Bids Asked On Half Of Promised Work

RIGHT-OF-WAY CLEARANCE SOUGHT

JUSTICE DECLARES 'THEY PROMISED 12 MILES'

County and state highway officials this week sought to clear the right-of-way of the Left Beaver Creek road of all encroachments so that contract for "black-top" surfacing a part of the route may be awarded on or about July 12, County Judge E. P. Hill Jr. announced.

This action was taken following receipt of Highway Commissioner Zach Justice's letter to Judge Hill of last week reading in part: "This road is set up for contract and bids are to be received on July 12, on which day of soon thereafter, award will be made and a work order issued; provided, however, all encroachments on the rights-of-way are removed by that time."

Though 12 miles of surfacing of the Left Beaver Creek road from its junction with Route 9, near Martin, extends in the direction of Wheelwright to a point near McDowell was not on the state highway construction plan, the project was authorized by THE TIMES this week for only 2 1/2 miles of surfacing.

Highway Commissioner Zach Justice, Fluvanna, told this newspaper Wednesday afternoon that he is disappointed in the advertisement.

"They promised 12 miles would be surfaced," Mr. Justice said. "I am going to fight the case, and am hoping to get the other six miles left to contract; for this road is needed and I want the matter settled."

Later, however, in a telephone communication with F. X. Flahback at the state highway department's office in Frankfort, THE TIMES learned that highway officials there have little hope of more than six miles being surfaced this year. Said Mr. Flahback: "The 1940 highway program authorized in 13 miles of the Left Beaver Creek."

Dry Cleaning Plant, Residence Here Are Damaged

Two fires here Wednesday created damage variously estimated at from $3,000 to $5,000. First of the blazes was that which, discovered at 4 a. m., gutted the home of George Burchett in "Yellow Town" to the extent that the building and its contents were termed a total loss. The fire started during an electrical storm and is believed to have had its origin in wiring. Mr. Burchett placed his loss at $2,000. Later Wednesday afternoon, a fire of unexplained origin broke out in the cleaning department of the Prestonsburg Dry Cleaning, damaging the building in which it was located to the estimated extent of $1,500 and ruining cleaning and pressing machinery.

FALSE ARREST TERM UPHeld

GIRL'S IMPRISONMENT HELD 'OUTRAGEOUS, CRIMINAL'

Denouncing the stopping and searching of a party of young people in Floyd county by a highway patrolman, another old girl in jail all "outrageous, criminal conduct," the Court of Appeals Tuesday upheld a five-year false arrest sentence imposed on Deputy Sheriff Tom Parsons.

The opinion said the young men and women were searched as well as their car and a violation of other "contraband" or other evidence of law violation was found and added: "The only intimation of an excuse or purpose for the outrageous, criminal conduct of these men (the officers) is the implication contained in a remark by one of them referring to one of the young people as 'The Bill Reynolds' girl and he will pay off like a slot-machine."

Mrs. Elizabeth Laferty, Mrs. Clark, Dies Friday

Mrs. Elizabeth Laferty, 92 years old, widow of the late John Laferty, succumbed Friday at the home of her foster-daughter, Mrs. Seymour Gray, on the head of Bull Creek, the victim of a heart ailment attendant upon advanced age.

One of this section's oldest and best women, "Aunt Liz," as she was affectionately known, had been in declining health for the past year. She was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Fisher Laferty, who came to Bull Creek from West Virginia many years ago. Her husband had been dead about 20 years. She had been a member of the Methodist Church for a number of years.

Surviving are two sons, James and William Laferty; one daughter, Mrs. Sam Laferty, all of Bull Creek, and one brother, Robert Laferty, Duval. Funeral rites were conducted Sunday afternoon, with the Rev. Harry Callahan, nephew of the victim, officiating. Burial was made in the John Laferty cemetery on Bull Creek, under the direction of the Arnold Funeral Home.

