2 ARE SOUGHT IN SHOOTING, ROBBERY

MT. STERLING MAN SHOT; SALSIBURY, ALLEN NAMED

County and state authorities engaged in a fruitless manhunt Monday after one man had been wounded and a companion had been robbed at the point of a revolver on Floyd county highways.

James Belcher, 25, Mt. Sterling, Chesapeake & Ohio Railway Company extra force employe, was seriously, probably fatally, wounded at Craft's Place, one mile north of Emma. His brother, Harold Belcher, and their co-workers, Carl Copher and Murphy Simms, later were pursued to a point near Allen where Simms was robbed of $23 in cash and a $65 watch, officers were told.

Sought in connection with the shooting and robbery are Tuley Salsibury and Oliver Allen, both of Garrett, and an unnamed third man.

Officers said they were told that James Belcher was shot by Salsibury at the roadside outside Craft's Place. The bullet entered his body near the clavicle, passed through his lung and emerged from his back.

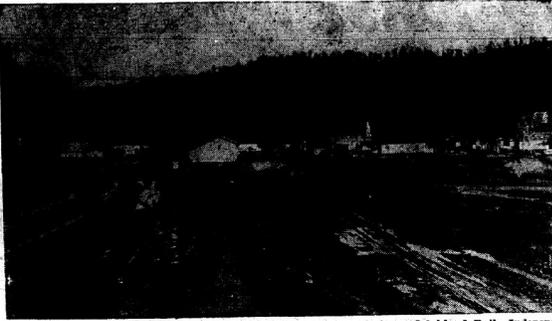

Ray Craft, manager of the roadside house said there was no apparent discord between the two parties while they were inside the building. Salsibury, Allen and two others arrived there shortly after the Mt. Sterling party entered, he said. They laughed and talked while they. Highway patrolmen said they were told that a number of Belcher's party paid for some purchases with a sizeable roll of twenties followed them outside as they were entering their car to drive on to Drifts where they had been employed in the construction of a new railway track.

Investigations showed that Tuley Salsibury had jerked his revolver and ordered James Belcher to throw up his hands. Belcher told officers that he thought Salsibury intended to shoot him and that he attempted to snatch the weapon from the other. He said Salsibury's first shot missed.

As the shooting began, Copher and Simms, already in their auto, started off in hurried departure. Harold Belcher remaining until the remaining board, Sheriff Dial Salsibury said he was told that the Mt. Sterling party was then pursued to a point on the Chesapeake & Ohio Railway Company's Valley Golf Club near Allen, where their auto was wrecked in the ditch at upon several times. Its occupants fled to the hillsides, but Simms returned to what he thought was a friendly car, and was robbed at that point.

Copher Wednesday night told County Attorney Forrest D. Short, prior to (Please turn to page eight)

Where Middle Creek Railroad Leaves West Prestonsburg for Mine Site

JOHNS BRANCH WORK BEGINS

REEDS TO OPERATE
COAL MINE NEAR WARCO

Construction of a mile of spur track from the Right Beaver railway from a point near Warco to Johns Branch to future mining operations of Reed brothers, Drift operators, was begun last week by the Chesapeake & Ohio Railway Company.

Railway work is expected to be completed within the next two months and by that time a tippie of 1000 tons daily capacity is expected to be installed.

C. D. and B. F. Reed have a lease on 140 acres of coal on Johns Branch in the No. 1 Elkhorn seam, and the operation is expected to employ around 150 men. The coal, leased from the Beaver Creek Consolidated Coal Company, is in the same seam to be mined on Middle Creek.

Work of a five-track tippie will be begun as soon as the old county road leading to Johns Branch can be repaired and transportation of materials made possible, it was said.

VETS ASKED TO ENROLL

AMERICAN LEGION
REGISTRATION
ANNOUNCED

Floyd members of the American Legion and all other World War veterans who are willing to be listed will be classified for possible service in the event of a national emergency, James J. Norris, state Legion commander, announced last week.

The action will be nation-wide and comes as a result of a proclamation by National Commander Milo J. Warner, with approval of the Legion's national executive committee. The listing and classification will be handled on questionnaires, to be answered on a purely voluntary basis, Mr. Norris said.

