoring honors by netting four field goals and six charity tosses for 14 points. Damron, who collected three field goals in each half, was runner-up, with 12 points. Heinze and Sloane each made ten points for the 'Cats.

In a preliminary tussle the Prestonsburg girls outscored the Martin girls, 19-10.

Credit Group Names Samuel Hale As Director

Samuel Hale, of Goodloe, and Fred P. Cole, of Boyd county, were named to serve as directors of the Big Sandy Production Credit Association, at the sixth annual meeting of the group which was held at Paintsville Friday, February 16.

More than 200 farmer members and their wives attended the all-day affair which marked the sixth successful year for the operation by farmers of their own short-term credit organization.

In making the annual report, secretary-treasurer ad interim, Mrs. Freda Willoughby, told members that the association in 1939 loaned $238,096. Capital stock owned by members amounts to $15,095. Net earnings for the year from the association's operations totaled $1,641. After six years of operation, the association reported assets of $297,933, and liabilities of $191,923.

It was a surprise to many to learn of the many types of agricultural production financed by association loans. During the past year production credit financing made possible the production of beef cattle, dairy cattle, horses, mules, hogs, poultry, corn, wheat, oats, legumes, beans, etc.

In 39 legislative days the House and Senate have actually passed 19 bills and three resolutions. With the session the third year, the Senate has passed 40 bills and 42 resolutions. The House has introduced 414 bills, 100 of which have been introduced and 87 resolutions to act on.

Here are the 19 bills and three resolutions that have been passed which have cut the taxpayers of the state approximately $4,000 each in legislative salaries and expenses. House Bills 2, 50, 89 and 95 merely change the time of holding court in the 10th, 38th, 31st and 37th judicial districts. House Bill No. 1 was the budget bill previously reported in this column. BEACH-COMBIN'
—with—
HENRY ARROWOOD

W. M. Boone, Fla.—I notice Jim Farley says the Democratic party is not going to let the people forget, during the coming national campaign, about the country in which we live in when Roosevelt was inaugurated in 1933.

Shucks, the folks don't have to remember that far back. They can keep busy just not forgetting the condition the country has been in since Roosevelt was inaugurated in 1933.

Some people part their hair in the middle because they are so narrow-minded that if they parted it on one side their brains couldn't balance the budget. And some part it on one side as some another. But the worst part of all is to part WITH it.

Smile. Smooth as a buzzard's shadow on a still pond.

The only reason for war is that those who mind wars are safer than those who fight them.

One state for the union elects its governor for three years. That's New Jersey. Twenty-four others elect for four-year terms and the rest elect for two years. North Dakota, with an area almost a third greater than New York state, pays its Governor only $3,000 a year, while New York pays her Governor $25,000 a year.

Some things may be as broad as the ocean, but it isn't any state in the union. Louisiana, which right now is enjoying the spotlight as the most corrupt in the nation, is the nearest to the square of any—it is 280 miles long and 275 miles wide.

Who is this "Mr. Grant"? He gets in the newspapers so much you'd think he's some kin to U. S.

Representative Louis Ludlow has the right idea about declaring war. His proposed amendment to the Constitution was to let the people who are going to get shot, say when the shooting is to start.

That would give the mothers whose sons are to be used as cannon hay a chance to put in their approval or disapproval on sending their sons to battle.

I remember when U. D. Williams looked his first olive "olive, heck," he said, "that's a green persimmon."

Every grandpa ought to be compelled to grow a beard. It's unfair to grandchildren not to be able to remember their grandpas with a beard.

Also it gives "grandma" something to lead the old man around with.

All women are not the same. Some are worse than others.

The human mind is about the weakest link in a long, long chain of circumstances. No two people in all the millions on earth can agree on all questions. Even husbands and wives can't ALWAYS agree! And how!

Note to Jesse Peppery of Paintsville: Your son Walter ate so many fish, swallowing bones and all, the first week he was down here, that he can't get his underwear off and he is planning on entering him in a porcupine contest.

Even the saloon people believe there are too many saloons. Half of them would be glad to see the number cut in half. They want the OTHER half to quit.

If you keep your nose to the grindstone, how are you going to make any money?

Of course if you hold it there long enough the ends will get closer together.

