BILL HENRY SAYS:

ONE MONTH, four short weeks, in which to make up our minds whether it will be Roosevelt or Hitler who is no man living who can forestall the future. We can all make a guess and the other fellow's guess is as good as mine. There is, however, a big difference in the way some of us come to our conclusions. There is the man, for instance, who approaches another and suggests a discussion of opinions and who becomes very vehement in his denunciation of everyone who disagrees with him. In our world of today no one except a fool would make the statement, "I know what tomorrow will bring," but the man is wise who will reckon the morrow with the past when considering men like Hitler, Mussolini, Stalin and Konyev. In November we will be called upon, not to decide whether we are Democrats or Republicans, not to settle a personal feud between two men on the issue as to whether private companies shall have a monopoly there are more TV's, not to decide whether we prefer the Democrats or Republicans as political patronage dispensers during the next four years, and to give a hang whether Mr. Willkie has more hair on top of his head than Mr. Roosevelt, but we are to decide whether we are willing to gamble with a complete change of administrative heads while a literal hell is unleashed on our doorstep.

Promises come easy with a candidate when he is asking you to place him in office and it is impossible to dispute the sincerity of any man until after you have tried him, unless, of course, he has been in public office previously. It is possible though to use a few of our brain cells and put two and two together in summing up what could happen with reference to the office of President of the United States in as much as the President acts only in an advisory capacity. There are many so-called isolationists, old-timers in Congress, who are waiting for a chance to take advantage of a leader who might not be faithful.

This past week's headlines make good reading for the man who says he's still undecided: KONYEV SAYS JAPAN READY TO SHOW MICHEN... Japan is prepared to participate (with Germany and Italy) in creating a new area in the entire world; NAZIS ASSIGNS AREA TO RUSSIA... Germany, Italy and Japan have agreed on the area in the proposed new world which is to be under the "leadership" of Russia; NAZI-LED FRENCH FACE FOOD WOES... Britain is actually groveling before Hitler; ONCE THIRSDAY PLANES RAID LONDON... The Nazis say they are retaliating for RAF raids on German cities; Germany failed to mention Nazi planes bombed thousands of men, women and children in the London area before a single RAF raid was made on Berlin; ITALY WARNS UNITED STATES... U. S. must take no interest in what is going on outside her own borders; if she does, to the extent of siding with England, the three axis partners will attack her from all sides.

This affair was enjoyed by several citizens, besides the class enrollees. Plans were being made at the time for other group gatherings of this kind in the future.

A community meeting under Mrs. Nellie Wright, general education teacher at Harold, was held September 5. This meeting was well attended, its object being to acquaint citizens with the work being done in their community. Plans for work during the coming school year were discussed.

El F. Eppling, teacher at Bayview, failed to accept a restaurant permit student T. Gipson. Says Mr. Gipson: "I have only writing, arithmetic and spelling under Mr. Eppling, but I would not take hundreds of dollars for what he has done for me."

The Commercial Unit at Prestonsburg is progressing nicely with fair attendance. New classes in combined commercial studies are planned for the latter part of September. The assignment of Frank Hammond, Stone, increased the teachers' quota for Floyd county to seven.

H. A. Daniels has made application to the Floyd county court for a permit to operate a restaurant at Betsy Layne, Ky., where soft drinks, or beer, may be sold, and publishes this notice in accordance with state law.

similar with international affairs. There are hundreds of hungry politicians, many of them not qualified, waiting to be called by a different administration to step into the shoes of our well-trained diplomats who are representing this country in foreign capitals. Men who have had their people since the outbreak of the war and have gained a wealth of knowledge the proper usage of which may mean the continued existence of a free people under a democratic form of government. As between Mr. Willkie and Mr. Roosevelt there can be no question of opinion as to their good intentions... the past records of both men speak for themselves... but good intentions will not keep Hitler and his stooges from our shores unless they are backed up with the right kind of leadership. It doesn't seem reasonable to believe any man could give proper leadership in times like these without having had governmental experience.

Floyd County Charters Feature Festival At Quickansand

Quickansand, Ky.—They came, they sang and they conquered—the Floyd County Charters, led by Mrs. Edith James, chartered their musical festivity to a two-day festival. A number of more youths from the mountain sections and mountain educational institutions took part in singing folk songs, folk games; boys and girls from Homeplace Settlement School danced "sugar on the floor" and other folk dances.

The chanting, folk dancing and ballad singing had the "outsiders" gasping in astonishment, and one frequently heard the remark, "I have never witnessed anything like it. I wish everyone could see and hear them." Among the most interested spectators in the crowd of several hundred were four members of the station's board of directors, Dr. Thomas P. Cooper, acting president of the University of Kentucky, Judge E. C. O'Rear, Frankfort; G. N. Manning and T. W. Rainey, Lexington.