Commander Warner has designated February 22, George Washington's Birthday, as "Jump-off" day for enrollment, but the work will get under way much earlier in Kentucky with the distribution of the necessary forms to all Posts by Legion state headquarters by the latter part of the week, Mr. Norris said.

The data on specialized abilities and skills, military experience, etc., thus obtained is to be used by the individual posts, departments and national headquarters of the Legion through co-operation with the duly constituted authorities in the event a critical national emergency develops.

Each post will be entrusted with the task of registering men in its own vicinity, Mr. Norris explained, and the questionnaires will be made out in triplicate. One copy will be retained by the post, a second sent to department headquarters and the third to national headquarters of the Legion.

It is expected that these questionnaires will be indexed and classified in a way to provide access to a reservoir of men with specialized training and experience for potential national emergency service.

MOTHER, DAUGHTER OF MRS. HALL ACCUSE HER OF CRIME

Three warrants charging them with creating an abortion, destroying a child before birth, and adultery were issued Wednesday by County Judge S. P. Hill, Jr., for Gypsey Hall, Alpharetta, and Dan Collins, Martin, on evidence supplied by Mrs. Hall's mother and daughter, 64-year-old Ida Compton, of Hite, and 16-year-old Edith Hall, Alpharetta.

The accused woman's mother brought to the County Judge's office a jar in which the baby, which she claimed weighed more than a pound at birth, was preserved in alcohol. It was indicated that relatives of the woman took the action against her because of her ill treatment of her son and daughter.

Mrs. Compton stated that her grandson, Foster Hall, 12, a son of Gypsey Hall, came to her home Sunday and told her he wanted to tell her some things, but he "was bound" to tell her. She quoted the lad as then saying that his mother had forced him to take "something" and bury it in a jar, and that the mother had threatened to kill him if he told of the case. Mrs. Compton said her grandson then took her to the burial scene and that they uncovered the body of a child weighing "a little over a pound."

Young Foster Hall told his grandmother, the statement continued, that his mother had threatened to kill him if he told of the case. Mrs. Compton named Collins as the man with whom her daughter had been living and who assisted her in causing the premature birth of the child.

Edith Hall told of circumstances which surrounded what she believed to have been the birth of a baby. Mrs. Hall is the estranged wife of George Hall. She is a woman of about 38 years. Judge Hill also issued a writ of habeas corpus for Foster Hall.

Floyd Golf Club,
Plans Big Year,
Says Hampton

Rumors to the effect that the Beaver Valley Golf Club at Allen is defunct are wholly untrue, John S. Hampton, club president of the club, said this week.

"The club," said Mr. Hampton, "is not only in better financial condition than ever, but it is planning a big year."

A meeting will be held, some time in early March, when plans for the year will be made, Mr. Hampton announced.

Council Earmarks Additional $300 For 3rd Street

Appropriation of $300 made by the City Council at its meeting Monday night brings the total of funds set aside for the improvement of Third Street to $1,100, Burt Spurlock, City Clerk, said this week.

Work on the street will begin as soon as the weather permits. It was said. The Council has not definitely decided on the type of street construction to be undertaken, at this time considering both concrete and blacktop.

The Council at this week's meeting entered into contract with Ralph Leete Gardner, of the State Finance Company, Mayville, authorizing him to undertake the task of ascertaining the town's indebtedness. Mr. Gardner estimated this indebtedness at $100,000 and told the Council this amount could be settled in cash at a substantial reduction. The plan being considered is to pay the debt by the sale of municipal bonds. Mr. Gardner would receive at his fee 5 percent of the amount for which the debt was settled.

OLLIE B. BALL, 40,
DIES AS BUILDING
DESTROYED BY FIRE

Ollie B. Ball, 40 years old, burned to death Thursday morning in a small building which he occupied here at the corner of Graham and Highland.

The body was burned beyond identification. It is held that the fire started from a gas stove in the small, one-room, frame structure.

The blaze was discovered around 10 o'clock by I. B. Smith, Prestonsburg insurance adjuster, when Mrs. J. E. Ball, wife of the victim's brother, who lives within a few yards of the burned structure, and J. D. Mayo reached the scene.

Authorities held it was probable that Mr. Ball was suffocated by smoke while he slept.

An inquest was held at the death scene by Magistrate W. A. Wills, the jury holding that Ball came to his death by accidental burning of the building.