T. W. SMITH IS CLAIMED

FORMER CONTRACTOR SUCUMBED HERE, AGED 63

Tilden W. Smith, one of Prestonsburg's best-known citizens, died at 6 o'clock Wednesday morning at his home on Third avenue following an illness of 18 months. He was 63 years old. Mr. Smith was seriously injured while serving as foreman on a Works Progress Administration highway project on Bull Creek, but partially recovered. Later, tuberculosis developed and this, with probable effects of his injuries, defied treatment.

A native of St. Albans, V. Va., he was a son of the late William C. and Sarah Elizabeth Lambert Smith. He came to this county with the beginning of construction of the railway up the Right Beaver Creek valley and was a contractor on that undertaking. He also was a highway and bridge contractor, having done extensive contracting work in West Virginia, Pennsylvania, Ohio and Virginia, as well as in this state. Mr. Smith then moved to Prestonsburg and had resided here for about 20 years, and over the years had become known as one of the county's best men. He had been a member of the Presbyterian Church for a number of years.

Mr. Smith was married on May 18, 1902 to Miss Mamie Blanche Walker, who survives. He also leaves two daughters and one son, Mrs. E. P. Davis, Betty Layne, and Miss Lorraine Smith, Prestonsburg, C. P. Smith, of Harold, W. P. and Woodrow Smith, of Prestonsburg, and their families, and the following brothers and sisters: Melvin M. Smith, Denver, Colo.; Charles W. Smith, of Kansas; Walter E. Smith, San Diego, Calif.; Mrs. George W. Edwards, Galion, O.; and Mrs. W. C. Lee, Dunbar, W. Va. Funeral arrangements had not been completed Wednesday afternoon. Burial will be made here under the direction of the Arnold Funeral Home.

Ex-Convict Named As Would-Be Rapist

Authorities and citizens of Martin were combing the countryside around Martin Wednesday morning, seeking the arrest of Oris Yates, former Revere, Tenn., inmate, who is accused by Mrs. Lily Osborne Cox, Martin, of attacking her near her home. Mrs. Cox told county Attorney Forrest Short that Yates accosted her near her home after she had gone in search of ducks which she owned and which she feared were targets of rifle fire, which she heard. Yates choked Mrs. Cox, a middle-aged woman, and attempted to gag her and, after she had freed free of his grasp and started to run, fired a 22-caliber rifle bullet at her, it was alleged.

Suffering from shock and numerous bruises, Mrs. Cox swore to a warrant for Yates' arrest before Magistrate Joe Prater.

WRESTLING TITLE AT STAKE IN MATCH HERE JULY 4

PEDICO-WILLIAMS TUSSELE, BALCON ASCENSION TO FEATURE DAY

Kentucky's light-heavyweight wrestling championship will be at stake when Kid Sooty Williams, Kentucky's hill-billy wrestler, grapples here on July 4 with Blackmitt Pedigo, Louisville mat champion and claimant to the state light-heavyweight crown. It was announced this week that Williams is the only Kentucky wrestler to dispute Pedigo's championship claims. As a result, the two are national stars and their meeting here should be something to behold. In addition to this feature of what is planned as the greatest Fourth of July celebration in the county's history, there has been scheduled a balloon ascension, a girl parachute jump-

Mrs. Rebecca Baldrige, East Point, Dies Monday

After arising Sunday morning Mrs. Baldrige complained of having a pain in her head and later collapsed. She suffered the stroke at seven o'clock Monday morning. Besides her husband, the victim is survived by her mother, Mrs. C. G. Hager; one son, William, Thomas Baldrige, at home; five brothers, Chas. Hager and Harry Hager, all of East Point, and John Hager, of Auxier; one sister, Mrs. Oma Hager Budgett, East Point.

To Encourage Sowing Winter Cover Crops In Floyd County

The Department of Agriculture's 1940 Conservation Program will close September 1, and County Agents S. L. Ishell and the county and community committees are encouraging Floyd farmers to sow during July and August winter cover crops, which this winter will protect the land against the washing and leaching of top soil. The sowing of hairy vetch in corn fields before the last cultivation and on all fields where soybeans and cowpeas are harvested is suggested.