IT'S BEST TO BE DEAD SURE
 A lot of automobile accidents are caused by drivers who misjudge distance in passing. Such accidents usually are serious, because the cars involved are traveling at high speed. Always be sure you have plenty of room ahead before going around another car. If you are driving 50 miles an hour and you try to pass a car going 40 miles an hour it is the same as passing a row of automobiles, parked bumper to bumper, 500 feet long!

In passing be dead sure the road ahead is clear. It's better to be dead sure than dead. It's better to lose a minute than to lose a life than to save a minute and save a life.

Briar Buck's Scratches

The views expressed in this column are those of the writer, and not necessarily those of The Times.

WHY WORRY?

If Japan should wipe out every ignorant "chink" in China, occupy the whole of French Indo-China, and completely take over every swampy island in the Philippine group, I wouldn't care a tinker's dam.

I don't have one cent invested in any of those places. I have no relations there who would be in danger. And the noise would be too far away to bother my deers.

Therefore, from a purely selfish point of view, I can see no sense in Uncle Sam rearing on his hind legs and picking a fight out with those little yellow devils just to please a few Wall Street investors.

THE "DRAW" IS FASTER

We noticed in Sunday's Courier-Trying murder cases had been set in this county—two trials in one afternoon.

That's almost as fast as the killings!

PERFECTLY SAFE

Now that October has made its appearance, I suppose we would be safe in saying that winter will soon be here. Haw, Haw, Haw—wasn't that funny!

"Oz" Archer, another one of them Dam Project fellers, says he can all ways, tell when outfitting time comes—his tongue gets tired!

NEW GAME WARDEN

Ed Burke, Mr. Warden to you, has already earned his salary for two or three months ahead. Not only has he been taking the fish traps out of the river, but he also has visited a few homes, where traps were stored away, and destroyed the unfair fish catchers.

That's progress—and with our help he can do even more!

One good thing about this scribbling business is that we don't have to tell any jokes on ourselves!

Francis Is Named As Party Speaker

Expected to be called upon by the Democratic National Committee to make addresses in the interest of the party in Kentucky and near-by states is Fred Francis, Prestonsburg attorney, who last week received a letter from Edward J. Flynn, chairman of the committee.

Francis was recommended to Chairman Flynn by state party leaders, and he also will be recommended to the State Speakers' Bureau of other neighboring states.

War is said to be affecting women's fashions. Designers are placing emphasis on simple clothes, and tending to revive the styles of 1918. Fashions then were toned down in effect, sober in color, tailored and often mannish.

 March 3, 1879.

THE TIMES ENDORSES

1. Immediate completion of the Left Beaver Middle Creek and Johns Creek road.
2. Consideration by officials of human needs, not the need for political influence.
3. Completion of all Farm-to-Market roads by W. P. A. labor if possible, maintenance of these routes by the state rural road fund.
4. A trade-at-home policy followed by merchants and customers alike.
5. Full co-operation with all county and city officials, insisting that lawmakers and city officials themselves obey the law to the letter.
6. Continuance of the Floyd county health department and the county agricultural agent work.

MORE BREATHITT COUNTAINS NEEDED

The Good Earth—it must all be in Floyd County! Unless we are misinformed, eighty-nine towns and cities of Kentucky may share in the distribution of as many airports because they found locations for such projects offered by the Civil Aeronautics Board under the national defense program.

But Prestonburg and vicinity are not mentioned—because, we are told, the community had no land available at a reasonable price for such projects. Pikeville, Paintsville—both are to benefit from airport construction which will cost an estimated $100,000, each.

And there stood old Prestonburg!

Let's write stood as a pillar of salt because she looked backward, as an automobile driver died on the railroad tracks because he didn't look forward.

What is Prestonburg and Floyd county to do as Opportunity knocks, as the nation grids itself for defense? Will the town and county be satisfied with a minor development at Wayland only? Will Prestonburg be unshamed as Wayland wins a reward for co-operation while the county-seat gets its "Just deserts" for failing to co-operate?

It is not too late. There is yet a chance for the community to shake off its lethargy. The plan, as explained by Congressman May, remains in its tentative stages. It is up to us.

The Good Earth—God bless it! And God help us all if we think our own piece of it above our nation, our own locality and their defense and progress!

MOVE TO PIKEVILLE

Mr. and Mrs. Arvid Little moved Friday from Prestonburg to Pikeville where they are taking up permanent residence. Mr. Little has been long employed in the Anderson Department Store as manager. He is taking a position in an Anderson store in Pikeville. Mrs. Little is the daughter of the late John Huff of Hueysville. This family was given prominent mention in Judge Charles Kerr's History of Kentucky.

