PRESTONSBURG PUBLISHING CO.
OFFICIAL ORGAN FOR FLOYD COUNTY, KY.
Six Months for Year Payable in Advance

MORRAN ALLEN Editor
Entered as second class matter June 18, 1927, at the postoffice at Prestonsburg, Ky., under the Act of March 3, 1879.

THE TIMES ENDORSES

1. Immediate completion of the Left Beaver, Middle Creek and Johns Creek road.
2. Consideration by officials of human needs, not the need for political influence.
3. Completion of all Farm-to-Market roads, by W. P. A. labor if possible, maintenance of these routes by the state rural road fund.
4. A trade-at-home policy followed by merchants and customers alike.
5. Full co-operation with all county and city officials, insisting that lawmakers and enforcement officers themselves obey the law to the letter.
6. Continuance of the Floyd county health department and the county agricultural agent work.

EXPENSIVE ADVISE

THE TIMES cannot but be impressed with the efforts of Governor Johnson to slash state governmental overhead by eliminating unnecessary jobs, weeding out "sleepers" on the payroll and demanding efficiency from state employees.

But it would have been more impressed, had that administration-controlled Legislature eliminated not only unnecessary jobs—those of the state's nine advisory highway commissioners. Here was a chance to save, at one stroke, a sizeable sum of money annually by putting an end to paying high salaries for advice, log-rolling and political maneuvering in the highway districts. But only a gesture was made in this direction. The advisory commissioners were retained—"in the interest of party harmony," or, to be more accurate, in the interest of party organization.

Now, if the Hatch bill does what is expected of it, and if it circumscribes the activities of the several boards as it should, it may happen that the highway advisory board will not have such extraneous value and will be relegated to the discard where it belongs.

WHY NOT DEMAND PROOF?

Opponents of military conscription for the United States argue that it is unnecessary, that enough volunteers would rally to the colors to supply the country with an adequate defense force.

If they know whereof they speak, we do not need conscription. If they do not they are playing the cheap and unpatriotic role of obstructionists.

Why not, while this debate over the conscription bill is wearing itself and everybody out, find out how right or wrong they are? A call for volunteers would end that part of the argument in short order.

BILL HENRY SAYS:

The views expressed in this column are those of the writer, and not necessarily those of The Times.

MR. TO MAN
On a cold morning Saturday morning, August 3, my first thought on awakening shall be one of thankfulness that an American citizen, and that I shall pass a moment in silent prayer for those millions throughout the world who would willingly give up years of their lives for just one opportunity such as we have—free to go to the polls and cast our vote for one of our own choosing out of many candidates for public office. Let us recall the virtues of some and condemn the faults of others, fire to work for what we think is right, with no one, only our own consciences, to point an accusing finger at us.

It is the men and women who refuse to let anything interfere with the casting of their ballots who are the life-blood of our nation; it is they who should accept the responsibility of leadership in their communities. We have a duty to perform, an obligation to ourselves, and if we are to maintain the status quo of free-thinking people we must put our obligation faithfully, conscientiously and without reservation. Our government owes us only what we owe ourselves—we are the government. We pay the bills and we receive the dividends; if the bills are large and the dividends small, it is we who declare them so on election day.

The man in overalls from the hills of Kentucky, the cowhand on the plains of Texas, the prospector in the deserts of California, the trapper in Alaska, the factory worker in New York are the government, not the men we put in office (though many of them think they are). We select from the candidates, our next-door neighbors, those who are to act as administrators of our affairs for a definite number of years. In the majority of cases we pay them a salary far in excess of their normal earning capacity, and in addition the responsibility of carrying on with their share in production is placed upon the shoulders of the rest of us.

But the rest of us, the investors in these office-holders depends on their ability and desire to humidity, or both, or something he had for dinner. Anyhow, the man had a dream. And, freed of human limitations by the grace of Morpheus, he saw himself as Dictator of Floyd county wherein all his orders, whenever laid, were obeyed.

And behold, his friend himself leaving the old paths for the new. He saw himself deceiving . . . That the people return, insofar as possible, to the old ways of living and dealing with one another. That honest folk be protected from lie-swearers, professional crooks and frauds of whatever kind or station in life. That law-enforcement start at the top and work down, insuring respect for the law on the part of his people.

That the poor and the weak and the uninfluential be favored above the rich and the strong in courts of law, if any favors are to be granted under the law.

That your neighbor's lie or your neighbor's fraud be no greater, no less than yours.

That it shall be an offense against the law for any man or woman to ask for help when the need of help is not urgent.

