Municipal Water Plant Seen

CITY TO BUY WATER PLANT FOR $117,700

GAS PROPERTIES HERE ACQUIRED BY COMBS

Two of the public utility concerns serving the town of Prestonsburg are undergoing ownership changes, it was learned this week.

Arriving financial "complications" of the Prestonsburg Water Company will, on August 19, or soon thereafter, become the property of the city of Prestonsburg.

Last week, in Chicago, B. F. Combs, prominent Prestonsburg attorney, purchased from the Western Public Service Corporation its gas franchise and properties here.

E. S. Mayes, Springfield, Ky., water company owner, will receive for his interests $117,700.

Mr. Combs bought the gas company serving Prestonsburg for $18,000, it was said. He expects to assume control of the company this month.

The gas company was first offered for sale to the city but the deal died a-borning as the price first quoted on the properties was increased.

Prestonsburg business men and citizens hailed purchase of the water company by the city as a municipal investment as a step which will, eventually, lead to elimination of municipal indebtedness, lower taxes and lowered water rates.

Sale of bonds issued by the city of Prestonsburg (see ordinance, page six) is apparently the only other step necessary to consummation of the water works purchase.

The sale agreement was reached at Monday evening's meeting of the City Council. Necessary ordinances were enacted at that meeting. With a sound business enterprise back of it, and with the City Council providing strict business methods for operation of the water system, business men here see a shattered bond market as the only hindrance to completion of the transaction.

The Prestonsburg Water Company, founded by the late Grover Davis, was purchased by Mr. Mayes 14 years ago, was at that time 400 connections and is reported as a property whose future returns will benefit Prestonsburg as a municipality to such extent that the town not only will gain its own Hylton was employed as a fireman on the yard engine and after the smash-up he was found about 100 feet from where his engine was hit. He was burned on his back, both arms, both legs, face and neck.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Sylvia Hylton, and two daughters, Madge and Gail; three brothers, Milton, General, and Fred; and five sisters, Mrs. Alice Taylor, Mrs. Mansie Hylton, Mrs. Virgie Smallwood and Mrs. Billy Kinney, all of Pike county.

WPA AGENCY IS RESUMED

OPERATION REOPENED ON "FULL-TIME" SCHEDULE

Floyd county's referral agency, along with 109 others in the state, resumed operations Wednesday after a "shut-down" that didn't stop work as a shut-down is supposed to do.

The referral agencies re-opened on "full-time" schedule after the Kentucky Department of Welfare had worked out a plan for the state to assume supervision of WPA employment certification.

Though these referral agencies continually had been "idle" since July 1, when negotiations began for transfer of the federal department of federal to state control, the Floyd county office was kept busy clearing "cases" already on hand. Mrs. Ruth S. Roberts, certifying agent, said.

Dr. A. Y. Lloyd, director of Public Assistance, said the work starting Wednesday would be for a trial period of three months. It will be supervised by two trained supervisors within the department of Welfare has borrowed from WPA.

The department hopes to work out a plan, acceptable to WPA, (Please turn to page eight)

HANCOCK DIES OF INJURIES

ALPHORETTA MINER IS CRUSHED FATALLY

Injuries sustained early Friday afternoon when his body was crushed by a mine car which jammed into its motor proved fatal to Marion Samuel Hancock, 34, motorman for the Stephens-Eikhorn Coal Company, Alphoretta, at the Beaver Valley hospital, Martin, at three o'clock Sunday morning.

According to reports the victim was "pinned" in the deck of his motor by his own string of cars when another motor crashed into his "trip," which was not moving the time. One of his lungs was punctured by a rib and after he was taken to the hospital oxygen was administered for a time in an effort to save his life.

A native of Pulaski county, Hancock was the son of Thomas and Lucille Farmer Hancock, and had spent most of his life in this county.

Surviving are his widow, Mrs. Irene Hancock, and seven children, Fenda, Robert, Sam, Jr., Lillie, Billie, George Edward and Mary, all of Alphoretta, and one sister, Mrs. Irene Jones, Ashland, two brothers, Herbert Hancock, Alphoretta, and Oscar Hancock, Saltburg.

Funeral services were conducted from the Alphoretta church at two o'clock Monday afternoon, with the Rev. Johnson of Hazard, Bill String, Lackey, and Ed Stone, Alphoretta, officiating. Burial was made in the Alphoretta cemetery under the direction of the Ryan Funeral Home.

Active pallbearers were Curt McCown, Bill Lambert, Ted Meadows, Dave Stapleton, Cal Patton, Marvin Barka, Charles Conpton, K. Moore, Jimmy Dove, E. Meadows, Herbert Ferrell, Jake Paton and Curtis Stephens.