Dan Kenner, Todd county negro farmer, recently added 113 acres to his farm, making a total of 390 acres in production.

Garvard county farmers have laid in supplies to cure tobacco by artificial heat.

on charges of perjury, THE FLOYD COUNTY TIMES would hail as a step toward realistic law-and-order the demand made by Circuit Judge Stephens that those "spinners of tall tales" be placed under grand jury scrutiny.

Though circumscribed by the laws of libel, THE TIMES is confident it could justly accuse a hundred more citizens of this county with swearing falsely within the last few years in order to save from the hands of justice defendants in murder trials and other cases in which major offenses had been charged.

THE TIMES lauds action against those whom the court believes guilty of perjury for several reasons. First, perjury makes justice impossible. One defendant may escape due punishment, while another, innocent, is punished.

Second, a perjurer is as dangerous as a murderer. The alayr may take your life. But the perjurer may take not only your good name but also the good names of all those whom you hold dear.

Third, the perjurer makes of courts of justice a mockery when uncurbed. He may accuse the innocent, protect the guilty, and thus "poison the hole" of all the public funds spent in trial of such cases.

And so, ad infinitum . . .

Floyd county minus its perjurers, its pistol-toters, would be a county afflicted by few major crimes.

OUTLAW THE FERRETS

Why the Kentucky Legislature has not outlawed ferrets throughout the state, we do not know.

Searching the subconscious, we recall something about ferrets being necessary "varmin't" in order to rid premises of rats.

Now, rats are a vermin that some kind of "varmin't" should be able to eradicate. There's the human varmin't as represented by us folks in towns over-run by rats. But town folks don't resort to ferrets to rid themselves of the rat plague.

It is strange, this fact that farms should harbor ferrets, while towns where rats are far more numerous get along without them.

The fact is, Conservation Officer Ed Burke and every citizen interested in that part of wildlife control that embraces the rabbit trade has a compelling duty to face in the prosecution of those who harbor and use ferrets in the hunting of rabbits.

Mr. Burke also warns Floyd coutians against "jumping the season" on rabbits and other game.

Some blame repeating shotguns for the paucity of rabbits. But what about Kansas and other states where rabbit drives are conducted annually? They have shotguns out there, yet fail to keep the rabbit population within bounds.

Here in Floyd county, with good cover, splendid feeding grounds and dens, rabbits are sparse in hunting season. That's because some of our alleged sportsmen kill rabbits out of season; but the main cause is, they take sacks out into the fields and hills to hold the catch and let the ferrets run out of their holes every rabbit that is to be found.

These ferrets are another thing this state can get along "without" and the General Assembly should get "hup" to the situation, some time.

WRIGHT THE IS DISPUTED

WIN FOR SCHOOL CLAIMED IN GAME

Special to The Times
 Wheelwright, Ky., Sept. 30.—Though the game was not the record books as a 13-13 tie, you'll never convince local fans that their team didn't defeat St. Charles, Va., here Saturday afternoon.

The officials are being scored a "boner" since they denied one Wheelwright extra point when the ball was carried across the goal line, then fumbled.

Early in the first quarter, Cordell Wheelwright's powerhouse fullback scored on a 55-yard end run, Bove plunging through the line for the extra point. In the second quarter, Martin scored the team's second marker on a pass from Skiles.

St. Charles' first score came in the second period on a short line. The attempt for extra point failed. Starting on the second half, the visitors' kick-off was short and they recovered, then marched down the field for a touchdown and extra point.

Wheelwright's team outgained the opposition by a wide margin, in both its running and passing attack. The punting was good on both sides, Charles outdistancing the St. Charles kicker by a slight margin. "Jus Day" Moseley, Wheelwright center, spent a large part of the afternoon in the St. Charles backfield and climaxed his play by blocking a punt with his nose. Martin, quarterback and captain, was a power in the Wheelwright running attack. He had a short half making four first downs in as many tries. Manley, end, was a mainstay on defense.

A large crowd saw the game. Officials were Roark (Prestonburg), Shuey (Ft. Wayne, Ind.), and Malone (Grayson).

Three backfield prospects, who has been out for three weeks with broken arch, and Smith, first string guard, who also has been on the hospital list, are both out for practice again.

Pike County Woman Dies At Martin

Lula Bates, 39 years old, wife of Willie Bates of Hartley, employe of the Koppers Coal Company, Weekabury, succumbed Wednesday of last week at the General Memorial hospital, Martin, a victim of myocarditis.