That, since death is the common lot of us all and that in death neither rich nor poor can own more than six feet of sod, the public treasury shall not be responsible for funeral expenses of any individual.

That a Floyd county will sponsor no project in which money is spent to pay wages of workers from other sections; the purpose of the county spending money on such projects being to furnish employment for its own workers and to improve the county in which they live.

That employment be given only to those needing work.

That married women whose husbands are employed be eliminated from employment rolls.

That qualifications of teachers include common sense and moral fitness as well as what is popularly known as education.

That Floyd county have its own Hatch bill.

That any person in power or office demanding the vote or support of others under duress be removed from that position, then prosecuted.

That every vote-buyer be penalized along with the vote-seller.

That every person held convict on a Corrupt Practices charge be disfranchised and not permitted to be a candidate for office for a period of ten years.

That perjury be punishable by not less than five years in prison; that any person refusing to prosecute a perjurer or aiding him to escape punishment be given twice that sentence; and any person guilty of committing perjury in defense of a perjurer be given twice that.

That tax rates be lowered but every citizen be held responsible under the laws penalizing perjury for the assessment of taxes to which he consents.

That public officials be paid their salaries when private individuals and firms are paid just claims; that when the treasury is short with one class, it shall be short with all.

That every applicant of relief aid proved guilty of spending such funds or materials for whisky to the neglect of those helplessly dependent upon him, shall work for the public, gratis, for a period sufficient to repay to the county and federal government what he wasted.

(And then the poor man awoke in a cold sweat, screaming that the voters were after him, armed with pitchforks.)

support, or non-support, of measures pending. In ordinary times these "spasms" confine themselves to pork-barrel politics, or for no other reason than a personal grudge against the colleague who introduced the legislation. The suffering public here soiled and gone about their business, they were too busy earning the money with which to pay the cost, and they failed to put down on the debit side of the ledger: the names of these play-boys.

Now it is quite different, we are threatened with invasion, everything we stand for may be destroyed. Senators Vandenberg, Taft, Wheeler and others of their clique are trying to creak legislation, such as the military bill, which will mean for no purpose other than to give us the strength to defend ourselves. The sins of this group have found their way into "they have missed the boat." The American people, usually easy-going, and ready to put off until tomorrow what can be done today, have been born again—re-incarnation of the spirit of their forefathers, fighting for their liberty. No price is too high to pay. For the period of the emergency, so far as the people are concerned, there will be no Democrats, Republicans, Socialists, just plain undifferentiated Americans.

As Americans we recognize as leaders only those men who have the fortitude to stand on their own feet and be Americans with Americans in America.

SENSIBLE
I have a friend, a young man, who lives on a small farm. To me he is an example of good-old-common-sense. I migrated to town for the privilege of checking the date on the calendar for the landlady's next visit, and packing my meals from the grocery store in tin cans (with the added privilege of cutting my fingers to shreds when I open them). He chose to remain with old mother earth where he is boss of all he surveys. I see him occasionally on his way home from work in the fields, or other work he engages in to supplement his farm income, when his face is dirty and with a day's growth of whiskers, and his clothes are wrinkled and soiled, but to me he looks better than my reflection in the mirror when I have just had a clean shave and put on a newly-laundered shirt. I'd like to ask him to transfer the clean dirt of honest toil from his face to mine, I would be proud of it.

My friend doesn't have to worry about the price of milk, butter and eggs. When he wakes in the morning he takes steps out in the yard and off comes a head. In the fall of the year when old Jack Frost peeps over the hills, he takes his wife and with one crack a big snowflake falls on his side and gives another snap of the trigger and another of his smoke house bulges with sweet fumes; less showery than a storm of sweet fumes. On cold winter days he warms his feet and doses in front of an open fireplace, while in the summer he sits on a porch and reads all the same. I like others so foolish as to become a "town-ite," must pay the penalty of not having the courage of my convictions, to return to the land and live as only it was intended we should live.

REMEMBER
Do all your trading with the merchants who advertise. They are an asset to your community; they will give you better merchandise, and they carry a more complete line for you to choose from. Watch your newspaper each week; it will pay you dividends.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Editor, Floyd County Times: In your criticism of my letter and name in your issue of July 18, you state that I am not a native-born citizen, except what I have read in the newspapers.

It is true, I have some valued information of the present but the public would never see such writing the action of a subversive group, for it is not the aim of the press to uncover the action of this group, but to keep in question.

Much of my information comes from the study of the records of this group and their laws to which they have sworn allegiance and actually associating with it in Rome and other places.