Surviving the victim are his father, James Ball, McClone, Ky.; two brothers, E. and Richard Ball, Prestonsburg, and one sister, Mrs. J. R. (Chick) Kelly, Detroit, Michigan.

Funeral services for Mr. Ball were held when THE TIMES was published.

RANDELL-SHIELDS RITES SOLEMNIZED HERE ON FEB. 1

The wedding of Miss Sue Martha Randell, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Marvin Randell, of Prestonsburg, and Miss Jay Miri Shields, Jr., of the Tidal Coast Artillery, Fort Story, Va., son of Mr. and Mrs. Jay Miri Shields, Sr., of Pittsburgh, Pa., took place at 3 p. m. Saturday, February 1, in the First Baptist Church, Prestonsburg.

The single ring ceremony was said by the Rev. J. Campbell Jeffries. Mrs. Benjamin P. Stansifer, of Indianapolis, Ind., sister of the bride, was matron of honor; Miss Gwendolyn Bourhill, of Prestonsburg, and Miss Lillian Mitchell, of Irvine, Ky., were her bridesmaids. Mr. Charles R. Neal, of Prestonsburg, was best man; Mr. Jack Shields, Pittsburgh, Pa., and Mr. C. H. Smith, Prestonsburg, were ushers.

The wedding ceremony was preceded by a musical program of two violin solos by Miss Jane Hamilton Clarke, Schubert's Serenade and "The Rose Tree," and three vocal solos by Miss Vivian Caudill, "Sweethearts," "At Dawning," and "Because." Mrs. C. O. P. Bond accompanied both Miss Clarke and Miss Caudill, and she also played "The Wedding March."

The bride, who entered with her father by whom she was given in marriage, wore a gown of white allover satin, made with a sweetie and lace, lined a fitted bodice and long sleeves. The skirt was very full and fashioned with a short train. Her fingertip veil and accompaniment was held in place by a pleated cap. She carried a shower

SCOUTS START FUND DRIVE MONDAY

QUOTA FOR FLOYD
SET AT $2,000;
$350 HERE.

Floyd county's quota of Boy Scout funds to be raised during national Boy Scout Week, Feb. 7 to 13, is $2,000. At that time plans will be completed and immediately thereafter the work will be under way. Richard Spurlock, Prestonsburg, is county chairman of the drive. Local chairman is Wm. Hagens.

Funds thus raised will be used to carry on the work of Lonsome Pine Council which includes 121 Scout and Cub units in 15 counties of this section.

Lonsome Pine Council now operates two summer camps, and a third camp for older boys is being planned for next summer. Seven hundred volunteer leaders are registered with the organization, and these men give their time to carry out the program in every section of these 15 counties.

Boy Scouts in this country, following a non-military policy, are engaged in a program of learning how to do the simple, necessary things of life, from tying a knot that will hold to cooking a meal in the open.

The program is an endeavor to stress outdoor life and the ability to think under emergency conditions.

This is not unfamiliar to the people of America. The Scouts of this country have an enviable record in service which older people many times of years match. Each year brings its quota of news stories, telling how some youngster who learned the rudiments of first aid, first aid, first aid, has saved the life of a human being in some crisis. Drownings usually are lessened by the prompt action of the boys in the khaki uniform.

The 1938 New England hurricane disaster bears witness to their prompt and valuable service. Giving messages, taking care of refugees, and many

This Town That World

HITLER—N. B. If Adolph Hitler, or anybody else, has an idea that this is a nation of "softies," ready to be pushed over by any invader, this is to inform all and sundry that he is mistaken.

Take some of those volunteers who left here last Thursday morning for army service, for example. Bill midnight. Three of those young men were Alex Boyd, 26, his cousin, Ernest Boyd, 23, and Ambler Jarrell, 21, all of Frost Creek. Harmless looking youngsters, but tough and ready to serve their country.

So tough that all they did on their army service was to work at a gas well home, snitch a few hours of sleep, rise at 3 next morning.

So ready to enter the military service that, after this brief rest, they walked seven miles to the mouth of Frazer Creek to catch a bus to Prestonsburg where they boarded the train for Huntington, W. Va., induction center.

And here they were joined by George Dewey Raliff, 21, of Blue River, who left a 40-cent-an-hour job on the Middle Creek coal tippie construction to enter the army.

Tough and ready— that's Floyd county!

REMEMBRANCE EXPRESSED!