Besides her husband the victim is survived by six children, Annabelle, Mrs. Mahabine Guss, Chester and Lester Bates, all of Hartley.

Funeral rites were conducted from the home last Thursday with the Rev. Martin Barber and Jesse Hampton officiating. Burial was made in the family cemetery at Hartley, with the Ryan Funeral Home directing.

The well was gas at 1,650,000 cubic feet in the Big Lime, and no acidizing necessary. It is within 2,600 feet of the first well drilled in by the group on Home Branch, three months ago. Well No. 1 registered approximately the same volume but was acidized.

BLACKCATS BOW TO FLEMING

START IS GOOD, ENDING'S BAD, ON GRIDIRON

After scoring two touchdowns within the first four minutes of play Saturday night under the arc-lights at Fleming, the Prestonburg Blackcats folded, both offensively and defensively, finally losing out under the most distressing circumstances, 13-12.

The distressing conditions, according to reports filtering back into Prestonburg via fans who claim to have been eyewitnesses, include alleged intimidation of the Prestonburg players. These reports say Fleming fans got out of control at the half, threatened certain Prestonburg players and pelled some of them with rocks.

Coach Hyden had "nothing to say about the matter."

More distressing yet was the injury of Blackburn, stellar lineman, who was out of the game from midway the second quarter. He will be able to play, if his presence is necessary in the early-Prestonburg game at Bellfry Friday afternoon, Coach Hyden said Wednesday.

It looked like a romp for the Blackcats in that first half at Fleming as Hunter and Salisbury alternated on power plays in the first two minutes of the contest to drive 50 yards in four plays for a touchdown Hunter scoring. To make the outlook all the brighter, Bailey, burly Prestonburg lineman kicked off over the Fleming goal line and Prestonburg covered for another 100 yds. a minute or so later. Both tries for extra point were unsuccessful.

Then, in the closing minutes of the second quarter, Venter received a 50-yard pass and scampered for Fleming's first touchdown. The extra point was made, Fleming's second marker was chalked up after Prestonburg had held for down and Salisbury's kick from behind his own goal line was blocked by Venter who also covered the 1/2.

Hunter, as usual, was a power on the offensive for Prestonburg and his defensive play was outstanding. Salisbury, aside from his to-be-expected excellence in the kicking department, ably assisted him on the offensive. Big Ed Bailey played the best game of his high school career in the line.

Herald, who, during practice last week suffered a sliced knee from a whacky bottle somebody in his more drunken moments had carelessly left behind, was at the quarterback position but was used mainly as a blocking back.

Venter sparked the Fleming attack. Coach Hyden described him as one of the best backfield men he had seen.

FROM ASHLAND

Mr. and Mrs. The Goodman, of Ashland, are visiting Mrs. Goodman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Parsley, here this week.

HUEYSVILLE

A birthday party was given in honor of Loretta Adkins, age five, Saturday at the home of Sam Collins. Among those who attended were Benjie Collins and family of Martin.

A few residents of this place attended church Sunday at Lackey for the Free Will Association, also others at Steady Association, the United Baptist Church.

Rev. Henry Parsons, of Betsy Layne, has been conducting church services here for the past few evenings.

This week marked the beginning of preparations to complete the Salt Lick road. Maybe, when this road is completed, a few more motorists will utter thanks and a few less curses, that the WPA usually gets, will be heard.

Floyd county's airport may be at Wayland. Let's drive it home once more, Mr. Editor, this county can't say down and say, "Let them do it." For a part of the citizens must stand ready and willing to assist in some way.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Hopson and son, James David, have been spending their vacation at different points in West Virginia, visiting relatives.

Court Raps Perjurers

authorities of the present school system in Floyd county had spent considerable funds for purposes other than school needs; but, due to the limitation of time, we were unable to make an investigation of these charges and we recommend that said matter be continued for investigation by future grand juries.

The jury added that "we believe that public officials should be very careful in the handling and spending of public funds."

All public buildings were found in a "well-kept and good condition," except that part of the courthouse devoted to the county courtroom, repair of which was urgently advised. The Sheriff, other officers and reporters whose duties included aid to the grand jury in its work were lauded for their co-operation.

The 12 named on perjury charges are: Bill Hall, Jim Manns, James Sanders, Therman Thacker, C. D. Ford, Bridgett Kelly, Ballard Johnson, Perry Green, Jack Manns, Leonard Manns, Aaron Glenn and A. H. FLOYD MAN, 66, ARRESTED IN 43-YEAR-OLD SLAYING

NEIGHBOR REPORTS ESTEP TO WEST VIRGINIA AUTHORITIES

A 66-year-old Floyd countian who served in the Spanish-American War was charged at Williamson, W. Va., Wednesday with a slaying that occurred in 1897. Late B. Chafin, Mingo county prosecutor, said that George Estep, of near Printer, "talked freely" of the forty-three-year-old fatal shooting of Green "Bock" Brewster.