But before I proceed I should like to state that I am a native-born citizen of the United States. My great-grandfather migrated from the hills of Scotland to the valley of the Pedee in South Carolina in 1760. He joined the army of General Francis Marion at the end of 1781 and fought all the rest of the War of Independence. My grandfather fought through the war of 1812 in the American army and was a captain in the civil war under the command of Grant. I have several years of "honest and faithful" service in the United States army, having twice offered my services to my country in times of crisis and now, though somewhat advanced in years, I am still ready to fight.

My last drop of my blood is split in defense of the liberty and freedom upon which this nation was founded.

But, Mr. Editor, this is the reason I should publish the facts about this group he would have to close his shop on account of a boycott. And, Mr. Editor, this is the reason I should publish the facts about this group he would have to close his shop on account of a boycott.

The phrase "Fifth Column" was leading four columns of fascist troops from Italy and Germany against his own government in Madrid. He was asked which column would take the city and he replied, "The fifth column," meaning the gang of fascist agents.

I believe in the rights of all religious worship and practice as long as such worship and practice do not create political evils in violation of the constitution of the United States as it stands today.

A few days ago I advised you, the editor of the Floyd County Times, that I was not afraid to tell you who composed the Fifth Column. You have challenged me to do so and I thank you for the opportunity.

I must tell you of a well-organized group who is taking advantage of the guarantee of religious freedom in the United States to advocate views that are foreign to our American ideals and institutions. This group I call the fifth column because they take the same stand that their colleagues took in Madrid, Austria, Holland, Belgium and France. In these nations they helped to weaken their nations against their enemies which were trying to force them under fascist or Nazi rule.

This group claims not only spiritual power over their own people but they claim the divine right to rule over the civil rights of all nations. They claim that the clergy of this church and the members of this church are Sovereign State which is known by the name of Vatican City. They are the hierarchy of the Roman Catholic Church.

They are separate from the great mass of people known as the Catholic population, and it should be clearly understood that the clergy of this church and not the Catholic people as a whole should be investigated by our Federal authorities.

Their strength and influence in the United States are not publicly known, but it has been claimed by good sources that they are in the different lodges and orders there are nearly one million able-bodied men well-trained in the use of small arms who could be mobilized in a few hours. It has been charged that the Vatican City is the headquarters of the Catholic cathedrals in the United States are stored great quantities of arms and ammunition to be used against our government.

The press has remained silent about these charges and the American people are kept in ignorance of the greatest danger that ever threatened this country. You might ask, "Why should this group want to fight a country which gives all the liberty and protection that it could give to the people enjoy?" This could answer this in my own way but I feel sure that you would rather have it answered by a member of the group who should be able to tell what their aims are. I quote from a letter by one "A. O'Brien of Syracuse, New York," published in L'Aurore: "This land belongs to us by every right. Long enough we have compromised on every important question. Now we demand that we be given our own country to have it; peacefully, honestly, if we may but if necessary we are ready to fight for it. We are not asking for the holy mother church, we want them in important positions in the entire structure of the government, from our own Protestant hierarchy will receive the treatment ascribed to the Protestants by our canon laws. We are ready for 1940. All institutions must be changed to the Catholic hierarchy. All loyal members of the Catholic church are ordered to assist our worthy President with all their power and influence. The individuals comprising the United States Supreme Court shall obey the injunctions of the President. Any member who fails to change mind or blot out the present Constitution so the President may enforce our program on all phases so laid down by the papal popes and our holy Catholic church."

Again I quote, this time from a book entitled "Rome Speaks To Conquer" by Doctor J. Ross Baker, an ex-fascist priest: "Pope Sixtus XI has given the best of his singular ability to the supervision and direction of the Catholic propaganda in America. The conquest of America in the greatest struggle of the church's history. The conquest of America is the supreme objective, as which the United States is well aware that the Catholic church can never hope again to dominate the civilized world until America kneels before the papal throne."

Characteristic of his strategy in guiding American Catholics in Catholic action, he has taught them to enmesh and remodel the Catholic people. Catholic action, partakes of politics, and is a political penetration, an infiltration into the political world of a new force and agency."

It has been only very recently that this priesthood has been so bold as to open up publicly to the masses the power to rule over the nations. Their method is to start a lot of trouble over some needed improvement, such as social justice or the danger of Communism and the Jews. This is for the purpose of gaining popular support and to cover their own secret aims. Regardless of what their claims might be to the fact that they are the only group in America today who are friendly toward Hitler and Mussolini in their rape of Europe is proof enough to show that they are not friends of Democracy.