U. S. Army Engineers Survey Dam Site On Johns Creek

Approximately 30 U. S. army engineers are stationed here while final survey of the Johns Creek dam site and basin of the stream is being made and as a study of the Big Sandy's needs for locks and dams was begun. Another party of 25 or 30 engineers is expected here within the next few days, THE TIMES was told Thursday.

The engineers expect to remain here for the next four months at least, and when they leave all engineering work in connection with the proposed dam on Johns Creek will have been completed.

Location of the party here renders the housing problem acute, it was said. Owners of apartments and unoccupied dwellings were being urged this week to contact members of the Prestonsburg Housing Association so that satisfactory housing facilities may quickly be provided.

MAY, TURNER EASY VICTORS IN PRIMARY

SILER DEFEATS SAMPSON IN BIG UPSET

Disarmingly tranquil was the tide of fortune as Congressman A. J. May last Saturday sought re-nomination to Congress from the Democratic party and as James W. Turner asked the Republican party to give him the right to oppose Congressman May, next November.

Both the Democratic and Republican Congressional nominees met every county in the Seventh district, a feat hardly to be expected in November.

Though opposed by Astor Hoeg in Letcher county, F. B. Ladd in Magoffin and Perry and L. J. Hatcher, Pike county, Congressman May overcame not only their combined opposition.

At the same time, Mr. Turner, Paintsville banker, was showing his heels in an easy gallop to G. Tom Hawkins, Frazer, perennial GOP candidate for this office or another.

SLAYER TIRES OF CHASE

COLE SURRENDERS, IS JAILED HERE TUESDAY

Harried by officers of two states since Friday, July 26, when he fatally clubbed John Smith on Lost Pork of Middle Creek, Simon Cole, 35, surrendered here Tuesday morning.

Officers said the slayer first fled to Aiger, Ohio, but that a warrant sent to officers there brought him scurrying back to Floyd Monday night. Sheriff Dial Salisbury and Deputies Lackey Salisbury, Dewey Hicks and W. L. Boyd were so hot on his trail that he left a part of his supper uneaten in a barn at his home.

When Cole walked into County Attorney Forest D. Short's office, the official observed a peg-legged man, armed with a short shotgun standing nearby. Asked what he was doing with his gun, the man answered "I just come along—didn't aim to see Simon hurt any."

The man was Robert L. Spalding, Cole's brother-in-law.

MAY THANKS FRIENDS AND SUPPORTERS

To all my friends and supporters of the Seventh Congressional District: The overwhelming victory given me in Saturday's primary election in my race for re-nomination as the Democratic candidate for Congress in the coming November election, is a matter of great satisfaction to me, and I take this method of expressing my great debt of gratitude to all my friends and supporters for all their efforts in my behalf. It constitutes a strong and unqualified endorsement of my record as your Representative and I am not unmindful of my lasting obligation to all those who so freely gave me their support.

Most sincerely yours, A. J. MAY, M. C.

GAS COMPANIES PAY $4 IN TAXES TO $1 PAID BY COAL OPERATIONS

Gas companies paid more than $4 to every $1 by coal companies into the Floyd county tax till, collection records of Sheriff Dial Salisbury for 1939 show. Five of the $440,888.61 collected in taxes, Floyd's gas companies contributed $188,510.90 to the coal companies' total tax contribution of $41,141.67.

These figures, compiled by Wm. Hagan, office deputy, show that coal and gas firms, the Chesapeake & Ohio Railway Company, the telephone, telegraph and bus companies paid $70, 284.42 of the tax bill, leaving for private property-owners, banks, water companies and mercantile firms only $70,534.19 to pay.

The Chesapeake & Ohio Railway Company, as usual, was the largest single taxpayer with a bill of $120, 855.51. Next heaviest was the Kentucky West Virginia Gas Company with $90, 840.90. The Warfield Natural Gas Company paid $84,181.98 and the Inland Gas Corporation, $14,821.94.

The Elk Horn Coal Corporation paid $102,888.89 to become the largest taxpayer in its field. Inland Steel at Wheelwright paid $5,681.79 and Koppers Coal Company at Weeksburg was third with $4,872.94.

Of the total collected, $140,878.38 was earmarked for the general fund; $18,048.27 for the bond or road fund; $108,488.32 for the common schools; $53,142.18 for consolidated schools. The state received $9,284.65.