Estep was arrested at his home by Deputy Sheriffs Hicks, of this county, and Henry Reid and J. L. Akers, of Mingo county, and readily agreed to accompany the West Virginia officers back across the state line.

The long-forgotten slaying was revived, said Chafin, when a neighbor of Estep wrote to him several weeks ago and the letter started him digging into court files.

20 From County At Mayo County

The number of students enrolled in the Mayo State Vocational School has been noticeably increased over that of last year. Out of a total of 118, Floyd county has the following enrolled:

Carsey V. Kidd, Harold; Roy Allen, Hersheyville; Delbert Stone, Garrett; Russell W. Begley, Langley; Dewey Allen, Prestonsburg; William Burchett, Prestonsburg; Carl Cecil Sublett, Lackey; Joe Taylor Begley, Langley; Anna Jean Bingham, Prestonsburg; Albert Hammond, Prestonsburg; William May, Garrett; Charles Holbrook, West Prestonsburg; Clarence Holbrook, West Prestonsburg; Goodrich Rice, Prestonsburg; Paul Daniels, Auxier; Daniel Wireman, Auxier; Woodrow Allen, Langley; Carl Wise, Wayland; Ward Hall, Prestonsburg.

"It seems that Estep had some difficulty with a neighbor recently," Chafin recalled, "and the neighbor quoted Estep as saying 'I once killed a man in Mingo county.'"

Brewster was shot to death in June, 1897, two years after Mingo county was formed.

Estep fled into Kentucky, Chafin said, leaving behind a young wife and child who never knew what became of him.

Chafin quoted Estep as saying that he enlisted for service in the Spanish-American War under the name of "Milton Pickles." He later married again and became the father of 13 children, the prosecutor added.

The case will be presented to the Mingo county grand jury October 7, Chafin said.

125 tons are on order for Beaver Creek, including Brush Creek, Salt Lick, Right and Left Beaver.

5,400 pounds of phosphate have been delivered to Johns Creek, Abbott and Middle Creek; 80 tons are on order.

Farmers may file their applications at any of the community meetings, the place and dates of which were listed in THE TIMES last week, or in the County Agent's office. According to Mr. Ibbell, there has been a large attendance at the community meetings held so far and it has been possible to speed up the AAA program.

Funeral rites were conducted Tuesday, and burial was made in the family cemetery on Middle Creek, under the direction of the Arnold Funeral home.

PRESTONSBURG IN 1910--WITH HITCHING POSTS STILL IN VOGUE

The camera looked down on Prestonsburg "from behind" in this picture, taken 10 years after the Prestonsburg shown on this page last week was photographed.
 Familiar landmarks are that steeped building at the left, the Presbyterian Church (but the "country lane" that ran past it is now a paved street), and that arched bit of white left background, the old bridge of the days when folks came to Prestonsburg only by train if they didn't want to walk or straddle a horse.

PRESTONSBURG TODAY . . .

A thriving community of 2,500 population—a shopping center supplying the needs of 50,000 Floyd county citizens.

A SHOPPERS' PARADISE . . .

It will be Fall and no mistake about it the next time you make a shopping tour—the merchants of Prestonsburg are prepared as never before to meet your requirements. Their windows sparkling with the newest styles and fall colors take window shopping out of the routine into a gala affair.

If it is a new coat . . . your own taste is the only limitation in the array of the new Autumn numbers. The collection includes camel's hair and tweeds in abundance.

And Autumn means suit-weather for weeks on end. No other costume is so smartly keyed to the brisk feeling of this season as an elegant Fall suit.

What will you have in millinery? Whatever exciting Fall millinery trend you prefer it's sure to await you here.

If it's something new in men's apparel—if it's according to the dictates of fashion and good taste, the merchants of Prestonsburg have it.

For the young man—freshman, sophomore, junior, senior—whatever his status there is a fall outfit for him that's a "Pip."

The young lady really comes into her own in Junior Misses styles this season and there is something especially enchanting in the way of new evening frocks ready to step out blithely at a moment's notice.

If you want to brighten up the corner of the home with the very latest in a new dining room suite, bed room suite, . . . odd chair—in fact to furnish a new home complete or re-furnish the old—you'll find it in Prestonsburg.

SHIKE'S POKES

(Views expressed in this column are those of the writer and not necessarily those of The Times.)