For further proof that the Roman Catholic hierarchy is not a religious organization but a political one, I quote Roman Catholic Bishop James H. Ryan of Omaha, as published in the New York Herald Tribune, 12, 1940. After criticizing the Methodist and Baptist churches for their protest against the President sending Myron C. Taylor to the Vatican, he said: "Where should the United States stand in relation to the forces of the Roman Catholic Church whose powers, world-wide influence and authority is unequalled in the world? What must we, NATIONALLY, do? I think of this world-wide empire, and to whose authority almost four hundred million human beings owe allegiance as deep and moving as that which they PROFESS for the State of which they are citizens."

The Bishop says of the Pope: "He is at the same time, a temporal ruler and independent sovereign with judicial powers as valid as those of the ruler of the greatest empire. The Pope is a temporal king recognized by international law possessing all the rights and privileges of a sovereign."

If this be true, and it must be true, why is it that this group is not stripped of its religious robes and dealt with in the same way as Hitler's Binds and Stalin's Communists? It is because the one hundred and twenty five millions of loyal Americans are kept in ignorance by the American press about the danger they face from this group. For if they knew all about the action of this group in America today there would be such a demand for an investigation that this group would give up their fifth column tactics and the taxpayers would be saved millions of dollars.

We have no reason to attack the common people of the Catholic faith for they will suffer as much as you and I. It is the responsibility of our politicians comes into power in America. Neither is it religious bigotry to talk about this group, for they have put themselves on record as being members of an international political party.

The only reason I have in writing this is because I love American freedom and I want you and your children to continue to enjoy this freedom with me and my children. When we look at Europe today it looks as though it is returning to that long night in which it has spent the past years, and the picture becomes, still darker when we look at the black background of the past and behold the innumerable war-shinners, the millions of men, women and children who are being starved and killed, and realize it was the leaders of this political religion that placed these gibbets and built the scaffolds which poured the best blood of the past.

Editor, Floyd County Times: Just a word about our skating rink from a church member. Why should we deprive our boys and girls of the only pleasure and pastime that we have in Betsy Layne for them? We mothers and fathers go and watch them skate and enjoy themselves and feel they are much safer there than to be out on the roadside in parked cars, smoking and drinking.

Mr. and Mrs. Roberts are two of our best citizens in this community and are running and caring for the rink as if it were their own home. We are proud to have them there and are sure they will do all in their power for the betterment and uplift of the community and the young folks that come to their rink to have a few hours of pleasure. Like the old saying goes, "People who live in glass houses should not throw stones lest they may get their own windows broken in the long run." The rink will not harm nor molest any one that doesn't bother it. Have been to church in Betsy Layne where the drunks would pull the electric switch, putting out the lights, and then moved my seat in order to get away from them. We certainly don't have this to do at the rink. We feel that this pastime is OK for the boys and girls. We hope that some of the officials to whom complaints have been made will pay us a visit and see for themselves just how things are run at the rink. Don't be a grouch or a knocker; try to help your friends and neighbors.

KING'S EX
The addition of Edward VIII reminded me that for many years I have wanted to write an essay called "King's Ex" when we were children, we played out in the woods. I was always so into "King's Ex" usually shortened out of the game for an instant. The boys would say, "I want to be a king, you be a queen, we would use the words when we were in a very tight place. While we were playing 'Wolf over the river' and were about to be caught, we would say, 'King's Ex' usually shortened out of the game for an instant. The boys would say, 'I want to be a king, you be a queen, we would use the words when we were in a very tight place. Marvin Marshall, commander of Floyd Post, American Legion, said this week he had been informed by Brigadier General John A. Polin that location of a National Guard unit here cannot be made at present.

Mr. Marshall wrote General Polin, pointing out the need for such a unit here. In reply General Polin stated that all units allotted to the state have been filled, "however," wrote General Polin, "in filing your letter in the active file and, if any additional units are authorized for Kentucky, Prestonsburg will receive careful consideration."

Interest of the Legion in a National Guard unit here was enlisted by members of the Prestonsburg Co-Operative Business Association which has entertained hopes of organization of a unit here.

ROGER REED, of the U. S. Army, is home with Mrs. Hargis Vanderpool for the week. He returned Monday to Indiana.

Miss Mae Reed was hostess to a birthday party Saturday at her home. Dainty refreshments were served to several of her friends. She was the recipient of many lovely gifts.