Wednesday meetings for the discussions of the farmers' problems were held on Little Mud and Toler's Creek. Today they were held at Banner and Dana.

Schedule for the meetings next week follows: Monday, June 24—Bramard, 1:30 p. m.; Bonanza, 8:00 p. m. Tuesday, June 25—Pitts Fork school (near Pyramin); 1:30 p. m.; Buckeye school, 8:00 p. m. Wednesday, June 26—Hueyville, 1:30 p. m.; Maytown, 8:00 p. m. Friday, June 28—Sallisbury, 1:30 p. m.; McDowell, 8:00 p. m.

MARSHILL STABBED BY BROTHER, CLAIM

Although a knife blade said to have been sunk into his neck by his brother cut his anterior jugular vein, Jack Marshall, 19 years old, was said at the Beaver Valley hospital, Martin, Wednesday to be much improved over his condition of earlier in the week. The stabbing took place on Middle Creek Sunday as the result, it is said, of a drunken row. Authorities here were unable to give the name of the knife-wielder, since no complaint had been lodged against him.

In addition to the knife wound in his neck, Marshall was also stabbed in his left shoulder.

Sportsmen Are Told Paid Game Warden May Be Hired

Friday evening's meeting of the Floyd County Fish and Game Protective Association was told by Merie Wilson, Prestonsburg, this district's League of Kentucky Sportsmen representative, that he had been informed that a paid full-time game warden for Floyd county may be employed after July 1.

Mr. Wilson attended the recent League meeting at Somerset, and there sought the services of a game warden for the county after the fish and game association, together with county officials, had petitioned Governor Johnson and Major Brown, head of the division of fish and game, for such wildlife protection. The association joined County Agent for him and a representative of the Forestry department in exhibiting a film of forest fire prevention. The tentative schedule provided for two shows a day, beginning July 8 and continuing till July 13. Ten communities of the county will be visited.

Spinal Meningitis Victim Is First In County Since November

The only case of spinal meningitis reported to the county health department here since last November, six-year-old Maggie Mullett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elijah Mullett, Minnie, died this morning (Thursday) at the Stumbo Memorial hospital, Lackey, after a short illness. Besides her parents, she is survived by her brother and sisters.

IRA DAVIDSON, KNIFE VICTIM

PEARL SALISBURY, 19, ALLEGED SLAYER, IS FUGITIVE

His neck slashed, front in his back and a cut across his forehead, 18-year-old Ira Davidson, Drift, miner, died Saturday night, a few minutes after having been attacked by Pearl Salisbury, 19, at Hunter. The youth died as he was being taken to the Beaver Valley hospital at Martin. Sheriff Dial Salisbury, Deputies Lackey Salisbury and Wm. Hagan and coroner Elliott Prater searched the vicinity of Hunter for the alleged slayer Sunday night, but failed to effect his arrest. He was expected to be brought here Monday by his father, Lee Salisbury, but had not been taken into custody Tuesday afternoon, the Sheriff's office said.

Particulars of the affray are lacking in detail. Some of the witnesses said they were aware that the two were quarreling but that the first indication of trouble they noted was when Salisbury seized Davidson in his arms and began cutting him. The cutting took place in front of Jack Morrow's place at Hunter, at 10:30 o'clock. The slash in Davidson's neck pierced the jugular vein, it was stated. The victim, a native of Perry county, was a son of the late Arlis Davidson and of Mrs. Dressie Spradlin Davidson. Besides his mother, he is survived by four brothers, Claude, Clyde, Billy Ray and Franklin, and one sister, Mary Lou, and his step-father, Ora Davidson, all of Drift.

Kimmer Davis, Drift, Succumbs Friday To Stroke

Suffering his third paralytic stroke within the past two years, Kimmer (Tuck) Davis, Drift, died Friday morning at the Beaver Valley hospital, Martin. He was 60 years old. A native of Johnson county, the victim was the son of the late Leck and Mrs. Anna Webb Davis, of Paintsville. For the past several years he had been employed by the Beaver Coal and Mining Company at Drift. Mrs. Davis was his widow. Mrs. Trennie Davis, and two step-sons, all of Drift.