The "Gallup Poll" keeps galloping along. Does anybody know what happened to the Fortune Poll? W. Winchell explained what happened to it. Sad but true.

Wonder what's happened to Brad Boyd? The Loud Speaker truck didn't take him off, did it?

Ben H. says that Herb and Edd are now Coal Operators—"The Big Dirt Ekhorn." He says Herb is the Mine Foreman and Edd the store manager and office man.

Conspicuous by their presence at the Warco coon chase—Henry Campbell, Wayland; Roe Turner and Hob Stumbo, Minnie; Frank Neely, Prestonsburg; Clark May—claiming he will register for the draft; Oscar P. Bond with his artillery; all types, models and colors of coat hounds—in fact, so wide was the range of coon hounds that "Cob" Turner almost entered one race. Conspicuous by his absence: Sam Labell, the trick-shot artist.

Cecil Wessel is a hero in my book—he almost got his German. I'm just sorry he didn't.

Ted still griping about something. I said, "Ho, hum. Some fellows being sore over 'mistaken identity'."

I'm just wondering if the Fortune Magazine will publish their straw vote poll like Winchell says it is or will it go under like the Literary Digest?

Wayne—griping, too—but that's natural.

Saw the Spide out last week—without his baseball suit.

Harmos T. has been aply named the "Frying Red Horse." It is claimed that he outran a taxi from Drift to Martin—about, too!

The "Green Hornet" will be given a regular braking job after two more seasons. He learns fast and is a whiz at putting on wrecks. He carries a "Jumper" in each car.

Levi reports that Clarence could win any jitzebag contest with the steps he was using about 11 o'clock the other night to keep the baby quiet.

The "Chunk" took a fishing trip last week-end. We haven't any definite reports—but it must have been a success. He stayed 24 hours and was using "grubs" for bait.

SHERIFF'S SALE

By virtue of a judgment directed to him, which issued from the Clerk's office of the Floyd Circuit Court, in favor of Irene Bralley and against J. P. Price, I or one of my deputies will, on Monday, October 7, 1940, at 1 o'clock p. m., at Bruce Wiley's Garage, Martin, Ky., expose to public sale to the highest and best bidder, on a credit of three months, with bond of approved surety, the following described property, viz:

One 1937 Model Chrysler Sedan Automobile, Model C-18. Amount to be made by said sale is $120.00, interest and cost.

This the 12th day of September, 1940.

KIDNEY STAGNATION IS WORSE THAN CONSTIPATION!

Because We Treat Constipation at the Onset, While We Neglect Our Kidneys Indiscreetly.

No other organ in your body is of more importance than your kidneys. For their function is to filter out of your blood all the waste matter which must be eliminated from your system. If they fail to do this, you are liable to suffer from kidney disease, which is a serious and often fatal condition.

It is not enough that Nature offers you a way to clean out the kidneys. You must know how to use it. Getting-Up-Rights, Leg Pains, Backache, Headache, Dizziness, Nervousness, Irritability, are all signs of kidney trouble. If you have any of these symptoms, you should get your kidneys cleaned out at once. If your local druggist cannot supply you, send $1.00 to The Kidneys Company, Atlanta, Georgia, for two full-size boxes on a money-back guarantee.

They are accusing me and Orville of being awfully bad to lose things. We even lost a 50 ton railroad car, the other night.

Reports come from the Hardware in Martin that The Briarbrack was held the other morning until Gardez lost him sorrow.

I just wonder if Martin Hunter wants any more of them "purple fall bearings" they must be some grovers—he reports that they almost choked his corn to death.

The little Abner of Drift, Ky.—Jim Sammons.

T. H. Fife of The Pike County News, should have been a G-man. He is ferreting out the "German Sympathizers" in this section. More power to you—my friend.

One of the highwaymen up on Left Beaver reported that he was really surprised at the amount of traffic on Left Beaver. He says you can block the road for 10 minutes and you have a string of cars waiting out of sight in either direction.

Mary says that she can't even keep a little medicine around the house when Porter, Roy and Ben are around.

Chick reports that the badge he was wearing didn't mean anything, that he was of the opinion "Two Good Terms Deserve Another."

Hedge will freeze to death this winter if he doesn't stop losing his clothes.

Lum thinks a lot of me—he even writes me on four "pokes." Beed-Head reports that he was putting up some pitiful begging, early Sunday morning.

That Wheelwright football team is coming right along. For a first-year team—they have plenty on the ball.

Guy Taylor is out looking for a radio program to advertise his dairy. Seems as though he is in business in a big way.

Aside to Woodson H.—that's an awful long walk on a dark and cold night.

The showing of the movie, "Boom-Town," really made a boom-town out of Martin over the week-end.