REAR OUTLOOK BRIGHTENS

PROGRAM EXTENSION IN FLOYD COUNTY IS SEEN

Response in the Abbott Creek section to rural electrification plans has been so ready and encouraging that a network of REA lines over 100 miles of Floyd county will be developed.

William Nelson, Washington, D. C., Rural Electrification Administration representative, announced the extension of the program in Floyd county upon his visit here this week.

Original plans envisioned the Abbott Creek section as a terminus of an REA line extending from Wolfe county. Now, however, formation of an entirely new co-operative to build approximately 200 miles of line in Floyd, Johnson, Magoffin and Pike counties is planned.

In this county, S. L. Isbell, county agent, is leading the work of organizing the co-operative. "With an enthusiastic man like Mr. Isbell to help them, at least 400 farmers of Floyd county should have co-operative electric service within the next few months," Mr. Nelson predicted.

A meeting of county leaders will be held here Saturday afternoon at 8 o'clock, when Mr. Nelson will explain the program.

County Agent Isbell also plans a series of 14 community meetings, first of which was held this week.

"Lines will be run," Mr. Nelson said, "wherever a sufficient number of farmers join the co-operative." A minimum of four members per mile is necessary.

W. M. Hunter, Harold, Is Claimed After Long Illness

W. M. Hunter, 55 years old, Harold, died at the home of his sister, Mrs. Polly Younts, at Harold Friday, after a lingering illness.

The victim was born at Beaver, Ky., and for the past 15 years had made his home with his sister at Harold. He had been an active church member for 28 years, 16 of which were spent in the ministry. For the past 11 months he was an adult student in the WPA training project at Harold.

He is survived by his mother, one brother and one other sister.

Funeral services were conducted from the home of Mrs. Younts Saturday morning, with the Rev. T. P. Meade officiating. Burial was made in the family cemetery, with the Arnold Funeral Home directing.

This Town--That World

EVACUATION METHOD If it ever becomes necessary to move residents of small towns out onto farms, all they'll have to do is enact a stringent anti-gossip law.

AN AFFRONTING SCENE The Duke of Windsor and his Duchess give this column occasional attacks of bellyache. We had one such attack last week when we read of them sailing America-ward, occupying a ten-room suite and bringing with them four dogs, 52 pieces of baggage and their shiny limousine. They should have embarked from England and all the space those dogs, that baggage and the limousine occupied should have been taken by children-refugees.

And, the same newspaper told of eight yearling thoroughbred colts arriving in Canada from Ireland. What price red blood when the blood is in danger?

THE LORD GIVETH...THE LORD TAKETH AWAY When Chief of Police Ed Laferty arrived in Salversville last week with Adam Miller, fugitive from the Magoffin county jail, the Magoffin jailer took great pleasure in paying the $100 reward for Miller's arrest.

The jailer was what you might call mad. He had had a letter from Miller, during the said Miller's vacation from durance vice, imputing to the jail qualities not of Egyptian mummies and Araby the blest. The vacation had added insult to injury by informing the jailer that he had been delivered "to confinement" by the Lord.

And so, when Miller, escorted by Policeman Laferty, entered the jail, the hood-saw headkeeper succinctly remarked, "Well, Bud, the Lord took you away, you say—look who's bringin' you back!"

ELEMENTARY, WATSON! What well-known insurance company will have to do some revising of its advertising if the rock of Gibraltar falls?

I'M BEHIND THE RIGHT-BALL Fugitive during vacation from the Courier-Journal news-room, James (Jimmy) Goble, while visiting his mother here this week returned to this office, some of many the former trial and tribulation. And he brought with him a gift for his former side-kick. A pretty, black, shiny ball with the figure 6 painted on it, boldly in white.

Now, if I can get it mounted as I want it, I will meet all callers from behind the eight-ball just as most of them expect to leave me.

SHORT STORY There didn't seem to be much wrong. The girl was just pokin' along when the car passed her on Aber Whitesworth, but there was something about the way she was holding a picture in her arms that caused Scoutmaster Walter Price and five of his Scouts to stop.

"Ain't nobody but the master with me burnin' down," she explained.

The Scouts hurried over the hill to do their good deed for the day by forming a bucket brigade and saving the dwelling.

The girl stood by, tense, silent—with the picture clutched in her arms. It was the only thing she had removed as she fled the house. It was a picture of her mother, Mrs. Richard Gibson, who died three years ago.

FOUR CHARGED IN SLAYING OF GARRETT MAN AT ESTILL SUNDAY

A guard was being maintained early this week over George Goodson, Estill miner, by Floyd county officers while he was receiving treatment at the Estill hospital. Goodson sustained three wounds sustained early Sunday in a battle to the death during which he is said to have choked his adversary, 64-year-old Wm. D. (Doc) Thomas, Garrett, to death.