Burial was made in the Martin cemetery at Drift, Saturday afternoon, with the Ryan Funeral Home directing.

2ND APPRAISAL OF UTILITY SOUGHT

CITY COUNCIL WEIGHS GAS COMPANY'S PURCHASE

Benefiting from the experience of Paintsville in its negotiations ultimately leading to the purchase of the water system serving that town, the Prestonsburg city council Monday evening directed that an engineer from the Kentucky Public Service commission be asked to compare Prestonsburg and make an appraisal of the property of the Prestonsburg Water Company which the city of Prestonsburg hopes to buy. An appraisal made of the Prestonsburg waterworks by an "independent" engineer placed the value of the property at $125,000. An appraisal made by an "independent" of the Paintsville system fixed its worth at $160,000, but the Public Service Commission's engineer lowered that figure to $118,000. The property was finally purchased for $105,000.

Services of the Public Service Commission's engineer will cost Prestonsburg nothing, it was said. Mayor J. B. Wells of Paintsville was accompanied here by Cyrus Cooper, manager of the waterworks, and James Chandler, representative of a Louisville bonding company, their visit being prompted by Paintsville's desire to convert to municipal ownership of the gas company—a step in which co-operation from Prestonsburg is necessary. The Southern Public Service Corporation, owner of the gas franchises here and in Paintsville and Pikeville, thought admitting a desire to dispose of these three remaining Knott properties, has indicated that it will not sell one unless the other two can be sold. For this reason, the Paintsville delegation sought to interest Prestonsburg in a deal similar to that which it plans.

This Town-- That World

NAUGHTY NAUGHTS

These naughts, bidding alone would mean nothing. But the way they were left entirely out of THE TIMES last week meant a lot. We quoted Leroy Combs as saying that the Public Forum here that the Alties have only $11,000,000 credit in this country. The three naughts that should have been at the end of that figure would have made a lot of difference, as also would have three naughts added to the $1,000,000 we quoted Mr. Combs as saying the Alties spent in this country for war materials. All it amounts to is, he said, "billions" and we said, "millions."

BUSY AFTERNOON FOR 'SQUIRE'

Magistrate Henry Stumbo, of the Third Floyd county Magisterial district, caught a man stealing during a recent Sunday afternoon looked at a beautiful curve, viewed a vicious war-club and may have called upon high heaven to witness the wrong done him. No, you're wrong. He wasn't acting as Magistrate at the time, he wasn't filling his eye with feminine pulchritude, wasn't in a fight or wasn't being cheated out of his mortal rights. He merely was playing for the Clear Creek baseball team of the Big Sandy League as the only county official in the state to be a regular baseball player this summer.

ONCE IN A LIFETIME!

Of honor between nations there remains a notable example. Little Finland, smaller than ever now, since Russia has exacted its 'pound of flesh,' last week proffered its annual payment on its war debt to the United States. That debt is more than twenty years old. It was incurred back when far more powerful nations were receiving credit from Uncle Sam. Those more powerful nations failed to pay. But Finland did not. Every year, during this country's boom days, or during the depression, the Finns 'came through' with their installment on the small road fund.

They paid, all during the years before World War No. 2. This year, as the Second World War was in mid-hothead, after they had made a heroic but losing fight against insuperable odds, they offered to pay again.

That is a story of splendid honesty. But it is not the finest part of the story to us Americans who should of all peoples, have true appreciation of honesty.

The finest part of the story is—the Congress of the United States, learning that Finland was again about to pay, immediately moved to refuse that country's sacrifice in the name of honor. Moved to refuse that installment on Finland's debt, yet provided that Finland could obtain from this country further credits.

Thus two nations last week behaved in their relations with each other—one to pay an honest debt, one to refuse payment in honorable, human fashion; one to abide by its given word, the other to recognize that this democracy's neighbor's pledge to restore a debt is international neighbor's pledge to restore a debt.

And, to paraphrase a well-known American sports commentator, this came to pass what may happen only once in our lifetime.