All-Stumbo Ball Team Will Meet 'Purg Here Saturday

McDowell's all-Stumbo baseball team will play Prestonsburg here Saturday afternoon, August 3. It was announced this week.

The Left Beaver team is the same aggregation that was the dismay of opposing pitchers, back in 1934. Magistrate Henry Stumbo, who arranged for the game here, said the boys want to play together this year for at least one game, since some of them may be forced from the game by age within another year.

The visitors' line-up will include Magistrate Stumbo, Buck George, Milton, Tony, Kilt, Bill, Ghadden, Isom and Edward Stumbo.

Alphoretta Miner Is T. B. Victim

Simon Moore, 25, former employe of the Stephens-Ekhorn mine at Alphoretta, succumbed at his home at Alphoretta Wednesday of last week, the victim of tuberculosis.

He had been removed recently to his home from a sanatorium at Asheville, N. C., where he had received treatment for one year.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Grace Moore, and several brothers and sisters.

The body was prepared by the Ryan Funeral Home and taken to Nippa, Johnson county, where burial was made last Thursday.

Boldman Is Walloped By Drift, 14-2, Sunday

Behind the four-hit pitching of Jim McDowell the Turner Ekhorn baseball team of Drift slugged out 10 hits to coast to an easy 14-2 victory over Boldman Sunday afternoon.

Drift sewed up the game in the first inning by counting four times and continuing to score at will. McDowell limited the opposition to four hits, all singles. McBurdley, McGlothen and Myers led the Drift offense, with each collecting three hits, while McDowell and Shelton each made two. Steele made two of Boldman's four singles.

Any team desiring Saturday games with the Drift club may get in touch with W. L. Reed, Phone 1513, at Drift.

Fiscal Court Ultimatum Issued

Under the direction of our area engineer, and it is therefore resolved by this court that the further practice of bringing into Floyd county foremen and superintendents from other counties is hereby condemned and the representatives of the Works Projects Administration are hereby requested to discontinue such practice and to give the people of this county preference in such positions. It is further resolved by this court that unless an adjustment is made of this matter, and the practice discontinued, the Floyd County Fiscal Court will not further sponsor WPA projects within its boundaries.

Be it further resolved that a copy of this resolution be mailed to Garland Rice, Paintsville, Ky.; a copy thereof to George H. Goodman, Louisville, Ky.; and one copy to W. A. Toney, Area Engineer, Prestonsburg, Ky., and requests the Works Projects Administration at once to state its position on this question and its further course of action relative thereto be made known to this court.

Club Wounds Claim Smith

Clifford McKenzie, 11, said he saw Cole approach Smith from behind as Smith sat on a rock in the creek, that Smith began "backing away," and that Cole struck him repeatedly before and after Smith had fallen.

Surviving Smith are his widow, Mrs. Sarah Smith, several children. One brother, the Rev. William Smith, is a resident of Salt Lick Creek, this county. The body was taken to Salersville Sunday for burial after having been received at the Ryan Funeral Home Martin.

Miller Is Arrested After Break From Magoffin Jail

Miller was arrested at West Prestonsburg Tuesday by Chief of Police Ed Lafferty, who collected a $100 reward for Miller, one of the 325 originally offered for his arrest.

Adam Miller, 32, of this county, was being sought by officers of this section after he had escaped from the Magoffin county jail where he had been held on a charge of robbery and possessing stolen goods.

A reward of $25 had been offered for his capture. Miller was formerly a resident of West Prestonsburg. It was said.

Miller was arrested exactly a week before the night of the jail break. Merchandise which he attempted to sell to Andrew Allan at Royston was identified as that taken from the store of Sherman Rice at Ivyton. His loot consisted of approximately $200 worth of jewelry and general merchandise, only a part of which was recovered.

When arrested, Miller was driving a small car in which were concealed a can of ether and a handkerchief. Authorities viewed these items as indicating that he may have planned a kidnaping.

Prestonsburg Man, Insurance Firm Sales Leader

The July, 1940 issue of "AMONG OURSELVES," monthly journal published by The Commonwealth Life Insurance Company, Louisville, contains the following reference to H. F. Patton, veteran insurance man:

"Mr. H. F. Patton, of Prestonsburg, Ky., completes a third of a year in top position on the 'Fifty Leaders' report. Although Mr. Patton has a consistently high production score, the reason for his outstanding record in 'premiums paid for' is his unflinching rule of money with the application."

Mr. Patton also is leading the entire force in the United States for the year a record he has held 21 times. He maintained this leadership role for 19 consecutive years.