Before being throttled, authorities were told, Thomas slashed Mrs. Goodson across the abdomen and cut Goodson four times. The two will recover, barring complications, it was said at the Estill hospital.

Thomas' 19-year-old wife, Elizabeth, and two men, Bill Knox and Daniel Crager, were brought to the county jail here in connection with the slaying. Mrs. Thomas was booked on the charge of aiding and assisting in the slaying, and is held, unable to fill a $2,000 bond; the men were released on bond.

Barnett Is Jailed On Desertion Charge

It's double play for Herbert H. Barnett who is accused of double-crossing his family. From New York to Floyd county to Knott. And in, not out, is Mr. Barnett.

Though he deserted his family originally in New York, Mrs. Barnett said here, she stated in swearing to a warrant for his arrest that her children reside in this county while she works in New York. Barnett thereupon was arrested at Garrett by Coroner Elliott Frazer and jailed here.

Then it was learned that Mrs. Barnett made a mistake, that the children reside in Knott. But that doesn't get Barnett out of jailer Will Halbert's inn, according to County Attorney Frazer. Barnett thereupon was arrested at Garrett by Coroner Elliott Frazer and jailed here.

SHIKE'S POKES

(Views expressed in this column are those of the writer and not necessarily those of The Times.)

We are trying to borrow a pair of "pole climbers" for Chas. Shelton. They claim that this horn has grown so tall that he will have to climb before he can get a mess of roasting ears.

All you Republicans apply to Shikepoke if you want to subscribe to Fortune Magazine. I have written the editor of Fortune for the agency in this section—carefully explaining that I do not believe anything he writes and that I know he doesn't, but it is a chance to make money from the trusting souls who went down with the Literary Digest.

Wayne and Orville must be going to run for the same office—they want the same CAMPAIGN MANAGER.

Everyone is asking why Hitler hasn't invaded Great Britain. The reason, I believe, is that their "bread baker" is getting low—and it's going to get lower.

What's happened to the Italian navy? They must have crawled in a hole and pulled the hole in after them.

I guess they will have to put lights, bumpers and brakes on "Chub" if he keeps on running into cars.

Fortune Magazine lists Kentucky as a doubtful state in the coming election. We all know that the only thing doubtful is whether FDR's majority will exceed 150,000 votes.

I noticed that a writer says that since the Hatch Act maybe we could get rid of the Advisory Highway Commissioners—their only acts were political, anyway—but do you reckon we can?

There have been so many stables driven on Left Beaver that I believe the present engineers will have to dig up some of them before they can drive any more.

If the umpiring in the "A" league is all like we saw Sunday I just don't see how they play baseball. I've got a three-year-old son and if he couldn't umpire any better than what we saw Sunday I wouldn't claim him. An umpire at least should know the rules. Looks like you let your foot slip, Ben. Don't you think we have any umpires in the "B" league? Neither the fans nor the players get any kick out of a farge of umpiring like we had to put up with last Sunday. It was just a just ask anyone knowing baseball. Ben. Our league adopted the National League rules and I think we ought to play by them. What happened Sunday hurt baseball more in this section than anything that could have happened.

When the government is putting up these "Defense Factories" in the interior, why not inspect Big Sandy and the Beaver Creeks? We sure could camouflage them up here. This is the safest place in the U.S.A. for key defense factories. The coal, gas and oil are right here, too.

If Frank Knapp newspapers should take a straw vote, every Republican would yell—"Oh, yeah! He works for F. D. R." Well, just remember, the editor of Fortune Magazine is Wilkie's assistant campaign manager.

Boy, we ought to get some bean seed from Bill Myers. He claims to have planted one ten cent package of beans and to have picked thirteen bushels.

Wonder why Duke Ridgeley always refers to Wilkie in his column—is he afraid of losing his job?

I noticed the following sign on a new automobile Sunday. "Hoover promised me this—Roosevelt gave it to me—don't let Wilkie take it away."

The past week-end seemed to be "accident week-end" in Floyd County. "Hook" Moore and Jim Pitts will have to have some patching done on their pants pockets, as at the ball game last Sunday they lost their money and scrip.

Two new members of the Midnite Bottle-Warmers club—Lacy Blackburn, another centerfielder; T.P. Daniels, another brakeman.

When this draft comes around "Greaser" wants to join the cavalry and learn to ride—he was thrown by a rocking chair on Sunday.

Lum had to take that mule back that he swapped Sammy out of. Blue Eyes and Lloyd are about to trade for it.