The way my N' brother, the Cunnel, loses money around here is to be in the preceding expense for a tour, the AAA points out that while mileage cost is fairly constant, cost of food and lodging are major items that will vary widely, depending upon the type of accommodations sought. However, for the average motorist, it can be assumed that approximately $5.00 per day will be spent for car operation and about $2.50 per day for each member in the party.

DRIVING TIME BETWEEN CITIES
Because the average motorist planning a vacation trip is more interested in hours than miles, the new mileage chart just issued by the American Automobile Association shows average driving time as well as distance between cities throughout the United States.

"This new departure in preparing our mileage chart," an AAA announcement said, "reflects a changed attitude on the part of the traveling public. Not so many years ago the average motorist, when considering a vacation objective, asked, 'How far is it?' Today, he asks, 'How long will it take me to get there?'"

"The average driving speeds shown on our new mileage chart's were carefully prepared with all factors such as speed laws, road conditions, congestion, and so on taken into consideration, and are based on direct time as reported by our fleet of about cars now covering the nation's highways."

"The new mileage chart shown on the left is the 829 mile journey from Florida, Canada, to Cleveland, Wyoming, which requires an average of 24 hours' driving time, shortest is the 40-minute trip from Greensburg to Winston-Salem, N. C.

With this chart there is also a pamphlet section which costs involved in automobile operation, and average expenses of a motor vacation trip. It points out that one of the most frequent queries received by motor clubs involves car operation costs, and the booklet declares that motorists are inclined to over-estimate in their out-of-pocket transportation cost.

"Because many companies allow five or more cents a mile for employee-operated cars," the pamphlet points out, "motorists are frequently apt to think it will cost them that much to go on a vacation trip. This is not correct, because the car allowance is designed to cover depreciation and other items as well as actual mileage cost. Expenses are actually an amount to be subtracted between one and one-half to two cents per mile, provided no repair or tire replacement are necessary."

In computing expenses for a tour, the AAA points out that while mileage cost is fairly constant, cost of food and lodging are major items that will vary widely, depending upon the type of accommodations sought. However, for the average motorist, it can be assumed that approximately $5.00 per day will be spent for car operation and about $2.50 per day for each member in the party.

DOG SHOTS MAN

According to our local physician, Dr. B. C. Bach, a colored man from Hot Spot was brought to his hospital on Tuesday of this week suffering from a gun-shot wound received when his dog, in a playful mood, jumped upon the man's one of his paws knocking off a revolver, accidentally discharging it and the bullet taking effect in the colored man's hand. The injury was painful, but not serious, states Dr. Bach.

We have heard of instances in which "Dog bites man" and "Man bites dog," but as far as we can recall this is the first instance we have heard of, "Dog shoots man"—Wintersburg, Eagle.

SHIKE'S POKES

The views expressed in this column are those of the writer, and are not necessarily those of The Times.

Well, I see where 'Happy' has announced for the Senate—and where he put in a bid for Dan Tabor to keep his job. We're just wondering if he asked for Kentucky's delegation to the Democratic convention to be instructed for Garner.

These ultra-conservative Democrats are like the Hoover Republicans—they don't last long. People soon find them out.

If Mr. Donaldson has ambition to be a Senator—well, this should be his year. Those Canadian miners at the Columbus convention were "tops" with the Kentuckians—they even used our slang—but they all wondered where our "guts" were.

While all the Presidential candidates are sparring for votes, I'll dedicate this little ditty to F. D. R. The President: We know that you've got Three cheers for him!—the people's choice.

My friends, again I make my plea— You can't go wrong with Franklin D. I guess everyone in this county knows "Tracie" Joe Larkin—knows also that he keeps alive almost a lost art—that of tanning hides and making home-made shoes. He told me Sunday that a nurse came over to watch him work and the first thing she wanted to see was his pig-tail!

If Floyd county received four hundred and ninety-six thousand dollars to build secondary roads why don't they fix the Stearns Branch road so you could at least get a wagon over it? If anyone gets hurt at that time they have to be carried two miles on a stretcher to the highway. The way you can get into that riding camp is up the railroad.

We can kinda get an ambulance up Left Beaver by using a "prize pie" in the bad places.

Old Bear Buck used to help me to try and rush the wagon on our bridge. He used to say something every week about how slow the WPA was but he's quit—just as soon as he found out it was not the WPA doing the building.