The memories we treasure today will fade, even during our own lives, as we grow old, and after we are gone may be lost entirely. To preserve memories—to record them as they deserve—they must be entrusted to a reminder that will last through the years to come. A beautiful monument will be that reminder. Even the smallest and most modest memorial will be something permanent to perpetuate the name and the memory of the person or family to whom it is dedicated. This young lady remembered her father—she bought this beautiful memorial and had his picture placed in it—and she saw that it was properly erected at his grave in Mountain City, Tennessee.

If you are interested—call and see us; it will in no way obligate you. Mr. Hickey, shop manager, will be glad to show you how monuments are built.

SHIKE'S POKES

(Views expressed in this column are those of the writer and not necessarily those of The Times.)

A few weeks ago all the newspapers in the land were carrying the story of the absent-minded Professor who called the neighbors to be rescued. The same thing happened to one of our prominent citizens in the past few days—Ben Martin. It seems that Ben kept his cow stall locked and, some way, a board was knocked off and the chickens were getting into the stall while he was milking. Going out to repair it the other morning, he took light hammer and several 20-penny nails—he crawled through the hole into the cow stall, fitted the board into place and nailed it tight. Turning to leave, he found that the stall was locked from the outside and he was unable to tear it out with his light hammer and for two hours he yelled at Mary. But she had the radio going and was unable to hear him. After he had been missing for over two hours, Mary yelled to find out where Ben had got to—and between chattering teeth he begged for the key to be brought out for his release. To date, he has suffered no ill effects from his enforced exposure.

So the Republican party is getting out of Mr. Wilkie. Boys, that is one reason I was against Wilkie. Even if he had been right, the Republican members of the House and Senate would have bucked his program. It is best for all concerned. We all or at least 90 percent of us, favor FDR's policy, and our members of the House and Senate will enact it into law—that is, with the exception of the arch-Nazi—Wheeler. Mr. Wheeler must be prominent in his state—he got elected—but we'll bet dollars to doughnuts that he couldn't be elected "Dog Feller" in this section. It is narrow-minded cheap states like Wheeler, Johnson Vandenberg, etc., who brought on this second World War. The above-mentioned crowd wants to get out on a limb and then save it off. The next thing we know, Hitler will send the "Appessment Senators" an Iron Cross like the one he gave Lindbergh.

I've always heard that you've got to cultivate good habits—it's the bad ones that grow wild.

Added hints—beware of telling your wife "a thing or two." Tell her one and stick to it.

These fellows who see—"what goes up must come down," haven't had much experience with taxes.

It buried me up when some of our newspapers carried stories of that escaped Nazi aviator. If he is worth $5,000 to the Nazi consul, he will "jump" him and maybe some of us will have to shoot him down when we get over there. If it had been an American aviator in Germany he would have an Iron Cross like the one he gave Lindbergh.

Louis W. has purchased a larger car and the boys who ride with him are hoping that he doesn't go in for cow-swappin' instead of calf-swappin'.

I saw John Horn in Drift Saturday smoking cigars and arguing against FDR. Under Hoover he smoked "Golden Grain."

I see that Uncle Sam has Bernard in the cooking and baking school. He couldn't boil water when he left here. He'll make some woman a good husband if he learns to cook.

It seems as if ole Miss slipped on "Greece" trying to get his "Turkey."

A lot of automobiles running up and down Left Beaver Creek are like a lot of the "Wall Street Bankers"—they need "re-lit'ing."

"Blue Eyes" says that he will settle with the county for a $20 order.

When Uncle Sam is figuring out places to put his defense factories, why does he overlook the Big Sandy section? We have the transportation all the natural resources necessary—including coal, gas, timber, etc. And the Axis bombers would have one hell of a time locating a factory in our section. We have the labor handy, too.

A law that has to be amended or repealed—the Unemployment Compensation law. The way the Court of Appeals interpreted the law, it is about as useful as a hip pocket on a hog.

been put in a concentration camp and we couldn't have made bond for him. I say, send him back to Canada where he will be interned. Why do we beat around the bush? We all know that we are mortal enemies of the Dictators, so why should we pretend being friendly? If Great Britain is unable to destroy Nazi-ism, then we will. Why not just tell them—"Boy, we are going to help England destroy Dictators and what the h— are you going to do about it?"