WE CRUMBLE DOWN AS WE 'LIVE UP' TO TRADITION

America's attempts to live up to the glorious tradition of freedom of speech, freedom of the press and the rights of assembly has merely succeeded in penalizing its own citizens, men and women whose patriotism has not been questioned, while affording protection to those who entertain only scorn for this land and its laws and, therefore, a blatant disregard for the rights of American citizens.

For instance: I, as editor of this newspaper, may not, under severe penalty of the law, say anything untrue of any other citizen, even if I do so in good faith, under penalty of the law, yet—

The editor of a Hitler-born publication may without hindrance revile the United States, its Constitution, its President, its people, and may, at the same time, laud to the skies every form of government and every group of people named to us.

As a dark example: The late General Mitchell, of the United States Army, years ago tried to tell the "Brass Hats" what this country needed by way of national defense, was promptly court-martialed and "busted"; yet—

A German Bund leader can harangue from any soap-box at any hour and for any duration of time.

SHIKE'S POKES

(Views expressed in this column are those of the writer and not necessarily those of The Times.)

Yeah—about that increase in Ward's family—the family cat is the mother of three kittens.

NEW MEMBERS OF THE MIDNITE BOTTLE WARMERS' CLUB: Jack Ryan, Bee Halbert, L. E. Daniels. Looks like the census taker will have to come around again.

Sam Hughes has found his mule. He'll be riding this week if the rule don't go TONK-ing again—with Sam attached.

Mussolini is fighting his best friends in England and France, and only a coward would strike at Duce Hux. I believe he'll rule the world, instead of rule. As much as we all detest Nazism, I believe Fascism is worse—but they against any sort of defense whatever—and be given the full protection of the law. (Until only a few months ago, Germans, Japanese and other representatives of "hostile" nations were being caught with photographs of our defense fortifications. What was done by way of punishment for them? What was done to punish those army officers who permitted such espionage?) Another "horrible" example: A religious sect may use its scatterbrains in the handling of snakes and a state law will be enacted against "such doings," for the protection, surely, of the snake-handlers; and still— The German Bund can pick up America's youth, take them to Bund camps, fill them full of Hitler's venom and, generally speaking, carry on to their heart's content without fear of the law.

Freedom is a wonderful thing. Cherish it while you may. But, if Freedom continues to be license to some and inhibition to the friend—what have we to expect but disintegration from within as Hitler himself predicted for the democracies?

THAT WAS AN HEROIC FIGHT ON GLASGOW FIELDS

BY J. HOWARD HENDERSON. In The Courier-Journal. No one will ever know the perils that hovered over Glasgow during the four years of the Chandler administration, but I want to set down here the heroic effort Governor Chandler and J. Dan Talbott made to save Glasgow from the peril.

Uncontrolled fire is an appalling thing. Life and property often get in its destructive path. Man has devised some method of combat. One is prevention, through removal of causes. Another is control of consequences, through elimination of needless hazards.

A third is the detection and punishment of persons who would start destructive fires. Years ago the state took over this work. By the time of Governor Stanley they were called "fire putters-out." Stanley called them that, in mock seriousness. They were political appointees then. They are political appointees now.

Theoretically, "inspectors" wander about the state looking over buildings with an eye to elimination of undue hazards, such as school doors that open inward, piles of oil-soaked rags and paper. Theoretically, "arson investigators" hasten to every fire where there is a suspicion that it was set.

New I cannot tell you how Governor Chandler and Mr. Talbott knew four years ago that a "fire bug" would begin operating in Glasgow within four years. But I'll not be one to deny them the credit that is theirs.

Did not Governor Chandler and Mr. Talbott put former State Senator W. A. Yates, Glasgow, on the state payroll as an "inspector"? Was not that to help Glasgow put down its fire losses? Who would be so cynical as to suspect that Governor Chandler and Mr. Talbott even thought of the help Senator Yates had them then, or setting a little political score with the Rhea-Lafoon faction?