Wayne and Dan with them safety hats and then so short—reminds one of terrapins hunting water.

If "Salad's" newspaper business keeps picking up he will have to rent Esau's bicycle.

Walter Winchell in debunking the political propaganda has no peer in my estimation—ten words spoken by him makes "Cora Kent" and "Popgun" Lawrence look like an accident going somewhere to happen.

Well, from the looks of things them little silt-eyed yellow fellows are itching for a scrap—scrap iron. We have learned our lesson about an appointment from France—so let's put them in their place. We all know they can't fight—they have been trying to whip China with a mechanized army for three years and they haven't succeeded and all the Chinese have to fight with is bamboo poles. Either only wants them to draw our attention so we won't aid Britain so much. We will just let the Beaver Creek boys go over and clean up the mess—that's all it would take—and, by the way, it has been over 60 days since Hitler said he only wanted one more month to finish Great Britain. I still stick to my story that Great Britain will be the eventual winner. Those news-reels of Hitler rubbing his neck when he is speaking to his people—maybe he knows the nose is near. Wonder what's happened to Lindbergh? He must be out campaigning.

Another new member of the mid-joint bottle warmers' club is Joe Howell.

Things that were conspicuous, by their absence in Martin, Sunday morning were the "barber shop quartette" and the Hardware steps "round robin."

Wanted—one carload of cats and, to quote "Cob" Turner, they are sorry to see them go. In Martin, Sunday morning were the "barber shop quartette" and the Hardware steps "round robin."

Walter Meisinger says that, since they have gone to making hose out of coal, the loaders will be drawing for "the pair" instead of the ton before long.

Fred Cochran has gone into the store business, but he will never get rich, for his hand is too small to weigh much.

Then pines that the R. E. A. is giving the Kentucky West Virginia Power Company that "Brier Buck" spoke about is just the plain "belly-ache" in my language. More power to the R. E. A.

Here's hoping that railroad up Middle Creek materializes.

The boy with the handicaps—Ollie P. with a "Pigs" and a Pontiac.

Sam Fraley has his other rib back—here's hoping all your troubles will be "little ones."

TOWN-WORLD

team was given an elaborate write-up on the front page after losing to Ashland, 31-0, while Wheelwright was barely mentioned on page 8 after playing a much better team than Ashland (Fleming was rated in C. J.) as the fifth best team in the state and holding them to only 12 points in the first game ever played by a Floyd county team other than Purgus. Then, just to make these "greetings of the season" complete and ourselves also carry out the "men-of-god"-having-a-word-or-two-to-say-about-let's-take-a-squint-at-Prestonsburg, this matter, twofold:

Since you speak of Page 1 as being just too, too devoted to Prestonsburg, how right or wrong you are. In that space are an even dozen news-stories and the courteous news. This courteous house news surely can't be classed as Prestonsburg news, so we'll skip it in these figures. And of the 12 other stories exactly THREE are Prestonsburg "items"—unless you want to call the story about the County Fair something about Prestonsburg.

You're also wrong about Wheelwright being the only Floyd county school, other than Prestonsburg, to have football on its athletic program. If memory serves me right, Martin played football for two seasons. That being disposed of, my dear young gridder, let me tell you why THE FLOYD County Times did not have the story of your splendid showing against Fleming that would have taken as much space and occupied as prominent a position as did the Prestonsburg-Ashland story. First of all your coach (one of my best friends) did not supply the details to us. And we—oh, unhappy us!—just can't be omniscient and know these things ourselves. Next, a story, written late for publication. Lastly, that story about your game happened to fit a hole on Page 8—and, if you know make-up men, you can guess the rest.

Brother, I'm a Beaver Creeker myself, and while your interest in your team naturally is more intense than mine, I'm going to claim for myself, right here, a deeper and a more abiding interest in the county outside of Prestonsburg than you have. No, I'm not sore, and I don't think you're deeply offended. I think we'll get along better, all the time. I believe you'll find THE FLOYD County Times stringing right along with you as far as you will let it.

In conclusion, I'm going to risk drawing down your wrath again by reminding you that, if Wheelwright were the FLOYD county town that THE FLOYD County Times is the FLOYD county newspaper, everybody, except Pike countians, would be happier.

GOD BLESS AMERICA—WE NEED HIM

Yeah, I suppose THE FLOYD COUNTY TIMES lacks that broad outlook spotted by the dailies. (Maybe that's why we weakly.)

But THE TIMES casts aside all that doctrine of "free speech-free press" in its praise of radio station WCKY, Cincinnati, for refusing Earl Browder, Communist, time over that station to spew a nationwide broadcast of un-American doctrine.