That famous miller who gave up the track to get married must have thought of the old adage—"A Miss is as good as a Mile."

"Chin" sez that when the ladies get into a scrap he is always around to hold their coats.

If all the glowing reports are true that we hear about our new Highway Commissioner—by this time next year, the "Business Trail" will be known as the Brown Boulevard.

FISH AND GAME By BILL ADAMS Wildlife is the easiest crop to grow. In fact, if left alone it will grow by itself. It needs no artificial means of propagation if given a chance. Wildlife needs food, cover and protection. We can give it food and cover by keeping out fire. We can give wildlife protection by organizing a local wildlife game preserve. By a local wildlife game preserve we mean an area where fire is kept out, where hunting privileges are restricted and food planted for quail and rabbit. This could be done, but not without work. It requires work to do anything worth while. If the farmers of a square mile of farm land with the cooperation of the Fish and Game Club could establish an area where no hunting is permitted, quail and rabbit could increase rapidly and stock the surrounding country with the overflow from the increase. The preserve could be stocked with quail and one hundred acres of land, a farmer could make game plentiful on his farm. Write the Department of Conservation of some of the Northern states for information about propagation of wildlife. "During the fall of 1937 in Vermont hunters killed 2,400 deer with an estimated value of $64,788." In Pennsylvania, they released 92 beavers in 1919 to 1924. In 1931 a careful census revealed 15,000 beavers in Pennsylvania. Northern states have longer winters which are more severe on game. Yet if we want to hunt deer, bear or pheasant we must go to Northern states. Years ago a man built a large private game preserve in the mountains of North Carolina. Today the private preserve is gone but wild bear, deer, wild turkey, bear and an abundance of wild life are found there. If other states can have wildlife, so can we. All we need is cooperation. Farmers, citizens, Game and Fish Clubs—all at the wheel and all working together—can do the trick. Give our game the chance to live and watch the results. Let's make our slogan: COVER, FOOD, PROTECTION, for our wildlife. More Barley, Less Corn in Kentucky The Kentucky College of Agriculture reports a tendency in many counties of the state to grow less corn and more barley. For the state as a whole the barley acreage has doubled in three years. The change from corn to barley has been especially rapid since the introduction of cold-resistant varieties of barley. In Boyle county, the corn area dropped from about 22,000 acres in 1919 to around 9,000 acres in 1940. Bourbon county farmers began to grow barley in 1938, but in 1940 they sowed 8,000 acres. Other counties reporting big increases in barley are Daviess, Clark and Logan.

CHORUS OF HATE

AND THIS, the burden of their song—"He wants to be a dictator." For eight years now, every opponent of Franklin D. Roosevelt, his aims and policies, has sung this hymn of hate in lieu of sound logic. All professing to hate those Old World dictators, they at this very hour are basing their opposition to the "Aid-for-Britain" bill upon the bogey-man cry, "Roosevelt wants to be a dictator." Logic, they scorn; the propaganda of "dictatorship," they nurture and cherish. If they are justified in this, those who oppose help for America's partner in the defense of a scheme of things that is at least quasi-peace, Franklin D. Roosevelt is of all men the least friend. Every other dictator is friendly to Hitler, the arch-dictator, Mussolini, Stalin, Hitler—they are three of a kind. They who do so are Roosevelt's express for the dictators such as he? Or do those opponents of his think he is merely "kidding"—that he wants the least-end bill enacted, so that he can join up with the Unholy Triad? The song is old, the record made by FDR makes reproduction of the hymn a scratchy, futile thing. Eight years of playing the tune while every Presidential act has drowned out the cacophony, has staled, it has nauseated, the American public.

EQUAL REPRESENTATION IN KENTUCKY

SEVERAL DAYS AGO, we discussed in this column the great inequalities in representation given various counties in Kentucky's House of Representatives. Today, we want to show that similar inequalities exist in the state Senate. First, we want to review the general situation briefly. Our theory of government in the United States is based on at least approximate and practical equality of representation for each citizen in all of our legislative bodies. We do not have that in practice in Kentucky.

In our former editorial, we showed that residents in some counties have about six times the proportional representation those in other counties have. Other commentators have taken up this discussion, declaring that this condition is maintained deliberately by the majority party, the Democrats. We can hardly believe that this is the only reason, although it is probably the principal one. The counties which have large representation in proportion to their population try to maintain it. There are numerous cases to illustrate the fact that this works against some populous counties with large Democratic majorities, as well as against the populous counties in Eastern Kentucky with Republican majorities. Speaking more plainly, it is the county against the town, rural minorities urban majorities.