Chas. Buck and "Frosty"—the All-Star hitch-hikers.

The Drift Ball club's new suits are the "hook" ever on Big Sandy—they are Red White and Blue.

Mr. and Mrs. Dora Nelson is very ill.

There was an all-day meeting here Sunday at the Church of Christ and dinner was served on the grounds. The

TIDBITS OF KENTUCKY FOLKLORE

THE FRONT PORCH Recently I made another trip into the mountains and rejoiced to see in their untouched purity some of the institutions that other parts of the state are rapidly losing. Nothing clings to my memory of the trip more than the front porches of the simpler homes. A house without a porch was rare indeed. Since space is at a great premium in small houses with good-sized families occupying them, nearly all of the front porches had their own use as storerooms. Many a household article was plainly visible as it lay along, things hanging up on nails or pegs or sitting against the wall. Even things up under the joists were sometimes in sight. I know the use of things put up on the joist so well that a small handle protruding told me at once that here was a butcher knife or a tobacco knife. That large hump back in the shadows was probably a whetstone. In the midst of the things often sat men or women, doing their work. Some of them were bottoming chairs, others were weaving baskets, and others were churning or shelling beans for dinner. All of this tied up in my mind with other times and reminded me of what I had personally experienced or had read of.

he is paying a visit; it is easy to drift in or out of the conversation and then on one's way. If it is fruit that is being worked, one can get plenty to eat while regaling the workers with news. If there are plenty of knives, you can offer your services and peel apples or peaches or pears as a sort of friendly lift while you tarry. If I were an artist, I would like to photograph or paint some of these front-porch groups that I have seen recently; they would illustrate home industry, neighborliness, and forethought all in one.

Well-Managed Good Small Farms Excel Poor Big Holdings Well-managed, productive medium to small farms often pay as well or better than poorly managed, low producing large farms, the University of Kentucky found in a business analysis of 106 farms in the outer Bluegrass region. The operator's net earnings last year for the 106 farms averaged $1,812. This is what the operator had left after paying all expenses and allowing 5 percent interest on the farm investment. Twenty-nine farms of less than 50 tillable acres each had average net earnings of $884; 31 farms of 50 to 150 acres, $1,204; 38 farms of 140 to 250 acres, $1,580; and eight farms of 250 to 400 acres, $2,046. On all different sized farms tobacco ranked first in income, with dairy cat-the second. Sheep and hogs were major sources of income on all farms, poultry on the small farms, and beef cattle on all but the small holdings. The tobacco acreage on the small farms averaged 4.6 acres; on the large farms, 6.8 acres, 3.3 acres; on the medium-sized farms, and on the 250 to 400-acre farms, 10.6 acres. Net earnings on the 106 farms ranged from $75 to $3,976. Important factors influencing returns were listed as size of business; crop yields, especially of tobacco, corn and hay; pasture production; livestock production, and the way farm business was balanced. counts to be set apart and paid into said Sinking Fund shall be as follows: In each month of the fiscal year ending on the last day of July 1940, the sum of $416.66; in each month thereafter, through and including July, 1970, the sum of $613.55.

Any excess remaining in said sinking fund after payment of the principal and interest requirements on all the bonds becoming due during or within fifteen (15) days after the close of each fiscal year shall be held apart as a reserve fund to meet the payments of such principal and interest requirements which may thereafter become due and which may be required to reduce the amount otherwise herein specified to be paid into said sinking fund during subsequent fiscal years.

Such payments shall be set aside into said sinking fund in equal monthly installments as aforesaid on the 12th day of each month, except that when the 12th day or any month shall be a Sunday or a legal holiday then such payments shall be made on the next succeeding secular day. Said sinking fund as hereinafter provided shall be used solely and only, and is here pledged for the purpose of paying the principal and interest on the bonds hereby authorized, and for no other purpose whatsoever.

In the event that the revenues in any month shall be insufficient to make the aforesaid payments in full, any such deficiency shall be paid into said sinking fund from the first revenues of the Waterworks System thereafter received, and if for any reason such shall fail to make any such payments into said sinking fund as aforesaid, any sums then held as a 'Reserve For Contingencies Fund' (as hereinafter provided), shall be used for the payment of any portion of the interest on, or principal of, said bonds coming due in such fiscal year, in which case there would otherwise be a default, but such 'Reserve For Contingencies Fund' shall be replenished therefor from the first available funds therefor after received from the revenues of said System.