And when Chandler and Talbott sent an "arson-investigator's" badge to Paul Greer, Glasgow attorney, was not that so he could find as early as 1937 the "fire bug" who began setting fires at Glasgow last year?

What foresight Frankfort displayed. How carefully Frankfort proceeded, never taking "Inspector" Yates and "Investigator" Greer away from their home-town posts. Not even a day in twenty months. Just sitting in Glasgow, waiting and waiting for the fires that were to come. Playing politics and practicing law while they waited for the fires.

If Yates and Greer were a bit inactive (and Post Auditor Sewell said they were), Frankfort was alert to the situation. Frankfort "sensed" the presence of the "fire bug" at Glasgow.

Mrs. Nellie Vaughan was a Glasgow housewife who had shown an aptitude for politics, so Frankfort made her an "arson investigator." She headed the late Senator M. M. Logan's state campaign in 1936, to the discredit of the Chandler-Talbott organization. But this duty rested and nothing to do with her employment as an "arson investigator."

But last year, when the going got rough and after "Inspector" Yates had drawn pay for three years and had fallen through the platform at Shelbyville, he was let out of Glasgow as without an "inspector" now, and about that time fires began to break out.

Alarmed, the Frankfort administration put on another "arson investigator," J. M. Rousseau by name, a newspaper publisher by trade. Not because he had supported Chandler in his newspaper in 1938, Ken Johnson in 1939. Oh, not because Glasgow needed another "arson investigator" to help Mr. Greer and Mrs. Vaughan, who were overworked looking for the "fire bug" who was operating at Glasgow.

Glasgow was not saved from the destruction of two big fires. The fear has not been lifted.

Anyway, the Chandler-Talbott organization tried to get that this army is equal to a million German soldiers in the trenches in 1918 told me this.

According to the newspapers, we'll go down and straighten up Brazil. Winchell said there were a million Nazis down there and well organized. They ought to be shipped back to Hitler.

What will happen to these Republicans who changed their registration to get on Dan's payroll? They are just "out in the weather."

The more I hear Lindbergh the more I wonder how in the h— he ever got to Berlin. He's trying to play politics in a national emergency.

I hope Stalin hurries up and jumps on Hitler—that would be like the "Bean Brothers" and the "Tater Bugs" fighting each other. When they get through slaughtering each other, then we could step in and finish the job.

Martin's baseball diamond must be awfully poor ground—the manager

BILL HENRY SAYS:

WORLD WAR NO. 2

While certain Congressmen and Senators are still playing to a very small minority of pacifists, the majority of our representatives in Congress, many of whom have the ability to run a garbage collection in a small town, refuse to give President Roosevelt the power to act. It is well to say, "If anything happens to us, we will hold these Congressmen responsible," but this is like the driver of an automobile who insists on his right-of-way at the crossing and loses his life. While we listen to a lot of rubbish about the rights of communists and fascists in this country they are slowly but surely creeping upon us. We are at war—that will you have? Will you listen to your pet Congressman or Senator who refuses to acknowledge the ability of a man who is a member of the House of Representatives and sane course to a continuation of the freedom we love so well? Will you follow the Congressmen and Senators to oblivion? PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT MUST HAVE FULL AUTHORITY TO ACT! Do your part in seeing that he gets that authority.

It is definitely known that Senator Barkley of Kentucky and Congressman Clegg of the Congressional District are co-operating with the Administration 100 per cent.

The above brings to mind the story of the shortstop playing on a diamond where the weeds were about a foot high. He reared back and after a hard-hit liner—missed the ball—but came up with a young rabbit which he tossed to first. The ump called the hitter out by a hair.

Just as soon as any trouble arises—according to the Institute of Public Affairs—the Democrats gain about five per cent—and, incidentally, Mr. Roosevelt gains with the Democratic gain. The Democrats are the people who have the world's greatest LEADER—and if this war scare keeps the election will only be a formality.

I'm just wondering what becomes of all those fellows who called F. D. R. a dictator in 1936. I don't blame you, but I'd keep your eye still got a package of SNIPFLOWER seed left, in case any of you fellows lost your seed in the November 1936 front.