The Kentucky Sportsman

By E. R. BURKE

If you are a sportsman and do not subscribe for the Kentucky Sportsman, published by the League of Kentucky Sportsmen, you are missing one of the best sporting magazines printed, and the only one that carries articles on what our Conservation Clubs are doing all over the state.

In the statewide essay put out by the Kentucky Sportsman on the "Conservation of Our Forests, Fields and Streams," there were first, second and third prizes given to winners in the high school class and there were six articles of interest about Floyd county.

"WILDLY DAY A BIG SUCCESS AT HAZARD, OCTOBER 28"

"An amateur ball-casting contest was won by Ed Burnett, of Hazard, with a silver loving-cup as his reward. Close behind him in second place was 15-year-old Winston Burke, of Prestonsburg, who won a reel, while Lindsay Ferguson, of Lohrbar, was awarded a casting rod for third place, and Winston's father, E. R. Burke, came in fourth and was awarded two artificial baits."

The February edition is just out and who were given honorable mention, and one of these was Miss Lois Stiles, of Prestonsburg, who feels mighty proud of this. Of the essays sent in from Floyd county the state judges gave Lois Stiles senior, Prestonsburg, first; Harold Shumberger, senior, McDowell, second; and Sara B. Campbell, junior, McDowell, third.

BACK LASHES

Merle Wilson, Prestonsburg, received his notice of the time of the Executive Committee meeting held in Frankfort during October. The time was two hours earlier than the dinner hour. Merle must have been hungry and only saw the time mentioned to eat and was on time for the dinner at least.

This magazine is printed quarterly, and is only 25c per year. Mail your subscription to our club secretary, Russell Hagewood, Prestonsburg, and get this interesting sporting magazine.

HOLBROOK IS CADET IN FLIGHT SCHOOL

Among the 243 Kentucky, Ohio, West Virginia and Indiana youths who recently were awarded army flying cadet scholarships was Woodrow Holbrook, Prestonsburg. He and other cadets from Kentucky, Indiana and West Virginia will start their flight training at the flight school at 13 at Parks Air College, East St. Louis, Illinois. While in training they will receive $75 a month, plus living expenses and clothing. Upon graduation they will be commissioned second lieutenants and paid a monthly salary of $20.

NEW AMBULANCE IN SERVICE

The Arnold Funeral Home recently put into service its new Cadillac ambulance. The ambulance is fully equipped for the administering of first aid while the sick or injured are being moved.

Wherever it exists and for whatever purpose it is permitted to continue, it is unjust, unfair and entirely contrary to the spirit and the letter of our constitution.

Further to bear out with facts and figures the existence of this condition, consider, if you please, some of the Senatorial districts of the state and their comparative 1930 populations:

The Second Senatorial district consists of Ballard and Carlisle counties. The combined population is 11,773.

The Sixth District is Christian and Hopkins counties, total population 7,173. Each citizen here has less than one-fourth of the vote in the state Senate than a citizen of the first possessors.

When we come to the Thirteenth Senatorial district, composed of Floyd, Knox and Pike counties, the district's population is 136,439. Each citizen here has one-seventh as much representation as the citizen of the second.

The Thirty-third district, Clay, Harlan, Letcher and Perry, has a population of 169,791 and each voter has one-ninth as much representation as a citizen of Ballard and Carlisle.

Then there is our own district of Boyd, Johnson, Lawrence and Martin with 92,114 people.

There are various grades of inequality in between. This is probably even greater if the 1940 census figures are used, although there have been few considerable changes.

We insist that the way to get this viciously unfair situation remedied is for every county which is heavily on the short end in representation to pledge every candidate who offers himself for the General Assembly that he will fight against it. And then to vote only for men whom they feel sure will keep their promises.—Ashland Daily Independent.

WHAT'S THE REMEDY?

WITH apparent assurance, the director of the British aviation industry declares that England has devised a remedy for night bombing which will make night raiding as hazardous as daytime operations. It will, he says, be in use before long.