That it is hereby created a special account to be known as the 'Reserve For Contingencies Fund,' which fund shall be kept separate and apart from all other funds of the City and there shall be set apart and paid in equal monthly installments into said fund the sum of $28.00 per month. Such payments shall be made on or before the 12th day of each month and shall continue until such time as said fund contains $3,000.00, at which time the City, if and when it is so authorized, may thereupon pay into said fund: Provided, however, that, in the event any monies are withdrawn from said fund, as hereinafter provided, the City will immediately restore said fund to the sum of $3,000.00, in the manner hereinabove provided. Said fund shall be kept on deposit in the Kentucky Title Trust Co., Louisville, Kentucky, in cash, or, at the option of the City may be invested in any direct or fully guaranteed obligation of the United States Government: Provided, however, that, in the event said fund is so invested, the custody of said bonds shall be vested in the Kentucky Title Trust Co., of Louisville, Kentucky, so long as any of the bonds provided for herein are outstanding, any sum of money in said fund shall only be used as provided for hereinabove. When all of the bonds provided for herein have been retired or fully provided for, said 'Reserve For Contingencies Fund' may be withdrawn by the City and transferred to the general revenues of the Waterworks System.

After the aforesaid payments into the 'Waterworks Bond Interest and Redemption Fund' and the 'Reserve For Contingencies Fund' a sufficient and reasonable portion of the remaining gross income and revenues of the City of Prestonsburg Waterworks System shall be set aside and used for the proper and necessary expenses of operation and maintenance of said System. It is hereby determined that, should any other fixed, portion to be set aside and used for such operation and maintenance expenses shall be 90 per cent of said remaining gross income and revenues of said System, and the City Council hereby determines and declares that said 90 per cent of such remaining gross income and revenues of said System is necessary for the proper operation and maintenance thereof, but not in excess of the amount required for said purposes.

That while the bonds authorized hereunder, or any of them, remain outstanding and unpaid, reasonable and proper rates for all services rendered by said system to the City of Prestonsburg, Kentucky, and reasonable and just charges for water service furnished to said City and its citizens, corporations, and other consumers, shall be imposed, collected and accounted for, taking into account and consideration the value of the system, the cost of maintaining and operating the same and the proper and necessary allowances for depreciation thereof, and a sufficient and adequate return upon the capital invested; and the reasonable cost and value of any service rendered further, than that authorized by this ordinance, shall be paid to the City specifically and agree that under no circumstances will it allow rebates, discounts, or other concessions to officials of the City, or of the system, or any consumer, in any manner not allowed the general public; nor will it allow offsets of claims against the City against charges made by the system.

That it is hereby covenanted and agreed to by the City of Prestonsburg, and its City Council, and its citizens, or holders of the bonds herein authorized to be issued, or any of them, as follows:

That the City of Prestonsburg will fix and revise and will at all times maintain and enforce rates for the services rendered by the waterworks system by said system at all times sufficient to realize the sums hereinabove provided to be paid into the sinking fund and the addition of such sums for necessary operation, maintenance and depreciation charges referred to hereinabove.

That all moneys received from any bonds issued pursuant thereto, exclusive of accrued interest, shall be kept in a separate fund apart from all other funds of said City and shall be applied solely to acquisition and purchase of said system and to the payment of the costs of issuing the bonds. If there should be any surplus over and above the purchase price and costs, such surplus shall be deposited in the sinking fund provided for herein.

That the City of Prestonsburg and the City Council and officials thereof will perform and comply with the provisions of said system required by the Constitution and statutes of the Commonwealth of Kentucky and the City hereby irrevocably and irrevocably binds and obligates itself not to sell, lease, mortgage or in any manner dispose of said system, including any extensions or additions thereto, until such time as the principal and interest on all of the bonds issued hereunder shall have been paid in full, both principal and interest, unless and until fully satisfied by a recognized independent firm of certified public accountants and will make available to any holder of any of the bonds issued hereunder upon written request made sixty (60) days or more after the close of each fiscal year. Semi-annually said City will furnish on like request operating and income statements of such system covering in reasonable detail the operating history of said system for such six month period.

That the City in its operation of said waterworks system will carry adequate workmen's compensation insurance and public liability and other insurance, in such amounts and to such extent as are normally carried by private utility corporations operating public utilities of the same type. The cost of such insurance shall be considered one of the operating costs of the system. The insurance proceeds from loss of income or loss or damage to property shall be used first, for the purpose of restoring or replacing the property lost or damaged and any remaining funds and the sinking fund above created and shall be subject to distribution in the same manner as are the other moneys in said fund.