Free speech and a free press, my eye! Turn our newspapers and our radio stations over to Earl Browder, Adolph Hitler and their ilk—and see where the splendid tradition of freedom goes! WORKY not only did not grant Comrade Browder—who admitted that he was out of Moscow, free time over its station. It refused to take pay for the time he will waste for it. "The Communist party," says L. B. Wilson, owner of the station, "has not enough money, nor can it ever have enough, to buy one minute of time on WORKY for use in andorance to its anti-American doctrine into American minds."

These radio-phones which have chosen to let precedent rule them, which have been bound down by the golden rule of "Free Speech, Free Press," while that very rule has been turned against them as an evil fetish—they will let Earl Browder, Stalin's disciple now under conviction for passport fraud, aid and comfort. America's enemies over the airwaves on October 10—less than a week before all the millions of America's youth are registered for military service to defend this land and all its institutions against anything Earl Browder & Company would inflict upon us.

present world conditions. "As a result of our last Roll Call we have been able to raise our membership to 7,100, the highest in the post-war-time history of the Red Cross," he said. "We have been equally successful in raising a war relief fund of $20,000."

"We are now making plans for the next Roll Call," said Mr. Davis. "Once more we face grave responsibilities. Services to our own people must be greatly expanded."

"To meet the rapidly growing needs of our national defense," he said, "we are enlarging our services for the men of an increased army and navy."

"We must materially increase the number of Red Cross nurses. We must train hundreds of thousands of additional First Aiders to meet the needs growing out of the new national defense program, as well as the everyday demands for this service."

"We must be prepared to train many thousands more women in home hygiene and care of the sick, in order to be ready for any emergency. We must mobilize the strength of a great army of willing volunteers dedicated to unselfish service to others."

"We must point the way to an increased program of service for eight million eager Juniors. It is only through Roll Call that our chapters and the national organization can finance this increasing program. With this responsibility in view, we must not be satisfied with setting any national goal for membership short of enrolling every American under the banner of the Red Cross in the coming Roll Call."

Ramona S. Eason, Eastern Area director of the Roll Call, will discuss Red Cross preparedness for national defense at the regional conferences in Kentucky.

Representatives from the State's 138 chapters are expected to attend the meetings which were begun September 30 at Henderson and will conclude at Fulton. Other conference sites and dates: Bowling Green, October 1; Shelbyville, October 3; Mt. Vernon, October 4. A conference also will be held at Somerset at a date to be announced later.

Three Penned For Slayings

Two eyewitnesses testified for the Commonwealth that they saw Dillow fire as Creed Newsome watched the impending trouble between Calab and Tavis Newsome. Creed Newsome fell with a bullet wound behind his ear. Dillow admitted that he drew his revolver but denied firing. Dillow contended his revolver was of 38 calibre and it was established that Creed Newsome was killed by a 32-calibre bullet. Editor's revolver was not produced in court, however.

Trial of Alvis Newsome, also charged with murder in the same killing, was continued till January 17. Another development in the case was the indictment last week of Noah Newsome and Hadler Akers, charged with aiding and assisting in the slaying of the Newsomes.

Trial of Lincoln Gibson, charged with murder in the slaying of his brother of Middle Creek, was slated for today (Thursday). Hearing of testimony in the trial of Bertie Ambury in the killing of two at Wheelwright, a few weeks ago, was being concluded Wednesday as THE TIMES was published.

Donald Nettles was acquitted Friday following hearing on a charge of detaining a woman.

THRILL COSTS $8

Appaise for the jury's action in the Nettles case cost John Smith, Gracie Morrow, Eli Adkins and Della Salsbury $2 each for contempt of court. The order assessing the fines stated that they "became thrilled and clapped their hands to such extent that it disturbed the court."

Colonel May was convicted Monday of child desertion and given a one-year pen term. The murder charge against Ray Powell in the slaying of Sherman Hunt at Tram was dismissed on the grounds that evidence was insufficient to convict. Trial of Jake Salsbury was continued till January 18.

Draft Set-Up Under Way

work must be done in one day. County Superintendent Town Hall said Monday that, since most polling places are located in school buildings and since many young teachers will be required to register, all of which will tend to disrupt school activities during the day, he will ask the county board of education at its meeting this week to authorize suspension of school in the county for the day. This move, however, will not create a school holiday, because of state school provisions, and must be made up. If this is done, the county's teachers will be free to assist wherever needed in the registration. "I am sure our teachers, out of a sense of patriotic duty, will be glad to give their services wherever needed to this work," Mr. Hall said. "I earnestly urge such co-operation in the county's defense program."

The official list of registrars will be released in THE TIMES next week, Mr. Meade said.