The nature of the remedy, of course, can only be guessed at. But it seems reasonable to suppose that the British aviation expert is speaking of some means to enable fighter planes to operate efficiently at night. If such a means is found, it would indeed make night bombing raids almost "harmless" as those undertaken by day. The difference in operation of fighter planes is now largely the only difference in the effectiveness of air defenses by day and night.

The problem of increasing the effectiveness of fighter planes in night operation largely revolves around the difficulty of locating enemy bombers aloft. Except for the aid which listening posts on the ground may render by radio, the fighter pilot is in the position of looking for needles in a haystack when he must take off in pursuit of enemy bombers somewhere 30,000 feet above in the night air, except for chance reflections or glints caused by searchlights, his eyes may be as useless as his ears in locating the enemy.

But equipping the night pilot with substitute mechanical "eyes" which will place the needles to be regarded as a scientific impossibility. Perhaps the most promising approach to the problem—and the one which the British may have followed successfully—lies in the field of the infrared ray. In such a photograph which releases the infrared rays below the spectrum of light rays, has been of tremendous value in piercing fog and darkness, and while bombers may fly without light, their exhaust heat would betray them to any apparatus capable of viewing by means of infrared rays. Infrared rays, or photography, of course, is so apparatus as to be useless in this field.

In a night fighter plane operating some five miles above the earth's surface, an ultrasonic metal detector might be a practical means of devising the plot of the whereabouts of enemy craft in the darkness, although the delicacy of such an instrument might be too much for rough-and-tumble combat at 400 miles an hour.

Perhaps inaudible sound waves, which would be reflected back by any other craft in the sky, might be the secret. Bats are believed to guide their flight in the dark by emitting supersonic sound—sound higher than the register of the human ear—and being unable to hear their own reflections from solid objects. In any event, it will require something other than a check-mate the night bomber.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Floyd Man's Mother Dies in Louisville

Mrs. J. P. Constable, 78, mother of Carl Constable, of Brann, succumbed to an illness attributed to advanced age at her home in Louisville January 27. Mrs. Constable was preceded in death by her husband, several years ago.

Her son had a narrow escape from serious injury or probable death when this car skidded on the slippery highway near Shelbyville, Ky., and overturned. It was unoccupied. By coincident, the wreck occurred at the spot where, several years ago, the horse he was riding was struck by a car and killed while he escaped uninjured.

The Federal Power Commission Monday ordered the Inland Gas Corporation to show at a hearing at Ashland February 12 whether it should be classed as a natural gas company and be required to make connection with the Eureka Gas Company in order to serve Olive Hill.

The commission said it was advised Olive Hill residents were suffering a gas shortage and that Inland had refused to connect with and sell gas to the Eureka company.

If it were established the Inland company is a natural gas company within the meaning of the Natural Gas Act, it might be required to furnish the relief sought.

Fish & Game Club Conducts Series of Meetings

The Floyd County Fish and Game Club has, for the last week, been conducting a series of meetings in the county.

Thursday, January 30, there was a meeting in the new Westwright theater, Friday night, in Ashlar at the Moran theater, and Tuesday night in Prestonsburg in the county courtroom, this being the regular monthly meetings of the club. Principal speakers at these meetings have been Judge H. P. Hill, J. Bascom Clarke, George Outley and Charles Horn, club president. E. R. Burke, conservation officer, has been operating the moving picture machine, and the pictures, "Slow Motion Quail" and "Owl Play" have been very interesting.

There was an unusually large crowd at the regular club meeting and the main discussion was on "What Shall We Do About the Gray Fox?" It was established that the gray fox is destroying quail and rabbits in this county. Fox hunters say that the red fox will not stay in a section where gray foxes are plentiful, and that the gray fox is no good to chase. The club has invited the foxhunters to meet with its directors at their next meeting to discuss some plan of ridding the county of some of these gray foxes.

The ceremony was held before an altar which was flanked with seven-branched candelabra holding lighted cathedral candles against a background of ferns and greenery.

The bride and groom left shortly after the ceremony for Virginia Beach, where they will reside for the present.

The bride attended the University of Kentucky and is a member of Kappa Delta sorority. Lieutenant Shields is a graduate of the University of Alabama, and is a member of Chi Phi fraternity.

Out-of-town guests for the wedding were Mrs. Jay Milt Shields, Sr., Miss Jane Shields and Mr. Jack Shields, of Pittsburgh, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. A. J.