The Taft flower is a daisy—Yep, the ground where they will grow is just as high as the chance of seeing a daisy. I guess Mr. Dewey will adopt the Morning Glory as his flower—they fade and wilt in the heat.

While our Congressmen and Senators talk freely of "peace" the totalitarian governments turn out more soldiers and ammunition with which to destroy us. We have the champion of the democratic form of government, he has proved himself as a leader among free people, and yet some of our members of Congress, many of whom have the ability to run a garbage collection in a small town, refuse to give President Roosevelt the power to act. It is well to say, "If anything happens to us, we will hold these Congressmen responsible," but this is like the driver of an automobile who insists on his right-of-way at the crossing and loses his life. THE NEW ELEPHANT

Several years ago a carnival manager at one of the recreation parks in Portland, Oregon, purchased from a circus an elephant with the intention of using it as an attraction to draw the crowds. This elephant was a huge thing in bulk and had grown quite old; in the circus he had the best care that well-trained handlers could give him; he had had parasites covered with colorful decorations he would swing his enormous trunk and trumpet majestically. At the time the sale was made to the carnival manager this symbol of the Republican party had become too difficult to manage in moving about the country, and would turn on those who were trying to handle him and pampers him and would fly into a rage and tear down tents and crush into splinters wagons within his reach. His new Democratic party for "We don't like Roosevelt, regardless of what he stands for. . . we are going to run our candidate on a platform of no war, even though we have no way of knowing what the interests of our fellowman may dictate in the future. . . we were peeted and pampered for the sake of taking any chance on being old and rusty just as that elephant (the symbol of the Republican party) at Portland, Oregon, was a few years ago, and we will turn on our keeper." The Republicans are truly "mad" if they believe for one moment that the people will take any chance on being big game they have to offer. There are still improvements to be made, but we are on the right road and we are not going back to the system where a few Morgans told us what we could and could not do.

This column is going out on a limb to state: Washburn and McNary of Oregon as the Republican nominees! If Wilkie is in the picture when the storm blows over, the Republican party is not only gone mad but incurably insane.

County Judge Hill and a state highway engineer Saturday inspected the highway and found that 24 buildings have been erected on the right-of-way purchased for the road. Owners of all these buildings, however, indicated their willingness to operate in compliance with the State Highway Commission's ruling that highways, wherever located, must be cleared of such encroachments before contract on their improvement are awarded.

County Attorney Forrest D. Short Monday was preparing notices to be sent to each person owning such structures, stating that the deadline for right-of-way clearance is June 25.

Highway Commissioner Justice urged immediate action by the County Judge and County Attorney, at the same time requesting J. D. Fitzpatrick, Prestonsburg, Floyd county highway supervisor for the Commission, to treat out warrants for offenders if necessary, or to take any other steps necessary to clear the right-of-way.

Commenting on the possibilities lying in ownership of the gas company by Prestonsburg, Mr. Cooper, former manager of the Public Service Corporation's holdings in Prestonsburg and Painesville, said, "I wish I had it—I wouldn't be working any more." He estimated that the property would net the town $4,000 a year.

The council directed Police Judge C. R. Spradlin to place in the hands of City Attorney J. D. Harkins, Jr., all unreturned replevin bonds, and asked Mr. Harkins to issue executions for their collection.

Chief of Police Epp Laferty reported as tax collector that all city taxes, except approximately $150, have been collected. He indicated that he will be obliged to levy in order to collect taxes remaining unpaid.

ENOUGH ELECTRICITY CAN BE BOUGHT TO EQUAL TWO HOURS OF HARD WORK

IT IS difficult to say just how much useful work this gal might be doing pushing a lawn mower around the lawn. Engineers would figure the height and density of the grass, the slope of the lawn and the drawbar pull on the mower. Perhaps it would be more useful if she turned it over to the old man and made him reduce his waist line. Without being technical, just remember that one cigarette's worth of electricity at our low rates will always do more work than any man or woman can do in two hours.