That for the further protection of the holders of the bonds herein authorized to be issued and the coupons thereto attached, a statutory mortgage lien upon said waterworks system and all properties connected therewith and belonging thereto is granted and created by law, which said statutory mortgage lien is hereby recognized and declared to be valid and binding upon the City of Prestonsburg and all property constituting the system shall take effect immediately upon the delivery of the bonds authorized to be issued under the provisions of this ordinance. Any holder of said bonds or of any of the coupons may either at law or in equity, by suit, action, mandamus or other proceedings, bring the statutory mortgage lien hereby conferred, and may by suit, action, mandamus or other proceedings, enforce and compel performance of all duties required by law, including the making and collecting of sufficient rates and segregation of the revenues of said system and the application thereof.

If there be any default in the payment of the principal and/or interest on any of said bonds, then upon the filing of suit by any holder of said bonds or of any of the coupons, any court having jurisdiction of the action may appoint a receiver to administer said system on behalf of the City with power to charge and collect rates sufficient to provide for the payment of any bond or obligation outstanding against said system, and for the payment of the operating expenses, and to apply the income and revenues in conformity with this ordinance and the provisions of said statutes laws of Kentucky.

That the bonds authorized to be issued hereunder and from time to time outstanding shall not be entitled to priority over the other in the application of the revenues of said system with respect to the statutory mortgage lien securing their payment, regardless of the time or times of their issuance, and that the bonds herein authorized shall be no priority among the bonds authorized to be issued under the provisions of this ordinance, regardless of the time or times of their issuance and delivered and will mature at different times; and provided further that the lien and security of any bond or obligation of a similar character hereinafter issued, shall be subject to the lien and security of the bonds hereby authorized.

That the bonds hereby authorized to be executed as herein provided as soon after the adoption of this ordinance as the City Council may determine, and thereupon immediately delivered to the City Treasurer.

The City Council shall meet on August 1st of each year and shall be authorized to receive competitive sealed bids for the purchase of the bonds herein provided for, under the terms and conditions of the 'Notice of Sale' authorized by the City Council. Thereupon the City Council will open and consider said bids and accept the bid which is the bid according to the terms and conditions above referred to. The City Council shall thereupon pass an order declaring who is the purchaser of said bonds and the amount of the purchase price. A copy of this order shall be delivered to the City Treasurer and shall be his authority to deliver the bonds to the purchaser named in said order, upon payment to the City Treasurer of the purchase price named in the order, and accrued interest, shall be paid to Granberry and Co. Blyth and Co. as provided for in the contract previously entered into with said firm on May 19, 1939. If after making the payments as above provided any surplus remains, such surplus may be used to reimburse the City for its actual expenses in connection with the issuance of these bonds. If there is any surplus after such payments, such surplus shall be paid into the 'Sinking Fund' provided for hereinabove, together with any accrued interest. The validity of said bonds shall not be dependent on such application of said proceeds.

If any section, paragraph, clause or provision of this ordinance shall be held to be invalid by any court, this section, paragraph, clause or provision shall not affect any of the remaining provisions of this ordinance. This ordinance shall be in full force and effect as provided by law.

waterworks but will, eventually, be enabled to reduce its tax rate and to save its citizens annually several thousands of dollars in fire insurance.

Financial set-up for the water company purchase eliminates payment of bond principal and interest for next year, the first year, thus making it possible for the town to make improvements required by the Kentucky Actuarial Bureau. When such improvements are made, a saving of from 30 to 50 per cent is seen for fire insurance policy-holders here.

Net profit of $3,000 annually, beyond annual payments on bond principal and interest, operating cost and other expense, was predicted this week for this municipal enterprise.

Though it was held highly probable that payment of the debt incurred in the purchase could be paid within a period of 15 years or less, last of the bonds to be offered for sale are not payable until 1970. The bonds bear 4 1/2 per cent interest.

Forty-eight of the 64 towns in Kentucky having 2,000 population or more own their own water plants, said Ben Cregar, Louisville, representative of Granberry & Company, of the New York Stock Exchange, and Blyth & Company, one of the country's largest underwriters. And, said Mr. Cregar, who began negotiations with the City Council here almost two years ago for purchase of the water company, there have been no defaults among these 48 municipalities on their water company purchases.

Brown, Prestonsburg, on his bid of $325. Cost of the piano and sound system was paid out of the Maytown school fund.

Teacher's resignations accepted by the Board included those of Pearl Begley and George McCaffrey, vocational agriculture instructors last year at McDowell and Betsy Layne respectively, who have accepted positions with the Farm Security Administration. Roy Dennis, who last year was vocational agriculture instructor at the Martin and Maytown high schools, was transferred to McDowell, replacing Mr. Begley. Since in the county there were no qualified agriculture teachers who had applied for the vacant position, Earl Gray, of J. C. Gray, was named to the post at Betsy Layne and Willard Campbell, of Ousley County, was employed at Martin and Maytown. Mr. Hall said.

The resignation of Forrest Newsome, previously hired in the Wheelwright graded school and who now is employed by the Inland Steel company at Wheelwright, was accepted. He will be replaced by Truman Damron. Clabe Stephens was named as substitute teacher in the rural school at the mouth of Cow Creek, replacing Joe Wheeler Jarrell, who currently is employed by the Farm Security Administration. Stephens previously was hired to teach the last five months of the Lick Fork school, tendered his resignation, and Clyde Allen was named to fill the vacancy. Also named as substitute teachers, to fill vacancies as they occur, were James Goble and Gorman Collins. Insurance on new buildings erected by the Board was divided between the John Allen and J. J. Hatcher agencies. An order was passed setting up the NYA shop in the old wooden building at Garrett, since the agency failed to approve the shop at Allen. Previously it had been in the basement of the old Allen graded school building, which was used to make way for the new building there.

The Board contemplated moving the Bee Fork rural school, a part of the Bonanza district to Bonanza, but after the appearance of the trustee and several patrons opposing the move, it was decided to continue the school there.

The bus drivers hired, who will be paid $80 per school month, must pass a physical examination and comply with other rules and standards adopted by the state Board of Education. Drivers named were: Weeksburg circuit, Ernel Hunt; Wheelwright, Brock Hall; McDowell, Stella Clark; Wayland, Garrett, Harold Bailey; Garrett-Martin, High Prause first 4 1/2 months; Richmond, Oboone, last 4 1/2 months; Martin-Betsy Layne, Allen; Mud Creek, Arnold Robbette—first 4 1-2 months, Ollie Cadwell, last 4 1-2 months.

May and Roy Martin, Maytown; J. D. Foster and Stella Patton, Garrett; Marion Martin, Drift; Garfield Collins, Weeksburg. Ed Hall and Willard Hall will alternate each month as janitor for McDowell high school, while the grade school position is split between Johnson who was hired for the Wheelwright high school; no one was named for the grade school. For Lackey school Miss Curtis was hired for the first three months; Verda Allen for the next three, and J. M. Patton for the final two months. Mrs. B. F. Elliott, Mrs. Ethel Reasley and George Clark will alternate each month at Harold, Janitors for the Wayland school were not hired.

that their wide victory margins were registered as the highest vote cast in Floyd in years was recorded. A few more than 4,000 Democrats voted in this county. The Republican party voted around 1,100 ballots. The campaign preceding the election was desultory; happenings of election day were far from sensational.

Write Congressman May was polling 3,900 votes in this county, Mr. Hogg was amassing only 400; Ladd, 120, and Hatcher, 71.

Mr. Turner received 979 Floyd countians' votes while Mr. Hawkins was accorded only 74.

HELPED HOWARD

Though Charles F. Farnley, leading candidate in opposing Chairman for the Democratic Senatorial nomination, used both radio and newspaper advertising, in this county Jack Howard polled 467 votes to Farnley's 257. Political observers held that voters of this county confused the candidate, a resident of East Bernstadt, Ky., with Jack (Ex-Senator J. W.) Howard of Prestonsburg.

Big upset of the election was the defeat at the hands of the Republican party of Ex-Governor Flem D. Sampson, opposing Eugene E. Siler and others for the Republican Appellate Judge nomination. Siler defeated the former Governor by more than 10,000 votes, according to available returns, but Floyd county, good and conservative, gave Mr. Sampson a 425 total to Siler's 202. The 223 votes were gained in Prestonsburg No. 1 precinct.

whereby it can assume supervision in compliance with a new federal rule requiring certification a state responsibility.

While 18 district supervisors of Old Age Assistance are available for supervising WPA projects, a ruling of the Attorney General has barred expenditure of any part of the Department of Welfare's appropriation for this purpose. The money was appropriated solely for public assistance to needy aged, blind and dependent children, the ruling held.

In effect, Dr. Mayo said, the nine-day trial plan is a gentlemen's agreement with WPA by which the federal agency will continue to supervise certification as usual, boxing only to nominal state supervision. WPA will furnish all supplies, and the various local courts will pay salaries of local employees as heretofore.

Cessation of certification since July 1 has worked no hardship on prospective applicants, Dr. Lloyd said, because waiting lists on hand July 1 were large enough to staff all WPA projects started in the shutdown period. Certification for NYA and CCC continued as usual during the period, he said.
